

The Girl CB 931

Chapter 931 Talking about Terms

He was also a man dressed in black, but his temperament was obviously different from that of the two men who got out before.

The man was extremely handsome and elegant. His narrow eyes had a sense of coldness. When he looked at Sheehan, his attitude were obviously hostile

After getting out of the car, the man came towards Sheehan directly.

The driver blocked in front of Sheehan, but was pushed away by him.

“Mr. Lambert. The driver looked at the man who came over with a hostile face and felt worried.

Sheehan stood still, his dark eyes were half narrowed. He looked at the man, trying to figure out who was he and what he wanted.

His temperament was extraordinary, he couldn't be an average man.

Moments later, the man came up to him and stopped.

His lips hooked, and he slowly stretched out a hand politely, “Mr. Lambert, I've heard a lot about you. I finally meet you today, and you really deserve your reputation.”

Sheehan looked at him hand but ignored it. His voice was indifferent, “According to your words, this is the first time we have met?”

Mr. Hall smiled again casually and retreated his hand, "You are quite right."

Sheehan felt familiar with the casual smile of the man.

Thinking of Nikita, Sheehan frowned, "Go ahead, what do you want to do after following me for so long?"

Mr. Hall was slightly stunned, then he chuckled, "Mr. Lambert is really a frank person. In this case, then I won't beat around the bush Why don't we find a place to talk in detail?"

In a few minutes

In the box of a coffee shop next to the Lambert Group.

Two very good looking men sat face to face with freshly made and steaming coffee on the table.

"I came for Nikita Mr. Hall stirred the coffee with one hand on his chin and the other hand with a spoon. He went straight to the point and said, "Mr Lambert is a businessman, and I happen to be a businessman too. Since we are businessmen, let's talk about a business"

Hearing the name of Nikita, Sheehan's eyes narrowed with hostility.

Mr. Hall glanced at him and hooked his lips, "How can I let Mr. Lambert leave Nikita? In other words, under what terms would Mr. Lambert give her back to me?"

"Give her back?" Sheehan opened his mouth, and his voice was very cold and low, "What is your relationship with Nikita?"

"If I have to ask me, it is probably the relationship between the farmer and the snake." Mr. Hall laughed at himself, "I fell in love with my savior at first sight, and then pestered her endlessly."

“Step by step, she was forced to escape from herself.”

“Do you think this is the relationship between the farmer and the snake?”

Sheehan’s eyes suddenly showed killing intention, and his low and cold voice was also filled with strong hostility. “Are you Mr. Hall, the leader of the Dark Disney?”

Mr. Hall, who imprisoned Nikita for two years

Chapter 932 Standing against Dark Disney

“It seemed that Nikita told you about me.” Mr. Hall’s thin lips evoke a pleasant radiance. “Since Mr. Lambert already knew who I am and knew my purpose, let’s talk about the business directly.”

“Mr. Lambert, Nikita is still young, and her character is not very good. In terms of family background, she is not from a noble family. She is not suitable for a family like yours. If Mr. Lambert wants to find someone to fall in love, you should not find her at the beginning.”

“I have a business here to negotiate with Mr. Lambert. If Mr. Lambert is willing to break up with her, the profits that this business can earn will definitely satisfy you.” Mr. Hall took out the attitude of talking about business in the business field and gave out his capital for negotiation, “In the future, if Mr. Lambert has any trouble, Dark Disney will help you.”

The power of the last sentence was very unusual.

Mr. Hall was the master of Dark Disney.

To get his help was undoubtedly equal to getting the help of the power of the whole Dark Disney. With the status and power of the Dark Disney in the world, it was obvious that Mr. Hall’s words had great power.

If it were someone else, he would have agreed

No one would refuse Dark Disney for a woman.

“Nikita was a person, not an item. You can’t get her even though you give Dark Disney to me.”
Sheehan’s eyes were somewhat cruel, and his voice was low and angry, “If you want to talk to me about this matter, then I can tell you clearly that it is impossible.”

“And.” Looking at his eyes that suddenly became gloomy, Sheehan’s eyes were dark, his voice was cold and heavy. And there was obvious hostility in his eyes, “If you dare to pester her again in the future, no matter who you are, I will let you pay the price.”

Mr. Hall’s face sank, and his body was haunted by coldness. His voice sank and said, “Mr. Lambert, for a woman, are you going to make an enemy like Dark Disney?”

Sheehan got up, and his eyes were freezing. “So what?”

Mr. Hall squinted, pressed his lips tightly, and his body exuded a sense of coldness.

It seemed that Sheehan was really going to be the enemy of Dark Disney.

This was forcing him to attack the Lambert family

“Niky, you are finally here!”

When Nikita came into the classroom, Samuel took a cup of milk tea and ran toward her in a hurry.

“It’s still your favorite flavor, 30 percent of sugar with pudding and cream in it.” Samuel ran to Nikita and handed her the milk tea. Nikita reached out and took it. He continued, “Niky, you haven’t forgotten it was a special day, right?”

Nikita slowly walked to her seat with her milk tea.

After putting the milk tea and backpack on the table, she sat down slowly, looked at Samuel, who stood by and waited for her reply, and raised her eyebrows slightly, "What?"

Samuel fell silent.

"Noway, Niky, you really forgot it?!" Samuel stared, "There is KPL World Championship competition today! We planned to go for it together. You won't leave us now?!"

"LPL World Championships competition?"

Nikita raised her eyebrows and wondered. She finally remembered it.

She really forgot it.

The mobile phone in her pocket vibrated. She slowly took out the mobile phone and lowered her head to open the screen, "Oh, I remember. When should we go?"

It was Manley who sent a WhatsApp message.

Like Samuel, she probably worried that she had forgotten and sent a message to remind her the time of the competition would.

"The game starts at nine o'clock, and it is less than an hour away from now." Samuel saw Nikita still slowly replying to messages on WhatsApp, and said anxiously, "Niky, let's take a taxi now. Otherwise, we will be late."

Chapter 933 No One Cares about Yvonne

Nikita replied to Manley and looked up at Samuel, "It's still early, what's the hurry?"

Samuel fell silent.

She really didn't need to worry about it.

She was a friend of Manley, and she could meet her whenever she wanted.

But Samuel could hardly meet her once. He was so excited that he didn't sleep well all night. Even his dreams were all kinds of scenes about LPL competition.

He also dreamed of eating and drinking at the same table with Manley. When he woke up, his face was full of smiles.

He was overjoyed.

"Niky, shall we leave now?" Samuel looked at the girl who was still casually replying to the messages. He was in a hurry, "We have to go ahead of time. If there is a traffic jam on the road, we will be late!"

"In the first game, there will be Manley, and I don't want to miss it."

"Niky, please, show your mercy. Show your understanding of the fans of Manley please! I can't wait to see my idol." Samuel lowered his head with his hands folded, "Please, please."

Nikita picked her brow and looked at Samuel who was really anxious. He put away her mobile phone, "OK, let's go."

"Good" Samuel immediately picked up her backpack and milk tea, and took the initiative to act as her servant. "Niky, let me carry your bag. By the way, do you want to drink milk tea now? I will help you put the straw in!"

Nikita's backpack looked empty, and it seemed that there was nothing in it.

Samuel thought the bag was very light, but when he got it, it was unexpectedly heavy.

Nikita walked in front of him with her hands in her pockets, while Samuel held a backpack in one hand and milk tea in the other, closely following her.

Tobin, who walked out of the classroom with them, followed her too.

Two famous guys in this school were with Nikita, and one looked like Nikita's servant, another looked like her bodyguard.

The girl who walked at the front, with her hands in pockets and idle steps, had a strong aura that was not in line with her age. Her appearance was extremely eye-catching, so all the sights around her fell on her.

On the second floor, Samuel called Tammy.

After all the people gathered, they walked downstairs happily together.

They just walked out of the teaching building when they met Yvonne who was coming head on.

Nikita looked at her, took back her sight, and walked past Yvonne with an indifferent look.

Other people acted like her, and their expression were also cold, as if they met a stranger. No one greeted Yvonne as if she were invisible.

In the past, Samuel and Tobin would not treat her like that.

At least, they would take the initiative to say hello.

In the past, they had a good impression on Yvonne, thinking that she was quiet and clever, with good academic performance and many fantastic skills.

Now, of course, they wouldn't think so anymore.

When Samuel looked at Yvonne, he looked squeamish about her,

Niky's enemy was his enemy!

The more he looked down on Yvonne, the more he felt she was hypocritical. And he felt she was also a scheming girl.

He could not believe that he actually felt that Yvonne was really pure.

He even persuaded Felton to accept Yvonne.

When he thought about it, he felt he was absolutely stupid!

Fortunately, Felton has never been interested in Yvonne!

They just walked past Yvonne, and Samuel's disdainful eyes were too obvious. Yvonne clenched her lips and stood still, and her face turned blue and hideous.

Soon, Nikita and Samuel went away.

Chapter 934 Dinner with the Great Player

“Yvonne, ignore them. They are a group of gangsters. They only know how to fight with other people and skip class, and we will take the joint exam soon. When the test results come out, let’s see if they can still be so arrogant!”

Yvonne was still with that two girlfriends.

Samuel and Tobin stayed with Nikita every day, they were very unhappy and felt jealous of her.

They were the most famous people in the school.

They were the dream lovers of many girls.

Nikita occupied the best boys in the school.

Shameless woman!

Fortunately, Felton was not interested in Nikita now.

A group of people walked past, and they didn’t see Felton.

They thought that only their dream lover Felton had a clear mind, and he did not continue to be bewitched by Nikita, that scheming woman. He got away from her in time and recognize the true characteristics of that woman.

“Yes, Yvonne, there will be a joint examination soon. Everyone is busy reviewing the courses, and they skip classes to watch so-called LPL competition. Tammy is a good student in class A, why is she messing around with those poor students in class F students every day? I think she will fail the joint examination!”

“Haha, I’d like to see how many points Nikita can get in this joint examination. If the student won the first place in the English competition get a zero in other subjects, that will be very funny.”

Yvonne pressed her lips tightly, still didn't speak, she looked at the back of Nikita, a touch of coldness flashed in her eyes. This joint examination, she wouldn't let Nikita have a chance to beat her.

It was an accident that Nikita won the first place in the English competition.

The same incident wouldn't happen again.

In Samuel's black Benz.

When they got off, Nikita sent a WhatsApp message to Manley and told him when would they arrive.

This LPL competition was held in the Global Science and Technology Museum, and half an hour later, they arrived there.

A group of people got out of the car.

At the entrance, there were a lot of people.

However, it was the entrance of ordinary tickets.

Nikita, they had tickets for the VIP zone. And there were not so many people in the VIP zone channel.

Samuel looked at the dark crowd at the ordinary ticket gate, and then looked at the VIP channel they were going to. He couldn't help but sigh, "If Niky didn't get us tickets for the VIP area, we had to go to that crowded entrance."

In the hot summer, so many people crowded into a gate to check tickets, and it was obviously very painful.

“So if you follow Niky, you will have happy life” Tammy took out the ticket to get prepared long ago from her pocket and took pictures of the tickets in his hand. Then she took pictures of the people standing at the ordinary ticket gate and the ticket gate of VIP area, showing off on her social media.

She published three photos, accompanied by a paragraph: After watching LPL competition for so many years, I felt the difference between VIP tickets and ordinary tickets for the first time. Thank you, Niky! Niky is the best!

As soon as Tammy’s post was published, she immediately received a lot of praise and comments.

Several friends in her circle spent a lot of money to buy tickets for VIP zone, but they failed.

At this moment, they saw her post, and they were very envious.

They asked her where did she get the tickets.

Tammy replied to one of her girlfriends: Niky gave it to me!

She replied to a cousin of Rosa. Her name was Felicia.

She studied abroad.

In order to watch the last competition of Manley, she flew back from abroad a few days in advance.

At the moment, she was in the line at the ordinary ticket gate.

Felicia was in the crowded ticket checking line, sweating all over and her hair was wet. She was specially dressed up to watch the game, but at this time she felt very embarrassed and pitiful.

The hairstyle was ruined, the light makeup was wet by the sweat on her face, and her delicate lace white dress was crumpled.

Her appearance was usually exquisite and beautiful like a little princess, but her image I

She was so upset, and then she saw Tammy's showy post.

When you compared yourself with other people, you would be jealous and angry.

ve been ruined at the moment.

She turned her head and looked at the VIP channel. He saw Tammy. She also knew Samuel and Tobin standing next to her. There was another girl standing with Tammy, who was very white and beautiful, and was an unfamiliar face for Felicia.

The girl's facial features were particularly delicate and beautiful. And she couldn't help to stare at her and be unwilling to move away her sight, though she was a girl.

Felicia couldn't help but ask Tammy: Who is the beautiful girl next to you? Is that your classmate?

Tammy returned very quickly: She is Niky! She gave us the tickets for VIP zones!

She was surprised: She gave you the tickets for VIP zone?

Tammy: Yes.

Felicia I asked people to buy it through various channels, but I didn't get it. Why is she so good? Where did she get the tickets?

Tammy: Didn't read the recent hot topics on Twitter? Niky and Manley are good friends. Tickets are sent to her by Manley in person! By the way, Niky also promised us to take a group photo with Manley when the competition is over.

Felicia was so surprised that she couldn't even type.

That super beautiful girl and Manley were good friends?!

Felicia really didn't check the recent hot topics.

Felicia also played games. She loved it though she was not good at it. Therefore, she felt that people who played games very well were particularly excellent.

If that player played games very well and looked very handsome, she would simply fall in love with him.

She's been into Manley for years.

It was not only the fans' love for idols, but also the girls' first crush on a man,

She wanted to get closer to Manley through many approaches before, but Manley was a person who wouldn't even establish a fan base, and there was no off-line activity to communicate with his fans in private. It was harder for her to get close to him than to ascend to the heaven.

Looking at the messages sent by Tammy, Felicia was extremely envious.

She also wanted to take photos with dreams!!!

Felicia thought about it and gathered her courage to send a message to Tammy: Tammy, we are good friends who have known each other for many years, right? Can you ask that girl next to you if I can join you to take a group photo?

Tammy knew how much Felicia liked Manley.

After reading the message sent by Felicia, she thought about it, looked up and said to Nikita, "Niky, i have a friend who liked Manley very much. She also came to watch the game today. Can we take her for a group photo at that time?"

Nikita walked to the entrance of VIP channel and slowly pulled out the tickets crumpled by her.

"Your friend?"

"Well, good friends."

Nikita nodded: "Let her come then."

Chapter 935 Be Gentle and Considerate to You

"Really?" Tammy didn't expect Nikita to agree at once.

Nikita's voice was light, "Well, if she is your good friend, I will say yes."

Tammy's eyes suddenly sparkled, "Niky, did you agree because of me?"

Nikita looked down at her, "It's all because of you"

Tammy was suddenly flattered.

She immediately sent a message to Felicia: Niky said that for the sake of my friend, you can take a group photo with us. Come and see me when the game is over.

Felicia was so excited: OK!!!

After chatting with Felicia, Tammy quit the dialog box, looked at the likes and comments, and then saw her cousin who had never liked and commented on her post at the first glance. He even liked her post and sent a comment for the first time. Lu: Are you with your sister-in-law? When you finish watching the game, I will pick you up. Tammy was stunned to see Sheehan's comments as if she saw the sun rising in the west. She always thought that her cousin never used his Twitter though he registered an account. For so many years, she hasn't seen her cousin send a post.

She hasn't seen any interaction between him and the other people in the family.

It was definitely impossible for him to like her post or make any comment.

Even if Old Mr. Lambert sent a post, her cousin didn't like it or comment on it.

His Twitter account seemed to have never been logged in and used!

But today he appeared!

Just because she sent a post about Nikita, her cousin came back to life on the Internet!

"Niky!" Tammy was shocked for a long time and showed Nikita her mobile phone. "My brother asked us when will we finished watching the game, and he said he wanted to pick us up."

Nikita glanced at her mobile phone and saw Sheehan's comment.

She took out her mobile phone directly and replied him with her WhatsApp account: The game lasted for several days, it wouldn't finish in one day.

Sheehan replied quickly: Then I will come and pick you up for lunch.

Nikita replied: Yeah.

Sheehan: Would you like some dessert you ate yesterday?

Nikita replied: Yeah.

Sheehan: Have fun. I am going to a meeting.

Nikita: OK.

Tammy stood by her and watched them chat.

After Nikita put away her mobile phone, Tammy said with emotion, "Niky, I always felt that my brother was a very cold person. I didn't expect him to be a different person after being your boyfriend."

Nikita slightly raised her eyebrows, "What's the difference?"

Tammy, "He is gentle and considerate to you. I thought people like my brother would never fall in love at all. He used to be so cold to other girls, and our family was worried about whether he could find a girlfriend in the future."

"Rosa is his good friend for so many years, and every time they meet, he is still cold and indifferent to her. I tell you oh..." Tammy suddenly lowered her voice, "I wonder if my brother like girls."

"Now Grandpa can finally rest assured, and the rest of our family can rest assured."

Nikita, "..."

Sheehan used to be very cold to other girls?

He was active and warm to her, and she thought that his character was just like this.

The Science and Technology Museum was crowded.

The Science and Technology Museum, which can accommodate tens of thousands of people, was totally occupied, and even the area for standing tickets were full of people.

Chapter 936 She Created the Great Team

The Influence of LPL World Championships was no less than that of the concerts of top singers. Almost all the fans in the venue came for Manley and their teams. Before the teams appeared, fans were already shouting the names of Manley again and again.

Samuel listened to the shouts of the fans, and he was excited, but he was self-restrained and did not shout out with the fans.

The host appeared first, and after saying some basic opening remarks, the teams appeared one after another.

Other teams also had fans.

When one team came out, its fans would cheer under the stage.

But there cheers were all sparse.

When Manley's team came out, the audience suddenly burst into an avalanche of shouts.

"Manley! Manley! Manley!"

This cry after cry was in sharp contrast to the sparse shouts before.

As soon as Manley appeared, even Samuel, Tobin and Tammy, who had been self-restrained, couldn't help shouting with the crowd. Samuel's eyes even turned red, and he looked at the idol standing on the stage with tears in his eyes.

At this moment, the people standing on the stage were not only the idols they worship, but also the beliefs they have always followed.

Besides, their position was very close to the stage.

As soon as he looked up, he could see his idol standing not far from him.

Nikita took a look at them, and looked at others sitting around.

They were so excited that there were quite a few people cried. Both men and women were shouting excitedly and wiping away tears.

This reminded Nikita of some memories.

That year, when she took her team to the stage of the World Champion, the audience was also full of cheers.

It was also in that year, Manley became the god of this game overnight.

After she created the great and promising team, she quietly retired.

Although she has left this industry.

But the youthful blood of that year seemed to come back at this moment

In several games in the morning, the team led by Manley won without any suspense.

At several critical moments, Manley played like saviors, turning the trend of the game by himself, leading his teammates to tear down the tower all the way to the base, and winning the game steadily.

“Damn, my idol is so handsome!”

“If he hadn’t distract so many enemies and won time for his teammates to develop, the game would definitely have been lost.”

“Wow, his moves were really impressive! No one can copy his moves!”

“Manley’s moves were really excellent. But when you say no one can copy his moves, don’t you forget that they had a super coach before? Manley himself admitted that he played Mora under her guidance.”

“Yes, yes, I also remember that the former coach of Manley was super powerful. The several teammates’ moves of their famous heroes all learned from that coach. And the most unbelievable thing is that the coach is a woman!”

“Are you talking about the female coach named Niky? She is really super powerful. I have seen her live, and she played with Manley in ranking competitions together. Her moves are simply superb. Although Manley is quite powerful, he still couldn’t match her.”

Chapter 937 Niky is the coach?!

“Haha, the apprentice is worse than master, isn’t it normal? Hey, I really liked Niky in those days, and then she left the team. Fans like us were absolutely sorry for that. The most regrettable thing was that until she left, no one knew what she looked like.”

“I guess she must be a super beautiful girl. Although she wore a mask, her body and skin are very delicate.”

The Spike Live and Facebook are broadcasting the KPL World Championships at the same time.

Some netizens who couldn't get tickets or didn't have time to go to the scene chose to watch the live broadcast.

A group of people watched and discussed in the live broadcast room.

When discussing the former coach of Manley, many fans who watched the live broadcast participated in the discussion one after another.

Old fans all know Nikita.

The new fans, who did not know Nikita, also became curious. They tried to figure out who he is.

The information they searched was quite simple, just one sentence.

Nikita: Former coach of RG team.

Along with a photo below.

In the photo, there is a girl with short hair and wearing a mask. She is tall and slim, with white skin and a dark gray hooded sportswear.

People couldn't see her look for she wears a mask.

But according to her figure, she might be very young

Competition site.

It's time to rest at noon.

The game was suspended and resumed in the afternoon.

"I am getting high! So high!" Samuel had been shouting for almost two hours, and his voice was hoarse. He was still immersed in excitement and couldn't extricate himself.

"Manley is so amazing." Tammy was also very excited. She took Nikita's hand and said with bright eyes, "Hey, Niky, can we take a group photo with Manley now?"

Samuel and Tobin both looked at Nikita, with expectant eyes.

"Yes, Niky, you said we could take a group photo with Manley." Samuel rubbed his hands and begged. "If I can have a photo with Manley, I will die without regret!"

Nikita got up and looked at her friends who were watching her eagerly. She hooked her lips and smiled: "Well, you should go backstage with me to find him."

They immediately let out a cheer.

"Well, can I join you?" A weak voice sounded behind them.

They turned their heads and saw a beautiful girl in a delicate lace white dress.

"Niky, she is my good friend Felicia!" Tammy walked over and took Felicia's hand. "Can she go with us?"*

"Hello, Niky, my name is Felicia." Felicia had already seen Nikita's pretty face across the distance. Now approaching, looking at her at close range, she was amazed.

She had never seen a girl with such delicate facial features and perfect skin.

She always thought that her cousin was already very beautiful, who was the most beautiful girl she had ever seen.

But now, she has changed her mind.

This girl in front of her is much more beautiful than her cousin.

“Hello, Nikita.” Nikita nodded slightly.

Felicia kept staring at Nikita for a while, then she can't help but say: “Nikita, you are so beautiful”

Others: “...

Nikita was quite calm: “Thank you”

“You have a good eye.” Tammy has a proud expression on her face. ‘Niky is the beauty Queen of our school. Of course, she is the most beautiful one.’

Chapter 938 Goddess Nikita, you are finally back.

“Isn't the best girl of your school called Yvonne?” Felicia said in confusion, “Am I wrong?”

“Yvonne?” Tammy rolled her eyes with disdain. “She has lost this title a long time ago. As for the selection of the best girl in our school this year, Niky was much better than her. Now the best girl of First Senior High School is Niky!”

“Ah, it turns out to be like this.” Felicia sipped her lips and then nodded. “In fact, I always felt that Yvonne was not very beautiful. When you told me that she was the best of your School, I doubted that your school had no candidates.”

This girl called Nikita deserves this title.

Simply from the aspect of appearance, she looks much more beautiful than Yvonne.

“Don’t compare Yvonne with Niky!” Samuel also looked disdainful. “She doesn’t even have the qualifications to be compared with Niky.”

“Well, do you want to go backstage with me or not?” Nikita sent a message to Manley, Manley was waiting for her at the backstage,

She put away her mobile phone, put her hands in her pockets, raised her head, and looked at them, slightly frowning.

“Yes, yes!” Samuel and Tammy nodded quickly. “Niky, take us with you quickly.”

Felicia also nodded together with them in excitement.

Backstage.

Each team has its own lounge.

Manley and others are changing clothes in the locker room, they have asked the assistant to come out to pick up Nikita.

The assistant has also worked for the team for several years. He was working in the team when Nikita was a member of this team.

Although he knows that Nikita will be back today, he is still quite excited because he can meet her again.

“Goddess Nikita, you, you are finally back.” The assistant looked at the legendary girl who once brought the whole team to the world champion’s stage with her own power, he was red-eyed. He was almost going to cry.

Nikita has left for several years.

Although the team has won many championships in recent years after her leaving, but the meaning of being the champion for the first time was different.

Besides, they always felt that something was missing without Nikita.

Nikita also recognized the assistant and nodded to him: "Jackie, you seem to have gained a lot of weight."

Jackie was stunned, and then he scratched his head with embarrassment: "Yes, I have gained some weight. Goddess Nikita, you still remember me."

Jackie was a little flattered.

He didn't expect Nikita to remember him, he was just an ordinary assistant.

"Of course I do." Nikita smiled. "I still remember that you can cook delicious dishes."

When the team was just established, several assistants were recruited.

They were all responsible for the daily life of team members.

Jackie was in charge of cooking and washing. When the team was being trained, members wouldn't go out for a long time. He would cook and wash clothes for members.

Nikita was impressed by Jackie because he cooked well.

“Hey.” Jackie scratched his head again, he slightly blushed because of the praise. “Nikita, if you are willing, tell me what you want to eat. I can cook for you. We are still living in the original place. You know where it is.”

“You can come at any time.”

“Hmm.” Nikita smiled again. “I will go and have a look when I have time.”

Jackie was very happy: “Really? That’s a deal! Goddess Nikita, you must come when you are free!”

Hearing their words, those people who came with Nikita were quite confused.

Chapter 939 It seems that she is hiding something from us.

This man is calling Nikita as Goddess Nikita?

Generally, this title is used for calling powerful people in an industry.

According to Jackie’s words, Nikita seems to have known them for a long time.

Samuel couldn’t help but look at Tobin. He lowered his voice and asked, “Hey, in your opinion, why does he call Niky as Goddess Nikita?”

Among the teams of this game, some players are also called as gods. For example, Manley is called as God Manley Moreover, Cat in Team YTP is also called as God Cat because he can also play a character quite good.

In the field of e-sports, only extraordinary players can be called as ‘God’

Although Nikita is very powerful in playing games, she is not a professional player.

No matter how powerful amateur gamers are, they can't compare with professional players.

Tobin also couldn't understand, he shook his head: "I don't know."

Samuel's eyes looked confused: "Why? I feel that Niky is hiding something from us."

After chatting with Nikita for a while, Jackie became serious, he took them to the lounge: "God Manley and others have gone to change clothes. Goddess Nikita, sit down with your friends for a while."

Jackie opened the door of the lounge.

Nikita walked in, Jackie went to the fridge, took a few bottles of water and handed them to Nikita and her friends: "Drink some water first. The conditions here can't be compared with those of our base. You can only drink cold mineral water."

"I am not that picky, mineral water is OK." Nikita took the mineral water, unscrewed the bottle cap and drank two mouthfuls. She casually found a place to sit down as if she were at home. Then she said to others, "Sit down."

Samuel and others were not as casual and relaxed as her.

They found places to sit down, then they looked at the door nervously with expectations.

Thinking that their idol will come soon, their hearts beat faster with excitement.

After watching KPL competition for so many years, this is the first time for them to be so close to their idol.

They just waited for a short while.

In just a few minutes, the half-open door of the lounge was pushed.

Manley was walking in front, with other members behind him. This team, which is regarded as the team with the highest popularity, enters the lounge.

Looking at their idol, who was quite close to them, Samuel and Tobin couldn't even speak because they were nervous.

Tammy also looked stunned.

Felicia was staring at Manley, she looked in a daze, as if she had become blank.

This is the first time for her to look at Manley so closely.

Teams that have won many world championships are a little proud. The members of this team are usually indifferent and polite to others. When they see the girl sitting on the sofa, they walk over immediately and take the initiative to greet her.

Everyone shows respectful tone and attitude.

"Leader."

"Leader, you are finally back."

"Leader, Manley will treat us for lunch today. Have the meal with us, please."

"Yes, yes. Leader, I haven't seen you for a long time. We have many things to tell you."

A group of boys, who are usually quite cold, are all around the girl at this moment. They are calling her as leader intimately.

They are completely different from their cold images at ordinary times.

All of them seem to have been changed into other people.

Even Manley, who speaks the least and is called as 'the coldest person' by fans, also changes his cold image at ordinary times. He smiles and says warmly: "Yeah, I'll treat this noon. Tell me what you want to eat."

Chapter 940 That person is more important than you.

Nikita is typing with her mobile phone.

Facing with a group of enthusiastic people, she is still indifferent. After a while, after editing the message and sending it out, she raises her head slowly. "Noon? No. I have made an appointment with a person. Dinner is OK."

"Leader, who is more important than us, we are your old friends"

"Yeah. Can't you make an appointment with him in the evening and have lunch with us at noon?"

Nikita sipped her lips and said seriously, "Yeah, that person is quite important, more important than you."

A group of people: "..."

"Well, let's have dinner." Manley said, "Let's call it a deal. Let's have dinner together tonight Leader, what do you like? I can book a restaurant in advance"

Nikita said the name of an expensive seafood restaurant without hesitation.

The average price for each person is about 15,000 dollars

Even children from noble families, such as Samuel, Tobin, and Tammy, also feel this restaurant is expensive.

After all, although their families are rich, they are still students. They won't get too much pocket money at ordinary times.

They still think it is quite expensive to have a meal in such a restaurant.

Nikita is aiming at eating an expensive meal...

Manley smiled without hesitation, he nodded "OK, I will book seats."

"By the way, take a picture with them first." Nikita stretched out her hand and pointed to Samuel and others. "These are your fans, they have said that they want to take a picture with you. Take several pictures with them. If you have autographed photos, give them some."

When they came in just now, they only saw Nikita. They didn't notice that there were other people in the lounge.

With Nikita's words and pointing, they saw several boys and girls in school uniforms sitting there

Everyone in the team knows that Nikita has gone to high school again and made friends with some students.

Since their leader has brought her friends here, they will certainly 'serve' them well.

"OK, no problem." A team member walked over first. "Come here, if you want to take a group photo with me, you can do it casually and take as many photos as you want."

Other members also greeted them warmly: "Take photos? Come here, take photos as you want!"

“I’ll look for my autographed photos. If you think my photos are not enough, give me your address. I will ask someone to send them to you later.”

Manley has also changed the rule of never taking photos with fans, he said unprecedentedly: “If you want to take photos with me, come over.”

Happiness came to them too suddenly. Before Samuel and others could react, members have hugged their necks and shoulders, urging them to take out their phones to take photos.

Team members actively cooperated with them to make different poses.

Originally, they thought it would be enough to have a group photo.

After taking several pictures in succession, they were a little embarrassed, but the team members patted their shoulders and encouraged. “Take more photos, these can’t be enough, right?”

“Do you want to record a small video?”

“I think these photos are not quite good. Delete them, let’s shoot again.”

“By the way, do you want me to re-sign the autographed photos and write your names?”

About half an hour later.

They have got many things.

Not only did then take a lot of satisfying photos, but also got several signed photos, which had their own names and blessings.

After taking photos, Manley and other team members sent them out.

“Leader, see you tonight Manley seemed to be afraid that Nikita would forget to have dinner with them tonight. After sending them outside, he couldn’t help remind again, “Don’t forget, have dinner together.”
