

The Girl Come Back Is Super Chapter 9

The Girl Come Back Is Super Chapter 9-It's just a joke.

"Ni...Nikita, I see you didn't eat, and I'm afraid you will be hungry, so..." Yvonne looked into the cold eyes, and a trace of fear overwowed her heart uncontrollably. Her tongue seemed to be tied up, and she spoke hesitantly.

"I brought you some food. May I, may I go into the room?"

Nikita's eyes narrowed down, her sight fell on Yvonne face, a bright charming pretty little face. She looked at Yvonne for a few seconds, and turned around.

At that glance, Yvonne felt like she was targeted by some cold-blooded animal.

She instantly had a chilling feeling.

She restrained the inexplicable fear in her heart, took a deep breath, collected her courage and walked into the room, pretending to be calm.

Nikita's room decoration was very simple.

The Swift family didn't care much about the daughter who grew up in the countryside, so naturally they wouldn't spend much time on her.

Yvonne scanned the poorly decorated room, she smiled sightly.

"If you have anything to say, spit it out." Nikita held back sleepiness and stood at the door, holding her arms. Her face was restrained and impatient, and her eyes were covered with coldness.

Yvonne was afraid of her.

She felt that Nikita had horrifying evil spirits.

She deliberately kept a distance from Nikita, sipped her lips, didn't look into the girl's evil eyes, grabbed her cuff with one hand, and said softly, "Nikita, I think there may be some misunderstanding between us. So, I am here to explain to you."

While speaking, Yvonne looked at several foreign language novels on the bedside table, one of which was in English. She had read it, but because it's too obscure to understand, she read less than one third of it and threw it aside.

There are also a French and a German book.

Yvonne had taken several foreign language classes, including French and German. Although she had learned some atnovelxo.com fast update present, she could only understand several words on the cover of the novel.

She smiled sarcastically.

She learned from Nathan that her sister, who was brought back from the countryside, was not a good student who loves reading. Her grades are bad, and she got many 0 scores once.

Filling in the test paper with her eyes closed can get a few points, but she can get zero points in all the tests.

She was simply a "genius".

Such a person actually put several foreign novels on her bedside table.

Using it as a facade?

She didn't think that if she puts a few foreign novels there, others really think she can understand them, right?

Yvonne looked at the novels jokingly for a few seconds.

"Nikita, in fact, like you, I was abducted when I was three years old and turned to a village." "When my parents found me, I was frightened, and I can't remember anything before. They said that I am the daughter of the Swift family and wanted to take me back."

"One side was the countryside with bad environment, and the other side was the big city. with superior conditions. I guess if it were you, you wouldn't refuse, would you?"

"I know you are blaming me for taking everything from you. However, I really didn't deliberately take them away from you. Later, my parents also knew that they made a mistake, but they already had deep feelings for me and were reluctant to let me go, I stayed in the Swift family."

"They promised me in advance that even if you back, my position in the Swift family will not change."

"So, there will be two daughters in the family. They...they would say to public that you are their step-daughter. So that you can stay in the family.

Yvonne sighed:"you might not think it's fair. After all, you are the blood of the Swift family. However, it's dicult to say it to the public. The Swift family is prestigious. Out family need a girl who won't disgrace the family's reputation. But you..."

She seemed to have something embarrassing to say, and halfway through it, she bit her lip and stopped.

"Are you done?"
