

The Girl CB 491

Chapter 491 Because it met Nikita.

The only difference is that Nikita can treat her at a faster speed.

Miss Morris is quite happy, "Good, good, I will go to the hospital for examination when I finish my medicine for this course of treatment. If the results of the check show I am cured, can I be the same as an ordinary person? I won't suffer this illness again, right?"

"Rest well, eat well, don't put too much pressure on yourself, don't let yourself be too tired, then it won't relapse." Nikita looked calm and said, "Diseases will break out because of the long-term backlog of fatigue and pressure, coupled with the inattention in diet."

Miss Morris, like a student obediently listening to the teacher's instructions, kept nodding and said, "OK, I see. I will definitely pay attention."

If anyone sees this scene, they will wonder who is the teacher and who is the student.

"What about me?" Una's cancer is in the middle and late stage, which is not so easy to cure. Although Nikita said that she can be cured, she is still very worried. Una asked anxiously, "When can my illness be cured?"

"Nikita, as you said, my illness can also be cured. Right?"

"Miss Una, I said I could cure you, I will keep my promise. But your illness is different from that of Miss Morris. The treatment process will be longer, so you have to be patient. You can't solve a big problem in a hurry, and Rome was not built in one day."

"Don't leave immediately at noon, I'll give you the acupuncture. After taking the medicine for a month, you should also go to the hospital for examination. For the following three months, go to the hospital every month to check.”

Nikita said like this, after a while, she remembered something, and looked at Una’s flat. lower abdomen. After a pause for a few seconds, she continued: “The fetus will be stable after three months, so you must check it every month for the first three months.”

“After three months, you won’t have to go to check again.”

“The fetus?” Miss Morris was stunned, after reacting, she also looked at Una’s lower abdomen along Nikita’s sights, “Miss Una, you are pregnant? Congratulations.”

Una has been preparing for pregnancy.

Many people in the school know about this.

She has prepared for a long time, and she finally becomes pregnant, which should have been a happy thing, but...

Thinking of her illness, Miss Morris turned to ask Nikita: “Nikita, will it affect the baby in her belly during the treatment of Una?”

Nikita stopped looking at Una’s abdomen: “No.”

Miss Morris: “That’s great.”

Miss Morris didn’t expect Una to be pregnant. The child she had been looking forward to for a long time came at this moment unexpectedly. Actually, this child came at a very bad time. It didn’t come earlier or later, it came when Una got cancer.

However, this child is also lucky.

Because it met Nikita.

When patients have cancer in middle or advance periods, the hospital will ask them to abort usually.

Because the radiotherapy and chemotherapy later will have a great impact on children. Even if patients are unwilling to abort, the children in their belly won't be safe.

Moreover, forced miscarriage protection will only make the illness more serious.

If it weren't for Nikita, Una's child would definitely suffer abortion.

However, Miss Morris saw that Una was not quite happy.

When she was talking about the child in her belly, she was not happy at all.

Is it because of illness? Yeah.

With this disease, even if she can give birth to the child, it must be much harder than normal pregnant women.

Chapter 492 This is simply... unbelievable.

"Teacher Turner, Miss Morris, if there is nothing else, I will go back to the classroom first." Nikita had said what she needed to say. She turned around and left the office.

After Nikita left, Miss Morris immediately stepped forward to help Una.

"Teacher Turner, sit down and settle yourself. Don't stand all the time. Why didn't. me that you were pregnant? I even asked you to help me hold some books yesterday. Fortunately, nothing went wrong. Otherwise, how will I..."

“I’m not that delicate, okay?” Una smiled faintly. Seeing that Miss Morris really cared about her, she couldn’t describe her feelings in her heart. She sighed gently, reached out and grabbed one of Miss Morris’s hands and said with emotions.

“Thinking of the fact that I used to quarrel with you for a man, I really don’t understand why I would do that.”

“Miss Morris, I’m really sorry about my inappropriate behavior before. I will never quarrel with you again. We can... become good friends, can’t we?”

“Of course.” Miss Morris smiled. “I never wanted to be your enemy.”

Miss Morris’s generosity made Una feel ashamed.

“Thank you, Miss Morris.” Una sipped her lips and held Miss Morris’s hand tightly. “Thank you for forgiving me and giving me a chance.”

“All right. Enough for this emotional talk.” Miss Morris picked up the test papers on the table and changed the subject. “Let’s correct the test papers first.”

They only checked some multiple-choice questions and fill-in-the-blanks questions before. And they did not finish marking the whole test paper.

Therefore, they can’t be completely certain about Nikita’s capability.

Una nodded: “OK, then I’ll take my test papers back and have a look. When the scores come out, we can talk about it.”

Miss Morris also nodded. She sat down, took out her glasses and put them on, picked up the test paper and said with a very serious look: “OK.”

Both of them were eager to know Nikita's score. So when they marked the papers, their speed were much faster than usual.

Twenty minutes later, both of them finished marking the papers.

When they looked up, they both saw an incredible consternation in each other's eyes.

Miss Morris sipped her lips: "I have two test papers here, both of which are perfect marks."

This is simply unbelievable.

Una put down the test papers in her hand: "I have two test papers in my hand, which are also perfect marks."

Both of the two people were silent for a few seconds.

"Are the questions on these papers too simple?" After a while, Miss Morris hesitated and suggested: "How about we ask some other students to try this test paper and see their results?"

In fact, how can they not know whether this test is simple or not as the teachers?

But Nikita's score was just so good that they even began to doubt whether the questions were too simple.

She got perfect score on all the four test papers.

And she is actually a poor student who has scored zero in Greek several times.

This is simply... unbelievable.

Just now, Nikita finished all the test papers under their supervision.

So it's impossible for her to cheat or something like that.

After hearing this suggestion, Una hesitated for a while and nodded. "OK, then I will take two more test papers and ask Lanny and Yvonne in my class to try it. Then we can know better about the difficulty of the test papers."

Lanny and Yvonne are both good at Greek.

One took the third place in the last Greek League, and the other took the fifth place.

If they asked the two of them to do these papers again, and they could measure the true difficulty of these papers.

And they can also be sure about how good Nikita's Greek is.

Nikita returned to the classroom.

Samuel and others have already come. When they saw her, they greeted her warmly: "Niky, here you are."

Chapter 493 The Swift Group was aimed at.

Samuel took out a cup of bubble tea and put it on her seat: "My cousin went to buy bubble tea again today. So I asked her to bring another cup by the way."

Nikita leisurely walked to her seat, sat down, took a look at the bubble tea on the table. and picked up a smile: "Your cousin seems to like bubble tea very much."

"Er..." Samuel felt his face was about to burn up.

Nikita smiled again: "Thank your cousin for me. The bubble tea tastes great."

Samuel suddenly cheered up again: "Since Niky likes it, I will ask my cousin to buy it for you every day!"

Tobin looked at Samuel with disdain and didn't sell him out, although he knew about the truth.

Clearly, it was him who went to wait in line to buy it early in the morning.

But every time he claimed that it was his cousin.

Isn't he just afraid that Nikita would refuse to accept it if he admitted he was the one who bought it for her?

So humble!

However, Samuel's love is destined to get no response, although this is his first time to have feelings for the opposite sex.

It's impossible for Nikita to fall for him before.

Now that there is such a powerful and excellent suitor as the eldest brother of the Lambert family, Nikita is even more unlikely to have eyes for this group of people in the school.

What does Samuel have to compete with him?

The gap between them can never be crossed.

In their eyes, the eldest brother of the Lambert family has always been a legendary figure.

Who always gets compliment growing up.

While they are just a group of loses who can only survive with the help of their wealthy families!

Nikita has already been able to make money through her own medical skills. While they can only ask for pocket money from their families. If he were Nikita and wanted to start a relationship, he would choose the eldest brother of the Lambert family.

However, it doesn't affect anything that Nikita doesn't have feelings for Samuel.

Tobin took a look at the empty seat beside Nikita with some worries.

Felton hasn't come yet.

Recently, at this time of day, he has been sitting in the classroom.

Thinking of Felton's sullen face after Sheehan showing up last night, Tobin frowned. He took out his phone and sent a message to Felton.

Yvonne buried her head down and walked into the classroom without saying a word.

During the morning reading lesson, the students in Class A didn't read books carefully as usual. Instead, they were all gossiping about the affairs of the Swift family in small groups.

"Have you heard that the stock price of the company which is run by Yvonne's family has plummeted. My dad and his friends are all saying that the Swift Group may go bankrupt."

"Bankrupt? Is it really that bad? If the Swift Group does go bankrupt, wouldn't Yvonne be very pitiful in the future? I saw a company go bankrupt before. Even the villa which the president of that company lived in was taken by the bank to pay off debts. There was no place for his family to live."

"I've been keeping an eye on Facebook yesterday. Many people in the comment area were analyzing that the Swift Group was being aimed at."

“Being aimed at? What do you mean?”

“Someone was deliberately trying to bring down the Swift Group. And the sudden drop of the stock price was artificial.”

“No way! Did the Swift family offend any big shots? This kind of punishment is so cruel.”

A group of people were gossiping. When they saw Yvonne enter the classroom, they stopped the discussion one after another.

Some people looked at her, gloating. While others looked at her sympathetically.

Most of those sympathetic eyes came from boys.

Yvonne is the campus belle who is very versatile. And there are many boys who secretly have crushes on her.

After hearing about what happened to the Swift family at the moment, they all felt that she was very pitiful.

Especially when they noticed that Yvonne looked very haggard overnight, they couldn't help feeling more distressed for her.

A boy who had been secretly loving her came forward and comforted her: “Yvonne, you... You don't have to worry too much. Even if the stock price fell, it will rise back soon. Don't listen to their nonsense. To the hell with going bankrupt! It's not that easy to go bankrupt

Chapter 494 I'm looking forward to seeing how many scores she can get.

“Indeed, Yvonne. You must not be affected by other people's words. The college entrance examination is coming soon. You should focus on the grades. When you get a good result. that everyone envies, those people who gloat will naturally shut up.”

Another secret admirer also came forward to comfort her.

Yvonne looked up. Her face was pale, and her eyes were red. She bit her lip and whispered: "Thank you."

Her delicate and pitiful appearance made all the boys have a desire for protecting her.

"The campus belle? Seriously?" There was an ironic laughter sounding next to them. "Today's campus belle selection has already started. The voting channel has just been opened for an hour. And someone had already lost more than 1,000 votes. I am afraid that she can only sit on the throne of the campus belle for one more day at most."

"Really? Wasn't she still the most popular one yesterday? Didn't her popularity exceed the popularity of that Nikita in Class F by more than 100,000?"

"Yes. But it was just a warm-up activity yesterday. The voting officially started from today. Anyway, the one in Class F has more than 1,000 votes than her indeed. However, it is not surprising that the clothes with the most 'liked' on Amazon may not sell well. Popularity and voting are two different things."

"It also makes sense."

"I almost forgot about this voting thing. I will vote for Nikita now."

"I'll also vote for Nikita. Since she is my idol's idol, supporting her is actually supporting my idol!"

Yvonne bit her lips tightly with her face turning paler and paler. And a layer of water mist quickly appeared in her eyes.

Seeing her like this, a few boys around her who was just comforting her felt more distressed for her.

“Just ignore them. That vote for campus belle is actually not that important at all. Even if she wins, it’s just a title for the campus belle. It’s not something that she can really rely on.”

“Yes, indeed. The college entrance examination result is the most important. Even if she wins the title of the campus belle, who will really take her seriously since she can’t even go to college?”

“No matter how beautiful she is, with no wisdom, she is just a useless eye candy.”

I'm looking forward to seeing how many scores she to

A few boys kept comforting her one after another.

In addition to please Yvonne, they also really look down on Nikita.

Class A is the best class, which is full of top students. The students in this class have their own pride. Except those in the same class, they always feel people in other classes are inferior to them.

Besides, Nikita is still a student in Class F, which was the worst.

Although they also feel that Nikita is very beautiful, they don’t like her no matter how beautiful she is.

Compared with her, Yvonne, who is both talented and beautiful and have a gentle character, is the goddess in their hearts.

“I heard that Nikita also signed up for the Greek competition.” A boy sneered and said: “There is a Greek test this morning. And the test results will come out soon. I’m really looking forward to her scores.”

“Scores?” Another boy also sneered and ridiculed: “I’m afraid you think too highly of her. She is a ‘genius’ who got zero point in all the tests. How many scores can she get? She will naturally remain the same level as before.”

“She is just an idiot with zero test scores and has nothing to show off except for her good look! If this kind of person can be chosen as the campus belle and represent the image of our First Senior High School, wouldn’t our school become a joke for people in other schools to laugh at?”

In order to please Yvonne, several boys tried their best to humiliate Nikita.

And their words couldn’t get more harsh.

“Hey! Who were you referring to when you said idiot?” Hearing their words, Tammy got so angry that she patted on the table hard, stood up, pointed to several boys who pleased Yvonne and scolded.

Chapter 495 It can’t change the fact that she is an idiot.

“A few boys gather together to speak ill of a girl. Aren’t you just a bunch of gossipy women? When did Niky ever offend you? Why does she deserve to be scolded by you like this?”

“Besides, the test hasn’t started yet. How can you be sure that she will get zero points in the exam?”

“If my Niky passes the test, will you, gossipy women, slap yourselves for a few times?”

Being scolded as a gossipy woman, none of those boys could bear it.

Several boys’ faces suddenly darkened down.

“Tammy, I heard that you run to Class F to please Nikita every day. You really brought shame to our Class A. Why? Did we say anything wrong? Isn’t a person who has scored zero points in a lot of exams just an idiot?”

“You can’t argue about that. If it weren’t for her extremely low IQ, how could she get zero score every time in the exams? If my three-year-old nephew took the exam, he could have done better than her. What’s wrong with calling her an idiot? You can’t even allow us to tell the truth, can you?”

“Nonsense! Niky can write ‘Memory in August’ at the age of 15. What can you all do at the age of 15? How could you criticize her like that? And what qualifications do you have to judge her?” Tammy was so angry that her face turned livid.

“So what if she can write songs? It still can’t change the fact that she is an idiot. As a student, getting zero scores means that she is just stupid. Moreover, except for that song, does she have any other works that can be shown off? No. I don’t think so.”

“Ha-ha... She just happened to write such a song, which got popular due to a popular singer. In fact, the lyrics and melody are both very ordinary. All those compliments are just too exaggerated. She is just a musical genius due to marketing. If Hugh asked me to write a song for him, I can also write one, which is guaranteed to be better than ‘Memory in August’.”

Hearing the continuing sarcasm from several boys one by one, Tammy felt she couldn’t win the quarrel with them alone.

She was so angry and anxious that her eyes were red with anger.

“Have you said enough?” A warm and somewhat cold voice sounded. “The morning reading lesson is not for you to quarrel,”

A few boys were stunned. They turned their heads and saw Lanny’s cold face.

Lanny is the monitor of the class. And there are people from his family working in the Education Bureau. Although the Garrett family is not as prominent as the Lambert family, it can be regarded as a scholarly family.

And Lanny is a real second generation of officials.

He is a person who always remains gentle and easygoing at ordinary times. When he suddenly shows a cold face, people feel quite surprised.

Soon, someone remembered that Lanny used to send Nikita a love letter.

Several boys also thought of it. They couldn't help whispering: "Since your love letter had been rejected by her, why are you still pleasing her like this?"

"Lanny's taste for women is so poor. How could he actually like girls who have no brains?"

Although they couldn't help whispering and judging him, they were still threatened by Lanny's majesty as the monitor. So they went back to their seats while complaining.

Yvonne took a look at Lanny. She bit her lip hard with a gloomy face.

Nikita has refused Lanny several times.

Hasn't he given up yet?

What does Nikita actually have that can make him hang up on her so much?

Is a beautiful face really more important than anything else?

Are all the men so superficial?

Yvonne also sat back on her seat.

She took a few test papers out of the drawer, took a deep breath, abandoned all her messy thoughts and buried herself in those exercises.

Those boys were right.

Chapter 496 These test papers are really difficult.

As the college entrance examination is just around the corner, she can't be affected by anything. She must be admitted to her favorite school with an impressive score, so that all those people who either sympathize with her or gloat over her can know how it feels to be slapped on the face.

Especially under the current circumstances,

The more people gloat over her, look down on her and ridicule her...

The more she wants to pull herself together.

She can't admit defeat. She can become a joke and let people laugh at her.

For a student, academic performance is always the most important thing.

Which has always been where she shines.

As long as she calms down and studies hard, she will surely get impressive results in the college entrance examination this year.

If she can be admitted to Peking university.

Nikita is nothing compared with her.

At that time, Nikita is even not qualified to be carry shoes for her.

The first class is over.

“Yvonne, Lanny, you two come to my office.” Una made the order and left the classroom.

Both Yvonne and Lanny signed up for the Greek competition this year.

Both of them are very likely to win the prize.

Therefore, both of them thought that Una asked them to go to her office to talk about the exam.

Ten minutes later. Two people stood at Una’s desk.

“Teacher Turner, what do you want us to do?” Lanny spoke up in a polite and gentle tone.

“I have two test papers here.” Una took out the test papers that had already been prepared and handed to them. “You two sit here with me and finish them.”

In the past, before the formal exam, Una would also tutor them in this way.

So they were not surprised at all. After taking the test papers, they sat at Una’s desk, picked up a pen and began to answer the questions.

Unlike Nikita, who could finish each multiple-choice questions in one second, Una specially observed that it took at least one minute for Yvonne to finish one multiple-choice question.

All it took a little more time for her to fill in the blanks.

When it came to the next few essay questions, it took more than ten minutes for her to finish one question. The time limit for this test paper is one hour. After the two finished. the test, they were only a few minutes ahead of schedule.

While it only took Nikita less than ten minutes to finish this test. Compared with Nikita’s speed, those two were much slower.

But Lanny and Yvonne's Greek scores are already very good.

Since they even needed such a long time to finish the test, other students must need a longer time. It seems that the questions on this test paper are not simple.

"How difficult do you think the questions on this test paper are?" Una asked two people.

Lanny pushed the frame on the bridge of his nose and answered honestly: "It's a bit difficult."

Yvonne also nodded: "Teacher Turner, I also think it is a bit difficult for me to answer those questions."

"So, you both think this test is actually a little difficult?" Una asked again.

Yvonne and Lanny nodded.

Una went silent for a few seconds.

Therefore, the examination paper is difficult to finish indeed.

But Nikita seemed to have no trouble finishing this test at all, which could do not have any difficulty, can only show that this difficulty in her there, there is no difficulty at all.

Una couldn't help having some complicated feelings in her heart at this moment.

A poor student who always gets zero marks in Greek test is actually a top student who can get the perfect score!

"Well, I see. We two can go back to class. Get well-prepared for the test later."

After getting out of the teacher's office,

Yvonne and Lanny walked out of the teaching building in tandem.

Yvonne went ahead. Lanny walked behind her.

Lanny has a height of more than 1.8 meters and a pair of long legs. So he should walk faster than Yvonne.

Chapter 497 Did you ever like me?

It is impossible for him to lag behind Yvonne.

He slowed down his pace and didn't walk side by side with Yvonne, which only showed that he didn't want to walk with Yvonne.

Yvonne also figured this out.

Her face looked a little gloomy.

Does Lanny avoid her so much because of Nikita?

"Yvonne." As she was annoyed by this thought, a voice sounded behind her. Yvonne was stunned and stopped her steps.

She turned around.

Lanny walked up to her with a pair of long legs.

The boy bowed his head. And his dark eyes were not as warm as usual. They looked a little cold and a little alienated. His voice also sounded cold and indifferent. "I don't know what happened between you and Nikita. But I hope you won't pull strings to aim at her behind everyone's back in the future."

"I'll let you go this time. But if you make a move again, I will expose you."

Yvonne froze. She was stunned and felt inexplicable. "Lanny, what are you talking about? I don't understand."

Lanny's eyes were cold. And his voice sounded calm. "Those rumors about Nikita were spread out on Facebook by you. You want to use those rumors to lead people to hurt her online. You should know how terrible cyber violence is. Why would you want to do this?"

"Is it just because you feel that her appearance has taken something away from you?"

"You... What are you talking about?" Yvonne's face suddenly turned pale. She blinked. And there was panic showing in her eyes. "What rumors? What cyber violence? I don't understand what you mean. What do those rumors about Nikita have to do with me? Everyone in the school knows her history. Why do you think that I was the one who spread those news on Facebook?"

"You think she took something away from me, and I resent her. So I spread all those rumors about her?"

"Lanny, you can't turn the fact upside down and blame me for this just because you like Nikita."

"God has eyes for everyone. And you also know exactly whether you did it or not." Lanny seemed to be sure that she was the one who did this and didn't explain why. He just warned her again, "I'll warn you again. I'll let you go this time. But if you dare to aim at her again, I will expose what you have done."

"Just think about it next time." After saying so, Lanny didn't look at her again and walked directly past her.

Yvonne froze in place with a livid face.

Seeing the alienated figure of her dreamy guy, she remembered some things and suddenly felt very unwilling in her heart.

“Lanny, stop. I have something to ask you!”

The fact that she has been feeling unwilling for many years drove her to seek for an answer that has puzzled her for a long time.

Lanny frowned slightly. But he still stopped.

“What do you want to ask?”

“Lanny, did you ever like me in those days?” Yvonne clenched her fist, took a deep breath and said word by word: “You used to have feelings for me, right? But why did you turn me down when I confessed my feelings for you later?”

“Why exactly did you turn me down?”

Lanny was stunned with his dark eyes wide open. He looked quite surprised.

After a while, he shook his head and denied: “No. I’ve told you the reason for rejecting you at that time.”

Yvonne didn’t believe him. She bit her lip and brought up what happened those years. “If you never had feelings for me, why did you take the initiative to invite me to go to the library with you? And why did you often invite me to eat with you? When I was sick, you also sent me the medicine and cared for me...”

Chapter 498 Is she not willing to come to the hospital to visit me?

“You said you never liked me. Then why did you do these things for me?”

“If it weren’t for believing that you liked me, I wouldn’t have taken the initiative to confess my feelings for you.”

“You are the one who took the initiative to approach me. And you are also the one who suddenly kept your distance from me. I want to know the real reason.”

At that time, many people thought Lanny liked her.

She thought so herself.

So she volunteered to confess her feelings for him.

But unexpectedly, Lanny refused her using an excuse that students should focus on studying.

Later, Lanny gradually alienated from her.

Yvonne has always felt puzzled about this. Lanny clearly appeared to like her very much. But why did he refuse her and then keep his distance with her.

Lanny was silent for a moment. Then he looked up at her. And there were some strange emotions showing in his eyes which were covered by his glasses.

“In those days, I did take the initiative to approach you first. But I had always regarded you as my classmates from beginning to end. There was nothing else.”

“Then why did you take the initiative to approach me?” Yvonne forced him to answer.

Lanny went silent again for a while before speaking up and answering her. “I misunderstood something.”

“Misunderstood?”

“I thought you were the one who I’ve been looking for.”

“What do you mean?” Yvonne’s face darkened down. “Do you mean that the reason why you approached me at those years was because you mistook me for someone else?”

“Yes.”

“Then you began to keep your distance from me because you found out that I was not the one you were looking for?”

“Yes.”

Yvonne was stunned for a long time. She never expected the answer that had been troubling her for such a long time turned out to be like this.

This reason made Yvonne feel unacceptable.

What does this mean? Was she just a substitute?

“What about Nikita?” She asked with a gloomy face. “Did you send her a love letter because she is the person you were looking for?”

Lanny sipped his lips and remained in silence.

He seemed to default it.

“Lanny, you are still unwilling to tell me the real reason, aren’t you?” Yvonne sneered. “If you want to find excuses, at least you can find a decent one. Do you mean you have known Nikita for a long time?”

“She used to be living in the Syracuse Villiage. How can you know her?”

“Believe it or not, I didn’t lie to you.”

Lanny didn’t explain much. After saying so, he turned around and left.

Yvonne clenched her fists tightly. Seeing the boy’s indifferent back while leaving, her face. turned green and pale.

Her cell phone suddenly rang and startled her.

She picked it up and took a look. After seeing the caller ID, she answered the phone after a few seconds.

“Brother.” Her voice suddenly softened down while calling him, which sounded sweet and waxy.

Nathan, was still in the hospital and didn’t sleep much all night.

He stood by the window in the corridor and made a phone call.

The air in the hospital was stuffy. And the smell of disinfectant made people feel even worse. He stretched out his neck to leave his head out of the window and took a deep breath.

After this, he finally felt his breath became smoother.

It’s not that stuffy anymore.

“Yvonne, have you asked Nikita?” Nikita paused for a while before speaking up. And his voice sounded a little hoarse. “Did you tell her about Mom? What did she say?”

On the other side, Yvonne sighed.

“Brother, I went to see her and told her that Mom was ill. I hope she can go to the hospital to visit Mom. But...”

Nikita pinched his phone tightly: “Is she unwilling to come to the hospital?”

Yvonne sighed again: “Yeah... She won’t go to visit Mom. She said that she had cut off her relations with the Swift family. And it doesn’t matter to her whether the Swift family can survive or not in the future. She asked us to stop bothering her.”

Chapter 499 Patrick, I regret it.

Even though he knew her answer would be like this, Nathan still felt stuffy in his heart. At first, he thought Nikita was just making a scene with her temper acting out.

At that time, he actually blamed her for being willful and ignorant.

Now, when Nikita really severed relations with them, Nathan somehow felt miserable in his heart.

Clearly they had been separated for more than ten years, the bonding between them has almost disappeared.

However, the moment when he really lost her, he realized that he still cared about her.

He didn’t want to lose his sister.

But it seems to be too late when he finally figures this out.

Nikita is now very determined to sever relations with them. Nathan also doesn’t know what to do.

He's in a lot of trouble right now.

With the Swift Group's affairs, Margot's illness and his own problems, he felt that he couldn't breathe.

Each of those really gives him a hard time.

"Brother..." Yvonne seemed to hesitate for a while on the other side. Then she still chose to ask: "Is the company of our family okay? Now everyone is saying that the Swift family is going bankrupt. Brother, I am so scared. Is what they said true? Will our family really go bankrupt?"

"Mom said that if the Swift family really went bankrupt, we could only sleep on the street in the future, I..."

"Don't talk nonsense." Nathan stretched out his hand and rubbed his eyebrows. And he looked extremely exhausted. "The company has encountered some difficulties. But it is not as serious as bankruptcy. Don't listen to other people's nonsense. And don't fill your head with messy ideas. The college entrance examination is coming soon. Focus on your studying. The college entrance examination is more important to you than anything else." "Okay, brother. I know. Then I'll go to take my class. And I'll go to the hospital to visit Mom after school."

Yvonne hung up the phone.

Nathan put away his phone and stood in the corridor for a while before turning back to the ward.

When he pushed open the door and walked into the room, he saw Margot lay prone on Patrick's shoulder and cry very sadly with red eyes.

Patrick was comforting her: "Margot, everything will be fine. If we can't get cured in N City, we will go to other cities. There are always people who can cure your illness."

Margot's voice was desperate: "You don't have to comfort me anymore. I know very well about my physical condition. No doctors can help me no matter how good he is. It will be a blessing if I can survive for another half a year."

“Margot...”

“Sean was right. The bad days for the Swift family are still waiting for us. Patrick, I regret it. I have been wondering if we have made the wrong choice.” Margot looked up from Patrick’s shoulder. And her face was full of regret and despair. “If we took Nikita back and treated her well according to Sean’s words, would it be a different situation now?”

Patrick went silent for a few seconds and sighed: “It is meaningless to bring this up now...”

“How can it be meaningless?” Margot grabbed his arm. “Let’s take Nikita back now and beg her to forgive us. As long as she is willing to return to the Swift family, maybe... maybe everything will be fine.”

“Didn’t Sean say that after taking her back, the Swift family will get better and better.”

“Margot, I also thought about taking her back. It’s just that you have seen her attitude. She is now determined to sever relations with us. How can she return to the Swift family?” Patrick shook his head and sighed again.

Margot also remembered what Nikita said earlier. She sipped her lips tightly. And the expression on her face became desperate again.

“Dad, Mom.” Nikita stood at the door for a while before entering the ward.

As soon as he made a sound, Margot and Patrick turned to look at him uniformly.

Margot hastily asked: “Have Yvonne gone to see Nikita?”

Chapter 500 She was the first one to know.

Nathan was silent for a while and then nodded. “Yeah. She had gone to ask her.”

“What did Nikita say?” Margot immediately asked again anxiously.

Nathan sipped his lips and lowered his eyes. After a while, he said in a muffled voice: “She refused to come to the hospital.”

The light which just lit up in Margot’s eyes fluttered and went out again.

“Mom, I’ll go and try to talk to her again.” Nathan thought for a moment and said: “She hasn’t known what kind of illness you are suffering from yet. She may think it’s not serious. And it’s just a general hospitalization. If she knows that you have... she will come to visit you.”

“She knows.” Margot murmured in a low voice. “She was the first one to know.”

Nikita and Patrick were both stunned: “She knows?”

Margot’s eyes were full of regret: “She warned me earlier that I was ill. But at that time, I thought she was just cursing me.”

“Since she has a good relationship with Sean, and Sean is good at Physiognomy geomancy, she must have the same skill.” Margot smiled bitterly. “She couldn’t tell from my face that I was seriously ill before. And she asked me to go to the hospital for examination. But I didn’t take it seriously.”

Patrick didn’t know this until now. So he was surprised. “What did she tell you at that time?”

Margot recalled it carefully. And suddenly, there was a light flashing in her eyes. She turned her head and grabbed Patrick’s hand excitedly. “She asked Zoey to tell me to go to the hospital to do a full set of examinations. The sooner, the better.”

“She also said if I didn’t listen to her, it would be too late. So, she must have noticed what was wrong with me.”

“She said that if the hospital can’t cure me, I can ask for her help!” While saying so, Margot’s eyes looked brighter. And she even looked less desperate. “What do you think she meant by that? Can she cure my illness?”

Patrick was surprised: “Did she ever say so?”

Margot nodded.

“But how can she ever have any medical skills to cure people?” Patrick obviously doesn’t believe it.

Not to mention whether Nikita has the medical skills to cure people.

What Margot has the advanced cancer.

And it’s advanced cancer in stage two.

He has asked the doctor. And the doctor has made it clear that she can’t survive for another six months if she doesn’t accept any treatments.

But even if she cooperates with the doctor to accept the treatment, she can only survive for another year or a half.

There is no cure for Margot’s cancer.

Even the experts of the best hospital in N City said that Margot’s disease could not be cured. But Nikita claimed that she could cure her.

It can’t be true.

“Nikita seems to have some medical some skills.” Nathan thought of something and said: “Yvonne told me before that Nikita once used acupuncture on a boy in their school and made the boy suffer. But then, the boy recovered.”

“Acupuncture?” Patrick was stunned.

Nathan nodded: “At least, this shows that Nikita does have some medical skills. And since she can tell from Mom’s face that she has been ill since a long time ago. Maybe her medical skills are really awesome.”

Hearing his analysis, Patrick felt it actually made sense.

“Mom, I will go to talk to Nikita again after school.” Nikita said immediately.

“I’ll go with you.” Patrick thought for a moment and said, “I’ll try to talk to her, too. If she can really cure your mother’s illness, I’ll get her here to help your mom even if she asks me to kneel on the ground and beg her.”

Although Patrick still doesn’t believe Nikita can cure patients with advanced cancer.

But now, there seems to be no other way for him.

Anyway, he needs to find her first and let her check on Margot.

Una and Miss Morris corrected Yvonne and Lanny’s test papers.
