Chapter 23 Backlashes

Hearing that question made Mason forget his anger, "Cool."

"What if he wants to snatch mom?" Jason tried to hide his worry.

"A cool man doesn't snatch," Mason says with a grin that irritates and worries Jason.

"Are you stupid? I'm asking what if."

"I don't know. You are the stupid one. Hump!" He growled out in annoyance and began to walk away.

Jason knew he was wrong and he quickly stopped Mason by pulling his hand back, "I'm sorry."

Mason frowned but he sat down. "What are you thinking about?"

"That... what if President Jarek stole mum from us and dad?"

"Mom loves us so much, who is President Jarek?" Mason said with disdain for Jason's thought.

Jason immediately nodded his head. Yes, he has been worrying too much.

"You're right," Jason said and Ariel began to walk over while holding a doll but before she could say anything, the horn of a car was heard which made Jason bolt to the door

"Finally, mom is back." He said. But when he looked at the time, his mood fell completely. It looks like mom had a complete meeting with president Jarek.

After several battles, Jason was unable to bypass the J Empire's security which made him frustrated.

But it ignited his battling power. Soon, he'd hack that Jarek person's company and then warn him to stay away from his beautiful mom.

"Mom, you're back!!!" The triplet bolted toward Tinsley who held the triplet's favorite snacks.

Without forewarning, they jumped on her, Tinsley almost fell, but she was quick to stay firm. She hugged them and entered the villa with them.

"Did you disturb Aunty Rory today?" Tinsley asked but before the triplet could reply, Rory interrupted. "How can they?"

Rory sat up and waved at her. "Hurry up and gist me, baby," Rory said and pulled her over.

"I'll be back," Tinsley told the triplet and handed them their snacks before she followed after Rory.

"So, tell me how the meeting went?" Rory's eyes were shining with curiosity

Tinsley didn't want to give Rory the details for fear that Rory would want to plan something for her and Jarek. "He's cold, blunt, and straightforward. And he was only about the meeting." Tinsley muttered which made Rory frown.

So today failed? Rory asked herself but she soon shrugged. "Oh, first meeting, I guess. So, open your phone right now and log into your social media." Rory uttered which made Tinsley frown.

"Okay," Tinsley muttered and opened her social media app but the first feed that came to her was Lillee's.

"Oh." Tinsley read the message with a scoff. "She's back with her White Lotus act," Tinsley muttered with amusement.

'I'm sorry White Tigress. I had no idea of your birth age since I never came across any of your details due to your anonymous identity.' That was Lillee's post.

With Lillee's words, all the hate that was directed at Lillee immediately backlashes on white Tigress and it was even more.

'White Tigress is bullying an actress immediately when she arrives in Ryle, isn't her identity anonymous, how does she expect us to know her age?'

'It's not a big deal that Actress Lillee didn't know White Tigress's age, I don't know either. White Tigress not only ignored Actress Lillee's post, but now she's causing hate for

Lots of hate comments flooded Tinsley's post and Tinsley only had one thought, Lillee bought the hate comments.

"She's stupid," Tinsley uttered and stood up, not in any way affected by what she just read. "I want to have a rest before the party. Tell the Triplets they're welcome to sleep next to me. Thanks."

"Okay. But you'll have to be careful at the event, your fight with Lillee will be making waves and that's what reporters love."

Upon hearing reporters, the memories of seven years ago when the reporters surrounded her flooded her head.

Tinsley clenched her fist in anger, and she swore that the William's family would pay for it, soon.
