

The Hunter 371

Chapter 371: Worry

After lying in bed, Li Xiaoran fell asleep.

...

Although she slept last night, her sleep quality was bad.

When she heard the liveliness outside, Li Xiaoran felt at ease, so she slept very soundly.

When Luo Cheng returned, he saw Li Xiaoran sleeping soundly.

After thinking for a moment, Luo Cheng didn't disturb Li Xiaoran. Instead, he brought some hot water to another room. He washed up and changed his clothes before lying down to sleep with Li Xiaoran.

Li Xiaoran woke up amidst a feeling of warmth. When she opened her eyes, she saw Luo Cheng's handsome face.

No wonder she felt hot. She was in Luo Cheng's arms.

She wanted to break free from Luo Cheng's arms, but seeing that Luo Cheng was sleeping soundly, Li Xiaoran couldn't bear to wake him up.

Just as Li Xiaoran was wondering if she should continue sleeping, Luo Cheng opened his eyes.

"You're awake?"

Li Xiaoran nodded and crawled out of Luo Cheng's arms.

"How long have I been asleep for?"

Luo Cheng looked at Li Xiaoran with a smile.

"Not long. About four hours!"

"Huh? Four hours? Doesn't that mean it's already noon?" Li Xiaoran realized belatedly.

"That's right! Are you hungry?" Luo Cheng also got up and sat up.

"I'm a little hungry!" Li Xiaoran said honestly.

"Alright, I'll ask Ziyang to send food over!"

As Luo Cheng spoke, he got up, put on his coat, and went out.

Seeing this, Li Xiaoran quickly got up and put on her clothes before combing her hair.

Soon, the food was delivered. However, the person who delivered the food was none other than today's groom, Luo Cheng.

"Come over and eat!" Luo Cheng called out to Li Xiaoran as he placed the dishes.

Li Xiaoran quickly ran over and sat down. Then, she picked up her chopsticks and started eating.

“The food tastes very delicious. I’ve never eaten it before. Who made this?”

“Our chef made this!” Luo Cheng said.

When Li Xiaoran heard this, she was immediately puzzled.

“I’ve only been gone for a few days, but there’s already a chef?”

“That’s right! In the future, you and I will both have a lot of things to do. How can we have the time to cook?! In the past, with Father and Mother around, Father and Mother wanted to cook, so I couldn’t refute them. Now, with only us and Ziyang and the others around, won’t you be exhausted if you cook? I can’t bear to see you so tired. If we don’t get a chef, what will we eat?” Luo Cheng said as he picked up Li Xiaoran’s favorite dishes and placed them in her bowl.

After Li Xiaoran thought about it carefully, she felt that it made sense. She had so many tasks now, so she definitely wouldn’t have time to cook in the future.

“Then why don’t you get a chef for my parents too?!” Li Xiaoran thought of something and said.

“Don’t worry! Father and Mother will have a chef too. After all, Father and Mother will be busy in the future!” Luo Cheng said with a smile.

When Li Xiaoran heard this, she smiled again.

“Wife, if you keep staring at me and smiling, I’ll get the wrong idea!” Luo Cheng felt Li Xiaoran’s gaze, so he put down his chopsticks and looked at her.

When Li Xiaoran heard Luo Cheng’s words, she explained, “I suddenly thought that marrying you was the right choice! Not only did my parents not lose their daughter, but they also gained a son! If only Xiao Qing had such a good opportunity!”

When Luo Cheng heard Li Xiaoran praise him, he immediately laughed.

“In that case, I’m quite lucky too. After I married you, I gained a new family.”

When Li Xiaoran heard Luo Cheng’s words, she smiled and her mood improved.

Just like that, the two of them chatted and laughed as they ate lunch together.

In the afternoon, Luo Cheng went out to socialize with the guests outside again. Li Xiaoran could only read books in her new room.

“Sigh, why is time going by so slowly?! Seems that living too close to relatives isn’t that good!” Li Xiaoran muttered.

However, at the thought that she and Luo Cheng were going to sleep together tonight, Li Xiaoran blushed.

She wasn’t a little girl from ancient times, who knew nothing about sex.

Logically speaking, it was their wedding night, so it was obvious what would happen at night.

However, Li Xiaoran wasn't prepared!

Besides, she was only in her teens, so this actually wasn't the best time for this.

Thinking of this, Li Xiaoran felt a little uneasy.

This anxiety lasted until dinner.

Luo Cheng could tell that something was wrong with Li Xiaoran that night. Because there were still many things that he had to deal with personally, he suppressed his emotions and planned to ask when the two of them rested at night.

At night, when the two of them lay down, Luo Cheng sensed Li Xiaoran's tense body and immediately understood.

"Hahaha." Luo Cheng immediately laughed.

"Husband, what are you laughing about?"

Li Xiaoran was originally very nervous, but when she heard Luo Cheng's laughter, she asked angrily.

"Wife, your body has suffered a lot of deficiencies. Although your complexion has improved a lot after these few months of recuperation, in fact, the deficiencies in your internal energy have not been replenished yet. At this time, if I consummate the marriage with you, it will shorten your lifespan! So you don't have to be nervous. No matter what, I have to let you recuperate for two to three years. When your body is completely fine, I'll consummate the marriage with you!" Luo Cheng knew that Li Xiaoran was angry, so he stopped laughing and explained seriously.

Li Xiaoran didn't expect Luo Cheng to say this, so she was touched but also a little apologetic.

"I'm sorry!"

When Luo Cheng heard Li Xiaoran say this, he knocked on her head with his hand.

"Silly girl, you're the most important person to me, so I hope you can live well and won't jeopardize your well-being for a moment of pleasure! Don't worry, I just like having you sleeping beside me. This makes me feel very fulfilled!" When Li Xiaoran heard Luo Cheng's words, she was really touched.

If someone really cherished your life more than their own pleasures and desires, such a good man was worthy of marrying.

Therefore, she was lucky to have met such a good man as soon as she transmigrated.

Just like that, they fell asleep in each other's arms.

She slept until the next morning.

During breakfast, Li Xiaoran saw Luo Ziyang, Changsheng, and Zi Zheng, but she didn't see anyone else.

When Changsheng saw Li Xiaoran looking around, he couldn't help but ask,

“What are you looking for?”

Luo Cheng also looked over. He also wanted to know who Li Xiaoran was looking for..

Chapter 372: What About You?

“When we got married yesterday, I saw that someone was sitting in the hall. Who was that person?” Li Xiaoran asked the question on her mind.

...

The group laughed.

Only Li Xiaoran looked confused and had no idea what this group of people was laughing about.

Luo Cheng walked over and held Li Xiaoran’s hand. “The person sitting in the high hall today is Luo Han’s grandfather. On my side, only Luo Han’s family can be considered my elders!”

“Where are they?” Li Xiaoran asked again.

“They left! Luo Han had been helping me yesterday, so he went back to rest today!” Luo Cheng replied.

“Then why didn’t you ask them to stay?” Li Xiaoran felt that this was a little rude.

Luo Cheng seemed to have seen through Li Xiaoran’s thoughts, so he said with a smile, “Don’t worry, our families don’t have to be so formal! Let’s eat breakfast first!”

When Li Xiaoran heard Luo Cheng’s words, she nodded and started eating breakfast.

At this moment, Li Xiaoran suddenly felt a little bored.

The scene of the family sitting around and eating suddenly appeared in her mind. Now that there were fewer people, it felt much more deserted.

Luo Cheng noticed Li Xiaoran’s disappointment and thought of something. Then, he kept placing food in Li Xiaoran’s plate.

After the two of them ate and drank their fill, Luo Cheng brought Li Xiaoran out for a walk.

At this moment, the sunlight shone down through the dense forest and landed on the ground.

Li Xiaoran and Luo Cheng walked hand in hand on the forest path.

“Do you feel lonely because your parents and Xiao Qing are no longer around?” Luo Cheng looked at Li Xiaoran and asked.

Li Xiaoran nodded truthfully.

“That’s right! In the past, with the entire family around, things were very lively. Now that there are fewer people, I feel so lonely!”

With that, Li Xiaoran revealed her discomfort.

“Don’t worry! I’ve already figured it out. My parents have their own lives, and I have my own. We have to work hard for our future lives, so we shouldn’t waste time dwelling on sadness!”

Luo Cheng laughed when he heard Li Xiaoran’s words. “Then how do you want to live your life in the future?”

When Li Xiaoran heard Luo Cheng’s words, she was baffled.

“Wife, are those two shops all you’re ever going to focus on?”

When Li Xiaoran hears, she understands what Luo Cheng meant.

“Of course not!”

“That’s good! You should think about what you want to do next! You can let Xiao Qing and your cousin Sisi run the shop. Kang Zheng and Wen Lu will watch the fast-food shop. So next, you should think about your own future!” Luo Cheng stopped and held Li Xiaoran’s hands tightly as he reminded her.

Li Xiaoran looked at Luo Cheng with confusion.

“Wife, you asked Father and Mother what they want to do! Then it’s my turn to ask you. What do you want to do the most? Not for your family, not for me, not for anyone, but for yourself!” Luo Cheng looked at Li Xiaoran as he asked seriously.

Luo Cheng had actually wanted to ask this for a long time.

When he had just met Li Xiaoran, for the sake of her family, she dared to cooperate with him. Later on, for the sake of her family’s self-reliance, she set up a noodle stall and a shop.

Later on, she asked her parents what they wanted to do the most.

However, from the beginning to the end, Li Xiaoran had never asked herself what she wanted to do the most.

Li Xiaoran understood now, but she was suddenly very confused.

What did she want to do most?

This was a problem she had never considered before!

“There’s no hurry. Take your time to think about it! Accompany me to the forest first! A lot of mushrooms have grown recently, so let’s pick some!” Luo Cheng said with a smile.

Li Xiaoran nodded and decided to put it on hold first. She wouldn’t think about this anymore for the time being. Now, she would be a happy mushroom gatherer.

“But we didn’t bring anything, so where should we put the mushrooms?” As they walked, Li Xiaoran suddenly thought of a question.

“Don’t worry, with me around, we won’t have to worry about not having anything to store mushrooms with!” As Luo Cheng spoke, he went to a place that was filled with vines. Then, he quickly tidied up many vines and woven a large basket.

“Husband, I really didn’t expect you to have such good craftsmanship!” Li Xiaoran praised with a smile as she took the basket.

It had to be said that this basket was really well woven and was very suitable for storing mushrooms.

Next, the two of them walked up the mountain road in search of mushrooms in the forest.

“Have the bamboo shoots we brought back dried yet?” Li Xiaoran thought of something and asked as she picked mushrooms.

Luo Cheng thought of something and said, “It’s already dried and stored in a jar for you. I also asked Father and Mother to take a jar away, but they didn’t want it.”

“My mother won’t accept it! In my mother’s own words, she can go to the mountains and find a basket of bamboo shoots herself!” Li Xiaoran thought of something and said with a smile.

When Luo Cheng heard Li Xiaoran’s words, he immediately laughed.

“There’s a lot of cured meat at home. I plan to send half over to Father and Mother to eat!”

“There’s a lot of cured meat at home, so I plan to send half over to Father and Mother to eat!”

“That’s right! Actually, if you miss Father and Mother, we can go over to their place to freeload!” Luo Cheng said to Li Xiaoran.

Li Xiaoran immediately laughed when she thought of the scene of her bringing a group of people back to her family’s house to freeload.

“Alright! Shall we go back to freeload now and make our parents afraid whenever they see us?!”

As soon as she finished speaking, Li Xiaoran’s happy laughter sounded in the forest.

Seeing that Li Xiaoran was finally happy, Luo Cheng was also amused.

At the same time, Zhao Huaishan called his daughter and son-in-law over.

“Daughter, son-in-law! The reason I called you guys here today is that I want to discuss something important with you!” Zhao Huaishan went straight to the point.

“Eagle Village hasn’t been very peaceful recently. We discussed with your two younger brothers that we want to move out of Eagle Village.. From the looks of it, this place is not bad, so we want to ask for your opinion!”

Chapter 373: Righteous

Li Shun was actually not surprised to hear his father-in-law's words.

...

To be honest, Eagle Village was indeed too remote.

Previously, he didn't have the ability to help his father-in-law, and his father-in-law's family had no intention of moving out, so he naturally didn't mention anything.

Now that his father-in-law and two brothers-in-law wanted to move out, he naturally had to contribute!

"Father, there aren't many old houses in our village. I wonder how you'll settle down after you move out? You'll each build three houses or live in one house? If you want to live in one house, there's a house like that available in the village. Because it's too big, it hasn't been sold or rented out. If you want to live separately, it won't be easy to find old houses. You can only go to other villages to take a look!" Li Shun explained the situation in Hele Village.

Zhao Huaishan thought for a moment and asked, "How are the other villages nearby?"

"I've asked Yuan Cheng and Mao Dao. The two villages they're in are similar to Hele Village, but we don't know anyone there, so things aren't as convenient as in Hele Village!" Zhao Lijun often went to the shop to help these few days, so he was very familiar with Yuan Cheng and Mao Dao. He also asked about the situation in the village they were in.

Zhao Xiu thought for a moment and said, "Father, Mother, this is a serious matter, so we have to consider it at length. Since you're out, why don't you stay for a while longer? To be honest, the information we have is limited. We'll ask Luo Cheng later. He knows more than us, so he might be able to give a better suggestion!"

Zhao Huaishan was a wise old man who had experienced many things, so he shook his head and said, "We can discuss it first and come up with a plan. In the end, we can get our grandson-in-law to give us some advice! Now, we haven't even figured out anything yet, so aren't you going to cause trouble for our grandson-in-law by going there directly?"

"My grandson-in-law is generous, but he's not stupid. Aren't we forcing him to help us resolve everything? What if my grandson-in-law pays to build the houses of our three families like before? Xiu'er, don't take his contributions for granted. Even if he's your son-in-law, you have to have a sense of propriety!" Zhao Huaishan's words became more and more serious.

When Zhao Xiu heard her father's words, she immediately felt a little aggrieved. She had really never thought of it that way!

Zhao Huaishan knew his daughter's personality. With one look at her aggrieved expression, he knew what she was thinking.

"I know you don't mean that, but think about it. If we look for our grandson-in-law now, won't the outcome be the same as what I just said?"

At this point, Zhao Huaishan also looked at his two sons, daughter-in-law, and grandchildren.

"I'll put the word out today. Whether you guys listen is up to you. One has to have a sense of propriety. Only then will the relationship become stronger and stronger. Although my grandson-in-law's family is well-off, don't have ulterior motives about it. Yes, settling down our family's residence is not a big deal to my grandson-in-law. The money he might spend is a huge sum of money to us, but what right do we have to make him do this?"

"They do it because they treat us as family, so we have to treat them as family too. Would you guys treat your sons and daughters like this? Would you let your sons and daughters take out a large sum of money to help you settle down your family? You have to think for the other party's sake. Only by reciprocating favors will the relationship stay strong. If you only know how to take things, it will eventually disappoint your family!"

The group listened attentively.

To be honest, it was impossible to say that no one had any ulterior motives.

Seeing that Luo Cheng was so well-off, some people wanted to take advantage of him.

Fortunately, Zhao Huaishan, the head of the family, had noticed this long ago. Taking advantage of this opportunity, he said everything he wanted to say.

"Son-in-law, I think the big house you mentioned just now is not bad. Go and ask the village chief how much it costs. Let's buy this house first and move out together. As for the future, if you two want to live on your own, you can explore the surroundings and see which place is suitable to build a new house. As long as you earn money and have the ability to build a house, you can move out!" Zhao Huaishan finally said.

Xu Xiufang also nodded in agreement.

"Your father is right. We can't rely on others too much. We can't take it for granted just because our grandson-in-law treats us well. As members of the Zhao family, we have to be upright. We can't be greedy just because someone else is well-off. What do you two think about this?"

“Father, Mother, don’t worry. We’ll rely on our own abilities to improve our lives. The market on the official road here is booming. We have hands, feet, and brains, so as long as we’re willing to work hard, our lives definitely won’t be that bad. I also think Father is right. We can buy an old house and live in it first. We can talk about the rest according to our own situation later!” Zhao Long stood up and expressed his stance.

Zhao Liang also said directly, “That’s right! Father, don’t worry! We can do it ourselves. Let’s split the cost of buying a big house equally! As for the future, it depends on our own abilities. However, although the three of us will live together, we’ll live our lives separately! You two don’t have to do anything. Us brothers will take turns cooking!”

Zhao Huaishan nodded at his third brother’s suggestion.

“These are all trivial matters. After buying the house, building our own kitchen will be a piece of cake!”

Just like that, the family settled this matter.

After that, Li Shun went to look for the old village chief, Old Master Guo, to ask about the big house.

Zhao Xiu also wanted to do her part, so she followed Li Shun.

On the way to look for Old Master Guo, Li Shun sighed.

“I finally understand what others mean when they say that when a family is harmonious, everything is prosperous! Look at how well Father-in-law and Mother-in-law get along with each other. Most importantly, Father-in-law, as the head of the family, was wise enough to notice that there were bad signs in the family and enlightened everyone in time.. If my parents were like Father-in-law and Mother-in-law, the Li family wouldn’t have fallen to this state!”

Chapter 374: Perfect

When Zhao Xiu heard her man’s words, she nodded and said, “That’s right. Ever since we were young, our parents have taught us to be upright. We can’t cheat, nor can we be involved in gambling and prostitution. You don’t know, but my second brother had a bad temper when he was still young. He was very rebellious and caused all sorts of trouble. In that situation, my father brought my second brother out and abandoned him somewhere. When my second brother came back a year later, all his bad habits were changed and he became much more upright!”

“No wonder they often say that if the upper beam isn’t good, the lower beam will be crooked. Only with a good role model like Father-in-law here and strict discipline of his children can the Zhao family’s lives get better and better!” Li Shun praised.

Zhao Xiu thought of something and said, "Husband, I think my father was right. I didn't think so in the past, but now that I think about it, I seem to have taken Luo Cheng's help for granted. This child doesn't have parents to care about him to begin with. I'm his mother now, but I didn't think for his sake at all!"

Li Shun actually also realized this problem. At this moment, he held his wife's hand and said, "That's right! Father-in-law's words were like a wake-up call to me. Speaking of which, it's all thanks to my son-in-law that I'm able to earn money now! Without my son-in-law, Young Master Luo wouldn't have offered such a high price even if he liked my cooking!"

At this point, Li Shun paused for a moment and continued, "But it doesn't matter. We've realized our mistake now and corrected it in time! In the future, we have to take more care of Xiaoran and our son-in-law. Although they don't lack anything, there's always something we can help with!"

When Zhao Xiu heard her man's words, she nodded and made a mental note to herself.

When Li Xiaoran and Luo Cheng returned from the mountain in the afternoon with a basket of mushrooms and a large pile of cured meat and sausages, they learned that their family had bought a big house in the village.

"Grandpa, why didn't you tell us about such a big thing?" Li Xiaoran pouted and said angrily.

When Zhao Huaishan saw Li Xiaoran's exasperated look, he laughed.

"If we can afford it, we can just buy the house directly. Why should we tell you?!"

Besides, you two have just gotten married. Why don't you live your own life? Aren't you tired of worrying about others all day long?!"

"How am I worried all day long? Look, if you had told us your plan about buying a house, we could have helped you ask the Village Chief for a discount!" Li Xiaoran said.

"Do you think we didn't use you and our grandson-in-law's names to get shortcuts? We saved a lot of money thanks to you guys!" Zhao Huaishan said happily, "In this way, didn't you guys help us a lot?"

When Li Xiaoran heard this, she was a little happy.

"Then you have to remember that next time, you have to tell me about such a big thing!"

"Alright, we definitely won't forget next time! After all, you only get married once! We definitely won't forget next time," Zhao Huaishan teased.

When Luo Cheng heard their conversation, he thought for a moment and said,

"You bought that big house by the stream in the village, right?" "That's right! You know about that house?" Zhao Huaishan nodded.

"Yes!" Luo Cheng nodded and thought for a moment. "Since you've bought the house, are you planning to move out with your family? I've investigated that house in the past. Many of the furniture and furnishings are good, so you guys can move in directly after cleaning it up. However, the house on the right needs to be repaired and the roof beams need to be replaced! Coincidentally, I have someone who can do this. Why don't you leave the repair to us?!" Zhao Huaishan thought for a moment and looked at Luo Cheng.

After a while, Zhao Huaishan smiled.

"Alright! I really didn't know who to look for?! If you happen to know someone, it'll be more convenient. Then I won't stand on ceremony with you!" Luo Cheng smiled.

"We're all family, so there's no need to stand on ceremony!"

When Li Xiaoran heard Luo Cheng's words, she also laughed.

This matter was settled.

It wouldn't take long to repair the house. Chen Xiang, who was called by Luo Cheng to the big house to take a look, said that it would only take six days to repair.

Because that big house had been built with good materials, there wasn't much damage even though it had been empty for so long. The only place that needed repair was the place Luo Cheng had mentioned previously. Six days was enough for that bit of work.

As soon as Zhao Huaishan heard that it could be repaired in six days, he brought his family back to Eagle Village.

After all, it would take time for them to go back and pack their things, then sell the fields and house.

Fortunately, the house was furnished and there was no need to bring appliances, so it saved them a lot of trouble.

Because Zhao Sisi had to go home to pack her things, she could only follow her family back first. She would come to the shop to work after moving in.

After Zhao Sisi left, Zhao Xiu returned to the noodle shop.

To be honest, she was already used to working in the noodle shop, so she missed it a lot these few days.

As for Li Xiaoran and Luo Cheng, they were no longer in Hele Village. Instead, they brought Li Xiaoran out to play.

After getting up, Li Xiaoran said that she wanted to go out for a walk.

Li Xiaoran remembered that in the modern world, people had to go on a honeymoon after getting married, so she told Luo Cheng her thoughts.

Since his wife had a request, Luo Cheng naturally arranged it immediately.

Everything at home was going smoothly. Luo Cheng arranged for someone to clean the big house bought by the Zhao family. After Chen Xiang repaired the roof and cleaned it, they could move in directly.

Therefore, after everything was settled, Luo Cheng brought Li Xiaoran to inform his parents-in-law and the two of them set off.

This was the first time Li Xiaoran had gone on a long trip after transmigrating.

The furthest place she had been before was Eagle Village. She had never even been to Lu City.

Therefore, this time, the first stop Luo Cheng brought Li Xiaoran to was Lu City.

Coincidentally, as soon as the two of them entered Lu City and checked into the inn, it started raining heavily outside.

After Li Xiaoran opened the window and heard the sound of rain outside, she felt very comfortable.

“You seem to like the sound of the rain!” Luo Cheng asked when he saw Li Xiaoran’s enjoyment.

“Yes! Moist and silent are the best descriptions of rain. The sound of the rain seems to have a healing effect. It can sweep away one’s fatigue and make one fall asleep peacefully!” Li Xiaoran said..

Chapter 375: Suspect on a Rainy Night

“But it’s raining so heavily, so we can’t go around Lu City to take a look!” Luo

...

Cheng reminded.

“It’s fine. At most, we’ll stay here for a few more days! We’re tired from the journey today, so let’s eat something and rest in the inn! Tomorrow, when the rain is lighter, we’ll walk around in the rain with an umbrella. That’ll be quite enjoyable as well!” Li Xiaoran said with a smile.

Seeing that Li Xiaoran was open-minded, Luo Cheng didn’t say anything else.

Luo Cheng went downstairs and asked the waiter to prepare some food, then he brought it up.

After eating, they took a shower and lay down to sleep.

However, sometimes, things didn’t always go as planned.

Sometimes, trouble just had to come knocking on one’s door.

The couple was sleeping soundly at midnight.

At this moment, the rain outside was getting heavier and showed no signs of stopping.

At this moment, a man in black was fleeing in the rain. Not far behind, a large group of soldiers chased after him.

Later, the man in black climbed over the wall and entered an inn.

Just then, a bolt of lightning came and illuminated the sign of the inn: Yuelai Inn.

Luo Cheng was a vigilant person to begin with. Even though there was a thunderstorm outside, he still sensed the commotion outside immediately. After standing up, Luo Cheng closed the window that Li Xiaoran had opened.

The rain was getting heavier.

Before he could get into bed, he heard the noisy voices of the soldiers outside.

With a frown, Luo Cheng quickly lay on the bed before returning to sleep. Before long, hurried footsteps sounded. The soldiers actually surrounded the inn.

At this moment, some soldiers were searching every room.

Li Xiaoran was also disturbed by the commotion outside and felt a little listless.

“Husband, what’s going on outside?”

“I don’t know, but they seem to be searching for someone! Wife, since you’re awake, put on a shirt quickly. I think those soldiers will come to us later!” Luo Cheng thought of something and reminded her.

Li Xiaoran nodded and yawned as she got up to put on a shirt.

At this moment, someone knocked on the door. Luo Cheng quickly walked over and opened the door, then looked at the person outside. “We’re under orders to search for a suspect. Don’t get in our way!” When Luo Cheng heard this, he came to Li Xiaoran’s side.

Li Xiaoran was really sleepy, so she simply leaned against Luo Cheng’s shoulder and closed her eyes to sleep again.

The leader looked around the room, then turned to look at Luo Cheng.

“Did you see anyone suspicious come in?”

Luo Cheng shook his head and said, “We traveled all day. After we arrived at the inn today, we ate something and fell asleep. It was only when you guys came that we woke up!”

When the man heard Luo Cheng’s words, he sized him up, but didn’t find anything suspicious.

At that moment, the other searchers searched the room, but there was no one else.

“Let’s go!” Seeing that there was nothing to be found, the leader immediately searched the next room.

After sending them away, Li Xiaoran was really sleepy, so she lay on the bed and fell asleep again.

When Luo Cheng saw that Li Xiaoran had fallen asleep, he was amused.

“You’re really quite carefree. You can even fall asleep in such a situation. I’m impressed!”

Li Xiaoran’s carefree actions expressed her complete trust in Luo Cheng.

After blowing out the candle, Luo Cheng continued to lie down and sleep with Li Xiaoran.

It was already the next morning when Li Xiaoran opened her eyes again. At this moment, Luo Cheng was no longer beside her. Li Xiaoran sat up and put on her clothes.

Just as she was wondering if she should go out and look for Luo Cheng, he returned with the waiter.

“I guessed that you had woken up. Hurry up and wash your face! I’ll ask the chef to make you a bowl of noodles. I guarantee you’ll like it!” Luo Cheng walked over with a smile.

Li Xiaoran smiled, then she quickly washed her face and rinsed her mouth.

Just as she finished washing up, the waiter brought it up.

Li Xiaoran and Luo Cheng ate a bowl each.

At this moment, the window was open, so Li Xiaoran looked out.

“Sigh, I really jinxed things. The rain hasn’t stopped even until now!”

“That’s right! It seems that we’re really going to experience what it’s like to wander in the rain today!” Luo Cheng teased.

Li Xiaoran smiled and continued eating.

After she finished the bowl, she accidentally saw something and her expression changed.

After standing up, Li Xiaoran walked towards the window.

Seeing that Li Xiaoran’s reaction was a little strange, Luo Cheng followed.

“Wife, what are you looking at?”

Li Xiaoran tilted her head and looked around again.

“Husband, did you see that? There’s something wrong with this tile opposite our window! I keep feeling like there’s something under that tile!”

When Luo Cheng heard Li Xiaoran’s words, he looked where she was pointing.

As expected, that place was indeed a little different from the surroundings. Before Luo Cheng could say anything, the waiter knocked on the door.

“Sir, are you done? I’m coming in to clear the dishes!” Luo Cheng pulled Li Xiaoran away from the window.

“We’re done. Come in!”

When the waiter heard this, he immediately walked in to clear the dishes.

“What happened last night? Was the suspect caught?” Luo Cheng began to ask.

Li Xiaoran also remembered what had happened last night and pricked up her ears to listen.

“Don’t mention it. How troublesome! Yesterday, the soldiers barged in and insisted that a suspect had entered our inn, so they searched for him. In the end, there was no sign of him. The soldiers didn't find him, but they didn't leave and are still staying here," the waiter said gloomily.

"Huh? The soldiers didn't leave? Didn't many of them come? Can the inn accommodate them all?" Li Xiaoran asked in surprise.

Although she had been sleepy last night, her empathic abilities had always been very strong.

There were clearly many soldiers yesterday. How could the inn accommodate so many people?

"I didn't make it clear. Most of the people have left, but more than ten people stayed! I think they think that the suspect is still in our inn and plan to wait for him! Even if the suspect comes in, he can quickly get out! The inn is small, so there are only a few places where people can hide. If they can't find him, he must have run away!" The waiter explained as he cleaned up..

Chapter 376: Something's Wrong

When Luo Cheng and Li Xiaoran heard the waiter's words, they knew what to do.

After the waiter left, Li Xiaoran lowered her voice.

"Husband, what do you think?"

After Luo Cheng looked out the window at the unusual place, he finally shook his head.

"Forget it, it's better not to interfere in order to avoid trouble. I think we should leave here today and go somewhere else! When we come back, we can come to Lu City to play!"

Li Xiaoran felt that Luo Cheng's words made sense, so she turned around and went to pack her things.

However, to their surprise, when the couple wanted to leave, the officials outside surrounded the inn again and refused to let the people in the inn leave.

Seeing this, Luo Cheng frowned and was about to say something when Li Xiaoran suddenly grabbed his sleeve and shook her head at him.

"Husband, since we can't leave now, let's go back and rest! I was disturbed by these people yesterday, so I haven't had enough sleep yet!" Li Xiaoran said.

Luo Cheng glanced at Li Xiaoran and finally nodded.

The guest room had already been checked out, but now, the couple had to check into the inn again.

Originally, Li Xiaoran wanted to change rooms, but the inn was already full.

Because no guests had left, there was no empty room and they could only return to their previous room.

After returning to the room, Li Xiaoran put down her bag and lay on the bed.

“Sigh, husband, I’m really tired, so let’s catch up on sleep together! We can’t go out anyway and it’s boring to stay here!”

When Luo Cheng heard Li Xiaoran’s words, he thought for a moment and walked over.

After taking off their coats, the two of them lay down together.

Li Xiaoran said softly beside Luo Cheng, “Something would have happened if we barged out just now. There are many people lying in ambush outside the inn and they’re on tenterhooks. If anyone is disobedient, they will probably be caught. These people have probably made up their minds not to let us leave until the person is caught!”

Luo Cheng smiled when he heard Li Xiaoran’s words.

No wonder Li Xiaoran wanted to stop him previously.

“Why do the officials think that person must still be in the inn and hasn’t left?” Luo Cheng voiced his doubts.

Li Xiaoran leaned her head on Luo Cheng’s shoulder and found the most comfortable position. Then, she said softly, “Perhaps they’re not looking for someone?”

When Luo Cheng heard Li Xiaoran’s words, his gaze immediately landed on the window.

“You mean the authorities have already captured him, but are looking for what he had with him?”

“It’s very likely! Otherwise, how can you explain why they won’t let us leave now? Yesterday, they were searching for the suspect, but they didn’t manage to capture him, so the officials left more than ten people here. Then, they immediately surrounded the inn today and didn’t let the people staying in it leave. The only explanation I can think of is that there must be something they’re looking for in this inn, but they’re afraid that the people in this inn will take it away!” Li Xiaoran analyzed carefully.

As soon as he finished speaking, there was a commotion outside.

“Why? What right do you have to search our own luggage? It’s bad enough that you guys barged in to catch the suspect yesterday, but you won’t let us go out today and even searched our things. Do you guys think you’re above the law?” A man shouted angrily.

When Luo Cheng and Li Xiaoran heard this, they put on their coats and went out to take a look.

The commotion outside had already attracted many people to watch.

At this moment, a young man was tugging at the clothes of an officer and shouting angrily.

When the other soldiers saw the young man attack, they surrounded him.

Just as everyone was sweating for the young man, a woman suddenly attacked.

After handful of peanuts fell, the soldiers were attacked to varying degrees.

In pain, they let go of the weapons in their hands. With a clang, the soldiers' sabers fell to the ground.

"Even if you're an official, you have to have a valid reason to search. We're all law-abiding people who just spent the night here. It's bad enough that you won't let us go out, but now, you even want to search our luggage. I don't think you're here to capture the suspect at all, but to plunder money from us!" The woman in red who had attacked just now leaned against the railing and questioned loudly.

"That's right. I also think these people are here to plunder money. I heard that something like this happened in Lu City not long ago. A group of soldiers trapped the people in an inn under the pretext of catching a fugitive. Later, those who lived in the inn were ruthlessly plundered before they were let go!" A man also appeared and fanned the flames.

After Luo Cheng watched the two of them, for some reason, he pulled Li Xiaoran into the room and stopped watching.

"Husband, is something going to happen?" Li Xiaoran asked after entering the room.

"You were half right just now. I'm afraid the suspect was in this inn last night.

Look at the two of them. They're clearly fanning the flames and causing chaos. Others might not know, but I know very well that there's no news of the soldiers searching the people in the inn at all. They're making things up and inciting the anger of these people in the inn!" Luo Cheng revealed what he knew.

"In that case, these people are very likely in cahoots?" Li Xiaoran thought of a possibility.

"It's difficult to determine if they're in cahoots or not, but what I'm sure of is that there will definitely be trouble later. We'll pack our things, close the door, and lock the windows. Then, we'll go out after the conflict outside is over!" Luo Cheng said.

"Since there will be chaos, why don't we take advantage of the chaos and leave?" Li Xiaoran asked in confusion.

"We didn't do anything wrong, so we're not afraid of these soldiers. As for taking advantage of the chaos, it's better not to get caught in the crossfire. I don't want you to be harmed in any way. If we keep a low profile, we can act according to the situation and I can protect you. But if we leave this place, that might not be the case. Wife, in my eyes, your life is more important than anyone else's!" Luo Cheng said.

“Alright! Then I’ll listen to you. Let’s guard this room and leave after everything is over!” Li Xiaoran wasn’t unaware of the severity of the situation. When she heard that Luo Cheng had already made the best arrangements, she was naturally willing to listen to him.

The couple locked the door first, then went to close the window. Finally, they sat on the bed together and waited quietly..

Chapter 377: Trapped

As expected, many guests outside were agitated.

“Come on, big guy. Instead of letting these people plunder our hard-earned money, why don’t we fight them? If we fight, we can still survive!” Someone shouted, then someone led the way and rushed towards the door of the inn.

...

Many people were invigorated and waited to rush out together.

However, to everyone’s surprise, as soon as they rushed out of the inn’s door, those people fell to the ground in unison.

Seeing this, the people who had just rushed over quickly ran back into the inn.

After what had happened, no one dared to act rashly anymore.

An officer who stood outside the inn sneered at the people inside.

“As you can see, if you want to leave, fine, as long as you can walk out yourself! My people definitely won’t stop you. It’s just that you’d better consider if you’re that capable!”

When Li Xiaoran heard this person’s words, she thought of something and asked, “If someone isn’t afraid of those things at the entrance of the inn, won’t they be able to leave directly?”

“Don’t be too naive. Even if they’re really unafraid, they’ll probably be caught not long after they walk out. Take a look. There’s actually an inescapable net outside the inn. Layer after layer of people are hiding in the dark. I can guarantee that as long as someone walks out, they’ll be caught before long!” Luo Cheng said firmly.

When Li Xiaoran heard this, she was shocked.

“In that case, those people are determined to get this suspect!”

“That’s right! Why else would I pull you back into the room and let you close the door and window?!” Luo Cheng explained.

As he spoke, there was another exclamation outside.

It turned out that some fearless person walked out of the inn.

Under everyone's gazes, this person walked past the unconscious people and arrived in front of the soldiers.

"Will you let me go if I walk out?"

The leader glanced at the man, then gestured to his buddies behind him.

"Sure! Let him go!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the soldiers outside parted and the man walked straight out.

However, tragedy still happened in the end.

An arrow flew from somewhere and hit the man in the chest. In the end, the man fell to the ground and died.

This unexpected turn in events immediately made those who were eager to try stop.

"Look, we let him go, but he didn't survive, so you can't blame us!" The leader of the soldiers seemed to have expected this outcome and said calmly.

This time, no one in the inn dared to move.

At this moment, there was dead silence in the inn. One could even hear a drop of water dripping from the roof.

"Husband, you're right! That person's emotions disappeared immediately so he must be dead!" Li Xiaoran said in horror.

For some reason, the longer she stayed here, the more flustered Li Xiaoran felt, as if something bad was about to happen.

Luo Cheng also heard the commotion outside. At this moment, he was a little anxious.

With such a situation outside, there would probably be a tough battle soon.

If he was the suspect, what would he do?

Just like that, time passed little by little, but the situation still didn't change.

Li Xiaoran was a little tired and leaned on Luo Cheng's shoulder to sleep.

But no matter how tired or sleepy she was, she still had to eat.

In the blink of an eye, it was lunchtime.

In the past, Luo Cheng and Li Xiaoran would definitely have gone downstairs to eat.

However, after such a thing happened, no one was in the mood to eat.

Moreover, no one had gone out to buy ingredients since last night.

Therefore, the inn didn't know what to do now.

"Shopkeeper, serve me some food! I'm hungry!" The woman in red, who was the first to challenge them, spoke again.

Because she was a martial artist, her voice was a little loud. Li Xiaoran, who was almost asleep, was also woken up.

When she was sleeping soundly, Li Xiaoran didn't feel hungry.

Now that she had woken up, her stomach started growling.

"Sir, I'm sorry, but there's no food in the inn anymore! Just this morning, when the inn was surrounded, the officials took all the food and ingredients in the inn. There's not even any firewood left!" The owner of the inn was exasperated!

He was just a businessman who ran an inn, so why did he encounter such a disaster?

Not only could he no longer run his business, but even his food had been taken away by the soldiers. What should he do?!

When the others heard that there was no more food in the inn, their expressions changed.

When Luo Cheng heard the commotion below, he sighed.

"It seems that these people have made up their minds to trap us here! They won't even give us food. They clearly want to force those suspects to appear on their own!"

When Li Xiaoran heard Luo Cheng's words, she immediately smiled bitterly.

After transmigrating for so long, other than eating a little less than usual at the beginning, she had never starved.

She didn't expect to have to experience hunger now.

Luo Cheng thought of something and took out a bag of meatloaf from one of his bags.

"There are still meatloaf here, so let's eat some and save the rest for tonight! I reckon those trapped will definitely think of a way to leave tonight!"

When Li Xiaoran saw the meatloaf in Luo Cheng's hand, her eyes widened.

"Husband, where did you get the meatloaf?"

"I bought it when I went to buy you breakfast this morning. At that time, I planned to keep it to eat along the way. Who knew that it would come in handy now?!" As Luo Cheng spoke, he took a meatloaf and put it in his mouth, then he brought over some water to drink.

After taking a sip and confirming that there was no problem, Luo Cheng poured a bowl of water for Li Xiaoran.

Li Xiaoran was really hungry. The noodles she had in the morning were already digested.

As she ate the meatloaf in big mouthfuls, Li Xiaoran felt that it was delicious.

As Luo Cheng ate, he paid attention to the commotion outside through the window.

At this moment, many people were gathered in the lobby talking.

Because there was nothing to eat, not even firewood, everyone could only go to the well water to get water to drink..

Chapter 378: Selection

“Wife, we have to drink this water sparingly! I’m afraid we won’t have anything to drink after drinking this pot of water!” Luo Cheng reminded Li Xiaoran after she finished drinking the teacup.

“Why?” Li Xiaoran asked in confusion, “Even if the food has been taken away, there’s still water in the well!”

“Can the water in the well still be drunk at this time? If I were those soldiers, I would definitely tamper with it.” Luo Cheng shook his head and said seriously.

Li Xiaoran was stunned for a moment before saying, “The food and firewood have been taken away, but they can’t take the water away, so poisoning is definitely the simplest solution!”

“That’s right! So the water in this well can’t be drunk anymore!” Luo Cheng nodded and said.

“Huh, there seems to be a smell of oil here. The people in this room must have food!” At that moment, a man’s voice came from outside.

Then, hurried footsteps sounded.

Many people who heard the news ran towards Luo Cheng and Li Xiaoran’s room.

Seeing this, Li Xiaoran and Luo Cheng quickly wrapped the meatloaf in a bag and covered it with a blanket.

Luo Cheng also took out a porcelain bottle and sprinkled some powder at the door.

“Who’s inside? Do you have food? Share it with us!”

“No, we just ate the breakfast we saved in the morning!” Luo Cheng replied in a low voice.

When the people outside heard Luo Cheng’s words, they didn’t believe him at all.

“There’s only one person inside. There aren’t many people, so if everyone bangs open the door together, we’ll be able to snatch food!” After a person’s voice sounded, the group of people slammed into the door.

When Luo Cheng heard the commotion outside, his expression immediately darkened.

“Stop it. I said there’s nothing to eat! If anyone harasses us again, don’t blame me for being ruthless!”

The people outside seemed ignored Luo Cheng's words and continued to smash on the door.

How could this door withstand the impact of so many people? It was quickly smashed open.

At this moment, under Luo Cheng's signal, Li Xiaoran hid behind the cabinet with the meatloaf.

After the people outside rammed open the door, they saw Luo Cheng standing in the middle of the room.

Perhaps they were too hungry, but the group rushed into the room without even asking.

However, before they could take a step, they felt dizzy and immediately fell to the ground.

It wasn't just the people at the door. At this moment, everyone in the corridor outside felt dizzy and fell to the ground.

"I've said it before. If you harass us again, don't blame me for being ruthless! This Soft Tendon Powder can force you guys to be more obedient!" Luo Cheng looked at these people as he said coldly.

This time, those who didn't faint also knew how powerful Luo Cheng was, so no one dared to try to snatch things anymore.

After Luo Cheng walked over, he kicked the unconscious people outside one by one and held the door up. Then, he used tables, chairs, and benches to block it. Although it was no longer as secretive as before, at least it could block the view.

Li Xiaoran's heart skipped a beat. The scene just now really frightened her.

If Luo Cheng had not used the drug, one could imagine what would have happened if these people had rushed in.

"Husband, what should we do now?" Li Xiaoran asked in a low voice.

Luo Cheng thought for a moment and said, "Wife, can you still sense other people's emotions now? I want you to find those whose emotions are different.

It's very likely that they're the people the authorities are chasing after!"

"That's not a problem. I can screen some people according to their emotions," Li Xiaoran said.

Luo Cheng nodded and said, "Then sense it first. I'll be in charge of protecting you. Remember, do your best. If you can't do it, don't force yourself. You have to conserve your strength!"

Li Xiaoran nodded and sat down behind the wardrobe. Then, she began to carefully sense the emotions of the people in the inn.

Because everyone was gathered in the same inn, Li Xiaoran planned to do a preliminary screening first.

A normal person would be panicking and feel afraid when they encountered such a thing. Or they would have a mental breakdown.

These emotions occupied the vast majority.

Therefore, the people who were eliminated in the first part were quickly screened.

Next, she checked the remaining people one by one.

Some people had experienced many ordeals and knew to deal with such things calmly and deal with them according to the situation.

This group of people was quite calm.

Therefore, after excluding this group of people, there were much fewer people left.

By now, there were eight people left.

One was the woman in red who had made a clamor previously. She seemed very agitated and eager to fight.

If not for the poison outside, this girl would have rushed in.

The second was the man who had clamored to go out at the beginning. At this moment, he was curled up in a corner and actually sleeping soundly. Such a person was either very carefree or conserving his strength for his next move.

After all, there was nothing to eat, and they didn't dare to drink the water, so there was only one way left, which was to have a good sleep.

In the southernmost upper room of the inn, there were five people.

The man was very calm, as if he didn't have to worry about anything.

The other four must be the man's guards. They were a little wary and tense now.

The remaining one, an old man, was leaning against a wall where the woodshed was stored.

The old man was emotionless from the beginning to the end. He just sat there quietly and ignored what was happening around him.

Li Xiaoran couldn't judge these eight people at the moment, so she left the analysis to Luo Cheng.

After Luo Cheng obtained information of these eight people's emotions, he thought about it carefully and said, "These eight people are all suspects!" With that, Luo Cheng sat at the table and began to think seriously.

"I previously felt that something was wrong with the woman in red and the man who tried to stir up trouble at the beginning, but the other six also seem a little suspicious!"

When Li Xiaoran heard Luo Cheng's words, she immediately laughed. "Maybe others think that something's fishy about us too!"

When Luo Cheng heard Li Xiaoran's words, he was immediately reminded.

If he were a suspect, he would have kept a low profile and definitely wouldn't have acted differently from the others.

At this moment, the suspect would want to act like everyone else. Only then could he hide his identity.

After Luo Cheng voiced his thoughts, Li Xiaoran thought of something.

“If we let everyone return to their rooms one by one, won’t the suspect be the only one without a room to return to?” Li Xiaoran asked..

Chapter 379: Group

“How can you be sure that this suspect doesn’t have a room to stay in? You have to know that there are unconscious people outside and inside this inn!” Luo Cheng said meaningfully.

...

“Then, if the suspect is unconscious, won’t we be trapped here even longer?!” Li Xiaoran frowned and said.

Luo Cheng immediately stood up.

That was right. How could he have forgotten that? Perhaps the suspect wasn’t afraid of the knockout powder at all and had run out with the other people.

However, the officials made an unexpected move. When he saw that everyone around him had fallen, in order not to expose himself, he could only fall with them.

“Wife, you’re so smart. I almost forgot about that!”

Li Xiaoran was stunned when she heard Luo Cheng’s words.

“Are you saying that the suspect might actually be mixed up in that crowd of unconscious people?”

Luo Cheng nodded. Then, he opened the window and looked at the place where they had noticed the anomaly.

“Wife, look, it’s changed!”

Li Xiaoran walked to the window curiously.

Sure enough, at some point, the place where something had clearly been hidden had returned to its original state.

“Did you confirm the situation there when we came back previously?” Li Xiaoran pointed at the abnormal place and asked.

Luo Cheng thought about it carefully and shook his head.

“I didn’t notice. I looked over when I closed the window, but I didn’t notice if anything had been taken from that place!”

Li Xiaoran also thought hard, but she had not noticed it before.

“Sigh, if only we had taken a closer look previously! If the thing by the window was missing when we came back, it means that someone went to retrieve it after we left. If there was something there when we came back, it was taken by someone after we closed the window. This way, we can determine if the suspect is in the group pretending to be unconscious!”

Luo Cheng also felt that they should have confirmed it at that time. Otherwise, they wouldn't be clueless now.

Just like that, the two of them pondered over it as they waited. The people below who had drunk the well water also began to react.

“Why is the sky so bright?!” a guest said.

As soon as he finished speaking, the person fell.

Then, one by one, they fell like dumplings.

Soon, there were few people left in the inn.

The woman in red also sensed that something was wrong and tensed up.

As much as she wanted to fight someone, it was definitely not under these circumstances.

She knew that the other party had already used many despicable methods, so if she still wanted to fight with them in an above-board manner, that would be a little stupid.

Thinking of this, the woman in red looked at the man who was conserving his strength.

After sitting down beside the man, the woman in red asked, “Hey, do you have any plans? If this continues, I'm afraid we'll all be captured before tomorrow!”

The man didn't open his eyes when he heard the woman in red's words, but he spoke.

“Let's conserve our strength! Let's see if we can find the opportunity to escape tonight!”

The woman in red also knew that tonight would be a good chance, but she was still worried.

“If you and I can think of the best time to escape at night, how can the officials outside not know? Didn't you see it just now? The person who walked out was killed by an arrow. It's obvious that there must be an inescapable trap outside.

It's difficult for the two of us to escape!”

The man, who had been conserving his strength, opened his eyes when he heard the woman in red's words.

“You mean we should find a few more people to travel with?”

“No, it's not about finding a few people. It's about finding a few trustworthy people!”
The woman in red emphasized.

“Trustworthy people? Who can we trust? Even you and I are strangers. If we weren’t trapped in this inn, we would have been strangers!” The man shook his head and said.

“Is this the time to talk about this? We have to find some trustworthy people! Otherwise, it will be really difficult for the two of us to break out!” The woman in red frowned and said.

“Then tell me, who do you think can be trusted?” the man asked.

The woman in red thought about it carefully and pointed in a direction.

“There’s a man in embroidered clothes with four guards beside him. I’ve observed carefully. These four people are definitely internal strength experts!” The man sneered when he heard the woman in red’s words.

“Those five people never left the room from the beginning to the end, and they don’t seem flustered at all, so they aren’t afraid of these officials at all. Therefore, they won’t get involved at all. They just needed to wait for the officials to come in, so they can leave safely.”

With that, the man pointed at the room where Luo Cheng and Li Xiaoran were.

“In my opinion, the only people we can trust are the couple in this room! That man is definitely an expert. As for that woman, she’s just an ordinary person, but she gives me the feeling that she’s the lucky star of this inn!”

When the woman in red heard this man’s words, her mouth fell open!

“Don’t tell me you’re a fortune-teller?! Lucky star? I don’t believe in superstition!”

“I’m not a fortune-teller. I just learned some techniques, so I can divine it!” the man said.

After the woman in red thought about the man’s words, she decided to take a gamble.

“Forget it. In any case, this is the only way, so why don’t we take a gamble?!”

Therefore, after the two of them discussed, they walked straight to Li Xiaoran and Luo Cheng’s room.

When they reached the door and saw a group of people lying in the corridor, the two of them moved all these people away.

The commotion outside naturally reached Luo Cheng’s ears.

Li Xiaoran sensed the two people walking outside the door and said in a low voice, “These two people came with good intentions. We can meet them later!”

When Luo Cheng heard Li Xiaoran’s words, he nodded and pondered over something.

Soon, the unconscious people outside were dragged to an empty room. The woman in red and the man returned to the room where Luo Cheng and the others were.

“Sorry to disturb you! We have something to discuss with you. I wonder if it’s convenient for us to come in?” the man asked in a low voice. At this moment, two pills were thrown out of the gap..

Chapter 380: So It’s You!

The woman in red and the man exchanged looks of hesitation.

...

The pill in front of them was said to be an antidote, but who knew if it was poison or not?

However, in the current situation, they had to make a choice.

In the end, after weighing the pros and cons, the two of them could only take the antidote.

After that, the two of them pushed the door open and walked in.

“Block the door first!” Luo Cheng said while glancing at the two of them.

After the two of them thought for a moment, they did as Luo Cheng said. Li Xiaoran didn’t hide. Instead, she sat on the bed and looked at the two people in front of her.

After the woman in red thought for a moment, she was the first to speak. “Sorry for disturbing you. We mainly want to discuss how to leave this place safely!”

Luo Cheng didn’t ask why he should believe them. Instead, he pondered for a moment.

“Since we’re going to cooperate, why don’t we be honest?!”

Luo Cheng said,

“My name is Luo Cheng, and this is my wife, Li Xiaoran. How should I address you guys?”

As soon as he finished speaking, the man who had not spoken before became emotional.

At this moment, he stared straight at Luo Cheng and asked in a trembling voice, “You’re Luo Cheng? Luo Cheng from Hele Village?”

When Luo Cheng heard the other party expose his background, he glanced at Li Xiaoran.

Li Xiaoran sensed the man’s excitement, but there was no malice, so she nodded at Luo Cheng.

“You know me?” Luo Cheng asked.

The man was so excited that it was as if he had seen his family.

“I don’t know you, but I’ve heard of you! Brother Luo Cheng, you don’t know how difficult it was for me to find you. Every time I wanted to see you, something happened to me and I was taken away. Also, my senior brother is really mean. He could have brought me straight to you, but he left me there alone. I was unlucky enough to fall into the river and got washed away for more than ten kilometers.”

Luo Cheng was confused when he heard the other party’s words.

He recognized every word this person said, but he couldn’t understand them when they were combined.

“Wait, tell me slowly! You’ve heard of me? From whom?” Luo Cheng asked.

“My mentor? And my senior brother!” the man replied.

“Then who is your mentor? Who is your senior brother?” Luo Cheng continued to ask.

“My mentor is my mentor? As for my senior brother, you definitely know him. He’s Luo Han!” the man replied.

When Luo Cheng heard this, he immediately thought of something.

“Your name is Wu Qinghe, right?!”

On the way back from the capital, Luo Han had mentioned someone called Wu Qinghe to Luo Cheng.

At that time, Luo Cheng didn’t care and forgot about it. Now that the man said that, he immediately remembered.

“Yes, yes, yes. I’m Wu Qinghe! Brother Luo Cheng, you know me?” Wu Qinghe asked happily.

When Luo Cheng heard that it was really Wu Qinghe, who Luo Han had mentioned, he immediately asked curiously, “I remember your senior brother telling you to wait for him in town! He’ll look for you when he comes back from his business. Why did you run out?”

“Don’t mention it. I was waiting for you at home. Unexpectedly, someone barged into my senior brother’s house one night. Out of curiosity, I followed this person to see what he was here for. Unexpectedly, after chasing him out, I lost track of him when I reached the river. Just as I was about to return the way I came, someone suddenly kicked me into the river. Then, I choked on the river water and blacked out. When I woke up, I was already very far away!” Wu Qinghe looked dejected when he mentioned this.

Luo Cheng had also heard from Luo Han about Wu Qinghe’s unluckiness, so he was speechless when he found out about Wu Qinghe’s situation.

“Since you guys know each other, that makes things easier! My name is Shu Ruyue and I came to the martial world to find some experts to spar with. Who knew that I would be trapped in the inn like this? I still have something urgent to do and it can’t be delayed. Let's think of a way to get out of here first!" Seeing that the other party knew each other, Shu Ruyue was even more relieved and went straight to the point.

Luo Cheng thought for a moment and said, "Do you two have a criminal record?"

With a bang, Shu Ruyue placed the sword in her hand on the table with a cold expression.

"Luo Cheng, what do you mean? Could it be that you suspect us of being wanted by the authorities?"

Luo Cheng glanced at Shu Ruyue and replied calmly, "I'm just asking you guys this first in order to confirm some things before I consider telling you guys what I've deduced! You just need to answer if you have a criminal record or not truthfully! "

Wu Qinghe was the first to reply, "No. I've always been unlucky. I'm so unlucky that I even choke on cold water! But the strange thing is that I've never been arrested before!"

After Luo Cheng heard this, he turned to look at Shu Ruyue.

Shu Ruyue also realized that she had been a little rash just now, so she softened her tone slightly.

"Me neither. I've just started and haven't found a fighting expert yet!" When Luo Cheng heard their words, he glanced at Li Xiaoran.

Li Xiaoran nodded, indicating that these two people were telling the truth.

This time, Luo Cheng was finally relieved.

"If I were you guys, I would stay here with us! If anyone wants to break in later, we'll beat them away! As long as we hold out until tomorrow morning, we can leave safely!"

"What do you mean?" Shu Ruyue asked in confusion.

The reason the omclars did this is to force the suspect to appear. I think about it, how long can a person last without eating or drinking? Actually, the suspect wants to leave this place more than us! Therefore, we just need to be patient and wait. When the suspect exposes himself and breaks out, our suspicions will be cleared and we can leave safely tomorrow!" Luo Cheng said.

"Brother Luo Cheng, do you mean that the suspect will break out tonight?" Wu Qinghe immediately understood what Luo Cheng meant.

"If I'm not mistaken, that'll be the case! There's no chance during the day, so if he wants to run, he has to do it at night. Didn't you come to us to discuss leaving previously because you wanted to break out of the encirclement at night?" Luo Cheng asked.

When Wu Qinghe and Shu Ruyue heard Luo Cheng's analysis, they immediately nodded..
