

The Killer 121

Chapter 121 In Hedy's heart, what is Preston?

Vincent transferred to Lowell High School for Hedy.

His mayor father allowed him to transfer to Lowell High School, also for Hedy.

It's just that the former is for love, while the latter is for interpersonal relationships.

The mayor felt that, looking at the whole of San Francisco, there is no second female high school student who can be as outstanding as Hedy.

Not to mention, Hedy is also the savior of Grandpa Childe King.

It is always a good thing that the son can be friends with Hedy.

So, Vincent came to Class 7 of Lowell High School.

"This kid is a new member of our class. When you were away, he was the first in grade." Sun walked over and put his arm on Vincent's shoulder, "

Goddess Hedy, today is the monthly exam, do you want to take the exam?"? Everyone is quite curious, who of you two will be the first in grade in the future!"

Sun did not object to Vincent.

Vincent comes from a good family background, studies well, has a good temper, and is hard to be hated.

"Let's take the test." Hedy nodded.

The two-day monthly exam begins.

After the exam, the school released the rankings. Hedy and Vincent tied for first place, with full marks in all subjects.

"Hedy is really good. He just came back from the competition and got full marks in every subject."

Vincent looked at the rankings on the list. with admiration.

"You're not bad either." Hedy said calmly.

She gets full marks simply because she lived two lifetimes.

In the game, it is equivalent to returning to Novice Village with a full- level boss.

Vincent is different, he took one step at a time, with his own efforts, he got this perfect score.

"It's far away." Vincent spit out three words slowly.

He still has a long way to go to catch up.

Behind the two of them, the corners of Sun and the students in Class 7 twitched,

"When you two masters gave in to each other, did you consider our feelings?"

There are two god-level masters in the class. It is distressing.

When school was over, Hedy finished his duty and left the school gate.

“Hedy.” Vincent who was waiting at the door greeted him, and handed the matcha mille-feuille cake to Hedy

“Did you buy it?” The cake searcher above Hedy’s head froze again.

“I did it, congratulations on becoming a double master.” Vincent smiled warmly, and the roots of Susan’s cars turned red.

Hedy likes to eat cakes, so he learns to make cakes.

There are too many flavors of cakes, so he chooses one first and keeps practicing until the taste and shape are recognized by professional dessert chefs.

“Thank you.” Hedy took the cake, eyebrows and eyes slightly curved.

Corner Cafe.

Preston, who saw this scene in his eyes, was holding a coffee cup and remained silent for a long time.

His eyes were unfathomable, and there was also a packaged matcha mille-feuille on the table in front of him.

“Childe King.” Aiden stood behind him and reminded him softly.

He is complicated.

Childe King took the cake and waited for Ms. Ellis near Lowell High School for so long, but in the end, the mayor’s Mr got there first.

What’s more, after Ms. Ellis politely and indifferently left the King Family’s villa, she actually smiled so nicely at Mr... How could this make Childe King feel bad?

Preston was silent, put the coffee cup back on the table, and his eyes fell on the cake that was almost exactly the same as Vincent’s.

His thin lips raised slightly, drawing a mocking arc.

In Hedy’s heart, what is Preston?

a casual friend?”

An emotionless companion sleeping machine?

Or a pastry chef who can be replaced at any time?

Judging by her smile, she must like the cake made by Vincent very much.

Then this piece of myself is redundant.

The man threw the cake into the trash can next to him, got up and walked out of the coffee shop, running opposite to the two people at the school gate.

Lowell High School entrance.

A red sports car worth millions was parked in front of Hedy and Vincent.

The windows of the sports car were lowered slowly, and the driver was a yellow-haired boy who had just turned eighteen.

“Hey squad leader, didn’t you agree to come to my birthday party? We’ve been waiting for you for a long time!”

The yellow-haired boy was the son of an official in San Francisco and went to school at LWHS.

Before he transferred to another school, Vincent was in the same class as him and was the monitor of their class.

“Sorry, I’m going over now.” Vincent gestured to get into the car.

“Wait a minute, isn’t this the genius girl Hedy!” The yellow-haired boy’s eyes lit up when he saw Hedy.

The beautiful girl in front of her, wearing a white sweater and black tight slacks, with a cold temperament and a single ponytail, is Hedy!

Other provinces and cities may not care about Hedy, but San Francisco is different. Hedy is almost becoming the representative of San Francisco high school students.

As expected, the monitor transferred to Lowell High School because of her!

He immediately locked the door.

“Why are you locking the door? I haven’t gone up yet.” Vincent. couldn’t open the door.

The yellow-haired boy leaned his arms on the car window, “Squad leader, don’t you know that the party rules have been changed? Everyone has partners of the opposite sex. Isn’t it appropriate for you to get in the car alone?” “Where can I find a girlfriend now?”

“?” Vincent frowned.

“I don’t care, I won’t open the door if I don’t have a girlfriend anyway.” The yellow-haired boy looked like a dead pig not afraid of boiling water.

Vincent frowned even more.

“I’ll go with you, just thank you for the cake.” Hedy took the initiative. to speak, shaking the matcha mille-feuille in his hand.

Vincent's ears suddenly burned.

Are Ye and Hedy going to be his girlfriends at his classmate's birthday party?

"Okay!" The yellow-haired boy unlocked the car door.

After Hedy and Vincent sat down firmly, they drove them to the biggest bar in the city center.

After parking the car, he led them into the box on the third floor, shouting loudly,

"Brothers and sisters, the squad leader is here with a mysterious female guest! Hurry and welcome!"
s student.

Some of them were chatting and some were playing cards. When they heard that Vincent had come with a mysterious female guest, they all stopped what they were doing and looked at the door.

"Who is the female companion brought by the monitor? She looks. really good!"

"It seems to be Hedy who has won many championships!"

"Fuck, awesome! Welcome, welcome, warm welcome!"

Everyone applauded.

In the midst of the bustle, a girl suddenly shouted in surprise,

"No... classmate Hedy?"

Hedy looked over, and the person who called her was a girl with double braids in a small white dress.

Who is she, Hedy didn't remember immediately.

"Do you know each other?" Vincent asked the braided girl..

"Yes, I was her study committee member in junior high school, and we were both studying in Geary Village junior high school at that time." The braided girl smiled awkwardly at Hedy and waved her hand, "Student Hedy, have you forgotten? I'm

Eva. "

Hedy Only then did he remember her, "Sorry, I haven't seen you for a long time, I don't remember."

In the original owner's memory, there was indeed such a person.

At the end of the high school entrance examination that year, Eva was admitted to the best public school in San Francisco, LWIS

The school held banners to celebrate this for a long time.

It's just that everyone is in the third year of high school in a blink of an eye, and we haven't seen each other for three years.

“It’s okay.” Eva smiled gently and decently, but her hand holding the drink cup became tighter and tighter.

It’s not “I didn’t think about it”.

He wanted to embarrass her on purpose! It’s only been three years since we saw each other!

The framing of a female junior high school classmate, met the yellow-haired boy Preston again and asked Hedy to sit down, then ran out and swayed to the music.

Some students squeezed close to Hedy, their eyes full of curiosity,

“Hedy, I’m chasing the novel you’re talking about, can you tell me when the protagonist will leave the forest?” ”

I also want to ask Hedy about the Go ‘cosmic flow’ How about the experience at the beginning!”

“Coincidentally, I also want to ask Hedy if the veterans of the Phoenix Dance Troupe are still accepting disciples?”

Hedy answered one by one.

Vincent poured a glass of orange juice for Hedy.

“Wow, the son of the mayor’s family poured drinks for Hedy himself!” The girl envied.

Some students joked, “They all came out of junior high school. Hedy has already become famous. Eva, you have to work hard.

Eva smiled dryly, “Okay, I will work hard.”

In her heart, she couldn’t calm down no matter what.

She remembered that when Hedy was in junior high school, Hedy was an inconspicuous, skinny and timid girl.

On weekdays, I dare not lift up or speak.

As for her, she is a study committee member with high hopes from the teacher, and she can receive love letters from boys every now and then.

After three years of hard work, she finally got out of the small town. and came to San Francisco LWIS.

Hedy, because of his marriage with a wealthy family, can enter the best private aristocratic academy in San Francisco even if he fails the grades.

After she came to LWHS, it took her another three years to open up her social circle and get to know high school students.

Hedy, however, was directly praised by the disciples of the high school.

Even Vincent, the mayor’s son, poured drinks for Hedy himself.

Because Hedy is so talented, he understands racing, Olympic math, can play chess and dance... These are all taught by Lowell High School, right?

Noble schools are really good.

Everything can be taught, and everything can be learned. No matter how stupid a pig enters, it will be different when it comes out.

But—

Eva lowered her head, her pupils widening.

Why did she work so hard to get something.

Hedy got it easily, and did it better than her?

Why?

She refuses to accept it!

“Eva, didn’t you say that you can show me the gold bracelet dowry your grandma prepared for you?”
The

long-haired girl next to

Eva looked forward to it. “Hmm.” Eva took out a finely crafted gold bracelet from her small backpack.

“It’s really beautiful. The leaf-like texture completely offsets the tackiness of the gold itself. Now, I’ll give it back to you.”

Hedy walked past the two to the bathroom.

“I’m going to the bathroom too.” Eva put on the gold bracelet and went to the bathroom too.

Hedy was washing her hands when she went in.

She put the small backpack on the washstand, “Student Hedy, please help me take a look.”

After that, without waiting for Hedy to express his opinion, she went directly to the cubicle for convenience.

Hedy frowned slightly, for the sake of his classmates, he stood in front of the washstand, waiting for Eva to come out.

After a while, Eva came out.

Hedy goes out.

“Thank you.” Eva followed Hedy back to the bar box with the bag.

“Eva, Kitty also wants to see your gold bracelet.” The long-haired girl brought the short-haired girl over.

Girls love pretty accessories.

“Okay.”

Eva smiled and opened the zipper of the small backpack, looking around inside, but couldn't find the necklace, so her face turned pale.

"What's wrong?" The two girls were worried.

"My bracelet is gone!" Her voice trembled.

"I saw you put the bracelet in your bag just now, but you dropped it when you went to the bathroom?" the long-haired girl wondered.

Eva seemed to have been reminded. With a pale face, she said in a low voice.

"When I went to the bathroom, I asked classmate Hedy to help me look at my bag...

What?!" The long-haired girl stood up in surprise, and her voice was also very loud.

Everyone in the box looked at her.

"What's wrong?" Everyone asked.

The gold bracelet Grandma Eva left her was stolen by Hedy!" The short-haired girl also stood up, pointing at Hedy with disappointed eyes.

Everyone immediately looked at Hedy with different eyes.

"You say I stole something, do you have evidence?" Hedy sat on the sofa and asked her lightly.

"Eva was in the bathroom just now, did you ask you to check her bag?" the long-haired girl asked.

"She threw the bag in front of me and went in without asking if I agreed." Hedy calmly stated what happened before.

The long-haired girl said sharply, "That's right, I saw Eva put the bracelet in the bag with my own eyes. Only you can touch the bag. You must have stolen it. Let's search it!" They must help find important things!

Saying that, the two girls with long hair and short hair walked towards. Hedy

Vincent and stood up, stretching out their arms in front of Hedy, their usually polite faces were all cold,

"Aren't you underestimating Hedy too much? A gold bracelet tens of thousands?

Her master of light and double materials has a bonus of 200,000 USD, – not to mention that the copyrights of the novels she wrote have not yet been sold.

I can understand Eva's eagerness to lose her bracelet, but I don't allow you to make Hedy a suspect and search her!"

The two girls were taken aback.

From the perspective of money, Hedy really has no reason to steal the bracelet, and the bracelet should not exceed 50,000 at most.

"I remember when I was in junior high school, I wore a bracelet, and classmate Hedy said she liked it very much." Eva's eyes were flushed, and she bit her lower lip.

"Why don't I remember you wearing it?" Hedy's eyes lighted up slightly, his pupils filled with coldness. Eva is lying.

"Student Hedy, that bracelet was given to me by my grandma before she died. It is very important to me. Please return it to me, please." Eva begged earnestly.

"Then call the police." Hedy took out his mobile phone and called the police.

"Is there anyone in the police station who can cooperate with you? I remember that your neighbor brother is a policeman." Eva looked at the two best friends for help.

Short-haired girl," Don't be afraid, Eva. My uncle works in the political circles of Central South Province. Even Vincent, the son of the mayor of San Francisco, has to give way. When I announce my name, the police will never dare to come in!" The long-haired girl "My family owns this bar, Hedy, if you don't let us search you today, don't even think about going out!"

The two chose to imprison Hedy, because they trusted their best friend Eva who they had known for many years.

Secondly, it was secretly jealous of the popular Hedy, thinking that Hedy just stole the bracelet.

Responded to the phrase "people often only believe what they want to believe".

"From the beginning to the end, it was the three of you who cooperated. You thought I stole something, and even informed the police in advance.

Can I also think that this is a planting scene that the three of you have negotiated, and the bracelet is On the three of you?" Hedy slowly glanced over the three of them.

"You're talking nonsense, how could we steal from our girlfriends! You must be guilty!" the two young ladies retorted.

"Oh, don't be so stiff." Guy, whose birthday is today, came out to smooth things over,

"How about this, to be fair, we all go upstairs one by one, and the cleaning aunt and security guards, nothing special

Those who are not involved, stand beside them and supervise to avoid accidental injury, and whoever escapes halfway will be counted as self-inflicted.""

I agree." Everyone thinks this is a good idea.

Vincent looked at Hedy.

Hedy's red lips parted slightly, "I have no objection."

So, the students were divided into male and female groups, and they went upstairs one by one to be searched.

Hedy was the last one because of the heaviest suspicion, and was supervised by all the girls for body searches.

She stepped on the stairs and went upstairs slowly, but met Preston at the corner.

He was leaning against the wall, with a slender figure, and there was a faint smell of alcohol around him. A cigarette was held between his bony fingers, and the smoke was lightly scattered.

The corridor lights cast a hazy halo on his side face, mature and charming.

Chapter 123 The Unmelted Ice

This was the first time Hedy saw Preston smoking.

It seems to have a sense of loneliness and depression.

"Why are you here?" Hedy asked softly.

"Entertainment." Preston said in a low voice, looking downstairs through the window.

Hedy followed his line of sight and found that Aiden was watching a middle-aged man in expensive clothes get into a fifty million black sports car.

"Yeah." Hedy nodded in understanding.

"Eva's purpose is to tarnish your reputation. Even if you search your body to confirm your innocence, she will not give up easily.

She will say that you have found an internal agent and transferred the bracelet out, so you don't have it on you, and then let the two sisters treat you. Put pressure on." Preston took a drag on his cigarette, exhaled slowly.

As soon as Hedy and Vincent showed up at the bar, he noticed it.

He also paid attention to what happened in their box.

"I know." Hedy knew exactly what Eva was thinking.

"If you want to escape smoothly, you can report my name." Preston looked at her with deep eyes.

"No need." Hedy refused.

Her decisiveness and resistance made Preston's long and narrow eyes a little angry, and his tone was a little more jealous,

"Vincent can help you, can't you?"

When the mayor stood up for her in the box, She did not refuse.

Hedy frowned, "What do you want to say?"

What does this have to do with Vincent?

"Why don't you want me to help?" Preston pressed.

Is he worse than Vincent?

"Do I have to need help from someone?" Hedy wondered.

When she crawled out of the slums, from the pile of corpses, from the cliff, from the dense forest, from the deep sea, from the glacier, no one helped her.

It wasn't needed before, and it won't be needed in the future.

"So my help is irrelevant to you, isn't it?" Preston narrowed his narrow eyes, and the anger in them was even heavier.

"It's okay if you want to understand it that way." Hedy didn't know how to answer.

Every mission she's had to do since her rebirth can be done without Preston.

Left is just a question of whether it is fast or slow, simple or complex.

"Yeah, it looks like I'm being self-indulgent." Preston lowered his eyes and smiled, with a bit of sarcasm in his laugh,

But it's true, Ye Goddess Hedy is so strong, so there's no need for help from others."

After all, it's a piece of ice.

He extinguished the cigarette and threw it in the trash can.

Then don't cover it up.

He didn't have to stick it up either.

When Preston looked up again, there was no anger in his eyes, only calmness, returning to the appearance that a shopping mall overlord should have.

He took the initiative to pass by Hedy without looking back.

Hedy stood where he was, and moved his fingers.

Why did his last expression make her feel depressed.

At the end of the corridor, a girl shouted, "Hedy, you missed the body search, come in!"

Hedy calmed down and walked over

In the room, there were about a dozen girls including Eva, long-haired girls, and short-haired girls, and a cleaning lady.

“Offended.” The cleaning aunt searched Hedy.

The result is naturally not found.

Men and women gathered in the corridor again, staring at each other.

“Our boys didn’t find the bracelet, what about you girls?”

“Girls didn’t either...”

“The bathroom and the box were also searched, but they couldn’t find it.”

“The bracelet disappeared?”

At this time, Eva asked again. She said softly, “Could it be that classmate Hedy has already handed over the bracelet to someone else to take it out?” ”

Wow, I didn’t expect Hedy to be so sinister!” The long-haired girl and the short-haired girl started again. Hedy didn’t speak, and walked in front of Eva in three steps and two steps.

“You...what do you want to do?” Eva took half a step back, her face timid.

There is also an open window behind her.

“Help you find the bracelet.” Hedy’s eyes burst into coldness, and he pushed her shoulders with both hands.

“Ah!”

Eva screamed, leaning back and flipping down the window!

The students around opened their mouths wide, they didn’t expect Hedy to dare to do this!

When they came back to their senses, Hedy had already grabbed one of Eva ‘s ankles, hanging her in the air like fishing!

The hem of her small foreign dress fell completely upside down, exposing her safety pants in embarrassment.

“Where’s the bracelet?” Hedy asked calmly.

44 PIL

“Hedy! You’re trying to kill me for a bracelet!” Eva yelled in terror.

Some boys wanted to stop Hedy’s behavior, but when Hedy pressed his eyes full of hostility, they didn’t dare to move.

Mom, Hedy's eyes are so scary!

The boys dare not come over, let alone the delicate girls in the arena.

Eva, this is the fourth floor. Although the number of floors is not high, if you fall with your head down and your brain explodes, you will definitely die." Hedy's emotionless voice penetrated into everyone's ears, "I don't have that much patience to talk to you

. I'll count to three, and if you don't say it, I'll let go.'

There's no room for change!

"Hedy, you are killing people!" Eva was even more frightened.

"Three." Hedy let go of his little finger.

Eva's voice was thin, "If I die, you will go to jail!"

"Two." Hedy let go of his ring finger.

The release of the two fingers made Eva inevitably slide down half an inch.

"Ah!" Eva was so frightened that her soul was almost torn apart!

Hedy really dared to let go!

She really dares! Afraid that Hedy would count "one",

Eva cried, "I said! I said! The bracelet is in the toilet's toilet seat, and I hid it to frame you, woohoo!" It is impossible for her to frame Hedy

, Regardless of his own life!

"Go find it." Vincent ordered several of his former female classmates.

The female classmate nodded, and went to look for it together, and finally came back with a gold bracelet.

Hedy then pulled Eva up.

Girls with long hair and short hair were full of disbelief, trust you so much, how can you cheat and use us?"

Eva covered her face and cried,

Eva, we

"I struggled for many years before I was admitted to LWHS, but because Hedy has a marriage contract with a wealthy family, even the exam If you fail the grade, you can still enter Lowell High School and transform...it's not fair, I feel sad!"

You feel sad, so you can smear Hedy like this? Do you think transforming is a very simple thing?" Vincent is clear,

“The worse her junior high school grades are, the more it proves that she has spent more effort to achieve her current grades!”

Others nodded.

The world is neither black nor white, and there is not so much absolute fairness to speak of.

You can be wronged, but your wrongedness is not a reason for you to attack innocent people.

“Sorry! Sorry! Sorry!” Eva cried loudly.

She couldn’t accept the contrast of being close at hand, she was obsessed with ghosts, and wanted to make Hedy lose face and win back a little inferior and sensitive face for herself.

Vincent shook his head silently, turned around to ask Hedy what to do with Eva, but found that she had already left.

With a cold appearance, but a gentle heart, she probably wants to give her junior high school classmates who haven’t made a big mistake a chance to reform themselves.

“Squad leader, Hedy is really as rumored, so handsome and cool!” Huang Mao scratched the back of his head.

He is overwhelmed!

Chapter 124 Hedy’s mood, fifth brother’s birthday apartment.

Hedy lowered his head to wash his face, and when he looked up and saw himself wearing the teardrop pendant in the mirror, he paused.

The necklace, and the letter Cooper had left her, were all repaired by Preston.

That letter, in particular, couldn’t have been put together without Preston.

Thinking of Preston’s expression before he left, Hedy felt a little depressed.

Did she... Did she say something wrong and make him unhappy?

She couldn’t figure it out.

Hedy hugged his mobile phone, fell on the bed in the bedroom, and searched for “what to do when a friend is angry”.

In the dark room, the light from the mobile phone screen was projected on her beautiful face.

She has no friends.

Don’t know what to do.

But Preston was a great friend.

She didn't want...to make him uncomfortable and angry because she didn't say anything.

While browsing the search results, Hedy received a vx message from

Kit, "I promised to celebrate Brother Wu's birthday this year, don't forget it!" "

By the way, there are gifts, if you don't have a gift, be careful that Brother Wu beats you!

Following the message, there was a "list" emoji.

Hedy froze for a moment.

Fifth brother Kit, 20 years old this year, is two years older than himself. His name comes from Kit in "Kit", which means that things can be simpler.

He is indeed a simple person. From childhood to adulthood, he would greet anyone who ridiculed him with fists and kicks.

The message sent this time seems to be very cruel to my sister, but it is actually very kind to my sister.

Brother and sister read books in a junior high school.

Hedy was in the first year of junior high school, and Kit was in the third year of junior high school. They had poor grades and fought fiercely.

That year, a boy said serious pornographic nonsense to Hedy, Kit knew about it, found the boy on the spot, and beat the boy into the ICU of the hospital.

The school asked Kit to apologize, otherwise he would not graduate, and the parents of the boys also found Ellis Family and made Ellis Family lose money.

Kit threw down the sentence "I don't stay here, I have a place to stay", and left overnight to go to work with a friend to pay back the money.

Buddy and Malina were very angry.

After so many years, Kit has never been home, probably because he felt that he had caused trouble for the family, and he could not come back unless he made a name for himself.

He sends money to his family every month, mostly a few hundred, and the highest is no more than one thousand.

On New Year's Eve last year, he felt lonely, so he secretly contacted his sister and made an appointment that she would accompany him on her birthday this year.

Hedy glanced at the calendar.

There are still five days until Brother Wu's birthday.

The school happens to have a long holiday tomorrow, so let's just buy a ticket and go there.

Hedy replied, "I'll be there tomorrow

Kit, "?" Come so early?

Hedy, “?” Any questions?

Kit, “It’s okay, just come, Brother Wu is doing well now!”

Hedy raised his eyebrows.

She exited the chat interface and returned to the search interface.

“Since the literal apology is not sincere enough, let’s wait until Brother Fifth comes back from his birthday before visiting.” Hedy whispered to himself.

Just give her a few days to think about how to apologize.

-The

next day, early in the morning.

Hedy wore pure white short sleeves, blue jeans, and a black slim-fit windbreaker, and left the apartment with a suitcase.

It was already twelve noon when she arrived in the city.

As soon as I got out of the station, I saw a teenager holding a board. with “Hedy” on the opposite side of the road.

The teenager is in his early 20s, wearing brand-name black short- sleeves and coffee-colored slacks, and his hair is dyed red. From a distance, he has the eye-catching effect of “turkey standing in the crowd”.

It is Kit.

Kit looks good, his facial features are similar to Hedy’s, and there is a black tear mole on the left side of his face, which looks very affectionate.

“Fifth Brother.” Hedy dragged his luggage and walked over.

“Okay, the little skinny monkey who used to be is so beautiful now, he is worthy of being the daughter of our old Ellis Family!” Kit’s eyes flashed, and his tone was full of pride,

“Go, get in the car with brother!”

He led Hedy Came to a dilapidated black car.

“Oh, my Hummer has been taken by the assistant for maintenance, so I can only drive this to pick you up first, as long as the car can run.” Kit pressed the car key to unlock it.

Didi – lock open.

“Yeah.” Hedy nodded.

Kit opened the driver’s car door, and in the process of getting in, the nameplate label on the sleeve of his jacket rubbed against the door and flew out.

Hedy tilted his head to look at the label floating in the air, his eyes puzzled.

“Hey, it looks like this brand doesn’t want to cooperate with me anymore, and they actually gave me defective products, and I’ll settle the score with them later!” Kit said angrily, grabbed the label, snapped it, and stuck it back on the sleeve.

Hedy didn’t say anything, and sat in the back seat.

The two left in an old car that rang everywhere except the horn.

In a silver low-key luxury car on the street.

Aiden said in surprise, “Childe King, Ms. Ellis has also come to the city.” The handsome man in the back seat looked like a king, as if he had never heard of it.

Aiden, “...”

Ms. Ellis and Childe King, what’s wrong?

Kit took Hedy around and around, shuttled in the alley, and finally stopped in front of an old-fashioned building.

“Hedy, you came at such an unlucky time. My sea view villa is being renovated until... By the way, when are you going back to San Francisco?” The boy asked Hedy as he walked into the old building

“Seven days later.” Hedy answered truthfully.

“My villa will not be repaired until seven days later, alas, it’s too unfortunate, I can only live here first.” The boy took out the key and opened one of the doors.

This is a room with two bedrooms, one living room and one kitchen. The furniture inside is old and simple. There is a punching bag in the living room and several gloves beside it.

“You go and sit on the sofa first, and I’ll pour you a glass of red wine.” Kit went to the kitchen to pour the wine.

“Yeah.”

Hedy found a place on the sofa and sat down, half of his body sank in this sitting!

There is a hole below!

Hedy was dumbfounded, she stood up with question marks all over her face, and lifted the sofa cushion, which had been bitten through by the dog, revealing a yellow sponge.

“Ah, I forgot to tell you! My Tibetan mastiff bit me a hole here! Its temperament follows me, it loves freedom.”

Kit came out with two tall glasses filled with red wine, his eyes widened. Quickly explain.

The corner of Hedy’s mouth twitched.

If her IQ can drop by one hundred points, she can consider trusting Fifth Brother.

“Come on, take a sip of 1982 Lafite to quench your thirst.” Kit handed Hedy a glass of red wine.

Hedy took the wine glass and was about to drink it when a sweet and greasy smell entered his nostrils “Fifth brother, why does your Lafite from 1982 smell like brown sugar?” She asked lightly.
Kit shook the wine glass, raised his head and took a sip gracefully, his eyes were melancholy,
“Don’t inquire about social affairs.”

Chapter 125 My sister, an ordinary high school girl

Hedy didn’t expose Kit’s lies.

He has a simple mind, without a diploma and background, it is difficult to get along in society.

The so-called “living well” just wanted to be less ashamed in front of my sister.

She drank the brown sugar-flavored red wine in one gulp, and said in a calm voice, “It’s delicious.”

Kit heard this, heaved a sigh of relief, and rolled his eyes with a smile,

“Of course it’s delicious, I’m reluctant to give it to others if they want it!”

He smiled, and the mole on his face became more sentimental, he was a very beautiful sunny boy.

Boom.

The closed door was kicked open, and the person who came was a fat renter, she pointed at Kit’s nose and yelled,

“Stinky boy, will you still pay this month’s rent? If you don’t pay, I will move out!”

Kit’s face changed drastically, and he hurriedly pushed the renter out of the house and whispered,

“Landlord, give me one more day, and after one day, I will definitely pay the rent!”

The renter didn’t have that patience, and spread her fat palms, with a loud voice, “No, I will move out if I don’t pay the rent today!”

My sister came to see me, I can’t take her to sleep on the street, good landlord, I beg you, give me a day...” Kit bitterly Begging.

Hedy came over, took out a dozen brand-new hundred-USD bills from his wallet, and handed them to the charterer,

“I’ll pay for him, is this enough?”

Master Shuangbao still has a lot of bonuses left.

“That’s enough, that’s enough. I didn’t expect a younger sister to be richer than an older brother!” The renter took the money and left happily.

Kit dropped his shoulders, not daring to look at Hedy.

All his lies were exposed.

Hedy's eyes flickered, he patted his shoulder, and said in a gentle voice,

"Fifth brother, although you are already a successful person, it's better to bring some cash with you, don't put it all in the bank."

Kit raised his head abruptly, unexpectedly It's all like this, and my sister still believes in him.

But his sister's "simplicity" made him feel guilty instead.

He sat on the sofa, lowered his head and said,

"Actually, Brother Wu is not a successful person. The Hummer is fake. the clothes are fake, the sea view villa is fake, the Tibetan mastiff is fake, and the red wine is fake. Really, I'm sorry."

He waited for his younger sister to question him angrily, but the younger sister sat next to him and gave a calm "hmm".

Kit felt even more uncomfortable, bitterness appeared in his eyes, "Do you feel that Fifth Brother is so useless that he can't even pay the rent?"

Kit has had a bad life these years.

Once, he thought he was invincible all over the world, but a strong and strong adult snatched his bag and kicked him down.

At one time, he felt that studying was useless, but in fact, other college graduates earned more money in a month than he did in a year, and it was easier than him.

At one time, he thought that those who could "call each other brothers" must be good friends. Later, he learned how much salary was deducted by his good friend and his boss.

Hedy pursed her lips and said in a cold voice,

"I don't think Fifth Brother is useless. Fifth Brother is a responsible person. If life is not good now, it doesn't mean that he won't be famous in the future."

Her words were not trying to comfort Kit.

Kit beat someone to the hospital because of his sister.

After stepping into the society, he sent money to his family every once in a while. Obviously he himself was not doing well, but he saved. money on food and expenses, hoping to help his family, so that he would not be distracted by the colorful world.

A person with such a character, as long as he is given a chance, he will definitely be able to skyrocket.

"You really think of Fifth Brother like this?" Kit immediately became. energetic, he said with a smile,

"Fifth Brother can really stand out, and it won't take long, after tonight!"

"Why did you say that?" Hedy was a little surprised.

Kit said, "At the beginning of this year, I was eating barbecue with my co-workers. Someone provoked me, and I beat them up! The owner of bar across the road saw it and invited me to go in their bar. I won several people and earned hundreds of dollars.

the

The boss said that I was a seedling and asked me to learn a real one. After I learned it, I became more and more powerful and famous. Not long ago, the boss accepted a challenge. The date Just tonight.

He told me that as long as I can win this game, he will give me 100,000, and there will be more and more games like this in the future, and I can earn more and more!" Speaking of which

Kit After a pause, he hugged Hedy's shoulders, and swayed childishly,

"When the time comes, Fifth Brother will be able to earn a lot of money, buy you a big house to live in, buy a luxury car to drive, and let you live a very good life." Good day."

Hedy raised his eyebrows, letting his brother dangle her in his arms.

No wonder there are gloves and punching bags in the living room.

But...

she asked softly, "Fifth brother, can I go to your match tonight?"

According to Wu brother's description, he should be lighting underground black, also called black market.

It's different from the generous professional matches.

This kind of competition is cruel, bloody, full of money and calculations.

One hundred thousand is not a small amount, and she worried that the simple-minded Fifth Brother would be in danger.

"You can see it if you want, but don't run around, there are many bad people there." Kit reminded.

Knock, knock, knock-someone knocked on the door,

"Who, come in." Kit craned his neck to look.

"It's me, bringing you fruit." A good-looking girl walked outside. She was wearing the latest blue dress from a certain brand's autumn. catwalk, and she was holding luxury fruits imported from overseas.

Her cheeks were flushed at first, but when she saw Hedy on the sofa, her face turned pale, " Brother Kit, who is she?"

Although Hedy once had a place in the corner of the Internet because of hip-hop and novels, but for the endless stream of information As far as the Internet is concerned, she was just a flash in the pan.

Therefore, she does not know Hedy.

“My sister Hedy, an ordinary female high school student, came here to celebrate my birthday.” Kit introduced.

He practiced hard all day long, and he didn’t know what his sister had done.

My impression of my younger sister is still that of an “ordinary student who doesn’t study very well”.

As for why he has money to help him pay the rent... It should be the travel expenses and living expenses given by his parents. Anyway, he won the game tonight, so he has to double the money back.

He can’t spend his sister’s money.

He also wants to make money for his sister to spend!

Hearing that it was her younger sister, the girl’s face turned pale and red again, “Then, then I won’t bother you to catch up on the old days. See you at the game tonight.”

The girl put down the fruit and left.

“Fifth brother, is she?” Hedy was a little curious.

In Fifth Brother’s situation, it is difficult to realize that this class of talents is right.

“Liz, the daughter of a wealthy family in Y city.” Kit shrugged,

“Last month’s night, on the way back from the ring, I found her being molested by a masked man.

I beat the man away, and she was very grateful I deliver fruit and snacks every three days, and every time I compete, she cheers off the stage and wants to develop an unforgettable friendship with me.”

Kit felt that Liz had everything she needed, so she wouldn’t want to date herself.

“So that’s it. Then this friend is pretty good, just like my friend.” Hedy nodded earnestly.

Time passed in the conversation between the siblings.

The night came as scheduled, and the two set off for the venue of the challenge.

Chapter 126 Preston Susan turned her head and saw that Hedy’s match was held in the basement of the “Suihe” bar.

The basement has been remodeled to look like a square with a boxy arena in the middle. When Hedy and Kit came in, a loud DJ was playing inside, and there were people dancing to the DJ.

“I’ll take you to the boss first, he should be communicating with the person who initiated the challenge right now.”

Kit took Hedy’s arm and walked into an office.

There were two people sitting in the office, a middle-aged man in a suit in his forties, and a young man in his twenties in a floral shirt.

“Why are you?” Kit frowned when he saw the young man.

“I didn’t expect it to be you!” The young man saw Kit, and leaned back,” with his legs propped up on the desk, with a contemptuous expression, a cigar in his mouth, and a pull of breath in his heart.

Last time it was Kit who broke his good deed!

“Kit, do you know Woods ?” The bar owner stood up and said,

“Woods runs the largest black arena in our province – Clouds arena. I heard that you are famous, so I sent their strongest boxer to compete with you tonight Discuss.”

Hedy understood this.

Tonight’s game is a commercial competition.

The Suihe stadium of the bar owner moved the cake of the Woods Clouds stadium because Wu Ge’s business is getting better and better.

Woods was upset, so he sent boxers to suppress the flames of Wu Ge and the bar owner in the name of “challenge”.

However, the fifth brother seems to have some origins with Woods.

“I don’t know each other, it’s just a chance meeting.” Kit said to the bar owner, “Boss, this is my sister Hedy, she wants to watch me play.

When I’m on stage, you watch her and Liz from below, don’t let people I’m being bullied.”

Hearing the word “ Liz “, Woods snorted, and when he saw Hedy, surprise flashed across his eyes.

But when he thought that she was Kit ‘s sister, there was only contempt in his eyes.

No matter how beautiful this kind of country girl is, her value is not as high as that of Liz who came from a wealthy family.

“Okay, I see, you go out and prepare for the game.” The bar owner nodded.

Hedy and Kit come out.

As soon as he went out, Kit was full of disgust,

“That Woods is the masked man who wanted to molested Liz before. I took off his mask at the time. I didn’t expect him to be the one who initiated the challenge tonight. See if I don’t bring him. boxer!”

He looked down on those who bullied girls the most!

Said Cao Cao Cao Cao arrived, Liz walked in high heels, her pretty face was reddish, " Brother Kit, sister Hedy.

"There is a very bad person here tonight, you pay attention to your surroundings, you know?" Kit reminded.

He didn't directly say that Woods was a masked man, for fear that Liz would be afraid.

"Yeah!" Liz blushed enough to fry an egg.

The sweetheart is worried about his own safety!

After a while, the game started. The deafening DJ stopped, and the bar owner stepped onto the ring, "Tonight, it's Kit VS Dragon from Clouds at Arena... Let them come on stage!"

Kit was ready, and a boxer with a fierce-eyed square face came on stage.

After the two came to the stage, there were sounds of footsteps and clothes rubbing around.

The audience is betting, betting that Kit wins to add money to the left, and betting Dragon to win to add money to the right.

"I heard that Dragon is the strongest boxer in Clouds. I don't know if Brother Kit can win or get hurt..."

Liz subconsciously hugged Hedy's arm, and looked at Kit on the stage without blinking.

At the boss's order, Kit and Dragon began to fight.

Kit, who was on the stage, lacked a sense of stupidity, his eyes were sharp, and he was quite handsome.

Dragon is the first to attack. After resisting Dragon's three attacks, Kit threw a quick, hard left hook that sent Dragon lying back against the side ropes of the ring.

"Wow!" The audience clapped and cheered.

"Brother Kit, come on!" Liz yelled.

Next, it was Kit 's unilateral beating of Dragon, and after a while, he succeeded in KO. Hedy raised an eyebrow

Fifth brother's strength is indeed good.

"It's rich!" Kit took one hundred thousand, happily, and took Hedy and Liz out. office.

The bar owner smiled like an old chrysanthemum,

"Woods, it seems that our Kit is lucky and slightly better."

After this battle, the business of Suihe Stadium will become more and more prosperous.

“It’s really Kit’s luck.” Woods felt uncomfortable.

He fell in love with Liz’s wealthy background, and planned to cook Liz’s raw rice into mature rice, but Kit ruined his good deed.

This time, the business in the ring has caused Kit to mess up again. If this man doesn’t get rid of him, he will be unhappy!

“Do you dare to come to Clouds to compete again? This time the bet is two million!” Woods asked lazily.

“Two million...” The boss was moved.

It’s not that he was moved by two million, but that if Kit could win Clouds again on behalf of Sui He, then Sui He’s reputation would be even greater!

The benefits behind this are more than a mere two million.

“Deal!” The boss agreed.

– When

Kit was taking Hedy and Liz for supper, he received a call from the owner of the bar.

Knowing the second challenge, he frowned, “Boss, I want to spend more time with my family these few days.” It was rare for his sister to come, and he didn’t want to follow her to play the second.

game.

“Kit, if you can win this time, I’ll find someone to trust me and send you to the professional league.

At that time, you won’t have to fight black punches.” The boss hit Kit’s heart with one stroke.

He wants to play fair games, let his family see him honestly, and earn money honestly.

“Okay.”

He hung up the phone and told Hedy and Liz about the second challenge and rewards tomorrow night.

“The boss said that this time is a 3v3 wheel match, and besides me, there are two boxers participating.”

I will go over to cheer you on!” Liz nodded vigorously.

Kit didn’t refuse, thinking,

Although Woods wanted to insult Liz before, but with so many people present in the game, he shouldn’t dare to mess around.

“Be careful.” Hedy’s eyelids drooped slightly to block out the cold light.

That Woods didn’t look good at first glance, and this match had better be just a simple challenge match, otherwise...

–The

next night, the three of them went to the Clouds arena.

The Clouds arena is built on the ground, much larger, just like a regular competition venue.

The lights inside were brightly lit, and the audience was full.

Hedy walked in, the killer’s instinct made her habitually scan around to determine the surrounding environment.

A person in the VIP seat asked her to slowly open her eyes.

It’s Preston.

He was wearing a classic black suit, and his outstanding appearance stood out among the passers-by.

The women around looked at him excitedly.

Sitting next to him was a man in his fifties, also in a suit and leather shoes, who was concentrating on the competition in the arena, cheering from time to time with great interest.

As if sensing Hedy’s gaze, Preston Susan turned his head and saw

Chapter 127 Preston’s indifference, Hedy’s depression

The moment he saw Hedy, there was a trace of surprise in Preston’s slender eyes, apart from that, there was nothing more.

He just glanced at Hedy, then looked away, and smiled lightly to catch the topic thrown by his business partner.

This smile is like the east wind blowing flowers and thousands of trees. at night, and it’s like an emperor sitting in a high hall, pointing the country with ease.

The women nearby became even more excited, wishing they could turn into wolves and pounce on the spot.

Hedy Susan at the door lowered her head, sensing Preston’s indifference.

She was depressed again.

Preston was really angry.

So, how should she apologize?

Gifts are recommended online, but given Preston’s status, he doesn’t seem to be short of anything.

If you like it... Hedy frowned.

She really failed as a friend.

What Preston likes, she doesn't know and doesn't understand.

She likes desserts, but Preston knows it and often makes it for her.

Thinking about it this way, Hedy's mood became even more depressed, and his shoulders drooped, like faded flowers.

"Sister, what's wrong with you?" Kit leaned over, his handsome face full of worry.

"It's nothing." Hedy shook his head and didn't say anything about Preston.

She didn't want to distract Fifth Brother before the competition.

"Let's go, I'll take you in."

Kit took Hedy's hand and led her to the bar owner who was already in place.

Next to the boss are two boxers, who are Kit 's teammates tonight.

"Kit, you are the strongest, come last." The boss ordered.

"Okay." Kit agreed.

Brother Kit, come on!" Liz, who also bought a VIP seat, cheered for her sweetheart.

Facing the few people, Woods leaned on the sofa with his legs crossed, with viper-like viciousness appearing on his ordinary face.

At this time, the sound of gongs sounded in the arena.

The match in the arena was decided.

The audience who won the bet was extremely happy, and the audience. who lost the bet was downcast.

The referee, who is specialized in judging the winners and losers, came on stage and introduced the Suihe Arena and the Clouds Arena 2 Million Challenge.

Upon hearing that there was such a major event, the audience waved their arms and shouted.

"Invite the starting boxers from both sides to come on stage." The referee ordered.

The bar owner sent a strong boxer to go first.

Woods sent Dragon, who had lost to Kit before, to go first.

Boom-

the gong sounded to represent the start.

Rufus and Dragon wrestled together, and Dragon struck out with heavy punches, attacking ferociously, beating Rufus to the point where he was powerless to fight back.

“This Dragon, why are you punching so hard today?” Kit in the audience felt a little puzzled.

He fought Dragon yesterday, and Dragon wasn’t that strong.

Could it be that the water was released yesterday, but today is his real strength?

In less than ten minutes, Dragon KO Rufus and successfully defended the ring, making Rufus’s face swollen.

The audience cheers.

After a short break, the second began.

Russ relayed to the stage and played the second game with Dragon.

It stands to reason that Dragon’s stamina should have been reduced since he played so fiercely in the previous game.

But when he beat Russ, he was still violent, as if his eyes were red, he pressed Russ to the corner of the ring and beat him wildly.

The last punch passed, directly cracking Russ’s skull, and Russ vomited blood and fell to the ground.

Boom –

the sound of the gong.

Dragon KO Russ, Russ was carried away for rescue.

The audience cheered vigorously.

Hedy looked at the direction where Russ was carried away, and Evan frowned.

She has studied medicine and knows how hard the human brain and skull are.

Dragon was wearing gloves again, how could he break Russ’s skull.

This is not right.

The third scene, on the Kit.

“Fifth brother, be careful of fraud.” Hedy reminded.

“Yeah.” Kit stepped onto the stage with a serious expression.

Brother Kit, be careful!” Liz’s face turned pale.

Looking at the first two games, Dragon is not easy to deal with, and she is very worried.

However, the more worried she was, the angrier Woods was on the other side.

Dragon, beat that kid Kit to death. Even if you can't beat him to death, you'll have to blind him and break his legs!" Woods ordered Dragon, smoking a cigar.

"Yes, Woods." Dragon smiled cruelly

The third match begins.

Dragon took the lead in attacking, and the wind brought by this fist made Kit keep retreating, puzzled.

Even if Dragon hid his strength yesterday, he shouldn't have finished. two games in a row today and still be so physically strong.

Did he hide something in his trap?

Kit retreated to the corner on purpose, waiting for Dragon's punch to hit him, and then dodged his neck so that Dragon 's fist hit the iron stake in the ring.

A sponge is tied around the iron pile for shock absorption. When you punch down, a punch hole appears in the sponge.

this is normal.

But there are four smaller pits in the fist pit, which shows that Dragon has a sharp weapon in his hand!

Kit took the opportunity to pull off Dragon's glove, revealing four black knuckles, and said angrily, "You violated the rules!"

This is the root cause of Dragon's sudden increase in strength!

Unexpectedly, Dragon was not in the embarrassment of being exposed. Instead, he generously took off the other glove and showed his knuckles

Underground? The rules of underground are that there are no rules!"

The audience cheered desperately, all of them were in high spirits.

Those who watch underground fists want thrills, excitement, and blood, including human life!

The middle-aged man next to Preston stood up excitedly and shouted.

The bar owner's expression changed, and just as he was about to speak, he was pressed down by the people around Woods, firmly.

Dragon attacked again, and Kit could only respond with a more cautious block.

Without the cover and buffer of the gloves, Dragon's fist with knuckles will only be more painful and harder!

He also took time to fight back, but he punched Dragon, and Dragon also took advantage of his unblocked opportunity to punch him back.

In the fight of pure strength, how can a person who has not cheated win a person who has cheated!

Kit was beaten to the ground, leaving four wounds on Jun's face from the knuckles.

"Fifth Brother!" Hedy walked quickly to the edge of the ring to check on Fifth Brother's situation.

"I'm fine." Kit swallowed the blood in his mouth, got up and attacked Dragon proactively.

Boom!

After several confrontations, Dragon beat Kit to the ground again.

This time, there were four wounds on the other side of Kit's handsome face. "It's okay!" Kit got up and attacked Dragon again.

Boom!

Kit was quickly called back.

He has a broken nose.

"Fifth brother, admit defeat!" Hedy's eyes were sharp.

He can't win this game!

"No!" Kit's swollen eyes were full of determination.

In the third year of junior high school, he acted recklessly, which ruined his future and caused his poor family to lose a lot of money.

Now, an opportunity is in front of him, as long as he can win, he has a chance to enter the professional league.

This will allow him to earn more money, and it will also allow him to earn in a fair manner, so why should he admit defeat!

He can't admit defeat!

He wants to make up for his family, he wants to make up for himself!

He also wanted to tell Hedy,

Sister, look, Fifth Brother is not a wimp at all.

Five Brothers will soon come to the fore.

At that time, Fifth Brother will take you to drive a luxury car, live in a luxury house, drink red wine, and wear famous brands.

Chapter 128 Hedy on stage, life and death!

Kit staggered, stood up slowly, and attacked the Dragon.

Once he passed by, Dragon beat him up once

Dragon beat him to the ground once, and he stood up once, and then he was beaten to the ground by Dragon again, and it started again and again. Blood fell on different parts of the ring, and the red liquid stained the eyes of the audience.

They are excited, they cheer, they can't see fairness, they just want to stimulate!

Liz ran down from the VIP seats and came to Hedy, begging Kit to admit defeat with tears.

Kit doesn't recognize it.

There are more and more wounds on his body, and the firmness in his eyes is getting heavier and heavier.

The firmness in his eyes became heavier and heavier, and the anger in Hedy's eyes grew more and more.

Boom.

Kit was knocked out on the edge of the ring again.

Brother Kit! Throw in the towel! Please!" Liz burst into tears, touching Kit's face that was almost covered in blood.

Kit was so beaten that he could only shake his head and refuse. In a corner that ordinary people can't see, Hedy slashed

Kit's neck with a hand knife, knocking Kit unconscious.

"He's dizzy." Hedy looked up at Dragon who was leaning over and wanted to punch someone, his eyes were cold.

Dragon looked disappointed.

This is dizzy, he hasn't killed or disabled

Kit yet! Dong-

the gong sounded, announcing that Dragon KO Kit had won three consecutive victories and successfully defended the ring.

He is tonight's challenger.

The cheers of the audience almost burst through the roof.

"Go to the hospital and take care of my brother!" Hedy ordered Liz.

Liz nodded and followed the medical staff away.

"Tsk." Woods felt a little uncomfortable.

But even though he didn't beat Kit worse, he still won, right? He patted the bar

owner on the shoulder and held the cigar between his fingers, "It seems that I have better luck in Clouds? Hahaha!" It was he who overestimated Woods' bottom line as a human being!

Dragon, the game is over, go to the accountant to get the bonus!" Woods waved to Dragon on the stage.

"Yes!" Dragon was overjoyed.

As soon as he turned around, he heard an extremely cold female voice behind him,

"I want to leave by cheating and beating my fifth brother like this. Have I agreed?"

As soon as the words came out, everyone turned their heads stiffly and looked at Hedy who said that.

What the hell?

Still need your consent?

who are you?

Hedy ignored the contemptuous gazes from all around, lifted the side rope of the ring, and walked into the range of the ring, his beautiful face was covered with cold killing intent,

"I want to challenge the ring master!"

VIP seat.

The middle-aged man in a suit and leather shoes frowned,

"Where did the little girl come from? She is so ignorant that she dares to challenge the ring master. Although the underground ring competition stipulates that the ring master can accept anyone's challenge.

But does she know that this kind of challenge is It's a life-and-death battle, once the match starts, one must die, and the match won't end if you don't die!"

Preston next to him looked at Hedy, and there was no emotion in his eyes.

"Hey, this is seeing my brother being beaten into a water dog, and my sister is not happy?" Woods put his arms on the fence, feeling strange.

"Hahahaha." Dragon also raised his head and laughed, and asked Woods,

"Woods, this little bitch is going to challenge me, do I agree?"

Woods rolled his eyes and thought to himself, Since you didn't kill Kit, kill Kit It's okay to fuck my sister to death!

Just use the fate of the two of them as a warning to all those who try to compete with Clouds for business!

He raised his voice to Dragon, "Of course we have to agree, we are men, we must yield to women and respect women's opinions, understand?

"It seemed that the next thing they were going to do was to give up their seat to a girl, not to beat the girl to death!

Once the champion agreed, the life and death match was established.

The audience began to place bets and all-in for Dragon to win!

There is no other reason, Dragon is a well-known underground boxer, tall and mighty, with a knuckle in his hand, Hedy is a female high school student, can he be an opponent?

Dragon stretched his neck from side to side, making the joints "click". He looked at Hedy with fierce eyes,

"Little girl, challenging this champion will be the decision you regret most in your life!" Be a thing?" Hedy looked at him coldly,

"It's just a garbage boxer in a garbage arena, in front of a group of garbage audiences, he used garbage methods to win a match that he couldn't have won." Aiden next to

Preston The corner of his mouth tugged.

Ms. Ellis is ruthless enough.

In one sentence, everyone in the arena was scolded.

"Are you calling him trash?" Dragon was angry.

The audience was also angry,

Dragon, kill this arrogant little bitch!"

"While beating her, take off her clothes!"

"That's right! We have to give us benefits, right?" "

Hahaha, she is so Beauty, I'm also greedy for her body!"

Scumbags never hesitate to show their obscenity and disgust on various occasions.

Preston lowered his eyes, the temperature around him plummeted.

In the arena, the life-and-death fight begins.

Dragon seemed to have listened to what the audience said, and went. up to hit Hedy's chest, with a lewd smile on his lips.

Hedy dodged sideways, raised his hand and smashed the bridge of Dragon's nose with a punch, directly knocking Dragon to the ground!

The audience's eyes widened!

The champion Dragon was knocked down by a thin little girl, what's the matter?

Dragon lying on the ground touched his nosebleed, jumped up and kicked Hedy.

Hedy stood on the spot without changing his face, raised his leg high, and stepped on Dragon 's right thigh that was vacated.

Boom!

Dragon was stepped on in front of Hedy, and his front teeth were knocked out!

The audience's eyeballs are about to fall out!

"Ah!" Dragon got up, holding sharp knuckles in both hands, and punched Hedy violently.

Hedy found the right moment, grabbed both of Dragon 's wrists, and pushed his face back!

Pooh.

Dragon was poked blind by his own knuckles, with a few bloodstains. flowing from his eye sockets, and he yelled miserably.

Hedy kicked Dragon in the stomach and kicked him on the side rope.

The side rope bounced the Dragon back to the ground and lay on his stomach. When he got up again, he pulled out a dagger from his belt and stabbed forward!

He still has a backhand!

But he couldn't see, so he could only hold the dagger tightly and swing it left and right!

"Come and die! Come and die!"

Hedy kicked him on the neck with a handsome roundabout kick, causing him to lie on the side rope.

The hand holding the dagger, because of the elasticity of the side rope, slashed towards his own neck!

The throat was sealed with a knife blade, and the body hung on the side rope like a folded garment.

The audience was silent.

Only the sound of blood falling on the ground.

Woods, who was still eccentric just now, looked terrified.

The vile and shameless audience just now looked disheveled.

Dragon, who has successfully defended the ring three times, is going to the west like this?

He also used a knuckle and a dagger, and was defeated by Hedy with his bare hands?

Hedy... isn't it a bit too strong?

She is just a school girl, how can she be so strong!

This level of fighting power really makes people tremble!

Hedy's eyes swept across the group of people one by one, and his tone warned,

"If you say you are trash, you just listen obediently, if you say you are trash, you obediently agree!

Whoever dares to play tricks on my brother again, what will happen to Dragon, This is your fate!"

Chapter 129 Hedy's Weakness

After Hedy finished speaking, no one in the audience dared to speak.

The audience nodded their heads like chickens pecking at the rice, for fear that Hedy, whose combat effectiveness was beyond the limit, would have unnecessary misunderstandings about himself and beat himself up.

Finally, Hedy looked up at Preston, his cold heart softened a little because of him.

She wanted to say something to him.

But Wu Ge is still in the hospital.

I can only talk about it next time.

Hedy turned and left the Clouds arena and ran towards the hospital.

After she left, the audience began to go to the accountant to settle their wins and losses for the night.

Preston said goodbye to his business partners, walked out of the arena, and slightly parted his thin lips,

"Take the Clouds arena."

Aiden behind him froze.

Childe King and Clouds have no grievances in the arena, so what's the point of stealing someone's job?

Dividing into pages now.

It be...

The boss of the arena bullied Ms. Ellis' fifth brother and wanted to bully Ms. Ellis.

Now that they have lost the most powerful boxer in the field, I am afraid they don't want to let the siblings go.

But...

"Didn't you say that you won't help Ms. Ellis again?" Aiden asked patiently and respectfully.

This is what Childe King told him.

When saying this, Childe King was still very angry.

Preston paused, turned around with a cold face, "Can't I contribute to a harmonious society?"

Aiden, "..."

He made a call, and within three minutes, sirens sounded on the street.

Dumplings were made at the Clouds arena, the venue was sealed off, and all spectators were taken away for investigation. According to the amount of money involved, it was determined how long they would be in prison. In the night, Aiden whispered,

"Childe King, I'm going to go to Ms. Ellis's side to see if I need to contribute to love and peace."

Childe King is obviously reluctant to let Ms. Ellis be wronged, the hospital side, of course we have to keep an eye on it.

Preston stared at him, but said nothing.

Aiden knew that if he didn't speak, he would acquiesce, so he left the parking lot.

After he left, Preston sighed for a long time, very helpless,

"This is the last time to help her.

Next time, he must be ruthless.

That guy is an ice cube.

Little heartless ice cubes.

Hospital.

Hedy took the elevator upstairs according to the location sent by

Liz. She was the only one in this elevator.

Halfway up, the elevator suddenly malfunctioned, all the lights inside went out, and the cramped environment was as dark as night.

Hedy suddenly opened his eyes wide, and after trying to open the door and push the roof to no avail, his heart beat rapidly.

Her eyes faded calmly, panic and fear emerged, and she kept backing away.

Finally, she squatted down in the corner and hugged her knees, Susan trembling.

After ten minutes, the elevator fault was repaired, and the elevator slowly ascended.

Two nurses rushed to the door with a medical kit to gather.

Nurse A, "The elevator monitoring saw a girl inside, and the director said that her symptoms may be claustrophobia."

Nurse B, "The failure time is not long, so it should be all right?" The elevator door opened, Hedy came out, and declined the nurse. Acknowledging their kindness, they strode towards Kit's ward.

Not far away, Aiden watched Hedy disappear into the corner of the corridor, frowning slightly.

"Claustrophobia?"

Ms. Ellis's face was indeed pale after panic.

On the other side, Hedy came to the ward where Kit was. He was lying on the bed for infusion, with a lot of bandages wrapped around his body, and he was already awake.

Seeing Hedy coming in, he cheerfully made a "yeah" scissorhands, wanted to laugh but stopped because he pulled the wound.

"How is fifth brother's injury?" Hedy said worriedly.

"Slight concussion, two broken ribs, and multiple soft tissue contusions." Liz next to her stood up, thinking of how she cried before, her pretty face flushed slightly.

T

It's fine if there is no such serious injury as internal bleeding.

"Kit." The bar owner also rushed to the hospital.

He put a letter on the bedside table, "This is a recommendation letter from a professional league. You can take it to play professionally."

Although Kit did not win this 3V3, Kit's perseverance and toughness impressed him. Willing to help Kit.

"Boss..." Kit was very moved.

Hum-

Hedy's cell phone vibrated, receiving a call from

Lucas. "I'm going out to answer the phone." Hedy walked outside the ward.

After she went out, the bar owner asked Kit in a low voice, with a suspicious tone, "Are you sure your sister is an 'ordinary' female high school student?"

"What's wrong?" Kit didn't know why.

The boss' eyes were complicated, "After you fainted and went to the hospital, your sister challenged Dragon on the stage, and beat Dragon to death with her bare hands. Dragon used knuckles and daggers, but she was no match for her."

Liz was stunned.

Kit was silent for a moment, pointing to his bandaged head, and said seriously,

His sister is beautiful, kind, gentle and generous. kill?

And with bare hands... He doesn't believe such words at all,

okay!

"If you don't believe me, go back and ask someone else!" The boss stared.

Outside the ward.

Hedy answered the phone.

Lucas' voice came from the other end of the phone, "Guangzhu, we have conquered the area you planned last time, should we annex the Clouds gang now?"

Hedy circled a few pieces of land for them about a month ago, intending to After occupying these areas, surround a big gang inside from the outside to the inside.

These lands belong to the city.

This big gang is called the Clouds Gang.

Hedy's eyes flickered, "What's the relationship between the Clouds gang and the Clouds arena?" These two identical names couldn't help but remind her.

Lucas replied, "Woods, the owner of the Clouds arena, is the only son of Seb, the leader of the Clouds gang. It is also because of the support of his father that the Clouds arena has become the largest underground arena in the city... Have they offended you?"

Hedy With a sneer, "They beat my brother into the hospital."

Lucas gasped, "I see, I'll lead people and kill the Clouds gang!" After the call ended, Hedy returned to the ward.

Seeing her return, the bar owner said seriously, "You brothers and sisters should leave the city as soon as possible, it is not suitable to stay here for a long time."

Why?" Hedy looked at him with no wavering expression on his face.

Boss," Woods ' father is the leader of the famous Clouds Gang in the city. If you kill the Dragon that Clouds cultivated painstakingly in the Arena, they will definitely not let you go!"

"It's not that they won't let me go, but I won't let you go!" I will let them go." Hedy corrected the boss's words in a flat tone.

“This...” The boss couldn’t understand.

He admitted that Hedy has great fighting skills, but what she is about to face is the whole gang, not just one or two people!

Kit said, “We’ll leave when we recover.”

He didn’t believe that his sister had killed someone, but he had heard about the prestige of the Clouds gang, so he had to leave.

The boss nodded and left.

Because it was getting late, Liz also said goodbye to the Hedy brothers and sisters and left.

Chapter 130 Lost in front of my brother

The Clouds gang is located in the largest nightclub in the city center.

At this moment, the nightclub was full of gloom. Because the Clouds gang, who usually dominate in the city, were suddenly “educated” by the Black Gang in Central South Province. In the beginning, it was a place where KTV was smashed.

Seb, the leader of the Clouds gang, was extremely puzzled, “Didn’t you report the name of the Clouds gang?”

He was a short old man with gray hair who was nearly sixty years old.

He felt that the Black Gang and the Clouds gang were all the same, so they should show some face, right?

“Reported, originally they were using fists, but when they heard it was the Clouds gang, they drew their guns...” Subordinate A was dripping with cold sweat.

Seb, “?” Is

Black Gang sick?

Although Clouds was established earlier than Black Mango, it has always played the classical school of “fist, kick, knife and stick”, and did not spend huge sums of money to purchase guns and ammunition from abroad.

Once the real gun is fired, no matter how many under his hand, it won’t work.

He took two steps, and asked again, “You said earlier, the leader of the Black Gang has changed?”

Subordinate A replied, "Yes, the former leader Jason, his children, and several core members have all disappeared from the world. The outside world doesn't know who the new leader of the Black Gang is, except that the acting leader is Lucas ...

"You also said that the Black Gang is no longer black?" Seb stopped walking, his eyes full of doubts.

Subordinate A nodded, "They don't engage in pornography, gambling, and drugs now. Bars, KTVs, nightclubs and other places are all operating normally."

Seb felt that he was really old and couldn't understand the world.

He thought for a moment, then asked, "What's the situation outside now?"

Subordinate A hesitated for a long time, and then said weakly,

Clouds has been surrounded by Black Mango, and the opponent has guns, and they are using multiple points to attack. It can be said that it was... a complete defeat..."

The biggest disadvantage for Clouds was that he had no preparations. If they had known that Black Mango would come to this city, they would definitely formulate their tactics well. It is impossible for them to be beaten like this in their own territory.

"If you can't keep it tonight, let the word out tomorrow morning, saying that I am willing to invite the acting gang leader to the nightclub for peace talks, and take the initiative to merge Clouds into the Black Mango." Seb wiped his face and let out a foul breath.

A person who knows the current affairs is a hero, so he can at least be a hall master or a rudder master.

-One night time passed quickly, and the sun rose in the east.

In the early morning, Seb saw that Clouds was doomed, ordered someone to go to Lucas, said that he was willing to negotiate peace, and made a mysterious call.

Just after the call ended, his son Woods came in from outside.

"where did you go last night? I'm so worried about my father." Seb walked over with a worried expression on his face.

He is old and good, and he loves Woods very much. He is afraid of falling when holding it in his hand, and afraid of melting in his mouth.

"The Clouds arena was blocked, and I was detained overnight before I came out." Woods tuied hard.

"What? Who did you offend?" Seb changed his face.

Even the Black Gang can't directly block the Clouds arena, right?

Could it be that my son has provoked some mysterious boss?

"I don't know either!" Woods was thinking about it yesterday, and he couldn't figure out who he had offended. He only knows one thing," Dad, I want to kill two people. One is Kit and the other is Hedy. They are both rural people with no background!"

How could it be possible to swallow this breath!

"Fuck, anyone who dares to make Jianlin unhappy will die!"

Woods immediately agreed when he heard that he was just cleaning up two rural people with no background.

My baby son is the most important thing, let's talk about the mysterious boss later!

-Hospital

In the ward where

Kit is located, a group of people dressed as gangsters broke into the room.

"Who are you and what do you want?" Kit asked sharply.

"It's Clouds' help, please go to the nightclub for tea." The leader said in a rough voice.

Woods said that the hospital was crowded with people and it was difficult to start. The siblings had to be taken back for treatment.

Kit's breath was stagnant, and he only hated that he was seriously injured and couldn't take his sister away!

He knew that the Clouds gang would not let them go, never thought that the Clouds gang would send people to the hospital so soon!

Hedy lowered his head to read the message that Lucas just sent, the black screen of the phone, he looked up unhurriedly, and looked directly at the leader,

"Since the Clouds Gang is so polite, we brothers and sisters, we should be respectful rather than obedient."

Lucas told her, that the Clouds Gang The leader wants to negotiate peace with the Black Gang. How could she, the Lord of the Black Gang, not go?

The leader froze for a moment, feeling that Hedy reacted strangely, but his mission was to arrest people, so he beckoned, "Take them away!"

Hedy took the initiative to push Kit 's lathe, and followed the group of people to leave.

Along the way, Kit gritted his teeth, feeling despair and anger in his heart.

It's just that he doesn't know if he can exchange his life for another, and beg the people from the Clouds gang to let his sister go.

A group of people soon arrived at the nightclub.

In the early morning of the day, there are no customers in the nightclub, only the members of the Clouds gang. Woods, who was eating meat, saw them, dropped his breakfast, walked up to the two of them and squinted his eyes,

Kit, Hedy, I didn't expect us to meet again so soon!"

"Woods, you want to kill me Come on, let my sister go!" Kit yelled loudly while lying on the bed, trying to get up.

"Fifth brother, don't worry." Hedy pushed him back, and said calmly, "He can't kill us." "Why, want to save your brother again?" Woods spread his hands, spread his legs, and looked at Hedy Pushing his hips,

"Okay, here in front of everyone, it's good to serve me, and I'll let your brother go!"

Woods felt that no matter how awesome Hedy is, he only has one pair of hands, not from the entire Clouds gang. opponent.

"Don't even think about it!" Kit exploded in anger.

But Hedy asked lightly, "Serving you, are you worthy?"

"Bitch! Don't be ashamed!" Seb scolded angrily, walked up to Woods, and pointed at Hedy,

"My son is the young leader of the Clouds gang. Now you not only have to serve my son, but also have to lick his shoes. clean!"

"It's still dad who is caring and knows my shoes are dirty, haha!" Woods laughed.

Without a few laughs, Lucas walked in from the outside with his confidant.

"Mr is here, I have been admiring him for a long time!" Seb immediately went up

Compared with dealing with two "ants", of course, it is more important to have a good relationship with the future agent leader!

Woods, who had already learned that Clouds was going to be merged into Black Mango, also went over to show his hospitality,

“Have Mr had breakfast? What do you want to eat, this junior will ask the chef to make it right away! There are all kinds of delicacies from mountains and seas!”

Lucas looked around and saw that Hedy was also there in the nightclub, his eyes widened.

“Oh, she is a lowly thing, you don’t need to pay attention to it, let’s discuss the merger of the two gangs first?” Seb smiled flatteringly.

Woods nodded, anticipating Lucas’ response.

Hearing how they belittled Hedy, Lucas sneered, “It depends on whether our leader agrees with the merger!”

“Then where is your leader? How can I contact you?” Seb asked again, and he also knew that Lucas was only an acting leader.

Lucas didn’t answer, and walked straight past the father and son, walked up to Hedy, knelt down half-kneeling, with his head bowed,

“See the leader!”
