

The Killer 301

Chapter 301 Pre–Match Interview, Her Madness!

Seeing Hedy's/clear refusal,

Ruby closed the zipper again without forcing it. Vicky sneered beside him.

I thought, Hedy really dares to swell her face to pretend to be fat. The world's third female driver kindly borrowed her racing suit, but she didn't want it, and she was not afraid of accidents in the middle of the race.

Wait, accident...

Vicky's eyes flashed with hatred.

Her biggest dream in this life is to marry Rick and become a young mistress.

Rick is indifferent to her, but he is more protective of Hedy.

Did you fall in love with Hedy's looks?

What if...

What if Hedy got into a car accident in a professional game, accidentally disfigured, or became disabled?

Vicky raised the corners of her lips, and her delicately made-up face flashed a shadow of prey.

After checking the situation of the female drivers, the staff led Hedy and others to the stage covered by the red carpet for interviews.

Because it is a regular event, Everland TV's Sports TV is broadcasting the entire game live.

The male host held a microphone, walked up to Vicky, introduced the medals and honors Vicky had won in his career, and then interviewed her,

Rose, you are one of the best local female drivers in Everland, but this time Miss Ruby, you Do you feel a lot of pressure?"

Vicky flipped her hair at the camera, then winked, "There is no pressure, because I know that there is a big gap between me and Miss Ruby, she is the third female driver in the world.

Because of my studies, I seldom train, so it's good to work hard."

At this point, she paused and looked at Hedy with a smile, "As long as my ranking is higher than the mainland girls, I will be satisfied."

"WOW!" The audience cheered and whistled.

After the male driver's race, everyone took time to look at their mobile phones, and they all knew that "the mainland girl dared to race the car just five days after she got her driver's license to marry the wealthy Everland family" ..

They look down on Hedy.

No matter how beautiful Hedy looks, he is just an Israeli servant, a scheming bitch.

Let them play with her body, they will.

But I want them to respect her, sorry, there is no door.

They shouted,

Rose is so handsome!"

"Don't embarrass the mainland girl!"

"We support you!"

The host was also very happy.

He walked up to Ruby again and introduced Ruby's great achievements in his career.

At the end, he interviewed Ruby, "This is Miss Ruby's first race in Everland. Do you have any goals or plans?" Ruby replied, "Win the championship and tie the track record just set by the male driver Rick." As soon as Ruby's goal was to tie Rick's record, the audience burst into more enthusiastic whistles and cheers.

"As expected of Ruby, you are so aggressive!"

"Rick's record is really difficult to surpass, and it is already very impressive to be able to match it!"

The host finished interviewing the rest of the female drivers, and it was Hedy's turn to sign up last.

He walked up to Hedy, his enthusiastic smile restrained, and he said in a perfunctory tone,

"Hedy is standing in front of me now. He is from mainland America. He just took his driver's license test for five days. He has never won honors or trophies in regular professional competitions, nor has he participated in any competitions. No regular races."

The so-called regular races refer to the racing competitions that have been registered in the United States or the International Automobile Association and have sponsors. Such as the "South Motor Speedway" kind of self-entertainment, and small competitions that can be black-handed with power, are not regular competitions.

"Cut~~"

After the host introduced Hedy's "excellent military exploits", the audience booed a lot, expressing their contempt for Hedy in this way.

The camera zoomed in for an instant, as if trying to capture the moment when Hedy showed an embarrassing expression.

However, Hedy's expression didn't show any emotion, it was what it was, or what it was.

The host routinely interviewed her, and he didn't even want to call her 'Miss',

"Hedy, this is your first professional competition, right? You don't even have a racing suit, what kind of results do you want to get?"

Hedy said lightly Open the mouth, "Win the championship and refresh Rick 's racing record."

She wants to win the championship.

Since Ruby 's goal is to equal Rick 's record.

Then she can only beat Ruby by breaking Rick 's record

Her logic is clear.

The audience felt that Hedy's mind was broken!

"Is there any mistake?

Only five days after the driver's license test, she wants to win the championship and break Rick 's record ?"

"If she brags about collecting taxes, she would be bankrupt by now?".

"Mainlanders are so funny!"

In addition to the audience, the contestants also laughed.

Ruby didn't smile, she glanced at Hedy with confusion.

The host twitched the corners of his mouth in embarrassment, reluctantly boasted "It's good to be ambitious", and then backed away.

In the VIP auditorium.

Faye sat in the corner with a calm expression, his hands gradually clenched into fists nervously.

the other side.

Rick 's brothers were amazed.

Brother A, "Rick, Continental Girl said she wanted to break your record, what do you think?"

Rick smiled and said, "Maybe she can really break that record ?" There are many people.

But not everyone likes to show off in professional competitions and become a well-known powerhouse.

What if Hedy can surprise him?

inside.

At the end of the interview session, the female drivers went to the aisle to drive their cars up in order to prepare for the race.

Ruby is a black modified racing car worth 80 million

Vicky is a pink modified racing car worth 70 million.

The rest of the cars have different colors, and the prices are mostly around tens of millions.

Hedy is an exception.

She drove a borrowed red modified racing car worth more than four million USD.

Compared with other female drivers' cars, the shape and paint of this car are a lot lower.

"Damn it!" Brother A slapped his thigh fiercely, "Mom, isn't this the car in your garage?"

Rick looked at Brother B.

Brother B also nodded with a complicated expression,

Faye asked me to borrow a modified car last night. I didn't expect that she borrowed it for Hedy...I also saw Hedy driving out, so I knew Hedy was going to use my car to race." Brother

C Frowning, "Although your car has been modified, its performance is very average. It is not comparable to the level of modified cars of professional racers. It is the worst car in the field, right? What's the matter with Faye, why didn't you ask Rick to borrow it? Rick 's garage Any car is many times stronger than this one!"

Brother B shrugged.

Faye doesn't want Hedy to get involved with me, lest I take the opportunity to play with Hedy's feelings, she is smart." Rick sighed in his heart, and then looked serious,

"I take back what I said before, Hedy is very difficult, or can't refresh me. record."

Chapter 302 Real women never look back at the explosion

Rick thought Hedy might break his own record before.

It is based on the fact that Hedy has a good enough car and good enough racing technology.

He was thinking just now, Hedy is so confident, how well she prepared the car.

In the end, she borrowed a modified car from his brother.

How can a 4 million modified car compare to Ruby's 80 million modified car?

The gap between them is really too big.

Brother B also nodded and said with difficulty, "With this car, it is indeed impossible to break your record."

He modified the car casually to accompany his brothers. How can it compare with the modified car of a professional player? Compare.

Brother A hooked his shoulder with a smirk, "I still remember when you drove this car, almost got into a car accident, and the brake pads also had cracks, which made you yell on the road..."

Brother B suddenly stood up, "I didn't change the brake pads!"

Brother A asked with a question mark face, "What do you mean?"

Brother B looked nervous, "After that accident, I just threw the car in the garage and forgot to change the brake pads!"

Brother C stared wide-eyed, "In other words, Continental Girl is driving a... dangerous car whose brake pads may break at any time?"

Brother A was dumbfounded, "How could you do such a stupid thing! Isn't this harmful!"

Brother B was even more Nervous, "I, I really didn't do it on purpose... What should I do?"

Rick glared fiercely at brother B, and before he had time to reprimand him, he rushed towards the commentary booth like a fly!

At the same time, the sound of the start of the game sounded in the stadium.

Multiple modified racing cars step on the accelerator together and go hand in hand!

Ruby is temporarily leading, followed by Vicky, followed by the rest of the contestants, including Hedy.

These guys were serious pro racers, not the half-baked ones she'd met at South Speedway.

After two U-shaped turns, Hedy broke away from the main team with his excellent technology and ranked third.

The commentators, everyone in the auditorium, the people waiting in front of the TV after seeing the hot news, and the people watching the live broadcast on the Internet all showed expressions of surprise.

"Mainland girl seems to have something?"

"This skill is not like someone who just took the driver's license test for five days..."

Let's underestimate her! Mainlanders are also good at racing cars!" "

It's a pity that her modified car is too bad, otherwise Maybe we can compete with Vicky!" "Is there a possibility? I mean, use extremely subtle operations to bridge the gap in hardware?"

While exchanging opinions, Rick pushed away the staff and forcibly broke into the commentary booth, took the microphone from the commentator's hand, and shouted,

"Hedy! Stop! There is something wrong with your car's brake pads!" The Everland International Circuit is divided into four stages.

The first stage is the artificially created road section in the field.

The second stage is a gentle road section in the suburbs.

The third stage is a winding mountain section with complex curves.

The fourth stage is the final sprint around the sea.

The end of the section around the sea is the starting point of the Everland International Circuit, a circle a round.

At intervals

on the road, there is a monitoring probe, which is convenient for the commentator and the audience to control the game situation.

At this moment, Hedy is still in the stage of artificial creation in the field.

Just hold the microphone and shout, and Hedy can hear it.

Hedy did hear it, and she glanced at the commentary desk.

Rick said, "The car that the youngest lent you had an accident, the brake pads were cracked, and he forgot to change it, you should drive the car away from the arena quickly, or there is a risk of a car accident!

"The audience, the audience in front of the TV, and the audience on the Internet were all stunned.

"There are cracks in the brake pads? Are they real or not?"

"Maybe it's fake." "

But it might be real!"

"Don't care if it's real or not, this thing is life-threatening, even if it's fake, it has to be taken seriously Treat it!"

Everyone felt that Hedy should drive the car off the track and retire to ensure safety.

But Hedy didn't!

She knew Rick wasn't lying.

But she-

there is no way out!

1

The failure of the task means that all the previous efforts have failed, which means that Cooper cannot be resurrected.

This is absolutely, absolutely, absolutely unacceptable to her!

Hedy's eyes flashed with determination, and he tapped the brakes again to drift around the corner, closing the distance between him and Vicky.

The difference is that this time, she intentionally reduced the braking time and tried to avoid more serious wear of the brake pads.

Rick was furious, "Hedy, I didn't lie to you, there is really something wrong with the brake pads! Stop it!"

Faye in the auditorium stood up, at a loss.

Hedy still didn't stop.

At the sixth sharp turn, Vicky, who was not strong enough, chose the safe outer turn. Although he was far away from the wall, he would not hit it.

In the process of drifting, a bright color appeared in front of her eyes.

Hedy drove a bright red modified car and drifted a close inward bend.

The distance between the two cars is no more than one palm wide!

Vicky panicked at first, and then grinned grinningly, "The opportunity is here!"

She stepped on the accelerator, intending to get Hedy out of the track!

Hedy drifted through the corner first!

She hit a lonely!

"Curve overtaking, beautiful!" The commentator became excited, grabbed the microphone in Rick's hand and yelled!

The audience's emotions were also mobilized, and Rick's warning was slowly left behind.

They think, Hedy is pretty good, what's the problem?

The game continues.

At the end of the last corner of the first stage, Hedy was only less than 20 meters away from

Ruby. It's a pity that after coming to the gentle suburban road section of the second stage, Ruby's modified car of up to 80 million immediately took advantage of his money.

Her speed is faster than Hedy, which is unreasonably fast!

She came to the three-stage winding mountain road one step ahead of Hedy.

When going up the mountain, she glanced in the rearview mirror, and there was only one dot of Hedy left.

She took the time to say in her heart,

“It’s a pity for Hedy’s car, but her brake pads should be fine. After all, the championship doesn’t matter ...”

Ruby drove the car calmly, drifting through a series of corners one after another.

Walking halfway up the mountain, Ruby relaxed his mind.

The speed of the car is too fast, and she can’t make every corner close to the inside. Forcibly sticking to it will increase the chance of collision.

After weighing again and again, she chose to relax herself and choose to stay away from the inward bend.

It is also this “tradeoff” that broke into Hedy’s modified car in her eyes!

Hedy caught up with her!

This guy took advantage of the winding mountain road with frequent bends to recover all the distance lost in the second stage!

A complete, thorough, purely technical tie!

But the distance between the two cars is too close!

Ruby is not as far from the corner as Vicky. The distance she vacated was not enough to accommodate Hedy’s overtaking!

Zizizi—

Hedy’s rear of the car brushed past Ruby’s front!

The friction between metal and metal produces dazzling sparks!

Like a dagger, forcibly cutting through the tender and fragile skin!

“Extreme drifting and cornering, extreme corner overtaking! Hedy, take the lead!” The commentator shouted with a thick neck.

He and the audience witnessed how Hedy turned into lightning, galloped smoothly through consecutive corners, and then overtook Ruby!

This is a feast of technology!

This is the ultimate fine work!

This is a perfect cornering that people can't fault the slightest bit!

Rao is the male driver Rick, he can't do this!

This girl from the mainland is like a car god!

Commentary, "It seems that our three-stage winding road has become Hedy's strength. She is one corner ahead of Ruby! She is two curves ahead of Ruby! She is three curves ahead of Ruby!"

I can guarantee that you are in the world In the Contest of Car Kings, I couldn't find a few cornering players as strong as her!"

If it wasn't for giving myself some leeway, the commentator would just say, "Hedy is the best!"

Hedy took the lead in entering the final sprint around the sea.

Ruby had six corners left when she came out. There are mountains on one side and cliffs on the other

Under the cliff is the turbulent sea, seagulls are flying, and fishing boats are sailing on the sea.

With such a beautiful view, Hedy has no time to care about it.

She can't relax a bit.

She was slow

here, and when Ruby left the Panshan Highway, she could use the advantage of the modified car to catch up again. unreasonably.

Squeak –

the last corner, the brake pads finally broke due to overwhelm.

There is still some distance to the finish line, but the speed cannot be artificially reduced!

Hedy unbuckled his seat belt with one hand.

There are still a few kilometers to the finish line.

Hedy opened the driver's door.

The audience was puzzled, "What is she doing?"

Rick understood.

He regained the microphone, waved his other hand to the side, and shouted, "The brakes are broken, the audience in the front row back! Back!"

Click!

Hedy's car crossed the finish line, and the sensor camera captured the crucial scene.

Immediately afterwards, Hedy jumped off the car and rolled several times on the ground!

The out-of-control vehicle rolled randomly on the first-stage track, and the gasoline in the fuel tank flowed all over the ground.

When Hedy stood up.

Behind her, sparks from the friction of the vehicle ignited the outflowing gasoline.

Boom!

With a loud bang, the car exploded and flames shot into the sky.

Hedy didn't look back.

She stood in the middle of the track, her eyes were calm, as usual.

Chapter 303

Slapping everyone in the face and asking Vicky to pay 100 million!

As for "jumping out of the car and then the vehicle exploded", Hedy had a lot of experience when he was a killer.

She thinks this is commonplace.

But the public can't feel that this is commonplace!

The live TV camera was aimed at Hedy, her beautiful face was indifferent, and her ponytail was flying in the air.

Behind him was the spreading flames, and the screaming and fleeing spectators in the front row.

It was in stark contrast to her.

On-site firefighters were dispatched immediately.

The medical staff also came to care, "Ms. Ellis, are you okay? Are you going to the hospital?"

"No." Hedy passed the medical staff.

She knew how to protect herself in that situation, so it was fine.

At this time, Ruby also ran to the end.

She glanced at the burning red modified car with approval in her eyes, and said to Hedy,

"I think you should be the second female driver in the world."

Hedy chuckled, "Because I won you?"

"No, because I saw There are stronger female drivers." Ruby also smiled,

“On the final day of the last Global Car Championship, a woman broke into the track and left all the top male drivers behind.

I don't I don't know if you can compare with the world's top male drivers, but you have already compared with the world's top female drivers, there is no doubt.”

Hedy raised his eyebrows. What would

Ruby think if Ruby knew that woman was also her?

It's funny to say that she accidentally broke into the track just to chase her prey.

Hedy's eyes fell on the deep scratches on the front of Ruby's car, “It seems that it will cost a lot of money to repair.” Ruby shrugged, “It's an honor.”

After a brief communication, the two passed by.

Hedy heads to the rest area.

“Continental girl, oh no, it's Ms. Ellis, I'm sorry, I really didn't mean to, I don't like racing cars, I forgot about the brake pads!” Rick's brother clasped his hands together, bowed his waist and apologized.

“How much is that car, I will compensate you.” Hedy took out his mobile phone, ready to transfer money.

It is true that the other party accidentally forgot to replace the brake pads, and it is also true that she crashed his car with millions of dollars. The two should not be confused.

What's more, after the other party discovered the situation, he stopped her in time, although she didn't “stop”.

“No, no, no, no compensation, thank God if you don't blame me!” The brother shook his head like a rattle.

“That's even.” Hedy said calmly, and when she passed by Rick, she looked up at him,

“Thank you.”

Rick did two things.

One is to tell her that there is a problem with the brake pads, so that she can make mental preparations in advance, and deliberately reduce the use of brakes, so that the car can last until the end.

The second is to evacuate the audience in the front row to prevent the aftermath of the explosion from accidentally injuring the audience in the front row.

“You're welcome... You know, this is the first time you've looked at me with such a friendly look, did you realize that I'm actually quite handsome?” Rick curled his lips to tease Hedy.

With Hedy's friendly gaze, he immediately turned into disdain and contempt, and left silently.

Rick, "...

After being speechless, he smiled softly, watching Hedy's back, his gaze slowly warmed up.

It's so interesting.

Hedy from this continent is so interesting!

Her impeccable racing skills are even more interesting!

Brother A also sighed with emotion, "Rick, she not only won the first place in the youngest broken car, but also broke your record, fulfilling the pre-match interview..."

Brother C shook his phone, "The most 'on the Internet now' 'The photo of hot' is the one where she didn't look back at the car explosion. Netizens said she was so handsome, it was the real version of Fast and Furious, and they all changed their prejudices. Some people said that she didn't understand racing cars before running The competition is only for the media who marry a rich family, scolding them for causing everyone to misunderstand Hedy. The media reporters forced to blame Vicky, saying that Vicky told them that Hedy is such a person, and that he will learn from the lesson in the future and use careful wording and so on.

Rick smiled, "It seems that sister Hedy slapped everyone in the face."

While they were talking, Hedy walked up to Faye behind.

Faye twisted his hands together and opened his mouth.

Hedy knew what she was going to say, and said ahead of time, "You don't have to blame yourself, it's not your fault. Except for the problem with the brake pads, that car is indeed a modified car that is convenient for the race, otherwise I wouldn't be able to get the first place.

I Let me ask you, what is Vicky most concerned about?"

After speaking, Hedy's eyes flickered with coldness.

After that night at the bar, she thought Vicky had lost his way.

Unexpectedly, Vicky went even further, stealing her driver's license, slandering her purpose of participating in the competition, publicly humiliating her in interviews before the competition, and deliberately bumping into her in the middle of the competition.

Before the start of the game, he also uttered bold words, saying that he would clean himself up after the game was over.

Then look, the game is over, who's turn to clean up who!

“She cares most about fame.” Faye cleverly guessed what Hedy wanted to do, and said,

“She wholeheartedly wants to marry into the the family, but she is not a child of the wife of the main ho use, and has no reasonable inheritance rights, so she cannot be in the eyes of the the family. Therefore she has been painstakingly managing her external image and reputation, trying to make the the family lo ok up to her and agree to her marrying Rick.”

about ten minutes later.

The explosive vehicle was towed away, and the pink modified ear driven by Vicky also reached the finish line and finished third. Her face stinks like a hundred hairy, rotten eggs.

Vicky ‘s face became even more stinky

when he thought that he deliberately belittled Hedy in the pre-match interview, but let Hedy run in front of him. This is a regular game that will be broadcast simultaneously o n TV!

She really didn’t expect that Hedy, who just got his driver’s license for five days, would have better racin g skills than herself!

After another ten minutes, the rest of the racers crossed the line one after another.

The awards ceremony begins.

The host first announced the third place, ” In the women’s arena of the Everland Contest, the third place winner is Vicky! The result...”

Vicky stood on the third place podium, holding the bronze trophy.

She was careful and found that the venue was a bit quiet.

When he was puzzled, the host handed over the microphone, intending for Vicky to deliver his acceptan ce speech.

Vicky showed a decent and generous smile,

“First of all, I am very grateful to the audience for their love for me. Although I only took the third place, I did not surpass the mainland girl.

But it is impossible for the mainland girl to take the first place, and break Rick’s record, right? I I will continue to work hard in the future!”

Vicky came to the finish line late and did not know Hedy’s results.

She just wants to pull Hedy back!

There was silence in the auditorium.

The host was also silent for a while.

He didn't know what to say. After all, Vicky had a background, so he just smiled and announced the second place,

In the women's arena of the Everland Station Car King Contest, the second place winner is Ruby! The result..."

Looking down at the trophy Vicky raised her head suddenly, and the blood on her face slowly faded away!

There were only two people running in front of her, Ruby was the second, so wouldn't Hedy be the first?

How can Hedy be number one?

She just said that it is impossible for Hedy to take the first place!

How could you slap her in the face so quickly!

Ruby stood on the third-place podium and gave a speech, "I am very happy to be able to race with Ms. Ellis, who is world-class in racing technology. At the same time, I also want to say something to Rose." Miss Ruby, please say." Vicky was very polite, I thought I praised Ruby before the game, but now it's Ruby's turn to praise her

Ruby, "I think a professional racing driver should have enough qualities. You call Ms. Ellis a mainland girl, can I also call you Everland girl?"

Don't do to others what you don't want, let alone, she Beat you and me, won the first place, beyond your narrow imagination."

Whistles and cheers sounded from the auditorium.

Hedy's strength conquered them.

After being slapped in the face, they admitted it.

Vicky is also really not polite, it's embarrassing to the Everlanders .

This is the difference between ordinary people and public figures. The smile on Vicky 's face almost fell apart.

After thinking for a while at the fastest speed, she found a step for herself to quibble,

"Miss Ruby misunderstood, the 'Mainland Girl' I said didn't mean to belittle, it was just a simple name, and I don't mind if Miss Ruby calls me Everland and Sister.

also admit that I have misunderstood Continental... Ms. Ellis, but my judgment is based on reality.

Even if she takes the first place, can she still break the record of the male driver Rick ?"

Vicky said more and more Feel more confident.

The auditorium was silent for the second time.

The host was also silent for the second time.

“Whatever.” Ruby, who grew up abroad, said a colloquial sentence.

What she means is, Vicky is hopeless, rushing to get slapped in the face, whatever.

But Vicky thought that Ruby had nothing to say, so he raised his eyebrows leisurely, with a somewhat proud gesture of a winner.

On the other side, the host announced the first place,

11

Hedy won the first place in the women’s field of Everland Contest, breaking the track record just created by male driver

Rick!” Hedy stood on the championship podium.

The cheers and whistles from the audience went straight to the sky!

Rick’s brothers even took the lead in shouting “wow“!

The championship podium was much higher than the third place podium, Vicky was forced to look up at Hedy with disbelief on his face!

The microphone came to Hedy.

Hedy’s voice was cold, “I am also very honored to be able to race with Ms. Ruby. At the same time, I also hope that Vicky can be mentally prepared.

Because I will soon sue you for defamation, and the compensation... 100 million!”

Chapter 304 Does she think she is some kind of public figure?

After Hedy finished speaking, the audience was so quiet that the sound of a thin needle falling to the ground could be heard.

Everyone was confused, thinking that there was something wrong with their ears

Vicky also had the expression of seeing a ghost, “How much do you want me to pay?”

Hedy repeated clearly, “100 million.”

“You are dreaming! I will never pay you 100 million!” Vicky sneered.

Although she is the daughter of the wealthy Everland family, she has a lot of money on hand, but 100 million is not a small sum.

Although she can also get 100 million, the question is to give Hedy 100 million... Is Hedy worthy?

She just said a few words that misunderstood Hedy, so why should she pay Hedy 100 million?

Hedy glanced at Vicky from the corner of his eye, and then left the podium.

The awards ceremony is over.

Hedy said goodbye to Ruby, and drove back to Miles’ family villa with Faye.

Rick originally brought his brother to block her, trying to celebrate her winning the championship and breaking the record, but failed to block her.

Inside the car, Faye’s moist pupils were full of surprise, “Sister Hedy, do you really want to claim 100 million?”

“Yes.” Hedy nodded.

She asked Vicky for 100 million, not because she lacked the money, but because the snake hit seven inches.

Since Vicky wanted to be famous so much, and successfully married Rick with the approval of the family, why didn’t she “help” Vicky.

A compensation of 100 million is enough to make Vicky famous in Everland .

“The law does not expressly stipulate the upper limit of compensation, but if you want to successfully file a case, you can’t just rely on a few words, but also need real losses as evidence.” Faye thought for a moment, “You may fail to file a case and cannot claim such a large amount.”

The important thing about this matter is not filing a case, nor is it a claim.

It is the public opinion brought by the popularity, which caused the loss to Vicky.

The fact that

Hedy asked Vicky for a claim of 100 million was spread widely on Everland’s network. Netizens who didn’t pay attention to the racing, and didn’t watch the excitement of the racing, all learned of this.

Everyone was puzzled at first,

“What did Vicky do that hurts God and Hedy has to pay 100 million USD.”

After learning about the car king competition, everyone looked disgusted,

“This Vicky is too outrageous, she is also the daughter of Everland’s rich family. Why are you being so rude and being slapped in the face repeatedly?”

After complaining about Vicky, he complained about Hedy,

“The racing technology looks very good, and it is true that Vicky maliciously slandered, but the claim One hundred million is too big to open your mouth, isn’t it?”

“Isn’t it because Miles’ family is rich and wants to take advantage of Miles’ family?”

“Sure enough, a mainland girl is still a mainland girl, and the nature of being greedy for money has not changed.”

Losing I had a crush on her just now!”

As many people think Hedy is greedy, as many people know how stupid Vicky is in racing.

Hedy doesn’t care about fame.

Vicky couldn’t sit still.

Especially

when she learned that the media interviewed the the family and asked if the the family would allow Vicky to marry Rick, the the family resolutely refused.

She hurried to another Miles’ family villa where her mother

Kaya was. This is the residence specially arranged by her father Miles for their second room, which is different from the main house. I heard from my mother that living here seems to be because after my mother married into the Miles’ family, Faye’s mainland mother, Jessie, looked as cold as dead when she saw her father and mother hugging each other.

It made my father feel very unhappy, so he divided it into two places.

Unless she has something to do, she usually doesn’t go to the master’s house.

Kaya, who was sitting on the sofa watching a movie, saw her daughter come back, and asked, “Baby girl, what’s the matter with you, why do you look unhappy.”

She is a woman who is about the same age as Jessie, even her appearance is different Quite similar to Jessie. A large part of the reason why Miles took the initiative to approach Jessie was because the two looked alike.

He used Jessie as Kaya’s stand-in.

But there are also obvious differences between

Jessie and Kaya. Kaya is a sick beauty who is as weak as water.

And Jessie is soft and tough, with an indelible firmness in her eyes.

“Mommy, Jessie’s country bumpkin friend’s daughter bullied me!” Vicky threw herself into her mother’s arms, crying.

“Jessie ?” Kaya’s expression changed, her eyes were fierce, “How did you bully you, tell me in detail!”

Vicky explained what happened in detail.

In the end, she flattened her mouth aggrieved, “I didn’t know that Hedy could race cars, so it’s natural to wonder what’s wrong. Even if there was a misunderstanding, you don’t need to pay 100 million USD!” “No, you didn’t misunderstand.” Kaya hugged her daughter, Her eyes were sarcastic,

“Women from mainland America are scheming, otherwise your father would not have been seduced by that little bitch Jessie.” Vicky raised her head in confusion, “What do you mean?”

Kaya sneered, “Hedy went after Rick Think about it,

Hedy, mother and daughter, came to Everland only at the invitation of Jessie.

However, the registration for the King of Cars has started early.

If Hedy’s goal is racing instead of Rick, why didn’t he sign up earlier, Did she have to wait until she met Rick before registering online?

She just wanted to show her uniqueness and attract Rick’s attention..... It is really rare to have such a powerful racing driver in that remote continent.

“I knew she had no good intentions!” Vicky gritted her teeth, “I can’t pay her 100 million!

“She rolled her eyes

“One hundred million, does she think she is some great public figure?”

But even if you don’t pay, everyone knows about it. Many people are laughing at me, and the the family also hate s me.” Shame.” Vicky wiped away tears.

“Don’t worry, Mommy will help you find this place.” Kaya patted her daughter on the back, “Tomorrow is Jessie’s birthday party, and all the wealthy Everland families, including the the family, will gather at the Miles’ family villa.

Your father He will also come back from abroad, by the way, he also said that tomorrow’s birthday party will be attended by a big man with a reputation in the global business world. At that time, I will let Jessie lead Hedy and apologize to you in front of everyone!”

“And online!” Vicky slipped out of her mother’s arms.

Kaya’s tone was doting, and she pinched her daughter’s face, “Okay, I’ll ask them to post a public apology statement on the Internet, and promise to get back all the face you lost!”

Chapter 305

Take Hedy and come over to apologize to Kaya and her! When Vicky was wronged in Kaya's arms, Hedy and Faye, also in front of Malina and Jessie, talked about what happened at the racing track.

Of course, I didn't tell them about "the brake pads broke, and I jumped out of the car" because I was afraid that they would be worried.

Jessie gave a thumbs up and praised sincerely, "River, your daughter is so successful in teaching. Rick is the strongest male driver in Eyerland. Hedy said to break his record, so he can set his record.

I can imagine that time The shocked expressions of the audience!"

Malina waved her hand embarrassingly.

"It's only 100 million, maybe you can't get it." Jessie shook her head. "

It doesn't matter if you can't get it." Faye explained," Vicky cares about fame the most. Sister Hedy's purpose is to let the whole island know about Vicky's stupid things. "

Destroying Vicky 's reputation is worse than killing Vicky. Malina said with a smile, "Okay, take a rest, tomorrow is your birthday party, and many dignitaries will come to celebrate you. You, the protagonist, need to get enough sleep to recharge your spirits, and then make your debut."

Jessie laughed Laughing, only she knows the bitterness in her heart.

Does she care about congratulations from dignitaries?

0.009

She doesn't care

What she cares about is about to put her in the dust.

-The next day, the sun was shining brightly.

The guests who brought gifts and brought their families to the banquet came in one after another from the villa.

Miles, who was on a business trip abroad, also came back.

He is a handsome uncle with sharp eyes, with wrinkles at the end of his eyes, and his aura is calm and majestic. He wears a gray handmade suit and a valuable watch.

But in terms of appearance and temperament, it matches Jessie very well.

Jessie." He called out lightly.

Jessie nodded, and responded lightly, "You're back?"

Miles,

He almost couldn't remember the last time

Jessie greeted him back with a smile. "This is your birthday present." He handed her a delicate-looking gift box.

"Thank you." Jessie took the gift with a light and polite smile on her face, without the thought of opening it.

Miles

looked at Malina, Hedy, and Faye behind Jessie, and asked the other two, "Are they River and River's daughter?"

Surprised, River has changed a lot.

"It's them." Jessie replied.

"Miles." Although Malina didn't like Miles in her heart, she still greeted Jessie for his sake. Hedy looked away, eyes not drawn to Miles.

"Where are they?" Miles looked around, but didn't find the second wife and the other daughter.

Jessie smiled lightly, "I don't know, maybe something has delayed it."

Miles,

There was an indescribable feeling of suffocation in his heart. When

Jessie was full of resistance to Kaya before, he hoped that Jessie had a better attitude towards Kaya. Now Jessie's attitude towards Kaya is getting better every year. He felt something was slowly passing away.

"I'm going to see the guests." Miles left uncomfortably.

"Hmm." Jessie bowed her head, her whole body was quiet, and the loneliness in her eyes couldn't be concealed.

Malina sighed in her heart, not knowing how to comfort her.

There are more and more guests.

Hedy and Faye sat in an inconspicuous corner, holding a cake in one hand and ice cream in the other, with happiness and enjoyment on their faces.

Rick and his brothers came over...they were rich kids who were invited to be there.

"Sister Hedy, you look so cute eating the cake." Rick sat across from Hedy.

Hedy put down the fork, and changed his disgusted expression as if changing his face.

If he hadn't helped her at the racing track, she would have slapped a cake on the face of this dog skin plaster.

Rick couldn't laugh or cry

This girl really didn't hide her dislike for him at all!

But it also made him feel better.

"I'm here to talk about business this time. You can't get 100 million from Vicky, but I know a very good lawyer who should be able to help you successfully sue for around 2 million in damages." Rick said with a smile the goal of.

"No need." Hedy wiped her lips gracefully.

Rick smiled stiffly, and a ray of loss filled his heart.

Yesterday, when his brother asked him if he wanted to continue the Lamborghini poison bet, he hesitated.

He lost the confidence he had before.

Hedy was different from the girls he had been in contact with before.

The other girls were all charming and charming, each with their own beauty, which made him linger on.

Just like traveling, seeing all kinds of scenery.

He is just a traveler, destined to leave.

And the scenery of Hedy gave him the urge to stop and not leave.

But this scenery already has its own passengers.

He wants to dig this corner.

Nothing to do with the bet.

His view of love is the law of the jungle, there is no worldly morality, and the winner is king.

Rick." Rick 's family called him not far away.

"Yeah." Rick looked at Hedy and left.

His brother followed up and said softly, "I must have told you to pay attention to the world's business leaders who appeared at the banquet this time, believe it or not?" Before they came, they were repeatedly told by their family members. The family said, I suddenly received news that there will be a big boss

who stomps his feet at this banquet and can shake the whole Everland three times. The family also said, You have to seize the opportunity and try to talk, if you can succeed, the future is limitless!

It made them all nervous.

It's a pity that until the banquet was about to start, the boss didn't come. Instead, Kaya and Vicky, who hadn't shown up for a long time, came first.

The second wife, Kaya, was pale in a blue dress, and was helped in by Vicky in a goose yellow dress.

The guests whispered,

"What's the matter with the second wife?" –

"I don't know, she seems to be suffering from some serious illness."

Miles took the initiative to walk over to hold the second wife's waist, and said in a distressed tone,

"Didn't you talk on the phone yesterday?" Yes, why did you suddenly get sick?"

Kaya said with a weak expression, "I collected money overnight...cough cough...accidentally caught a cold and passed out."

"Collect money?" Miles frowned.

"Yeah." Kaya nodded, "she was too impulsive, and she said something wrong to Ms. Ellis, the daughter of her sister's friend, which made Ms. Ellis unhappy. I want to ask she to claim 100 million. I'm trying to get it together, ahem."

This sister is called Jessie.

Jessie's face was icy cold.

Miles didn't understand anymore, he looked at Hedy, and then at Kaya, with a stern voice,

"Tell me, what happened?"

Kaya told the truth about what happened at the racetrack.

She's smart enough not to embellish it.

But in terms of tone, he emphasized that Hedy had just obtained his driver's license for five days, met Rick, and then participated in racing competitions.

The voice-over is to tell everyone, It is normal for Hedy to be misunderstood. Although my daughter Vicky is at fault, she is not guilty enough to pay Hedy 100 million.

Pity me, this peerless white lotus, who got sick in order to make up 100 million USD.

Miles turned black on the spot, "Why didn't you tell me about this?"

Ahem, you're already busy with work, I don't want to disturb you." Kaya said softly,

"Besides, 100 million, I'll make up as much as I can. Now, when the time comes, Ms. Ellis will calm down."

Jessie!" Miles yelled angrily, "Take Hedy and come over to apologize to Kaya and she!"

Chapter 306

Hedy fell off the horse, Preston slapped

Miles in the face and shouted angrily, which made the surrounding guests change their faces.

Jessie is not only the main wife of Miles' family, but also the protagonist of today's birthday party. Miles actually asked her and another person to apologize to the second wife, mother and daughter?

This is too much...

Kaya and Vicky looked at each other, and they both saw pride in each other's eyes.

Rick wanted to come out to mediate the atmosphere, but was pulled back by Luna, who gave him a warning look.

Jessie asked slowly, "What did we do wrong?"

Hedy walked to Jessie's side, his eyes rolled violently.

Miles' tone was cold, "Your fault is that you are the eldest wife of the Miles' family, but you didn't handle this farce properly. You are not as gentle and considerate as Kaya. Hedy's fault is that he is unreasonable. For a trivial matter, he dares to ask for 100 million, and the whole city knows about it!"

Jessie nodded blankly, "From Miles' point of view, how should I properly resolve this matter?"

The alienated address aggravated the anger in

Miles' eyes, and he said sharply, "I misunderstood Hedy, that's right, it's reasonable to ask for a certain amount of compensation, but asking for 100 million, do you think it's reasonable?"

Yes, is it reasonable?" Vicky took a step forward, pointed at Hedy and said aggrievedly,

"She's a woman from a mountain village in mainland America, and she's not a great public figure!" The director of the Everland Film Bureau, who was outside the crowd and didn't know what was going on here, pushed aside the crowd and walked over with surprise in his eyes,

"This is not Hedy, the highest-grossing female director in mainland America Ms. Ellis? Hello Ms. Ellis, I would like to introduce your sci-fi movie "Lost", is it possible?"

There was a silence all around.

Excuse me?

Hedy, a mountain village girl, is the highest-grossing female director in mainland America?

She also made a sci-fi movie?

Even the director of the Everland Film Bureau came to say hello in person?

Did something go wrong?

Hedy looked at it. Go up, just grown up?

Miles, Kaya, Vicky, Rick and others all looked shocked.

Don't say they were shocked, Faye was also shocked.

Faye didn't know about Hedy in mainland America.

Because Jessie was afraid to tell about Hedy, will make her daughter misunderstand that she is not as good as Hedy, and thus give birth to undue pressure.

It is also because Malina can't show off how good her daughter is everywhere.

Except for Hedy, Malina and Jessie, everyone's mind is full of problems.

However, this Before the wave of questions had been digested, a new round of questions appeared. The deputy director of the Everland Sports Bureau heard everyone talking about "lost" and "the highest-grossing female director in mainland America", and immediately walked over.

Seeing Hedy, he raised his voice and said, "Isn't this Hedy Ms. Ellis, the gold medalist in the women's figure skating singles at last year's Winter Olympics?"

I love figure skating very much, can you take a photo with me?"

Everyone was stunned again.

Excuse me?

Hedy won the gold medal in figure skating women's singles at the Winter Olympics?

The deputy director of the

Everyone hasn't figured it out yet Well, the chief of the Everland Police Department pushed aside the crowd with fiery eyes,

"This is not Hedy, an expert in criminal psychology and criminal forensics, also known as Dr. L. Ms. Ellis?

Hello Ms. Ellis, I have a murder case that has not been solved for more than 30 years. Can you accept our commission?"

Everyone was stunned.

Excuse me?

Hedy is an expert in criminal psychology and forensics? Even the chief of the Everland Police Department wants to entrust her? Is n't she a female figure skating athlete and a director of science fiction films?

How dare you talk like that!

Everyone felt like their brains were going to freeze.

At this time, a wealthy real estate businessman came over, politely, "I thought I heard it wrong, but I didn't expect it to be you. The talented female painter Hedy Ms. Ellis!

Hello Ms. Ellis, my wife and I really like the new work you painted in front of the Fine Arts Academy of University of Finance and Economics!

I don't know if you are willing to give up your love and sell your works to us. We are willing to pay twice the market price, because your paintings are worth this price! "

Everyone, "? ?

if

Aren't you finished?

Can you give us time and let us take it easy?

The answer is of course no.

A beauty came over with adoring eyes, "I didn't expect to meet you here, the top ten perfume designers in the world, Hedy under the pseudonym sleep Ms. Ellis!

I am your loyal user, can you give me the platinum membership quota of the company under your name ? I really like the 'Galaxy' which only Platinum members can buy! Everyone

That's enough.

It's ok.

Don't provoke us anymore.

A tall, rich and handsome man came over with a embarrassed face, "I didn't expect to meet Hedy, the captain of the fire girl group, here." Ms. Ellis.

Hello Ms. Ellis, you are my favorite female idol from mainland America, can you sign me?"

A cool and handsome kid rushed over, "Hey, nameless, I want to join Phoenix, the world's number one hip-hop dance troupe, you, the leader, agree quickly, don't let me hug your thigh, please!" "

Everyone looked around helplessly.

They thought in a humble way,

Is there anyone else coming out?

If not, we will start to be shocked. Don't interrupt us again, okay?

The audience fell into an eerie silence.

Miles was stunned, It's so rare that I can't get back to my senses for a long time.

Vicky and Kaya are the most stiff.

Hedy looked at them, arms crossed,

"I'm really not a great public figure, so I created a world's number one hip-hop troupe and sang a few songs. The first song with over 100 million hits.

Adjusted several globally sought-after perfumes, and painted several popular oil paintings.

Solved several top ten unsolved cases in the world, and won a gold medal in the women's figure skating singles in the Winter Olympics.

Then I made a sci-fi movie with a box office of more than 5 billion, that's all. "

After so many days, the box office of "Lost" has increased from the previous 3 billion to 5 billion.

Movies are usually only released for one month, but "Lost" is so profitable that the theaters are reluctant to release it.

"Have you heard clearly??" Jessie smiled,

"Excuse me, is there a problem with a well-known person like Hedy asking for a compensation of 100 million USD? "

Vicky's skill is too low to withstand such an impact.

Kaya still has a breath, but she opened and closed her mouth, and she couldn't utter any beneficial words.

Finally, she organized her words, and before she could speak, another low-pitched A magnetic male voice sounded –

“Of course there is a problem. Everyone turned their heads in unison, and saw a tall and straight man with one hand in his pocket, walking towards everyone in a luxurious white shirt. Behind him was a special assistant in a suit with a scar on his forehead. There are two other files on the male special assistant.

It is Preston and Aiden.

“Mr. King. When Miles saw Preston, he suppressed the shock of Hedy in his heart.

There was also a burst of exclamation from all around.

“Mr. King, Preston, the heir of the inland thousand-year-old King Family, the chairman of the King Family Group!” ”

“He is the recognized overlord of the mainland business community, and some time ago he even signed a deal worth trillions with a foreign consortium!” “I heard that many royal nobles have to lower their eyebrows when they see him!” ” heard Preston said that there was a problem, and she thought that she was worthy of being a rare big man in the poor inland, and she looked at things from a different perspective. Her eyes were grateful, “Thank you, Mr. King, for your righteous words. Then, what do you think the compensation should be?? ”

Kaya

Preston jumped over the crowd, came to Hedy, hugged Hedy’s waist, and held Hedy in his arms, with a smile in his eyes and a cold smile,

“Slandering the fiancée of the chairman of the King Family Group, a mere 100/million is not enough, I have already Prepare the lawsuit, the compensation this time is 10 billion!”

Aiden handed Kaya a document.

There was a gasping sound in the audience!

Ten billion!

What an astronomical figure!

No–

Hedy is Preston’s fiancée?

What kind of magical event shocked my whole family!

Vicky Unable to bear the blow, she slumped on the ground, as if her soul had been sucked away.

Kaya looked at the sky-high lawsuit, pinched her palms to stabilize her emotions, and tremblingly said, “she didn’t know that Ms. Ellis was your fiancée, and ... and you can’t claim ten billion like this!

The law is not a decoration, you must at least cause losses due to her gaffes before you can compensate for the losses. right! You have to have substantial losses! Kaya thought she had grasped at straws. Preston glanced at Aiden.

Aiden handed Kaya the second document .

Inside was a contract.

After hastily reading the contract, Kaya also slumped on the ground, eyes blind.

Miles picked up the lawsuit and the contract and looked through it. It said that the King Family Group signed a deal worth hundreds of billions with another King Family Group.

Unfortunately, Hedy had a scandal halfway through and the deal was cancelled. Yes, Preston suffered a “heavy loss”.

“Two King Family groups, Mr. King, you did it on purpose! Miles put down the contract, his eyes angry.

“Can’t there be two King Family groups in this world? ” Besides me, can’t other people’s surname be Ji? “Preston asked back in a calm manner.

Miles laughed angrily.

Preston could have changed the other “King Family Group” into the “A Cat and Dog” group.

He deliberately used “season” to tell Miles’ family

I am Want to mess with you, how?

How arrogant!

And the date on the lawsuit is half an hour ago.

It can be seen that Preston was late because he was waiting for the lawsuit to come down.

Miles took a deep breath.

He is also a character who dominates the mall and knows this situation What to do.

He asked, “Enemies should be solved rather than tied. The Miles’ family is not as big as the King Family, but it is also an important family in Everland and has a certain degree of irreplacability.

Tell me how to withdraw this lawsuit. ”

“That depends on the sincerity of the second wife, whether it is enough.” “Preston’s eyelids rolled slightly.

Miles looked at Vicky who was in a daze, and ordered coldly, “Stand up and bow and apologize to Ms. Ellis!” Then prepare two apologies, one for the Everland media and one for the mainland media.

Record two more apology videos featuring real people, one uploaded to the Everland network and the other uploaded to the mainland network!

“Where’s Madam? ““Preston looked at Kaya.

Kaya looked up with panicked eyes, “What, what?”

“Nothing.” Preston smiled warmly,

“I just feel that Mrs. loves her daughter dearly. She needs 100 million

USD, and you can raise money overnight to get unconscious. Now that she is in such a situation, shouldn’t you do your best and die?” ”

This sentence reminded Kaya.

Her personality is a good mother who can raise money for her daughter overnight and get sick and coma tose. A good mother will not stand by now.

If she dares to stand by, the personality is fake.

Kaya ‘s face, This is really pale,

“I am she’s mother, she made a mistake, I have a certain responsibility, and I am willing to apologize publicly with she.....” ”

I am very touched. “Preston turned his head and told Aiden, “Remember to use the camera with the highest resolution. If the Miles’ family doesn’t have one, take it from the King Family. Make sure everyone remembers what t his loving mother and daughter look like, so that they won’t be caught on the street one day. I met it, but I couldn’t recognize it. Hedy

This level of black belly is really scary.

Chapter 307 Preston is strengthening education (referring to Hedy)

So, Kaya and Vicky bowed ninety degrees to apologize to Hedy in front of all the guests.

Even the apology was written on the spot.

Many people who had a feud with the mother and daughter in the past laughed at them while taking photos and sending them to relatives and friends, embarrassing them in the upper circles of Everland. Then there was an apology video in which a real person appeared in public.

Miles' family took out a new camera of a certain brand.

In theory, it is already the camera with the highest pixels on the market.

The strict Aiden took a look and respected Preston, "Childe King, the camera of Miles' family is not clear enough."

Miles frowned and held back his anger, "This camera comes from GC, a Fortune 500 company in the world. They specialize in developing cameras. The price it is also the ceiling of the industry.

If even their latest pixel is not clear enough, which camera in the world can meet your requirements?"

Aiden said

coldly, "Of course it is the chairman of GC, who personally flew to the USA to give it to Childe King. It's not for sale."

Guest A was speechless, "Some time ago, GC developed a camera that was better than the products on the market, but the process was very complicated, the cost was high, and it was not suitable for mass production, so they only made five out of them. They kept one of them

I used it myself, and the remaining three were given to the three presidents. I never thought that the last one would be given to Childe King—it was delivered by the chairman himself by plane!"

Guest B worshiped, "This is enough to show that Childe King is famous all over the world. How high is the status in the business world!"

Guest C envied, "Such a handsome man covering the sky with one hand is actually Ms. Ellis' fiancé, and he even went out of his way to vent her anger on Ms. Ellis..."

Guest D rolled his eyes, "It sounds like you are more than Ms. Ellis is just as strong, and Ms. Ellis is also a dragon and phoenix, so she is a perfect match with Childe King, okay?"

Rick stood there dumbfounded, suffering quite a blow.

He suddenly understood why Hedy refused him without hesitation.

If he were Hedy, it would be impossible for him to fall in love with himself after meeting Preston.

Felt like being a clown.

Rick smiled helplessly.

He has never failed in love, and he tasted frustration for the first time.

On the other hand, Aiden went to pick up only five non-sale cameras in the world.

During the process, Kaya and Vicky did not dare to look up.

Hedy looked at Preston with surprise in his eyes.

“Why are you here?” There was a hint of tenderness in her cold voice.

“Otherwise?” Preston Susan looked down at her, the smile on his face never dissipated, but there was no smile at all in his bottomless eyes.

Even facing her, there was no smile at all.

uncharacteristically.

Hedy froze.

What is his expression?

Has anything unpleasant happened these days? Hedy was about to ask, when Aiden came in with a camera inlaid with top-quality gemstones, and recorded

Kaya and Vicky ‘s apology video amidst amazement and curiosity. Perhaps it was because they were afraid of Preston in their hearts, or perhaps they felt that this place was too difficult. Kaya and her daughter expressed great regret and apology.

Especially Vicky, she cried while recording how sorry she was to Hedy, hoping that Hedy would show mercy and forgive her.

After watching them finish recording. Miles walked up to Jessie, his tone softened,

He apologized to Jessie, not because Jessie ‘s best friend’s daughter is Preston’s fiancée.

But purely, from an emotional point of view.

He also felt that it was inappropriate for him to ask Jessie to apologize

party. “You don’t have to apologize. After all, you and Kaya have known each other and loved each other for many years. It’s normal to feel sorry for her and blame me.” Jessie was not angry.

“You...” Miles found that the feeling of suffocation hovering in his heart came again, more urgent and fierce than last time.

“How about another birthday present?” Jessie handed the exquisite gift box in front of Miles, eyebrows and eyes frowned,

“Let’s get a divorce.”

One hundred percent of my love is given to you, and the rest is for me. Want to keep it to myself.

Miles raised his head abruptly, panic welling up in his eyes.

Hedy was watching how the situation would develop, but was pulled by Preston's wrist vigorously, from the banquet living room, all the way to the front of the car.

"Preston, you..." What's wrong?

Before Hedy finished speaking, he was thrown into the back seat of the car.

"Preston!" She said angrily, not understanding why Preston would treat her like this all of a sudden!

Obviously it wasn't like this before.

The man didn't answer, but bent down into the car with a sullen face, and slammed the door.

"What happened?!" Hedy glared.

The next second, the man grabbed his arm, pulled it forward, and lay his whole body on his lap.

Hedy didn't understand even more, and became even more angry.

She leaned on the seat with her arms and was about to turn over when the man hit her butt hard.

Hedy's pupils constricted

Not because of pain.

It is impossible to hurt this part.

She just feels ashamed.

What's the difference between this and an adult beating a disobedient child!

"!" She almost shouted his name through her teeth.

"Do you know what's wrong?" Preston asked coldly.

"I'm right!" She said stubbornly.

Snapped!

Another slap on her ass, accompanied by Preston's second questioning,

"Do you know you're wrong?"

"I'm right!" Hedy gritted his teeth and looked at him sharply.

Snapped!

Another slap, "Do you know you're wrong?"

Hedy withdrew his gaze, stopped talking, and remained silent for a while.

If she is stubborn, he will follow him, no one will obey.

In the car, there was only the sound of him spanking her.

Preston's mouth was drawn into a straight line, each breath carrying wildfire through his lungs, consuming him.

Hedy bit her lip, lying on the leather seat, a layer of mist slowly gathered in her eyes.

She is having a hard time.

Obviously, in those years when he was a killer, he had suffered thousands of times more serious injuries and humiliation than this, but he had never felt such great grievances like now.

What's wrong with her.

I'm used to being held in the palm of Preston's palm and cared for, so I feel like a stick in my throat when I receive a little bit of damage from him, is it so unbearable?

Humans are, indeed, creatures that push their feet.

In the end, it was Preston who conceded.

He lowered his hand and lowered his eyes, "Why would you risk your life to race the car even though you knew there was something wrong with the brake pads?"

Preston had never done anything to monitor Hedy.

He took it as an offense.

But the appearance of Samuel made him shake this idea.

He was worried that a second, or third "Samuel" would come out and put Hedy in a dangerous place.

So, his eyeliner followed Hedy and came to Everland.

He also received footage of that race

From Hedy's performance, it can be seen that she believes that Rick did not lie to her, and that there is indeed a problem with the brake pads.

She is very clear that she may have a car accident at any time.

Even so, she drifted through thirty–seven corners, from the racing track to the suburbs, from the suburbs to the mountains, from the mountains to the Huanhai Road... every second, she was walking with death!

She didn't know what kind of mood he was in to watch the whole game!

Chapter 308

The question of the bully and the idiot Preston made Hedy stunned, and the grievance that was fermenting in his heart suddenly dissipated.

"You.....are you angry about this?" She stretched her arms, got up from Preston's lap, and knelt on the leather seat, her eyes were red.

Preston ignored her and turned his head to look out the window with a cold and handsome face.

Hedy frowned, hugging his face, turning his head to look at her.

He pushed her hand away and continued to look out the window.

Hedy, "..."

He actually lost his temper.

"I have a reason why I must win. I must win this racing championship, just like the things I did before." Hedy said seriously, "I can't tell you the specific reason. If I tell you, I will die."

Preston He raised his eyelids, his eyes were filled with shock, but he still refused to pay attention to her.

Hedy frowned again, "What I said is true."

She unconsciously elongated the ending sound, with a hint of coquettishness in it.

Preston rolled his eyelids again, but remained unmoved.

"You beat me up, and I've explained it too, so what else do you want?"

Hedy held his breath.

Preston finally turned to look at her, without a smile in his eyes,

"You signed up at 10 o'clock the night before the race, and it's been twelve hours since you started the race. Do you think it's too long for me to fly or ship Send a safe and reliable racing car there?"

Hedy was silent, "Don't you think it's a bit wasteful and troublesome?"

Preston smiled, "So you think your life is not as important as these wastes and troubles?"

Hedy, "..."

She thought for a moment, and said, "I think this kind of provincial competition doesn't need such a luxurious car."

Preston smiled again, "Then you met Ruby, the third female driver in the world, and because of the gap in the car, you fell behind for a while. For her, you have to speed up the whole process, which is even more dangerous, and you will eventually jump out of the car to escape."

Hedy,

She calmly replied, "It was an accident."

Preston laughed back angrily, "It is an accident when you meet a strong opponent, brake. The problem with the film is also an accident. Could it be that I held your body one day, and the suicide note you left me also had the word "accident" written on it?"

Hedy, before you go on an adventure, can you think about me more?

You know. When I watched the racing video, how nervous and scared I was?

Have you ever thought about how sad your grandparents, your parents, and your brothers would be if something happened to you? How sad will my classmates and friends be?

How sad will I be?"

Preston's eyes turned red, and his voice changed, as if he was choking up a little bit, but he didn't seem to.

Hedy lowered his head, knowing he was wrong, "I'm sorry, it's just that the game started at that time, I had no choice." "You have." Preston looked at the top of her head, his eyes were burning, "You have me."

"You can tell them, you know. It's my Preston woman."

"You tell them that this game must be delayed, and I can give them multiple compensations, and if I don't delay, I will be bankrupt and go begging on the street!" "You can also tell them, your wives. The children are in Preston's hands, if you don't want them to die, delay the game!"

Hedy looked up and commented seriously, "You look like a bully."

Preston almost didn't bring it up, and suffocated to death.

Is looking like a bully the point?

The point is to delay the race, wait for him to deliver the car, and- finish the race safely!

This is totally doable!

Ice egg ice cubes!

He looked out of the window again, ignoring Hedy.

"I know I was wrong." Hedy straightened his back with a serious expression.

Preston simply closed his eyes, still angry.

Hedy continued,

"I really know that I was wrong. If I encounter danger in the future, if I can avoid it, I will definitely tell them,

This lady is a woman from Preston. If you guys don't obey this lady's order, this lady will let you They are all bankrupt and sleeping on the street, and your wives and children are also in the hands of this lady, be careful of their lives!"

Preston slowly opened his eyes, and his thin lips parted slightly, "You think you say that now, and I—"

Hedy pecked Touched his lips, interrupted his words, and sat back obediently.

Preston resumed, "You think you're so—"

Hedy pecked his lips twice, interrupted him again, and sat back obediently.

Preston said again, "You thought you—"

Hedy pecked his lips for a third time before continuing to interrupt him, eyes blinking and blinking.

Preston,

He opened his mouth, and Hedy kissed him before he could speak this time.

It's obviously because he cared about her that he played a scoundrel.

Preston was pissed off.

He took the initiative to kiss her lips, and slowly pressed her on the seat, aggressively as if venting his anger, wishing to tear her apart and eat her.

Just the hand that touched her cheek trembled with fear.

Hedy's heart was so soft that she pinched his palm and tightened it bit by bit, conveying her heart in a wordless way.

Affection is ignited at one point, the temperature rises rapidly, and the vehicle is shaking and shaking, it is a boat.

Miles' family villa.

The guests have left. After

Miles agreed to the divorce, he left in a daze.

Jessie, don't be sad." Malina comforted Jessie.

River, I'm not sad, I just feel relieved." Jessie shook her head with a worried expression,

“But that Childe King, he won’t do anything to Hedy, right? He looks very angry, did he misunderstand Hedy and Rick??”

Malina shook her head.

Hedy and Preston have a good relationship. Even Geen, the three–time gold actress, couldn’t hurt this relationship. How could a Rick cause a gap between them. “Mommy, Mr. King loves sister Hedy very much.” Faye saw it through at a glance,

“He should be angry with what sister Hedy did in the race track.”

Angry that sister Hedy didn’t have a car with safety as the first premise.

“The racetrack? Did something happen to the racetrack?” Malina and Jessie were both confused.

Faye hurried to remedy, “Racing is more dangerous, so Mr. King is very worried.”

The two mothers nodded.

Malina touched Faye’s head, “ Jessie is going back to the mainland, do you want to study too? The University of Finance and Economics that Hedy studied is also good!”

Okay.” Faye nodded.

She also wants to spend more time with her mother.

Hedy wakes up at the tip of Evan on the moon.

Woke up already in the hotel bed.

The body has been washed, and the clothes have been changed into new pajamas, but the feeling of being run over still exists.

Recalling the scene in the car, Hedy felt flushed.

She found that Preston was usually very gentle, but when he acted, he was very ruthless.

Perhaps as a cleanup, when she woke up, Preston wasn’t awake yet.

He hugged her waist and refused to let go.

Hedy moved.

He subconsciously tightened her, letting her stick into his arms.

The temperature of the air conditioner in the room is suitable, neither hot nor cold, neither wind nor rain.

Hedy reached out his hand, and pressed it against Preston’s heart through a layer of pajamas.

yes i have you

In this life, I have you.

will cherish myself because of you, because of everyone.

Chapter 309 Ellis Family's second brother, Amanda

The next day, Jessie and Miles went to the Everland Civil Affairs Bureau to apply for a divorce certificate.

Jessie has no sadness or happiness in her heart, only a sense of relief.

Miles' eyes were bloodshot, and he looked like he didn't sleep well last night

After the staff went through the prescribed procedures, they asked them, "Have you really decided to divorce?"

"It's decided." Jessie said firmly.

Miles didn't speak, just took out his pen, and signed his flamboyant name first.

After signing, he left, and his back was determined.

Jessie glanced lightly and signed with a pen

At this point, the two officially divorced.

Miles gave Jessie a lot of property, including houses, land, jewelry, luxury cars, and ready-made bank cards.

Jessie refuses.

She wanted to put an end to the first half of her life, and she didn't want to have anything to do with Miles' family or him. She is also able to support herself and her daughter.

"You want the outside world to feel that Miles' family has treated you badly?" Miles asked coldly at that time.

Jessie was speechless.

Miles' family is very concerned about reputation, if she leaves the house, it will indeed attract criticism for Miles' family. She had no choice but to accept it, but she only accepted it, and would not embezzle half of it.

After signing the divorce agreement, Jessie relaxed and left the Civil Affairs Bureau,

Miles sat in the low-key luxurious luxury car opposite, closed his eyes and remained silent for a long time.

-In

the next few days, Jessie and Faye acted as tour guides, taking Hedy and Malina on a tour of the island.

Preston also joined the tour after finishing what he was doing..

But for him, no matter how beautiful the beach and the sea are, it can't compare to Hedy's swimsuit.

That night, he gave her a "beep—" to cheer her up.

Although I will sleep on the sofa for the next few days.

At the end of the journey, everyone took the plane and left Everland in two ways.

Preston and Aiden went.

Hedy, Malina, Jessie and Faye will return to San Francisco, Geary

Village first.

Only a quarter of the summer vacation has passed, and the university has not yet started.

What Malina meant was to take Jessie for a walk in the countryside during this time.

Jessie's situation in Chen's family is not very good. There are quite a lot of top-notch relatives. I'm afraid she won't be able to feel the care of her family when she returns to Chen's family.

Jessie agreed, and she really didn't want to go back to her mother's house.

"Remember when we were young and sang together?" Malina pulled Jessie to the room where she was dedicated to live broadcast.

She opened her live broadcast room.

Jessie couldn't let go at first, but gradually, she also showed a different singing style from Malina.

The two showed their singing voices in front of the fans, and the fans also swiped more or less gifts to express their hearts and love.

The live broadcast ended, and Buddy, the head of the family, hadn't come back yet.

"It seems that he is playing chess and cards with his brothers again, but he will definitely be back before dinner time. After all these years, I have gotten used to it." Malina smiled shyly.

"Every time? Why is it more punctual than getting off work?" Jessie also smiled.

"Mom, you don't need to cook for me and Faye tonight. Sun and the others are having a party in the city tonight and they asked me to come with me. I'll take Faye with me." Hedy greeted Malina.

Faye studies the same major as her, and also wants to transfer to the University of Finance and Economics.

Going this time is to meet my classmates in advance, so that I can take care of them in the future.

"Go ahead, call home if you need something." Malina nodded.

Hedy took Faye to the large box of a KTV in downtown San Francisco.

Most of the students in the third and seventh classes of Lowell High School were there, and only two missed the party because they were traveling in other places.

In addition, there is a special person – Jenny, Hedy’s cousin.

“Why is my cousin in San Francisco?” Hedy was quite surprised.

“Traveling, San Francisco is very, very fun.” Jenny hesitated.

Sun next to him blushed into a monkey’s ass.

“Hey.” A boy said, “Goddess Hedy doesn’t know something. During the days when you were making sci-fi movies, Jenny’s ex came to harass her and even touched her.

Then our boss Sun will be a hero to save the beauty!”

Hedy nodded, knowing that the two of them had made progress.

Sun’s face was so hot that he changed the topic, “Goddess Hedy, who is the lady behind you?”

Faye, the daughter of my mother’s good friend, will go to the University of Finance and Economics when school starts, and my major is the same.” Hedy introduced “Hello, my name is Faye, please give me your advice in the future.” Faye bowed to Susan very politely. Unlike her mother Jessie, she was born in Everland and grew up in Everland, and her accent is also Everland’s unique soft girl accent.

“Wow, the voice is so sweet, I’m dead!” “The person is so beautiful, just like Qian Rose in the idol drama!”

Faye and Jenny are both daughters from aristocratic families.

Jenny is relatively quiet. She likes music, chess, calligraphy and painting. When she encounters grievances, she will swallow it by herself. On the contrary,

Faye is generous, sees things transparently, can be enthusiastic to others, and is influenced by her mother, but it is difficult for others to walk into her heart.

She is a girl who is a bit hot on the outside and cold on the inside.

“I won’t be studying at the University of Finance and Economics next year.” Vincent Susan lowered her head, afraid of spoiling everyone’s interest,

“My family hopes that I will be in politics, and I myself...”

Vincent originally transferred to the seventh class to pursue Hedy, and then went to Finance and Economics Finance at university.

But Hedy has Preston.

The family tried their best to persuade him for a long time.

He also remembered that his initial goal was politics.

“Go, this is a more suitable path for you.” Sun hooked Vincent’s neck and joked, ”

When you become a high–ranking official, I will tell others that there are people above me!”

Vincent laughed.

He came to class seven, but didn’t get love.

However, he reaped the same wonderful friendship.

After dinner, Hedy took Faye back to Geary Village.

Strangely, there was a military jeep parked in front of the house with an unfamiliar license plate number.

Hedy frowned, and Faye went upstairs.

“Sister Hedy, I want to take a shower, which room is the bathroom?” Faye fanned the air with his palm as the weather was very hot.

After Hedy pointed the way, he went to Malina to consult the military jeep.

At the moment, Malina is chasing a TV series with Jessie

Buddy replied next to him, “That’s your second brother’s car. He came back from leave. ”

He is a soldier who has been guarding his country on the most dangerous borders and rarely comes back .

I came back this time because I made a second–class meritorious service and was promoted to a military rank, and the higher–ups were on vacation.

It’s just that soldiers don’t have high salaries, so before Hedy, Josh, and Kit make a fortune, the money he can send home is limited.

Hearing that the second brother came back, Hedy’s eyes flashed, “Where is the second brother?”

Malina took the time to answer, “Taking in the bathroom.”

Chapter 310 Strange Buddy

Hedy was stunned on the spot.

The Ellis Family was originally from a poor family with only one bathroom.

Later, after house renovation, a few more rooms were added, but the brothers and Hedy are away all year round, so there is only one bathroom that is commonly used at home, and the rest of the bathrooms do not even have a towel. The bathroom that Hedy pointed to Faye was this one.

If the second brother, Amanda, was in the bathroom, wouldn't Faye be... But the second brother should lock the door.

Hedy thought silently.

Amanda didn't lock the door, however

He was in the barracks every day, and even when he took a bath, he would "have a heart-to-heart relationship" with a bunch of rough men in the male soldier's bathhouse.

He has been away from society for too long, and he can close the door when he goes home to take a shower. He respects this door.

What's more, in his own home, he didn't grow the knack of "locking the door".

At this moment, he has turned off the water and is drying the water marks on his body, all in silence.

Once a person is quiet, it is easy to think wildly.

For example, he is thinking now, when was the last time he took a bath at home, so many years have passed, and the family has changed a lot.

Eldest brother, fifth younger brother and younger sister, are they all doing well now?

What happened to the third and fourth brothers abroad?

Miss them so much.

Amanda, who fell into deep thoughts, put the towel casually on her bronzed shoulders, and spread her legs wide, completely oblivious to the approaching footsteps outside.

outside the bathroom.

Holding pajamas and toiletries in one hand,

Faye pushed open the bathroom door. Phew-the long-awaited night wind poured in, blowing the towel off Amanda's shoulders.

Amanda saw a soft girl with a pretty face.

Faye saw a muscular naked man.

Amanda thinks it's time for Faye to scream, even though he doesn't know why a strange young woman pushes open his bathroom door.

Faye slammed the door shut.

She thought to herself, Maybe she was wrong.

No one told her that someone else was in the bathroom.

Seeing that Faye didn't scream and closed the door intimately,

Amanda breathed a sigh of relief, turned around and bent down to pick up the towel that fell on the floor. While picking it up, I thought, This girl is good, she is stable enough.

Snapped. The door was pushed open by Faye again.

This time, Faye saw a naked man with his ass pointing at her.

She nodded calmly, "So it's not a hallucination."

Amanda,

She closed the door and apologized, "Excuse me."

Amanda,

Outside the door, Hedy walked up the stairs and asked, "How is it?"

She wants to ask Faye, is there any accident?

Faye thought of the scene he saw just now, and calmly commented, "Not bad."

Amanda inside the door, "?"

He just came home, and was molested by a girl with an

Everland accent? Amanda didn't know that Faye had learned sketching from a foreign teacher, and nudity was one of them

In a sense, she was considered someone who had seen big wind and waves, so she didn't scream.

Outside the door, Hedy thought Faye said "the bathroom is good", nodded and left.

After a while, Amanda changed into her military uniform, opened the door and came out.

When he came out, Faye was leaning against the railing, holding pajamas and toiletries as he waited for him to clear the bathroom.

The corridor light hit her face, making her look like an elf who had strayed into the world.

Pretty harmless.

But this harmless woman just molested him.

Amanda crossed her arms and leaned against the wall, with a wild look in her eyes under her neat short hair, "Little girl, what did you say about my brother just now?"

Faye walked to the bathroom door with something in his arms, who was also next to Amanda, looked into his eyes and said lightly, "You have a good figure."

After saying that, Faye walked into the bathroom, closed and locked the door.

Amanda said directly, “??”

t

It was the first time he had seen such a strong woman in such a big age.

Snapped.

Faye opened the door again, and poked his head out, “Sorry, I didn’t mean to offend you, I learned sketching in Everland, and there is a category of nude sketches in it, and I’ve seen some models...Maybe the inland is not like this...” She struggled for a moment, and said two words, “Unrestrained?”

Amanda understood, and he nodded, “Okay, brother, I understand, thank you for your compliment, you can take a shower.”

He turned and left, waving his hands casually twice.

It turned out to be a misunderstanding.

Amanda went downstairs, saw Hedy, walked over to pinch Hedy’s face, and said in a joyful tone! “Hedy! Do you want your second brother?”

Hedy replied “yes”, and he let go of Hedy’s face.

With the genes of Malina and Buddy, the children of the Ellis Family are all good-looking, and Amanda’s appearance is naturally not bad.

After so many years of service in the army, he looks wild and ruffian while having a fierce aura. His bronze skin is full of hormones.

“I didn’t expect that Hedy in our family is the most powerful child in the Ellis Family. He quietly learned so many things from your master.” Amanda fondly rubbed the top of Hedy’s head.

The so-called “Master” was fabricated by her to deal with her family.

For example, solving crimes, fragrances are all taught by Master.

Why didn’t you show it before, because the master said to hide your clumsiness and protect yourself.

As for the hip-hop incident with the biggest loophole, she also put it all on Master, saying that the person who competed abroad was another apprentice of Master, who danced according to her dance moves.

If you want to ask who the master is, you can’t tell me.

“Second brother is just a first-class vulgar person, how can you be as good as you.” Amanda said so, but she was overjoyed by her sister’s praise, and pinched Hedy’s face, unable to put it down.

Amanda.” Buddy came down from upstairs with a solemn expression, “Are you coming back for only five days?”

Amanda nodded with a firm voice, “I’m needed over there.”

“The conflicts on the border will only intensify in recent years, you must protect yourself.” Buddy looked worried.

“Dad, don’t worry. After the fight last time, you were subdued by me. There shouldn’t be much movement in the next year.” Amanda said in a relaxed tone.

“Trust Dad!” Buddy suddenly emphasized his tone, patted Amanda’s arm, and left. – “What’s wrong with Dad?” Amanda was a little puzzled, frowning.

There is a special military analysis department in the army, which will make judgments on future trends.

Why does Buddy seem to know better than them.

“He might know something.” Hedy’s red lips parted slightly.

It was the first time she heard Buddy speak in this tone.

“Look at some fake marketing news, those editors dare to say anything for the sake of clicks.” Amanda found a reasonable explanation.

Hedy is noncommittal.

She didn’t know Buddy well.

She only knew that after Buddy was not busy with farm work, every afternoon, he would go to his friends for “entertainment” for a while, and if the Ellis Family had something important to do that day, he would not go there.

Such as a relative’s wedding, a daughter’s engagement banquet.

Buddy also has a very special experience,

he used to be a high-achieving student, the pride of the Ellis Family, and was spotted by a scientist in the USA, who was taken by his side to train him, and fell in love with a talented woman.

But this talented woman empathized with another, and publicly said that she was just playing with Buddy, which caused Buddy to be hit hard, and he dropped out of school and returned to Geary Village in a daze.

Before he dropped out of school, every parent who saw him would tell their children, See, learn from him.

After he dropped out of school, every parent who saw him would say to their children,

See, he is just a joke, embarrassing, I really don't understand why a big man is so worthless, I can't bear to his blow

Other than that, Hedy doesn't know anything.
