

The Girl CB 841

Chapter 841 Why does she know everyone?

Xavier is not an artist, but he is more popular than that of artists. Everyone who pays a little attention to the entertainment industry knows him.

The most powerful agent in the entertainment industry. There are countless artists who have gone viral assisted by him.

He can let every one go viral.

Xavier is a man with a bad temper. He is notoriously mean and difficult to get along with. Those artists in his company are afraid of him.

But he actually posted for Nikita, and called her "Niky", which proves that they're really close.

"Nikita and Xavier...are they also good friends?"

Rue's deskmate was shocked: "Oh my God, Nikita...how can she know everyone? Xavier never tweeted to help anyone. For the first time, he helped her..."

"How did she know these big shots? Why is she so powerful?"

Rue looked pale. "What's so strange about this? Xavier is in the entertainment industry. Didn't she know Hugh? Maybe Hugh introduced them."

"But, she is still very powerful. This is Xavier. How many male artists and female artists in the circle want to make acquaintance with Xavier. Have you ever heard of who has succeeded?"

Rue didn't know how to refute

Of course not.

There used to be several first-line female artists who took the initiative to throw themselves at Xavier's arms in order to get top resources. The result was that not only did they not succeed in temptation, but they were also rolled up by Xavier's accompanying bodyguards and thrown out of his room like tossing garbage.

The internet exploded with the new post from Xavier. Every one is excited to see such thrilling posts.

It is related to Xavier. No matter what kind of incident it is, there will be a large group of people paying attention to it.

"Another big shot speaking out for Nikita. Who the hell is she?"

is every big shot helping her?"

"So, they knew a long time ago? I am so curious who is this Nikita, and why

"People who have a good relationship with Xavier don't need to hype at all. Xavier's resource is better than any hype."

The previous netizens cursing Nikita lost their voice.

And they have deleted their tweets.

After that, Twitter was peaceful and calm, and no one said that Nikita was doing a publicity stunt.

Samuel and Tobin also saw the post sent by Xavier. They held their mobile phones and were silent for a long time..

Then, almost at the same time, they turned and looked at the girl who was still sleeping on the table..

Neither of them knew what to say.

They haven't been able to come to their senses by the fact that Nikita knew Manley, and now Xavier?

The most powerful agent in the entertainment industry, Xavier!

They only wanted to ask Nikita after she wakes up, that who else does she know, so that they won't be shocked when the news broke.

In the last class, one minute after class, Nikita woke up on time.

Chapter 842 Don't talk nonsense!

She has no idea what happened.

When she woke up, she saw Officer Lewis's text.

He had been waiting for her at the dining place.

Nikita just replied when the bell rang.

The last class was physics class. The teacher knew that the students were hungry. He didn't delay. As soon as the bell rang, the class finished.

Nikita slowly took her backpack, and was ready to go.

"Niky, what do we eat at noon?" Samuel and Tobin also stood up.

Nikita glanced at them: "I made an appointment with a friend at noon."

“Have an appointment? Samuel said bluntly, “Who, Sheehan?”

He realized he said the wrong thing: “Niky, I...”

“It’s not Sheehan.” Nikita didn’t mind it, “I wanted to talk about something with the person. We’ll have lunch together tomorrow. By the way, think about the place where we eat tomorrow. I promised you to split the bonus dollars of my contest reward.”

Nikita then walked towards the outside of the classroom.

Samuel originally wanted to ask her about Xavier. However, Nikita had already walked out of the classroom.

Nikita went downstairs and met several students in Class A.

One of them is Lanny.

A boy looked at Nikita, and then looked at Lanny.

A boy lowered his voice: “Hey, don’t you say hello to your love?”

Lanny frowned slightly: “Don’t talk nonsense.”

“What nonsense. We all know you like her. If you want her to be your girlfriend, chase after her now. If you hesitate, you might lose your chance.”

Lanny frowned again, saw Nikita walking over him, he greeted: “Nikita.”

Nikita paused. She turned to look at him.

Lanny sipped his lip. After a while of silence, he said: "Congratulations on winning the first place. You are really amazing."

"Thank you." Nikita politely replied, "What else?"

Lanny looked at the delicate facial features and was in a trance.

Some incomplete pictures emerged.

He can't remember the specific appearance of the child in his memory very clearly.

But he always remembers the little girl's eyes.

Those eyes, just like what he saw at the moment, were black and bright, clear and clean.

"There is one more thing..." Lanny stared at the girl's beautiful eyes for a while, and whispered, "Now several people have been admitted to the best college in our country, and there is still the last place left."

"The last person should be decided by the results of the joint examination."

Others students don't know.

But Lanny's grandpa is the Minister of Education, and he is very clear about these things.

Even though Nikita used to zeroes, Lanny didn't think it was her real strength.

People who really get zero marks in general practice can't suddenly change from getting zero marks to full marks.

She even achieved the full marks at a national competition.

Chapter 843 No Impression at All

This can only show that Nikita is very likely to hide her real strength.

If this is the case, as long as she does as good as she did in the English contest, she will definitely get the last admission position.

"Last quota?" After listening, Nikita raised her brows, saying faintly. "I am not interested."

Lanny paused.

Many people are fighting for the quota.

She said she wasn't interested.

He felt that it was not surprising at all regarding Nikita.

The best university nation-wide is a place that all students flock to.

But he can tell that Nikita is really not interested.

"Is there nothing else?" Nikita looked at the handsome boy, patiently waited for a few seconds.

Lanny's eyes flashed. He shook his head: "No."

Nikita didn't say anything. She left.

Lanny stood in place and looked at her back as she gradually walked away. In a trance, he was somehow disappointed.

She doesn't remember him at all.

"What are you looking at? She has gone far, Are you reluctant?" A boy came forward. He patted him on the shoulder, and said half-jokingly. "If you like her, it's better to chase her. If you don't do anything, she will be someone else's."

"Don't talk nonsense." Lanny didn't like others to tease him with Nikita, frowning. "The college entrance examination is coming soon, and everyone should focus on their studies."

"That's true, but..." The man beside him patted him on the shoulder again, sighing, "It's too late to chase when you think the time is right."

"She is close to Manley, and Hugh, and Xavier. They could be your rivals. Besides, do you think she could get in the same school with you? Everyone will be drifted apart because of the entrance examination.

"Nikita can be admitted to the best university in the country." Lanny seriously corrected the boys. "She is more powerful than we thought. I believe she will definitely be admitted."

The boy next to him was a little speechless. Just because she won the first place in the English contest, it does not mean she is brilliant in other subjects. It's of no use if she's only good at English.

He wants to go to that university.

But this is not something he can always get.

"I trust Nikita." Lanny looked at the girl who had gone far and was about to disappear, and said with certainty.

“All right, all right. She can do it. She is the perfect girl in your heart. Could we go now? She is gone. Let’s go. We’ll eat as much as we can since it’s on the house.”

They head for the canteen.

Lanny looked down to hide the emotions in his eyes. They walked towards the canteen.

The place is very close to No.1 Middle School.

Chapter 844 Re-investigating the Case

It was the place where Nikita and Malcolm had dinner together last time.

It’s a few minutes drive.

Nikita and Officer Lewis have not seen each other for two years.

The last time, the case at that time had nothing to do with Nikita. It was Officer Lewis who found her and asked her to help with the investigation.

This time, Nikita found Officer Lewis for help.

Officer Lewis booked a private room.

Wearing cheongsam, the waitress with a good appearance went to the private room with Nikita. Nikita pushed open the door. The middle-aged man sitting in the room looked up at her.

He paused. Then, he immediately got up and walked towards her.

“Long time no see, Nikita.” Officer Lewis walked to the front of Nikita, stretched out a hand.

The two shook hands.

Officer Lewis: "I didn't expect to meet again after the case ended, it would be two years later. You have disappeared without a trace in the past two years, and everyone is very worried about you."

Nikita gently smiled: "Well, something happened. But now it has been solved"

Officer Lewis nodded and laughed: "It's good to solve it. Come, let's not stand at the door, come in, have a seat."

Officer Lewis didn't ask her what happened.

They know each other.

Nikita didn't say what it was, that is, she doesn't want to say.

And it must certainly not be a good thing.

Under normal circumstances, how can a person disappear for two years without any reason?

But looking at Nikita is in good condition now, and Officer Lewis is relieved.

He knows Nikita.

it is also very difficult for others to make her suffer,

After they entered the room and sat down.

Officer Lewis handed her the menu: "Let's see what you want to eat."

Nikita took the menu, casually ordered two dishes, and handed the menu back.

Officer Lewis added a few more dishes. Knowing that she likes sweets, he added a dessert.

The waiter took the menu, and gently closed the door

"Go ahead, what do you want me to do for you?" Officer Lewis came straight to the point.

This is the first time Nikita asked him for help.

In the past, he asked Nikita for help.

Officer Lewis is a little inexplicably excited.

Nikita is also a straightforward person who is not used to beating around the bush. She said quite directly: "There is a case that N City Police Department is working on, and it has been closed at present. However, there may be some problems in this case, and I hope to re-examine it."

"Oh, what case?"

Officer Lewis carefully recalled that there seems to be no sensational big case in the N City recently.

There was one last year,

Is she talking about the one last year?

But it was a murder case, and he personally participated in the case, so there should be no problem.

“It is not a big case, just an accidental death case “As if guessed what Officer Lewis was thinking, Nikita squinted, and mentioned the matter of George

“So, do you want to look up and see if it is a real accident or a man made accident?”

“Hmm.”

Officer Lewis clearly nodded. “This matter is easy to handle ‘ll let someone check what’s going on first. George, isn’t it?”

“Hmm.”

OK, I call and ask Just a moment

Chapter 845 Do you know each other?

Officer Lewis took out his phone to make a call.

A few minutes later, he hung up and put his cell phone back on the desk.

“George is a heavy life carrier of Modeler Engineering Construction Company. People from the Lake Police Station claim that it’s done. Just an accident.”

“But...” Officer Lewis paused, and said, “A few days before George died unexpectedly, someone saw him having a big fight with a contractor on the construction site, saying that he would go to the police.”

Officer Lewis squinted. His profession allows him to notice the trivial trace.

Nikita frowned "Who is the contractor who quarreled with him?"

"Garfield. His brother is Gaylord, another powerful contractor. He is working for his brother."

"In short, he is a scumbag."

"His brother is doing publicity to renew the brand."

"Gaylord? Nikita frowned harder.

"What's the matter?" Officer Lewis saw her reaction. "Do you know him?"

Nikita sneer: "Know? Sort of."

Officer Lewis stunned: "What is the situation?"

After dinner, Nikita began to investigate the case.

Lewis accompanied her.

On the bus, Nikita made a phone call to Lemuel, who is far away from an unknown corner.

After ringing a few times, it was connected. The faint but bright voice sounded, "Nikita! How come you call? Did you develop something new? Send me, I want to study it!"

Nikita: "..

"I want to take a patient to N City Hospital, arrange it immediately." Nikita didn't talk nonsense with him. After talking about the basic situation of Gerda, she hung up the phone.

After thinking about it, she decided to take Gerda to N City for treatment.

First, the medical conditions here are very good. Although Gerda didn't suffer much, she will be treated better here.

It will be better for her to recover afterwards.

Second, Nikita wants to re-investigate George's case. Thus, Gerda and Adele couldn't stay in the town, which is dangerous.

She was relieved to transfer her.

Soon, they arrived at the construction site where George had an accident.

Only half of the houses on the construction site have been built. Although there was a murder case here not long ago, the construction site never stopped for a day, and the workers never stopped for a day. At noon in summer, they were blushing and sweating profusely

The appearance of Nikita attracted a group of men on the construction site to look at her frequently.

Chapter 846 I don't know, I don't know anything.

There are a group of big masters on the construction site. Suddenly, such a beautiful girl appeared, they naturally wanted to look at her.

A middle-aged man wearing a yellow helmet and looking like the person in charge of the construction site came up.

He looked at the two, asking defensively: "Who are you looking for?"

Officer Lewis showed his police officer's card directly: "We are here to re-investigate George's case. Two days before George's accidental death, did he have a conflict with Garfield, the contractor on the construction site? Do you know about this matter?"

The middle-aged man looked at the police officer's card, and frowned.

Before Officer Lewis could speak again, he shook his head and waved his hand and said, "I don't know, I don't know anything. Don't ask me what you want to investigate, I don't know anything."

The middle-aged man seems to be afraid of something. He turned and walked away in a hurry.

Officer Lewis raised his eyebrows and turned to Nikita: "Ask others again."

Nikita looked at the middle-aged man who fled, squinting.

Officer Lewis went to several workers to ask,

But everyone's reaction is the same as that of the middle-aged man at the beginning, saying that they don't know anything.

After asking five or six people in succession....

They found nothing.

"Forget it, there is no point in asking so much." Nikita saw that Officer Lewis found another person to ask. "These people should be warned, even if they know something, they dare not say it."

George is just a worker on the construction site.

If it weren't for something that made him unbearable and broke through his bottom line, he couldn't have quarreled with his contractor, and he also said something like calling the police at that time. It can be seen that Garfield must have done something at that time and angered him.

Nikita just wanted to know why they quarreled.

Her intuition told her that it was very important to find out the matter.

But now, looking at the reaction of these workers, they must have been warned in advance. They might not be able to get any information.

Officer Lewis frowned: "What should we do? Quit?"

"Of course not." Biting her lip, Nikita said coldly. "They won't say it, so we'll check it on our own."

"On our own? How?"

"Look at the all-day monitoring of the day." Nikita thought about it and said, "Go back to the police station and have a look."

Officer Lewis nodded: "It can only be like this. However, the police station must have seen the relevant monitoring."

Nikita put her hands into pockets and turned around: "Let's talk about it after reading it."

They decided to leave the construction site.

They all walked to the door of the construction site, and suddenly a man's voice sounded behind them. He was panting "Are.. are you here to check that incident of George? I know some things, I don't know if I should say it."

Nikita paused. She turned around.

Behind her stood a bare-chested, thin and sweaty middle-aged man.

More than forty years old, he should have come running just now. He ran in a hurry and was panting all the time.

Officer Lewis also turned around and looked at the middle-aged man: "Yes, we are here to investigate George's case. You can tell us anything you know

Chapter 847 He helps her open the door personally.

The middle-aged man panted. First, he looked around and saw that no one was looking at them. Then he lowered his voice, "If you want to know what Garfield and George argued."

"George has a daughter. When she was on vacation, she came to see her father. She lived on the site at that time. On her birthday, George change shift with others, and bought her favorite cake and fruits.

"I was free, so I joined him. When we arrived at George's place, we heard his daughter crying, yelling "no". George was furious, he dashed into the room."

The middle-aged man paused, lowering his voice, "Then, I saw Garfield running out of his place. He... he was in a mess. George had a bad fight with him.:"

"After two days, it was the accident."

The middle-aged man's eyes were teary: "We have known each other for many years, and he is a very good person. After his accident that day, in fact, some workers went to the scene to see it and said that there was something wrong with the hanging tower..."

Having said that, the middle-aged man stopped as if he were worried about something.

“That’s all I can say. There are still things unfinished on the construction site, I, I will go back first.” After the middle-aged man finished speaking, he left in a hurry.

Nikita stood in place, frowning hard, looking terrifying.

She looks calm.

But Officer Lewis knows that this so-called calm is just an assumption before the storm comes.

From what the worker said just now, it is not difficult to guess what happened that day. He almost lost his temper.

Not to mention Nikita.

Even though they haven’t got the exact evidence in hands, there are many doubtful points in this case.

It’s definitely not just a simple accident.

Coming out of the construction site, they got on the car.

Nikita is extremely silent.

She kept looking out of the window.

Officer Lewis also knows that she must be in a bad mood. He wanted to discuss the case with her. However, he didn’t eventually.

Nikita usually talks very little.

She’s even more silent when she’s in a bad mood.

It will only make her more irritable, no matter who tried to talk with her.

Coincidentally, the police station in charge of Uncle George's case happened to be the one near No. 1 Middle School.

The police officer drove directly to the police station.

After getting off the bus, he went around to Nikita, and helped her open the door like a gentleman.

At the entrance of the police station.

The chief and a group of policemen came out early and waited. They were all with respectful expressions on their faces.

The director was even scared and uneasy.

He thought about it over and over again, but he couldn't guess how the big shot suddenly came to their small police station. Is it a spot check?

No matter how to spot check, it shouldn't be him who came in person.

All the policemen under the director craned their necks, and when a car came, they stared at it for a while.

They had no idea that what kind of great man they are receiving today.

However, apart from Sheehan last time, it is the first time to see the director attach so much importance to it.

Chapter 848 Being Seen by Sheehan and Yates

No matter which big shot it is, the identity must be special.

Almost all the staff in the police station have come out to wait.

A group of uniformed policemen stood neatly outside, which was quite conspicuous.

In a black Bentley opposite the street....

Yates looked at a group of policemen standing straight at the opposite police station, he was surprised: "Is the opposite police station going to serve a special person? That situation..."

In the back of the car, there is a man sitting next to Yates.

That person looked handsome and elegant. His deep eyebrows looked cold.

The man is holding his mobile phone and sending messages on WhatsApp.

After listening to Yates's words, he turned his head and looked out of the window, and then looked back indifferently.

He bowed his head and edited the message.

After a few seconds, the message was edited and sent out.

After sending the message, he raised his eyes and said to the driver in front: "Go back to the company."

"Yes, Mr. Lambert." The driver started the car and was about to drive away when Yates suddenly shouted and hurriedly said to the driver: "Wait!"

The driver stopped.

Sheehan looked down at his mobile phone. After he didn't see the reply, he raised his eyes: "What happened?"

"Niky, Niky!" Yates excitedly grabbed Sheehan's arm and pointed out of the window with his hand. "Mr. Lambert, that's Niky. I haven't seen it wrong, right?"

"The whole police station is waiting to meet a powerful person, that person is Niky?"

Yates's tone was excited and shocked.

Although he knew Nikita is not normal with many secrets, he still felt shocked.

The man who looked cold and didn't care about anything just now immediately turned his head and looked out of the window.

He saw the girl getting off an off-road vehicle at a glance.

The girl's delicate white face looked pale. From a distance, he could feel that the girl's aura was cold. She was expressionless, it seemed that she was in a bad mood.

With her, there is a man who seems to be in his forties or fifties. That man is energetic with a pair of sharp eyes.

He wears simple casual clothes, but his aura as a superior person can't be hidden.

At one glance, Sheehan can tell that the identity of the man with Nikita is not simple.

The group of policemen waiting outside also greet the man first.

'Mr. Lambert, is that Niky?' Yates is still grabbing the window and looking outside, "Who is the man with Niky? Do you know him? I feel that man is familiar, it seems that I have met him."

Yates really feels familiar.

However, he can't remember where he has met that person for the time being.

Sheehan's dark and deep eyes were half narrowed. He kept looking at Nikita. It seemed that he didn't hear Yates' words, he kept silent.

Yates lay on the window of the car and watched with interest: "What is Niky doing at the police station? Did something happen? Mr. Lambert, do you know about this? Has she told you?"

Sheehan reacted slightly this time. He narrowed his deep eyes again.

Yates felt that the temperature in the car suddenly dropped by ten degrees.

Now, it is summer.

He felt a little cold.

After a while, a group of policemen surrounded the man and Nikita and walked into the police station.

Seeing that they have walked in, Yates finally looked back. He turned and asked Sheehan: "Mr. Lambert, do we need to get out of the car, walk over, and have a look?"

Chapter 849 An Extremely Powerful Person?

Sheehan tightly sipped his lips. After a while, he said faintly: "No."

Then, he ordered the driver: "Go back to the company."

Seeing that Sheehan still wanted to go back to the company, Yates was stunned.

It's about his girlfriend.

He doesn't go to have a look?

However, he didn't dare to ask.

Sheehan's face looked gloomy. Based on their relationship for so many years and Yates' understanding about him, Yates knew that Sheehan was angry.

Yates didn't understand. Just now, Sheehan was fine, but he became angry suddenly.

This is... confusing.

Because he saw that Nikita was with that man?

But the middle-aged man seemed to be quite old, he and Nikita was not intimate.

Sheehan can't be jealous, right?

Officer Lewis got out of the car.

As soon as the director saw Officer Lewis get out of the car, he immediately stepped forward, looked respectful, and was about to greet Officer Lewis. But Officer Lewis didn't look at him, he went directly to the co-pilot, and stretched out his hand to open the door of the co-pilot seat.

The director and a group of policemen behind him were stunned. Then they looked at the co-pilot seat together.

Is there anyone else in the car?

The director was stunned.

Officer Lewis is a powerful person.

He opened the door for someone in person.

Is there an extremely powerful person in the car? That person is more powerful than Officer Lewis?

The director stared at the opened door, he became more and more uneasy and scared. His body was tight, and he didn't dare to breathe or blink.

After a few seconds, the mysterious "powerful person" in the car finally came down.

Staring at the door, waiting for the person in the car to come down... The director and those policemen behind him were stunned.

A little girl in school uniform?!

Why does this little girl look familiar?

The young policeman standing in the rear row was stunned.

Others may not be familiar with Nikita. But he knows her very well.

They have just met each other this morning!

This afternoon, they meet again?

Under such a circumstance...

The young policeman knows that this little girl named Nikita may have a powerful background.

But at this moment, he was quite surprised when he saw that the person who got off the car turned out to be the little girl who was reported to have bought fake tickets in the morning.

Of course, the director also knows Nikita.

10:24

He has just met her for twice including this time.

But he was impressed with this little girl.

A little girl who looks thin has fought with more than a dozen punks in vocational high school. Not only did she not be injured, but she also made more than a dozen punks in vocational high school hospitalized.

A group of parents came to the police station to make trouble, saying that their sons had been beaten seriously.

At that time, the director felt that this little girl could make more than a dozen tall and strong punks hospitalized seemed to be an unprecedented case in many cases for his police station.

In addition, the girl has restored a destroyed video at that time.

This matter is what has impressed him the most.

At that time, he felt that this little girl named Nikita was very powerful and unusual.

Now... The director looked at Officer Lewis, who opened the door for Nikita. Then he looked at Nikita, who looked cold and seemed to be accustomed to Officer Lewis's action. He controlled his shock, and said "Officer Lewis" respectfully. Then he turned his head and called "Miss Swift" more respectfully.

Chapter 850 They thought that there would have been something serious.

The director still remembers Nikita's name.

The little girl is beautiful, and her name also sounds great.

A group of policemen behind them didn't know who they were welcoming.

Finally, they heard the director call "Officer Lewis."

A group of young policemen suddenly became stunned, then they looked up at Officer Lewis in disbelief.

"Officer Lewis? Is he Officer Lewis whom we are thinking about?" A young policewoman's eyes became bright. She desperately controlled her excited mood, then she asked in a trembling voice.

Several colleagues next to the policewoman also looked excited.

Their faces became red with excitement.

For policemen, Officer Lewis is a miracle.

It is equivalent to the position of Manley in e-sports.

However, Officer Lewis has always been humble. He seldom appears in public. Most people have just heard about his legendary stories, but they haven't seen him.

However, in their circle, a person who can be called as Officer Lewis and can make their director respectful like this... Only that legendary person can be qualified.

A group of young policemen are as excited as seeing their idol. They almost want to rush over and let Officer Lewis sign his name for them.

No one dares to think that such a powerful person can visit their small police station.

In the back row, the young policeman who had met Nikita for several times looked at her with complex expressions.

What's the identity of this little girl?

How can a big shot like Officer Lewis be with her?

Just now, Officer Lewis opened the door for her in front of them.

It seems that he values her very much.

The young policeman thought about the report again. He felt a little uneasy. They allowed that female student, named Yvonne, to leave like that... was their action unsuitable?

Officer Lewis personally came to the police station, everyone thought that something big had happened.

The director served Officer Lewis carefully and fearfully, and he didn't dare to breathe in the whole process. He was always worried about whether he would be dismissed.

“Well, Officer Lewis, Miss Swift, have some tea.” The director personally brewed tea and brought it in person. He has used the best tea in the office, which he has kept as a treasure and has been unwilling to drink at ordinary times.

After doing these things, he stood aside carefully.

He didn’t dare to sit down in front of these two powerful people.

Officer Lewis pointed to the seat beside and said to him, “Sit down and talk.”

The director finally sat down carefully.

But the director was still quite uneasy. He looked at the girl, who was cold and in a bad mood, then he said carefully: “Officer Lewis, could you tell me why you come here this time?”

“Check a case.” Officer Lewis said indifferently. “Some time ago, there was a case of an accidental death caused by down on the construction site, right? That worker’s name is George.

The director was stunned and immediately said, “Officer Lewis, please wait a moment. I’ll let someone check it right away

This is just a small case.

Therefore, the director doesn’t know about this matter.

However, since Officer Lewis is asking, it shows that there must be something wrong with this case. The director immediately pays attention to this case and called a policeman, who always focuses on dealing with such cases.

Coincidentally, the person who has dealt with this case is that young policeman who has met Nikita for many times before.
