

The Girl CB 901

Chapter 901 It is quite irrational.

“But this time...” Zoey frowned. “It was really strange. Miss cried so hard. But the young master didn’t coax her.”

“After breakfast, Miss has been staying in her room and never came out.”

Zoey raised her head and said with concerns: “Madam, Sir, why don’t you go and check on Miss? I am really worried about her...”

“Do you mean Nathan and Yvonne quarreled? Yvonne cried from last night to today. But Nathan didn’t care about her?” Patrick was very surprised.

“Yeah.” Zoey looked very worried. “This never happened. The young master has always doted on Miss. I wonder why they had such a serious quarrel this time.”

“Patrick, let’s go and check on Yvonne.”

Even Margot was surprised.

She knows better than anyone about how much Nathan dotes on Yvonne as their mother.

Even if they are not siblings, Nathan definitely regards Yvonne as his own sister.

The brother and sister only quarreled several times when they were both young.

Later, Nathan grew up. And after he went to study in the junior high school, they almost never quarreled again.

Since Yvonne cried so hard like that, why would Nathan turn a blind eye on her?

This is too strange and irrational,

Margot and Patrick went upstairs. Patrick reached out and knocked on the door of Yvonne's bedroom.

"Zoey, I told you that I had no appetite. So just leave me alone." Yvonne's voice came from the room, which sounded a little rustling. It seemed that she had just cried.

Patrick knocked on the door again: "Yvonne, it's me. Open your door."

After almost a minute.

The door which had been closed for a long time opened.

When the door was opened, seeing Yvonne with swollen eyes like walnuts, both Patrick and Margot were shocked. Then, Margot frowned and said: "Yvonne, Zoey told us just now that you and your brother quarreled.

What on earth is going on?"

In the room.

Yvonne sipped her lips tightly. She raised her head and took a look at Patrick and Margot. There was light flashing in her eyes. Then she quickly lowered her eyes again.

Her voice was low, as if she were choking: "It's nothing."

"Why are you crying like this if it's really nothing?" Margot obviously didn't believe her. She stretched out her hand to hold her. "Tell us, what are you and your brother quarreling about? If you don't tell us, we will ask your brother."

“No! Don’t!”

Yvonne suddenly raised her head. And her face turned pale instantly. There was panic showing in her eyes. She grasped Margot’s hand tightly. “Mom, don’t ask my brother. It’s really nothing. It’s just...”

“Just what?” Margot stared at her.

Yvonne clenched her lips and blinked in panic. She panicked for a long time under the questioning eyes of Patrick and Margot and finally came up with an excuse.

“It is because of Nikita!” When Yvonne spoke up, she lowered her eyes and did not dare to look Margot and Patrick in the eye. She clenched her lips. And her voice was low. “Because Nikita refused to treat Mom’s Winess, I said something bad- about her.”

“My brother thought I shouldn’t have said those words. So he scolded me. ... I felt hurt. And I’m very sad. Sa...

“Because of Nikita?” Margot and Patrick were both stunned.

Yvonne lowered her head: “Hmm.”

“Hum!” Margot let go of her hand. She turned to say to Patrick: “Nathan is now partial to Nikita indeed. When he went to see Nikita with us before, he also spoke up for Nikita. I think he is simply inexplicable now!”

“How could he make Yvonne cry like this because of Nikita? Is he really clear about who is his family?”

Chapter 902 She can’t let them know about the truth.

Patrick was silent for a moment “After all, they are related by blood. It is normal for him to speak up for Nikita”

Margot’s face looked gloomy “Related by blood? He is partial to Nikita in every aspect indeed But what about Nikita? | never saw her be partial to us!

Patrick was silent for a few seconds again “They had a very good relationship when they were young Maybe Nathan just misses the old time”

Hearing the two people’s conversation, Yvonne clenched her fists tightly.

She has always thought that blood relationship was not important

Because even though she and the Swift family are not related by blood, they regard her as their own daughter.

She lived happily in the Swift family for the past ten years.

She was not despised by the Swift family because of the so-called blood relationship.

But now, she begins to think that the blood relationship is also very important.

Nathan didn’t like Nikita at first

But now, he begins to be partial to Nikita, doesn’t he?

Although Margot and Patrick seem to dislike Nikita now, perhaps they will be like Nathan and feel that their own daughter is the best in the future

At that time, what status does she have as their non-biological daughter?

Besides, about that thing...

Once they know about it, can she stay in the Swift family anymore?

Yvonne felt scared.

She couldn't imagine that day coming.

And she will never allow herself to become a tragedy.

So no matter what, she has to find a backup plan for herself.

After carrying out her backup plan, the Swift family will not drive her away even if Nathan tells them the truth one day. They will continue to keep her as before

After thinking about it for a long time, her backup plan can only aim at one direction.

That is to become a more excellent person, so excellent that Margot and Patrick will be reluctant to give up on her.

That's how she got to stay in the Swift family.

If she can get good results in the next joint examination, the Swift family will definitely be reluctant to give up on her.

And there is also the piano competition...

If she can impress Aroma, it is impossible for the Swift family to let her go when the time comes, and they know about the truth

At that time, even if she wanted to go by herself, Margot and Patrick would definitely try their best to keep her and refuse to let her go. It will be her choice to go or stay

“Yvonne, just ignore your brother He has been acting like being possessed or something like that recently. Even we can’t understand what he is thinking” Margot took Yvonne’s hand again and softened her voice. “You don’t have to worry about these things it is imperative that you put all your energy and focus on the piano competition now

You have to find a way to impress the judge named Aroma. If she takes a fancy to you, your future career will be naturally promising. You can bring honor to our Swift family, too.”

Yvonne slowly raised her head and looked at Margot’s eyes with hope showing in them. She looked clever and obedient again. Then she nodded gently. “Well, Mom, I think so too.”

“I will definitely perform well on the day of the competition and impress Aroma.”

“That’s great.” Margot patted her hand and said with relief and satisfaction: “I trust you. Go and get it.”

Margot’s attitude made Yvonne feel a little relieved.

It also made her make up her mind to perform perfectly in the next joint examination and the piano competition.

Nikita won the first place in the National Greek Competition and stole the limelight.

But she doesn’t believe Nikita could still take the first place in the next joint examination.

The joint examination is a general test on all the subjects. Even if she takes the first place in one single subject, it doesn't mean that she can do well in other subjects!

Nikita's limelight is only temporary!

When the results of the joint examination came out, people will know what her real academic level is!

She will beat Nikita in the joint examination!

As for Nathan...

Thinking of Nathan's attitude towards her now, Yvonne felt she couldn't stand it.

She is used to Nathan spoiling her. But now, Nathan is very cold to her. And he even refuses to talk to her. Yvonne feels particularly wronged as soon as she thinks of this.

Her brother, who has been doting on her for more than ten years, suddenly treats her so coldly.

Just because she told a lie at the beginning.

Even though she had made a mistake, didn't she realize she was wrong now? Wouldn't he even give her a chance to make things right?

He was never like this before.

It must be because of Nikita.

Nikita. It's Nikita again. Since Nikita appeared, she has been in bad luck!

Moments later, Margot and Patrick left.

Yvonne closed the door and walked inside the room. After walking to her bedside, she reached out and pulled out a puppet doll under the pillow.

The doll's hair is tied up into a ponytail. It's wearing a gray sportswear and has a black backpack on her back.

The name of Nikita is attached to the chest of the doll.

Yvonne took out a long needle and pinned it into the chest of the doll. When the needle was pinned in, the expression on her face looked malicious, as if she was gnashing her teeth.

This is the doll she asked from a "witch".

She heard that witch has some skills.

The witch told her that as long as she pricked a needle into the doll's chest every day and wished that the doll would die with all her heart, after forty-nine days, the person whose name was attached on the doll would soon be cursed until he died.

She couldn't wait for watching Nikita die.

As long as Nikita is dead, everything can return to normal.

After Nikita accompanied Gerda and Adele to have dinner outside and came back, she chatted with them for more than an hour. She didn't leave to see Malcolm until Gerda looked sleepy.

Malcolm also lives in VIP section of the inpatient department in the hospital.

But he is in another building, which is not far from where Gerda lives. It only takes her a few minutes to walk there.

When Nikita arrived, Malcolm's ward was very lively.

He has more than ten disciples. And all of them came to visit.

Malcolm looked quite energetic. He had a good recovery after the surgery. At this moment, he is sitting on the sofa with a cup of tea in his hand. And all his disciples were standing next to the sofa.

They were all informed by Malcolm to come.

They actually wanted to visit Malcolm earlier. But Malcolm doesn't like his ward to be too noisy. So he didn't let them come.

But he informed his disciples to come one by one this time.

Although no one knew why Malcolm called all his disciples over, judging from the current situation, there must be something important to inform this.

And this matter seems to be particularly important.

It was ten years ago since all his disciples got together last time.

At that time, Malcolm was critically ill. And he was ready to public his will.

But it is obviously different this time.

Everyone is guessing in their hearts what Malcolm is up to.

Rosa also came.

As Malcolm's favorite female disciple and the youngest disciple, she stood in the front position which is closest to Malcolm. "Master, everyone is here now. Can you tell us whether there is something important for you to announce? And is that why you called everyone over?" Rosa is quite impatient. After waiting for a while, seeing Malcolm still remain in silence, she couldn't help but ask.

Malcolm took a sip of tea in no hurry. He used to like this tea. But now, he feels it a little astringent.

He began to regret going to Maddox's house for tea that day.

Chapter 903 What is Nikita doing here?

However, Maddox who was so stingy that he only offer him to drink that tea for once.

Later when he wanted to try that tea again, he didn't get it.

So he has been longing for that tea for a long time. And he always feels that there is something missing when he drinks other kinds of tea, which totally ruins his fun of drinking tea.

Even the tea he used to like tastes dull now, just like chicken ribs. It's a pity to abandon it, but tasteless to drink.

Malcolm took a few sips of tea in a low interest. But he couldn't drink anymore. So he put down the teacup on the table.

Then he raised his head, looked at a group of disciples around him and said with a serious expression: "There is still someone who hasn't arrived yet. Wait for a moment."

He has sent a message to Nikita. And Nikita said she would come right away.

Hearing Malcolm say that there is still someone who hasn't arrived yet, all his disciples were quite surprised.

Who else hasn't arrived?

Isn't everyone already here? From his eldest disciple to his youngest one, there seems no one missing.

Rosa was also curious: "Master, who else hasn't arrived? Do you have any friend coming?"

"Friend?" Malcolm smiled. "Sort of."

He once wanted to recognize Nikita as his disciple. But he was rejected several times.

If she can't be his disciples, it's good that they can be friends.

Hearing him say so, Rosa didn't ask again.

Malcolm said that his friend was coming. And Rosa acquiesced that he meant Maddox.

Malcolm doesn't have many friends. And even fewer ones can be considered as his good friends. In M City, only Maddox gets along well with him. Since today is the day he is discharged from hospital, it's normal for Maddox to come to visit him as a friend.

But Rosa is still a little curious about what kind of announcement he will make after he called all of his disciples over.

And he will only announce it after Maddox arrived.

So mysterious!

Rosa was curious. And others were more curious. Everyone stretched their necks and looked in the direction of the door to see who the friend Malcolm mentioned was.

Malcolm was also looking at the direction of the door.

After a few minutes.

A slim and tall figure approached slowly. The girl was wearing a baggy school uniform with her hair tied up into a ponytail. Her hands were in her pockets. And there was a black backpack slung over her shoulders. Her pace was loose and unruly. She walked to the door of the ward and stopped.

When she looked up slightly, her delicate and porcelain white face caught everyone's eyes.

Except for Rosa and Farley, other disciples in the room don't know Nikita.

When they suddenly saw a very delicate and beautiful little girl standing at the door, all of them were stunned. And they didn't know how to react..

Who is this little girl?

Farley knows Nikita. Xavier brought Nikita to the Fantasy Wonderland at that time. Besides, judging from Xavier speaking up for Nikita in such a high-profile way on Facebook before, it is conceivable how close the relationship between the two s But seeing Nikita showing up at the door at this moment, Farley was also quite surprised.

Isn't she Xavier's girl?

Why is she here?

Among this group of people, Rosa is the most surprised one.

When Rosa saw Nikita, she widened her eyes in surprise. Then she frowned tightly

Before others could say anything, she stepped forward and asked with a cold face: "Nikita, how do you get here? What are you doing here?"

Outside the door.

Nikita took an indifferent look at her and ignored her question. After walking into the ward, she went straight toward

Malcolm

Seeing Nikita walk past her like this, Rosa was stunned

The group of people in the room also looked at Nikita curiously

Chapter 904 Niky, you are here!

Who the hell is this little girl?

Who is she here to visit?

A group of people looked at each other with same puzzled faces, asking each other with their eyes.

Everyone thought she is someone the other party knows.

After Rosa was ignored, she was stunned for a few seconds. After coming to her senses, she suddenly became angry from embarrassment.

"Nikita, who allowed you to enter my master's ward! Security guard, security guard! How can you let people in casually!"

The ward Malcolm lives in is guarded by his bodyguards.

They won't let people in casually. Everyone who comes to visit has to get their identities checked before they are allowed in. Then how did Nikita get in?!

Rosa intended to call over the bodyguards to drive her away with a gloomy face.

But as she just walked to the door, she heard Malcolm's happy and gentle voice: "Rosa, behave yourself! This is my friend.. Come over here quickly. I'll introduce you to each other."

Lauren's warm and gentle voice also sounded with a smile: "Niky, you are here! Come here and have a seat quickly."

Nikita has a certain aura. Even though she is young, no one really treats her as a little girl. As soon as she walked over, a group of people who were originally standing around Malcolm automatically retreated.

Nikita walked to Malcolm and Lauren, took a look at Malcolm and spoke up: "Hello, Uncle Malcolm."

Then she turned to smile at Lauren and greeted her politely: "Auntie Lauren."

Hearing Nikita call him "Uncle Malcolm", the expression on his straight face eased a little.

He felt secretly relieved.

Fortunately, she didn't directly call him by his name.

Although Nikita always calls him by his name at ordinary times, and he doesn't actually care, he still wants to look good in front of a group of his disciples.

In fact, according to the age, Malcolm can actually be Nikita's Grandpa.

But because Lauren is very well maintained and looked very young, Nikita called Lauren Auntie first. According to the seniority, she had to call Malcolm Uncle.

As Lauren saw Nikita, she remained a smile face. She got up and pulled Nikita to her side to sit down. She took Nikita's hand and asked with concerns: "Niky, are you thirsty? Do you want to drink water? Hungry? I made some snacks today. Knowing that you are coming. I specially left some for you."

"Do you want to try some? If you want, I can bring it over for you now."

Nikita smiled: "Auntie Lauren, I came here after dinner. I'm not hungry. You don't have to get the snacks for me now. I can take them away later and eat them at night."

Seeing that Lauren's attitude towards Nikita was so close, they were all stunned.

Lauren is very friendly and easygoing to them. And she is always very kind to their disciples.

They all like Lauren.

But Lauren obviously treats this beautiful little girl better than them.

How to describe this...

She seems to treat her as her own daughter.

A group of disciples could only stand. But this little girl could actually sit with Lauren and Malcolm.

Seeing Lauren holding Nikita's hand and asking her questions with concerns, a group of people became more curious about Nikita's identity.

But no one thought that this was the person Malcolm was waiting for.

They thought the same as Rosa. And they all believed that Malcolm's friend must be a person who is at a similar age.

Rosa directly froze in place, as if she were a fool. She watched Lauren holding Nikita's hand and chatting with a dull face.

Judged from their tone, they are obviously very familiar with each other.

Chapter 905 Malcolm announced that Nikita was the successor of his theories.

"Ahem, Lauren, you two can chat later. I have something very important to tell them now." Seeing that his wife couldn't stop chatting with Nikita as she saw her, Malcolm covered his lips and coughed lightly to interrupt Lauren.

Then, he looked up. And the expression on his face immediately became serious. "Now that everyone is here, listen up. Next, I want to announce a very important thing."

"What? Master, is she the friend you are waiting for?" A disciple looked at Nikita. And the expression on his face looked very shocked and surprised.

The rest of the people were also very surprised.

There was an unexpected surprised expression on everyone's face.

Rosa also widened her eyes in shock again.

“Master, the friend you mentioned before is Nikita?! Are you sure?!” Rosa’s tone sounded very surprised, as if she had heard something extremely outrageous. Her face showed an unbelievable look.

*Rosa, don’t be so rude!” Malcolm frowned slightly. “I’m not too old to recognize my friend yet.”

Malcolm was a little dissatisfied with Rosa’s behavior just now.

At ordinary times, he always feels that Rosa is sensitive enough to be well-behaved in different kinds of occasions.

What’s wrong with her today?

She shouted out over and over again and was easily startled. Where are her manners? She doesn’t act like a noble daughter who grew up in a noble family and received good etiquette education at all.

Rosa opened her mouth. Seeing that Malcolm showed some displeasure on his face, she had to sipped her lips.

She clenched her fists tightly and turned to look at Nikita. There was almost fire spurting out of her beautiful eyes.

Why could Nikita show up here?

How did Nikita know Malcolm and Lauren?

Seeing that Lauren’s attitude towards Nikita was so intimate, the anger Rosa held in her heart seemed to be added with oil. And it was immediately spread. Her face became darker. And she couldn’t look more gloomy.

Other people always say that she is Malcolm's favorite female disciple.

And Lauren and Malcolm are really nice to her.

She has always been proud of it

But compared with Nikita, she, Malcolm's most favored female disciple lost at once.

No matter how well Lauren treats her, there was always a sense of distance between them. The warmth Lauren offered her always contains some kinds of politeness and alienation.

But she is really nice to Nikita, as if she were her own daughter. Everyone who has a clear pair of eyes can see that.

She, the most favored disciple, had to stand by and talk to them like other disciples.

But Nikita is different.

As soon as Lauren saw Nikita, she went to pull her to her side and sat down with her.

After having a seat, she took Nikita's hand and asked her if she was hungry or thirsty.

She has never been treated like this.

Everyone can tell who means more important to Lauren between her and Nikita.

At that time, Rosa couldn't help feeling extremely jealous.

Why is Nikita's treatment better than hers?

Clearly, she is the one who is Malcolm's favorite and most valued disciple.

Besides, in terms of the family background, Nikita can never compare with her.

What on earth are Lauren and Malcolm up to? They actually value a rural bumpkin so much but ignore her.

What made Rosa more confused was why Nikita would know Malcolm and Lauren and even have such a good relationship with them.

Malcolm called a group of his disciples to come over. What kind of announcement he wants to make since he insists on waiting for Nikita to come?

Although other disciples were also very puzzled, no one asked anything. All of them stood still and remained in silence, waiting for Malcolm to announce that important thing.

Chapter 906 No one could remain calm.

"Master, what is it?" Farley stared at Nikita in astonishment for a while. Then he took back his sights and couldn't wait to ask.

Malcolm took a look at Farley leisurely and turned to look at other disciples who were standing next to him. Then he spoke up slowly: "In the early years, I told you that I wanted to retire. I have been saying it for several years, but I have never been able to get the chance."

"But this time, I'm really going to retire."

Hearing that Malcolm said he was going to retire, Nikita suddenly realized something. She turned her head, narrowed her eyes and twisted her eyebrows.

Is Malcolm going to act first and report afterwards?

When other disciples heard that Malcolm was going to retire, they were all stunned. And Rosa was also surprised.

Malcolm did say that he wanted to retire before.

But they only thought he was joking. And no one took it seriously.

And they thought even if he really wanted to retire, he wouldn't retire so early.

"Master, are you saying that you are going to retire?" Rosa was surprised. "But is it too early for you to retire now?" Other disciples also agreed with her one after another: "Yes, master. Is it too early for you to retire now?"

According to Malcolm's age, it is actually almost time to retire.

But few of the people who have the similar status as him retire now. If he retires now, it can be considered as retiring early.

"Your master is not in good health. So he needs to retire and recuperate." Lauren spoke up. "He has thought about retirement for a long time before he decided to do so. There is no need for you guys to persuade him anymore. Nothing is more important than his health."

"Well, my wife is right. There is nothing to say about this matter. I have made up my mind." The expression on Malcolm's face looked solemn and serious. "I called all of you over to tell you who our next successor is."

Malcolm said in a flat tone. But a group of disciples standing aside couldn't remain that calm.

“Master, what you want to announce is about who will be the next successor of your theories?”

No wonder he brought all of them together.

It turned out that he had decided on who would be the next successor.

This is indeed very important.

However, it is not difficult to guess who will be his next successor.

Everyone has their predictions.

When it comes to people who are expected to take over Malcolm’s theories, they can think of two people.

One is Edmund, the son of Malcolm.

The other is Fernando, the first disciple of Malcolm.

Fernando is regarded as the one with the highest achievement among all Malcolm’s disciples.

Chapter 907 Everyone is unconvinced.

If he will be the one who takes over Malcolm’s theories, he is qualified for the title. And other disciples of Malcolm will be convinced

As for Edmund, when it comes to achievements in the industry, he is definitely inferior to Fernando now.

But he is Malcolm's own son.

If Malcolm wants to his own son to be his successor, it is understandable.

"Well, that's it." Malcolm nodded.

"Master" Rosa bit her lips and took a look at Nikita who was sitting on the sofa. "Since it's such an important thing for our school, isn't it a little inappropriate to have an outsider here? Should we let Miss Swift leave for a while?"

Other disciples also turned to take a look at Nikita. Although they didn't say anything, they also felt that Nikita should not be here

Since it's a matter of their own sect, and it is still an important matter concerning the next successor, people who are not in the sect really need to leave.

Malcolm also took a look at Nikita and saw that Nikita happened to be staring at him with meaningful eyes too. He inexplicably felt guilty and quickly turned his head back.

"Ahern" He covered his lips and faked a cough. Then he raised his head, took a look at Rosa, frowned slightly and said: "Nikita is not an outsider. This announcement must be made with her existence here."

Malcolm didn't deliberately cause a suspense. After a few seconds of silence, he directly announced: "Nikita is the next successor of my theories. From this moment on, she is the new head of our sect."

"In the future, she will handle all the important affairs in our sect."

"Now, I'm just informing you in advance. Later, I will hold a formal handover meeting. At that time, I will officially announce this matter to everyone."

Malcolm's words in a flat tone were like throwing a boulder into the lake.

There were suddenly countless ripples emerging on the calm lake.

All the people were stunned. Everyone had an extremely shocked expression showing on their faces.

What?! Malcolm's successor is not Edmund, nor Fernando, but this delicate little girl who looks like a teenage?!

Their master was kidding them, wasn't he?

Isn't this joke a bit too big?

Rosa was so shocked that her face turned pale instantly. And her eyeballs almost fell out on the ground.

She couldn't believe what she heard.

Nikita is the next successor of Malcolm?!

Did she really hear him right?

How can this be possible!

"Master, what did you just say?

Successor of your theories is her?! Master, you are joking with us, right?!" Rosa couldn't hold herself back anymore. She stretched out her hand and pointed to Nikita with incredible and shocked expressions showing on her face.

"Master, can this matter be discussed again?" Other disciples also feel incredible. And they don't recognize this new successor very much.

A little girl they have never seen before.

A high school student.

She has no achievement or fame. No matter in which aspect, she is not qualified to be the successor of Malcolm.

But when it comes to achievement and fame, Edmund is actually not qualified either.

But Edmund is at least Malcolm's own son. And it is understandable for a father to want his son to inherit his business. What is the relationship between this little girl and Malcolm?

She can't be his daughter, can she?

"Yeah, master. This is a very important decision. Don't we need to discuss it again? Another disciple also spoke up: "This Miss Swift... We have never seen or heard of her. And she is so young that it is a bit inappropriate for her to be the head of our sect, isn't she?"

Chapter 908 You can't ask an outsider to take over our sect!

"Master, is this Miss Swift more famous than Fernando? Moreover, she is not a member of our sect. Master, how can you let an outsider take over our sect?!"

"Master, please think twice before you make this decision!"

"Master, I disagree! The successor can be Fernando or Edmund, or anyone else in the sect. But it can't be an outsider!"

At this moment, Fernando, who had been silent all the time, also spoke up: "Master, this Miss Swift... should you introduce us?"

Fernando doesn't have any intentions to compete for that position.

However, he also feels that Malcolm's decision is a little rash.

This little girl named Nikita looks too young. Judged from the school uniform on her, it seems that she is still a high school student.

How can all Malcolm's theories be handed over to a little girl who is still in high school?

This is too ridiculous indeed.

But Malcolm has never been a person who makes decisions casually.

No to mention that it is still such an important decision of who is going to be his successor. He should not hand over his painstaking efforts for most of his life to an inappropriate person.

Seeing that all his disciples were opposing to his decision, Malcolm frowned.

As he was just about to speak up, he heard Nikita's cold voice sounded. "I also find it inappropriate. Uncle Malcolm, I never expected that this was why you wanted me here. I haven't considered whether to be your successor or not."

"Let's talk about this matter in the future."

Malcolm was stunned: "Nikita..."

Nikita looked at him: "I haven't made up my mind yet. Don't push me. Otherwise, I won't even consider it."

If she doesn't consider it, it means she will never take over his sect.

But if she promises to consider it, there are still possibilities for her to accept it.

Malcolm's face changed. He sipped his lips tightly and had to make a compromise: "Okay, okay... I won't push you. You can consider it."

Malcolm did not dare to force Nikita.

He knows well about Nikita's temper.

She used to directly leave just because he pushed her too hard.

And her disappearing lasted for several years. And no one could find her.

Malcolm was afraid that she would disappear silently again after he pushed her so hard.

When the time comes, where would he find her?

Nikita is the most promising successor in his heart. And he only wants Nikita to take over all his theories.

And he can rest assured only when Nikita is the successor.

As for his son and his first disciple... Even though Edmund worked very hard, he had no talent in music. He never thought of letting Edmund be his successor.

The performance of his first disciple, Fernando, is really excellent. If there is no Nikita, he intends let Fernando take over his sect.

But now that Nikita is back, he won't consider others.

In this matter, he has his own thoughts. If Nikita can join his sect, she will definitely inject new blood into it and help it develop into a further stage. Since she doesn't like to be restrained, she can be the boss.

1041

When she becomes the boss, she will have the final say in everything.

Seeing Malcolm's humble attitude towards Nikita, all his disciples were shocked again.

Since when has their master been so humble to anyone?

Moreover, this little girl they don't have too much belief in actually turned down the position of the successor of Malcolm's sect?!

She actually said that she hadn't made up her mind to be the successor of Malcolm's sect yet!

Did they hear her right?!

There is actually someone in this world who would refuse to be the successor of Malcolm's sect!

Originally, this group of disciples felt that Nikita was not qualified to become the successor of their sect. After getting a clear knowledge of the current situation at this moment, a group of people were silent.

They feel that she is not qualified.

But she actually doesn't want to be their head of the sect at all!

Their master is afraid that she is not willing to take over their sect. And he actually has to coax her!

What is this???

"Uncle Malcolm, Auntie Lauren, since you will be discussing things of your sect, I am really not suitable for listening here as an outsider. I still have some other plans. So I'll leave first. You can call me any time when something comes up." Nikita didn't care what other people thought of her. After saying so, she let go of Lauren's hand, got up and walked outward.

All the people in the room stopped discussing and looked up at her one after another.

"Niky, wait." Lauren quickly stood up, took a few steps to the side, picked up a pink lunch box on the bedside table, walked to Nikita's side and stuffed the lunch box into her hand.

"Take the snacks with you. Your uncle and I will stay here for a few more days. When you get some free time, you can come over with Sheehan. And I will cook for you." Lauren smiled. "I'll make your favorite braised ribs."

Nikita took the lunch box, slightly picked up a smile and nodded: "Okay."

"Then it's a deal. You two must come to visit us." Lauren took her arm and turned around to say to Malcolm: "Malcolm, you haven't seen these children for a long time. Have a good talk with them. I'll walk Niky out."

After saying so, she patted on Nikita's hand. "Niky, let's go."

Nikita nodded: "Hmm."

Then Lauren took Nikita's hand and quickly walked out of the ward together.

In the ward.

A group of disciples couldn't help asking questions after Nikita left.

"Master, that Miss Swift... Who is she?"

Although she wore the uniform of a high school and looked young, but with Malcolm's picky degree, it is impossible for him to let a little girl who is still studying be the successor for no reason.

Moreover, he begged her to do this.

And the other party was unwilling.

Rosa stood aside, clenched her teeth, and looked at Nikita out of the ward with a sullen face.

She raised her head and looked at Malcolm with a gloomy face. She couldn't help but ask Malcolm: "Master, Nikita, what qualification does she have? Why do you want to ask her to be the head? She didn't achieve anything in the music industry at all! And as far as I know, as a student, her academic performance is extremely poor. She went to the police station several times because she fought and beat his classmates. What qualifications does such a person, who has nothing but a very poor character, have to be the head?"

Chapter 909 Does she deserve it?

"As a member of your sect, I firmly oppose it!"

If Nikita became their head, wouldn't her position be higher than hers?

After she saw Nikita, she had to greet Nikita politely and call her head?

Thought of here, Rosa's face became more and more gloomy.

She will never allow such a thing to happen!

Nikita's position didn't deserve to be higher than hers!

"Dear brothers, you also don't agree to let Nikita be our head, right? Can you accept that such a person is the head of us? Can you be convinced?"

Rosa turned her head and looked at Fernando standing beside her. She grabbed Fernando's arm and gritted her teeth. "Fernando, if the leader is you, I am convinced. But Nikita, does she deserve it?! Are you willing to let a little girl become your head? Can you stand seeing her later and have to call her the head respectfully?"

Fernando frowned and didn't speak.

Nikita is really too young.

But if she is really powerful, they don't care to let a little girl younger than themselves be the head.

But her name is really strange in the music industry.

While, they haven't heard that Nikita has produced any extraordinary works, or has any extraordinary achievements.

If she can't speak with strength, it will be difficult to convince the public.

"Brothers, are you unconvinced?" Seeing that Fernando was silent and didn't speak, Rosa sneered and turned her head to ask others, "Can you accept this unlearned bad girl as the head?"

The others also sipped their lips and did not speak.

Of course they can't accept it.

Originally, they thought that the little girl named Nikita was just young and had no achievements.

But it turned out to be a bad girl who was ignorant.

She has been to the police station for fighting?

She looked delicate and clever. They didn't expect her to be such a person.

"Rosa, from what you say, you knew Miss Swift before?" A disciple asked, "Are all the things you just said true?"

"Yes, Rosa, do you know her?"

Rosa sneered: "Of course I do. She grew up in a remote mountain village. She used to study in a township, but now she has transferred to First Senior High School of N City. Whether in the former school or this school, she is infamous."

Rosa's tone is very meaningful.

Before others could speak, Rosa continued in that ridiculous tone: "In the previous school and the current school, she has a lot of 'achievements'. Everyone who has fought with her has been hospitalized."

Fernando and the rest of his disciples were stunned.

This little girl looked delicate and weak, but she was so fierce when fighting?

“Rosa, do you make a mistake?” Farley frowned, “Miss Swift is not that bad as you said.”

Farley had a good relationship with Xavier.

Nikita was protected by Xavier. When Farley heard that Rosa slandered her like this, he can't help but defend her.

“Farley, don't be deceived by her appearance. What I said is true. If you don't believe it, you can inquire and ask the police station if Nikita went in because of fighting!”

Farley frowned again.

Bang-

Chapter 910 It's not because she's not strong enough, but because that she doesn't want to do

1.

Malcolm threw the teacup in his hand at the table, said sternly. “Have you said enough? If you haven't said enough, all of you get out and talk slowly. Say as long as you want!”

A group of people, were startled.

Seeing that Malcolm got angry, they immediately shut up and all quieted down.

Only Rosa said angrily, “Master, it's about the head of your sect. You can't make such a rash decision. Anyway, if the next head is Nikita, I won't accept it

Malcolm's face was very gloomy, and he looked at her sternly. He said in a low voice, “I have decided the next head for a long time. It is precisely because it is related to my sect that Nikita is indispensable.”

“I won’t make any changes in this matter.”

“If you can’t accept it, you can leave.”

“As for Nikita is qualified enough... Malcolm sipped his lips, looked at Rosa, who was still unconvinced, and suddenly sneered, “You can’t imagine her strength. You all feel that she has no achievements in the music industry, she is not famous, and feels that she is not qualified to take over the position.

I tell you, don’t feel unconvinced, Nikita’s name is not famous in the music industry, not because she is not strong enough, but because she doesn’t want to. If she wants to, she can easily get the so-called achievements that you can’t catch up with in your lives.”

When Malcom said this, he turned his head and looked at his great disciple Fernando: “Fernando, you are the most talented and outstanding disciple. I also thought about giving my position to you, and I also believe that you can be a leader.

But our sect has been standing still for many years. What I want now is not stability, but innovation. Nikita can take us to a higher position, spread our fame further and deeper, and let more people know us.”

“You certainly don’t believe what I said now, but you will definitely understand it in the future.”

When a group of disciples listened to his words, they looked at each other, with uncertainty and doubts in their eyes.

Nikita is so powerful?

As long as she wants, she can get achievements that they can’t catch up with all their lives?

Is their master looking up on Nikita too much? Is it a bit exaggerated?

She is not a teenage girl. No matter how powerful she is, what achievements can she get?

In music, if someone didn't work hard for decades, it's hard for he or she to get achievements.

Unless she is a genius.

But if Nikita is a genius, how can she achieve nothing in the music industry?

Besides, according to Rosa's words, Nikita grew up in a remote mountain village, she did not have good conditions to learn music.

Those who engage in art spend a lot of money.

It will spend much money on buying musical instruments, let alone anything else.

Not to mention asking famous teachers to teach her and so on.

It costs much money in many aspects.

A girl who grew up in a remote mountain village, can her family conditions allow her to learn music?

Rosa clenched her lips, then opened her mouth, and wanted to say something.

Malcolm looked at her sternly, with warning and displeasure in his eyes.

"Rosa, your performance today is really disappointing mel
