

Chapter 10: Lillee's Strategy

Chapter 10 Lillee's Strategy

Tinsley liked every one of those who welcomed her to Ryle Country's post not caring whether they were celebrities or not except for Conrad and Lillee which caused a lot of discussion.

If it was only Lillee or Conrad then they would have believed that she didn't see it, but it had happened with the golden couples, which means there's something the masses are yet to know and they started battering amongst themselves:

'I love White Tigress: Is this a massive drama? White Tigress loved all of my favorite celebrity posts, regardless of their status except the golden couple, Conrad and Lillee Norton.'

'White Tigress Is My Wife: Perhaps, it's not among my Wife's feed yet?'

'White Tigress is the mother of my child: Hey, what nonsense are you speaking? White Tigress is the mother of my child and wife, where did you come from? Get lost!'

'I woke up with White Tigress: huh, you must be joking? Do you know who I'm currently holding, right now? Both of you should get lost before I use my power to kick you out of earth.'

'My celebrities are only mine: Is a fight going on between White Tigress and Actress Lillee? Does that mean actress Lillee won't be appearing in White Tigress movie?'

The discussion was getting more frenzied seeing that White Tigress is yet to clarify. Soon, the topic became the top 1 discussion with several hashtags on different social media platforms.

#White Tigress black list, The Golden Couple appeared as number one.

Is Actress Lillee appearing in White Tigress movie or not?

In an expensive girly room with luxurious products gracing every part of the room, Lillee paced her room as she went through the discussion about her and White Tigress.

Lillee was sure that she never had a conflict with White Tigress. Hell, she doesn't even know who White Tigress was, which was the reason she welcomed White Tigress, she intended to get closer to the person.

After all, every actor knew how crazy all of White Tigress's books were selling, and there's no doubt that the movie would definitely be a hit once it was released.

Irrespective of the role you played, as long as you can act in White Tigress movie, an actor or actress will definitely be popular, so why would she have a conflict with White Tigress at this moment, is she mad? Lillee could only believe that something was wrong. She'd rather drain herself in her illusion.

Lillee returned to scrolling through social media, but she soon threw her phone on the bed in anger. She ruffled her hair and gritted her teeth in anger when she saw that the anti-fans had begun to cause chaos and misunderstanding under her post.

But before Lilee could pick up her phone, her second phone suddenly began to ring which made Lillee pick it up without checking the caller.

"Do you really have a feud with White Tigress?" Lillee's manager, Frankie's voice drifted into Lillee's ears which made Lillee furrow her brows.

But she hides it deeply and tries to act sweet when she is talking to Manager Frankie. "How can that be? I don't even know White Tigress's identity." Lillee said softly, which made Manager Frankie sigh in relief.

"Maybe we and the fans are thinking too much about it. I'll cut the call..." Manager Frankie said with a relieved smile.

"Wait." Lillee anxiously called, which made Manager Frankie stop. "I want to act in White Tigress drama." Lillee suddenly says.

Manager Frankie frowned, "The casting for the movie will be strict because the story is a bestseller, and they wouldn't want to mess the movie up. But I'll help you get a ticket for the audition." She instructed Lillee which made Lillee nod eagerly.

"Your acting is still not strong enough; these free days, you need to go through the book and have a feel for the character." Manager Frankie instructed Lillee seriously.

"Yes, I'll. Thank you." Lillee says sweetly, and Manager Frankie cuts off the call.

But immediately Manager Frankie cut off the call, and Lillee slammed her phone with a face twisted in anger. "That lonely bitch! How dare she tell me my acting isn't strong enough? If not because she's one of the top managers in Ryle, does she think I'll listen to her? Old hag!" Lillee yelled in anger but after a few minutes, she managed to calm herself down.

Lillee quickly picked up her phone while secretly wishing that White Tigress had liked her post and replied to the people's discussion on social media, but she was soon face-slapped hard. "What's happening now?" Lillee gritted her teeth in anger, but she tried to calm down.

Seeing that the post was on another frenzied level, Lillee decided to clarify on her own part, and so she quickly wrote a new post.

'I remain White Tigress loyal fan. I believe White Tigress currently has something she's busy with. We do not have any feud, right big sister?' Lillee wrote and quickly posted it.

Seeing that Lillee had clarified from her side, the discussion became hot. Due to the endearing way Lillee called White Tigress, all the fans began to think that Lillee and White Tigress are close friends. Seeing the discussion turn different, Lillee sighed in relief and began to grin.

Even though she had just gotten down from the airplane a few hours ago, Lillee was unable to sleep when she saw fans begin to follow her.
