

The Girl CB 331

Chapter 331 What kind of marvelous treatment is this!

She didn't doubt Nikita's medical skills at all.

Nikita cured grandpa!

Nikita took a little leather case from her black backpack and pulled out a needle.

The silver needle is thin and long, and its material seems to be different from ordinary silver products. The needle looked particularly bright.

Nikita pressed Tammy's wrist, put the needle in her palm, silver needle was half-put, Nikita twisted the silver needle and gently turned a few times.

The long needle was pierced half in.

Samuel and Tobin looked at the scene and felt anxious, as if the needle was put into their palms.

They knew according to Felton, Nikita cured old Mr. Lambert with her needle.

Although they have no prejudice against Chinese medicine, they also feel that it is not quite in line with science to cure a vegetative person with only one acupuncture.

So they don't believe Felton's words very much, and think Felton certainly didn't tell them the truth.

At the moment seeing Nikita scene to Tammy needle, the two people widened their eyes and stared at her.

They wanted to see if this so-called acupuncture is really so magical.

Samuel saw Nikita holding the needle and turning around. He felt that his palms hurt. He couldn't help but ask, "Tammy, are you in pain?"

He had been hurt by cactus before.

He felt tingling pain only by the cactus' tip. When such a long needle plunged into the palm, Samuel shrank his neck and felt that it must be particularly painful.

"It doesn't hurt." Tammy was also very nervous at first. Although she believed in Nikita, she was afraid of needles and pain. She also thought that the needles must hurt when they stuck into her palm. But unexpectedly, she didn't feel any pain at all.

It was like the pain of being caught by ants.

It can be completely ignored.

Moreover, she not only didn't feel the pain, Nikita pinched the needle in her palm and turned a few times, but also felt that the exhausted feeling of catching a cold had gone.

Her body has become much more relaxed.

The muscles were not so sore anymore.

There was also a warm sense flowing in her body, and she felt so comfortable.

"It really doesn't hurt?" Samuel was a little skeptical.

"It doesn't hurt at all." Tammy nodded heavily. "And I feel that I seem to be much better at once."

“All right.” After a few seconds, Nikita stripped out the silver needle, wiped it clean with a cleaning cloth, and put it back in her leather case.

She looked at Tammy, whose seemed to recover fully, and explained in a professional tone: “Eat healthily these days, and go to bed early at night.”

“Also, drink much more hot water.”

Samuel and others:

Tammy: “...”

It seems that the hot water is really omnipotent.

“Miss Nikita, you are really amazing.” Tammy looked at Nikita with admiration and said excitedly, “I feel that my cold seems to be completely cured at once.”

“Your silver needle is amazing. It works better than taking medicine.”

Every time she catches a cold, even if she takes medicine and injections every day, the recovery period is at least half a month.

Originally, this time she was ready for being sick for half a month, but unexpectedly, Nikita just gave her a needle treatment, and her cold was over.

What kind of marvelous medicine is this!

Samuel and Tobin saw that Tammy's face looked really better. They heard her say that she was all right. They were surprised: "Is it really that magical?"

Have you really recovered from your cold?"

Chapter 332 I really want to be treated by Nikita!

They also knew that Tammy would be sick for half a month after catching a cold.

"Yeah!

My cold is really gone "Tammy said with special excitement." I just felt dizzy and cold. Miss Nikita gave me a needle. I am not dizzy at all now, and my body is not cold."

"And I feel better than before I got sick!"

"Oh, my God!" Samuel star eye to Nikita, worshiping her.

His goddess is awesome!

"Nikita, can you give me a needle treatment?" Samuel blushed. Although he feels embarrassed, he had been suffering from headaches for a long time. It didn't work to see many doctors. He had given up treatment.

But now, he also wants to have an acupuncture treatment by Nikita!

If Nikita can really cure his headache, he would do nearly anything for her!

"I, I can't afford to pay as much as 100 million dollars.

But I'll give you all my pocket money. "The handsome boy pulled out a card from his bag and handed it to her." There are more than two million in it. I know it is little, but no matter what you ask me to do in the future, I will do it for you.

Is it a deal?

There were several onlookers next to the students who thought that Samuel is crazy.

He handed his million-dollars pocket money to Nikita just wanting her to give him a needle treatment. And Tammy just said she recovered just because of getting an acupuncture treatment.

Was it really that magical?

It sounded like they were cooperating with her.

Even if Nikita really could handle the treatments, it is impossible to give people a needle casually and cure the disease immediately.

If she was that good, she would be a prestigious doctor.

With this medical skill, she would have been rich long ago. How could she still live in that remote mountain village before?

How can she need her original family's support to study here?

She must be a liar.

Because she's good at deceiving people, that's why a wise person like Una would be tricked to thought she's a good doctor.

Now, she came to trick Tammy again.

“You don’t have to give the medical fee. When it’s my turn to be on duty in the future. You can help me clean it. Nikita was casual. If she’s in a good mood, she won’t take a penny. And she might even give the patient some.

Samuel is good-looking and sweet.

People with good appearances have certain privileges from her view.

*Sure, sure, I’ll help you clean up!

When can you treat me, now? “Samuel didn’t expect her offer to be so simple, and instantly felt as if he had earned 100 million dollars.

He hurriedly agreed, and then immediately stretched his hand: “Do you want to take the pulse or something?”

Nikita glanced at him, faintly said: “No need.

Your problem is a headache, isn’t it?”

“Damn!” Samuel widened his eyes and was stunned. “How do you know?”

He didn’t think he told her.

“Of course it can be seen.” Nikita patiently explained, seeing him being astonished “Seeing, hearing, asking, and feeling are the most basic four diagnostic principles of Chinese medicine.

Looking is to observe the changes in human bodies through the characteristics of the shape, color and spirit.”

“You just have a simple headache, and you don’t need other steps to diagnose it.”

When the girl talks about Chinese medicine, her confidence inside out is particularly attractive, and her eyes are dazzling.

Samuel looked a little dazed.

Chapter 333 My sister seems to be causing trouble again.

“Come over.” Nikita held eight needles and gave him a wink.

Samuel recovered. When he saw eight silver needles in her hand that were much longer than the needles just used for Tammy, his face turned pale with fear. “Why there are eight? Wasn’t it just one?”

Nikita raised her eyebrow: “It’s a different disease, of course, I will treat you differently.

You have had headaches for so many years. Can it be the same as a cold?”

Samuel widened his eyes again: “You, can you still see that I have had headaches for many years?”

“Hmm.”

“Nikita, are you the God?” Samuel admired Nikita to the extreme.

Now, he didn’t doubt Nikita at all.

Nikita raised her eyebrows again: “It’s just basic skills.

Do you want a needle treatment or not? Hurry up, don't dawdle like a pussy.

Thinking of the headache that had tossed him for many years, and thinking of countless nights that he had been too painful to sleep, Samuel gritted his teeth, closed his eyes, and stretched his head out:
"Please!"

His voice just fell.

Eight needles in Nikita's hand plunged into his temples on both sides.

Looking at a few long needles stuck into Samuel's head, there was a sound of inhaling around, and they were all talking about it one after another.

"Won't such a long needle stick into the head make him stupid?"

"Samuel really dared to let her do this to him."

"Do you want to call the police?"

"I feel like something will happen."

Tobin was sweating all over, and felt that Samuel was daring.

The brain is different from other parts of the body, and it is easy to cause serious consequences if Nikita fails to do one move right.

Tammy was treated in the arm. What's the matter? It's not a big problem.

But Samuel...

Soon, the news that Nikita gave Samuel a needle treatment on his head, had spread to Yvonne.

Yvonne's two best friends also heard about it and came to find her.

"Yvonne, did you hear that the hillbilly treat Samuel's head with needles?"

Is she crazy?

"Someone sent me a picture just now. OMG, do you know how long the needle is?"

"Some people in their class F said they're considering whether to call the police because they were afraid that something terrible might happen.

I also think we should call the police. In case something happens to Samuel, what should we do if she runs away?"

Yvonne sat in her seat, reading an English book, looking clever and quiet.

When she heard this, she looked up. She gave a little embarrassed expression on her fair and delicate face and said: "Well, I just saw someone in the class saying this, which is really ridiculous.

My parents have been supporting her for so many years, and we know her very well. She doesn't know any medical treatments."

"She doesn't know anything while putting needles in other's head?"

Isn't that doing harm to others?

"Yes, I'm also worried about Samuel.

However, after all, she is my sister. If I call the police...I can't call the police."

She can't go.

But others can go.

Two girlfriends naturally understood her meaning.

"Then let's call the police!" The two girls said, taking out their mobile phones and dialed a number.

It's the telephone number of the nearby police station around No.1 Middle School.

Yvonne gently bit her lip and watched them dial the phone out, without stopping them or making any noise.

She just took out her mobile phone and sent a WhatsApp message to Margot and Nathan respectively:
Brother (Mom), my sister seems to have caused trouble again. Someone called the police to arrest her. I am so scared. What should I do?

"Damn it, is Samuel really getting sick because of her?"

"Nikita treated Samuel badly, everyone quickly blocked the door, don't let her escape!"

In Class F, it's noisy at this time.

There was a lot of noise.

Chapter 334 Difference of Sleeping in Two Different Places

The panicking onlookers looked at Samuel on the table motionlessly

Someone around called him a few times.

Samuel was like completely deaf, still motionlessly lying.

But just ten minutes ago, Samuel was fine.

Nikita gave him a needle treatment. And then he suddenly said: "I'm so sleepy", and then fell asleep on the table.

Even Tobin frowned.

He pushed Samuel several times, and called him a few times, but Samuel didn't wake up at all.

He's still breathing.

But it's like a coma.

Tobin's face was a little pale. At this moment, like others, he was worried about Samuel.

"Nikita, what happened to Samuel?"

He really fell asleep? "Felton looked quite calm, he looked at Samuel, asked out of curiosity. He didn't worry about Nikita's medical skills.

Nikita cured his grandfather.

He heard that Nikita also cured the young master who broke his leg of the Garrett family.

She can cure vegetative and broken-leg people. It's easy for her to treat someone with a little headache. She won't be causing any troubles.

Tammy didn't leave.

She also curiously looked at Nikita.

She also didn't believe that Nikita will ruin Samuel.

But Samuel seemed to sleep too heavily. Tobin called him and pushed him like that, but he didn't wake up. Was it really normal?

Nikita heard the noise.

She also saw someone walk to the door and block it.

She took back her sight faintly, took out the English novel she had read before, supported her chin with one hand, and opened the page with the other: "Well, he didn't sleep well because of the headache, so I adjusted his sleeping time and wanted to let him have a good sleep."

Felton nodded: "When will he wake up?"

"In about four or five hours." Nikita's eyes fell on the pages of the book, and he looked at the book carefully. No matter what people around her said, she still looked calm. "It's useless for you to call him now. He sleeps soundly and can't hear anything."

“Just let him sleep. When the time comes, he will wake up.”

Hearing what she said, Tobin was relieved.

Since Nikita said Samuel would wake up in four or five hours, they'll just wait.

“But...” Tammy also heard the gossip around, she frowned and murmured, “Nikita sister, they don't believe you, and said you put Samuel into problems.”

They called the police and let them arrest you.

“If the police really come later, what should you do?”

After all, it will take Samuel four hours to wake up.

Nikita looked up at her, and there was no worry and fear in her eyes: “I will do whatever I need to do.”

“Well, if the police want to bring you back to the police station...” Tammy was still a little worried,

She's never been to the police station.

She always thinks a place like the police station is a little scary.

“Then I will go with them to cooperate with their work.” Nikita looked down, and turned a page. She seemed like she didn't care, “Anyway, it is the difference between sleeping in two different places.

Moreover, the environment at the police station is good and quiet, so I don't have to worry about being woken up when I fall asleep.”

Tammy: “...”

Go to the police station to sleep?

How could she say something like that?

Felton smiled, he raised his eyebrows: "Why you sound experienced?"

Don't worry, I'm here, and no one can take you away.'

Chapter 335 Not bad; keep working.

Nikita chuckled because of his master-like tone: "Come on, I don't need anyone to protect me.

Just mind your own business.

Felton felt himself being rebuffed in an embarrassing way.

He offered to protect someone for the first time.

She didn't appreciate it at all and said she didn't need his help.

She is quite proud...

But in this city, no matter how excellent the personal ability is, if one's family background is not strong enough, then the person can't solve something on one's own.

Just like Nikita.

No matter how good her medical skills are or how good she's good at fighting, after a while when the policeman come, they will take her away.

Things would be different if he said he's the young master in the Lambert family.

At least, when they arrest her, they would consider twice.

But Felton didn't say anything.

She regards herself high and wouldn't accept other's help. He would call Vernon like last time and let him deal with this.

She is unwilling to accept help someone directly offers.

So he would help her privately.

She cured Grandpa and she was his desk mate.

He can't sit by.

Felton also calmly took out his mobile phone. He opened the game and thought that Nikita also wanted to play the game. He turned his head and asked her: "Do you want to play games together?"

Nikita looked up at him..

Felton shook his mobile phone. He raised his chin, looking confident: "You can choose a character whatever you like. I can carry you."

He paused and smile, feeling good: "I ranked high playing Fiora. You can choose a character that is easy to play. And I will carry you to win."

Playing games well is a bonus in girls' eyes.

Epecially playing a difficult and handsome character well.

Felton guess girls like Nikita would only play AP or SUP positions.

She is indeed very skilled in medicine.

But playing games, he is definitely better than her.

In this respect, Felton was still very confident.

“You are good at playing Fiora?” Nikita seemed to be interested and smiled. “What’s your rank?”

“Number two nationally.” Felton was a little proud. After that, he waited for the girl beside him to praise.

Ranking second nationally...

It’s already quite good.

“Oh, number two.” Nikita nodded, and objectively commented, “Not bad, keep working.”

It turned out that the ID named “Master Lee” belonged to him.

Shortly after each season’s update, she can see this ID number behind her.

Unexpectedly, it’s Felton.

The world is really quite small.

“I want to read. I don’t have time today. Let’s play when I’m available.” Nikita looked down and kept reading. When she spoke, she turned another page.

Tobin watched her turning the pages fast, and looked at the pages full of dense English, and raised his eyebrows skeptically.

Can she really understand this book?

It’s not that he despises Nikita.

He just thinks that they can’t have such a schoolmaster in Class F.

Even the top students in Class A may not be able to understand such a thick English novel.

He thought Nikita is someone like them. She pretended to be studying. She looked good appearing in that way. That’s all.

Felton here thought Nikita at least also would praise him a “good” or something, but he did not expect to get a “not bad, keep working.”

Chapter 336 Wait to be in jail!

Did she mean that it’s better for him to rank first by saying “keep working”?

Of course, he also thought about ranking first nationally.

But the guy in front of him is so sick.

The guy got more than 3,000 points beyond him.

What makes Felton felt bad most is that he also has several characters who have ranked the second place nationally.

The reason why he didn't hit the first place is because of the same person.

The pervert named "Daddyranksfirst".

"Then let's add WhatsApp?" Felton shook his mobile phone again, and his beautiful eyes flashed something. When he saw Nikita looking at him, he covered his mouth and coughed lightly. "This is convenient to play games together."

"Or are you playing on another site?"

Then let's add..."

A "Pop" sound.

Nikita threw her mobile phone on the table, and the screen was on, showing her QR code.

"Add it yourself."

Felton was stunned. He didn't expect it to be so easy.

He also thought that such a cool girl like Nikita, would not give her personal information so easily.

Stunned for a few seconds, he immediately turned on WhatsApp and scanned the QR code.

Seeing it, Tobin also took out his mobile phone: "Nikita, I also add you?"

I play well in Top and ADC positions. We can play together next time."

“Sure.” Nikita faintly said.

She usually plays games alone.

It seems good to have several teammates playing together.

“I want to add as well, I also play this game!” Tammy won’t waste such a good opportunity. She took out her phone. “Nikita, could we be friends on WhatsApp?”

She asked if she could, but her hands had scanned the QR code very quickly.

The onlookers saw Nikita chatted with others about games while treating Samuel badly without feeling guilty, they thought she had gone too far.

“Hey, Nikita, do you have emotions?”

You treated Samuel like this. And now you are in the mood of reading and talking about games.

How can you be so cold-blooded!”

“If something really happens to Samuel, you will wait to go to jail!”

‘Yvonne is so generous and kind. How could she have such a cold-blooded sister?’”

“She is just the adopted daughter of the Swift family, and she is not related to the Swift family.

It is said that unruly people come from the badlands, which is true.

We shouldn't let such person study in our No.1 Middle School!"

A group of girls who had great problems on Nikita attacked her.

They don't care very much about whether Yvonne or Nikita will be the most beautiful girl in the school.

It's not their turn anyway.

However, Felton and Samuel are recognized as most popular boys on campus. Many girls love them.

As soon as this Nikita came, she sat beside Felton.

And there were gossip of her and Felton,

Samuel seems to be interested in her.

The two popular boys are nice to her, which made them jealous.

"What are you saying? Miss Nikita has already said that Samuel is sleeping and will wake up in a few hours!" Tammy couldn't stand to listen to others talking bad about someone she likes, so she turned around and stared at the girls who were talking.

"Ha-ha, was it really like what she said?"

If Samuel is asleep, how come he couldn't get up?"

"I just in believe her!"

Miss Nikita cures my grandpa, and she cures my cold!”

Chapter 337 Now then, will you take it?

Few people in the school knew that Tammy is from the Lambert family.

Hearing that, the girls sneered and mocked her: “She cures your grandfather?”

She just luckily cured him.

Your grandfather was lucky that nothing happened.

When people are old, their minds become unclear, so it’s normal to believe in Chinese medicine swindlers.”

“You believe in these liars, too?

Tammy, you are not stupid because of learning every day.”

“You...” Tammy was so angry that her face turned pale.

Felton frowned and looked up.

When he was about to say something, the girl next to him said in a crisp and lovely voice: “Chinese medicine practitioners are liars?

Which one of you said this?”

A casual tone, with a bit of coldness.

The moment when the girl started to speak, Felton felt a little cold.

"I did." A girl crossed her arms, with disdain on her face, and sneered coldly. "Am I wrong? The so-called Chinese medicine practitioners are a bunch of liars.

Besides fooling a group of elderly people to buy their health care products, what else will they be?"

"I think Tammy was invited by you." The girl's words are very impolite. "She's a good actress."

"Who are you talking about?"

Say that again! "Tammy was so angry that her face changed, rubbing her fists and was about to punch them. The girl looked at her and frowned. "Tammy, if Samuel really sick, an actress like you can't get away with it." Tammy was so angry that she waved her fists this time that she really wanted to fight.

Nikita pulled her.

She shook her head at Tammy

Although Tammy was angry, she listened to Nikita very much, and her fist was loosened again.

"You said that a Chinese medicine practitioner is a liar, then let's bet, do you dare?" Nikita turned to the girl, smiling, but her eyes were filled with anger.

Chinese medicine practitioners are liars?

It's not the first time she heard that.

She didn't need to pay attention to such remarks.

But her friend was scolded for this matter, so she had to deal with it.

She doesn't care the things happened on herself.

But she can't let people who trust her be wronged because of her.

"Bet?" The girl paused and then laughed, "What do you want to bet on?"

Nikita looked at the people who were looking for fun. Although she didn't speak loudly, everyone in the classroom could hear her very clearly. She smiled and said slowly: "If Samuel wakes up in the afternoon, it proves that my acupuncture is useful, and Chinese medicine is also useful."

"You, who slander Chinese medicine practitioners as liars, have to apologize in public."

"Sure." The girl promised and sneered. "If Samuel wakes up and is still safe and sound, I'll apologize to you."

"Don't apologize to me." Nikita's voice is very light and cold, "I want you to apologize to Chinese medicine practitioners."

I won. I want you to run around the playground three times with a horn, shouting that you are wrong; you are stupid; and you shouldn't slander Chinese medicine practitioners'."

"Now then, do you dare to accept it?"

After hearing her request, the girl frowned.

Running around the playground with a horn and apologize?

Wouldn't the whole school know about it?

When the time comes, she will lose her face.

But soon, she sneered again: "Sure, I accept it.

What if you lose?"

"I can do whatever you want.

Besides, if I lose the bet, I will be punished by the law."

Chapter 338 Dropping out of No.1 Middle School

That means she really gets Samuel into troubles.

She must bear responsibility of criminal offenses.

"Well, you said it." The girl pulled a malicious smile, "If you lose, you will apply for dropping out of No.1 Middle School.

From then on, you are not allowed to step into our school."

"Before leaving, you have to kneel on the ground and kowtow to me to admit your mistake!"

Such a scourge as Nikita is not worthy of staying in their school at all.

And she doesn't deserve Felton's attention.

A hillbilly from the countryside into the city also dares to attract the most popular boy in their school.

Felton is the young master of the top Lambert family!

He is of very high-status.

Why didn't she realize what kind of person she is?

"Sure." Nikita smiled, but her eyes were cold. "If I lose, I kowtowed to you and dropped out of No.1 Middle School."

"Miss Nikita." Tammy called her a little anxiously.

Nikita turned around and smiled at her: "Do you think I will lose?"

Tammy was stunned: "Of course not.

Miss Nikita, how can you lose?"

"Then what are you worried about?" Nikita's voice is very light, the expression on his face is careless, but every word she says is wild and proud. "I won't lose."

If someone else said something like this.

It will definitely make people feel that this person is conceited, and likes to brag. And they will not believe what this person says.

But Nikita said so...

No one thinks she is bragging.

Inexplicably, they will believe her with no doubts.

She has a very special aura, which makes people choose to trust her and follow her unconditionally.

“Is it?” The girl looked at her arrogant appearance and sneered. “Then we’ll see.”

At this moment, a noise suddenly sounded outside the classroom.

“The police are coming, who called the police?”

“Damn, the police really came.

Are they here to take away Nikita?”

“Someone really called the police.”

The noise from outside spread into the classroom.

But the girl raised her eyebrows, and she showed a gloating expression on her face, and looked at Nikita with provocation in her eyes: “It seems that I am not the only one who doesn’t believe in Chinese medicine, and the eyes of the public are sharp.”

Nikita also heard the noise outside.

She was emotionless, glancing at the girl who tried to provoke her anger.

The provocation in the girl’s eyes became increasingly stronger: “I didn’t call the police, but what you did has caused public anger.

Someone loses her guilty conscience just to attract other's attention. She even dares to do harm to her classmates."

Nikita didn't speak, but her dark eyes showed coldness, and looked into the girl's eyes.

The girl was quite arrogant.

But when she looked into the eyes of Nikita, she felt like a pair of matchless hands grabbed her neck. An uncontrollable sense of fear emerged from the bottom of her heart.

She suddenly terrified, trembling, she suddenly lost her voice. Nikita sarcastically smiled, took back her sight with disdain.

This girl turned out to be a coward, wasting her expression.

"Sister Nikita, someone really called the police.

What to do now? "Tammy also heard the noise outside. After knowing that someone had really called the police, she turned around and looked at Nikita worriedly.

The teenage girls are well protected by their families since childhood.

Chapter 339 A leopard can't change its nature.

She had never encountered such a thing.

It's inevitable that she would panic.

Nikita, however, was not in a panic at all. She sat back in her seat, and continued to read the book, and didn't care the noise outside. She was calm and relaxed, as if the noise had nothing to do with her.

It's really like she herself was not anxious while others were worrying about her.

Tobin looked at her calmness and admired her a little.

She is the one who can do great things.

She is full of demeanor!

He heard that Nikita was a bully of her former school before she transferred to this school.

Tobin felt that if Nikita had come to No.1 Middle School a few years earlier...

The heading bully in their school will have nothing to do with Felton.

Soon, the police came up.

There are more students who wanted to join the fun around the corridor, and many students from other classes on the third floor, and other classes on the second floor and even some on the first floor had come up.

They heard that Nikita, a transfer student from Class F, stabbed Samuel, who was the apple in his prestigious family.

The police are coming to arrest her.

In the corridor on the second floor.

Yvonne and her two girlfriends watched a group of policemen going up to the third floor.

“Yvonne, let’s go up and have a look.

I am in a particularly good mood at the thought that the hillbilly will soon be taken away.”

“Ha-ha, she just transferred to our school, and now she’s been the police station twice?

No.1 Middle School shouldn’t accept this kind of hillbilly casually. It’s really an excrement that spoils a pot of porridge, because of her our school’s reputation is affected.”

Yvonne didn’t speak, watching several policemen disappear in the stairwell, then she took back her sight, bit her lips, and sighed gently: “To say so, our family is also responsible.

My parents think she is an orphan, which is very pitiful. Although they have heard that she has a bad reputation, they think that she should not be bad in nature.

When she comes to our house, we can correct her bad habits slowly.”

“I don’t know...” She looked very heartbroken. “If we had known, we shouldn’t have brought her to the city.”

“You can’t be blamed for this.” Two girlfriends frowned, with disgust in their eyes. “Uncle and aunt are also kind-hearted.

But some people are bad at the guts, and they can’t be taught.”

“Yeah!

10:16

A leopard can’t change its nature, and a dog can’t change the behavior of eating shit!”

Yvonne sighed faintly again, and her tone was somewhat regretful: "This time, she really went too far.

If something happens to Samuel, I'm afraid our family can't keep her.

Forget it, let's go up and have a look first.

She felt pity on the surface.

But she's very happy in the heart.

She even wished Samuel had an accident, and had better never wake up again.

Or paralyzed.

At that time, Nikita must go to jail.

Samuel's family is also influential in the city.

If something really happened to Samuel, his family must send Nikita to jail.

At that time, Felton can no longer help her!

Samuel is a good brother of Felton!

Thinking of this, Yvonne's eyes flashed a trace of gloated.

Not far behind several people....

Lanny listened to their conversation.

The boy bit his lips. On the fair and handsome face there was a sense of worrying. After thinking about it, he turned and walked towards the other side of the stairs.

His pace was fast and urgent.

“Who is Nikita, stand up.”

A group of uniformed policemen entered the classroom of Class F with serious looks.

In the corridor and classroom, countless pairs of eyes all looked at the last row of the classroom at the same time.

Chapter 340 She is pretending to be innocent now.

The girl holding the book quietly raised her eyelids, looked at the door, put down the book and stood up slowly.

The leader police officer looks familiar.

Nikita recognized him. She smiled with great interest.

Hearing a girl’s voice, the policemen followed the gaze of others and looked at the back door of the classroom.

When the leader officer saw the girl, he was stunned at first, and then the expression on his face was a bit complicated.

The young police officer stared at her for a few seconds. He was a little speechless: "Why are you again?" Apparently, the young police officer also recognized her.

Nikita has been to the police station once before.

It was this police officer who take dictations.

People around looked at Nikita with disdain.

She has transferred to this school for a few days, and even the police know her.

She made the school humiliated.

"Well, it's me." Nikita saw the police with calm appearance, and the tone was also light. "Someone called the police said that I stabbed my classmates. Are you here to take me back to the police station to make a record and survey the situation?"

The younger police officer: ".."

She robbed him of all his lines.

"Yes, it is."

When the young police officer answered the call and knew that the offender was a student of First Senior High School, Nikita, he was wondering if she would be the little girl who had been to their police station before.

He is very impressed on Nikita.

On the one hand, her appearance is too outstanding. As long as you see her for once, you won't forget her.

On the other hand, this little girl seems to have a deep relationship with the current rulers of the Lambert family.

At the beginning, it was the son of the Lambert family who came to the police station to take her out.

The director personally came to release her.

Now, when they look at her, she is really the little girl who stayed in their police station before, and the young police officer has a headache.

He didn't dare to arrest people who had an unusual relationship with the ruler of the Lambert Group.

But someone called the police.

They can't just go back.

"Miss Swift, someone called the police and said that you were suspected of hurting other people's lives."

"What is going on? "The small police officer went through the process of cross-examination, but the tone was very polite." You don't have to be afraid, just say the truth."

Afraid?

Nikita hooked her lip funnily.

“Hurt other people’s lives?”

“I didn’t hurt anyone.”

“It’s just that someone has a headache. I know acupuncture, so I just gave him some needles.”

“How can it be hurting other people’s lives?”

“So, someone reported a false alarm?”

“It can’t be a false alarm.” Nikita’s voice was faint, “Maybe misunderstanding.”

“You lie!”

The girl who made a bet with her before stood up, reached out and pointed at her, and snapped, “You obviously don’t know acupuncture, but pretend that you can do that, so you want to attract attention.”

“In order to gain attention, you use your classmates as a tool to attract people’s attention.” “You gave Samuel a needle, and he suddenly fainted.”

“He hasn’t woken up yet.

“How dare you say this is a misunderstanding!”

“Everyone who was here was a witness, and we could see exactly what you did.”

“You can’t deny it!

“That is, you can’t deny it!”

“We all saw it!

” Several girls stood up again: “Police officer, we can all testify that Nikita stabbed Samuel’s head with a needle and hurt him.”

“You should take her back to the police station and interrogate her. She is pretending to be innocent now!”
