

The Girl CB 721

Chapter 721 Do you need to send someone to find the young master?

“Well, I hope Niky to get another perfect score this time and hit them in the face!” Samuel said when he voted for Nikita with his own account. “I have a hunch that Niky will definitely win the first place this time and be proud of us!”

“By the way.” Samuel said, looked at the empty position beside Nikita, and frowned. “Felton didn’t come to school today. Tobin, do you think there is something wrong with him? Why has he been absent from school for a whole day recently?”

He didn’t like this before.

I sent him message, but he didn’t reply to me. Do you know what he was doing, why was he disappearing?”

Tobin sipped his lips, lowered his eyes and didn’t speak.

Felton has been absent from school frequently in these days.

Samuel was unresponsive and didn’t know what the reason was, but Tobin knew it.

After all, that’s how he came here.

A boxing ring.

Felton took off his headgear, and the sweat flowed down his cheeks to his neck like rain.

He didn’t even change his clothes. The whole person collapsed on the ground, gasping for breath.

For a long time, his mind was blank.

The sparring partner next to him handed him a bottle of water, looked at his state at the moment, and asked with some worries: "Young Master, are you all right?"

"Nothing." The teenager opened his mouth, and his voice was hoarse. His eyes narrowed, and his eyes were blank.

"Don't worry about me, I want to be alone for a while."

"Well, I won't disturb you. If there is anything wrong, please call me and I will come right away." The sparring partner put the water on the table next to him and turned and walked out of the empty practice room.

The empty practice room quieted down.

Felton was in a daze, lying on the ground for a long time.

He spent three whole days thinking about the same problem.

Now, he seems to have figured it out.

He felt that he seemed to like Nikita.

He and his brother actually fell in love with the same person.

It's so ridiculous.

Felton laughed mockingly.

Is this the Lambert family's gene?

It is doomed that all brothers will like the same woman.

He and his brother...

His uncle and his father...

In those days, his second uncle was defeated.

Now, he seems to be defeated completely.

He didn't even have a chance to fight for it, so he already lost.

The Lambert Group.

"Mr. Lambert, the school called and said that the young master was absent from school for no reason today." After answering the phone, Vernon walked into the office. He saw that Mr. Lambert, who was in a serious working state at any time, was feeding goldfish.

On the black desk, there is a fish tank.

In the fish tank, there are two goldfish who look fat and happy.

Sheehan held a pack of fish feed in his hand, pinched a few pieces with slender white fingers, and threw them into the fish tank one by one.

Vernon:

When did Mr. Lambert have such leisure time and like to raise goldfish?

But if he likes fish... he has never been care about those fishes in the big pot next to him.

But he fed the cheap goldfish in the cheap fish tank personally, as if he liked them very much.

He can't guess the boss's mind, and he can't guess it casually. After glancing at it, he took back his sights and respectfully stood aside with his hands hanging down.

After feeding the fish, Sheehan played with them for a while before throwing the feed for the fish on the table and slowly raising his head: "Truancy for no reason?"

"Yes." Strictly nodded and respectfully said, "The school can't contact the young master, so they called us. I also called the young master just now, but he didn't answer. Mr. Lambert, do you need to send someone to find the young master?"

Chapter 722 You'll bring Nikita with you.

"No need for that." Sheehan squinted and took a document. "He was muddling along in school, and it didn't make much difference if he was absent from school or not. Tell the school that after a while, the Lambert Group will donate another 500 million education funds to the school. As for Felton, they don't have to care about him."

Solemn: "Aye."

Vernon doubted whether the young master and Mr. Lambert were real brothers.

This gap is too big.

Mr. Lambert was always a Straight A student, but the young master was the opposite of him.

Mr. Lambert win the first place all the year round.

But the young master was always the last one.

However, no matter how poor the young master's grades are, he is always the noble master in the Lambert family. The prosperity of his life has long been doomed, and it doesn't have much influence on him if he can't study well.

Sheehan has already arranged it.

Only when the college entrance examination is over, the young master will be sent abroad to go to college.

The Lambert family donated a lot of money to several famous schools in the world, so it was easy to get an admission quota

When the young master study those famous schools for a few years, he is still a top student in the eyes of others.

"Inform the planning department and the advertising department that the meeting will be held in ten minutes. Sheehan signed a document, looked up, stretched out his hand and rubbed his eyebrows. "By the way, do I have any things to do tonight?"

After a brief reflection, Vernon immediately said, "Mr. Lambert, have you forgotten that Old Mr. Lambert's rehabilitation dinner was held in the evening?"

Old Mr. Lambert has been recovering for a period of time, and now he is in good health, so he chose to hold his rehabilitation dinner tonight.

Celebrities from political and business circles in N City will attend.

In addition to these celebrities in N City, the Garrett family and the James family, who have a good personal relationship with the Lambert family, have also been invited.

"Grandpa's rehab dinner?" Sheehan dazed. He really forgot it.

The cell phone on the desk rang.

Speak of the devil! It's Old Mr. Lambert.

Sheehan signaled Vernon to inform people to attend the meeting, and then answered the phone: "Grandpa."

On the other side, Old Mr. Lambert's vigorous and powerful voice sounded: "Bring Nikita with you tonight. Everyone will be here, you can introduce her to your relatives."

Sheehan was silent for a few seconds.

"Grandpa, Nikita and I have just been dating. I'm not sure if she would like to attend the party tonight. Let me ask her first."

Old Mr. Lambert meant to introduce Nikita to everyone as the identity of granddaughter-in-law officially.

With Sheehan's understanding of Nikita, he thought she might not be willing.

After a few minutes, Sheehan hung up the phone.

After thinking about it, he sent a message to Nikita.

Nikita woke up and saw the message sent to her by Sheehan.

Sheehan: Grandpa is going to have a party tonight to celebrate his recovery. There will be many people at the party. Would you like to come with me?

After reading message, Nikita thought about it and lazily replied: OK, but I don't like it too noisy. I may leave early at that time, so long as you think it's okay.

Sheehan replied in seconds: You can leave from the school two hours in advance in the afternoon, and I will pick you up. Niky. Hmm.

After replying Sheehan's message, Nikita looked at the time and slowly took her black backpack out of the drawer.

"Niky, hurry up, the exam will start soon!"

As a bystander, he is more anxious than the party involved.

The exam will start at two o'clock.

Now there are only ten minutes left before the exam.

Even if the examination room is in their school, it takes about ten minutes to walk from the teaching building to the other building for the examination.

If she walked slowly, she would be late!

Chapter 723 Is she that good?

Nikita was still calm, turning her head and glancing at him faintly: "Don't be anxious, it's still early."

Samuel:

Is it still early?

At the moment, it is estimated that she is the only one who has not entered the examination room.

However, seeing her so calm, Samuel was relieved.

He felt that if Nikita could really win the first place this time, they would be able to stand tall, and they would no longer have to be ridiculed by people in the Foreign Language School.

“I asked and knew that Nikita was also in the fifth classroom, the same classroom as us, but why hasn’t she come yet?”

“Yes, there are only three minutes before the exam beginning. Why hasn’t she arrived yet? Does she get cold feet and run away?”

In the classroom.

Everyone has arrived.

Only the middle position in the first row is still empty.

Yvonne is also in the first row, next to the vacant seat. The person talking to her is Leon, who is sitting behind her.

Lanny sat on the right side of the vacancy.

Lanny frowned slightly and looked at the door frequently. Seeing that there were less than two minutes left before the start of the exam, he frowned tighter and felt worried.

Why hasn’t Nikita come yet?

Is it something that happened?

Lanny wanted to take out his mobile phone and call Nikita, but he didn’t have her contact information at all.

He hesitated, turned his head and whispered to Yvonne sitting next to him: "Yvonne, can you call Nikita? The exam is about to start. She hasn't come yet. Can you ask her if there is anything wrong."

Yvonne should have the contact information of Nikita.

"She didn't come to the exam, it has nothing to do with me! Why should I call her? She didn't come. Maybe because she knew that this invigilation was much stricter than before, and she couldn't continue to cheat, so she didn't dare to come.

Since she didn't dare to come, why are you worried about? Besides, you care about her so much, but has she taken you seriously?" Yvonne changed her usual gentle and quiet image, spoke in an acrimonious and mean voice, and no longer concealed her hostility and disgust towards Nikita.

She hates Nikita!

Before Nikita appeared, everything was fine.

After Nikita appeared, everything changed.

Everything she cares about is taken away by Nikita!

"You..." Lanny didn't expect her to speak so harsh, and he suddenly looked sullen. When he was about to refute, and the corner of his eye caught a tall and slim figure appearing at the door, and then slowly walked into the classroom.

Lanny looked back and saw the girl who entered the classroom at the last minute. He suddenly breathed a sigh of relief.

Leon, who just said Nikita ran away, was smacked in the face and suddenly lost his voice.

Yvonne looked at Nikita sitting down beside her, sipped her lips, hung down her head with cold face.

In the classroom, there are many students from other schools.

As soon as Nikita entered the classroom, a group of people couldn't help whispering.

*She is the new school babe of First Senior High School? She is worthy of this title! She looks so beautiful

"I have seen her photos photoed by others secretly before, and her photos look amazing. I didn't expect her to be much more beautiful than herself on the photos!"

"I heard that she got full marks in the Greek test before, which is higher than Mamie's score."

"Is she so powerful? Mamie has won the first place in several Greek leagues. Speaking of this, isn't it very likely that she will pass Mamie and win the first place in this league?"

Chapter 724 It is too difficult.

As soon as Nikita appeared, she became the focus of attention.

The candidates in the classroom, from different cities and schools, were all discussing her.

"She also wrote songs for Hugh. She and Hugh are good friends! She is so beautiful, her grades are still so good, and she can write songs. She is really super powerful!"

"Whoops, I am so jealous. I also want to be good friends with Hugh!"

"However, I heard that she used to be transferred from a school in village. Her grades in the previous school were very poor." "What's wrong with villages and towns? Didn't several students in villages entered Peking University before? Besides, poor grades in the past don't mean poor grades now. If her grades are really poor, how did she get full marks in the previous Greek test?"

Students from other schools were not so malicious to Nikita.

Most people think she was very powerful.

They admired her.

At the age of 18, she can write songs for Hugh and become good friends with the superstar in the entertainment industry.

At the age of 18, they could only study.

Yvonne listened to the discussion behind him, almost all of which praised Nikita.

She clenched the pen in her hand, and her face became colder and colder.

Lanny quietly played with the pencil case in his hand, listening to other people's evaluation of Nikita. He secretly looked at the girl beside him again, then he showed a faint smile.

In the future, more and more people will find Nikita excellent.

Nikita will live better and better.

He hopes she can live very well, and he believes that she is such a good person, so she will live very well.

The last minute.

The invigilator came in with a stack of papers.

In the classroom, it suddenly quieted down.

Before handing out the test paper, everyone handed in their mobile phones as required.

In the classroom, there are multiple cameras, which can monitor in all directions..

Every invigilator team is very strict, and the invigilators are all sharp-eyed. Under the strict monitoring, there is absolutely no possibility of cheating.

“Classmates, this time our exam time is two hours. When you get the test paper, first check whether the questions are clear or not. Be careful when answering questions. Don’t make careless mistakes.”

Finally, I wish everyone a good result that satisfies yourself. Ok, start to send the test papers now. After the students in the first row get the test papers, they will pass the papers back in turn.”

The invigilator handed out the test papers to the students in the first row in turn.

Nikita got the test paper, bowed her head and glanced at it at will. She read the test questions on the first page casually.

The questions in the league are much more difficult than those in the ordinary tests.

But for her, it’s all the same.

On the other side.

Yvonne and Lanny also got the test papers.

Yvonne also glanced at the test paper. After only reading two multiple-choice questions, she darkened down her face.

She gave the rest of the papers to Leon, who was sitting behind her.

A few moments later.

Leon couldn't help but scold in a low voice: "Fuck!"

Other students who got the test papers turned pale one after another.

Then, there were several complaints sounding one after another: "Fuck", "Oh shit!", "Fuck, it's too difficult!"

All the students in the classroom, except Nikita and Lanny, had pale faces.

Chapter 725 She thought she could still get full marks?

Lanny also found the test paper difficult, but his mentality was relatively peaceful, and his competitive desire was not so strong.

Yvonne's face was originally gloomy. After hearing those people complaining that this year's questions were too difficult, she calmed down a little.

It seems that she is not the only one who finds this year's test difficult.

Everyone finds it difficult, which means it is really difficult.

The test paper from the last league exam was hard enough.

She didn't expect the difficulty of this year's exam to be much greater than that of the previous year.

She thought everyone would not get high scores.

Yvonne sipped her lips and read several questions. Then she frowned tighter and tighter.

The questions were more and more difficult.

It was so difficult that she almost went crazy.

She couldn't help turning her head and looking at Nikita.

But she only found that Nikita looked faint, one hand holding chin, the other hand playing with pen. She looked quite calm, didn't panic at all. She was even relaxed enough to play with pen.

Yvonne sneered secretly, took back her sights and turned her head back.

Everyone can sit in this classroom is the top students in the school.

Everyone thinks this year's questions are very difficult, but she is the only one who doesn't care, as if she could finish these questions and felt them very easy.

She is really good at pretending to be someone.

So what if she got full marks in the previous test?

Can those test questions be as difficult as the league questions?

What's more, the questions this time were much more difficult than those of the test.

She thinks she can still get full marks?

It is impossible!

Isn't that a bullshit?

Yvonne didn't pay attention to Nikita anymore. After checking the test paper, she took a pen and began to answer questions seriously.

Her goal this time is to keep her previous ranking.

As for someone on the campus forum betting that Nikita is hopeful to take the first place, she thinks it is good to regard it as a joke.

The more praises Nikita got, the worse when she fell.

Oh, she is looking forward to that moment. It must be wonderful.

The examination officially began.

Nikita still looked lazy, with one hand supporting her chin. She lowered her eyes and crossed legs, sitting in a not decent way

On the podium.

The invigilator looked at her fooling around and frowned.

But he just monitors whether students cheat or not.

As for the students' sitting posture...as long as it is not particularly outrageous, he can't control it.

However, although this female student is beautiful and has delicate facial features, she looks unruly and difficult to manage. She was unlike the girl sitting next, who looked like a good student at first sight.

Since the invigilator had prejudice against Nikita, he mainly focused on her.

The times he stared at Nikita more than the times he stared at others.

Then, he found that the student who seemed to play around answered questions very quickly.

She finished a multiple-choice question in two or three seconds.

While everyone else was still reading the question, she had already chosen the answer and focused on the next question.

The invigilator frowned again.

She got the answers so fast, is she doing it randomly?

They all know how difficult the test is this time.

Other students should consider a question for at least a minute or two.

But this student named Nikita almost finished a question in a few seconds.

Chapter 726 He had never seen such a student!

At this speed, hasn't she finished reading the topic?

Students who are so careless about exams can even be selected to participate in the exam!

What exactly is her school thinking?

The invigilator shook his head while watching Nikita finish her paper, as if Nikita had been hopeless.

Next to her, Yvonne was also paying attention to Nikita out of the corner of her eyes.

Seeing Nikita had already finished the first test paper in less than ten minutes, she sneered and then lowered her head to continue to finish the test paper seriously.

Sure enough, she was good at pretending to be someone.

Half an hour later, Nikita finished answering the last question.

She finished the paper one and a half hours ahead of schedule.

After that, she threw her pen aside, moved her neck, stretched herself again, and looked up at the invigilator on the podium.

“Teacher, can I hand in my paper now?”

When the girl’s lazy voice sounded, someone inhaled because of shock in the classroom.

“Hand in the papers? It’s only been half an hour. Did she finish the paper?”

“It’s impossible, even if she finished it randomly, it is impossible to finish it in half an hour.”

“This topic is so difficult that I don’t think two hours are enough! How could she hand in the paper in half an hour?”

Yvonne paused, turned her head, and gave Nikita a sarcastic look.

Sure enough, she handed in paper in advance again?

This exam was very difficult, while she handed in the paper in half an hour?

Humph.

She wondered how many questions Nikita got right.

The invigilator was stunned for a few seconds before he reacted.

“You’re done?!” It’s a surprised tone.

“Hmm.” Nikita nodded.

‘This classmate, since you have come to take the exam, no matter what your mentality is now, I hope that you can take this exam and yourself seriously. The exam can only be handed in half an hour in advance. I suggest you check your paper again.’

Nikita: “...”

What did she mean?

She thought she finished her test paper randomly?

Nikita sipped her lips, but didn’t explain anything. She put the paper aside. After covering her lips and yawning, she fell asleep on her desk.

Invigilator: “..”

Other students in the classroom: “...”

This beauty of the First Senior High School is too personalized.

She finished the examination paper in half an hour, and then slept in the examination room?!

This is the first time they have encountered such a thing in their lives.

He had never seen such a student!

There is still the last half hour left in the exam,

Nikita woke up on time. She didn't wait for a minute more. After waking up, she handed in her papers, got up and walked out of the classroom.

Yvonne hadn't finished the last question.

Greek essay.

She finished half of it when seeing Nikita walk out of the classroom. She looked at Nikita, who had gone to the outside of the classroom and sneered

In the league examination, she dared to finish the test paper in half an hour and hand it in half an hour in advance

She wants to see what scores such a powerful person can get this time

Nikita walked out of the examination room and saw Miss Morris actually waiting outside the examination room.

Seeing her come out early, Miss Morris stunned, the expression on her face was very surprised.

"Nikita? Miss Morris opened her eyes wide, looked at the girl in front of her again. She made sure she didn't make mistake, so she was surprised. "Why did you come out? Isn't there still half an hour?"

"Ah." Nikita said lightly, "I finished my paper, so I come out."

Chapter 727 Get a bargain for nothing

Miss Morris “You, you finished the paper ahead of time?”

Nikita nodded again

Miss Morris was surprised “Do you think the paper is difficult?”

Nikita thought seriously and said modestly it’s okay. It’s a little harder than before”

“Is it just a little more difficult than the previous test questions?”

“Hmm”

“So, you actually don’t think it’s difficult, do you?”

“Hmm.”

“So, you didn’t actually finish the test paper half an hour in advance?”

“Hmm”

“How long is that? An hour?” This is the fastest time that Miss Morris can think of

She has seen how can finish papers

But this time, the questions were more difficult

In the last few exams, many people left the examination room in advance.

But this time, there is only Nikit

Nikita Half an hour”

Miss Morris

Half, half an hour?!

Staring at the girl in front her, she was too shocked to say a word

She taught a language genius?

No, no, no, she can't be her teacher. She can't teach her so well at all.

So, she got a bargain for nothing?!

If Nikita can get the first place this time, she will be so proud as her teacher!

Four o'clock in the afternoon

Sheehan's car stopped on the right side of the gate of the First Senior High School as usual on time.

The window was lowered in half.

Inside the car, the handsome and noble man put one hand on the steering wheel, tilted his head slightly, looked out of the window with dark eyes. He focused on the school gate. After waiting for a while, he saw a familiar slim figure coming out

The girl walked slowly Under the sun, her exposed fair skin was shining, and her facial features were exquisite and beautiful

Several young men passed by

They stared straight at her.

Sheehan narrowed his eyes, opened the door and got off. He quickly walked towards the eye-catching girl

After approaching, he found that those young men are still peeking at Nikita. He hugged the girl's soft waist to show his identity

He turned to glance at the young men indifferently.

There are some warnings in his eyes, and his aura is terrifying

In an instant.

These young men quickly turned and left.

Nikita saw this scene and picked up a faint smile.

After getting in the car, Nikita saw a cup of milk tea beside the car seat.

There is also a bag for packing desserts from Germy Hall.

Sheehan closed the door, took the milk tea, inserted a straw and handed it to her. His voice was gentle: "I packed dessert for you. Enjoy them first."

“Oh.” Nikita took it. She felt a little thirsty, bowed her heads and took a gulp.

It’s normal temperature again.

She curled her lips. It’s not tasty enough to drink warm milk tea.

“Girls need to drink less ice. It is not good for your health.” As if seeing her dissatisfaction, the man beside her smiled in a low voice, stretched out his big hand, and touched her head with a doting action.

“Eat something first, and then you need to try your evening dress and make up. It may take a long time.”

No sooner had he finished speaking than his cell phone rang.

Sheehan took back his hand and picked up the phone.

“Grandpa, what’s wrong?”

“Well, I’ve already picked up Nikita.”

“I see.”

Chapter 728 Yes, it’s sweet.

After a few minutes, the call ended. Sheehan put his mobile phone aside and looked at the girl who took a cake and buried herself in the delicious food. He smiled and said, “Grandpa called and asked me if I had picked you up. He asked me to take you to eat something first, don’t starve you.

Why don’t I take you to dinner now? Is there anything you want to eat?”

“I’ll just eat this.” Nikita swallowed a bite of cake. Her lips stained with some cream, she first reached out and wiped it. Feeling that it was not clean, she licked it again.

When Sheehan saw her behavior, his action of belting up paused, and her eyes were somewhat meaningful.

“There is cream staining here.” The man’s voice is hoarse. His slender fingers caressed the girl’s lips and gently pressed it. The temperature of his finger was burning.

He felt extremely soft.

There was a little cream on his finger. He bowed his head and tasted it, then he lifted his eyes, and looked at the girl beside him: “Well, it is very sweet.”

Nikita: “.

In half an hour.

Sheehan’s car stopped at a seven-story building.

It is a single multi-storied building, which is designed with a sense of modern science and technology. There are several people standing at the door. Just after Sheehan’s car stopped, a man greeted him with several employees.

After Sheehan got out of the car, the man was about to come forward, but he saw Sheehan go around to the other side of the door and stretch out his hand to open it.

Soon, another person came down from the co-pilot position.

Seeing the girl coming down from the co-pilot position, the man’s eyes suddenly lit up, with a touch of surprise in his eyes. What a beautiful little girl!

After Nikita got out of the car, she looked at the building called “Carnival Design Center” in front of her. Her dark eyes narrowed, and the lights in her eyes shined.

“Mr. Lambert.” The leading man took back his eyes, walked forward and greeted him respectfully.

Sheehan turned his head and saw that Nikita seemed a little confused. He smiled and explained to her softly: “This is a design center that specializes in dressing people.”

“I asked Harrell. He said that this is the favorite place for entertainment artists and celebrities. He asked me to bring you here directly.”

Sheehan doesn't understand this.

He never took a woman to a dinner party.

Therefore, he consulted Harrell in advance, who has rich experience in this field, and asked Harrell to recommend places for him.

Harrell has many female companions, most of whom are female artists in the entertainment industry and ladies from the noble families. Those women often come here to dress and make up, and Harrell often comes here to pick them up.

“Oh.” Nikita nodded.

“My lady, our design center is the largest and best one in the industry, and it is also the one with the best reputation. The designers here are all internationally renowned designers.”

“Among them, Nancy, our top designer, is a powerful designer in the industry who has won many international competitions. I believe that you should be no stranger to the name Nancy”

The leading man didn't see Nikita come here before, so he introduced for her.

Speaking of their top designer, they are very proud.

“Nacy Nikita thoughtfully, nodded, “Well, I know her. Is she here today?”

The man smiled and said, “Nacy is our boss and doesn’t serve customers directly. She is not usually staying here”

Chapter 729 So, we can’t borrow it.

“Oh, well.” Nikita nodded again, and she didn’t ask anything.

However, Sheehan lowered his head, and his low magnetic voice sounded in her ear. He asked softly, “Do you want that Nacy to dress and make up for you?”

“No.” Nikita looked at him, “I just ask.”

She hadn’t seen Nacy in two years

A few months ago, Nacy contacted her and asked where she was.

Nikita Didn’t tell Nacy that she came to N City this time.

Mainly because she is afraid of making trouble.

She knows many people in N City

If those people know that she came to N City, they must want to meet her one by one. Nikita felt troublesome, so she did not tell anyone

“These evening dresses were all originally created by our design center’s designers. The Black Swan Series designed this year has just won the gold medal in the global fashion competition. This series is also the proud work of our chief designer Nacy

Nikita and Sheehan were sitting on the sofa in the rest area

Several staff members held many gorgeous evening dresses and showed them to her one by one.

The man who came out to receive them was standing next to them. When the staff showed these dresses, he introduced them

Originally, this series of evening dresses are the collectibles and treasures in our shop, and they are not borrowed. Fannie and Lucia came to borrow them before, but we didn’t lend them out. But Mr. Lambert, you’re a distinguished guest, so you enjoy privileges

Only Miss Swift has the privilege of trying it on

Fannie was a superstar in the entertainment industry, and Lucia was a noble lady

Men specially said these names to please Sheehan

After all, the Lambert family is the leader of N City

Even if they don’t need to please others deliberately, they must treat the Lambert family.

Nacy was very proud. She was definitely unwilling to serve Sheehan’s woman specially.

But their design center must take something out to show their attention.

Therefore, Nacy’s Black Swan Series, which won awards this year, was taken out.

The man didn't lie.

Many first line female stars in the entertainment industry came to borrow this series of dresses.

Many famous ladies in the rich and powerful circles also came to borrow them.

They really didn't lend them out

If Nikita hadn't been the female companion brought by Sheehan, they couldn't have taken out this series.

"The treasure of your center?" Nikita aimed at the Black Swan Series evening dress praised by this man. There was no emotion in her eyes. She gently raised her eyebrows. "But why did I hear that the treasure of your center is the Charm Series?"

It's not the Black Swan Series you said"

The man was stunned, and his eyes flashed across a trace of surprise

After a few seconds, he came to my senses. Seeing that Nikita seemed to know their design center quite well, he nodded and told the truth: "I didn't expect Miss Swift to know the Charm Series. In this case, I won't hide it from you.

Yes, strictly speaking, the Charm Series is the real treasure of our shop. But it is not Nancy's work, so we can't borrow it." When the man said this, he apologized and said, "Sorry, Miss Swift.

If you want to appreciate them, we can take you to the exhibition area. But we can't decide to allow others to try it on or borrow it

Nancy can't decide it, either."

Chapter 730 Receive her with the highest protocol!

“So who can decide it?” The mobile phone in Nikita’s pocket shook. She slowly took out the mobile phone, unlocked the phone and checked on it.

It turned out to be a message from Nacy.

The Great Nancy: Nikita, are you in the Carnival Design Center?

Before Nikita replied her, she immediately sent another message, and her words were very excited. You actually came to N City Why didn’t you tell me?! Ah ah ah, you are not deserved to be a good friend enough! We are best friends and once slept in a bed!

Just reading these words, Nikita can imagine how excited Nacy is at the moment.

She smiled: You know it now, right?

The Great Nancy: Humph, you hurt me Wait for me here. I’ll come to punish you right away!!

Nikita Are you coming?

The Great Nancy: What do you think? You are in the Carnival Design Center. Of course I’ll come to you! I’m afraid that if I missed you this time, we could only meet each other after many years. Wait, I’ll go right away!! Don’t leave!!

“Miss Swift, Mr. Lambert, I’m really, really sorry. But we really can’t borrow them. Unless it is approved by the original designer, we are not qualified to make a decision.”

The man thought Nikita was to borrow the Charm Series, and he was still explaining with a face of embarrassment.

Sheehan is a person they can't afford to offend.

But they can't afford to offend the original designer.

That's their boss Nancy's good friend!

Internationally, she is also a well-known top designer

Sheehan crossed his legs at will, and his body leans back slightly on the sofa. He sits gracefully and has a strong aura. He held Nikita's hand and gently pinch it

It's like giving her fingers a massage

Nikita's fingers are as beautiful as her face.

Slender and soft.

It feels so soft

Sheehan took her hand and basically never let go.

Sheehan is not an unreasonable person. After listening to what the man said, he turned to look at Nikita: "None of the evening dresses here are suitable? How about changing a shop?"

When the man next to him heard him say that they will leave, his expression changed.

When he was about to say something, suddenly, a staff walked towards him, approached him and lowered his voice to say something

Then the man's expression changed again. He raised his head and looked at Nikita in shock.

What is the identity of this woman brought by Mr. Lambert?

Nacy actually called and asked all the staff in their design center to receive her well.

Moreover, they must receive with the highest protocol!

That is to say, no matter what requirements the female companion brought by Mr. Lambert has, they must meet her!

"Miss Swift, if you really like the Charm Series, we can make an exception and borrow it once." After receiving the boss's instruction, the man immediately changed his words.

His attitude was more respectful than before.

Sheehan raised his eyebrows and looked at the man who suddenly changed his words. He narrowed his deep eyes. "Didn't you just say that you can't decide it? Why can you decide it again?"

"We just received the instruction, saying that we must meet all the requirements of Miss Swift." When the man spoke, he looked at Nikita again, and his eyes were full of curiosity and doubts.
