

The Girl CB 781

Chapter 781 She wouldn't have to suffer.

The hippy in green shirt was so excited that they smiled and whistled at Nancy and Nikita: "Are the two beauties from the Nature town? Why haven't we seen you before? Visiting friends or family? Which floor are you going to, are you familiar with the road, do you want us to take you there?"

Another hippy stared at the two girls, with a cigarette in his mouth, regarding his posture handsome,

It's like a hungry wolf seeing a little sheep.

His sight is full of hunger and thirst!

Nancy frowned and clenched her fists

Beside her, Nikita looked at the two people faintly She leaned against the wall, saying lightly I'm not local To the third floor"

Hearing Nikita actually responded, Nancy looked at her in surprise

Yet Nancy is clear that Nikita always has her own plan. She silently watched her moves

Seeing Nikita's response, the hippies were even more excited They immediately leaned forward and smiled: "He he, little sister, we just came from the third floor. You are not familiar with the road, so we will take you up, shall we?"

They came from the third floor.

Nikita squinted, clenching her hands. She looked up slowly.

At a close range, they were stunned by the girl's extremely beautiful and exquisite appearance.

They lost their mind, staring at Nikita.

"Have you been to Gerda's ward?" The girl said faintly, as if she's having a small talk with the hippies. However, her sight is condensed with a layer of frost.

Looking into her eyes, people can feel the cold immersed in the guts.

"How do you know that?" The hippy frowned. "Who are you to Gerda? The person you are going to visit is Gerda?"

Nikita moved her lower knuckles. Her voice was unhurried "Gerda was admitted to the hospital. Did you do it?"

Her every word is wrapped in cold frost.

"What is your relationship with Gerda? A relative?" Listening to her ask about Gerda, they stared at her and Nancy carefully, and then smiled carelessly "If you are relatives of Gerda, then just go up and persuade her, let her not be so dead-headed, and sign the agreement quickly. Signing the agreement is good for everyone, if you don't sign it..."

The man threatened 'Next time, it is not certain that where she lies and whether she is alive.'

"So, did you beat Gerda to being hospitalized?" As if she didn't hear the threat, Nikita repeated the question again.

Being asked, the man smiled. "Why, little sister, do you want to stand up for anyone? We did beat her to the hospital. She was beaten because she didn't understand how things work."

"If she had been obedient, she wouldn't have to suffer all this."

Chapter 782 Fight with the Hoods

“If she had been obedient, she wouldn’t have to suffer all this.”

“That kind of dead-headed village woman has nothing fun. Why don’t you two go with us? We will take you to a good place. How about having a good time with us?”

Saying, another hippy held out his hand to Nancy

The hippy in green stared at Nikita’s fair skin. He approached her: “Little sister, let’s go, I will take you...”

“Bang!”

Nikita heavily punched his nose before he finishes the words.

It sounds as if something had broken.

The hippy screamed, with nosebleeds flowing like tap water.

Before he could react, Nikita kicked on his knee

Another “click” sound, and the man screamed in pain. Being kicked hard, he could no longer stand. He couldn’t support himself to be the balanced. He fell to the ground.

“You are very capable of heating woman, aren’t you? Nikita stamped on him, kicking his body.

The places where she easily are all the places where the human body can feel the pain most. Those spots get hurt most

The man's nose was still bleeding, looking blue, screaming

He was beaten down before he could fight back

On the other side. Nancy easily subdued the other hippy with her heels.

"How dare you flirt

Nancy kicked him with her ten-centimeter high heels. She looked down with queen's aura

Nancy knows a little self defense mechanism.

She learned

Nikita didn't teach her much, but a few simple tricks that could quickly defeat the enemy It's easy to use and learn, and more than enough to deal with ordinary hooligans.

Two men who were beaten with green and blue bruises, screaming constantly, rolling on the ground, begging for mercy.

It's been a while

Nancy is tired from beating them

Nancy held Nikita when she was about to kick the swollen green shirt hippy.

"Enough, Niky If we continue, we'll kill them. Let's beat them later

Nikita stopped, with her sight stained with a touch of evil red

Nancy's heart thumped.

She pressed Nikita's shoulders gently, and whispered softly: "Enough, they have been punished as they deserve. We always have the opportunity to beat them up again."

"This rubbish is not worth wasting much time. Let's go and see Auntie Gerda first. She and her daughter must need your help now"

Nikita bit her lip. After exchanging sight with Nancy, she calmed down, and nodded.

"Let's go" Nancy tapped her shoulder again and walked upstairs, arming around her

One hippy been beaten to the ground, faces covered in blood, and can't get up for a long time.

The other hippy was scared all over, shivering He stumbled to get up.

Trembling, he pulled out his phone from the trouser pocket and made a call.

The hippy was crying and screaming as soon as the phone was connected: "President, Wanda and I were beaten..."

On the third floor. Nikita and Nancy just walked to number 305 ward, when they heard a violent cough inside. The girl was afraid, crying.

"Mom, why are you spitting blood? I'll call a doctor, I'll call a doctor for you."

"Adele, don't go!" There was another violent cough, and the woman's voice was hoarse and weak. "I am fine, don't bother the doctor."

“But you are coughing, and spitting blood!”

“Mom’s okay, mom’s really okay. Don’t call a doctor, I’ll just sleep.”

“Mom...”

Nikita stood at the door and listened for a while. She became gloomy, and pushed open the door.

In the room. The woman lying in the hospital bed and the girl sitting by the bed turned around at the same time. When they saw Nikita, both mother and daughter paused.

“Nikita!” The little girl is about fifteen or sixteen years old. She is cute, slim, with dark skin. When she saw Nikita standing at the door, she froze for a few seconds, and then she cried out in surprise.

She ran towards Nikita, hugging her tightly.

As if the drowning man caught the lifeline, she hugged Nikita very tightly: “Sister Nikita, I thought you wouldn’t come, you finally came back.”

Nikita patted the little girl on the back twice: “Adele, don’t cry. I am back, and no one will bully you again.”

“Niky, you, how do you...” In the hospital bed, Gerda was surprised when she saw Nikita, with widened eyes.

Soon, she thought of something, and frowned, She covered her mouth and coughed a few times, and then her voice was hoarse: “Did Adele call you?”

Then, she somehow angrily reprimanded the little girl: “Adele, why are you doing calling your sister Nikita?”

Under the comfort of Nikita, the little girl calmed down. Biting her lip, she wiped the tears and said with grievance: "I'm afraid those bad guys will come home again to smash things and beat us again. Nikita's sister fought beautifully and could help us beat them away..."

"Nonsense! Niky is three years older than you, and she is a soft and weak girl like you. You actually asked her to come back and fight with a group of men. Are you trying to harm her?"

Gerda got emotional. She coughed fiercely.

"Mom!" The little girl quickly ran to her mother. When she saw Gerda spitting blood again, she cried again.

Panting, Gerda wiped the blood and looked at Nikita. She said in a weak voice, "Niky, don't listen to Adele's nonsense. You need to hurry back."

"I'm all right, really. Niky, hurry back."

Chapter 783 We can't offend them.

Gerda didn't read any books. She didn't receive fair education.

But she also knows that since Nikita was taken to live in a big city with her own parents, she should deal less with people in the village in the future. She should not come back.

Her own parents are wealthy and powerful business leaders.

They definitely don't like Nikita staying with people in the Syracuse Village.

Besides, she got into a big trouble this time.

No matter how powerful Nikita is, she is just a little girl who can't taunt those people.

Those people are not the student she beat before. The big bosses behind them are ruthless and cruel.

This is the matter of their family, and Nikita has nothing to do with it. How can she involve Nikita in such a big incident?

Nikita delicate porcelain white face was expressionless. She squinted, and walked to the bedside, looking into Gerda's eyes. She took out her handkerchief and handed it to the little girl: "Adele, wipe it for your mother."

Seeing Gerda coughed and spat blood, Nikita's mood was even more gloomy.

The little girl cleverly took the handkerchief and carefully wiped the blood,

Nikita took out a small blue bottle to the little girl: "Give it to your mother."

Seeing the small pills handed over by Nikita, the girl's eyes lit up. She immediately fed them to Gerda.

The pill is very small.

After a while, Gerda stopped being out of breath.

In the past, when someone in Gerda's family was sick, Nikita would give them small pills to eat.

Gerda's family has taken this little pill before.

They knew it's good.

They soon get better after swallowing this pill.

"Mom, do you feel better?"

“Well, much better.” When Gerda spoke again, she stopped panting. Even her voice was not so hoarse.

The little pill came to effect as soon as it was put into the mouth

It’s sweet, and tastes like peppermint.

Her throat, which was originally dry and itchy, suddenly became much more comfortable.

Her stuffy chest doesn’t hurt so much.

The little girl looked at Gerda recovering, and felt at ease.

“Sister Nikita, thank you.” The little girl looked up at Nikita with tears in her eyes. “Mom’s right, I shouldn’t have told you about it. Sister Nikita, we are already very happy seeing you back to visit us.”

“Go back quickly, I will take good care of my mother.”

“Yes, Niky, go home quickly. I’m fine now. Adele is making a mountain out of a molehill. She’s young, so she could easily get frightened. She made it sound serious, actually, it’s fine.”

“In fact, it’s really nothing! She is exaggerating the deal!”

Biting her lip, the girl seemed she wanted to say something, However, she didn’t speak out.

Chapter 784 Do you want to call Officer Lewis?

Nikita stood by the bed. After a moment’s silence, she asked, “Why did Uncle George suddenly... Auntie Gerda, don’t hide from me, tell me what happened?”

In the hospital bed, listening to Nikita mention her husband, Gerda frowned, a trace of sadness flashed under her eyes.

She held back tears rolling around the corner of her eye. After a while, her voice was hoarse: "The hanging tower on the construction site fell...he was..."

Nikita nodded: "So, is it a work-related accident? What did the builder say? Is the compensation unreasonable?"

Gerda bit her lip. After a long time, she said sadly, "Niky, don't ask about this matter anymore. I'm a little tired. Adele, send them to the downstairs for me."

Then, Gerda turned over and closed her eyes.

It's like she's exhausted and sleepy

Coming out of the ward, Nikita gently closed the door.

She was silent all the way.

Until the little girl sent them to the hospital gate, Nikita looked at her, "Adele, what happened to your father? What agreement did those people want your mother to sign, and why didn't your mother sign it?"

Thinking about it, Nikita felt that it should not be for little compensation.

Gerda was awkward. She seemed that she wanted to say something, but couldn't.

She intuitively thought it's not that simple.

If it is just a normal work-related injury, it will be finished by paying compensation directly, so as not to make so much trouble.

Gerda was put into the hospital and refused to sign the agreement. What agreement is it?

"I, I don't know anything." The little girl avoided Nikita's sight, She looked down. "Sister Nikita, I have to go back. My mother needs someone to take care of her. I can't leave her for too long."

"Good...good-bye."

She walked away in a hurry.

Nikita stood in the place, squinting at the girl's figure drawing away.

"Niky, should we continue?" Nancy looked at the sports car parked next to her. "Do you want to go back, or..."

"You could go first." Nikita went forward, with hands in her pocket.

"What about you?" Nancy kept up with her. "Are you going to stay here?"

"Hmm." Nikita's voice was faint, "That group of people will definitely not give up. If I am gone, Aunt Gerda and Adele will be in a dangerous situation, I have to protect them."

"We've beaten them up heavily. They'll get back at us." There was a trace of worry in Nancy's eyes. "I don't feel at ease if you stay here alone."

"Why not? I can definitely get rid of them."

"I know what you can do. But I'm afraid if something goes wrong..." Nancy thought for a moment and then added, "Do you want to call Officer Lewis and ask him to say something with the local officers?"

“No need.” Nikita said lightly. “There is no need to bother him.”

“But...”

“I will be careful.” Nikita looked up at Nancy and interrupted, “Dark Disney can’t do anything to do. Do you think they’re better than the professional killers in the Dark Disney?”

Nancy: “...”

Chapter 785 A Piece of Cake

Okay, it seems that she worried too much!

Ten hippies aren’t capable of taking down one professional killer.

Nikita can fight against four or five killers at the same time. Without professional training, those hippies are just a piece of cake to fight against.

“Well, I will fly to F country early tomorrow morning, and I will go back first.” Nancy walked to the car. “Call me if there’s any problem. Tell me when you go back in advance, and I will arrange someone to pick you up.”

“Hmm.” Nikita stood in place, looking Nancy driving away.

After a few minutes, when Nancy’s car completely disappeared, Nikita turned around, and slowly walked into the hospital hall.

She found the young nurse before.

There are no secrets in a small place like the Nature town of Syracuse Village.

Anything happens would spread all over the village within a day.

Gerda's husband was killed on the construction site. Then, a group of people came to her home. This matter is not trivial. Nikita asked the nurse and got a general idea.

*So, Aunt Gerda refused to sign the agreement because there is something wrong with this matter?" Nikita calmly asked, with her sight covered with a layer of frost.

The nurse said mysteriously, lowering her voice, "It was said that her man didn't fall to death by accident, but someone deliberately caused his death. The construction site thought about giving her a sum of money to solve things, but she refused. She went to the local police station to report to the police. She wanted to find out the truth."

"And this thing seems to involve the boss on his man's construction site. Therefore, the company was afraid that she would make trouble. Thus, they wanted to let her sign the compensation agreement quickly. She refused to sign it, and then went to a group of trash to beat her into the hospital"

"I think, no matter whether her man died unjustly or not, she'd better sign the agreement. I heard that the boss on her man's construction site has something to do with the mafia. She had already lost her husband. She can't afford to lose anything more."

"You need to talk to her. I heard that the compensation costs nearly a million dollars. She and her daughter won't be worried about money through the rest of their lives."

She came out of the hospital.

Nikita went to a bank near the hospital and took tens of thousands of cash.

After taking the money, she went back to the hospital.

As soon as she entered the hospital hall, the nurse pulled her into a small storage room. She lowered her voice and looked very scared: "Don't go to Gerda. Before that, they came again. This time, more than ten people came, and they were carrying weapons, which was scary."

As the nurse spoke, she patted her chest as if she were really scared,

Nikita frowned, and walked out of the storage room without saying a word.

It's more than a dozen people with weapons. They obviously didn't come to find troubles with Gerda.

They're here for her and Nancy.

She and Nancy beat their people, who brought help for revenge.

Just on the third floor, Nikita heard Adele crying.

Gerda is also crying: "Let go of Adele, let go of my daughter!"

Nikita was carrying a black garbage bag in her hand, with a black bag of cash which she planned to give to Gerda.

If the money is more than 50 thousand dollars, Gerda definitely would refuse her.

Nikita carried a black garbage bag with money. She then kicked in the half-covered door.

"Bang".

A loud noise.

The ward is quite small, but it is crowded with people. Two men pressed Adele. Gerda was dragged out from the hospital bed. The drip bottles next to her fell to the ground.

The bottle was smashed to pieces.

The infusion needle was also torn off by violence.

Gerda's hand was swollen, and bleeding. She knelt down beside a man, cried and begged, "Please, let my daughter go. She doesn't know anything."

Anger surging up, Nikita rushed forward, pulled away a man who was pulling Adele, and smashed the black garbage bag onto the man's face, and then kicked him between the legs.

The man turned pale instantly, and he bowed down, covering the place being kicked.

Before the man beside him could react, Nikita kicked the other man's knee. The man screamed, and fell to the ground.

Money in black garbage bags is scattered all over the floor.

Nikita pulled Adele from the ground.

Adele's face is full of tears. She gripped her arm in shock.

Nikita gently patted her head, saying gently: "Don't be afraid."

She looked at the man who kicked Gerda. Nikita's anger was swelling.

"It's her, it's her!" A man with swollen face and bruises all over pointed at Nikita, yelling.

Probably, because of being beaten before, he was traumatized. He was trembling with fear: "Bro. Bob, this smelly girl beat me and Wang Ge."

There are thirteen men in a room, either dyed with yellow hair, or wearing a big gold chain with a cigarette in their mouths, carrying a steel pipe and a knife. Like the young and dangerous people in the movie, they all looked at Nikita.

They seemed vicious.

The man named Bro. Bob, is obviously the leader of this group of gangsters. When he saw a beautiful little girl standing in front of him, he was stunned. And then, looked at the beaten man in disdain.

"How dare you to say that? You big fellows couldn't even fight against a little girl. What a shame."

"No, Bro. Bob..." The man with swollen face still looked at Nikita with fear. "She, she is very powerful. She seems to have practiced specially, her fighting...is very fierce."

Bro. Bob didn't take his words seriously.

It's just a little girl.

Even if she had practiced, she can't beat up more than a dozen big men on her own.

Chapter 786 Asking for Death

Bro. Bob didn't take Nikita's strength seriously at all.

On the contrary, after seeing that the little girl who scared his two younger brothers was so beautiful, he squinted, thinking of sleeping with her.

"Little girl, you are courageous. Did you beat my two brothers?" Bro. Bob stared at Nikita flirtatiously.

Nikita looked at him expressionlessly: "Why, you have to stand up for your dogs?"

"You..." The man being beaten was furious by Nikita's words, gnashing his teeth.

He wanted to rush up and hit her.

Stepping forward, he bumped into the freezing cold sight. As if he's been stared by a fierce animal, he's terrified with fear.

He took a few steps back.

He could only mercilessly stare at Nikita.

Bro. Bob looked at the girl who didn't show a single trace of fear in a room full of ruffians. He felt that his majesty as the boss was despised, and he couldn't help sinking his face.

Bro. Bob showed his ruthlessness: "Bitch, you are looking for death!"

Other punks in the room were also angered by her provocative words.

"Bro. Bob, don't talk nonsense with her, arrest this bitch. See if she dares to be so arrogant!"

Gerda saw Nikita, who went back, and got up from the ground. Worriedly and anxiously, she and growled at her: "Niky, why are you back? You go quickly, go quickly!"

"Go?" Bro. Bob threw the cigarette in his mouth to the ground, stepped on it with one foot. His laughter was cold and cruel. "She beat my people, and paralyzed one. If she is willing to sleep with me, and cut off her own legs, I'll keep her alive."

"Otherwise, I let her come here standing and leave here lying!"

Gerda almost fainted when she heard Bro. Bob's words.

Several men have come to the door and blocked the exit.

The rest of the people, carrying steel pipes and knives, surrounded Nikita.

The steel pipe were dragging on the ground, making a harsh noise.

Adele stood beside Nikita, terrified, shaking all over. She pinched Nikita's arms.

Gerda was too scared to move.

She has planted crops all her life. She has never seen such terrible scene. Gerda was simply dumbfounded.

She was so frightened that she can't say anything.

However, being circled by big men with weapons, the girl was calm and expressionless.

In her eyes, there is no fear.

She was calm, with her sight flashed with dangerous trace.

Nikita looked at the Bro. Bob: "The person you are looking for is me, and now I am here. Let Gerda and her daughter go out, let them go out, close the door, and I will fight with you. If you can win me, you can do whatever you want, and I can cooperate with you."

Gerda looked up. "Niky!"

Chapter 787 Beating over the Ruffians

Adele also shouted in a hurry: "Sister Nikita."

Nikita didn't look at their mother and daughter, but Bro. Bob: "Let Gerda and her daughter out. Are you afraid of them?"

"Well, let them out!" Bro Bob waved his hand and commanded his two younger brothers. "Take them out and keep an eye on them!"

Several men standing in the doorway opened the door.

Nikita looked at the little girl beside her "Adele, go out with your mother."

"Sister Nikita, what about you?" Adele looked at her worried.

"I'll be all right"

"But."

"Obedient, if you are here, it will affect my moves." Nikita said in a low voice, "Wait for me outside. I can solve it in ten minutes at most"

A group of men who heard her talking with Adele were laughing crazily

Is this girl a fan of fiction? Did she think herself have some superpower that allows her to take them up?

Ten minutes at most?

That's pretentious.

Little ignorant girl. They let her kneel down and crying, calling them daddy.

Adele hesitated for a few seconds. She nodded and walked over to help Gerda up

Gerda still refused to leave

Nikita walked over whispering "Don't you care about Adele's safety?"

Gerda was stiff

"Hey, take your mother out "Nikita didn't say anything more

They left the room. Before that, Adele held Gerda out, looking back at Nikita.

There then was a "bang"

The door was closed again, and the ruffians locked the door.

Bro Bob commanded Arrest her!"

A group of small gangsters surrounded by Nikita approached her step by step.

Nikita stood in the middle of the crowd. She didn't move, looked at a small gangster picked up the steel pipe and smashed it at her The girl's dark eyes flashed coldness She smashed her fists onto the ruffian's face.

Even if the room is closed, there are sounds of fierce fights from time to time.

The sound of steel pipes hitting the concrete floor, the sound of cups falling to the ground, and from time to time, screams.

In the room, there was a crackling sound, and someone was hit.

In the hallway, Adele grabbed Gerda's hand and stared at the closed door. Her eyes were full of worries: "Mom, will she be okay?"

Gerda was also worried.

Two small gangsters watching them listened to the movement in the room, frowning.

The screams were all the voices of their brothers

They thought they would solve the problem in a minute or two. It's been almost five or six minutes, but the movement room hasn't stopped yet.

Is it true that so many of them, with steel pipes and knives, can't even beat a little girl with bare hands?

There was another scream in the room.

When the two heard the scream, they frowned

Chapter 788 The police found them.

When the two heard the scream, they frowned.

It's their boss's voice.

Just when the two ruffian couldn't bear it any longer and went forward to see what happened in the room, suddenly, there were footsteps on the stairs. They saw a group of uniformed policemen going up the third floor towards them.

There are more than a dozen policemen.

After seeing Gerda's mother and daughter and the two ruffians, the police headed by them stopped and were about to ask them something. Suddenly, there was a loud "bang" in the closed room.

The door also shook, as if something heavy had hit it.

After a few seconds, the door opened.

There was a man lying across the door, motionless. He looked as if he had passed out.

A thin and tall figure came out of the house.

The girl was wrapped in cold. She's expressionless, wiping the blood on her delicate face.

It's getting dark.

Even if the lights are on in the room and corridor, the lights are dim, and when people look into the room, they can't see what's going on inside.

Only the girl's shiny white skin is still eye-catching in the night.

Seeing her come out, the mother and daughter rushed forward, grabbed her and hurriedly looked at her from head to toe: "Niky, are you all right?"

"Nikita sister, are you all right?"

Seeing the blood on Nikita's face, Gerda was startled: "Niky, are you injured?"

"I'm fine, it's not my blood." Nikita wiped the blood splashed on her face. She frowned with disdain.

Gerda stared at her face, and was relieved after making sure she was not injured.

The nerves that have been tense in her mind have loosened.

The guard saw the girl walking out, intact, stupefied. One of them went into the room, and cried to walk out: "Impossible, this is impossible, abnormal, too abnormal..."

Another didn't see what the situation inside the room, but see Nikita was clean and neat. He was already afraid of her. After receiving the notice, a group of policemen who received the alarm call seemed to come to their senses and remembered the purpose of their coming, and a group of policemen followed them into the room.

Then, all the policemen were dumbfounded for a second.

More than a dozen gangsters lying on the ground, some in a coma, some lying on the ground with pain howling, each of these gangsters are black and blue.

Both the ground and the walls, there are blood stains everywhere.

Steel pipes and knives also fell all over the floor.

Other furnishings in the room also fell all over the floor.

It can be seen at a glance that there has just been a fierce battle in the room.

After receiving the alarm, the policemen came in a hurry. Looking at the punks who fell all over the floor, they were shocked before returning to absolute being for a long time.

Before they shot, all these punks had been solved.

Is it the young girl who solves them?

Impossible?

Moments later, the policemen cleared the scene.

The other two gangsters were also taken away by the police.

In the hallway. The leader police went to Nikita, said with a respectful attitude: "Sorry, Miss Swift, we came late."

"Are you all right?"

Before Nikita said something, Gerda recognized the policeman, she cried out in surprise and consternation: "Sir Adams, Sir Adams..."

The leader policeman is Adams, director of the Nature Town Police Station.

Most people who live in the town know him.

Gerda went to the police station before and met Adams, so she also knew him.

Seeing Adams' attitude towards Nikita respectfully, as if Nikita is his immediate superior, Gerda was secretly horrified and surprised.

Sir Adams, how can you have such an attitude?

Nikita still looked cool. She glanced at the man with her eyes half-narrowed, and soon guessed why the other party hold such an attitude.

Nancy didn't listen to her, but called the Officer Lewis.

Since Officer Lewis cares about this, not to mention such a small town police station director, even the director general in N City, must be respectful.

Nikita gently frowned.

Originally is a trivial thing, there is no need to bother Officer Lewis.

However, since Officer Lewis has known the things, the matter would be easily solved.

"Auntie Gerda, I've already known those things about Uncle George." Nikita thought about it, turned her head to Gerda standing beside her, "If you still want to get a truth about him, I can help you."

Gerda suddenly raised her head: "You, you all know..."

Nikita nodded: "Well, I know everything."

Gerda stunned for a long time, turned her head, looked at Sir Adams, sipped her lips, and looked awkward.

Nikita followed her eyes, thought for a few seconds, and looked indifferently at Adams: "Sir Adams, George's accidental death has another hidden story. You know it, right?"

Sir Adams, who was named, stunned and immediately replied respectfully: "Our police station did receive relevant alarms about this matter mentioned by Miss Swift, but..."

“But what?”

“However, this case has already been closed.” Sir Adams looked at Nikita’s face, hesitated for a few seconds, and said tentatively, “In fact, this case was not handled by our Police Station. The place where George had an accident was on a construction site in N City, and the relevant investigation was handled by the police in N City.”

“After we received the alarm, we contacted that police station. They said that they have investigated it. It was indeed an accident case.”

“Miss Swift, as you know, the superior police station said it was no problem. It is impossible for us to question the case. Gerda listening, clenched her fist, and was about to say something, but finally hold it back.

“Miss Swift, it is quite a tricky thing. Moreover, we have all seen the surveillance video when George had an accident. From the video, it is indeed a very normal accident case.”

Chapter 789 Her parents cherish her.

Sir Adams did see the surveillance video of George falling from the hanging tower.

Many policemen in the station have seen it.

Everyone agreed that his death was a normal accident case.

Gerda came to the police and said that someone deliberately did something on the hanging tower and killed her husband. That was nonsense.

She did so for more compensation.

They have seen many such things in the police station.

So when Gerda came to the police station, they made a perfunctory investigation, and no one really took her words seriously.

But Sir Adams didn't dare to say so to Nikita.

Nikita was quite famous in their town. When she was still studying here before, she was often arrested by them because of fighting against her classmates, so she was a frequent visitor of their police station.

He saw her several times.

But at that time, he just thought this girl was quite delinquent, and didn't take her seriously.

Actually, nobody would take the powerless and poor girl seriously, who grew up in the countryside and lived with an old woman.

He never thought... Thinking of the notice he received half an hour ago, Sir Adams' face changed. He peeked at Nikita, his eyes emotional.

It is heard that this girl was abducted to Syracuse village.

Her real parents are quite rich and prestigious in N City, a big city.

Now it seems that her biological parents are really powerful.

They even can drive the security department in N City.

They also cherish her.

With this in mind, Sir Adams' attitude became more and more respectful. "Miss Swift, please come back to the police station with me to make a record. Of course, I also know you're not the one who started things, and everything you did was due to self-defense."

"But formally, you still have to go, so..."

He said respectfully.

Every word he used was selective.

He was like afraid of saying something wrong, making her unhappy.

Nikita looked at the man who stood nervously after saying, and did not embarrass him, nodding. "Fine."

Then a young policeman came out of Gerda's ward with a black plastic bag.

"Sir, I just saw a lot of money on the ground. After I picked it up, I counted it, and there were several thousand dollars." Then he handed the black plastic bag to Sir Adams.

Sir Adams took the bag and turned his head at Nikita, "Miss Swift, is this your money?"

Nikita nodded.

Sir Adams immediately handed her the plastic bag.

Nikita received it and immediately passed it to Gerda. "Aunt Gerda, here you are."

Gerda naturally refused, "Niky, what are you doing? How can I take your money?"

“You take It.” Nikita pressed her hand. “Uncle George’s funeral has not been done yet, and medical expenses are also high

But Gerda still refused to accept it, shaking her head. “I can’t use your money. I’ll find a way to solve problems. I have bothered you enough because of my business, and I can’t bother you anymore.”

“I just lend you money.” Frowning, Nikita insisted. “You take it, When you have money, then return it to me.”

Chapter 790 Why he is so respectful to her?

“Uncle George’s funeral should have been done earlier. You can’t let his body stay in the mortuary all the time.”

Gerda stood stiffly for a few seconds, her eyes red, and said, “I also know that his body should be buried early, but...”

Nikita clenched her hand. “I will figure out the event about him. Believe me.”

Adele, take good care of your mother. Call me if. “You have troubles.”

Then Nikita walked towards the stairs first, glancing at Sir Adams who waited aside. “Let’s go.”

She walked ahead.

Sir Adams followed her near half a meter away, like her subordinate.

Soon, they went downstairs in tandem.

Gerda was surprised about Sir Adams’ respectful attitude to Nikita, holding the black plastic bag in her hand. “Adele, do you know why Sir Adams is so respectful to she?”

“Mom, her biological parents are very powerful. It must be because of her parents.”

“Yeah, I almost forgot.” Gerda was reminded of it and smiled with relief. “It seems that Niky’s parents are very kind to her. After she was taken back to the city, she must be very happy.”

“If Granny Callie knew this, she could feel at ease.”

At the police station.

Nikita came out of the police station after she finished the record.

The police station defined this event as a fighting case, in which many gangsters fought against Nikita. Although all of them were beaten down by Nikita, her counterattack could still be seen as self-defense.

There was surveillance at the hospital.

The police station got the surveillance there, and saw that a group of gangsters swaggered into the hospital with steel pipes and knives from the surveillance video.

In addition, two gangsters who were brought back to the station might be frightened, so they confessed that they were targeting Nikita, even without heavy interrogation.

Their Bro. Bob said that he would destroy Nikita’s legs and then sell her to the red-light district.

All evidence oppressively proved that Nikita was self-defense.

Those gangsters were hospitalized, but she who was besieged had no injuries. Nikita thought it was because they were useless.

Now that it was self-defense, she was innocent naturally.

After finishing the record, she was released.

Stood at the entrance of the police station, her hands in the pockets, she saw a lighted signboard of the hotel opposite her. She hasn't found a place to rest at night.

After thinking for a while, she took steps over there.

The hostel in the town was quite cheap. Although she chose the most expensive room, it was only over forty dollars a night.

Her room was on the third floor.

There were televisions, air conditioners and water heaters, but with normal sanitary conditions. By the window sat a river. She can see it when opening the window. It was quite clear, and the floating aquatic plants in the river can be seen against the moonlight.

This town was small and remote, and its economic development was also very slow.

But the scene was quite good.

Nikita won't use towels, toothbrushes and cups in the guest house.

News that towels were used to wipe toilets and that electric kettles were used to boil underwear and socks even in some five-star hotels was reported. Let alone such small guest houses.

Fortunately, there was a small shop next to the hostel.

Nikita swayed around the room and then slowly went downstairs to the canteen to buy towels, toothbrushes, cups and mineral water, and she even bought a four-piece set to change bedding later.