

The Killer 311

Chapter 311 New mission, a reunion of junior high school classmates

Ellis Family's second brother Amanda stayed at home for five days, then returned to the army wearing a dashing military uniform.

Before leaving, he said goodbye to his parents, sister and Jessie in turn.

When he came to Faye, he smiled mischievously, like a jerk, "Betty bright, brother will be your mannequin next time."

Amanda used to have a comrade-in-arms, who always whispered in his ears about soft girls, soft girls My sister can call my brother to your bones, making you forget how to fire a gun.

He scoffed.

Brother is a man who carries a gun and bleeds. His bones are harder than diamonds. How could he be called a bone by a mere soft girl?

No one can affect the speed at which brother draws his gun!

Then Faye followed his sister and called him "Second Brother".

Amanda suddenly discovered that what her comrade-in-arms said was right

Girl really has a sweet scent and a sweet voice, and when she calls out for her brother, she can indeed soothe people's bones.

So much so that Girl asked him if he could take off his trousers and become a model again, and let her finish the sketch assignment assigned by the tutor at the speed of life and death, and he agreed without hesitation.

"Mannequin?" Hedy and others looked at Faye suspiciously.

Faye was very calm, with a naturally sweet voice,

"I forgot the homework assigned by the tutor, and I didn't watch the models with my classmates, so I had to ask my second brother to help."

She didn't say what to draw, Amanda laughed He smiled and didn't say anything.

This thing is actually outrageous.

Originally, Faye thought that he could find some pictures on the Internet and draw a similar look to the pictures.

But those pictures were either in the wrong posture or the body was too ugly, which really embarrassed her a bit.

In desperation, she found the second brother of the Ellis Family and promised to pay him.

But he didn't ask for payment afterwards, saying that he would ask for it next time he came back, and now he went to the army to get the money and had nowhere to spend it.

Just like that, Amanda left.

Jessie and Faye are gradually getting used to life in the Ellis Family.

Buddy works, plays cards, eats, sleeps, works, and so on.

Hedy thought that in the days to come, he would enter an ordinary cycle like his father, until the system released a new task, and the Ellis Family came to a few guests.

He is also an acquaintance of Hedy a few classmates in junior high school.

"Ye, Hedy, okay, long time no see." A boy with a cut cut hesitated.

His name is Tom

"Hedy's house is so beautiful, we almost didn't recognize it." A girl in yellow short sleeves and denim shorts smiled warmly.

Her name is Michelle.

"Long time no see, what can I do for you?" Hedy said lightly..

Tom nervously forgot the words.

Michelle glared at him, and said with a smile,

"It's nothing, it's just that the students in our class had a party in the town, and Tom and I thought, how can this party be without you? So I came here to ask, see Are you at home, do you want to get together with everyone." The arrival of wit

Michelle and Tom verified the saying "No one asks you if you are poor in the downtown area, but you have distant relatives in the mountains when you are rich".

In the original Hedy class, because of his timid and cowardly personality, although he was not disgusted by his classmates, he did not have good friends, and he was a character, that was often ignored.

Ignored that when everyone had a class group, they didn't think of bringing Hedy into it.

No one has Hedy's contact information.

When they were in the same class, they were all ignored, let alone after graduating from junior high school and entering high school.

They thought that the word "Hedy" would slowly disappear in their memory, and become the "who" that everyone would mention lightly after many years.

As a result, in the third year of high school, Hedy became popular.

From a small fire, to a big fire, to an explosion, and then to getting engaged to the heir of the King Family, the largest family in the United States.

They finally discovered that that humble ugly duckling had transformed into the most dazzling white swan.

White Swan is my junior high school classmate, this kind of interpersonal relationship is not for nothing, right?

It's just that a few people don't have Hedy's contact information at all, so they can only use the most stupid method, come to him.

Really let them find it.

"How about it, does Hedy have time to attend this class reunion?" Michelle's heart was beating like thunder, and her palms were sweating.

Hedy is not interested in this kind of gathering, and was about to refuse, when a system notification sounded in his mind,

[Ding! Trial mission released. ]

[Trial task (20), Attend class reunion. ]

Hedy raised his eyebrows.

The tasks given to her by the system are sometimes simple and sometimes difficult, and she can't figure out the rules.

But since the mission was announced, she had no reason not to go.

Hedy nodded, "Yes."

The two junior high school students looked at each other, very excited.

He was already thinking in his mind what method he could use to win Hedy's favor.

"Then let's go now, we might not be able to get a taxi any later." Michelle suggested with a blushing face.

Geary Village is a remote village after all, and there are no taxis on call in big cities. –

"Let me drive." Hedy turned around and went to the garage that was built later, and drove out an eight-figure silver-gray Maybach supercar.

The car was sent by someone ordered by Preston, fearing that something might happen to her, or she needed the car urgently.

Hedy didn't intend to show off, but Tom and Michelle were genuinely shocked.

This is the first time they have seen such a cool sports car up close!

It was also the first time to see the gap between Hedy and them in kind.

“Get in the car.” Hedy lowered the window.

When she went to the garage, she had already greeted her family.

Because it was a junior high school reunion, she didn’t call Faye.

“Okay, okay!” The two opened the car door and got in.

The interior of the car is full of stylish decorations, and the design style is extraordinary at a glance, making the two of them stare wide-eyed.

Tom sat upright, trying not to look so old-fashioned, but his eyes couldn’t help looking around.

Michelle was more straightforward. She took out her mobile phone and asked Hedy, looking expectantly, “Hedy, I have never been in such an expensive car, can you take some photos and post them on Moments to show off?” “Yes.” Hedy didn’t care, she stepped on the gas pedal, go to the place where the party is.

Michelle immediately took out the camera and shot wildly.

Tom couldn’t bear it anymore, and took out his phone to take several pictures.

Then, their mobile phones beeped all the way, and they didn’t know whether to like it or reply.

After about forty minutes, the three of them arrived at the restaurant where the dinner was held.

This is the best restaurant in Geary Village.

But the staff of the restaurant have never seen such an expensive supercar.

As soon as the car stopped in the parking lot at the entrance, the staff went up to meet him. Seeing that the driver was Hedy, he was shocked,

Ye, Ms. Ellis! Did you make a reservation, or?”

Michelle answered first, “We have Make a reservation, box one, junior high school reunion!”

“Inside please!” The staff member bent over and greeted with a very respectful attitude.

Chapter 312 Based on your IQ, you probably didn’t get into college, right?

Tom and Michelle led Hedy into the No. 1 box of the restaurant.

The staff were more active than the two of them. Before Hedy arrived, the door was pushed open by Hedy.

There are two tables of people in the No. 1 box. The food has not been served yet, but there are tea, melon seeds, and candies on the table, and they are chatting happily.

After Hedy came in, everyone stopped chatting, their eyes were both shocked and excited.

The courageous ones seized the opportunity and were the first to stand up and say hello, "Hedy, long time no see!"

Hedy replied "Long time no see" and found an empty seat to sit down.

Tom and Michelle took the initiative to sit on both sides of Hedy, intending to get the moon first.

"Hedy, what you did in Everland was spread all over the Internet, and everyone said that you made our mainland look good!" Classmate A praised sincerely. "Hedy, I've read "Lost" six times. Is there a second one?" Classmate B couldn't finish it.

It was also close.

"Hedy, remember me, I'm a labor committee member, and we got a new broom together."

Hedy, in the second year of junior high school, I was at the same table with you for a week!"

"Hedy, we...

Hedy all simply reply, without ignoring them, and without going any further.

If someone insists on getting close, Tom and Michelle will take the initiative to tell him/her to calm down and not get excited by joking.

In fact, it is to give Hedy a relatively comfortable environment.

Seeing that Hedy was already seated,

Michelle raised her voice, "Then call the waiter to serve the food?" Hedy is not only a junior high school classmate with many achievements, but also Childe King's fiancée, with a very distinguished status.

There is no reason to ask her to wait for others to come before eating, which is somewhat ignorant and blind.

"Okay!" Most of the students agreed.

Only one person said weakly, "Sebastian hasn't come yet..."

Hedy's eyes flashed.

She remembered the name.

The fifth brother Kit dropped out of junior high school at that time, and Sebastian had a “credit”.

Sebastian was the one who made dirty jokes on her and was finally beaten into the ICU by Kit.

“If you didn’t come, you didn’t come, why don’t you ask Hedy to wait for him?” Michelle was very good at coming, and called Hedy’s name, picked up the phone, and showed everyone the time,

“What time is it? He’s late!”

“That’s right.” Someone echoed, “Do you still want Hedy to wait for him? Waiter, serve the food!”

The waiter immediately served the food.

Everyone exchanged cups and cups, reminiscing about the past and flattering.

After drinking a little wine, everyone gradually became less restrained. From time to time, they told some interesting stories from the past, which made everyone laugh, and miss them very much after laughing

When they were young, they looked at piles of homework and experienced the days when they had to get up early.

My heart is always urging, grow up quickly, I will be free when I grow

1. up.

But when I really grew up, started to get in touch with the society, and began to understand the warmth and coldness of human relationships, I realized how naive my thoughts were there was no easier and simpler day than those years.

In the lively atmosphere, the door of the box was pushed open with a bang.

A man wearing sunglasses and a gold chain, with tattoos on both arms, and dressed in fashion brands walked in casually.

It was Sebastian.

Seeing that everyone didn’t wait for him, he grumbled dissatisfiedly, “It seems that everyone is very hungry. You served the food before I came?” The box was quiet for a few seconds.

Sebastian is the best among the old classmates besides Hedy.

Unlike Hedy who relies on strength, Sebastian relies on his father.

His father is a moderate steward of the local gang

Black Gang. As soon as he graduated from junior high school, he was sent to a foreign country to study and spend money. He just came back today. When other students were still enjoying the first cup of milk tea in autumn, he was already showing off the blond and blue-eyed big girls in the bar, and he had become a winner in life early on

If Hedy is not popular, the protagonist of today's dinner is him.

Even he himself thought so.

Sebastian spends his time abroad and doesn't know anything about America, and he doesn't know that among his classmates, there are some people who are better off than him.

He only thinks that he is the main character.

It is the existence that all old classmates should fawn on and kneel.

But before he arrived, the old classmate ate it, this is not taking him seriously!

"It's not that we're hungry, it's that you're late." Michelle stood up.

Everyone agreed again, "That's right, you are late, come and punish yourself with three cups!"

I don't want to be late either." Sebastian threw the five million Porsche car keys on the table,

"It's the culprit, I only drove it around on the road, and several girls insisted on getting into my car, asking me to play with them at night, pestering me for a long time, alas." His wave seemed to complain

, Actually showing off.

I feel that I will receive winks from female classmates and envious eyes from male classmates.

But everyone was unmoved.

It's not that everyone looks down on the five-million-dollar Porsche, but that everyone already knows that Hedy drives a million-dollar Maybach.

Hedy hasn't shown off yet, what are you

Sebastian showing off to us? Comparing the two, it is clear that they are superior.

No one said anything. The smile on Sebastian's face froze slowly.

What's happening here?

He couldn't figure it out, so he simply looked around and looked at Hedy.

Hedy's outstanding appearance and aloof demeanor completely different from the people around him made Sebastian's eyes brighten, and he straightened his heart.

He flicked his tongue in Hedy's direction, "Who is this, an old classmate from our class?"

Tom introduced, "She's Hedy."

Sebastian's eyes changed immediately.

Hedy, for Kit.

Kit stands for the hospital ICU.

He has a bit of PTSD scare.

But this fear lasted only for a moment, and was replaced by a wave of superiority and contempt.

Because Hedy dresses very “average

He was wearing clothes of unknown brands, presumably they were street goods.

There is a necklace around the neck, and the pendant of the necklace is hidden in the clothes, presumably it is a defective product from the two-dollar store.

It can be seen that the mix is not good.

It is the top ten changes of female college students, the longer and more beautiful.

“Okay, Hedy, I haven’t seen you in so many years, you look so beautiful.”

Sebastian walked over, pulled Tom away, and sat down next to Hedy, took off his sunglasses, revealing a face that had been eroded by wine and kidney damage,

“After your fifth brother ran away from home, did you go back? Did your father pay off the money you borrowed to compensate my family?”

Michelle explained, “Hedy’s fifth brother-” is already a well-known boxer in the United States. You don’t know how many times you are awesome.

Before he finished speaking, he was interrupted by Sebastian, who glared at him viciously, “Did I ask you something?”

Michelle shut up, not daring to provoke Sebastian. Hedy didn’t answer, and didn’t do anything to Sebastian immediately. She thought of a past event.

Back then, Fifth Brother beat Sebastian to the hospital, and Niu’s family claimed hundreds of thousands of dollars. Buddy searched all relatives, but couldn’t get enough money.

On the last day, they miraculously borrowed the money from the “brother” and gave it to family.

Those “brothers” seem to be quite rich?

As she thought about it, Sebastian thought she had nothing to say, even scared.

Because Hedy used to be like this too, always too nervous to speak.

Now her appearance has become more beautiful, but her temperament has not changed.

“Based on your IQ, you probably didn’t get into college, right? You don’t have a diploma these days, and it’s hard to find a job, like this.” Sebastian went to touch Hedy’s hand,

“I’m going to open a factory in the village next month, and I still have a shortage of jobs. How about a nanny who waits on me, if you can ‘do it’, I’ll hire you?”

Chapter 313 Half of the underground dynasty, what is the surname?

Sebastian wanted to humiliate Hedy, but also wanted to eat Hedy’s tofu.

His stingy hand pokes straight at Hedy.

Hedy stood up, expressionless, and slapped her backhand.

Snapped!

Throw Sebastian and his chair on the ground together!

“Ah!” Sebastian hit his head on the ground, his head was buzzing, and the place where he was hit was swollen with slap marks.

The students all around retreated in unison, away from the center of the incident, but no one stopped them.

Because Sebastian is really mean-spirited.

Also because of Hedy’s current status, they can’t afford to offend him. Even if Sebastian is not cheap, they dare not stop Hedy.

Sebastian regained his strength, got up from the ground, stared at him with red eyes, raised his hand and wanted to slap Hedy in the face, and said sharply,

“Little bitch, you dare to hit me, you are a shameless thing!”

But Before his hand touched Hedy, he was kicked in the abdomen by Hedy, and he knelt down in front of Hedy with a “thump”.

“Ouch.” Sebastian threw up the undigested contents of his stomach on the floor.

He raised his head, his face full of pain, his eyes full of shock and anger.

Shocked that the weak coward Hedy dared to hit him with such force.

Angry at tonight’s junior high school reunion, he should be acting chic and stunning, but he was beaten into a grandson by Hedy!

“Hedy, do you know who my dad is!” Sebastian yelled angrily, unable to stand up in pain.

Hedy really didn’t remember who Sebastian’s father was. She stepped on

“Tell me.”

This pose is so cool that everyone including Michelle Few people screamed in their hearts “Goddess Hedy style is sincere and does not deceive me“!

“My dad is the confidant General Shawn of Lucas, the deputy leader of the Black Gang!” Sebastian announced his father’s status and name in one breath, waiting to see Hedy tremble.

Susan moved in Hedy’s heart, and put down his legs. Lucas ‘ confidant, she knows, there is no such person named ”

Shawn” among them. It seems that the small character is bluffing and deliberately exaggerating.

“Are you afraid? If you are afraid, kneel down and kowtow– to me to admit your mistake!” Sebastian thought Hedy was scared, pointed his index finger at her nose, and ordered loudly,

“It’s cool not to serve me today, I want your whole family to be cremated Field!”

It’s okay if you don’t say this, but when you say it, Hedy’s eyes flicker with a murderous look like a storm.

Cooper, her family, and Preston are all her untouchable reverse scales, and no one can be hurt! Hedy kicked Sebastian out of the box with his legs hard, and slammed into the corridor wall!

“Ah-” Sebastian screamed!

This time, he vomited blood.

“Sir!” The staff quickly helped Sebastian up.

Sebastian wiped the blood from his mouth, covered the place where he was kicked, and said viciously as he walked,

“Hedy, don’t leave if you have the ability, you wait for me, you wait for me!”

“I’ll wait for you!” Go.” Hedy sat back in his original position.

“Hedy.” When Hedy didn’t know what the Black Gang was, Michelle came over and explained in a low voice,

The Black Gang is the most powerful underground force in our Central South Province. I heard from others that after the Black Gang changed its leader, it vigorously developed the Black Gang.

As a result, the Black Gang, which was originally only the top of the city, is now the top of the entire USA, and almost half of the gangs in the USA, and can be said to own half of the underground dynasty.

Sebastian 's father is indeed the steward of the Black Gang. Otherwise...you should leave here first?"

Michelle thought, King Family Preston is in business, Preston's grandfather is in the army, and others in the family are in politics, which is typical..

And the Black Gang is black, and there are many ways to hide from the light

This is a small place, and the mountains are high and the emperor is far away. At this moment, Hedy should choose to be wise and protect himself, and walk as the best plan.

"That's all for me." Hedy's red lips parted slightly, her tone was extremely calm, she picked up the glass of juice with her slender fingers, and took a sip.

She could understand Michelle 's concern.

But Michelle didn't know that sitting in front of her was not only the sixth daughter of the Ellis Family, Preston's fiancée, but also the current leader of the Black Gang.

The son of a small gang manager offended the leader of the gang, and the one who had no reason to run away was the leader of the gang.

Not to mention, Sebastian once forced Wu Ge to drop out of school and suffered for many years.

The party goes on.

The rest of the students looked at each other in blank dismay, some were scared, some were watching a movie, and some quietly took out their mobile phones, waiting for Hedy to be in danger for a while, and immediately called the police to rescue Hedy.

In this way, he/she becomes Hedy's savior, isn't it wonderful?

Everyone had their own ghosts, about fifteen minutes later, the door of the box was pushed open again.

Sebastian is back.

With his fat beer belly father Shawn, and Shawn 's men.

Those men had machetes or axes in their hands, one and two were vicious, and they didn't look like the people brought out by Lucas at all. When they arrived, many female classmates screamed and shrank back in fright.

"So it's really the famous Hedy Ms. Ellis!" Shawn

"Famous? Dad, who are you talking about?" Sebastian was puzzled as he clutched his still aching stomach.

"Oh, son, you don't know when you are abroad. Your junior high school classmate Hedy is now the fiancée of the heir to the largest wealthy family in USA, and..."

Shawn reported to his son one by one the famous things Hedy did. The more Sebastian listened, the more terrified he became.

It turns out that Hedy is already a big shot!

And he not only humiliated this big man, but also dragged his father into the water!

“Dad, let’s go...” Sebastian was bullying, wishing nothing had happened.

Shawn smiled lightly, disapprovingly, “Why are you leaving? I came here specially for Ms. Ellis, and leaving now would be too disrespectful to Ms. Ellis.”

Sebastian was at a loss.

Shawn gave his subordinates a look on the left and right, and the subordinates immediately wrapped up the box:

There was a female classmate who wanted to call the police, and when his subordinates saw this, they were about to stop him violently. Shawn interrupted his actions with a voice like a kind elder,

“Report to her, she still doesn’t know that Geary Village belongs to me, let her see and be seen.”

The female student was stunned on the spot.

This is too lawless!

All the students felt very horrified, Black Gang is too scary!

Hedy remained motionless, and took another sip of the sweet and sour juice, without being disturbed at all.

Shawn pulled out the chair and sat next to Hedy. Without moving, he took out a silver pistol and looked around. His voice was seven parts threatening and three parts casual,

“Ms. Ellis, this is not a good place to talk, talk to us Shall I take a trip?”

Shawn’s mood was very excited.

He knew Hedy’s status.

Knowing that Hedy is now single-handed and unarmed!

This situation is the second apprentice of the Buddha, who descended to earth and became a Tang monk, and any monster can capture him.

He wanted to capture Hedy now, and use some means to coerce her to work for the Black Gang in the future.

In this way, he will soon be appreciated by Lucas, and maybe even help Black Mango become the number one gang in USA!

Chapter 314

When I stumbled in front of my classmates and saw Shawn take out a real weapon, the box fell into panic.

The junior high school students did not expect things to develop in this direction. Hedy is a public figure in USA, and he is also the fiancée of the heir to the largest wealthy family in USA

It is too unreasonable for your study group to say that this is the only one! This also shows from the side that the study group is really powerful, and it is another kind of strength that is completely opposite to King Family.

Hedy put down the glass in his hand and looked at Shawn out of the corner of his eye, "What will happen if I don't go with you?"

"If I want you to go, you have to go." Shawn's eyes were dark.

While speaking, Shawn kept looking at Hedy and kept a safe distance from Hedy.

He knew that Hedy was good at and kicking. He met a drug dealer during his military training and won with one punch or two with his bare hands.

So he is wary.

But as the saying goes, no matter how skilled you are, you will be afraid of kitchen knives.

He has a gun.

Hedy didn't bring it—he asked the restaurant staff, and he knew that Hedy was only wearing thin summer short-sleeves and slacks, and there was no room for a weapon on his body.

Otherwise, he wouldn't dare to threaten Hedy so blatantly.

Hedy said slowly,

"You think I'm alone now, so it's easy to handle, don't you?"

"Ms. Ellis is really a delicate person." Shawn generously admitted his purpose

After Hedy's "explanation", Sebastian, who is not intelligent enough, also understands his father's wishful thinking.

He widened his eyes, straightened his back, and said in a joyful tone, "Dad, you are amazing!"

"Passed, passed." Shawn waved his hands on the surface, but he was very proud in his heart,

"Ms. Ellis, then look, you Which way do I prefer, let us ask you to leave?"

Hedy said calmly, "It depends on how much you want to die."

“What?” Shawn was not sure at first, what Hedy was talking about.

“I said, it depends on how much you want to die.” Hedy repeated patiently.

“Little bitch, I think you’re getting impatient!” Sebastian gasped.

Shawn also lost his good face.

the door of the box was kicked open for the third time today.

P

The visitor was a grown man of about thirty–five years old.

Shawn immediately stood up and greeted him with a flattering smile, “Isn’t this the deputy leader of our study group? What brought you here?”

Deputy leader, Tomson, Lucas’ most trusted good brother.

“What do you think?” Tomson looked around the box, and when he saw Hedy, his eyes couldn’t help showing respect.

He followed Lucas and knew Hedy’s true identity.

For Hedy, he is extremely respected.

But when he thought of what Shawn and his son had done, anger appeared in his eyes again.

“We want Hedy to help our study group become number one in the USA!” Shawn half–invited, reporting his goal to Tomson. After all, Shawn glanced at the students with a cold gaze.

Warn them not to tell what happened today, otherwise, they will be lucky.

The students’ bodies trembled.

“Catch

her? Shawn, how dare you catch her? Do you know who she- is?” Tomson laughed angrily, feeling that his world is a fantasy.

A small steward dares to arrest the team leader!

“Isn’t she the fiancée of the heir of the King Family?” Shawn frowned, really not taking this identity seriously.

Seeing Tomson’s eyes getting more and more sarcastic, Shawn tentatively asked, “Could it be that she is your friend?” Otherwise there is no way to explain why the deputy team leader suddenly appeared here.

Sebastian’s expression changed.

Michelle, Tom and other students were surprised!

Hedy turned out to be a friend of deputy leader Black Mango?

This network, cow!

No wonder Hedy didn't panic at all!

Tomson quickly explained, "I'm not qualified to be her friend!"

Shawn gasped, and Susan raised his voice, "Is she the team leader's friend?"

If even the deputy team leader is not worthy of being Hedy's friend.

The entire study group is only supported by the acting group leader Lucas! Sebastian's eyes darkened, and he thought "it's over".

Michelle, Tom and other students looked excited!

Hedy turned out to be a friend of the study group leader!

This is even better than knowing the deputy leader of the study group! Hedy is too strong!

It's not all about what it is!

"The group leader's friend?" Tomson couldn't stand Shawn's stupidity, and said sharply,

"She is the real group leader Hedy of our study group! The group leader's agency authority is all given by her!"

After speaking, Tomson pushed Shawn away. The father and son came to Hedy who had been sitting all the time, bowed their heads in a respectful manner,

"I have met the team leader!"

The surroundings were completely silent.

Time seems to be frozen by the ice of a thousand years.

Everyone has a shocked expression.

Hedy is not a friend of the deputy leader of the study group, nor the acting leader of the study group! She is the deity of the leader of the study group!

Hedy, who is well-known outside the world, has such a mysterious and powerful identity!

"Get up." Hedy said calmly.

Tomson stood up and explained, "The acting team leader said that he really doesn't have the contact information of a small character like Shawn, so he just ordered me who is nearby to come and stop his stupid behavior."

The students compared silently in their hearts.

Shawn, who is showing off in Geary Village, is just an inconspicuous role in the study group. But Hedy, who Shawn wants to intimidate, is the real master of the study group! "Thank you." Hedy lowered his eyes.

"No hard work, no hard work! It's my honor to work for you!" Tomson was flattered, "Then Shawn father and son, how do you think about it?"

Shawn panicked, and just now he pretended to be calm and disappeared without a trace, begging,

"Group Boss, I didn't know it was you, I really didn't know it was you, please forgive us once!"

Sebastian also panicked, and hurriedly said, "Hedy, I don't know Taishan with my dog's eyes, please forgive us!"

Hedy ignored.

She stood up and looked at Tomson," Sebastian disrespected me in junior high school and caused my brother to drop out of school. Now he wants me to be a nanny to take care of him. Shawn threatens me.

How to deal with it is up to you."

Dinner time for junior high school classmates Finish.

Hedy left without even looking at Shawn and his son.

"Yes." Tomson took Shawn and his son away.

Michelle, Tom and other junior high school classmates finally breathed a sigh of relief, and leaned on the chair to wipe away their sweat.

"I didn't expect that she is still the leader of the study group..."

"Hedy's current height...we will never be able to reach it..."

"Yeah, we can only look up."

Chapter 315 Father's Classmate, Proud Daughter

Moonlight.

On the way back to Geary Village, Hedy took the time to glance at the system interface.

The twentieth trial task has been completed.

– Ten missions to go before Cooper can be resurrected.

Hedy gripped the steering wheel tightly, hoping that the system could release tasks faster.

Not long after, she returned home.

The atmosphere at home is a bit strange.

The door to the parents' bedroom was closed.

Buddy knocked on the outer door, but Malina refused to open it inside. The two seemed to have a quarrel.

Jessie and Faye looked at each other in the living room, not knowing what to do.

"What's wrong?" Hedy frowned slightly.

In my impression, mom and dad never quarrel, what is the situation.

Buddy glanced at his daughter with complicated eyes. He wanted to say something, and finally closed it again, and continued to knock on the door,

"Honey, open the door and let me explain!"

Faye came over, pulled Hedy aside, and whispered,

"You go away Afterwards, Mommy and I accompanied Aunt River and uncle to the small supermarket at the entrance of the village to do some shopping, and met my uncle's college classmate."

"Meet my dad's college classmate at the village entrance of Geary Village?" Hedy frowned even more. It feels a little weird.

Because Buddy took the university entrance examination back then, it was the top 1 university in the US A, which is even better than the university of finance and economics she is studying now.

In the entire ten miles and eight villages, only Buddy has been admitted to such a good university.

It is not special to meet college classmates in this corner of Geary Village.

"It's a self-driving tour. I passed by here to buy some water. I just happened to meet." Jessie also came over and told what happened in the evening.

Hedy nodded.

A few hours further from Geary Village, there is indeed a 5A-level scenic spot.

"Uncle's college classmate mentioned about uncle and ex-girlfriend, saying that uncle and ex-girlfriend used to travel frequently, and then Aunt River ..." Faye stopped talking here.

Hedy got it too.

Malina has always wanted to travel with Buddy.

Buddy doesn't want to.

Even the last time she went to Everland, she accompanied Malina.

Malina said she didn't mind, but felt somewhat regretful in her heart.

This time, when I met a college classmate and mentioned that Buddy and his ex often traveled together, Malina heard it, and it was strange that she didn't want to get angry.

Sure enough, Malina's angry voice came from inside the door,

"What is there to explain? Your ex asked you to travel and you went on a trip, and I let you travel. You would rather play cards and chess with your brothers...you and your brothers Let's go!

We're getting a divorce! I'm living with Jessie!" "River!" Buddy yelled, looking annoyed.

He slammed the door open and closed it again.

The door lock is broken, so it can only be concealed.

Hedy's eyes changed, and he was very worried. He wanted to go over to persuade him, but was held back by Faye.

Faye shook her head, her voice was very sweet, "They are bickering, don't go, we will make up soon."

In terms of emotions, she is more transparent than Hedy, and she is also more mature than Hedy.

Although she didn't come to Ellis Family for many days, she could see from many details that Buddy and River had a good relationship, and she was sure that the two would not divorce.

Hedy stood where he was, still worried in his heart.

In less than half an hour, Buddy and Malina reconciled as before, and the two walked out of the bedroom.

Buddy looked helpless.

Malina's old face was slightly red, and she was ashamed, feeling ashamed to be like this in front of the younger generation.

Faye raised an eyebrow at Hedy, and silently said two words, "Look."

Hedy, "..

Faye is really admirable in this regard.

-The days return to the original calm.

A few days later, Malina's birthday came.

Buddy proposed to have a meal in the city, and everyone agreed, and Hedy drove everyone to a high-end restaurant in San Francisco for dinner.

Josh and Kit also rushed back.

The seven people talked and laughed in the restaurant, and the atmosphere was harmonious.

“Huh? I met Buddy again.” A male voice came from the direction of the door.

Hedy tilted his head and saw a gentle middle-aged man wearing gold-rimmed glasses.

In the crook of the man’s arms, there is a noble lady who still has charm.

Beside the noble lady was a young girl about twenty-three years old.

The girl had an indifferent and weak face, with a good figure and temperament.

“Hans.” Buddy stood up, eyes repulsive.

Hans is the college classmate Ellis Family met at the entrance of Geary Village a few days ago.

“It’s all happened, so let’s have dinner together, just to catch up?” Hans asked.

Buddy didn’t want to agree.

He has a bad relationship with Master Hans.

The specific reason comes down to the fact that he and Hans were in the same major at the beginning.

His grades are better than Hans, and his appearance is better than Hans, although he is a bit rough now.

Hans chased after the foreign language department flower that he hadn’t found for several months, and gave him a bento box for several months.

Then, Hans shut himself up.

This guy is a small-bellied man who holds grudges.

Otherwise, he wouldn’t deliberately mention him and other women in front of Malina.

Thinking of this, Buddy decided to reject Hans.

But Malina stood up and said, “Okay, I’ll ask the waiter to add three sets of bowls and chopsticks.”

Buddy,

He was afraid that Hans would say something later, and his wife would quarrel with him again!

Hans sat down with his wife and daughter and introduced their identities to everyone, “This is my wife Wendy and my daughter Susan.”

Reluctantly, Buddy introduced his big family to the Hans family. The two sides nodded to each other.

After/saying hello, Hans quickly made trouble, “Looking at everyone sitting together, I suddenly thought that during college, Buddy and his ex—” The lady named “Wendy” rolled her eyes, and the toe of her high-heeled shoes kicked On Hans calf.

Hans was in pain, and glared at his wife, “You!”

Wendy smiled.

Hans could only suppress his anger.

Malina asked, "What happened to Buddy during college?"

"Nothing." Hans lowered his eyes, feeling very unwilling.

He still remembers the humiliation Buddy brought him in college.

This boy from a remote mountain village, wearing a cheap white shirt, studied at school during the day and moved bricks on the construction site after class. With his impressive grades, he became a legend in the school.

Everyone said that Buddy is a noble son from a poor family, proud of snow and red plum, and he will surely achieve great achievements in the future.

The rich ladies lined up to show their courtesy to Buddy, including the foreign language department flower that he swore with his friends that he would catch up with him:

In order to distance herself from him, even made him give up in public, don't let Buddy misunderstand.

As a result, he was ridiculed wherever he went during those days.

What's even more annoying is that Buddy is studying while working part-time, and his grades are better than him.

He hated Buddy so much.

Since Wendy won't let him mention that "ex-girlfriend", then he will mention his own daughter!

Hans stood up and held a piece of meat for Hedy, smiling enviously,

"Buddy, I really envy your little daughter, who can make movies, win gold medals, become famous in the entertainment industry, and even win the first youngest prize." Eye.

Unlike my daughter Susan, who is just an ordinary dance university.

She was invited to participate in the Sino-foreign cooperative variety show "Soul of Dance", and she was asked to dance folk dance classical dance on it, and to promote the country's intangible material to us. Cultural heritage dance or something."

Qne is Hedy, who is full of bells and whistles, full of entertainment and money. One is Susan who can promote the national intangible cultural heritage.

Hans felt that the gap really came out immediately.

The National Dance Forest Conference, Hedy is going to be the judge.

The "intangible cultural heritage"

Hans said refers to those dances with a long history. He wanted to tell Buddy.

My daughter Susan is not as good as your daughter Hedy in terms of popularity and earning power.

But your daughter is not as noble as mine!

Buddy understood Hans' voice—over, and his fists gradually hardened.

Josh and Kit also looked unhappy.

The daughter/sister is the baby bump of their family, no one can bully her, even if it's just a verbal attack!

The three men were about to explode, Susan looked at her father, her voice was low but full of strength,

"Father is right, I am indeed no better than Ms. Ellis.

Ms. Ellis not only achieved success in the entertainment industry, but also brought Injured, and won the first Winter Olympic gold medal in women's figure skating for our country, the hard work and hardship I put in is far more than the limited and simple 'propaganda' I participated in in the soul of dancing." Hans froze on the spot

He had a gloomy face and didn't speak again.

On the contrary, it was his wife, Wendy, who took the button to maintain the atmosphere between the two families and said some interesting topics from time to time, which made the dinner not too awkward.

The Ellis Family had a good meal and left first.

After they left, the light smile on Wendy's face faded away, and she pushed Hans violently, with a disgusted expression on her face,

"Is it difficult to admit that Buddy is excellent? Is it difficult to admit that his daughter Hedy is excellent? Hans, can you not give me that?" Embarrassing?

I really don't know what father likes about you, and he insists that I marry you."

You" Hans took a few steps back, almost losing his footing.

"What are you? My daughter is not a tool for you to belittle others! Susan, let's go." Wendy left with a proud look on her high heels.

"Yeah." Susan nodded, then turned to look at Hans with calm eyes,

"If my father has been obsessed with his obsession, as a daughter, I will feel very embarrassed."

She didn't understand why her father, and many people like her father, would put Focus on the success of something.

It's the complete opposite.

People should not pursue success.

People should strive for excellence.

When you are outstanding and successful enough, they will actively pursue you.

Hedy et al., Return to Geary Village.

Malina was full of praise for Wendy, and also felt that Susan was very temperamental, like a fairy in the morning mist, and looked very comfortable.

"I've seen Susan's performance. She came to Everland to perform with the school." Jessie admired her eyes,

"The host said that she was almost rejected by Los Angeles Dance because of her height, but she was admitted by exception, and then she went to Los Angeles Dance. She has become the "ZiweiStar from the sky" in the words of Los Angeles dance instructors.

Even Everland, who is quite critical of the mainland, is full of praise for her, saying that she is a pure, natural dancer." "

It's a pity that there is such a dancer." Her father, but fortunately, she was not influenced by him." Faye commented.

"It means her mother, Wendy, is well-educated." Kit took the words, and then said in a regretful tone,

"The time when the second brother came back is too unlucky. I can't come back from a competition abroad, otherwise I want to get together with him."

Josh lightly nodding lightly, his eyes showed his missing for his brother.

"Brother."

At the end of the crowd, Hedy called to Josh and pointed to the inside of his shirt collar, "Do you want a change?"

There was a lipstick-like mark inside.

Josh turned over the collar and took a look, hummed, his expression changed slightly.

The imprint is left by Alisa. He and Alisa made a mistake last night, and they had sex for a while.

When I woke up, there was a dazzling red on the white sheets. He didn't expect that it was the first time for Alisa to do that kind of work. But Alisa snorted and told him, "You don't know that this thing can be repaired by surgery, right?"

He immediately felt extremely disappointed and disgusted, left Alisa and flew away.

Thinking about it now, I feel that there is an unknown fire burning in my heart.

Josh took a work call and went down the mountain to leave.

Ding Dong –

Hedy's social account, received a message from

Alisa. [My wife is the most beautiful in the world], Ms. Ellis, I put the key to your brother's apartment under the door mat, tell him for me.

[Hedy], Did you delete him?

[My mother is the most beautiful in the world], The work of pretending to be a guest girlfriend is over. Before I deleted it, I forgot to mention the key. I can only trouble you to convey it to me/poor.

[Hedy], Hmm.

Hedy intends to cut out the dialog box and find the account of the eldest brother, but accidentally clicks into Alisa's circle of friends.

The latest article in Moments was updated some time ago.

Alisa sent a story.

[My old lady is the most beautiful in the world],

The little match girl is running around on the street every day to earn a living. One day, a knight in armor came over and gave the little girl a lot of help.

The little girl thought he was the best person in the world and wanted to give him her only thing.

But I heard him chatting with someone else.

Someone asked, You don't really like the little girl who sells matches, do you? She is on the street every day, and she is all dirty.

He is indifferent, I like clean ones, she is not this type.

It turns out that knights are not knights.,

It turns out that the little girl is not a little girl.

After reading it, Hedy thought it was a somewhat sad story, and Geen was probably implying something, but she didn't know.

She exited, found Josh's social account, and conveyed Alisa's words to her elder brother.

After doing this, she went back to her room and turned on the computer, searching for “Dancing Soul” – during the meal, the system released a new task.

[Trial mission (21), Join the “Soul of Dance” as a “judge”. ]

A computer browser pops up news related to “Soul of Dance”.

Through these news, Hedy soon knew that this is an online variety show, which claims to be “the dance festival conference between USA and M country”, and it will be broadcast simultaneously on a certain platform in USA and a certain platform in M country.

The conference invited two countries, five dancers each, a total of ten people, to participate in this dance competition.

The competition is divided into five rounds, and each round is scored by the referee. The dancers with the lowest current scores of the two teams will be eliminated, and the final 1v1 will be decided.

Seeing this, Hedy Susan frowned.

Different dance types represent different cultural heritages of their respective nations, and each has its own advantages, so it is difficult to put them together for a fair comparison.

If the referee does not know enough about the cultures of the two countries, he may give ridiculous marks.

Fortunately, she was born abroad, she has enough understanding, and has learned some dances under the arrangement of the organization.

Those people said, No human being will not have a good impression of the opposite sex who dances well, and good impression can weaken human vigilance.

“The variety show is about to start recording. I don’t know if the program team has found a referee. If so, how can I get the program team to allow me to join?”

Hedy went to the official Twitter of “Soul of Dance”.

The program group has officially announced ten dancers. Looking at the introduction, they are all rookies in the industry. They have won various championships and are well-known.

After all, the real bigwigs in the industry can’t afford to be hired by the show crew.

Chapter 317 Children of the big courtyard, Selena!

In addition to the official announcement of the players, Hedy flipped through the records and found that the program team had also officially announced the referees.

There are four referees in total, three are professional dancers from country M, and one is a professional dancer from USA, all of whom are much more experienced than the contestants.

Du Juan from USA is a well-known dance artist in the United States. She has participated in many large-scale performances and is also on Twitter today,

She evaded taxes and is being criticized by the American people.

In such a situation, it is impossible for the program team to take the risk of continuing to let Du Juan join

At this moment, Twitter has not officially announced the new referee.

Hedy sent a private message to the program team.

“Soul of the Dance” program group, conference room.

Seeing that the recording of the program was about to begin, such an incident happened to USA referee Du Juan, which made them very embarrassed.

Temporarily looking for someone to replace, I don't know who to look for.

59

I finally picked a suitable one, and encountered the problem of inconsistent schedules.

Just when they were about to go to the doctor in a hurry, Xiao Zhang, who is in charge of running the official Twitter, ran in with a surprised expression,

“Hedy is going to join our program as a referee!”

The meeting room was quiet for a moment.

The producer stood up, “Who are you talking about?”

“Hedy!” he excitedly emphasized, “Hedy who directed the movie “Science Fiction”, Hedy who is the champion of figure skating at the Winter Olympics, Hedy who is a perfume designer, and the fiancée of the chairman of King Family Group Hedy!”

“Oh my God?”

“Really!”

“Isn't someone pretending to be?”

The meeting room erupted instantly.

The corners of his mouth were about to crack to the ears, “It's really her! I was afraid that someone would steal her account and impersonate her, so I specially made a video with her to confirm that it is the deity!” The meeting room became even more heated

“With Hedy joining, the exposure of our show will increase greatly!”

But can she dance folk dances and classical dances? And what she wants to be is a referee, not a contestant...”

“I

to

I think it should be? Really No, let her post a dance video to test it?"

"Test a fart! Just agree!" The producer slapped the table,

"This is Hedy, even if she can't dance, even the score depends on her mood, as long as she goes there Sit down, it will bring us a lot of topics and exposure, do you understand her popularity!"

There is another very realistic point that the producer didn't mention, namely, the value of connections behind Hedy.

Now who wouldn't want a little friendship with Hedy?

She is the first woman who is least on the tip of my heart!

He nodded hastily, and took out his mobile phone, "Okay, I'll answer her!"

Hedy received a reply from the program team that she can be a referee.

He also asked her when she would sign the contract and take the makeup photos.

Hedy gave some time and went to discuss the matter with his parents and others.

"Are you going to film a variety show again? It's a rare summer vacation, don't you want to relax?" Malina frowned.

She feels that her daughter has worked too hard, focusing on both studies and careers, and one is better than the other.

"Your mother is right." Buddy was not too happy.

Jessie and Faye also think Hedy should take a break.

"Finally I have a chance, I want to go to 'Soul of Dance' to try." Hedy's eyes flashed.

As soon as this remark came out, everyone no longer forced it.

Malina packed the luggage for her daughter herself.

Hedy, who was pushed aside, called Preston and told him that he was going to participate in "Soul of the Dance".

The man smiled lowly over there, like a spring breeze passing by, "Boss Black Mango wants to participate in the 'Soul of the Dance', who would dare not allow it."

Hedy,

She was helpless, "You really are still sending people secretly Protect me, didn't you say you can withdraw it?"

Last time he was traveling in Everland, Preston confessed to her that he would secretly send someone to protect her.

She felt it was unnecessary and refused.

Unexpectedly, the person in the dark was still there, and knew her identity in the underground world, and reported it to Preston.

Preston's voice was magnetic, "Hedy, I don't want any accidents to happen."

Those people were not as skilled as Hedy, but they were more or less "alarms" that could help Hedy and notify him in time when he was in danger.

"Okay." Hedy compromised, but he didn't know that the corner of his mouth was already raised.

"Where is the filming location of the program? Some humble person wants to visit Boss Black Mango's class." Preston teased.

"Detroit City." Hedy answered truthfully.

Preston smiled, "Coincidentally, I'm in Detroit now."

Hedy, "Are you on a business trip in Detroit?"

Preston, "Accompany grandparents to Detroit to see comrades in arms."

Suddenly there was a dog barking from his side.

Hedy's eyes lit up, "Little Thirteen is here?"

She hasn't hugged Little Thirteen for a long time.

"It's not it, it's someone else's pet dog." Preston paused, "Do you miss Little Thirteen?"

Hedy, "Yeah."

Preston smiled, "Little Thirteen is also in Detroit, but Aiden took it out for a walk, you can see it when you come here."

"Okay." Hedy looked forward to Detroit City even more in his heart.

"Be careful on the road."

"Mmm."

"Remember to miss me."

...Mmm."

"Hang up, I'll wait for you in Detroit."

Hedy hung up the phone,

the other end, Detroit City.

Preston, who was tall and straight like a green pine, stood on the balcony of his grandfather's comrade-in-arms, and called Aiden, "I have something urgent to do." Aiden, who was leaning on the seat in the car, sat up straight in an instant his eyes were solemn and serious, even the forehead Scar showed a bit of hostility;

"What's the matter?"

Childe King rarely used the word "urgent".

The last time I mentioned "urgent", it is still very dangerous...

"Find someone to bring it to Detroit as quickly as possible, Hedy missed it."

Aiden,

Okay.

Ms. Ellis wants to see it, it's really urgent.

-A

few hours later, Hedy landed at Detroit Airport.

Preston met her in the VIP passage, a pet backpack slung from his favorable arm, and Little Thirteen was in it.

This is the airport, pets cannot be released.

"Wow, woof!" Seeing the hostess, Little Thirteen frantically wagged his tail inside.

' Little Thirteen!' Hedy wanted to put the pet backpack in his arms.

Preston cocked his arm and pulled the backpack away.

"Wow?" Little Thirteen tilted his head.

Hedy didn't understand either.

She looked up and found that Preston opened his arms and raised his eyebrows at her, "Huh?"

Hedy understood, smiled and hugged the man first.

"That's right." Preston was satisfied with Vicky in his arms, and gave her the pet backpack, "Are you hungry?"

Not bad." Hedy stroked Little Thirteen through the backpack, his eyes.

shining brightly.

"There is a nice restaurant in Detroit, I'll take you there."

“Yeah.”

Aiden drove the two of them and the dog to the restaurant with an elegant environment.

The restaurant is in a quiet back alley.

It was already past the time for eating, and it was dark, so there were not many pedestrians on the road.

Preston swaggered and led Hedy, and Hedy swaggered and hugged Little Thirteen, walking together on the bluestone slabs in the alley.

“Brother! Are you here to shop?” A young woman with admiring eyes walked towards her.

This woman Hedy has seen on the Twitter of the “Soul of Dance” program group.

It is one of the USA dancers officially announced by the group, Selena.

program

Her grandfather was in the army and her father was in politics. She grew up in the compound since she was a child, and she is a serious “child of the compound”

Seeing Hedy next to Preston, Selena’s well-painted oval face collapsed, and she looked at Hedy as if she was looking at a damned enemy.

moment, Selena immediately put on a cute and pitiful expression, and smiled meekly and harmlessly at Hedy, “Ms. We grew up together.”—

She said as she walked up to Preston, getting very close on purpose.

Passers-by who don’t know will think that she is Preston’s girlfriend.

Hedy frowned slightly, seeing what Selena was thinking.

This is Preston’s rotten peach blossom, not only related to Preston’s grandfather, but also Preston’s childhood friend.

The relationship seems to be closer than that Geen.

Hedy is not in a good mood anymore.

Preston moved his steps, walked behind Hedy, wrapped his possessive arms around her waist, and gently took her into his arms.

He looked at Selena, with a polite and alienated arc on the corner of his lips, "Can you stay away from me? I'm afraid my Lord Goddess Hedy will misunderstand."

Selena's eyes changed, her expression guilty,

"Blame me, I'm too happy, forget You have a girlfriend, and you thought you were playing house when you were young, Ms. Ellis, you didn't misunderstand me and my elder brother, did you?"

Hedy smiled softly, very understanding, "No, he doesn't like you."

Selena's eyes Changing again, he scolded Hedy in his heart, but his face was lonely and hurt, he straightened his sideburn hair, half-jokingly,

Compared to the stunningly talented Ms. Come on, big brother."

She said affectionately.

"It's not useless." Preston said in a low voice, "At least you still have self-knowledge."

Selena's nails almost dug into her palm.

I thought to myself, my words and eyes are effective to other men, how come to Preston's side, it won't work.

Because Hedy is next to her, she is a jealous woman, so isn't it convenient for Preston to show a little tenderness to himself?

Selena adjusted her strategy and started another topic, "Brother, Ms. Ellis, are you going to have dinner?"

"Yes, do you want to go together?" Hedy lowered his eyes slightly, wanting to see what else Selena wanted to do.

"Okay, I just happened to be hungry too, Ms. Ellis is so nice, she is indeed the fiancée of the eldest brother." Selena cast a gentle look at Preston again.

Preston's eyebrows were gathered together, and he was extremely reluctant to bring Selena to eat together.

But the person was invited by Hedy, and he could only cooperate.

The three of them went to the restaurant box together.

With Hedy present, Selena didn't say any more inappropriate words and was quite quiet.

Hedy went to the restroom halfway, and Selena immediately seized the opportunity, with an envious tone,

"Brother, Ms. Ellis is so beautifully made up, unlike me, who is so old, and can only apply the simplest sunscreen."

Preston Putting

down the knife and fork, she looked up at Selena, "She is beautiful because she is naturally beautiful. She is beautiful in any way, and has nothing to do with makeup.

Don't wear a few layers of powder on your face and tell me that you don't have makeup, I'm not blind."

Selena is wearing the most popular nude makeup nowadays, not just sunscreen.

Knowing this is because he likes to draw eyebrows for Hedy for a while, and he also learned some related knowledge. What Selena said at this moment was nothing more than implying that Hedy's beauty was made up of cosmetics.

Unlike myself, who is naturally beautiful, pure and stupid who doesn't know how to make up.

"I know, I know." Selena almost bit her own tongue, and nodded with embarrassment.

After a moment of silence, she sighed again,

"Ms. Ellis looks so strong. I don't mean to say that she is bad, but I just think that with her personality, she should have friction with big brother. Big brother, if you are unhappy or troubled in the future

You can tell me about it."

Selena thinks that Hedy is Goddess Hedy, Goddess Hedy is strong, and strong people usually cause a lot of unintentional harm to their partners in love.

She also used this method to successfully snatch her boyfriend away from another strong woman.

"I do have one very troublesome thing right now." Preston rolled his eyes slightly.

Selena was excited, "What's the matter?"

"How can I make you, a blind idiot, take the initiative to leave the sight of me and Hedy... Maybe you prefer to be passive?"

Brother..." Selena bit her lip and felt wronged.

"Don't call me big brother, my parents didn't give me a younger sister, and don't try to hurt Hedy, or you have a hundred comrades—in—arms grandpa, it's useless, get out." Preston's voice was not heavy, but the chill in his words was frightened Selena shuddered.

She picked up her bag and left with a pale face.

Hedy came back from the bathroom and found Selena gone, raised his eyebrows, "Why did she leave? I also want to see what tricks she is up to." "Don't look, dirty eyes can ruin the mood." Preston pulled Hedy to sit in his arms, kiss her pink and sweet cherry lips.

He wanted to steal the fragrance a long time ago, but it's a pity that there is such a big light bulb as Selena. After the kiss, Hedy looked at him

with a faint look, "Dirty eyes spoil the mood, isn't it because you have a lot of rotten peach blossoms?"

Like me, what she likes is only the background and power of the King Family.

As long as the other party is more powerful than the family, Selena can show her love for any man, and use the fastest speed to make up a story of "I have been secretly in love with you for a long time".

I When I was studying, I happened to see her confessing to two noble sons from different governors' families within ten minutes, one of whom just transferred from another school in the morning."

Hedy,

From a certain point of view, Selena is a ruthless person.

After dinner, the two returned to the hotel with Little Thirteen. "Woof!"

Little Thirteen, who finally got out of his backpack, ran wildly in the presidential suite.

Hedy was hugged from behind by Preston after taking a shower

His voice is sexy, "We haven't done it in a long time."

Since Hedy Everland hadn't climbed into Lord Goddess Hedy's bed since the night he wore his bathing suit.

"It's not because of you last time..." It's crazy, it hurts me.

Hedy didn't have the nerve to say the rest.

She wanted to break free from his embrace, but he held her tighter.

He chuckled slightly, "Then I should be gentle this time?"

I really can't blame him for what happened last time.

She came out of the water dressed like that, if he couldn't bear it, he wasn't a man.

"You-um."

Hedy just turned around when Preston kissed him passionately and eagerly.

The two slowly fell on the bed, he pressed her, his deep eyes were bright, and his voice was hoarse, "Is it okay?"

Hedy has always been thin-skinned in this regard.

She didn't answer, just hooked his neck and offered her red lips.

the next day.

Hedy went to the office of the "Soul of Dance" program group.

The producer of the variety show personally led her to sign the contract, took a photo of her makeup, and had a flattering meal.

Hedy responded calmly.

The Twitter of the program group also officially announced that Hedy will join "Soul of Dance" as a referee.

Chapter 319

The recording of the program begins. The Birth of the Dog Licking

Soul of Dance is a second-rate variety show with low popularity and cannot compare to other variety shows that gather idol stars.

When the program team announced the rest of the referees or contestants, the highest number of comments was only over 200.

When it came to the official announcement of Hedy, the number of comments, forwarding and likes increased at a speed visible to the naked eye.

The producer spent all his money and bought a hot search for Hedy.

He was even able to bring value, and immediately spread the news that Hedy was going to participate in variety shows all over the Internet.

Fans, black fans, and passers-by all gathered here.

"Surprised, I worked too hard. After filming the final exam, I finished the final exam and competed in racing cars. How long has it been since I finished the racing car competition? I'm going to be a judge in a dance variety show..." "As long as my idol works half as hard as Hedy, it's not enough I'm tired of being in this position until now."

"I'm looking forward to Hedy's performance in Soul of Dance!"

"Okay, I'm sure about 'Soul of Dance', let's air it soon!"

"Pure passerby, I remember that Hedy danced street dance and women's troupe dance, but didn't dance folk dance classical dance, and he was a referee when he went up, isn't that a bit...?" "I wondered too, I can understand Hedy going to be a contestant to participate in the competition, How did you get on the judging bench? Does she have enough qualifications? The Du Juan I was looking for before is a well-known dancer." "

But the program team is looking for Hedy, there should be a reason for the program team?" "

I don't know, but wait for the show to be released., we will know."

Hedy's joining, as expected by the program crew, ignited the expectations of many people.

The program group also started recording immediately.

When Hedy came to the set up recording hall, there were already two referees from country M, one male and one female, with white skin.

The producer showed hospitality behind Hedy, explaining that there is still a referee from country M who has not arrived yet, and the players from the two countries are putting on makeup in the background, so Hedy can only be wronged and wait.

As if he knew Hedy's preferences in advance, he also prepared a variety of cakes and refreshing fruit tea for Hedy, which is the VIP treatment among VIPS.

It's a pity that the last referee from country M didn't come until the agreed time to start recording.

Forty minutes later, he was late.

His name is Robot, a professional dancer from country M, with natural curly golden hair and green eyes.

Years of dancing and dancing made this fifty-year-old man look like he was in his early forties, with a charming and mature temperament.

"Mr. Robot, why are you here now? Come on, take him to the dressing room, have someone do some styling and makeup, and start recording!" The person in charge greeted him.

I found a good translator in advance and quickly translated this passage into French.

Robot paused, arrogantly did not explain why he was late, but looked at the beautiful female translator from USA he brought,

"Tell them, I don't like makeup artists from backward countries."

(Tell them, I don't like being behind The country's make-up artist.)

The female translator did not dare to speak out, so she replied, " Mr. Robot brought a make-up artist himself."

The person in charge who is not good at French nodded, and did not pursue the lateness, "Hurry up then." Another time passed About half an hour later, Robot finished his makeup and hair, and came to the referee's seat.

The referee seat is divided into 1234 four seats.

Hedy is number one and Robot is number four.

When he came over, he saw Hedy, raised his eyebrows, and subconsciously spit out a word that only he could hear,

“easy-girl.”

7!

Easy girl is a derogatory term in the foreign population, mainly for women in the USA.

The irony is that in order to mate with foreign men, they spare no effort, and even pay for American women who spend money.

Their existence has caused a considerable number of foreign men to stereotype American women.

That is, American women are casual, cheap, and easy to sleep with.

For example, Hedy is an “easy girl” in

Robot’s eyes. -Variety show recording officially started.

The host took the lead in warming up, and then introduced four referees.

Every time a referee is introduced, the referee’s chair will turn around to face the camera and say hello

After introducing the referees, it was the turn of ten dancers with good looks and good temperament to appear on stage.

Seeing such a young Hedy sitting on the referee’s seat, the dancers from country M looked at each other , surprised and puzzled.

They had received news that the USA referee was a middle-aged woman, how could there be a girl younger than them?

Insider?

Or something else? Except for

Susan and Selena, the USA dancers checked Twitter and knew that Hedy was the new judge.

Susan is a pure dancer, because she took the time to practice dancing and didn’t look at her mobile phone.

Selena wanted to add aura to herself, and took the time to practice dancing without looking at her mobile phone.

Seeing Hedy sitting in the referee’s seat, Susan was only stunned for a moment, then returned to normal

Selena was stunned for a longer time, her heart panicked, and she couldn't help worrying.

Hedy didn't come to "Dancing Soul" as a referee specifically to target himself, right?

If he is eliminated, it must be Hedy's problem.

After explaining the information of the ten dancers, the host introduced the rules of the competition.

After that, the first round begins.

The first one on the USA side is Susan

Her head was full of black hair, combed into balls at the back of her head, and she wore a sea blue simple dress. On the stage, she danced a folk dance with beautiful and simple movements, but difficult basic skills.

Maybe thought that this dance competition was an exchange between the two countries, so she didn't dance dances that are more difficult for foreigners to appreciate from the beginning.

With the end of the pleasant music, Susan also ended her first performance.

There was warm applause.

It's the referee's turn to score.

Hedy on the 1st showed appreciation for Susan, "I have heard others say that Susan is a pure dancer. Today, she is worthy of the word pure. Her body movements are very beautiful, and she gets 10 out of

1. " He and No. 3 also praised

Susan generously and gave them 10 points. When he arrived at the Robot, he spit out some English, and the translator replied,

"I saw your beauty, but you didn't really touch me. You have no soul, so I give you eight points.

Thank you." Susan bowed and stepped back.

Whether she praised or belittled, she showed no obvious sadness or joy. After Susan finished dancing, it was Manida's turn to dance.

The dancers from country M chose belly dance, and the background music has a very strong Persian style, which is mysterious and compatible with wild charm.

After the jump, it's the referee's turn to comment.

Hedy on No. 1 nodded slightly, "Some people dance belly dance because the muscles on their stomachs are dancing, but Manida is an exception. All the muscles on her body are dancing. I give it 10."

Hedy gave high marks because she Deserves high marks.

The staff outside the camera looked weird.

"Didn't you say that Ms. Ellis might give random ratings? How do I feel that she is very reasonable in her evaluation?" "I don't know..."

"Hey, can't these evaluation words be found on the Internet? I don't see how professional it is."

"That's true."

Hedy's No. 1 dog-licking producer under the command of "Soul of the Dance" came over and scolded,

"What nonsense are you talking about? How could Ms. Ellis score randomly? She It's professional, I've seen it with my own eyes, you know?"

Actually-

don't ask me, I don't know, I just want to be a licking dog, and it's best to lick everything to the end.

Chapter 320

Hedy eliminated Selena in the first round .

Netizens were puzzled that after Hedy commented on Manida from country M, it was the turn of the three referees from country M to score.

No. 2 and No. 3 gave nine and ten points respectively.

Robot No. 4 smiled confidently, " Manida, you are the pride of country M. you deserve 100 points, but you know, only 10 points are given here, so, 10 points." "Thank you!"

Such a high evaluation, I am so happy Manida..

The rest of the country M dancers who were waiting in the background also cheered and screamed, very happy for Manida. USA dancers are also waiting to take the stage.

They turned to the camera and said, "Ms. Ellis is so professional in commenting, how can there be such a good person!"

I'm so excited, I'm her fan, and I hope to be appreciated by her later!" "

Dancers from country M It's amazing too, I feel the pressure!"

"Yeah, yeah."

Susan didn't speak quietly, thinking about the next round of dance she was preparing for.

Selena didn't speak either.

She thought that she must perform well later and get a high score.

In this way, even if Hedy deliberately retaliates against her and suppresses her points, other referees will give high points to ensure that she will not be eliminated.

Manida exits and the second dancer from USA comes on stage.

The

contestant was not as amazing as Susan, but he also brought a good work, and Hedy gave it nine points.

Both No. 2 and No. 3 gave nine points, and the evaluation of the contestants was excellent, which gave them a different visual experience.

Robot frowned, and said impatiently, "Seven points.

He didn't even want to comment.

But when the dancers from country M came on stage, he was elated again, and after a good meal of comments, he finally gave it full marks.

The corner of Hedy's eyes slowly fell on Robbit, his eyes were slightly cold.

This male referee is probably not here to score.

Instead, he came to be a fan of country M dancers.

Or maybe, he simply thinks that country M cannot be worse than USA.

-The dancers performed one by one.

The last dancer on the USA side was Selena.

The host explained next to him, "Selena, who was the first major in the East Dance Academy back then, is now the chief female dancer of the East Dance Opera House. The work she brought is the USA minority dance "Looking for God. "The water-green dress came to the stage, and danced lightly to the weeping and faint sound of silk and bamboo.

Hedy raised his eyebrows, quite approvingly.

When she sits here, she is just a referee, judging dances and not people.

Dance at the end.

Selena raised her left hand, and her right hand slid from the shoulder of her left shoulder to the fingertips of her left finger, as if simulating the dancer's journey of seeking God, her eyes were serious and devoted, and her emotions were extremely strong.

Hedy's eyes suddenly turned cold, and all the approval disappeared.

When the music ended, referees No. 2 and No. 3 applauded, and even Robot No. 4 nodded twice.

Come to the referee scoring session.

Shot to Hedy.

Hedy's red lips parted lightly, "Zero points."

The recording hall immediately fell silent.

The host, staff, and even the dancers waiting to play in the backstage were all in a daze.

Selena laughed angrily, and asked Hedy on the spot, "May I ask why Ms. Ellis gave me zero points? Do you know how well my "Looking for God" is well received by the outside world? Or, you don't know folk dance at all!" She guessed Until Hedy will target her and suppress her points.

But she didn't expect Hedy to give her zero points directly!

Zero points!

Hedy really dares to give it!

She doesn't even want to pretend!

Once this zero point is given, he will be eliminated in the first round!

"It is precisely because I understand that I give you zero points." Hedy said calmly.

Selena smiled and asked, "Then please tell me, where is my point deduction?"

She insisted on tearing off the fig leaf that Hedy didn't know folk dance!

Hedy said unhurriedly, "You are dancing the dance of this nation, but you don't understand the culture of this nation. It is a big taboo. I suggest you go back and read the information carefully."

Selena blushed with anger.

She has learned folk dance for nearly 20 years, and won countless awards, big and small. This is the first time she was told that she "doesn't understand the culture of this nation"!

It is Hedy who really doesn't understand!

If you are capable of giving her a low score, you are not capable of admitting the truth!

Seeing that Selena still wanted to question, the host quickly smoothed things over and asked the second referee for his score.

Selena knew that this was recording a program, and it was not easy to explode, so she suppressed her anger.

the other side.

The second judge gave Selena ten points, and the third judge gave Selena nine points.

Robot shrugged, "Not bad, eight points."

Being able to give USA dancers eight points shows that Selena really has hard skills.

However, the zero points given by Hedy doomed Selena to be eliminated.

When delivering the elimination speech, Selena had red eyes, sniffed her nose, smiled as hard as she could, and cried hoarsely,

"I came with full of hope, but I was eliminated in the first round, which shows that my efforts are not enough. I will work hard. Thank you everyone."

Selena and a dancer from country M left sadly. Except for Susan who didn't like talking, the rest of the USA dancers came to comfort them.

They couldn't say anything directly, so they could only comfort them,

"Selena dances very well!"

"Yeah, I just don't know why Ms. Ellis deducted so many points from you."

"Ms. Ellis is not unreasonable., Did Selena really commit some serious crimes? Go back and look up the information."

"I will." Selena nodded with a choked voice. I sneered in my heart,

Of course I will look through the materials, if I don't present the materials in front of the public, how will the public know that I have not violated any taboos at all!

Selena left in a rage.

On the way back to the hotel, she still couldn't swallow this breath.

She wanted to do something to Hedy.

But she was afraid of Preston.

The warning Preston gave her last time was no joke, she knew it.

She could only sort out the materials and wait for the show to air.

After the program was edited, it was released simultaneously on the video websites of USA and M country within a few days.

Country M didn't pay much attention to "Soul of Dance", and the competition didn't cause any disturbance.

The few spectators didn't understand the folk dance unique to the American culture, and no one cared about Selena's zero points.

On the USA side, it's the opposite.

Many people squatted to watch the release of "Soul of Dance".

Hedy's performance as a referee was very popular with the audience before Selena was on the stage.

Everyone thinks that Hedy is very professional and the scoring is fair. He should know all kinds of dances. No wonder he was selected by the program group.

At the same time, everyone also felt that the performances of the dancers were excellent, and Susan was the most liked.

Many netizens who usually don't pay attention to classical dance and folk dance said that they were attracted by the show.

Especially when Selena was performing at the finale, the screen was full of bullet screens, all of which were "The fairy has descended to earth!" "I found the reason why the ancient king did not go to court early!" "The emperor is actually myself!".

When everyone thought that Hedy would give Selena a high score, Hedy gave a zero.

The barrage is full of question marks. When Selena delivered her elimination speech, everyone didn't understand.

"Looking for God" is Selena's best work. Even the harsh and ruthless Robot gave it eight points. Why did Hedy give it zero?"

"I have studied folk dance for ten years, and I don't feel that Selena has committed a big taboo!"

"Even if the dance moves are wrong, you can still not give a single point!"

This is a American and foreign dance competition anyway. Is Hedy raising others' morale and destroying his own prestige?"

Selena's strength is similar to that of Susan. The dancer who won the championship, I don't understand what is going on in the head of this wealthy first lady." "

Brothers, I know why Hedy scored zero, show me Twitter!"
