

The Hunter 421

Chapter 421: Putting on a Show

“Actually, I don’t need you to do anything! I just want to confirm something!” At this point, Luo Cheng looked at Wan Feng. “But I can help you with some small favor!”

“What favor?” Qin Cui asked.

Luo Cheng thought for a moment and looked at Wan Feng.

“I don’t think you guys really intend to abandon him. You guys are just angry at him for not fighting for it. Why don’t you give your father a chance to see the true colors of those so-called relatives and see who he chooses?!” When Wan Feng heard Luo Cheng’s words, he immediately nodded.

“How should I give my father a chance?”

“Speaking of which, the only thing in this world that can make family members turn against each other is borrowing money,” Luo Cheng said with a smile.

When Li Xiaoran heard this, she immediately understood something.

“I’ve heard people say this before. If you don’t your relatives and don’t want to interact with them anymore, borrow money! As long as you borrow money, your relatives will instantly become like strangers. Borrowing money is the best test!”

“But what excuse will our family use to borrow so much money now?” Qin Cui asked in confusion.

“Borrowing money to treat illnesses?! This is the most convincing excuse!” Li Xiaoran said with a smile.

“But no one in my family is sick!” Qin Cui had yet to process the situation.

“Why not? Wasn’t I injured? I went to play on the mountain and fell down the hill. I was covered in blood and almost broke my leg!” Wan Feng suddenly said.

Qin Cui was shocked and quickly spat three times.

“Why are you cursing yourself?!”

“Mother, don’t you understand? Only then can my father see what kind of people his so-called buddies are!” Wan Feng said with a frown.

“But you can’t let yourself be injured! If someone has to be injured, let me be injured!” Qin Cui said firmly.

“Actually, neither of you needs to be injured!” Just as the mother and son were about to argue, Luo Cheng said, “I know some skills that can hurt Wan Feng very badly. At the same time, I also have a pill that can change your pulse after taking it. When the doctor takes your pulse, he will say that you injured your internal organs!”

When Wan Feng heard that, he immediately agreed. “I’m willing to try. No matter what happens, I won’t blame you!”

Luo Cheng was amused when he heard Wan Feng’s words.

“Not bad, kid. You’re smart!”

With that, Luo Cheng looked at Qin Cui.

Qin Cui thought for a moment and asked, “Is that pill harmful to my child?”

“No, it’s just that the medicine takes effect for 24 hours! I think this medicine is enough for you guys to give it a try!” Luo Cheng said.

“Why are you helping us?” Qin Cui suddenly said.

“Because I think you two are quite pleasing to the eye! Besides, I want to see the Wan family suffer! To be honest, after you leave the Wan family, that’s when I’ll attack!” As Luo Cheng spoke, he looked at Wan Feng. “Also, you’re a filial person who knows how to protect your mother! I admire your personality!”

With that, Luo Cheng walked towards the back.

“What are you waiting for? Hurry up and follow my husband to disguise yourself!” Li Xiaoran reminded with a smile.

Wan Feng immediately understood and quickly followed.

Li Xiaoran pulled Qin Cui away with a smile.

“Let’s go! Aunt Qin, you should go take a look too. Then, you’ll know that we didn’t lie to you!”

Qin Cui was really a little dubious, so when she heard Li Xiaoran expose her thoughts, she smiled awkwardly and followed Li Xiaoran into the house.

Two hours later, Qin Cui was dumbfounded when she saw her son’s miserable appearance.

If she hadn’t seen it with her own eyes, she wouldn’t have believed that this was all just a disguise.

“Alright, Aunt Qin, hurry up and carry Wan Feng back with Little Huzi!”

After Qin Cui came back to her senses, she suddenly relaxed and a smile appeared on her face.

She reached out and smeared her clothes with some weeds, then messed up her hair and smeared some dead leaves on it.

Qin Cui immediately went to call Little Huzi over to help. Then, the two of them carried Wan Feng out of Luo Cheng’s house.

After the two of them carried Wan Feng to the foot of a hill, they rolled down a big rock. Then, Qin Cui cried loudly and carried Wan Feng back to the village with Little Huzi.

Hearing the commotion outside gradually fade away, Li Xiaoran smiled.

“To be honest, for the first time, I realized that Aunt Qin is actually a talented actress!”

“She’s not a natural actress, but mothers are resilient. For the sake of her child, she developed such an ability over time!” Luo Cheng sighed.

Many people had no choice.

However, most of the time, people could choose.

The current Qin Cui and Wan Feng had made their choice when they had no choice.

Next, it was time for Wan Feng’s biological father to make a choice.

When Li Xiaoran heard Luo Cheng’s words and thought of Qin Cui’s family, her eyes suddenly lit up.

She seemed to have finally found what she wanted to do!

In this world, there were many people struggling to survive.

Everyone faces a different emotional dilemma at every stage.

Perhaps even the people themselves had no realization of this.

She had empathic ability, so she could sense other people’s emotions clearly. She could help them sort out their emotions and get out of trouble.

This was something she had never tried before.

This was something she really wanted to do!

Thinking of this, Li Xiaoran smiled.

Since the heavens had given her such an ability, she should use it well!

“What are you thinking about?” Luo Cheng asked when he noticed that Li Xiaoran was focused on something.

“Husband, I think I found what I want to do!” Li Xiaoran said happily. “Oh really? Then what do you want to do?” Luo Cheng asked curiously.

Li Xiaoran told Luo Cheng her thoughts.

To be honest, Luo Cheng felt that he had never thought of this before.

However, if his wife wanted to do it, so be it!

“I don’t know what will happen if you leave, but since you want to do it, do it! It’s rare for a person to encounter something they want to do in their life. No matter what the outcome is, trying is the most important thing!” Luo Cheng encouraged.

Li Xiaoran nodded with a smile. She was determined to try. Sometimes, being able to help others was the most blissful thing!

Chapter 422: Ruthless

Li Xiaoran didn't take the initiative to ask about Qin Cui, but at night, she heard the outcome from her mother.

Just as they had expected, as soon as they saw that Wan Feng was seriously injured and needed money to treat his illness, the true colors of the Wan family brothers were revealed.

When Wan Feng's biological father, Wan Jiang, saw how injured he was, he was so anxious that his eyes turned red.

He asked his parents for money, but they were unwilling to give it to him.

It was one thing for his brothers not to think of a way to raise money for him, but they were even making sarcastic remarks.

Wan Jiang's brother even said that since his nephew was injured so badly, he might as well give up on treatment. He said that his family's children would definitely support Wan Jiang in the future.

Even though she knew that her son's injuries were fake, Qin Cui couldn't help but feel disappointed when she heard what her family said.

At this moment, she was very glad that Luo Cheng and Li Xiaoran had found them and let them put on such a show.

Otherwise, she really wouldn't have known that this family was so cold-hearted.

In the past, Qin Cui used to mock the Li family for being heartless.

But now, how were the Wan family any better than the Li family?

It was just the pot calling the kettle black!

Thinking of this, Qin Cui's eyes turned red. Then, she took out a knife and glared at the Wan family fiercely.

"If you guys don't take out the money to treat my son today, don't even think about having things easy! In this family, Wan Jiang and I have always been working to earn money, so it doesn't make sense that there's no money when it's our turn to use money! Since everyone isn't willing to take out the money to save my son's life, let's split up. Our family can't lose a single cent. If anyone continues to delay things and cause my son to lose his life, I'll use their lives to pay for it. If you don't believe me, give it a try!"

To be honest, Qin Cui's outburst shocked the Wan family.

One had to know that the knife in Qin Cui's hand wasn't just to scare people. According to their understanding of Qin Cui, she really had the guts to stab them.

Wan Jiang was also shocked by his woman's actions, but on second thought, Wan Jiang felt that he was really cowardly.

He couldn't even save his son, and he had to rely on his woman to threaten people with a knife.

Thinking of this, Wan Jiang toughened up.

After walking to Qin Cui's side, Wan Jiang snatched the knife away.

Qin Cui thought that Wan Jiang still wanted to smooth things over, so she was filled with disappointment. Just as she was about to say something like getting a divorce, she saw Wan Jiang quickly grab Wan Gang and place the kitchen knife against Wan Gang's neck.

"Give me money to treat my son. If my son dies, I'll drag all of you down with him!"

Wan Jiang no longer had his usual weakness. His face was filled with ruthlessness.

This change stunned everyone.

Just as the Wan family thought that Wan Jiang was just joking, Wan Jiang really attacked.

A wound was made on Wan Gang's neck, and blood flowed down.

This time, Wan Gang was frightened out of his wits.

"Give him money! Give him money! I'm going to die if you guys don't!"

Sr. Wan and Madam Wan cared the most about their eldest son. Seeing that Wan Jiang had really attacked, they quickly entered the room to get the money.

A bag of silver was probably twenty to thirty taels of silver. Wan Jiang looked at Qin Cui and said, "Wife, hurry up. Let's take the money and go to town to treat our son's injuries!"

Qin Cui didn't expect the man who had always valued harmony above everything else to suddenly become so unyielding.

At this moment, Qin Cui's eyes turned red. Then, she went forward and took the money from Madam Wan.

After that, Qin Cui looked at Little Huzi and said, "Little Huzi, I remember that Little Ran's family has an ox cart. Help me borrow it from the Luo family!" Little Huzi nodded.

Just as he was about to look for Luo Cheng, the village chief had already asked someone to send the ox cart over. Then, he called Qin Cui and Wan Jiang to send the child to the doctor first.

Qin Cui had no choice but to bring her son and the man onto the ox cart.

When the ox cart stopped in front of a medical center and she saw Luo Ziyang in it, Qin Cui immediately relaxed.

Soon, the doctor asked someone to carry Wan Feng in. Then, he asked Qin Cui to stay inside while Wan Jiang went outside to pay the consultation fee.

Wan Jiang was worried about his son, so he didn't ask further and followed the person out to pay.

When no one was around, Luo Ziyang ran in.

“Don’t worry, I’ll return the money in the future. The doctor will help you treat your wounds. As for Wan Feng’s act, you should consider if you want to tell Wan Jiang or not. If I were you, in order not to have any more accidents, it would be better to talk about it after you guys leave the family!”

Qin Cui was hesitant. Her man had injured Wan Gang with a knife just now, so Qin Cui still had some hope for her man.

However, Wan Feng, who had been pretending to be unconscious, spoke up.

“Mother, don’t tell my father yet! Let’s talk about it after we split up! If my father argues with you over this, divorce him!”

When Qin Cui heard her son’s words, she immediately calmed down.

“Alright, let’s not talk about it for now!”

After Luo Ziyang arranged things, he left quietly.

When Wan Jiang saw Wan Feng again, his situation seemed much better.

His bloodstained clothes had been changed, and his face looked a little rosy. The big wound on her leg had also been treated and bandaged.

When the old doctor walked out, he glanced at Wan Jiang and cursed.

“Your son was so seriously injured, so why didn’t you send him over in time? If it weren’t for me, your son wouldn’t have survived. Fortunately, your son has a strong will and survived, but his leg is seriously injured, so he has to recuperate when he goes back. If he doesn’t recuperate properly, his leg will be crippled in the future!”

When Wan Jiang heard the old doctor’s words, he immediately lowered his head in shame and let the old doctor scold him.

After that, the old doctor prescribed a prescription and asked Wan Jiang to get the medicine. Then, he asked the couple to bring Wan Feng back home to recuperate.

Along the way, Wan Jiang didn’t say a single word.

Qin Cui was still a little nervous. She thought that Wan Jiang had discovered what she had done, but as soon as she returned home, Wan Jiang called his family out and invited the old village chief over.

Without any nonsense, Wan Jiang asked to split up.

Although Wan Jiang used to act like a pacifist all the time, he was aware of the situation.

He roughly explained what the four brothers had done every year, how much money they had earned, and how much money their parents had.

Although it was an estimate, it roughly explained the situation at home.

After saying this, Wan Jiang requested to split the family assets.

Sr. Wan was furious.. He glared at Wan Jiang and asked, “Are you determined to split things up?”

Chapter 423: Sleepwalk

“It’s fine if we don’t leave, as long as Father, Mother, and others feel at ease sleeping at night. When I went to town, the doctor saw that I didn’t look right and took my pulse. The doctor said that I sleepwalk, and I like to knock watermelons the most. Whenever I see that the watermelon is ripe, I cut it off!” Wan Jiang said as he chuckled softly. Then, he stared at his eldest brother’s head.

At this moment, Wan Gang felt as if his head was like a ripe watermelon. Then, he imagined the scene of his brother cutting it off!

“Split. Split. Father, Mother, hurry up and split! He has gone crazy!” At this moment, Wan Jiang’s gaze landed on his other brothers.

In the end, after Wan Jiang’s threat, the Wan family really split up.

After splitting up, Wan Jiang brought his family and his things and moved out of the Wan family’s house. Then, he went to the village to rent a house.

“I wonder what Wan Jiang said to that eccentric old man for him to actually rent the house to Wan Jiang. How expected!” After talking about the Wan family, Zhao Xiu marveled.

“Mother, he might seem to have a strange temper because he doesn’t want to be disturbed! As you know, Master Duan is a lonely old man and his house is well-built. Not to mention the village, even many people in the nearby villages have designs on his house. Master Duan isn’t stupid. Why would he want to be schemed against?!” When Li Xiaoran heard this, she said disapprovingly, “As for why Wan Jiang was able to rent that house, it’s because of his capabilities!”

When Zhao Xiu heard her daughter’s words, she felt that she was right and didn’t mention this matter again.

“By the way, Xiaoran! Are you free tomorrow? Aunt Hui and Uncle Guan said that they have something to ask you for help with!”

“What is it?” Li Xiaoran asked curiously.

“They didn’t specify things. Don’t go to the shop tomorrow morning and just wait at home! I think Aunt Hui is quite anxious about this!” Zhao Xiu shook her head, indicating that she didn’t know either.

Li Xiaoran nodded.

“Alright, I’ll wait at home tomorrow!”

After Zhao Xiu finished talking, she went home.

Li Xiaoran returned to her room to ask Luo Cheng how to deal with the Wan family next.

“That’s right. What Wan Jiang did this time was beyond my expectations!” Li Xiaoran said and told him what she had heard from her mother.

After Luo Cheng heard this, he immediately laughed.

“Fortunately, he came to his senses at the critical moment!”

“Husband, don’t keep me in suspense. Hurry up and tell me what you’re going to do next.” Li Xiaoran was really curious and asked.

Seeing that Li Xiaoran was so curious, Luo Cheng deliberately said, “I want to eat a bowl of dumplings made by my wife!”

“Yes, I’ll make them later!” Li Xiaoran quickly agreed.

“I want to eat two kinds of stuffing, one with chives and eggs, and the other with chives and pork!” Luo Cheng made another request.

“I can also give you cabbage and pork filling dumplings. But husband, you have to help me!” Li Xiaoran said.

“Alright, no problem!” Luo Cheng smiled and nodded.

“Actually, I didn’t think about how to take action. I just investigated the Wan family. Things are going to be lively in the Wan family! The Wan family is really easy to investigate and we have all sorts of dirty things on them! I think we’ve been too busy recently, so this a good opportunity to watch something entertaining and relax!” Luo Cheng said.

When Li Xiaoran heard her husband’s plan, she immediately laughed.

“Then I’ll wait to watch the show!”

However, Li Xiaoran didn’t expect it to happen so quickly.

Before He Hui and Guan Dongshan even arrived, the Wan family was already bustling.

The first wave of trouble was from the Wan family.

A woman and a little boy came straight to their door and said that this child was Wan Gang’s.

Wan Gang’s wife flew into a rage.

Wan Gang’s wife’s family was relatively well-off. Over the years, she had also subsidized the Wan family with a lot of things.

It was precisely because of this that Qin Cui's sister-in-law had it the easiest in the Wan family.

Wan Gang was also famous for treating his wife well, but what happened at this time was a slap in the face!

The little boy brought by that woman was simply Wan Gang's doppelganger. Wan Gang couldn't deny it even if he wanted to.

After Wan Gang's wife scratched Wan Gang's face, she packed her things and left.

Wan Gang's wife was quite shrewd. Before she left, she took her child away and even packed all her money and valuables.

These things had been given to her by her family, so she could take them away if she wanted.

After Li Xiaoran learned this news, she was immediately dumbfounded and looked at her husband.

"Husband, is this true?"

"Of course it's true! You didn't notice, did you?!" Luo Cheng asked with a smile.

Li Xiaoran nodded and said, "Wan Gang isn't good-looking or talented. How can anyone be willing to be with him and even give birth to a child?"

"You have to know that some men have big egos. He's been suppressed by his wife for so many years, so naturally, he can only find someone else to show his manhood to!" Luo Cheng sneered.

Li Xiaoran had seen many such men in the modern world in the past.

Many men, under long-term repression, became mentally unhinged and even crazy enough to kill their wives.

Therefore, it made sense for Wan Gang to have a mistress and an illegitimate child.

At this moment, Luo Ziyang knocked on the door.

"Sister-in-law, Aunt Hui and Uncle Guan brought Guan Kang over!"

Li Xiaoran thought about what her mother had said to her yesterday and nodded. Then, she went to the main hall at the front to see He Hui and her family.

"Aunt Hui and Uncle Guan, what have you two been busy with recently? I feel like I haven't seen you two in a long time!" When Li Xiaoran saw He Hui and her family, she chatted with them.

He Hui looked at Guan Dongshan and then at her son, Guan Kang, before saying, "Our family has returned to our hometown recently!"

Li Xiaoran knew about Guan Dongshan and He Hui's situation. When she heard that they had returned to their hometown, she was a little surprised.

"Did something happen back home?"

Chapter 424: Abnormal Phenomenon

He Hui shook her head and said, "There's no problem at home. However, we discovered something unusual about Kang'er!"

"Abnormality?" When Li Xiaoran heard this, she thought of Guan Kang's difference and said, "Could it be that there's something wrong with Kang'er's blood?"

"It's not that there's a problem with his blood. How should I put it?!" He Hui really didn't know what to say.

"Mother, I'll explain it myself!" Seeing that his mother didn't know what to say, Guan Kang stood up. "Sister Ran, something strange happened to me. Wherever I live, plants will grow very lushly!" Li Xiaoran was stunned.

Why did she find this abnormality quite familiar?

Didn't people with superpowers have such abilities?

If plants could grow very lushly, it meant that wood elements were related to superpowers.

Thinking of this, Li Xiaoran looked at Guan Kang.

"Kang'er, do you know what you're talking about? Once your ability is exposed, there will be countless trouble. From now on, you'll be coveted by countless people!"

When Guan Kang met Li Xiaoran's anxious eyes and felt her kindness, he smiled.

"Sister Ran, I know what I'm talking about. I also know what my ability will bring to myself and our family if it gets out. It's precisely because I know it very well that I asked my parents to bring me to you!"

Li Xiaoran was stunned when she heard Guan Kang's words.

After gradually calming down, Li Xiaoran looked at Guan Kang.

"You came looking for protection? But why me? Why didn't you go to Luo Cheng?"

"Because I only believe you!" Guan Kang said, "Brother Luo Cheng will protect me because of my abilities, but you won't!"

At this moment, Li Xiaoran could feel Guan Kang's trust and calmness.

At the same time, she didn't deny that Guan Kang was right.

She was a person with special abilities, so she empathized with people like Guan Kang.

Therefore, after she found out about Guan Kang's abilities, she would protect and help him.

However, Luo Cheng was different. If Guan Kang told him directly, he would be protected by Luo Cheng, but he had to use his ability in exchange for Luo Cheng's protection.

Although the former and the latter both had the same goal in the end, the difference was quite substantial.

At least, with Li Xiaoran helping him, he would be able to live more freely.

Although Guan Kang was young, he had experienced a lot.

It was precisely because he had experienced a lot that he could see through many things more clearly than adults.

After Li Xiaoran took a few deep breaths, she looked at He Hui and Guan Dongshan.

"Aunt Hui, Uncle He, what do you think?"

After He Hui and Guan Dongshan exchanged looks, Guan Dongshan spoke.

"Xiaoran, Kang'er means what we mean! We also know that we can't protect Kang'er's ability, and we don't trust others, so we can only trouble you. Please help us!"

When Li Xiaoran heard this, her mind raced and her fingers tapped on the coffee table.

After a while, the knocking stopped and Li Xiaoran looked at Guan Kang.

"Kang'er, let me ask you again! Are you really planning to follow us? You have to know that Luo Cheng and I might not be able to protect you because we ourselves are also in trouble!"

Guan Kang nodded without hesitation.

"Sister Ran, I've already thought it through! You're the only one I can trust. If you can't protect me, my life will be even more miserable when I fall into the hands of other people. No matter what trouble you have, I'm willing to follow you and help you with my abilities!"

After Li Xiaoran understood Guan Kang's thoughts, she nodded.

"Aunt Hui, Uncle He, this happened too suddenly, so let me think about how to arrange Kang'er! Why don't you bring Kang'er back and wait for the news first?!,

He Hui hesitated for a moment and said, "Xiaoran, Kang'er's unique abilities attracts too much attention. Can you let Kang'er live in your house?! You're the only family around here. Even if there's anything unusual, it won't spread, but it'll be different if Kang'er lives at home. The surrounding neighbors will notice the abnormality!"

Li Xiaoran could understand He Hui's worry. If it were her, she would have done the same.

"Sure, Aunt Hui. Let Kang'er stay in the room he lived in before!"

At this point, Li Xiaoran added, "If you're worried, you can stay with Kang'er!"

He Hui and Guan Dongshan shook their heads together and said, "We won't be moving in. It'll be a little eye-catching if we move in with him. If we only let Kang'er move in, I can say that Kang'er and Changsheng are very close and that the two children like to live together!"

When Li Xiaoran heard that He Hui had found an excuse, she nodded. "Alright, then use this reason to let Kang'er live in! I'll talk to Changsheng too. It just so happens that Changsheng is about to come back to practice martial arts. With the Luo family's two brothers at the shop, we won't be short of manpower!"

Seeing that Li Xiaoran had arranged everything, He Hui thanked her gratefully.

After that, the family went back to pack their things. They would come back later.

After sending He Hui and her family off, Li Xiaoran sighed and went to the study to look for Luo Cheng.

Seeing Li Xiaoran return with a solemn expression, Luo Cheng put down the book in his hand.

"What's wrong? Is the Guan family in trouble?"

"They're in trouble, but this trouble is actually a good thing for us!" Li Xiaoran said.

Luo Cheng didn't understand.

Since it was a good thing, why did his wife look so troubled?

"Husband, Guan Kang is Kang'er. Like me, he has special abilities!" Li Xiaoran went straight to the point.

After Luo Cheng heard Li Xiaoran's explanation, he was dumbfounded.

Even though he had seen many strange things, Luo Cheng's heart skipped a beat when he heard about Guan Kang's ability.

"Wife, do you know what Guan Kang's ability means? Whoever snatches him will have a firm hold on the throne! If my brothers find out, Guan Kang will definitely be captured and squeezed dry!"

"I know! That's why I made this decision! Having Kang'er around is equivalent to having a lot of food and planting a lot of herbs. It can also increase sales and help us earn a lot of money. But husband, I don't want this! Kang'er is a person, not a tool. He has his own thoughts and we should respect his thoughts!" Li Xiaoran said..

Chapter 425: Observation First

When Luo Cheng heard Li Xiaoran's words, he immediately calmed down.

Luo Cheng could understand Li Xiaoran's feelings at this moment because she was also someone with such special abilities.

Speaking of which, Li Xiaoran's abilities were also very important to his brothers.

As long as his wife was around, those people could subdue anyone they wanted.

However, these two most capable people were in his hands now.

If his brothers and scumbag father found out, they would treat him as a thorn in their side!

At the thought of this, Luo Cheng was amused.

“Wife, don’t worry, I won’t use Guan Kang to do anything. If he wants a peaceful life, he can stay in the villa! If the crops in the villa grow well, we’ll say that this piece of land has good fengshui. However, he might have a lot less freedom in the future. The only place he can live is the villa!” Luo Cheng thought for a moment and said, “As for the rest, he doesn’t have to do anything “The manor is safe, but we still have to protect him. We can’t let the people in the manor notice anything unusual!” Li Xiaoran reminded.

Luo Cheng thought for a moment and asked, “Have you seen how capable Guan Kang is?”

“What do you mean?” Li Xiaoran asked in confusion.

“Think about it. Can he affect plants wherever he is? If that’s the case, he actually doesn’t have to seek our protection. However, we have to accurately control the range of his influence and the time when it takes effect. For example, if he stays in a place for an entire day, will that place change? We have to observe carefully how shocking the changes will be. Only by familiarizing ourselves with the effect of Guan Kang’s special ability can we provide him with a safe place,” Luo Cheng explained.

Li Xiaoran was still a little confused and didn’t understand what Luo Cheng wanted to say.

After Luo Cheng thought about it for a moment, he gave some examples.

“If Guan Kang stays in a single place for a month and the surrounding plants are only slightly lush, there are many places he can go. There’s no need to be trapped in one place. If Guan Kang stays in a place for only a single day, but the surrounding plants will grow very quickly and obviously, then there will be very few places he can go in the future. He can’t even stay in a manor and can only live in seclusion deep in the mountains!”

Li Xiaoran understood now and was a little dumbfounded.

Because she had not asked how capable Guan Kang was just now.

“Don’t be anxious. Isn’t Guan Kang going to move in later? We’ll ask him when the time comes! It’s possible that Guan Kang doesn’t even know how influential his ability is, so we have to observe carefully every day, record the data, and find the pattern!” Luo Cheng said.

Li Xiaoran nodded and remembered this.

When He Hui and Guan Dongshan appeared at the Luo family's house with Guan Kang again, Luo Cheng and Li Xiaoran appeared together.

This time, the five of them sat together and talked about Guan Kang.

“Don't worry, we won't use Guan Kang to do anything, but there's something I have to make clear to you first. In order not to let others discover Guan Kang's abnormality in the future, I have to know more about his abilities.”

At this point, Luo Cheng repeated the reasons he had given Li Xiaoran.

At the mention of this, He Hui and Guan Dongshan were also very confused.

“We don't know how capable the child is, but after we came home, our child suddenly realized that a lot of vegetables and fruits had grown in the vegetable garden, and they tasted very good. At that time, we didn't care, but Kang'er told us to hurry home and that if we stayed any longer, there would be a problem!” He Hui said.

When Luo Cheng heard He Hui's words, he looked at Guan Kang.

“Then do you know yourself? Do you know what your ability is like?”

Guan Kang thought about it carefully and said, “If I hadn't been so worked up, the effect wouldn't have been so obvious! For example, after living in my house for a few months, the vegetables and fruits in the vegetable garden grew very well, but there weren't that much of them. Other than tasting good, there's nothing special about it!”

Guan Kang paused.

“After I followed my parents back to my hometown, my emotions fluctuated a few times. Every time they fluctuated, the plants around me would grow very quickly. I don't know how quickly, but after I discovered the abnormality, I didn't dare to stay in my hometown. As for how far-reaching the effects were, I don't know. I was frightened and only wanted to leave my hometown!” When Luo Cheng heard this, he knew what to do.

“Since none of us know, we have to record it every day. Don't hide any emotional fluctuations. We have to record them in detail and observe Guan

Kang for a month first!”

Guan Kang could feel that Luo Cheng really wanted to help him, so he nodded.

This matter was settled.

When Changsheng returned from the shop that night, Li Xiaoran brought him to Guan Kang and told him the reason He Hui had mentioned.

“Changsheng, Kang'er has some health problems and wants to come to our place to recuperate. Because he doesn't want others to know that he's sick, he needs you to help him cover for him. If others ask why Kang'er is living in our house in the future, just say that the two of you become friends and hope to see each other often in the future, so you let Kang'er live here!"

Changsheng was a sensible child. When he saw that Guan Kang looked as thin as him, he knew that he must be in poor health.

Walking forward, Changsheng placed his hand on Guan Kang's shoulder and said, "Guan Kang, don't worry. I'll take good care of you in the future. It's fine even if you're not in good health at the moment. Look at me. My health was very poor previously. Thanks to Sister Ran, Brother Luo Cheng, and a few other brothers taking care of me, my health is getting better and better! You'll get better in the future as well!"

Guan Kang didn't resist Changsheng's approach. When he heard Changsheng's words, Guan Kang nodded with a smile.

"Alright! Changsheng, please take care of me in the future!"

Seeing that the two children were getting along well, Li Xiaoran smiled.

"Then you'll be buddies from now on! If you're buddies, you have to take care of each other all the way. You have to treat each other sincerely and never abandon each other. You can't abandon your buddy for any reason. Can you do that?"

Changsheng and Guan Kang nodded together and replied in unison, "We can!" "Alright! Then go play!" Li Xiaoran said with a smile.

"Guan Kang, which room are you staying in? Show me! I'm also wondering if I should move out and live alone. I don't like living with Brother Ziyang. Brother Ziyang keeps snoring at night!" Changsheng pulled Guan Kang inside and said..

Chapter 426: Follow-up of the Wan Family's Matter

As Li Xiaoran looked at the two children who were on good terms already, she shook her head with a smile.

As soon as Guan Kang's matter was settled, Little Huzi brought a second wave of news about the Wan family.

The news that the second son of the Wan family owed a gambling debt outside was also exposed.

This time, the people from the casino came personally to ask for it.

Speaking of which, these people were the group of people who had come to the Li family to collect debts.

As a result, the Wan family became the second family in the village to be approached by a casino after the Li family.

The Wan family was in chaos again.

The family assets that they had painstakingly obtained were all used to pay off their gambling debts. They even compensated some chickens and ducks. Even the two pigs raised at home for the new year were taken away by the casino.

This matter made things worse for the Wan family, which wasn't rich to begin with.

This wasn't the end. The engagement of the Wan family's second son's eldest son was also called off.

The other party returned the betrothal gift and the engagement letter. They would rather compensate the Wan family for their losses than let their daughter marry into this sort of family.

After that, the few juniors of the Wan family who were originally working in town were fired one after another.

For a moment, other than Wan Jiang's family, who was safe and sound, all sorts of misfortunes happened to the other families.

Everyone thought that the Wan family was already miserable enough.

But in the blink of an eye, it was the next day.

As soon as Li Xiaoran finished eating the meat buns, she saw Little Huzi rushing over again.

"Brother Luo Cheng, Sister Ran, something happened to the Wan family again!"

When Li Xiaoran heard Little Huzi's voice, she looked at Luo Cheng before waving at Little Huzi.

"Have you eaten breakfast yet? Hurry up and eat two buns!"

Little Huzi didn't stand on ceremony with Li Xiaoran. After he washed his hands, he went to the table for breakfast.

Guan Kang and Changsheng were also very happy to see Little Huzi, so the three of them sat together as they ate.

After Little Huzi ate his fill, he remembered why he had come.

"Sister Ran, Brother Luo Cheng, something happened to the Wan family again! This time, the officials came looking for them. It seems that the Wan family has killed someone, so the officials are here to arrest them!"

Li Xiaoran didn't expect this to happen, so she asked, "Who in the Wan family killed someone?"

"It's Wan Pan, the one who went to the shop to snatch Sister Wen Lu last time. It turns out that Wan Pan liked to snatch girls by force before. It's said that a girl went missing for a long time and her corpse was finally found in a mountain ditch. The murderer has never been found, and the case has never been solved. Not long ago, a new clue suddenly appeared and they traced the crime to Wan Pan!" Little Huzi revealed what he had heard.

Li Xiaoran gasped. She didn't expect the Wan family to actually kill someone.

Li Xiaoran didn't ask Little Huzi any more questions. Instead, she waited for the three children to go out to play before looking at Luo Cheng.

“Husband, you found out long ago?”

Luo Cheng nodded and said, “After you told me, I'll get someone to investigate the Wan family. They think that they've done a lot of things secretly, but their crimes can't withstand detailed investigations at all. Otherwise, why would I call Qin Cui and her son over in advance? It's naturally because the Wan family has done too many wicked things. Speaking of which, although the Wan family has done many bad things, Wan Jiang and his family are quite upright!” Speaking of this, Li Xiaoran also thought of her family. “Good bamboo shoots can grow from evil bamboo, just like our family!” Luo Cheng smiled when he heard Li Xiaoran's words.

“It seems that the fengshui of that piece of land in the village is not very good!

Otherwise, why would the two neighboring families be so wicked?!”

Luo Cheng wasn't the only one who had such thoughts. The others in the village were also secretly discussing it.

Because of this, all the families living next door to the Wan family and the Li family were suspected by the villagers.

In any case, from then on, even if there was still an empty space around the Wan family and the Li family, no one was willing to build a house there.

After all, no one was willing to move into a place with bad fengshui.

After that, Li Xiaoran stopped paying attention to the Wan family because her relatives had moved over.

Luo Cheng had paid for many carriages to Eagle Village early on to help the Zhao family move out.

As the granddaughter of the Zhao family, Li Xiaoran naturally had to follow suit.

After everything was moved to the big house. Zhao Hgaishan and Xu Xiufang looked at the house that had been renovated and cleaned up with a smile.

Everything was ready and the furniture was also set up.

Therefore, everyone just had to move the things off the ox cart and put them in their respective rooms.

Previously, Zhao Huaishan had already divided the residence, so everyone only needed to carry their bags and move in.

In addition, there was a kitchen built where every family lived.

In other words, the Zhao family could also cook themselves whenever they wanted.

Zhao Huaishan had suggested this long ago, so everything was arranged according to his wishes.

For the next two days, the Zhao family unpacked their things at home.

The day after Zhao Sisi arrived at Hele Village, she went to the shop with Li Xiaoqing to sell knife-cut noodles.

Li Xiaoqing and her sister, Li Xiaoran, were still busy.

Not only did she have to sell knife-cut noodles, but she also had to practice martial arts.

Since Granny Qiu had accepted Li Xiaoqing as her disciple, she immediately became serious and responsible towards her.

Previously, she had asked Luo Cheng to get a lot of herbs and let Li Xiaoqing soak in the medicinal bath for a few days.

Then, they brought some things to tie up various parts of Li Xiaoqing's body.

Peeling noodles was originally very easy, but Li Xiaoqing found it much more difficult to do it after carrying weights.

Even so, Li Xiaoqing didn't complain about being tired. Instead, she gritted her teeth and endured it.

Granny Qiu was very satisfied with Li Xiaoqing's tenacity.

After the Zhao family settled down, Li Xiaoran and Luo Cheng welcomed Kang Zheng and Wen Lu's marriage.

After moving into their new residence, Kang Zheng and Wen Lu had to work at the shop during the day, so they could only use nighttime to tidy up. After everything was sorted out, the Wan family's matter also came to an end.

To be honest, after seeing that the Wan family had received retribution, Wen Lu felt extremely pleased.

Coincidentally, Qin Cui came to apologize, so Wen Lu reconciled with Qin Cui and restored their relationship.

Therefore, on the day of Wen Lu's marriage, Qin Cui brought her family to send Wen Lu off.

By sending her off, she acted the part of her family.

However, Wen Lu and Kang Zheng didn't care about these customs.

Qin Cui watched in relief as Wen Lu married Kang Zheng happily!

She could finally give her deceased family an explanation!

Chapter 427: Reward for the Brave Girl

Kang Zheng and Wen Lu didn't know many people in the village, so they only invited the few people they were familiar with.

Because they worked together often, they spoke much more casually.

After the men ate and drank, they chatted.

Because Li Xiaoqing and Zhao Sisi still had to go to the shop tomorrow, they went back early to rest.

Qin Cui and Zhao Xiu tidied up the kitchen together. The two of them were familiar with each other in the past, so they naturally had a lot to talk about.

Li Xiaoran thought of something and pulled Wen Lu to a quiet place. Then, she handed her a wooden box.

“I originally wanted to use it as your dowry, but I was too busy previously and forgot. Today, I’ll treat it as a congratulatory gift for you and Kang Zheng’s marriage!”

Wen Lu didn’t expect Li Xiaoran to give her a gift as well. One had to know that Luo Cheng had already given her a generous gift today.

“How can that be?!” Wen Luo said hesitantly, “Brother Luo Cheng just brought a bunch of congratulatory gifts over!”

“How can I accept it? He gave you and Kang Zheng a congratulatory gift, but this is my congratulatory gift to you,” Li Xiaoran explained with a smile.

Since Li Xiaoran had said so, Wen Lu accepted it generously.

“Open it and see if you like it!” Li Xiaoran said with a smile. When Wen Lu heard this, she opened the wooden box.

Wen Lu was stunned when she saw what was inside.

In the wooden box, there was a ruby necklace.

Under the light of the fire, the ruby emitted a dazzling light.

“Isn’t this too expensive?” Wen Lu asked.

“Marriage should be every girl’s happiest moment in her life. Wen Lu, although your parents have already gone to heaven, their love for you won’t disappear. Every parent wants their children to be safe and happy for the rest of their lives. I accidentally picked up this ruby necklace by the river in the deep mountains when I went out to play. Later, I handed the ruby to my mother and asked her to help me make this necklace!” Li Xiaoran explained the source of this gemstone necklace.

With that, Li Xiaoran reached out and took out the necklace from the wooden box before putting it around Wen Lu’s neck.

“Girls should be the most beautiful bride on the day of our marriage! You too! As long as you keep facing life so optimistically, you will definitely have the happiness that other girls have! Your future life will definitely be as bright as this ruby necklace. This is my blessing to you!”

When Wen Lu heard Li Xiaoran’s words, her eyes turned red.

Yes, what other girls had, she might not have.

But she also had what other girls might not have.

“Thank you. At this moment, I feel lucky! The heavens gave me a lot of misfortune, but also gave me a lot of blessings! Thank you, Xiaoran!”

“Silly, what you have now is the best reward from the heavens! Therefore, after you get married, you have to be as brave as before!” Li Xiaoran said with a smile.

Wen Lu nodded and remembered Li Xiaoran’s kindness.

No matter what happened in the future, no matter how difficult things were, as long as Wen Lu took out this ruby necklace, she would be filled with boundless courage.

Because she knew that she should be brave, because only by being brave could everything be possible!

That night, when everyone was done chatting, they helped tidy up. Then, they left Kang Zheng and Wen Lu alone in the bridal chamber.

On the way back, Luo Cheng suddenly held Li Xiaoran’s hand tightly.

“What’s wrong?” Li Xiaoran looked at Luo Cheng in surprise.

“Your hands are cold, so I’ll warm them for you!” Luo Cheng said.

Li Xiaoran laughed when she heard Luo Cheng’s words.

If he wanted to hold her hand, just say so! But he actually found such an excuse. Her husband was really cute!

“I’m not lying to you. Feel how cold your hand is!” Luo Cheng explained seriously.

Li Xiaoran nodded with a smile. “I think so. My hands are really cold! If only they were this cold in summer. This way, I wouldn’t be afraid of the heat!”

“No, cold hands and feet is a sickness. You have to be treated! You have to soak your feet in hot water in summer as well. This will help you recuperate!” Luo Cheng said.

“I have to soak in hot water on such a hot day?! Husband, no!” With that, Li Xiaoran stopped and blinked at Luo Cheng.

Luo Cheng pretended that it was too dark to see Li Xiaoran’s wheedling. Then, he pretended to be calm as he said, “Be good and stop fooling around. I’ll soak with you!”

This amused Li Xiaoran.

On second thought, Li Xiaoran felt that Luo Cheng’s actions were very heartwarming.

“Sure, you said so, so you have to stay with me!”

“Alright! I’ll accompany you for the rest of my life!” As the night wind blew, his clear voice sounded in Li Xiaoran’s ears.

At this moment, Li Xiaoran wished that time would stop!

After Kang Zheng and Wen Lu got married, Li Xiaoran gave them three days off without any salary deduction.

Therefore, the people at the shop became busier for the next few days.

Luo Cheng was preparing to go to the capital while waiting for some news.

Soon, news came from the capital.

Seeing that his brothers in the capital could barely take care of their own matters, Luo Cheng put away the note in satisfaction and placed it in the brazier to burn.

It seemed that they could enter the capital now.

At this moment, Pei Xuanxin and Li Yan, who were preparing for the exam in the capital, were not having a good time.

The scheduled Spring Meeting was delayed because of what happened next.

Just as many examinees were wondering if the Spring Meeting would be held this year, the imperial court finally gave a notice: The Spring Meeting would be held in twenty days.

The examinees heaved a sigh of relief.

Pei Xuanxin also felt much more relaxed. At this moment, he was focused on studying.

What made Pei Xuanxin feel baffled was that his wife, Li Yan, could buy some question sets for him to practice every once in a while.

It had to be said that these questions had inspired him a lot and he was full of confidence now.

Ai Mingze and Qi Fei seemed to have been studying hard recently. Other than coming over occasionally to discuss some difficult questions, they studied separately.

To be honest, this sort of interaction mode made Pei Xuanxin much more relaxed.

For some reason, Qi Fei and Ai Mingze always gave him an uncomfortable feeling.

He couldn't explain where this discomfort came from.

Fortunately, the Spring Meeting was about to begin.. After the exam, they probably wouldn't interact again!

Chapter 428: Worth It To Her

Li Yan, who was in the room at the side, couldn't sit still.

Recently, because the Spring Meeting had been postponed, Young Master Qi stopped paying attention to them.

Previously, they had been giving out good food, but later on, they had to pay for their own expenses.

She didn't use the silver she had obtained. Instead, she went straight to her husband, Pei Xuanxin.

Pei Xuanxin was used to living a hard life, so after hearing Li Yan's words, he took out some silver and asked her to spend it sparingly.

Li Yan was used to being extravagant, so now that she had to scrimp and save, she felt extremely uncomfortable.

She didn't dare to reveal her discomfort, so she could only endure it.

She had no other choice. She had yet to get the rest of the money from Young Master Qi, so she could only endure it for now.

Initially, she thought that after the news was confirmed, Young Master Qi would come back to look for her husband.

But until now, Qi Fei and the others had yet to appear.

This time, Li Yan was a little anxious.

Could Young Master Qi have gone back on his word?

At this moment, Young Master Qi sent another question set. In addition to the question set, he also sent some food over.

Seeing these things, Li Yan finally felt relieved.

When Ai Mingze came to look for Qi Fei, he heard a servant report that the questions and things had been sent over according to Qi Fei's instructions.

Ai Mingze asked curiously, "Didn't you say before that you don't have to send anything to the people over there? Why are you sending it over now?"

Qi Fei laughed when he heard Ai Mingze's words.

"Do you know why it was postponed?"

Ai Mingze shook his head. He was just a businessman and didn't have any influence in the capital, so how could he know about this?

"I've asked someone to ask around. The reason the Spring Meeting was postponed was that an examiner was caught for misconduct. It's also because of this that the exam questions were changed again! We can only rely on them to help us now!" Qi Fei said with a smile.

When Ai Mingze heard that, he stopped asking.

He and Qi Fei were on the same side anyway. From now on, he could only follow Qi Fei, so he didn't ask if Qi Fei didn't say anything.

"Are you sure there's no problem this time?" Ai Mingze asked after a moment.

"Don't worry! It'll be fine!" Qi Fei said.

After that, the two of them talked about other things.

Luo Cheng also decided on the time to set off.

When they heard that their daughter and son-in-law were going out again, although Li Shun and Zhao Xiu were worried, they didn't stop them.

Young people should travel more often. Otherwise, when they were old, they wouldn't be able to travel that far even if they wanted to.

However, Zhao Xiu called Li Xiaoran home and reminded her to stay safe.

“Father, Mother, what are you guys thinking?! Can't you guys be more optimistic?” When Li Xiaoran felt her parents' concern, she teased with a smile.

“That's not what we meant. It's just that what happened last time really frightened us!” Zhao Xiu said with lingering fear.

“Father, Mother, no matter what you hear or see this time, don't believe it. Also, try not to go out. Stay in the village. As long as you don't leave the village, nothing serious will happen!” At this point, Li Xiaoran paused for a moment before saying, “As for us, even if we encounter any problems, we can resolve them ourselves, so don't worry!”

Although she said that, she was still very worried.

“Alright, we'll be fine at home. Don't worry! Isn't Aunt Qiu around? With her around, we're not afraid,” Zhao Xiu said.

Li Xiaoran nodded, but didn't say anything else.

To be honest, with Granny Qiu around, she and Luo Cheng were relieved.

Therefore, this time, Luo Ziyang was going to the capital with Luo Cheng and Li Xiaoran.

In addition to Luo Ziyang, there were also Wu Qinghe and Zi Zheng.

However, as they waited for Wu Qinghe to return, some problems arose at the manor.

After Luo Cheng thought about it for a moment, he finally let Luo Ziyang stay.

After all, with Luo Ziyang at home, he could feel more at ease.

Luo Ziyang could take care of the manor and the wine shop in town at the same time.

Although Luo Ziyang wanted to follow his brother and sister-in-law to the capital, he also understood that Hele Village was very important to his brother and sister-in-law.

Therefore, after careful consideration, Luo Ziyang gave up on going to the capital and chose to stay here.

When Li Xiaoqing and Changsheng heard that Luo Ziyang would stay, they immediately cheered happily.

“Do you see that? Ziyang is much more popular than the two of us!” As Li Xiaoran watched from the side, she said jealously.

Luo Cheng glanced at Li Xiaoran and apologized, “It's all my fault!”

Li Xiaoran looked at Luo Cheng in confusion while wondering why he was apologizing.

“I’m not charming enough to attract all your attention and you’re still have the mood to be jealous of other people. As your husband, I’ve failed to do my job!” As soon as he said this, Li Xiaoran chuckled.

Why did she feel that she wasn’t the one who was jealous, but the man in front of her?

At the same time, a carriage was speeding towards Hele Village.

The people sitting in the carriage were none other than Wu Qinghe and the others, who had gone out to save Shu Ruyue and Li Xia.

Zi Cheng and Zi Zheng took turns driving the carriage forward.

In the carriage, Shu Ruyue’s face was pale and she looked like she was on her last breath.

Wu Qinghe, who was hugging Shu Ruyue, felt a sense of heartache.

It was because of him that Shu Ruyue became like this.

When they rushed over to save Shu Ruyue and Li Xia yesterday, Shu Ruyue helped him block the sword and got poisoned as a result. That was why her life was on the line.

“Young Master Wu, didn’t you already divine it previously? Miss Ruyue is lucky this time, so she’ll be fine!” When Li Xia saw Wu Qinghe’s distraught expression, she counseled him.

“No, it’s all my fault. It’s all my fault. In the past, I only harmed myself, but now, I even harmed Miss Su. I should have stayed by Brother Luo Cheng’s side. This way, I wouldn’t have harmed others!” Wu Qinghe said self-reproachfully.

Wu Xia had also heard about Wu Qinghe’s unlucky physique, but she didn’t agree with him.

“Young Master Wu, you were busy dealing with the enemy at that time, so you didn’t see, but from the side, I saw it very clearly. It wasn’t you who brought bad luck to Miss Ruyue. Miss Ruyue herself willingly blocked the sword for you. In Miss Ruyue’s eyes, you’re a friend worthy of her protection! So you shouldn’t blame yourself. Instead, you should pull yourself together. Miss Ruyue is still counting on you to save her life..”

Chapter 429: Working Together

Wu Qinghe was stunned when he heard Li Xia’s words.

That’s right. Ever since he was born, other than his mentor, Shu Ruyue was the only person who had protected him with her life. Thinking of this, Wu Qinghe immediately perked up.

“I’ll pull myself together!”

With that, Wu Qinghe looked down at the woman in his arms.

“Shu Ruyue, you have to hold on. After you see Brother Luo Cheng, you’ll be saved! Other than my mentor, you’re the person who treats me the best. Please, you have to survive! If you die, there’ll be one less person in this world who treats me well!”

Shu Ruyue, who was delirious, almost laughed in anger when she heard Wu Qinghe’s words.

However, she only stayed conscious for a moment before falling unconscious again.

However, the moment before she fainted, Shu Ruyue had already made up her mind.

After she woke up, she would definitely teach Wu Qinghe a lesson. What did he mean by there being one less person who treated him well if she died?

After all, she was his savior!

Shouldn’t he repay her for saving his life?

He was just a blockhead who didn’t know the ways of the world. No wonder he had been unlucky all his life!

Li Xiaoran was playing with Big Yellow at home.

It was rare for them to have a free day, so Li Xiaoran brought Big Yellow and the others for a stroll around the house.

When she threw out a sandbag she had made from rags for the pups at home to pick up, she suddenly sensed anxiety from someone.

Compared to the other anxiety she sensed, there was also a very weak emotion, as if the person was on the verge of death.

Li Xiaoran sensed that something was wrong, so she quickly ran home.

When Big Yellow and the others saw Li Xiaoran running home, they thought that Li Xiaoran was playing a game with them and ran after her excitedly.

When Luo Cheng happened to walk from the house to the courtyard, he saw Li Xiaoran running with a group of pups.

“What’s wrong? You’re panting from running. Did something happen?”

“Husband, someone is approaching us. I sensed anxiety and a faint emotion, which is usually when people can’t hold on anymore!” Li Xiaoran stopped and panted as she told Luo Cheng what she had sensed.

When Luo Cheng heard this, he pondered for a moment and then thought of something.

“Speaking of which, it’s almost time for Wu Qinghe, Zi Zheng, and Zi Cheng to return. Could it be that some of them are seriously injured?!”

Thinking of this, Luo Cheng quickly called the secret guard to call Luo Ziyang back. Then, Luo Cheng went to make preparations.

When Wu Qinghe arrived with Shu Ruyue, who was severely injured, Luo Cheng was already prepared.

Seeing that Shu Ruyue wasn't in a good state, Luo Cheng asked what was going on and asked someone to carry her to a tidied room.

Wu Qinghe was already panicking, so he couldn't be expected to explain clearly.

Just as Zi Zheng was about to speak, Li Xia, who had followed him in, spoke.

"Miss Ruyue took a stab for Wu Qinghe, but the knife's tip was poisoned. Miss Ruyue has been unconscious for 24 hours. The wound was purple-black at first, but later on, it slowly faded. When I looked at it just now, the wound had already turned red. When the wound was treated, the blood was originally bright red, but after flowing out of the wound, it turned dark red. Later on, when we stopped the bleeding, there was still blood flowing out, but the small amount of blood flowing out was purple-black!"

When Luo Cheng heard this, he thought for a moment and asked, "Do you know when the blood started turning purple-black?!"

Li Xia recalled carefully and said, "At around five o'clock today! I just woke up at that time and saw that Miss Ruyue's white cloth was dyed black by purplish-red blood. It was bright red before that!"

This time, Luo Cheng already knew what to do.

Li Xia thought of something and added, "By the way, there's another problem. Miss Ruyue's body has been cold the entire time, as if she had been soaked in water for a few days!"

Luo Cheng's expression changed when he heard this.

"Wife, take a look with Li Xia and see if there's a purplish-red pattern on Miss Ruyue's back!"

When Li Xiaoran and Li Xia heard this, they quickly turned Shu Ruyue over and lifted the clothes on her back to take a look.

Sure enough, on Shu Ruyue's back, a blooming peony pattern appeared in front of them.

"Husband, you're right. There's really a blooming peony!" Li Xiaoran's expression turned solemn as she replied.

"It's indeed a poisonous peony! Ziyang, feed this antidote pill to Shu Ruyue with warm water first. I'll be back soon!" As Luo Cheng spoke, he took a pill to Ziyang and turned to go to the place where he made medicine.

When Wu Qinghe saw Luo Cheng leave, he immediately became a little anxious.

"Brother Luo Cheng, how is Shu Ruyue?"

Luo Ziyang asked Zi Cheng to bring warm water over and melt the pill in it.

Li Xia walked over and said, "You guys are all men, so let me do it!"

Luo Ziyang nodded and gave the bowl of potion to Li Xia.

After Wu Qinghe was also chased to the side by Li Xiaoran, Li Xiaoran went over and helped Shu Ruyue up before leaning Shu Ruyue on her.

Just like that, the two of them fed Wen Ruyue the bowl of medicine together.

“What’s going on now?” Wu Qinghe was about to go crazy.

“Alright, stop howling! Although this antidote pill can’t detoxify the poison of the peony, it can protect Miss Shu’s heart meridians and prevent her from being poisoned by the poisonous gas. Brother has gone to develop an antidote. We need time now!” Luo Cheng revealed what he knew.

“What? There’s no antidote?” Wu Qinghe panicked. At this moment, he glanced at Shu Ruyue uneasily.

“Do you know what poisonous peony is? This is the sixth-ranked poison among the seven great poisons. Don’t underestimate it. Although it’s ranked sixth, it’s the only one among the seven great poisons without an antidote. The other great poisons either take effect too quickly and there’s no time to treat it, or the herbs needed for the antidote are very rare.” Luo Ziyang immediately explained when he heard Wu Qinghe’s words.

When Li Xiaoran and Wu Xia heard this, they were shocked.

They didn’t expect Shu Ruyue to be poisoned by this kind of poison. “In that case, Ruyue’s poison can’t be detoxed?” Li Xiaoran asked with a frown.

“Don’t worry! All these years, my brother has been marinating the antidote for the poisonous peony. Although he hasn’t found an antidote for the poisonous peony, he has made good progress. Let’s give him more time!” Luo Ziyang said..

Chapter 430: You Can Do That?

Li Xiaoran nodded at Luo Ziyang.

“Ziyang, you have medical skills too, right?! You should help your brother! Let us take care of Ruyue! If we all do what we’re best at, our chances of saving Ruyue might be even higher!”

Luo Ziyang nodded. As he turned to leave, he saw the exhausted Zi Zheng and Zi Cheng.

“The two of you, who took turns driving back, should hurry up and rest! Leave the rest to us!”

Zi Cheng and Zi Zheng also knew that they couldn’t help much, so they followed Luo Ziyang out.

“What about me? What should I do?” Wu Qinghe asked in confusion.

Li Xiaoran looked at Wu Qinghe and thought about it carefully before saying, "Don't you know divination? Ask where the antidote is and what its medicinal properties are. Use your own method for divination. You might be able to give my husband and the others some inspiration!"

When Wu Qinghe heard Li Xiaoran's words, he immediately nodded and quickly went out to help with what he was good at.

When Li Xiaoran saw that only she and Li Xia were left, she thought of something.

"Li Xia, I'm sorry. In my panic just now, I forgot to settle you two down!"

Li Xia could understand. After all, saving lives was important, so she didn't mind.

"How about this?! Ruyue also needs someone to take care of her, so you two can stay at my house first! Coincidentally, I still have two children at home. Huai'er can play with them!" After Li Xiaoran thought about it for a moment, she made this arrangement.

Li Xia nodded and followed Li Xiaoran to the room next door.

There was also a guest room next door, so Li Xia and her son could stay there.

Guan Kang and Changsheng heard that a younger boy had come to the house, so they came looking for him.

"Kang'er, Changsheng, you came at the right time! This is Nie Huai. In the future, you guys have to play and study with Huai'er. You can't let others bully him, understand?" After Li Xiaoran saw the two of them, she brought them to Nie Huai and introduced them.

"Huai'er, this is Guan Kang, and this is Changsheng. We have to take care of Ruyue, so go play with them! If you're hungry or thirsty, tell us!"

Nie Huai was a sensible person. He knew that the adults were busy saving people, so he wouldn't cause trouble.

"I understand! I'll follow them obediently!"

"Kang'er, Changsheng, bring him to eat something. If there's anything you want to eat, let oranapa oao maKe It! AISO, asK oranapa oao to maKe SIX dishes. Aunt Xia, Zi Zheng, and Zi Cheng have been traveling for a long time and haven't eaten yet!"

Guan Kang and Changsheng nodded and brought Nie Huai to the kitchen quickly.

After arranging all of this, Li Xiaoran looked at Li Xia.

"Sister Li Xia, you must be tired. Unpack your things first and rest well after dinner! I'll take care of Ruyue!"

Li Xia was really a little tired, so she didn't stand on ceremony with Li Xiaoran and nodded.

After confirming that everything had been arranged, Li Xiaoran returned to Shu Ruyue's room.

Looking at the originally lively girl lying in front of her on her last breath, Li Xiaoran felt a little teary-eyed.

After gently covering Shu Ruyue with a thin blanket, Li Xiaoran sat by the bed and said softly, “Ruyue, don’t forget the idea I gave you back then! You have such good abilities, so you can’t die just like that! It’ll be a pity not to use such outstanding abilities to benefit people! You have to hold on and wait for us to find an antidote for you! Don’t worry, we’ll definitely find an antidote!”

For the next two days, Li Xiaoran and Li Xia took turns taking care of Shu Ruyue. On Luo Cheng’s side, they were still short of something in order to complete the antidote.

It was this that made Luo Cheng extremely anxious.

He had tried once, but he failed. This made Luo Cheng extremely discouraged.

On the other side, Wu Qinghe’s divination came out, but it lacked some details.

The divination said to let nature take its course.

This made Wu Qinghe very frustrated.

“Brother, don’t force yourself. If the antidote for the poisonous peony is so easy to obtain, it won’t be one of the seven great poisons. If you relax a little, you might be able to find a breakthrough!” Luo Ziyang knew that Luo Cheng had tried his best, so he persuaded him.

When Wu Qinghe heard Luo Ziyang’s words, he thought of something.

“Tell me what’s missing. There’s no other way anyway, so why don’t we try our luck? I’ll divine for you. We might find some clues!”

When Luo Cheng and Luo Ziyang heard Wu Qinghe’s words, they immediately gathered together.

Just like that, the three of them began to categorize the herbs.

After eliminating them one by one, the scope was much narrower.

“Look, it’s definitely this kind of algae plant. It’s born in water and fluctuates with the wind. This is how this divination is interpreted!” Wu Qinghe patted the table and said firmly.

“But I’ve already brought all the algae plants I know for you to test, but your divination says it’s not correct!” Luo Ziyang said gloomily.

At this moment, Li Xiaoran, who brought over food, heard their argument.

“Why don’t you tell me what problem you encountered?! As the saying goes, the onlooker sees the bigger picture. Perhaps I can see what you can’t see?” Li Xiaoran asked.

Wu Qinghe quickly told Li Xiaoran about the problem they had encountered previously.

“It must be algae plants that you don’t know about! What’s there to argue about?” Li Xiaoran said after understanding.

“Huh? But these are all the algae plants there are.” Luo Zicheng said gloomily.

“Zi Cheng, what you know might not be everything. It might just be the tip of the iceberg! You haven’t traveled the entire country, let alone anywhere else! Do you know that there are more than 30,000 algae plants scattered in freshwater and seawater? Most of what you’re talking about is freshwater, but do you know all the algae in the sea?” As Li Xiaoran spoke, she went to get a pen and paper and drew a picture on the table.

“Look, this algae plant is called centipede algae. It’s only found along the coast.

Have you seen this before?”

After the other three looked over, they shook their heads.

“Wait, you said that centipede algae is only found in the coastal area of our country?!” Wu Qinghe suddenly shouted, “I understand now! No wonder when I asked what the antidote was previously, the divination always showed that it was multi-legged, near the south, and salty. So that’s what it is. Brother Luo Cheng, the algae you want must be this.. It must be!”
