

Chapter 149

Juliette Yun!

She had found Cindy and Angela. What did she want?

Jason raised his eyebrows. His face looked cold as ice. He said nervously, 'I'll go back immediately!'

Before he could explain, Jason quickly called a cab and rushed to the hospital.

He had drunk a lot of wine, so he was unable to drive.

In less than ten minutes, Jason arrived at the hospital. He rushed out of the car and went straight to Angela's ward.

He pushed the door open and saw Cindy chatting and laughing with a graceful looking woman. The atmosphere was unspeakably harmonious.

'Jason, you're back.' Cindy stood up with a gentle and calming smile on her face.

Juliette was sitting opposite her.

Juliette was dressed in luxurious clothes with an air of elegance about her. It was as if she had been born looking this noble. She was just sitting there, but she had an aura that would make people feel that she was like a queen.

She was in her forties, but she looked like a gorgeous girl in her twenties. The corners of her mouth showed a smile, and her gaze was as delightful as a spring breeze, making it difficult for people to show any disgust or fear.

This was Juliette, a woman who had the appearance of an angel, but was very evil deep down inside.

Jason nodded and looked at Cindy and Angela who were both lying soundly on the bed. Then his eyes fell on Juliette.

Juliette also got up at that moment, carrying a black LV custom-made bag in her hand. She turned around and smiled gently, which would give anyone a warm feeling. She said very calmly, 'Jason, don't you want to introduce them to me?'

Jason's face turned cold and he frowned. He looked at Juliette, 'This is my wife, Cindy. This is my daughter, Angela.'

After that, Jason looked at Cindy and walked up to her. He whispered, 'Take good care of Angela. I have something to talk to talk to her.'

Then, Jason looked at Juliette coldly, 'Let's talk outside.'

He left.

Juliette turned around and nodded slightly at Cindy. Then she looked at Angela on the bed and said, 'I'll visit you again. Angela is very cute. I hope she can be a happy little princess for years to come.'

Cindy also nodded politely. She pushed her hair back, 'Thank you.'

Then, Juliette turned around and walked out of the ward with graceful steps.

In the hospital's rest area.

Eight bodyguards in black suits and sunglasses sunglasses, had cleared out the place. They were placed in each corner and stood guard.

Jason stood by the window with his hands in his trouser pockets, looking out at the scenery on the outside the window.

Juliette who was behind him walked over slowly and said with a smile, 'Your father wants you to go back. There is not much time left for him. The Smith family needs you to inherit everything.'

Juliette's temperament and attitude was totally different from what it had been just now when she was in the ward.

Although she had a smile on her face, it was a little unnerving.

Titus Smith didn't have much time left.

Jason's heart trembled, and an unnoticeable glint flashed in his eyes.

'Why did you come to find Cindy and Angela?' Jason turned around and asked coldly.

'She is the young madam of the Smith family, and Angela is the young lady. As the Smith family's second wife, I should come and help your father to check whether his daughter-in-law is qualified to be a member of the Smith family.' Juliette's smile gave people an irresistible feeling. She was extremely gentle, but Jason deeply understood that this woman's smile was very dangerous.

'She is my wife, and Angela is my daughter. Of course she is qualified to enter the Smith family. I hope you don't intervene with these things, and don't try to make trouble for me,' Jason said coldly.

Juliette smiled and took out a small brocade box from her bag. There was a small gold bracelet in it. She said, 'Sister left this to me before she left. She said if you get married and have a child, this is for the child.'

Jason frowned and he looked at the little golden bangle in Juliette's hand.

That was his mother's belonging.

After receiving the small gold bracelet, Jason said coldly, 'Is there anything else? If there is nothing else, you can leave. You should not have come to this place.'

Juliette was not anxious at all. On the contrary, her attitude was very calm, 'Next week, there will be a banquet in the Royal Villa House. You can come with Cindy.'

As she said this, the bodyguard beside her took out a gold invitation card and handed it to Jason respectfully. The cover showed flowing clouds and Udara Dilecta butterflies which was low-key luxurious.

Jason took the invitation card and said coldly, 'Noted.'

He didn't want to pick it up at first, but when he thought of what Juliette would do...

Jason took it.

It's not the right time to confront her.

Just as Jason was about to leave, Juliette suddenly smiled, 'Jason, do you want to know what Cindy and I were talking about just now?'

The temperature dropped ten degrees.

Jason turned around angrily. He clenched his fists, and rushed to Juliette.

However, the eight bodyguards around this woman quickly formed a strong wall and blocked Jason's way.

'Get lost!'

Jason roared, and his eyes were full of anger.

However, the eight bodyguards just kept their heads down and did not give in.

In their eyes, Juliette was their master.

Jason was just a young master of the Smith family. He was not the head of the family. He had no right to command them.

'Young master, I'm sorry. We have our own duties,' said the captain of the bodyguards.

Jason frowned and kicked the man hard. He said coldly, 'You're asking for trouble!'

Juliette smiled and turned around. She put on her sunglasses and left with her men.

Jason stood by the window of the rest area and looked at the hospital entrance downstairs. Juliette got into the Rolls-Royce. The three black Mercedes-Benz S-class which were in front and behind of her car slowly drove out of the hospital.

This was Juliette, a woman who had unbelievable aura wherever she was

The scene just now was Juliette's warning toward

Jason. It could also be understood as a provocation.

So what if he was the heir of the Smith family? He had not yet inherited everything. In her eyes, he was just a young master whose wings had not fully grown.

'Jason, what's wrong with you?'

At this moment, Cindy crossed her arms over her chest and walked over with a worried look on her face.

Jason put on a happy face. He turned around and said with a smile, 'Nothing. Did Angela make any trouble today?'

Jason passed by Cindy and wanted to go to the ward.

However, Cindy grabbed Jason's arm and looked at him. She suspected something. She asked a question.

'Tell me, who is Juliette?'

Jason was silent, and the two of them looked at each other.

After a while, Jason said, 'Cindy, I don't want to lie to you. She is a relative She has just come to do business in Shang Jiang City. She asked about me and then came to see me.'

Cindy frowned and looked at Jason suspiciously. Then she loosened her hand and nodded, 'Got it. Go and take care of Angela.'

'Don't worry, it's okay.' Jason touched Cindy's smooth cheek and turned to leave.

On the other hand, Cindy was sitting alone in the rest area. No one knew what she was thinking.

After a few minutes, she took out a business card from her pocket. Clouds were printed on the back of the business card. The business card was made of pure gold, and there was only an ancient character that said "Yun" on the front, which looked primitive and grand.

Such a golden business card was not something that could be obtained by just anyone.

Juliette had told Cindy that if she wanted to know about Jason, Cindy could come to her at any time.

As long as she took this card and went to any shop with the 'Cloud' banner in Shang Jiang City.

Cindy couldn't figure out what Jason was hiding.

Having made up her mind, Cindy also got up and went into the ward.

This was a sleepless night.

Jason and Cindy were lying on the same bed, with their backs facing each other. They were not sleepy at all.

The next day early morning, Jason received a phone call from Gerry, who was extremely excited.

'Jas... Jason Smith, am I dreaming? This morning, someone found me and told me that I have become the Feng Mao Group's CEO...'

Jason walked out of the ward and happened to see Cindy washing her face and brushing her teeth in the bathroom. She was wearing shorts and her round and perky buttocks made Jason hard this early in the morning.

He quickly closed the door for her. He walked out of the ward and came to the hospital garden, 'That must be the truth.'

'What the f*ck! This... This, this, I was dreaming yesterday, wasn't I?' Gerry was very excited and shocked.

It was not until then that he remembered what had happened the night before. He had told Jasmyn that he had unexpectedly obtained a company and became a billionaire.

And all this was settled by Jason's phone call.

'It's not a dream, it's true. Just be a billionaire and learn more when you have time. After all, it's your company.' Jason sat on the bench and said with a smile.

After Gerry's excitement, he pondered, 'Jason, tell me, how did you do it? Are you hiding something from me, you lil sh*t?'

Jason touched his nose. He thought for a moment 'Well, in fact, my family has a lot of power and money. I'm a rich kid. The best kind. I'm more powerful than CEO Wang, Young Master Qin, Young Master Zhao, and Jack Ma. It's just I don't have time to tell you. Let's talk when we have more time, but you must keep it a secret, especially from Cindy and Angela. Do you understand?'

Gerry was in his rental house. He was confused after he had heard this. His mind was buzzing and he said in surprise, 'Then you must be so f*cking rich.'

Jason smiled, 'Not exactly. I have one hundred billion yuan in my personal card, and my family is only in charge of seventy percent of the global wealth.'

In order to make Gerry feel at ease, Jason decided to tell the truth.

He shouldn't have said that.

'Jason, what are you talking about? What do you mean a hundred billion?'

A sweet and soft voice came from behind. But it scared Jason!

He turned around abruptly and saw that Cindy had changed into a long, professional black dress. Her figure was perfect. Her slender and white legs were as beautiful as white pearls.

Cindy had light makeup on. She had a look of suspicion. As she held a set of breakfast, she catwalked toward the stunned Jason. 'What do you mean seventy percent of the world's wealth?'
