

The Lord 1231

Chapter 1231: Green Blood

They saw a half man and half goat monster walk over and give off a powerful aura as it raised its pitchfork and stabbed it into the ground. A black and gray barrier instantly spread out, covering the surrounding tens of thousands of meters.

The sandworms that entered the barrier became much weaker; it seemed that the barrier could drain their strength.

At that moment, a beautiful and bewitching woman walked out and raised her magic staff. Countless rays of brilliant blue light spread out and the sandworms started to go crazy, attacking the other sandworms around them.

Soon, the ferocious tide of sandworms had become a heap of corpses, causing everyone to feel completely dumbfounded.

The people escaping could not believe their eyes; that group had destroyed the sandworms far too easily, and they seemed way too powerful. They could not compare to those people at all.

Zhao Fu did not place those sandworms in his eyes at all. With Mosax weakening them and Lefran using illusions, considering how unintelligent the sandworms were, it was easy for them to fall into the illusion.

They continued onwards and killed another few waves of sandworms, and soon, Zhao Fu's group reached the innermost region of the danger zone.

Suddenly, the ground started to tremble and the blood-red sand started to flow as a heaven-toppling and monstrous aura spread out from below. Everything fell silent and the air seemed to become incredibly heavy.

A massive figure that was over 10,000 meters long, which seemed to cover the sky and hide the sun, dove out from underground. It was an incredibly enormous sandworm, and it raised its head and roared towards the sky. The soundwaves of the roar seemed to be corporeal as they spread out, causing the ears of those who heard it to hurt.

Lin Yan'Er and the others had retreated behind; they did not have the strength to participate in a battle of this level. Zhao Fu did not fight by himself either; with so many subordinates, they could encircle this sandworm.

Mosax roared as he stabbed his pitchfork into the ground and a black and gray barrier quickly spread out. The strength of the sandworm was immediately greatly reduced.

Molaf disappeared and reappeared elsewhere. Its dagger flashed, opening up a 100 or so meter long wound, from which green blood flowed out, causing the massive sandworm to give a roar of pain.

Krista vigorously threw out her blue spear, which gave off immense power as it shot into the sandworm's body, causing it to roar in pain again. Krista then grabbed at the air, and the spear automatically returned to her hands.

The seductive Evelyn appeared beside the sandworm and punched out with enough strength to crush a mountain. That part of the sandworm's body exploded open, and green blood splattered everywhere, causing the sandworm to howl.

After continuously being attacked like this, the sandworm was furious and wanted to counterattack, but at that moment Lefran acted.

She raised her magic staff and countless rays of blue light formed a blue flower. Lefran waved her hand and the blue flower flew into the sandworm's body, causing it to freeze in place. However, this only lasted for a few seconds.

At that moment, Zhao Fu also attacked. The Death Race Sword gave off an intense sword light and he vigorously slashed out. A massive sword light tore through the air, sending the sandworm flying hundreds of meters, and it heavily crashed onto the ground.

The ground violently trembled as sand flowed about, and it was as if there was a natural disaster.

After taking a round of attacks from Zhao Fu's party, the sandworm was already afraid. It knew that it was not a match for them, so it stuck its head in the ground and tried to escape.

Of course, Zhao Fu would not allow it to escape, and the golden pupil in his left eye started to quickly spin.

Clang, clang, clang...

Countless chains shot out with massive power from the air and tightly bound the sandworm's body. The sandworm vigorously struggled, trying to break free from the chains.

Its body started to give off a yellow light, causing the blood-red sand in the surroundings to fly into the air and form spears of sand. There were tens of thousands of them, and they descended like a massive spear rain.

Mosax and the others unleashed their Domains to defend, and Zhao Fu dragged the chains as he swung his sword, destroying the incoming spears.

There were many of these sand spears, but each one was not very powerful. However, because there were so many of them, it was very difficult to deal with them.

After unleashing this desperate attack, the sandworm had become quite weak. Zhao Fu took this opportunity to pull the chains and drag it back to the surface.

Everyone else quickly attacked; Molaf continuously swung its dagger, opening up wound after wound. Krista used her spear to continuously stab the sandworm's body, while Evelyn continued to punch at it.

Everyone's combined attacks caused the sandworm to howl in pain. There were wounds all over its body, making it look quite wretched.

In the distance, the ten or so people who had planned to run had stayed behind to watch in interest. They were all shocked and gulped; back when the sandworm had erupted out of the ground, they had thought it had world-destroying power and that no one could stop it.

However, it was being one-sidedly abused by this group of people and could not defend itself at all. That group of people were simply too powerful.

However, they did not dare to remain here because they had lured that tide of sandworms to that group. If that group discovered that they were still here, they would definitely hunt them down, so they had to quickly leave.

After a ferocious beating, the sandworm was heavily wounded and Zhao Fu came before it and asked, "Are you willing to submit?"

Zhao Fu wanted to subdue all large-size monsters, and he would also subdue the most powerful monsters of all of the danger zones. They would be of great help after returning to Great Qin.

The sandworm did not seem to be able to speak, but it acted in a way that seemed like it was willing to submit. However, when Zhao Fu got close, it suddenly burst with power, broke free of some of the chains, and swallowed Zhao Fu.

This caused everyone to feel startled, and they quickly attacked the sandworm.

The instant Zhao Fu was swallowed, he unleashed his Emperor's Domain and Saint Realm Domains. Looking at the countless teeth biting at him, he coldly harrumphed and released all of his power. An aura flame erupted around him and the Death Race Sword, giving off a brilliant sword light.

Boom!

An enormous explosion sounded out as a massive sword light burst out of the sandworm's body. The entire sky seemed to become austere and sombre as countless drops of blood descended like rain. The massive sandworm's body collapsed to the ground, dead.

Zhao Fu cut open a hole and came out and looked at the sandworm's corpse, feeling quite angry. This sandworm had sought its own death, pretending to surrender and then devouring Zhao Fu. As such, Zhao Fu could only kill it.

After killing the sandworm, Zhao Fu received a system announcement, telling him that he had obtained 100,000 points for killing the sandworm.

Zhao Fu did not know if it was because he had killed the sandworm or because many people had participated in killing it, he did not obtain as many points as before.

Chapter 1232: Sand Soldiers

However, even though Zhao Fu had only obtained 100,000 points, this caused him to once again shoot to the top of the Points Rankings. With his 310,000 points, he now surpassed Bai Shengjun and reached third place. The new rankings were as such:

Number 1: Unknown Name, Points: 440,000

Number 2: Unknown Name, Points: 320,000

Number 3: Unknown Name, Points: 310,000

Number 4: Bai Shengjun, Points: 300,000

Number 5: Zang Mingyue, Points: 290,000

Seeing the change in rankings, everyone was not as shocked anymore. They knew that that person was extremely powerful and could contend with the top geniuses.

However, they had never thought that he would surpass Bai Shengjun and take third place. This meant that he might be stronger than even Bai Shengjun, and this caused them to gasp. They may have underestimated this person.

The second-ranked white-haired young man could not help but take notice of Zhao Fu now. Even though he only saw the top-ranked person as his competitor, he still felt immense pressure from Zhao Fu, as well as a trace of danger.

After falling to fourth place, Bai Shengjun's expression became quite serious. He understood that Zhao Fu definitely had the power to rival him, or else he would not be able to surpass him on the rankings.

Zang Mingyue, who was now fifth-ranked, became even more furious. He had now fallen to fifth place, and this humiliation made him feel like he had lost all face. He was a prestigious Imperial Prince, yet he had lost to so many people in an outer Domain. If this news spread, he would not have any face left, and people would say that he did not have the right to be an Imperial Prince.

After killing the sandworm, Zhao Fu looked to see if there were any rewards. After looking around, Zhao Fu was disappointed to find that there was nothing to be gained.

He then looked at the giant sandworm to see if there was anything valuable within its corpse. Soon, he found a gem within its body.

This gem was one meter wide and was very round. It was yellow and gave off a faint yellow light. It gave off a powerful aura of sandy soil and contained immense power.

Zhao Fu looked at it and found that it was called a Sand Pearl, and it had powerful sand-control abilities. Zhao Fu decided it to try it out and sent his power into it. He immediately felt as if he could control all of the sand around him.

Bang, bang, bang...

Muffled explosions sounded out as Zhao Fu controlled the sand to form ten meter tall sand soldiers that gave off powerful auras; there were over 100 of them.

Zhao Fu felt quite pleased and cancelled the power, and he put away the Sand Pearl.

Now that he had killed the boss monster of the eighth level's danger zone, Zhao Fu planned to head down to the seventh level.

Zhao Fu's group was moving quite slowly; many people had already reached the sixth level. However, the difficulty and danger of each level became many times greater each level down, and the number of injuries and casualties steadily increased.

Ling Feixue had told him that ordinary people could only remain within the tenth, ninth, and eighth levels. From the seventh level onwards, they would risk their lives, and even powerful people who went to the sixth level could lose their lives.

The fifth level was an incredibly terrifying place and very few people could survive there. Back then, Ling Feixue had only been able to make it to the fifth level and could not go any further.

The seventh level was already quite dangerous, so passing to the seventh level did not require a checkpoint medallion but strength.

Within the boundless sand there was a stone stele that seemed to stretch to the clouds. It was over 100,000 meters wide and was black-colored. There were countless marks on it, fist prints, saber gashes, sword gashes, spear holes, and the like.

If one wanted to head to the seventh level, they had to be able to leave a mark here; only then would they receive the right to advance. Otherwise, they would not be able to advance and could only remain within the eighth level.

There were countless people gathered here because there was only one stone stele, so they could all only gather here and try to see if they could leave a mark on the stone stele.

No matter how much the ordinary people swung their weapons, they could not leave a mark on the stone stele at all. Instead, their weapons would be damaged; one could only wonder what the stone stele was made out of.

Countless people stared at the stone stele in shock. Originally, the deepest spear hole in the stone stele was about nine inches deep; that was the biggest mark that someone had left in the past 1,000 years. Until now, no one had been able to surpass it and that person had already become a legend.

However, today, four people had left marks that exceeded nine inches. Those four marks all gave off terrifying auras and made people feel awe and respect. They were something that only supreme experts could leave behind.

There was a fist print that was 12 inches deep and the aura it gave off was that of the terrifying top-ranked person. Next was a claw print that was 11 inches deep and gave off the aura of the second-ranked person.

The third was a sword gash and the fourth was a saber gash, both of which were 10 inches deep. They were respectively left behind by Bai Shengjun and Zang Mingyue.

These four imprints were almost worshipped by countless people as miracles. After all, most people could not even leave a mark, so how could they not worship the people who had left marks deeper than nine inches?

Boom!

A muffled explosion sounded out as a young man wearing martial artists' clothes smashed his staff against the stone stele. The massive power caused a wild gale to blow, and he left a mark that was six inches deep.

Everyone could not help but cry out. Some people sensed his aura and shouted, "He's the twenty-seventh ranked Li Ye. He's so strong! And so young as well!"

Li Ye put away his staff and the stone stele gave off a black light. A door of black light appeared and Li Ye calmly walked through it with his followers.

The others did not leave a mark on the stone stele, nor did they try. However, they could enter as Li Ye's followers; each person could bring at most 50 people in with them.

Also, only those who Li Ye let in with him could enter; others could not try to force their way through.

Bang!

Another explosion sounded out as a young man in green held a spear and gave off ferocious power as he stabbed at the stone stele. The spearhead sank eight inches into the stone stele, causing countless people to once again cry out.

According to the aura the young man gave off, they found his name on the rankings and cried out, "He's the seventh-ranked person; those in the top ten are so strong!"

The young man had a trace of a proud smile on his face. He returned to the crowd and his faction's people crowded around him, continuously praising him.

Some others could not help but go over, as that young man was the seventh-ranked person. It was worth making friends with a genius like this.

The young man ignored those people because he looked down on everyone else present. The only reason he remained here was to see if anyone could surpass him; of course, that did not include anyone within the top five as he knew of their strength.

Chapter 1233: Third-Ranked Person

Within the crowd, there were many people who Zhao Fu was familiar with, such as Bai Haoran, Yin Ruoshi, Leng Shang, Shi Shuge, and You Quan.

Bai Haoran had been following his big brother and leading the Dao Cultivation Sect's people to explore ruins. However, the situation had become quite serious; he had fallen to fourth place, so he could only leave the rest of the people from the Dao Cultivation Sect to Bai Haoran and leave by himself so that he would not be held back.

The next to go up was Ming Jian from the Green Province Domain. He held a sharp sword and vigorously slashed, causing a sword light to flash out, which only left a sword gash that was six inches deep.

Even though it caused many gasps, Ming Jian shook his head in disappointment, feeling unsatisfied with his strength. With this kind of strength, he would never be able to surpass that person.

Leng Shang, giving off killing intent with his whole body, walked up. Countless traces of blood-red aura gathered around his sword, causing it to give off a dense killing intent and making others' hairs stand on end.

Shing!

Leng Shang stabbed forwards, causing his blood-red sword to give off a sword hum as it sank into the stone stele, leaving behind a seven inch deep sword gash. Seeing this, Leng Shang walked back looking quite dissatisfied.

Following this, Bai Haoran also walked up. His fist gave off a five-colored light and contained shocking power as he smashed it again the stone stele. An explosion sounded out as an eight inch deep fist print appeared.

Shi Shuge was the next to go up. She held a sword made of countless black runes, and it gave off an intense smell of books.

Shing!

A sword hum sounded out as the weak-looking sword actually left behind a sword gash that was almost nine inches deep, causing an uproar. With just a bit more, it would have reached nine inches, and that woman would have been able to compare to that expert from 1,000 years ago.

Shi Shuge sighed. If it was before, she may have been quite content with her strength, as it could almost compare to that legendary expert. However, the four new marks on the stone stele shined like brilliant suns.

In front of those four marks, her own mark was too dim and unnoticeable, and this dealt a heavy blow to her.

No one was in a hurry to leave and wanted to see the performance of the various geniuses. The depths of the marks they could leave not only showed their strength but their potential as well.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Massive sounds rang out as many geniuses left behind marks on the stone stele, causing the crowd to cry out.

The marks on the stone stele were like countless resplendent stars within a dark sky, representing various geniuses. Whether it was now or in the future, they would cause countless people to sigh in amazement.

Bang!

Another massive sound rang out as a man in bearskins kicked the stone stele. The surrounding air seemed to explode as a nine inch deep foot print appeared on the stone stele.

This caused another sensation; someone else who could reach nine inches had appeared, and everyone wondered who this person was and how he had such terrifying power. This person would be able to compare to that legendary expert from 1,000 years ago.

Boom!

As everyone marveled in shock, a massive Emperor's aura descended, causing everyone's bodies to feel heavier. They felt as if they had fallen into icy water and started to tremble.

Sensing this familiar aura, Bai Haoran, Shi Shuge, Leng Shang, Bing Qixue, and many other geniuses' expressions changed as they looked up into the air.

A group of people had appeared in the air, and the person at the lead was a man in a cloak. The scene fell completely silent.

Perhaps others were not familiar with this cloaked figure, but everyone from the Ancient Stem Domain knew clearly how he was – it was the Killing Sword Master, the person who had three Emperor Stars.

Bai Haoran's expression became incredibly serious. The things that this mysterious Emperor had done in the Ancient Stem Domain were too terrifying, and he had been hunted by the Ancient Stem Domain this entire time. This mysterious Emperor had terrifying potential, so the entire Domain was worried about revenge. Only he could do something like this in the history of the Ancient Stem Domain.

The events at the Ancient Stem Domain were scars that the Ancient Stem Domain would never be able to get rid of, and they would cause many things in the future. It was something that the Dao Cultivation Sect regretted.

Bai Haoran could only hope that his big brother would be able to suppress this person, or else the consequences would be unimaginable. It was possible that the entire Ancient Stem Domain could be doomed as a result.

Yin Ruoshi looked quite anxious. After she had witnessed Zhao Fu's strength, he had become the person she was the most wary about. Even her master had reminded her not to get involved with this person, because against Zhao Fu, only the word 'death' awaited her.

Now, he had really appeared in the Cosmos Historical Remnant, so she had to be infinitely careful and avoid meeting him to prevent terrible results.

Bing Qixue sighed. After that matter, they had not been in contact, and he wondered what Zhao Fu's attitude towards him and the Ice Origin Kingdom was.

Shi Shuge looked quite excited; she had always felt that she would meet Zhao Fu again, and now he had reappeared before her. She had desperately trained everyday for this day. She would defeat Zhao Fu and teach him a lesson; this was her greatest desire.

However, Zhao Fu's aura was now even more terrifying before, making her worry if she was a match for Zhao Fu.

You Quan looked at Zhao Fu furiously. He had remembered the enmity between them ever since that day, and he had always waited to take revenge by ending Zhao Fu's life in order to quench his fury.

Of course, he understood that he was not a match for Zhao Fu right now, so he could only glare at Zhao Fu as he thought of how to take revenge. However, he would not do anything right now.

Boom!

Another explosion sounded out as a black aura flame erupted around the cloaked figure and a wild gale started to blow. The sovereign Emperor's aura became even more intense, and some people were unable to resist this aura and knelt.

Shing!

The cloaked figure slashed out with his sword, causing a black sword arc to flash out, and a twelve inch deep sword gash appeared.

This caused everyone to gasp; even a nine inch deep mark could cause them to feel incredibly shocked, and a twelve inch deep mark was something that only the top-ranked person could achieve. This sent waves throughout all of their hearts.

Zhao Fu ignored all of their gazes, opened up a door of black light, and entered with his group before disappearing.

"He's the third-ranked person!" only a while later did someone cry out.

Everyone else came back to their senses; no wonder he was so terrifying; he was one of the top five geniuses. Everyone felt much more at ease; that kind of person was not someone they could compare with.

As for the people who knew Zhao Fu, such as Shi Shuge and Bai Haoran, after seeing the twelve inch deep sword gash left by Zhao Fu, their faces became incredibly pale. They understood how great of a gap there was between themselves and Zhao Fu. What's more, Zhao Fu had not used his full power, only using his Sovereign Bloodline's power.

Chapter 1234: Seventh Level

The expressions of everyone present became dim. They had all been greatly discouraged by Zhao Fu and the other four of the top five. They were true geniuses, and in front of them, everyone else was nothing.

Right now, they felt like they were just making fools out of themselves here and that they would be laughed at by others. As such, none of them continued to remain here and opened up doors of black light, entering the seventh level.

The seventh level was a boundless land of azure rocks, which covered the land as far as the eye could see. There were very few plants, and at most, there were some weeds growing about. However, they were quite scattered and the place was quite desolate.

The seventh level was called Green Rock Lands and the gravity here was many times greater than other places. Whenever one walked, one would be able to feel a weight pressing down.

The Cosmos Beasts here all had Stage 7 to Stage 8 power. If there were just a few of them, Zhao Fu would have nothing to fear, but if they came in a large group, Zhao Fu would have to avoid them. After all, a group of Stage 7 or Stage 8 Cosmos Beasts was not something he could deal with easily.

“Your Majesty, where shall we go?” Lefran lazily rested against Zhao Fu and said with her charming voice into Zhao Fu's ear.

Zhao Fu thought about it and said, “We'll head straight to the danger zone then see if there are any ruins. The seventh level is quite dangerous, but there should be many ruins left.”

Lefran hugged Zhao Fu and gently breathed next to his ear as she said lazily, “Mm! Then after going through the danger zone can we do it again?”

On the other side, Evelyn hugged Zhao Fu and coldly harrumphed and said, “I already want to do it now. Let’s have some fun first before going into danger, alright?”

Hearing this, Zhao Fu bitterly smiled.

Krista’s cold face was also slightly flushed. She did not have any needs before, and after seeing two of her kind becoming more intimate with Zhao Fu, she had also wanted to try. After trying it out, she had become quite addicted to it.

The seven princesses stood to the side with reddened faces. Lin Yan’Er felt quite aggrieved; back when she had entered the Cosmos Historical Remnant with Zhao Fu, it had always been her leaning on Zhao Fu’s shoulder, but her spot had been stolen by those two demonesses.

However, she was not very strong and could not provide much help to Zhao Fu in battles, so she knew that she could not win against those two demonesses.

Fortunately, Zhao Fu had finally done it with her, so she did not have to worry that Zhao Fu would not touch her in the future. She could not help but think of Zhao Fu ravaging her, causing her body to feel quite weak, and a lustful gaze appeared in her eyes.

Mosax and Molaf were tactful and stood at the edge of the group, not getting involved and pretending not to hear anything.

A few hours later, Zhao Fu and his group arrived at the seventh level’s danger zone. Because of the information Ling Feixue had provided, it was quite easy for Zhao Fu to find the danger zones, and he did not have to look for them himself.

The seventh level’s danger zone was a forest of stone. There were countless stone pillars, some of which were over 1,000 meters tall. If one accidentally entered this place, it would be quite easy to get lost.

“Roar! Roar! Roar...” After entering, many stone beasts appeared. They seemed to be made out of stone, and they were about ten or so meters long. There were all sorts of creatures: tigers, panthers, bulls, boars...

Each of the stone beasts gave off a powerful aura; this place was much more dangerous than the eight level’s danger zone. Facing the thousands of stone beasts charging at them, Zhao Fu naturally did not have to act.

Just like always, Mosax unleashed his Nothingness Domain. Zhao Fu found that Mosax was incredibly useful and could reduce all power. Back then, Zhao Fu had looked down on Mosax, but luckily he had not killed him. Otherwise, challenging these danger zones would not be so easy.

Molaf, Lefran, and the others turned into rays of light and shot out to kill these stone beasts. Even though the stone beasts were strong, they were still easily killed in the end.

Molaf slashed with his dagger, slashing open a stone beast’s head. Zhao Fu found what seemed to be a crystal inside; this was most likely the core of the stone beasts. After destroying this core, the stone beasts would turn into a pile of stones.

Zhao Fu told this to the others, and Mosax ran up and stabbed his pitchfork into a stone beast’s head, easily killing it.

Lefran raised her magic staff, which shined with a blue light that caused the stone beasts to attack each other. Krista continuously threw out her spear, taking stone beasts’ lives one after another. Evelyn punched and kicked, blasting apart stone beasts’ heads.

Lin Yan’Er and the seven princesses also helped out, releasing attacks, not wanting to be useless. They were worried about being neglected by Zhao Fu.

Seeing everyone attacking the stone beasts, Zhao Fu stood there by himself and felt quite awkward, so he also acted. He held the Death Race Sword and rushed up, sending out powerful sword lights that destroyed the stone beasts.

Soon, the thousands of stone beasts were dead, leaving piles of stones all over the place.

There was not much to be gained from the danger zones; killing all of these stone beasts did not give anything. Only subduing or killing the boss monster would provide some gains.

This was why no one was willing to go to danger zones; there was a lot of risk and nothing to be gained. It was much better to search for unexplored ruins.

Following this, the group continued onwards.

After killing a few more waves of stone beasts, Zhao Fu's group were surprised to find that they were lost; after walking for a while, they had returned to where they had started.

This caused Zhao Fu to become serious, and he started to leave marks on the stone pillars. They could not fly here due to restrictions, so they could only rely on making marks to seek out a path.

After a day or so, Zhao Fu and his group finally reached the depths of the stone forest. There, they found a very large, empty space. There were green rocks all over the ground, and there was not a single blade of grass. Wind blew through the surrounding stone pillars, giving off eerie sounds, and other than that there was a deathly silence all around.

Zhao Fu first checked their surroundings before walking into the empty space. A green magic formation immediately activated, and a five meter tall stone creature appeared at the center.

The stone creature was not made of rough stones. Instead, it seemed like a stone sculpture, and it was quite exquisite. The stone creature looked like a man and had beautifully-toned muscles. His upper body was naked, but he had lower pants to cover his lower half. He looked quite handsome.

After the stone creature appeared, his eyes ferociously looked at Zhao Fu. He tapped off the ground, causing the ground to crack as he shot towards Zhao Fu. His fist gave off a ferocious wind as he punched towards Zhao Fu, seeming to be able to punch through a steel wall.

Before Zhao Fu acted, Evelyn next to him coldly harrumphed stepped up and punched out.

Bang!

An explosion sounded out, causing a gale to spread out as the two punches collided, unleashing an immense shockwave.

Chapter 1235: Stone Creature

After this collision, the stone creature did not move at all, but Evelyn was forced back five or six steps before she could stop herself. As the boss monster of the seventh level's danger zone, the stone creature was evidently stronger than Evelyn.

After forcing Evelyn back, its expression became one of slight condescension. Evelyn was unresigned and wanted to charge up and fight with it again.

Zhao Fu stopped her; they had many people here, and they did not come to challenge it to a solo battle.

Boom!

Mosax gave off a powerful aura and stabbed his pitchfork into the ground. A black and gray barrier giving off enormous power spread out, covering the surroundings.

Shing!

Molaf disappeared and reappeared behind the stone creature, slashing towards the stone creature's back. The stone creature's body seemed to be as hard as steel; as the dagger slashed against it, a metallic sound rang out, and only a shallow wound was opened up.

The stone creature did not seem to feel pain and did not mind that injury at all. It swung at Molaf backhanded, forcing Molaf to immediately hide back into the nothingness, causing the stone creature's attack to miss.

At that moment, everyone else also started to act, while Lin Yan'Er and the princesses tactfully retreated to the side.

Lefran raised her magic staff, causing an intense blue light to spread out, and the powerful illusory light caused the stone creature to be stunned for a few seconds.

Zhao Fu raised the Death Race Sword, which gave off an intense sword light. He vigorously slashed and a massive gray crescent of sword light flew out, sending the stunned stone creature flying.

Boom!

Krista raised her spear and blue flames appeared around it. She vigorously threw the spear, which contained immense destructive power as it shot towards the stone creature.

The stone creature was given a big fright and crossed its arms in front of itself as a formless energy barrier spread out.

Bang!

The blue spear slammed into the energy barrier with ferocious power, resulting in a massive explosion. The energy barrier shattered and the blue spear hit the stone creature's arms. However, because most of the spear's power had been blocked by the energy barrier, the blue spear was not able to harm the stone creature.

Boom!

Evelyn appeared in the air, and she spun as she kicked the stone creature back to the ground. The stone creature's five meter tall body heavily crashed onto the ground, causing the ground to collapse and countless rocks to fly everywhere.

"Roar!!" The stone creature climbed up from the ground and gave a furious roar. A powerful aura spread out from its body, raising up wild gales. The stone creature furiously looked at Zhao Fu and his party, and it raised its hands and slammed them onto the ground.

Boom!

A formless shockwave spread out, shattering countless rocks. The shockwave gave off an immense power as it rushed towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu coldly harrumphed and a black aura flame burst forth around him. A massive amount of energy entered his sword, causing it to give off an intense sword hum. Zhao Fu vigorously stabbed the Death Race Sword into the ground, causing a terrifying shockwave to also blast out.

Bang!

The two massive shockwaves collided, resulting in an enormous explosion. Countless rocks were sent flying and after everything settled down, there was an area that was three meters wide that had sunk down; this was where the two shockwaves had collided.

Swish, swish, swish...

At that moment, countless pieces of fragmented rocks started to float before shooting out with immense power.

Zhao Fu's expression fell and he had everyone spread out. They dodged most of the rocks and blocked the rest. However, they were all slightly injured; the rocks hitting them hurt a bit and caused a few bruises.

Bang!

The stone creature raised a large hand and slammed it against the ground, causing a formless energy to spread out. Sharp stone pillars started to stab out of the ground, forcing Zhao Fu and the others to dodge about again.

Zhao Fu started to feel quite annoyed. He raised the Death Race Sword and sent all of his power into it, causing it to give off a bright sword light. Countless traces of deathly aura spread out like a flood, and a beautiful figure appeared beside Zhao Fu.

Boom!

Zhao Fu slashed out, and the beautiful figure, surrounded by countless traces of deathly aura, flew forwards towards the stone creature, seeming to be able to devour all life.

The stone creature's expression became quite grim as it clenched its fist and savagely punched down on the ground. Stone walls that were ten or so meters tall and 30 centimeters thick suddenly rose up from the ground, and 30 or so of them blocked in front of the stone creature.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

The massive deathly aura ferociously collapsed wall after wall, resulting in massive sounds. In the end, the stone creature was still able to block Zhao Fu's full-powered strike.

However, Zhao Fu was not alone.

Boom!

Krista threw out her spear, and a blue ray of light containing immense power shot towards the stone creature, causing the air around it to explode.

Bang!

After blocking a full-powered strike from Zhao Fu and facing this sudden follow-up attack, the stone creature could only unleash an energy barrier. The blue light smashed against the energy barrier, causing it to shatter, and the stone creature was blasted back.

The stone creature flew backwards and smashed against a hill, causing it to collapse. A three inch deep hole appeared in the stone creature's chest.

The stone creature was most likely completely made of stone and did not have any blood vessels or anything. Otherwise, blood would have flowed from a wound like that. However, from how it looked, it seemed to be quite injured.

Shing!

Molaf appeared in the air and its dagger gave off a cold light as it slashed towards the stone creature. The stone creature was unable to react in time at all, and a gash appeared on its left arm.

The stone creature furiously rushed out of the collapsed hill, but at that moment, a flower appeared above its head, giving off a deep blue light and pulling it into an illusion.

Boom!

Evelyn appeared behind the stone creature, and her fist was covered with a black aura as a massive amount of Darkness power swept out. Evelyn punched the stone creature's waist, causing a muffled explosion to sound out as countless small cracks appeared on the stone creature's waist.

Even though the stone creature did not seem to feel pain, this was the most damage it had received so far, and its aura greatly weakened.

However, the stone creature would not give up just like that. It mustered its strength and counterattacked, punching towards Evelyn.

Shing!

Before the stone creature could hit Evelyn, Molaf reappeared and slashed down with its dagger, opening up another gash on the stone creature. In response, the stone creature furiously turned to attack Molaf.

Bang!

At that moment, a muffled explosion sounded out as Mosax gripped its pitchfork and stabbed it into the stone creature's body. At the same time, it sent the Nothingness Domain's power into it, causing the stone creature to weaken further.

The stone creature roared, wanting to attack Mosax.

Clang, clang, clang...

The sounds of chains rang out as thousands of chains shot out from the air, binding the stone creature.

The stone creature exploded with strength and furiously roared as it continuously struggled, but it was unable to break free from the chains.

Zhao Fu walked out from the side and the Death Race Sword gave off intense sword light as he stabbed it into the stone creature's chest. The sword qi entered the stone creature's body, causing its aura to become extremely weak and making it seem heavily injured.

Chapter 1236: Infinite Gravity Origin Stone

Only then did the stone creature become more well-behaved. It did not have any strength to struggle anymore and lay on the ground. However, it continued to furiously glare at everyone, feeling quite unconvinced; after all, it had been attacked by so many people.

Zhao Fu looked at the stone creature and gave a trace of a smile as he said, “Are you willing to submit, or do you want to die?”

The stone creature looked at Zhao Fu and yelled, “Just kill me! I won’t surrender. If you don’t kill me, I’ll definitely smash you into meat paste next time.”

Zhao Fu frowned and looked at the stone creature, wondering if he should kill it or keep it.

After thinking about it, he felt that killing it was not worth it. Killing the sandworm from before was unavoidable, but Zhao Fu wanted to try to subdue this stone creature if it was possible.

Zhao Fu took out the Sand Pearl. This item had great control over earth-type things, so it might be able to turn this stone creature into sand.

Of course, Zhao Fu took out this Sand Pearl to torment the stone creature. Even though the stone creature did not feel any physical pain, it most likely still felt mental and spiritual pain.

The Sand Pearl gave off a faint yellow light, which gradually entered the stone creature’s body. The stone creature’s expression became terrified and soon started to howl in pain. It felt its soul being gradually ripped apart into small grains.

Hearing it howl pitifully, everyone’s expressions were quite calm. None of them were especially kind people, and in fact, Lefran had a delighted look on her face. It seemed that she quite liked to hear others scream.

Seven or eight hours later, the stone creature could not endure anymore and weakly submitted to Zhao Fu, expressing that it was willing to serve him.

Zhao Fu gave a pleased smile and accepted the stone creature's surrender, and he received a system announcement.

"System announcement! Congratulations, you have subdued the Stone Creature Rock Mountain and have obtained 100,000 points."

It was 100,000 points again, and Zhao Fu felt quite confused. This Rock Mountain's strength was much stronger than the sandworm, so it was definitely worth more than 100,000 points. Zhao Fu thought about it and decided that it was most likely because he had worked together with everyone else. If he had conquered it by himself, the rewards would most likely be greater.

These 100,000 points caused the Points Rankings to once again change; Zhao Fu had moved up one spot.

Number 1: Unknown Name, Points: 510,000

Number 2: Unknown Name, Points: 410,000

Number 3: Unknown Name, Points: 400,000

Number 4: Bai Shengjun, Points: 390,000

Number 5: Zang Mingyue, Points: 380,000

Everyone looked at the rankings in shock; that person was now ranked second. However, because he had left a twelve inch deep mark on the stone stele, everyone was not as flabbergasted as before. Now, they believed that Zhao Fu was someone who could contend with the top-ranked person.

Seeing that he had been overtaken, the white-haired young man's face became pale. Yet another variable had appeared, and his plan could become somewhat more difficult.

Back then, he had thought that Zhao Fu was quite dangerous, but now that he had been surpassed by Zhao Fu, causing him to fall to third place, he could not help but feel quite angry.

Bai Shengjun sighed. He had thought that he would be able to return to third place and leave Zhao Fu behind, but it seemed that that person was too fast, and he could not catch up to him.

Zang Mingyue also looked quite furious and exploded out with power and rampaged for a bit. Zhao Fu reaching second place meant that no matter what he did, he would be trampled on by at least three others.

Bai Haoran, Bing Qixue, Leng Shang, Shi Shuge, and everyone else who knew Zhao Fu could only marvel in awe and helplessness; they did not know what to say.

The top-ranked ordinary-looking young man leisurely walked about in the fifth level; the countless Cosmos Beasts were terrified and did not dare to get close. He did not bother looking at the rankings because he knew that everyone was inferior to him.

Even though he was not an arrogant person, how could someone from a remote, boundary Domain surpass him?

Back within the valley, Zhao Fu threw over some earth-type treasures to Rock Mountain to help him recover from his wounds.

Following this, Rock Mountain handed over an item to Zhao Fu. It was a black stone that was as big as a marble and gave off a faint black light. It was incredibly heavy, and Zhao Fu could only hold it using his full strength. Zhao Fu could not help but ask, "Just what is this?"

Rock Mountain had greatly recovered, and hearing Zhao Fu's words, he immediately replied in fear, "This is an Infinite Gravity Origin Stone, an extremely powerful gravity treasure. This is the reward for this danger zone."

Zhao Fu nodded in understanding, but he had not yet decided how to use it.

The golden dragon within Zhao Fu's body suddenly said, "This Infinite Gravity Origin Stone can move large amounts of earth into the sky and create a sky city. If you want to build a sky city, you can consider using this treasure for such a purpose."

Hearing this, Zhao Fu felt quite interested. A sky city would be incredibly grand and majestic, and if they used it for military purposes, it would be a sky castle.

It would be of great help to Great Qin in future aerial battles, so Zhao Fu decided to build a sky city. At the same time, he asked the golden dragon about what sorts of materials were needed.

After conquering the danger zone of the seventh level, Zhao Fu planned to look for a ruins. The seventh level was different than the tenth level, and there were most likely still many unexplored ruins.

At the same time, Zhao Fu planned on obtaining the seventh level's checkpoint medallion.

The seventh level's checkpoint medallion was quite easy to find; one just needed to kill a type of rock spirit. However, to ordinary people, these rock spirits were terrifyingly powerful.

A few hours later, as Zhao Fu was flying with the rest of his group, a person stopped them. he was a young man and looked quite ordinary, and he gave off an ordinary aura, not seeming special in any way.

Zhao Fu stopped, looked at this young man, and asked, "Do you have business with me?"

The young man cupped his hands and said resolutely, "My name is Chen Zhanghe; I want to follow sir and become a peerless expert."

Zhao Fu lightly laughed, he had never expected someone to suddenly ask to follow him. Zhao Fu did not know that the instant he had left a mark on the stone stele, he had become admired and worshipped by countless people.

Lefran, who was leaning against Zhao Fu, gave a bewitching laugh and said, "Do you think just anyone can follow our master? Don't you know that your actions are seeking death? If you don't give us a satisfactory explanation, I'll kill you in master's place!"

Chen Zhenghe felt quite anxious; he knew that this woman was not lying. He could sense how dangerous she was, but fortunately, he had made preparations.

First of all, Cheng Zhenghe was not weak, and he had decent talent. However, if he wanted to become a peerless expert, he would not be able to do so by himself. He wanted to fulfill his father and mother's aspirations, so he had to follow a terrifying figure like this.

“Sir, I’ve found an unexplored ruins and would like to offer it to you as a gift. I can also give my soul to sir and swear my eternal loyalty.”

Chapter 1237: Beautiful Men

Hearing the word ‘ruins,’ Zhao Fu felt quite interested. However, he did not believe this person, so he said, “Hand over your Soul Mark first and take us to the ruins, and I’ll give you a chance to follow me.”

Chen Zhenghe felt incredibly excited; he had never thought that he would succeed so easily. He immediately handed over his Soul Mark and led Zhao Fu to the ruins.

A while later, Zhao Fu’s group reached a large boulder. Chen Zhenghe walked up and knocked on it seven times, after which the air rippled and a black hole appeared.

Zhao Fu and his group carefully went in and found that it was a stone passageway. The passageway was incredibly smooth and there were erotic depictions on the walls, all of which were scenes of men and women doing it.

Zhao Fu glanced at these pictures but felt that they were useless so he did not look at them further, and Lefran did not seem very interested either.

Everyone continued onwards and reached a gorgeous hall. There was a stage with seven tables, at which seven beautiful men sat. There were countless corpses below them, including both men and women. They were all naked and had pleasurable looks on their faces.

The seven beautiful men were slightly more good-looking than even Zhao Fu. They were all well-proportioned and quite tall as well.

They all gave off different auras: Some were warm and cheerful, some were as cold as ice, some were as domineering as kings, some were playful like little beasts, and some were refined and cultured. These seven appearing together could bewitch countless women.

The domineering-looking beautiful man sitting at the center lightly laughed and said, “Another group! We seven can have some fun again.”

The beautiful man sitting next to him looked at Lefran and the other women lasciviously, “There are some top-tier goods this time; I can’t wait already.”

Zhao Fu slightly frowned, and before he could do anything, the domineering-looking beautiful man disdainfully waved his hand and a pink light spread out. Countless runes appeared in the hall, and everyone’s body froze on the spot, unable to move.

At the same time, they felt a heat within their bodies, and their breathing became ragged. The princesses’ minds became blank and they lost all the strength in their bodies. Their faces started to go red as they began to pant.

Krista’s eyes were hazy and she blushed as she breathed heavily. Evelyn lustfully licked her lips as she gave off an intoxicating aura. Lefran also had an incredibly flirtatious and lewd look on her face.

The domineering-looking man gave a domineering smile and walked down as he said, “Now we can properly enjoy ourselves. We’ll play with the women first then the men.”

The other beautiful men also smiled as they walked down. The domineering-looking man hugged Lefran, while the other beautiful men made their choices as well.

One of them hugged the lustful Evelyn, one picked the cold and embarrassed Krista, one picked the tender and beautiful Lin Yan’Er, one picked the cold and aloof Princess Han Shuang, one picked the weak and gentle Princess Bai Rou, and one picked the voluptuous Princess Qiu Mei.

Looking at the seven women in their arms, the seven beautiful men felt quite excited and gave lewd smiles as they returned to the stage.

One of them was not satisfied and also picked up the fiery-figured Princess Han Nan and the beautiful Princess Wu Lin.

One of the others was not very satisfied and said, “Old Second, why do you want three? Can’t the seven of us split them all later? Also, boss, don’t break that woman; I also want to try her out.”

The domineering-looking beautiful man looked at the enchanting Lefran in his arms and laughed as he nodded. He would hate to break a beautiful creature like this.

Another beautiful man laughed as he said, “Boss, how about we do it together? I also quite like that beauty in your arms.”

Now, all of the women were completely defenseless and had reddened faces as they moaned as if they desperately needed to do it. Even if the seven beautiful men did anything to them, they would not be able to resist.

The beautiful men placed them on the stage and started to slowly take off their clothes.

Suddenly, a ball of black qi shot out of the women’s bodies and entered the beautiful men’s bodies. This caused the expressions of the seven beautiful men to fall.

The six black crystals within Zhao Fu’s body trembled and a massive amount of Six Desires Demonic Qi flowed out. Zhao Fu’s gaze became cold as he regained control over his body.

Clang, clang, clang...

Zhao Fu waved his hand and countless chains shot out, binding the seven beautiful men. After the black qi flowed into their bodies, they had frozen up for a moment, and Zhao Fu had taken this opportunity to bind them.

He then waved his hand again, causing black light to shoot out into everyone’s bodies, causing them to go back to normal.

The women who had been taken up to the stage also returned to Zhao Fu’s side.

“Master, can you give me one to play with?” Lefran hugged Zhao Fu as she said with a trace of coquettishness.

Lefran looked at the seven beautiful men, and even though she smiled beautifully, her eyes were filled with ruthlessness.

Zhao Fu coldly harrumphed, "I'll deal with them. Since they wanted to do it, I'll let them do as they wanted."

Zhao Fu stretched out a hand and pointed towards the seven beautiful men. Countless traces of Six Desires Demonic Qi entered their bodies, causing their bodies to feel incredibly hot, and their faces became somewhat pale.

One of them quickly said, "Sir, I'm willing to submit to you!"

Zhao Fu ignored his words; anyone who dared to touch his women deserved death, and Zhao Fu would not accept their surrender.

Following this, the seven beautiful men breathed raggedly and their eyes became red as if they were bulls in heat. Zhao Fu undid the chains and they lost their reason as they leapt at each other and started to do unimaginable things.

Zhao Fu did not have any interest in watching. He left some Six Desires Demonic Liquid in their bodies, making it so that they would do it until they died.

Zhao Fu had everyone else leave, and he looked around the hall. He found a secret door and entered a secret room, and he found a treasure box that had 30 or so pink fruits.

The fruits were about as big as longans and were quite smooth. They gave off pink light and gave off intoxicating fragrances.

Zhao Fu looked at them and found that they were called Charming Soul Fruits, which could be given to women to consume, giving them a Charming Soul Constitution. This would increase their strength and cultivation, and the Charming Soul Fruits quite precious.

Zhao Fu also found an Art that was quite high-level, and it was suited to those who had Charming Soul Constitutions. There were also eight or nine Saint Armaments.

There was nothing else, and after putting everything away, Zhao Fu left the secret room and looked at the seven beautiful men madly going at each other. Zhao Fu did not have any time to wait for them, so he increased the amount of Six Desires Demonic Qi and made them even more crazed.

In the end the seven beautiful men's eyes became blank, and their faces were covered with ecstasy as they collapsed to the ground, dead.

Chapter 1238: Dragon Woman

Zhao Fu could be said to have taken revenge for those corpses on the ground. They had tortured others to death in this fashion, and they had died in a similar fashion.

Zhao Fu had wanted to keep their corpses, as they were quite strong and would be able to refine high-quality Blood God Pills. However, looking at their bodies covered with all kinds of liquids, Zhao Fu left in disgust and burned the place down.

Following this, Zhao Fu gave the Charming Soul Fruits and the Art to Lin Yan'Er and the princesses. They were relatively weak, so these things would be quite useful to them.

As for Lefran and the others, they did not need such things.

Lin Yan'Er happily leapt over, wanting to service Zhao Fu, but Zhao Fu stopped her.

Princess Han Shuang and the others did not expect that after just starting to follow Zhao Fu, they would receive such great benefits. They understood that Zhao Fu now saw them as his own women, and they truly accepted Zhao Fu as well. They sweetly smiled as they said, "Thank you, hubby!"

"Um, sir, that ruins, you..." By the side, Chen Zhenghe spoke nervously and fearfully. He had brought Zhao Fu here and he had never thought that it would be like this. Zhao Fu's women had almost been touched by others, and this might be enough for Zhao Fu to kill him.

Only then did Zhao Fu remember about Chen Zhenghe. Seeing him like this, Zhao Fu understood why he was feeling this way. However, he did not blame him, as it had nothing to do with him, so he said, "I can take you in, but my identity is not as great as you think. You should prepare yourself."

Chen Zhenghe immediately cupped his hands and thanked Zhao Fu, expressing that he would follow Zhao Fu no matter. As such, Zhao Fu could only smile and accept him.

At that moment, Chen Zhenghe said, “In actuality, Emperor, I know of another ruins, but it’s quite far away from here. Would you like to go? I’m not sure what’s inside it.”

After this experience, Chen Zhenghe especially added that last line in order to avoid anything unexpected from happening and Zhao Fu blaming him.

“Another ruins?” Zhao Fu felt quite delighted and said, “Alright, take us there!”

Following this, Chen Zhenghe led Zhao Fu and the others to a canyon. There was a fort here that was made of tough bricks on the outside. There were some wooden houses and pavilions within it, which looked quite ancient. They had most likely existed for a long time.

Zhao Fu and the others tried to enter from the main gate, but a restrictive barrier blocked them and gave a system announcement that only one person could enter.

As such, Zhao Fu could only have the others wait here while he entered the fort alone.

After entering, the scenery around him became quite different. It was as if Zhao Fu had not entered a fort but a prison.

There were cages everywhere, and all sorts of instruments of torture were hanging on the walls. The lighting was dim and there were traces of blood everywhere. Even though there were not any corpses, it was easy to guess that something had happened here, which could cause anyone to feel a chill in their hearts.

Not long after walking in, a figure blocked Zhao Fu’s path. She had a graceful figure and wore a tight suit of armor. She held a crescent-shaped weapon and had flaxen hair. Her eyes were incredibly ferocious and had a crescent-shaped mark on her forehead.

Suddenly, some information was transmitted to Zhao Fu: the Bright Moon Goddess Diana, a warrior of the Bright Moon Sect. Legends say she is the mortal incarnation of the Bright Moon Goddess. She wears a flashing armor that gives off a cold light like snow in winter nights. She fused with a Star Essence Soul at the top of the Titan Peak and is no longer an ordinary mortal.

She is currently struggling to find a sign from god and finding the reason for her existence in the world.

At the same time, Zhao Fu received a system announcement, "Kill the person before you!"

As Zhao Fu looked at the system announcement in surprise, Diana turned into a black blur and rushed towards him, reaching him in just an instant. She raised her weapon and hacked towards Zhao Fu.

Clang!

A colliding sound rang out and sparks flew about as Zhao Fu raised his sword and blocked this attack.

Diana ferociously glared at Zhao Fu and her crescent-shaped sword pressed towards Zhao Fu. Zhao Fu coldly harrumphed and vigorously swept Diana back as the golden pupil in his left eye spun and countless chains wrapped up Diana.

Diana struggled like a wild beast, and looking at her, Zhao Fu guessed that she did not have her own consciousness.

Now, he had captured her, but did he really have to kill her? Zhao Fu hesitated because he didn't want to do such a thing, but the system announcement prompted to kill her.

Zhao Fu thought about it and could only do this. The countless chains binding Diana gradually tightened and sank into her flesh, causing her to howl in pain.

The chains became tighter and tighter and blood started to flow out. Diana's bones broke, causing her to shriek, after which her body was ripped into ten or so parts by the chains, splattering onto the ground.

Looking at this gory scene, Zhao Fu felt quite disturbed. However, what made Zhao Fu feel quite surprised was that the corpse and blood quickly disappeared.

Zhao Fu continued onwards and a cold wind blew towards him, and he saw a woman riding on a wild boar. That woman had an enticing figure and wore furred armor. She held a meteor hammer and had short hair. She looked quite cold, as if she had no emotions.

Zhao Fu received information that this was the Fury of Winter, Sejuani. She had become used to suffering since a young age and preferred brutality. She was one of the strongest in her tribe and was a leader.

Sejuani swung her meteor hammer and charged at Zhao Fu on her boar.

At that moment, Zhao Fu once again received a system announcement to kill this person, but he could not use the same method.

Zhao Fu felt quite annoyed, and before he could work out the meaning behind all of this, Sejuani's meteor hammer came smashing at him. Zhao Fu could only dodge to the side, and the meteor hammer smashed out a large crater in the ground. This caused Zhao Fu to become wary, and he could not hesitate any longer.

Shing!

Zhao Fu's sword exploded out with a large amount of sword light as he slashed out. The massive sword qi blasted Sejuani back, causing her to crash against a wall. The wall cracked and her body sank into it. The wild boar she had been riding on had long since been turned into mush.

Sejuani was in an upright position and Zhao Fu walked over and cut her down. A cold light flashed out, splitting her chest open, and her organs spilled out.

Sejuani weakly howled before dying with a look of pain on her face. At the same time, her corpse disappeared.

Zhao Fu continued forwards and a woman in red armor blocked his way. Her figure was extremely mature, and she had bright red hair. She had red, dragon-like eyes and looked quite valiant. Her body gave off a very powerful aura.

She was the Dragonblood Warrior Shyvana and was a warrior who had dragon blood. She had a low-profile personality and was calm and cool. However, when she fought, her dragon's might that she inherited would be released, and almost no one would dare to look at her in the eyes. Anyone who looked into her eyes would have a chance of instinctively wanting to run.

Zhao Fu was not surprised to receive the same system announcement, and he attacked first.

He flashed over in front of Shyvana and slashed out with his sword. Shyvana was startled and stretched out her right arm to block, and a fiery-red dragon barrier expanded out.

Chapter 1239: Blood-Red Sword

Bang!

The fiery-red dragon barrier was slashed open by Zhao Fu and Shyvana's body flew backwards. Zhao Fu took this opportunity to unleash countless chains and suspend Shyvana in the air.

The chains started to tighten and pull apart Shyvana's body.

"Arghhh..." Shyvana continuously screamed as she felt her body being pulled apart, and blood started to flow out from the wounds on her body.

Snap!

Shyvana's body was pulled apart as her arms, legs, head, and torso were split apart. Bits of her body fell down, and her beautiful and valiant head also fell to the ground and rolled like a ball.

Zhao Fu frowned and looked at the slowly disappearing corpse before continuing onwards.

Whoosh!

Suddenly, a disc-like weapon containing massive power flew towards Zhao Fu. Zhao Fu slashed the weapon away, and a person walked out.

She had light-red long hair and white skin. She was quite pretty and had a voluptuous body. She wore tight armor and gave off a powerful aura, and she was the person who had just attacked Zhao Fu.

She was the Goddess of War Sivr, a mercilessly mercenary. She obtained shocking fame and fortune with her dauntless courage and boundless ambition.

Sivr grabbed at the air and the crossblade that Zhao Fu had sent flying returned to her hand. She then vigorously threw it, causing it to spin and give off cold light as it once again flew towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu stretched out a hand and countless traces of ghostly qi formed a ghostly hand that grabbed the incoming crossblade, and he lightly yelled, "Ghost Devour!"

Countless ghosts suddenly rose up from around Sivr and madly leapt towards her. Sivr swung her fists, killing ten or so ghosts, but in the end she was knocked down by the ghosts.

The ghosts opened their fanged mouths and started to tear at Sivr's flesh. Sivr continuously cried out in pain and quickly died; her corpse had been cleanly picked apart.

Zhao Fu started to feel quite numb and continued onwards.

A figure blocked in front of Zhao Fu. She had a bewitching figure and wore tight, black armor. She had short, black hair, and her fringe covered her left eye. She was extremely beautiful and had two swords by her side.

She was the Peerless Swordsman Fiora, and she was the youngest from House Laurent and was an extremely powerful swordswoman.

Both people looked at each other. Ten or so minutes later, a pained cry sounded out as sharp sword arcs chopped off Fiora's flesh bit by bit, leaving behind only a blood-red skeleton. It was an extremely cruel scene.

Fiora's corpse disappeared and Zhao Fu sighed before looking ahead. He did not know how long this would go for. He had killed five women so far, and if this went on, Zhao Fu would become an incredibly twisted person.

Zhao Fu decided to keep going for now, but if this went on, he would give up on this ruin. Zhao Fu did not want to keep killing like this.

Even though Zhao Fu was not a good person by any means, he did not enjoy meaningless killing like this; he only killed for a purpose or to take revenge. However, there were no grievances between these women and himself.

As if the ruins sensed what Zhao Fu was thinking, a pair of large doors appeared in front of him. Zhao Fu opened the doors curiously and saw a bedroom that was decorated in a cute manner.

At the center, an enchanting woman lay on a large bed. She was scantily dressed and had a seductive figure as well as snow-white skin. She was peerlessly beautiful and had black hair; golden, fox-like eyes; and nine tails.

This was the Nine-tailed Fox Ahri, a fox who travelled in the forests of Ionia and dreamed of becoming a human.

“System announcement! Rape and kill this person to clear the test.”

Looking at the beauty on the bed and seeing that system announcement, Zhao Fu felt quite annoyed. He had never done such a thing before, and it touched his bottom line. He did not want to do such a thing.

However, this system announcement stated that after doing this, he would clear the trial. In other words, after doing this, everything would end.

As Zhao Fu hesitated, Ahri got down from the bed and walked over to Zhao Fu and smiled flirtatiously as she said, “Looks like you’re not rotten to the core; however, you can’t clear that twisted trial like this.

“However, for that twisted trial to favor you, break the rules, and give you a shortcut, as long as you do that to me, you’ll definitely pass this twisted trial.”

After saying this, the fox enticingly wrapped her arms around Zhao Fu's neck and seductively kissed him, saying, "Come! Don't worry, I won't blame you. I also won't truly die. As long as you pass that twisted trial, I won't have to suffer here anymore. If you want, I can serve you every day."

Zhao Fu still hesitated. Even though Ahri had said herself that she would not truly die, Zhao Fu still did not want to do such a thing.

"Come on, hubby! Hurry up!" The fox continuously kissed Zhao Fu and egged him on to do her and then kill her.

However, Zhao Fu still hesitated and could not do it.

At that moment, a sharp and twisted voice sounded out, "Hurry up! As long as you do this, you will pass my trial and you will be my master. You can also obtain the Sadistic Killing Legacy! You'll become a peerless expert!"

Hearing this voice, Ahri stopped and said softly, "It's that pervert; looks like it really likes you! Hubby, hurry up and do it, alright?"

Zhao Fu thought about it before lightly pushing away Ahri and said calmly, "I'm giving up on this trial; I don't want to continue."

Hearing this, Ahri's face became pale. If Zhao Fu did not clear this trial, she and the others would continue being tormented here.

"Master, I'm begging you!" the fox said tearily as she started to call Zhao Fu master.

Zhao Fu remained unmoved. He had heard the urgency in the twisted voice's words. This meant that he wasn't the one who should be in a hurry. Zhao Fu did not want to be the passive one; he wanted to be the one in control.

"Apologize, I'm going to leave and look for other ruins," Zhao Fu said calmly as he started to walk away.

"Wait! Don't go, come back! You've passed the trial." Seeing that Zhao Fu really was going to leave, the twisted voice hurriedly cried out.

Hearing this, Zhao Fu felt quite speechless. If he had known things would be like this, he would not have gone through so much effort. He could not help but wonder what the legacy was and what that voice was.

Hearing these words, Ahri started to laugh and cry, feeling incredibly happy.

Zhao Fu turned and saw a blood-red door of light appear. He stepped through it and came to a blood-red room. There was a stone stage within it, on which there was a blood-red sword.

Chapter 1240: Terrifying Sword

This blood-red sword was a double-handed sword. It was about a meter long and three fingers wide. It only had a single edge, and the blade was jagged like sharp teeth. It looked like anyone who was struck by the sword would have their bodies ripped apart, and it would definitely be incredibly painful.

There was a picture on the sword, which depicted all sorts of broken corpses. The hilt of the sword seemed to be wrapped with human skin, and this was most likely a devil sword.

There were eight crystal coffins on the stone stage, within which lay women. They were the women Zhao Fu had encountered before: Diana, Sejuani, Sivir...

Apart from the six he had encountered, there were two who he had not met.

One of them wore tight green clothes and wore a green mouth mask. She had jet-black long hair and had a slim figure. Even though her face could not be fully seen, one could feel that she was quite a pretty person.

She was the Fist of the Shadows, Akali.

There was another woman with a fiery figure, but she did not seem to be wearing any clothes. She only used some plants to cover her body and had red hair. She was quite pretty and gave off a powerful aura. Both her hands looked like claws.

She was called Thorn's Joy Zyra.

After Zhao Fu walked in, a figure excitedly leapt at him. It was a young girl with exquisite features. She had very long, blood-red hair and blood-red eyes that seemed to be filled with cruelty. She did not seem to be wearing anything.

"Master! You're my master now! Hurry up and take me and let me follow you in slaughtering the world," the young girl leapt onto Zhao Fu and happily and crazily cried out.

Zhao Fu looked at the young girl and figured that she was most likely the sword spirit of that blood-red sword. He looked down at her and asked curiously, "Why did you choose me?"

The young girl yelled in a high voice, "Because master's bloodline is terrifying and Master has many terrifying things inside his body. If I choose you as my master, I'll be able to slaughter countless people and let the world suffer pain.

"I've waited here for a long time and master is the first person I've been so interested in. I can finally leave with master. I'm even happier than when I break fingers or cut open bodies."

After hearing her words, Zhao Fu felt a chill within his heart. This young girl was definitely a pervert and a madwoman; no wonder the fox had said those things before.

Now, the question was whether Zhao Fu wanted such a terrifying and evil sword.

In the end, Zhao Fu felt that he had to take it. This sword was no ordinary sword and had immense power. How could he leave such a treasure here?

"Get off me, I'm going to get the sword." Hearing Zhao Fu's words, the young girl immediately let go of Zhao Fu and stood by the side, looking at Zhao Fu with her blood-red eyes filled with expectation.

Zhao Fu walked up to the stone stage and grabbed the sword's hilt.

Boom!

A massive evil, twisted, and berserk power entered through Zhao Fu's hand and rushed into Zhao Fu's brain, seeming to cause his mind to go blank.

Outside, a pillar of blood-red light containing immense power shot into the sky, shaking the surroundings. The blood-red light seemed to cover the entire sky, and that evil and berserk power flooded out.

Not just Chen Zhenghe and the others looked at this scene in shock; everyone on the seventh level felt their hairs stand on end and felt incredibly shocked. They could not help but look over at the pillar of blood-red light standing between the heavens and the earth.

“What's going on? There's definitely some kind of incredible treasure over there.” Thinking about that, countless people excitedly rushed over in that direction.

Zhao Fu felt his body being eroded by a massive power. That berserk, evil, and twisted power started to corrode his body and soul, wanting to make him a person like that young girl.

“Hmph!” Zhao Fu coldly harrumphed; he did not want to become a person like that. He exploded with all of his strength, wanting to suppress the power corroding his body and soul.

However, Zhao Fu was not a match for the power, as this place seemed to be the sword's territory. It had boundless power, and despite Zhao Fu exploding out with all of his power, he was quickly inundated.

Those close to the ruins had already arrived and looked at this scene in shock. They knew the ripples were coming from here, but they did not know the reason.

Evenlyn and the others were guarding in front of the door, preventing others from charging in and disrupting Zhao Fu.

The newly-arrived people looked at Evelyn and the others warily and did not dare to act rashly. They knew these people – they were the people who had been with the second-ranked genius.

To be able to leave a twelve inch deep sword mark on the stone stele, they would not be able to fight that person at all. The only person who would be able to contend with him would be that top-ranked genius.

Following this, more and more people gathered here until there were over 10,000 of them. They all looked at the ruins greedily, in fear and in shock.

Evelyn and the others could not help but feel anxious. With so many people arriving, they could not stop them all.

As time gradually passed, more and more people gathered. Now, some of them could not help but think of forcing their way through. There was definitely some kind of shocking treasure within the ruins, so how could they just watch it be taken by someone else?

“What is your boss doing in there?” someone could not help but ask. Because there were so many people present, they did not fear that person as much.

Evelyn and the others ignored that person’s words.

The crowd started to become more and more restless, and someone yelled out, “Get out of the way, everyone should have a chance at this treasure. If you don’t make way, we won’t show any courtesy.”

Those words caused the atmosphere to become quite heavy. Both sides seemed to have swords drawn and bows bent, and it was as if a massive battle would explode out the next instant. However, Zhao Fu’s side was clearly at a massive disadvantage.

Within the ruins, Zhao Fu had a look of pain on his face as the power continuously ripped through his body, tearing apart his soul. Zhao Fu could not help but release the Emperor Killing Sword World’s power.

Within the Emperor Killing Sword World, the weather started to change as clouds swirled and countless traces of Killing Sword Intent instantly gathered.

Shing!

A hocking sword hum sounded out, piercing through countless worlds, as the massive amount of Killing Sword Intent rushed out like a heaven-toppling flood.

At that moment, the ordinary-looking young man leisurely walking in the fifth level sensed this power and froze. His expression changed as he looked backwards.

Everyone in the Cosmos Historical Remnant felt as if they were inundated by that aura, making them feel suffocated. Some people were terrified to the point that they collapsed to the ground.

The Killing Sword Intent was a supreme Sword Intent, and with the Emperor Killing Sword World's power, Zhao Fu was finally able to successfully suppress the power from the blood-red sword.

However, Zhao Fu did not like how twisted and berserk this sword was, so Zhao Fu instilled some of the Killing Sword Intent into it, hoping to weaken its legacy's power.

As the Killing Sword Intent flowed into it, the sword started to go through changes, and the sword spirit fell to the ground in pain.
