

The Killer 291

Chapter 291 tells me, who is Cooper?

When Hedy woke up, it was already noon the next day.

She rubbed her temples, feeling a sharp pain in her head, which hadn't fully recovered.

"Drink water."

There was an extra glass of water in front of Hedy's eyes, and the big, slender hand holding the water glass was Preston.

She took a sip of the water, her voice hoarse, "What's wrong with me?"

Her memory stayed in the clear bar. There was something wrong with the glass of wine that

Samuel poured her, and she fell unconscious after drinking it, but she didn't understand why she woke up in the King Family Manor. Did

Samuel do something?

What is his purpose?

Seeing that Hedy frowned, Preston didn't say a word, and handed Hedy the materials arranged on the table.

Hedy

opened it to look, his eyes became colder and colder, his face was full of hostility, behind the hostility was disappointment and injury.

"After you were taken away by Kay, Samuel regretted it, returned the money to Kay, and wanted to get you back." Preston's voice was not warm,

"But Kay didn't want to, let the bodyguard beat him seriously and throw him into the back alley. With a sigh of relief, he drove to the King Family Group, told me that you were in danger, and passed out.

I rushed to the scene in time and saved you who had not been bullied by

Kay. Now, Samuel is receiving treatment in the hospital. He was bleeding internally, and the doctor said that if he was sent to the hospital one minute later, Samuel would have died."

Hedy pursed his lips and lowered his eyes, "He should have seen the operation plan I gave him."

Seeing the operation plan, I know that she really agrees with him. He was good with Starry, and he regretted it when he knew she could save Starry. Realistic and ridiculous.

"He didn't look at

it. Aiden found it at the scene." Preston handed the unopened kraft paper bag to Hedy, "Samuel didn't know that you would have an operation, and he didn't know that the bag contained his sister's operation plan. He saved You, it's because he didn't want to hurt you, didn't want to extinguish the few lights in his dark life ... that's why

I didn't send him to prison with the lineage." Preston's eyes fell on the brown paper bag.

Only those who have truly seen darkness will know how precious light is. So did Samuel.

So is Hedy.

Otherwise, how could she be a "light magician" who is well-known in the oil painting world and is good at painting light.

Hedy suddenly squeezed the investigation materials about Samuel in his hand, his eyes rolling with complex and changeable emotions. Did

Samuel ...didn't see the operation plan...

While he was thinking, Hedy heard Preston speak slowly,

"Hedy, tell me who Cooper is."

Hedy's pupils narrowed slightly.

The man next to the bed, who had always known about Cooper's existence, had never asked about anything related to Cooper.

He once said that he knew she had a secret and was willing to wait for her to tell him in person.

Today, he asked.

Hedy Susan lowered her head and said nothing.

She couldn't speak.

She didn't know what to say at all.

Said she was born again?

Said she was a killer in her previous life?

Said that Cooper was her younger brother in the previous life?

Or does she have a system where she needs to complete 30 trial missions in order to revive her brother Cooper?

Just thinking about it, a system reminder that only she could see appeared in front of Hedy,

[Warning, the host is not allowed to tell anyone about the existence of the system. If there is any violation, it will be wiped out on the spot. ]

Hedy squeezed the document in his hand even tighter, and his bloodless lips were pursed into a straight line full of resistance.

It was like turning into the monster that lived in the house again.

Preston felt powerless.

He sat on the chair by the bed, bent over and put his hands on his forehead, and said in a heavy voice,

“I don’t want to force you, but I have to. You can find out

Samuel ‘s background by just looking it up.

His A lie, as long as you have a little doubt, you can immediately expose it.

But you didn’t investigate, and you didn’t suspect it.

You, who are smart and vigilant, gave Samuel even my jealous trust, just because he is like Cooper, like your brother ...

I understand that a person’s emotions have reached a certain level, and he is indeed willing to make many low- level mistakes.

Tam the same for you.

I just don’t want you to fall into this danger again.”

Preston exhaled a dirty breath.

Until now, he still dare not recall the scene where Hedy was lying on the bed and Kay wanted to lift her clothes to bully her. At that moment, he had the heart to destroy the world.

Preston looked up at Hedy, and put his hand on the back of Hedy’s hand, “Hedy, tell me who Cooper is, what character, what background, and what you have experienced, okay?

In

this way, next time you encounter this kind of thing, you No need to investigate, I’ll go.

I’ll help you smooth out all the dangers.”

Hedy didn’t speak, his beautiful face seemed to be shrouded in a thick fog, and he couldn’t read any thoughts.

Silence turned into a chain, sealing the mouths of the two people.

Time passed quietly.

Preston slowly withdrew the hand that was on the back of Hedy’s hand, and his voice was ridiculed with a touch of heartache,

“It turns out that I, Preston, are not like this in your heart.”

Hedy's body was stiff.

Preston stood up, together with a suffocating pressure.

"It's okay not to talk about Cooper, let's talk about other things." Preston chuckled, but his handsome face was cold.

He asked, "How about talking about Nameless, the leader of the Phoenix Dance Troupe? When she was participating in street dance competitions abroad, you, Hedy, spent your summer vacation as a student in Geary Village. This is your cultivation clone One is abroad and the other is in the United States? Can you teach me?"

Hedy raised his head, eyes full of shock.

Preston was very satisfied with Hedy's response, and he smiled,

"Let's talk about it again, how did you do it? In the past eighteen years, when you were mediocre and dull, and all your deeds were available, you suddenly changed your personality after a holiday. And you have a different personality.

Has your identity shined in different fields?"

"You are..." Hedy said with difficulty, "Since when did you start to doubt?" "

After the Phoenix Dance Troupe incident, before the Chess Master Selection Competition." Preston The voice was subtle,

"At that time, I thought Cooper was the younger brother you met abroad, and I wanted to help you find Cooper's clues, but unexpectedly discovered that the trajectories of Nameless and Hedy were completely different." Hedy's breath stagnates

It turned out that at that time, he discovered something was wrong.

"Aren't you afraid?" She almost exhausted all her strength to spit out these words.

Preston's voice was clear, "Of course I'm afraid. Anyone who has lived in the technological world for so many years and suddenly finds out that there are fantastic events in this world that cannot be explained by science will be afraid. I even thought that you are a legendary monster. But I don't care.

You are afraid of your background, and I am even more afraid of you leaving me.

Therefore, I ordered people to classify your file as confidential, and did not allow a second person other than me to investigate you. Even so, you will not be willing to believe me and not tell me who Cooper is!

What an idiot I am."

Preston turned away disappointed.

Chapter 292

Exposure of identity, Starry is critically ill

Before meeting Hedy, Preston always sees those men and women who are blinded by love, and thinks they are idiots, and there are certain problems with their brain structure.

He also feels that even if he meets a woman he likes in the future, he won't be like them, circling around her.

Then he met Hedy.

His mood, following her actions, was sometimes happy, sometimes dissatisfied, sometimes sad, and sometimes joyful.

He can do anything for her.

Became a fool among fools.

He walked to the door of the bedroom and was about to turn the handle to get out when there was the sound of "dong dong dong" footsteps behind him.

As soon as he turned his head, he saw the girl who was supposed to be on the bed running down barefoot and grabbing his wrist.

Preston pulled out his wrist with a blank expression, picked up the girl horizontally, put her back on the bed, and turned around and strode away again.

Just two steps away, the girl crawled to the end of the bed and sat down, grabbed his wrist again, and looked up with her fair face.

Preston was helpless. With a straight face, he turned around and asked her in a cold voice, "What do you want to do?"

"I want you to stay and tell you my story... since you are not afraid of who I am."

Hedy from "Preston knew She has a special background, and she has helped her cover up her identity for so long." After recovering from the shock, he said softly, "The original Hedy died of a heart attack, and I, who was on the same planet, was reborn with her body.

She told the system existed.

Then she will not talk about the system, but other things.

Preston's narrow eyes flickered.

Although he knew that Hedy was not an ordinary person, he was still surprised to hear the news from Hedy.

After briefly digesting the news, he calmly asked, "Who are you?"

Hedy replied, "Lucifer, a member of the killer world, calls me Queen."

She emphasized this because Queen is more widely known than Lucifer.

Preston's breath catches.

But after thinking about it, he didn't think it was strange at all.

Her strength is completely worthy of the title of Queen.

Aiden also said that Hedy's strength is no worse than the Queen he has seen.

It's just that Aiden didn't expect that Hedy is Queen and Queen is Hedy.

"Cooper is my brother in the previous life. He and I have been dependent on each other since childhood. He died for my freedom, and I died for his revenge." Hedy's tone became heavy.

Preston thought of the letters he had put together for Hedy.

That letter was Cooper's suicide note to her.

It is mentioned that a locator was implanted in his heart, and no matter where he fled with Hedy, he would be hunted down.

Over the years, he has also been used by the organization to threaten Hedy.

So, he returned to the organization, not wanting to drag his sister down, and was willing to trade his own death for her sister's freedom.

"No wonder you trust Samuel so much." Preston understood Hedy's behavior.

Hedy regards Samuel as his own brother Cooper.

"I didn't hide it from you on purpose, but I think that if I tell others about this kind of thing, nine out of ten people will be afraid." Hedy lowered his head and said in a complicated tone.

"Understood."

Preston responded lightly, pulling out the wrist that had been held by Hedy, wanting to leave again.

Hedy looked at the empty palm, mist appeared in his eyes, "Didn't you say that you are not afraid?"

Preston's voice was calm, "I am really not afraid."

Hedy asked questioningly, "You let me go.""

Preston sighed, "I If you don't go downstairs, the cake in the oven will be mushy, you've stopped me four times, aren't you hungry after sleeping for so long?" When the voice fell to the ground,

Hedy's stomach groaned in unison.

Hedy, "..."

She was embarrassed for a moment, "I thought you—"

"Thinking that I was going to leave disappointed, and that after I learned your secret, I would be afraid to leave you? Your little one What's going on in your head?"

Preston gave her a half-smile look.

Hedy blushed, and the panic in her eyes hadn't completely dissipated.

Capturing the panic, Preston moved in his heart, sat on the edge of the bed, took Hedy into his arms, and comforted him in a gentle voice,

If I was afraid of you, I would have left after I found out that Nameless and Hedy were two people.

At that time, I will be mentally prepared, whether you are a demon or a demon, I will admit it.

Remember, on my birthday, I told you that even if you want to gouge out my heart, I will give it to you."

Hedy felt surrounded by warmth, she closed her eyes in a relaxed manner, and said in a soft voice, "I asked you if you thought of me as a monster, so you really think so."

"No way, if someone doesn't tell me, I can only guess." Preston's voice was full of "resentment",

"For a long time, I didn't even dare to enter the temple. I was afraid that the abbot inside would tell me 'the almsgiver, your seal is black'. This is what TV dramas do." Hedy,

She couldn't help laughing in his arms.

After laughing, I feel sad again.

"Thank you." She hugged him even tighter, "Thank you for protecting me secretly for so long."

If there is no Preston, I am afraid that after the nameless incident, she will be arrested and sent to the research institute for research.

Preston is so nice.

Always protect her.

Be with her all the time.

Always accommodate her.

Is this feeling “happiness“?

“Are you relieved? If you don’t feel relieved, you won’t be able to eat the cake.” Preston patted her on the back with a gentle tone.

“Relax, let’s go.” Hedy let go of him, eyebrows and eyes slightly curved.

Preston left the master bedroom and went downstairs as usual. When the master bedroom could barely hear the footsteps, he stopped in the middle of the stairs, his eyes deep and changeable.

Hedy is the impact that Queen brought to him.

Not because the title is too loud.

It was the experience of “Queen“, which was too tragic.

A man of yellow race who was widely discriminated against abroad was born in the largest slum abroad.

Has parents, but is sold to drug dealers by parents.

In order to protect himself, his own brother was hacked to death.

Any one of these three items would be a devastating disaster for any woman.

Not to mention anything else.

His girl... so miserable..

Preston lowered his eyes, went to the kitchen to fetch the cake, and heated another glass of milk.

“Childe King, just call us for this kind of thing.” The maid stood beside her respectfully.

“No problem.” He himself wanted to find a reason to be quiet.

Preston returned to the master bedroom with cake and hot milk.

Hedy ate the food and was sleepy again.

The powerful drug was indeed very strong, and the stamina made her feel drowsy.

“Go to sleep.”

The man hugged her in his arms, his eyes were like treasures, and there was even more pity.

“Yeah.” Hedy slowly fell asleep.

Preston didn’t sleep.

He was looking at the information about Queen sent to him by Aiden.

This time, Hedy slept until eight o’clock in the evening.

The medicinal properties of the drug are almost gone.

Hum—

Hedy received a call from the director of the mental hospital,

“Ms. Ellis, do you know where Samuel is? I can’t get through to his phone, and I can’t reach him!”

“What’s wrong?” Hedy asked.

11

Starry is dying. The hospital issued a critical illness notice, let him... take a last look at Starry...”

Chapter 293 Save Starry, she is simply Superman

Hedy hung up the phone, his eyes flickering.

The director of the mental hospital couldn’t get in touch with Samuel, probably because Samuel hadn’t woken up from the hospital yet.

“Are you going to save Starry ?” Preston hugged her, eyes closed, and his voice was low.

The master bedroom was very quiet, and he could hear a middle-aged female voice coming from the phone.

Hedy didn’t answer right away.

She turned to look at the cabinet.

There was an unopened kraft paper bag on the cabinet, which contained the operation plan she made for Starry. “Go if you want, I’ll see you off.” Preston opened his eyes.

He knows Hedy.

This person seems cold and ruthless, but he is actually softer than anyone else.

If Samuel opened the paper bag and saw the operation. plan, he would choose to save her.

Then she would never look at the Samuel brothers and sisters again.

But Samuel didn’t.

This touched Hedy’s weakness. What

Samuel is to his younger sister Starry is not what Hedy is to his younger brother Cooper.

Hedy frowned, "I thought about it for a long time before I figured out how to do this surgery. Don't blame the pity."

Preston smiled lowly, and didn't expose her thoughts, just told, "Eat something before going."

"Hmm." Hedy hurriedly stuffed his stomach, took the brown paper bag, and went to the hospital where Starry was with Preston and Aiden.

On the way, she opened the paper bag with a serious expression, and finally reviewed the operation process.

Not long after, the vehicle arrived at the hospital.

Alice came over in a white coat and said respectfully, "Master, everything is ready."

Before departure, Hedy asked her to prepare for the surgery.

Starry's situation is urgent and should not be delayed.

"Well, you will be my help." Hedy walked upstairs quickly.

"Yes!" Alice said excitedly.

Starry's situation is very complicated. If she can be with Hedy and perform surgery on Starry together, she will gain valuable experience that cannot be measured by money.

How many doctors dream of being taken by a boss for surgery?

This operation lasted a total of more than ten hours and was extremely difficult.

There were several crises in the middle, but they were all resolved by Hedy without any risk.

After the operation was completed, Hedy left the operating room with a dull expression.

Alice followed her out, and as soon as she left the operating room, she collapsed on the ground exhausted, drinking glucose to replenish her strength.

"Your hands are more stable than before, which is commendable, but your physical strength must also keep up. Don't forget to exercise regularly." Hedy instructed.

"Yes, Master!" Although Alice was physically and mentally exhausted, her eyes were bright.

This operation, as she expected, benefited her a lot!

"I'm going back to rest, please contact me if Starry has any problems." Hedy left.

Alice nodded, drank the glucose, and went in the other direction.

A group of nurses stared behind them.

"I never thought that Ms. Ellis actually knows medical skills, let alone that the most powerful young female doctor in our heart surgery field has to call her 'Master!'" "When I saw Ms.

Ellis When I walked into the operating room, I thought I was dazzled!"

"She is simply suppianoman, woohoo."

"I really want to post on Moments and Twitter, showing off that I had an operation with my idol..."

"Forget it, you forgot that we signed a non-disclosure agreement?"

Starry 's operation has high scientific research value and is very advanced, so Alice arranged a non-disclosure agreement in advance.

Hedy back in the hallway of the hospital.

Outside is the waiting area for the patient's family members.

At this moment, there are three people in the waiting area. They are Preston sitting on the left, Aiden standing next to Preston, and

Samuel sitting in a wheelchair. A lot of bandages were wrapped around Samuel's body. He lowered his head, not daring to look at Hedy or Preston, his face was very pale.

"How was the surgery?" Preston asked.

"Very successful." Hedy replied.

On the opposite side, Samuel let out a silent breath, and then tensed his body even tighter.

Even if it's after autumn, it should be on his head, right?

What will my sister and Childe King do with him?

jail?

or other?

He heard Preston say to Hedy, "Grandma has stewed nutritious porridge at home, waiting for us to go back and have breakfast together."

Yes." Hedy looked calm.

The two of them talked like no one else, neither of them mentioned Samuel, nor did they speak to Samuel.

Samuel felt even worse.

He would rather Hedy beat him and scold him, so that at least he would feel better.

Forget it...

Samuel clenched his fists, a self-deprecating arc curled up on the corner of his lips.

He was a clown who was not worth mentioning.

What is there to ask for.

He should thank Childe King for saving his life and Hedy for saving his sister's life.

When Hedy and Preston passed by Samuel, Samuel said dryly,

"Thank you."

Hedy paused.

She raised her hand, put it on Samuel's head, and rubbed it twice, "Study hard in the future, and send me a message if you have any difficulties."

After that, she and Preston walked into the elevator.

Samuel froze.

Outside the window behind him, the sun was gradually rising.

-In

the elevator, Preston said slowly, "You shouldn't bother him anymore."

After more than ten hours of surgery to revive Starry, it's already very good.

"He's so lonely." Hedy's red lips parted slightly,

"I can at least talk to Cooper, but Starry is a mental patient. Most of the time, I can't empathize with him, and it will bring him more trouble."

Every drowning person wants a piece of driftwood.

Cooper was her driftwood.

Today, let her be Samuel's driftwood and bring him back to shore.

Who made the two of them willing to give everything for their loved ones, so they were almost the same kind of people.

"What about you?" Preston asked softly.

Hedy didn't hear clearly, "What did you say?"

"Nothing." He looked into the distance.

Samuel was unlucky.

But how could Hedy be any better?

“After so long surgery, are you tired?” Preston turned to look at her again, his voice magnetic.

“A little bit.” Hedy frowned.

It takes a lot of energy to do such a major operation.

In the next second, she flew into the air and was hugged by Preston’s powerful arms.

The elevator doors then opened.

Outside was a group of gossip passers-by, “!”

They didn’t expect that when they opened the door, they would see the famous Childe King and the equally famous Hedy.

And Childe King is still hugging Hedy with the intimate princess!

The “traditional art skills” engraved in their bones and blood made them quickly take out their mobile phones, “click click” to take pictures, and some people directly recorded videos.

Hedy froze for a moment, and wanted to jump down immediately, but was hugged even tighter by Preston.

She whispered, “You put me down, I can walk by myself!”

How could she be too tired to walk!

“No.” Preston rebuffed.

Hedy, “Why?”

“Because I can’t walk unless I hug you.” Preston’s face was calm, eyes open and talking nonsense.

Hedy, “...”

Passers-by, “It’s knocked!”

Chapter 294

The summer vacation is approaching, and I went to Everland

Preston to hold Hedy in the hospital. The princess didn’t let Hedy come down, and she shamelessly opened her eyes and told nonsense. It quickly became a hot search.

Netizens expressed that they were sweetened.

“My family, why is the performance cp so sweet, I’m going to take insulin!” ”

And their sweetness is not the kind of sweetness that is obviously pretended by the script, it is really real!”

When will it be my turn for fairy love?“, the single dog shed tears of jealousy/crying loudly” netizen “little clever ghost” chuckled, “I am different, I want to fall in love with Goddess Hedy, Goddess Hedy in love is so cute!”

This message immediately received top reviews.

This triggered a new hot search – what is it like to fall in love with Hedy who has a contrasting cuteness?

Some people have eloquently written thousands of words in three years, from psychology, analysis to social relations, very hardcore.

There are also people who are simple and rude, and reply with one sentence, it should be a good feeling. When grandma saw such a trending search, she immediately found her grandson.

She definitely didn’t want to gossip on her own.

She just wanted to enthusiastically help netizens consult

Preston picked up the phone.

Five minutes later, Preston updated Twitter.

[Preston], it is a wonderful feeling that none of you can experience.

Netizens, “?”

Are you showing off?

You must be showing off!

“Damn!”

“I unilaterally announced that the performance cp will be separated for five minutes, and our Goddess Hedy is unique!”

I’m so angry, but I feel so sweet, and then I’m even more angry 5555”

Only I am curious about falling in love with Childe King How does it feel? @Hedy, Goddess Hedy, come and answer!”

So, the trending search became–what’s it like to fall in love with the wily Preston?

Hedy usually doesn’t look at Aite, doesn’t know the situation on the Internet, and is watering the flowers.

Grandma turned into an enthusiastic netizen again, came to Hedy and talked about the hot search.

Hedy put down the kettle and picked up the phone.

Five minutes later, Hedy posted a poker-faced Twitter update.

[Hedy], General.

[Preston] Public reply, Still angry?

[Hedy], No.

[Preston], Alright, I'll go back and kneel on the keyboard.

[Hedy],?

[Preston], Do you want me to kneel down on the durian?

[Hedy], What are you talking about?

[Preston], You don't love me anymore.

[Hedy], ...

[Preston], I don't know who it was, but it held my hand yesterday and refused to let me go.

[Hedy], ...

[Preston], I don't know who it is, hugging me at the airport and saying that I miss me.

[Hedy], ...

[Preston], I don't know who it is—

Hedy silently deleted "average" and replaced it with "very good".

[Preston], Thank you, I feel very good too.

Netizen,

How could this man be such a dog!

Their innocent and lovely Goddess Hedy was completely eaten by him, woo hoo.

But I can feel how this man is full of pampering and affection!

Performance cp, the eternal god in the cp world!

The conversation between Hedy and Preston on the Internet once again swiped the screen of many gossip lovers' forums, Twitter and circle of friends.

Seeing the invincible domineering Goddess Hedy Hedy, when Preston flirted with him, everyone laughed and the atmosphere was harmonious.

Seeing that a happy day is coming to an end, an internet celebrity with a lot of fans shared an island variety show

from

Everland. The greasy-faced man in the variety show exaggerated,

“Let me tell you, in mainland America, there are still many people who can’t afford mineral water and can only dig wells. Do you find it difficult?”

Everland, an island The place names are an integral part of the USA map.

During the war, unfortunately, it was colonized by invaders.

Under the rule of the colonists, the island’s economy developed rapidly, bordering the world, and leading the mainland for many years.

The war is over, the USA is victorious, and the invaders are expelled.

This was supposed to be a joyful, family reunion scene. In Everland, however, there are many people who dislike the inland mainland which is full of holes.

I feel that the foreign adults are my real ancestors.

inland? Don’t contact me, I’m afraid the foreign adults will misunderstand.

There are also people who know where their roots are, and they only wish for the return of Everland, the merger of their families and countries, and the reunion of their relatives.

It’s just that more people, especially young people, deeply feel that the inland is not worthy of their noble self.

They are unwilling to learn about the inland, and only yearn for the place where the foreigners are.

They also don’t know that today’s inland, after the baptism of blood and gunfire, has regained its former glory, and the development of Everland is even better. Therefore, when netizens saw the clips of variety shows on Everland island reported by Internet celebrities, they felt incredible and angry.

“Mainlanders can’t drink mineral water? What kind of weird speech is this?”

“I wanted to scold him, but I thought he and I were compatriots, both from the United States, so I held back.”

The problem is that we treat them as Compatriots, they don’t see us like that...’

Last year when I was studying abroad, an Everland alumnus asked me if mainlanders still have to light candles at night.

I said no, candles are only enjoyed by rich people, and we poor people live in caves, don’t light wax.” “Hahaha I’m often asked by Everland people abroad, I said that there are several maglev high-speed trains in the mainland, and then they said I installed forks, so I didn’t bother to explain, I was tired.”

-Three

The days flew by.

Hedy finally got his driver's license and can officially go on the road.

At the same time, the final exam of the second semester of the University of Finance and Economics is coming.

Hedy is like an unshakable god and Buddha, once again won the first place in his major, and he crushed the temperament of "student master".

The students were not as shocked as before, and they communicated as follows,

"Then what, Hedy won the first major in the business school again." "Can you tell me something new, is it strange that she took the first place? It's like you've never seen the world before."

"Then let me tell you something new, Newton in the class next door has changed from the last one to the second last one."

"Damn! Fuck! Fuck! The eldest son, the second son, the third son, Newton's grades have improved! Hurry up and tell each other!"

The final exam is over and summer vacation is coming.

Hedy had a meal with his grandfather's family, said goodbye to Preston, grandma, and General King, and returned to San Francisco with the students from Class 7.

Everyone went back to their respective homes, each found their respective mothers, and acted separately.

This time when Hedy came home, both Josh and Kit were away from home.

One of the two is busy with business, and the other is busy preparing for the world match.

During the dinner, Buddy asked Malina, "Have you bought the ticket to Everland?" "I can't buy it. It's the peak season of vacation and travel recently. I tried to grab it several times but couldn't get it." Malina was frowning.

"Is mom going to travel to Everland?" Hedy asked casually.

"I went to a good friend's birthday party. Since she married Everland and I lost my name again, I haven't contacted her for many years." Malina replied,

"She found out about my comeback through others, so she invited me to the birthday party to reminisce about the past. By the way Take me to Everland to play."

Buddy worried, "You are a road idiot, I really don't feel relieved to go alone, Hedy, if you have nothing to do recently, can you go to Everland with your mother?"

Chapter 295

Don't Let This Miss Smell the Bad Smell of Mainland Country bumpkins

Malina has a poor sense of direction, and she understands when others say left, right, front, front, back.

But if you talk about southeast, northwest, she doesn't understand.

Hedy is well aware of this.

She glanced at the system and found that the system was still in a dormant stage, and no new trial tasks had been issued, she nodded and said,

"Okay, I will go to Everland with my mother."

"It is not whether Hedy will accompany me, but whether I can buy it or not." There are no air tickets or boat tickets." Malina put down her fork, feeling depressed.

The inland is separated from Everland by the sea, and there are only these two means of transportation.

"The King Family has-" Hedy was about to say that the King Family had private jets and private yachts when Malina's cell phone rang.

A gentle female voice came from inside,

"River, it's not easy to buy tickets recently. My husband and I discussed it and plan to send a private jet to pick you up. Can you do it at noon tomorrow?" Out of habit, the other party still called Malina For the River.

"Then I'll trouble you, Jessie." Malina smiled, with the excitement and joy of meeting an old friend in her eyes.

Malina's boudoir friend, named Jessie, is the daughter of the Chen family, a second-rate family.

During her graduation tour, she met her current husband Miles, and then married to Everland, rarely going back to the inland.

And the Miles' family is one of the famous and rich families in Everland, they are quite rich, otherwise they wouldn't be able to arrange a private jet to pick them up. At noon the next day, Hedy and Malina packed up the things they needed for the trip, said goodbye to Buddy and went down the mountain.

"It would be great if your dad could come with us. After all these years of marriage, I haven't traveled with him yet." Malina sighed casually.

“Is Dad going to do farm work?” Hedy thought about it carefully, and there seemed to be not many fields at home.

Besides, with the current economic strength of the Ellis Family, there is no need to farm for a living.

It is all right to leave those fields unused, or to pay the villagers to take care of them.

“I can’t bear to miss his poker and chess friends. He always runs over there, and he is more punctual than clocking in at work.” Malina smiled,

I told him yesterday that our children are capable, and we don’t have to be so tired. Go out How about a trip? He told me to wait, I see, he just likes to stay at home, doesn’t want to go out, and wants to fool me. Actually,

I don’t like to go out either, except this time for Jessie’s birthday.”

Referring to her husband, Malina’s eyebrows and eyes are full of tenderness.

Hedy listened quietly, with a soft heart.

In about twenty minutes, the two arrived in front of the private jet sent by the Miles’ family. It’s a single-wing propeller plane that seats six people in total.

“Hello, is this Ms. Ellis?” A middle-aged man with the appearance of a housekeeper, Susan bent down and asked.

His accent is a common Everland accent, and “” is pronounced “han”.

“It’s us, are you sent by Jessie?” Malina asked back. “Yes, Ma’am, please get on the plane.” The butler stretched out his hand to invite.

Malina and Hedy got on the plane together, their expressions were calm from beginning to end.

The butler also boarded the plane. There was no reaction on his face, but he was very puzzled in his heart.

He didn’t know that Malina was once the daughter of a wealthy family, and he didn’t know that Hedy had seen bigger scenes.

I just think that this mother and daughter are from the countryside, why are they not curious about private jets at all?

Four hours later, the plane arrived at Everland Island and parked on a private apron.

“Here we are, please.” The butler stretched out his hand to invite.

Hedy and Malina get off the plane, and there is a luxurious villa not far away. Hearing that a good friend is coming, Jessie, who looks beautiful, is dressed in a red velvet dress, and has a well-maintained figure and skin, hurried downstairs to greet her.

River!” Jessie spoke softly like a pretty woman, but there were tears in her eyes.

The wrinkles on Malina’s face and the skin that is not delicate enough let her fully imagine how difficult Malina’s life has been in these years.

“Jessie!” Malina also burst into tears, and the two sisters hugged each other.

When the atmosphere was warm, a haughty and superior voice came from behind,

“Housekeeper, go and wash the plane from the inside to the outside. This lady will use it in a few days. Don’t let this lady smell the rotten smell of mainland bumpkins.” Hedy followed Going to the prestige, I found that the person who spoke was a girl of the same generation as her.

The girl is wearing a famous brand of the season, her face is exquisitely made up, and her hair is also styled exquisitely.

“Xiao how can you say that about my friend?” Jessie turned around and snapped accusingly, her tone automatically switching to an Everland accent.

The girl ignored her and left directly, treating her like air.

Jessie was out of breath.

“She is?” Malina asked.

Jessie’s expression darkened, “Vicky, the daughter of my husband’s second wife.”

Everland is special. Although monogamy is practiced, a man can have 2345 wives as long as he has enough money.

In their view, there is nothing to be ashamed of, and there is no need to hide it.

The women know each other’s existence, and even live under the same roof.

Jessie’s husband has a second wife.

“How could this be?” Malina covered her mouth with shock and anger in her eyes.

When Jessie and Miles fell in love, Miles swore he would only marry Jessie.

“That’s it.” Jessie smiled bitterly. She turned to look at Hedy with a kind tone,

“This is Hedy, right? She’s so beautiful.”

She is from mainland America, and she pays more attention to mainland America, and knows about Hedy’s deeds.

“Aunt is more beautiful.” Hedy responded politely.

“Your mouth is so sweet, come, go in and have a rest.” Jessie led Hedy and Malina into her room.

The two women haven’t seen each other for many years, and they chatted endlessly.

Hedy quietly reads beside him.

At dusk, another girl of the same generation as Hedy came into the room.

The girl’s eyes are moist, her waist-length hair is long, and she is wearing a white knee-length skirt. Like Jessie, she has the unique gentleness of Jiangnan women.

“Mommy,” she called Jessie.

“Is this your daughter Faye? She looks like you.” Malina stood up and greeted with a smile.

“It’s her, Faye, come here.” Jessie put her hands on her daughter’s shoulders and introduced,

“This is my mother’s good friend, you can call her Aunt River, this is Aunt River’s daughter Hedy, one year younger than you, you call her Sister Hedy.”

Faye said warmly, “Hi Aunt River, hello Sister Hedy.” “So cute!” Malina smiled and rolled her eyes.

“Hello.” Hedy nodded in response.

The four women went out for dinner together, and the dishes were mostly seafood, after all, Everland is near the sea.

After dinner, it got dark.

“Is sister Hedy tired? If you’re not tired, it’s still early. I’ll take you outside to see the customs of Everland at night.” Faye took the initiative to ask Hedy, trying to do his best to be a landlord.

“Okay.” Hedy didn’t refuse.

Seeing each other’s daughters get along well, the two mothers looked at each other and were very happy.

Chapter 296 Bet, Mr. wants to chase Hedy?

Faye and Hedy leave the restaurant.

The evening breeze blows cool, dispelling the high temperature during the day.

Faye thought for a while, and asked, "Is there any place that Sister Hedy likes or wants to go? There is a very popular Internet celebrity bar in the back street, and many people will go there to check in and take pictures when they travel. There is a park in front of it, which is suitable for walking

Very good, the handmade ice cream sold by the auntie at the stall is also delicious.

There is a video game city not far from us... If you want to see the sea view, I will take you there..."

Faye is very self-restraining, speaking in a leisurely manner, listening. People are very comfortable, and it only makes people feel that this is what a lady should look like.

After she finished speaking, she looked at Hedy.

Hedy squirmed her red lips, "How about going for a walk in the park?"

"Okay." Faye nodded and walked towards the park.

The two walked side by side on the side of the road, attracting many passersby to turn their heads.

"Hey, look at those two younger sisters, they're so eye-catching."

"The gentle one with the disheveled hair, and the Goddess Hedy with the ponytail!"

11

I want to strike up a conversation..."

"You might as well want to eat farts!"

There were also people on the second floor of the opposite restaurant startled Call,

"Isn't that Faye from the Miles' family, what a coincidence, but who is the beautiful girl next to her? Why haven't I seen it before?"

His companion stood up and craned his neck to look downstairs, then turned around and said, "Rick, come and see, you know Faye, do you know who that woman next to Faye is?"

"Do you think I can go and see now? I'm going to be crushed to death by beauty." Called "Rick" The seductive man was smiling, leaning on the sofa, with his legs crossed, and a young woman in sexy and revealing clothes was nestled in his arms.

Rick, Young Master, the heir to the wealthy family in Everland, has a flirtatious nature, changing women at a speed comparable to changing clothes.

Hearing what he said, the woman lightly hammered his chest, and said coquettishly, "Young Master is so annoying, he only weighs ninety pounds, how could he crush you to death!" "Really? Then I'm going to get up and look pretty. Rick gestured to get up.

"No! They will crush you to death, you are not allowed to see other women!" The woman hugged Rick's waist tightly and pressed down.

Rick's chest vibrated, he raised her chin, narrowed his eyes, and said, "Really pressure? Little white-eyed wolf, forgot who made you happy last night, didn't you?" "You...you hate it!" The woman blushed and burrowed into Rick's arms.

Rick's brothers are used to this kind of scene.

They didn't think how long this woman could hold Rick, so they simply chatted to themselves,

"I like the appearance of that pretty girl, but as far as I know, this kind of woman is not easy to win, she His eyes are too calm."

"Is it because you are too good at picking up girls?"

"You don't believe me? Then go after me, if you can catch up with me, I will give you my limited edition sports car!"

Rick let go of the beauty in his arms, the tone became correct, "That Lamborghini Poison?"

His friend immediately changed his face, "Don't tell me, you are going to chase that girl for my car."

Rick likes two things most in his life, sports cars and women.

In addition to being the heir to the the family, he is also the most powerful racing driver in Everland. The smile on the corner of Rick's mouth widened, "What else?"

He stood up and glanced at Hedy downstairs.

The young woman panicked, and quickly entangled herself like a snake again, with a more charming voice, "Young Master, don't go, I want you to accompany me at night." She racked her brains and spent a lot of energy before climbing onto Rick's bed, expecting to marry Rick as his wife, even if he is not the wife of the palace.

"Be good." Rick saw how intimate her eyes were like a lover's, and how crisp and neat he was when he broke away from her hand. After Rick left, the brothers gloated and patted the shoulder of the friend who was going to deliver the car,"

Rick is a master in love, and his pick-up skills are first-class. I'm afraid your Lamborghini poison will go into his garage." The friend was full of pain, " Stop it, I regret it!"

Hedy and Faye arrive at the park.

As Faye said, the lighting here is beautifully arranged.

There are mobile stalls outside the park, one of which is a grandma's handmade ice cream shop.

Faye bought two, handed one to Hedy and put the other in his mouth.

As soon as the gentle and demure Faye ate the delicious ice cream, his expression changed, his eyes were bright, unexpectedly cute.

Hedy also took a bite, and the taste was really okay.

But she prefers cakes to ice cream.

Faye

A pleasant male voice came from behind the two.

Hedy turned around and saw a young male around twenty- four years old.

He looks good, with romantic eyebrows and eyes.

Wearing a black shirt with folded sleeves and unbuttoned three buttons at the neckline, revealing a muscular chest, wearing straight trousers, the whole person is about 188

1. cm.

Rick." Faye also turned around, his eyes were not bright, and he returned to normal, nodding and saying hello warmly.

"What a coincidence, I met you here, who is this lady?" Rick's scrutinizing eyes fell on Hedy.

Hedy's appearance surprised him.

No wonder his friends called her "beautiful girl".

"It's Hedy, the daughter of my mom's best friend. She just came from mainland America to play. I'll show her around." Faye explained.

"Mainland?" Rick's eyes flashed.

It was someone who came from that place.

But Faye's mother is also from mainland America, so it's normal for her best friend to be from mainland America too.

"How many days will she stay here? There are quite a lot of places to play in Everland, so I need to plan it out carefully." Rick collected Hedy's whereabouts information without any trace.

“Sister Hedy is waiting...” Faye reported the number.

Rick Susan frowned, “I remember you have something to do in a few days, so you won’t be able to play with sister Hedy.”

He quietly changed his name to bring him closer.

Faye, “My mommy will take their mother and daughter out to play together.”

Rick, “There are many places in Everland suitable for young people to play. It’s a pity that you can’t go out with your mother.”

Faye didn’t refute, it’s a fact.

“Well, Sister Hedy, let’s exchange lines, Faye is busy, I’ll take you on a tour.” Rick took out his phone and explained indifferently, lowering Hedy’s vigilance,

“The the family and the Miles’ family are family friends, I’m. Faye ‘s brother, and I should take care of yo u for her.”

Line is a chat software commonly used by people in the Everland area, which is different from the inland area. Alarm bells go off in Faye’s head. After Rick’s “combination “is done, normal women will be excited!

Knowing that Rick is flirtatious, she looked at Hedy worriedly, thinking,

When Rick is gone, I have to find a chance to hint to Hedy’s sister that ” Rick is not easy to mess with“, so don’t be tempted.

Faye didn’t know, her worries were unnecessary.

Hedy only has one heart, and if he gives it to Preston, he will lose it, and there will be no fascination.

She looked at Rick lightly, and said calmly, “I don’t have a line.”

Rick thought that the social software used in mainland America and Everland should be different, and he asked again,

“Where is the mobile phone number?”

The mobile phone number is available all over the world. Bar.

Hedy looked as usual, “No cell phone.”

Just after finishing speaking, the cell phone in Hedy’s pocket vibrated, and a number marked as advertising harassment called in.

She took out her phone, hung up in front of Rick and Faye, and put it back. It’s as if nothing happened.

Faye, “. ”

Rick felt amused, and he said with a smile, "What was that just now?"

Hedy's voice didn't fluctuate at all, "A high-tech communication device that doesn't have the function of striking up a conversation."

Chapter 297 Vicky's hostility, clean up Vicky

Hedy can smell Rick, there are at least two kinds of women's perfume.

You can also see an ambiguous hickey on his chest exposed by opening his shirt.

Coupled with

Faye's subconsciously tense body and the tension of looking at himself, Hedy can intuitively guess Rick's thoughts.

Her refusal was obvious.

I hope this man has some eyes too, so he doesn't bother her again and again.

"Sister Hedy is so humorous." Rick smiled with his fists on his lips, and he was not angry or embarrassed. His excellent looks attracted many passing women to watch.

After

laughing, he opened his eyes with a serious tone, "However, I don't call it 'talking up. "Guanju" also said that a fair lady is a gentleman. I fell in love with you at first sight. and wanted to pursue you. Sister Hedy can't pity me, give me a chance?"

Sometimes, frank men are more likely to win the favor of women than hypocritical men.

"I have a fiancé." Hedy's red lips parted slightly, his eyes were cold, and he was here again.

When a normal man reaches this point, he should be defeated.

But Rick is not an ordinary man.

The more "fish" resists, the more he, the "Sea King", wants to catch her.

He curled his lips indifferently, and said slowly,

"Sister Hedy, you have to shop around when shopping, especially when looking for a fiancée. If you don't try me, how will you know which one is more suitable for you?"

11

His face and eyes slowly became hostile, "Are you going to get out, or should I 'please' you?"

She had already given Rick enough patience for

Faye 's sake. But Rick understands women's thoughts very well. After he tested the edge of danger, he immediately retreated to the safe area, smiling coquettishly,

11

Sister Hedy, don't be angry, I was just joking to tease you. An angry you is better than a blank-faced you." Much cuter, isn't it, Faye ."

He turned to look at Faye and changed the subject.

Faye was about to say something when a happy female voice came over.

Rick! You're really here!"

The visitor was Faye 's half-sister Vicky. She stepped on high heels and walked quickly, hugging Rick 's arm, her eyes full of admiration. The smile on

Rick 's face froze on the spot, he said "good evening", and looked at his brothers behind

Vicky. The brothers made a few gestures, then spread their hands and shrugged.

It means,

We were having dinner, and we met Vicky, she insisted on asking us where you were, and said we dared to lie, so she asked her father to stop the business cooperation with our family, and there was nothing we could do.

Rick sighed helplessly.

He knew what Vicky, the apple of the eye of the Miles' family, meant to him.

But although he likes beauties, he doesn't refuse everything.

Like Vicky, he just wants to stay away, but the two families are family friends after all, so there must be contact.

Rick, didn't you read the text message I sent you?" Vicky pouted.

"I didn't pay attention when the phone was on silent." Rick lied without changing his face.

He actually saw Vicky 's text message, but he didn't want to reply.

"It doesn't matter if I didn't pay attention, didn't I find it here?" Vicky smiled cutely,

"Rick, Bar has a batch of new wine, I opened a card, let's go and taste it together?"

Saw Hedy and Faye standing opposite each other.

Vicky's complexion changed immediately, his whole body was full of hostility, and his tone was cold, "Why are you two here? What do you want to do with Rick?"

When she came over just now, the buildings in the park blocked Hedy and Faye, and she didn't see them immediately.

Faye was speechless.

Are they looking for Rick?

It's Rick who wants to pursue Hedy, okay?

Rick took the initiative to explain, "We just 'coincidentally' met and chatted for a while."

Vicky's face looked better now.

Look at the eyes of Hedy and Faye, full of disgust and contempt.

She shook Rick's arm and said softly, "Rick, let's go to the bar, ignore them."

Rick frowned and said,

"I don't really want to go to the bar tonight. If Faye and the others go, I will follow. You guys go together, there are so many people, I don't want to spoil your interest."

Many times, there will be such things as "I don't really want to go, but since everyone is going, I'll cooperate and follow along."

Vicky expressed that she could fully understand, and turned her head and asked Faye and Hedy reluctantly, "Hey, are you two going to the bar?"

Unbeknownst to him, Rick was waiting for Vicky's words.

If Faye and Hedy go, especially Hedy, then he goes.

He wanted to create an opportunity to catch Hedy early and exchange his friend's Lamborghini poison.

If Hedy doesn't go, he just has an excuse not to go to Vicky's appointment.

"Sister Hedy, do you want to go to the bar?" Faye doesn't like Vicky very much, but still introduced,

"the bar is an Internet celebrity bar I told you before. In addition to the variety of wine, the cakes and ice cream are also excellent."

Hearing the cake, Hedy's eyes flickered, "Go."

She wanted to taste how "absolute" that cake was.

"Then let's go together." Rick made a final decision.

So, Vicky got on Rick's cool modified sports car first.

Faye knew that he couldn't get along with Vicky, so in order to avoid unnecessary conflicts, he took Hedy with him and got into the same cool modified car of the Rick brothers. A group of people headed towards the back street where the bar Bar is located.

The bar was crowded with people, the DJ was shaking the sky, the lights were blurred and dim, and it looked wanton and chic.

Vicky ordered the latest drink, Faye ordered ice cream, and Hedy ordered a cake.

Rick and his brothers drank first.

Vicky also talked and laughed with them.

Only Hedy and Faye are eating.

Hedy was holding the cake, his eyes were bright, and he was obediently obsessed.

Faye was holding the ice cream, his eyes were bright, and he was obediently obsessed.

“Sister Hedy likes to eat cakes, doesn’t she?” Rick leaned on the leather sofa and immediately understood Hedy’s hobbies, his eyes imprinted with lights flashed.

If you want to pursue a woman, it is best to start from her hobbies.

Hedy continued to eat the cake, ignoring Rick.

“Still angry?” Rick chuckled, “Then how about I treat you to the best cake in Everland tomorrow to apologize?” Hedy suddenly felt that the deliciousness of the cake plummeted.

She slowly looked up at Rick with cold eyes, “I’ll repeat it one last time, I have a fiancé, I’m not interested in you, and I don’t want to be friends with you.

If you don’t understand the language, you still bother me, I don’t mind calling You know.” She knew exactly what Rick was planning!

“Hillbilly! Who told you to talk to Rick like this? This is not a dirty mainland, you give me-”

Vicky stood up abruptly, wanting to ask questions.

Hedy picked up the wine bottle at hand, banged it on the table, and the wine splashed everywhere.

She held up the half-cut wine bottle with a sharp notch, pressed it against Vicky’s neck through Faye, and said in a calm voice, “Go ahead.”

Chapter 298 A new mission, are all mainland girls so personal?

The bar is still noisy.

The guests are still drinking.

Men and women, still rocking on the dance floor.

The sound of the wine bottle being smashed was not enough to attract the attention of the public, and no one looked here.

Drip—drip—drip—is the sound of wine dripping from the edge of the table to the ground. There was no smile on Rick's face, and his brothers froze!

Vicky was even more dumbfounded, she hadn't finished speaking yet, why did the sharp weapon hit the aorta in her neck?

She didn't see it at all!

She is afraid!

"Hedy, you, what do you want?" Vicky's voice trembled.

"I want to educate you for your parents." Hedy said lightly,

"First, I am a guest invited by your father's wife. No matter where I come from, please pay attention to your manners.

Second, I want you not to talk to your Rick like that, take care of your Rick first, don't have the ability to conquer men, just try to squeeze innocent women.

Do you understand?"

Vicky's face was green and pale, and he stubbornly remained silent.

Hedy sent half of the broken bottle forward half an inch.

It was midsummer, the wine was taken out of the freezer, and the bottle exuded a faint air-conditioning.

Sensing that the air-conditioning was very close to her, Vicky had no choice but to give in, "Ming...understood..."

Hedy put half of the bottle on the table, turned and left.

"Sister Hedy wait for me." Faye got up and left together, blushing slightly.

She felt that Hedy was so handsome just now!

Worship!

After the two left, Vicky felt uncomfortable all over.

She is used to domineering in Everland, no one has ever dared to treat her like Hedy.

And she had to bow her head because the broken bottle was pressed against the main artery... She, Rose from the wealthy Everland Miles' family, actually bowed her head to a country bumpkin from the mainland! The more

Vicky thought about it, the more angry she became, and she trembled all over!

She was ashamed to stay here, leaving a sentence "I suddenly remembered something, Rick, you play" and left.

After the three women had left, there was a sound of applause from the sparse booths.

Brother A whistled, "This mainland girl is awesome!"

Brother B nodded, "This mainland girl is wild!"

Brother C had an idiot face, "This mainland girl is so cute!"

Brother D clapped his heart, "It seems that my Lamborghini poison Keep it...are all mainland girls so characterful?"

"Who said keep it?" Rick picked up his glass and took a sip.

"Madam Continental!" Brother A stared,

Rick, didn't you hear her say that she has a fiancé and doesn't want to be friends with you?"

Rick raised his wine-stained lips, "So what?"

Brother B leaned over to Rick, "You are getting more and more courageous? Why, want to poach someone's corner?"

Rick nodded.

Brother D was heartbroken again, "As expected, you are still reluctant to part with my Lamborghini poison!"

Rick smiled but said nothing, took another sip of his wine, and his eyes fell on the half bottle that Hedy put on the table.

He's not all for Lamborghini poison, either.

He became interested in Hedy.

He likes her appearance, her figure, her personality, and her voice.

What's more, she has a fiancé.

It's not that he has hobby of taking people's wives, he just suddenly has a competitive heart.

He wanted to know how good Hedy's fiancé was, so that Hedy would not be tempted when facing him.

Now the ratio between wanting Lamborghini poison and wanting to pursue Hedy is 50-50.

Rick raised his glass again.

Brother A hastily stopped him, "Don't drink, Rick, you have to participate in the American Car Championship in Everland tomorrow." The Car Championship is a global event in the racing industry.

Before entering the finals, the racers need to get qualifying places in their respective cities, then get qualifying places in their respective provinces, and then get qualifying places in their respective countries.

In the end, the car kings of all countries gathered at the same place to decide the final global champion.

Everland is a province of the USA. There is a site for the King of Cars Race, which is divided into male racers and female racers.

"It's okay, Vicky has a competition tomorrow, and the wine she ordered is not proof." Rick leaned back. In order to get close to him,

Vicky also played racing as he liked.

Although it is not as good as the male drivers, but among the Everland female drivers, it is also one of the best. And I will also go to the "Women's Field" of the tomorrow.

Everland Station Car King Contest

Hedy and Faye, sitting in the car back to Miles' family villa.

Faye is not a person who talks a lot, Susan closed her eyes, thinking of Hedy's appearance in her heart, she still felt very excited.

Hedy opened his eyes, staring ahead.

There were more systematic words in front of her eyes,

[Ding! Trial mission released. ] [Trial task (19), Participate in the "Women's Field" at the Everland station of the Car King Contest and win the championship. ]

The sudden mission made Hedy Susan frown. She took out her mobile phone and searched for information related to "

Everland Station of the Car King Contest". The website that pops up is the Everland website, which is full of traditional characters.

Game time, Tomorrow.

Race location, Everland International Speedway.

Race order, male racers race first, female racers second.

Deadline for registration, 10,00 p.m. tonight.

Hedy glanced at the time on the phone, it was already nine fifty-five.

She used the fastest speed to register herself with her identity certificate and driver's license certificate – the regular race, which was much stricter than the original South Circuit.

“Faye.” Hedy asked softly, “Do you know where there is a place to rent a sports car in Everland?” In the bride price given to her by the King Family, there were quite a few supercars, but they were all there, not in Everland.

You need to bring your own sports car to compete for the king of cars, so if you want to participate, you must have a car.

“Rent a sports car?” Faye opened his eyes, “There are several supercars in the Miles' family garage, do you want to go for a drive?” Hedy shook his head, his eyes were burning, “I want to participate in tomorrow's car competition.”

Faye doesn't know how to race cars, but the existence of her sister Vicky let her know some simple knowledge, such as the car needs to be modified.

She pondered for a moment, “Except for Vicky's sports car which has been modified, the rest of the cars in the

Miles' family are original, and it's a bit of a disadvantage to run with the modified car. There is a modified supercar in my classmate's garage. I asked him to borrow it.”

||

Her classmate is one of Rick's good brothers, not a professional racing driver, and modified supercars just for fun.

Hedy, “Then thank you and your classmates in advance.”

-A

Night Without Dreams.

When Hedy woke up, Faye's modified supercar had already parked in the Miles' family garage.

It was a big red sporty sports car with smooth body lines, and it looked quite beautiful. The price was converted into RMB, about four million.

It can't compare to the car King Family gave her, nor can it compare to the luxury car she once drove, but it's better than nothing.

Hedy drove the supercar, greeted his mother and Jessie, and drove Faye to the Everland International Raceway. The Everland station of the car king competition is about to start.

Chapter 299

Just finished the driver's license test, dare to come to participate in the racing?

Vicky came to Everland International Speedway one step ahead of Hedy.

This is not because she actively wakes up early, but because male racers race earlier than female racers.

This means that male drivers need to arrive at the racing track earlier to complete registration, testing and other processes.

Rick is a male driver, he was surrounded by his brothers and came to the racing track before dawn.

Vicky came after Rick.

At this moment, Rick has completed all the procedures, is wearing a racing suit, and is just waiting for the race to officially start.

Vicky stood beside him, holding his arm, and said delicately, "Rick, after the car race, let's go snorkeling abroad. I haven't traveled abroad with you for a long time!"

Sorry, I still want to pursue Sister Hedy, yourself Go." Rick smiled coquettishly, but his meaning was straightforward.

Vicky's complexion changed drastically, "How can you pursue her? Rick, she is a mainland girl, not Everland, nor a foreign country..."

"Although I don't know much about mainland America, it seems that mainlanders are not too bad. They all have one nose and two noses." The eyes are no different from us." Rick's tone was calm, and he didn't even bother to pretend to be perfunctory.

Being pestered by Vicky all the time, he's annoying.

"Rick ..." Vicky hesitated to speak, tears welling up in his eyes.

She stomped her feet, and thought bitterly, It's all the fault of that country bumpkin Hedy!

Hedy must have seduced Rick desperately, just like Faye 's mainland mother!

Leaving the bar last night, she originally wanted to go back to the Miles' family villa to settle accounts with Hedy and Faye .

Considering that there will be a competition the next day, it is not appropriate to stay up all night arguing, so she suppressed this thought.

Vicky bit her lip, her eyes flashed fiercely.

When the game is over, she must deal with Hedy, and Faye mother and daughter by the way!

Chapter 300

– Outside

the Everland race track. As

Faye got out of the car, he chatted and explained that Vicky was so hostile to them,

“My father used to be a couple with Faye 's mommy, and they had a very good relationship. Later, because of some quarrel, her mommy broke up and went to Europe.

Sad, when I was traveling, I met my mommy, the two got to know each other, and finally entered the marriage hall.”

After a few years

of marriage, Vicky's mommy came back again.

Grandparents accept—my mommy didn't give birth to a boy, and the Miles' family pays attention to blood offspring.”

“Mummy also agreed, but she resisted this kind of marriage in her bones, and slept with daddy in a separate room.”

In Everland, although Everyone knows that they can have multiple wives, but only my mommy and dad are legally legal couples, with property division rights, children's inheritance rights, etc.."

Vicky and her mother are favored and noisy They are jealous."

"But my mommy is innocent, Vicky and her mommy have been declaring to the outside world that it was my mommy who meddled in the relationship between Dad and her."

Mommy She is from mainland America, and every time a celebrity gathers, she will be ridiculed and ridiculed. She doesn't have any close friends here."

Faye looked at Hedy, "The night I reconnected with your mommy, she cried happily for a long time."

"Has Aunt Jessie never thought about divorce?" Hedy asked.

Faye paused, and smiled helplessly, "I also persuaded Mommy, and Mommy told me that love is humble."

Hedy's eyes flashed.

She thought about her time with Preston.

Preston is wholehearted to her, and she is also wholehearted to Preston, without humbleness, mostly mutual understanding and mutual tolerance.

If love reaches the point where it can only be described as "humble", it will be too painful.

It's just that everyone has their own choice. Hedy didn't make any more speeches, and followed the signposts to the "Competitor Registration Office".

To put it bluntly, the registration office is the same as the "hotel front desk".

Hedy walked to the front of the stage and spoke clearly, "I'm here to register."

The accent was completely different from

Everland's, and the male staff in charge of registration was taken aback for a moment, "Mainlanders?"

Mainlanders came to Everland to race cars, which is really enough Strange.

He manipulated the computer, found the background document, and asked dutifully, "Miss, what is your name?"

Hedy."

"I found it." The staff turned to look at Hedy, "Please show your ID card and driver's license, So that we can review."

Hedy put the ID card and driver's license together on the table and pushed them over.

The staff took it.

“Faye, Sister Hedy!”

Rick’s voice came from the left.

Hedy ignored it.

Faye turned her head and saw Rick, Vicky and Rick’s brothers walking towards them.

“Why are you here?” Vicky said in a bad tone.

Faye explained, “Sister Hedy also signed up to participate in the Everland car championship.”

“Sister Hedy can also race cars?” Rick’s eyes flashed with amusement, and the corners of his lips curled up.

Hedy is a person who keeps surprising him.

“How could she, a mainlander, know how to race cars? My classmate’s nanny used to be a mainlander. She said that there is no asphalt road there, and there are fewer people driving. When the wind blows and the sky is full of yellow sand, she can’t open her eyes. Vicky put her arms around her chest and snorted coldly, “Don’t just want to build plank roads openly and hide things in the dark, and deliberately get close to

Rick on the grounds of participating in racing?”

The mainland girl’s mind is really highly unified and disgusting!

‘Vicky (Vicky)!’ Faye and Rick said in unison, eyes accused.

It’s impolite to doubt a person at will, or even belittle a person. It’s out of the style of the Miles’ family, and it’s also out of the style of the Everland rich family. “Whether I know how to race cars, what does it have to do with you?” Hedy slowly raised his eyes, looking at Vicky,

“It seems that you forgot what I taught you last night.”

“You-” Vicky was angry Knot!

Hedy, which pot is not open and which pot to lift!

But last night she had a broken bottle, today she has nothing, can’t hurt herself!

Vicky is confident again.

She raised her chin with a cold face, and was about to say something when the staff checked the information and returned Hedy’s ID card—and—driver’s license, ”

Ms. Ellis, please keep your ID card.”

“Wait a minute!” Vicky quickly Walked over, and snatched Hedy’s driver’s license from the staff first, and laughed mockingly,

“Oh my God, I read that right, the driver’s license that I just passed the test five days ago dares to use it to participate in professional racing competitions Hedy, let me say that the purpose of your coming here is to get close to Rick, right? Are you still playing tricks with this lady?”

Vicky flipped over the driver’s license and showed it to everyone. afternoon.

Faye froze.

Rick and Rick ‘s brother, both froze.
