

The Killer 261

Chapter 261

Gwen's younger sister and Preston's old friend finished New Year's greetings at the Ellis Family, and Hedy returned with the King Family.

When we arrive, there must be some new year greetings, most of which are paid to the King Family by others.

For example, Uncle King Family.

In terms of seniority, it should be the Preston family, going to pay New Year's greetings to the uncle's family.

But what the uncle did in the early years weakened the family relationship between the two families.

Preston didn't want to walk around, so his uncle had to lick his face and visit the door instead, and have lunch together.

This meal was cooked by servants, neither grandma nor Hedy was interested in cooking for them.

During the dinner.

The uncle made a toast to the eldest Amos, "Uncle, with sons and daughters-in-law like Preston and Hedy, Ah Ting and She are at ease in heaven."

His father is Amos' elder brother, so he calls Amos uncle.

"Yeah." Amos said sadly.

The eldest aunt made a toast to grandma, her fat face was full of smiles, "Auntie, I would like to toast you too."

Grandma, "Hehe."

She clinked her glass to save face, not wanting to make an embarrassing scene on such a festive day.

Kay, who is as gentle as jade, said some nice words.

His wife, Gwen, covered her mouth and laughed straight away, with a cheerful and easy-going look, and went to shake Hedy's hand,

"Let me tell you, my cousin is really lucky to marry a wife like Ms. Ellis, before Ms. Ellis came, I thought my cousin was going to die alone!"

Hedy directly moved his hand away, his beautiful face was icy cold, and he was not interested in acting to save Gwen.

"Ha...haha, husband, do you think Ms. Ellis is a good match for my cousin?" Gwen laughed dryly, patted her husband's arm, and quickly walked down the steps.

“Of course it’s a good match.

If it’s not a good match, it’s impossible to get into my cousin’s eyes.” Kay held his wife’s hand.

Gwen smiled more calmly.

But I wish I could stab Hedy to death!

Hedy didn’t appear in front of the King Family, she Gwen is the first lady of the wealthy family.

Not only is he a gymnastics champion, but he is also good at perfumery. He is the ninth– ranked perfume designer in the world. With his own efforts, he saved King Family’s perfume company that was on the verge of bankruptcy.

Her love with Kay has always been envied and yearned by the outside world and people in the circle.

When it comes to wealthy marriages, her eyes are always focused on her.

When Hedy came, the situation changed.

Hedy is the figure skating champion of the Winter Olympics and the number one perfume designer in the world. On behalf of the King Family, Hedy won the first place in this fragrance competition.

Her love experience with Preston has attracted more attention from the outside world.

What’s even more annoying is that after Hedy’s Sleeping Dream Company was merged into King Family, the stock price of the perfume company under his name plummeted.

But she couldn’t say anything.

Hedy teamed up with Preston to arrange her clearly.

She finally understood that Hedy was not Preston’s weakness.

She is like a tiger with wings added to Preston, and should not be underestimated.

This reunion dinner, the Preston family ate it tasteless, and the family ate it with their own ghosts.

On the way out of the King Family Manor, the family sat in the business car, and the atmosphere was dull.

“Look at the face of Hedy’s little hooves. She hasn’t married into the King Family yet, so she doesn’t pay attention to us and doesn’t even give us a smile!” The aunt was anxious, “

When she marries into the King Family, she won’t be able to ride Pee on our necks?”

“Mom, calm down, don’t get angry with a wild girl who grew up in the country.” Kay followed her mother’s back, the illusion of warmth faded from her eyes, and she was cold,

“Wait until we hold hands in the future.” King Family, it’s up to them to kneel down to curry favor with us, and when the time comes, she will have to laugh how you want her to laugh!” The uncle said with an old face, "Then Hedy is not a simple country girl, she is smart. Very."

His daughter-in-law's move of "boosting and killing" is already the best strategy.

Hedy easily dismissed it and didn't come to the fragrance company to blend the fragrance afterwards, and he didn't give them a chance to do it, so he was very careful.

Suddenly thought of something, the uncle asked Gwen, "Has your sister Geen returned to the United States?"

Chapter 262

Geen, Gwen's biological sister, the second miss.

Her relationship with Preston was extraordinary.

"I'll be back on New Year's Eve." The corners of Gwen's lips rose.

This is their trump card.

"Then you can't arrange for your sister and my cousin to have a good get-together? I think my cousin should also miss my sister Geen a lot." Kay lowered her eyes and chuckled.

the next day.

Preston took Hedy to pay New Year's greetings to several old antiques on the King Family's board of directors.

These old antiques are older than Amos, and they are very old, like the great elders in the ancient family

Seniority is here, and Preston has given them enough respect and courtesy.

Their reaction was not very friendly.

Old Antique No. 1 was leaning on crutches, his eyes could hardly be opened, but he said in front of Hedy,

"We don't approve of Hedy, Preston, you change your fiancée!"

Old Antique No. 2 echoed, "How could you Selfish desires, regardless of the overall situation of the entire King Family!" Old Antique No. 3 nodded, "There are too many better choices than Hedy, and I think the second lady Geen is pretty good!"

It's a pretentious word.

But in the eyes of the wealthy, each other knows how important these four words are.

The income brought by a wealthy businessman marrying a commoner woman is far less than the income brought by a wealthy businessman marrying a woman who is also a wealthy businessman.

Preston's father married She, a commoner, and the result was in front of everyone, the family did not make any significant progress, and was almost compared to a first-class family.

Although Preston, the current ruler of the King Family, has the skills, he cannot let history repeat itself for the second time!

Preston knew that these old antiques would make trouble. He squeezed the center of his brows, and said in a helpless voice,

“I wanted to give you a good New Year. Why do you force me like this?”

Antique No. 1, “You are forcing the King Family!”

Antique No. 2 Number, “We are also thinking about the King Family!”

Antique Number Three, “If you dare to marry Hedy, we dare to use the power given by our ancestors to expel you from the board of directors!”

Their existence is to defend the glory of the King Family.

Once, they almost passed the power to Preston’s uncle.

It was Preston who withstood the pressure and proved himself to keep them from getting there.

“I-”

Preston still wanted to defend Hedy, Hedy took a step forward, avoiding his protection, and said coldly,

“I will prove to you that I am the ‘best choice’.”

Preston was startled, looking Looking at Hedy’s firm profile, the corners of his lips rose.

How could he have forgotten that she was never a flower in a greenhouse.

She has the ability to handle the storm.

Antique No. 1 snorted, “Little girl, a few innocuous world champions are not qualified!”

They knew about Hedy’s deeds.

“Who said that I will only win a few world championships?” Hedy put his hands in his pockets, his eyes were piercing, and his aura was strong.

Antique No. 2, “It’s no use just talking!”

Antique No. 3, “Geen is better!”

The words of the top actresses, the three gold actresses and the old antiques made

Hedy frown, but he didn’t bother to say more.

She has always spoken louder than words.

Preston took her hand, glanced at several elders, and said loudly,

“I don’t want to marry her, I wish you a happy American New Year, we have something to do, let’s go first.” On the way back, Preston apologized, “I’m sorry.”

King The family has a lot of bad things.

He was also very annoyed when he said that she was inferior to other women in front of her.

“It’s okay.” Hedy shook his head, his eyes were as bright as fire.

During this time, she realized more and more how vast the background of the King Family is.

For Preston, marrying himself is indeed a bit “unreasonable”.

“Is that Geen related to Gwen ?” Hedy thought of the name that Old Antique said. “She’s Second Miss, Gwen ‘s younger sister .” Preston thought for a moment, and announced another name, “Her stage name in the entertainment industry is Freya.”

Hedy understood.

Freya, the top actress in the US entertainment circle, and the queen three gold medals.

Stars like Vivian are not enough to look at in front of Freya

She is the first American female star to be invited to the Cannes red

carpet abroad.

She is also the first American female star to star in a Hollywood blockbuster.

Her crying scene was included in the textbook for art school students.

Her classical dignity made the public willing to give her the title of “the number one classical beauty in the entertainment industry”.

Well-known screenwriters are willing to write a script specially for her.

A well-known director once activated the “scissorhands” skill to cut Freya, who was originally a supporting role, into a protagonist.

The male stars who have worked with her all declared that they want to work together for the second time.

Actresses who have worked with her also said that she is gentle, kind and easy to get along with.

What’s even more amazing is that she has never been on variety shows.

She said, “I am an actor, and I want to devote more time to study the role, so that I can be worthy of the support of fans and the hard work of everyone in the crew.” She is keen on public welfare

Not to mention donating money from time to time, but also personally went to the scene of the disaster to support.

She even chose to go to a remote village to teach for a year when she was in the limelight, because she knew from others that the students in the mountain village were not easy.

Many people think that Freya is too stupid, how can he “refrigerate” himself at the peak stage of his career.

Some people think that Freya’s acting career is over.

As a result, Freya’s first movie after the end of his teaching career broke the box office record in the USA at that time, and the limelight was even greater than before his teaching career!

People say that she is a legend in the entertainment industry, and also a clear stream in the entertainment industry.

She usually sends a “good morning” on Twitter casually, and she can get more than one million replies.

And Hedy’s maximum number of replies on a single Twitter is no more than 100,000.

Huge influence, coupled with a good enough family background, coupled with her beautiful appearance and gentle personality, are the reasons why several old antiques from the King Family fell in love with her.

“To put it simply, the family background is better.”

Hedy made a conclusion in his heart

But if the “family background” is removed, Geen is a simple “actor” in the eyes of the old antiques of the King Family.

She knew all too well what these people were thinking.

“Don’t pay too much attention to what they say, I’ll make them nod.” Preston clasped Hedy’s hand, his voice low.

When he married her, he wanted to pamper her in the palm of his hand.

It wasn’t for her to be wronged.

The two returned to the King Family estate. In the evening, Preston received a call. He responded with gentle eyebrows and a yes, hung up the phone, and looked at

Hedy, who was playing with Little Thirteen next to him,” Geen formed a game tonight, come with me, you just know each other Just a moment.”

Hedy stopped stroking the hair with his hands, and his eyes flashed, “Do you have a good relationship with her?”

Geen is the third person Preston wants to introduce to her after Kelly and Hera. When it comes to Geen, the expression on his face is very gentle, without the indifference and alienation towards outsiders.

Jealous?" Preston smiled, "She saved my life."

Preston was caught in a fire when he was a teenager.

He was unconscious.

It was Geen who carried him out of the fire and brought him back from the brink of death.

Gwen was able to have the right to speak in the King Family, and a large part of the reason was that he allowed her a bit of color for Geen's sake. When Hedy heard that Geen had saved Preston's life, he immediately felt a sense of loneliness in his heart.

Nor was she involved in his past.

"I only think of her as my sister." Preston was worried that Hedy was thinking wildly, and pecked her on the lips, "Come on, let her meet her sister-in-law."

Hedy was pulled up by Preston.

Preston changed into an iron gray suit, and his gestures were unrepeatably elegant and luxurious.

Hedy wears a light cyan cheongsam inside and a long white down jacket on the outside, keeping warm and beautiful.

The two went to Hua's Manor.

The area of this manor is much smaller than that of the King Family, but it is also very grand, worthy of the title of a first-class family

When they walked in, there were already many young people in the courtyard.

They are all peers in the upper class.

The arrival of Hedy and Preston holding hands caused them to exclaim. "It's Childe King and his fiancée Hedy he's really here!"

"Let me just say, Sister Geen is here, and Childe King will definitely show face!"

What's the relationship!"

"It's a pity to say that, I always thought that Sister Geen would go to the end with Childe King, after all, both of them are so good..."

Shh, Childe King is already engaged, so stop talking about it."

Geen Sister is here too!”

Wearing a white sweater, a long red skirt, and fluffy slippers, a woman dressed casually at home came forward.

She is one year younger than Preston, with long hair draped shoulder-length, and gentle facial features that make people feel comfortable just by looking at her.

She is Gwen’s sister, Geen.

The difference from my sister is another kind of beauty.

“Long time no see.” Geen walked up to Preston, greeted Preston, and then looked at Hedy next to him.

Her eyes paused for a moment on the hands they held together, and she stretched out her hand towards Hedy, with a gentle voice,

“This is Ms. Ellis, right? She is prettier than on TV. I watched your competition at the Winter Olympics, Super sassy and super beautiful.”

“My praise, Miss Geen is also very beautiful.” Hedy shook back.

Their styles are also different.

If Geen is the cherry blossom in spring, then Hedy is the plum blossom in winter.

Preston’s eyes showed some pampering towards his sister, “The busy man finally has time to go home?”

Geen stuck out his tongue, showing a little girl’s charm, took Preston’s arm, and said coquettishly, “Don’t make fun of me Lah, no matter how busy I am, I can’t compare to you. Speaking of which, it will be my 10th anniversary of debut soon. Can you take a commemorative video for me? I remember that you also took my debut video. At that time, You heard that I kept my name incognito and was suppressed by the entertainment company, so I taught myself photography, and under the name of ‘ Sam’, I made a great debut film for me, remember?”

Chapter 263 Is Hedy already the number one in my heart?

Hedy looked gently at Geen holding Preston’s arm, his eyes drooping slightly.

Geen had saved Preston’s life, and she didn’t want to speculate directly on Geen’s words and the purpose of his actions with malice.

Since Preston regards Geen as his younger sister, it is normal for brothers and sisters to have some intimacy that does not touch the line.

She let go of Preston’s hand, intending to leave the place for the siblings to catch up on old times.

Preston, however, was pulled by Susan firmly and refused to let her go. At the same time, he pulled out the arm that was held by Geen, and said to her with a half-intimacy,

“You, you are so old, even if you don’t consider that I am engaged, you should.” Think about your status as a big star.”

This sentence is from the perspective of the older brother, reminding Geen of sense of proportion and distance.

Gentleman, and just right. The girl-next-door smile on Geen’s face froze for a moment.

Then he put on a bigger smile, without any embarrassment,

“It’s been a long time, I miss you so much! So can you help me make a video for my 10th anniversary?”

Others looked at Preston expectantly.

There are three daughters. They are

Alisa, Gwen and Geen respectively

Alisa, twenty-seven years old, charming and sexy, good at training.

Her mother, the first wife of the current power holder, is now divorced and recuperating in a mental hospital.

Later, Alisa was also kicked out by her father and now works for Preston.

Gwen, twenty-seven years old, her mother is the second wife of someone in power, commonly known as the mistress.

She was a month older than Alisa, which meant that the person in power had already cheated. She has two dimples when she smiles. She looks bright and beautiful. She is good at perfume and is a former gymnastics champion.

Geen, Gwen’s half-sister of the same father and mother, is twenty-six years old, classic and gentle.

She is now a top actress in the entertainment industry and a three-time gold actress.

Among the three daughters, she is the best one.

It is also the one that is highly respected by the insiders.

Because Geen’s experience is too legendary.

Don’t look at her now in the entertainment industry, she is doing well.

When she first entered the entertainment circle, she kept her name incognito and did not reveal her identity as a daughter at all.

Therefore, she was bullied a lot, and was almost squeezed to the point where she couldn’t make her debut.

It was Preston who went out in person, learned photography, and filmed her a debut video that was popular all over the Internet, helping her break out of the siege, and successfully attracted the attention of the insiders.

After that, she rode the wind and waves and made her name in the entertainment industry. It's now the tenth anniversary of Geen's debut.

The glory is added to the body, and the stars are shining brightly.

If Preston holds the camera again, it would be meaningful to shoot her 10th anniversary.

"When will it be filmed?" Preston thought for a moment and asked.

"Just a few days." Geen's eyes were joyful.

Asking like that made me willing to help her take pictures.

But she wasn't happy for too long.

Because Preston turned his head to look at Hedy, his eyes were gentle, "Do you need to be busy these days?"

"No." Hedy shook his head.

The new trial task has not been released yet, so she really doesn't need to be busy with other things.

Preston nodded, indicating understanding, and looked at Geen again, "I can help you."

"Great." Geen smiled brightly, but slowly clenched his hands under his sleeves.

Do you have to make sure Hedy is okay before helping yourself?

If Hedy has something to do, will he not help?

Is Hedy already number one in my heart?

Feeling...

so angry,

The actress perfectly concealed her anger, and Shi Shiran went into the house to get the "10th Anniversary Video Project".

She handed the proposal to Preston, "Let's find a quiet place and discuss how to shoot the video alone?"

After finishing speaking, she was very embarrassed to Hedy, "The company has confidentiality requirements, sorry."

Hedy looked indifferent and understood.

Preston couldn't understand.

He glanced at the proposal, and said lightly, "We won't discuss it today, the main thing is to bring Hedy over for a get-together."

He brought Hedy here to play with her, not to leave her aside and neglect her.

"I was in a hurry and wanted to finish the filming earlier. I was afraid of the delay, but I forgot Ms. Ellis. I punished myself with a glass." Geen took the champagne and drank it calmly.

In the eyes, is Hedy already so important?

Before that, she was the most beloved woman!

Geen was afraid of losing his composure, so he left with an excuse.

Hedy frowned slightly, and said in a low voice, "You can discuss with her alone how to shoot the video, don't worry about me."

She is such a big person, she won't do anything at this banquet.

"I like to control you, can't I?" There was a smile on the corner of Preston's thin lips,

"I'm afraid that you are alone at the banquet, you are not used to it, you don't have anyone you know, and you feel lonely."

The rest of the party was shocked Stopped,

"Oh my God, Childe King dotes on Hedy too much...."

Childe King is so careful, hundreds of times better than my boyfriend!"

"It seems that Childe King really likes Hedy!"

Hedy His face blushed quietly, and he habitually looked away.

My heart is very warm.

If Preston did go, which she did, it would be a little lonely.

Seeing her blushing, Preston frowned.

It's snowing in the sky.

In the wind and snow, he just looked at her with a smile in his eyes, with affection like the sea.

In the villa, Geen squeezed the champagne glass tightly, as if a volcano lived in his chest, every breath was filled with gushing anger.

"Hedy, I will never let you occupy my position!"

I have worked hard for so many years, just to stand at the highest place and shoulder to shoulder.

You can't-

the dove occupies the magpie's nest!

Preston took Hedy to meet the peers in his circle.

Men and women adored Preston.

To Hedy, but with a little unclear attitude.

Hedy understands that in the hearts of these people, she is not a good match for Preston.

She didn't care, she just leaned in Preston's warm embrace, eating dessert and watching the snow fall, feeling very comfortable.

Because it was too warm, she fell asleep.

"Let's go first." Preston picked up her princess and left Hua's Manor with gentle movements.

Everyone shouted that they couldn't stand it.

"Is this still the unfeminine Childe King?"

"It's really a good man!"

"I'm so sweet, I'm full of dog food!"

Geen's face turned cold in envy.

Sister Gwen called, "How's it going, have you seen Hedy's ability?"

Geen took the phone and walked into the bedroom, closed the door, kept his mouth shut, and didn't speak.

The breathing was aggravated by anger.

"You don't have to be too angry, Hedy just took advantage of your filming time abroad and sneaked in." Gwen comforted her sister.

Geen spent half a year abroad.

Hedy and Preston just knew each other for half a year.

"Agreed to help me shoot the 10th anniversary video." Geen said slowly.

"It means you still have you in your heart." Gwen laughed, "You have to seize the opportunity."

Chapter 264 The food someone particularly wants to eat is Hedy ~

Geen was relieved.

Yes, if you are willing to help her shoot videos, it means that you have her in your heart.

Everything is still in time.

She frowned and thought for a moment, then dialed the manager's phone, her voice was slightly cold, still Crystal, send out a draft, tell the outside world that I am a socialite from a first-class family."

Crystal was overjoyed, “You are finally willing to expose your identity, you You know, I have been waiting for a day for a long time! Once your identity is exposed, your status in the entertainment industry will be unmatched!”

Crystal immediately contacted the relevant media and released the news overnight.

“Shock! The real identity of the three gold actresses is...”

Freya, If you don’t make it in the entertainment industry, you will go back and inherit billions of dollars.

H-

Inventory of the incognito rich second generation in the entertainment industry.

“A picture tells you how rich the family of the top actress Freya is! » Freya’s real name is Geen, and she is the second lady of a first-class wealthy family. With the unstoppable situation, she rushed to the top of the hot search.

Directors, celebrities, and partners who didn’t know were stunned.

Netizens and fans who didn’t know were also shocked.

Freya ‘s real name is ‘ Geen“? It sounds so good! What kind of novel is the name of the protagonist!”

11

I always thought that Freya was a poor little girl who counterattacked and became a big star, but I didn’t expect that it was beauty who went down to the world...” ”

No wonder Freya has such a good temperament, but she is too independent and self-reliant to break into the entertainment circle without relying on her family, I love it!”

Freya is the best in the entertainment circle! I mean it!”

-The

next day.

Preston is going to shoot Geen’s 10th anniversary video – the anniversary is only a few days away.

Before going out, he looked at Hedy tenderly, “If you are bored at home, you can go with me.”

He can solve the confidentiality agreement and so on.

“No, I’m just reading a book.” Hedy held up the borrowed business school sophomore books.

She plans to use her spare time to study all the university courses by herself.

In this way, in the future, if she receives tasks such as figure skating competitions and filming variety shows, which take a long time, she will have the confidence to achieve results. It is also convenient to ask for leave

from Principal Season .

“Don’t be too tired, there are cakes in the refrigerator.” The corners of Preston’s lips rose.

Since I met Hedy, his frequency of making cakes has almost caught up with his frequency of meetings.

“Yeah.” Hedy nodded, stood on tiptoe, and gave him a farewell kiss

Preston left contentedly.

He went to the studio of Geen ‘s entertainment company. During the filming, Geen sprained her foot, tears filled her eyes in pain, and said aggrievedly,

She limped towards Preston, wanting to throw herself into Preston’s arms.

Preston pinched her arm, stabilized her figure, frowned and looked at her injury, “Aiden, take her to the hospital.”

Geen had a moment of sadness on his face, and shook his head, “No, a small injury, I can insist, let’s shoot the clips without action first.”

After finishing speaking, he returned to the center.

Everyone else in the studio cast admiring glances at her.

A lot of traffic niches give birth to florets, and if they cut a little bit of skin, they will cry like ghosts and wolves. A dedicated and serious

like Geen is really rare.

It was a blessing to work with Geen. At lunchtime, Geen came to Preston with the support of his agent, and whispered softly,

“Thank you for taking time out of your busy schedule to help me shoot the video.”

Preston looked at the contents of the proposal, and said in a calm voice, “Brother, help me. My sister deserves it, you don’t need to thank me.”

Brother?

younger sister?

Geen shouted in his heart, I don't want to be just your sister, I want to be your wife!

On the face, he smiled obediently, "What do you want to eat at noon? I'll treat you."

"The staff canteen is fine." He really didn't have any food he particularly liked or wanted to eat.

1. oh.

Except for Hedy

Thinking of the person in his heart, Preston's long and narrow eyes unconsciously became more tender.

Geen nearly grits his own teeth.

She remembered the tenderness.

This is always the look I see when I look at Hedy.

That is to say, I just thought of Hedy

In the afternoon, filming continued.

Geen seems to be trying to tell Preston how much she's grown now, how well she fits him, showing a level of strength that makes everything go well.

In the evening, the first phase of shooting ended successfully.

"Geen planned to invite Preston home for dinner on the grounds that "my parents miss you very much"

Only to find that Preston had gone.

It's so heart-warming.

When Preston came home, Hedy was still reading at his desk, sketching something with a pen.

"Hedy," he called out.

"Huh?" Hedy looked up, her little face without makeup was white and tender, very pretty.

"What's for dinner?"

"Grandma's home cooking." Both

Grandma and Amos have been living at home lately.

dining room.

Hedy was eating well, and Preston's shout came from the opposite side, "Hedy."

"Huh?" Hedy raised his head, his eyes revealing confusion, very cute.

"When does school start?"

Take a walk after dinner.

Preston called again, "Hedy."

"What?" Hedy, who was walking in front, turned around.

The cold wind was howling, and the tip of her little nose was red, which was very pitiful.

Preston asked an innocuous question.

Go back for a walk.

Hedy, wearing a beige turtleneck, sat on the carpet and teased Little Thirteen with a ball.

Little Thirteen called out milky milky milky bark.

Preston suddenly appeared, "Hedy?"

"Huh?" Hedy turned around with a smile on his red lips, his eyes sparkling.

In the early morning, Hedy was terribly sleepy.

Preston called her again.

She couldn't open her eyes, and instinctively sat up and turned to look at Preston.

In exchange, Preston covered his lips with his fist and laughed.

Hedy,

I don't understand.

She fell asleep.

Geen's 10th anniversary commemorative video was finally filmed and uploaded online.

Once the video is uploaded, it will be forwarded and played on a large scale.

The video content has scenes where Geen Nged many times before.

There was a scene where Geen got injured while filming, but shook his head and refused to help, and continued filming.

There are also interviews with Geen now, and a look into the future.

There is also a talent show that Geen prepared specially for the tenth anniversary.

The fans watched with tears.

People with high empathy ability also see tears.

When everyone saw the end of the video and the photographer's signature was "Sam", everyone stopped crying and was stunned.

Sam? Is it Childe King, or has the same name?"

After Preston and Hedy made the official announcement, many people knew that Sam was Preston's vest.

“The on-site staff said that this Sam is Childe King!”

“My God, Childe King actually took a video for Freya’s 10th anniversary in person? Because Freya’s sister, Gwen, is his sister-in-law?”

“The upstairs is ignorant, isn’t it?”

Facts, Freya’s debut video was also filmed by ‘

Sam’ Childe King.” “?? Are Childe King and Geen so close!”

Chapter 265 If you have no culture, you can’t get candy QAQ

Geen has debuted for ten years, and various film and television works emerge in endlessly.

After so many years, few people remember her debut film, which was also shot by Sam Preston.

Now stuck at this juncture, the news is exposed, and netizens are so excited.

What was even more exciting was that an industry insider tweeted,

“Don’t you know? Geen offended people in the photography circle before she debuted incognito. I made a blockbuster debut film.”

Netizens commented,

“So there is such a past!”

“I don’t know why, but I suddenly feel so romantic...”

Yeah, what is it called? I’ll accompany you when you’re in a trough. Accompanying you to the peak?”

“Why did Childe King treat Geen so well?”

“Because Geen saved Childe King’s life!”

“When Childe King was fifteen years old, he encountered a fire, and Geen carried Childe King out of the flames, saved Childe King’s life!”

“Oh my god, Freya turned out to be Childe King’s lifesaver!”

“I... can I say I hit it....”

“You saved my life at a critical moment, and I’m here for you When you are struggling, I will send you to Clouds ... Oh my god, this is more exciting than performance cp!”

“This is a real bond of fate!” “.

Ten years have passed, you are the overlord of the shopping mall, and I am the top of the entertainment industry.

Why bother to say more, we will meet again on the top of the mountain!” “Woo L L L K K Where is the king who won the laurels...”

“Pure passers-by, it means that Hedy looks a bit redundant.”

The new cp fan, born from Preston and Geen which is “Deep” respectively. “The homonym.

In the entertainment circle, it is all about hobbies, and there is no express rule. CPs like Preston and Geen basically have no cards, and the final result is to enclose the land and be cute.

But the popularity of the two is too high.

Coupled with the past events and fetters between the two, there is indeed a bit of “fate” meaning, which led to “cp” directly rushing to the hot search list.

at this time.

Hot search No. 1, Childe King made a 10th anniversary commemorative video for Freya Hot Search No. 2, The 10th anniversary of Freya’s debut.

Hot search fifth, Freya is Childe King’s savior.

Hot search No. 9.

Geen and Preston accounted for four of the top ten most searched places, which shows the sensation caused by this incident. -In the celebrity nanny car.

Geen’s thumb rubbed the words “cp” across the phone screen, with a gentle expression.

You see, everyone thinks you and I are the best match.

Kick Hedy away.

Agent Crystal spoke excitedly, “Freya, just now several big-name luxury brands contacted me, wanting you to endorse their products.”

As she expected, Geen’s popularity, after his identity was exposed and Preston’s blessing, gained a new round of improvement.

In the current entertainment industry, no actress can shake Freya’s status.

“First find out if there is any black material in their products, and then choose the best endorsement.” Geen was about to black out the phone, and Preston sent a new Twitter.

Twitter has only four words,

“Your name.”

A video is attached to it.

The video isn’t as polished as the Geen 10th Anniversary video.

There is also not as much content as Geen's 10th anniversary video.

There are not as many characters as in Geen's 10th anniversary commemorative video. In this video, there is only one protagonist, Hedy.

Different Hedy.

There are Hedy who immerses himself in studying, Hedy who eats, Hedy who takes a walk, Hedy who plays with puppies, Hedy who is sleepy and so on.

Off camera, Preston called her again and again.

She raised her head or turned around again and again, and the expression on her face was different every time.

Very warm and interesting.

It's the kind of feeling that everyone will unconsciously raise the corners of their lips when they look at it.

In the end, Hedy seemed to be impatient with being called, and asked Preston with a small face,

"How many times are you going to call me?"

The video turned black, and a string of text appeared to answer,

[Forever.]

-At this point, the video is over, and we come to the creator's signature link.

Oddly enough, Preston didn't use the " Sam" vest this time around.

But a simple word, Preston.

Geen squeezed the phone tightly.

The netizen's barrage swished past.

"I'm sorry for being stupid, but I think performance cp is sweeter/ laughing and crying."

Hedy in Childe King's lens is so cute, I love her contrast and cuteness forever!" "

Is this the boyfriend's perspective? I just say hello Wife!"

"Why did Childe King sign Freya 's video this time as Sam, but Hedy signed the video with his real name?"

"Obviously, the signature of Hedy's hip-hop video before was also Sam'..."

Maybe I want to express, to Geen, Sam is still Sam."

"But to Hedy, Sam is already Preston."

“Fuck, I don’t have any knowledge these days, and I can’t get candy!” ”

I dare Guess, Childe King knows that Geen’s 10th anniversary video will make netizens think wildly, so he also took a picture of Hedy in advance?”

This old fox can really do it...”

“Damn, I don’t know how to envy Childe for a while King has Hedy, and he still envies that Hedy has Childe King...”

King Family Manor.

Hedy is working hard in the study.

Grandma walked in with her mobile phone, “Daughter-in-law, you have the answer to your question!”

Hedy asked with a question mark face.

“Didn’t you tell me in the morning that Preston has been calling you all the time these days, do you think it’s weird? Well, here is the answer!”

Grandma was a young lady in the concession when she was young, and she liked the excitement and trend.

Later due to physical reasons, I chose to practice meditation. After Hedy and Alice performed the operation on her, her body recovered and her nature was restored. When she had nothing to do, she checked Twitter to see the latest hot news.

With this look, I saw Preston’s head coming up.

She showed the video uploaded by her grandson to her granddaughter-in-law.

After reading it, the daughter-in-law Sun gave a low cough, said “I got it”, and continued to work on the questions, no different from before.

Except for the oleander red floating on the face.

Grandma covered her lips and left the study, closed the door, and nodded repeatedly, “It seems that Preston can be rewarded with a chicken leg tonight.”

Her grandson did a good job.

On the one hand, the domineering maintained the status of the grandson’s daughter-in-law.

On the other hand, it also gave Geen enough face, and did not say that he would not help Geen shoot the 10th anniversary debut video.

If Geen doesn’t have any thoughts that he shouldn’t have, he will still treat him as an older brother.

Then this video, won't do Geen any harm.

It is normal for a brother to have two attitudes towards his sister and towards the woman he loves.

On the contrary, if Geen has this thought.

Then look carefully.

Who is the woman who is on the tip of her grandson's heart!

Chapter 266 I believe that after your grandma left, Hedy stopped writing and lowered his eyes to think.

When did Preston take pictures of her and how did she not even notice?

Could it be that some black technology miniature camera was used?

This is also overkill.

She pursed her red lips, took out her phone, and replied under Preston Twitter.

[Hedy], Alright.

Then let you shout for a lifetime.

Ding dong.

King Family Group Building, Chairman's Office.

The handsome man who was signing the document heard a special sound effect and understood that his fiancée had replied to his Twitter.

He took out his mobile phone and saw Hedy replied "Okay".

Through the screen, you can see her proud and coquettish micro- expressions.

He chuckled and typed the reply.

[Preston], Thank you Lord Goddess Hedy for your permission.

Ding dong

[Hedy], ...

No need.

Hedy was speechless, and the netizen died.

The netizen is dead, and Geen 's phone is about to be crushed.

Today she has a drowning scene.

With her acting skills, she will do this kind of scene once.

But today, she doesn't want to.

It was winter, and she deliberately soaked in the water until she started to speak nasally, and then she ended the scene.

The director and the staff lamented, "One-third of the actors in the US entertainment industry should have Freya dedicated to their work, and the entertainment industry will not be in such a mess!

"I'm really sorry for taking so many pictures with me!" Geen bowed to everyone wearing the blanket handed by his assistant.

"Don't, don't, actors are human too, it's normal to be in a little state occasionally, don't blame yourself!" Everyone expressed their opinions. in a hurry.

I like Geen more in my heart.

"1

Freya, hurry up and take a hot bath, here is the medicine for you." The manager Crystal came over and handed Geen a cup of brown cold medicine, with worried eyes.

"Okay." Geen smiled slightly, and walked into the bathroom with cold. medicine.

As soon as the bathroom door closed, she poured the cold medicine into the sink.

She even turned the water for the shower to the cooler side.

She took a cold shower, her nasal sound became more severe, and her condition worsened accordingly.

But she hummed a little song and sent a text message to Preston in a happy mood,

"My parents said they haven't seen you for a long time, and they prepared dinner at home. Can you give me a favor tonight?"

Preston frowned when he received the text message.

He didn't have a good impression of Geen 's third mother.

But Geen 's dad did help him in his most difficult moments.

It's okay to save face now.

He told Hedy about going to dinner tonight through social software.

Hedy sent an emoji of a green cartoon dinosaur with round eyes and nodding.

Good and silly.

Preston curled his lips.

That night, he came to Hua's Manor.

The person in power sitting upright, the current wife of the person in power wearing heavy makeup, and the pale Geen all expressed a certain amount of welcome to his arrival.

The person in charge in charge is a middle-aged man in his fifties, wearing a black suit, with a small belly, named Rawson .

His eyes were sharp and flashed with ambition.

His current wife is Joey, who is wearing a wine-red dress, still charming, and her hair is slightly curled and high.

“Why is she so pale? Are you uncomfortable?” Preston saw Geen’s strangeness.

He kept calling Geen she.

Geen shook his head and forced a smile, “I’m fine.”

As soon as he uttered a thick nasal voice, it felt like there was no money here.

“Oh, she was soaked in water for too long during filming today, and she froze.” Joey sighed.

“Didn’t you see a doctor?” Preston said in a low voice.

“Look, I prescribed some medicine, I’ll take it later, ahem.” Geen coughed weakly.

“In future work, don’t push yourself too hard. Your body is the most important thing.” Preston reprimanded Geen like an older brother.

“Well, thank you for your concern.” Geen’s eyes warmed up.

In the middle, Rawson mentioned a business, roughly meaning “I have a little trouble, although I don’t panic, but it’s tricky, you understand?” Mouth business.

Over the years, he has helped many times.

Because Rawson helped him first.

Although the help he gave has far exceeded the help given to him back then, he is still willing to help.

In his heart, there are some things and some friendships that cannot be measured by interests.

Not to mention Rawson’s daughter Geen, who saved his life. When the banquet was over, Preston was about to leave when Geen next to him was exhausted and collapsed into his arms.

Preston’s eyes were sharp and his hands were quick. He held her shoulder like last time, and there was a burst of hot temperature in his hand.

“Geen! Doctor!” Joey was shocked and called the family doctor.

The family doctor checked and replied, "I have a high fever and need to go back to my room to rest." "

I... I can't hold this. Rawson has not been in good health for the past few years, and the servant has also gone out to help me with errands... Joey looked at his daughter with a sad face

Preston didn't speak, picked Geen up the stairs and put him on the bed in the bedroom.

When he was about to leave again, Geen opened his eyes and took his hand, pleading, "Don't go! Stay with her, okay? she is so uncomfortable, cough cough."

Preston, "You have a fever, drink It's not uncomfortable to wake up after taking the medicine."

"she is not suffering physically, but mentally. In the past six months, I've been filming abroad so lonely." Geen coughed and was sick,

"Although foreign directors invited me, but Those white people looked down on us yellow people in their bones, and they always sneered at

1. me.

I wanted to give up several times, but when I thought of you, I gritted my teeth and persisted."

Some roads are really hard to walk, it's hard work." Preston nod.

He wasn't as moved as Geen imagined. It's not that he can't empathize with Geen 's situation.

It's because he's seen a harder road in Hedy.

Hedy walked by without any complaints.

It gave him unprecedented shock and amazement.

Let him like this, looking back at Geen, it is difficult to have too many emotions, so I can only comfort him.

Geen bit his lip, suppressing the reluctance in his heart, and said pitifully, "Can you accompany me tonight? I don't feel safe without you."

I'm engaged." Preston's thin lips parted slightly, his brows furrowed.

"I know, I'm just a sister who wants my brother to be with me, nothing else...cough cough cough." Geen started coughing again.

"Preston, just because Geen saved you, please accompany her for a while, it seems that she has really suffered a lot of grievances abroad." Joey wiped tears.

Rawson casts a requesting look as well.

Preston sighed inwardly, he could only nod in agreement, took out his phone and walked outside.

He called Hedy, told Geen 's general situation, and pinched his eyebrows with a headache.

Hedy's voice on the other end of the phone was cold, "I see, you can accompany her."

Preston was startled, helpless, "Why are you so decisive?"

When other girls heard what their fiancé said, they must ask a few more questions, right?

Hedy smiled and replied with four words, "I believe in you."

Chapter 267 His face was as big as a basin.

Hearing this answer, Preston's frowning brows relaxed, and his mood improved a lot.

He chuckled, and his voice was extremely magnetic, "How much do you trust me?"

Hedy thought about it seriously, and the voice reached Preston's ears,

"Just like trusting Cooper, I trust you."

Preston's pupils trembled slightly.

After a while, he frowned and said softly, "Go to bed early."

"Yes."

The phone hung up.

Preston re-entered the door of Geen 's room.

Geen had already taken antipyretics, and was sleeping obediently on the bed, looking at him with a pair of pupils.

"Preston, thank you for taking care of Geen. This is the tea I made for you. Drink it while it's hot." Joey came over with an ordinary cup of tea, his eyes eager.

Preston looked down at the tea.

The tea is also interesting. If you look closely, you will find tiny bubbles constantly floating around the edge of the tea surface, as if someone added something to it.

Preston gave Aiden a faint look behind him.

Aiden took a step forward, and said in a cold tone, "I'll arrange what Childe King drinks, don't worry about Madam, please go back to the bedroom and rest. ", how annoying and pity.

Preston walked into the bedroom, took a chair and sat down next to Geen's bed.

"Ahem, thank you for being willing to accompany me tonight." Geen's face was pale and his tone was weak.

Preston said calmly, "You're welcome, go to sleep."

“How can you thank me! You are so kind to me, I...” Geen sat up excitedly.

She was wearing a white suspender dress tonight. Under the excitement, the quilt slipped down with the suspenders, revealing a large piece of fragrant shoulders and half a plump and round female symbol.

But she didn't seem to notice this situation, she stared at Preston quietly, and said in a soft voice, “she really misses you.”

Preston nodded, then reached out and landed on Geen's shoulder, knocking Geen unconscious with a palm. He didn't want to catch up with Geen in this place, and on this occasion.

Since people who are sick should take a good rest, let's take a good rest.

It's never too late to wake up and talk about anything else.

“Childe King, do you want to go?” Aiden asked in a low voice.

It's funny to say that two big men appeared in Geen's bedroom, no one cares about them, and they don't avoid suspicion at all.

They probably wanted something to happen in the bedroom.

Preston wanted to go.

The scene of the fire that year flashed through his mind.

When he was young, he opened his eyes in a daze, and saw the thin Geen, step by step, backing him out of the fire scene with difficulty.

Geen's words rang in his ears again.

I'm just a younger sister who wants to be accompanied by her brother, nothing else... Cough cough cough.

“Forget it, give me the notebook.”

-Meanwhile

King Family Manor.

Hedy closed the textbook, and the phone with a black screen next to it turned on.

It turned out that Twitter pushed the news.

News headline, “How dedicated is Freya to filming? No complaints after soaking in cold water for hours in winter!”

Hedy's eyes flashed.

Soaking in cold water in winter... Is this why

Geen has a high fever? She frowned

Even though she doesn't do much in the entertainment industry, she also knows that a three-gold actress like Geen is extremely valuable to the company and the crew.

How could it be possible for Geen to soak in cold water for several hours in a row in the winter?

Compared with "dedication", this matter itself is strange enough.

Is someone bullying her?

Hedy clicks on the news and jumps to the video.

This video is the set Reuters of Geen 's new work. The crew intends to use Geen 's dedication to spread the heat of this work.

In the video, Geen is wearing an ancient costume, and most of his body is in the pool water, freezing enough

The director yelled "ka", and the staff wanted to pull her up, but she refused.

The barrage praised "Freya's dedication", "I will always love Freya ", "a certain star came to learn".

Hedy turned his brain to analyze.

According to the news's own introduction, the scene that Geen is going to film is that the main character accidentally falls into the water and is rescued by the male lead. The script requires her to show the panic of falling into the water, and her hands thumping non-stop.

And now it's winter.

Soaking in cold water for a long time will only make her body freeze, it will be more difficult to coordinate her limbs and facial expressions, and it will be more difficult to shoot the scene well.

It's not "professional" at all.

She has only three possibilities, mental retardation, masochism, or other plans.

The first two options are obviously not in line with Geen.

Reminiscent of Preston who didn't return tonight. Hedy locks in the answer.

Geen did it on purpose.

Deliberately caught a cold because of the drama, told Preston that she is very dedicated and excellent, and then begged Preston to stay, and begged Preston to show mercy.

"Savior..." Hedy spit out these four words lightly.

This is indeed a very intriguing identity.

-Samuel

at the end of the night.

Geen wakes up leisurely, and finds that Preston is working on her desk, and herself...

She lifts the quilt happily, only to find that everything is as it is, there is no discomfort in the body, and nothing happened!

Joy fades, disappointment comes.

"How did I fall asleep last night?" Geen asked curiously, biting his lip.

"It's overheated." Preston replied softly, "Since you're awake, I'll go back to the company and remember to take my medicine."

Hmm..." Geen lowered his head, looking up to say something, Preston had already left.

As soon as Preston was on the front foot, Joey and Rawson were on the back foot.

She wore pearly diamonds full of wealth, and her eyes looked forward, "How is it, did you cook with Preston's raw rice yesterday?" The sound insulation of the room was so good that she didn't know what was going on in the room.

Geen shook his head.

"You! Why are you so disappointing!" Joey was disappointed.

If only my daughter managed to climb into Preston's bed!

Rawson also showed dissatisfaction.

"Whether he touched you or not, he stayed in your room all night. Although he thinks you are brother and sister, the outside world doesn't think so!" Joey had a plan,

"Release the news that he took advantage of your illness and took advantage of your illness. You, how about forcing him to marry you?"

"No." Rawson stopped,

"That kid has a clear love and hate, even if Geen marries in with this method, I'm afraid he will end up alone in the vacant house, let alone get any benefits.

Geen nodded.

It is indeed such a temper.

She doesn't want to be left alone.

She wanted to spend time with her, but she was turned into a red wave.

“It’s all the fault of Hedy, that wild girl. If she hadn’t been there first, our Geen might have married Preston already!” Joey gritted his teeth with hatred.

“It’s okay, we still have a chance.” A greedy look flashed across Rawson’s face. King Family’s huge property, he wants to have a bite no matter what!

at the same time.

Hedy is being pulled by grandma to choose a movie to watch.

She thought grandma would like romance or comedy.

Unexpectedly, grandma picked a foreign science fiction film.

Chapter 268 Unfinished Dreams, New Missions

A sci-fi movie chosen by grandma, about the rapid development of human science and technology in the future, and interstellar travel can already be achieved. And reached a friendly consensus with more than 20 kinds of aliens, established a federation in the vast universe, piloted a galaxy warship, and resisted the attacks of Zerg and non-friendly aliens.

The special effects in the film are cool, the setting is hardcore without losing interest, and the family affection that is emphasized on the description also makes people cry.

It’s a good sci-fi movie.

“I didn’t expect grandma to like hardcore sci-fi.” Hedy handed warm water to grandma.

“I didn’t like it at first, but I fell in love with it after being influenced by Preston.” Grandma took a sip of water and explained.

“He likes hardcore sci-fi?” Hedy was even more surprised.

She has been with Preston for so long, and she has never heard Preston say half a thing about hardcore sci-fi.

“Wait for me for a while.” Grandma smiled mysteriously, got up and went upstairs.

Not long after, she went downstairs with an extra notebook in her hand.

“Look.”

Grandma handed the notebook to Hedy.

Hedy took it and turned to the first page, on which someone wrote two lines with a pen.

The first typesetting is larger, it is “Space Trek”.

The second typesetting is smaller and is “pioneers”.

The handwriting is neat and neat, which can be called graceful, but there is already a sharp shadow in the horizontal and vertical strokes.

She turned to the second page, only to realize that it was a science fiction novel.

A science fiction novel by Preston under the pseudonym "Pioneer" and titled Space Trek.

After browsing a few pages, Hedy closed the notebook and looked up at grandma.

"He likes the universe very much. His previous dream was to be an astronaut and explore space." Grandma sat next to Hedy, with tears in her eyes,

"If his father hadn't passed away, he would have submitted this novel to the publishing house, and at the same time Dream and fight."

Hedy stroked the cover of the notebook, knowing it in his heart

No wonder the eighth birthday gift he prepared for her was a universe atlas.

It turns out that exploring the universe is also his hobby.

"Let's not mention the sad things, there is no 'if' in this world."

Grandma quickly cleared up her mood and returned to the topic of the film,

"If only we in the USA could make decent science fiction films one day."

Grandma has a patriotic complex.

I feel that what foreigners can produce, we Americans can also produce, such as the science fiction films she likes.

But USA is notoriously a sci-fi desert.

The main reason is that compared with foreign countries, the United States started relatively late in science education.

There is not enough scientific literacy to be confident.

The secondary reason is that shooting sci-fi movies costs a lot of money.

A romance film is nothing more than a few characters of ABCD, going to 1234 scenes, and then ending.

Science fiction is different.

Modeling costs money, special effects cost money, everything costs money.

All kinds of conditions make USA directors stop looking at sci-fi movies.

Hedy receives a system beep.

[Ding! Trial mission released.]

[Trial task (18), Become a director and shoot a sci-fi movie with a box office of over 3 billion.]

Hedy slowly raised his eyes.

A sci-fi movie with a box office of 3 billion?

This system really dared to give her a task.

Grandma, "By the way, daughter-in-law, Preston's birthday will be in a few months. Have you thought about what gift to give him?"

Some gifts can be bought anytime, anywhere with money.

Some gifts need to be customized in advance.

Hedy looked at the notebook in his hand, "Think it out."

Grandma gossips, "What is it!"

Hedy curls her lips, "Secret."

Grandma, "Then I won't tell you the birthday present I prepared.

Hedy, "Oh Grandma

"If I had known, I wouldn't have given you the miniature camera!" That was the black technology used by Preston and Hedy when they filmed "Your Name".

Hedy, "It's late, you already gave it to me

She wanted to take a video of Preston as a souvenir.

Grandma, "...

I regret it!

Well, for the sake of how cute my grandson is, I forgive her.

-After

receiving the new trial task, Hedy was very distressed.

She has never made a movie.

You can ask Preston for advice, but if you ask Preston to help, there will be no surprises.

She planned to make a film of Preston's novel "Space Trek" as his birthday present.

Who else can she ask for advice?

Hedy closed his eyes and thought for a moment, screening candidates in his mind, and finally chose Lew.

Lew, a well-known American director who filmed the movie "Morning".

A great director who doesn't follow unspoken rules, acts maverick, is a Virgo perfectionist, and often wears slippers on set, Lew.

She doesn't have Lew's contact information, but Lew said on Twitter that he recently helped a director friend hold the camera at a studio he was in.

His friend was sick and hospitalized

Relying on his memory, Hedy took a taxi to the studio.

On the way, she set an extra goal for herself, to get a driver's license.

I was able to race for Lucas at the time, thanks to the fact that Lucas was the deputy leader of the Black Gang at that time. She had prestige, and no one checked whether she had a driver's license. Now that I don't have a driver's license, if I want to drive on the road by myself, I am afraid of being stopped by the traffic police.

Soon, the vehicle arrived at the studio.

Hedy also sees Lew.

The last time I saw Lew, it was summer, and he was wearing flip flops.

This time it was winter, and he was wearing cotton slippers, which kept his style very firm.

Hedy opened the skylight and said bluntly, "Director, I want to be a director, can you teach me how to make movies?"

Lew was stunned for a moment, "I thought you came to be an actor and asked me to continue to cooperate...why do you suddenly want to make movies? Movie?"

He really wanted to work with Hedy for a second time.

Hedy summed it up briefly, "There is a reason why we must shoot."

Lew nodded, "It's not impossible to teach you, but there must be an exchange."

"But it doesn't matter." Hedy guessed Lew's conditions in his mind.

Lew took out his mobile phone with a solemn expression, and said word by word, "You have to follow my Twitter."

He and Hedy did not cooperate again after the movie "Morning", and Hedy did not follow him.

In fact, this is also normal.

What is not normal is the netizen!

There is a sand sculpture netizen who is so idle that he checks in on his Twitter every day. "Did Hedy follow

Lew on January 1st ? No." "Did Hedy follow

Lew on January 2nd ? No.

Did Hedy follow Lew on January 3rd? No."

"It's that simple?" Hedy raised his eyebrows, took out his phone, and followed Lew.

"Of course it's easy. I like your temperament. You are Preston's fiancée, and you are the teacher of the first lady of the wealthy American family. After all, I am not at a disadvantage... Wait a minute, I will post a Twitter." Lew screenshot Hedy Follow His notice, sent a tweet.

[Lew], @Sand, open your eyes and take a look?

[Sand Sculpture Netizen], Received.

after awhile. [Sand Sculpture Netizen],

Did Hedy cooperate with Lew on February 7th? No/dog head.

Lew,

Chapter 269 Silver brooch, Geen 's invitation

Lew resignedly put down his phone, put on a serious expression, picked up a thermos to drink water, "What kind of movie do you want to make?" Hedy asked him to learn how to shoot, There must be a goal in mind.

There are many ways to shoot a movie.

Different movies have different shooting techniques.

According to her ideas, he can first teach her the shooting method she needs most at present.

"Sci-fi movie." Hedy's delicate face was honest.

"Pfft! Cough cough cough!"

Lew choked and coughed violently, staring at Hedy as if he had seen a ghost.

If we compare filmmaking to a school, there are elementary school, junior high school, high school, and university

Ordinary romantic dramas are junior high school students.

Historical dramas are high school students.

Sci-fi or something, college students.

Hedy just learned to shoot, basically equal to a primary school chicken.

Then this primary school chicken said seriously, I'm going to college?

"I don't recommend you to try sci-fi films at the beginning. It's difficult to shoot, not to mention costly, and the audience is still small. If you spend money, you may not be able to recover blood. The risk is too great." Lew waved his hand.

Hedy's red lips parted lightly, "I'm not short of money."

Just using Black Gang's half-year night show income is enough for her to finish filming a sci-fi film.

"That's true." Lew only thought that Hedy wanted to use King Family's money, and his heart was about to move.

He has always had a dream in his heart, namely, to make a sci-fi movie of the United States himself, to gnaw at the tough bone of sci-fi.

Since someone is willing to take money, why doesn't he take this opportunity to join in the fun?

Lew nodded, "Okay, do you have a favorite script? The script of science fiction movies is very important."

Hedy handed Lew the "Space Trek" in the bag watched it for ten minutes, relishing it, "This novel is good, who wrote it? Could it be you?" "It's not me, but who will keep it secret."

Lew

"When do you want to start shooting?"

"The sooner the better Good."

"Then you have to prepare the things you need for the film project, and go to the Radio and Television Bureau for filing."

"Fine."

"I can finish filming the movie in the afternoon, and I will be free tomorrow. If you are in a hurry to learn how to shoot, you can do it tomorrow." Can come to me."

"Yeah."

Hedy left the studio.

Lew also went to work on his own.

Their conversation was witnessed by a woman in her forties, Geen's agent Crystal.

Geen is filming a palace banquet scene in the studio next door today!

Crystal walked over quickly and told Geen the gossip, "Freya, guess what, I just saw Hedy at Director's place!"

The three words "Hedy" were like a spell, stabbing Geen's soul.

She was as cold as snow in her heart, but she had an unexpectedly happy look on her face,

"Really? What a coincidence, did she ask Director to film a movie? Many people on the Internet hope that they will cooperate again.

Crystal shook her head, "Hedy doesn't want to make movies, she wants to be a director and make movies, sci-fi movies! As long as the fiancé has money, he dares to make sci-fi movies." The word "fiance" stung Geen again.

She lowered her head and smiled gently, "Yes."

Crystal complained for her artist in a low voice,

"I know you also like Childe King. To be honest, Hedy is very good among her peers, but how can she compare to him?" You? I really don't understand the look in Childe King's eyes. If I were him-

Geen raised his head and smiled, "Crystal, I want to push the script and play the heroine of Ms. Ellis' science fiction movie for free."

Crystal is unbelievable, "Are you crazy?"

Hedy is a rookie director and wants to make the most difficult sci-fi film. What kind of celebrity are you? You are a three-gold actress!

Three-gold actress, go to serve as a foil for a rookie director, you are not afraid of breaking the road Popularity and evaluation?

And she and Childe King... just like that, you still want to act as the heroine in her film for free? Do you know how many directors there are in USA, eagerly begging to cooperate with you?"

Geen's tone was very gentle, "She is your fiancée, I want to help her, as long as I am happy, I will be happy." "

What a silly girl!" Crystal didn't know what to say, and gave Geen a hug. But he didn't see how vicious Geen's eyes were in her arms.

-Evening.

Hedy came out from the Radio and Television Bureau.

With her quick actions, she has successfully filed a sci-fi movie.

The title of the movie is "Lost", but the name of the original "Space Trek" was not used, for fear that Preston would recognize it.

Probably there are always paparazzi staring at the movie filing, Hedy has not gone far, and the news that she will be the director of the sci-fi film "Lost" has spread.

It was not on the hot search, but it caused a small discussion.

Outside the network, Hedy was about to stop the car and go back to the King Family Manor when Geen's manager walked in front of him.

Crystal stretched out her hand in a friendly manner, and pointed the other hand at the building across the road,

"Ms. Ellis, hello, I'm Freya's manager. Freya heard that you are going to make a science fiction film, so I want to introduce myself as your science fiction film for free. My heroine, I can help you.

I wonder if you would like to go to the restaurant across the street to have a detailed discussion, and have dinner as a favor?"

She and Geen were passing by here, and when they saw Hedy entering the Radio and Television Bureau, Geen asked her to come down and wait. Hedy comes out, contact Hedy.

Hedy followed Crystal's fingers and saw the opposite restaurant.

The name of the restaurant is "Wandering Island", and it is a very stylish high-end restaurant.

The founder said that the rapid development of modern communication has made people extremely dependent on mobile phones, and they are no longer willing to communicate. The relationship is gradually alienated, and everyone has become a wandering island.

Therefore, when eating in his restaurant, he must be inspected and his mobile phone and other equipment will be confiscated.

At the same time, all filming and recording are prohibited in the restaurant, and related equipment is not allowed to enter.

It's a restaurant that serves food.

Guests come to eat, that's all.

"Okay." With a twinkle in Hedy's eyes, he agreed to Crystal's proposal and went to this restaurant with her.

"Hello, please give me your mobile phone." The waitress came over to collect the mobile phone, and then took out the metal detector to check the possible equipment on Hedy.

drop:

The detector stopped in front of Hedy and rang once.

She is wearing a beige coat today, with a small silver brooch at the fold of the collar.

"Shall I take it off?" Hedy asked the waiter.

“No need for that.” The waiter smiled.

The needles of the brooches are made of metal, and it is normal for the restaurant to deprive the guests of the right to wear clothes.

After passing the test, Crystal led Hedy to the box where Geen was.

Crystal didn't come in, she picked up her children from school.

“Gwen is a three-time gold actress, why do you want to be the heroine in my film?” Hedy sat opposite Geen, and Susan smiled.

Now that Geen has ideas for Preston.

Then this dinner is more than just dinner.

Geen lowered his head guiltily, and his face was a little red, “I want to make up for Ms. Ellis.”

“Make up? What wrong did you do that need to be made up for?”

Geen nodded embarrassingly, “I did something that I shouldn't have done with... last night Something...”

“Be more specific.” Hedy leaned back on the chair, calmly.

Geen blushed even more, “Just... just...”

Her heart froze, her eyes closed, and she said like dying, “I slept with//, and several times a night.”

Chapter 270 Hedy VS Geen, who plays who!

Hedy's pupils shrank sharply.

Seems to have suffered a terrible blow. Seeing this,

Geen hurriedly stood up and apologized with a very guilty expression, “Ms. Ellis, please forgive us, we just couldn't help it for a while and made a small mistake.

I originally planned to hide it from you, but I just want to Seeing you, feel very painful in my heart, and I feel that no matter what, I must obtain your forgiveness, otherwise I will not feel at ease in this life. For his reason, I am willing to turn down all my work and wholeheartedly help you shoot science fiction movies.” ”

A... small mistake ?” Hedy pulled the corner of his lips, trying to sneer but didn't.

“We really didn't mean it, please forgive us!” Geen bowed vigorously, full of sincerity.

Hedy shook his head slowly, as if trying to digest this cruel fact.

“I know, my friendship with you makes you feel bad, but the past is over!” Geen 's tone was firm,

“You are really the woman he loves the most now, please believe him! I, I’m leaving... After Geen finished speaking scheming words, he turned and left.

The compartment door closes.

I

Hedy sat inside alone.

She removed the brooch from her dress with one hand and stared at flipping it back and forth.

This is the black technology miniature video camera that grandma gave her.

She wanted to record the birth of the movie as a souvenir. As a result,

Geen popped out halfway.

How would she describe it?

Geen is such a nice guy.

Before she could do anything, Geen delivered himself to the door.

Putting away the tiny video camera, Hedy left the stylish restaurant.

It’s getting dark outside, and the neon lights are dotted with traffic, which is constantly flowing.

She stopped the car and returned to the King Family Manor.

Granny and Amos went upstairs to rest.

Preston was holding Little Thirteen in the living room, waiting for her to come back.

Under the light, the profile of the man is God’s most proud work.

The editor-in-chief of an international fashion magazine once said that the most advanced appearance beauty in the world is the three-dimensional bone appearance of Westerners, combined with the unique appearance of Easterners.

Preston is such a person.

With such an appearance, coupled with such a family background, coupled with such a character and ability, it is inevitable that he will become a national male god.

Countless women are willing to fly moths to the flame on him.

Geen is just one of them.

Hedy couldn’t help thinking,

Will Preston believe that his savior is a woman with deep thoughts?

Will he argue with her so that she will not be jealous ?

According to Geen 's plan, Geen wanted her to tell Preston what happened in the restaurant.

When Preston went back to question Geen, Geen said with a pitiful face that he didn't say anything, and that Hedy was making trouble for no reason.

Hedy does, too.

But her purpose of doing this was not to sue.

Hedy walked into the villa.

"Back?" Preston looked up.

The Pomeranian jumped off the sofa and wagged its tail to welcome the hostess back home.

Hedy bent down and hugged Little Thirteen in his arms, and Little Thirteen licked her face very intimately.

"Preston." Hedy

sat next to the man, and said slowly, "Before I get rid of Geen, I want to hear your opinion."

Preston's slender eyes flashed, and his voice was low, "What did she do?"

"She filmed Sometimes you pretended to be professional, but in fact made yourself sick so that you could accompany her.

Just now, you invited me to a restaurant and lied to me that you slept with her//bed several times a night, implying that you actually loved her. Hedy

's tone was calm, but his heart was full of turmoil

She wondered who Preston would trust.

Preston listened, thought for a moment, did not ask for evidence, but asked, "Why did you listen to my opinion before getting rid of her?"

Hedy has never seen her ask anyone's opinion before getting rid of her.

She has always been wanton

This time is an exception.

"Because she is your savior, I don't want to put you in an awkward position. If you think you can give the savior a chance, I can handle it in a low-key manner." This is Hedy's purpose

"My opinion is, don't care if she is my savior or not, as long as she tries to hurt you, she is my enemy, and this position will never change. So, go ahead and do it." Preston replied seriously

Hedy's pupils really constricted now, "Aren't you afraid that people will say you are ungrateful?"

Preston chuckled lightly, leaned over to her, and pronounced clearly, "Fuck him 'someone else',"

After finishing speaking, he kissed Her lips moved tenderly with a hint of self-blame.

Geen was to blame for disappointing him after all.

He also used him to hurt the woman he loves the most.

Halfway through the kiss, Hedy suddenly thought of something, leaning back, staring at Preston with moist eyes,

You never wonder if Geen invited me to the restaurant, did you?" Tell me those things?"

She also prepared that black-tech camera.

Preston looked directly into her pupils, opened his thin lips, and asked her back, "Why don't you doubt that I slept with Geen //, several times a night?"

The two looked at each other and smiled.

Preston simply pressed Hedy directly on the sofa, and the kiss heated

1. up.

"Don't...don't be here..."

"Shh, keep your voice down, you'll wake up the grandparents and the servants."

"Preston...you don't...you bastard!"

"Love you bastard."

From the sofa to the bedroom, From downstairs to upstairs.

Preston completely dominates.

Hedy is falling apart.

Fortunately, beasts are not complete beasts, know how to control, and don't keep asking.

Hedy sat leaning against the head of the bed, fingertips playing with the black technology that left evidence of Geen's lying. Preston took one look and knew what was inside.

"Do you want to send it directly?" Preston wrapped his arms around her waist.

He once really regarded Geen as his younger sister and gave him a lot of help.

Since Geen chose to take this path that shouldn't be taken, he will not show mercy.

"If you send it directly, it will be cheaper for her." Hedy sneered, put down the black technology, and glanced at the Twitter interface.

Twitter is currently the number one hot search.

It was Freya who turned down all the work and starred in Hedy's debut for free.

The current hot search is the second,

It is Hedy who is going to cross over to become a director and make a science fiction movie.

The latter was not on the hot search, but thanks to Geen, it was on the hot search.

There are a lot of comments on Twitter.

Freya is too kind to Hedy, why did he turn down his job and play the leading role for free?" "It is estimated that Freya will lose a lot of money in this wave

Freya is really a noble person for Hedy and Preston, and it is life- saving again., and filming for free."

"Am I the only one who wonders if Hedy can make a sci-fi movie? Making a movie is different from figure skating...

Yeah, Hedy's strengths and other advantages are useless for making movies.

Hedy is a duck. It is a good thing that a director is willing to make a sci-fi movie. My sci-fi fans are crying!"

No matter what Hedy makes, I will definitely go to the cinema to see

Freya." "I also... hope Hedy is doing well. Thank you, Freya

Hedy raised an eyebrow.

She did send a tweet thanking Geen

[Hedy]@ Geen, are you there, why are you posting /Spring in front of me?
