

The Good 841

Chapter 841: Life is a Tragedy (2)

Other than the missing test subjects, No.1 and No.2, they still had eight complete test subjects with them. Coupled with Luo Fan, who was in reserve, there were in total nine of them. Such a large Pearl Milkstone was more than enough for them to fuse with.

“It is rare to find such a large Pearl Milkstone. What is the origin of this pearl? Is there a problem with it?” The black-robed man mumbled. He did not want to spend such a large sum of money to just buy a counterfeit product.

Ouyang Huanyu said, “We are not the only ones who have thought of using Pearl Milkstones. During the war between the devils and the gods, the devils used Pearl Milkstones to increase their strength. Back then, the devils were truly unyielding. They sent troops into the deep sea to capture a large number of merfolks. Then they gathered all the captured merfolks and massacred them in cold blood. When they died, their tears condensed into large Pearl Milkstones like this one in front of us. However, most of those Pearl Milkstones had been consumed by the devils, leaving only a few left in the world. I didn’t expect to find one of them again.”

There was a trace of regret in Ouyang Huanyu’s tone.

Back then, he regretted his decision to abandon test subject No.1. Not only did he lose the most perfect physique for their experiment, but he had also lost the most important item. As a result, the test subjects that they had created from then on could only combine the powers of the seven races, losing the power of the God race.

If they had this Pearl Milkstone back then, perhaps that tragedy would have never happened.

“The devils are surely ruthless.” Jun Mo sighed.

Merfolks lived in the deep sea for most of their lives. And if humans planned to invade like how the devils did, they would not be able to withstand the water pressure with their human physiques unless they had gone through the second class promotion. However, the devils’ natural racial advantage allowed them to withstand the water pressure easily.

With such an advantage, a large number of devils easily snuck into the deep sea and captured the merfolks. It was definitely a scene filled with rivers of blood.

The merfolks were a race that stood aloof from worldly affairs. If the Devil race had not taken them captive, they would still be at the bottom of the sea during the war between gods and devils. They would not have cared about the conflicts on the surface. However, after the Devil race reached their hands to them, they had no choice but to join the war.

They would use the power of the sea to assist the God race in devouring the devils in the coastal areas.

“It is hard to believe that a fierce race like the Devil race would be sent back to the underworld.” Jun Mo had a certain degree of fanaticism for the Devil race, as he advocated the strong.

The black-robed man said, "The God race had the help of humans, merfolk, dragons, elves, and dwarves, while the only ally the Devil race had was the undead. Even so, the God race suffered genocide after they repelled the Devil race. You can imagine how terrifying the fighting strength of the Devil race was."

It was hard to believe that the alliance of two races was on par with the alliance of the six major races.

Even though the devils had been repelled, no one believed that the God race was stronger than the devils. Otherwise, why would the God race perish before the devils perished?

Ouyang Huanyu chuckled when he saw their admiration for devils. "You only know half of the truth."

"Why do you say that?" The two of them turned and looked at Ouyang Huanyu at the same time. In fact, they had known the old man for hundreds of years, but they still had not figured out his strength and identity. The only thing they knew was that Ouyang Huanyu knew everything that had happened in the Brilliance Continent like the back of his hand.

Ouyang Huanyu caressed the smooth Pearl Milkstone and said, "The God race had fallen because they were few in number, while the devils survived only because they were more numerous."

Chapter 842: Life is a Tragedy (3)

"Even though the God race was revered by many races and possessed powerful godly powers, they had a fatal weakness. With that one weakness, the God race would not be able to sustain for long, even if the devils had not attacked."

"The God race had a fatal weakness?" Both of them could not believe it. The race that could seal the passage between the underworld and the continent had a fatal weakness?

Ouyang Huanyu smiled and said, "Even though the God race was powerful, their fertility rate was abysmally low. Even though they had a long lifespan, they could not avoid death when it came. However, at that time, it had been thousands of years since a newborn was born in the God race. It seemed like they had lost the ability to give birth to the next generation. Therefore, even if the Devil race didn't fight against the God race, the God race would still be completely extinct after tens of thousands of years."

The Devil race was the most fertile race among the eight major races. In comparison, the number of gods who could not conceive a successor had been increasing while the number of devils were continuously growing.

At the start of the war, tens of millions of devil soldiers stepped onto the battlefield against a few thousand gods.

A few thousand against tens of millions. It was hard to believe.

That was the real reason why the God race had fallen. It was not that they could not defeat the Devil race, but their numbers were too low.

If the gods were as numerous as the devils, the Devil race would never dare to invade the continent, no matter how courageous they were.

The fighting capability of the God race was unmatched among the eight major races!

Demons were ranked second, followed by dragons, undead, elves, merfolk, and dwarves. The humans were obviously the weakest.

Ouyang Huanyu started to detect the integrative power in the Pearl Milkstone as he spoke. He could only distribute it after he had grasped the quantity of it.

However, his expression soon darkened.

“Murong Yuan!” Ouyang Huanyu called out in a low voice that was filled with displeasure.

The black-robed man shivered when Ouyang Huanyu called out his real name. “What?”

They had known each other for hundreds of years, and he had only seen Ouyang Huanyu’s frightening gaze when the test subject No.1 disappeared.

“What did you buy?!” Ouyang Huanyu smashed the Pearl Milkstone into pieces and glared at the innocent Murong Yuan.

Ouyang Huanyu smashed five million gold coins into dust, and Murong Yuan’s expression immediately froze.

“What’s wrong?” Jun Mo also noticed that something was amiss.

“What’s wrong? The integrative power in the Pearl Milkstone has been used up. This is merely a useless rock!” Ouyang Huanyu’s breathing became labored.

“How is that possible?!” Murong Yuan stood up and looked at the pile of powder in disbelief. For the sake of buying it, he had suffered a lot. So after he bought the Pearl Milkstone, he immediately placed it in his interspatial ring and did not check it carefully.

But since Ouyang Huanyu said it was fake, then it must be true.

“Idiot! You can’t even accomplish such a simple task!” Ouyang Huanyu scolded him with a darkened expression. Murong Yuan had been too careless. If he had checked the Pearl Milkstone before this, he would have definitely found something odd about and told them about it. However, the kid did not say anything, and that made Ouyang Huanyu think that Murong Yuan had checked the integrative power in the Pearl Milkstone and was prepared to use it for their experiments. In the end, it was all for nothing.

Murong Yuan did not dare to speak back as he knew that he had messed up the mission.

Chapter 843: Life is a Tragedy (4)

Ouyang Huanyu and the others were furious, but they also knew that it was unlikely that the devils would leave a large Pearl Milkstone unused. In the end, they could only admit defeat.

How would they feel if they knew that the integrative power in the Pearl Milkstone was actually used up by an unscrupulous thief a few days ago?

“Forget it. Maybe it was used by devils. You can’t blame Murong Yuan for that.” Jun Mo tried to smooth things over for Murong Yuan at the right time. Compared to Ouyang Huanyu, he had a better relationship with Murong Yuan. They could be regarded as fellow disciples.

“Hmph.” Ouyang Huanyu flicked his sleeves and glared at Murong Yuan.

“Let’s forget about this. Also, how is your investigation of Sun Never Sets going?”

Murong Yuan looked at Ouyang Huanyu with a strange feeling in his heart. Ouyang Huanyu usually gave off a gentle feeling, and he rarely got angry. Even if he and Jun Mo fought, the old man would not have any reaction. However, he did not expect that he would get so angry today.

As expected, Ouyang Huanyu’s gentle temperament would change as long as it was related to anything about the test subjects.

“I entered Sun Never Sets the day before the auction. According to my investigation, other than the members from the five great aristocratic families of the Longxuan Empire, there are no other experts in the city. Furthermore, Shen Feng and Shen Ling of the Vermilion Bird Family have moved to Sun Never Sets,” Murong Yuan said.

“The Vermilion Bird Family is preparing to move their base to Sun Never Sets. Something must have happened in the capital. Otherwise, they would not have made such a bold move.” Ouyang Huanyu narrowed his eyes and looked at Murong Yuan thoughtfully.

“Have someone from the Longxuan Empire investigate if anything has happened to the Vermilion Bird Family in the capital.”

“Alright.” Murong Yuan nodded.

Jun Mo looked at Ouyang Huanyu. He was quite concerned about Shen Yanxiao.

“I say, now that our previous plans have failed, we will be unable to make a move against Sun Never Sets again. After this auction is over, the reputation of Sun Never Sets will increase by leaps and bounds. I’m afraid your plan will fail.” Jun Mo propped his chin and looked at Ouyang Huanyu with ill intentions.

Ouyang Huanyu frowned. He knew that Jun Mo was referring to his plan of suppressing Shen Yanxiao and forcing her to submit.

“I didn’t expect you to be so useless.” Ouyang Huanyu sneered.

Jun Mo’s expression changed. He was the one who had cast the curse, but the entire city was in perfect condition. Did that not mean he was incapable?

“Since you think I am useless, why don’t you do it yourself?” Jun Mo looked at Ouyang Huanyu with displeasure.

Ouyang Huanyu had never personally taken action. Most of the time, he and Murong Yuan would do the dirty work.

Ouyang Huanyu said slowly, “No hurry.”

“Not hurry? Ha, if you had not insisted on keeping Shen Yanxiao alive, I would have brought my men and massacred the entire population of Sun Never Sets.” Jun Mo was upset. He had already promised Luo Fan, and it would not look good on him if he were to fall flat on his promise. If he could use his usual methods, why would he need to go through so much trouble to cast a curse on her? As long as he could get some men from the organization, it would be enough to cause trouble for the entire city.

Ouyang Huanyu shot a glance at Jun Mo and said, "I must keep her alive. If you dare to attack her on your own accord, I will not show you any mercy."

"Oh? You don't want to do anything to her, and I'm not allowed to even mess with her. What are we supposed to do, huh?" Jun Mo was already somewhat dissatisfied.

Ouyang Huanyu said, "Killing is not my aim. I want that little girl to surrender herself to me. So now is not the time to make a move. Only when she ascends the peak with Sun Never Sets will she fall into despair the moment everything she loves is destroyed."

Chapter 844: Beaten Up until You're Convinced (1)

Sun Never Sets was developing at a rapid pace. After five days of hard work, the guests, who stayed back in the city after the auction, had finally left, but soon, more people would definitely enter the city.

Shen Yanxiao had also started to prepare for the siege on the second city. The result of Su He and Jia Lan's discussion with the demons in the eastern cities was a tragic one. The demons had been independent for a long time, and they did not intend to go under Shen Yanxiao's reign. As for the dark elements, the demons there had heard about it, but they were reluctant to let go of the days when they were in charge. They were unwilling to cooperate.

The previous time demons from Sun Never Sets came to negotiate with them, they kept their promise and did not attack the people coming to the auction because they wanted to give the demons who came some face. However, that did not mean that they would join their ranks.

It seemed her gentle persuasion had no effect, but Shen Yanxiao did not intend to give up.

'Stop joking. I am only discussing with you because I am giving you face. Do you really think that I won't dare to tear you apart?'

In Oriental City, there were only about 40 advanced-ranked demons, hundreds of intermediate-ranked demons, and thousands of low-ranked demons. Even though there were not many of them, they were unwilling to yield.

However, to Shen Yanxiao, that amount was not even enough to fill the gaps between her teeth.

"Go and get Enchantress and the rest of them." Shen Yanxiao crossed her legs as she sat in her mansion with a crafty expression.

The five beasts who sat beside her silently lit incense for the demons in Oriental City.

Brother, good luck to you!

That afternoon, Shen Yanxiao marched towards Oriental City with Vermilion Bird and Lan Fengli.

The five beasts followed behind them. They wanted to see how Shen Yanxiao would use violence to force the demons to submit.

Oriental City had been devastated by the war, with half of its city walls collapsing on itself. The state of the city was even worse than how Sun Never Sets initially looked.

It was such a run-down place, but those demons still regarded it as a treasure?

Shen Yanxiao stood near the gates of Oriental City and cleared her throat before using magic to transmit her voice. "Demons of Oriental City, listen up. I am Shen Yanxiao, City Lord of Sun Never Sets. I will give you an hour to choose between surrender and resistance. If you do not give me a satisfactory answer within an hour, I will not be polite."

Shen Yanxiao took the initiative. She was dressed in red as she stood on the vast land, facing the wind with an imposing aura.

The demons behind her looked at their lord's valiant and spirited posture with admiration.

As expected, their lord was mighty and domineering. It was as if she was challenging the enemy to surrender!

The demons in Oriental City were confused when they heard Shen Yanxiao's warning. Was she talking about them?

Suddenly, a group of demons roared as they climbed up the broken city wall to look at the human girl who stood at the forefront of the intruders. Their eyes were filled with curiosity and doubts.

Had this world gone mad?

A human dared to challenge demons in their territory?

Declare war! That was right!

Shen Yanxiao's words were not meant to please them, but to provoke them!

She had been too tactless with her words that she had forgotten to use a gentle tone.

The most powerful demon in the city was called Qiao Chu, and he was a powerful advanced-ranked demon. All the demons in the city listened to his commands, and he immediately went to the city gates when he heard Shen Yanxiao's voice.

Qiao Chu was speechless as he looked at the intruders near his city gates.

That little girl had brought a group of demons to his doorstep to declare war on him. She was too bold!

Chapter 845: Beaten Up until You're Convinced (2)

Demons had been accustomed to view humans as food. But how would they feel if someone were to view them as food instead?

In any case, Qiao Chu was speechless.

"Little girl, you are quite bold to come and cause a ruckus! So what if you have unified Sun Never Sets? I don't care why the demons in Sun Never Sets would submit to you, but this Oriental City is my territory, and I am not interested in playing house with a human brat like you.” Qiao Chu was a very handsome demon. And if it were not for the advanced-ranked demons behind Shen Yanxiao, he would have devoured the delicious human. If not, why would he waste his breath on her?

Oriental City...

Wait a minute, when did his city have a name?

Did her parents not teach the little kid to have manners?

“Play house?” Shen Yanxiao narrowed her eyes and slowly revealed a smile.

“So, your answer is a no?”

Qiao Chu waved his hand impatiently. His rejection could not be more obvious.

“Very well.” The smile on Shen Yanxiao’s lips deepened, and a nasty glint flickered in her eyes.

Suddenly, she turned around and walked back towards her entourage. Qiao Chu was momentarily stunned. That kid was so easy to talk to? She was already prepared to return home?

The demons in Sun Never Sets were too easy to fool!

However, he soon realized how naive his thoughts were.

Shen Yanxiao returned to her entourage. When she saw the demons’ expectant gaze, she turned her head slightly and said to Vermilion Bird, “Blast them!”

Naturally, Vermilion Bird knew what Shen Yanxiao meant. The next second, he transformed into a cloud of flames as he soared into the sky, revealing his true form in mid-air.

Vermilion Bird spread his flaming wings, and fireballs the size of human heads flew towards the Oriental City at lightning speed.

A rain of fire descended from the sky, and the boundless sea of fire instantly covered the entirety of Oriental City.

Before Qiao Chu could step back into his house, he saw scarlet flames burning in front of him.

What the heck!

She was not retreating. She was preparing to use violence to solve the problem!

“Qi Xia, Yang Xi, Ah Yu, Nazhi, Xiaowei,” Shen Yanxiao ordered again.

“Understood.”

“Understood!”

“Leave it to me!”

“No problem!”

“Alas.”

The five beasts summoned their magical beasts at the same time, and the five mythical beasts appeared in front of Oriental City. For a moment, the sky changed color, and the small city was tightly surrounded.

Qiao Chu stared at the six mythical beasts in shock, and for a moment, he could not react.

What the heck! Mythical beasts!

It was not the time for a war between gods and devils, so where did all those mythical beasts come from?

Qiao Chu wanted to cry. He felt that Shen Yanxiao was being unreasonable. If she had any objections, they could talk about it slowly. What she was doing was not civil at all.

Even though advanced-ranked demons were powerful, they were still not comparable to mythical beasts. They did not even have an advantage in terms of size.

Plums of flames, bolts of lightning, and swarms of thunderclouds swept across Oriental City, as if a thousand troops were sweeping through an ordinary village. For a moment, the entire city wailed as the demons covered their heads and fled like rats.

Sounds of cracking and snapping could be heard one after another. It was as if everyone was punching Qiao Chu's face.

He had thought that demons were the most unreasonable race in the world. However, he did not expect to encounter a beast that was comparable to a bandit!

Chapter 846: Beaten Up until You're Convinced (3)

Qiao Chu wanted to cry. In the face of six mythical beasts, he would be beaten up even if he summoned all the demons in the city.

Where did this tough girl come from? She was even crazier than the most savage of demons. Was she here just to toy with them?

Shen Yanxiao once again used her strength to prove that strength was the only way to go in this world.

Even if Qiao Chu wanted to resist, he would have to see his opponent's strength first.

He believed that his fighting strength was not to be belittled. He could even squeeze into the top five if he were in Sun Never Sets. However...

It was an army of mythical beasts!

What the heck!

In any case, he now had to be smart and adapt to the situation. Otherwise, even if he lost his territory, he would still be skinned by that cruel human child.

Qiao Chu decisively turned to look at Shen Yanxiao, who was in the crowd. He lifted his long pendulum and ran towards her.

Shen Yanxiao crossed her arms calmly and watched as the pale-faced Qiao Chu ran towards her.

“City Lord! I will do it! I will do it!” Qiao Chu was on the verge of tears and snot was leaking out of his nose as he agreed to Shen Yanxiao’s earlier proposal. He had underestimated his opponent.

However, it was not entirely his fault. After all, he could not foresee the future. How would he know that a human would evolve into a prodigy like Shen Yanxiao?

“Please stop with the bombardment. I will surrender, alright?” The demons in the city were his subordinates, after all. Qiao Chu wanted to cry, but no tears came out.

Shen Yanxiao raised her eyebrows and looked at the tragic Qiao Chu. “Really?”

Qiao Chu nodded like he was pecking chicken. That little girl had violently suppressed him the moment she appeared. Even if he wanted to play dirty, he would not have the chance to do so. He did not want to have any intimate contact with the mythical beasts.

Qiao Chu wanted to cry. Shen Yanxiao was too unpredictable.

Shen Yanxiao smiled with satisfaction and ordered Vermilion Bird to stop the bombardment.

Not long after, the six mythical beasts obediently returned to their masters.

When they looked at Oriental City again, they saw a tragic sight. After Shen Yanxiao’s destruction, it was practically razed to the ground.

Her fighting strength was simply beyond comparison.

Under Shen Yanxiao’s savage suppression, Qiao Chu obediently surrendered. Even though Vermilion Bird and the others had caused some damage, they knew that those demons would still be Shen Yanxiao’s strength in the future. Therefore, they were careful with their attacks. Even though the battlefield looked ghastly, there were not many demons who were injured.

A lot of them ran around in fright, with most of them fleeing to the underground city.

“I will leave the demons in Oriental City to you. Freud will explain the rules to you, and tell them to behave themselves. I will send someone to rebuild the city in a while.” Shen Yanxiao decided to name the city directly.

Qiao Chu was like a bird startled by the mere twang of a bow. How could he dare to utter a single word of complaint? The demons from Sun Never Sets sneered at him when they saw his fawning attitude.

Stupid, how stupid.

How dare they oppose their lord? Did he want to die?

The demons were glad that they had cooperated with Shen Yanxiao when she conquered Sun Never Sets. Otherwise, they would have followed her around like the unlucky Qiao Chu.

However, those demons did not know that Shen Yanxiao only had three mythical beasts in her hands. At most, there would be four if she broke Lan Fengli’s outer appearance. It would be unrealistic to expect her to attack Sun Never Sets just like she did to Oriental City.

Chapter 847: Beaten Up until You’re Convinced (4)

The surrender of Oriental City meant that Shen Yanxiao's plan to expand her territory had officially begun. Since Qiao Chu was familiar with the demons in the city, she had no intention of bringing him back to Sun Never Sets to train him. However, since he had only behaved after they had fought, Shen Yanxiao would not allow him to do as he pleased. She would transfer half of the demons from Oriental City to Sun Never Sets, and then she would send over a thousand demons from Sun Never Sets to live in Oriental City. She would also send Jia Lan and Jia He to oversee the city. Even if Qiao Chu wanted to do something, he would have to think about it carefully.

However, demons were simple-minded, so Shen Yanxiao did not have to worry about that. The only thing she had to worry about was for the demons in Oriental City to gradually familiarize themselves with humans and to no longer treat them as food. The demons from Sun Never Sets were very experienced in that aspect, enough to subtly influence the demons in the city.

Even though the Jia brothers were no match for Qiao Chu in a one-on-one fight, their combined strength was still pretty impressive.

Shen Yanxiao had given them a lot of power, so they could beat him up if he did not behave himself.

Since she had conquered Oriental City, Shen Yanxiao decided to send Su He and Yin Jiuchen to the Scar of Oblivion to purchase slaves.

After all, the size of Oriental City could not compare to Sun Never Sets. Therefore, Shen Yanxiao only allowed them to purchase 1500 slaves, with 500 of them being women.

Now, it was time to rebuild the new city. Once all four cities were reclaimed by her, Shen Yanxiao would buy a large number of female slaves and revoke their slave status so that they could live happily like any other ordinary person.

Su He and Yin Jiuchen were more familiar with the Scar of Oblivion than Shen Yanxiao. And soon, they returned in less than half a month.

Just like the first batch of slaves, the slaves had looks of despair and numbness on their faces.

Shen Yanxiao was not stupid enough to immediately ask them to build Oriental City. Instead, she sent a thousand of them to Sun Never Sets.

After she resolved those issues, Shen Yanxiao decided to send Pei Yuan and Long Yue back to the Longxuan Empire. Pei Yuan no longer had his previous prejudice, and he was very polite to Shen Yanxiao. When he realized that Shen Yanxiao was finally willing to let them go, the old man finally came back to his senses.

Shen Yanxiao never intended to use Prince Long Yue to threaten the Emperor in the first place. She only wanted to protect Sun Never Sets.

The arrogant Pei Yuan admired Shen Yanxiao's achievements during his stay in Sun Never Sets. If he had not seen it with his own eyes, he would not have believed that a fourteen-year-old girl could shoulder such a huge responsibility.

Long Yue was somewhat reluctant to leave. He could not bear to part with the citizens of Sun Never Sets, those stupid demons, and even...

Long Yue clenched his fist as he looked at the petite figure at the city gates. He remembered his promise that he would keep in the future.

Pei Yuan and Long Yue's departure did not bring any changes to Sun Never Sets. The only ones who felt sorry for them were the advanced-ranked demons who were familiar with Long Yue. They thought that the human kid was quite adorable, as he was not a thick-skinned person. He would turn red with embarrassment after a few teasing words.

It was rare to see such shy emotions among demons.

When everyone was ready, Shen Yanxiao sent the men to Oriental City as per her previous plan. She also tasked Su He and Yin Jiuchen to take care of the new batch of men.

With the previous slaves as their role model, the group's ability to accept their new situation had improved.

Everything went according to Shen Yanxiao's plan.

Chapter 848: The God Realm Appears (1)

Shen Yanxiao waited for the merchants to arrive, but before she could meet them, she met a Buddha.

When Shen Yanxiao received the news, she was in her mansion with the five beasts as they discussed when they should attack the next city, when a member of Cave Wolves Mercenary Group suddenly rushed in.

"City Lord!"

"Hmm?" Shen Yanxiao shot a glance at the anxious young man.

"A guest has come." The young mercenary was at a loss.

"Okay, but why are you so excited?" Shen Yanxiao said.

"It's no ordinary guest!"

"Oh? Tell me about it."

"It's ... it's the sage from the God Realm ..."

Bang! Tang Nazhi, who was there to gossip, suddenly plopped onto the floor.

This piece of news was somewhat explosive!

Back then, when guardian beasts of the five great aristocratic families had been dormant for hundreds of years, it was only thanks to the sage that they were awakened. The sage's status was even higher than the leaders of the four countries, and he rarely left the God Realm. So why did he come to Sun Never Sets today?

The first thought that came to their minds was that old bastard Pei Yuan had broken his promise and revealed the secret!

The image of the God Realm was sacred and inviolable, and they despised demons. Killing demons was their favorite thing to do.

The sage had mysteriously appeared in the Forsaken Land where demons ran rampant. The first thought that came to their minds was ...

The God Realm was about to start a war!

If it were in the past, Shen Yanxiao would have no interest in that. However, the demons in the eastern region were her future subordinates. She would never allow anyone to spoil her plans!

Shen Yanxiao stood up and said to the five beasts, "Follow me. Xiao Feng, inform Freud and the rest not to loiter around the ground for the time being. Return to the underground city and wait there." It did not matter why the sage had come to Sun Never Sets. It would be a fatal blow to her if the demons were to confront the sage.

She dared to harm the prince and the state teacher of the Longxuan Empire, but as for the sage...

What a joke! He came from the most savage organization in the entire Brilliance Continent, and no one knew how powerful the God Realm was. Even Shen Yanxiao did not want to provoke such a troublesome opponent.

The God Realm enjoyed great prestige and admiration in the Brilliance Continent. Even the rulers of the four countries could not compare to them. Once the God Realm convicted her of her crimes, she would become the number one villain in the Brilliance Continent.

Lan Fengli followed Shen Yanxiao's instructions and instructed the demons. Shen Yanxiao then brought the five beasts and her adorable mythical beast to meet the guest.

He would have to pay for causing trouble!

In the public plaza of Sun Never Sets, a team of more than twenty people stood under the sun. The handsome man in the lead wore a white robe, and he had a pure smile on his face. A petite girl followed behind him, and she stood half a step behind him. Behind her were more than twenty expressionless god envoys in white robes.

The young lady, who stood behind the sage, was visibly excited when she looked towards the City Lord's Mansion with her watery eyes as her small hands clenched tightly.

"Mengmeng, you don't have to be so anxious. Shen Yanxiao is now the city lord, so don't lose your sense of propriety in front of her." The gentle sage laughed as he looked at the overly excited little girl.

Nangong Mengmeng nodded in embarrassment. "Yes, Your Highness."

But even after she said that, she continued to be excited.

Shen Yanxiao was her number one idol, so how could she, as a fan, calm down when she was about to see her idol?

Chapter 849: The God Realm Appears (2)

Du Lang and Uncle Nine had a complicated expression on their faces as they stood about ten steps away from Shen Yanxiao. They had all heard of the God Realm. For Uncle Nine, it was not a big deal since it had some relations with his past. However, Du Lang and the other mercenaries believed that the God Realm was a sacred place, and it was not something they could step foot in. They had not even seen a god envoy, let alone the sage.

When the sage first came to the city, he had shocked them.

Du Lang and the six wolves were excited for a while. They had finally met the legendary sage. However, as soon as their excitement faded, they knew that things were not looking good.

The God Realm was famous for killing the demons as they pleased. And Sun Never Sets lacked anything but demons. Currently, there were more than thirty thousand demons in the underground city. If the God Realm were to know about that, would they not turn Sun Never Sets into a battlefield?

Therefore, Du Lang immediately sent his men to inform Shen Yanxiao. He also ordered his men to find Freud so that he could bring the demons underground to lie low.

Even though Du Lang was a mercenary, Shen Yanxiao had pushed him to learn matters other than just fighting. He had been in Sun Never Sets for so long that he had learned how to manage the city under her influence. The members of the Cave Wolves Mercenary Group often called Du Lang 'lord' to tease him.

Even though they were worried, Du Lang and Uncle Nine had to admit that the God Realm's reputation was not to be belittled. Their white robes fluttered in the wind, looking as if they were sacred and inviolable. That was why Du Lang and Uncle Nine admired them at first glance. The God Realm's good reputation in the Brilliance Continent was not only due to their strength but also their natural disposition.

It was just as the rumors said. Everyone in the God Realm had the aura of a god.

Not everyone could imitate their natural disposition. Even the aristocratic families and the royal family would find it hard to nurture such an outstanding character.

But each one of the god envoys in the God Realm had the same temperament. For the first time, Uncle Nine and Du Lang felt that they were like country bumpkins.

If Shen Yanxiao were to hear their thoughts, she would definitely whip them to the ground.

Shen Yanxiao rushed to the public square with her small entourage. When the sage awakened the mythical beasts for the five great aristocratic families, everyone except Li Xiaowei had met the sage that had unparalleled presence. However, they had mixed feelings when they met him again.

Shen Yanxiao only hoped that the sage was not there to cause her trouble.

"I did not know that the sage would come here. I apologize for not going out to welcome you. Please forgive me." Even though she was filled with doubts, Shen Yanxiao still put on a polite front. She had a bright smile on her beautiful face. She looked like a stunning beauty that could kill anyone with just her appearance.

The moment Nangong Mengmeng saw Shen Yanxiao, she could no longer remain calm. Her eyes sparkled as she rubbed her hands excitedly. She wanted to pounce on Shen Yanxiao, but the sage's glare stopped her from doing so.

"I have troubled you. I came without informing you." The sage had a good temper. The smile that blossomed on his already lethal face was enough to make people want to worship him.

The God Realm had always been associated with the God race, and the sage of the past were all like gods.

Nangong Mengmeng was stopped by the sage. She bit her handkerchief discreetly and stared at Shen Yanxiao with her bright green eyes. It was as if she wanted to use her gaze to convey her admiration for Shen Yanxiao.

Her idol was so beautiful that she wanted to touch her.

'His Highness is so annoying. He cannot understand the thoughts of a young girl like me at all.'

Chapter 850: The God Realm Appears (3)

Perhaps it was because Nangong Mengmeng's gaze was too intense that Shen Yanxiao finally noticed her presence.

She was surprised when she saw her.

Was she not the girl who had made that declaration back in Saint Laurent Academy? Why was she in a group from the God Realm?

Shen Yanxiao did not have a bad impression of Nangong Mengmeng. However, the way she looked at her made her tremble. She was sure that "Shen Yanxiao" had not met Nangong Mengmeng. So why was she staring at her so blatantly?

"It must have been a long journey for the sage. Please take a rest at the City Lord's Mansion." No matter how unhappy Shen Yanxiao was with the people from the God Realm, she could not possibly chase them away right now.

She would send them to the City Lord's Mansion to keep an eye on them so that they would not accidentally discover any traces of demons. If they did, it would be a lot of trouble.

"Thank you." The sage looked at Shen Yanxiao gently and nodded.

"Please." Shen Yanxiao invited the God Realm's entourage into the City Lord's Mansion. The five beasts also accompanied her after they exchanged friendly glances with the sage. When they arrived at the City Lord's Mansion, the sage sat on the main seat while Shen Yanxiao sat at the side.

"May I know why the sage has paid a visit to us? If you need anything, I will do my best to fulfill your wishes." Shen Yanxiao acted as an accommodating host.

The sage chuckled. The smile in his eyes deepened as he looked at the serious Shen Yanxiao.

“The Forsaken Land is located in a remote area. I came here because of some strange movements from the demon beasts. I predict that the once-in-a-century beast tide would come soon, so I came here to take a look.”

Demonic beasts were not demons. Even though demons had different ranks and different minds, they could still become intelligent creatures. However, it was different for demon beasts.

Demonic beasts were also from the Devil race’s territory, and they were somewhat similar to the magical beasts in the human world. However, demon beasts had a savage nature and they loved to kill. However, advanced-ranked demon beasts could not transform into humans like magical beasts. Demonic beasts were like true beasts, only blood and food could stimulate their ferocity.

When the devils retreated underground, the passage to the human world was sealed. However, the demons and demon beasts that they had brought with them remained.

Though Shen Yanxiao had the intention to subdue demons, for demon beasts, there was only one word for them—kill!

Demonic beasts were inhumane and they did not have a high IQ. They were like wild beasts. Even demons of the same origin would be targeted by them.

Compared to the demon beasts, demons were considered gentle.

The most terrifying thing was that the physique and ferocity of the demon beasts far exceeded that of magical beasts. If a demon beast of the same rank were to fight with a magical beast of equal strength, the magical beast would undoubtedly suffer a crushing defeat. However, the demon beasts preferred to live in groups. After the devils were repelled, the demon beast stayed in the Forsaken Land and did not wander around. Otherwise, the havoc that the demon beasts would cause would far exceed that of the demons.

The four countries tried not to provoke demon beasts if they could. The Forsaken Land was abandoned not only because of the demons, but also because of the demon beasts.

The demon beasts resided deep in the southeastern region of the Forsaken Land. There lay an extremely vast forest. The demon beasts there would very rarely appear. However, the forest was a restricted area in the Forsaken Land. Not even demons dared to approach it, let alone humans.

It would not have mattered if the demon beasts had stayed in the forest obediently. However, every hundred years, the demon beasts in the forest would swarm out of the forest. Not only would they attack the demons and humans in the Forsaken Land, but they would also attack the various countries’ borders.
