

The Killer 241

Chapter 241

Hedy's nineteenth birthday After

Dane left, Hedy trained even harder.

She made fewer and fewer mistakes in the quad jump, and her skills became more and more difficult, but Dane shook her head again and again.

Hedy pursed his lips tighter and tighter.

Since she can't get a high score in art, she will get more skill points to make use of her strengths and avoid her weaknesses.

"How many points do you think you can get for the quintuple jump?" Hedy asked Summer.

At present, in the extra point description released internationally, it does not say how many points can be added if you dance "five weeks".

Summer, who was sitting next to him, had an unbelievable expression, "Are you crazy?"

The quadruple jump is the existence of the figure skating ceiling, which is already enough limit, and it is an internationally recognized- high-risk move.

And the quintuple jump means that the athlete jumps to a height of about 70 centimeters, turns five times in 0.7 seconds, and then bears a weight more than ten times greater than the body on one foot!

"Hedy, don't mess around." Summer solemnly explained, "The possibility of quintuple jumps exists in physical calculations, but current figure skaters can't do it.

Looking around the world, no skater can do it without the help of external objects." With the help of him, he managed to turn around five times.

The world champion in men's singles skipped 4A, that is, four and a half weeks. He said that after he finished jumping, he felt that his legs didn't belong to him anymore."

Hedy's eyes flashed.

The limits of human beings are meant to be broken, just like world records that are constantly being refreshed.

Strength is her advantage, perhaps, she should try.

Hedy started trying quintuple jumps

Failure, as Summer said, comes as it should. When Dane walked in, she failed her seventh quintuple jump and fell heavily on the ice.

Dane was terrified when he heard the “boom” sound of his knee hitting the ground.

“Stop jumping, jump down again, the competition is still underway, and you will be in a wheelchair.” Dane sighed and said softly,

“There are still seven days before the trial, I will give you seven days off, you can relax, maybe you can find it should be in the right state.”

Hedy shook his head, and was about to say something when the phone vibrated.

His mother Malina sent a message, “Hedy, your dad fell down the stairs, come back and have a look!”

“I’ll go home!” Hedy quickly changed his skates, left the rink, and hailed a taxi to go straight to the airport.

On the way, she sent a message to Preston, telling her that she had something to go back to Geary Village.

Until she arrived at the airport, Preston didn’t reply to the message, he was probably busy.

At the same time, she also responded to some news from relatives, classmates and friends.

I was training before, so I didn’t have time to chat with them—although I don’t usually chat much.

Strangely, she didn’t hear anything back until the plane took off.

“Looks like they’re all busy.” Hedy twitched her red lips, looked at the blue sky and clouds through the peephole on her mobile phone with a black screen.

She must successfully master the quintuple jump before the trials, and use the quintuple jump points to make up for the deducted points for artistic expression.

Her goal is to participate in the Winter Olympics, she must be sure, and she cannot fail at this step.

At dusk, Hedy came to the entrance of Geary Village.

She has never been a hypocritical person.

But at this moment, she was standing in a familiar place, in a familiar environment, and the tense strings in her brain relaxed a little.

It’s winter already.

It snowed in Geary Village yesterday, and the trees and roofs are covered with white scenery.

The smoke from the villagers’ cooking drifted slowly into the sky, and there seemed to be the smell of home-cooked food in the wind.

Hedy didn’t stop.

She went all the way up the mountain and came to her house.

The door is open, there are faded couplets on both sides, and the house is brightly lit.

“Mom, I’m back, how is Dad?” Hedy walked into the house and asked anxiously.

She had just entered the door when it closed behind her with a bang.

The lights also went out.

“Happy birthday to you, happy birthday to you...”

A candle was lit in the dark, accompanied by “Happy Birthday” sung by everyone.

Hedy heard Malina’s voice in the chorus, heard Buddy’s voice, heard Josh’s voice, and heard Kit’s voice.

She also heard the voice, Vincent’s voice, Jenny’s voice, etc...

During their chorus, another eighteen candles were lit one by one.

A total of nineteen, representing nineteen years old.

After singing the birthday song, the lights were turned on again. Malina and Buddy, also carrying the cake, came to Hedy, and said kindly,

Hedy, happy nineteenth birthday!”

Hedy was at a loss.

She wanted to take half a step back, but found that she had already retreated behind the door.

She looked up, and behind her mother, she saw her two elder brothers, in the kitchen, bedroom, and at the stairs, and saw everyone crowded together but smiling.

“Goddess Hedy.” “Goddess Hedy!” “Cousin.” “Sister.”

“Nineteen years old, happy birthday!”

“Make a wish and blow out candles!”

The cake was delivered to Hedy.

Hedy’s brain was confused, and he didn’t know what to say, so he gave a symbolic “huh”.

The candle closest to her indicated that she had been provoked, so she bent her waist, not only did it not go out, but it burned even more.

Everyone, “...

Everyone, “Turn harder!”

Hedy took a big breath, his mouth puffed out like a puffer fish, and then he blew out the nineteen candles.

“Wow!” Kit led everyone to applaud.

Malina and Buddy put down the birthday cake.

Hedy looked at his father who was intact, and asked in a puzzled tone, “Didn’t you fall from the stairs?”

Buddy froze and looked at Malina.

Malina froze and looked at her two sons.

“Cough.” Josh put his fist on his lips and coughed, “I mainly wanted to surprise you.”

“Yes.” Kit and the others nodded.

Hedy suddenly thought of Preston, who also didn’t reply, and asked, “Is Preston here?”

Everyone shook their heads, “He’s busy.”

Hedy nodded.

She opened her mouth, and said for a long time, “Thank you for celebrating my birthday.”

Everyone said that you are welcome, and began to prepare dinner.

Dinner is barbecue with hot pot, cooking and so on. There are too many people, too late and inconvenient.

While they were preparing dinner, Hedy walked outside and pulled out his phone.

The phone’s special notification sound just now.

That’s what she set up for Preston.

[Preston], Just finished the meeting, how is uncle’s health?

[Hedy], He’s fine.

[Hedy], Today is my 19th birthday.

[Preston], Happy birthday!

[Preston], Miss me?

moment.

[Hedy], I want to.

moment.

[Preston], I miss you too.

[Preston], Do you want me by your side?

Hedy looked at the messages on his phone, his eyes flickering.

Laughter and lively behind him, the footsteps are in a hurry.

She replied with two words, "Hope

In this case, she felt very lonely without him by her side.

The next second, she was hugged from behind, and a familiar breath came over her with a familiar voice,

"I'm coming."

Chapter 242

Your past, I got involved in Hedy in this way and was stunned again.

Sun and others gathered around and booed,

"Eat dog food!"

"Whoa, Childe King is so good!"

"Goddess Hedy just heard that Childe King is not here, and his eyes are disappointed.

"Are you happy now?"

Everyone Hedy raised his voice with a question mark and said,

"Didn't you say that Preston is not here? You actually lied to me together?"

Everyone, "..."

Immediately retracted their arrogant necks.

Malina chose to reveal who was behind the scenes, "Preston asked us to say that."

Buddy agreed with his wife's choice. "Yes, everything was arranged by Preston, including pretending to be sick."

It was Preston who took everyone over and said that he would give it to him Surprise for daughter.

Everyone agrees and agrees, the main culprit is definitely Preston.

Hearing this, Hedy turned around and looked up at the man in front of him with dangerous eyes,

"Why did you let my father pretend to be sick to lie to me?"

She could understand the surprise, but it was too

.... the man's handsome face was very helpless, his thin lips raised, and his voice had a deep texture like a cello,

"With your temperament, if you don't say you are sick, how can you be willing to come back?" Stay until the end of the game.

Hedy,

No words to refute.

She thought of another question, frowned and said, “Why do you let everyone lie to me that you are not here, and ask me if I want you by my side?”

He was obviously at home all the time.

Preston laughed lowly, his eyes narrowed, and he was dignified and calm, “Because I’m not sure whether you want me to be by your side.”

Hedy frowned even more, without thinking, he said directly, “How could I not I hope you are by my side? You are me-”

The strong feelings that are about to be expressed are stuck on the lips.

“What am I you?” the man asked.

Hedy lowered his eyes and lowered his voice a little, “The person I like.”

“Oh my gosh!!” The atmosphere group cheered again.

The smile on Preston’s lips slowly dissipated, and he let out a long sigh in his heart.

He knew that her feelings for him were more than just liking.

But she didn’t want to express it.

Or rather, dare not.

“Let’s go eat.” Preston didn’t ask.

He looked at Hedy’s back and thought of what happened when Hedy came to the King Family villa for the first time and they had dinner together.

Out of politeness, he asked her a few questions.

Her reaction was extremely cold.

At that time, he felt that the word “warning” was not enough to describe Hedy.

She completely sealed herself off, not even the wind could penetrate.

Facts have also proved that Hedy did block himself.

She is a lonely monster living in an iron box, unwilling to touch others, and unwilling to let others touch her.

What happened in the past made her personality flawed.

Even—he, who is good at attacking the heart, took a long time to make her stick out a small hand.

After reaching out, it will immediately retract.

Just like that.

He can wait for her to come out slowly.

This figure skating competition will not wait for her.

After dinner, Sun and the others exchanged glances and handed the prepared birthday present to Hedy.

“Goddess Hedy, this is a towel I wove by myself!”

“This is a chocolate I made!”

“This is a limited edition cake hanging that I... paid for...”

“This is my handbook!”

“This is the lipstick I chose for Goddess Hedy, Goddess Hedy puts it on absolutely beautifully!”

Jenny gave a pair of earrings, and the old man gave them a set of Four Treasures of the Study.

Sun sent a bracelet and Vincent gave a pen.

Kit gave away more than one million bottles of Romantic Conti.

He promised his younger sister at the time that when he became famous, he would take his younger sister to drive a luxury car and live in a luxury house, drink expensive red wine, and wear absolute famous brands.

Josh is relatively unpretentious, and gave Hedy a suite, which is small in size but within the third ring road, with a quiet view.

Malina wrote a song for her daughter, and Buddy gave a silver ring, which is low-key and beautiful.

After the gift giving session was over, Sun and the others left.

Hedy was holding a lot of presents, and asked them, “Go to the town to find a hotel to sleep?”

No, we are going to the airport, the plane returns at 2 o’clock in the morning.” Sun smiled and waved, “Goodbye, Goddess Hedy.”

After they left, Preston helped to answer, “The School of Business Administration has an exam tomorrow morning.”

Hedy’s eyes flickered, “You shouldn’t let them come over to help me celebrate my birthday.”

The University of Finance and Economics is not a bad university, and the exam is very important.

“It’s their own choice.” Preston’s slender eyes looked straight at Hedy, conveying their meaning,

“They said, this is your first birthday after they met you, and you must celebrate it for you, stay up late It doesn’t matter if you’re on your way.”

Hedy felt uncomfortable being watched by Preston, and spread out a hand, "Where's the birthday present you prepared?" He then avoided the topic again.

Preston didn't want to push too hard, he dragged Hedy upstairs, back to Hedy's bedroom.

There are more than a dozen gift boxes in the bedroom, with different lengths and heights.

He took out one of the palm-sized blue packages and put it in Hedy's hand.

"This is your first birthday present."

Hedy raised an eyebrow, opened the package and found a pacifier inside.

"I think at this time, you must be very cute, and you will sleep with a pacifier."

He took out another gift box to Hedy, "This is your second birthday present."

It is a pair of watercolor pens.

"At the age of two, you slowly came into contact with the world and gradually made troubles, such as scribbling on the wall with a pen, or even biting the pen in your mouth... But don't worry, this watercolor pen is non-toxic and harmless."

"Here's your third birthday present.

are some cartoon princess puzzles,

"You may also want to be a beautiful and beautiful princess."

"This is your fourth birthday present."

A pair of pink hairpins.

"When you were four years old, your hair could already be combed beautifully. Why did you miss the hairpin?" "

This is your fifth birthday present."

It was a backpack.

"It's time for you to start kindergarten, aren't you?"

"Here's your sixth birthday present."

It's a set of blocks.

"You should use your brain, use your imagination, and put it together into any shape you want.

This is your seventh birthday present.”

It is a children’s physiological enlightenment.

“I think girls should get in touch with physical education early, don’t be shy, this is to protect you.” “This is your eighth birthday present.”

It is a set of universe atlas.

“You need to discover your hobbies, for example, to explore the mysteries of the universe?”

This is your ninth birthday present.”

It is a beautifully crafted princess dress.

“Even in the universe, you are a unique little princess.”

“This is your tenth birthday present.

It was a plane ticket.

“I think, when you are ten years old, you should really want to travel.”

“This is your eleventh birthday present.”

It is a book of “Five Thousand Years of History”.

“History is the best textbook and also the best nutrient. Take history as a mirror and make every step more stable.”

This is your twelfth birthday present.”

It is an advanced learning pen.

“With it, it will be more convenient for you to study, and you don’t need to look through a thick dictionary.” ”

This is your thirteenth birthday present.”

It is a fluffy Pomeranian.

It was awakened by Hedy’s action of opening the gift box, jumped out of the gift box, wagged its tail around Hedy and Preston’s legs, and occasionally made two milky sounds.

“At the age of thirteen, you may want to keep a cute pet.

This is your fourteenth birthday present.”

It’s a set of stationery,

“Fourteen years old, young and restless, there must be a bunch of little kids who are courting you, my suggestion is, let them go, learning is the most important thing, and you are mine.” “This is your fifteenth birthday gift.”

is a mechanical watch for ladies.

“The charm of a mechanical watch is like no other, and at the same time reminds you of the passing of time.”

This is your sixteenth birthday present.”

It’s a SLR camera.

“You can take pictures of your work, or record your life, or just throw it into the drawer to dust it off.

This is your seventeenth birthday present.”

It is an expensive bracelet.

“It must look good on you.

“This is your eighteenth birthday present.”

It’s a bottle of perfume that smells good.

Preston frowned, “You’re an adult, and I’m distressed, because I’m surrounded by men of the opposite sex who covet you—but what does it matter?

I’ll make you more attractive, and tell the world that you belong to me alone. ”

This is your nineteenth birthday present.” Preston took out the last gift box.

Hedy opened it and found that it was a new lady’s bag limited by a certain luxury brand, and there was only one in the USA.

“Someone told me it was the best bag this year, so I bought it, because the best thing goes with the best you.

Nineteen years old, nineteen gifts.

Your past, I participate in this way.

Chapter 243 Why Didn’t You Appear In My World Earlier

In Hedy’s previous years, “birthday” was no different from Monday or Tuesday.

She in the ghetto has no right to celebrate.

In the organization, she had no intention of celebrating.

Because at that time, the so– called “birthday” did not have the “completion day of a certain task“, which made her feel more relaxed physically and mentally.

Gradually, she buried her own birthday.

Buried together is the birthday gift that I secretly looked forward to when I was young and ignorant.

She is used to this burial.

Today, someone re-dressed her forgotten expectation and held it up cherished.

Slap.

A tear falls on the only women's bag in USA.

Then, more tears fell.

Preston was distressed, he held Hedy's face in his hands, and gently wiped her tears with his thumb.

Hedy looked at him, crying, and asked him hoarsely, "Why didn't you appear in my world earlier?"

If he had been there in the first place.

Hedy will definitely grow into a healthy and strong girl.

rather than as it is now.

"Well, my fault." The man nodded, his brows and eyes slightly curved, and his voice was gentle, "Then punish me and stay by your side for the rest of my life, okay?" "Humph."

Hedy

turned her head and wiped her tears.

The tears stopped, and the little nose was still red. It seemed that I was really wronged.

"Wow Woof! woof woof!" the white little Bomei's grandma called, attracting Hedy's attention

Who would say no to a cute, furry animal?

Hedy bent down and hugged the puppy with both hands, the love in his eyes couldn't be hidden.

"Wow!" The puppy also liked Hedy, wagging its tail and licking Hedy's face twice with its tongue.

"A name?" Preston stroked the puppy's head.

"Thirteen." Hedy's voice was very soft.

It was her thirteenth birthday present, so it was called Thirteen.

"Wow, woof!" Thirteen seemed to like the name very much, and his tail wagged even more.

Hedy liked it so much, he simply took his own head and rubbed at night.

Shisan's head.

Little Thirteen sleeps at the end of the bed.

Hedy fell asleep in Preston's arms.

Preston looked at the ceiling, and Hedy's words "Why didn't you appear in my world sooner" echoed in his ears.

Regarding Hedy's past, he discussed it with Aiden before coming.

Aiden, like Hedy, was once a killer.

He said that Hedy is very strong, and it can be seen from some subconscious actions that she did not enter this industry on a whim.

Hedy is professionally trained as a killer.

Those trainings are cruel, and will completely destroy the killer's personality as a person from all aspects, and thus evolve into a tool.

murder tool.

For example, give you a family relationship, and then destroy the family relationship after you take it seriously.

For example, arrange a friendship for you that seems to be in trouble. together, and then let your friend find a chance to backstab you, so that you will no longer have illusions about friendship.

Clearly, Hedy has had a whole lot of training.

It can be seen from her indifference to Sun at the beginning, her reticence to her parents, and her rejection of Preston.

But Hedy is weird again.

18.06

She received a whole set of training, but she didn't completely become a cold-blooded, scornful tool of life and death.

This point may have something to do with the "Cooper" mentioned in that letter.

Aiden speculates that "Cooper" and Hedy may be in a relationship of mutual redemption.

The

elder sister protects the younger brother, and the existence of the younger brother reminds the elder sister that the world is not so bad.

Like a star that guides the lost.

"The past is in the past." Preston stroked the sleeping face of the girl in his arms, his voice dissipated in the night wind.

"Come out of the closed place."

If you come out.

You will see sincere friends.

See real love.

And I who will never abandon you.

Everything is different from the past the next day.

After a sleepless night, Preston went downstairs to make breakfast for Hedy who would wake up later.

It just so happened that Josh came back from a morning jog outside.

Brother Ellis Family has a fixed biological clock.

I used to be busy working multiple jobs to support my ungrateful ex- girlfriend.

Later, when there is nothing to do, it is better to exercise, which is beneficial and harmless.

Seeing Preston coming out from the direction of his sister's bedroom, Josh frowned.

He saw Preston and his sister officially announced their relationship on Twitter, and he knew that the two had been living together for so long,

Although my younger sister is an adult...

Josh said lightly, "Take good measures and don't let her take medicine."

My younger sister is still young, and taking medicine is not good for her health before she has a baby.

Preston, "?"

For the first time, he didn't understand what Josh meant.

After thinking for a moment, I realized what Josh was talking about.

He couldn't laugh or cry, "She and I haven't reached that point yet."

This time it was Josh's turn to question. It was hard for Josh to believe that Preston, a wolf with a big tail, could be so sage.

"Like is not sex, love is not sex, and the three cannot be confused." This is Preston's philosophy.

Of course he is not a saint.

He also knew that if he asked, Hedy would give it to him.

Because Hedy, as a killer, never thinks that "body" is a precious thing.

She only feels that she can satisfy what he wants.

This point is wrong.

She doesn't understand.

He understands.

Preston laughed, "Unless she nods actively, I won't make that step."

This is his respect for her.

A look of astonishment flashed across

Josh's eyes. I can vaguely understand why my sister fell into Preston's hands.

He actually maintained the most restrained respect in the most intimate cohabitation.

This alone is enough for Josh to recognize Preston as his brother-in-law from the bottom of his heart.

"When will you get married?" Josh asked directly.

"I would like to as soon as possible, but it depends on her wishes." Preston answered honestly.

He really wanted that red book.

But the idiot ice cube has already completely fallen into his arms, so there is no need to worry too much.

"I heard that the King Family has a lot of opinions on her." Josh's eyes suddenly turned cold.

"Don't worry, I'll let them swallow their opinions." Preston smiled, and the smile didn't reach his eyes.

Josh nodded and went back to the room to take a shower.

Not long after, Hedy was woken up by Little Thirteen licking his face.

"Woof!"

Please touch!

Hedy rubbed it, turned on the phone, and found that the second brother, third brother, and fourth brother all blessed her on the day of the accident.

They couldn't come back because of something.

"I remember that the third and fourth brothers are abroad, and the second brother is in the army." Hedy said to himself, got up and got out of bed to wash.

Downstairs, Preston had already made her breakfast.

By the way, I made breakfast for the whole family.

were a

On the surface, Malina and Buddy calm as a mountain, but inside they were somewhat shocked, thinking how could Preston, who was the number one young man, cook for himself

Still cooking for the family...

When the second elder saw his daughter, the shock and doubt in his heart disappeared.

Preston loves the house to death.

Chapter 244 The competition, break out of the cocoon and become a butterfly!

Hedy spent the next few days at home.

Josh and Kit, discussing how to renovate the home.

Both of them have made a lot of money recently and want to do something for their family.

Parents are unwilling to go to the city, at least they have to make their lives in the country more comfortable, such as laying floor heating at home and buying more humane appliances.

Malina has an extra small room for live broadcast.

The busy autumn season is over, she chose to open a live broadcast room on the Internet, neither signed a labor union nor a brokerage company, and continued to sing, and also sang to fans who still like her.

Buddy will go out in the afternoon and come back before dinner. It seems that he has gone to a neighboring village to play chess with people.

Hedy took Little Thirteen around, smiling more than before.

Thirteen is a mother, with a silly and sweet personality, very warm to everyone, very lovable and cute.

Preston works in Hedy's room most of the time.

Seven days later, Preston returned with Hedy.

Thirteen also brought back.

The two parted ways at the airport, Preston took it to leave, and Hedy went straight to the figure skating association.

Today is the day of the women's singles host selection competition.

The female members are either gearing up or stretching their limbs, waiting for a contest.

Dane saw Hedy came back.

But Hedy's state has not changed as he expected.

A look of disappointment appeared on his face.

Summer glanced at Dane's expression, and knew in his heart that Hedy hadn't crossed that hurdle yet.

There is still an hour until the game.

Hedy came to the underground ice rink, put on his skates and slid in, and the song "Anna Karenina" was playing on the stereo.

Summer walked in, feeling inexplicably angry for some reason.

She didn't think Hedy should be like this.

Hedy can lose!

But you can't be so aggrieved by losing!

Summer stared at the beautiful phoenix eyes, and said loudly, "Hedy, if you lose to me, I will look down on you from the bottom of my heart!"

President Dai said that Hedy's obstacles stem from Hedy's heart.

But how can such an excellent person... be trapped in his heart all the time.

This is so distressing!

18 07

After yelling, Summer turned around and left regardless of Hedy's reaction.

On the way, she rubbed her head and said to herself,

"Am I so crazy? He even encouraged his opponent to beat me before the game. Obviously going to the Winter Olympics is also my dream!" Hedy tilted his head, and raised the corners of his lips,

"Who said I would lose to you?"

Now Hedy is Hedy who wants to break out of the cage.

She slides, spins, and jumps on the ice to the background music

Axel triple axel.

After that, jump around the ice on the inside.

Hook quadruple jump, and then tap the ice triple axel.

Axel triple axel, followed by an outer loop jump, followed by an inner loop triple axel.

Every time the ice blade hits the ice surface, it is the dubbing of the hammer hitting the cage.

Is it her?

is her.

Also Anna Karenina.

She knocked open the closed world.

Anna knocked on the fake love.

Finally, she stood under the rising sun.

Anna, died on the train tracks.

The song is over.

Hedy glanced at the phone.

There is still some time before the game, so let's do something else.

-The

women's singles match officially begins.

The first round is a short program, and the referees are several senior members of the association.

Considering that everyone knows who Hedy's coach is, Dane didn't act as a referee in order to avoid suspicion. He just stood at the door of the office and watched the game on the ice rink.

The order of competition is arranged according to the order of membership.

After several members finished skating, it was Summer's turn.

Her "Nocturne" made the originally listless executives clap their hands repeatedly.

The association is in charge, none other than Summer.

Dane also nodded again and again, "At this level, he could win medals in the last Winter Olympics. It seems that Summer has learned a lot from Hedy." After Summer finished skating, he passed three more members before arriving at Hedy.

Hedy slipped into the rink and stood in the center, eyes closed.

Summer felt nervous.

Dane's pupils shrank suddenly.

Hedy...is different.

Her short program is a variation of excerpts from "Anna".

When the music started, Hedy opened his eyes and slid back, his completely changed.

eyes

"President, look quickly!" the secretary who sorted out the materials in the office suddenly said excitedly.

"What's wrong?" Dane turned his head and saw the secretary pointing at the butterfly chrysalis he raised.

It turned out that the chrysalis cocoon was broken.

A butterfly with blue and white spots crawled out slowly.

At first, the wings of a butterfly are very small, only half the length of the body.

As it spreads its wings slowly, the wings become longer and wider.

After a few breaths, the wings are dazzling and magnificent.

“President, I heard people say that this kind of butterfly generally cannot survive the winter, but if it breaks out of its cocoon in winter, it can survive the severe winter in the form of an adult. Is it true?” Dane looked away and looked at the referee Hedy and the contestant were completely attracted by Hedy’s expression, nodded and replied,

Buzz –

Sun, who is studying at the University of Finance and Economics, his phone vibrated.

Hedy sent him a message.

“Sun, I like the bracelet you gave me very much, it matches my skin tone very well, thank you.

For some reason, he suddenly had the urge to cry.

He couldn’t tell why.

He turned his head to look at the same table. The same table was a classmate from the seventh class. He was also looking at his mobile phone.

“the cake pendant you gave me is very cute, can you tell me where I bought it?” ” the pattern of the scarf you knitted is very rare, is it your own creation?” ” the mouth you chose The red number is very nice, don’t choose it next time.”

He laughed, “I just said that color is not good– looking, you have to choose this one with confidence, even Goddess Hedy advises you not to choose it next time. I chose hahaha!”

Malina, who was broadcasting live in Geary Village, also received a message from Hedy.

“Mom, the bread you made is delicious, can I make more next time I go home?”

Malina’s eyes turned red suddenly.

Buddy, who was walking in the mountains, also rang his cell phone.

“Father... Forget it, you are busy and you have to go.”

Her father is usually not much more talkative than her.

Buddy, “?”

Did he miss something?

Josh gets the message.

“Brother, you are already fine, don’t be too strict with yourself.”

Kit received the message.

“Fifth brother, I don’t want luxury cars and mansions. I just want you to be careful when you fight, and don’t get too seriously injured. Health is more important than anything else.” Preston, who was having a meeting in the King Family building, also heard a special notification tone from his phone.

This is the special focus he sets on Hedy.

He took out his phone and saw the message from Hedy.

[Hedy],

Preston, I don’t know what qualifies as love.

I like you very much, I want to be with you forever, I want you to only see me, and I want you to be the only one in my eyes.

If that counts as love.

I love you.

Dane said confidently, “I announce that Hedy, the first place in this competition, is qualified to participate in the Winter Olympics!”

Summer applauded, convinced.

Chapter 245 Hedy is actually on the list for the Winter Olympics!

after the game.

Summer came to Hedy with a shoulder bag.

She changed out of her costume and wore a black woolen coat. She stepped on her boots and said with a smile, “

I bought tickets for the Winter Olympics in the Figure Skating Stadium. On the day of the competition, you have to give our Figure Skating Association a face.”

“ I will.” Hedy nodded and stretched out her hand, “Thank you for your help in the past two months.”

Without Summer 's many rehearsals, she would not have mastered figure skating so quickly.

Her quadruple jump was also taught by Summer.

"I also have to thank you." Summer shook back, "The training method you taught me is very useful."

Originally, she had a single free skating, a maximum of two quadruple jumps, and she might make mistakes.

After using Hedy's training method, her core strength has increased significantly, and she has been able to jump three times.

Although it can't compare with Hedy's five weeks...

Thinking of this, Summer was speechless, "So you are a monster, you know? I really vomited blood when I met you."

Genius is enough to make people daunting.

A genius who works hard is even more daunting.

"Bye." Summer waved.

"Bye."

Hedy returned to the ice rink for training.

There is still one month until the Winter Olympics.

Dane reported the names of Hedy and another men's singles player to the person in charge of the Winter Olympics Organizing Committee according to the agreed time.

The person in charge is no stranger to the men's singles candidates, but he was stunned when he saw the word "Hedy".

"Why is it her?"

Hedy has been in the figure skating world recently, but everyone knows about it.

Just learning how to skate and wrestle can be cut into a small movie.

The level can be seen from this. How did

Dane push Hedy over?

A bystander asked, "Why don't you ask President what's going on? The Winter Olympics is a global event, and we'll be the hosts this year. We can't really send a rookie wrestling all the time?"

"I understand. The person in charge rubbed his chin and pondered, “Dane told me two months ago that Childe King spent 200 million to let Hedy enter the figure skating association through the back door.

This time, they may give another few hundred million, and then go through the back door and ask Dane to roll the name Hedy is participating in the women’s figure skating singles.”

The other person said “heh” with anger in his tone,

“Figure skating is a competition, not a child’s play. Many players have worked hard for many years just to stand on the highest level.

And Hedy, But only using money, can you ignore the efforts of others?”

The person in charge replied, “Actually, it is not unacceptable.

Due to the lack of ice rinks in USA figure skating, the overall strength of the national team is weak except for Mona .

The national team is not strong. So, how strong can the members of the Figure Skating Association be?

The selection of places is just to let them show off.

Therefore, there are only two ways in front of us.

One is to select generals from among the short people in the association, and choose the best among them. Strong, send to the Winter Olympics for a round trip.

The second is to choose Hedy. Although Hedy is also a round trip, and even a bit ugly, but behind her is the number one young Preston.

Preston can spend hundreds of millions to help us build Twenty, or even forty ice rinks.

If it were you, who would you choose?”

The others answered honestly, “Hedy.”

“That’s right, anyway, USA figure skating doesn’t rely on Hedy to win medals, the focus is on Mona.” The person in charge nodded and handed the list to him,

The list of USA figure skating competitions is freshly released on the Internet.

Not surprisingly, the women’s singles is Mona, known as the “Light of Hope”.

Netizens are familiar with the rest of the names, and there is not much difference from the expected candidates.

Until everyone sees-

Women’s Singles Skating, Hedy (selected by the host)

“excuse me? Hedy?”

“Is there something wrong? Why can Hedy participate in this four- yearly international large- scale competition?”

Why does she participate! She If you can go to that level, I can go too!”

The question finally turned into a question.

“Hedy’s appearance on this list is to step on the hard work of other athletes!”

With her own status and strength, she can’t get this spot, right?”

Maybe because of Childe King’s pillow wind...”

“One thing to say, I used to think that Childe King awesome, with

Was high IQ and high ability, but now it seems that he is no different from King Opera!” “Laughing, I will never buy

King Family Group in the future It’s under my name.”

Once the list was announced, King Family’s stock dropped several percentage points within an hour.

King Family Group. A middle- aged man in a suit and leather shoes pushed open the chairman’s door and sternly said to Preston who was sitting on the sofa and jerking off to Little Thirteen, “Preston, how can you let Hedy go to the Winter Olympics? You know we just traded in the stock market How much did you lose?

Break up! You must break up!”

Thirteen, who was sticking out his tongue and smiling innocently, enjoying the sensation of being masturbated, stood up and opened his mouth to the middle -aged man,

Wow! Wow! Wow!”

If it weren’t for Preston With quick eyes and quick hands, hold it down, and it can jump directly.

However, with its small size, eight or nine out of ten it will be kicked away.

Preston was wearing a white shirt, with his legs crossed, leaning on the sofa, comforting Thirteen, while Susan looked up at the middle- aged man, with a cold expression in his long and narrow eyebrows.

“Get out.” He spit out two words.

“You” The middle-aged man’s eyes were burning with anger.

“I’ll let you out.” In Preston’s elegant voice, there was an abyss of extreme ice, ”

If you forget even the most basic etiquette between superiors and subordinates, I can let you retire early.” The middle-aged man’s face was livid, and he turned around Exit the chairman’s office.

After a while, there was a polite knock on the door.

“Come in.” Preston’s eyes were half-closed, and he pinched the back of Little Thirteen’s neck.

The middle-aged man walked in and said in a friendly voice, “Preston, listen to uncle’s persuasion, break up with Hedy, uncle is also for your own good. Look at how many scandals Hedy has brought to our King Family during this period, even You have lost a lot in the stock market!

How many famous ladies and daughters are waiting for you to choose, for a woman like Hedy, you can play casually, try something new, just give some money away, and I will introduce you to some beauties! You also Don’t take Hedy seriously, and don’t spend money to send her to the Winter Olympics!”

After hearing this, Preston stood up from the sofa with Little Thirteen in his arms, and the advantage brought by his height made him look down at the middle-aged man who was less than 1.8 meters tall. He also blocked the light behind him, leaving the middle-aged man shrouded in shadow.

When the light disappears, the temperature drops.

“First, she obtained the qualification to be sent by the host by her own strength, without any help from me.”

Second, I will not break up with her, I will marry her, King Family, King Family Group, in the future They will all be proud of her.”

“Thirdly, I found that uncle’s memory has declined.

You treat the temporary loss in the stock market as a permanent loss, but you don’t know that the winner is the last laugh— on this point, when you seized power Didn’t you experience it when you failed?

Or do you need me to review it for you?”

Chapter 246

Hugging and kissing on the table, the opening of the Winter Olympics

Preston finished speaking, the middle-aged man was struck by lightning, unable to speak a word.

Preston ignored him, and left with Little Thirteen in his arms. He drove to the Figure Skating Association.

On the way, Aiden respectfully said, "Childe King, those women are Very restless lately."

Since Childe King and Ms. Ellis made official announcements, the number of women who come to the company with various relatives or partnerships to throw themselves into their arms has increased significantly..

No matter how much he refused, they seemed to be inaudible.

After a little investigation, it can be found that the force behind them is Uncle King Family.

This is the beauty trick of Uncle King Family.

After all, he did not give up on the position of chairman and heir.

"Since they don't listen to persuasion and insist on going their own way, they will break the legs of the next woman who comes to the company." Preston closed his eyes.

It is reasonable to break a leg after refusing to push.

"Yes." Aiden nodded.

Not long after, the Rolls-Royce Phantom came to the parking lot of the Figure Skating Association.

There was a ray of smile between Preston's brows and eyes, and he took Little Thirteen to find Hedy.

Hedy was in the temporary bedroom, standing by the desk, replying to her mother's message on her mobile phone .

On the desk are several books related to figure skating.

Hearing Preston's footsteps, she looked up.

Then, the ivory white skin turned red at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Like a steamed crab just out of the pan.

She didn't forget the love text she sent to Preston earlier.

"You..." Hedy coughed lowly, "Why are you here?"

It's not time to get off work yet.

"I missed you and came here." Preston bent down and put Thirteen on the ground.

Thirteen was very happy, and ran to Hedy's legs wagging his tail.

Hedy squatted down and stroked the furry Thirteen, his eyes bent into crescents.

“Hedy.” Preston whispered her name softly.

“Huh?” Hedy stood up and met his eyes.

“Can you dictate to me the message you sent me today?” Preston raised his lips.

Such beautiful love words, of course, must be heard from her.

Mentioning this incident, the blush on Hedy’s face just faded away, and then climbed up again, and it was even redder.

She shook her head.

She can send those words in text messages, but she can really say them with her mouth, which is a bit difficult to say...

“But I really want to hear it, or just repeat the last three words ” Preston looked at Hedy, a handsome face full of anger between man and god, full of affection.

Xu is that the light above his head is too soft, making him look like the most gentle god in the world, powerful and inclusive

Before Hedy could turn his head around completely, he opened his mouth first,

“I love...”

The man lowered his eyes and tugged on his tie with one hand.

As soon as the word “you” was out of her mouth, she leaned over suddenly and grabbed her lips.

While kissing, he swept down several books related to figure skating on the table behind him.

Make room for her, then pick her up and put her on the table, so that he can ask for a kiss more comfortably.

“Ji...” Hedy pushed his chest away with one hand.

She was a little uncomfortable with such an intense kiss.

Just as she was about to say something more, her wrist was pinched and pulled away, and her thin lips oppressed her again.

He closed his eyes uncharacteristically, and Susan’s trembling thick eyelashes revealed the incomparable ecstasy of his master at the moment.

This appearance looks domineering and authoritarian, but it is also gentle and penetrating.

Hedy’s heart moved, his eyes flickered, and he hugged Preston’s neck with both arms, actively falling into this mind-to-heart connection.

Little Thirteen sat on the ground, head tilted, tail wagging.

After the kiss, both of them gasped for Susan .

Preston responded in a low voice, with a cheerful voice, "I love you too, I love you more than you can imagine."

After dinner, Preston proposed that this month, he also move to the association to sleep with her.

After all, there is only one month left until the Winter Olympics.

Sleep well and be in good spirits to be in better condition and hit the medals.

In this regard, Hedy shook her head, her brows and eyes frowned, "I can sleep by myself at night."

The nightmares that have been entrenched by her side all year round have been shattered.

Preston,

After a while, he said softly, "I don't have you by my side now, and if I'm not used to sleeping, I'll lose my energy. If I'm not active, I won't be able to handle official duties well. If I can't handle official duties, I will..."

"Then I'll sleep with you." Hedy suggested.

It's hard to sleep well, and she has a deep understanding.

Three words popped out of someone's head, plan-plan-pass.

-The

flames of war on the Internet spread wantonly.

But no matter how it spread, Hedy wasn't interested in taking a look.

Everyone who knew her temperament did not tell her about it.

After breaking through the heart knot, Hedy's attainments on the ice became more and more superb. The free skating choreography that Dane entrusted to her before showed a bit of incompatibility.

"I want to change the song and choreography." Hedy looked at Dane.

Dane wasn't surprised.

The choreography style of "Anna Karenina" was not based on the current Hedy by the choreographer.

Hedy slipped this one, which can only be described as boring.

"But time seems to be running out." Dane felt a pity.

"How do you know if you don't try?" Hedy raised an eyebrow.

"Then let's start with the song selection. Do you have any ideas?" Dane asked.

“Yes.”

Hedy took the notebook and played the music he had chosen for Dane to listen to. After listening to the prelude,

Dane showed surprise, “That’s it, that’s it. Once the Winter Olympics is released, it will definitely blow up the audience!” After choosing the song, the rest is choreography.

The next day, Dane contacted a foreign friend and asked him to help. Unexpectedly, when the friend arrived, Hedy was almost finished.

The blond foreign friend was shocked after watching it,

“This is crazy. Are you sure she’s new to figure skating?”

Dane, “I’m sure (I’m sure).”

In the end, foreign friends used decades of experience in figure skating choreography to help Hedy correct a few minor flaws, making the whole choreography more perfect.

The days passed.

The opening ceremony of the USA Winter Olympics is coming.

– Hedy took the “host selection” quota, that is, a member of the USA delegation.

Dane gave her a set of red USA delegation clothes, and asked her and another member of the men’s singles association to enter the USA delegation team waiting to appear.

After the opening performance is over, the delegation will appear in the order of entry.

The appearance of Hedy brought a subtle feeling to the originally harmonious atmosphere of the delegation.

Some athletes regard her as the wife of the future chairman of the King Family, and they are very polite.

attention Some athletes treat her as a passerby, and don’t bother to pay to her “no strength”, “trample rules and sports competition by relying on relationships”, “can’t afford to provoke”, “have to ignore”.

There are also athletes who can’t hide their thoughts, wishing to write the word “look down” on their faces, and sneer at Hedy.

On the other hand, Mona is very popular with everyone.

Mona is a serious athlete of the national team, a lady from a famous family, and also has the strength of figure skating women's singles that is outstanding in the USA.

No matter how you look at it, he is much better than Hedy

Chapter 247

I don't believe it, this Hedy can turn the world upside down!

In this Winter Olympics, more than 2,700 athletes from 92 countries or regions participated in the competition.

The first one to play was the Greek athlete delegation.

Greece is the birthplace of the Olympic Games, and according to regulations, it will always be ranked first.

The last one to appear was the host of the Winter Olympics, the USA delegation.

The commentary is well-spoken and introduced enthusiastically

The camera also waved to the leaders of the USA.

On the second day of the opening ceremony, the competition officially began.

The first event is short track speed skating.

During the non-competition period, athletes can practice independently on the competition field to adapt to the environment.

Hedy is closer to the association, so she simply practices on the ice rink of the association—the "6-minute training" before the game is enough for her to adapt to the venue

The reporters who were allowed to shoot videos nearby as material for future material.

Some popular athletes were booked for pre-match interviews by major media early on.

Such as Mona.

When she was being interviewed, she was sitting gracefully, with her legs leaning together, her back straight, and her face smiling like a warm spring breeze.

Reporter, "Alice, are you nervous now?"

Mona, "Nervous, but more passionate."

Reporter, "The outside world said that you are expected to win the first female figure skating singles for USA. A gold medal, do you have confidence?"

Mona smiled shyly and bowed to the camera, "Thank you for your kindness, I will try my best to win the gold medal."

The reporter also laughed and said a beautiful word, "Yes, try your best and leave no regrets."

The reporter asked again, "Who do you think is the strongest opponent?"

Mona replied, "The champion of the last Winter Olympics, Elena Medway Jeva."

Elena comes from the country of ice, in her hometown, pouring a basin of water on the ground can directly freeze skating.

Geographical conditions bring innate advantages, making them extremely good at ice sports.

Elena was only sixteen years old when she won the championship. She is twenty years old this year, and her strength is still impressive.

-The

day came the day before the women's singles short program.

Hedy went to the office building of the Winter Olympics Village. Dane, who worked there during the Winter Olympics, had something to ask her for.

"The competition is tomorrow, and the costumes my friend made for you are also ready, you can change into them." Dane handed her two sets of clothes.

Hedy is not an athlete of the national team, so he had to find his own way of choreography, music arrangement, costumes and so on.

"Hmm." Hedy put on a try.

One set is a water blue skirt, which is soft and beautiful, and is used for short programs.

One set is black trousers, which are free and easy, and are used when free skating.

After changing clothes, Hedy left the office building.

There is a small garden downstairs. When passing through the small garden, Hedy met Mona who just came back from the figure skating gym.

It was very quiet around, and at a glance, except for bushes and other plants, there was no third person in sight.

Mona stopped Hedy's way, scanning Hedy up and down like a scanning machine, with a sarcastically cold voice,

"I really don't know what Childe King likes in you."

Hedy doesn't know much about Mona, but she understands this "love rival questioning".

She looked at Mona with a calm tone, “What does he like about me, what does it have to do with you?”

Mona lifted her chin, suppressing the jealousy in her heart, Susan smiled, showing a superior posture,

“It really has nothing to do with me, after all You are just a new toy for him to figure out for a while, and when he gets bored, he will see me instead of you.”

Then just wait slowly.” Hedy said lightly, and walked past Mona to leave.

Tomorrow was the game and she had no interest in wasting time on Mona.

Mona only thought that she poked Hedy’s sore spot, and turned to leave.

After both of them left, the red-haired girl lying behind the bushes sat up straight. She took the vlog camera to look at the direction Hedy left, and then at the direction of Mona, her eyes were confused

She can’t understand English .

She turned the camera back, pointed at herself, waved her hands and spoke in Russian,

“The vlog was recorded here before the game. I am Elena Medvedeva. Bye!”

Vlog is a way of recording life, Egypt Linna likes to shoot vlogs and upload them online, sharing her daily life with fans.

She deliberately chose a quiet place, and told fans about the environment of the USA Winter Olympic Village and the interesting things that happened in the past two days. Hedy and

Mona came

while laying down to shoot the sky for the closing shot. Elena did not cut the clip of the two talking, but directly uploaded the complete vlog to the Internet.

Because when recording a vlog, it is normal for passers-by to appear or speak.

Mona returns to the Olympic Village.

She in the elevator had an idea, raised the corners of her lips, raised her hand and slapped herself hard!

With red and swollen palm marks on her face,

Mona returned to the room where the figure skating national team had dinner. “What happened to your face? Who hit you?” Everyone was shocked.

Mona’s lips trembled, she shook her head with a pale face, and refused to speak.

After being questioned by the coach and other figure skaters, Mona said in a low voice,

“Hedy hit it.”

“What?!”

Everyone was even more surprised!

Mona bit her lip,

"I met her in the small garden downstairs. She knew that someone on the Internet fired me and Childe King for cp. She was very angry. She thought I was going to fight Childe King with her, so she slapped me and said...and said...

The coach asked sharply, "What else to say?"

Mona's eyes were red, "Also, she wants to win the women's singles championship, let me be more sensible, put some water, and stay out of her way, otherwise I will I will regret it..."

"Ridiculous!" The coach slammed the table and stood up.

Mona's tears also fell.

"Don't be afraid of Hedy, play as you want, and I will help you if something goes wrong!" The coach said angrily, "I don't believe it this Hedy can turn the world upside down!"

The coach left.

The rest of the figure skaters were also very angry, "you should expose Hedy, you have a lot of followers on Twitter, and now the Winter Olympics has its own heat, so we must show Hedy's true colors!" One is getting along day and night, no black spots Mona.

One is Hedy who is notorious and has "no strength".

Do you need to think about who to believe?

Mona dodged her eyes and hesitated a bit, "This...isn't that good..."

"What's wrong with this, she's bullying you in your face!" A girl said, '

But you don't have to say anything, as long as You can swallow this breath yourself!" Of course

Mona couldn't keep silent.

She just wanted to find a suitable "excuse".

She feigns hesitation for a moment, then pulls out her phone, snaps a selfie of her swollen face, and edits Twitter copy. [

Mona who likes figure skating],

With the encouragement of my friends, I decided to expose this matter.

I was beaten by Hedy Ms. Ellis in the small square of the Winter Olympic Village.

The reason is that some people on the Internet hyped me and Childe King's cp, she thought I was going to be a third party.

She also said that her goal is to be the women's singles champion, and she told me to play water during the competition and not to block her way, otherwise I will regret it.

I don't know what the "regret" Ms. Ellis refers to.

But I will not put water.

Because, I represent the motherland, I represent the sports competition, and I represent the Olympic spirit.

The glory of the family and the country is immortal, and the faith is immortal!

Chapter 248

The first battle of the Winter Olympics, breaking the world record!

Mona's words were written so passionately that they almost caught up with the suicide note.

The excellent emotional rendering has made this Twitter's retweeting volume increase rapidly, and the hot searches are soaring.

When the hot search is found, the topic degree will be there.

"I'm really mad. Hedy even blamed Mona, an athlete who has played for the country for many years, because of the netizens' remarks!

The capitalist's girlfriend dares to threaten the national team. Is there anyone who can take care of it? Despair!"

"1

I solemnly declare, If Childe King doesn't break up with Hedy, I will lead my whole family to boycott all the children under the King Family. Product!"

"Upstairs +1!"

Some rational netizens also said, "Rational gossip, before the evidence comes out, don't express your opinion."

Others laughed, "It's best not to express your opinion when the knife rests on your neck, who knows if his knife is just pretending, or if it is really going to kill you!"

There are some truths, but for some people, it doesn't make sense no matter what.

Netizens are still like this, how can the stock market be peaceful.

The stock of King Family ushered in a new round of diving after the figure skating announced that Hedy would represent the country a month ago.

The decline was even bigger than last time, and billions of dollars slipped away from the stock market.

The incident alarmed the Olympic Organizing Committee officials.

The person in charge called Dane and asked what was going on.

Dane hung up the phone and called Hedy to ask about Mona .

“If I shot, Mona should be in the emergency room or the morgue by now.” Hedy’s answer was very honest.

11

Dane wiped his sweat, “Look at what you said.”

He paused, and then said, “I know you didn’t hit her, she is not as good as you, you can’t let her go.

I mean Yes, where exactly did you two meet, I’ll check to see if it’s within the monitoring range.”

Hedy reported the precise location.

“Unfortunately, it happens to be a blind spot there. It’s okay. You should rest early, and the official game will be played tomorrow.”

Dane hung up the phone and called back to the person in charge, “Hedy didn’t hit Mona. If there is no evidence, let’s expose this matter. The game is important. .”

This matter can only be revealed.

The next day was the long-awaited short program of figure skating women’s singles by many netizens.

Preston and Summer are in the auditorium.

Buddy Malina, Josh Kit, Vincent sun Jenny waits, watching in front of the TV.

The order of the athletes is drawn in advance. After skating about a dozen athletes,

Mona appeared in a purple costume

The tone of the commentary was obviously more joyful and proud than when commenting on athletes from other countries,

“The next one is the USA figure skating women’s singles athlete, Mona!”

“She is a veteran, and this is her third time participating In the Winter Olympics, in the previous two Winter Olympics, she won one bronze and one silver respectively, I wonder if she can reach a new high this time!” “The repertoire she will perform is Tchaikovsky’s classic work, “Swan Lake“!”

Mona slid to the center of the ice rink and waved to everyone with a smile.

H-

Mona! Mona! Mona!" Someone in the auditorium shouted while holding the USA flag.

The United States is the host of this year's Winter Olympics. The number of domestic audiences in the venues is larger than that of foreign audiences, and the voices will naturally be higher.

The music of "Swan Lake" sounded, and Mona was like a swan, swimming gracefully on the lake and soaring.

While watching, the commentator explained to the audience, "Axel's triple axel...the backside triple axel ..."

Mona's performance was impeccable, with zero mistakes.

At the end of her short program, the audience in the auditorium threw the dolls and flowers they had prepared into the ice rink.

This is the unique "throwing gift" of figure skating.

It is the behavior of spectators to express their love and support for a certain athlete.

Mona herself also turned four directions, bowed to different audiences, and finally slid to the dedicated "K&C" area.

K and C, representing kiss and cry respectively, are the places where the athletes finish their performances and go to the coach to vent their emotions, and they are also equal divisions.

Not long after, Mona's short program was scored.

80.03 points, breaking Mona's personal best short program record!

"Ah!" the audience cheered.

It is indeed the light of hope for the USA women's singles!

Mona herself couldn't help crying with joy. The athlete behind Mona is the last Winter Olympic women's singles champion, Elena Medvedeva.

Commentary, "This is the second time for Elena to go to the Winter Olympics. She won the gold medal in the first Winter Olympics. This time, what kind of legend will be written!"

Elena chose the track "Jealousy" Tango.

Wearing a red dress, she showed everyone what it is like to be a Winter Olympic champion. She also has zero mistakes, and is more fun than Mona, with higher jump heights, sharper spins, and more graceful postures! At the end of the show, there were no fewer presents on the rink than Mona.

Her short program score was 90.33, breaking the women's singles figure skating short program world record created by herself!

After skating over a dozen athletes, it was Hedy's turn to play.

When the commentator saw Hedy, he didn't think of what to say for the first time. After the stalemate, he explained to save face,

"The next one is the USA women's singles Hedy. It is worth mentioning that she came in through the "host selection". A member of the national team.

This is her first appearance in the Winter Olympics. I don't know what kind of impression she will leave on us in this competition? The song she performed is "River Song".

Hedy is beautiful in a water blue dress, gliding smoothly to the middle of the ice rink, with a beautiful face and a calm demeanor.

Simple and basic gliding, did not let everyone have expectations.

The faint sound of the piano and the melodious sound of the flute came out from the stereo.

This is USA's own classical instrument!

Hedy began to slide, and then a beautiful 3A rose from the ground, and then landed steadily!

In terms of height, it is already better than Elena, let alone Mona!

Even higher than the 3A of some men's singles!

"Ah, Axel's triple axel!" The commentator's eyes widened.

Didn't it mean that Hedy can't figure skate?

What's this!

Elena outside the ice rink was short of breath.

3A is the most difficult of the six jumps in figure skating. Even in her hometown known as the "Ice Kingdom", there are still many women's singles players who can't jump.

Mona even stood up directly.

Hedy was a rookie who couldn't even skate three months ago, how could he dance such a beautiful 3A three months later!

She practiced for nearly eight years before she jumped out of 3A!

how so!

In the ice rink, the game is still going on.

The prelude of piano and flute is over, and the sonorous drum sound and the lingering sound, accompanied by the continuous flute sound, come one after another!

The first climax comes. comes.

Hedy took a twirl and a continuous step, as if stepping on a point, very beautiful!

A sentence appeared in mind, "It seems as if the moon is covered by light clouds, and the snow flutters like the flowing wind"!

That aqua blue is the most amazing color of the ice rink!

The sound of the guitar, followed by joining.

She started to jump and spin together, all of which are textbook-level existences!

Because the short program is only allowed triple jumps at most, Hedy's performance is quite easy.

Soon, the show is over.

Hedy stood in the field, panting lightly.

"Hedy! Hedy! Hedy!" The cheers were fierce.

Gifts and flowers were also thrown at the ice rink with unusual ferocity.

The explanation was endless, "If there are shortcomings in Hedy's performance, there can only be one we haven't seen enough!"

Hedy glanced at Preston in the auditorium, smiled at each other, and slid to the K&C area.

Dane, the coach, was waiting in the area, teary-eyed, arms outstretched towards Hedy.

It's not easy!

That's awesome!

Shouldn't this be a celebration?

Hedy slid away silently in disgust, and sat beside her.

Dane,

Hug what's wrong!

While being aggrieved, Hedy handed him a bottle of water, and said in a calm voice, "Your nervous lips are dry."

Can you not be nervous! This is the Winter Olympics!" Dane drank tons of water.

After a while, the referee announced Hedy's short program score.

Commentary, "108.13! She broke the women's singles short program world record just created by Elena !

Set a new world record!" Nearly 30 points higher than

Mona, the light of USA figure skating!

too crazy!

Chapter 249

Hedy, I'm such a bad woman.

Not only is the commentary emotional, but the audience and the audience in front of the TV are also very emotional.

Because this is the global figure skating women's singles short program, it is the first time that the score has broken through 100!

And the person who set the new world record is neither a national team player nor a well-known figure skating genius.

Her name is Hedy.

A three-month-old figure skating player who was recommended by the Figure Skating Association, the most underrated women's singles player before the competition!

The network exploded on the spot.

The number one hot search before Hedy's appearance was "Hedy claims to win a gold medal".

Everyone is laughing.

After Hedy appeared on the stage, the number one hot search was called "Hedy broke the short program world record"!

Everyone was slapped in the face!

"Help, my face is swollen, Hedy actually broke the world record, and she is 30 points taller than Mona!" "What kind of monster is she, three months is stronger than my thirty years!"

It seems that Hedy This is the real light of hope for our USA figure skating women's singles!"

"But no matter how high her level is, it's not the reason why she beat Mona and let Mona let go..."

“Yes, I really don’t understand why she wants to Bully Mona .”

“So even if she breaks the world record, I will definitely not be a fan of her!”

-After

all the participating athletes finish the short program, the official short program ranking will be announced.

The top 24 athletes advance to the free skating on the second day.

With an impressive score of “108.13”, Hedy temporarily takes the lead and ranks first.

Before her name is the flag of the USA.

The second is Elena.

The third is Mona.

Just when netizens questioned Hedy’s “strength but no character”.

A user named “Elena diehard fan” left a message under the hot search, “Family, you seem to have been cheated by Mona. I have evidence on Twitter...” The user said that he was the last Winter Olympic champion Elena. Lina Medvedeva’s fans usually go over the wall to watch Elena’s social dynamics on the Internet.

When Elena posted the pre-match vlog yesterday, she watched it immediately.

At first, she just felt that Nana was as lovely as ever.

Seeing the back, she frowned, and heard two very small voices of American women, which seemed to be some distance away from Elena, and she couldn’t hear them clearly.

Considering that Elena recorded the vlog in a small garden outside the Winter Olympic Village, it was normal to have other people’s voices, and she didn’t care.

Until she saw Mona’s tweet.

Doesn’t the time and place coincide with Elena’s vlog?

Could it be that the voices of those two women are Hedy and Mona ?

The soul of gossip was burning, and “Elena’s die-hard fans” immediately found the vlog, and cut out the voices of the two women separately, amplifying the volume.

The louder the voice, the clearer the conversation.

—I really don’t know what Childe King likes about you.

-What does he like about me, and what does it have to do with you?

—Indeed, it has nothing to do with me. After all, you are just a new toy for him. When he gets tired of it, he will see me instead of you!

Then just wait slowly.

Then there is no communication.

“Elena’s diehard fan” said,

“There is no sound of slap in the audio, and Mona did not show the grievance and anger of being slapped.

Just ask, if Mona is a proud girl, how can she speak if she is slapped?” Zero volatility?

I don’t know if Hedy is the one who hit Mona later .

I’m only sure that Mona is definitely not as innocent as she describes herself!

From just four lines of dialogue, it can be seen that Mona is very rude.

She humiliated Hedy’s personality and said that Hedy It’s a plaything, and she said that Childe King would see her... If my love rival says that about me, I will definitely not give her a good fruit.”

Netizens collectively turned into question marks.

Some people sneered, “Hedy’s stupid fans are here to wash the floor? Edit the video and dub it yourself?”

Sun rushed to the front line, “I just went to the Internet to watch it. This is the clip of Elena’s pre-match vlog with amplified volume. No editing!”

Every time Hedy is discredited, he will stand up and defend.

The black fan did not give in, “Who knows if this is a trick that Elena and Hedy discussed in advance?”

Sun was speechless.

The matter also reached the ears of Hedy and Preston.

The two were in the figure skating association, but they didn’t expect that there was a third person present at that time, and they inadvertently recorded the complete conversation.

Preston told Aiden, “Go and monitor Mona’s route back to the Winter Olympic Village after leaving the small garden.

Hedy didn’t slap Mona, and there was no slap in the audio, but there was a slap on Mona’s face, indicating that it was left during this time period.

Since the time zone has been determined, Aiden quickly brings the truth –

a scene of Mona hitting herself in the elevator.

“Let me do it.” Hedy glanced at Sun, who was constantly fighting online with black fans, and got the video to tweet.

[Hedy], Yes, I remotely mind—control Mona and let Mona beat herself. I am such a bad woman. I suggest that the National Security Agency quickly arrest me for experimentation

This trick “I hate myself” belongs to the way of taking black fans, leaving black fans with nowhere to go.

Black fan, “...!

Sun and the others left a “hahahaha”

Netizens also understand.

“Everything is directed and acted by

Mona herself!” “She is jealous of the relationship between Hedy and Childe King, smearing Hedy on Twitter, and pretending to be sportsmanship and righteousness of the family and the country, using everyone’s kindness to attack Hedy!” “It’s disgusting and shameless The lower limit!”

“She thought Hedy was rubbish and wanted us to think Hedy was ‘normal and confident’, but Hedy broke the world record!”

Preston also tweeted. [Preston],

@Mona who likes figure skating, answer your three questions.

One, I like all of Hedy, not “what”.

Two, Hedy is a baby, not a toy.

Three, I will never get tired of Hedy.

CP/powder spirals directly to the sky

“Dude, dude, I’m so sweet!”

“Hedy slapped a black fan, Childe King slapped Mona, I got candy, perfect!”

“I really want to know Mona’s reaction to this twitter/bad Laugh.

Mona privately sets special attention to Preston.

As soon as Preston clicked on her, her cell phone rang a pleasant voice.

She turned on the phone with a face full of surprise, and her face – suddenly turned pale when she read her content!

She looked through the comments of netizens and realized that her framing of Hedy had been exposed.

At that time, there was a third person present in the small garden, and that person was the former world champion Elena who was recording the pre-match vlog!

Knock knock.

The figure skater who was flirtatious to Mona before knocked on the door with a cold face, "Mona, the coach is looking for you."

Mona not only used it to deceive netizens, but also used it to deceive them!

Hateful!

Mona didn't say anything, and walked into the coaching room with a pale face.

The coach was straightforward, "The Winter Olympics is over, let's leave the national team."

The national team attaches great importance to the personal qualities of athletes.

Mona was not reconciled, "Is there no room for change? I have played for the national team for so many years!"

If you can win the gold medal and atone for your sins, you can only be suspended for one year." The coach replied.

Figure skating is a sport with a very short career life. She is already a veteran, and another year of suspension is tantamount to breaking one of her wings.

But no matter how much it is discounted, it is better than being fired directly.

"Okay!" Mona clenched her fists, "I will get the gold medal!"

It's only 30 points, and she will definitely catch up with Hedy in tomorrow's free skating! Take back the title of the light of hope in USA figure skating!

Chapter 250

Free skating wins gold, a steel-like rose!

Mona's confidence comes from the fact that the free skating is more difficult than the short program.

Not only is the free skating longer than the short program and requires more jumps and spins, but more importantly, the free skating allows for more rounds of jumping.

Unlike the short program, only a triple axel is allowed.

Mona felt that as long as she jumped more quadruples, she could recover the score! the next day.

It is the competition day of the women's singles free skating.

The order of appearance is reversed according to the ranking of the short program.

The athletes slide and slide, and it's Mona's turn.

When she came on stage this time, the audience did not welcome her, and even booed her once or twice.

Mona—feels aggrieved!

She suppressed the mist in her eyes, and looked in Preston's direction.

Childe King, I will show you that I am better than Hedy!

The music started and Mona started skating, and at first, the spins and axel jumps went well.

The scene was missing the cheers that would appear every time a successful jump was made in the past.

Mona was even more unwilling.

This unwillingness directly affects her artistic performance and also affects her mentality.

If there is a problem with the mentality, there will be problems with jumping.

Her first quadruple jump ended in failure.

The coach outside the field has a dignified expression. Although Mona stood up quickly and continued to have fun together, the gap in mentality was difficult to adjust.

Her mind is full that if she loses, she will be kicked out of the national team.

Due to the tremendous pressure, she barely succeeded in one of the three quadruple jumps she had planned.

The free skating score was 118.72, the worst score in personal history.

The total score of free skating and short program is 198.75, currently ranked fifth.

There is no hope of winning the championship.

Mona covered her face and left the rink crying.

Elena Medvedeva followed.

While Elena was showing her strength on the ice rink, Hedy was changing costumes in the locker room.

Two female volunteers whispered in the distance,

“Hey, I've been a fan of this idol for half a year, why don't you come over and ask for an autograph?”

“I...I...”

“Didn't you start to like it from that 1v19—chess match Did she even come to the figure skating gym to be a volunteer, and now she's scared?”

“She’s going to compete later, so I won’t bother her, I’ll ask for it after the competition is over!”

The conversation between the two did not escape Hedy’s ears.

Just when Mona came down from the arena, she came to the locker room to change out of her costume.

Seeing Hedy, her eyes instantly turned red.

The man she liked for many years was snatched away by Hedy!

Her USA figure skating women’s singles number one will also be snatched by Hedy!

Uncontrollable anger rushed straight into Mona’s brain, and without thinking about it, she slammed the skates in her hand at Hedy.

The ice skate blade glowing with coldness went straight to Hedy!

A murderous look flashed across Hedy’s face, and he easily dodged sideways.

The blade passed her and flew towards the two female volunteers behind.

“Ah-” one of them screamed and dodged.

The other one was stunned and stood there, his brain shutting down.

She is a fan of Hedy.

Seeing that the blade was about to cut her face, Hedy’s eyes flashed and he stood in front of the fans.

She didn’t have more time to pull the volunteers away, so she could only block it with her back.

Stab.

Hedy’s costume was cut open.

Snapped.

The skates fell to the ground.

“Ye... Hedy!” The volunteer who was protected by Hedy said nana.

She glanced at the skates on the ground, and suddenly found blood on the blade!

Mona froze for a moment, she saw that Hedy not only had his costume- torn, but also had a long wound on his back.

It’s Hedy’s turn to compete soon, but Hedy injured himself in order to protect others?

idiot!

“How could you...” Another volunteer slowly regained his composure.

Mona sneered and left the figure skating hall quickly.

She is the direct granddaughter of Mona's family, and her grandfather is a comrade-in-arms of Grandpa Preston. If this happens, Preston can't do anything to her!

"Doctor! Doctor!" Volunteers shouted hastily.

The medical staff came over and saw the wound on Hedy's back, and they were terrified, "How could this happen?"

"Mona did it!" The volunteer said honestly.

On the ice rink, Elena's free skating is coming to an end.

The medical staff asked Hedy solemnly, "Ms. Ellis, are you still playing? If not, I'll sew up your wound." It takes time to sew up the wound.

Hedy said calmly, "Go."

Her goal is the women's singles gold medal, how could she not win!

"Are you sure?"

"Sure."

"Then I'll give you a zipper bandage, but also...good luck."

The medical staff quickly treated the wound.

Zipper Band-Aids require no sutures and are quick.

But no matter whether it is seamed or not, as long as it is on the ice rink, it will crack and blood will overflow.

The end is the same.

After treating the wound, Hedy looked at the volunteer, "Do you have a spare costume?"

Her costume has been torn.

"Yes, there is a set of white!" The volunteer quickly brought over the spare costumes.

After Hedy changed into the costume, Elena's free skating was over, and the free skating score given by the referee was 186.29.

Including Elena's short program, the total score is 276.62, temporarily ranking first.

With a super high level, she set a new record for her free skating, and also set a new record for her total score.

Now there is no need to emphasize the commentary, the audience and the audience in front of the TV can also understand the pressure on Hedy's shoulders!

Hedy came to the ice rink.

“What about your costume?” Dane frowned.

“It’s broken, I changed it.” Hedy summed it up briefly.

The first thing to do is the game. We’ll talk about Mona later.

Dane didn’t ask any further questions, and said worriedly, “Elena is worthy of being the Winter Olympic champion. She just did five quadruple jumps, and her level is on par with yours!” “Yes.”

Hedy nodded.

“But your score in the short program is higher than hers, so as long as you can also stabilize the five quadruple jumps, your score will not be much different from hers, and you may still win the championship!” “Yes.” Hedy slipped into the ice field.

Commentary, “The next one to appear is Hedy, who ranks first in the short program, from the USA Figure Skating Association. The song she brought us is “The King of Elephants”. The King of Elephants is the most intelligent and powerful symbol in Buddhism.

“Dream Star” is taken from the saying “there are no other beasts in the lion’s den, and there is no trace of foxes in the elephant king’s way.”

It means that there will not be a second kind of beast in the cave of the lion, the king of beasts.

Wherever the King of Elephant arrives, there will be no ghosts and demons haunting him.

Hedy skates to the center of the rink,

The sound of two big dharma horns and a big drum came out from the stereo.

Hedy slid out, graceful and smooth.

Afterwards, the guitar played solo with a tight rhythm and the momentum of fighting on the battlefield.

Hedy followed suit, with a high height and fast speed.

Commentary, “Jump around the back inner knot ring!”

The moment he landed, the wound on Hedy’s back was torn open, breaking the zipper band-aid.

Blood spilled out, staining the white costume a little red, which was not very eye-catching.

After the guitar was played, the flute played solo, and Hedy danced again, neatly and beautifully, and then jumped to the ground.

Commentary, "Quadruple jump on the back and outside ice, followed by triple axel on the back and outside ice!" The two consecutive jumps caused the wound on the back to be torn for the second time, and more blood gushed out, staining the palm-sized area red.

Both the commentator and the audience saw it and didn't understand what was going on.

Preston's eyes in the auditorium suddenly turned cold, and he gave Aiden a look.

Aiden understood and went to find out what happened before Hedy came on the field.

In the ice rink, after the flute solo, the piano soloed.

piano's lingering obsession is most suitable for spinning and joint spinning.

Commentary, "Jump-and-swallow spin, jump-and-swap combined spin, Behrman spin..."

There are more Yin Hong behind her.

The piano solo ended and came to the singing solo.

Six kinds of American music instruments, after you sing, we will come on stage.

Hedy is as graceful as a frightened bird, graceful as a dragon, jumping, spinning and gliding on the ice rink.

Halfway through, the entire back was soaked in blood.

The referee at the referee's seat didn't know what was going on, and the person in charge also ran up and down, and finally came to the side of the commentator and said a few words.

The commentator stared wide-eyed, and said,

"I just got the news that player Hedy accidentally injured his back before going on stage. There was a wound about 10 centimeters wide, and a zipper-style Band-Aid was pasted on it. It should have cracked by now." Ice Rink, Freedom Sliding continues.

Hedy begins to grade footwork.

She was thinking about the gap between herself and Elena.

Elena is very strong. Even if she reaches five quadruple jumps, she may fail to win the gold.

Because her costumes are not originally designed, they may be a bit worse in terms of art.

She also felt that her back was wet with blood, which may not be "beautiful".

Need to get some more technical points.

Hedy takes off again.

This is her fifth quadruple jump. So far, excluding artistic performance, her technical score has basically tied with Elena.

According to the original choreography plan, her jumping ended here.

The physical strength of the top women's singles players is at its limit here.

But that's not Hedy's limit.

Her biggest advantage is physical strength.

She can make up a jump, preferably a quintuple.

Experts in biomechanics have said that quintuple jumps are possible, provided that angular momentum, moment of inertia, and rotational speed are mastered.

She can try.

If the transfer is less than five weeks, it is fine to transfer for four weeks.

Six quadruple jumps was enough for her to beat Elena.

Hedy slid to accumulate energy, his eyes were sharp, and he touched the ice to take off!

a week.

two weeks.

three weeks.

around.

five weeks.

Snapped!

The moment he landed, Hedy felt that his soul could not bear the impact and flew out.

The legs are also numb, not like a part of themselves.

Dane stood up abruptly. "Is that a five-a-side jump? A quad?"

The speed was so fast that I couldn't see it clearly!

There was also a burst of exclamation from the referee's seat.

With the help of advanced equipment, the commentator saw Hedy's movements clearly, and said in a trembling voice, "Ice on the back and outside, quintuple!" The history of figure skating will be kicked off by Hedy himself!

Background "The Elephant King's Journey" came to the final climax.

In this section, piano, guitar, drum, flute and piano are played in unison.

In just an instant, the majestic and majestic Prime struck like an overwhelming mountain, and it was like watching all beings from the top of the mountains, or watching the boundless in the universe.

In this most majestic segment, Hedy chose to use the most ordinary and slowest gliding.

She walks slowly.

Like an elephant king, passing through the world calmly.

Dressed in white, red as a rose.

After the song is over, she stops.

There was silence for a few seconds!

Afterwards, thunderous applause and cheers erupted, and the glass of the figure skating hall was almost shattered!

Dolls and flowers are thrown like rain.

Preston's eyes were bright, and his heart was full of distress and pride.

That's his girl!

Under the instruction of the person in charge, several staff members entered the venue, meaning to help Hedy.

Hedy felt uncomfortable, but not to the point of needing support.

She slides to the equal division.

Before the butt could sit down, it was dragged away by the medical staff.

"The wound is torn, I will put a zipper-type band-aid on you first, so as not to delay your award."

The medical staff treated the wound, and Hedy's score came out, 230.71!

Refresh the women's singles free skating world record!

Including 108.13 in the short program, the combined total score is 338.84, ranking first!

Refresh the women's singles total score record!

62.22 points beyond the second place Elena!

This gap, whoever sees it will not say awesome!

Who would have thought that a “bad student” from the non-national team who was recommended by the Figure Skating Association would withstand the pressure despite being injured, break the world record three times, and win the first medal in the USA women’s singles gold medal!
