

The Substitute Bride Triplets And The Impotent Billionaire

Rivin Village

Chapter 62 Rivin Village

Conrad, Lillee, and William's family were shocked by the news of Tinsley's children and Jarek's marriage. They all thought she was just an ordinary mistress, but they never expected her to be Jarek's wife.

Lillee especially secretly tried her best to get Jarek's attention, but he had looked at her coldly and told her to fuck off. No matter how she saw it, Tinsley was no better nor more beautiful than her. After all, she was the outstanding one and the apple of her parent's eyes, and Conrad among both of them.

Conrad in fact was shocked and found himself being drawn to Tinsley's picture. He never knew she was that beautiful. After all, Tinsley had always dressed like a nerd when she was still in her teens, but now that she was a sexier, more beautiful, and mature version of herself, he couldn't believe that she was Jarek's.

After all, Conrad had been secretly planning to meet her and ask her to be his secret mistress if she doesn't want Conrad to handle her in a bad way but now that her man was President Jarek, what would he do?

Mrs. and Mr. William didn't expect that Tinsley's luck was that big. Had it been they knew, they wouldn't have let her leave. Or they would have drawn her in when she still answers their call. Now that Tinsley had a big backer behind her, had it been they were still on terms they'd have asked her to bring him home and invest in the William's family but now that they weren't, they could only destroy her to protect their secret.

Lillee also clenched her fist, she also had to destroy Tinsley because she doesn't know how many tricks Tinsley had, and if Tinsley had a record of their phone call that day and that of other evidence, Lillee was dead.

Lillee quickly tapped on social media, and she saw that no one commented badly on the post, everyone was praising the couple which made her annoyed. They were all praising the family, especially Tinsley for being capable and lucky to give birth to a Triplet's at once. They kept on commenting about how envious they were, and they wanted someone like Tinsley, etc.

Those idiots. They were really blind, she cursed angrily and quickly logged out before slamming her phone due to anger.

Nothing was going her way ever since Tinsley's fucking arrival.

"Actress Lillee, it's time for your scene." A voice suddenly said which made her recollect her phone.

She clenched her fist knowing this wasn't the real deal. The real deal was when both of their movies were released, she'd know who was loved most by the fans.

Besides, she'd make sure to antagonize Tinsley until she was nothing, and in the end, she'd end up going to Jarek to comfort him. And at that rate, they'll fall in love with each other.

Lillee picked up her phone and regained her sweet expression before she walked out of the room.

--

It was dawn when the crew arrived at their new set. The upcoming scenes were the ones in which the female lead would be reflecting on life, trying to survive in the wild while running for her dear life, etc. This was the reason why they left the city for the countryside where there were wild mountains and big rivers, etc. in order to shoot the important scenes.

Tinsley was tired by the time they arrived at Rivin Village. Rivin Village was a small village near the northern borders of Rylee. It was one of the villages which still lives in the olden days-without the use of technology, so there was nothing like hotels, buses, etc. Luckily there was not-so-stable electricity and five hotels for foreigners.

After being allocated to her room, Tinsley quickly rushed inside her room to take a shower and sleep. It was summer in Rivin which means that it was very hot.

Thankfully, there was an old ceiling fan that made creaking noises in the room. Tinsley sighed and turned off the fan but feeling the heat she had no choice but to turn it on, half bread is better than none.

Tinsley had bid her assistant goodbye, and so she had to unpack her things herself. Seeing the shaking wardrobe, she shook her head and decided to just leave her things in the luggage.

Tinsley quickly opened her luggage, but she soon froze due to shock as if she couldn't believe what she saw. She began to unpack her things like crazy, but it was the same thing.

Why didn't she think of this when she was leaving? President Jarek! She gritted her teeth in anger. That jealous person!

Tinsley quickly picked up her phone and coincidentally Jarek's call came through. She was already ready to scold him when Ariel's sweet voice sounded which diffused her anger quickly.

"Mom, have you landed?" Ariel asked in her sweet voice while laughing, which made Tinsley's heart filled with sweetness.

She suddenly discovered how much she misses the triplet's presence.

Before Tinsley could say anything, she heard Jason and Mason's excited voices. "Mom."

Tinsley tried to calm her anger and decided to listen to the Triplet's. After exchanging pleasantries, Tinsley gritted her teeth to control her boiling rage because the more she saw her luggage, the more she couldn't help scolding Jarek.

"Where's dad?" Tinsley asked in a feigned calm tone.

After a few seconds, she heard Jason's voice. "Mom, Dad is busy and will call you soon," Jason replied, which made Tinsley grit her teeth. She knew Jarek had purposely sent Jason to tell her that.

That Jarek! He's purposely doing so after secretly changing all her low-sleeved, low-cut, and crop tops into long-sleeved tops, turtle-neck long tops, etc. after she fell asleep last night.

As if that wasn't enough, all her skirts and gowns were also changed into long ones, thick and not revealing ones, and over decent ones which wouldn't reveal her figure or her legs.

It was very hot in Rivin Village, if it wasn't roasting her alive, then what is? After suppressing her anger and saying goodbye to the little kids and telling the kids to ask their father to call her back when he was less busy, Tinsley finally cut off the call.

It was after she took her sweet bath that Jared called her. Her eyes darkened with anger, and she quickly picked up the call, "Wife." Jarek called in an innocent voice. "We missed you." He continued to say in an innocent voice which made her anger begin to decrease. "You don't know how lonely the house is without your presence, wife."

Tinsley was shocked for a while after hearing all he wanted to say, but she snapped out of it and said. "I missed you... however..."

"How much did you miss us?" He interrupted before she could switch the topic.

Tinsley would agree that Jarek was very scheming, and she was no mate of his. "President Jarek, why did you switch my clothes?" She asked him straightforwardly.

"What are you talking about? Why don't I know about it?" He pretended to be clueless, which made her vein throb.

"President Jarek, you can do it, but you can't admit it. I packed summer clothes, who would have changed them to winter clothes if it wasn't you? You tell me, can anyone enter the room if it wasn't you?"

"Well, there is." He finally replied after a few minutes of silence.

Tinsley sneered and said. "Fine, let me know, I'll ask."

"Well, it could be our little kids. They may want to prevent others from looking at their mom." He replied shamelessly, which made her gobsmacked.