

The Girl CB 811

Chapter 811 Finding the Treasure

“President Dylan, you should reward Nikita this time.”

Miss Morris also said, “Indeed, President Dylan Nikita won the first place and brought such a great honor to the school. There should be no fewer rewards”

“Of course. We will award little...Nikita, even if you didn’t remind me.” Talbot privately called Nikita little master in private. He was used to it. He almost blurted just now.

Talbot was a little unconvinced by his little uncle at first.

He couldn’t figure out how Maddox, who was so powerful, would be willing to let a teenage girl with bad records be his master. It was simply outrageous.

He even felt that Maddox was tricked into doing such outrageous things to trust a little girl.

But now...

Talbot felt that she might be a master who hides her true identity.

Her previous misdeeds may be to cover up something.

Nikita’s strength must be powerful, since his master asked her to be his master. She will definitely stun many people when her true self reveals...

“I should get going.” After confirming that the school would give Nikita a reward, Miss Morris said happily. “This is the honor of Nikita, and it is also the honor of everyone in Class F and our school.”

Una looked at Miss Morris with envy: “You really found a treasure this time. Mr. White must be happy.”

Mr. White is the head teacher of Class F

He had a headache before. He always complained to other teachers that there were a lot of bad students in the class, which made him hard to manage.

He might be thrilled this time.

There is such a brilliant student. As the head teacher of Class F, he should be proud!

Miss Morris smiled: “I really found a treasure. Mr. White may not know it yet, I will report good news to him!”

Then, Miss turned around and walked out of the office.

Una looks at Miss Morris walking with a bright smile, with jubilation floating around her. She can't be more jealous of her.

In this contest, Nikita won the first place, which made the whole Class F proud.

Other classes have always envied Class A before, but this time they will envy Class F.

Although the two students in her class also did well in the exam, compared with Nikita's ranking and scores, they are not as treasurable as Nikita is.

*President Dylan, I should better get going.” Not long after Miss Morris left, Una stood up and left.

The first class in the morning is English class.

“Go, go.” Talbot waved. He wanted to send the news to Maddox happily.

Miss Morris went to find Mr. White after leaving Talbot’s place.

She arrived at the door of Mr. White’s office and saw Mr. White walking outside in a hurry.

He walked in a hurry, at a fast pace, typing. He almost bumped into Miss Morris.

“Mr. White, what are you doing in such a hurry?” Fortunately, Miss Morris dodged quickly, and the two didn’t hit each other.

Chapter 812 Are you kidding me?

Mr. White stopped. He looked up at Miss Morris, who was almost hit by him, and apologized, “Miss Morris, I’m sorry, I didn’t see you just now. Are you all right?”

Miss Morris shook her head: “Nothing.”

“That’s good, that’s good.” Mr. White breathed a sigh of relief. He said curiously, “Miss Morris, why are you here?”

Miss Morris’s office is not on the same floor as Mr. White’s.

Although they all work in the same building, they seldom chat with each other.

But, now something big is going on.

“Mr. White, I’m here to see you.” Miss Morris didn’t beat around the bush, “The results of English contest have come out. Do you know the marks Nikita in our class scored?”

Before Mr. White spoke, Miss Morris continued: "Full score, 150 out of 150, won the first place in this English league."

"Mr. White, the first place, Nikita of our class won the first place." Speaking of this matter, Miss Morris is still very excited.

"Did I tell you that Nikita may be a language genius? You didn't believe it at the beginning."

Moreover, Nikita went out of the examination room more than an hour ahead of schedule on the day of the exam.

It took her half an hour to finish the test paper. She got full marks.

Most people can't achieve this kind of level by studying hard at ordinary times.

"What, what did you say?" Mr. White dropped his jaw. He almost dropped his phone as well.

Even the surging urge to pee was suppressed by him.

Mr. White thought there was something wrong with his ear. He thought he misheard it, and asked again with uncertainty: "Miss Morris, what did you say just now? Who did you say got full marks and won the first place?"

"Is it the little girl from the foreign language school?"

His reaction made Miss Morris feel funny, "Mr. White, our Nikita, won the first place. Nikita not only won the first place in the league, but also got full marks. This time, our school got the first place!"

"Nikita won a huge honor for us. Now, I think Class A will envy our Class F."

Una didn't hide her jealousy.

Miss Morris has taught Class F for so many years, and she has never been so refreshed for a moment.

“Nikita won the first place in the English League?”

This time, Mr. White heard clearly.

He was stunned, absent-minded.

It’s like seeing the Mars hit the Earth. He couldn’t come to his senses for a long time.

“Miss Morris, you, are you sure? In this contest, Nikita of our class really won the first place? Did you see it right? Or are you joking with me?”

“Why am I seeing the result wrong? She ranked first. I checked several times to see if I saw it wrong. It’s true, she won the first place. If you don’t believe it, you can check it yourself!”

Seeing Mr. White’s incredible expression, Miss Morris frowned: “Mr. White, you still have doubts about Nikita’s strength. You also know how difficult this league contest is. Nikita proves her strength with her full marks.”

Mr. White knew that Nikita won the first place in the previous test.

Chapter 813 Beat by Nikita

But his impression of Nikita still stubbornly stays on the stereotype of getting zero marks in all subjects for many times.

So even if he knows Nikita to participate in the league this time, he didn’t expect she could get high marks.

She won the first place in a previous test. It doesn't mean she can win the first place in the league contest.

The difficulty of the league is incomparable to the test.

Moreover, it is a fact that Nikita's previous grades were very poor. She could be unstable if her grades go up and down.

Mr. White is already very satisfied when Nikita decided to participate in the contest on behalf of the F Class.

As for winning the prize, he didn't dare to think about it at all.

But now, Nikita of their class has won the first place.

He didn't dare to think about Nikita entering the top ten, not to mention the first place.

Also full marks...

Mr. White was so stunned that he couldn't even speak.

In Class A...

On the students' side, they could find out their scores in the afternoon.

But as we all know, the results released early in the morning. The teachers can check the scores in class.

The first class is English.

Several students who went to participate in the contest took a deep breath when they saw Una appear at the door of the classroom.

This kind of tension was not found in previous exams

This test is very difficult.

Everyone is worried their ranking.

It's good to keep the previous ranking even if they couldn't win the first place.

Yvonne, who used to care about test scores, seemed a little absent-minded this time.

Seeing Una enter the classroom, she just looked up.

Yvonne was pale and morbid, as if she had been seriously ill.

She is empty-minded.

All kinds of things that happened at the Lambert family banquet that night, like movie replays, were played back and forth in her mind over and over again.

As long as the thought of the man with Nikita turned out to be the powerful master of the Lambert family, Yvonne was going crazy with jealousy.

No wonder Nikita ignore Felton.

It turns out that she has a better man!

Although Felton is the young master of the Lambert family, the most powerful person in the Lambert family is his eldest brother.

Today, Sheehan is in charge of the family.

Besides, compared with Felton's immaturity, his eldest brother's mature and manly quality are what she really wants.

But Nikita beat her to it!

At the thought of Nikita's glorious debut at the dinner party, and then at the thought of all kinds of grievances and humiliation she suffered, Yvonne loathed her.

Why couldn't Nikita stay well in the countryside!

Why did she come to the N City!

Everything she finally took the trouble to get was ruined!

"Yvonne, are you all right? If you don't feel well, do you want to take time off to rest?" Yvonne's deskmate saw her drifting off. She asked with concern

Yvonne is in a poor situation

She is always absent-minded.

"I'm fine." Yvonne shook her head.

"If you don't feel well, take a leave of absence, don't hold on." Her deskmate then looked up at the podium.

Una walked into the classroom. She didn't beat around the bush about the contest results. She said directly: "I know that the candidates definitely want to know their test scores as early as possible."

Chapter 814 Yvonne will be fine as long as it's not Nikita.

Under the stage, Leon, Lanny, and Tammy, raised their heads one after another.

They were nervous.

Una glanced at several people, smiling: "This test is much more difficult than before. However, candidates in our class performed very well. I helped you find the scores in advance, which is not necessarily completely accurate. You may check your own final scores in the afternoon."

Everyone knows very well that the scores checked by Una are the final scores.

There can be no further changes.

"I will tell you the scores and rankings directly."

Other students who didn't take the exam were also waiting nervously for Una to announce the results.

Although they didn't take the exam, all the honors of Class A belong to the whole class.

Leon clenched his fists nervously. He took a deep breath several times.

Una directly announced the score: "Lanny, 130 out of 150, ranking third. Yvonne, 120 out of 150, ranking fifth. Leon, 119 out of 150, ranking sixth..."

These students are smart.

All the students who went to take the exam entered the top ten.

There is basically no change in this ranking from the previous years.

Yvonne fell behind by two places. She took the third place last time.

As soon as the scores came out, there was a heated discussion in the classroom.

“Wow, they’re excellent. I heard that this test is super difficult.”

“We didn’t get the first place once again. Who won the first place? The girl from foreign languages school? She is so pretty, but also intelligent. Why is the gap so huge between her and Nikita?”

“The beauty queen of the foreign language school won the first place in the contest every year, and her scores of other subjects also ranked the top three. The beauty queen of our school...I bet that she must not even enter the top ten this time.”

“Compared with the students in our class, I am more curious about the score of our new beauty queen. She won the first place in the test before. I’m wondering how she’s doing in this contest.”

Students were discussing excitedly.

They discussed even more excitedly especially when talking about Nikita.

After all, the rankings of the straight-A students in Class A have hardly changed for several years.

On freshness and popularity, most people pay more attention to Nikita, who also took part in the competition.

“Indeed, how many marks did Nikita get?”

When Yvonne heard her scores and rankings, there was no fluctuation on her face. The score is similar to her prediction.

She was not in the mood for this exam.

Hearing people around her talking about Nikita, Yvonne bit her lip. “Miss Turner, who won the first place?”

Originally, this is a matter without suspense.

After all, the girl of the foreign language school always came first in previous years.

But this time, Yvonne is annoyed and irritated. She can't wait to know who is the first place.

It doesn't matter who it is.

As long as it's not Nikita, she's fine.

Others all cast their sights on Una,

They are all curious.

Chapter 815 Damn it! She is awesome!

Lanny looked up, and pinched his pen tightly. He cared about it even more than he cares about his own rankings.

Una smiled again. This time, she didn't say directly. "Let's guess. The first place winner is not anyone from the foreign languages school."

Yvonne frowned even harder than before.

No, it's impossible.

Nikita handed in her papers in half an hour that day.

This test was so difficult that she almost failed to finish the last big question. Students can't finish the paper in two hours.

It can't be Nikita.

Everyone was even more curious, "Is it someone from the experimental middle school? Who is the person? How can the person beat those from the foreign languages school?"

"Miss Turner, just tell us directly, we can't figure it out."

Everyone has decided that it's the girl from the foreign language school won the first prize.

However, Una told them they guessed it wrong.

Everyone is curious.

Can anyone be better than that girl?

Is it the dark horse on the forum before?

Una smiled: "You guessed so many schools, why didn't anyone guess that the first place might also be from our school? Are you so unconfident in your school?"

"Our school?"

Una's words are like throwing a bowl of water into the oil pan. Suddenly, everyone in the classroom was shocked.

"Who? Isn't Lanny only the third place?"

"Other classes? Someone from Class B? No way! People in Class B didn't even enter the top ten last year. It is impossible. Their scores in previous tests are ordinary."

There are only ten students who go to take the exam in the school.

Among them, Class A accounts for six.

Three in Class B, and one in Class F.

The results of the three students in Class B have not been very outstanding, so it is impossible for them to win the first place.

Apart from Class B, there is only one student Class F.

No way, it can't be the one in Class F...

Many people seem to have thought of coming here at the same time, and they all feel impossible. Leon even looked ugly and asked directly: "Miss Turner, the person won the first place...is Nikita?"

Yvonne grabbed the pencil case on the table, and looked at Una.

Una is still smiling: “Yes, the first place this time is Nikita from Class F. Nikita not only won the first place, but also won with full marks. Classmates, in this competition, our school is finally the first place.”

“Damn it, the first place is really Nikita!”

“The new beauty queen won the first place?”

“First place with full marks? I heard that this test is super difficult. What kind of person is this?”

“Full marks again? Damn it, she’s excellent!”

Students were in heated discussion again..

They were all shocked.

Nikita got full marks when she tested, which was enough to surprise them, and now she got full marks...

Again and again being beat by a poor student from Class F, a group of top students have begun to doubt their meaning of life.

Hearing the first place belongs to Nikita, Lanny smiled.

He took the textbook out of his drawer.

Chapter 816 Nikita’s everything is better than Yvonne’s.

He took the English textbook with a bookmark sandwiched in it. The bookmark is a common-looking leaf, which has been preserved by special techniques. After more than ten years, it is still intact.

Nikita has always been excellent.

Nowadays, as her excellent side is seen by more and more people, Lanny is very happy for her.

Leon froze directly. "The first place...is Nikita? Miss Turner, are you sure?"

How can it be Nikita?

Hearing this. Una frowned: "Of course there is no mistake. Nikita was the first place in the test, and got full marks. Her strength is already very strong. It is normal to win the first place."

"Why is it normal for students in other schools to take the first place? If students in our school take the first place, you question the authenticity? So you think our students are not capable enough compared with others?"

"No" Leon stiffened. "Miss Turner, I didn't mean that."

Yvonne's pen case fell onto the ground.

The pencil case was left unzipped. Pens, tape measures, and some other stationery were scattered all over the floor. Nikita won the first place.

Even though she had thought that the first place might be Nikita, she felt that this possibility was extremely frail. But the first place is Nikita.

At this moment, Yvonne couldn't tell how stuffy she was.

She has always felt that even if Nikita is stronger than her, in other aspects, it's nothing.

As long as she does well in school.

The excellence of students depends on their grades.

Other talents are just bonuses.

Even though Nikita could compose, and praised by a lot of people, she has bad grades. If she couldn't get into a prestigious university, she could be laughed at by others.

As long as her grades are better than Nikita's, she will still be a winner.

But Yvonne's confidence and superiority were hit by Nikita's winning the first place in the contest.

The teachers praised her for her intelligence.

But she only got 120 out of 150 in the contest.

Nikita, however, got full marks.

Yvonne bent down to pick up things that fell on the ground with pale face. She couldn't hear what Una said afterwards. Her mind was full of Nikita's full marks and first place, and the overwhelming praise.

Even those who praised her were satirizing Nikita before.

All the satirical voices disappeared, and they all became the voices of worshipping her after Una told them Nikita won the first place.

Others said that after class, they would go to find Nikita to learn her experience.

Biting her lip, Yvonne picked up her stationery that fell on the ground with a pale face. When she zipped the pencil case, her fingers trembled slightly, as if she couldn't make any effort. She pulled it several times before finally pulling the zipper.

Beside her, her deskmate saw this scene, feeling that Yvonne was very pitiful.

Her family suddenly adopted an adopted daughter. After the adopted daughter was transferred to their school, she was in the limelight everywhere, stealing her title of beauty queen and the person she likes.

Now, Nikita even does better in academics.

Chapter 817 Insane

She won the first place in the competition.

She smashed her.

If she were Yvonne, she might have cried.

On the other side, in Class F...

Miss Morris walked into the classroom happily. After entering the classroom, she looked at the last row by the window.

The delicate and beautiful girl tilted her head, playing with her mobile phone.

Her slender fair fingers click quickly on the mobile phone screen.

“Nikita.” Miss Morris cleared her throat. She calmed down his excitement, and called Nikita in the gentlest voice ever heard by Class F students.

This sound shocked a group of students.

Like seeing a ghost, they looked at Miss Morris with frightened faces.

What happened today?

Insane?

The joy in the corner of her brow almost flowed down from her face.

She smiled exaggeratedly.

What made her so happy?

Hearing someone calling her, Nikita quit the game, and looked at Miss Morris with dark eyes. She threw away her phone.

Miss Morris smiled very amiably: "Nikita, come here."

Nikita got up. She walked slowly to the front of the classroom.

"Why did Miss Morris call Nikita over?"

"Will she punish Niky for playing games?" Samuel said worriedly.

"I don't think so." Tobin put away his phone. He analyzed the situation in a low voice. "I feel like she wants to announce something happy. Don't you see Miss Morris's big, big smile?"

Samuel said curiously, "Why is she so happy?"

Tobin shook his head: "How do I know this? We'll see."

“By the way, why didn’t Felton come to class today?” Samuel looked back at the empty position and frowned. “What is he doing recently? He has been absent from class for three days.”

“It has never been like this before.”

“Do you think he is in any trouble?”

“He is the young master of the Lambert family. What kind of trouble dare to find him?” Tobin didn’t think it’s a big deal. “If he doesn’t trouble others, others will be rest at ease.”

Samuel: “...”

Although the words are a little unfriendly, it seems to be the truth.

But Felton has been like this for several days, and it is still a bit abnormal anyway.

Samuel decided to find Felton after school. He wanted to find out what he was doing these days.

Miss Morris’s behavior was also strange. Almost all the people in the class looked at her and Nikita.

Nikita walked to Miss Marris, then stopped: “Miss, what can I do for you?”

“Wait a minute, I have good news to announce to everyone. Miss Morris stretched out her hand and patted gently on Nikite’s shoulder. “It’s good news about you.”

Nikita nodded and stood beside it cleverly.

Miss Morris turned over, looked at the curious eyes in the classroom, and smiled with restraint: “This time, Nikita of our class won the first place in the country, and...”

Miss Morris paused a little, found that the curious eyes turned into shocked eyes. After sipping her lower lip, she continued: "Nikita got a perfect score of 150 points. This is the first time since the 100-school English League was held, someone has scored full marks."

Chapter 818 Old Mr. Lambert is very concerned about this matter.

"Please congratulate Nikita with warm applause."

The students in Class F were all dumbfounded, except Nikita.

After a while....

"Damn it, Nikita really won the first place!"

"Full marks? Didn't you say that this test is particularly difficult? How did she get full marks again!"

"Wow! Our class really cultivates a straight-A student."

"The first place is in our class, ha-ha. Aren't the top students in Class A smashed?"

Samuel and Tobin were also stunned.

Samuel looked complicated. After a long time, he worshiped, "Niky, you are extraordinary. We are very proud of you. I solemnly announce you are the GOAT."

"What do you mean?" Tobin didn't understand the buzzword, and looked at him, stupefied.

Samuel. "Greatest of all time."

Tobin: "..."

After a while, the students who were stunned just now came to their senses.

Suddenly, huge applause sounded.

They are all convinced that Nikita is outstanding academically regardless of how they previously felt.

Many people worship Nikita just like Samuel.

They are a group of poor students. Suddenly, there is a straight-A student among them. They felt privileged.

The first place of the national English contest is in their class.

They will hold their heads high when walking on campus.

No one would look down on their class.

Although they didn't win the first place, Nikita shares the classroom with them. Thus, the honor is shared.

Samuel clapped so hard and loud that his hands were almost swollen.

He took out his phone to text Felton.

Samuel: Felton, Niky won the first place in the national English contest! She's brilliant!

Felton replied quickly: Hmm.

Samuel looked at his reply, frowning, feeling that something was wrong.

Why is he so cold?

Did he have a problem with Niky?

If he did, how come they didn't know?

In the Lambert family...

Old Mr. Lambert usually gets up early.

Fabian served his meal.

Eating, Old Mr. Lambert suddenly looked up.

"What's the matter?" Fabian looked at the steamed stuffed bun in his bowl and asked quickly, "is the steamed stuffed bun too hot?"

Old Mr. Lambert shook his head. He put down his chopsticks and picked up the napkin to wipe his mouth: "I remember the contest results will be released today?"

After knowing that Nikita participated in the contest, old Mr. Lambert was very attentive to this matter.

He always remembers it.

His memory has never been so good.

Fabian knew old Mr. Lambert fancies his future granddaughter-in-law, smiling: "Want to know how Miss Swift did in the exam?"

Old Mr. Lambert nodded. "Niky is my future grandson's wife. She took part in such an important competition, so of course! have to ask. You should call the school immediately."

"Yes."

Chapter 819 Reward

Fabian immediately contacted the school.

Talbot answered the phone.

After receiving a phone call from the Lambert family, Talbot was very respectful.

When Fabian asked him about Nikita's score, Talbot was surprised. He couldn't help but ask: "Forgive me for asking, what is the relationship between this Nikita and the Lambert family?"

Fabian won't reveal anything about Nikita going to be the future madame Lambert. He just pointed out that the Lambert family thinks highly of Nikita.

Talbot was silent for a long time.

"President Dylan?" Fabian didn't hear anything from Talbot for a long while.

Talbot told the test scores and rankings of Niky to Fabian.

After a while, Fabian hung up.

Holding a mobile phone, he was in a daze.

"Fabian, did you ask? How is it?" Although old Mr. Lambert knew Nikita won't do so well in the contest, he wants to know her real strength.

Fabian was stunned for a few seconds before looking down at old Mr. Lambert, dumbfounded: "Master, Miss Swift...got full marks, and won the first place, nation-wide."

Fabian's voice was shivering

He was so excited.

He knew Nikita's previous scores.

Their future little lady, though extremely beautiful and excellent in medical skills, was surprisingly poor in grades in the examinations.

She was worse than the young master who comes last in the whole grade every time.

When old Mr. Lambert asked him to ask about her score, Fabian thought Nikita does well as long as she passes.

Old Mr. Lambert was drinking a cup of coffee. When he heard it, his hands shook, his coffee splashed: "What did you say? Say it again? Niky won the first place and got full marks?"

"Yes." Fabian also felt quite surprised. "I didn't expect Miss Swift's English scores to be so good. The first place in this exam should not be easy to take."

"Of course it's not easy to take, it's a nation-wide contest!" Old Mr. Lambert was too proud. "Sheehan also participated in this competition before and won the first place."

"But..." Fabian wondered. "Miss Swift's grades were quite poor before. Why did she suddenly..."

"It used to, but it didn't mean her grade is bad for a lifetime." Old Mr. Lambert interrupted. He couldn't hear others talking bad things about Niky, not even Fabian.

“Yes, yes, yes. Fabian quickly shifted the topic: “Miss Swift did so well in the exam this time. Shall we reward her with something?”

“Of course!” Old Mr. Lambert was very happy. He thought for a moment and said, “Have you made the set of gold needles that I asked?”

“It should be ready.” Fabian picked up his phone again. “I’ll call and check.”

“Please.” Old Mr. Lambert waved, “If it is built, let them send it quickly. If not, urge them to hurry up

Fabian nodded, “Then we give it to her as a reward?”

I guess she won’t want gifts other than that. She may still accept this set of needles.

Chapter 820 Reveal True Mood

Old Mr. Lambert would like to send her luxury cars, yachts, private jets or something else, but he thinks Niky will not accept those gifts.

So he found someone to specially customize a set of gold needles for acupuncture.

It should be almost done by now.

They’ll take this opportunity to give her the needle.

Before the first class was finished, the news about Nikita had already spread all over the school.

There is group chats on campus.

Someone shared the news in the group.

After class...

The students are still having a heated discussion.

In Class A...

A group of top students who usually have a sense of superiority were amazed: "How can anyone get full marks in such a difficult exam?"

"And she's from Class F."

The best class in school couldn't even compete against the worst class.

Class A is going to be a joke.

"She didn't cheat, did she?" Some people questioned, "I think the perfect score is too fake."

"At that time, Nikita and I were in the same classroom, and she was sitting next to me. I didn't see her cheating. Besides, do you think it is possible to cheat on such an exam?"

"Isn't it difficult to admit others are excellent? Shame on you." Lanny threw his textbook onto the desk, saying indifferently.

"We didn't say she must have cheated, just guessing..." A boy was arguing.

"Nikita did not cheat." Another voice sounded.

Leon stood up and said, "I am in the same classroom with her, sitting behind her. I would have noticed if she cheats. Besides, with that level of contest, the committee won't let students cheat so easily."

Leon doesn't like Nikita very much because of Yvonne.

However, he couldn't bear others spreading rumor.

Her score speaks to him.

Besides...

He even started to admire her.

He took the exam, so he knows very well how difficult the questions are.

Nikita can get full marks, which is really amazing.

A few boys shut up, seeing Leon helping Nikita,

"Hey, Leon, what's wrong? You actually help Nikita." A boy who knows Leon well lowered his voice, "Aren't you afraid of your Yvonne getting angry?"

Leon paused. He turned to look at Yvonne.

In the back row, Yvonne stood up without expression.

She pushed the chair away with great force hard,

The whole class turned to look at her.

Yvonne's mood was so bad that she didn't even bother to hide. She then walked out of the classroom expressio

Nikita received Manley's text before getting off the class.

She asked for leave. Miss Morris approved.

"Niky, you won't disappear for a few days, will you?" Samuel thought Nikita won't be back to school when she asks for a leave.

"I'll go to grab some stuff. Keep an eye on my backpack in the drawer for me." Nikita picked up her phone. After explaining, she walked out of the classroom.

At the gate...

A dark blue sports car parked slowly.

The windows were lowered a little, and two men in sunglasses were sitting in the car, both wearing the same dark gray sportswear and sweatpants, and a black cap.
