

The Girl CB 621

Chapter 621 She could not Cheat in Class F

The forums on the social media were busy

All the students there were talking about Nikita.

Leon slammed his mobile phone on the table, "I don't believe it, how can she get full marks? There must be some dirty secrets"

Yvonne looked at the chat boxes in the campus online group, clenched her lips, and lowered her head. She looked very uneasy.

Nikita got full mar

How mathematics test.

Nikita was the last student in her grade every year in her former school, with zero points in every subject.

How did she get full marks every subject after she came to First Senior High School.

This school was one of the best middle schools in the country

The teachers and teaching resources of First Senior High school were much better than those of her former school.

It didn't make sense that Nikita suddenly became one of the best students First Senior High School while she was a poor student before in her former school

“What kind of secrets were you referring to? Do you want to say that Niky cheated? Tammy was just watching a group of people chatting in campus group. When she saw someone in the group say that Nikita cheated, she was so angry that she was about to type and refute Then she heard Leon’s slander

She looked up with anger and sneered, “You can’t beat her in the test, so you slander her and said that she cheated in the test”

Leon looked cold, “Who doesn’t know how difficult this test is? Last time, there were several students who got full marks in our class, and this time the highest score was only 137. She handed in the paper in less than ten minutes and got full marks. Who can believe that her grades are true?”

Tammy rolled her eyes on him and said. “The fact that you can’t do it doesn’t mean others can’t do it. You feel that the test was hard, but some other students might find it easy Niky is smart, so she got full marks. If you are capable of that, you should also get full marks. I promise that I would praise you”

“In deed, her perfect score from cheating is very awesome.” Leon smiled, and his eyes were full of ridicule.

“Leon, you...

“Even if it was cheating, there must be conditions for cheating first. As far as I know, Nikita’s desk mate is Felton, the poorest student in our grade. The student sitting in front of her are Samuel and Tobin. They are also two of the poorest students in our grade.”

“Leon, did you mean that Nikita copied their papers and got full marks?” Lanny’s voice was not loud, but everyone in the classroom could hear what he said clearly.

Some people who were also doubting whether Nikita cheated suddenly realized this fact and gradually changed their minds.

That was right.

If Nikita wanted to cheat, there must be a suitable environment and favorable conditions.

She was in Class F. How could she make it?

Students around her were all slickers in the bottom of the ranking list in the grade.

Moreover, it was impossible to get full marks by cheating.

This time, each class exchanged the papers, and it was impossible that the teacher deliberately gave her full marks.

No one would give full marks to students in other classes.

Leon was suddenly speechless because of Lanny's words, and his face became more and more ugly.

Leon was unable to refute again Tammy was quite relieved. She pretended to be casual and said, "I remembered that some students promised that if Niky got full marks in the math test, they will kneel on the ground and call her daddy"

"A lot of people have heard it. At this moment, you said Niky cheated. Aren't you planning to get away from it?"

Leon's face instantly turned red, and he breathed heavily.

There were other people in the class who have said this Chapter 622 Difficult?

When Tammy mentioned this, no one dared to say anything again.

Yvonne lowered her head, pressed her lips tightly, and lost her patience to read books. She was thinking about the same thing over and over again in her mind.

Why her study performance suddenly became better?

Nikita stood outside the office and knocked on the door.

In the office

Mr. Chou saw her and immediately waved her in.

Nikita walked in.

“Mr. Chou, what can I do for you?” She looked up and saw that there were two other people sitting in the office, which were math teachers in other classes.

One looked a little fat.

One looked a little bald.

As soon as Nikita walked into the office, she felt that the sights of the other two people fell on her.

She gently looked at them, and then took back her sight.

Mr. Chou was usually a very strict teacher. The students in the class were a little afraid of him. At this time, he rubbed his hands and said with embarrassment. “Nikita, listen to me. We have read your papers and thought your problem-solving methods are very special.”

“Your thinking is also very special and different from ordinary students.”

“Teacher Camel said that when you solved these problems, you used a lot of formulas that will be taught in universities. Can you tell us where did you learn your problem-solving formulas?”

Nikita heard Mr. Chou's words and felt a little shocked.

She thought: That's it? Is this their purpose of calling me here?

Ten minutes ago.

Mr. Chou asked her to come to the office with her test papers.

"I learned them in books." Nikita kept silent for a few seconds and replied concisely.

Mr. Chou and the other two teachers fell silent again.

This answer was useless.

"Are you sure? You are still in high school, have you studied the related courses for university students?"
Mr. Chou was quite surprised.

Knowledge of high school is quite different from that of colleges.

Even if you do well in high school, you may not be able to understand college courses.

On the delicate face of Nikita, the expression was quite indifferent, "Couldn't I?"

Mr. Chou and the other two teachers fell silent again.

Mr. Chou mouth shivered, "Of course. We wanted to ask you that... can you understand it?"

"Of course." Nikita seemed to think this question was very strange, and her delicate eyebrows slightly lifted, "If you can't understand it, why do you want to read it?"

There seemed to be nothing wrong with her words!

Therefore, Nikita, a high school student, has been able to understand college courses.

No, she could do more than that.

She was so skilled in using those methods that she was obviously quite familiar with the relevant knowledge.

“Can you solve this problem with the same formula?” The slightly fat man next to her pulled out an abandoned test paper and wrote a problem on last year’s Olympic math competition paper on the back of the test paper

It was really difficult.

Last year’s champion failed to solve it

Nikita glanced at him and went straight to the man without a word.

Then, she stretched out her hand. “May I use the pen in your hand?”

The slightly fat man was stunned for a second. Then he immediately handed the pen over.

When he handed the pen to her, his hands were trembling slightly. The expression on his face showed his excitement. He looked at Nikita eagerly

Nikita seemed felt at home. She noticed that there was an empty chair in the office, so she walked over and dragged it to the desk

After sitting down, she spun the pen in a handsome way.

The slightly fat man asked. "Is it difficult?"

Nikita lifted her eyes and looked at the earnest eyes of the man. She told the truth, "Not so difficult."

Chapter 623 Losing Face

The math teachers in the office fell silent in shock.

This was a problem that the champion failed to work out

"Well, Nikita, please try to solve it first" Mr. Chou was afraid that she was bragging. If she couldn't solve the problem later, other teachers might laugh at her. So he quickly asked her to solve the problem.

After all, she was his student

If his student made a joke, he might lose his face.

Nikita seemed to know what he was thinking about. She smiled at him but didn't say anything. She picked up the pen and started to write before deep consideration.

All the math teachers stood next to her and watched.

The thing that Nikita was in the office of Mr. Chou was soon known by the students in Class A.

But the truth was distorted. Many students said that there was something wrong with her test results, so she was there.

"Did she really cheat?" Yvonne's desk-mate intended to please her and approached her, "Yvonne, shall we go and have a look?"

Yvonne turned over her book, rolled her eyes, and looked up at her desk-mate, "This... is not right. And class is about to begin soon."

"I want to see it." her desk-mate held her arm and shook, "Yvonne, just go with me. Don't you want to figure it out?"

"If she cheated, the first place in the math test should be you."

Yvonne bit her lower lip, showing hesitation on her face.

"Yvonne, let's go. I want to see it, too." Leon came over quietly. He sneered, "I knew there must be something wrong with her grades."

"How could she get full marks in the math test? We are not fools."

Yvonne bit her lips and hesitated for a few seconds before gently nodding her head.

"OK, then I will accompany you to have a look."

She closed her book and stood up slowly.

Nikita was called to the office? Was she questioned by those teachers?

It seemed that her grades were strange.

Until then, Yvonne felt a little comfortable in her heart. She felt much more relieved.

Nikita got full marks in English and mathematics in succession. Yvonne was indifferent on the surface, but she was under great pressure.

Everyone knew that Nikita was transferred from a school in the countryside.

And her study performance was very poor.

Because Nikita's performance was not good, many people didn't recognize her, even if she was elected as a campus belle.

They think she was a useless eye candy and did not deserve to represent First Senior High School.

But if Nikita's grades were actually very good, even better than her, then Nikita's supporters would definitely be more. And her supporters would be less.

Now, her only advantage in front of Nikita was her study performance.

If she lost the only advantage, then she would lose to Nikita

Soon, Yvonne and Leon walked out of the classroom.

Tammy heard discussion around her, frowned tightly, and sent a message to ask Samuel, "What is Niky doing in the office? Is it related to her math test scores?"

Samuel returned quickly, "I don't know, but Mr. Chou asked Niky to take the test paper. It should be relevant."

Tammy read his reply, and she felt a little uneasy.

It can't be that there is really something wrong with Niky's grades.

Anyway, she didn't believe that Niky cheated.

When Leon, Yvonne, and her desk-mate arrived at the office, they saw that all the math teachers were around Nikita

They stood there, and Nikita sat at a desk.

Chapter 624 Losing Face

When Leon, Yvonne, and her desk mate arrived at the office, they saw that all the math teachers were around Nikita

They stood there, and Nikita sat at a desk.

Nikita held a pen, and the paper on the table looked like a test paper. She seemed to solve the problems on a test paper. They looked at each other, and Yvonne pressed her lips. An unnoticeable smile appeared on her face.

It seemed that their doubt was true.

Nikita's grades were really suspicious.

It seemed that even those math teachers doubted the authenticity of her grades, so they let her retake the exam.

"Oh." Leon smiled complacently "She was retaking the exam because of cheating. She was too greedy and got full marks by cheating. If she got only 90 points, no one would say anything, and she even dared to get full marks."

"It is estimated that she wanted to steal the spotlight of Yvonne. So she got full marks by cheating." Yvonne's desk-mate flattered, "Yvonne's grades are all true, but her grades were fake. She couldn't change her actual ability. Even if she got full marks, no one would believe her."

Yvonne smiled, and she was in a good mood. But she said, "Don't say that, the truth is not revealed yet."

“They have already let her retake the exam. She must have cheated.” Leon sneered, “I think she might cheat in English exam too.”

Nikita’s second English test was invigilated by Yvonne on the spot.

She kept a close eye on her.

She knew clearly whether Nikita cheated or not.

But after listening to Leon, she didn’t refute

Leon took out his mobile phone

“What are you going to do?” Yvonne saw that he turned on the camera on his mobile phone and asked. But she knew exactly what he was going to do

“Of course, I have to take the evidence and send it to everyone.” Leon pointed the camera at the office. “What if she denies it and does not admit that she cheated and retook the exam?*

Yvonne pretended to stop him, ‘Don’t do this, I don’t think it’s right

Leon sneered, “It doesn’t matter. She had the courage to cheat. Why do you save her face? Yvonne, you are too kind and tolerant. So you have been bullied by such a person again and again.”

“You can bear it, but I can’t”

“I want everyone to know what she is. Does she deserve the reputation of campus belle of First Senior High School?”

Then Leon pressed the button of the camera with a click.

After taking the photo, he looked down and checked it. After making sure there was nothing wrong with the photo, he put away his mobile phone.

“OK, let’s go back to the classroom.” He turned his head and said softly to Yvonne.

Yvonne nodded and said to her desk-mate, “Go back.”

She didn’t mention the photos again.

She couldn’t get involved in some matters personally, because she had to keep her own personal images.

If someone stood up for her, she naturally won’t stop it.

Although she didn’t like Leon, her vanity has been greatly satisfied by having a rich boy who supported her all the time.

Therefore, when Leon pursued her, she would not accept him, but she would not push him away either.

“Nikita, how did you think of solving this problem in this way? Wonderful, wonderful, why can’t I think of it!”

Yvonne and her friends were just about to leave.

In the office, an excited voice suddenly sounded.

Yvonne was stunned. She turned her head and looked into the office.

Chapter 625 Losing Face

The slightly fat man held the problem finished by Nikita in his hand, and he kept praising excitedly. "Why can't I figure out that this problem can be solved in this way? Moreover, the original complicated problem-solving process suddenly becomes much simpler by using your method"

"I have explained this problem to them many times before, but some people still didn't understand it. If I explain it according to your idea, I believe everyone can understand it."

The bald men and Mr. Chou were also surprised.

They looked at each other and fell silent for a few seconds. Mr. Chou's expression looked complicated and said, "Nikita, this was a difficult problem on the Olympic Mathematics Competition paper last year. At that time, no one could solve it."

Just now, Nikita finished this problem in only one minute.

That was so unbelievable...

She was much better than a champion.

No wonder she just said it was not so difficult.

He thought she was bragging.

It turned out that this problem was really normal for her.

Outside the office.

Several people who were about to leave were stunned when they heard the conversations of the teachers inside. Nikita was not retaking the exam?

She was just trying to solve the problem on last year's Olympic math competition?

What she solved was the problem that the champion failed to solve?

Nikita had a deep memory of the problem that no one could solve on last year's Olympic Mathematics Competition.

She also took part in the competition last year

She didn't solve that problem either.

After the competition, all the students who participated in the competition complained that the problem was too difficult. They didn't even know how to get started

Later, teacher Camel explained how to solve the problem to them alone.

After explaining it three times, she figured it out finally

According to the conversation of those teachers in the classroom, Nikita solved the problem.

Yvonne seemed to feel that a bucket of ice water was poured on her head, and her face was pale. The good mood of the previous moment disappeared instantly.

She clenched her lips. Her hands and feet seemed to be frozen, and her body looked stiff. She heard the clear and clean voice of the girl come from the office. "You called me here and just want me to do last year's Olympic math paper?"

"Well, we have something else to say." There was an uneasy voice from the slightly fat man. "In fact, there is one more thing Nikita, are you interested in Olympic math competition this year?"

Before Nikita replied, the slightly fat man continued to speak. The tone was very pleasing, as if he was coaxing her, "You will be rewarded. If you have any requirements, you can put them forward."

“As long as you go to the competition, whether you win a prize or not, I can apply for a bonus for you.” The tone of the slightly fat man was the same as that of the trafficker who abducted children. He continued to throw his bait, “If you go to the competition, the school will give you a bonus of 8,000 dollars.”

“If you get top three places, there will be another big bonus.”

“The amount is quite considerable.”

The girl’s voice was indifferent, and she didn’t hesitate, “Not interested.”

“Nikita, you should think about it again. Don’t be in a hurry to refuse me now. If you can win the championship, you can get extra points in the college entrance examination. Do you want to refuse it?” The slightly fat man continued to coax. “Nikita think about it again.” Mr. Chou felt that this was a rare opportunity and advised her. “It is not easy to enter his team He took the initiative to invite you. This is an opportunity that others can’t even think about.”

Chapter 626 No more Words

Outside the office.

Yvonne’s face became more and more pale. She bit her lips tightly, and her fist pinched by her side was shaking.

She entered the team before, and it was not easy for her.

Privately, she didn’t know how many test papers she has finished, and how many classes from famous teachers she has taken before she could raise her math scores.

Then she was finally eligible to apply to join the team to participate in the competition.

But now...

They actually coaxed Nikita to participate in the competition!

And Nikita unexpectedly said she was not interested!?

Yvonne was almost suffocated by the anger in her chest. She took a deep breath, and couldn't continue to listen to the conversation anymore. She turned and walked downstairs with an ugly face.

Behind him, Lean's face was also ugly.

He couldn't believe it.

He thought he had photographed the evidence of Nikita cheating and retaking the exam.

But at this moment, his face seemed to have been heavily slapped. It was burning pain.

The photo just taken turned into a joke.

As for Yvonne's desk-mate, watching Yvonne leave angrily, she couldn't express her regret with words.

She proposed to come and have a look.

Her original intention was to please Yvonne. But now, things changed, Yvonne looked more angry.

Nikita walked into the classroom.

The originally noisy classroom fell silent for a few seconds.

Everyone stopped discussing, and their sight fell on her.

“Niky, why did Mr. Chou ask you to go to the office?” Samuel saw the group chat, and someone said that there was something wrong with Nikita’s grades. He heard that Nikita was called to the office for questioning. Like Tammy, he didn’t believe that Nikita really cheated.

No matter how Nikita’s grades were.

She certainly disdained to do such things.

What’s more, Samuel fully believed Nikita’s real strength.

He was surprised twice in succession. Even if Nikita got full marks in the next few subjects, he would not be too surprised.

“Nothing. They let me solve a few math problems, and then asked me to participate in the Olympic math competition.” Nikita leisurely walked to her seat, sat down. She stretched out her hand to the position between the eyebrows, and her voice was also indifferent.

“Did Mr. Chou ask you to participate in the Olympic math competition?” Samuel was shocked, and his eyes revealed surprise.

Many people around Nikita looked over.

They all heard what she said.

They were all surprised.

What?

Mr. Chou called Nikita to go to his office with her test paper, not because Nikita’s test results was suspicious, but let Nikita sign up for the math competition?

Those who could be selected to participate in the competition were all very good at mathematics.

Therefore, Nikita's perfect score was authentic?

Class F really had a hidden super student?

There were math tests and physics tests in the afternoon.

During the exam, Nikita didn't sleep.

When the physics papers were handed out, there was a whining sound in the classroom again, and the students complained that every subject was so difficult in this exam.

Samuel and Tobin were also whining.

"My dear lord, I don't think I can solve any one of them."

"Why is this test so difficult? Is the person who wrote the problems a pervert?"

Felton also took the examination paper and glanced at it. Every problem on the examination paper looked familiar, but he couldn't solve them.

He held the paper in his hand, but his eyes couldn't help but looked at the girl next to him.

Nikita has got full marks in two subjects in succession.

Felton could no longer treat her according to the previous perspectives.

In the past, Nikita was of the same level as them in his eyes, and they were all fellow students who ranked the bottom of the class in examinations.

Chapter 627 Who Gave You this Prescription?

But now, Felton realized that Nikita was possibly different from them.

Felton clenched his lips and asked, "Nikita, have you read the problems? How many points do you think you can get in the physics test?"

Samuel and Tobin in the front row turned their heads around and looked at her curiously

If Nikita got full marks in physics and chemistry again, well, the ranking of the third grade of First Senior High School will be changed

Lanny has been occupied the first place for several years and now the challenger was here.

Nikita looked down at the test paper, looked up into the eyes of them, and was about to speak when the mobile phone in her pocket suddenly vibrated.

She took out her mobile phone and looked at the caller ID on the screen. She frowned slightly and answered the phone. She lowered her voice, "Hello"

After a few seconds, Felton and Samuel saw her face suddenly change, and her voice sank, "OK, I'll come right away."

She hung up the phone, pulled the black backpack out of her drawer and stood up. The physics teacher looked at her in shock, and she hurriedly said she wanted to ask for a leave, then rushed out of the classroom quickly.

"What happened to Niky? She was so anxious Samuel looked at the girl leaving in a hurry, a little worried.

Felton frowned, and he felt a little uneasy too.

In his impression, Nikita was a slow-tempered person. No matter what happens, she was always in no hurry and slow.

It seemed that even if the sky fell in the next second, she wouldn't panic.

It was the first time he saw Nikita in such a hurry.

Felton watched the girl's figure disappear in a hurry in the corridor, hesitated for a while, and took out his mobile phone to send her a WhatsApp message.

In the hospital.

The taxi stopped at the gate of N City Hospital.

The door opened, a thin and tall figure got off the car, and then walked into the hospital in a hurry.

The other side.

In the office of a chief physician of oncology department.

The doctor in a white coat was about fifty years old. He wore a pair of glasses, looked quite authoritative. The doctor held a crumpled piece of paper in his hand to read.

After reading it for about one minute, he put the paper in his hand on the table and raised his head.

"Dr Davis, how is it? Is the medicine on this prescription feasible?" Margot saw that the doctor had finished the prescription and couldn't wait to ask.

Patrick was sitting next to her

“Who gave you this prescription?” The doctor didn’t answer her immediately, but asked another question.

Margot was stunned. Although she was anxious, she still replied patiently. “It was a folk Chinese medicine practitioner.” “A folk Chinese medicine practitioner?”

“Yeah Margot couldn’t figure out what the male doctor wanted to ask, but she could see that the male doctor didn’t seem to feel comfortable. She hesitated and asked, “Doctor, is there anything wrong with this prescription?”

The male doctor still didn’t answer her question. He picked up the paper and looked at it again. He frowned: “What did the person who gave you this paper say?”

“Did she tell you what effect the medicine on this paper has?”

“Yes.” Margot nodded. “She said it’s all tonic, which can strengthen my body’s resistance”

“Oh, tonic?” The male doctor suddenly sneered and slammed the medicine list on the table. “I believe that this folk doctor you said must have enmity towards you.”

Chapter 628 My Own Daughter Actually Tried to Kill Her

Margot and Patrick were surprised

“Doctor, why did you say that?” Patrick asked anxiously, “Is there anything wrong with this prescription? Can’t we eat the medicine prescribed on this paper?”

“Of course not.” The expression on the doctor’s face was very serious. “Several medicines on this paper may conflict with each other. If you eat them, the mild symptom will be slight poisoning, diarrhea and vomiting for a few days. If it becomes worse, they will kill you!”

“Miss Dan, I can understand your mood. Though you are in a hurry to treat yourself, you can’t rush to the wrong doctor and find some charlatans to help you.”

“Even if you want to take traditional Chinese medicine for conservative treatment, our hospital also has Chinese medicine practitioners, all of whom have acquired the doctor’s qualification certificate. You don’t believe in regular doctors, but believe in a charlatan who doesn’t even have medical qualifications. You are playing with your life!”

Margot’s face turned very ugly in an instant.

She was so angry that her breaths became rapid, and her chest rose and fell sharply. She said angrily. “Doctor, you said that all the medicines on this medicine list are not compatible with each other? And I will be poisoned if I eat it?!”

The doctor looked at her and nodded, “Yes, there is nothing wrong with taking these medicines alone. The above medicines are very good tonic, but when they are mixed together, they become harmful poisons.”

“It is lucky for you to ask me first. If you just eat according to it, the serious consequences of it will be unimaginable.* The doctor returned the medicine list to them, looked at them that had the same ugly faces, and said earnestly. “Don’t take wrong medicines. Regarding Miss Dan’s illness, my suggestion is that she should accept radiotherapy and chemotherapy”

“Of course, Chinese medicine can also be used, but it has little effect.”

A disease that even Western medicine couldn’t cure.

What’s the point of using Chinese medicine?

It was just a little psychological comfort for a desperate person.

Patients like Margot, they have seen many.

In the middle and late stages of cancer, there was no cure, and the last days would be spent in pain and torture.

Some people would choose to give up radiotherapy and chemotherapy and accepted so-called conservative treatment.

That was using Chinese medicine.

When other treatments were useless, Chinese medicine is their only hope.

But these doctors knew that Chinese medicine was useless.

Even when the Chinese medicine doctors in their hospitals were sick, they would resort to Western medicine to cure themselves.

If Chinese medicine was useful, why didn't they use Chinese medicine on themselves?

Margot's face went pale.

She was shaking with anger.

Nikita gave her this medicine list, and it turned out to be poisonous.

Margot never thought that her own daughter would want to hurt her.

Patrick was also furious. He clenched his fist, and his chest seemed to burn with anger.

He thought that Nikita at most had no feelings for them.

He didn't expect her to be so vicious.

The telephone on the doctor's desk suddenly rang, and he picked it up. Without saying a few words, he hung up the phone with a serious look.

No one knew what happened.

Before he could explain to Margot and Patrick, he got up and rushed outside.

Margot and Patrick came out of the doctor's office.

Both of them looked very ugly

"How could I give birth to such a cold-blooded and ruthless monster? What did I do to her? Why is she so cruel to me!"

Margot squeezed the medicine list written by Nikita into a ball and smashed it into the trash can next to her.

She covered her chest with sad look.

Patrick was also furious

Chapter 629 Hit Her in the Face

He always felt that Nikita was their own daughter and she had his blood. Even if she was not so excellent, she shouldn't be very tired. Margot had any dissatisfaction with Nikita, he would help Nikita and said something good for her

Now it seemed that he was wrong about this girl.

The lovely kind daughter was gone and let him feel tremble

Fortunately, Yvonne reminded us and asked us to find a doctor to check it first. If I didn't show it to the doctor and took the medicine she prescribed Margot became more and more angry, her chest fluctuated violently, and her body couldn't stop trembling a thought of the terrible consequence

Just now the doctor said that if the poisoning was serious, it would endanger her life

Patrick said with an angry face. "Before, she was eager to sever relations with us, I have been reflecting that whether we really did too much and made her completely disappointed with us, so she would be so determined to draw a clear line with us

"Now it seems that she is really an ungrateful girl. Even if we treat her well, it can't change anything. Fortunately, we have cut off our relationship with this girl. Otherwise, if such a cold-blooded and vicious person lives with us, we will be poisoned sooner or later"

Margot's chest was painful with anger

She felt very angry

Even if she didn't have much affection for Nikita, it was she who gave birth to her, and she has made great efforts

She was confident that she hadn't done anything wrong to her

She also often donated money to major charities.

She also worshiped the God and went to church

But why did the God do this to her?

Why did he let her get this disease?

And he also let her give birth to such a vicious daughter.

What did she do wrong?

Both of them were so angry and Margot suddenly caught sight of a familiar figure

She looked up at the corner of the corridor

After making sure that the person coming from the corner was Nikita, Margot's face suddenly changed, and she shouted, "Nikita."

Ahead.

The girl in a hurry suddenly stopped.

As soon as she looked up, she saw Margot coming towards her with anger on her face.

When she could reach Nikita, without saying a word, she raised her hand and hit her face.

The move was hard and fast.

Nikita's face changed. She had great reaction, so she dodged the slap.

Margot's face became more and more ugly, and she tried to hit her again because Nikita escaped from her last slap

This time, Nikita did not escape. She stood there till with a cold face. When Margot's hand moved closer to her, she held Margot's wrist and stopped it.

The girl's hand was cold and white.

Her slender fingers didn't use much strength, Margot's face was wrinkled with pain, and she couldn't help shouting.

"Monster, let go off her! What are you doing, how dare you do it to your mother!" Patrick ran over and flew into a rage.

They made a lot of noise.

Some people around looked over.

Nikita didn't let her go. Patrick pointed at her nose and said angrily again, "Evil, did you hear me? Let go now! If you don't let her go, I will be rude to you!"

The girl slowly raised her eyes.

Her eyes were cold and sharp.

Patrick looked into her eyes and was shocked. He only felt cold.

Chapter 630 Nikita, Why Are You so Cruel?

Nikita looked down at the pale face of Margot out of pain, her black and cold eyes narrowed.

"You want to go crazy, I don't care But I don't have time right now" Nikita glanced coldly at them, shook off Margot's hand and walked away with an indifferent face

The sound of Margot's gnashing sounded behind her.

"The thing I regret most in my life is to give birth to you, you heartless monster! People who kill her mother will be struck by lightning Nikita Swift, you will receive retribution, definitely

In front, the girl in a hurry paused

Margot saw it and became more excited and scolded, "Don't think that no one knows the wicked things you have done. God has an eye on you, and you will be punished for doing such vicious things to your mother"

The girl turned her back on Margot and said nothing

After a few seconds, she slowly turned around

There was no expression on her cold and delicate face, and her eyes seemed to be wrapped in frost. She looked at Margot, "Did I try to hurt you? You'd better make it clear to me, what have I done to you?"

"What have you done, don't you know? If you don't want people to know your evil, you must do nothing" Margot looked at her as if she was some disgusting rubbish, and her eyes were full of hatred. She clenched her teeth and said, "You said that the prescription you gave was good for my body, but the doctor told me that all the medicines on the prescription are not compatible with each other. If I eat them together, it will be poisonous

"Nikita, why are you so cruel?"

"What have I done to you? Why did you even try to kill me?"

Once Margot's words were finished, there was a huge sound of astonishment around them.

"The daughter is too vicious. The prescription for her mother is actually poisonous"

"Oh my God, if this was my daughter, I will throw her into the trash can on the day she was born. She is so cruel."

"The girl looks fair and beautiful. How could she be so cruel and so vicious?"

Nikita had a sunken, cold expression. When she met the couple's disgusted gaze, she suddenly chuckled.

The girl slowly hooked her lips. She was smiling. But her eyes were cold. "Did you bring my prescription to other doctors for another check?"

"That's right." Margot glared at her fiercely. "If I hadn't shown it to other doctors in advance, would I still be alive to stand here and talk to you now?"

"Nikita, you've really gone too far." Patrick gritted his teeth and said, "Even if you have resentment against your mother, even if you think she favors Yvonne too much, you can't treat her like this. She is your mother. How can you be so cruel?"

"How dare you try to poison your mother? You are way too vicious. It is outrageous!"

Patrick's eyes were filled with disappointment and anger.

"So, you guys didn't believe me from the very beginning." Nikita squinted her eyes. The corners of her lips curved dangerously and mockingly. She said, "Since you have chosen to believe your doctor's words, there is nothing more I can say"

"This will be the end of my treatment. I won't help you anymore. You will have to find another way. I have nothing to say to you anymore"

Margot laughed coldly in exasperation, "We've found out all your evil intentions. Of course, you have nothing to say"

Nikita's black eyes were so cold. She looked at Margot and Patrick coldly.

"Miss Swift, you are finally here."

Behind Margot, a voice suddenly sounded.
