

The Hunter 751

Chapter 751: Hiding Information

At that time, the Third Prince was very happy, since he thought that his wife had finally accepted him.

However, he wasn't happy for long. A month later, his wife was diagnosed as pregnant. From then on, his wife became cold again.

At first, the Third Prince thought that it was because she was pregnant. After all, the imperial physician had also said that women would become very moody after getting pregnant.

However, as time passed, even after the child was born, his wife was still very cold to him. She was even unwilling to let the child get close to him.

Previously, the Third Prince didn't understand. Now that he heard Li Xiaoran's words, his doubts in the past were finally answered.

After the Third Prince understood everything, he sneered.

"Third Brother, the news that my injuries have improved hasn't spread to the capital yet, right?" Ling Heng suddenly asked.

Luo Cheng nodded. "I only sent someone to send the news that you were seriously injured back to Father. I didn't send any other news back. Very few people know that you were recuperating at my house!"

"That's good. Don't spread any news about me in the future. If anyone asks, say that I'm still seriously injured and unconscious! I should take advantage of this time to investigate!" The Third Prince said coldly.

Luo Cheng agreed with his Third Brother.

No matter what the truth was, they had to investigate it.

This was no longer a matter of letting it go or not!

If the Third Prince's consort had poisoned Third Brother, they couldn't let this woman off.

After such a thing happened, the Third Prince was no longer in the mood to stroll around the courtyard. Instead, he returned to his residence to make some arrangements.

Luo Cheng didn't follow. After all, this was his Third Brother's family matter. As his younger brother, it was better not to interfere.

Next, the couple roasted a lot of egg tarts together. Then, they asked Luo Ziyang and Zi Zheng to give some to their relatives and friends.

"Third Brother, you're here for that mine, right? Does Old Master have any thoughts on it?" Li Xiaoran suddenly thought of something important and asked.

“Old Master originally asked Third Brother to come over and investigate the situation in the mine before going back to report to him. Unexpectedly, something like this happened to Third Brother on the way here. Now, Old Master has arranged for someone else to investigate on his own. I just have to take good care of Third Brother!” Luo Cheng said.

“Is Old Master you planning to mine it himself?” Li Xiaoran asked.

“I think so! But this isn’t a bad idea. At least it won’t put us in danger!” Luo Cheng said.

Li Xiaoran nodded and didn’t ask anything else.

As long as this had nothing to do with them, she didn’t have to ask anymore.

“By the way, how did you arrange things for Guan Kang? I feel that I haven’t seen him for a while!” Li Xiaoran thought of something else.

Luo Cheng said, “He’s busier than us now. In his spare time, he has to go to the farmstead and wander around the fields. Usually, he spends his time on studying. Since he likes to farm, he naturally has to learn a lot about farming. With his special abilities, it’s impossible for him to study in a school, so he didn’t take the imperial examination path. Now that I think about it, him following us is a good thing. Otherwise, if others discover his special abilities, he’ll be in danger!”

“Of course I didn’t mistreat him. I hired a teacher for him and let him receive an education like everyone else. Not only him, but I also brought some orphans of soldiers who had died on the battlefield in the past and settled them in my residence. Then, I let them study with Guan Kang. This way, Guan Kang will also have a normal learning environment!” Luo Cheng said.

Luo Cheng thought of something and added, “Speaking of which, it’s all thanks to this guy that the Fresh Fruit Shop could be opened everywhere. As long as we get some plants and plant them near where he lives, we can harvest a lot of fruits. ”

Li Xiaoran said happily, “No wonder. I was wondering why there were so many fruits in the fresh fruit shop that I had never seen before. Now, there are actually so many of them and they can be supplied everywhere. So that’s the reason! In that case, with him around, we won’t have to worry about food!” “That’s true!” Luo Cheng nodded and said.

Li Xiaoran reminded, “Don’t let that child focus too much on his studies. When he’s free, let him go home to visit his parents and stroll around the nearby fields or the mountains. It can be considered a blessing to his hometown and accumulate good karma for him!”

“Alright, I’ll tell him about this!” Luo Cheng nodded and remembered Li Xiaoran’s words.

For the next period of time, Guan Kang would go home from time to time to gather with his family. He would also play with some children in the village. He would even follow the adults up the mountain to pick firewood.

It was also because of this change that the mature child finally started to seem like a normal child. For this matter, He Hui and Guan Dongshan even brought a lot of things to thank them.

“I heard from Kang’er that you and Mr. Luo suggested that he shouldn’t forget to enjoy life. Now, this child has become much more cheerful and can get along with the other children in the village! All of this is thanks to you and Mr. Luo, so we thank you from the bottom of our hearts!” He Hui said gratefully.

“Aunt Hui, don’t be so polite! In the past, when our family was in trouble, it was you and Uncle Guan who took care of us.” Li Xiaoran held He Hui’s hand and said, “Besides, isn’t Kang’er helping us now?”

He Hui and Guan Dongshan insisted on leaving everything they sent behind.

“Our things aren’t worth much, but they’re very rare. I’ll leave them for you guys to try!” He Hui said, “If you don’t accept them, you’ll be acting too estranged!”

In the end, Li Xiaoran could only accept these things.

Just as He Hui had said about Dongshan, the thing wasn’t expensive, but the gift had significant meaning.

Li Xiaoran liked the wild honey inside very much.

“What’s the difference between wild honey and ordinary honey? Isn’t it the same?” Luo Cheng asked in confusion after finding out how happy Li Xiaoran was.

“How can it be the same? You know that herbs in the wild are more effective, and it’s the same for wild honey!” Li Xiaoran said righteously.

Luo Cheng didn’t argue with Li Xiaoran. Instead, he said dotingly, “Alright, alright, alright.. If you like it so much, I’ll go up the mountain and get you wild honey in the future!”

Chapter 752: How Amazing

Yu Peng and Jiao Hang kept a low profile, so Luo Cheng and Li Xiaoran didn’t know what they were up to.

Luo Cheng and Li Xiaoran let the two of them do whatever they wanted.

After the two of them asked around, although they didn’t obtain any useful information, they came up with a solution.

Perhaps because Li Xiaoran and Luo Cheng had stopped interfering with the official road’s food street recently, no one came to those three families anymore.

After more than half a month had passed, these three families couldn’t sit still anymore.

Of course, the people who were even more anxious than these families were those who had originally agreed to sell the land but hadn't waited for Luo Cheng, Li Xiaoran, and the others to take action.

When someone came to investigate this matter, Li Xiaoran said that three families were unwilling to sell their land. Because they wanted to build a food street, if the terrain was inconsistent, the food street couldn't be built.

After the news spread, the few families who were willing to sell land started to harbor a grudge against the three families who were unwilling to sell land.

Li Xiaoran and Luo Cheng couldn't do anything to these three families, but the others had a way.

The other villagers targeted these three families.

Even their children were ignored by other children when they went out to play.

Even when adults went out to talk to others, they were ignored.

What made them feel even worse was that someone splashed feces all over the walls and courtyards of the three families.

After they washed it, someone would splash feces again. It was useless even if someone was guarding the house, unless someone sat in the courtyard without sleeping every day.

No one could take it in the long run.

In addition to feces being splashed, these three families would experience other strange things every day. There were also some terrifying sounds.

Finally, when the three families were about to lose it, Yu Peng and Jiao Hang walked on the village road while disguised as Daoist priests.

When he arrived at the first house, Yu Peng could no longer continue to walk.

"Priest, you asked me to travel with you. Why can't you walk anymore?! Could it be that there's a problem with this family like the previous families?" Jiao Hang asked at the top of his lungs.

Yu Peng touched his beard as he said with a frown, "What do you know?! Just be in charge of protecting me! Ordinary people like you can't understand my abilities! However, there's indeed something wrong with this family!"

There happened to be people from the village around. When they heard their conversation, they immediately surrounded them.

"Hey, Daoist priest, tell us in detail. What's wrong with this family?" an old man asked.

"There's no hurry. Let me take a closer look!" Yu Peng didn't tell them directly. Instead, he walked towards the other homes in the village.

Before long, Yu Peng stopped in front of another home.

This home wasn't that of one of the three families.

After Yu Peng stood there, he pinched his finger and immediately smiled brightly.

“What a joyous occasion! A happy occasion will befall this family!”

“Huh? This family? Could it be that you’re an imposter?! How can such a family have a joyous occasion?” The old man who had asked just now stared at Yu Peng suspiciously.

Yu Peng was indeed an imposter, but there was a basis for his words.

Therefore, Yu Peng didn’t panic at all. After he muttered some strange syllables, he opened his eyes and smiled.

“Just now, I divined what this joyous occasion refers to. It’s actually the birth of a new life!”

As soon as he said this, everyone around him gasped.

If what the Daoist priest said was true, it was really a joyous occasion for this family!

One had to know that this family had been worried about being unable to give birth for many years.

Ever since Miao Zhengquan’s next generation, none of the Miao family’s daughters-in-law gave birth.

It was strange.

One of the three daughters-in-law should be able to give birth!

If one couldn’t give birth, it could be said to be the daughter-in-law’s problem.

If all three daughters-in-law couldn’t give birth, they couldn’t be blamed!

Therefore, over the years, the Miao family had tried all kinds of remedies, but the three daughters-in-law didn’t give birth to a boy or a girl.

Therefore, the Miao family wanted children desperately.

It didn’t matter if it was a boy or a girl. It was fine as long as they could give birth.

Therefore, this Daoist master was right when he said that there was a joyous occasion in the Miao family.

To the Miao family, giving birth to a child was a joyous occasion!

At this moment, the Miao family opened the door and said to Yu Peng warmly, “Are you serious? A new life has appeared in which daughter-in-law’s stomach?”

When Yu Peng heard this, he only smiled mysteriously.

“There’s no need to ask me about this! You just need to hire a doctor to take their pulses. Don’t worry, there’s already a big surprise waiting for you!”

When the Miao family heard this, they immediately went to invite a doctor.

Seeing that this place became lively now, Yu Peng brought Jiao Hang towards the other homes.

Just like that, Yu Peng walked through the entire village.

One had to know that most of the land that the food street wanted to requisition was in Li Village.

When Yu Peng stopped in front of those three homes, he had the same expression and his frown deepened.

At this moment, more and more people followed behind Yu Peng and Jiao

Hang.

After arriving at the last home, Yu Peng stopped again.

The last family was an orphan and a widow.

After Yu Peng pretended to divine, he sighed.

“What’s wrong? Is this family in a bad situation?” Someone immediately went forward and asked.

Yu Peng shook his head and said, “You have to treat this family well! The people who bullied them previously should turn over a new leaf and help this family more. Otherwise, those who have bullied this family will suffer misfortune! On the contrary, those who have helped this family in the past will be lucky!”

With that, Yu Peng walked back.

Before these people could ask what was going on, the Miao family chased after them.

“Priest, you’re really amazing! My three daughters-in-law are pregnant. Hahahaha!” Old Master Miao said happily..

Chapter 753: Daoist’s Warning

These words shocked the group.

At this moment, Sr. Miao looked at the people around him proudly.

Back then, these people had mocked the Miao family for having no children, but now, the Miao family’s situation had changed!

The Miao family were just late bloomers.

Thinking of this, Old Master Miao was even more grateful to Yu Peng.

“It’s all thanks to you for reminding us. Otherwise, we wouldn’t have known! You’re considered a benefactor of the Miao family! Why don’t you come to the Miao family’s house for a meal with your friend?! Let our family express our gratitude.” Old Master Miao invited sincerely.

“It’s better not to! I still have some things to deal with! However, I have to remind you first. The reason the Miao family received such a surprise is because of the blessings your ancestors accumulated! From now on, your family has to do more good deeds and be kind. Don't have any ill intentions. Otherwise, although the child is here, he might be taken back!" Yu Peng reminded.

"Alright, alright, alright. You're right! We'll definitely do more good deeds and be more kind-hearted according to your instructions." Sr. Miao nodded and said, "However, no matter what else you have to do, there's no reason for you to work on an empty stomach! People can only work after eating. Why don't you come to my house for a meal first?!"

While Yu Peng was still thinking, Jiao Hang persuaded, "It's difficult for us to refuse their kindness. Besides, I'm hungry!"

When Yu Peng heard Jiao Hang's words, he finally nodded.

"Alright then! We'll have to trouble you today!"

Seeing that Yu Peng and the others had agreed, Old Master Miao immediately led them home happily.

At this moment, the women at home had already made a sumptuous meal and were waiting for Old Master Miao to invite them over.

There was cured meat, meatballs, and some vegetables and fruits on the dining table. It was a sumptuous meal.

Unfortunately, these people's culinary skills were still inferior to the Luo family's.

However, Yu Peng and Jiao Hang had lived a hard life in the past. These dishes were much better than what they had to eat when they were in trouble.

So the two of them thanked them as they ate.

When they were at the Luo family's house, Luo Cheng provided them with very good food.

Therefore, when they ate here, the two of them only ate two pieces of meat. The rest of the time, they ate vegetables.

After all, the Miao family wasn't rich. They didn't lack food, so it was fine as long as it could fill their stomachs.

Seeing this, Old Master Miao quickly persuaded the two of them to eat meat.

In the end, Yu Peng refused with a smile.

"We're cultivators. Eating too much meat will be detrimental to our cultivation!"

Upon hearing Yu Peng's words, the Miao family stopped persuading them.

After the meal, Yu Peng was still thinking about their mission, so he said, "Thank you for your hospitality today! We still have something to do, so we have to leave first!"

"Priest, I heard that you frowned in front of a few families' doors and said that it's not good, so those families want to ask what's wrong with their families?" Old Master Miao asked.

When Yu Peng heard this, he looked at Old Master Miao.

“How are those families related to you?”

Sr. Miao was stunned for a moment before asking, “What do you mean?”

Yu Peng said, “If you don’t have a good relationship with them, don’t get involved in this matter! If you have a good relationship with them, tell them not to push nobles out the door and treat fish eyes as pearls!” When Sr. Miao heard this, his face was filled with confusion.

“Priest, please explain clearly! I don’t understand.”

“Of course you don’t understand, but they understand themselves! Some people are courting death! When an opportunity comes, they refuse it and even bring themselves to a dead end!” Yu Peng said with a sigh before leaving with Jiao Hang.

After Yu Peng and Jiao Hang left, many people came to Old Master Miao to ask around.

Old Master Miao didn’t hide anything and told him what Yu Peng had said previously.

It turned out that Old Master Miao wasn’t asking for those families, but for the other commoners in the village.

“What do you mean? I keep feeling that this Daoist priest is extraordinary and his words are really unfathomable!” an old man said.

“Don’t forget, the Daoist priest said that those families should understand, so why don’t we ask them together?!” Old Master Miao thought of something and asked.

When the others heard Old Master Miao’s words, they immediately nodded.

“Yes, yes, yes. Let’s go ask together!”

Therefore, the group walked towards the nearest house.

After knocking, a voice came from inside.

“Who is it?”

“Sr. Chang, come out. We have something to ask you!” Old Master Miao shouted.

Soon, Old Master Chang opened the door and came out. Seeing a group of people outside the door, Sr. Chang frowned.

“Why is everyone here? What happened?”

“Sr. Chang, you still have the cheek to ask why we’re here? We wanted to ask you what you’ve done. The Daoist priest stood in front of your house the moment he arrived and said that something was wrong, but he didn’t say anything. Later on, we kept asking, but the Daoist priest said that you rejected the nobles and welcomed the sinner in! Not only you, but several other families were also like this! Tell us, what sinner did you welcome in?” Old Master Miao questioned.

When Old Master Chang heard this, his expression changed.

“What sinner? I don’t know what you’re talking about.”

With that, Old Master Chang pushed Old Master Miao out and closed the door.

Furious, Old Master Miao and the others quickly knocked on the door again, but the Chang family didn’t open the door at all.

Then, Old Master Miao brought people to the other two families.

However, like Old Master Chang, when these two families heard Old Master Miao’s question, their expressions changed and they closed the door.

This time, everyone realized that there was a problem.

Who was the Daoist priest? He was like a god!

What the Daoist priest had said previously were all proven to be true. Now, what was still to be confirmed was the matter of these three families and the orphan and widow who lived at the end of the village.

Therefore, everyone’s suspicion of these three families deepened.

After Yu Peng and Jiao Hang returned, they took off their disguises and sat in the courtyard to rest.

Jiao Hang looked at Yu Peng and asked, “How did you know about everything that happened today? You even divined that the Miao family’s wife was pregnant..”

Chapter 754: Unintentional

“Do you really think I divined it? I came to the conclusion after investigating a lot of information,” Yu Peng explained with a smile.

“Huh? Is that possible?” Jiao Hang asked in surprise, “I read the information as well, so why didn’t I discover anything?”

“Look, didn’t a piece of news say that when a daughter-in-law of the Miao family went out to wash clothes, she vomited when she smelled the fishy smell of the river? Others laughed at her and said that she might be pregnant. But as soon as this was said, everyone laughed and said that other people might get pregnant, but it was definitely impossible for the Miao family’s daughter-in-law to get pregnant!” Yu Peng mentioned one of the pieces of news.

Jiao Hang recalled carefully and said, “There seems to be such a piece of news!”

Yu Peng smiled at Jiao Hang and said, “There’s also another piece of news. When the Miao family’s daughter-in-law was farming, she suddenly felt that her mouth was dry, so she picked a green orange at the side and ate it. Oranges in this season haven’t ripened yet, so they’re very sour, but the Miao family’s daughter-in-law didn’t taste the sourness when she ate it and even ate three in a row!”

This time, Jiao Hang had nothing to say.

Jiao Hang asked another question, "What about the last family? Why did you say that karma will come for those who bullied them, while those who helped them in the past will be rewarded?"

"I saw someone in White Foothill City previously. It was obvious that this person was an official. I paid attention and realized that the person who came was actually the mayor of White Foothill City. Most importantly, the mayor of White Foothill City resembles the woman from that family a lot!" Yu Peng said with a smile.

When Jiao Hang heard this, he was stunned for a moment before he thought of a possibility.

"You mean that the mayor of White Foothill City is related to this woman?" "That's right! I've asked around. This woman used to tell people that her hometown suffered a calamity one year and she escaped here. Then, she married someone here and settled down. She also has a younger brother, but he got lost halfway and was never found again! From the looks of White Foothill City's mayor, he's probably a few years younger than this woman!" Yu Peng explained.

"But the mayor of White Foothill City might not know that his sister is in this village!" Jiao Hang thought of another problem.

Yu Peng rolled his eyes at Jiao Hang and said, "Are you stupid?! If he doesn't know, can't we get someone to send him a message?" When Jiao Hang heard this, he immediately laughed.

"That's a good solution!"

With that, they both laughed heartily.

Li Xiaoran was about to make chive dumplings when she heard the two of them laughing so happily, so she asked curiously.

"What are you two so happy about? Tell us so we can all be happy together."

When Jiao Hang saw Li Xiaoran, he immediately told her what they had done today, including what he had said just now.

When Li Xiaoran heard this, she gave the two of them a thumbs up!

"The two of you are very impressive! Mr. Luo was wise to leave this matter to you two!"

"You're the one who recommended us to Mr. Luo!" Yu Peng thanked her.

"That depends on the two of you having the ability! Don't worry, as long as you work hard and are capable, Mr. Luo will see your efforts!" Li Xiaoran said.

Yu Peng and Jiao Hang nodded, indicating that they would definitely do their best.

After Li Xiaoran returned, she remembered this matter and told Luo Cheng when he returned.

Of course, in addition to praising Yu Peng and Jiao Hang for their wit and ability, Li Xiaoran emphasized the relationship between the mayor of White Foothill City and the orphan and widow in the village.

Li Xiaoran said, "I've heard about that family in the past when I was cooking sliced noodles in the shop! I've also seen that woman and child. Although they aren't well-off, they're well-mannered. Husband, do you know this new mayor of White Foothill City? If your relationship with him is good, send a letter over and let the siblings reunite!"

When Luo Cheng heard Li Xiaoran's words, he immediately laughed.

"The new mayor of White Foothill City is called Jian Zhou. He's a righteous person, but he's not pedantic. He's someone Old Master trusts very much. He's the most suitable candidate for becoming the mayor of White Foothill City. In the future, I'll be able to save myself a lot of trouble! This person is capable, shrewd, and flexible, but he has his own principles. He's worth befriending!" "Then do you need us to send this news over?" Li Xiaoran asked.

"Of course I do. No matter what, it can be considered a favor! I'll let Yu Peng and Jiao Hang make a trip tomorrow! Anyway, according to their plan, after confirming things with the orphan and widow, they'll firmly believe what Yu Peng said about the three families. At that time, our plan to build a food street can continue!" Luo Cheng said with a smile, "Speaking of which, we're really lucky!"

"That's right. Who knew that letting Yu Peng and Jiao Hang deal with the three families would unintentionally help us?!" Li Xiaoran smiled when she thought of this.

The next morning, Yu Peng and Jiao Hang received Luo Cheng's instructions to go straight to White Foothill City to look for the mayor and tell him about the orphan and widow in the village.

Although this arrangement was a little different from their previous plans, it didn't affect them that much, so the two of them immediately made a trip.

On White Foothill City's side, Luo Han had just handed over all the mayor's affairs to Jian Zhou.

In order not to affect the normal operations of White Foothill City, Luo stayed for a few days. He only planned to leave when Jian Zhou got the hang of things.

As soon as he bade farewell to Jian Zhou, someone came in to spread the news that Luo Cheng's subordinates, Yu Peng and Jiao Hang, had been ordered to send a message to Jian Zhou.

Jian Zhou didn't know Luo Cheng, and Luo Han happened to be around, so Jian Zhou invited him over to take a look.

Luo Han naturally knew Yu Peng and Jiao Hang. When he saw the two of them, he asked with a smile, "When are you guys going back? I'll go back with you guys!"

"We'll leave after we finish what Mr. Luo instructed! Young Master Luo, please wait a moment!" Yu Peng explained with a smile.

“Alright, alright, alright. Do what Mr. Luo instructed first! Do you guys need me to leave?” Luo Han asked..

Chapter 755: A Favor

“We might have to ask Mr. Jian for his opinion on this matter! After all, what Mr. Luo instructed has something to do with Mr. Jian’s personal life!” Yu Peng explained.

This time, Luo Han understood!

“Since it’s a private matter, it’s not convenient for me to stay! Mr. Jian, don’t worry. These two people are indeed Luo Cheng’s subordinates. They’re not impersonators! If you have anything to say, just say it. I’ll wait outside!”

When Jian Zhou heard Luo Han’s words, he cupped his fists and said, “Thank you!”

After Luo Han left, Jian Zhou gestured for them to go ahead.

“The two of you must be tired from the long journey, so why don’t you sit down and talk?!”

Yu Peng thanked him but didn’t sit down. Instead, he took out a portrait from Jiao Hang’s hand.

“Mr. Jian, things aren’t that complicated. Take a look at this portrait first!” With that, Yu Peng opened the scroll and a portrait of a woman and a little boy appeared on the paper.

When Jian Zhou saw this painting, his pupils dilated. Then, he walked over excitedly and grabbed Yu Peng’s shoulder.

“Where is the person in this painting?”

Seeing that Jian Zhou was so agitated, Yu Peng said in a cold voice, “Mayor Jian, please listen to us!”

When Jian Zhou heard Yu Peng’s words, he realized that he had lost his composure.

“I’m sorry, I was too excited! Please go ahead!”

Yu Peng expressed that he didn’t mind and said, “This mother and son live in Yun Gao Village, which is beside Hele Village. Because she looks similar to you, Mr. Luo asked us to make this trip! You can send someone to investigate the details yourself! However, we heard that they’re an orphan and a widow!”

Jian Zhou nodded and said, “Thank Mr. Luo for me. I’ll visit another day to thank him in person! I wonder if you guys can give me this portrait?”

“Sure!” Yu Peng said as he handed the portrait to Jian Zhou and bid farewell.

After sending the two of them off, Jian Zhou looked at the portrait and his eyes turned red.

He and his sister had relied on each other since he was young. During the most difficult time period, his sister was willing to starve herself in order to feed him. That year, a natural disaster happened and his parents died. It was his sister who brought him along to escape. Unfortunately, he had a fever on the road. In order to save him, his sister went to all sorts of places to pick herbs. In the end, his sister fell sick and also had a fever. As she carried him, she fainted!

He thought that their lives would end here. Unexpectedly, after he woke up, he realized he was saved by his current adoptive father.

His adoptive father said that when he arrived, he only saw him lying there unconscious and didn't see his sister.

Therefore, all these years, he had been searching for his sister.

Unexpectedly, he received news of his sister when he arrived in White Foothill City.

At this moment, Jian Zhou was extremely grateful to Luo Cheng.

Jian Zhou knew that Luo Cheng had seen him before, so he didn't suspect anything.

However, he also understood that the reason Luo Cheng sent someone to deliver this news today was actually because he hoped that he would owe him a favor.

However, he felt that it was worth it to exchange a favor for information about his sister.

It was just that he couldn't yet.

He had just taken over White Foothill City, so there were still many things to do.

He had to sort out the matters in White Foothill City before he could have free time to see his sister.

Thinking of this, Jian Zhou made a decision.

Although he couldn't visit his sister personally, he could ask someone to investigate her life over the years.

Of course, he could also get someone to bring his sister to White Foothill City.

The more he thought about it, the more Jian Zhou felt that this was feasible, so he quickly called his trusted aides over and arranged for them to do it.

After they delivered the letter, Yu Peng and Jiao Hang felt relaxed.

As for the food street, they believed that it wouldn't be long before the problem was resolved!

When Luo Han saw the two of them walk out with relaxed expressions, he knew that the matter had been settled.

"Let's go back now!" Luo Han said with a smile.

Yu Peng thought for a moment and asked, "Young Master Luo, if possible, can we go back after lunch? I also want to try the grilled fish in White Foothill City!"

"Yes, yes, yes. I want to try it too! There's not much time left until lunchtime anyway!" Jiao Hang nodded when he heard this.

Luo Han thought of something when he heard their words.

“I’ve been so busy recently that I didn’t have time to go to that grilled fish shop to try it. I happen to be free at noon today, so let’s go together!”

The three of them agreed and went to eat grilled fish happily.

At the same time, the three families of Yun Gao Village sneaked out of the door and went up the mountain from different directions. Finally, they met in a very hidden valley.

“What should we do? Every family in the village is watching us now!” Old Master Yan said anxiously.

Fang Mazi looked at a ruddy man beside him and said, “What’s the hurry?! Didn’t everyone come to discuss it? By the way, Li Shun, did you spread the news? If this continues, I won’t be able to hold on anymore! We might as well sell the land to Luo Cheng!”

“I’ve already spread the news. I believe there’ll be a response soon! Didn’t the other party say that we should come to this valley to wait when we have something urgent? I believe someone will come to talk to us soon!” Li Shun comforted.

Sr. Yan pursed his lips and said, “Of course we’re anxious! My house stinks now and from time to time, there will be strange cries at night. If this continues, I won’t be able to take it anymore!”

Fang Mazi said gloomily, “Sr. Yan, you’re not the only one whose house was splashed with feces. All our houses were splashed with feces! Our lives haven’t been easy recently! We lost a lot of the chickens and ducks we raised as well!” Mr. Gao also felt a sharp pain in his temple.

If he had known things would turn out like this, he wouldn’t have been so greedy back then.

Now, it was too late to regret it.

Luo Cheng didn’t force them, but the villagers made things difficult for them.

To be honest, there were huge benefits to selling the land to Luo Cheng. If there was an additional food street, the villages nearby would benefit in the future.

Unfortunately, one wrong step ruined everything.

Li Shun knew that it was too late to regret it now. He only hoped that the people who had found them back then could give them a good idea. Unfortunately, even after the three of them stood in the wind on the mountain until the sky had turned dark, no one came.

Now, the three of them were in an even worse mood.

When they returned to the village, they were shocked by a piece of news. Luo Cheng planned to search for another piece of land for the food street!

Chapter 756: Timely Remedy

That's right. The food street didn't need a large area. If the land here couldn't be requisitioned, he could consider another piece of land.

However, the terrain over there was a little uneven. It wasn't as flat as the terrain here. If they wanted to build a food street, they would have to hire more people to flatten the ground.

Although it was a little troublesome, it wasn't impossible.

After Luo Cheng learned of Yu Peng and the others' plan, he wondered if he should add more fuel to the flames.

Actually, Li Xiaoran was the one who suggested this idea.

In Li Xiaoran's words, since it was a food street, they could build it as long as they wanted to.

Previously, they had only planned to build it on this street. Now that there was a problem over here, they could build a food street on the other side.

In any case, these places would be built into towns in the future, so there was no need to be too anxious.

Luo Cheng felt that Li Xiaoran's words made sense, so he began to search for land on the other side.

The land on the other side belonged to another village, Mao Dao and Yuan Cheng's village.

After Mao Dao and his family went back to spread the word, those who had their land occupied happily agreed.

Some people asked for silver, while others asked for shops. In short, everyone was happy.

Next, Luo Cheng began to recruit workers again.

Because the salary was generous, many young adults in the surrounding villages came.

Luo Cheng didn't want to delay everyone's farming, so he only chose a few people to work. At the same time, he chose some clean and agile women with good culinary skills to prepare food for these workers.

Just like that, the construction of the food street was in full swing.

The villagers of Yun Gao Village resented those three families even more now.

Previously, they had been secretly splashing feces. Now, people from the village took turns looking for trouble with the three families every day.

Originally, they were the ones who would benefit, but another village obtained the opportunity.

No one could take this lying down!

These three families were hated by everyone in the village, and their lives were getting more and more difficult.

The person they had placed their hopes on had never come.

At this moment, the three families finally understood that they had been scammed!

Actually, it wasn't that those people didn't want to come, but now that Yun Gao

Village was being monitored by Luo Cheng's people, those people would be caught once they appeared .

Therefore, from the beginning to the end, those people didn't dare to come out.

This matter gradually went out of control.

On this day, the three families gathered together again.

This time, they didn't hide their whereabouts and went straight to the valley.

When the people Yu Peng arranged discovered it, they quietly followed.

"You've harmed us all! Now, our family is bullied all the time. We can't live like this anymore! If we plant crops in our field today, they'll be uprooted tomorrow! Hurry up and think of a solution!" Old Master Yan said angrily.

When Mr. Gao heard this, he immediately disagreed.

"I was the one who suggested this, but weren't you guys very happy when you accepted the money?"

As soon as Mr. Gao said this, Old Master Yan and Fang Mazi didn't know what to say.

Mr. Gao was actually upset as well. After all, it was already too late to regret it. Now, their three families were in trouble, but they couldn't complain about anything!

For a moment, the valley fell silent.

After a while, Fang Mazi spoke.

"Since this matter has already come to this, we have to think of a way to resolve it! Why don't the three of us go find Luo Cheng together and say that we're willing to sell it?! Let's not hide what happened previously. We might be able to resolve our crisis by telling Luo Cheng!"

Old Master Yan shook his head and said, "That's it? Luo Cheng is already building a food street on the other side! He might not be willing to buy our land now! "

Gao Shun thought for a moment and said, "I think Fang Mazi is right. As long as Mr. Luo gives the order, the others in the village won't make things difficult for us! Besides, if we bring Luo Cheng important news and ask him for help, he will definitely help us!"

"What do you mean?" Old Master Yan asked.

"Think about it. Why did someone give us money to make us disagree to buy land? The other party definitely doesn't want Mr. Luo's food street to be built. In that case, the other party is targeting Luo Cheng. Therefore, as long as we tell him the truth and remind him that someone is scheming against him, Luo Cheng might help us on account of our contribution!" Li Shun voiced his thoughts.

Fang Mazi and Sr. Yan felt that this method could be tried.

They had no choice. If they didn't take action soon, they wouldn't be able to survive anymore.

The people who followed the three of them reported this matter to Luo Ziyang and Yu Peng.

Therefore, Yu Peng called Jiao Hang and they went to look for Luo Cheng together.

“Mr. Luo, fortunately, the trouble regarding the food street has been resolved!

Tomorrow, those three families will come looking for you!” Yu Peng said with a smile.

Luo Ziyang nodded and told him about the conversation his subordinates had heard from the three families.

Luo Cheng smiled when he heard this good news.

“You've done well. It's been hard on you guys during this period of time! After those three families come tomorrow, leave this matter to Ziyang! Get them to agree to the land seizure. At the same time, let them tell you guys about the appearance of the mastermind and get someone to draw a portrait according to their descriptions!”

Luo Ziyang nodded and accepted the job.

“As for the two of you, don't show your faces for the time being. After the land seizure on the food street is completed, you can leave! By the way, more than half a month has passed, so the Qi family is probably preparing to come over!

Tiao Hang. tell me what thoughts you have. or what you need my help with.”

When Jiao Hang heard that Luo Cheng was still thinking about his marriage, he was immediately touched.

“Mr. Luo, I don't know what I have to prepare. I just have to trouble the consort to find a good job for Miss Qi!”

When Yu Peng heard this, he immediately reminded her, “Miss Qi is probably here for you. Since you want to marry her, you have to have a house! Are you going to stay at Mr. Luo's house after getting a wife?”

Only then did Jiao Hang react and he touched his head nervously.

He had really forgotten about this.

Luo Cheng smiled when he saw Jiao Hang's reaction.

“You really have to think about it! It's not impossible for you two to live here, but are you really prepared to do that?”

Chapter 757: Needs

Jiao Hang also felt that he should consider it carefully!

Mr. Luo was very good to them, but this wasn't their home!

No matter which family it was, they would want their daughter to be in charge when she married over instead of living under someone else's roof.

However, he didn't have much money on hand now. It wasn't easy to build a house and buy a house!

When Jiao Hang thought of this, he felt a little worried.

Luo Cheng thought of something and said, "Don't worry too much. As long as you work for me diligently, I definitely won't mistreat you! After Miss Qi comes, you two can live here first. You two can also get to know each other. If you can get married in the future, I'll prepare a house with a shop on the food street for you. Not only Jiao Hang, but Yu Peng and Li Liming will also have it. Of course, it's not just limited to the houses on the food street. You can also choose houses elsewhere!"

Jiao Hang's eyes lit up when he heard this.

From the current lively situation on the official road, if a food street was really built, having a shop and a house there would definitely be a good thing. This benefit was something many people couldn't obtain even if they wanted to.

Even if they didn't run the shop themselves, they could rent it out.

The rent for a shop in such a prime location definitely wouldn't be low.

Giving Jiao Hang and the others such a house meant that Luo Cheng gave them a guaranteed livelihood.

Not only was Jiao Hang surprised, but even Yu Peng didn't expect Luo Cheng to be so generous as to give them each a house with a shop.

"Mr. Luo, are you serious?" Jiao Hang couldn't help but confirm again.

"Of course! As long as you work hard, you will all get one!" Luo Cheng said with a smile.

Jiao Hang and Yu Peng smiled happily.

After the two of them returned to their rooms to rest, Luo Cheng looked at Luo Ziyang.

"Ziyang, do you want a shop?"

Luo Ziyang shook his head with a smile. "There's no need! I'll become the Li family's live-in son-in-law in the future, so I'll have a home!"

Luo Cheng was amused when he heard this.

"Are you really going to become a live-in son-in-law?"

"That's right! If I become a live-in son-in-law, I'll have parents and a wife. Why not?! Don't worry, I've really thought it through! I think it's a good thing!" Luo Ziyang said.

"Alright, alright, you can decide for yourself! But are you sure you don't want a shop?" Luo Cheng asked again.

“No need. With Xiaoran around, she will definitely help Xiao Qing!” Luo Ziyang said with a smile.

Luo Cheng couldn't help but remind him,

“Then do you want to buy some farmland or a house for yourself? You're really planning to rely on Father-in-law's family?”

When Luo Ziyang heard this, he immediately chuckled.

“I really mean it! I can earn money. If I want to, I can earn a lot of money to buy a farmstead! But those things aren't what I want! I want to have a family. That's enough! If I have too many things, it'll make Father and Mother uneasy!”

Luo Cheng understood what Luo Ziyang meant.

“Alright, as long as you've thought it through, there won't be a problem!” Luo Ziyang nodded and went to work.

After dealing with these things, Luo Cheng went to look for Li Xiaoran.

Speaking of Luo Ziyang, Luo Cheng couldn't help but sigh as he said to Li Xiaoran, “On second thought, our families are really fated! When Luo Ziyang and I were all alone, we met you sisters and found the courage to continue living on!”

When Li Xiaoran heard what Luo Cheng had relayed, she laughed.

In relationships, sincerity was the most important thing.

Li Xiaoran said, “We treated you guys with sincerity, and you two treated us with sincerity in term. Both sides are sincere people, so we met each other.

Therefore, we're all lucky!”

Luo Cheng nodded when he heard Li Xiaoran's words.

The next day, the three families came looking for them.

Luo Ziyang came forward to receive three people. Not only did he take down all three pieces of land, but he also obtained a portrait of a man.

Because this man's face was covered, only his eyes and cheeks could be seen clearly.

Luo Cheng handed the portrait to his people to pass around and hoped that everyone would recognize this person in the future.

After Jiao Hang looked at the portrait carefully, he returned it.

After the land seizure was done, Luo Cheng immediately arranged for the construction.

After everyone signed it, the problem in Yun Gao Village was resolved.

At the same time, a group of people in lavish clothes rushed towards Yun Gao Village in a carriage.

As soon as these people entered the village, they walked towards the family at the end of the village.

Before long, news spread throughout the village.

“Oh my god, that Daoist priest is really a god! Everything he said has been verified. Fang Mazi and the others rejected Mr. Luo’s land conquest previously, but what happened in the end? Now, they’ve gone to look for Luo Cheng, and the food street on our side can be built. The orphan and widow at the end of the village are also lucky. The widow’s brother really came looking for them. Her brother is actually the newly appointed mayor of White Foothill City!” Someone exclaimed.

“That’s right. Back then, I heard that anyone who treated that orphan and widow well would be lucky. Anyone who bullied that orphan and widow would be unlucky. Now, it really came true!” Another old man exclaimed.

Yu Peng’s fame spread.

After Wu Qinghe learned of this, he was immediately envious.

“If I had known earlier, I would have done this! This way, my reputation as a fortune teller would have spread and I could have earned money from fortune-telling!”

When Yu Peng heard this, he immediately laughed.

“My abilities are all fake, not like yours, Wu Qinghe! Actually, if you really want to become famous, just go to the side of the official road every day and set up a divination stall! Divine for people three times a day. Then, don’t divine anymore! With your abilities, you’ll definitely be affirmed by a caravan soon. Think about it, who wouldn’t be willing to get a divination for themselves and see if the future is good or bad?!”

When Wu Qinghe heard Yu Peng’s words, he nodded. “Madam previously said that I should go to a place with a lot of people, but I haven’t heard of any grand events nearby.. Now that I’ve heard your suggestion, I think setting up a stall by the official road is a good idea!”

Chapter 758: Blockhead Wu Qjinghe

Yu Peng’s words reminded Wu Qinghe, so early the next morning, Wu Qinghe went to set up a stall by the official road.

After Li Xiaoran learned of this news, she immediately laughed.

“Actually, this is a good way to accumulate more good karma! My previous idea was too rash! Taking things slow and steady is the best way!”

When Shu Ruyue heard Li Xiaoran’s words, she nodded.

“That’s right. I think it’s better to let him have something to do so that he won’t try to divine everything! That day, he and I went to the official road to buy something to eat. After eating, I wanted to go to the bathroom, but he insisted that he divine it for me first. Then, he said that it was inauspicious for me to go to the bathroom and that something would happen. He asked me to wait a little longer!" Shu Ruyue couldn't help but complain, "Xiaoran, think about it. When I'm anxious to use the bathroom, how can I care about auspiciousness?! I just want to go to the bathroom quickly!"

"In the end, this guy insisted on dragging me to the public bathroom! As you know, so many people have been to there, so the smell was very bad! I had no choice. I really couldn't hold it in anymore, so I could only go to that stinky bathroom to relieve myself. After I came out, I was so angry that I ignored him! Unexpectedly, when we arrived at the shop, we heard that a customer went to that bathroom after eating noodles and slipped into the toilet!"

At the thought of the person she had seen fall into the toilet, Shu Ruyue immediately felt uneasy. Although Wu Qinghe had really helped her, she still felt uncomfortable!

When Li Xiaoran heard this, she immediately laughed.

She really didn't know that such an interesting thing had happened to Wu Qinghe and Shu Ruyue. No wonder Shu Ruyue hadn't treated Wu Qinghe nicely these past few days.

Li Xiaoran said, "Don't be angry. Wu Qinghe is a good person, but he has lived in the mountains for a long time and doesn't know how to read social cues. You should be straightforward with people like him. Otherwise, he won't understand. It's just like how you're angry here, but he doesn't know what you're angry about at all. Believe me, if you want to get along well, don't play guessing games with him and be more direct!"

"Will that really be useful?" Shu Ruyue asked in disbelief.

"Of course it'll be useful. Try it if you don't believe me!" Li Xiaoran encouraged.

Shu Ruyue nodded. After some thought, she decided to try it on Wu Qinghe later.

The person who came was a woman. She had followed the caravan to look for her family.

The woman wanted to ask about the outcome of her search for her family.

Wu Qinghe asked the woman to choose something for him to see from among the vicinity.

After the woman thought for a moment, she pointed at two stones not far away.

One stone was big and one stone was small.

Green grass appeared around the stone.

The green grass extended out and all the way under a big tree.

Wu Qinghe laughed when he saw this.

"Congratulations! You'll definitely be able to find your family. Moreover, the other party will protect you like a towering tree. If you want to find this person, look for him in a place with the word tree!"

When the woman heard this, her face lit up and she thanked him.

“Thank you. Thank you so much. I wonder how much the divination fee is?”

Wu Qinghe looked at the woman and said, “Give me half of the money in your purse!”

When the woman heard Wu Qinghe’s words, she hesitated for a moment before finally taking out 50 copper coins from her purse.

Wu Qinghe nodded and put away the 50 copper coins. Then, he continued to wait for the next customer.

When the woman returned to her son’s side, the young man asked her something.

After a while, the young man walked over angrily.

“You liar, return my mother’s money! That’s all our money. You actually took so much?!”

Wu Qinghe looked up at the young man in front of him and asked,

“Did your mother change her mind?”

“No, no. Master, my son is insensible! I didn’t change my mind!” The woman rushed over to pull her son away.

However, the young man refused and insisted on letting Wu Qinghe return the money.

When Wu Qinghe heard this, he immediately laughed.

“This is the payment for fortune-telling, so I won’t return it! Young man, let me give you a piece of advice. You also know that you don’t have much money left, so you shouldn’t be so nosy! Otherwise, misfortune might befall you!”

“You’re actually cursing me? I’ll smash your stall today and make you unable to do business anymore!” The young man said as he was about to kick the sign in front of Wu Qinghe.

Wu Qinghe naturally wouldn’t let the young man succeed. He picked up the sign and dodged the young man’s attack.

At this moment, a few people chased after them. When they saw the commotion, they immediately recognized the person they were looking for and shouted, “Look, there they are! Kid, you owe our boss a gambling debt, but you still want to escape?!”

When the young man heard this, he was terrified and ran away.

Unfortunately, before they could run far, someone people came from the other end and surrounded the young man. In the end, he was captured.

Seeing this, the woman immediately panicked.

Just as she was about to go forward and ask what was going on, Wu Qinghe stopped her.

“Don’t speak yet. Watch first!”

The woman didn't understand, but after looking at Wu Qinghe, she chose to believe him.

A middle-aged man with a mustache stared at the young man and scolded, "This kid came to our casino to gamble and owes a hundred taels of silver, but he ran away! We're here to capture him today! Kid, do you think you can escape? Even if you run to the ends of the earth, we'll capture you!"

When the woman heard this, she was so shocked that she almost fainted.

Wu Qinghe quickly helped the woman up and reminded her.

"Don't be frightened. This matter will be a daunting experience, but without mishap. However, you'll lose a large sum of money!"

"But I don't have that much money! I only have 50 copper coins left!" The woman said while trembling.

"You don't, but your son does!" Wu Qinghe said..

Chapter 759: You Like Red Underwear?

As soon as he said this, not only was the woman puzzled, but even the surrounding onlookers found it strange.

At this moment, the captured young man pointed at the carriage and said something.

When the woman saw this, she suddenly thought of something and her expression changed drastically.

"No, no!" the woman shouted anxiously.

This time, Wu Qinghe stopped the woman again.

"Between that thing and your son, which is more important?"

When the woman heard Wu Qinghe's words, she froze for a moment before tears streamed down her face.

"This is retribution! I've suffered retribution! I have such an unfilial son!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the young man took out a jade pendant from a bag in the car.

Those thugs knew their stuff. When they saw the jade pendant, they said a few harsh words and left.

At this moment, the woman fell to the ground in a daze.

Wu Qinghe glanced at the woman and said, "Don't worry, there is always a way out!"

At this moment, Li Xiaoran and Shu Ruyue came over to see how Wu Qinghe's business was doing. As soon as they arrived, they heard Wu Qinghe persuading an old woman.

"What's wrong? What happened?" Li Xiaoran asked.

When Wu Qinghe saw Li Xiaoran and Shu Ruyue, he shook his head at them, indicating that they should not interfere for the time being. On the other side, the young man walked over with a guilty expression.

“Mother, let’s go!”

When the woman heard this, she finally reacted and slapped the young man’s hand.

“Get lost. I don’t have a son like you!”

After the young man looked at the people around him, he begged, “Mother, you should come with me!

The woman seemed to be heartbroken and her face was pale.

“You clearly know what that jade pendant represents! That’s what we’re using to find your brother! Your brother has been missing for so many years and it wasn’t easy for us to get some news. I brought you and the jade pendant to look for him, but what about you? You gambled away my only hope as a mother. Get lost! ”

The more the woman spoke, the angrier she became. In the end, she started screaming.

When the young man heard this, he was immediately angered.

“You only care about my brother. He has gone missing and might already be dead! You only heard a little bit of news, but you went looking for him everywhere! All these years, I’ve had enough of it! I’m the son who lives by your side. If I die, you won’t have anyone to collect your corpse in the future! Instead of being more concerned about me, you think about my dead brother all day long. You’re senile!”

When the surrounding people heard this, they were speechless.

If they had such a son, they would definitely beat him up.

He was simply a bastard!

He had gambled away his mother’s only token and hope for finding her son, but he still blamed his mother.

When Li Xiaoran heard this, she frowned. Even she wanted to beat up such a bastard.

“Do you remember what I told you previously? You can find the person you’re looking for! That jade pendant will eventually return to your hands! The money in your hand just so happens to reach that place! As long as you go there, many things will naturally be resolved! So, don’t give up!”

When the woman heard Wu Qinghe’s words, she immediately grabbed his hand.

“Are you serious?”

“Of course! As for why I asked for half of your money, it’s because with this extra money, you’ll get into trouble on the way! Without this half of the money, you can reach that place smoothly!” As he spoke, Wu Qinghe glanced at the young man.

The woman finally understood. She quickly wiped her tears and stood up from the ground.

“You’re right! You’re right! I’m willing to give up money to avoid disaster! I’ll leave now!” With that, the woman stood up and walked straight towards the carriage.

As she passed by the young man, the woman didn’t even look at him.

The young man hesitated for a moment before following.

After all, he was already penniless, so he could only follow his mother.

Fortunately, his mother still had some money. If he followed her, he wouldn’t go hungry.

Just like that, the farce ended and everyone returned to their own business.

Li Xiaoran saw something and tried her best to hold back her laughter. Then, she pulled Shu Ruyue and gestured for her to look at a place.

Shu Ruyue followed Li Xiaoran’s gaze. Then, they looked at each other before laughing.

Wu Qinghe looked at the two of them in confusion.

“What’s wrong? What are you guys laughing about?”

Shu Ruyue waved her hand and said with a smile, “It’s nothing!”

With that, Li Xiaoran pulled Shu Ruyue away.

After the two of them had walked a distance, they laughed again.

“I can guarantee that Wu Qinghe must be confused and doesn’t know what we’re laughing about at all!” Shu Ruyue said in amusement.

“Let Mao Dao or Yuan Cheng come over and remind him later! After all, it’s inappropriate for others to see it!” Li Xiaoran said with a smile. Shu Ruyue said, “That’s true. Let’s not embarrass him too much!” Before long, Mao Dao ran over and looked at Wu Qinghe.

“Dude, you like to wear red underwear?”

When Wu Qinghe heard Mao Dao’s words, his expression changed drastically.

“How do you know?”

With that, Wu Qinghe looked at Mao Dao suspiciously. “Could it be that you peeped on me?”

Mao Dao seemed to sense what Wu Qinghe was thinking and complained, “Why would I peep at you? There’s a crack in your pants. As long as you bend down slightly and squat down, that crack will reveal your red underwear!”

Wu Qinghe was stunned.

No wonder Xiaoran and Shu Ruyue were laughing previously. From where they were standing, wouldn’t they be able to see his red underwear? Besides, he had bent down to help the old woman!

In other words, he flashed them!

Realizing this, Wu Qinghe blushed.

“Help me look after the stall for a while. I’m going back to change my clothes!” As Wu Qinghe spoke, he ran towards the Luo family’s house.

When Mao Dao saw Wu Qinghe running quickly while covering his butt with his hands, he immediately laughed out loud..

Chapter 760: Parents’ Love

After changing his pants, Wu Qinghe’s expression returned to normal and he continued his divination.

When Luo Han arrived, the toxins in the Third Prince’s body had already been removed, but there were still some internal injuries that needed recuperation.

However, Luo Cheng sensed that there were some shady people nearby and felt that Hele Village was no longer safe, so he sent the Third Prince to another safe place overnight.

Li Xiaoran didn’t ask.

It wasn’t a good thing to know too much about some things.

After Luo Han arrived, he looked much more energetic.

“Has your family’s matter been resolved?” Luo Cheng asked when he saw Luo Han’s relaxed expression.

“It’s resolved! After I went back, I told my parents about my current situation and expressed my determination to leave the family. My parents were very surprised to hear me say how I felt for the first time. It turns out that my parents had always thought that I was doing well, so they acquiesced to the attitude of my clansmen. Now that they know about my recent situation, they’re on my side!” Luo Han marveled.

“Before I could do much, my father had already arranged these things! As the saying goes, the older the wiser. My father threaten our clansmen and relatives and finally achieved our goal. Although we didn’t split up, without those people dragging me down, I won't have to be afraid of being schemed against in the future! Besides, I brought my parents to White Foothill City and bought them a new house to settle them down!"

Speaking of this, Luo Han smiled.

"I've always been very stubborn in the past. Whenever I encountered something, I always wanted to resolve it myself. Unexpectedly, by doing this, my parents misunderstood that I was doing well. When my parents realized how difficult things were for me, they naturally stood up to help me! Actually, my parents treated me very well!"

Luo Chenz took a sip of tea and asked, "It's zood that you know! Don't let your parents down! Have you ever thought about what you plan to do in the future? Are you really planning to follow me?"

"I came to look for you, so of course I'm planning to follow you! Working for you is much more comfortable than being the mayor of White Foothill City. At least, I don't have to worry about this or that! Besides, the food street you're building and the town you're going to build in the future probably need talents like me!" Luo Han said.

Luo Cheng laughed when he heard Luo Han's words.

"As long as you're willing, I can leave the food street to you! With you around, I'll have much more free time!"

Luo Han said, "Alright, leave the food street to me! I guarantee that I'll handle everything for you!"

Luo Cheng nodded in agreement. "Alright, go and look for Ziyang tomorrow. Let him hand it over to you. Ziyang can deal with the farmstead's matters."

It had to be said that with Luo Han's participation, the food street developed much faster.

After all, there were many procedures involved in building a street. It was very difficult for people not from the government to figure it out.

Luo Han had been a county magistrate and the mayor of White Foothill City. He was familiar with the authorities, so he handled things much faster.

Time flew by. In the blink of an eye, it was already autumn.

At this moment, many people in the village were busy harvesting rice, peanuts, and corn.

There were also a lot of fields near Li Xiaoran's house and they had to harvest them themselves.

After all, during farming season, everyone was busy, so they had to do the harvest themselves.

Li Xiaoran liked the feeling of harvesting.

After putting on long-sleeved clothes and pants, Li Xiaoran, Li Xiao Qing, and Shu Ruyue went to the field to pick corn.

Zhao Sisi and the others were in charge of the sliced noodles, so the entire family came to work in the field.

The weather was still very hot. Li Xiaoran had only filled a basket of corn, but she was already sweating profusely!

Li Xiaoran wiped her sweat with a handkerchief and said, "When I plant corn next time, I want to eat tender corn. I don't want to wait until they get old!"

"What nonsense are you talking about? It's such a pity to eat tender corn!" Li Shun lectured, "If we eat corn without waiting for it to get old, it'll be a waste of food!"

As a farmer, Li Shun couldn't stand his daughter wasting food.

"Father, as long as it's eaten, it's not a waste!" Li Xiaoran said righteously.

"I think you're right!" This time, Zhao Xiu stood beside her daughter. "There are delicious soft corn to eat, so why do we have to eat old corn?! I feel like my throat will be scraped if I eat old corn!"

Li Xiaoqing thought of something and couldn't help but lick her lips. "Right!

And cornbread is delicious!"

"I like cornbread too!" Shu Ruyue immediately echoed.

When Li Xiaoran heard everyone's words, she looked at her father proudly.

"Father, did you see that?! We have to listen to everyone's opinion! We'll collect less old corn like this next year!"

Seeing that he was alone, Li Shun glanced at Luo Cheng and the others.

As soon as Luo Cheng received his father-in-law's gaze, he immediately expressed his attitude.

"Dad, don't look at me! I agree with Xiaoran's decision!" When Li Shun heard this, he was amused.

"Luo Cheng, we're men after all. We can't give in at this time!"

"Father, you can be the man! It's better for me to yield," Luo Cheng said spinelessly.

They all laughed at that.

When Zhao Xiu heard her husband's words, she placed her hands on her hips and asked,

"Husband, what do you think I have to do to make you more manly?"

As soon as she said this, Li Shun immediately frowned. "No need. I'm living a good life now. I'm very manly!"

As soon as he said this, everyone laughed again.

The more the merrier. Everyone chatted and laughed as they worked. Soon, they collected everything in the field.

Li Xiaoran and the others didn't plant rice, so they only harvested some fruits, corn, peanuts, and some watermelons.

Luo Cheng knew that Li Xiaoran had been thinking about eating fresh rice, so he had gone around to find out which family's rice was tasty.

When she went back for lunch, Li Xiaoran saw the pot of green porridge and immediately shouted in surprise.

“Eh, there's porridge made from new rice today?! I can eat three bowls today!” When the others saw this, they quickly brought bowls over to scoop porridge.

As expected, the porridge cooked with fresh rice tasted much better!
