

The Killer 51

Chapter 51 She can speak both German and Italian!

Before Hedy could answer, Máy stood up first, and snorted coldly, “She doesn’t even know French, how could she know German!

Don’t know that everyone doesn’t know German, so she wants to fool everyone, so let’s save myself some face!

Beat May, May didn’t even believe that the the third party family’s daughter could speak German.

That’s German, which is admittedly difficult to learn!

Alan was really puzzled.

He knew that the third party’s family had been living in the mountains and farming.

the third party’s daughter’s grades have not been very good.

Is it true that Hedy is lying to them as the sister said?

He didn’t want to be fooled twice.

“Stupid.”

On the phone, the handsome man spit out a word, leaning over to hang up the video.

He couldn’t understand English, and he didn’t study Italian.

It can only be judged by the pictures. The person in charge of the garment factory found a nympho to translate, but the nympho didn’t understand what he said.

Immediately after another girl stood up, and then the group of Americans seemed to have a dispute.

Very stupid and ridiculous.

It doesn’t matter if he doesn’t do this business, he doesn’t have to be a garment factory.

“Mr. Eiffel is going to hang up!” The interpreter was the first to notice this scene.

Lawrence and Alan stared at each other, there was nothing they could do.

“Ich kannübersetzen.” Hedy spoke the most standard German and walked to the red carpet stage.

Eiffel paused before hanging up the phone, sat back on the sofa, and stared at the woman who was getting closer to the camera.

He was far away just now, and he couldn't see her appearance clearly. Now that he was close, he realized that she was very beautiful.

She has beautiful features, no worse than the female models around him.

Compared with her appearance, what is more impressive is her temperament, which is like snow and ice, hard to get your hands on.

"The German level is good. Have you ever studied in America or lived in America for a while?"

Dividing

Eiffel was curious about why Hedy's German is so authentic.

If he covered her face, he wouldn't believe she was from USA at all.

There is a difference between the pronunciation of the previous one.

"Is this related to the negotiation?" Hedy asked coldly.

Ask an internationally famous female killer why she can speak German.

It's like asking a chicken why it lays eggs.

Mastering multiple languages is the most basic standard for an international killer.

Eiffel spread his hands.

It seems that they are not only very different in German level.

Even the attitude is completely opposite.

Seeing Eiffel sitting back and chatting with Hedy for a while, Alan patted Hedy's arm and said happily,

"Hedy, you really know German!"

Eiffel's reaction is the best evidence.

Hedy didn't speak, his knife-like eyes fell on the big hand resting on his shoulder.

Does she know him well?

Alan withdrew his hand angrily.

But he thought to hell, he was frightened by his niece's eyes!

It must be an illusion, right?

Business matters. Business matters.

He said, "The garment factory can make 5 profit points, but Mr. Lawrence doesn't know about it."

Mr. said—

"The translator brought by Lawrence was half stunned, rubbing the back of his head, and talking to himself in English,

"Wait a minute, what about the profit point? I suddenly forgot."

Sometimes, the human brain will suddenly shut down.

Hedy glanced at the translator lightly, and said in standard Italian,

"The garment factory can make 5 profit points, is Lawrence willing to let it go?"

Hey –

a guest was shocked, "She can speak both German and Italian?"

Although he doesn't understand Italian, his pronunciation and accent are here, so he can't go wrong.

"Didn't Mrs. Cooper say that Hedy doesn't even understand

French?" "She also said that her daughter can speak

German, and it turned out to be like that on stage. Do you believe her words?"

Not every guest needs to please May on stage.

Lawrence was first shocked by Hedy's authentic Italian, and then quickly said,

"I can also make 5 profit points!"

After receiving the reply from both parties, Hedy told Eiffel in the video in German,

"They agree to your terms."

"You are out It was beyond my expectation." Eiffel put his arm on the pillow again, and there was a hint of domineering in his red pupils,

"Are you interested in being my woman?"

The girl in the video is beautiful, with a good figure, and she can speak at least three languages.

A pretty good mate, isn't it?

He, Eiffel, pays attention to "quick, precise and ruthless" when doing things, and trusts intuition.

"No." Hedy replied without any hesitation.

"Okay." Eiffel changed the subject, "Tell Lawrence and the person in charge of the garment factory, I hope..."

After hearing this, Hedy relayed the words to Alan in English, and then to Lawrence in Italian

The translator brought by

Lawrence lost his job on the spot. But he didn't say anything.

After all, it was Hedy who helped him save the scene, otherwise he might have to pay a huge amount of compensation.

Everyone watched as Hedy spoke English for a while, Italian for a while, and German for a while, translating between Alan, Lawrence, and Eiffel. The three languages are seamlessly connected, as fluent as she was born!

Ten minutes later, Eiffel hung up the video and went to bed.

Seeing the contented smiles on both

Alan and Lawrence's faces, everyone knew that the transnational business was done. This is all thanks to Hedy!

Once the business is completed, the beneficiaries will go to sea.

The partners of the clothing factory took the lead in applauding, and others followed suit.

They are not vested interests, but it does not prevent them from praising Hedy's strong multilingual ability!

The louder the applause, the more ashamed the faces of May mother and daughter became, and they wished they could get into the soil.

Hedy returned to her parents with a normal face.

Malina asked, "Hedy, when did you learn these two foreign languages?"

"The teacher has always taught you." Hedy lowered his eyes slightly, and found an excuse.

The couple chose to believe in their daughter.

After the wedding, May immediately left with her husband and daughter, knowing that it would be a joke to stay.

Uncle Alan said he wanted to keep the Hedy family in the city for a few more days.

The second uncle Adam also said that we haven't gathered together for a long time.

To this, Buddy refused,

"The parents of the eldest son's girlfriend will be visiting at home tomorrow, we have to prepare."

Hedy's eyes flickered.

Brother, the parents of that girlfriend John will come tomorrow?

"Then you really need to prepare well." Alan nodded, waved his hand, and said proudly,

"Third brother, your daughter helped me with a big event today, and when the time comes, just tell me how much gift. your son needs to get married, and I will pay for it all." In the future, you will also have a share in the garment factory, and you can just wait until the end of the year to divide the money!"

The benefits Hedy brought to the garment factory are far greater than the dead money of all shareholders.

The third brother's family deserves this money!

Hearing this, Malina and Buddy glanced at each other, and then looked at Hedy, whose expression was calm from beginning to end.

Their baby girl seems to be doing a lot better!

Chapter 52

Preston laughed and scolded, when the little heartless Hedy and his parents returned to Geary Village, the sun was about to set.

The three of them slowly went up the mountain, but they saw a man with a handsome appearance, a tall and straight figure, and a dignified gentleman standing at the door of their house.

There are many mountains behind him, the tired birds return to the forest, the mist and the sunset glow each other, and it is so beautiful.

At hand, there are two delicately packaged small cakes.

One matcha flavor and one strawberry flavor.

"Who are you and what are you doing at my door?" Buddy asked first..

He hadn't seen anyone like that around Geary Village.

Malina's expression also became wary.

"Hi, I'm..." Preston's thin lips curled up, and Susan's eyes fell on Hedy who was next to them.

"He's the older brother of that female classmate."

Worried that Preston's identity would be exposed and cause unnecessary worries and troubles for his parents, Hedy replied first,

“After my marriage contract with the Johnson Family is terminated, I will live in their house temporarily.”

Preston raised his eyebrows.

Girl out of nothing?

He laughed lowly, and cooperated,

“That’s true. My ‘sister’ made the cake by herself and entrusted me to deliver it to Hedy.”

Buddy and his wife relaxed.

Malina smiled a little embarrassedly, “I’ve made a cake and delivered it myself, I’m really bothering you brothers and sisters.”

No trouble, I happened to be ‘dropping in!’ Preston turned to look at Hedy.

He found that Hedy’s gaze was already glued to the cake, like a squirrel seeing a nut, persevering.

The smile on his lips deepened.

Buddy took out the key to open the door, and stretched out his hand, “Come in, come in and have a cup of tea.”

“Then disturb uncle and aunt.”

Preston nodded, calmly, carried the cake into the main room, and put the cake on the table.

Hedy walked over silently, before her slender hand touched the cake, she was held back by her mother.

“Thank you brother in advance.” Malina said angrily.

People ran all the way from San Francisco, so they couldn’t lose their manners.

Hedy froze for a moment, then looked up at Preston.

Preston is innocent.

This seniority is what Hedy himself said, and he can’t help it.

“Thank you, brother.” Hedy could only hold back these words for the sake of the cake!

“You’re welcome.” Preston frowned.

She definitely doesn’t know how cute she is when she looks aggrieved.

“Go up and eat the cake.” Malina handed the cake to Hedy.

Hedy went upstairs with a sigh of relief.

Before anyone entered the bedroom, they were already chatting freely downstairs.

While discussing political opinions and opinions with Buddy, Preston communicated with Malina on how to make home-cooked food more delicious.

The elegant and decent conversation made Malina laugh constantly, and even the serious Buddy laughed twice.

Before I knew it, it was getting dark.

Aiden stood at the door, respectfully said, "Childe King, the car-" is ready.

"Broken down, haven't you fixed it yet?" Preston looked straight at his special assistant with a fitting smile on his lips.

Aiden looked at the situation in the main room, and quickly understood the intention of his Childe King, nodded and said,

"Yes, it hasn't been repaired yet."

"Then what should we do, uncle and aunt, is there a hotel or hotel nearby?"

Preston asked. With a distressed look, he asked knowingly.

Geary Village is a mountain village without a hotel. The nearest hotel is in Geary Village, and it takes half an hour to drive there.

The Ellis Family didn't have a car. His car "broke down" and no one could get through.

Buddy shook his head, "Not nearby, but I have a vacant house, if you don't mind..."

He has been an honest farmer all his life, dealing with crops, and at most he just reads the news.

How can one guess the mind of Preston, the overlord of the shopping mall, only when Preston's car really breaks down.

"Why do you mind, then respect is worse than obedience, and trouble the Ellis Family." Preston showed a little apology.

"No trouble no trouble, I'll clean up your house." Malina acted.

Before dinner, Josh called and said that Would be back

later because he had to work overtime, so there was no need to wait for him.

This meal is for four people, Buddy, Malina, Hedy and Preston.

At the dinner table, Hedy was silent.

On the contrary, Preston and Buddy had a very happy conversation, more like a family.

On the treetops of the moon, everyone falls asleep.

Preston was lying on the simple single bed and meditating. When he heard a slight movement, he closed his eyes and pretended to be asleep.

No need to guess who came, he knew who it was.

The girl sneaked into his bed lightly.

And because it was a single bed, she was very close to him, as if she was embedded in his arms.

Not long after, the girl fell asleep steadily, and her warm breath sprayed on his chest, which softened a lot along with the heart in his chest.

He slowly opened his eyes, with a faint smile in his eyes, his fingertips wrapped around the strands of blue hair of the girl in his arms, his movements were tender and gentle.

Tonight, she can sleep soundly.

the next day.<

Hedy, who was full of sleep, opened her eyes, worried about her parents' "ward rounds", she left Preston's room and quietly returned to her bedroom.

Preston half sat up, rubbed the numb arm under Hedy's pillow, and cursed in a low voice,

"Little heartless."

On the other hand, Hedy had no intention of going back to sleep.

She took out her mobile phone and found that the chat messages of the class group had already reached "999+".

The chat revolves around "Gloria".

Saying it was the first day of a long vacation, Gloria was making headlines in the San Francisco news.

It starts with a citizen.

He walks the dog early in the morning, walks, walks, and walks into dead-end streets.

Then, he saw Gloria lying naked on the ground with five men, and he yelled out.

This shout woke up everyone around. The shy people didn't dare to look at it, and the bold and unrestrained people took pictures with their mobile phones.

When the police arrived after hearing the news, the reporters wrote the news headlines.

The noisy environment made Gloria wake up leisurely, and the situation at the scene made her go crazy.

No one thought that the beauty of Lowell High School would end up like this in the end.

The five strong men also suffered from nerve damage and dementia due to overdose of unspeakable drugs.

Later, the police announced the results of the investigation, saying that based on the bank statement, it was found that Gloria had abused herself and spent 500,000 USD to find 5 strong men to seek excitement.

However, he didn't know how to control it, so it became this situation.

Gloria became the laughing stock of the city.

The Rossi Family completed the withdrawal procedures for Gloria and moved out of San Francisco.

Seeing this, Hedy has a black screen phone.

Five people shared a bottle of tampered drink, and all of them were so demented.

One can imagine the consequences of drinking it alone.

Gloria didn't leave her alive.

Downstairs, Malina prepared breakfast, and went down the mountain with Buddy to buy groceries, ready to entertain guests.

Preston walked out the door, and the door to the next room opened.

Josh came out, and two men of similar age looked at each other in the corridor.

If Preston is compared to a young emperor, unfathomable, Josh is a general on the battlefield, restrained and steady.

"Hello." Preston greeted with a smile.

After reading Hedy's investigation files, he knew that this was Hedy's eldest brother

A man who originally had a bright future, but chose to drop out of school to work for his girlfriend to study.

Josh glanced at Preston lightly, went downstairs without saying a word.

Preston looked at his back, and the smile on his lips slowly faded. When passing by Josh's bedroom, he saw the layout of the room through the window.

Chapter 53 Childe King's curve to save the country

An hour later, Buddy returned with a full load of his wife.

Big fish and meat, seasonal vegetables and fruits, everything you expect to find.

This is already the highest standard for entertaining guests in the countryside.

"Ale will graduate this year, right?" Malina was washing vegetables in the kitchen, and asked Josh, who was helping her next to her,

"Why don't you two get married after graduation?"

Speaking of marriage, Malina thought of her daughter's wedding at her elder brother's son yesterday Josh said happily,

"Hedy helped the garment factory negotiate a cross-border business yesterday. Our family is rich and got married!"

Josh straightened his back, his eyes puzzled, "Sister, she..."

"Mom will tell you about this later., tell mom first, have you talked about when you will get married?" Malina began to chop vegetables.

Josh paused when he was peeling potatoes, "I'll ask her when she comes."

He and Ale haven't chatted much for a while.

She said she was busy, so he didn't bother.

After graduation, it shouldn't be so busy.

At lunchtime, the dining table in the main room of the Ellis Family is filled with delicacies, and the nourishing old hen soup is stewed in the pressure cooker in the kitchen.

Alcohol and beverages are fully prepared.

"They're about to arrive." Malina glanced at the old-fashioned clock hanging on the wall.

Buddy and Josh stood at the door and waited.

Hedy is doing homework in the bedroom.

Preston goes about his business in another room.

The clock was ticking, and an hour passed slowly while waiting.

The dishes are cold.

"Why haven't you come yet? Is something wrong? Josh, ask."

Malina was anxious.

It doesn't matter if people arrive early or late, and it must not be an accident on the road.

Josh nodded and was about to make a phone call when three people came around the corner of the mountain road.

It's John and his parents.

John is a woman in her twenties. She wears a bohemian-style printed dress, with black hair reaching her waist. She has good looks and a good temperament because she studies art.

1

Her father wore a designer suit, and her mother wore a thick gold chain around her neck.

The rich attire was incompatible with the rusticity of the two of them.

"The in-laws are here." Malina warmly greeted her. Because his son started supporting John's education early on, and promised to marry her, Malina has called his mother his in-laws all these years, trying to be kind. That's what her mother called her too.

"Who is your in-laws? What are you yelling at if you are not married?" Mother said with a cold face.

Buddy was taken aback, John's family didn't have this attitude before?

"What does your mother mean? Josh asked John directly.

He paid for John to go to college, not for John's mother to treat his mother with this attitude!

"My mother is straightforward, don't you mind."

John brushed his hair behind his ears, and said in a normal tone,

"I came this time to tell you, let's break up, I don't want to marry you."

Josh didn't expect to provide for her carefully girlfriend would say this.

He couldn't help raising his voice, "Why?"

"I'm a graduate of a prestigious school, and I'm about to be sent abroad, but you don't have a diploma, so you can only work in a township.

Didn't you realize that we are no longer from the same world?" John's tone calm down.

"Why do I have no diploma, why can I only work in the town, don't you know?" Josh only felt his heart getting colder and colder.

"I didn't force you." John frowned, his tone displeased,

"I didn't ask you to drop out of school to work for me to study, these are all voluntary.

I can return the money to you tenfold It doesn't matter.

This time, I intend to draw a clear boundary in front of the two families.

From now on, everyone will return to the bridge, and the road will return to the road. When we meet, we will act as if we don't know each other, so as to show dignity to each other."

Josh was silent for a moment, Opened, "Because the man who supports you now is richer than me, isn't it?"

The skirt on

John, the suit her father wore, and the necklace her mother wore were all expensive. He can see it.

"Anyone would choose this way." John didn't hide it,

"He drives a 30 million sports car, lives in a 600-square-meter villa, and has over 100 million bank deposits. How do you compare with him?" "What

? Than?" Josh repeated these three words, and gave a low laugh,

"Four years ago, your father had a car accident, and your mother forced you to marry the old man as a follow-up, and you cried and said, "You want to go to college, and you still have more money?" Dream, I will give up my studies and work for you!"

Two years ago, you told me that your classmates wore brand-name clothes and looked down on the miscellaneous brands you wore. I worked two jobs just to make you dress more glamorous Bright."

"A year ago, you complained that the paint you used for painting was too inferior, and the finished product was not as good-looking as others. I got up early and stayed late, and bought you the best paint and sent it to you." "Now, you stand in front of me and say that at

I You are not from the same world... You are right, you and are indeed not from the same world.

I, Walt, have no sense of shame, you, you don't know! Get out!"

John turned blue with anger, stepped on high heels, and took his parents leave.

On the balcony on the second floor, Hedy looked at John's back, his eyes rolled coldly.

“Do you feel that love is fragile and easily defeated by money?”

Preston walked over and stood side by side with Hedy, his voice was magnetic and pleasant.

“Love itself is something vulnerable.”

Hedy stared at John ‘s back until he disappeared, with a hint of sarcasm in his tone,

“Except for money, power and life and death, it can be easily disintegrated.”

After so many years of performing missions, she has seen Too many life and death power junctures, abandoning the so- called loved ones.

She looked down at the yellow orange in her hand.

These are the fresh oranges my elder brother bought for her at the market at three o’clock yesterday morning.

She didn’t finish eating, there were a few left.

She lived with her younger brother since she was a child, but she didn’t know how to get along with the Ellis Family.

But she wanted to protect the Ellis Family.

I don’t want the Ellis Family to be hurt or sad.

In the next second, Hedy saw a note with a phone number written on it.

“This is the contact information of the largest news platform in the United States, an authoritative reporter with a sense of justice.

I think he should be very interested in the news of ‘a female college student abandons her boyfriend who supported her for four years“.”

Preston’s thin lips rose.

Public opinion is a weapon that can kill.

As soon as the news reports come out, John’s self-proclaimed bright future will bottom out immediately.

Hedy reaches for it.

This is indeed a good way.

Preston raised his hand, avoiding Hedy’s hand, and raised his eyebrows lightly,

“You don’t want to give nothing, just take this contact information for nothing?”

“What do you want me to pay?” Hedy looked at him, not angry.

She and Preston have been communicating in a “transactional” way.

She rescued his grandfather, and he offered to sleep with him.

She protected his safety, and he provided room and board.

She was dressed as a maid, and he promised to make her a cake every week.

710

She dances with him and he promises to make two cakes a week.

Fair and fair, no debt to each other.

This “contact method” should also have something to exchange with it.

“Generally speaking, as the heir of the King Family, I don’t lack anything, and I don’t need anything from you.”

Preston leaned against the railing, his tone full of confidence that couldn’t be ignored.

Hedy didn’t refute.

In Preston’s position, he really doesn’t lack for anything.

The rest of the money, power, and women that men dream of, he waved at will, and some of them were offered one after another.

“But I don’t have many friends. As you know, it’s too cold at a high place, and it’s hard to see sincerity under the benefits.

Since childhood, my peers have approached me with purpose and used me.

I’m very lonely.”

Preston lowered his voice, gently lowering his eyes, a lonely expression appeared on his heavenly face.

“Understandable.” Hedy nodded.

It’s strange that people like Preston don’t encounter the situation he said.

“So, can you be my friend, the kind that has nothing to do with interests?”

He raised his eyes again and looked at her sincerely and expectantly.

Chapter 54 You will finally look at me with fiery eyes

Hedy has never seen Preston look like this.

Friends...

She thought for a moment, nodded and said softly, "Yes."

He is a rare person who makes her feel comfortable getting along with him.

Besides, he can also make cakes and provide sleeping services. No matter how you think about it, she is a good friend.

"If we become friends, can the number of cakes per week... be improved?"

This is the only question Hedy is thinking about.

Looking at her beautiful eyes shining like stars, Preston couldn't help laughing out loud, and said helplessly,

"Do you really think I'm a pastry chef?"

Goodness behold, his majestic Childe King's charm is not as good as a few small cakes.

"No, I'm just thinking about it." Hedy shook his head with a serious expression.

Of course she wouldn't be unreasonable and treat her friend like a cake maker.

"I found out...". Preston's thin lips parted slightly, he hesitated to speak, and the corners of his lips kept rising.

The cold and cool Goddess Hedy, when he encounters a delicious cake, his cuteness will explode.

"Find what?" Hedy frowned.

How well-behaved, let's not talk about half of it.

"It's nothing." Preston handed the note with the contact information to Hedy,

"If you have time, it's not impossible to make you a few more cakes."

He didn't need to look up, but he could feel the girl's gaze was much hotter.

It doesn't matter.

Preston's long and narrow eyes flashed a domineering tenderness that must be won.

You will finally look at me with fiery eyes.

Hedy got the contact information and went back to the bedroom first.

downstairs.

Malina wanted to comfort Josh, but didn't know how to speak.

"Let's go back to the house first." Knowing the eldest son's reticent temperament, Buddy dragged Malina away.

Leave room for the older son to be alone and digest.

The scorching sun at noon hurt people all over, Josh turned and walked into the main room.

The delicacies on the table that no one cares about greeted his eyes, like a dagger pierced into his heart.

“No need to feel sorry for someone who doesn’t deserve it.” Preston stepped out of the stairs.

Josh looked at him without speaking, his eyes full of guard.

“I’m not a bad person, there’s no need to stare at me like that.” Preston took out a black business card and handed it to

Josh,

“This business card can provide you with an opportunity to enter the world’s top group for internship.”

The world’s top group refers to King Family.

Josh didn’t even look at the business card, and said in a contemptuous tone,

“In my dictionary, there is no such word as ‘selling a girl for glory, Childe King.”

He knew who the man in front of him was.

Preston

showed up at his house, nothing more than having thoughts about his sister, and under the banner of “classmate brother”

Therefore, he didn’t give Preston a good look at the beginning..

“You misunderstood me. I, Preston, pursue women, but I am not so incompetent that I need to please her family to win her favor.

I just simply want to recruit a talent for the King Family.

After all, graduates from the University of Finance and Economics, every All groups want it.”

Preston chuckled, thinking of what he saw through the window when he passed by Josh’s bedroom this morning. On Josh’s desk, there was an admission letter from “University of Finance and Economics”.

The date shown on the notice is a few days ago.

The bookshelf next to the desk is filled with books related to finance.

This means that when Josh dropped out of school to work, he has been working part time.

And not long ago, he was admitted to the “University of Finance and Economics”, a top university in the United States, through a self-examination.

This university is even better than the universities that Josh has ever been admitted to.

Unfortunately, eight out of ten books related to finance like to use the heir of the King Family as the cover.

So Josh recognized him.

As a male, Josh also knew what his purpose of appearing here was, so he was more on guard.

The smile on Preston Jun’s face was forced.

With such a brother-in-law who protects his sister, his journey to chase his wife will be even longer,

Josh Susan clenched his fists. He originally wanted to tell

John and the two families the good news that he was admitted to the University of Finance and Economics at this family dinner. But John and John’s family members...

Preston said in an elegant voice, “Generally, college students choose to do internships in their junior or senior years, and you can go as soon as you are in your freshman year.

This will allow you to start a few years faster than others, which is just right. To make up for the years you’ve been delayed because of John ...don’t you want to earn more money and improve the living conditions of your parents and younger siblings.” As far as he knew, Josh went to school later than others because his family had no money.

He was only in the first grade when his peers were in the third grade, and he was often laughed at.

Now the university has been slower than others for so many years, and he is a man with a strong sense of responsibility.

After being betrayed by his girlfriend, and his girlfriend’s mother still has a bad attitude towards his mother, he must try his best to give his family better as soon as possible.

Josh was silent for a moment, and then spit out eight words,

“The overlord of shopping malls is well-deserved of his reputation.”

When those financial books introduce Preston, they will, emphasize that he is good at attacking the heart and mastering human nature.

“My praise.”

Preston smiled and handed the business card to Josh again .

This time, Josh didn’t refuse.

-upstairs

Hedy has spoken to reporters about the ins and outs.

The reporter said, "Tomorrow I will go to the university where the woman is and the place where the man works to verify the situation.

If the situation is true, I will publish a report on the Internet platform in the shortest possible time.

At the same time, I also hope that you and your Don't be too sad family, I will seek justice for your brother, I promise with my conscience."

After finishing speaking, he hung up the phone.

Hedy looked at the phone, a strange color appeared in his eyes.

This reporter is not only highly professional, but also very kind and gentle.

It is the clean stream of the journalistic world.

-Time

passes infinitely in a limited long vacation.

Three days passed in the blink of an eye.

For the past three days, John's home in Geary Village has been very beautiful.

They bought new home appliances, bought a million-dollar car, and kept ringing firecrackers to win the lottery, which aroused the envy and envy of the villagers.

Apart from envy and envy, I also look down on John's family

Everyone knew in their hearts that John betrayed Josh and became another rich second generation.

But he didn't say anything, thinking that if something happened to him one day, he could ask John's family for help, borrow some money or something.

For the Ellis Family, Preston is gone.

Josh also told the elder brother and Hedy about his admission to the top university in USA.

Hedy was a little surprised, but the second elder wiped away tears excitedly.

Said that their sons and daughters are doing well, and they are going to the small supermarket at the foot of the mountain to buy some drinks and wine to celebrate!

The drinks bought to entertain

John's family before were all used to entertain

Preston and finished. "Let's go together, buy whatever you want to eat, and you will bleed a lot tonight." Malina suggested with a smile.

"Yeah." At this moment, Josh agreed.

Buddy took it personally and was the first to walk down the mountain.

Malina followed.

Josh took two steps, didn't see Hedy, turned around and saw Hedy standing at the door, hesitating.

"Come on, don't get separated as a family." Josh waved to her.

Chapter 55 If My Mom and Dad Lose a Hair, I Will Kill You!

Josh's words made Hedy's pupils shrink slightly.

She was probably still thinking about something in her mind, and her legs stepped out uncontrollably.

"Go ahead." Josh stepped aside.

Just like picking up my younger sister to go home from a long vacation, I let my younger sister go first, and I was behind.

On the way, Malina and Buddy talked and laughed, calling Hedy and Josh from time to time, asking them some irrelevant things.

Or looking through the old accounts, causing the corners of other people's mouths to twitch, which is very painful.

Hedy was walking on the side of the road, with five fingers opened by Susan, feeling the wind passing through her fingers, it was so warm.

Half an hour later, a group of four arrived at the small supermarket at the foot of the mountain.

Because it is the only supermarket in the entire Geary Village, this store is small but has all the internal organs.

Vegetables are displayed at the entrance of the supermarket, goods are placed in the middle of the supermarket, and there is a chess and card room on the side of the supermarket. There are two tables for grandparents and grandparents playing chess and fighting the landlord, and the smoke is like a special effect.

“Hey, Hedy and Lynn are here too?” The boss in his thirties walked out of the counter and greeted him with a smile,

“What do you want to buy today?”

“First get some good cigarettes and wine, and then a few bottles of drinks For the children.” Malina pointed at the items in the alcohol and tobacco section, and raised her voice,

“The business is good, and they are almost sold out.”

On weekdays, the items in the alcohol and tobacco section are fully stocked, and there will be no time when they are out of stock.

It’s strange today, there are only a few bottles of wine and a few cigarettes left.

The boss’s smile froze.

The business is good because John’s family has been entertaining guests for the past three days, and the supermarket’s warehouse is almost emptied of alcohol, tobacco, and so on.

It’s just that John’s family has a special relationship with the Ellis Family, and he didn’t want to rub salt in to the Ellis Family’s wounds, so he could only downplay it,

The Ellis Family is also very pitiful, they are all honest people, the villagers are willing to help when they encounter anything.

But what about John’s daughter... Alas!

“Hedy, Josh, take what you want to eat, and I’ll pay the bill together.” Without thinking too much, Malin let her son and daughter pick something.

The brothers and sisters nodded, but before they could move, a loud and clear voice came from outside the door, “Boss, bring me five more bottles of wine.

The brothers in my eighth uncle’s family haven’t had enough yet!”

2

Golden Chain walked over, his face was flushed and he smelled of alcohol.

Oops!

The boss secretly thought something was wrong, and said bravely, “Mother USD, the cigarettes and alcohol are all sold out, there’s no more!”

Who said they’re sold out? Isn’t there still some left?” Mother pointed to the wine on the counter

“This is from the Ellis Family...” The boss’ tone gradually weakened.

“Ye, Ellis Family?” Mother looked around and found the four of Hedy.

She snorted coldly, took out more than a dozen bright red hundred- USD bills from her pocket, and patte d them on the counter,

“Ellis Family pays twice as much, my mother will double it, as long as I can take good care of my relatives today, money is not a problem!

She’s rich now!

“It’s not a matter of money, Mama USD, Ellis Family came first, otherwise, I’ll let my wife drive to the town, and I’ll buy you as much as you want, plus a 10% discount!” The boss didn’t w ant to hurt

Ellis Family didn’t dare to offend John’s family either.

“Going to the town? An hour back and forth, and I still drink a fart of wine!” The mother took out a dozen red bills from her pocket again, “This much, is it enough, I will add more! I don’t believe it, in this world There is also the matter of mone y!

Her Malina is as poor as a dog, how can she be richer than me?”

The mother hated Malina very much.

She felt that Malina was hypocritical. Every time Malina called her “in-law“, she was actually satirizing John’s family’s incompetence. Did she really think she didn’t know?

Does Malina mind if

Josh drops out so her daughter can go to college? Knowing to pretend to be a good person all day long, disgusting, disgusting!

Before the words fell to the ground, someone slapped her hard, which caught her off guard and took tw o steps back!

“This slap, I slap you and insult my mother.”

Hedy’s tone was cold, and he walked towards the backing mother.

The mother woke up a little bit from alcohol, covered her face with shock in her eyes, “Hedy, you—”

Pop!

Another slap, on the mother’s face, and the mother took two steps back!

“This slap is your fault for not being a godfather. You failed to teach your daughter well and let her harm my brother.”

Hedy continued to walk towards the retreating mother, full of murderous intent.

“Hedy, are you—”

Pop!

The third slap was on the mother's face, her face was swollen visible to the naked eye, and she sat down on the ground!

"This slap is a slap in the face of John's family. You have more than half a hundred members and you have no shame in stealing things from my house."

Hedy looked down at his mother, just like looking down at a weak and useless ant!

"Mom!"

John found out that his mother had been buying wine and hadn't returned home, so he went out to look for her.

Unexpectedly, when I arrived at the entrance of the supermarket, I saw the scene of my former boyfriend's younger sister beating up my mother!

She hurriedly helped her mother up, maintaining the proud posture of a goddess and asked Hedy angrily,

"Hedy, what are you doing? My mother is almost sixty, why do you beat her like this! If you have any dissatisfaction, just come to me!"

Coming at you? What are you?" Hedy's gaze fell on

John like nine feet of ice, "A bastard who is blind to money, pretending to be a goddess of literature and art to question me?"

If you have the time, learn more postures and go to bed Ingratiate yourself with your benefactor, and then take your parents to the village to show off, okay?"

Hedy peeled John's skin away, revealing the dirty and ugly inside.

The real and harsh words stunned everyone nearby.

The truth no one dared to say, Hedy said.

"Damn it, Ellis Family daughter, you have the ability to repeat what you just said!"

John's family relatives got the news, rushed out with sticks and farm tools in their hands, and stood beside John.

The situation suddenly became tense.

"I said that John is a prostitute, her mother is trash, and you are all trash, do you hear me? If I didn't hear clearly, I can say it again!"

Hedy raised the volume and angrily scolded dozens of people in John's family, with sharp eyes.

"Damn it!" One of the shirtless men drank too much alcohol and was about to chop Hedy with a sickle.

Hedy took the initiative to meet him, kicked the big man in the abdomen, and kicked the big man down! She kicked up the handle of the sickle in the big man's hand, and reached out to grab the sickle as it leaped upwards.

Then with a flick of the arm, the sickle touched the big man's neck, and with a bang, it stuck into the ground!

The whole set of movements was so fast that people couldn't see clearly. By the time everyone reacted, the big man was already sweating and completely sobered up!

The blade of the sickle was only a few centimeters away from the artery in his neck!

If he moved a little, his throat could be cut!

John's family was dumbfounded.

Why did Hedy, who used to be timid and fearful, suddenly become so powerful and crazy?!

A relative of John's family said nervously,

"Ye, Hedy, calm down, everyone is on the same mountain, if you hurt the eighth uncle, be careful that your father breaks his leg one day, and your mother falls into the river!" Hedy suddenly became good at fighting, but Hedy is not always in Geary Village, she still has to go to school.

Must find a way to bluff Hedy!

"Then I might as well give you a warning, if my parents lose a hair, I will kill all of you!"

Hedy's tone was sharp, and his exquisite and beautiful face was violent and cold, as if the god of death had come.

Considering her family, and she still had to do the task of resurrecting her younger brother, she didn't really do anything to John's family. But if John's family members seek their own death, she will help them well!

People are afraid of cruelty, and ghosts are afraid of evil.

In many cases, human beings are bullying and fearful.

Seeing Hedy's expression, the eighth uncle in John's family was almost frightened away, got up and ran.

The rest of John's family, including John's mother and daughter, left in fear, not daring to provoke Hedy again.

Hedy turned around, intending to tell his family that he could go home, but he saw that his family was petrified in place.

The old man in the chess and card room opened his mouth, not knowing when the cigarette fell to the ground.

Chapter 56 The obedient little girl has become a high-cold girl, and the supermarket has been quiet for a long time.

Malina was the first to react. She rushed in front of Hedy, held Hedy's shoulder and took a look, "Hedy is okay, is there any injury? Let mom see!"

She doesn't care about others, she only worries about her daughter Are there any injuries!

Buddy and Josh also gathered around.

The eyes of the three were like infrared scanners, carefully inspecting Hedy from the tips of his hair to his ankles.

After confirming that Hedy was not injured, the three breathed a sigh of relief.

A new question also immediately appeared in their minds – why does the weak sister/daughter possess such powerful skills?

Doesn't she always hide behind her family when she encounters troubles?

Why was he the first one to rush up this time without saying anything, and also cleaned up a large group of people in John's family? Hedy saw through her family's doubts. She squirmed. her red lips, and her voice could not detect emotion,

"Simple kindness and gentleness cannot protect myself and anyone. I have changed."

This is the experience in the slums in the previous life, which brought her Lessons.

"It's a good change."

Josh nodded, looking at his sister's caring eyes, there was a little more appreciation and approval.

There are too many examples of good people being bullied.

In today's world, girls must not take "gentleness and kindness" as their only creed.

His sister can have such a change, and he can feel more at ease when he goes.

"No matter how you change, you are mother's Hedy."

Malina wiped away tears.

As a mother, she is extremely sensitive to changes in her children.

The daughter must have suffered a lot of grievances at school to say this.

Fortunately, the past has passed, and now the daughter has become strong enough not to be bullied by others, and can still protect her family.

Buddy didn't say anything, just touched the top of his daughter's head, feeling guilty and relieved in his heart.

The four paid the money, took away tobacco, alcohol, drinks, snacks and other things, left the supermarket and returned home.

On the way, Hedy answered a phone call.

A reporter recommended by Preston.

The reporter said happily,

"Ms. Ellis, I have verified the matter of your brother, and I have written a report on this matter and submitted it to the editor-in-chief. The editor-in-chief thinks this article can be the headline of the news tonight. If there is a commonly used chat software, you will receive a news feed at eight o'clock sharp tonight.

I suggest you pay attention here, because you will see something else in the report."

"Thank you." Hedy eyes shimmering.

Anything else...

She was looking forward to it.

"You don't need to thank me, this is what I should do as a reporter." The reporter hung up the phone.

-Dinner

is served freshly out of the oven after the busy schedule of the family.

At this moment, the wall clock on the wall showed seven forty-five.

The four of them sat down around the table, before they lifted the fork, there was a sound of footsteps outside the house.

The person who came was John, plus two young police officers from Geary Village.

Afterwards, I chatted with many Geary Village villagers, and they all stretched their necks, wanting to find out.

There is little entertainment in the village, and the villagers can talk about it for a long time when a couple quarreled and dropped their bowls, let alone John's house and Ellis Family.

"Comrade police, she is the one who beat my mother and uncle until she fainted and threatened to kill my whole family. Please arrest her and send her to a juvenile detention center for proper supervision!" John in a long dress stood at the Ellis Family At the door, the tone was gloomy.

She, John, is no longer the original John.

Hedy dared to humiliate her repeatedly in front of so many people, and even beat her family, she would have to pay the price!

The two police officers looked at each other and walked into the main room,

“Are you Hedy? The changes have changed a lot. Come, tell me what happened at the entrance of the supermarket this evening.”

They had seen Hedy before.

“Comrade police, are you mistaken? Hedy didn’t knock him out?” Malina was shocked.

She remembered that her daughter slapped her mother three times.

It’s even more unlikely that the eighth uncle fainted, he ran away!

“So you also admitted that she beat someone?” Policeman A pricked up his ears and asked Hedy,

“Did you beat John’s mother and relatives?”

Policeman B was taking notes beside him.

“I did.” Hedy admitted generously.

“Why?” Policeman A continued to ask.

“Because their family wants to eat swan meat, and wants me to marry Josh as a wife and Ellis Family as a daughter-in-law. If I don’t want to, they will take this opportunity to take revenge on John’s family!”

John rushed to answer, his tone full of sarcasm and arrogance,

“But they Don’t even think about it, Ellis Family, is it worthy of me, a top student in the art academy, to marry me?!” “Did

I ask you something?” Police A glanced at John. The haughty expression on John’s face froze.

Policeman A asked Hedy again, “Why did you hit John

’s family members?”

The policeman B who took the record raised his eyebrows and pouted.

The obedient little girl has become a tall and cold sister.

“Comrade policeman, look at her bad attitude. If you don’t arrest her, she will definitely be a murderer who will harm everyone in the future!” John took the opportunity to express his intentions, and then changed the subject,

“I remember that the new police station is still under construction, Our John’s family is willing to...”

Policeman A said “hey”, and turned to look at John impatiently, “Your art school teaches fortune–telling now, right? Just by looking at someone, you can tell if this person is a murderer in the future?

Or ‘ John’s family is willing’, I don’t think you know how to write the word ‘bribery“!” |
Da, da, da...

The clock made a slight movement, and the hour hand pointed to eight o’clock.

“Ding dong.” “Ding dong.”

Some people’s mobile phones rang a notification tone at the same time.

This is the special sound effect of a national chat software that pushes the evening news at 8 o’clock every night.

Policeman A didn’t have time to look at it, but Policeman B took out his mobile phone and took a look.

It doesn’t matter if you look at it, the whole person straightens his back.

John didn’t have time to look at her phone either. She explained to policeman A with a smile,

“You misunderstood, I didn’t intend to bribe you, I just think that the law enforcement is not leaking, and people like Hedy cannot be allowed to go u npunished!”

Since grassroots policemen cannot bribe, she just needs to find the higher–ups tomorrow.

No matter how much it costs, Hedy, must go to jail!

“Brother, read this news.” Policeman B showed Policeman A his mobile phone.

“Oh, oh, okay, I see.” Police A finished the news and took out the handcuffs from his waist.

John’s eyes lit up when he saw this, he was going to catch Hedy!

She pointed at the bridge of Hedy’s nose, her tone extremely arrogant and complacent, “Catch her up!”

Patta.

Handcuffs on John’s wrists!

Policeman A’s tone was cold,

“John, you are suspected of serious intentional injury, and you are now under arrest according to law. C ome with us!”

John was taken aback.

The cold touch on her wrist made her pause in her thinking, “You, have you arrested the wrong person?

The police ignored it.

She panicked, "Let go of me! You should arrest the Ellis Family!"

"Aren't you deaf? Do you know who my boyfriend is? You bastard!"

Chapter 57

Fermented public opinion, John in prison

Two young policemen left Ellis Family with John who kept shouting. The villagers looked at each other, completely unaware of what was happening

I don't know what "crime of intentional injury" John committed.

"Is it related to the evening news pushed at eight o'clock? I think the police comrades were watching the news just now."

A villager reminded.

Everyone took out their mobile phones to check.

Hedy, Josh, Buddy, and Malina also opened the chat software and clicked on the news feed.

News headline, "A female college student in an art school did these things before abandoning her boyfriend who supported her for four years..."

The report said,

The girl "Some John" from an art school was from a poor family and was unable to go to college at first, her boyfriend "Some Josh" With deep love and righteousness, he dropped out of school to work for him to study for four years.

In the last semester before graduation, "Some John" met the rich second generation "some Rock".

Money is obsessed, "Some John" changed his low-key style, ran amok in school, and bullied his classmates several times.

"Some Black", a girl from the dance department, was hit by her legs on the leg press bar, causing Some Black's lower limbs to be paralyzed and disabled for life.

Some Black's family has repeatedly sued "Some John" to no avail, and has no savings to treat "Some Black", and "Some Black" lives by a thread.

Why "Some John" did such a frenzied thing, could go to school for vacation as if nothing had happened, and was escorted abroad, the reporter didn't know.

The reporter only knows that "Some John" broke up with her boyfriend "Some Josh" immediately after returning to his hometown for vacation.

Follow-up, the reporter will continue to follow up.

“This John is so ruthless. He beat the girl into a cripple. No wonder she was taken away by the police...”

I just visited John’s house. His mother and uncle are hiding in the bedroom, drinking and eating meat. Not dizzy at all!”

“She just wanted to find a reason, bribe the police, and put the Ellis Family daughter in prison!” ”

It’s terrible, the Ellis Family is also kind to John’s family, without Josh, how can John have her now? She is too ungrateful!”

The villagers sighed and left the Ellis Family gate.

Ellis Family main house.

Disappointment flashed in Josh’s eyes. Unexpectedly, the ex-girlfriend has fallen so far.

While feeling shocked, Malina felt delighted,

“This news is too timely, otherwise Hedy would have been taken away by the police!”

Buddy nodded.

Hedy let out an “um” and lowered his eyes.

In fact, she would not have been taken away by the police today anyway.

Those two policemen just came to go through the process and perfunctory John.

John thinks that money can solve everything, but he doesn’t know that not everyone can abandon the bottom line for money.

However, she didn’t expect John to do so many bad things in school, no wonder the reporter advised her to pay attention to the news.

She had planned to ruin John’s reputation, lose his chance of recommendation, and be expelled from school.

Because John was able to go to college, it was his elder brother who sacrificed himself in exchange for it, and it was only right and proper to repay the debt.

But when the news came out, John faced more than just being fired.

She is going to jail.

-The

next morning, Hedy woke up and looked at his phone.

After a night of spreading, the story of John’s treachery has spread widely on the Internet.

Although the news did not mention the real name and location of the person involved in the incident, there are many famous detectives on the Internet.

All the Holmes followed the clues, bit by bit, and picked out the real names of John, Josh and others. The art school that attended, and the University of San Francisco that Josh had been admitted to, were picked up by everyone.

Everyone denounced John, felt sorry for Some Black, wondered about the background of the rich second generation, and felt sorry for what happened to Josh .

Especially when everyone learned that Josh was admitted to San Francisco University with the highest score, everyone 's distress for Josh reached its peak. This infatuated man originally had a bright future!

In order to fulfill his girlfriend's dream, he sacrificed his studies, but it's a pity that he worked part-time for four years, only in exchange for his girlfriend's cold-blooded breakup!

This is so unfair!

Under the inflated public opinion, many universities and high schools expressed on Twitter that they are willing to admit Josh; or support Josh for free to repeat his third year of high school and then take the university entrance exam.

The University of San Francisco even posted a blog overnight, which caused people to cry,

"Four years, return or not?"

This Twitter post has received 30,000 retweets and 5,000 comments.

Netizens have said that San Francisco University is good, and they want to take the San Francisco University exam.

The girl from San Francisco University also said, If Josh comes back, she will definitely pursue Josh, this kind of man is reliable!

Half an hour later, the University of Finance and Economics also posted a blog, and Aite San Francisco University,

"Sorry, Hedy belongs to us."

Twitter followed with a picture, which was the score of Josh's self-examination for the University of Finance and Economics not long ago. In five minutes, the University of San Francisco replied to the University of Finance and Economics,

"Then I'm leaving?"

This wave of interaction really made netizens look stupid. When everyone was worried about Josh's future, Josh worked half-study, and backhandedly passed the top American universities?

exist? Is this something that humans can do?

Learning God is nothing more than that!

Under the Twitter of the University of Finance and Economics, the netizen with the most likes said,

"John is too short-sighted. Josh may not be a rich second generation, but he will definitely be a rich generation. I firmly believe."

Josh's future is lagging behind, and netizens are divided into two groups.

All the way to the police officer V, questioning when the law will give justice to Some Black, a girl from the dance department.

All the way to the art school where John is studying under the official V. forcing the school to deal with John.

Twenty minutes later, the school announced the punishment,

1. Withdraw John's recommendation quota.
2. Fire John.

At the same time, provincial police announced their involvement in the investigation of the Some Black case.

Five hours later, the police announced the truth and punished and demoted the three police officers involved.

John was sentenced to three years in prison and compensated Some Black with 1.08 million.

-At

this time, Josh had already boarded the flight to Imperial Capital.

Hedy leaned against the railing on the second floor, looking at the setting sun like fire in the west.

The mobile phone in the palm of the hand displays the hot chat interface of the seven classes.

Sun and the others scolded John and the rich second generation behind her, feeling sorry for Josh and Some Black.

Since netizens did not dig into Josh's privacy, no one knew that Josh had a younger sister named Hedy.

After scolding and distressing, Class Seven also thought of another detail.

from the time the news was published until now, no one knows who the rich second generation is.

All official notifications have tacitly avoided " someone ".

Sun said, "The chain of interests behind this ' someone ' seems unusual. According to the current public opinion situation, he may not move Josh, but Josh 's family just ..."

Hedy frowned, his eyes flickering coldly.

This is also what she cares about.

San Francisco, a women's prison.

John was wearing a prison uniform, hugging the phone and crying,

"That girl is Hedy, she lives in Geary Village, Geary Village 39, her father's name is Buddy, and her mother's name is Malina.

Kill them all!"

She hates everyone in the Ellis Family!

She must have been arrested after the Ellis Family spoke ill of her to reporters!

The Ellis Family be damned!

Chapter 58 Another name for Queen!

In John's words, follow the telephone line, along the signal tower, all the way through mountains and rivers, and arrive at a certain luxuriously decorated KTV box.

Rock, who is fair-looking but has dark eyes, embraces two beauties in bikinis on the left and right, and answers the phone with a cigarette in his mouth,

"Geary Village is No. 39, right? Okay, let that Josh try it too, what is it to snatch a woman from the Black Gang prince?" End."

'Get you out? Don't worry, when the limelight passes and the Internet loses its memory, I can change your sentence from three years to three months, and three months into three weeks." "Don't be afraid, I'll wait for you outside, how can I Maybe find another new love, you are the woman I love the most, hang up.

Rock

casually threw the phone on the table, kicked his legs with leather shoes on the table, and let the beauty in bikini touch him.

The bodyguard whispered beside him,

“Master Young Master, haven’t you been playing with John for two months? Why bother with her?”

With Master Young Master’s previous temper, a new woman would get tired of playing after a few days.

“You don’t understand, John is different from others, I haven’t played enough.”

Rock took a puff of smoke, and there was a hint of sarcasm in his eyes in the smoke.

When he met John, John was still pretending to be a high-minded goddess of painting, always yelling “it’s great to be rich”.

Then he wondered how long John could last.

So, he launched a fierce offensive against John, using money to turn John into a bed bitch, using money to reshape John’s worldview, and seeing her step by step become a “slut” that she despised.

She is his toy.

This toy is not completely destroyed yet.

“Go, find a few people, according to the address I just said, the people were killed, and the house was burned.”

Rock gave the order with a relaxed tone.

They Black Gang are used to this kind of thing.

-Geary

Village.

It was getting dark, and the sky was pouring down with rain.

There was a sound of rain in the mountains, and even the yellow dogs raised by the villagers were much quieter.

In the middle of the night, the rain stopped and puddles were everywhere.

A black commercial vehicle with a foreign brand came from the direction of the village entrance.

The commercial vehicle parked in front of the closed supermarket, the door opened, and seven sturdy men stepped out who were not easy to mess with at first glance.

Through the door, you can still see a row of gleaming machetes and several barrels of gasoline inside the car.

The strong men shook their necks and made a “clack” joint movement sound,

“What kind of place is this?”

“Stop complaining, let’s go up the mountain after peeing.”

“Say it first, Buddy Malina You guys, leave Hedy to me, and I’ll kill after I’m done playing.”

“All right, all right, I know you’re a good student girl.”

Several people untied their belts for convenience.

One of them hummed a ditty, glanced at the ground unconsciously, and shook his body in fright,

“Fuck, why is there a figure here!”

Under the streetlight in front of the supermarket, besides the shadows of the seven of them, there was also a slender figure. The figure was abrupt and terrifying.

Following the shadow, several people looked up, and saw a young girl standing on the branch of a jujube tree, holding on to the main trunk.

The girl was carrying the light behind her back, so she couldn’t see her appearance clearly, nor could she see her clothes clearly.

“Stinky bitch, what are you doing playing tricks in the middle of the night? You scared the grandpas into sickness, and they want your life!”

The

leading strong man spat, regaining consciousness.

The girl didn’t answer, but stepped on the ground and calmly fell from the six-meter-high tree.

Boom.

She landed.

Countless raindrops splashed in puddles.

The feeling of falling caused by gravity made her half-squat on the ground, with one hand propped on the ground, her head slightly lowered.

” Fuck!”

The strong man’s eyes widened.

It’s six meters high, so you can jump as you say, so it’s cool!

Hedy raised his head slowly, stood up straight, and walked towards the seven in silence.

Only then did the strong men see Hedy’s appearance clearly.

She is young, with exquisite and beautiful appearance, wearing a cheap and simple three-piece blue sports suit, with a pair of sneakers that cost 40 to 50 USD.

This is very common schoolgirl dress up.

But in the eyes of this female student, there is a murderous look and coldness that is extremely inconsistent with her age and identity.

“Hey, who are you? What do you want to do?” A strong man went to negotiate.

Hedy closed his eyes lightly, without saying anything, raised his hand and punched him in greeting.

The burly man hurriedly raised his left arm to block, the pressure on his left arm made him look up in horror,

“You...”

Before he could utter the second word, Hedy kicked the burly man on the side of the neck with a roundabout kick, directly Kick the strong man to the ground!

The strong man lay on the ground covering his neck and yelled, “It’s Lianjiazi! Copy guy!” After wandering on the road for a long time, as soon as the opponent makes a move, he will know if there is one!

Although he didn’t know the background of this female student and why she had such powerful fighting skills at such a young age, he knew that they should not be underestimated!

There is no doubt, brothers, immediately go to the commercial vehicle to get the machete.

Seven people, seven knives, confronted the unarmed Hedy.

The night wind howled, and the two of them were the first to rush towards Hedy, roaring.

With a calm face, Hedy raised his leg and kicked one person in the chest, then turned around and kicked the other person away.

The third person took the opportunity to surprise Hedy from the side, and the machete was only three inches away from Hedy.

The hostility in Hedy’s eyes flashed away, he leaned back to hide, grabbed the third person’s forearm and forearm and spun half a circle.

Originally slashed at Hedy’s arm, bent inward, and the blade rested on his own neck!

“Brother!”

The others panicked and surrounded Hedy with machetes.

Hedy gave them a cold look from the end of his eyes, pulled his hand, and sealed his throat with the blade.

The body known as “Big Brother” fell straight down, and the weapon belonged to Hedy.

Five minutes later, six of the seven had died, and the last one remained.

The survivor’s face was full of fear, and he dragged his broken leg and kept crawling backwards. While crawling, he trembled and cried,

“Who are you? Who are you?”

Clean and neat, powerful enough to make people tremble all over!

Every cell in his body is clamoring to escape, escape quickly!

“Who am I, you don’t deserve to know.”

Hedy’s eyelids slightly lifted, and his tone was calm.

After all, the hand raised the knife and fell, and everyone was killed!

“Buzz–buzz–”

The phone in the elder brother’s pocket kept vibrating.

Hedy walked over, took out his mobile phone, and the caller showed “Young Gang Master”.

She chose “refusal”, took a “family portrait” for the seven brothers, edited a text message and sent it to the young gang leader. Hundreds of miles away, Rock, who saw the photo in the text message, suddenly sat up on the bed.

“All dead? Who killed it?”

“Take a photo of me to warn me?”

“Is she/he from the Ellis Family, or someone passing by?”

“Is it a person, or a team?” ”

It doesn’t matter How, the Ellis Family can’t move anymore, I can’t offend this mysterious and unknown person just for a toy.”

Geary Village.

Under the streetlight, Hedy took the mobile phone of “Big Brother” and dialed a series of numbers.

The phone was quickly connected, and a sweet voice came out,

“Hello, this is Sunshine Hotel, do you want to order a meal or a room?”

Hedy said calmly,

“Geary Village entrance, seven steaks, fully cooked.

The voice at the front desk became sweeter,

“Okay, what is your name and password?”

“Lucifer, 0917.”

There was a sudden silence on the other end of the phone.

After a while, the female voice trembled and said respectfully,

“You, you still have three chances to keep secret. What is your choice?”

Lucifer.

Meaning, bright star, son of the morning.

It means, the seven deadly sins, representing the arrogant devil.

It is described in the Old Testament that Lucifer was once the most beautiful and powerful archangel in the kingdom of heaven.

Because he was unwilling to obey the Son of Christ, he fell into hell with the words “I would rather be the king of hell than the slave of heaven”.

At the same time, Lucifer has another more resounding title in the killer world, Queen!

Chapter 59 Hedy eats all men and women, so terrifying!

The operator didn't understand why the Queen, who had been buried in the flames, would appear again

She just feels honored.

An incomparable, unprecedented honor!

“Secret.” Hedy didn't hesitate.

“Okay, all the staff of Sunshine Hotel are here to serve you wholeheartedly!” The operator hung up the phone.

Three minutes later, a helicopter departed from the deep mountain airport closest to Geary Village.

Half an hour later, the helicopter stopped at the entrance of Geary Village.

Relevant personnel swiftly packed up and carried away the seven corpses, and cleaned up all traces of the scene.

The mobile phone of “Big Brother” was also cleaned.

They left before Hedy stepped out of the darkness, eyes flickering.

Sunshine Hotel, The Sunshine Hotel, a global five-star hotel chain.

It's named “Sunshine” and actually borders on “Darkness”.

It serves ordinary customers while serving all killers.

As long as the killer has a file here and has currency, he can get help from the hotel.

Including but not limited to handling the scene, providing guns, ammunition and armor.

“If you choose to keep it secret, no second person will know that I’m still alive.”

Hedy said to himself, wearing stars and moons to go up the mountain.

If it wasn’t for protecting her family and showing the forces behind.

John, she would not have killed seven people in a row, let alone contact the Sunshine Hotel and ask for a secrecy. She still yearns for a different way of life.

But...

Hedy stopped and looked down at the hand he had just held the knife.

If it comes to the safety of her family, she will give up this “desire”.

-In

the early morning, Hedy carried her schoolbag, bid farewell to her parents and went down the mountain

The long vacation is over, and it’s time for her to return to Lowell High School.

It is different from the last time when I returned to Lowell High School.

This time, when Hedy got off the bus, the students passing by greeted her enthusiastically and shyly,

“Goddess Hedy, good morning.”

“Goddess Hedy seems to be more beautiful!”

“Woo, Goddess Hedy took a look at me, I’m consummated!”

Gloria As a backdrop, Lowell High School students feel more and more how powerful Hedy is.

Subtly, Hedy also changed from “Goddess Hedy of Class Seven” to “Goddess Hedy of Lowell High School”

Wherever she goes, the students don’t have to look at her with respect and expectation.

Hedy returned to class seven with a calm expression.

To her surprise, there were not only Sun and other students in Class 7, but also the principal Kelly.

Next to Kelly stood a middle-aged man wearing glasses.

“Hedy, come here.”

Kelly waved to Hedy.

When Hedy came to him, he pointed to the middle-aged man and introduced,

“This is our San Francisco Teacher Tim who is in charge of the Olympic mathematics competition.”

Kelly then introduced Hedy to Teacher Tim,

“She is Hedy, the one who took the monthly exam last month. The only person in the city with a perfect score in mathematics.”

“I didn’t expect that Hedy is not only good at studying, but also beautiful.” Teacher Tim stretched out his hand to Hedy and praised her sincerely,” Hi, my name is Luke, you can call me Teacher Tim.”

Hedy shook back politely and looked at Kelly suspiciously.

What did the teacher in charge of Mathematical Olympiad ask her for?

Although the Mathematical Olympiad competition is about to start, she is not a competitor.

“San Francisco’s results in the Mathematical Olympiad in recent years have not been very good.” Kelly explained,

“The last question in the math paper of the last monthly exam was given by Mr. Tim, and you were the only one in the city who answered

1. it.

Mr. Tim wants to invite you to enter San Francisco. The San Francisco Mathematical Olympiad team represents San Francisco in the city-level Mathematical Olympiad.”

[Ding! Trial mission released.]

[Trial task (5), Represent San Francisco in the city-level Mathematical Olympiad and win the championship.]

A line of text that others cannot see immediately appeared in front of Hedy’s eyes.

She nodded in agreement, “Yes.”

“That’s great!” Luke handed Hedy a note with the address on it,

“This is the address of the after-school training class for our city’s Mathematical Olympiad team. Remember to report it. I’m going to go back to the school where I work!”

“Goodbye.” Hedy and Kelly said goodbye to Luke.

“Don’t embarrass Lowell High School?” Kelly told Hedy and left class seven.

Sun and the others immediately gathered around, feeling aggrieved, “Goddess Hedy, why do you seem to be out of touch this holiday? You don’t chat in the group or play games?”

He also planned to play a few more "Call of Duty".

After speaking, Sun handed Hedy the game interface in his mobile phone to look at.

"Cold-Blooded Sun?" Hedy discovered that Sun had changed his game nickname.

'Yeah, everyone has changed, right?' Sun asked everyone in Class 7.

Everyone nodded, and a girl said, "Not only did we change it, but students in other classes also changed it, and players who weren't from Lowell High School also changed it.

It's a trend." "It's not all like this, there are also Childe's little wife, Childe's first love, Childe's current girlfriend, etc. Wait for the address..." The corner of Sun's mouth twitched.

Their Goddess Hedy caters to men and women, it's terrifying!

"Let's not talk about games now, let's talk about the Olympiad competition?" Boy A sighed,

"This competition is not easy."

"Why do you say that?" Hedy frowned.

The original owner has no memories related to the Mathematical Olympiad in his mind.

"San Francisco belongs to Central South Province, and there are 21 cities in Central South Province, which means that there are 21 teams in this city-level competition."

D City was the strongest in previous years, and D City also represented Central South Province in the American Mathematical Olympiad., and almost defeated the team and advanced to the global competition."

"San Francisco is more miserable, the strength is at the bottom."

I just don't know if the San Francisco team can win a little bit this year, don't play in the first round, and get fucked in the first round go home."

"What nonsense are you talking about!" Sun nudged the person who said this,

"Goddess Hedy has participated, how can it be a round trip!"

"That's right." The person patted the back of his head and suddenly realized, "Goddess Hedy participated, so I won't win the championship?"

"I will indeed win the championship." Hedy's eyes brightened.

With the first four missions completed, she had no reason to fail on the fifth mission.

What's more, what she has to complete is a total of 30 trial tasks, only in this way can Cooper be revived.

“Wow!” The students were excited.

With Goddess Hedy’s character of doing what she says, she said that if she wins the championship, she will definitely win the championship!

They trust Goddess Hedy unconditionally!

After school time.

Hedy had just walked out of Lowell High School, and there was a “bang” around him, and several ribbons were pulled.

Colorful ribbons are flying above Hedy’s head.

Oliver appeared in front of Hedy with roses in his hands, his eyes full of admiration, “Hedy, I didn’t know how to cherish before, and thought you were inferior to Gloria. Now, I know that you are a thousand times stronger than Gloria.

I also recognize myself In my heart, are you willing to forgive me and give me another chance?”

This affectionate appearance caused many girls around to scream.

Although the Johnson Family has had cash flow problems these days, Oliver’s good looks can’t be held back.

Whether Lowell High School should be his school grass, or his school grass, no one can shake it.

Chapter 60 Childe King can’t possibly like you from the countryside!

I don’t know who yelled “forgive him” first, and the surrounding atmosphere began to sing in unison.

Everyone has seen how much Hedy liked Oliver before.

Since Hedy transformed to this point because of Oliver, wouldn’t it be Hedy’s wish that Oliver changed his mind now?

“Come on!” Oliver’s brother pushed Oliver.

Oliver and Susan blushed, walked up to Hedy with the rose in his arms, and his heartbeat accelerated violently.

Today’s confession was actually planned by his parents.

Aiming at the current dilemma facing the Johnson Family, they found the best way to break the ice, marry Hedy.

In this way, the savior of the thousand-year-old King Family became the daughter-in-law of the Johnson Family, and the Johnson Family would naturally follow suit.

Hedy has married in, so Preston won’t be able to embarrass the Johnson Family, right?

He should be thinking about how to help the Johnson Family.

In this way, Johnson Family can take advantage of this shareholder's wind and become the top rich family in San Francisco!

Mom and Dad said it was a good plan to kill two birds with one stone.

Only he himself knows that this is killing three birds with one stone.

He fell in love with Hedy.

In the dream is her cool and beautiful figure.

Hedy should also forgive him immediately and fall into his arms again.

Oliver began to fantasize about how bright his future with Hedy would be.

Hedy's eyes were indifferent, and he said coldly,

"Good dogs don't get in the way, get out of the way."

She still has to report to the Mathematical Olympiad training class, and she has no interest in talking non sense with this superficial idiot.

Oliver's expression changed.

The expressions of the surrounding students also changed.

Shouldn't Hedy be smiling at this time, forgive and accept Oliver's confession?

Why such a cold attitude?

And even called Oliver a "dog"...

"You...what do you mean?" Oliver's face was a little ugly, and his tone was puzzled,

"You won the monthly exam, participated in the chess competition, and became the best female companion in BiTu Gaming, Isn't it all to attract my attention, tell me you are better than Gloria?"

This whimsical words made Hedy's eyes chill,

"Who gave you the confidence to make you think that I did all this to attract your attention, do you deserve it?"

Or do you think I'm blind and would like you who are inferior to me in grades, chess, game skills, and everything?" When the voice fell to the ground, many students nodded in agreement.

Hedy is no longer the original Hedy, her excellence is beyond Oliver's reach.

It was normal to reject Oliver.

Oliver's handsome face turned blue, he thought for a moment, flash of disdain flashed in his mind,

“You rejected me because of Childe King, right?”

and a

It seems that Hedy is just mediocre, and he met someone richer and more handsome than him Man, leave him ruthlessly behind!

Hedy frowned.

What does this have to do with Preston?

Seeing that she didn't reply, Oliver thought he had exposed her thoughts, and smiled coldly,

1

“You are at best the King Family's savior, and Childe King is willing to take care of you and take you to a charity dinner, which is the limit. It's best not to daydream, Post it upside down, fantasizing about marrying Childe King, because you can't afford it, and it's impossible for him to like you from the countryside!”

These words also made many people nod.

They admit that Hedy is excellent.

But he also admits that Hedy, who was born in the countryside, is far from being able to climb up to the King Family, let alone be tempted by Childe King.

Who is Childe King? Not to mention how many princess queens in the world have publicly expressed their love, just talk about the USA, where there are countless beauties, talented women, and noble women!

What does Hedy compare with them

With eyes full of mountains and rivers and nothing far away, it is better to cherish the people in front of you.

Oliver is the best home for Hedy.

At the moment when everyone was complaining secretly, a magnetic and melodious male voice came from the periphery of the crowd,

“Who said I can't like Hedy from the countryside?”

Everyone followed the reputation and saw a tall and handsome man, a gentleman with a dignified temperament, a man with an incomparable aura, came from the turbulent sunset

It was Preston!

The crowd automatically made way for Preston.

Preston came to Hedy's side.

As soon as he came, Oliver's most handsome face in the school became dull.

Just like the firefly meeting the bright moon, humble and not worth mentioning.

"Hedy is talented, intelligent, independent and self-improving, and she is the best wife in my heart." Preston smiled softly, with a helpless tone, "It's a pity that she doesn't like me. I can only pursue her slowly and look forward to it. She can look at me one more time."

The effect of these words is like thunder on the ground.

"It turned out that it wasn't Hedy who posted it back, but Childe King took the initiative to pursue it!"

"Childe King said that Hedy is the best wife candidate in his heart!" "

My God! Goddess Hedy conquered the first young lady?"

'Oliver was slapped in the face!'"

Oliver froze on the spot, his face turned white and blue, purple and green, like a complete palette,

Many questions raced through his mind,

How did Childe King come to Lowell High School?

Why did he say he likes Hedy?

How could he like Hedy!

He and Hedy are people from two worlds!

How can he announce in public that he is pursuing Hedy!

"You..." Hedy turned to look at Preston, frowning.

Preston what does this mean?

He doesn't really have thoughts about himself, does he?

If so, she wouldn't hesitate to distance herself from Preston.

Her world does not have, nor can it contain such a fragile thing as love.

A smile appeared in Preston's long and narrow eyes, and he leaned over and whispered in the girl's ear,

"You have been ridiculed, as a friend, I must help you get back some ground, right?"

What a vigilant little prey.

His eyes fell on the girl's lovely earlobe, and a dim light flashed in his eyes.

The hot and humid breath in his ears made Hedy shrug his neck and avoid it.

She scratched her itchy ear and nodded in understanding.

She thinks about the same as Oliver.

Preston has no shortage of beauties, so he won't be tempted by her.

So here comes the problem.

"How did you come to Lowell High School?" Hedy asked.

"I finished work early today, so I dropped by to pick you up from school." Preston straightened his back, his voice soft.

"I participated in the city-level Mathematical Olympiad, and I need to report to the training class." Hedy walked forward.

"I'll see you off." Preston followed with his long legs.

When Oliver passed by, he still kept a handsome smile, but the smile didn't reach his eyes,

"Stay away from her next time, don't dirty her eyes, you know?"

Oliver raised his head suddenly, his lips trembling.

This prestigious mall overlord is warning himself!

Preston ignored Oliver, got into the Rolls-Royce sports car, and disappeared from everyone's sight.

His attitude confirmed his thoughts on Hedy to the outside world.

Everyone looked at the direction where Hedy and Preston disappeared, and at Oliver who was stiff all over, and shook their heads speechlessly.

Oliver's brothers didn't know how to comfort Oliver either.

He could only pat Oliver on the shoulder, sigh and leave.

Not long after, the lively crowd dispersed, leaving only Oliver alone.

He felt extremely remorseful.

Center Street.

Hedy sat in the passenger seat, took out his mobile phone and contacted Grace in the cake shop, telling her that he was preparing for the Math Olympiad and could not continue to work.

Grace replied that she understood, said to cheer up, and then transferred her 50,000 USD.

Hedy sent a question mark over.

Grace,

After you helped me attract customers, my store became popular, and there were many repeat customers. Everyone said the taste was good. The manager of an American chain of dessert shops approached me and asked me to provide him with the cake and the recipe.

In other words, your sister and I are going to become a rich woman. You definitely deserve these things. If you don't accept me, I'm in a hurry with you!
