

The Hunter 51

Chapter 51 Really Found the Reishi Mushroom

Li Xiaoran and Li Shun looked in the direction Luo Cheng was pointing.

...

Where Li Xiaoran's basket was placed, a clump of green grass was crushed by the basket, revealing a black object that was shaped like an umbrella.

Li Xiaoran was shocked. She quickly jumped up and turned around.

At this moment, Li Shun and Luo Cheng had already pushed aside the grass and saw the reishi mushroom growing inside.

At this moment, even Luo Cheng couldn't help but gasp and turn to look at Li Xiaoran.

"You really are a lucky star, aren't you?"

Li Xiaoran also looked at everything in front of her in a daze. She was confused. Why did such a miracle happen?

Li Shun looked at the reishi mushroom and afraid that he was seeing things, he touched it again. He rubbed his eyes with his hands again.

When he was sure that he had really found the reishi mushroom, Li Shun grinned.

It seemed that his daughter was really a lucky star!

After Li Xiaoran calmed down from the shock and disbelief, She revealed a helpless expression.

Oh no, oh no!

When they brought this the reishi mushroom back, her identity as a lucky star would be confirmed!

She was so scared!

What if one day, her persona was disproven? Help!

Luo Cheng and Li Shun had already plucked the reishi mushroom and carefully wrapped it in leaves.

Li Shun thought for a moment and said, "Son-in-law! Since Xiaoran is really a lucky star, let's leave this the reishi mushroom with her!"

Luo Cheng nodded with an expression of deep agreement.

"Father-in-law, you're right. I feel the same way!"

With that, the two of them looked at Li Xiaoran.

Could Li Xiaoran refuse?

Of course not!

In the end, they picked up the firewood and the reishi mushroom. They also hunted a few pheasants.

The three of them returned with these items!

After returning home, there was naturally another wave of exclamations. Li Xiaoran no longer resisted.

In any case, she could no longer escape the persona of a lucky star.

In contrast to Luo Cheng's happy family, Li Yan looked at her bandaged finger and let out a long sigh.

Where was she going to find the reishi mushroom tomorrow?

Li Zhan was also secretly happy. He pretended to be studying in peace, but he was distracted.

At this moment, Li Zhan was already looking forward to selling the reishi mushroom and living a comfortable life from now on.

Unfortunately, the siblings didn't know that the reishi mushroom they had been longing for had been picked by Li Xiaoran and Li Shun!

After Li Xiaoran and the others rejoiced, they handed the reishi mushroom to Li Xiaoran.

Li Xiaoran looked at the reishi mushroom in her hand and didn't know where to put it.

While she was fretting, Luo Cheng brought over a large wooden box.

“This wooden box was made by Luban's descendants. Some mechanisms can be set. Those who don't know how to solve it can't open it at all. You can put the reishi mushroom in this wooden crate and then put it in this wooden box!”

With that, Luo Cheng began to demonstrate how to use the wooden box.

Li Xiaoran learned it quickly.

“Alright, you know how to use it now! Set the mechanism to unlock it later!” After teaching Li Xiaoran, Luo Cheng prepared to leave.

“Hey, wait!” Li Xiaoran thought of something and turned around anxiously to pull Luo Cheng's sleeve.

Luo Cheng looked at the hand holding his sleeve and stopped.

“What is it? Is there anything else?”

“Luo Cheng, can I give you this the reishi mushroom? Look, you helped me save my parents from the Li family. I don't have anything to thank you for! Why don't I give you this the reishi mushroom?!” Li Xiaoran thought for a moment and said.

“Do you have to settle things with me so clearly?” Luo Cheng's expression darkened.

Li Xiaoran sensed Luo Cheng's change in emotions and quickly explained, “That's not what I meant! Luo Cheng, since I'm married to you, we're a family! I feel that we have to treat each other sincerely as a family. The reishi mushroom is a good thing, but it's useless to me! The reason I want to hand the reishi mushroom to you for safekeeping is because I feel that it's not safe to leave it with me.”

Seeing that Luo Cheng's expression had softened, Li Xiaoran paused and added some words.

“As you know, I like the feeling of making money on my own! the reishi mushroom is like the kind of money earned from gambling. I don't feel at ease holding it! Just treat this the reishi mushroom as if I'm using it to exchange money for you, to exchange money for building a shop by the pipeline!"

When he heard Li Xiaoran's thoughts, Luo Cheng's mood became better.

Sensing that Li Xiaoran really thought so, Luo Cheng thought for a moment.

"Since you said that you want to treat me sincerely, I'll accept this the reishi mushroom. However, let me make it clear first. This reishi mushroom belongs to our family. In the future, when there's a need, I won't take it for myself! Also, although Father-in-law, Mother-in-law, and your sister are here as dowry, I've never treated them as dowry. As long as you don't let me down or betray me, I'll take care of your parents with you. As for Li Xiaoqing, I'll also treat her like my biological sister. I'll prepare a dowry for her and find her a trustworthy person to marry!"

Li Xiaoran didn't expect Luo Cheng to have thought so much about it. It would be a lie to say that she wasn't touched.

It was rare to see a husband as attentive as Luo Cheng.

At this moment, Li Xiaoran was a little glad.

Fortunately, after she transmigrated, she didn't listen to the rumors about Luo Cheng and chose to judge him with her own eyes. That was why she didn't miss out on such a good husband.

"Okay! I believe you!" Li Xiaoran smiled.

Luo Cheng saw Li Xiaoran smile and also laughed.

At this moment, Luo Cheng suddenly understood something.

It was a blessing to have the trust he'd been given.

"Then I'll take the cage and wooden box!" Luo Cheng asked with a smile.

"Yes!" Li Xiaoran nodded and then smiled at Luo Cheng.

"By the way! Actually, I was thinking of using money to construct a shop by the pipeline first. After all, the weather is gradually getting colder, and it will be cold outside in the cold wind. At that time, the money we earn won't be enough to buy medicine! Besides, if you really want to make this place into a street, building a shop is something you have to do. Most importantly, in addition to the knife-cut noodles, you have to get some other food! It's too monotonous to only sell knife-cut noodles!" Luo Cheng thought for a moment and said what he had been thinking about.

Li Xiaoran thought for a moment and nodded in agreement.

"Sure! But tell me how much money you spent! When my business is better in the future, I'll definitely earn back the money I spent and give you more money!"

Chapter 52 Moralization

"I believe you!" was all Luo Cheng said before he left with his things.

...

For some reason, one 'I believe you' was worth a thousand words.

"He said that he believed me!" Li Xiaoran smiled happily. "I definitely can't let him down. I will definitely earn a lot of money."

At this moment, Li Xiaoran was full of energy.

At this moment, she felt like she was back in the modern world, back when she was a fresh graduate entering the workforce.

The future was promising! She believed that as long as she used her brain and worked hard, she would definitely obtain prosperity.

Of course, Li Xiaoran didn't hide the matter of handing the reishi mushroom to Luo Cheng for safekeeping.

Li Shun and Zhao Xiu felt that this wasn't a big deal. After all, their daughter was already married to Luo Cheng.

Therefore, it wasn't wrong to give the reishi mushroom to Luo Cheng for safekeeping.

Besides, their family was still living off Luo Cheng.

Li Xiaoqing had no objections, but she was thinking that she had to bring her sister up the mountain next time.

Perhaps with the Lucky Star around, the two sisters could even encounter wild ginseng.

Thinking of this, Li Xiaoqing laughed out loud.

“Girl, are you suffering from hysteria? What are you thinking about? Why are you smiling so happily?!” Zhao Xiu asked when she saw that something was wrong with Li Xiaoqing.

When Li Xiaoqing heard her mother’s words, she didn’t hide anything and told her what she had been thinking.

Li Xiaoran was really amused by his sister.

“Do you think wild ginseng is a weed on the mountain? You think you can find one anywhere!”

“Stop, stop, stop, my hands are about to be crushed by you! Xiao Qing, it’s not that I want to criticize you, but your thoughts are very wrong! If you think about relying on these opportunistic things to earn a living, what do you think your life will become?” Li Xiaoran said very seriously.

“Your sister is right! You definitely won’t last long by relying on some crooked methods! Your sister’s matter is based on luck. It’s impossible to encounter it every time. If she encounters it every time, it’ll be a disaster for your sister! Also, don’t tell anyone that the monk you mentioned previously said your sister is a lucky star! From now on, don’t tell anyone. I’ll remind my son-in-law later!” Li Shun, who had always been meek, thought of something and actually said in a very tough tone.

“Your father is right. If the people outside hear these words, your sister’s life won’t be peaceful in the future! I don’t know how many people will have designs on your sister. Our noodle stall is already very eye-catching. If this news gets out, it might cause some disaster! Look, didn’t Li Yan and Li Zhan knock your father out and take him away because of this matter?” Zhao Xiu thought of something and his face paled as he quickly reminded her.

Li Xiaoqing finally realized the seriousness of the matter and felt a lingering fear.

“Father, Mother, I understand! Sister, I’m sorry! I didn’t think so much about it!”

Seeing that Li Xiaoqing had really realized her mistake, Li Xiaoran walked forward and patted her head.

“It’s fine, as long as there’s no next time! In the future, our family will work diligently. Our lives will definitely get better and better! Actually, in the past, our lives were poor because the gains from our parents’ efforts were taken by the Li family! Now that we don’t have these burdens, as long as we’re willing to work hard, our lives will definitely get better and better!”

Li Xiaoqing nodded while clenching her fists now.

“Sister, you’re right. I’ll learn more from you in the future and become a capable person like you!”

“That’s right! But you don’t have to become like me! You have to become better than me and make me proud of you!” Li Xiaoran encouraged.

Li Xiaoqing was only 14 years old at this time, and it was the critical time period of her puberty. That was why Li Xiaoran encouraged her so much.

“Xiao Qing, think about it. If you become outstanding and have the ability to earn money, you don’t have to rely on others anymore. When the time comes, you can spend as much money as you want. You can buy whatever you want. When the time comes, if you want to go back to your parents’ house to see them, you can even confidently buy things to be filial to them! If your husband has any objections, you can still straighten your back and directly say that you earned all the money. What right does he have to have any objections?” Li Xiaoran also instilled in her the idea of being an independent women.

Not to mention Li Xiaoqing, even Li Shun and Zhao Xiu didn’t expect this.

Li Shun wondered if everything would have been different if he had had such thoughts back then instead of blindly filial piety.

One had to know that the Li family relied on him and his wife to farm in order to cover most of their expenses.

Why did Big Brother and Second Brother take everything he earned without doing anything?

If he had such confidence back then, he wouldn't have let his wife and daughter live such a hard life with him!

Thinking of this, a seed of self-reliance grew in Li Shun's heart.

To be honest, their days were somewhat similar to the past.

Now that they were still relying on their son-in-law, Luo Cheng, to support them, weren't they equally lacking in confidence?

Thinking of this, Li Shun began to think about what he should do, and more importantly, what he should change.

Zhao Xiu looked at her eldest daughter with her mouth wide open, as if she wanted to get to know her daughter again.

Although they had the same face, in Zhao Xiu's eyes, the difference between the current eldest daughter and the previous eldest daughter was too great.

But honestly, she felt more at ease with her eldest daughter these days.

At least she agreed with her eldest daughter.

When she married over, if she didn't blindly follow her man and instead, she wanted to become stronger like her eldest daughter, perhaps she wouldn't have had to waste so many years in the Li family.

Li Xiaoqing stared at Li Xiaoran with admiration. She really liked her sister more and more!

Her entire body seemed to be emitting light and was very dazzling.

She liked this kind of sister and wanted to be someone like her!

Luo Cheng saw everything that happened in the courtyard outside. At this moment, he suddenly looked at Li Xiaoran in a different light.

For a peasant woman to have such knowledge, he had probably really picked up a treasure.

Chapter 53 Someone Came at Midnight

To be honest, Luo Cheng admired Li Xiaoran even more. He even liked her to continue growing like this.

...

Luo Cheng was looking forward to Li Xiaoran's future.

He wanted to see how outstanding the woman could be in the end!

Luo Cheng even had a feeling that as long as he let go and let Li Xiaoran study and be normal, he would definitely make her the most dazzling star.

In that case, why shouldn't he try?

Luo Cheng was shocked by the thought that suddenly popped into his mind, but then he was eager to try.

He was already considered a very unique person. Now that he had finally met an interesting and unique person, why not let her mature?

At this moment, Luo Cheng suddenly felt that there seemed to be something to look forward to in his life.

"My life has finally become interesting! I won't live such a boring life anymore!" Luo Cheng looked at Li Xiaoran and said softly.

Many people didn't sleep well that night.

Li Yan was thinking about how to find that reishi mushroom and then meet Li Xiaoran's husband in her previous life.

Li Zhan actually smiled in his sleep. In his dream, he forced Li Shun to tell him where the reishi mushroom was, then sold it and obtained a large sum of money.

With this money, he could do many things he wanted to do!

Li Shun was also pondering how to become independent when he fell asleep.

The moon crept into the treetops. Everything was quiet.

In this quiet environment, Li Xiaoran had already fallen asleep peacefully.

The sky was dark and the wind was strong.

Luo Cheng was already asleep when he heard some movements in the middle of the night. He immediately opened his eyes.

At that moment, a shadow leaped into the house.

Big Yellow had long noticed this person. However, after smelling his scent, Big Yellow, who had already stood up, lay back down and fell asleep.

The black shadow ran towards Luo Cheng's room.

As he pushed the door open, a cold sword was pressed against the man's neck.

"Luo Cheng, do you have to do this! Every time I come, you have to do this. If you're not tired, I am!" The man in black said.

"Keep your voice down, there's someone living next door!" Luo Cheng stared at him expressionlessly and said, "Who asked you to dress like this every time you come over?! I'm not Big Yellow, so how would I know who you are?"

"Yes, yes, yes. Of course, you're not Big Yellow. You don't have Big Yellow's ability! Tell me! What exactly happened?! You sent the casino's thugs to me and didn't care about anything else. Do you know that I'm in a very difficult position as a county magistrate?!" the black-robed man said.

It turned out that it was none other than the county magistrate of Anhua County, Luo Han.

"You have the ability? If you have the ability, why did you come to me in the middle of the night?" Luo Cheng retorted.

"Hey, don't mention it! I'm here to talk to you about something serious! I have someone in my hands. He's a key figure, but unfortunately, he's a tough nut to crack. I've tried everything but can't get him to talk. I want to send him to you. Help me pry his mouth open!" Luo Han changed his previous teasing look and became serious.

"I'm not helping!" Luo Cheng refused immediately.

"You, how can you do this?! You won't even help a buddy when he's in trouble?!" Luo Han said angrily.

Luo Cheng glanced at the other man without changing his gaze.

“Don’t forget who I am! There are a lot of things you’d better not involve me in, or you’ll be in even bigger trouble!”

“I know who you are, and I know your situation. I don’t need you to remind me! But Luo Cheng, do you really think you can get a stable life by lying low?” Luo Han demanded, staring at him.

“Aren’t I living a stable life? I’ve even married a wife and will have children in the future. I think this kind of calm and peaceful farming life!” Luo Cheng replied, still unmoved.

“Hmph! Luo Cheng, you don’t even believe your own words! To be honest, you’re a coward. You only know how to escape and don’t know how to face things. Do you really think you can avoid everything by lying low? Let me tell you, it’s impossible! You’re destined to be a dazzling star. Even in this wilderness, you can’t suppress your charm. Your buddies will still find you!” Luo Han was so angry that he pointed at Luo Cheng’s nose and scolded.

“I told you to keep your voice down! My wife lives next door! Things are different now. It’s not convenient for me!” Luo Cheng replied.

Luo Han was so angry that he wanted to stomp his foot!

When had this guy become like this? He was so stubborn.

Angry as hell, Luo Han suddenly remembered something and laughed.

“I haven’t been here long! You told me to keep my voice down twice. It seems that you treat your wife a little differently! Do you not want that wife of yours to know your identity? Luo Cheng, are you going to help me? If you don’t, I’ll go and gossip in front of that wife of yours tomorrow!”

Luo Cheng turned around and looked Luo Han up and down.

“It’s not that I look down on you, but even ten of you are no match for her!”

“Gee, you’re so protective! Even if you say so, I don’t believe it! Luo Cheng, how about we make a bet? If I succeed in arousing the suspicion of your wife, how about you help me?” Luo Han thought of something and his eyes lit up as he stared at Luo Cheng.

This time, Luo Cheng readily agreed.

“Sure! Go ahead. If you can make her suspicious of me, I’ll help you!”

Luo Han immediately brightened up when he heard that.

“That’s good! I’m sleepy! Come, let’s sleep together!”

“Scram! Go sleep on the floor yourself!” Luo Cheng said coldly while glancing at Luo Han.

“You want me, a county magistrate, to sleep on the floor?”

“If you don’t want to, get lost!” Luo Cheng snapped.

“There are so many empty rooms in your house. What’s wrong with letting me sleep overnight?” Luo Han was really angry now.

“I told you, it’s not convenient now! I have a wife, in-laws, and a sister-in-law. Tell me, what do you want to do if you don’t want to sleep on the floor here?” Luo Cheng demanded.

As soon as Luo Han heard this, he thought for a moment and then sighed.

“If that’s the case, it’s indeed inconvenient! Forget it! I’ll sleep on the bamboo couch!”

With that, Luo Han went to the cabinet to grab a blanket and padding. Then he went to the bamboo bed, spread the padding, covered himself with the blanket, and fell asleep.

Chapter 54 Who Are You?

Luo Han, who had been full of energy a moment ago, had fallen asleep in the blink of an eye.

When Luo Cheng saw that the other party was fast sleep, he looked disgusted and helpless.

Immediately, Luo Cheng lay on the bed and went back to sleep.

In this world, only Luo Han would be unguarded against him and trust him wholeheartedly.

He wondered if this person was careless or stupid!

At this thought, Luo Cheng closed his eyes and went to sleep.

The next morning, Luo Cheng woke up when he heard the rooster crowing outside.

After sitting up directly, Luo Cheng glanced at Luo Han, who was sleeping on the bamboo couch.

Through the light shining in from outside, he could clearly see the bruise under Luo Han's eyes.

“Hmph, you really don't care about your life! Your eyes are already bruised, yet you still dare to travel in the middle of the night. Why didn't you die of exhaustion?!”

With that, Luo Cheng turned and walked out of the room, then closed the door behind him.

When Luo Cheng was gone, Luo Han opened his eyes for a moment. Then he smiled and murmured something. He turned around and started sleeping again.

“You're obviously concerned about me, but you have to pretend to be disgusted! You don't mean what you say. Who doesn't know?!”

Li Xiaoran was busy kneading dough in the kitchen.

Seeing Luo Cheng walking over, Li Xiaoran asked with a smile, “Why are you up already? Don't you usually sleep for 15 more minutes?”

“I was awake so I got up! Let me help you knead the noodles!” Luo Cheng said as he went to get water and wash his hands.

“You know how to knead dough?” Li Xiaoran asked in surprise.

“After I watch you do it, I will!” Luo Cheng said and got to work.

When Li Xiaoran heard Luo Cheng's words, she simply let Luo Cheng try.

As expected, Luo Cheng really knew how to knead it better than Li Xiaoran.

Seeing Luo Cheng easily make the dough she needed, Li Xiaoran smiled.

“You’ve really learned! You’re so smart! You’re the kind of person that is blessed by the heavens!”

Luo Cheng smiled teasingly when he heard Li Xiaoran’s words.

“The so-called saying ‘blessed by the heavens’ isn’t a compliment! And I’m not. I studied hard!” As he spoke, Luo Cheng began to knead the third pot of dough.

“Isn’t two balls of dough enough? Why do you still have to knead them?” Li Xiaoran thought of something and quickly stopped him.

“Don’t worry, there’s just enough noodles to sell today! It’s not too much!” Luo Cheng said firmly.

“Why do you say that?” Li Xiaoran asked in confusion.

“Listen to me and you’ll know! Come and knead the dough too! We might have to knead four pieces of dough today. It’s best to knead five or six! By the way, let your in-laws go over and help today! Believe me, business will definitely be especially good today!” Luo Cheng thought of something and reminded her.

Considering that Luo Cheng never said anything he wasn’t confident of, Li Xiaoran thought for a moment and walked out.

“You can knead it first. I’ll call my parents over to help! If the dough really increased so much, there won’t be enough of other ingredients!”

Her voice drifted over as she ran out of the kitchen.

Soon, Li Shun and Zhao Xiu came over. Li Xiaoqing also got up sleepily and the family got busy.

With something to do, time passed quickly.

In the blink of an eye, everything was ready.

The family ate breakfast, then packed up and headed for the main road.

When they came today, there seemed to be more people who had come out to set up stalls.

When Li Xiaoran and the others arrived, they were relieved to see that the stove that belonged to them was still there and that no one else had set up a stall in their territory.

After that, everyone got to work.

They set up the stall, tables and chairs, firewood, and so on. The family got busy.

After the Li family's stall was set up, Yuan Cheng and Mao Dao rushed over.

After yesterday's experience, the two of them were familiar with it already.

Soon, their sorghum buns stall was set up!

Seeing that they had also made a lot of steamed buns today, Li Xiaoran asked curiously, "Aren't you guys afraid that you won't be able to sell it?"

"Didn't you prepare so much as well?" Mao Dao asked in confusion.

"My husband said that we have to make more preparations today. I don't know why either." Li Xiaoran asked in confusion.

Yuan Cheng heard their conversation and laughed.

"Brother Luo is the best! He must have known that from today onwards, there would be more customers coming and going in this pipeline, so he asked you to prepare more!"

"What do you mean?" Li Xiaoran was still confused.

"It's already the beginning of autumn, which is harvest season. During the harvest season, there are many merchants coming and going. Many people take advantage of this time to transport some goods back and forth to make a lot of money during the new year! Otherwise, when it's cold in the winter, it will be inconvenient to transport things!" Yuan Cheng explained.

When Li Xiaoran heard Yuan Cheng's explanation, she immediately understood.

In other words, from today on, there would be a lot more people coming and going on the official road.

With more people, there would naturally be a need for food. When the time came, more people would stop to rest.

No wonder. No wonder Luo Cheng got up to help her knead the dough. He even said that there might not be enough dough.

Luo Cheng noticed that Li Xiaoran was looking at him. At this moment, he said softly, "Hurry up and sit down and rest for a while! When the customers come, you won't be able to rest even if you want to!"

Li Xiaoran nodded and quickly took a stool to sit beside Luo Cheng. She imitated him and closed her eyes to rest.

When Li Shun, Zhao Xiu, and Li Xiaoqing learned of the reason, they quickly found a place to rest.

Zhao Chunhua came again today, but she was the last to arrive.

When she passed by Li Xiaoran's stall, Zhao Chunhua deliberately made a lot of noise and snorted from time to time. She even glared at Li Xiaoran.

Li Xiaoran suddenly opened her eyes and met Zhao Chunhua's gaze. Her expression darkened.

Zhao Chunhua had been hostile towards her since yesterday.

Previously, she had thought that since they were from the same village, she didn't want to make things too ugly. Now that she met Zhao Chunhua's hateful gaze, she didn't want to tolerate it anymore.

If she couldn't take it anymore, she didn't have to.

"Believe it or not, if you dare to glare at me with hatred again, I'll smear your eyes with yellow mud!" Li Xiaoran warned.

Zhao Chunhua never expected that Li Xiaoran would dare to threaten her.

"Who do you think you are? How dare you talk to me like that! You..." Just as she finished speaking, something suddenly flew over quickly and entered Zhao Chunhua's mouth.

“Who do you think you are? How dare you speak to my wife like this! No one will treat you as a mute if you don’t speak!” Luo Cheng opened his eyes and glared at Zhao Chunhua menacingly.

Chapter 55 Intentional Assault

Yuan Cheng’s mouth fell open. He looked at Zhao Chunhua, who wasn’t far away, then at the piece of long stone in Luo Cheng’s hand, and finally at the piece of mud that was missing not far away. He couldn’t help but speak to Mao Dao.

“I remember that the soil in that place became watery mud because a dog peed here yesterday!” After he said that, Yuan Cheng’s expression became a little ugly.

Although he said this to Mao Dao, he didn’t lower his voice, so everyone around heard him.

Zhao Chunhua vomited and wanted to spit out the thing in her mouth.

Before she could vomit, a woman who was setting up a stall beside Zhao Chunhua pulled her to the side of the field opposite the official road.

Zhao Chunhua squatted by the field and vomited.

“I seem to remember that not only did that dog pee, but it also pooped there! It happened to be the lump that flew over previously!” Mao Dao looked at Zhao Chunhua with a strange expression.

“Bah!” This time, Zhao Chunhua felt even more disgusted!

The surrounding people couldn’t help but laugh when they saw Zhao Chunhua like this.

“Hahahaha, how satisfying! Zhao Chunhua, to think that you would have such a day! Look at how smug you were yesterday. You were so cocky. Now, you got what you deserved!” The woman who had grabbed Zhao Chunhua earlier laughed happily.

Zhao Chunhua was so disgusted by the stench of feces in her mouth that she couldn’t care less about arguing with others.

After vomiting, Zhao Chunhua rushed straight up to the stream by the pipe. Then, she cupped the water with her hands and washed her mouth.

Seeing that Luo Cheng had stood up for her, Li Xiaoran immediately smiled happily.

Li Shun quickly got some wood ash from the stove to fill the place that had been peed on by the dog.

Seeing this, Yuan Cheng quickly explained, "Don't panic. I remembered wrong. The dog peed at the corner in front yesterday. It's not here!"

When Li Shun heard this, he looked at Yuan Cheng and immediately understood something.

"There's mud here because there's water flowing here!" Yuan Cheng said and pointed to a place for Li Shun to see.

Li Shun looked over. Sure enough, some clear water was flowing out of a small hole.

Because this current was so small that it only soaked the nearby soil and turned a small patch of soil into watery mud, no one noticed.

Luo Cheng heard Yuan Cheng's words and looked over.

"Is there really water here?"

"Yes, there should be water! The water flow might not be small if we dig!" Yuan Cheng said with certainty, "My father used to find water for others to dig wells. I learned some from him, so I know how to find it too!"

Now, the crowd was intrigued.

If there was really a water source here, they could dig a water pit or something to store water. In the future, it wouldn't be so troublesome for everyone to find water!

Luo Cheng thought for a moment and said directly, "I'll go back and get the hoe. If there's really water, it'll be a good thing!"

Li Xiaoran nodded and replied, "I think it's a good thing too. Go and come back early!"

Luo Cheng nodded and immediately went home.

The others had nothing to do anyway, so they came over to take a look.

However, after taking a look, everyone left obediently.

As this water source was in the land that Luo Cheng had bought, even if there was a water source, it was still Luo Cheng's.

Everyone wanted to use the water here in the future, so they naturally couldn't offend Li Xiaoran's family.

At this moment, Zhao Chunhua had just washed the mud in her mouth clean. However, no matter how she washed it, she still felt that there was a stench of feces in her mouth.

After experiencing such a disgusting thing, Zhao Chunhua was naturally furious when she saw that Luo Cheng wasn't here.

While Li Xiaoran wasn't paying attention, Zhao Chunhua picked up a stone and quickly ran towards Li Xiaoran. Just as she was about to reach her, she planned to throw it at Li Xiaoran.

Seeing that Li Xiaoran was about to be hit, the surrounding people exclaimed.

Mao Dao, who was the closest, saw that the situation wasn't good. He picked up a piece of firewood from the ground and hit Zhao Chunhua's hand.

Zhao Chunhua was in pain. The stone fell and hit her foot. Then they saw Zhao Chunhua squatting on the ground while covering her hand and howling.

"Hmph, you want to harm her when Brother Luo isn't around? You'll have to see if we agree or not!" Mao Dao glared at Zhao Chunhua and scolded angrily, "Besides, Li Xiaoran is our master. Do you think we're just decorations? Do you think you're above the law?"

Yuan Cheng also ran over at this moment. When he heard Mao Dao's words, he immediately echoed, "That's right. Zhao Chunhua secretly tried to hurt someone. Everyone saw it! We have to tie this person up and hand her over to the village chief of Hele Village to deal with!"

Zhao Chunhua was in so much pain that tears were coming out of her eyes. Before she could recover, she heard Mao Dao and Yuan Cheng's words. She didn't even have the strength to retort.

Her hand hurt too much. It was swollen from the blow with the stick.

Li Shun, Zhao Xiu, and Li Xiaoqing were shocked by this sudden change and ran over to protect Li Xiaoran. Then, they stared at Zhao Chunhua, who was tied up, with anger on their faces.

Li Xiaoran also reacted. Then, her expression turned cold as he looked at Zhao Chunhua.

"Tie her up! Hand her over to the village chief later and let him deal with her!"

Seeing that the situation was bad, Zhao Chunhua ignored the pain in her hand and ran.

Unfortunately, the secret guard saw this and threw a stone at Zhao Chunhua's calf.

Zhao Chunhua fell to the ground. Then, she was pressed to the ground by Yuan Cheng and Mao Dao, who were chasing after her. Her hands and feet were tightly bound by vines.

At this moment, Luo Cheng came with a hoe. When he saw this scene, he knew that something must have happened.

After knowing the whole story, he looked at Zhao Chunhua coldly.

Luo Cheng turned to look at Yuan Cheng and Mao Dao. "Do any of you know our village chief?"

When Yuan Cheng heard Luo Cheng's words, he pointed at himself. "Brother Luo, I know him! I went to Hele Village's chief's house with my father in the past!"

"Alright, Yuan Cheng, make a trip! We'll help you look after the stall. Go and invite the village chief over!"

"Ah! I understand!" Yuan Cheng nodded and ran in the direction of the village.

After doing this, Luo Cheng looked at Mao Dao and said, "Throw her aside after tying her up! It will be resolved when the village chief comes later! Let's dig here together and see if we can get water out."

Chapter 56 Trouble From the Water Source

Mao Dao nodded and took the hoe from Luo Cheng. Then they dug together.

...

It didn't take long to dig. The original trickle gushed out in a large stream, spraying water.

Fortunately, Luo Cheng reacted quickly and pulled Mao Dao back a few steps, preventing his clothes from being drenched by the water.

"The water came out!" The people around who had been paying attention cheered.

When Li Xiaoran saw this, she also smiled.

To be honest, if there was a water source here, she wouldn't have to put in so much effort to set up her stall in the future.

One had to know that the water they had used previously had been from their homes.

"Son-in-law! Are we going to dig a waterhole here? It'll be more convenient in the future!" Li Shun asked with a smile as he looked at the water.

When Luo Cheng heard his father-in-law's words, he thought for a moment and said, "We still have to build a shop here in the future. It's not appropriate to leave the water storage pit here. When Yuan Cheng comes back, we'll look around and see where the water flow is going. If it can be placed at the edge of my land, it won't affect us from building the shop!"

"Actually, there's no need to go through so much trouble. Just build a well!" Mao Dao thought of something and suggested, "Brother Luo, just build a well here!"

Luo Cheng thought for a moment and nodded. "We can dig a well! Or we can find another place to dig a waterhole! Let's wait for Yuan Cheng to come back and take a look before we discuss it!"

At this point, Luo Cheng thought of something. He looked at the people around him, who were staring at them eagerly, and said, "Don't worry, everyone can use this water source! However, I'll say this first. Everyone can drink this water, but you have to protect the water source here. Don't let anyone play any tricks. You have to keep the reservoir clean."

At this point, Luo Cheng glanced at the people around him and said slowly, "Water sources are different from other things! The reason we're here is to set up a stall to sell food! Once there's a problem with the water source, it will involve human lives. Everyone must take this problem seriously!"

When Li Xiaoran heard Luo Cheng's words, she also felt that he was very thoughtful.

This water source came from their land. If they didn't give water to the people around them, the others would definitely feel uncomfortable.

But if they used this water, who would be responsible if anything went wrong?

Who knew if there were still people like Zhao Chunhua, who had ill intentions towards them?

If someone was scheming and they were unprepared, they would definitely fall for it.

At that time, wouldn't they have to bear the responsibility?

This wasn't something they could bear!

"That's why I think we should repair the well here! When the time comes, we can use the lid to cover it! After Brother Luo repairs the shop, we can also manage it. If anyone needs to use water, they can pay for it. That way, we won't be afraid of such a thing happening!" Mao Dao said.

As soon as he said this, someone secretly glared at Mao Dao.

There was water for free. Why should they spend money to buy water?!

If that was the case, they might as well bring water over themselves!

"Of course, those who are unwilling to spend money can continue to carry water!" Mao Dao seemed to have sensed someone's thoughts and said this.

Li Xiaoran naturally sensed that something was wrong with some people's emotions. After some thought, she pulled Luo Cheng aside.

"I don't think we can take responsibility for this. We cannot always be on guard against people. If someone really schemed against us, we still have to spare some effort to look after this water source. It's not worth it." Li Xiaoran voiced his thoughts.

"Have you thought of a good idea?" Luo Cheng looked at Li Xiaoran and asked softly.

"Why don't we talk to the village chief and use this piece of land with a water source to exchange for another piece of land beside the pipe to build the shop? This place will be dug into a waterhole to store water. If everyone is willing to use this water, they can use it directly. We don't have to pay or bear the responsibility!" Li Xiaoran voiced her thoughts.

It wasn't that Li Xiaoran was irresponsible and would retreat when she encountered trouble.

Li Xiaoran's thoughts were different from others. This water source was like a hot potato. It was a good thing to give it away.

"Xiaoran is right. This is indeed more appropriate. Village Chief will come over later. Let's ask Village Chief for his opinion!" Luo Cheng also understood what Li Xiaoran meant and said.

The two of them were very close when they spoke, and they had lowered their voices, so no one heard what they were saying.

At this moment, Yuan Cheng arrived with the village chief and Zhao Chunhua's man, Song Erwa.

Song Erwa had already learned what had happened from Yuan Cheng.

Song Erwa knew exactly what his wife was like.

As soon as he arrived, Song Erwa looked at Luo Cheng and said apologetically, "I'm really sorry for today! My wife caused such a huge trouble. Fortunately, no one was injured. Otherwise, we would have committed a huge sin! What happened today is all my fault. I, Song Erwa, have no objections towards how to punish her!"

Li Xiaoran could feel that Song Erwa meant what he said, so he didn't want to make things difficult for him.

“Uncle Song, no matter what, we're all from the same village. If she hadn't gone overboard, we wouldn't have asked the village chief to settle it. Today, Zhao Chunhua wanted to hit me with a stone, and now she's coming for my life! I've always played my part and don't cause trouble. I don't know what I did to provoke Zhao Chunhua that made her want to hit me to death with a stone! So let the village chief deal with today's matter! It's not that I don't want to be lenient, but I don't want to be plotted against and suddenly killed while walking in the village one day!”

Song Erwa also knew that his wife was unreasonable!

To be honest, if he had encountered such a thing, he definitely wouldn't let go of the person who wanted to hurt him.

“I understand! Then let the village chief make the decision!” Song Erwa thought for a moment and said.

“Song Erwa, are you still a man? Are you happy that something happened to me?” Zhao Chunhua cursed angrily when she saw that her man didn't help her.

“How do you want me to help you? It was fine if you schemed against others in the past since those were just some small matters. I could clean up your mess every time. But what did you do today? With so many people watching, you wanted to hit someone with a stone. You were committing a crime. You were breaking the law! Everyone has to take responsibility for their mistakes! You too!” Song Erwa said in pain.

“Hmph, you're a good-for-nothing. You're useless. You're not a man at all! I, Zhao Chunhua, was really blind to fancy you!”

Chapter 57 Disappointment and Separation

At this moment, Song Erwa's heart turned cold.

“Zhao Chunhua, don't you have a heart? Don't you know how I treat you? Yes, I'm a good-for-nothing. I can't give you the life you want. Then let's get a divorce! From now on, you go your way and I'll go mine! I hope you can find a more capable man than me in the future!”

All these years, Song Erwa had wanted to give the child a complete family, so he had been tolerant.

However, his forbearance did not get Zhao Chunhua to reflect on herself. Instead, she looked down on him even more.

Forget it! The two of them would feel uncomfortable if they were forced stay together. From now on, they would go their separate ways!

Zhao Chunhua panicked when she heard Song Erwa's words.

She was just habitually dissing her man. Why was he really divorcing her?

What if they really divorced?

At this moment, Zhao Chunhua stopped making a fuss and looked at Song Erwa in a daze.

“Husband, are you really going to divorce me?”

“Yes, I really want to divorce you! Go find a capable man and marry him! I, Song Erwa, don't have any skills and can't afford to raise you. I'll raise the child. Don't worry. I'll take good care of my own son. There won't be anything like a stepmother and a stepfather!” Song Erwa said expressionlessly.

He had even considered the matter of a stepmother. Was his man serious this time?

After realizing this, Zhao Chunhua panicked. Her heart was filled with uneasiness.

“Village Chief, deal with Zhao Chunhua however you want! I have no objections! In a while, I will go to the village to find someone to help me write a divorce letter. From now on, Zhao Chunhua and I will have nothing to do with each other!” Song Erwa looked at the village chief and left.

“No, husband, you can't do this! Song Erwa, Song Erwa, let me tell you, don't think that you can get rid of me like this! I won't divorce you, I won't divorce you even if I die. I will pester you for eternity!” Zhao Chunhua shouted in panic.

Unfortunately, Song Erwa was determined and didn't stop at all.

This time, Zhao Chunhua was really frightened. She wailed.

“Song Erwa, I was wrong. I know I was wrong. I’ll change. I’ll change, alright?”

Li Xiaoran looked at the woman in front of him who was crying. He could feel that she was really panicking and shook his head.

People in this world didn’t know how to cherish what they had. They only felt regret after they lost it.

Unfortunately, it was too late!

Old Master Guo and Li Xiaoran had the same thoughts.

Zhao Chunhua usually caused a lot of trouble in the village. Everyone in the village knew.

To be honest, it was not easy for Song Erwa to hold back until now.

Unfortunately, Zhao Chunhua didn’t know how to cherish it!

Thinking of this, Old Master Guo scolded, “If you had known this would happen, you shouldn’t have done it! Zhao Chunhua, your past actions have broke Song Erwa’s heart bit by bit. Today, he only said those words because he was completely disappointed in you! You don’t have to cry here. It’s useless. People have to bear the consequences of their mistakes! Let’s talk about your intentional assault today!”

Zhao Chunhua knew that she would be punished today no matter what, so no matter what Old Master Guo said, she lowered her head and remained silent.

Those who didn’t know better would think that a group of people was bullying her.

Li Xiaoqing had been watching. Seeing Zhao Chunhua like this, she was furious.

Zhao Chunhua actually knew how to pretend to be weak to gain sympathy.

At the thought of this, Li Xiaoqing suddenly laughed.

“Sis, Sis, why did you fall!”

As soon as she finished speaking, many people looked over, including Zhao Chunhua, who had been looking down.

At this moment, Zhao Chunhua felt happy when she heard that Li Xiaoran had fallen. Therefore, she could not help but feel a sense of glee and look up.

However, Li Xiaoran was fine, so the gloating expression on Zhao Chunhua's face was seen by everyone around her.

“You were pretending to be pitiful and regretful just now, but as soon as you heard that my sister fell, you gloated! Zhao Chunhua, everyone in Hele Village knows what kind of person you are. There's no need to pretend here!” Li Xiaoqing used a little trick to expose Zhao Chunhua's true colors.

Zhao Chunhua glared at Li Xiaoqing hatefully. It was all this little girl's fault for spoiling her plans. Otherwise, she would have been able to gain some sympathy.

When the people from the others saw this, they immediately understood and their impression of Zhao Chunhua immediately worsened.

“Old Master Guo, this person wants to murder my wife. I don't think we can get along in the village anymore. Let's hand her over to the officials!” Luo Cheng had been silent all this time. Now that he saw that Zhao Chunhua still looked unrepentant, he decided to keep it simple.

She was just a woman, and he did not have so much energy to waste on her. He might as well just keep things simple and rough.

It was not easy to get out of prison!

She could get in, but getting out would not be easy.

Old Master Guo had wanted to help Zhao Chunhua preserve some dignity and not make a big deal out of it. He would just deal with it in the village.

However, now that Luo Cheng had spoken, he could not refute him.

After all, according to the law, intentional assault was indeed punishable by imprisonment.

Zhao Chunhua panicked when she heard that she was going to be sent to the government office.

She wanted to get up and make a fuss, but Luo Cheng picked up a small stone and threw it at Zhao Chunhua.

Zhao Chunhua blacked out.

“We’ll hand her over to the village to be detained first. A bailiff will come and take her away later!” Luo Cheng said.

Old Master Guo had always known that Luo Cheng was a capable person, so he nodded when he heard him say that.

At Old Master Guo’s signal, a woman carried Zhao Chunhua on her back and walked into the village.

“Since this matter has been settled, I’ll leave first!” Old Master Guo said.

“Old Master Guo, there’s one more thing I need your help with!” Luo Cheng looked at the water source beside him and said, “I found a water source in this piece of land I bought. If possible, I want to exchange it with another piece of land. I won’t buy this one!”

Old Master Guo was shocked by Luo Cheng’s words.

Chapter 58 Poaching

“Old Master Guo, you’ve misunderstood me! What I’m trying to say is that we can dig out a pool near this water source. In the future, it will be very convenient for everyone to use water when they need it. If I occupy this water source, should I give it to others or not? If I give it to them and they slander my water for having problems and making customers get food poisoning, what should I do when they ask me for compensation?” Luo Cheng explained patiently.

...

Old Master Guo finally understood what Luo Cheng meant.

To be honest, Luo Cheng was really thoughtful, because something like this could easily happen.

Old Master Guo looked up at the group of people who had been paying attention to them and sighed.

“Your concern is right. Since we’re here, I’ll give you another piece of land! There’s a bigger piece of land ahead that’s ownerless, but if you want it, you’ll have to pay more money to buy it!” Old Master Guo said as he pointed at the piece of land beside the pipe not far away.

Luo Cheng looked at the location and nodded in agreement.

“Alright, let’s change it to that piece of land! Let’s go over and discuss how much silver I need!”

Old Master Guo nodded and walked towards the field with Luo Cheng.

Li Shun saw this and thought for a moment. It seemed that he had to build a new stove.

Soon, Luo Cheng and Old Master Guo finished discussing it.

Luo Cheng thought for a moment and waved at Li Xiaoran.

Seeing this, Li Xiaoran quickly walked over.

“For the next few days, we’ll still set up a stall at our original place to sell food. It’ll still take a few days for the deed to be settled. We might as well take this opportunity to construct the shop. When the shop is constructed and the stove is done, we’ll move in! I’m going back to the village with the village chief to settle the matter of buying the land so as to prevent any accidents!”

Li Xiaoran also felt that this matter shouldn’t be delayed, so he agreed with Luo Cheng’s actions.

“Just go about your business! My family’s here. Nothing can go wrong! But what about the water source in that puddle?”

“Dig a ditch and let the water flow into the ditch over there! If someone wants to use the water, just catch it yourself. Anyway, we guideed the water to flow into the ditch. If they want to use it, it’s their business. We don’t have to be responsible!” said Luo Cheng.

Li Xiaoran thought about it and felt that it was a good idea, so she nodded.

“Don’t worry about this. I’ll explain it to the others when Old Master Guo and I leave!” Luo Cheng was a little worried, so he simply took this matter into his hands.

“Okay!” Li Xiaoran knew that Luo Cheng didn’t want her to appear, so she nodded and agreed.

With the matter discussed, the three of them returned to where the water source had been found.

Luo Cheng glanced at the group of people around him and said with a straight face, “Yuan Cheng, Mao Dao, take a hoe and dig out a ditch to guide the water to the drainage ditch over there. It’s not mine anymore after we leave this land. If you want to use it, feel free to use it. However, let me say this first. If anything happens to any of you, don’t find trouble with us. After all, we’ve already guided the water to the drainage ditch!”

Many people looked happy at this moment and nodded in agreement. “That’s only right! After all, we use the water from the sewers, so we naturally won’t blame others!”

Since everyone had said so, Luo Cheng’s expression improved a little. Then, he followed Old Master Guo back to the village.

With the troublemakers taken away and the problem with the water source resolved, Li Xiaoran finally heaved a sigh of relief.

At this moment, some customers came one after another, and Li Xiaoran began to get busy.

It had to be said that Luo Cheng really had foresight.

After getting busy, Li Xiaoran really had no time to rest.

Even with the help of Li Shun and Zhao Xiu, the family was still extremely busy.

Later, Yuan Cheng gave the sorghum steamed bun stall to Mao Tao to look after, and he also came over to help with the noodle stall.

During this period of time, the news that Li Xiaoran and the others’ knife noodles were tasty had also spread.

Therefore, many people would come to try this knife-cut noodles when they passed by.

Of course, the taste of the knife-cut noodles didn’t disappoint the customers.

Therefore, many customers also came from Golden Sun Town.

At this moment, a young master in an ivory robe walked over alone.

He raised his eyebrows when he saw that the small noodle stall was actually packed.

“I really didn’t expect that a roadside noodle stall would have such good business! It seems that this bowl of sliced noodles is worth a try!”

As he spoke, one of the customers stood up, paid, and left.

The young man didn’t mind. He immediately sat down and took a seat.

“Give me a bowl of minced meat with sliced noodles. I want a big bowl!” The young master sat down and shouted.

“Okay! Please wait a moment!” When Li Xiaoran heard that someone had ordered noodles, she replied and handed the noodles in her hand to her sister, Li Xiaoqing, for her to deliver to the customer.

No matter how many customers there were or how chaotic the scene was, Li Xiaoran could accurately remember the order of customers and their seats. Then, she would accurately send the noodles over according to the order of the customers.

Therefore, from the beginning to the end, no one complained about the wrong thing being served.

When the young master realized this, his eyes flashed with surprise.

Soon, his bowl of sliced noodles was served.

The young man picked up his chopsticks and began to eat.

The young man’s eyes narrowed as a sliced noodle entered his mouth.

He had to admit that it tasted a lot better than the knife-cut noodles he used to eat elsewhere.

With this thought in mind, he picked up his chopsticks and ate.

After eating a large bowl of sliced noodles, the young master put down his chopsticks in satisfaction.

“Fortunately, I asked for a big bowl earlier. Otherwise, there really wouldn’t be enough for me!”

With that, the young man took out his wallet and paid for the noodles.

However, the young master didn't leave after eating the noodles. Instead, he leaned towards Li Xiaoran.

“Stall owner! Your cooking skills aren't bad! However, it's a waste of talent to stay here! I wonder if you've ever thought of leaving here to open a shop in White Foothill City!”

Li Xiaoran glanced at the young master in front of her and sensed that he had no ill intentions, so she shook her head.

“My home is here. I love it here!”

“Wherever you are is where your home is! How about this?! As long as you're willing to open a noodle shop in White Foothill City, I can provide you with a shop and a house to live in. I won't charge you rent, as long as you cook the noodles for me every time I come to eat them and don't charge me!” The young master encouraged.

Chapter 59 Take What You Want

When Li Xiaoran heard this, she smiled and shook her head. She continued to refuse, “Sir, I won't leave this place! This place is very good. Although it's not as prosperous as White Foothill City, this is my hometown, the place where I grew up. Don't people often say that it's difficult to leave your hometown? I think so too! So, thank you for your love!”

Seeing that Li Xiaoran still refused, the young master tilted his head and sized her up carefully.

“Then, are you engaged? If you aren't, you can consider me! My name is Zeng Youliang. I'm from White Foothill City. My family is well-off, and I'm a foodie. Don't worry, I'm a foodie, but I also know how to cook! If you marry me, I guarantee that we can do business together, sell tasty food, and live a peaceful and blissful life!”

As soon as he said this, Li Xiaoran widened her eyes and looked at the young master in front of her.

Could it be that this person was here to tease her?

Li Xiaoran's expression darkened, and then she said coldly, "Sir, I'm sorry! I'm already married, and my husband is very good. I have no intention of remarrying! If you like the noodles sold at our stall, please come more often in the future to take care of our business! As for other things, there's no need to say anything else! Please respect yourself!"

Zeng Youliang's eyes flashed with disappointment when he heard Li Xiaoran say that she was already married.

Seeing that Li Xiaoran was very angry, Zeng Youliang knew that his question was very intrusive, so he quickly cupped his hands and apologized.

"I'm sorry! I was out of line! I just enjoyed the food very much. The noodles cooked by you tasted very good, so that made me greedy for me! Don't worry, from now on, I definitely won't spout nonsense anymore! I'll come back to eat noodles tomorrow!"

Seeing that the other party was sincerely apologizing, Li Xiaoran didn't continue to look hostile.

"It's good that you know! You're welcome to come again!"

Zeng Youliang apologized again and turned to leave.

After he left, a woman at the stall said, "Young lady, you've done well! Zeng Youliang is a famous foodie. He has done all kinds of things before because of other people's good culinary skills. However, Zeng Youliang is quite principled. After being rejected, he won't pester you anymore. Congratulations to you for having another regular customer in the future!"

Li Xiaoran glanced at the woman and asked with a smile, "Do you know Zeng Youliang?"

"Of course I know him! This person is famous." The woman said, "Go to Liu Xu Street in White Foothill City and ask around. Everyone knows his name! He is a total foodie. He even likes to invite friends to try out all sorts of foods together. Many people will come to him with tasty food when they need his help!"

Li Xiaoran and Li Xiaoqing were both stunned. They didn't expect such a person to exist in this world.

“That’s why! In the future, your stall will welcome many rich kids! However, don’t worry. Most of the rich kids who hang out with Zeng Youliang are well-mannered and generous, so they won’t cause trouble in the village!” The woman told her what she knew.

Li Xiaoran knew that the woman had good intentions when she said this. She smiled and thanked her before continuing to cook the noodles.

The woman also smiled and then went back to eating her noodles.

When the people from the other stalls around them learned of this news, they all revealed envious expressions.

However, after what happened to Zhao Chunhua, those who had other thoughts didn’t dare to reveal them. They could only secretly envy her.

It couldn’t be helped. Their food didn’t taste good enough! It couldn’t attract those foodies!

At this moment, Luo Han, who had been eating his noodles, put down his chopsticks and shouted, “Please charge me for the noodles!”

Luo Han had arrived a long time ago. He had come when the man called Zeng Youliang arrived.

He had changed into a very simple outfit from Luo Cheng’s wardrobe and mixed in with the customers who came.

When Zeng Youliang was pestering Li Xiaoran, Luo Han had been watching.

He really didn’t expect that Luo Cheng would marry a random farm girl.

At least from the beginning until now, Li Xiaoran’s performance was commendable.

It seemed that even if Luo Cheng casually married a wife, he wouldn’t marry one that was useless.

When Li Xiaoqing heard Luo Han’s voice, she quickly walked over and said, “Sir, your bowl of noodles costs five copper coins!”

Luo Han nodded, then reached for the silver, only to find that he was only carrying only bits of silver.

After some thought, Luo Han took out the smallest piece of silver.

“Here, this is the dough money. The rest can be considered a reward!”

Li Xiaoqing was stunned when she saw the silver.

“That’s not good!” Li Xiaoqing thought for a moment and said, “Why don’t I help you find someone else to exchange for copper coins?!”

With that, Li Xiaoqing took the silver pieces and went to exchange them with other merchants.

It had to be said that there were still a lot of merchants in this stall. Soon, Li Xiaoqing exchanged the silver. She kept five copper coins. The remaining copper coins were given to Luo Han.

Luo Han didn’t know how to react when he saw the pile of copper coins in his hand.

“You don’t have to be so upright! I said that it was a reward for you guys. Can’t you just accept it?”

Li Xiaoqing shook her head.

“No! My sister said that we have to be upright people. When doing business, one has to earn money in an upright manner! We deserve five copper coins, but we don’t deserve the extra money! We can’t be greedy. We have to be satisfied with what we deserve so we won’t get overcome with greed!”

Luo Han didn’t expect this little girl to give him a lesson!

Everyone knew that one should earn money in ethical ways, but very few of them actually did it.

It wasn’t easy for this farm girl to know this and actually do it.

“Is your sister the one who makes knife-cut noodles?” Luo Han asked after a moment.

“That’s right! She’s my sister! My sister is a very impressive person!” As Li Xiaoqing spoke, she saw another customer shouting for the bill and quickly ran over.

Luo Han stood up and looked at the noodle stall while feeling enlightened.

Although this noodle stall was small, every customer who came here was beaming with happiness.

Even if some people came with a bad mood, they would be infected by the warm and cozy atmosphere later. They would calm down and enjoy this bowl of tasty food.

At this moment, Luo Han seemed to understand what Luo Cheng had said earlier.

Chapter 60 Really Knew Each Other!

Because there was water here, everyone didn't have to carry the water over themselves. Therefore, it was convenient for the stall owners to use water.

One after another, people came to fetch water. Even Li Xiaoran asked her sister to fetch some water.

It couldn't be helped. More people came to eat noodles, and more bowls and chopsticks were used, so more water was used to wash them.

It certainly wasn't going to be enough with just the water they'd picked up.

When there were finally fewer customers, Li Xiaoran squeezed her sore arm and heaved a sigh of relief. She sat in a chair and rested for a while.

"No wonder Luo Cheng said that we would be so busy that we wouldn't have a chance to rest!"

Li Xiaoqing also moved a stool and sat next to Li Xiaoran. She was also tired.

"My hands are sore and I'm exhausted from collecting money. For the first time in my life, I realize that earning money is very difficult!"

Zhao Xiu couldn't help but laugh when she heard her two daughters' conversation.

“You’re starting to feel tired? This isn’t thing! I feel very energetic. Just thinking that our hard work can earn us a lot of money, enough for our family to live a good life, I feel energized!”

When Li Shun heard this, he also cheered up.

He had to admit that he had changed a lot from his old self.

With something to look forward to, he was naturally in higher spirits.

At the same time, Luo Cheng and Master Guo signed the contract to buy another piece of land in the village.

Of course, Luo Cheng also dealt with Zhao Cuihua’s matter.

Since he had said he would send her to the officials, he meant what he said.

Therefore, after thinking about it, Old Master Guo decided to let his son and Song Erwa’s third aunt follow him.

Luo Cheng even paid for the three of them to take the ox cart and sent them off.

“Luo Cheng! You said you wanted to buy this land for construction purposes? Can I ask if you intend to do business?” Old Master Guo asked.

Luo Cheng glanced at Old Master Guo and felt that the old man in front of him was quite fair. Although he sometimes favored his family, such behavior was human nature.

In short, Old Master Guo had done a good job as the village chief. He had even done many beneficial things for the village.

“Old Master, you can see for yourself whether the business by the pipeline is good or not. It looks small now, but how can you be sure that it won’t develop in the future?”

He had no time to waste here. He had to hurry to the noodle stand to help.

There were so many people today. It would make it easier for the others if he went back early.

When Luo Cheng returned to the noodle stall, he was surprised to see a figure among the people who were busy collecting the dishes.

“Why are you here? How can a rich young master like you do this?” Luo Cheng seemed to have seen a different side to Luo Han. He didn’t expect him to have such a down-to-earth side.

“What? You’re allowed to set up a noodle stall here, but I can’t collect dishes here? Don’t just stand there. Can’t you see that everyone is busy? Hurry up and do your work!” Luo Han quickly called out when he saw Luo Cheng staring at him.

“You treat this place as your own?” Luo Cheng said as he rolled up his sleeves.

“Isn’t this my territory, too?” said Luo Han, winking at him.

Thinking of Luo Han’s identity, Luo Cheng didn’t say anything else.

After all, Luo Han was the county magistrate and considered an official here. It wasn’t wrong to say that it was his territory.

When Li Xiaoran cooked the noodles, she saw from the corner of her eye that Luo Cheng and Luo Han were very familiar with each other. She immediately heaved a sigh of relief.

So this person wasn’t lying to her. He and Luo Cheng seemed to really know each other.

From the way the two of them spoke so casually, they must have a deep relationship. No wonder they took the initiative to clean up the dishes after eating.

With Luo Cheng’s help, everyone was less busy.

Coincidentally, there were fewer customers now, so Luo Cheng came to Li Xiaoran.

“Go rest! Match the flavor of the knife-cut noodles needed by the rest of the customers. Leave the cutting and cooking to me!”

Li Xiaoran’s arm was really exhausted at this moment. When she heard Luo Cheng’s words, she didn’t force herself. She moved away from the stove and went to get seasoning.

Luo Cheng washed his hands. He held the dough in one hand and peeled it with bamboo in the other.

It had to be said that the noodles Luo Cheng cut were even better than Li Xiaoran’s.

After confirming that Luo Cheng was fine and that the condiments in each bowl were ready, Li Xiaoran went to sit on a chair not far away.

Although they had prepared a lot of dough today, Li Xiaoran and the others still sold all the noodles in the afternoon.

In the afternoon, after Yuan Cheng and Mao Dao finished selling their sorghum buns, they came over to help.

So although there were even more guests in the afternoon than in the morning, everyone wasn’t as tired as in the morning.

After the noodles were sold, Li Xiaoran looked at the group of people who had worked hard all day. After thinking for a while, he looked at Luo Cheng.

“Your friend, Yuan Cheng, Mao Dao, and the others have all helped a lot today! Why don’t we treat everyone to a meal at home?”

Seeing that Li Xiaoran was exhausted, Luo Cheng asked, “Do you still have the energy to cook?”

Li Xiaoran knew that Luo Cheng was afraid that she would be tired, so she smiled and nodded. "I still have the strength to cook! We've been busy all day, so we should cook something tasty to reward ourselves tonight!"

Luo Cheng thought about Li Xiaoran's words and finally nodded in agreement.

"Alright, it just so happens that Luo Han and I haven't seen each other for a long time. We can have a good gathering tonight! Call Yuan Cheng and Mao Dao! I think those two boys are quite nice. It's not a bad idea to teach them!"

Li Xiaoran nodded, then smiled and shouted at Yuan Cheng and Mao Dao, "Don't go back for dinner today. Come back with us later. I'll cook something tasty for you two. Thank you for your help today!"

"Is there any good food? Is there any for me?" Luo Han asked immediately.

"Do you think your's will be missing?" Luo Cheng retorted, rolling his eyes at Luo Han.

Luo Han laughed. He came over and put his hand on Luo Cheng's shoulder, as if they were buddies.

"Then there must be mine! You can't drive me away!"

"You're the most shameless one!" Luo Cheng said with a look of disgust.

Li Xiaoran looked at the two of them and smiled.

Although Luo Cheng sounded like he despised Luo Han, he was actually very close to him.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have let Luo Han get close enough to put his hand on his shoulder.
