

The Girl CB 851

Chapter 851 I'm afraid this is against the rules.

The young policeman walked into the director's office. He saw Nikita and Officer Lewis sitting side by side. Nikita was overlapping her legs and sitting casually. However, his director looked nervous, sitting on a little stool.

At first glance, it's clear to see who is superior.

The young policeman controlled his surprise. He walked over and handed the investigation material of George to the director.

Then he stood aside, couldn't help but look up at Nikita for several times.

The sudden presence of Officer Lewis is like a glittering Buddha's sudden appearance in a small temple.

All of them are guessing what Officer Lewis has come for.

Everyone recalled all kinds of major and extremely serious cases that had occurred in recent years.

However, no one would have thought that the case that let such a legendary person like Officer Lewis come to check in person would be an accidental death case.

George, who accidentally fell to his death, is just a rural person with no background.

The director took the investigation file and didn't dare to delay at all. After reading it quickly, he didn't find any problems.

“Officer Lewis, is there anything wrong with this case?” The director asked carefully, for fear that he had said something wrong. He also felt surprised and confused.

He also thought that Officer Lewis must have come for some important cases in person.

Otherwise, he must have come for some important matters.

But the case he has just read is just an ordinary case of accidental death, which was already concluded.

Why did Officer Lewis notice such an ordinary case?

By the way, what’s the relationship between this girl named Nikita and this case?

Why is she here together with Officer Lewis?

The director was puzzled when he heard the girl who had been silent suddenly said: “This is not a simple accidental death case. I suspect that George’s death is man-made. This case has to be re- examined.”

“According to what we have known from George’s workmates, two days before his death, he had a conflict with Garfield, the contractor of the construction site. His death may be related to Garfield.”

Nikita is almost certain that George’s death is related with Garfield.

But before she can get the evidence, even if she wants to kill Garfield, she can’t do anything.

She can’t convict Garfield.

The director was stunned, he looked at Officer Lewis, who was silent next to the girl, he suddenly understood something. When he looked at Nikita, the surprise in his eyes couldn’t be hidden.

It suddenly occurred to him that probably Officer Lewis had come to the police station for Nikita.

It is Nikita who wants to check George's case.

Thinking like this, the director looked at Nikita again, he was extremely shocked.

Officer Lewis came with her to the police station just for such a case?

He is Officer Lewis!

He is a person who may not even accept the Invitation of the mayor of N City.

But now... Officer Lewis is powerful, then... a person who can let Officer Lewis treat her like this... How powerful she will be?

*This case is indeed full of doubts." Officer Lewis said after Nikita finished her words, "Arrange the re-examination of this case. From now on, Nikita will take over this case, you should be responsible for assisting her in investigating the case.

The director and the young policeman were stunned.

Nikita will be in charge of this case?

Is this against the rules?

Although the director did not dare to offend Officer Lewis, when it was related to some rules and regulations, he encouraged himself and said under pressure: "Officer Lewis, this may be against the rules. Nikita is not a member of our system. If she is responsible for this case, perhaps it will

Chapter 852 International Reconnaissance Team

“She is not a member of our system?” Officer Lewis turned his head and looked at Nikita with a rare smile on his face. “Nikita, do you have that certificate with you?”

Certificate?

The director and the young policeman were stunned again, they looked confused.

What certificate?

That silent girl nodded and said hum gently. Then she opened her outdated and old ordinary black bag. She dug in it for a while and took out a card bag with cards.

The card bag is bulging.

Nikita opened the card bag. The director and the young policeman looked over with curiosity. They saw many colorful cards.

They knew nothing about those cards.

Those cards looked colorful.

Nikita pulled out one card from those colorful cards and handed it to the director.

The director took it over with a confused face.

He glanced at it. Suddenly, he stood still as if he were frozen.

The hand holding the card also froze.

It seems that he is controlled.

But his eyes were wide and round, his mouth was slightly open, and his eyes were fixed on the card he had just received, as if there was something incredible on the card. His eyes were filled with shock and disbelief.

The young policeman was standing next to the director.

Seeing the director's reaction, he also looked down.

After a few seconds, the young policeman also reacted in the same way as the director. He opened his eyes in shock, his pupils also got larger in an instant.

He looked at that small black card again and again in succession. He also stretched out his hand to rub his eyes. His eyes still looked shocked in disbelief.

This is... How is it possible...

This little girl... a high school student... is a member of the international reconnaissance team.

Since she is a member of the international reconnaissance team, she can check all the important international cases, let alone a case of a district in N City.

In fact... Only serious and extremely hard cases can apply for the investigation of members from the international reconnaissance team

Considering several serious murders that occurred in recent years, only one case that was particularly difficult to investigate applied for the international reconnaissance team's help to investigate. At that time, the higher government has applied for the help of the international reconnaissance team from relevant international departments for a long time. They finally got the help painstakingly.

That case didn't get any progress after tracking the clues for many months. However, the member arranged by the International reconnaissance team solved that case within a day.

This matter caused a great sensation in their circle at that time.

Just because of this reason, those people who thought that the international reconnaissance team was overestimated were convinced. They didn't think like that since then.

Everyone was convinced.

If Officer Lewis is a god for them in this circle...

The international reconnaissance team is invincible to them.

Because...the previous case, if it were not for the help of the international reconnaissance team, even if Officer Lewis had found out most of the clues of the case, it would not be possible for them to solve the case.

Because the most critical clue, the surveillance video, was completely destroyed.

At that time, many computer experts and hackers were invited, but they could not recover the surveillance video.

Seeing that it will become an unsolved case, but a member of the international reconnaissance team came...

It is said that the invincible person only took less than half an hour to restore the video.

Chapter 853 But at that time, Nikita was just a child!

Restore the video...

The director suddenly raised his head and looked at Nikita in shock. His lips shivered a few times, his voice was trembling: "Four... four years ago, there was a serious case, a whole family was killed. There was a video that all experts and hackers could not recover, finally, finally..."

Before Nikita could speak, Officer Lewis answered for her: "Hmm, it was Nikita who helped us to solve that case. If she had not recovered that video, we couldn't have solved that case."

Officer Lewis also participated in that case.

All the evidence at that time was related to one person.

They just needed one more piece of evidence to arrest the criminal and bring him to justice.

Because of this, the case had no progress at all for several months..

It can be said that if it is not for Nikita's help, this case is very likely to be paused for several years and decades...

They have to endure the anger and despair of knowing who the criminal is and being unable to arrest him because of the lack of strong evidence.

The director was so shocked that he couldn't speak.

A few years ago, the member arranged by the international reconnaissance team was really Nikita,

But at that time, Nikita was just a child, right?

When she was thirteen or fourteen years old, she has become a member of the international reconnaissance team. She could also help the police solve such a big case.

In all the detective stories he has read, no one is so powerful.

But in real life, there is such a person. Moreover, such a person is sitting opposite him.

Beside the director, the young policeman opened his mouth and kept silent. From time to time, he looked up at Nikita, his mind was blank. He couldn't think for a while, he couldn't think about anything.

His experience at this moment...

He thought he might never forget it.

George's case was re-investigated.

The police have started their work. They brought many eyewitness workers back to the police station, then they made records for those workers one by one. Then, they interrogated the workers who went to the hanging tower with George, especially those who got off the hanging tower before it broke.

Including Garfield.

Garfield was playing cards in a clubhouse when he was found by the police.

Two sexy women with heavy makeups were sitting next to him. One woman was peeling fruits for him, the other woman was pressing his shoulder. Garfield looked quite happy with two women in his arms, it seemed that he was enjoying.

A man sitting opposite Garfield threw a card and went out. The woman next to him also fed the cut fruit to him. When he ate the fruit, he deliberately bit the woman's finger

The woman said 'Oh' with coquetry and pushed his chest: 'My lord... don't do this.'

That man lifted the woman's chin and looked at Garfield, who was hugging two women, He asked casually, "I heard that there was a death case on your construction site? The wife of the worker who fell to death went to the construction site to make trouble?"

"How is this matter handled? Is there anything wrong?"

Garfield also threw a card, pinching the soft waist of the woman beside him, and his tone was quite indifferent: "Many people have died at construction sites. Making trouble is just a method to get more money.

"Once these poor people have the opportunity to get more money, everyone of them will make trouble. Dealing with these poor troublemakers is very easy, beating them can solve all the problems."

"Ah, Boss Garfield is so experienced." A man sitting next to him smiled and said, "I don't care about these things. I just want to ask Boss Garfield, what's your feeling about that little girl?"

Chapter 854 The door was kicked to open.

Several men at the table are quite interested in this topic.

They raised their heads together and looked at Garfield.

"Yes, Boss Garfield, have you made love with that girl? How did you feel?"

Garfield saw that they were looking at him with interest, he threw out a card again, then he sipped his mouth with disdain: "A little girl, her body is not mature, that's not interesting."

"Oh, so you have succeeded? The man next to him smiled cunningly. "Boss Garfield, you are so wanton. That girl is still under age. How dare you? Aren't you afraid of being sued?"

“Being sued? No way” Garfield said with disdain. “The girl is timid. She will not dare to say anything after I arrange some people to frighten her. Besides, money can solve all problems in this world.”

“But I heard that some policeman had gone to your construction site to investigate the case this afternoon. Isn’t the case concluded? Why did they check again? Haven’t you given the old woman enough money? She went to the police station to make trouble again?”

Garfield was about to speak when his cell phone rang.

He looked at the caller ID. The caller was a follower who worked for him on the construction site.

“Wait a minute, I have a phone call.” Garfield hugged the woman next to him and pinched her breast. Then he picked up the phone slowly.

“Garfield, something is wrong. A group of policemen came suddenly, they took several workers from the construction site. Another group of policemen went to find you.” In the phone, there was a panic voice.

Garfield’s face changed, then he frowned: “What? Why do they come to the construction site?!”

“I heard that they are going to re-check George’s case. It seemed that they doubt that George’s death was not an accident, but a man-made death. But... didn’t they conclude the case after investigations? Why?”

After a few minutes, Garfield hung up the phone, he looked gloomy

Someone asked, “Boss Garfield, what happened?”

Garfield threw his mobile phone to the table and gnashed: “Fuck, I don’t know why. Those policemen are going to re-check George’s case.”

“Oh? Perhaps his wife went to the police station again? Didn’t you say that you had asked someone to deal with her? How dared she?”

“I don’t know.” Garfield gnashed.

“Shall we continue to play cards? Boss Garfield, do you need to escape to another city?”

“Escape?” Garfield spat on the ground heavily. “I am not afraid. If they dare, they can arrest me. Come on, let continue to play. Don’t leave before we can enjoy ourselves enough!”

The outside became noisy as soon as he finished his words.

Before people in the room could react, with a “bang”, the door was kicked open.

People at the table looked at the door in shock.

The first person who walked in was a girl with white skin and a delicate and beautiful face. Her eyes were quite cold, it seemed that she was in a bad mood. After she walked into the room, she looked around the room with her cold eyes.

People in the room were surprised by the sudden noise outside just now. When they saw that the person who came in was a beautiful girl, they suddenly became relaxed.

One of the men stared at Nikita’s white and delicate face, he laughed and said, “Little girl, who are you looking for? Have you come to the wrong room?”

Chapter 855 This terrible and abnormal power...

Garfield also stared at Nikita with desire in his eyes.

He opened his mouth and wanted to strike up a conversation.

Suddenly, several people came in..

A group of policemen came in, wearing uniforms.

A group of people who had just relaxed in the room became nervous again.

Why are the police here?

Thinking of the phone call that Garfield had just received, they understood quickly. The police should have come to arrest Garfield.

Garfield also reacted, and his eyes suddenly became panicked. After a few seconds, it seemed that he had thought of something, then he became calm again.

“Police, we are friends, we just gather here to play, are we against the laws?” Garfield sat there without fear, he said with a smile.

“Yes, officer, we are all good citizens who abide by the laws and disciplines. We won’t do illegal things.” Another man is always caught into the police station, he is not panicked when he sees the police.

He also makes jokes and smiles.

“Who is Garfield?” The girl standing in front looked at those smiling men coldly. Her tone was indifferent, which showed no emotion.

This beautiful little girl is looking for Garfield?

Several men on the table looked at Garfield with envy.

Seeing this, Garfield may have raped this girl.

The little girl called the police and brought them here to arrest him.

The little girl doesn't even know who he is. It is estimated that Garfield has left immediately and secretly after raping her. If this is the case, Garfield is so awful.

This girl is so beautiful, he was willing to sneak away?

Garfield was called, so he looked at Nikita with a smile: "You come here for me. Little girl, why are you looking for me?"

Nikita narrowed her eyes and looked at the laughing man, she sipped her lips and walked towards the man without saying anything.

Other men laughed and joked after seeing this.

They really thought that their guessing was right.

Behind Nikita.

The young policeman with Nikita frowned and guessed what she wanted to do. When he wanted to walk over to stop her, a scream sounded in the room.

Nikita walked to Garfield. Garfield smiled and wanted to molest her, then he was punched on his face heavily.

Garfield is quite fat, he weighs 100KG. Being punched by Nikita, his nose bleeds immediately. Then he falls down from the chair to the ground.

He screamed and rolled his eyes, then he got faint immediately.

Next to him, a few men who were teasing Nikita with frivolous words just now were all stunned.

Because of fear.

Especially the man sitting next to Garfield...

How did Nikita beat Garfield... how did Nikita punch Garfield to the ground... He saw the whole process clearly.

A group of people were scared.

The young policeman went to Nikita, then he looked at Garfield, who had got faint, he pulled his lips.

One punch? Fall to the ground?

This is a fat guy with a weight of 100KG...

This terrible and abnormal power....

"Is he, is he all right?" The young policeman looked at Garfield lying on the ground, seeing that he didn't move, the policeman asked with worries.

He was not worried about Garfield.

He was worried that Nikita had beat Garfield heavily, she might be framed later...

“He won’t die. Take him back.” Nikita indifferently said like this, turned and walked out of the room.

The young policeman pulled his lips again. After a few seconds, he waved his hand and ordered the policeman behind him: “Take him away!”

He is responsible for re-investigating the case with Nikita this time.

The police station specially assigned an elite team to Nikita, Nikita appointed him as the team leader temporarily.

Chapter 856 Silent Praise

After seeing other men and women in the room, the young policeman took them away in the name of suspected gambling. Although they have said that they are just playing cards for fun together as friends, they are gambling in the name of entertainment.

They have received relevant reports before.

But these people have helpers. Before the police arrived, they had already left.

Every time, they came in vain.

This time, Nikita brought them over. The policemen coincidentally arrested them on the spot.

The strength of Nikita’s punching was suitable.

As soon as they arrived at the police station, Garfield woke up in time.

Several policemen in the car looked at the fat man who had opened his eyes, they couldn’t help but breathe a sigh of relief.

At least they don't have to move him later.

Garfield was stunned because of being punched by Nikita. When he woke up, he was stunned for a long time before he came to his senses.

Realizing he had been taken to the police station, he began shouting: "I want to get off the car! Get off! Where are you taking me to? Lawyer, I want to meet my lawyer!"

Two policemen escorted him out of the car.

Garfield stood at the gate of the police station, he refused to go in. He kept shouting that he needed to meet his lawyer.

A police car stopped behind him.

Nikita got off the car, looked at Garfield, who was still shouting. She walked over with a cold face and kicked his calf: "Shut up, if you dare to shout again, I will break your legs."

Garfield was kicked by her, he wanted to shout in pain. When he raised his head, he looked into the girl's cold eyes with murdering He felt that he was shrouded in coldness, he became silent in fear.

His hand was filled with cold sweat because of pain.

But he couldn't make sounds.

Seeing that the man who was howling just now was subdued immediately, those policemen looked at each other and admired their little leader.

They all praised Nikita silently in their hearts.

Her kicking is great.

Interrogation room.

The interrogation for others was easy. Although they wanted to hide something at the beginning, they gradually told the truth after being asked for several times.

Only Garfield and the workers who went to the hanging tower with George that day refused to say anything.

“On that day, someone witnessed you running out of George’s room in disheveled clothes. At that time, his daughter was in the room. A young policeman interrogated Garfield, Nikita was sitting aside. Hearing the young policeman talking about this, her black eyes looked murderous again.

Even the young policeman beside her was frightened by her murderous aura.

He felt a strong sense of pressure.

During the interrogation, he paused for a few seconds before continuing to ask, “What were you doing in the room at that time? Why did George fight with you? Why did he say you had done an evil thing? Why did he want to call the police?”

Opposite them, Garfield got a punch in the face, his nose and half of his face were swollen.

Hearing the police’s question, he raised his head, reached out his hand, touched the blood under his nose, and said indifferently: “Didn’t I tell you before? His daughter greeted me and asked me to talk with her.”

“I just talked with her for a while.”

“Just talked? Then why were you disheveled?” The young policeman was angry, he patted the table hard. “Why did George fight with you?”

Chapter 857 The result is like this?

Garfield still looks indifferent: “It is hot. It is suitable for me to take off my clothes. I am always like this on the construction site. I also take off my clothes when I am hot in public.”

“George must have misunderstood something.”

“I told him that I didn’t do anything with his daughter, but he didn’t believe.”

Garfield was interrogated by the police before.

At that time, he also said like this.

As for the second interrogation, he didn’t change his words at all.

It’s meaningless to go on interrogating like this.

Even if they interrogate him for three days in succession, they won’t get any evidence.

The young policeman frowned and turned to look at Nikita: “He said the same thing before.”

At that moment, a policeman came in from outside.

“Garfield’s defense lawyer came and said he wanted to see him.”

When Garfield heard that his lawyer was coming, he immediately became energetic.

Nikita nodded after knowing the situation: "Let him go."

"What?!" The young policeman was stunned and surprised, thinking that he had misheard.

Nikita said clearly again: "We have no definite evidence, we can just let him go."

"But..." The young policeman couldn't believe Nikita actually said that. It was she who asked to re-check the case. And they just brought the suspect back to the police station. Is she really going to release him without interrogating him for a long time?

Isn't she from the international reconnaissance team? Isn't she very skilled at this?

He thought that the case would come to light soon.

The policeman who came in to send a message also looked at Nikita in surprise.

He also never expected her to let the suspect go like this.

While Garfield actually got cocky, especially when he heard Nikita say that they could only release him since they didn't have enough evidence. He stood up and looked arrogant. "So, I can go now?*

The young policeman's face looked gloomy. He sipped his lips tightly and didn't speak up.

Nikita turned to say to the policeman who came in to send the message: "Take him out."

The policeman who sent the message also looked a little frustrated.

In fact, the police also felt doubtful about this case those days. But after investigating carefully, they couldn't find out anything. So they had to close the case first.

Therefore, in this re-investigation, a group of young policemen are all very energetic, hoping to find out the truth.

Among the people in this elite team who work for Nikita this time, no one actually knows that Nikita is from the international reconnaissance team except for that young policeman.

Everyone else think that Nikita is Officer Lewis's apprentice.

But they feel that she must be very skilled even though she is just Officer Lewis's apprentice. And they can still get a lot of useful experience and knowledge in the process of handling cases.

As a result, this is all she wrote?

Did they overestimate the ability of Officer Lewis's apprentice?

When Garfield followed the policeman who sent the message to the door of the Interrogation room, he paused, turned around and said to Nikita with great pride on his face: "Little girl, I don't care who you are, or why you want to help George reverse the verdict. But I can clearly tell you that you can't make it!"

"Also, I will tell my lawyer the truth about everything you do to me. Just wait to be prosecuted!"

"Nikita, right?" Garfield's nose was still bleeding. He stretched out his hand to wipe the nosebleeds which flowed out and said with resentment: "You will pay for this!"

After saying these threatening words, Garfield followed the policeman who sent the message out of the interrogation room. "I didn't understand." The young policeman looked at Nikita: "Why do we just let him go like this? Are we going to close this case again?"

Chapter 858 An Eye for An Eye

Nikita looked indifferent. She looked at the young policeman who looked impatient and unwilling: "Of course, not. We won't give up like thi

"Then why did you release him?" The young policeman couldn't understand. Although he was very anxious and angry, his lone was till very polite. "Do you have other plans?"

He feels that since she is the genius from the International

If she just released the suspect only because she didn't get good t between her and ordinary policemen?

on Team, this can't be all she got rogation, what's the difference

"Arrange two people to keep an eye on him" Nikita stood up slowly. And her tone didn't sound anxious at all. "Monitor him 24 hours a day. If something comes up, immediately."

The young policeman was stunned. Then his face changed slightly. His dark eyes immediately lit up. "Guru, did you let him go on purpose?"

Nikita turned to looked at him. "What else could it be? He refused to tell us anything. It would be useless even if we interrogated him in this room for three days and three nights. Unless you allow me to extort a confession by torture, I can make him spit out something soon."

The young policeman

She even wants to extort a confession by torture?

"Then I'll take the job! The young male policeman suddenly had the energy and volunteered. "I'll call Fagan to come with me!"

Nikita nodded. "Well, if Uncle George's accidental death is really related to him, he must feel guilty and scared. After he leaves the police station, he will be planning to destroy some evidence."

"Keep an eye on him"

"Okay, Guru Good! Then I will call Fagan immediately!" After the young policeman finished saying so, he immediately turned around and ran out of the interrogation room.

Nikita stood in the interrogation room for a while and slowly narrowed her eyes. There was a murderous light showing in her eyes.

No one can be safe and sound and pretend that nothing happened after hurting other people's lives.

An eye for an eye.

Garfield can't get away from this.

She will make him pay for this and get the punishment he deserves.

Nikita stayed in the police station for a day.

When she went out, it was already dark outside.

The director respectfully walked her and Officer Lewis out. Then he stood on the side of the road and watched Officer Lewis and Nikita leave before he turned around and walked to his car.

Officer Lewis sent Nikita back.

In the car

Officer Lewis looked at the girl who was still taciturn, thought for a moment and spoke up: "It didn't take long for you let him. go after you arrested that Garfield for interrogation. Did you do that on purpose?"

"Yes." Nikita nodded.

Officer Lewis smiled: "The purpose of catching him back is to let him know that the police station is re-investigating this case and giving him mental pressure. Then you let him go without evidence, so that he could firmly believe that as long as all the evidence in eliminated, the police will have nothing to do with him. I guess the first thing he has to do after he walked out of the police station is to destroy the evidence that has not been completely destroyed.

"So, you asked two policemen to follow him up and keep an eye on him."

"In this way, we can get direct evidence "

Speaking of this, Officer Lewis smiled again: "Am I right?"

"It's just a common detective trick" Nikita also picked up a smile "Thank you for this time"

"Nikita, you don't have to be this polite to me" Officer Lewis laughed. "You helped me so a lot before. This is the least I can You don't need to thank me for this. Speaking of this, we are friends from way back. So don't be so polite."

Chapter 859 The whole Swift family is waiting for her.

"If there is anything I can help you with in the future, just call me As long as it is something I'm capable of, I will try my best"

Half an hour later, they arrived at the Ustang Apartment

The Ustang Apartment is located in the city center, where the houses usually cost at least tens of millions of dollars.

Even if it's a renting house, the rent is not affordable for ordinary people

But Officer Lewis is not surprised at all after seeing Ni ta live in the Ustang Apartment

When he met Nikita in early years, he knew that kita's identity was not that simple.

He has never only regarded Nikita as an ordinary student After all, it is impossible for an ordinary student to be a member of the International Criminal Investigation Team when she was only thirteen or fourteen years old.

It's extremely difficult to join the international criminal investigation team.

There are many people longing for getting in for their lives but failing.

Generally, those who finally get in are not in a young age

Nikita is the only one who was specially admitted to the International Criminal Investigation Team when she was still a minor. Since the establishment of the International Criminal Investigation Team, it has been 100 years, Nikita was the only one who made the team make an exception.

Since she is such a genius

No one will treat her as an ordinary person.

"Be careful on your way back Do you want to go to the police station tomorrow? I can come over to pick you up." Even though he knows that few people can harm Nikita, Officer Lewis still said so out of the concern as an elder generation.

Nikita unbuckled her seat belt and opened the door of the car "From now on, I'll be fine by myself. If there is anything I need your help with, I will call you"

“All right, then,” Officer Lewis nodded. “Keep in touch at any time. When you get some free time, we can always hang out and have dinner together”

“Okay.”

After Nikita got out of the car, she stood on the side of the road and watched Officer Lewis drive away. Then she turned around and walked into her apartment slowly.

The elevator reached the 33rd floor.

Hearing a “Ding”, Patrick and Margot, who had been waiting for a long time in front of Nikita’s door, turned around and stared at the direction of the elevator door.

Nathan was also standing aside.

On that day, he followed Nikita back to N City from the Nature Town.

Nathan also fixed his eyes on the direction of the elevator door. When he saw a familiar figure coming out of the elevator, his hands hanging down on his side were clenched tightly. And there was a light flashed gently in his long, narrow and dark eyes.

When Nikita came out, that was what she saw.

Margot, Patrick and Nathan, the whole family stood at the door of her apartment, staring at her.

Seeing her out of the elevator, Nathan’s eyes sparkled again. And he stepped forward.

However, when he saw the girl’s cold and alienated eyes, he seemed to think of something. His footsteps couldn’t help but pause. And he stopped moving forward.

His hands hanging on both sides of him were clenched even more tightly.

“Nikita, finally, you are back!” Patrick spoke up with some blame. “Where have you been over the weekend? Your mother and I have been waiting here for you for a long time. But you never showed up.”

After Cathleen gave them Nikita’s address that day, Margot and Patrick immediately came to see Nikita.

Even though Margot was really unwilling to do this, she could only put her pride aside in order to survive.

But when they came over, they didn’t get to see her.

After knocking on the door for a long time, there was no response.

They stayed outside Nikita’s apartment for a long time until 12 o’clock at night and finally confirmed that Nikita was not in. Then they left angrily.

They did try to call Nikita.

But their phone numbers were all blackened by Nikita.

As Patrick thought of this, he couldn’t help getting angry.

They wronged Nikita.
