

The Lord 1111

Chapter 1111: Six Desires Demon God

Zhao Fu felt that the Six Desires Celestial Art that he cultivated was about to break through. The Six Desires Celestial Art was an Art of Celestials, so it was naturally quite profound. After cultivating it for so long, Zhao Fu had only reached the peak of the third level. In total, it had 24 levels.

Just then, Zhao Fu had lost control because he was about to break through to the fourth level. His cultivation had most likely been affected by the Platinum Dragon Phoenix, which was now helping him break through.

There were two cultivation methods for the Six Desires Celestial Art: One was Suppressing Desires, which produced celestial qi, and the other was Indulging Desires, which produced demonic qi.

Zhao Fu walked the second path, so he produced demonic qi; it could be said that Zhao Fu was a Demonic Cultivator.

Every three levels of the Six Desires Celestial Art was a stage, which could give special effects or abilities. If Zhao Fu broke through the third level, he would reach the first stage.

Zhao Fu did not hesitate to return to the palace. He closed the door of the palace and gave orders for no one to disrupt him before sitting cross-legged on the throne with his eyes closed, going into his cultivation status.

The six balls of demonic qi had become six massive vortexes, and the Heaven and Earth Essence Qi around him quickly gathered. The six vortexes became larger and larger as they absorbed this Essence Qi, and their attractive force became stronger and stronger.

The attractive force now seemed corporeal, and everyone in the Great Qin City could sense that the Great Qin Palace was giving off an attractive force that was gathering Heaven and Earth Essence Qi.

The sky gradually darkened as demonic clouds gathered above the Great Qin Palace. Everyone looked towards the Great Qin Palace curiously. Because their Majesty regularly caused abnormal signs, they were not too surprised.

Zhao Fu did not know about any of this, and he only focused on cultivating the Six Desires Celestial Art. The six vortexes continued to absorb Heaven and Earth Essence Qi, and drops of demonic water started to appear.

This lasted for five days, and by now, the sky above the Great Qin Palace was completely covered by thick black clouds. It was as if the sky was weighed down, making the atmosphere quite heavy. A cold and dark demonic qi also spread throughout the Great Qin City.

From a distance, it looked like the Great Qin City was covered by a dark haze. The might coming from there could cause people to feel as if their hairs were standing on end, and they felt fear in their hearts.

The six vortexes in Zhao Fu's body had now formed six pools of demonic water. The demonic water was pure black, and it had been formed from the extreme condensation of demonic qi. Each drop contained immense power and could turn people into demons.

What Zhao Fu needed to do now was condense Six Desires Demonic Crystals. The Six Desires Celestial Art had started off as six small orbs of demonic qi, and now the second stage was to condense the demonic water into six demonic crystals.

Zhao Fu focused his mind and started to compress the demon water and continuously gather it. Only after spending much effort did he create a small black crystal that was as big as a needle head.

After the six black crystals appeared, Zhao Fu's body trembled and a powerful energy exploded out. The six black crystals started to wildly absorb the surrounding demonic water, becoming larger and larger.

The low demonic clouds in the sky started to go through changes, forming six massive vortexes. Six terrifying ripples came from the six vortexes, making everyone feel as if they had fallen into an icy cavern.

The six black crystals in Zhao Fu's body continuously devoured the demonic water. Soon, the six black crystals had devoured all of the demonic water, becoming round crystal pearls that were as big as longan fruits.

Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom!

At that moment, the sky went through massive changes. The six massive vortexes exploded out with an incredibly terrifying force as countless rays of black light shot out. Six figures giving off shocking demonic might appeared in the sky, and everyone in the Great Qin City felt their bodies sink.

The six figures all looked different and gave off dense demonic qi. A formless aura spread out, and the countless residents in the Great Qin City stood frozen in place. The figures' eyes were empty and looked like puppets.

One figure had no face, only having eyes, and there were 20 or so eyes. They covered its face, and they were all black and had runes within them. They looked quite terrifying, and its body was as skinny as a monkey and had black skin.

One figure was tall and slim and was a man's body. It was quite pale and had black hair. It also had no face, but on the two sides of its head, it had six pairs of pointed ears.

One figure looked both like a human and a beast; its upper body was that of a human and its lower body was that of a beast. It was covered with black fur and did not have a face either; it only had a long, blood-red nose and looked like a monster.

One figure looked like a small, elderly person. It was currently lying on its stomach, and there was a short horn on its head. It did not have a face either and only had a mouth filled with fangs and a very long tongue.

One figure looked like a woman on its upper body and did not have a face either. The lower half of its body was made up of many tentacles that continuously twisted about and were a fleshy color. It looked quite disgusting and horrifying.

The final figure looked quite normal. It was a person wearing a black cloak, and it was surrounded by demonic qi. However, there was nothing within the black cloak, only darkness and demonic qi that continuously changed.

The Six Desires of the Six Desires Celestial Art were as such: Eyes (desiring and coveting with the eyes), Ears (desiring praise), Nose (desiring delicious smells), Mouth (desiring delicious tastes), Body (desiring physical pleasures), and Mind (desiring fame and love).

In Buddhism's Great Treatise on the Perfection of Wisdom, the six desires referred to colors, shapes, carriage, voices, smooth skin, and attractive features. The 'six desires' referred to people's innate desires towards people of the opposite gender, and it was now more commonly called 'lust'.

The six desires could be said to be linked to people's biological desires, and no one could avoid having them. Moreover, people could not get rid of them, or they would become like puppets.

The six figures in the air represented the six inescapable desires; they were the Six Desires Demon Gods and controlled the six desires.

All residents present were affected by the Six Desires Demon Gods, becoming like puppets because they had their six desires controlled; they could not see, hear, smell, move their bodies, or even think.

This sort of control power was very powerful; however, as a Celestial Art, it was not too surprising that it was so powerful.

Within the Heaven Domain, there was a grand Sect that had six 1,000 meter tall statues. These statues were human-shaped, wore robes, had cold expressions, and gave off boundless celestial qi.

Chapter 1112: Six Desires Celestials

These were the Six Paths Celestials who controlled the Great Daos of Six Desires. They were extremely powerful and were on the same level as the Six Paths Demon Gods.

The Six Desires Celestial Art was split into two paths, and if Zhao Fu had walked the first path, Suppressing Desires, it would have been these Six Desires Celestials appearing, as opposed to the Six Desires Demon Gods.

From this, it could be said that the Six Desires Celestials and Six Desires Demon Gods were opposing existences. Even though they came from the same roots, they represented two completely different powers and were completely opposed to each other.

It was just like good and evil; those who were good could not tolerate those who were evil, and those who were evil could not stand those who were good. The two sides were destined to oppose, if not destroy, each other.

The Sect here was a famous Sect within the Heaven Domain, and it was called the Six Desires Celestial Sect. Legends said that it was a legacy from the ancient Six Desires Celestials.

What they cultivated was not the complete Six Desires Celestial Art but an incomplete Six Desires Celestial Art. Over the ages, they had continuously refined it and perfected it, creating the current Six Desires Celestial Art. As such, it was somewhat different from what Zhao Fu Cultivated.

The Six Desires Celestial Art that Zhao Fu Cultivated was complete, because he had obtained it from the golden dragon. The golden dragon was the Heaven Murder Empire's Fate Dragon, and the Art had been obtained by their most magnificent Emperor from a Celestial.

No one knew how the Six Desires Celestial Sect had obtained the Six Desires Celestial Art, and they walked the path of Suppressing Desires. They naturally worshipped the Six Desires Celestials.

As one of the Great Sects of the Heaven Domain, the Six Desires Celestial Sect was incredibly powerful and could shake the surrounding 100 Domains. Otherwise, it would not qualify to be called a Great Sect.

Even a small sect within the Heaven Domain would be able to easily suppress countless Kingdoms in the outer Domains.

Currently, the Six Desires Celestial Sect had six higher-beings controlling it. A single higher-being was a peak existence and had the power to destroy the heavens and earth; no matter where they went, they would be shown utmost respect, and there were not many in the Heaven Awaken World.

The Six Desires Celestial Sect alone had six higher-beings, so it was only natural that it had a grand status even within the Heaven Domain. Everyone treated it courteously and no one dared to offend them lightly.

At that moment, the statues of the Six Desires Celestials suddenly gave off an intense white light, which became six pillars of light that brought with them terrifying auras and shot into the sky. They seemed to have detected something and wanted to destroy it.

These sudden ripples caused everyone in the Six Desires Celestial Sect to feel quite shocked, and even the six higher-beings in closed-door cultivation immediately sensed these changes.

One of them frowned as he said, “Why are the Six Desires Celestials reacting so greatly? Could it be that someone has stepped onto the evil path and caused the Six Desires Demon Gods to appear? Otherwise, the Six Desires Celestials wouldn’t react like this.”

Someone else said seriously, “For someone to cause the Six Desires Demon Gods to appear means that that person must have extraordinary talent and has cultivated the Six Desires Celestial Art to a high level. We must kill that person, or else he will become a scourge and cause the Six Desires Celestial Sect to lose face.”

Another person sighed, “Back then, the Young Sect Master rebelled against the Six Desires Celestial Sect and changed the Six Desires Celestial Art into the Six Desires Demonic Art. That has been settled now, but each generation of his legacy causes a lot of chaos.”

A woman coldly harrumphed, “And each time, it causes harm to many women and brings shame to the Six Desires Celestial Sect. Back then, the Sect Master was too soft; if he had cut down the Young Sect Master, none of that would have happened.”

Another person said after some thought, “I remember it has been a few hundred years since we killed the last generation of the Young Sect Master’s legacy. I thought that we had killed everyone of that line; I never thought that after so long, it would once again reappear.”

Boom!

A massive explosion sounded out as the Six Desires Celestials gave off an even greater aura and the pillars of white light became even more intense. Six terrifying figures descended from the pillars of light, and a shocking aura swept out.

Those terrifying ripples caused the six higher-beings’ expressions to fall, and one of them said in shock, “The Six Desires Celestials actually descended; that person is terrifyingly dangerous – those ripples far surpassed the ones that the Young Sect Master caused back then.”

The other higher-beings were dumbfounded as well. It was the first time they had seen the Six Desires Celestials react like this, and the next scene made them even more shocked.

The Six Desires Celestial Sect's Sect Armament seemed to detect danger and started to slightly tremble. It gave off world-destroying power that caused everyone in the Six Desires Celestial Sect to fall into terror. The Six Desires Celestial Sect's Fate started to go into turmoil, looking quite unsettled.

"This... the Six Desires Celestial Sect's Fate is reacting so greatly; we have to take this seriously. This signifies that that person is terrifying to the point that he can overturn the Six Desires Celestial Sect, or else the Six Desires Celestial Sect's Fate would not be so unsettled."

The other higher-beings looked incredibly serious; this matter completely exceeded what they had expected. With how powerful the Six Desires Celestial Sect was, such a thing was incredibly rare. Once something like this happened, it would definitely be a big matter; that person was indeed incredibly dangerous.

"What shall we do?" a higher-being seriously asked the others.

One of them said with immense killing intent, "With how dangerous that person is, we must exterminate him at all costs. Also, we have to completely get rid of the Young Sect Master's legacy to prevent something like this from happening again."

Hearing this, everyone else nodded.

Another higher-being said, "We don't know where this person is or have any other information on him. How will we find him?"

One of them coldly laughed as he said, "In actuality, we don't need to personally act; as long as we spread news about this, those who have been harmed by the Six Desires Demonic Art will definitely want to kill him; there are countless such people.

"Right now, it's not just us who want to kill him; other people want to kill him as well. He won't be able to hide within the Heaven Domain, and once his identity is exposed, he'll be dead without a doubt. Even if there's another higher-being protecting him, he must die. When that time comes, the six of us can personally act and put an end to this."

Another person sighed and said, “Back then, the Young Sect Master was a peerless genius and yet fell to such a state. Now, there’s no turning back.”

“Let’s not talk about such matters anymore. Let’s give out the order to disseminate this information and have people look for that person’s identity and location to resolve this as quickly as possible,” another higher-being said coldly.

Everyone else nodded and quickly gave out orders. Countless disciples were shocked, because the six higher-beings had personally given out orders, showing just how important this matter was.

After hearing that they were to look for a person, they all felt quite excited. If they could find this rebel line from the Six Desires Celestial Art, the rewards would definitely be unimaginable.

Countless people wanted to leave the Sect to go and find that person.

Chapter 1113: Celestial Evil

In actuality, the rebel line of the Six Desires Celestial Sect would appear every now and then, and any disciple who could kill those people would be given immense rewards from the Sect. It was also a display of strength for the disciples.

After all, the people from the rebel line were all extremely powerful and surpassed ordinary people. They could even fight people from higher Stages, and this was quite normal.

Moreover, the Six Desires Demonic Art greatly suppressed women, and women who did not cultivate the Six Desires Celestial Art would find it difficult to deal with. This was because the Six Desires Demonic Art and Six Desires Celestial Art countered each other.

Not only would those who killed people from the rebel line receive great rewards and glory within the Sect, but they would also become famous within the Heaven Domain.

The current Sect Master of the Six Desires Celestial Sect was incredibly powerful and had held the head of someone from the rebel line as he defeated countless competitors. With the support of the higher-beings, he had ascended to the position of Sect Master and was worshipped by countless people.

As such, everyone was quite excited that someone from the rebel line had appeared; this was their opportunity to become famous in the Heaven Domain.

The Six Desires Celestial Sect used its own power to search for that person, and it also spread the news out, causing a great commotion.

“What? One of those bastards has appeared again? Hurry up and kill him so he doesn’t touch women from my family!” Countless people immediately had such thoughts, because people from the rebel line of the Six Desires Celestial Sect were always a blight to the Heaven Awaken World. Every time they appeared, they would take countless beautiful women and cause countless women to fall and voluntarily follow them.

Those people had a charm that could easily seduce women, no matter if they were wives, young girls, or Holy Daughters. It could be said that any female could be attracted.

This made any man hate anyone from this rebel line and made them want to kill such people; they could not allow such people to exist, or else the women from their families would be doomed.

There were many stories about people from the rebel line in the Heaven Domain; one person had snuck into a Kingdom and done it with countless concubines, and afterwards many of them wanted to leave with him. However, they had been mercilessly tossed away, being executed.

Another person charged into the Devil Domain and had a great ‘battle’ with 300 or so female dragons, the results of which seemed to cause the heavens and earth to go dim and mountains and lakes to crack. Nine days later, he had actually emerged victorious.

There was even one time a person had seduced the Empress Dowager of an Empire, sending the entire Empire into an uproar. Countless peak experts had come to obliterate that person, and even though he had died, he had done something very few others would be able to do, and his name was remembered forever.

There was also a Charm Demon higher-being who had found someone from the rebel line, and the two of them had gone at it together. The Charm Demon higher-being was surprised to find that she could not use her Charm abilities to control him.

Of course, that person could not use the Six Desires Demonic Art to control the higher-being either, so it could only be said that they had fought to a draw. Afterwards, the Charm Demon higher-being had wanted to take him to the Demon Domain, give him protection, and make him her only man.

That person had agreed to go with her, and the Charm Demon higher-being liked him immensely. She also prepared many Charm Demons for him, and they had lived deeply in love together.

However, during that time, a supreme expert had appeared in the Six Desires Celestial Sect, and that person had charged into the Demon Domain with his sword. The Charm Demon higher-being had tried to protect that person, but she had been forcefully sealed and that person was destroyed by the supreme expert.

Each generation of the rebel line had been exterminated, so no one knew how the legacy had continuously been passed on.

It was said that the supreme expert found the core of the legacy but did not destroy it, allowing it to continue to exist; no one knew if this was true or not.

Those were only some of the stories from the past. The rebel line of the Six Desires Celestial Sect was quite notorious, and everyone hated those from the rebel line.

Within the Heaven Domain, people called the rebel line 'Celestial Evil!'

Hearing that a new generation of Celestial Evil had descended, countless people were shaken and felt quite surprised. They sent out people to find this person; once found, they would immediately kill him.

The Six Desires Demonic Art was called the greatest of the four great desire Arts.

The Holy Book Pavilion even added this to their books and circulated it so that more people knew about it.

Some factions were determined to kill this person, while other factions were willing to take him in. Of course, those were mainly the evil factions, such as some Sects that promoted Dual Cultivation, and some particularly licentious races welcomed him too.

However, they did not dare to openly welcome him due to the Six Desires Celestial Sect. The six higher-beings were not people to offend lightly.

News of this quickly spread, and it became a hot topic for discussion.

“Hubby!” a beautiful woman sat within a handsome-looking man’s embrace, and hearing the discussions of the people around them, she called out to him.

The handsome-looking man lightly smiled as he nodded with a glimmer in his eyes – that Six Desires Celestial Sect was quite terrifying to be able to discover him already. He had to be more careful to avoid being caught by them, or else he would be dead without a doubt!

Back at Great Qin, Zhao Fu had no idea that he had been dragged into such a big matter.

“Roarr...” The Six Desires Demon Gods looked at Zhao Fu and gave happy and excited roars. They then gave off powerful auras as they turned into rays of light and shot towards the Great Qin Palace.

Boom!

An explosion sounded out as the hall that Zhao Fu was in seemed to give off boundless demonic light. The Six Desires Demon Gods directly entered Zhao Fu’s body, their bodies and minds entering the six crystals.

Boom!

Zhao Fu instantly broke through the fourth level, and a terrifying aura instantly spread out and created a massive gale. Countless doors and windows were blasted open, and if it weren’t for the magic formations protecting the hall, it might have been destroyed.

After successfully breaking through to the fourth level, Zhao Fu had a smile on his face; he had never thought that his Cultivation would break through as well. Now, Zhao Fu’s Cultivation was at Stage 8-6.

In just three more Steps, he would be able to break through to Stage 9. However, after that, Cultivating would become more and more difficult. It would take at least a few years for Zhao Fu to break through Stage 9.

The abnormal signs in the sky gradually faded, and the puppet-like residents returned to their normal states. They were covered in cold sweat and felt quite afraid; that feeling from before had been much too terrifying.

“Your Majesty, are you alright?” Li Si, who had been outside enfeoffing concubines, quickly walked into the hall and asked after everything had settled.

Zhao Fu smiled and indicated that he was fine before asking Li Si to prepare some intelligence reports on the Dark Demon world and Fish Scale world. Now, it was time to consider other matters.

Chapter 1114: Four Soul Jades

After reading through the intelligence reports of the two worlds, Zhao Fu felt that the Dark Demon world would be more difficult to take care of, and there was not too much room for development. On the other hand, there was a lot of room for development in the Fish Scale world because they were already ready to unify the Darkwater Continent.

After making some preparations, Zhao Fu prepared to head to the Fish Scale world to unify the Darkwater Continent when suddenly abnormal signs once again erupted.

Countless traces of Fate and Essence Qi madly gathered, and the heavens and earth seemed to tremble. These terrifying ripples caused countless people to feel despair, and it was as if the world was going to be destroyed.

Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom!

Four shocking explosions sounded out as four massive pillars of light shot into the sky with enough power to shake the world. The sky seemed to be torn as four different colors spread out and took up positions in the sky.

The four massive pillars of light also spread in four directions, giving off boundless auras and shaking people's hearts.

“Roarr!!” A domineering dragon's roar sounded out as a massive azure dragon appeared in the sky. Its figure was enormous and seemed to take up the entire sky. Its azure scales looked like azure jade, and it had many branches on its horns; it had powerful-looking claws and looked quite mighty.

“Skreeee!” A cry sounded out as a flaming bird also appeared in the sky. It looked like a phoenix and yet not like one either. Its eyes looked like rubies and gave off an intense red light.

“Roarr!” Another heaven-shaking roar sounded out as a massive whale appeared in the sky. This whale was snow-white and had blue eyes. It was extremely beautiful and also had a pair of pure-white wings.

“Neeee!” A massive deer appeared in the sky, surrounded by celestial qi. The deer's fur was rainbow-colored and it had platinum-colored horns, and it gave off a gentle aura.

This was the first time that the four Guardian Beasts had appeared in front of people together. Countless people looked up at the sky in shock.

“Great Qin's Legatee!” An ancient voice sounded out in the north; it was from the Sky Desolation Azure Dragon.

Hearing this voice, Zhao Fu flew into the sky and stood at the center. He looked at the Guardian Beasts around him and asked the Sky Desolation Azure Dragon, “What do you want to talk to Us about?”

A trace of a kind smile appeared on the Sky Desolation Azure Dragon's face. Zhao Fu's performance had completely exceeded his expectations, and such a peerless genius would definitely shake the Heaven Awaken World. Perhaps one day he would even need Zhao Fu's help.

Moreover, with Zhao Fu's terrifying power and his identity as the ruler of the human world, he had the qualifications to speak with him on the same level.

“Congratulations, you have become the ruler of the human world, and our mission has concluded. It is time for us to leave. Back then, I made a promise to protect Great Qin's foundation for 100 years; now, because you have unified the human world, I am released from that promise.

“I had never thought that you would be able to unify the world so quickly, but because you have done so, our mission has ended ahead of time. The Heaven Domain Boundary will also disappear ahead of time, so you need to make preparations to face the true Heaven Awaken World.”

After hearing the Sky Desolation Azure Dragon’s words, Zhao Fu earnestly nodded. Even though he was prepared for this, hearing that the Heaven Domain Boundary would disappear soon, he felt quite at a loss. He still did not feel too much confidence in facing the true Heaven Awaken World.

The Sky Desolation Azure Dragon continued to speak, saying, “With your talent, you will head to the Heaven Domain someday, so perhaps we will meet again. I hope you will protect the human world well.”

Zhao Fu replied sincerely, “Don’t worry, with Great Qin present, the human world will definitely be safe and sound.”

The Sky Desolation Azure Dragon laughed as it nodded and said, “We trust you. Now, it’s time to give you a final gift. We hope it will be of use to you.”

The four Guardian Beasts gave off terrifying auras that seemed to instantly inundate the human world like a tsunami, causing people to feel despair.

The four Guardian Beasts’ bodies gave off large amounts of light, which condensed in front of them. Four orbs of light giving off terrifying power formed, and four drops of blood that contained their source energy flew out from their foreheads and fused into the orbs of light.

The four orbs of light condensed to form four pieces of jade. They were all different colors and were about three fingers long. There were four figures within them, which looked like tiny versions of the four Guardian Beasts.

The four pieces of jade flew over to Zhao Fu, and he stretched out his hand to catch them before taking a look at them.

[Four Soul Jades]: Four precious jades condensed from the soul blood of the four Guardian Beasts. They have powerful effects and abilities. Please use them carefully.

“Thank you all!” Zhao Fu had a trace of a smile on his face and felt that these four Soul Jades were quite extraordinary. Soul blood was incredibly important to anyone, and now that they had used their soul blood to create these jades, Zhao Fu expressed his sincere gratitude.

The four Guardian Beasts lightly laughed and said, “Hopefully we will meet again in the future!”

Following this, four rings of rainbow light appeared in the sky. The insides of the rings were filled with rainbow light as well, and no one knew what was inside.

The four Guardian Beasts entered the rainbow rings and their bodies gradually disappeared. The ripples and abnormal signs gradually disappeared, after which Zhao Fu received a chain of system announcements.

“System announcement! The human world has been initially unified. The Great Qin Empire has become the only Kingdom in the human world. After Great Qin clears out all of the regions, the human world will be fully unified, and the human world’s Fate and Great Qin’s Fate will be truly fused.”

“Warning! The four Guardian Beasts have departed; humans, please protect your world.”

“System announcement! Because the Great Qin Empire has unified the world, the Heaven Domain Boundary will disappear ahead of time in three months.”

“Warning! Once the Heaven Domain Boundary disappears, the human world will lose all protection. All people and creatures will be able to enter the human world, which will bring much danger. Please prepare ahead of time.”

“System announcement! The human world’s consciousness has started to fuse into the Heaven Awaken World. The human world will become part of the Heaven Awaken World.”

“System announcement! The Heaven Awaken World’s Fate is slowly entering the human world.”

After going through the system announcements and warnings, Zhao Fu fell into his thoughts. There were still three months until the Heaven Domain Boundary disappeared. When that time came, Great Qin would be revealed to countless people, which was quite dangerous.

Before, Zhao Fu had wanted to head to the Darkwater Continent, but now that the human world was facing this massive threat, Zhao Fu could only give up on his original plans. Right now, the human world was his priority.

Following this, Zhao Fu gathered his subordinates to discuss this matter.

Now, the most important matter to Great Qin was to clear out regions. There was still a bit on the original two Continents that Great Qin still had not finished clearing, and now that there were two new Continents, the task had become much larger.

They had to clear out all of these regions within three months, build a Great Wall, and raise Great Qin to a Level 1 Dukedom Kingdom. Only then would Great Qin have some security.

Chapter 1115: Gongsun

“Your Majesty, this Minister has expanded the army to six billion soldiers. These six billion soldiers are all part of the official army, and I have also gathered a force of three billion people’s militia to speed up the clearing of regions.

“At the same time, this Minister has gathered ten billion civilians to help construct the Great Wall. Now that the human world has been unified, there should not be any danger, so the construction of the Great Wall can progress while clearing out regions.

“Great Qin’s various Departments are also operating at their full capacity, providing resources and support. At this speed, it is possible for Great Qin to finish clearing the regions and level up into a Level 1 Dukedom Kingdom in time.”

Li Si stood before Zhao Fu and reported these things in detail. Hearing that it was possible to finish clearing the regions in three months, Zhao Fu inwardly let out a sigh of relief. Without the strength of a Dukedom Kingdom, Zhao Fu did not feel too confident in facing other worlds.

“How is the situation in the Dark Demon world and Fish Scale world? Have they received any system announcements? Will their Heaven Domain Boundary be affected? Also, does the Grassi world know of our Heaven Domain Boundary disappearing?” Zhao Fu asked.

Li Si continued to reply in detail, “The Dark Demon world and Fish Scale world are unaffected, and their Heaven Domain Boundaries are still in the same state. Only our world’s Heaven Domain Boundary will disappear soon.

“As for the Grassi people, they don’t seem to have noticed anything yet. The human world is slowly integrating into the Heaven Awaken World already, so the Heaven Awaken World’s Fate has been gradually entering the human world. However, it is too slow, so they will not notice anything.

“During the final month, the speed will increase, and the various changes in the human world as well as the Heaven Domain Boundary will most likely result in the Grassi people sensing that the Heaven Domain Boundary is about to disappear.”

Zhao Fu frowned and said, “We need to build more defenses on the Eastern Archipelagos. The situation has changed and the Grassi people have been waiting to invade this entire time. It’s possible the two other worlds will also think that they can bully Great Qin and will try to invade as well.”

Li Si nodded and said, “This Minister will immediately give out orders to carry this out!”

After watching Li Si leave, Zhao Fu turned his mind to the documents in front of him. Great Qin was quickly clearing out regions and constructing the Great Wall, and many other matters had cropped up. Zhao Fu currently felt quite rushed.

Now, his original plan had been ruined. He had wanted to wait to unify the Dark Demon world and Fish Scale world before bursting out of their protection to attack the Grassi, Elf, and Half-Beast worlds and take them down before anyone could react.

If they could do that, Great Qin would have six worlds and would be four worlds away from rising from a Dukedom Kingdom into a Royal Kingdom.

After that, Great Qin would be the Ancient Stem Domain’s twenty-first Royal Kingdom. With such strength, they would not be in any danger within the Ancient Stem Domain, and it would have a firm footing in the Heaven Awaken World.

However, now that the Heaven Domain Boundary was going to disappear and Zhao Fu did not have the time or strength to unify the Dark Demon world and Fish Scale world, they had to focus on defense rather than offense.

Just like that, a month passed for Great Qin in nervousness, but they had developed quite well.

Whether it was in terms of clearing out regions or constructing the Great Wall, their progress was quite smooth; they had hope of finishing everything in the remaining two months, allowing Zhao Fu to let out a sigh of relief.

Zhao Fu stretched and moved about; in the past month, he had been busy with internal affairs, and his body had become quite stiff and sore.

Now that he knew that they could complete their goal, Zhao Fu did not feel as worried and decided to relax. Now that he thought about it, he had not found a boss monster of a region in quite a while.

Long ago, all of the region boss monsters seemed to have disappeared. Back then, Zhao Fu had thought that they had all gathered together somewhere, but after unifying the world, he found that they had indeed all disappeared.

Because Great Qin had unified the world, the Chaotic World and natural disasters had ended. By now, Great Qin had raised its Chaotic World Stone Stele to Level 12, which was the highest level. Because it had absorbed so much aura of war, it had even turned into a treasure.

Great Qin had obtained a large number of points and exchanged for many treasures. However, after the human world was unified, the Chaotic World had ended and no more items could be exchanged for.

Now, Great Qin did not have any more benefits from being a beginner, and it could only advance step by step.

Zhao Fu still felt quite curious as to why all of the region boss monsters had disappeared, and he had no idea what had happened to them. There should have been tens of thousands of them.

This matter was most likely related to the four Guardian Beasts, but it was a pity that he had not thought to ask them about it.

“Your Majesty, this subordinate has a matter to report,” a guard said while kneeling, cutting off Zhao Fu’s thoughts.

Zhao Fu looked at the guard and said, "Speak, what is it?"

Following this, the guard reported to Zhao Fu, causing him to lightly laugh. He nodded and said, "We understand, bring her to the Forging Pavilion!"

"Yes, Your Majesty!" the guard replied before leaving.

Following this, Zhao Fu went to the Forging Pavilion and looked at a young woman who had some charcoal on her face and was bound with ropes. She was currently yelling, "Let me go, you Great Qin bastards. I want to see my big sis and my dad!"

She was Gongsun Lin, someone Zhao Fu had met very early on during the auction in the Holy Light City. She had helped Zhao Fu forge a Gold grade equipment back then, which was enough to show that her abilities were quite extraordinary. Zhao Fu had wanted to keep her and have her work for Great Qin, but it was a pity that she had chosen to leave.

Back then, he had been worried about her safety and gifted her a Black Forest Horse. After all these years, her temperament had become more mature, and her escape abilities were quite shocking; she had almost escaped from the guards quite a few times, so they could only tie her up.

When they had caught her, she had been forging equipment in a small Gnome Village. Her thoughts were quite pure; apart from forging, she did not know much. She did not even know that Great Qin had unified the world; after staying at such a small place, she had no idea what was going on.

The people who had caught her could tell that she was quite exceptional, and only afterwards did they find out that she was Gongsun Lin. Only after telling her that Great Qin had the Gongsun family did she become more cooperative and did not continue to run.

"We greet Your Majesty!" the surrounding guards knelt and called out seeing Zhao Fu arrive.

Gongsun Lin looked at the handsome young man walking over and immediately became more docile. Even though she only cared about forging, she had heard about how terrifying Great Qin's Legatee was and how Great Qin had unified the world.

After hearing about this, she had been scared stiff; she had never thought that things would change so quickly. She felt that in just an instant, Great Qin had unified the human world without giving anyone any time to react.

However, why did she feel that this young man was somewhat familiar?

Chapter 1116: Sisters Reunion

“Long time no see!” Zhao Fu laughed as he looked at Gongsun Lin.

Hearing this somewhat-familiar voice, Gongsun Lin felt even more confused. She thought about it but could not remember where she had heard this voice.

Back then, Zhao Fu had always worn a black cloak, so he could understand why she did not recognize him.

Zhao Fu reminded her, “I’m Zhao Xin, the Zhao Xin you met at the auction back then.”

However, Gongsun Lin still looked quite confused and still did not remember who Zhao Fu was. Zhao Fu felt quite hurt; he had remembered her all this time, but she had most likely forgotten about him already.

Only after much hard thinking did Gongsun Lin remember the person she had met in the Forest of Terror. Instantly, her eyes widened as her jaw dropped; she had never thought that she had met Great Qin’s Legatee so early on. Now, he was the only Emperor in the human world

Back then, she had thought that Zhao Fu was just the leader of a small faction. Who would have thought that the leader of a small faction would have become such a major figure step by step.

“Sorry, I’m so sorry, it’s been six years already. If you didn’t remind me, I nearly would have forgotten. Thank you for the horse you gave me back then, I still have it with me even now,” Gongsun Lin said, feeling quite embarrassed.

Zhao Fu nodded and did not feel very angry, and he ordered the soldiers to release her.

“How many pieces of equipment do you have on your Godly Armament List now?” Zhao Fu remembered the Gongsun family’s tradition and asked, curious.

Gongsun Lin grinned and looked quite pleased as she took out a thick book and handed it to Zhao Fu, saying, “Look, these are my achievements over the past six years. There are 7,000 or so pieces of equipment now, and I can even forge Saint Armaments now!”

Zhao Fu took the thick book and flipped through it. Hearing what Gongsun Lin had said, he felt quite shocked – Saint Armaments were almost the peak of what could exist in worlds like theirs, and people who could forge them were incredibly rare.

“I can’t let her get away this time!” Zhao Fu thought to himself as he said, “Stay in Great Qin, We will give you countless precious materials to forge whatever you want!”

Gongsun Lin hesitated and wanted to refuse at first. After all, if she received her materials like that, her work would lose much of its meaning. However, she could not just directly refuse; the current Zhao Fu was completely different than the Zhao Fu of the past.

For Great Qin’s Emperor to treat her with such courtesy, if she refused, not only would she be executed, but the Gongsun family might also be dragged in as well.

“Lin’Er!” a clear voice filled with joy sounded out as a beautiful woman appeared. She was Gongsun Lin’s older sister, Gongsun Zhu.

“Big sis!” Gongsun Lin looked extremely happy as she ran over and leapt into Gongsun Zhu’s embrace.

Gongsun Zhu lovingly hugged Gongsun Lin. “Oh, you! Where have you been all these years? Why didn’t you send any messages back home? Don’t you know how worried dad and mum were?”

Gongsun Lin felt quite guilty; she had devoted all of her thoughts to forging equipment, or she would not have the prowess she did today.

“Big sis, after such a long time, you’ve become even prettier and more alluring. I just want to take a bite out of you!” Gongsun Lin giggled as she rubbed her face against Gongsun Zhu’s chest.

Gongsun Zhu's face went red, and she glanced at Zhao Fu standing at the side as she said, "Alright, stop playing around, His Majesty is here. Also, why were you brought here?"

Gongsun Lin told her everything that had happened, and Gongsun Zhu let out a sigh of relief. Luckily, Great Qin had just been clearing out regions; if Gongsun Lin had been caught up in the war, she might have been killed indiscriminately.

"Big sis, do you think I should agree to him?" Gongsun Lin also told Gongsun Zhu about Zhao Fu asking her to stay in Great Qin.

Gongsun Zhu lightly smiled as she said, "The entire world already belongs to him, so where can you go? Also, only you would dare to think in such a way and even consider refusing; he only asked you because of your friendship in the past. No one would dare refuse him, as the consequences are too grave.

"Now that the situation is like this, if you stay in Great Qin, you'll have whatever rare materials you want. You won't have to wander about, and you can focus on forging and work on your Godly Armament List even more."

Gongsun Lin thought about it and nodded. However, after hearing her big sister mention the Godly Armament List, she became excited again and started to go through it.

The Godly Armament List was the tradition of the Gongsun family and represented their glory. Every member of the Gongsun family viewed the Godly Armament List with great importance.

Gongsun Zhu also briefly went through her own Godly Armament List; the materials she had completely exceeded anything that Gongsun Lin had obtained. After all, materials from an empire were definitely more precious than what a single person could obtain.

This made Gongsun Lin much more interested in staying in Great Qin.

Zhao Fu listened to the two women talk, and he smiled after hearing that Gongsun Lin was willing to stay in Great Qin. In the end, he did not want to force her.

“You two keep talking, We still have some matters to take care of. Lin, We will properly show you around sometime.” Because there were still many things for Zhao Fu to do, he did not stick around.

Seeing Zhao Fu leave, Gongsun Zhu felt a bit disappointed.

She was also quite surprised that he would address her little sister as such because they sounded quite close. However, she felt quite happy that her little sister had the luck to befriend Zhao Fu so long ago. Otherwise, it was possible that the Gongsun family would have been destroyed for delivering the Clear Sable Sword to Zhao Fu.

Gongsun Lin smiled as she happily talked about the things that had happened in the past few years. She then asked Gongsun Zhu about anything interesting that had happened in recent years.

Gongsun Zhu bitterly laughed and told her about how she was Zhao Fu’s concubine. This made Gongsun Lin quite angry; she had had a good impression of Zhao Fu and had never thought that he would treat her big sister like this.

“Alright, you don’t have to be angry. Back then, he didn’t know I was your big sister or that I was from the Gongsun family. I don’t regret it, and I’ve been living quite well,” Gongsun Zhu said as she smiled.

Gongsun Lin asked curiously, “Why don’t you regret it? That fellow has countless women, and he doesn’t treat you that well.”

Thinking about the reason why, Gongsun Zhu’s face went red and could not help but think of the few times they had done it next to the furnace. She was actually somewhat disappointed that Zhao Fu had left without doing anything.

Seeing this, Gongsun Lin could not understand why her big sister’s face had become so red.

After returning to the palace, Zhao Fu ordered people to gather information on the Grassi, Half-Beast, and Elf worlds. Now that the Heaven Domain Boundary was about to disappear, they were Great Qin’s main opponents, so Zhao Fu had to start making preparations.

There was also a shocking matter that covered not only the entire Heaven Awaken World but even the godly spirit world and Underworld as well. All races were dragged into it, and the human world was no exception either.

Chapter 1117: Changes in the Three Worlds

Zhao Fu had never thought that such a thing would happen, nor did anyone else. This matter didn't just affect Great Qin heavily; it was as if the entire Heaven Awaken World had taken a fatal blow.

This matter once again changed Great Qin's plans and even changed its overall direction. Everything had to be considered in light of these new circumstances.

Zhao Fu had been planning to leave the human world, and at that moment, within the boundless ruins at the center of the Heaven Domain, eight massive crystals giving off immense aura floated there, giving off a faint light.

Suddenly, a crystal pearl appeared at the center of the eight crystals, giving off formless ripples. The eight crystals slightly trembled, giving off a faint light.

Even though they only gave off a faint light, they were core items of the Heaven Awaken World. Any slight disturbance could cause terrifying abnormal signs.

Due to the disturbance of the eight crystals, a terrifying shockwave instantly blasted out. Countless higher-beings in closed-door cultivation were roused and revealed expressions of shock.

Following this, countless ordinary people also sensed those world-destroying ripples and felt as if they had fallen into a bottomless abyss. They became filled with despair, and both their bodies and souls trembled.

The terrifying ripples swept out from the Heaven Domain; the inner regions were completely blasted while the outer regions were affected by the ripples as well.

Instantly, Zhao Fu felt as if he had been hit by an enormous wave. His body froze, and his soul seemed to be like a flame within a berserk gale; it continuously flickered as if it was going to be blown out in the next moment. In that moment, Zhao Fu felt a terror from deep within his soul.

This power exceeded anything Zhao Fu could imagine; even if he released all of his power, including the Great Qin Seal, Nation Armaments, Clan Armaments, and the human world's power, it was useless.

In front of that power, he seemed as small as a grain of sand that could be easily destroyed, and he could not resist at all.

“What’s going on? Why are there such terrifying ripples?” Countless people could not understand what was happening and looked completely shocked. These ripples were simply too terrifying and exceeded what they could endure.

The Heaven Awaken World became completely silent, without even a bit of sound as the terrifying ripples covered the entire Heaven Awaken World.

However, the ripples still did not stop.

Above, the godly spirit world could sense the terrifying power from below; that power caused everyone’s bodies to freeze and feel an innate fear, and their expressions fell.

The godly spirit world could not resist at all, and it was also covered by the ripples, also falling into silence.

Below, in the Underworld, countless ghosts felt a heaven-shaking power from above, causing their bodies to seem to sink. They could not resist at all, and their faces were filled with terror, unable to move their bodies at all.

The Underworld was instantly covered by that monstrous power and sank into silence; countless Ghosts were incredibly terrified.

The godly spirits above and the ghosts below looked towards the Heaven Awaken World in the middle at the same time, wondering, “What happened in the Heaven Awaken World? What could release such terrifying power?”

The abnormal signs continued, and that power became stronger and stronger, making people feel more and more fear.

Boom!

A massive sound rang throughout the entire world as if the heavens and earth were going to split. In that instant, the crystal pearl gave off an intense light.

At that moment, the source energy of countless worlds madly gathered, and the godly spirit world and Underworld were unable to escape either. Waves of energy were forcefully drawn out and gathered towards the crystal pearl.

“What’s happening now?” Countless people could sense the immense amount of source energy being drawn away, causing them to look shocked. They had no idea what was going on.

However, what happened next shocked everyone. Countless people, Sects, Kingdoms, godly spirits, and Underworld officials felt the power from their bodies being taken as well.

“Roarr!!” A furious, heaven-shaking roar sounded out from within the Demon Domain. It was from the most powerful demon beast within the Demon Domain, and a sky-toppling demonic might spread out. It was enough to shake tens of thousands of world, and facing that terrifying power, it started to resist.

The most powerful demon beast in the Demon Domain was naturally incredibly powerful, and it could resist even a few higher-beings. What’s more, it was not just this demon beast that resisted.

“Roarr!” An ancient dragon’s roar tore through the sky as an enormous dragon’s might exploded out, causing worlds to fall into despair. The most powerful existence in the Devil Domain started to resist as well, and it was also incredibly powerful.

Boom!

A shocking explosion sounded out as the most powerful expert from the God Domain exploded out with his power, making him seem like a golden sun. Fathomless light shined out with immense power, and he too started to resist.

Boom!

Another massive explosion rang out, causing the world to tremble as the most powerful Human Empire in the Human Domain also unleashed immense power, forming a giant that gave off destructive power as it resisted.

Boom!

A massive sound came from the Spirit Domain as the sky became five-colored and monstrous ripples spread out, enough to destroy everything. The Spirit Realm also started to resist.

Power was the source of people, Sects, and Kingdoms, and since that existence wanted to steal their power, naturally countless people started to resist.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Booms continuously sounded out, seeming as if the world was going to fall apart as pillars of light bringing with them terrifying power shot into the sky. Power that could shake worlds continuously blasted out, making it seem as if it was the end of the world.

Everyone used their own methods to resist that terrifying power.

The countless godly spirits in the godly spirit world unleashed their own godly might as they resisted, wanting to stop that power.

This was the same in the Underworld – terrifying auras continuously exploded out and spread out, desperately fighting back against that power.

This sent the godly spirit world and Underworld into chaos, and the terrifying auras caused countless people to feel horrified. Countless creatures felt as if they were swept up in a flood of chaos, and they felt incredibly terrified and helpless.

The three worlds sank into chaos and panic, and terrifying auras continuously swept out. Some places and space started to twist and collapse as if the world was going to end.

Higher-beings exploded out with powerful auras and rushed out of their closed-door cultivation, turning into rays of light as they flew towards the boundless ruins at the center of the Heaven Domain, wanting to know just what was happening.

Chapter 1118: Crystal Pearl

Currently, only higher-beings could move; under those terrifying ripples, everyone else's bodies froze and could not move at all.

The human world was not spared from these abnormal signs either. Countless people stood transfixed in terror, and Zhao Fu could only struggle a tiny bit. His body instinctively trembled; it could be seen just how terrifying this power was.

Heaven-shaking powers resisted, causing those ripples to gradually weaken, and the pressure on the people's bodies grew lighter.

Now, everyone was able to let out a sigh of relief – it was almost over!

The higher-beings' expressions slightly relaxed, and they continued towards the center of the ripples.

Within the boundless void, the crystal pearl was floating in the air, and the ripples from the eight massive crystals grew weaker; it seemed that things were about to settle down.

However, at that moment, the crystal pearl gradually formed a person's image. This person looked illusory, and their body and face looked quite hazy.

The only sensation it gave off was that it was incredibly powerful, beyond anything that anyone could imagine. In front of that power, the heavens and earth seemed incredibly small, and the countless higher-beings seemed like ants.

This figure looked at the world in front of it, and a shocking power burst forth. That power was unimaginably monstrous, and shockwaves that could cause the heavens and earth to explode swept throughout the three worlds.

The countless resisting forces were instantly suppressed and were unable to resist at all. The expressions of countless godly spirits, Emperors, and Underworld officials all fell.

This power greatly exceeded anything they could withstand; they all felt incredibly tiny and powerless, and they could not help but feel defeated.

The higher-beings who had headed over to see what was happening felt as if they had been pressed against the ground by a massive, formless hand. They all crashed from the air and smashed out large craters. The power that covered them made it so they could not budge at all.

Luckily, this power did not harm anyone, only forcefully suppressing them, or else it would have been enough to wipe out everyone.

Zhao Fu was in the boundary of the outer regions, and he had not been able to resist at all from the start. After this new wave of power spread out, Zhao Fu's legs started to go weak, while ordinary people had already collapsed onto the ground.

The figure in the boundless void started to gradually disappear and turned back into the crystal pearl. Countless worlds' source energy, and the power of countless people, Kingdoms, Sects, godly spirits, and Underworld officials were gradually absorbed.

By now, no one was able to resist at all and allowed their power to be absorbed. The heavens and earth continued to go through changes, and the sun, moon, and stars became dim.

Boom!

The eight massive crystals exploded out with power that could annihilate countless worlds. Fathomless light pierced through countless worlds, and the Heaven Awaken World, the godly spirit world above, and the Underworld below were all covered by those eight lights.

The eight crystals sent power into the crystal pearl in the middle, and the boundless source energy fused into the crystal pearl.

After receiving an immense amount of source energy, the ripples that the crystal pearl gave off became more and more terrifying, and it gradually became larger and larger.

In the end, the crystal pearl became massive, about an eighth of how big each of the eight crystals were. It was now eight-colored and gave off an even greater might, as well as a suffocation that seemed to be able to kill.

The attractive force also disappeared, and the horrifying ripples also ceased. The scenes of the world chaotically collapsing gradually stopped as well.

Beautiful clouds covered the skies of the three worlds, and countless multicolored lights descended, creating a beautiful scene.

At that moment, massive orbs of colored light giving off immense power gradually descended from the sky and fused into the ground before disappearing. Rays of light then exploded out of the ground, and an enormous crystal hung in the air.

This crystal was spherical and was about two meters wide. It floated six meters high in the air, giving off a faint light.

Finally, all abnormal signs ceased and everything returned to normal. Everyone regained control over their bodies and let out sighs of relief. Their bodies were all covered with cold sweat, and everything was finally over.

The major figures' expressions became quite grave; even now, they had no idea what was going on – just what had caused all of this?

The higher-beings who had wanted to head to the center of the ripples could not help but retreat.

Before, they had not even been able to get close and could only observe from a distance. Now, that place was covered with a barrier, and even if they went, they would not be able to find anything. Moreover, they were quite afraid of that power from just then.

Back at the human world, everyone regained their ability to move. Li Si brought people to the palace and looked at Zhao Fu as he asked caringly, "Your Majesty, are you alright?"

Zhao Fu had been looking at the sky, in the direction that the terrifying ripples had come from, trying to guess just what had happened. Hearing Li Si's words, Zhao Fu examined himself and found that he was fine. Just as he was about to say that he was alright, his expression changed and was shocked to find that he could not use the Great Qin Seal.

What was going on? Zhao Fu felt a bit panicked – the Great Qin Seal was the core item of Great Qin, and it had great influence on Great Qin.

Zhao Fu tried again and found that it was indeed impossible to use the Great Qin Seal as if it did not have any power at all.

Zhao Fu's expression was quite serious as he asked the others, "Try to see if you can use your Official Seals or City Lord Seals."

The others obeyed and tried, and their expressions also fell as they reported, "Your Majesty, we're unable to use our Official Seals and City Lord Seals."

Others quickly ran over to Zhao Fu to report that countless City Lord Seals and Official Seals had been rendered unusable. This caused Zhao Fu's heart to sink, and his expression became quite unsightly; why did all of the Seals' powers disappear?

Zhao Fu immediately ordered people to go to other worlds to have a look; hopefully it was not just the human world that was like this.

Before the people he sent out had returned, Zhao Fu received a series of system announcements, as did countless other people in the Heaven Awaken World.

"System announcement! The Heaven Awaken World's New Age has begun, and the laws have been changed."

"System announcement! All City Lord Seals and Official Seals have been rendered ineffective and have become treasures. Please look at their descriptions."

"System announcement! The Region Creatures have been weakened, and the Region Power has been reduced."

"System announcement! The Heaven Domain Spirit Crystal has been unlocked. Each world will obtain a Heaven Domain Spirit Crystal. Please check its description."

“System announcement! Some Armaments’ attributes have changed, including Nation Armaments, Sect Armaments, and Clan Armaments. All similar Armaments are included.”

Chapter 1119: Heaven Awaken World’s New Age

“System announcement! The laws of the heavens and earth have been changed, and the method of cultivation has changed.”

“System announcement! The amount of celestial qi has increased, increasing the chance of becoming a Celestial.”

System announcement! Countless worlds’ source energy has been limited, which may affected people and Kingdoms. Please look into this.”

“System announcement! The power of the laws has received the power of the heavens and earth, and their binding power on all creatures has increased.”

Zhao Fu was quite shocked as he went through the various system announcements in his mind; he had never thought such a thing would happen. He did not know if this was a blessing or curse, to have run into the Heaven Awaken World’s New Age.

“Has something like this happened in the past before?” Zhao Fu asked the golden dragon. It knew much more than Zhao Fu, so it most likely had some kind of experience with this.

The golden dragon thought about it and replied, “I’ve read about it in some ancient texts before, but I’ve never experienced it myself. There is a great period of time between each one, and the laws of heaven and earth will indeed change, as will many other things.”

“From how you see it, is this good, or bad, for Great Qin?” Zhao Fu asked.

The golden dragon shook its head, saying, “I don’t know yet because we don’t know how greatly the laws of heaven and earth will change. There are too many unknowns right now.”

Hearing this, Zhao Fu felt slightly disappointed.

By now, the people he had sent out to the other worlds returned and reported that the situation was the same over there; all City Lord Seals and Official Seals had been rendered useless.

Because of the system announcements that Zhao Fu had received, he was not too surprised. He cast his mind back to the system announcements and started to look through them in detail.

The first one that caught Zhao Fu's attention was the one that stated that the City Lord Seals and Official Seals had lost their power and become treasures.

The functions of the Seals had not been reduced, and they had instead been increased. They could still control Cities; there was not much difference in this regard.

The biggest change was that they were unable to provide any power; people could no longer use them to control the City's power and obtain a massive amount of power.

Whether they were City Lord Seals, Official Seals, or King's Seals, they could not gather power anymore; that was why they seemed to have become useless.

Instead, they had all become treasures with even more functions.

The first function was that they had become many times tougher than before and could be used as weapons or fused into weapons.

In other words, one could turn their City Lord Seal into different shapes or fuse it into their weapon. If one fused their City Lord Seal into one's sword, the sword would become a special equipment, a City Lord Sword.

City Lord Swords were naturally quite powerful, and whoever obtained the City Lord Sword would be able to control the City as well.

The second function was a defensive function. City Lord Seals could release a barrier that would automatically be unleashed when a City Lord was met with danger. It would not use up the City Lord's power, only the City's power, and the barrier was quite firm as well.

The firmness could rival some special defensive items on the markets, and what was especially attractive was that the barrier did not use up one's own power.

The third function was a support function that contained two abilities.

The first ability was flight, which City Lord Seals already had, but it was now strengthened so that it allowed faster flight.

The second ability was recovery, which could boost one's recovery in terms of both energy and healing.

The fourth function was an appointing function.

The appointing function was one that could give Professions; any type of Seal could give others Professions, and they were not ordinary Professions but Special Professions. They were unique to each City and could contain the power of the City.

The fifth function was relatively weaker, which was a might function. Anyone who had a City Lord Seal would be able to give off a might that would make others feel afraid.

The sixth function was quite special, which was having a certain chance to spawn a City Spirit. These were spirit creatures that were birthed by Cities, and they were quite useful. Not only could they control the entire City, but they could also use a portion of the City's power.

These were the six functions of the new City Lord Seals, and they were quite good, However, it was a pity that people could no longer use their Cities' power and obtain a massive amount of power. If Zhao Fu could choose, he would still choose the power, as it was more useful.

The third system announcement was that Region Creatures had been weakened, which referred to the region boss monsters. They had become weaker, but no one knew by how much. However, it was most likely by a lot, given that City Lord Seals had lost the ability to gather power.

Zhao Fu could not help but worry – the Wyverns, Corpse Soul Commanders, and eight Aquatic Beast Kings had all fused with City Lord Seals, and they most likely counted as Region Creatures.

Zhao Fu did not hesitate and immediately sent people to check on them. After hearing back, Zhao Fu's expression became quite grim; the Wyverns and Corpse Soul Commanders had all lost around 40% of their power.

This meant that they only had 60% of the power that they normally wielded, while the eight Aquatic Beast Kings lost half of their power. Zhao Fu could not help but feel enraged.

At the same time, Zhao Fu discovered why the Wyverns had lost 40% of their power while the Aquatic Beast Kings had lost 50% of their power.

It was because the Aquatic Beast Kings were true Region Creatures, while the Wyverns and Corpse Soul Commanders had only obtained their Region Power from fusing with City Lord Seals and were not true Region Creatures. As such, they were not affected as much.

The Region Power being reduced meant that the power that each region supplied had decreased as well. Whenever Zhao Fu cleared out a region, he would obtain Region Power, but now that was going to decrease as well.

The fourth system announcement was about the spherical crystal, the Heaven Domain Spirit Crystal. Each world had one, and because Great Qin had unified the human world, it had appeared quite close to Great Qin.

Zhao Fu looked through the information in detail and found out about the use of the Heaven Domain Spirit Crystals. They were, in fact, massive teleportation channels that could send one to another world. They could also be upgraded and travel across multiple worlds.

If they were upgraded to the peak, Zhao Fu could even use it to travel to the Heaven Domain; with this item, things would be much more convenient in the future.

Zhao Fu found the human world's Heaven Domain Spirit Crystal and found that he could not use it yet. This was because the human world was still within the Heaven Domain Boundary. He also found that it was like a teleportation channel and could hide its teleportation point and reject incoming teleportation requests.

Chapter 1120: New Plans

The fifth system announcement was about the changes to Armaments, which Zhao Fu was quite concerned about. However, after looking through the information, a trace of a smile appeared on Zhao Fu's face – there was finally something good.

All of the Armaments had gone through changes, and the biggest change was that Nation Armaments could now gather the power of a Kingdom.

One first needed a Kingdom to use Kingdom Power; without a Kingdom, this ability was useless. It could be said that all Nation Armaments had become much more powerful. Moreover, the amount of Fate that they consumed was reduced as well.

Nation Armaments could now also speed up the recovery of Fate for a Kingdom.

Because of this, Zhao Fu would not have to worry too much about the consumption of Fate when using Armaments in the future. Moreover, if he used up a lot of Fate, it would recover much faster. This was a great benefit.

The sixth system announcement pertained to cultivation. Zhao Fu had a look and found that cultivation in the lower Stages had not changed much; only the higher Stages were affected. Zhao Fu did not have to worry about this just yet because he was still quite far away from reaching such levels.

The seventh system announcement about the increase of celestial qi and increasing the chance of becoming a Celestial was definitely quite attractive to the higher-beings. However, to those with lower cultivation, it was a disaster.

The eighth system announcement was about the source energy of worlds being limited, so some experts and Kingdoms would not be able to use it to the same extent. This was good because the powerful experts and Empires would not be as terrifying as before.

The gap between those with lower cultivations and those with powerful cultivations had been reduced, and it was not as great as before.

The ninth system announcement was about how the power of the laws had become stronger, meaning that it would be more difficult to destroy the heavens and earth. Before, a fireball from Zhao Fu could blast open a three meter wide crater, but now it would only blast open a two meter wide crater.

The power was still the same, but its destructiveness had been reduced; this was the effect of the laws of heaven and earth becoming stronger.

The various changes reduced the strength of the three worlds, and the disadvantages were much greater than the advantages. The effects on Great Qin were quite great, and the biggest issue was the Seals.

Now, the City Lord Seals and Official Seals could no longer gather power. Even though they had become treasures with various functions, that could not make up for the loss of power.

Now, everything depended on cultivation. Before, Great Qin had wanted to attack the world above theirs, but now it was simply a joke. If both sides could use the power of their Cities, the difference in strength would not be too great.

However, now that cultivation was the focus, the gap between them was simply too great. This was a matter of foundation, and if others had developed for dozens of years while you had only developed for a few years, how could you compare?

To Great Qin, this was extremely disadvantageous. If the other side attacked, it would be a disaster for Great Qin.

Because most of Great Qin's soldiers were at least at Stage 1, the difference in terms of soldiers was not too great. However, the difference in cultivations for City Lords was quite great. Most of Great Qin's City Lords' Cultivations were weaker than those outside, and the only advantage that they had was their Talisman Equipment. If they fought, Great Qin would be at a great disadvantage.

Thinking about that, Zhao Fu felt a slight headache. This was because the Heaven Domain Boundary was about to disappear, and Great Qin was about to face a crisis.

However, now that City Lords were not as powerful, soldiers did not have to fear them as much. They could use many soldiers to deal with City Lords, as they were not as terrifying.

Before, a City Lord could easily wipe out 100,000 Stage 1 soldiers single handedly, but now 100,000 soldiers would be able to turn the tables against a City Lord and no longer had to fear them as much.

The countless changes destroyed all of Great Qin's plans, and Zhao Fu immediately held an emergency meeting to discuss how to deal with this new situation.

It was not just Great Qin; everyone else did the same. This New Age had a great impact on every faction, so they had to quickly adjust, or they would be left behind in the New Age.

“Your Majesty! This Minister believes that with Great Qin's current strength, we should focus on defense and not carry out any attacks. Great Qin's greatest threat is the world above; now, there are still two months, so we should make preparations to defend against that world.”

“It will be quite hard to defend; I'm sure everyone remembers the Devil Horn Empire. Just because it was a Dukedom Kingdom, it was suppressed by the surrounding four worlds. They had a strong foundation so they could defend without any problems. However, Great Qin has only been developing for six years and does not have enough of a foundation. Once the Heaven Domain Boundary disappears, the surrounding worlds' gazes will be drawn over to us. If they attack, it will be difficult to defend.”

“That's right! Their cultivations are generally higher than Great Qin's, and defending against the Grassi world will be difficult enough. How can we defend against a few worlds?”

“Your Majesty, this Minister believes that we should develop the Devil World. With their savage and strange powers, even if they do not have Stage 1 strength, they'll be able to easily slaughter those at Stage 1 or above.”

“Absolutely not, Your Majesty! That Devil World will make the heavens grieve and is simply too bloody and cruel. Please consider wisely, Your Majesty.”

“Hmph! Such adherence to old ideas! Now that Great Qin is facing such danger, we should be considering all the ways we have to defend against the other worlds. We should be using all methods available to us.”

“Is His Majesty willing to send in millions of residents who trust, love, and are loyal to him in there? If His Majesty does this, popular sentiment will take a great blow!”

“But what other methods do we have for helping Great Qin defend against the invasions of other worlds?”

“I wonder if we’re able to construct similar doors to what the Western Continent used. Great Qin has many people from the Western Continent, and if we can summon a large number of creatures using the doors, they can reduce some of the pressure for Great Qin.”

“Apologies, only Su Yan and Akhenaten control information for that; no one else knows how to create those doors.”

“Your Majesty, this Ministers believes we should put everything on hold and use the remaining two months to take over another world. If we have the strength of two worlds, it will be easier to defend against the previous world.”

“What a joke! Do you think it’s that easy to unify a world? Back when we launched that unification battle, it took at least two months. We only have two months left, and before we can take over another world, we’ll be invaded!”

“How about we start increase our diplomatic activities and express our goodwill towards the others. That way, they will not attack Great Qin and Great Qin can continue to develop!”

“That’s not feasible and will instead expose Great Qin early on. Moreover, with such a big piece of meat sitting there, many people will feel tempted.”

“It’s a pity that the Blood God Pills of each Stage can only be consumed once. Great Qin has so many Blood God Pills that can greatly increase soldiers’ cultivations. This would decrease the gap and make us not as passive.”

“What should we do now? Everyone, please give some practical solutions, His Majesty is waiting for us to propose some concrete plans!”
