

The Girl CB 771

Chapter 771 Deep Regret

Margot took a glass of water and was about to drink it. When she heard it, she pinched the cup tightly: “She hung up the phone?”

Patrick also pinched phone, nodding

Margot bit her lip. She should have guessed what we were looking for her. She is deliberately venting her anger and wants us to humbly beg her for several times.”

“We really misjudged her before Even if she deliberately vents her anger towards us, we can’t blame her Patrick was silent, thinking of how they misunderstood Nikita before. At this moment, he was annoyingly regretful.

If they didn’t believe the doctor who identified Nikita deliberately gave Margot poison, things would not end up so bad now. At that time, they severely scolded Nikita.

They cursed her bad.

Moreover, they cursed her in front of many people.

But now, they have been severely wrong.

They never dreamed that the magic doctor they were looking for was their daughter!

The magical doctor, who awakened old Mr. Lambert with one acupuncture, with supreme medical skills, turned out to be Nikita

Even several top experts from the National Hospital set up a medical team to cure old Mr. Lambert. They treated Old Mr. Lambert for five years, but they failed to wake him up Nikita, however, woke him up with one acupuncture treatment!

Her medical skill is even more powerful than the top experts in all hospital!

The national hospital got top talents in national medicine, and the medical team of the president of country A is composed of several experts selected from the national hospitals. In other words, the national hospitals represent the highest medical level of the country, and even internationally, they are famous

Margot had thought about looking for experts from the hospital to treat her before

However the Swift family were not able to make acquaintance with any doctors or people who can introduce them. She can't even meet the experts from the national hospital.

But now

Suddenly, they learned that Nikita is the doctor who was more powerful than all the experts in the national hospital. Margot and Patrick had just cut off their relationship with her. Until now, it has been a long time, and they have not been able to completely process the shock.

They thought their daughter, fighting against classmates, with awful academic performance, turned out to be the heated figure of the upper class, whom countless people begged for a treatment.

Their own daughter, Nikita.

They dream of climbing up of the social ladder. However, their own daughter, with her outstanding medical skills, became the prestigious guest of the Garrett and the Lambert family. She's glorious nowadays.

This glory should have belonged to the Swift family

If, Nikita still stay in the family..

But now...

Everything of her has nothing to do with the Swift family

They even pushed her out Besides, if they didn't doubt her prescription, Margot would have been recovered by now. Patrick regretted

Margot regretted so much that she wanted to kill herself.

Chapter 772 She will forgive them for their unintentional mistakes.

*Try again Margot frowned and put the glass on the table, upsetting "Even if we were wrong about her before, it is not entirely our fault. The doctor said there is something wrong. Should we stop believing doctors?"

"Dr. Davis can't lie to us"

"You were there Margot frowned at Patrick "Didn't you hear what Dr. Davis sad?"

Patrick sighed and nodded. "Of course I heard it. For no reason, how could Dr. Davis lie to us? Either that prescription is really problematic, or Nikita wants to treat you with poison"

"Fight poison with poison?" Margot paused

Patrick looked at her "Diseases that can't be cured by normal methods sometimes could be treated with poison to achieve miraculous effects. There is something wrong with the prescription mentioned by Dr Davis, which is viewed from the perspective of normal treatment. The prescription may be really poison oure your disease.

“Several powerful experts gave old Mr. Lambert treatment for several years without any improvement. Why can Nikita wake him up with one acupuncture? I think it should be the same reason. Her treatment should be different from normal treatment

“Besides, you have this disease, Nikita doesn't need to harm you again.”

After listening to Patrick's words, Margot was silent for a long time

She felt that what Patrick said was reasonable

It's unnecessary for Nikita to harm her again.

At that time, she was angry and wouldn't think too much. When she caught Nikita, she severely scolded her. She thought that Nikita was trying to harm her. She regretted to give birth to her.

But now calm down, she regretted her acting out of impulse at that time.

Patrick called Nikita again.

Thinking, after all, they have made mistakes first, and there is nothing to be humble

Wait a minute, they would apologize to her, saying that they mistreated her before.

Even if the relationship is severed, Nikita is their daughter after all

The blood relation can't be broken anyway.

As long as they have a good attitude, and apologize to her well, she should forgive their careless mistakes.

Within a few seconds, a mechanized voice sounded: Sorry, the phone you dialed is on the phone, please dial it later.

Patrick paused, and hung up the phone. "She is on the phone, I'll call again later."

Margot can only nod, upsetting.

After about half an hour, Patrick called again. It seemed that Nikita's still on the phone.

"She hasn't finished talking yet, let's wait a little longer." Patrick had to hang up the phone. He always felt a little strange.

He feels that Nikita is talkative.

She has been chatting for more than half an hour.

Margot also felt strange "Why did she talk for so long?"

They had to wait.

After waiting for almost another half an hour, Patrick felt that Nikita must have finished chatting anyway, so he dialed her number again.

Who knows, she was still on the phone.

This time, Patrick felt something was wrong.

Chapter 773 Ruthless

He looked at Margot doubtfully: "Why is it that every time I dial, the other party is on the phone? Is there something wrong with my mobile phone or hers? She can't have talked to people for so long, and now, she hasn't finished talking yet."

At that time, the doctor knocked on the door and came in.

Patrick stopped a young male doctor "Young man, can you do me a favor?"

The young doctor looked at him and said politely, "What can I do for you?"

Patrick told the young doctor he had called several times just now, and asked doubtfully, "Do you know what is going on? Is there something wrong with the phone?"

The young doctor paused.

He stared at Patrick for a few seconds. Finding out that Patrick really didn't understand, he said with a strange expression: "You may were blocked by the person"

"Being blocked?" Patrick froze.

The young doctor nodded, and handed his phone to Patrick: "Why don't you try my phone? If you can get through, you should be blocked."

Patrick took the phone stiffly.

Sure enough, it was connected soon, without prompting that it was on the phone.

He used his mobile phone again and called again.

It's still on the phone.

After confirming that he was blacklisted by Nikita, Patrick frowned.

After the ward round doctor leaves...

Patrick told Margot about being blocked by Nikita.

Margot frowned: "Is she so ruthless?"

"She may still be angry." Patrick thought that they were really too much before and sighed. "We have made mistakes first. Otherwise, she would not have moved out of home at the beginning."

"What should I do now?" Margot was angry and anxious. "What should I do if she doesn't treat me? Even if we are wrong about her, don't we already know that we are wrong? I am her mother. Is she so cruel? Does she really want to watch me die?"

"You now know you are her own mother. I think you are worse than a stepmom. If Nikita wouldn't forgive you, you deserve it!" A stern voice sounded outside the door, and the door was pushed open again. Cathleen walked into the ward with anger.

"Mom..." Patrick and Margot saw Cathleen, and paused.

Cathleen looked at the two people coldly: "I talked with Nikita, and she really doesn't want to care about your life or death. You think she is cruel, but you had always been cruel to her. You will not treat her like that if you really treat her as your own flesh and blood!"

"Everything has cause and effect. It's karma. You are a mother who is not doing your duty. Do you expect your daughter to be good to you and filial to you?"

"Mom, I..." Blamed by Cathleen, Margot was speechless.

Patrick said nothing, looking down.

Cathleen looked at her stupid daughter and son-in-law with disgust. She took a note out, and threw it on the table: "Since you know that you are wrong, you should apologize and be sincere. Niky are kind hearted. If you say more nice things and lower your attitude, she may be soft hearted, and you can still have a chance to cure the disease.

"This is..."

Margot looked down at the note.

It is an address: 3808, the Ustang Apartment.

"Where Nikita lives now." Cathleen glared at Margot, "What a mother. Your daughter moves out, you don't even care about where she lives, whether she's safe."

"You don't care about anything of her. No wonder she wanted to cut off from you." Cathleen commented. "Why are you accusing her of being cruel and ruthless when parents perform the parental duty like this?"

"If I were her, I would rather not have such parents!"

There was blue on Margot's face.

Patrick was too ashamed to look up.

After Nikita moved out, they called her, but she didn't answer. Then, they didn't care about her.

They didn't care if she had a place to live after moving out of the house.

They even felt Nikita was just being childish. They wanted to cool her down, throwing their backs at her, letting her being mistreated, so that she would return and live with them.

Cathleen said they didn't perform their duty, and they...really didn't.

"At that time, she had to move out herself, and we didn't force her to move away." Margot refuted.
"Since she wants to move away on her own, she must have found a good place to live."

"She is a grown-up, and she can certainly take good care of herself. She...she didn't need us to worry at all."

Cathleen smiled angrily: "If the person who moved away is Yvonne, would you ignore?"

Biting her lip, Margot was stunned.

After a long time, Margot whispered again: "Yvonne has been sensible since childhood, how can she do such a thing?" Cathleen smiled, shaking her head in disappointment. She rubbed her temple and said wearily. "I have found someone who can save your life. It is your business that what you're going to do now. I don't take care of you ever since this incident."

"If Niky is willing to cure you, it means that you can live. If she refuses, you...can only carry on yourself."

After saying that, Cathleen left.

Margot grabbed the note, crumpled it, and smashed it to the ground. "What does she mean? Why does she always help Nikita? Who is her own daughter? Does she want me to apologize to Nikita in person?"

"I will never beg Nikita!"

Nikita went out of the apartment, and saw Nancy's red Maserati sports car parked on the side of the road.

She knocked on the window. She rolled down the window and unlocked the door.

Nikita opened the door and got in.

Nancy handed her a cup of milk tea. "I was in queue for an hour even I got there before it opens."

Nikita took it. It was icy.

She didn't drink it, but put it aside.

When Nancy saw this, she raised her eyebrows, "Why don't you drink it? I remember that you used to like it."

"It's too cold." Nikita fastens her seat belt.

"ge

Nancy was confused: "I specially asked them to add a few more pieces of ice. Don't you like your drinks to be icy?"

"Ah." Nikita nodded, touching her nose. "I used to. Now, I drink milk tea without ice."

After being with Sheehan, all the milk tea he brought her was without ice.

She is used to drinking milk tea without ice.

Chapter 774 Deep Admiration

Nancy was stunned. "When did you change your habit?"

Nancy was really surprised.

Nikita have developed this habit since childhood. Is it possible to change?

She doesn't seem to constantly changing.

She hadn't met Nikita for only two years. However, she feels like twenty years. First, Nikita settles down in the N City. And she got a boyfriend. She doesn't even like the ice on top of milk tea!

She felt that she wouldn't be surprised if someone told her that tomorrow was the end of the world!

"What?" Nikita didn't answer her, raising her brow, "What's the problem?"

Nancy:...I'm just curious."

"Curious? Curious about what?"

"I thought it wouldn't happen to a person like you to change this kind of thing."

Nikita raised her brow, without acknowledging nor denying it.

Nancy didn't ask anymore. The sun was dazzling outside. She put on sunglasses. Suddenly she remembered something. She pulled out a collection of sketches and paintings to Nikita.

"These are the drafts of this year's International Fashion Competition. Please look at them for me."

Nikita picked it up, and looked through the pages.

"How?" Nancy asked as she drove.

Nikita didn't answer her immediately, but turned over a few pages and looked at it for a while:
"Average."

Nancy: "..

Every time when she finds Nikita with her paintings, she receives this kind of evaluation.

Nikita's best comment on her 'perfect work' was just 'average'.

Most of the time, it's a 'nah', or an I-don't-feel anything-from-it.

Nancy's ability to resist pressure is getting better and better.

She sighed, feeling stuffy: "So, you don't like the design? I thought you could give me a well-done. I just thought too much."

"Niky, every time you will make me question about my professional ability."

"Why's that?"

"Am I asking too little for myself, or am I asking too much?"

She is the top fashion designer in the industry.

Those first-line luxury brands are begging for cooperation.

She worked for so many years. It's the one person who made her feel she doesn't deserve her reputation.

However, she is convinced.

She thought she painted perfectly. In the eyes of Nikita, there are many problems.

“Maybe too little.” Nikita said lightly. She held out her hand. “Pen.”

Nancy: “...”

It happened again.

There was a red light in front of the cross road. She took out a sketch brush from her bag to Nikita.

Nikita then buried herself in revising the sketches and paintings.

She revised it quickly without any pause.

With only a few strokes, she changed the painting.

Nancy watched her revise her drawing.

Even though she already knew Nikita’s strength, she is stunned and amazed every time. It took only one minute for Nikita to change two or three spots. She made originally designed clothes beautiful and beautiful. Nancy really admired her.

They are all human beings.

Chapter 775 It’s over after I proved myself.

All the ingredients in the body are the same.

Why is there a huge gap between them?

A genius like Nikita... must have been made delicately by the God.

As for them...

They must have been made casually.

“Niky, you are clearly a talented designer in the clothing industry. Why don’t you continue in the industry? If you don’t quit, if you call yourself the second in the whole industry, no one will never dare to call themselves the first. Everyone has to stand aside!”

Nancy looked at Nikita revising her drafts. She couldn’t understand why Nikita quit the business.

When Nikita won the first place in the world competition. She was popular.

Many first-line brands and first-class companies spent a lot of money to sign her.

In order to sign her, the founder of VK once rented a house near where she lived, pestering her for several months by all means. Nikita refused many times at first. She was then touched by the founder’s patience and sincerity. Thus, she designed a season of garments for the brand.

Nikita served as the honorary chief designer of VK. In those months when she helped VK design clothes, VK clothing sold well all over the world, with its stock price soaring. In that quarter alone, VK’s sales was as much as its total sales in the past two years.

Later, the founder of VK offered billions of retention fees, trying to let Nikita stay in VK.

Nikita refused.

This matter was quite sensational at that time. Everyone admired the designer “Nikita”.

After all, 99% of people can't refuse signing fees worth billions of dollars.

If Nikita still stays in VK, or any first-line brand company, she is absolute promising.

Nancy knows it very well.

She can take the first place in these world clothing competitions, which is because Nikita withdrew from the industry. Nikita did not participate in the competition anymore.

Otherwise, there is no suspense that Nikita would win over her.

Nikita will help her revise the painting.

However, Nikita didn't want to draw her own sketches to participate in the competition.

Nancy really can't understand.

Nikita revised two other pages of paintings. Hearing, she didn't look up: "What if I take the first place? Can I eat the prize?"

Nancy:...you can't eat it, but you can have the money! Don't you like money best?"

"I can't earn all of them." Nikita's voice is light, "When hobbies become occupations, it is not fun. Besides, I am not interested in winning prizes."

"Then why did you..."

"I just want to prove myself." Nikita didn't wait for her to finish, then said softly, "It's enough."

Therefore, when Nikita went to participate in the World Costume Competition at the beginning, she just wanted to prove that she can take the first place?

After winning the first place, she was not interested in staying in this industry?

She refused to sign the contract at a high price with VK, just because she found it boring when her hobbies became a career?

In any case, Nancy didn't expect this is why Nikita withdrew from the industry.

Very individual, very independent.

Whatever comes to her mind, she will do it.

If she doesn't want to do it, she'll leave at once.

Chapter 776 Legendary Life

Nikita is very self-conscious.

However, she has to admit that Nikita has the strength to go her own way.

If others do this, they may miss the best opportunity in their lives. With likely adverse consequences, they may regret it later...

But Nikita won't.

It is the best opportunity for her at any time, as long as she wants and as long as she is willing to do it.

She will always make great achievements again.

Nancy was really envious of Nikita.

She felt Nikita is very lucky, and hardworking as well.

From the moment she was born, it is impossible for ordinary people to catch up with them after working hard all their lives. An hour later, they arrived at the factory.

The Silk factory is a very large manor in the suburbs. There are thousands of embroiders living in the manor.

Nikita picked the location. It's mountainous with waters. The scenery is picturesque. After the Silk factory was built, Nikita never came

During those two years, she was trapped on Mr. Hall's island.

In fact, in those two years, although Mr. Hall trapped her on the island, she didn't completely lose contact with the outside world.

It's easy if Nikita want to contact with the outside world.

She chose to lose contact with others.

She doesn't want to involve other innocent people in her own wrongdoing.

Mr. Hall is ruthless, except for being patient with her all the time. For others, he will kill them if they didn't satisfy him.

Although she is trapped by Mr. Hall, she will not be in danger.

If it comes to others, it's hard to say whether they're in danger.

The person in charge of the factory received a notice in advance and came out to meet them.

Seeing Nancy get off, he hurried forward and said respectfully, "Boss."

The other side of the door opened, Nikita got down from the car.

When the person in charge of the factory saw Nikita, he was stunned, and his eyes flashed a touch of surprise. Then he became curious about the identity of the little girl who got off from Nancy's car. "This is..."

She is a very beautiful little girl.

Is it their boss' sister?

But looking at the appearance, she doesn't look like the one either.

Nikita came to Nancy, who introduced formally: "This is the big boss, Nikita."

The person was stunned, with widened eyes.

As all employees in the factory know, there are two bosses.

One is the big boss and the other is Nancy the boss.

Nancy will visit the Silk factory every one or two months. Most of the employees here know her, the boss of the Silk factory.

But there's a boss above her, whom no one has met.

Employees guessed privately that the big boss should be a man in his thirties and forties.

But it's such a young girl?

Even younger than Nancy!

"Big...big boss The person in charge dazed for a long time. It took a long time for him to calm down. He was stunned. Nikita nodded

"Are you surprised our big boss is such a young girl?" Nancy looked at the person in charge with consternation and said with a smile, "Our big boss is really young. However, ability has nothing to do with age Today, the big boss comes to the factory for the first time, you will take us to have a good visit and introduce her our conditions."

The person in charge nodded.

He took another look at Nikita.

Everyone thought that the big boss was a middle-aged man in his thirties and forties, but who would have thought that it was such a beautiful little girl.

A teenage girl is already the boss of such a big factory.

This generation is outstanding.

The Silk factory is too big, Nikita only went to several important departments to have a look.

But even so, it took almost two hours to visit.

In the office...

Nancy looked at the girl who was lying casually on the sofa, and handed her a document of their development plan: "This is the development route of the Silk factory in the next two years. See if there is any problem."

The real boss is actually Nikita

The Silk was founded by Nikita. The site selection, establishment, brand name, and some initial business models of the factory were all made by Nikita.

At that time, Nikita didn't have much money.

Nancy paid for most of the costs and operating expenses at first.

Generally speaking, it is Nancy who pays for it, and Nikita contributes her efforts.

But Nancy felt that she still took advantage of it.

Because of Nikita's ability at that time, she could ask some big shots to invest. However, she gave Nancy half of the shares. It's all for friendship's sake.

Nikita scammed, and put aside the documents.

Nancy paused. "That's it?"

Nikita slowly looked up at her: "The Silk is not suitable for taking the high-end route. If you want to develop the route of international first-line brands, it will not work."

“Why?” Nancy thought the plan is quite well. After approving, she then took it to Nikita.

The Silk factory has a very good reputation now.

An oversea first-line brand wants to cooperate with the Silk to jointly produce the high-end series.

The Silk now has a semi-high-end series of cheongsam. If it goes to the high-end, the commercial value of the whole brand will be different.

“We can create another brand. Outsiders might think it’s n brilliant for a brand targeting ordinary office ladies designing a high-end route. Peers in the industry will not really recognize the Silk’s position in the first-line brand because we are co-branded with the first-line brand.”

“We might be trapped along the way.”

Nancy was silent for a moment and then nodded: “Make sense. I only thought about the promotion of brand value, but didn’t consider the recognition of peers.”

At this moment, there was a knock on the door.

Nancy picked up the coffee on the table and sipped it. “Come in.”

When the door was pushed open, the person in charge of the factory came in: “Big boss, boss.”

“What is it?” Nancy asked.

“Miss Rosa, the daughter of the Garrett Group, said that she would like to talk about some business with our the Silk factory. She knows that both bosses are there and wants to meet with you.”

“Rosa?” Nancy squinted and frowned. “What’s she doing here?”

The person in charge thought about it: "I heard that the Garrett Group recently wanted to dive in the fashion industry. Maybe she took a fancy to the commercial value of the Silk and wanted to cooperate with us?"

"Oh." Nancy sneered. "No, you tell her that we are not interested in cooperating with the Garrett Group."

The person in charge was stunned.

He gave Nancy a surprised look.

In his impression, Nancy is a very easy-going person. Before, she won't throw such an attitude even she refused to collaborate with other business.

Chapter 777 You can cover me, Niky.

In his impression, Nancy is a very easy-going person. Before, she won't throw such an attitude even she refused to cooperate with other business.

But now...

It's like there's feud between Miss Rosa and Nancy. Her sight was cold, as if she looks down on Rosa.

Is there anything wrong with the daughter of the Garrett family and the two bosses?

Although the person in charge felt strange, he didn't ask much. After respectfully answering "Aye", he walked out of the office.

“Hum, the Garrett Group even wants to cooperate with the Silk. If it weren’t for the annoyance of Miss Rosa in the Garrett family, I could consider it. Now...I will inform them later and blacken the Garrett Group permanently. Not only the Silk, but all the industries under me will not have any cooperation with the Garrett Group in the future.”

Speaking of Rosa, Nancy gnashed her teeth.

It seems that she has a deep hatred with Rosa.

There was no grudge between the two at first.

However, after borrowing evening dresses, they all got angry with each other. Nancy hates Rosa, and along with the whole Garrett family The Garrett Group now wants to open up the market in the fashion industry, and cooperate with the Silk. Corley is not fully recovered, so many important negotiations are now handled by Rosa for him.

Nancy will consider it carefully, if she has no problem with Rosa if the Garrett Group wants to cooperate with the Silk factory.

She can’t just refuse.

After all, the strength of the Garrett Group lies there. If the two companies work together, it will be beneficial to the Silk. Coupled with what happened at the dinner party, Nancy loathes Rosa naturally.

Even if Rosa can’t represent other people in the family.

She is part of the Garrett Group!

Nikita looked at Nancy’s expression, asking calmly: “When did you and Rosa have such a deep feud? How did she provoke you?”

“It’s just borrowing evening dresses!” Nancy looked down at the crystal nails she had just made, and snorted coldly. “She wanted to borrow the Black Swan series with 10 million dollars, I refused. She felt that I didn’t know how to be grateful that I didn’t give her face. She even threatened me with malicious words.”

“She thought that if she said a few malicious words, I would be scared and apologize to her? What about the Garrett family? I am not afraid of offending her.”

“I’d like to see what she got and what she can do to me!”

Nikita squinted. She sat up straight on the sofa, with a trace of coldness in her eyes: “She threatened you?”

“Ah. Nancy didn’t take Rosa’s threat seriously. “She said she will make me regret. It’s just that she’s embarrassed. I didn’t want to bother.”

Nikita squinted, with cold temperament: “Don’t take it too casually, since the Garrett family has its strengths. If she really finds you trouble, tell me. I will help you solve it.”

“Of course.” Nancy smiled. That’s what I planned. If she dares to get back at me, I will find you. Otherwise, why do you think I am so confident? Of course, it is because of you”

Chapter 778 Do you know what are the consequences if you offend the Garrett family?

Nikita, “...”

On the other side...

After the cooperation was refused, Rosa became furious.

She looked calmly at the person in charge “Is your boss sure you want to refuse to cooperate with the Garrett Group? We negotiate with sincerity. Your boss refused directly without even asking what kind of cooperation conditions the Garrett Group offered Is she serious?”

“Does she know about the Garrett Group? She doesn’t know what she refuses.”

“Miss Garrett, of course, our boss knows the Garrett Group very well. It is our honor to be selected by the Garrett Group. I am very grateful to Miss Garrett for coming here in person with sincerity. However, our boss indeed let me convey the message”

“We employees dare not ask more about what the boss thinks. But I think the boss naturally has her own reasons. I am really sorry to let Miss Garrett leave with nothing.”

Biting her lip, Rosa took a deep breath, and endured her anger. “That’s because she doesn’t know how good the terms offered by the Garrett Group are. Once she knows, she will definitely accept. You take me to see your boss now, and I want to meet her personally!”

“Um...” The person in charge was embarrassed, “The boss didn’t want to see Miss Garrett. I’m...I’m afraid I can’t take Miss Garrett to see her.”

“What are you talking about?” Rosa smashed the table, stood up, without displaying any noble lady etiquette, “Does she know who I am? She actually didn’t want to meet me.”

“Sorry, Miss Garrett.” The person in charge lowered his head and repeated what he had just said, “We do what the boss. says. If the boss says no, I can’t take you to see her.”

“You...”

Rosa flew into a rage and pointed to the person in charge. She smiled angrily and said, “Good, very good. A little boss has such boldness and courage, and even has such an attitude towards our family.”

“Good, very good!”

“I’d like to see, how long you will be proud of this factory! You refused to cooperate with the Garrett Groups, huh? You’d better think clearly about the consequences of what you are doing now! Don’t cry and beg the Garrett Group for cooperation, it will be too late at that time!”

The person in charge is still in a humble attitude. Facing Rosa in rage, he is still polite and courteous:
“Miss Garrett, I will send you out.”

‘No need!’

Rosa grabbed the limited edition purse on the table: “Let’s go!”

Then, without looking back, she angrily walked out of the reception room of the factory.

She left from the Silk factory.

In the car...

Rosa was still so angry. “The boss of this the Silk factory is too ignorant of the current affairs. She dares to refuse the cooperation of the Garrett Group. Who gave her the courage?”

‘Does she know what will happen if she offends the Garrett family!’

“How dare she do this to me, how dare she!”

Not only did the boss refuse the cooperation, but also, she refused to meet her. She came all the way to this place in person!

She is the little boss of a small factory.

Who gave her the courage to offend her and her family?

“Miss Rosa, calm down.” The assistant’s face is not very good-looking, and he feels that the boss of the Silk factory is really unappreciative. They should be ecstatic to receive the cooperation invitation from the Garrett Group.

However, they had such a bad attitude.

Chapter 779 Teach Her a Lesson?

They didn’t even see the boss of the Silk factory after this trip.

The Silk’s boss must be corrupted in the brain.

Can she still do well in the N City in the future after offending the Garrett Group?

Although the Silk factory is doing well in the industry, it is very easy for the family to clean up a small business. “A little boss, dares to offend the family. I don’t think they’ll learn the lesson if we don’t do something.”

Rosa bit her lip. She looked gloomy.

“It is necessary to teach the Silk a lesson.” The assistant thought that this negotiation was a sure thing. They even brought the signed contract. He never thought that they would be rejected by the other party.

And they refused so directly.

If this matter gets out, wouldn’t the Garrett Group become a joke in the circle?

Even a small clothing company dares to offend the Garrett Group. What do other people think of the group?

“It is not difficult to teach the Silk factory a lesson.” The assistant thought for a moment. He sneered, and said in a low voice, “Miss Rosa, I thought of an idea. Not only can you clean up the Silk once, but also let the Silk factory’s fail its good reputation in the industry”

Nikita and Nancy didn’t stay in the factory for too long. After visiting and confirming some later operation projects, they drove away.

Halfway, Sampson sent message to Nikita, asking when they would arrive, saying that he was almost at the appointed place.

Nikita just wanted to go back to the text, when her phone rang. A strange number popped up on the screen.

Nikita’s mobile phone is equipped with an anti-harassment applet.

All harassing calls can’t come in.

So anyone who can get through to her mobile phone can’t be harassing.

The bell rang twice. She picked it up.

As soon as she was connected, there was a sobbing voice. It was a little girl’s: “Sister Nikita, I am Darleen. Where are you now? Will you come back soon?”

“Darleen?” Nikita paused, listening to the little girl with fear, crying. She frowned, “What happened? Is something wrong with Auntie?”

“Mom is fine, it is...it is Dad who has an accident.” The little girl sobbed, as if she was crying breathlessly. “Sister Nikita, Dad...Daddy died. I have no father now...”

“A group of terrible people came to the house, forcing my mother to sign some statement. My mother cried and refused to sign it, so they beat my mother. My mother was knocked unconscious by them and is now in the town hospital. Sister Nikita, what should I do? I really don’t know what to do.”

“Nikita, I’m so scared, I’m really scared...”

Nancy felt as if the temperature inside the car had dropped by tens of degrees in an instant.

Nikita hung up the phone, frowning hard.

She looks cold.

She exudes a terrible chill.

“What happened?” Nancy asked hastily.

Nikita didn’t say too much. Her sight was dark: “I want to go back to the Syracuse village immediately now, Do you have anything else to do today?”

“Syracuse village?” Nancy paused. When she arrived at the intersection ahead, she immediately changed her original route.

10:36

“There is no work arrangement today, so I’ll take you there.”

Nikita bit her lip, “Hmm.”

Nancy drives very fast.

It only took more than four hours.

At the town hospital....

A red Maserati sports car is quite eye-catching. They stopped at the entrance of a hospital in the small town. Before it stopped, it attracted many people's attention.

A group of people stood at the hospital gate, pointing and talking.

Although most people don't know Maserati, they can see that car must be expensive.

Moments later...

Nancy found a place to park the car. She unbuckled her seat belt and got out.

The sun outside is still very dazzling. Nancy didn't take off her sunglasses, but got out of the car with oversized sunglasses covering most of her face. She was wearing a long red dress that was quite eye-catching, and with her wavy hair that highlighted her personality. She quickly attracted the attention of a large group of people.

A group of people who had just pointed at the sports car turned to point at her.

"Who's that?"

"That woman is dressed so enchanting, she is not from our town."

"I don't know, I haven't seen her."

Nancy didn't wriggle. She stood by, waiting for Nikita to get off.

Before long, the door on the other side opened, and Nikita got off the car.

Almost the moment she got off, someone recognized her immediately.

“Is that, is that Nikita?”

“Nikita?! Is it the bully who often puts other people’s kids into the hospital?”

“Isn’t she taken to the city by her own parents to be a darling daughter? Why did she come back?”

“It’s really Nikita!”

Nikita’s face is familiar not only to the villagers in Syracuse village, but also to a group of people living in the Nature Town.

Nikita studied in the middle school in the town in junior high school.

Many students in the school live in the Nature Town.

Many of the students Nikita beat were from the Nature Town.

Naturally, parents all know this “notorious” bully.

At the moment of seeing Nikita, this group of parents recalled the nightmare-like fear. They were all worried about whether Nikita would return to the Nature Town to study again.

After getting off car, Nikita walked towards the hospital.

A group of people were like seeing a ghost. When they saw her coming, they were sparse in all directions in an instant.

In less than a moment, they all ran far away.

At least ten meters away from Nikita.

Nancy saw this scene: "You are well-known in the town. As soon as this group of people saw you, they were just like seeing a ghost and fled really fast."

Nikita's voice was faint: "I just beat their little ones several times and let them live in the hospital for several months."

Nancy: "..."

Just? Just?

It's a bit hard.

They walked into the hospital

Nikita found a nurse to ask about the ward where Gerda lived, and learned about the basic injury of Gerda with the nurse. When she heard the nurse talk about Gerda being sent to the hospital, she was covered in blood which dyed her white shirt red. Several teeth were knocked out, Nikita looked horribly gloomy when listening.

Chapter 780 Hot Chicks

"A group of men bullied a weak woman until she was all over with blood and lay in the hospital?!" Even Nancy was so angry that she gritted her teeth and scolded. "A group of rubbish, bullying orphans and widows. They are simply cowards!"

Nikita's eyes flashed a trace of dangerously cold.

The hospital in the town is small. Go out from the outpatient department, and a five-story building opposite is the whole inpatient department.

Gerda's ward is on the third floor

There is no elevator, so they have to walk up by themselves.

Nikita and Nancy just went up, saw two blue hair, hippy young men from the stairwell on the second floor, who were scolding and cursing.

"If that pussy don't appreciate it again, I think it's better to get her done, once and for all."

"Don't be impulsive. We'll come back tomorrow to persuade her. If she refuses to sign, we'll let her suffer. At least, she has daughter..." The man's expression became obscene.

The man beside him smiled: "You boy, you have long been checking out that little girl. She looks a little beautiful. However, she's too flat."

Nikita and Nancy heard their loud talk.

Nikita paused from going upstairs.

The girl lifted her eyes, squinting, clenching her fingers.

These two men came down from upstairs.

Just as they were approaching the Nature Town, Gerda's daughter, Adele, called her again.

She said it was the gang who beat Gerda who came to the hospital.

They threatened Gerda to sign an agreement.

Adele cried on the phone saying that she was afraid that the group of people will beat Gerda again. When talking, Nikita heard a man's voice, and then Adele panicked and hung up the phone.

The voice was very similar to one of the two men.

Suddenly, one of the men saw Nikita and Nancy standing on the stairs.

They were stunned

Another saw his companion suddenly staring at a certain direction motionlessly, and curiously looked at the direction.

They were stunned, staring at Nikita and Nancy.

After a few seconds, the two people seemed to come to their senses, looking at each other tacitly.

Are there such beautiful women in this small damn Nature Town?

Even in the city, they have basically never seen this kind of girls in the city.

They're not dreaming.

A moment ago, two people were still complaining that Gerda didn't understand the current affairs, which caused them to run to the hospital day by day.

But at the moment, two people are exulted that they have not come here in vain.

Gee, these chicks are really hot!
