

The Killer 271

Chapter 271 In front of the whole network, hand-tearing Geen's post //Spring, single-minded, means that spring is here and everything happens.

It means that when an animal is in estrus, it always wants to engage in mating.

Hedy thinks this word fits Geen very well

Netizens don't think so.

Hedy watched this tweet he posted with his own eyes, and the comments increased at a speed visible to the naked eye

"Ye Goddess Hedy, do you have something? Don't you know how to use your brain before tweeting?"

I'm a kindergarten teacher. If you don't know how to be grateful and polite, I don't mind teaching you."

Using such disgusting words to describe us Freya, I just wish you to be hit by a car when you go out/smile.'

"I've never seen such a vulgar quasi-rich wife like you!"

Almost all the comments scolded Hedy.

In everyone's eyes, Freya is gentle, kind, tough and powerful.

Rescuing Preston from the scene of the fire, hearing that Hedy was going to make a sci-fi film, the queen of the three golden actresses directly rejected all follow-up work, and starred in the heroine of the sci-fi film for free, just to help Hedy's new film create momentum... Isn't this not enough?

Isn't that affectionate enough?

Hedy, why on the Internet, use such ugly words to describe the angelic Freya! Fans of Freya flocked to the scene.

The comment with the highest number of likes is as follows,

"Are you sorry for Freya quitting all her jobs and acting as the heroine of your new work for free? Hurry up and hold a press conference to apologize to Freya and compensate Freya for her losses. Don't be ungrateful!"

Hedy Reply,

"First, I did not invite Geen to act as the heroine in my work. Second, there is no such thing as free.

If Geen's self-indulgence can be regarded as my fault, then I have to inform you of one thing.

In order to reply to your comment, I just suspended my operations in the stock market and lost hundreds of millions.

I hope that you, who are just and kind, can hold a press conference to apologize to me and compensate me hundreds of millions. Don't be ignorant of flattery.

The second comment was as follows,

"They are all girls, how can you describe Freya with such a vulgar and disgusting word as 'sexy!!'"

Hedy replied,

"I thought I was elegant enough, but you are so resistant, I It's not that you can't change it to 'sexy', 'hungry//thirst', 'lonely, empty, and want a man'."

Currently, the third comment is liked, "You really disappoint me, I want to take off my fan."

Hedy, "Let's go slowly."

Her personal exit undoubtedly added a layer of oil to the fire.

Under the surge of public sentiment, Twitter was paralyzed without accident.

Crystal got the news and contacted Geen immediately.

Her tone was angry and anxious, " Freya, that Hedy said on Twitter that you posted //Spring, everyone s colded you! Twitter is also down!"

Geen, who was resting in the manor with his eyes closed, opened his eyes.

She knew Hedy would do something.

Even waiting for Hedy's action to spread to her side.

For example, Hedy complained to Preston, and Preston called her again to question her.

But she never expected that Hedy chose this way.

Geen unhurriedly asked, "What exactly did she say?"

Twitter was paralyzed, and she couldn't see the relevant news.

Crystal, "I suddenly tweeted you out of nowhere, asking why you posted //chun in front of her, and the netizens defended you, and she even killed the netizens herself. Wait a minute, I'll send a screenshot to your phone

Ding dong.

Geen received relevant screenshots.

Seeing Hedy's rare exit in person, the corners of Geen's lips curled up in Susan's.

Hedy is... in a hurry.

But what's the use of worrying?

The restaurant she chose does not allow mobile phones, nor is it allowed to bring any photography and recording equipment.

They were even in a box without a third party.

Hedy is telling the truth, how many people are willing to believe her?

Crystal, "Although everyone is scolding Hedy, some people also suspect what you did, what, do you want public relations?" "

No." Geen chuckled, "When Twitter is fixed, I will play with her personally."

King Family Manor, master bedroom.

Hedy put down his phone because Twitter was down.

Preston's voice is magnetic, "What kind of science fiction film do you want to make?"

He may be able to help with suggestions.

After all, he had a dream that died halfway.

Hedy lowered his eyes and said calmly, "It's a very common science fiction. The script was found by director

Lew, and I'm only in charge of filming." Preston nodded, "Do you want me to teach you some photography skills?"

No, Lew will teach me, as long as you do your work—
Twitter has been fixed." A notification sound came from Hedy's phone.

Geen Ait her, sent a tweet

[Geen], @Hedy, I don't know what I did wrong, Ms. Ellis is going to use such nasty words about me.

Geen spoke out for the first time, and fans left the stage to comfort him.

[Hedy], @ Geen, what did you do, you don't know?

[Geen], @Hedy, if I was clear, I wouldn't be so confused.

[Hedy], @Geen, did you forget that you hinted to me that my fiancé Preston actually loves you?

Netizen,?

what's the situation?

[Geen], @Hedy, what are you talking about? Why do I not understand?

[Hedy], @Geen, you forgot, you lied to me that you slept with my fiancé Preston, multiple times a night?

Netizen,!

What a blast!

[Geen], @Hedy, how can you do this? Even if you don't believe me, you should believe me, how can you be so bloody!

Hedy no longer responds.

It is enough for the matter to get here, and it needs to be given time to ferment.

Just like an excellent movie, there must be enough foreshadowing to give the audience a hearty experience at critical moments.

Also dig a hole for Geen to jump into.

Hedy covered the quilt and turned off the light to sleep.

Geen thought Hedy had nothing to say.

She pursued the victory.

[Geen], @Hedy, I originally wanted Faye, but Faye shines on the ditch, since Ms. Ellis ignores my kindness and friendship and humiliates me in front of the public, then I don't want to be a persimmon.

I hope you can produce evidence that matches your statement, otherwise, see you in court.

This is the end of the network alignment.

The phrase "see you in court" has made many fans' scalps go

Freya is good, I love it!"

numb!

"Freya is brave to fly, we will always be together!"

"Childe King, look at how your fiancée bullied your savior!"

"Without evidence, the balance of public opinion tilted towards Geen.

Victory seemed imminent.

Geen was in a good mood and took a sip of the red wine.

Gwen, who had just returned to her natal home to visit her younger sister, walked in, held her mobile phone and said, "This Hedy is not your match, is she?"

She is not calm at all." "No matter how calm she is, she is just a blind girl in love. It's normal to always have doubts and suspicions." Geen stood with his chest folded, with a gentle smile revealing sinister calculations.

“As expected of the three golden actresses, she cleaned up Hedy as soon as she came back.” Gwen dimpled with a smile.

Chapter 272 Playing with the three gold actresses!

Gwen asked her sister, “Do you want to contact yours to make him believe you?”

“No, I guess he is very annoyed by Hedy’s questioning now. I will go again to disturb him. Why don’t you go.” Geen thought a little Abacus,

“When he asks why I didn’t contact him, I’ll tell him that for his reputation, I want to keep a distance from him.”

Gwen’s smile became brighter,

“My sister is really getting better and better, one is A fiancée who is suspicious and suspicious, and a benefactor who is understanding and understanding, if I were yours, I would wish to have you executed on the spot tonight!”

Geen blushed.

-The sun rises quietly.

After Hedy woke up, he stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling window, picked up his mobile phone, and checked the situation on the Internet.

Everything is as she expected.

After a night of fermenting, the matter became very noisy. Among the top 10 hot searched events, she and Geen’s related incidents accounted for six, which is even more exaggerated than the last four.

Netizens’ comments were also as she expected. “It’s different from

Mona last time. This time, everyone saw that Hedy scolded people first, right?”

Yes, it’s so funny to pretend to be dead after slandering others!”

I really feel sorry for Freya, A three-time gold actress is so kind to the new director, but the new director treats her like this!”

“Boycott Hedy’s debut sci-fi film!” ”

Yes! Boycott Hedy’s first sci-fi film, let her lose everything and lose all her face!”

Hedy looked calm.

I sigh again in my heart, Geen is really a good person.

He took the initiative to put his face in front of her without saying anything, and even helped her promote the popularity of science fiction films.

“Don’t expose the video?” Preston hugged Hedy from behind.

“There is still room for improvement in this matter.” Hedy is not in a hurry, “Next, Geen should find a way to spread the popularity of this matter to the maximum, and the matter of my sci-fi film will also expand accordingly.

With her Help me spread the word, I can save a lot of time and money.”

Preston raised his eyebrows, “ Does Geen know that she has been manipulated by you?”

Hedy looked serious, “Unfortunately, her IQ is low.”

Man With a low smile, he meant something, “I’m going to work.”

Hedy understood, turned around and stood on tiptoe to give her red lips.

With the parting kiss, the man left contentedly.

Hedy also left the manor and went to find director Lew by car to learn the skills needed for filming.

Lew knew about Hedy and Geen’s public confrontation on Twitter last night.

But he didn’t ask, and taught Hedy how to shoot a movie with a calm expression.

“In my personal opinion, a qualified director needs at least one of three characteristics.”

First, the grasp of color, this color includes clothing color, object color, background color and light effect.” ”

Other Second, the grasp of the performance, knowing what kind of state the actors are showing, is the most suitable for the movie you want to shoot.” “Third, the grasp of the script, if you can clearly know how to shoot the best story, then this A movie has a soul.”

After hearing this, Hedy nodded, “I have the first two.”

The experience of oil painting and American painting made her deeply familiar with the use of color. The experience of figure skating made her more specialized in how to perform.

But in terms of script grasp, she is a little lacking.

She has no experience acting or filming feature-length stories.

“The first two are enough for you to complete a relatively good movie. Let me teach you the basic skills.”
Lew demonstrated the skills to Hedy.

Hedy followed suit.

-Three days passed in the blink of an eye.

In the past three days, Hedy has been learning to shoot with Lew. She is naturally smart and savvy, and she has already been able to shoot a decent short story.

Geen wasn't idle either.

After sending Hedy a lawyer's letter in a decent manner, he accepted five online interviews, three paper media interviews, and will go on TV tonight to accept an interview on a talk show.

With her deliberate publicity, more and more people know about Hedy's "smearing" of her.

There is also growing resistance to Hedy's debut sci-fi film.

Hedy ignored it.

That night, Hedy hugged Little Thirteen and leaned on the sofa to watch the TV interview on time.

On TV, Geen is wearing a long white dress with a strong drape, sitting in a ladylike posture, with a gentle and non-aggressive face.

When the host asked about Hedy from a neutral and respectable perspective.

Geen's eyes were lonely, and his expression was a little sad. After a moment of silence, he regained his spirits and slowly replied, "At that time, I really wanted to help her make a science fiction film, but I didn't expect... If she couldn't produce evidence, I think, I will take up the weapon of the law to defend myself."

This whole set of performances, including Hedy, thinks it is very good.

Geen is indeed a real three gold actress.

Guessing that the matter was almost fermented, Hedy turned on the phone with a blank expression, and after three days, brought video evidence, and posted a new Twitter with true feelings.

[Hedy], Ah, I finally found the evidence. @Geen

As soon as the video came out, it shocked the whole Internet!

The shot begins with Geen's manager, Crystal, inviting her to dinner on "Wandering Island".

Afterwards, Hedy entered the box, and Geen said that he and Preston had sex several times a night.

He

also said that he just made a small mistake and was willing to act as the heroine in Hedy's new film for free as compensation.

In the end, bitch hints that Preston likes her.

Netizens petrified.

At first, the fans didn't believe it,

"This is not Hedy's AI face-changing video?"

The professional replied,

"I am a ten-year-old fan of Freya, and I just identified it with software. This video does not use AI face-changing. It's real Freya ...I'm numb.....If you don't believe me, you can identify it yourself..."

A stone stirred up thousands of waves.

"Damn it! The person in the video is really Freya?"

"I can't believe it in my dreams, Geen has such a face behind his back!"

"She is still pretending to be innocent on Twitter... and still talking to Hedy See you in court..."

"Still acting pitiful in the TV interview!"

"Geen took precautions and picked a 'wandering island', but Hedy had a black-tech camera!"

Some netizens also noticed something unusual,

"Something is wrong? The video watermark that Hedy broke out, why is it 'Stay tuned for the sci-fi movie "Lost"?"

Videos generally have watermarks, which are used to mark the author or the starting website to avoid being stolen and used for fraudulent use.

Hedy is outrageous.

She made a dynamic watermark, a translucent "Stay tuned for the sci-fi movie "Lost"" bumping around in the video.

The dynamic watermark is not easy to erase and cut off. As long as people see this evidence video, they will definitely see Hedy promoting his sci-fi movie.

Another netizen said weakly,

"My family, look at the wording of Hedy's Twitter, the 'ah' in 'Ah, I finally found the evidence', isn't it a bit weird?" With Hedy's cold temper, It is impossible to type out an "ah" as a modal particle on the Internet.

"It feels very perfunctory...I have already imagined her with a face that is all over the world, and she typed without emotion..."

Pfft! Why is she perfunctory? If she finally found it, shouldn't she be very excited?"

"She is not excited, it means she has evidence in her hand, so don't panic..."

I don't understand, since there is evidence, why didn't you send it earlier? Why have you been scolded for so many days?"

Think about that outrageous Watermark, maybe, she wants to squeeze out the value of Geen?"

"What?"

"I'll try to analyze it for netizens. The first step is that Hedy knew that Geen was not a good person, so he agreed to the appointment and recorded the evidence with black technology."

Part 2 In the second step, Hedy knew that Geen wanted to provoke her to suspect Childe King, so he decided to use his tricks and acted with Geen, and played with each other."

The third step, Hedy wanted to clean up Geen, but the evidence was thrown out directly, which could only expose Geen's back. There was a wave in the show, and Geen couldn't reveal more of his true colors.

So, Hedy questioned Geen publicly and gave Geen space to express himself."

"The fourth step, Hedy pretended to be anxious to break the defense, tearing up netizens, giving Geen an illusion, making Geen Confidently intensify."

"Step 5, take it easy and let things develop, the more famous Geen makes things, the more famous she is going to make science-fiction movies."

Step 6, when the time is ripe, release evidence Video, video watermark to promote sci-fi film."

"Step 7, everyone inside and outside the circle knows that she is going to make the sci-fi film "Lost". With this level of fame, I preliminarily estimate that Hedy saved at least 50 million for publicity.

After reading the well-founded analysis, netizens were terrified.

"That is to say, Geen was manipulated by Hedy from the very beginning?"

"But Geen didn't know that he was manipulated, and he walked forward with confidence, but he didn't know that it was the path that Hedy had arranged?" "

She was like A small marionette on a string, above the string is Hedy's casually moving hand." "

The upstairs is amazing, it has a sense of picture!"

At this moment, I just want to say for Geen, Don't squeeze it, I There's really not a single drop left...'

Chapter 273 Face as Big as a Basin Version 2.0

Hedy's operation is as fierce as a tiger. Station C, Twitter, and all news websites related to entertainment sites have all won the hot searches.

The self-media and personal bloggers who are chasing hot spots are all working overtime to write the manuscript of this matter.

Geen came out of the studio and met Crystal's panicked expression.

"What's going on, why are you in such a panic?" Geen felt a little amused.

She can't bring her mobile phone into the studio, and she doesn't know what's going on on the Internet.

"Check Twitter yourself." Crystal handed her Geen's phone.

Geen smiled and unlocked the phone with his fingerprint, logged into Twitter, and then his smile froze, his eyes widened, bigger and colder, colder and more ruthless.

She held the phone tightly, wishing she could smash it into pieces!

Buzz-

Gwen called.

Geen walked to the VIP lounge and chose to connect.

The moment the connection was made, Gwen reprimanded her head and face,

"Sister, you were slapped by Hedy! She knew what you wanted to do from the beginning! Didn't you notice that her brooch is a video camera?" Geen gritted his teeth, "The brooch is so small, how do

I know Is there a camera inside?"

Gwen, "I just consulted with a lawyer, you may be detained for a few days... Hedy is the fiancée of the King Family, and the incident is so big on the Internet, the police will not sit idly by." Geen said nothing Green viciousness appeared on the aggressive face, "I know, but Hedy has to go in too! She obviously has evidence, but she keeps playing me, committing the crime of deliberately provoking trouble!" Gwen was silent for a moment, and asked her,

Hedy has You spread rumors to discredit her, do you have any evidence that she deliberately provoked trouble? She specifically said on Twitter that she 'finally' found the evidence." Geen,

Gwen.

'Don't underestimate Hedy, she This time, you can only be sold by her, and you have to count the money for her.'

Bang!

Geen turned into a “desktop cleaning master”, swept everything off the table, took a big breath, and burst into tears.

She didn’t dare to think about what she would think of her when she learned about this!

Hearing her sister’s sobbing, Gwen was also very distressed.

She said, “At this point, we can only resort to risky tactics, make mistakes and make mistakes, and let the public know that you really had sex/relationship with Preston. Although Hedy claimed that you cheated her, you were the one who shared the room with Preston that night., What happened, Hedy doesn’t know, neither does the outside world.

Preston ruined your innocence, can you not marry you? As far as I know, the old antiques of the King Family’s board of directors are very fond of you.”

Geen panicked, “No! You will hate me! Even if I marry in, you will ignore me!”

Gwen hates iron and steel, “Do you want to be his wife and be resented by him, or do you want to be his wife and be directly rejected by him?” Resentment?

What’s more, if you can marry Preston, there will be time for him to change his mind?”

Geen stopped crying, and his heart moved.

Yes, as long as I can marry.

Gwen, “Before I called you, I discussed with my parents and decided that my mother would announce the fake news.” Geen,” Gwen, “In order to leave a way out I have married into the King Family, so it is inconvenient to speak out for you to discredit the King Family.

Why?”

Dad still has to do business with the King Family, and it is even more inconvenient to speak up.

Only the mother’s perspective is the best. She is just an innocent. mother who loves her daughter’s loss of innocence. What’s wrong her?

with

If the King Family wants to ask, I will say that I can’t stop my mother, and my father can’t stop my mother. It has nothing to do with us. If the King Family asks you, just say that you don’t know. You had a fever that day, Mom told you everything after waking up.”

Geen wiped away his tears and calmed down, “Okay.”

This is a seamless plan.

Everyone is so pure and innocent.

It's just that under this ice-clear jade, there is a foul-smelling dirty soul and greedy desire flowing.

Bang bang bang!

The police came knocking on the door and took Geen away .

—Paparazzi

have sensitive ears. Before

Geen got off the talk show, they had already set up their cameras and squatted nearby, hoping to capture the hottest news.

Seeing Geen being taken into the police car, the paparazzi were excited and quickly sent the photos or videos they took to the editor.

copy

The copy editor writes the manuscript and immediately uploads it to the Internet.

The network was disturbed by the trend.

“Three gold actresses fell into the altar, and were taken away by the police car as soon as they left the show [with pictures]”

A video, showing you the treacherous and surging battle of wealthy families”

“The farce is finally over, Hedy may become the biggest winner”.

“Losing Madam broke up again, talking about how many defeated Hedy had. ”

Even the owner of the “Wandering Island” restaurant issued a statement,

“Dogs and bitches are not allowed in.”

The owner acted uniquely and hated Geen for using his restaurant as a tool to frame Hedy.

Although Hedy

also violated the rules, considering that this matter is rather special, Hedy also had no choice but to forgive.

Geen 's diehard fans are going crazy, they have no position to engage in Hedy, do I have no position to engage in you?

Immediately leave a message, “Who are you calling a bitch? Do you believe us %¥#%##.”

Boss, “? Did I name your idol by name? Why are you so anxious? Do you think Geen is a bitch? Son?”

The fans fell silent.

At the same time, Hedy Twitter fans grew to 20 million.

While marveling at Hedy's methods, everyone really looked forward to the sci-fi movie "Lost".

The movie has left an indelible mark on the hearts of the masses before it even started shooting.

Geen's Twitter followers are crazy.

It's just that her fan base is too huge, almost 200 million, and it won't hurt her bones.

What's more, there are still many fans who don't give up and are waiting for the reversal later.

When

Geen fans were quiet, Hedy fans finally had a chance to surface.

"Oh my god, can my comments finally see the light of day again?"

Geen 's fans are like locusts crossing the border, they are overwhelmed in an organized manner, and we have no chance to breathe." "

Being pushed in the front row The message will always be a message from Geen 's fans."

"It's so uncomfortable to be bullied with your mouth covered!"

Even if you are bullied, I have to shout out, I will always believe in Ye Goddess Hedy!" "

Yes, Goddess Hedy rushes, "Lost" will definitely be great!"

Seeing these messages, Hedy's eyes flashed.

She didn't bother to gather a group.

These people are willing to stay for her, and stand up to speak for her every time she is discredited.

Hedy randomly clicks on one of the fan's homepages, and he can see that there are many messages "greeted" by Geen fans on the TA's homepage.

Even so, TA is still supporting her

"I'm very touched, do you really want to stand up and protect them?" Preston chuckled

"No." Hedy

shook his head, and his red lips parted slightly. "In this circle, strength is the greatest protection for fans

After hearing this, Preston sighed, "If all the stars had your awareness, the entertainment industry wouldn't be what it is now"

Dawn

With a haggard look, Joey came to the police station

"I want to call the police Preston raped my daughter Geen while she had a fever!" she said

Chapter 274 Playing in the palm of your hand Version 2.0 After

Joey finished speaking, the police station fell into a deathly silence.

Everyone stopped what they were doing, and their brains digested the amount of information in this sentence.

The police uncles haven't finished digesting it yet, and the navy army who waited all night will come out, spreading the news that Preston, the heir to the richest family, took advantage of the danger and ruined the innocence of the three golden actresses

Geen. They said that some time ago, Geen was too dedicated to filming, so he soaked in the water for a long time, and got a bad cold that day.

In the evening, Preston was a guest for dinner, and after the meal, Geen hoped that Preston, as an older brother, would accompany her for a while.

Accompany, accompany to bed.

Geen's mother, Joey, said, "Geen's limbs were weak, his body was weak, and his mind was not clear. How could he push away a strong and strong adult man?"

I wanted Preston to be responsible for Geen, but Geen said it was just a mistake. Let me forget it as soon as possible and don't destroy the relationship between Preston and Hedy.

I agree.

But what did Preston do?

What did Hedy do?

My daughter is a victim!

She wants to maintain only Preston and Hedy's relationship from beginning to end And reputation.

Hedy didn't know what to do, so he bit back.

Preston kept his mouth shut all the time and ignored her.

I protect my daughter. From today onwards, even if I go up the mountain of swords and go down into the sea of flames, I will also seek my daughter's innocence! Afterwards, robots also uploaded several photos

They are the haggard Joey, and the snapshot of Joey entering the police station.

The arranged hot searches on Twitter also reached the top on time and were pushed to the mobile phones of all users.

The majority of netizens just woke up, they just wanted to turn off the alarm clock or check the time, and then they were shocked.

“Damn! Fuck! Fuck!!

“Big reversal! Big reversal! Big reversal!!”

“The heir of a thousand-year-old rich family, taking advantage of his savior’s illness, raped his savior... so scary!”

Sure enough Men don’t have a good thing! This is too wretched and downright!”

Geen ‘s fans broke down,

“I firmly believe that things will be reversed, but I didn’t expect this reversal to be so cruel!”

“I’m going to kill Preston ahhh!”

“If I were in front of Freya, I would definitely give Freya a hug and tell her that I will protect her forever!”

If it weren’t for Freya ‘s mother desperately exposing us, we haven’t been kept in the dark!”

“God Ah, save Freya!”

“Rape is a criminal offense, and Preston will be sentenced to at least three to ten years in prison!”

“1

If Preston goes to jail, the King Family will definitely take revenge on Mrs. Hua, I’m so angry My body is shaking!”

“I hope the law can give justice to Freya ‘s family!”

However, some netizens remained sober, “I’m gossiping, and I don’t want to be slapped in the face repeatedly. I just want to say, is there any evidence?”

“Do you have evidence?” The police station, the female policeman. also asked

Joey in a gentle voice.

Of course, the police have to follow the evidence when handling a case, and it is not possible to convict someone with just a word of mouth.

Joey held the water that the police kindly poured her, and his voice was full of weakness, “What kind of evidence do you want?”

The female policeman, “After the victim is raped, report the crime as soon as possible. The hospital conducts a detailed examination to find evidence of semen/fluid, hair, etc.

Your daughter..."

Joey's face turned pale, "My daughter is kind-hearted, she didn't report the crime and she cleaned her body a long time ago, and couldn't find the things in your mouth

The female policeman recorded it, and then asked, "Are there any belongings left by the man at the scene?"

Joey shook his head.

The policewoman paused, then turned to look at her colleagues

The colleague replied, "Ms., if there is no conclusive evidence, we will not be able to file a case, and Mr. King will not be convicted."

Joey stood up and said urgently, "Comrade police, he really bullied my daughter, if you If you don't help me, no one can help me!"

"We understand your feelings, but please understand our work, we can't exercise the power given to us by the law and the people because of a sentence without evidence."

Joey can only leave.

At the same time, the network updated Joey 's reporting situation.

"The latest news is that Preston is not guilty of rape.

Geen 's mother said that after Geen was raped, he did not report the crime immediately and washed his body without leaving any evidence." "

To be honest, since there is no evidence, then I'm not taking sides."

"Geen and Geen 's mother aren't lying, are they?"

As soon as these words came out, Geen 's fans were furious.

"No girl will joke about her innocence!"

"Please watch your words!"

"Do you have a conscience?"

"Are there no female relatives around you? Can you put yourself in their shoes?"

Hedy Picking up the phone, what I saw was this chaotic scene.

She handed the phone to Preston who was about to go out.

After reading it, Preston's expression didn't fluctuate, and he didn't feel surprised at all.

“You’re such a mess.” Hedy’s voice was cold, but there was a hint of schadenfreude in his eyes.

“You don’t love me anymore.” Preston sighed, “You don’t even care about me.” “I do Didn’t you realize that I only ate a piece of bread in the morning?” Hedy retorted.

Preston, “When you were eating bread, you didn’t see Twitter on your mobile phone.”

Hedy was confident, “Who said that, I saw it before eating, so don’t talk nonsense if you don’t have evidence.”

Preston, “...”

He bowed his head at her collagen On a face full of protein, he took a punitive bite, “Spoiled? Huh?”

Hiss.” Hedy rubbed his face and leaned back, “Are you a dog?”

Preston, “Yes, and it’s still Thai Dee, don’t you feel it?”

Hedy,

In terms of shamelessness, Preston is better.

The man kissed the red-faced girl’s small mouth, and happily went to work.

Hedy tidied up and went to the studio to learn how to shoot with Lew.

Grandma came over with a worried expression, “Daughter-in-law grandson,...

Rape or something is very heavy for an innocent man, and it will ruin a lot of things.

“Grandma doesn’t need to be nervous, he has countermeasures.” Hedy smiled reassuringly.

This can be seen from Preston’s unsurprising reaction.

-Five

days passed by.

Preston’s stock continued to fall, and Preston’s reputation continued to deteriorate.

Joey is not idle.

She accepted 12 online interviews and 6 paper media interviews, causing a bigger commotion than Hedy tearing up

Geen. Geen’s sister Gwen said she didn’t know.

Geen’s father, Rawson, said that he had persuaded his wife, but she insisted on going her own way.

Thinking that the matter was almost fermented, Preston took a sip of coffee, took out his mobile phone with a flat expression, edited the video and sent it to Twitter with real feelings.

[Preston], Oh, I finally found the evidence.

The video watermark comes from the website of a foreign orphanage for the deaf, which has a time difference with the USA.

When USA is night, they happen to be daytime. On the night with Geen, Preston stayed up all night, took a notebook to the children in the orphanage, and made live video broadcasts in sign language.

In the live video, the man is wearing an ascetic white shirt, and his slender fingers are gesticulating words one by one in mid-air.

At the other end of the camera, children of different skin colors smiled innocently and responded with sign language.

The netizen was elegant and easy-going,

"I knew things would turn around!"

"Childe King didn't touch Geen at all, he spent the whole night consoling the deaf children in the orphanage!"

"What's going on? One Geen, one Geen Mom, can you stop trying to smear?"

"The mother and daughter are garbage bags, so how can they pretend to be better than the other?" "

Fortunately, Childe King finally found the certificate... Wait a minute, the prefix 'oh 'What's going on? This isn't Childe King's style, is it?"

"Where's Sherlock Holmes from last time? Let me analyze it quickly!"

Holmes is here, in one sentence,

Hedy manipulated Geen and played with Geen in his hands, Childe King manipulated Joey, played Joey in his hands, they both predicted each other's thoughts."

Hedy wants to promote the movie, Childe King dragged on for so many days, what is he trying to do?"

It seems that he has nothing Picture, only picture of Hedy, if he wants to make Hedy sad, he will make him sad."

"Thank you! Performance CP fans are already sweet!"

Chapter 275

For the last time,

Joey was taken away by the police.

According to the “Criminal Law“, whoever fabricates facts and falsely accuses others with the intention of causing others to be subject to criminal investigation, if the circumstances are serious, shall be sentenced to fixed-term imprisonment of not more than three years, criminal detention or public surveillance.

If serious consequences are caused, the offender shall be sentenced to fixed-term imprisonment of not less than three years but not more than ten years.

For the crimes Joey has committed now, he has been sentenced to less than ten years, but it is inevitable that he will leave a criminal record in prison.

It depends on how Preston sued.

Joey meets

Geen at the police station. Both were temporarily imprisoned here for the same crime.

The Geen people were all dumbfounded, they didn’t expect their mother to come in first before they went out.

What about the plan that was said to be “seamless“?

Joey’s face was full of embarrassment and shame.

She called Rawson, “Husband, I can’t go to jail, and neither can my daughter!”

Who is she, and who is her daughter?

How could the mother and daughter be imprisoned in the detention center with such noble identities? Where does this put their faces?

“I know, I’m going to settle with Preston now!” Rawson’s face darkened.

If his daughter’s wife is in jail, his face will not look good!

He rushed to King Family Group.

Preston met.

Rawson’s tone was tinged with anger, and he pre-empted, “Preston, since you have evidence, why didn’t you show it earlier!”

With Preston’s IQ, it is impossible for the incident to happen for so many days, and he can’t remember that he has video evidence.

Preston did it on purpose!

Deliberately let his wife make the biggest fuss, and then show the evidence, putting his wife in a desperate situation!

Preston leaned back on the chair and looked straight at Rawson,

“Don’t you think, now you should blame your wife for framing me, and your daughter for framing my fiancée?”

The sarcasm in the deep and narrow eyes, Rawson’s angry expression froze.

With a flash in his eyes, he said disapprovingly, “It was just a nonsense of women. You are a big man, what do you care about with women?”

” Aiden.” Preston said two words with thin lips.

“Childe King.” Aiden came in through the side door.

“Go, take two women to the police station, and say that Rawson, the chairman of the Hua Group, raped them while they were drunk.” Preston’s voice was light and calm.

“Yes!” Aiden nodded.

“Preston, what are you doing!” Rawson’s eyes widened,

“If this kind of scandal happens to me, my company, my stock market, and my reputation will all plummet!”

Don’t be nervous, it’s just a ‘nonsense’, and you Men, they are older than me, so they don’t have such a big heart, right?” Preston chuckled,

“Let them spread rumors like your wife for five days, and I’ll forgive your wife and daughter—but I’m afraid that you will support me. But these five days, what do you think?”

“Preston!” Rawson’s face was livid.

Of course he couldn’t last five days! The day after the public opinion appeared, he was about to be impeached by that difficult board of directors!

Even Preston has been pressured by the King Family board of directors in the past five days.

In addition to the various partners and stock markets who were persuaded to quit by rape, it is conservatively estimated that in just five days, the King Family lost at least 100 billion!

Too.

“Rape” is a disaster for any man of social status.

Joey pierced the sky.

Preston held up the sky.

Just because he was calm, he couldn’t forget that he really experienced a disaster.

“I apologize to you on their behalf.” Rawson knew that laying down and begging Preston was his only way out.

“They? You picked yourself pretty clean.” Preston crossed his legs, and the sarcasm in his eyes deepened. For him, Rawson, there are three phases.

Before his father died, Rawson considered him his future son-in-law.

After his father died, Rawson saw that his uncle's family was going to succeed in seizing power, and Rawson regarded him as a useless person.

The uncle failed to seize power, and after he came to power, Rawson regarded him as his future son-in-law

Everyone, up and down, wants something from the King Family.

So much so that when he spent the night with Geen that night, he thought that he might make a fuss about men and women living in the same room, so he simply opened a transoceanic live video broadcast as a later way.

He praised the nobility of human nature, but he would not underestimate the inferiority of human nature.

–He tried to be kind, but made them forget how much he weighed.

“Preston, do you really want them to go to jail?” Rawson's expression became even uglier.

“Otherwise?” Preston asked back, without the intention of retreating, and even gently closed his eyes to rest.

The sunshine spread over his body, adding a touch of alienation that mortals can't touch to that handsome face like a god.

Rawson took a step forward and asked word by word, “Have you forgotten who was the one who took you out of the fire scene step by step?”

Here it comes again.

Aiden next to him showed impatience in his eyes.

Over the years, whenever Rawson encountered something he couldn't solve, he would push it on Childe King.

If Childe King refuses, Rawson will mention “life-saving grace” and threaten Childe King.

Like a stubborn leech, it clings to Childe King, drawing the blood of Childe King and King Family to fill his stomach.

“If I forgot, you should be begging on the street now instead of standing in front of me and questioning me shamelessly.” Preston slowly opened his eyes, the eyes were no longer impatiently gentle, but cold, as if staring at ants.

He's helped too much, too many times.

Rawson was provoked by the look.

He faltered and refused to admit defeat, "Geen saved your life. If you didn't have this life, you wouldn't be able to sit where you are now! Aren't you afraid that others will accuse you of being cold-blooded and heartless!"

Preston A low smile came out from the nose, with serious eyes, "Then I have to tell you one thing, Hedy is also my life, and I can sacrifice my own life for this life, let alone a few accusations.

As early as when he fell off the cliff with Hedy in his arms, it had already been confirmed.

Thinking of the idiot Ice Cube, the man lowered his eyes, his thin lips, Susan's, lifted up, and the cold and majestic aura softened a lot.

Rawson's face is incredible!

Preston can do this for Hedy!

He's crazy!

"One last time, Preston, this is the last time." Rawson said feebly, "Spare them off, don't hold them accountable, and clean up with you."

Geen and Joey came out.

All the hot searches about this matter have been disposed of.

Joey said that he was confused, wanted to marry his daughter to Preston, deceived his daughter, and made her mistakenly think that he was being raped by Preston.

She is sorry for Preston and the troubles caused to law enforcement officers. She is also sorry and is willing to donate one million to charity organizations.

I also hope that everyone can just scold her and don't blame Geen, Geen is innocent.

Geen said,

"No matter what purpose my mother cheated on me, I have brought trouble to everyone. I am willing to accept everyone's criticism.

At the same time, I hope everyone will not blame my mother. I am willing to bear everything.

Chapter 276,

the door is facing each other. Geen is also going to shoot a sci-fi film.

Geen and Joey have a mother-daughter relationship. It is uncertain whether the majority of netizens will be moved. Geen's hundreds of millions of fans are touched.

“I didn’t expect that the root of everything was Freya’s mother...”

“|

Freya’s mother killed Freya, and also Hedy and Childe King...”

Freya is so brave, she doesn’t want her mother to be scolded, but she is taking the initiative to take the blame. Well, I love her gentleness so much!”

“I hope Freya’s mother won’t lie to Freya in the future, alas.”

They mobilized in an organized way, criticized in an organized way, and praised in an organized way.

The incident actually confused them, the fans.

After that, it was a thriving scene again, as if nothing had happened.

The only thing that has changed is that when passers—by mention Geen- again, they won’t all describe her with praise.

Hedy’s popularity has improved a lot

I feel that she is not worthy of Preston’s voice, which has been cut down a lot compared to before.

That afternoon.

Hedy was learning how to take long shots with Lew when Preston got a call.

“I’m going abroad for a few months, and I’ll get on the plane soon.” His voice was a bit reluctant..

With a twinkle in Hedy’s eyes, he walked to a quiet corner, “Why?”

Preston, “Business trip.

Hedy pursed his lips, “I want to be honest.”

If this man is on a business trip, he will tell her in advance, and he won’t be so sudden.

Preston, “Suddenly something happened to the foreign branch.”

Hedy took a breath and said coldly, “Hang up.”

If you don’t want to tell the truth, then hang up.

Preston had no choice but to tell the truth, “It has been delayed for five days, and the loss is a lot. The board of directors is not happy. I will go abroad to discuss some business and make up for it.” Hedy squeezed the hand hanging by his leg, and then let go,

Actually, you don’t have to delay for so many days.”

Preston chuckled, "If you don't delay for so many days, you won't be able to draw a line with the company, and you won't be able to make the board give up." The theory is simple.

Joey sued him for rape today, and he followed up to refute the rumors, King Family will have nothing to lose.

If the damage caused is not large, it can be ignored by the board of directors as a "small problem", and it really becomes a "little nonsense" in Rawson's mouth. If it drags on for five days, things will get bigger, losses will get bigger, and the severity will increase.

The board couldn't ignore it, and Rawson was out of position.

However, Preston's situation is dangerous.

This move is to injure the enemy one thousand and self-injury eight hundred.

Otherwise, Preston would not have gone abroad in such a hurry.

"I see, I wish you all the best..." Hedy paused suddenly.

She wanted to say "bon voyage".

But some people say that you can't say "bon voyage" to people who fly.

Because the two stages of take-off and landing of the aircraft require headwinds, tailwinds are not a good word.

She changed her words, her voice was very soft, "Bon trip."

The man paused for a moment, then said softly, "Wait for me to come back."

She nodded, "Yes."

The phone hung up.

Hedy lowered his head to the camera, taking pictures frame by frame.

The transnational plane raised its head into the sky, wrapped in pieces of missing.

"Hedy, your learning ability is a bit amazing, and you have your own ideas when capturing the camera. What's that word called, yes, spirituality." Lew stepped on his slippers and came over, amazed.

Came

Hedy was not in a good mood, and said "um" without further words.

Lew didn't pay attention, and said, "You can start filming. You are in charge of filming, and I am in charge of editing. We will learn the rest of the skills while filming." He remembered that Hedy told him that the film should be shot as soon as possible the better.

Although it was a bit hasty, but with him helping to edit the film and control the quality, the finished product will not be too bad.

It's a big deal to shoot a bad shot a few more times.

Hedy nodded.

Lew, "So, have you found a good actor?"

Hedy, "I'm the lead actor."

Lew, "Am I so stupid? I directed and acted myself, or is she the lead actress?"

Hedy stopped what she was doing and stood up straight Look at him, "Yeah."

A birthday present for Preston, of course, would make more sense if she starred in it herself.

Lew, "Okay, what about supporting roles?"

Hedy, "I've chosen."

Knowing that she was going to make a sci-fi film, three old friends contacted her. They are Roger, Teresa and Renly who participated in the love variety show together.

Roger Teresa's recent love period is an actor with good acting skills.

When it comes to remuneration, the two said they don't need money.

Hedy is their matchmaker.

If it wasn't for Hedy's investigation of the "wood shredder corpse case", they really might not be able to pierce through the window paper and successfully hold hands.

Renly said that she is not very good at acting, but she can sing the theme song and ending song of "Lost".

Hedy replied that she wrote the theme song and the ending song.

Renly is pitiful, "If you don't sing the theme song, it's fine to give an episode or a promotional song. I just want to gain popularity. It would be even better if you can give me a cannon fodder role."

Actually Renly In the singing circle, there is no need to rub anyone's popularity.

He just thinks that Hedy is worth making as a friend, and Roger Teresa is also coming, so he is unwilling to be lonely.

The entertainment industry is a vanity fair, and it is very difficult and comfortable to be able to coexist with so many people who don't care about you at the same time.

As for this, Hedy had no choice but to agree.

Lew, "Then get ready to prepare the makeup for the official announcement, and I will go to the contact person to set up the scene."

"Lost" is a science fiction film, and there are many scenes that need to be set up in advance.

-Flower

's Manor. After

Geen was picked up by his family, he never went out.

Looking at the makeup photos of Hedy, Roger, and Teresa posted on Twitter, Geen had a sullen expression on his unpainted face.

Many netizens are looking forward to the release of "Lost".

She made up her mind and dialed the number of her manager, Crystal .

Crystal, "Ancestor, you are finally willing to contact me, what should I say, do you want me to accept the script for you?"

Geen hugged his right arm with his left hand, and said calmly, "I want to make a science fiction film."

Crystal, "What did you say?"

Geen, "I want to be the same as Ms. Ellis, to be a director and make science fiction films."

Crystal, "No, don't be too hard on yourself, why are you suddenly..."

Geen, "It's not too sudden, you know, I've been I plan to become a director in the future, and then direct and act on my own, and I have been learning shooting skills from major directors intermittently."

Some actors can only be actors, and the upper limit is various actor and actress.

And some actors, after becoming famous, try to be directors, stand on a higher ground, achieve more brilliant achievements, and have more voice. The path

Geen arranged for himself was the latter.

Crystal. "But didn't you say that after you are at least 30 years old, you will become a director after you have settled down?"

Geen's voice was gentle, but his eyes were cold, "Ms. Ellis can direct and act on her own, and I want to try it too. Anything is possible, isn't it?"

Hedy wanted to make a sci-fi film, and she made a sci-fi film.

No reason, just to tell everyone.

What she lost in Hedy.

Get it back from Hedy!

Chapter 277 Geen 's secret

Geen has a firm attitude towards the target movie, so Crystal had no choice but to contact relevant personnel to make a plan for what to do in the future.

In a few days, Geen was going to be a director, and rumors about making a sci-fi film spread in the circle.

Lew also got the news.

When Hedy finished shooting a scene, he raised his voice, "My friend told me that Geen is going to make a science fiction movie."

Roger was stunned for a moment, "Didn't she say that she would make movies after she was thirty? Film ed, or a sci-fi movie?"

Hedy glanced at the script and said calmly, "She wants to compete with me."

Geen likes Preston, Preston likes her, and she wants to make a sci-fi movie.

So Geen also wants to make a science fiction film, the purpose is to tell everyone indirectly, Geen is better than Hedy.

At the same time, I also want to regain the lost place and face in her.

"I didn't expect the three golden actresses to be this kind of person." Teresa shook her head.

She had a good impression of Geen. "Besides, her agent, Crystal, is asking around about our progress, and wants to hit the schedule with us and release it together." Lew shrugged.

The schedule of movie releases is very particular.

Generally speaking, everyone will try to avoid showing movies of the same genre as much as possible.

For example, if there is an adventure-themed movie this month, I will find a way to change the schedule for the other one.

For one thing, it is to prevent audiences from watching another movie after watching this kind of movie.

Secondly, it is “it’s not scary to bump into a shirt, it’s embarrassing whoever is ugly”.

But Geen didn’t think so, she bumped into Hedy, full of hostility.

“Then let’s show it together.” There was no fluctuation on Hedy’s delicate face.

“Are you really going to hit the schedule?” Roger thought Hedy would change the schedule, and avoided

Geen. “Won’t it be a waste of all her hard work if I don’t slap the face that came to your door?” Hedy sneered.

“Enough Goddess Hedy style.” Teresa gave a thumbs up.

-The school season is here.

Hedy had a simple meal with classmates and friends outside the University of Finance and Economics, and found the principal Season.

“Ask for leave again, right?” Season knew that Hedy was going to make a sci-fi film.

“Well, it will take longer this time.” Hedy nodded.

“This is the final exam paper for the first half semester of your department’s freshman year. I think the score is for the holiday.” Season handed Hedy the exam paper he had prepared in advance.

The only sound left in the principal’s room was the sound of the nib rubbing against the test paper.

After a while, Hedy handed the test paper to Season .

Season held the test paper in his left hand and the answer in his right hand. After comparing the left and right sides, the corners of his mouth almost cracked behind his ears.

Another perfect score!

Hedy taught the follow-up courses by himself at home!

He really deserves to be a genius scholar!

Feeling that the smile was too flamboyant, the principal pretended to cough lowly, put down the test paper pretending to be nonchalant, and lazily said ,

“Okay, let’s go, it’s approved for the holiday.”

Hedy left.

-Seven

days later, Geen sent a Twitter, officially announcing his entry into the director world, and won the number one trending search.

[Geen], Hello everyone, the sci-fi movie "Your Starry Sky", which I directed and acted in, was officially registered today. Please call me in the future, Director/Cute.

The accompanying picture is the record file of "Your Starry Sky".

This is Geen's first tweet since apologizing for Twitter.

The fans were overjoyed.,

"Hello, Director! Please give me your advice in the future! / Lovely."

"Woow The most dedicated actress in the circle!"

"Come on, Freya! Looking forward to "Your Starry Sky"!"

Fans were amazed, and some passers-by chatted .

"I still remember that Freya said that she would make movies after the age of 30. Why did she suddenly advance?" "

And it's still a sci-fi movie, gentlemen. I have a bad guess.

"Right?"

"If so, we'll have a good show."

The next day.

"Your Starry Sky" created an official Twitter and updated a dynamic.

[Your Starry Sky Official Twitter], I want both the universe and you. Welcome Alex, the best director of the 76th Oscar, to join "Your Starry Sky" and cooperate with director Geen at home and abroad to shoot this USA sci-fi film together!

Passers-by were shocked,

"Oh my God, Geen actually collaborated with

Alex? What a face-to-face!" " Alex is my favorite foreign director. Even if it is for Alex, I will go to the cinema to watch "Your Starry

Sky"!"

Hot search won,

third day.

"Your Starry Sky" is updated again.

[Your starry sky official Twitter], How fast do I have to go before the stars and land beside you. Welcome powerful male idols in the entertainment industry to join "Your Starry Sky", let's look up at the starry sky together!

This time, the fans of the male idol were the ones who carnavaled, and they also said that they would go to the cinema to buy tickets for the idol.

Hot search won.

fourth day.

[Your Star Official

Twitter], I want to create the future with you. Internationally renowned actor Allen and internationally renowned actress Christina are confirmed to play two supporting roles in “Your Starry Sky”.

Netizen,

“Isn’t this lineup too luxurious? Oscar for best director cooperation, the most popular idol in the entertainment industry as the male lead, the three gold actresses as the female lead, and a group of foreign stars who are well-known internationally. Actors for supporting...”

“Apart from them, the other participating actors are also first- and second-tier cafes in our USA entertainment industry...” “I heard that even the soundtrack is made by well-known masters...”

This combination really makes me feel happy. Looking forward to it!”

“Geen’s “Starry Night” is so luxurious, Hedy’s “Lost” is so shabby, the contrast is too strong.”

No wonder netizens said so.

The biggest star in “Lost” is Roger, an old actor, an actor who has a good reputation but only won the best supporting actor, and he barely ranks first-line.

The remaining Teresa, Hedy, etc. have no gold content in the entertainment industry.

“Lost” also did not invite foreign directors and foreign actors to cooperate.

In terms of momentum and gimmicks alone, “Lost” has fallen behind by a large margin.

People look forward to “Your Starry Sky” even more.

In various forums, post bars, and social networking sites, the discussions on “Starry Sky” far surpassed “Lost”.

-Lounge

Crystal flipped through the phone, and said in a cheerful voice, “We must be a big success this time!”

Geen smiled, but didn’t answer, and the drooping eyelids covered the sharpness in it.

She spent so much money and hired so many big names, of course she will succeed!

Hum-

Geen 's phone vibrated, and the caller showed an unknown number.

Her pupils shrank slightly, and she hung up directly.

Hum-

the unknown number called again.

She hangs up again.

"What's wrong?" Crystal wondered.

"It must be a wrong number, Crystal, can you go out and buy me a cup of coffee?"

Crystal went out.

Ding dong.

Geen's phone rang and received a text message from an unknown number.

"The actress, you hung up on me twice in a row, do you want me to tell the world your secret?"

Chapter 278 The human life on the back, the release of "Starry Sky"

This text message made Geen panic.

A strong killing intent flashed across her docile face, she pressed her thumb heavily on the phone screen, and dialed an unknown number.

"Hey, I thought that the film queen has found her way back and decided not to lie to the world anymore."

A man's breathless voice came from the other end.

Geen lowered his volume and said sharply, "Why are you contacting me?"

Man, "I've run out of money."

Geen took a deep breath, "Didn't I call you a million dollars this month?"

Man, "It's all over, give some more."

"Hill, do you dare to be more shameless?" Geen squeezed out a word through his teeth.

Hill laughed loudly, "Dare, but no matter how shameless I am, I am not as shameless as you who artificially create a fire, carry Childe King out, and pretend to be Childe King's savior."

Geen set the fire back then. She saw that Preston missed his mother drunk, so she set a fire, and waited for the fire to spread big enough to carry Preston out.

This was supposed to be a small fire, which was easy to extinguish, but unexpectedly there was a sudden gust of wind afterwards.

The wind blew the flames and raged, and the small fire turned into a big fire. A total of three people were killed and seven people were seriously injured.

These, Hill, who eats, drinks, prostitutes and gambles as a security guard, can see clearly in the monitoring room.

At that time, he faced two choices.

One, he handed over the monitoring to the police, and he was awarded with a pennant and thanked by the families of the victims.

Two, using surveillance to blackmail the second lady of the wealthy family.

He chooses the latter.

Once blackmailed, it has been blackmailed for so many years.

The extortion amount has also changed from 100,000 per month to 200,000, 300,000, 500,000, 1 million per month... There is no way, who let Geen get better and better these years?

Hill lazily said, "Miss Geen, please put one million on my card now, immediately, immediately, and I'm waiting to go to the underground. casino to play." "Do you think I'm an ATM?" Geen gritted his teeth.

She doesn't lack this million, but she is disgusted by Hill's greedy approach!

"OK, hang up, see you on the headlines tomorrow." Hill made a gesture to hang up.

"How dare you!" Geen raised his voice, his tone was menacing, but his hand moved extremely quickly to transfer one million from the bank card to Hill.

When one million arrived, Hill said in a happy tone,

"Okay, I'm going to play, by the way, you'd better not have any bad ideas, you also know, I regularly store the evidence online, if you don't look at it for more than 24 hours, it will be automatically sent to the major news media."

Geen's eyes became more fierce, "You don't need to remind me!"

After hanging up the phone, she deleted the call history and text messages.

Time flies.

As the days passed, the filming progress of the two sci-fi films "Lost" and "Your Starry Sky" was improving little by little.

Geen, who is good at marketing, explodes a still or event every now and then, and goes to the hot search from time to time to consolidate its popularity.

On Hedy's side, it tends to be quiet, and there is no relevant exposure.

Because she has to learn how to make movies, make movies, act in movies, and find time to write theme songs, so she has no time to market.

Also because she didn't want to expose the content of the movie.

It was a gift for Preston, and if it leaked out, there would be no surprises.

During this time, Hedy is busy, and Preston is also busy,

The two are separated by the Pacific Ocean, and only on the communication software every day, they say "good morning" and "good night" to each other, and simply ask "have you eaten" and "keep warm".

No one talked much.

Spring went to summer, and a few more months passed.

Both "Lost" and "Your Starry Sky" were filmed, and they were scheduled for the same Labor Day schedule.

Just as netizens were guessing which of these two films would win the premiere on the first day of Labor Day, "Starry Sky" announced the premiere on the first day.

Hedy didn't argue.

The number two is Preston's birthday

But netizens feel that she has never competed with Geen, and can only be ranked second in the premiere.

During the period of waiting for the release, the crew of "Starry Sky" has been promoting intensively, claiming to use this film to open the door to science fiction movies in the United States.

They also bought a lot of marketing accounts and navy band rhythms.

These guys who do things for money, while praising "Starry Sky", don't forget to step on "Lost".

Grandma was so angry that she wanted to help Hedy market for a while.

Hedy refused, with a calm expression, "I read the original book of "Starry Sky", and I also watched the promotional video of the movie.

It's very average, and it can't compare with "Lost"

Pseudo-sci-fi.

It tells the story of humans in the future who are attacked by alien Zerg, and all countries in the world form an alliance to resist the Zerg invasion.

It is set in the book that due to the siege of Zerg, humans can no longer see the normal starry sky, and the younger generations can only appreciate the beauty of the night sky from textbooks and the Internet.

The male and female protagonists were childhood sweethearts, and they were drafted into the army together when they grew up.

On the eve of the war, the hero and heroine met to watch the starry sky together after the war.

In the end, the male protagonist died protecting the female protagonist and human beings, and the Zerg race was completely wiped out. The female protagonist finally saw the bright stars and cried with her head

1. up.

When it comes to love, "Starry Sky" is remarkable.

In terms of science fiction, "Starry Sky" should stand aside, it is not qualified, and even the car exhaust of "Lost" can't be touched. The stronger Geen's marketing is now, the worse it will be backlashed by then.

Grandma frowned, "But I saw on Twitter that the number of films for "Starry Sky" is very high, and Geen seems to be looking for a relationship."

Hedy calmly said, "The current audience is not stupid, and the director will not give them a bunch of inconsistent names. They not only accept everything, but also obediently praise the director.

They have their own thinking and the ability to choose."

Grandma thought about it, so she didn't mention it again, and only said another thing, "Preston The plane returns at 11 o'clock in the evening on the first day."

Hedy was a little surprised, "Isn't he still going to stay abroad for a month?"

Grandma smiled "you understand", "He came back early and said that "Lost" is Your first self-directed and self-acted work is very meaningful, and you have to participate in the premiere of the film. Isn't it a coincidence, his birthday is on the second day, and your premiere is also on the second day."

Time to Labor Day the day before.

Tonight is the premiere of "Starry Sky".

The box office of the major theaters has been sold out, fans of Geen, fans of foreign directors, fans of male idols, fans of foreign actors and fans of science fiction films are all looking forward to it.

I just wish that time couldn't pass any faster.

As soon as the morning arrived, everyone entered the theater with popcorn and drinks.

At first, everyone was full of expectations.

Seeing the middle, everyone has different expressions.

Seeing the back, some people directly turned black question mark faces.

After the premiere, movie reviews of "Starry Sky" appeared on the Internet. Fans of Geen said, "It's so good, it's so good.

Fans of male idols said, "It's so funny, it's so funny, it's so funny."

Bloggers and movie critics who took money also said, "It's a really good movie. The movie has really opened the door to science fiction films in the USA, and I suggest everyone go see it in theaters!"

The rating of "Starry Sky" on the movie website was immediately updated, reaching a high of 9.1.

This is the situation of capital operation.

It's a pity that Geen overestimated his own strength and underestimated the audience's aesthetics.

"What's the situation? Why are you praising "Starry Sky"? Don't I live on the same planet as you guys?"

It's just a sci-fi movie, I'll just...!"

"To be honest, I'm a little disappointed, I didn't come to see a romance movie Yes."

"Even if it's a romance movie, it's pretty average, okay! The acting skills of that very popular male idol is really unbearable!" "Yes, yes, he seems to only stare, no matter what The facial expressions are the same."

"The most frightening thing is that foreign actors with good' acting skills are also found to match. It's not too obvious in comparison." "

Let's leave, everyone.

"Starry Sky"s ratings on MovieNet dropped rapidly.

When the score was updated again at noon the next day, there were only 6 points left.

Geen's face sank like water.

Crystal comforted, "A score of 6 is not low. After all, this is your first time directing and acting on your own, and it is a relatively difficult subject to shoot. Then Hedy may not be able to get a score of 6."

one day passed.

The evaluation of “Starry Sky” on the Internet is polarized.

Poor people think it’s a gimmick, saying it’s a hard–core sci–fi film, but there’s no trace of hard–core sci–fi. Isn’t this deceiving consumers?

And the acting skills of the popular male idol are really bad.

Those who agree, feel that even if this film does not open the door of American science fiction films, it can be regarded as the pioneer of American science fiction films.

Shouldn’t we be more forgiving to the pioneers?

Moreover, the foreign director’s big shots and Geen ‘s small shots were shot very well. The acting skills of the foreign actors are very good, and the acting skills of Geen, the three–time gold actress, are very good. The special effects are very cool, and it is very enjoyable to watch.

The two extreme evaluations make this part of the movie look quite satisfactory as a whole. Director

Geen ‘s debut film was neither successful nor a failure, and sparked a new round of discussion,

It seems that our USA is really a desert of sci–fi movies.”

I can’t imagine what it’s going to be like with “Lost” with an even worse lineup.

Hedy’s fans comforted him, “Don’t be discouraged, what if “Lost” is good?”

Netizens laughed, “Then it’s not mine. It’s okay, I don’t want to spend dozens more to watch a similar sci–fi movie that doesn’t even have a promotional film.”

This is the disadvantage of hitting the schedule.

Especially since “Stars” premiered a day earlier than “Lost.”

Passers–

by’s sense of anticipation plummeted, their desire to watch plummeted, and ticket purchasing power decreased accordingly.

In some theaters, there was even a situation where only a dozen or so people bought tickets for a movie, leaving many seats vacant.

Geen will never let go of this opportunity.

Soon, the trending search ““Lost” premiere tickets can’t be sold” was posted on Twitter, which made many people laugh.

night.

King Family Manor.

Hedy was pulled into the cloakroom by grandma to change clothes.

There are a lot of clothes in the cloakroom, basically bought for her by grandma and Preston, including dresses for the banquet and regular clothes Grandma took out a spring and summer high-end tube top dress from a certain brand.

The skirt has three layers.

The first layer from inside to outside is a comfortable inner satin.

The second layer is embroidered with light green lotus leaves and white lotus.

The third layer is the elegant snow gauze.

The skirt was knee-length, with irregular hem, and a soft white snow gauze belt around the neck. The belt was tied at the back. It was very long, like blue silk, and at the end was a touch of dark green that matched the lotus leaf.

Smart without losing elegance.

“That’s all.” Grandma nodded with satisfaction.

After changing his clothes, Hedy went to the airport alone.

Preston’s plane landed at eleven o’clock, which was too late for the old man.

Hedy stood in the pick-up channel, eyes flickering.

Waiting for Preston’s plane to land is an amazing feeling.

She had never been separated from Preston for so long.

It is also the first time to experience such a long missing between lovers.

“Hedy.”

A deep and melodious familiar male voice came, and Hedy turned around. The tail of her hair, the hem of her skirt, and the snow gauze belt gently wrapped around her neck left an arc in the air, which was extremely beautiful.

The handsome man in front of her was wearing a hand-pressed black suit, and the buttons on his shirt were meticulously buttoned up, giving him a dignified, mature and charming aura.

Not seeing each other for half a year, he opened his arms and smiled with his thin lips.

Hedy walked over quickly and embraced her.

“Miss me?” He wrapped one hand around her slender waist and the other around her shoulders, took a deep breath in her hair, and filled the vacancy of these months.

Hedy replied honestly, “I think about it.”

“It’s so good, it deserves praise.” He gave a sexy low smile, lifted her chin lightly, leaned over and kissed her affectionately.

Hedy hooked his neck and closed his eyes in response.

The kiss didn’t last long.

Because I’m going to see the premiere of “Lost” next.

After the kiss was over, the two met each other with a smile, got into the Rolls–Royce Phantom, and headed to the reserved movie theater.

Zero, number 2.

The movie officially begins.

The initial scene passes, and the words “Director, Hedy” appear on the screen.

“Looks good?” Preston’s voice was pleasant, his thin lips raised.

In the next second, “Original Book, Space Trek (Pioneer)” appeared on the screen.

The smile on Preston’s face disappeared, and shock slowly appeared in his slender eyes.

He turned his head to look at Hedy in the seat next to him.

“Happy birthday.” Her red lips parted slightly, and the expression on her delicate face was both proud and cunning.

It seems to be saying, Didn’t expect it?

It seems to be asking for credit, Hurry up and praise me!

“You really...” Preston, who used to be able to talk eloquently, suddenly didn’t know what to say at this moment.

No wonder a lot flashed through his mind.

No wonder Hedy didn’t let him teach her how to make movies.

No wonder when he asked Hedy what kind of sci–fi film he wanted to make, Hedy didn’t answer.

No wonder Hedy doesn’t post any promos online.

No wonder Lost’s premiere day is on the 2nd.

It was her birthday present to him.

“What am I really?” Hedy asked, his eyes flickering, full of curiosity, like a deer deep in the jungle who doesn’t know the world, clean and beautiful.

“Watch the movie first.” Preston suppressed the impulse in his heart, focused on the movie, and clasped Hedy’s small hand tightly with his big bony hands.

-The

scene at the beginning of the movie, in a ward of the obstetrics and gynecology department of the hospital.

The female doctor played by

Teresa held the genetic test sheet and said to the woman, baby and husband who had just given birth, “The genetic test results show that the probability of the baby suffering from mental illness is 68%, and the probability of developing autism is 53%. The probability of heart disease is 46%, the probability of inattention is 77%, and the expected life expectancy is 42.2 years.” The voice fell, and the nurse next to him put a wristband on the baby’s left wrist, and there were two words on the wristband, wait.

The woman hugged the baby and cried, and the husband covered his face sadly.

On the wrists of their left hands, there is a wristband with “inferior” written on it.

“Perhaps you should order the ‘gene editing technology’ service, let the child in the test tube, remove the risk of genetic disease, potential value – if you have enough alliance currency.” Teresa left.

A line of white text appeared on the movie screen, improve the

The human genome has 23 pairs of chromosomes, a total of 3.16 billion DNA.

The arrangement of DNA determines a person’s appearance, skin color, learning ability and even the risk of genetic diseases.

In the future, scientists will break through the DNA editing technology, and the “Union Act” announces that human beings can pay a certain amount of money to ask someone to edit DNA to make babies born perfect.

The white characters disappear.

The camera zooms out.

From a ward to an entire hospital.

From a whole hospital to a street.

From a street to a city.

From a city to the sky, the so-called city has been covered by a transparent cover.

It is a circular orbit suspended in the universe.

The specially set gravity makes everyone feel like walking on the ground without feeling the difference

The lens zooms out again.

It turns out that there is more than one city track like this.

Dozens of circular tracks are combined into a ball-like shape, and there are long corridors between the tracks.

Different tracks have different scenery, some places are dedicated to growing vegetables and fruits, and some are dedicated to grazing.

Some places are college districts, some places are resort areas.

This is the new residence of human beings in outer space after serious environmental pollution.

Also called – Union.

Chapter 280 Word of Mouth Explodes! Hedy is a genius director!

Eighteen years later.

The baby labeled “inferior” has grown up and is named Haley, played by Hedy.

She was wearing the overalls of the moving company, wearing a peaked cap and headphones, and was carrying the luggage of an Arab couple.

The wristbands on their left hands say “superior”, which means they are highly genetically edited people with “gene editing technology”. As soon as

Haley put a box of luggage into the pickup truck, the Arab woman started yelling at Haley a lot. The earphones worn by

Haley automatically translated it into English, and then transmitted it to Haley’s ears, “Inferior people, be gentle, there are advanced scientific instruments inside, you can’t afford to break them, dear, you can’t find them.” Is the AI moving?”

The Arab man was helpless, “All the appointments for the nearby AI moving are full, so we can only hire someone.” The Arab woman said solemnly, “It seems that everyone knows about that.”

Haley didn't know what they were talking about. Which, after putting all the luggage into the truck, passed the couple to get to the driver's seat. The Arab man picked up the holographic transparent tablet and said to his wife, "I don't care about that, I just want to solve this damn math problem."

Median value theorem."

Man, "What are you talking about? How do you know Lagrangian median value theorem?" "

Guess." Haley pressed his hat and went to drive.

Man looking at tablet pensively.

The woman patted him, "Don't listen to her nonsense, inferior people are not qualified to receive higher education."

The advent of DNA gene editing technology has widened the gap between people again.

Rich people edit their genes, and their offspring become more perfect and intelligent, while poor people give birth naturally, and are forced to widen the gap with the offspring of rich people.

Except for dirty technical schools, no school would accept people waiting for them.

Therefore, women don't think Haley's words are reliable.

The man was shocked, "Use her thinking to solve this math problem..."

He looked up, and the truck had already driven away.

On the way, Haley turned on the music in the car, and a teenager gave a speech,

"Good afternoon, mentors and classmates, my name is Linda, and I am very happy to be here to give a speech. The topic of my speech is— babies born naturally It's very advanced, and it should have the right to education and to pursue dreams..."

Haley listened and switched to the next song.

"Good afternoon, Members of Parliament, my name is Linda, and I hope to fight for some rights for babies born naturally..."

At night, the vehicle arrived at the residential area for inferior people.

Haley's father glanced at the speaker, "Are you listening to the speech of that genius school grass again to motivate yourself?"

Haley turned off the speaker and said, "Yeah."

Linda changed her mind, she adores this guy who is her age but better than her Many teenagers.

Father, "It's a good thing to be motivated, but it's enough to listen to good words. The genetic gap cannot be bridged. If everyone is really equal, why do they edit genes with so many Union coins?" Haley nodded, hurriedly ate and Get into your room and read a book.

There are many books in her room, all of which were given to her by the grandfather next door before his death.

The old man used to live on the planet, was a university professor, and brought a lot of books to the alliance.

Haley looked at the densely packed books in the room, thought of the Arab man he met during the day, and said to himself,

"If only I had Union Coins to buy the holographic tablet."

If you want to check any information, you can just click it, no need Turn page by page like now. the next day.

Haley went to the moving company to report, the manager played by

Roger hooked Haley 's neck with a mysterious expression,

“,do you want to go on a business trip to that place?”

Haley, “What’s wrong?”

The manager, “Part of the alliance’s resources are running out., that the higher-ups plan to stop the operation of our orbit.”

I heard

Haley suddenly realized, “No wonder so many people have moved recently.”

Manager, “That’s plan A, and plan B is to send a spaceship to that star to find resources, Our company is fortunate to outsource a small project.”

Haley, “Use auxiliary tools to carry some leftover goods that cannot be handled by large robotic arms?”

Manager, “Yes, the alliance currency for this business trip is enough for you to buy a holographic tablet.”

Haley, “I’ll go.”

Back story, into the main line of Lost.

The protagonist played by Hedy boarded the spaceship to go to Wolf Star.

The spaceship encountered an accident midway and crashed to another unknown planet. Only the heroine survived and lost contact with the alliance.

She is lost in space.

If you want to survive and go back, you need to use the limited supplies in the spaceship to build a survival base on an unknown planet.

At the same time, we must also guard against sandstorms, tornadoes and temperature differences between day and night on unknown planets.

The main character in a spacesuit hangs by a thread several times.

It's true that her genes aren't smart enough, and she hasn't received more education, and she can't find a way to break it.

She began to accept the reality, yelled at herself in despair, and chose to take the initiative to kill herself.

When he was about to die, he didn't know what switch he touched, and Linda's speech came to his ears.

She doesn't want to die!

She wants to change fate!

The consciousness gradually returned, the protagonist woke up, and found that the tornado had torn a hole in the spaceship warehouse, and there was a ready-made tablet inside, and there were all kinds of ready-made knowledge in the tablet.

Besides that, some extra food and water.

The protagonist rekindles his fighting spirit, disassembles the detachable spaceship parts, and assembles them into simple but necessary things.

A person lives stubbornly and hard on an unknown planet, day after day.

In the end, she found the resources needed by the alliance underground, and successfully established a signal connection with the alliance.

At the end of the movie, the protagonist who lacks water and food faints in a temporary shelter.

A team of rescuers rushed over, and one of the rescuers had the word "Linda" written on the back of his spacesuit.

The theme song sounded, and the list of creators rolled.

The premiere of "Lost" ends.

The audience response was unprecedented.

“Oh my god, it’s so good. I cried at the scene of Haley’s suicide attempt!” “The whole movie has a certain degree of relaxation, the rhythm is very comfortable, and I can’t finish it after watching it! It’s hard to imagine that it’s something made by a new director!” “The script is good, the logic is good, the acting skills are good, and the soundtrack is good. I would like to call “Lost” the originator of American science fiction films!”

Can the director learn?”

Watching the ending of the movie, Haley seems to be meeting Linda formally. Will the two meet again in the future? I’m looking forward to it.

Inferior people live alone on an unknown planet, and they have found resources, the high-level of the alliance What do you think?”

“Will you give children who give birth naturally the right to education?”

“1

Our future, won’t it be “Lost“...”

“Hedy is a genius!”

“@Hedy, hello director, you are asleep Well, I can’t sleep, so can you hurry up and do the second part?”
