

The Girl CB 941

Chapter 941 I am waiting for your wedding banquet.

Samuel and others were still in a trance, as if they were still dreaming and didn't wake up.

All of them showed blank eyes and expressions.

They got autographed photos and photos so easily. They even recorded many short videos, they even got the accounts of the team members!

Originally, they just wanted to take a photo.

Unexpectedly, they have been treated so well.

They didn't dare to imagine like this.

Sheehan came to pick up Nikita on time.

Seeing the familiar silver-gray Rolls-Royce stop by the road, Nikita walked over.

The car stopped, and the door was opened.

Sheehan got out of the car. After seeing Nikita, he stepped forward and gently held her hand: "Are you hungry?"

Nikita shook her head.

Sheehan smiled and gently pinched her palm: "Let's go, I'll take you to have lunch."

“Brother Sheehan.”

“Brother Lambert.”

When Tammy, Samuel and others saw Sheehan, they walked over and greeted him with respect in their eyes.

Tammy has always been a little afraid of her cousin.

Samuel and Tobin are also a little afraid of Sheehan. In front of Sheehan, both of them have controlled their wanton temperament auras, they look well-behaved and clever.

They looked more well behaved than they looked when they were in front of their parents.

Sheehan nodded to them: “Let’s go to have lunch together.”

“No, no, Brother Sheehan, you can directly go with Niky. We won’t bother you.” This is the first time for Sheehan to invited them to have a meal. Tobin refused immediately, he didn’t dare to go together.

He is not a person who is not sensible at all.

Sheehan and Nikita are going to date.

What’s the point for them to go to bother their date?

When Tobin saw Sheehan holding Nikita’s hand, he was surprised for a short while, but he recovered immediately.

He thought that such an action is reasonable.

Samuel was still opening his mouth, looking stunned.

"I won't bother you, either. Brother Sheehan, you can go to date with Niky. I will go to play with Samuel. We won't bother you." Tammy was also quite sensible.

Although this is the first time for Sheehan to invite her to have a meal together.

If she goes with them, Sheehan will definitely be unhappy.

"Since you are not going to be with us, let's have a meal together next time." Sheehan didn't continue to invite. Originally, he just invited them out of politeness. Seeing that they were quite sensible, he smiled and said, "Perhaps, you can choose a restaurant at noon by yourselves, I will pay for you."

"Really?" Tammy was happy immediately, "Brother Sheehan, can we choose at will?"

There is a restaurant she has wanted to go to for a long time.

That restaurant is quite expensive.

If someone can pay the bill for her, she can go to have a taste.

"Of course." Sheehan directly took out a black wallet generously, he took out a black card and handed it to Tammy. "After lunch, go shopping and buy whatever you like."

Tammy took over the black card with joy, put it in her pocket, smiled and said sweet words: "Brother Sheehan, you are the best brother in the world. Sister-in-law, you have to be with him forever. I am waiting for your wedding, ha ha!"

Hearing 'sister-in-law', Sheehan was quite satisfied. He nodded and said, "Well, I will try my best."

Nikita: "..."

Sister-in-law?

She hasn't married Sheehan yet.

"Your sister-in-law and I will leave first, go to have lunch quickly. If there is anything wrong, you can call me."

Chapter 942 She wouldn't be admired even if it weren't for Niky.

Sheehan finished his words and took Nikita to get into the car. After watching her get into the car considerately and closing the door for her, Sheehan walked to the other side and got into the car.

Tammy and Samuel were standing by the road with others. Seeing Sheehan's car driving away, they started to talk about where they would go to have lunch.

"Let's go to Banquet Hall. Tammy pulled out the black card that Sheehan gave her from her bag. She raised her chin, looked generous, and said with confidence, "We can use Sheehan's black card casually."

The restaurant Tammy wants to go is a private restaurant with high prices.

The average price for each person is also about 150,000 dollars.

Tammy will definitely be reluctant if she has to go to such a restaurant to have a meal with her own pocket money. However, Sheehan is quite rich. Spending millions or tens of millions of dollars won't affect him at all.

After discussing, they drove to the banquet court.

Felicia was with them.

After getting on the car, Felicia came to her senses and pulled Tammy to ask in a low voice: "Niky and Sheehan are lovers?" Felicia remembers that her cousin likes Sheehan very much.

She still remembers that her cousin was drunk for a few times because of Sheehan, although her cousin seldom did like that.

But Sheehan has no interest in her cousin.

Now... Sheehan is falling in love with that little girl she has just met?

"Hmm." Tammy nodded, "Sheehan and Niky are lovers. Moreover, Sheehan is quite sincere. They will get married in the future. Grandpa also likes Niky very much. He has asked Sheehan to marry her when she can satisfy the requirements of age."

Felicia was silent for a few seconds, then she frowned slightly: "Then, what about my cousin?"

Tammy glared at Felicia in confusion: "Niky and Sheehan are lovers, this has nothing to do with your cousin. Even if they are not lovers, Sheehan has never been interested of your cousin."

"She wouldn't be admired even if it weren't for Niky."

Hearing these words, Felicia was silent for a while..

"Niky and Sheehan can be considered as a perfect match, and they will definitely get married in the future." Tammy added, "Anyway, I will only admit Niky as my sister-in-law in the future. If you see your cousin, tell her to let her stop pestering Sheehan in the future."

"Sheehan has his girlfriend now."

Felicia still couldn't speak.

To persuade her cousin? She?

Even her uncle and aunt can't persuade their own daughter.

She is just a cousin, her words won't make sense.

"Tammy, when did Niky and Sheehan be together? You have known this before, right?" Samuel was quite surprised. He was still thinking about this matter. He was confused and shocked about the fact that Niky had fallen in love.

"Ah, don't you all know that Sheehan was chasing Niky before? After chasing her for a short time, Niky promised him to be together." Tammy stretched out her hand and patted Samuel's shoulder. "Samuel, I know that you like Niky. But... you have to give up from now on, it is impossible for you to be together with her."

"Only a man as excellent as Sheehan is worthy of Niky."

Samuel's face suddenly turned red, he blushed and shouted: "Nonsense! I didn't... Tammy, stop talking nonsense!"

"You know whether you like her clearly." It seems that Tammy has already seen through everything.

"Am I the only one who cares about the relationship between Niky and Manley as well as other members?"

Chapter 943 Could she be...

Tobin looked thoughtful, "Manley and other members called Niky as leader, they also respected her very much."

"This is not like a normal relationship between friends."

“Yes, I also think the relationship between Niky and them is quite strange.” Tammy also remembered this matter and nodded. “I wanted to talk about this with you just now, but I forgot.”

Samuel also suddenly remembered this matter. He was silent for a while, his eyes looked shocked in an instant. Then he looked up at Tobin and Tammy: “Do you still remember YAN, the former coach of NG?”

“YAN?” Tobin nodded, “Yeah.”

For all the fans who have loved NG for a long time, they all remember YAN.

Tobin and Samuel began to pay attention to NG team when they won the provincial championship.

Later, they witnessed NG to win the national championship, the Asia-Pacific champion, and the world champion step by step.

“You want to say...” Tobin seemed to guess what Samuel wanted to say, his eyes also became shocked. “Niky is...”

“Hmm.” Samuel nodded. Although he thought this idea is crazy... after thinking about it carefully, it is not completely impossible.

He analyzed: “Every member of the team called her as leader, and they all respected her very much. This is definitely not the relationship between friends. By the way, the assistant also called Niky as Goddess Nikita. Think about it, in e-sports area, what kind of people can be called as ‘God’ or ‘Goddess’?”

“Moreover, Niky plays this game very well. Her operations of the character in this game were quite great when she helped me to play that day.”

“In addition... YAN... Nikita... Both of these two names have “N”.”

Tobin listened to his analysis and felt that it was extremely possible.

But after thinking about it, he thought it was impossible: “However, a few years ago, Niky was only thirteen or fourteen years old. How could she become a coach at such an early age?”

There has never been such a young coach in e-sports.

Her age at that time was almost not enough for being signed as a player.

“So... she has a mask. Tammy said excitedly. “Because she was so young, for fear that others would think that she was not suitable because of her age. I also think that... probably, Niky is YAN!”

“Niky can write a song for Hugh at the age of thirteen or fourteen. Why can’t she be a game coach? If she is the former coach of NG, it is reasonable for the members to call her as leader.”

“Jesus! Niky is YAN? Really?”

Samuel was shocked. “My idol was YAN in those days, I have learned to play this game from her. If Niky is YAN, she has become the coach of NG when she was fourteen years old? Oops, how powerful she is!”

Tobin didn’t say anything, but he was also shocked.

YAN is also his idol.

He has also learned to play the game from YAN.

They like NG, probably because they like YAN. YAN is a powerful, talented and legendary person.

They are classmates with a legendary person in the game circle? They have even become her friends?!

“We can’t continue to guess like this, I have to ask Niky!” Samuel was so excited that he immediately took out his mobile phone and sent a message to Nikita.

After about a few minutes, he received a reply.

Samuel looked down at it, then he said "Fuck!" loudly again. He was so excited that his hands were shaking, he couldn't even hold his phone stably. He almost threw his phone onto the ground.

10:491

He was holding his mobile phone. He looked stunned with his eyes widely opened. It seemed that he was dumbfounded.

"What's the matter?" Others went over to have a look.

"Shit!" Tobin also scolded loudly and opened his eyes widely in disbelief.

Felicia is interested in the e-sports just because of Manley.

Compared with others, she started to play games later than them. She doesn't know anything about YAN.

But looking at Samuel, Tobin, and Tammy's stunned and shocked faces. Felicia couldn't help but ask: "Is YAN very powerful?"

"Powerful? This word is not enough to describe her." Samuel's eyes were a little blank, as if he were talking in his dream. He murmured, "YAN, a legendary person in the e-sports... she has helped NG to create countless miracles."

"It can be said that if it weren't for her, Manley and NG wouldn't have been so powerful. People who have paid attention to this team for a long time know how powerful she is. Unfortunately, she quit this circle so early. After helping NG to get the world champion, she resigned. Later, no one could get any information about her."

“Some people have speculated that she was seriously ill...”

After all, under normal circumstances, no one would choose to retire at that time.

Even if she retires, she shouldn't have disappeared completely.

Unless...

She had died.

But who would have thought that YAN is not only alive, but also studying in their school and becoming a classmate of them.

Finishing his words, Samuel looked down at the reply sent by Nikita just now again.

Just one word: Yes,

He sent a message like this: Niky, are you YAN?

After lunch...

Nikita sent a message to Tammy, saying that she had something to do, and she wouldn't go to watch the competition this afternoon.

Tammy used to reply her message immediately.

This time it was quite unusual. It took about several minutes before Tammy replied.

Her tone was not as casual and relaxed as usual. It seemed to be inexplicably cautious.

Tammy: OK, I know.

Tammy is extroverted and lively. She always chats with cute stickers such as cats' stickers or emoji.

This time, she didn't send anything.

Although it was a normal reply, but it was a little strange.

Nikita also felt a little strange, but she didn't ask anything.

She is going to the hospital to see Gerda in the afternoon. She also needs to go to the police station to deal with something. Sheehan drove her there.

After lunch, Sheehan saw a milk tea shop. Consciously, he went to buy a cup of milk tea for Nikita. When he handed it to her, he said seriously: "This is not healthy, drink less."

Nikita took it, the straw was already inserted. She took a big sip and chewed the materials inside: "Well, why did you buy it for me?"

Sheehan: "..."

He has become accustomed... He did this naturally.

When he saw the milk tea shop, he remembered that she liked to drink it, so he went to buy it.

"After all, it is better to drink less." Sheehan reached out his hand and touched the girl's head. There were dotes in his deep and gentle voice, "If you want to drink milk tea in the future, I can make it for you."

This is the only way he can think of.

He can't stop her from drinking milk tea.

He can only let her drink it as healthily as possible.

Nikita took another sip of milk tea and tilted her head: "You will make a cup of milk tea for me every day?"

Sheehan nodded: "Hmm."

"Isn't it troublesome?"

"No."

"Do you need me to give you some rewards?"

"Rewards?" Sheehan looked at the girl's delicate and beautiful white face, he smiled and leaned over. "I don't want other rewards, I just want to..."

Before he finished his words, he felt her soft lips.

"Want this?" Nikita stretched out her hand and pinched the man's handsome jaw, she took the initiative to kiss him.

Chapter 944 How dare he think like this?

Sheehan felt he was short of breath, his eyes became dark.

Nikita kissed him, loosened her hands, and wanted to get farther away from him. However, Sheehan hugged her waist and pinched her jaw with jointed fingers. He kissed Nikita with his hot breath.

Compared with Nikita's soft kiss just now, this kiss is a real one.

It lasted for a long time.

At the end, Nikita blushed and panted.

She has been training in the wild for three days and three nights, but she has never been so tired.

A kiss seemed to drain all her strength, and she felt she was impotent because of this kiss.

Sheehan looked at the girl's red and swollen lips because of his kiss, he still wanted to kiss her again.

But... Nikita is still a child.

He doesn't want to be tortured by his own desire either.

"I like this reward very much." The man smiled happily, his voice was a little hoarse. "Reward me in the same way in the future."

Nikita gasped for a while. After recovering her stable breath slowly, she raised her head and looked at the man beside her with dark eyes, she also smiled. "It depends on your performance."

Sheehan's eyes were bright: "Good performances will lead to such a reward?"

Nikita gently raised her eyebrows: "Hmm."

The man's eyes were very deep: "If I behave well every day, you will give me rewards every day?"

Nikita: "..."

How dare he think like this?

In the hospital.

Sheehan bought many expensive health-care products, carrying them in both hands, and visited Gerda with Nikita.

He respects Gerda very much..

His attitude shows the attitude of a youngster for an elder he values.

Gerda lives in VIP Senior Inpatient Department, she is taken care of by a special medical team every day. After living for two days, her complexion and mental state are much better.

Gerda was very happy to see Nikita coming to visit her with Sheehan,

"Niky, why aren't you at school at this time? You have no classes today?" Gerda asked Adele to pour water for Nikita and Sheehan. Adele poured a glass of water for Nikita and handed the other glass of water to Sheehan, Sheehan stretched out his hand to take it over. Adele obviously wanted to retract.

Sheehan looked up at her.

Adele bit her lips, put the cup on the table next to her. She said: "Drink water, Brother Sheehan.", then she walked out of the ward quickly.

Gerda witnessed the whole process, then she sighed.

After that incident, Adele resisted contacting with males to some extent.

There is nothing wrong with daily communication.

But when there is contact, her body will reject subconsciously.

“Gerda, I think it is necessary to hire a psychiatrist for Adele.” Nikita was in a bad mood, she pinched the cup in her hand tightly, “Her situation is bad. Perhaps, she can’t live a normal life without psychological guidance.”

Gerda sipped her lips tightly. After a while, she sighed again: “I don’t understand this either. Is it useful to hire a psychologist? Adele’s situation is quite strange recently, she always wakes up at night after falling asleep.”

“She looks fine at ordinary times. However, every time when there is a man who is approaching her... she is quite strange.”

“Hiring a psychiatrist will definitely be useful.” Nikita said and took out her mobile phone. She edited a message and said, “You don’t have to worry about this matter, I’ll do it. Coincidentally, I know a psychologist. He has cured many cases like this. I asked him to treat Adele.”

Chapter 945 I have something important, I need your help.

Next to Nikita, Sheehan listened to her words and couldn’t help but raise his eyebrows.

Coincidentally? Know a psychologist?

Every time, she coincidentally knows someone.

She has a lot of friends in all walks.

As far as he knows, she has friends in the entertainment industry, e-sports industry, music industry and lawyer industry.

These people, all of them, are famous.

Now, she has a friend who is a doctor?

However, thinking of Nikita's medical skills, Sheehan felt that this is not surprising.

She is a disciple of Lemuel, who is very famous in the medical field. Certainly, Lemuel's disciples are also powerful. Even if Nikita is indifferent, she must have known many people in the medical field.

Gerda thought for a while, nodded, and then said with worries, "I don't know whether Adele will be willing or not. If she doesn't want to, I can't persuade her."

Nikita: "I'll persuade her"

Gerda nodded again. "Adele admires you the most. Perhaps your words are much more useful than mine."

She grabbed Nikita's hand tightly and said with gratitude and emotions: "Niky, I have to trouble you again. If Adele can recover, it will be great. I am worried about her the most. If she is in trouble, I..

"She will be all fine." Nikita comforted her by patting the back of her hands.

After that, Nikita talked with Gerda for a while.

When she was ready to leave, her mobile phone buzzed and vibrated.

Nikita took out her mobile phone, looked at it, and answered the phone call.

"Hello."

An anxious voice sounded on the other side. "Miss Swift, didn't you have classes at school today? I went to your school to find you, but I didn't see you."

Nikita narrowed her eyes slightly: "Well, I'm not at school. Are you Director Frank?"

The anxious voice sounded again: "Yes, Miss Swift, where are you now? I have something very important, I need your help."

Before Nikita spoke, Director Frank said anxiously: "Miss Swift, here is a noble person with a very special status who needs craniotomy as soon as possible. This operation is a bit risky, all of us can't ensure the success."

"This operation, I don't know if you can do it. Because the identity of that person is too high, a slight mistake will be a severe problem. If there is anything wrong with the operation, I am afraid that our whole hospital can't afford to burden the responsibilities."

*After thinking about it, I am afraid that only you can complete such a difficult operation."

Hearing this, Nikita frowned, then she smiled with mockery: "Oh? The operation is very difficult. You are afraid that you can't afford to make mistakes, so I don't have to be afraid?"

"No, I don't mean it." Director Frank quickly explained, "Miss Swift, we are not afraid of being responsible, we are afraid that this noble person will be in danger. Miss Swift, the identity of this noble person... I am not convenient to tell you on the phone now Can I meet you immediately? We can talk about this in person."

It seemed that Director Frank was afraid that Nikita would refuse. Before Nikita answered him, he had said in a hurry: "Miss Swift, no matter whether you will agree or not, let's meet and have a talk first, OK? If you are really unwilling. I won't force you."

Nikita hesitated: "I am in the hospital."

"Miss Swift, are you in our hospital now?"

"Hmm."

"Well, I'll go back right away! I'm already on my way I will arrive after about seven or eight minutes

Chapter 946 It can't be put off any longer.

After a while, Nikita hung up the phone..

She looked at Sheehan: "Well, perhaps, you can go back to the company to work first."

Sheehan listened to what she said when she called. He has guessed something, he lowered his voice and asked, "Someone is looking for you for surgery?"

Nikita nodded: "Hmm."

"What kind of surgery?"

"Intracranial surgery. The specific situation is unclear."

"OK, I'll go back to the company first. Tell me after the operation, I will come and pick you up."

Nikita was silent for a while: "Perhaps the operation will take a long time."

A difficult surgery can't be completed quickly.

Sometimes, an operation may take more than ten hours.

“No matter how late it will be, I will come to pick you up.” Sheehan reached out his hand and touched the girl’s head. He said gently in a low voice. “Tell me after finishing the surgery, OK?”

Looking at the man’s deep and gentle eyes, Nikita was touched. She sipped her lips and nodded: “OK.”

The other side.

Patrick came to the hospital with Margot to get the treatment of Dr. Charles.

They came on time according to the appointment, but they didn’t meet Dr. Charles.

They wanted to ask Director Frank, but someone told them that Director Frank was not here.

Patrick called Director Frank.

Director Frank didn’t answer his phone.

After that, Patrick made several phone calls in succession, but Director Frank still didn’t answer.

Patrick frowned tightly and hung up the phone: “I don’t know why, Director Frank doesn’t answer my phone calls.”

Margot’s face suddenly looked a little gloomy: “What the hell? Is he teasing us? He has asked us to come here today, we have also come. But we can’t find anyone. Our calls are not answered. Are they deliberate?”

Patrick was stunned: “Deliberate? Why did they do like this?”

Margot gnashed: "Of course, it is because of Nikita! Didn't Dr. Charles want Nikita to join the National Medical College? He teases us to make Nikita happy, in order to make her promise him!"

"Not really." Patrick felt it unlikely. "I mean it's the National Medical College, for god's sake. There are a lot of people who can't get in no matter how hard they try. The experts in it are all in a high status. They are usually very proud. And they never have eyes for ordinary people."

"Even if Nikita has some skills... she wouldn't be so good that even the experts in the National Medical College are willing to please her."

Margot's voice still sounded indignant: "Who knows?"

"All right. Don't be so angry." Patrick took a look at his phone and sighed: "I don't think they were deliberately playing us. They probably have something on their hands now. I'll call again later."

Margot was very annoyed and showed a straight face. "Okay, you can call again later."

Although she was very upset, she had no choice but to continue waiting in the hospital.

It was she who needed to beg the doctor to treat her.

Not the other way around.

She doesn't have too much time to wait. She needs treatment now!

So she can only pin all her hopes on Dr. Charles.

Chapter 947 He ignored them.

Even if Dr. Charles is deliberately playing her, she can only suck it up.

The husband and wife sat in the chair next to the hospital gate. After more than ten minutes, Patrick took out his phone and wanted to call Director Frank again. But at this moment, he saw Director Frank and Dr. Charles get out of a car with several people together, all of whom were old men about the same age as Dr. Charles. After a group of people got off the car, they hurried towards the hospital.

The expressions on everyone's face looked quite dignified.

It seems that they have encountered something very important and tricky.

"Isn't that Director Frank and Dr. Charles?" There was a delight expression showing on Patrick's face. He put away his phone, got up and walked towards Director Frank.

Margot also cheered up. She got up and walked with him.

"Director Frank, Dr. Charles..." Patrick approached them. As he just wanted to say hello, he saw Director Frank and Dr. Charles hurriedly walked past him and Margot without even looking at them.

As if they didn't see them.

Patrick was stunned. And his face suddenly darkened down a little.

Margot looked more gloomy.

They did do that in purpose, didn't they?

With two living people standing right in front of them, how could they miss them?

Were they really invisible? Or did they deliberately ignore them?

“Director Frank...” Seeing that Director Frank and the group went further and further, Patrick quickly stepped up to catch up with them, although he felt offended.

Soon, he caught up with them.

Director Frank heard someone calling him and stopped his steps. When he turned around, he saw Patrick who had just caught up with him.

Patrick endured his anger and picked up a smile on his face: “Director Frank, Dr. Charles, we had an appointment today. You promised to treat my wife Margot today. Now that we are here, let’s...”

“Mr. Swift, we have something very important to do today and have no time to do anything else. Go back first. We can take a rain check about your wife’s problem.” Seeing that it was Patrick, Director Frank took another look at Margot who followed him up. After saying so, he left in a hurry without saying anything else.

A group of people walked over in a hurry. And soon, they went far away.

“What did he mean by that?” Margot looked gloomy and said: “I told you that they must be deliberately playing with us. But you didn’t believe me. He called us over. But now, he tells us he has no time for us. If he was not playing with us, then what is this?!”

“I think Director Frank and others seems to be really in a hurry.” Patrick frowned. “Forget it. Let’s come back another day.”

Chapter 948 Is that... Nikita?!

“Come back another day? What day will that be?” There was anger showing in Margot’s eyes. She said: “With my current status, can wait any longer? Patrick, I can’t wait. I am afraid I’ll die if I wait any longer!”

“That’s not going to happen! Don’t talk nonsense.”

“Why not? Don’t you know very well about my illness? I think I will die. It’s very likely that I’m going to die!” Margot became manic and uneasy. “Patrick, do you understand it? I can’t wait any longer!”

“Margot, calm down.” Patrick tried to comfort her. “We will come to the hospital again tomorrow, which means, we are just going to wait for one more day at most. I won’t let you wait too long. I will definitely ask Dr. Charles to treat you tomorrow. Believe me. I promise you will only need to wait for another day at most.”

Under his appeasement, Margot was in a better mood. But the whole person is still in a state of anxiety and anger: “But what if he says he has no time tomorrow? Should we continue to wait?”

“What if he refuses to treat me in order to please Nikita?” The more Margot said, the more panicked she felt. She grabbed Patrick’s arm tightly. “Patrick, if Dr. Charles really refuses to treat me, what should I do?”

The National Medical College is her last hope.

She noticed that Dr. Charles really seemed to attach great importance to Nikita.

It’s really possible that he won’t treat her in order to please Nikita.

What should she do then?

She can do nothing but wait for death, can’t she?

“Don’t overthink it. It’s not going to happen.” Patrick looked at Margot, who began to be restless again, stretched out his hand to hold her shoulder and tried to appease her. “Margot, stop your messy ideas. I will call Director Frank later and ask him for the contact information of Dr. Charles.”

“I thought about it and realized that we hadn’t mentioned anything about the consultation. That Dr. Charles might change his mind because of the consultation.”

“Money can make the mare go. As long as we are willing to offer enough consultation, I don’t believe that anyone will turn us down for the sake of money.”

Margot was stunned: “You mean it is because we didn’t make a deal on the consultation, not because of Nikita?”

“Of course.” Patrick nodded, “It must be because of the consultation. How can Nikita be so important? Think about what kind of status an expert in the National Medical College has. How can he be willing to please her?”

Margot thought about it for a moment and felt his words actually made sense.

Although Nikita really had some skills.

The experts in the National Medical College have extremely high social status. So there is really no need for Dr. Charles to please her.

Does she think too high of Nikita?

Thinking of this, Margot finally stop being so panic and afraid.

She was so scared of Nikita deliberately making her suffer because she held some grudges against her.

“As long as it’s not because of Nikita, it will be fine.” Speaking of Nikita, Margot frowned. “Forget it. Let’s go back first.”

Patrick put his arm around her shoulder: “Okay, let’s go home.”

Their car was parked on the side of the road.

The husband and wife turned around and walked to the black Mercedes-Benz. Margot stretched out her hand and opened the door. As she was just about to get in the car, she suddenly saw a familiar figure with her peripheral vision.

She was stunned. One of her feet which had already stepped onto the car fell back to the ground.

“Is that... Nikita?” Margot turned around and looked at the girl who was surrounded by a group of people walking over, She frowned tighter and tighter. And her face turned greener and greener.

The girl still remained her careless and unruly look. She was wearing a school uniform and carrying her cheap black backpack that has never been changed since she brought it from the Syracuse Village. She put her hands in her trouser pockets and had an indifferent expression on her face.

Chapter 949 She has no time to talk to you now.

She still looks like an unruly and bad girl who will never learn to be good.

She walked in the middle of the crowd with Director Frank and Dr. Charles walking side by side with her. And she was followed by several old men who had been with Director Frank before, whose identities were unknown. But all of them looked outstanding

There were still several doctors in white coats in the crowd.

Director Frank seemed to be talking about something with Nikita. And the expression on his face looked anxious and dignified. But Nikita still remained her careless look. Occasionally, she would gently raise her eyebrows. A group of people all look dignified. But she was no different from usual.

Patrick also saw Nikita who was coming towards them.

There was also Director Frank, who told him that he had an emergency and left in a hurry without saying too much to him.

And Dr. Charles.

The two who didn't take him or Margot seriously are both with Nikita at this moment. And they are both talking to Nikita with their heads down.

Nikita walked between the two people without tilting her head. She just occasionally nodded, as if she were a leader who was listening to his subordinates report their work.

Seeing this, Patrick was stunned

Are Director Frank and Dr. Charles really holding such a humble attitude towards Nikita?!

Besides, didn't they have very important things to deal with? Why are they coming out of the hospital with Nikita now?

Is that very important thing related to Nikita?

Seeing the group of people getting closer and closer, Patrick looked a little gloomy

They looked so anxious a few minutes ago and claimed that they had very important things to deal with, so they had no time for us. But now, when it comes to Nikita, they have the time, don't they?

Margot's face looked even more gloomy

Did she guess right?

Was it really Nikita who deliberately tried to make her suffer?

She refused to give her treatment. And now she is still trying to stop others from saving her, isn't she?!

She is too vicious!

Seeing Nikita approached, Margot angrily walked over and said with rage "Nikita, what do you mean by this?"

The girl who was walking carelessly slightly raised her eyes with no other expression showing on her face. She completely ignored Margot She just turned to say to Director Frank "I can only make a judgment about the specific situation when I see the patient in person. It's hard to draw a conclusion now"

Director Frank immediately nodded and expressed his understanding 'Of course, so we have to rush there now."

"Nikita, are you listening to me? Seeing Nikita completely ignore her, Margot was so furious that she couldn't help stretching out to grab her. But she was stopped by Director Frank Director Frank frowned tightly. And his face darkened down. His tone didn't sound nice when he spoke up: "Miss Dan, we are having an emergency now. Miss Swift needs to go to a place with us immediately. She has no time to talk to you now."

Margot was stunned. Then her face couldn't look more gloomy. She angrily raised the volume. As she was just about to scold, the two doctors in white coats who had been following the group stepped forward and directly stood in front of her, keeping her away from Nikita.

One of the doctors looked at her with cold eyes and spoke up in a cold voice: "Miss, please leave at once. If you continue to make a scene here, don't blame us for being impolite."

"What are you doing? Do you mean I can't even say a few words to her? Why are you stopping me? Get out of my way!" When had Margot even been threatened like this? Her face darkened down.

After two male doctors in white coats took a look at each other, they went straight forward and directly lifted her up on both sides of her. Then with Margot's screaming, they threw her into the flower bed on the side.

On the side of the road.

Chapter 950 The Shameless Medical Dispute

The driver had got out of the car and waited on the side for a long time. Seeing Dr. Charles and others come out, he immediately turned around and opened the door for them.

Dr. Charles and Director Frank waited for Nikita to get in the car first. Then they followed up in tandem.

There was also a black off-road vehicle parked behind. But no one could tell the brand. There were also several people standing next to the off-road vehicle, who were tall and wearing sunglasses and black suits.

The other doctors got into the latter car.

Those men in black also got into the latter car.

Soon, two black off-road vehicles drove away in tandem.

The flower bed was watered.

After Margot was thrown into the flower bed, as she was just about to get up, she slipped down and fell down heavily again. The expensive silk shirt of a luxury brand on her was hooked by a branch. It was torn open with a long hole. And her head, face and hands were also stained with a lot of wet soil.

She lay prone on the ground in a gesture which couldn't look more embarrassed.

When there were people walking past her, they all took a look at her and whispered to each other: “What’s the matter with this woman? I just saw two doctors carrying her and throwing her in the flower bed.”

“Is she a medical dispute profiteer?”

“It could be the case! In the past two years, there have been more and more shameless medical dispute profiteers. I just saw on this morning. But I didn’t expect to run into another one in the afternoon! We should call the police to arrest those people. After being locked up in the prison for a few years, these shameless people will know how to behave!”

“Ah? Is this woman a medical dispute profiteer?” Another pedestrian stared at Margot’s outfit and spoke up in a low voice: “Look at her clothes. They are all designer clothes. And they cost a lot of money. Since she is so rich, why would she come here to be a medical dispute profiteer?”

“Who knows whether her clothes are high-quality copycat products or not? Even if they are really designer clothes, it doesn’t represent anything. Maybe she bought those clothes with the money she earned as a medical dispute profiteer.”

A group of people stood not far from the flower bed.

Although they kept their voices low, all their words reached Margot’s ears.

After falling down two times in succession, Margot was originally a little dizzy. When she heard several women say that she was a professional medical dispute profiteer, she was so angry that her face turned blue. And she almost suffered a cerebral hemorrhage.

She felt stuffy in her chest and couldn’t vent her anger. Her face turned blue and purple and couldn’t look more gloomy.

And there were more and more onlookers gathering around.

With those two claiming that she was a medical dispute profiteer, other people who came to rubberneck took it seriously. And they didn't bother to think about whether their words were true or not. With the rumor spread over, people who came over all believed she was a real medical dispute profiteer.

A group of people pointed to Margot, who was still lying prone on the flower bed with her face turning blue and purple, and began to scold him: "These medical dispute profiteers are really crazy about money. Every day, they expect to get rich by coming to the hospital to extort money. In my opinion, the police should crack down on this bad behavior. Anyone who dares to come to the hospital to extort money and make trouble should be taken away and take some punishment!" "She looked decent. I didn't expect her to be such a shameless medical dispute profiteer! Bah, so disgusting!" Margot looked up with a livid face. Seeing a group of pedestrians around her who kept pointing at her, she bit her lips hard.
