

The Lord 1311

Chapter 1311: Phoenix Lord

“Madwoman!” Zhao Fu once again cursed out, but he did not have any power to retaliate, and even his Nation Armament was forcefully suppressed.

Feng Qianghua walked over with a cold expression while saying, “You bastard, if it wasn’t for your Dragon Phoenix, This Young Empress would have killed you.

“However, you’re extremely useful to This Young Empress, so This Young Empress will still make you the Imperial Concubine. However, you will spend your entire life in the Secluded Palace, making it so that you can’t betray This Young Empress again, fixing that lustful nature of yours.

“If you beg This Young Empress, swear that you will only belong to This Young Empress, and kill your women, perhaps This Young Empress can forgive you this once.”

“Piss off!” Zhao Fu loudly said as he glared at Feng Qianghua.

Feng Qianghua was expressionless but her eyes gave off an immense coldness. “Looks like you will only prostrate yourself after experiencing some pain. Remember, you belong to This Young Empress and have no right to your own opinions.”

Boom!

Feng Qianghua stretched out a snow-white hand and grabbed at the air, causing Zhao Fu to be grabbed into the air by a formless energy. A massive amount of power slammed into him, causing him to spit out a large mouthful of blood, and a few of his bones broke.

Zhao Fu was instantly heavily injured, and his aura weakened as he powerlessly hung in the air.

Feng Qianghua felt somewhat better and smiled as she came to Zhao Fu’s side and took off his mask. She raised his chin and looked at Zhao Fu, saying, “Do you acknowledge your wrongdoings now? If you beg This Young Empress, This Young Empress will take care of you in the future. How can that slut next to you compare to This Young Empress?”

Feng Qianghua was currently using the carrot and the stick method, wanting to conquer Zhao Fu.

However, Zhao Fu coldly looked at her and grit his teeth as he said, “Stop dreaming, I’ll never become a Concubine of a woman. In the future, I’ll have you prostrate yourself at my feet.”

Hearing these words, Feng Qianghua lightly laughed and said condescendingly, “Do you know who This Young Empress is? Even an ordinary higher-being would not dare to talk to me with such a tone.”

Zhao Fu looked up and said with a trace of arrogance, “You’re just a Young Empress; do you know who this Holy Son is?”

Zhao Fu did not have any other options. He planned to first use his Divine Bloodline to scare Feng Qianghua for now. After all, a Divine Bloodline was usually connected to a Holy Empire, and even the most powerful Empires would fear them.

Hearing the way Zhao Fu referred to himself and his arrogant tone, Feng Qianghua’s expression froze, and a bad feeling welled up within her heart.

Feng Qianghua had the highest level of Sovereign Bloodline, which was essentially the most powerful bloodline in the Heaven Domain. No one else’s bloodline could surpass it, and they would at most be equal. This was the limit.

No matter what, Zhao Fu should not have been able to break through the Sovereign Bloodline level and obtain a Divine Bloodline. If it wasn’t for the Violet Sky Dragon Star awakening, nothing would have worked no matter how hard Zhao Fu tried.

Today was the first time Feng Qianghua had met someone who was disdainful of her Sovereign Bloodline, and she felt that this was ridiculous; it was like a beggar laughing at a millionaire for not having money. With Zhao Fu’s status, how could he have the qualifications to say such things?

Without Holy Empires, she had the most powerful bloodline in the world, and no one could surpass her.

Boom!

A power that surpassed that of Emperors and entered the divine realm burst forth, causing the heavens and earth to fall into panic. Zhao Fu had unleashed his Divine Bloodline, and gave off the power that belonged to the Divine Bloodline.

Feng Qianghua's expression fell; even her Sovereign Bloodline was trembling; this really was the power of a Divine Bloodline.

Thinking about that, Feng Qianghua felt quite shocked, and she could not help but take a step backwards. Her face was surprisingly pale, and it was the first time someone had made her react like this. With her status, she had heard many rumors about Holy Empires.

Seeing this, Zhao Fu naturally understood that Feng Qianghua was afraid of his Divine Bloodline, so he spoke with an even more domineering tone, "Now you know who This Holy Son is, right? It's best that you let This Holy Son off, or else the Human Phoenix Empire will not have a single person remaining."

However, Feng Qianghua suddenly laughed, "How come a Holy Son only has Stage 9 Cultivation? And even if you really are a Holy Son? If This Young Empress forcefully takes you back, makes you the Imperial Concubine, and takes your body by force and conceives your child, even your Holy Empire will not be able to do anything to my Human Phoenix Empire.

"Moreover, given This Young Empress' bloodline, identity, and status, I am not much inferior to a Holy Son. Your Holy Empire will be very pleased with this marriage.

"Now, This Young Empress is determined to have you. Before, you only made This Young Empress have some interest in you, and This Young Empress only planned to take you back and gradually develop feelings. However, This Young Empress is now determined to have you. Don't worry, This Young Empress will drown you with her love, hehehe..."

Feng Qianghua's smile and laugh were incredibly beautiful, seeming to cause everything else in the world to lose colour.

However, Zhao Fu angrily glared at Feng Qianghua; he had never thought that unleashing his Divine Bloodline would have the opposite effect. Not only was Feng Qianghua not letting him off, she was even more determined to bring him back.

Even though Lin Dapeng and Xiang Qianqian had been restricted, they could still hear everything. They looked incredibly shocked and had never thought that Zhao Fu had such a grand identity. He had a Divine Bloodline, which could cause even Emperors to feel afraid.

“Alright, dear Concubine, This Young Empress will take you back now,” Feng Qianghua said as she smiled and reached out for Zhao Fu.

Boom!

Another massive might suddenly descended, causing Feng Qianghua’s gaze to become serious. This time, she was prepared, and a similar power blasted out.

Bang!

The two formless powers clashed in the sky, resulting in an almighty explosion and bringing about a terrifying shockwave. It was evident that although Feng Qianghua was very powerful, she was far from being a match for that power. However, that power did not harm Feng Qianghua and only sent her back a few steps.

At the same time, Zhao Fu’s body regained its freedom and the restrictive power disappeared. Zhao Fu did not hesitate and once again used his Nothingness Cloak to teleport, and he disappeared.

Feng Qianghua said somewhat angrily towards the sky, “Teacher, don’t go too far. This is the Human Phoenix Empire’s personal matters, and if you keep obstructing me, This Young Empress will not hold back anymore and will ask the Phoenix Lord to act.”

A gentle voice sounded out in the sky, “Little phoenix girl, don’t try to use the Human Phoenix Empire to try to scare This Sovereign. It was that person who asked This Sovereign to come; his status is far more complicated than you can imagine, so it’s best that you act cautiously.”

Hearing this, Feng Qianghua’s expression became grave; it seemed that Zhao Fu’s identity really was not simple.

Lin Dapeng and Xiang Qianqian had their wits scared out of them. They understood that the person speaking from the sky was most likely a higher-being; just who was Zhao Fu?

Chapter 1312: Jian Yiyue

The aura in the sky disappeared, and Feng Qianghua coldly harrumphed as she looked at Lin Dapeng and Xiang Qianqian.

Lin Dapeng was given a big fright and he hurriedly explained that he did not know Zhao Fu and that he had only bumped into Zhao Fu.

There was no friendship between him and Zhao Fu, so he naturally could not help Zhao Fu. Facing Feng Qianghua, if she wanted to kill him, even his family would not dare to say anything because Feng Qianghua's identity was simply too terrifying.

Feng Qianghua then turned her gaze to Xiang Qianqian. Xiang Qianqian did not dare to hide anything, and she told her about what had happened between her and Zhao Fu before.

“What a licentious bastard; he has such abilities to seduce women.” after hearing Xiang Qianqian's explanation and looking at her damp skirt, Feng Qianghua angrily cursed before flying away.

At the same time, the power restricting the two people disappeared, and Lin Dapeng hurriedly left, not daring to stay for an extra moment.

Xiang Qianqian also left while thinking about what Zhao Fu had just done to her, causing her face to turn red and making her seem quite enticing. At the same time, she felt quite angry and unresigned, wanting Zhao Fu to ferociously do her.

Zhao Fu teleported 10,000 meters away, and before he could react, he was dragged by a formless power over to a woman who was sitting cross-legged.

This woman's looks were essentially perfect, and they were not much inferior to that of Feng Qianghua's. She had a pair of sword-like eyebrows, making her seem quite valiant. She looked somewhat like Jian Liuyue, especially the almost-corporeal sword intent that she gave off.

Before Zhao Fu could react, his body started to fall towards her, making it look like he was leaping towards her. The woman suddenly opened her eyes and a sword light shot out as a massive sword qi sent Zhao Fu flying backwards, crashing into a wall a few hundred meters away. The wall collapsed, causing Zhao Fu to cough up a large mouthful of blood.

Zhao Fu was already injured, and after taking such an immense blow, he was now hurt quite badly.

This woman was the third-ranked Jian Yiyue on the Heaven Rankings, and she had once been third-ranked on the beauty rankings. She was Jian Liuyue's older sister.

“Who are you? Why have you come to my courtyard?” Jian Yiyue coldly looked at Zhao Fu as she spoke with a voice that seemed to be filled with sword intent that could cut people's skin.

Zhao Fu inwardly cursed; how did he run into another powerful person. Zhao Fu did not know who this woman was, but sensing her aura, he could tell that she was actually slightly stronger than even Feng Qianghua.

“I apologize, I accidentally came here. I'll depart immediately.” Zhao Fu got up from the ground with great difficulty. Because he was the one who had intruded and seemingly attacked by leaping at her, he did not dare to say much.

Jian Yiyue coldly looked at Zhao Fu and did not do anything, allowing him to leave as she slowly closed her eyes.

However, Zhao Fu suddenly felt quite uncomfortable because that sword energy that had hit him was invading his body, making it seem like there was a sword cutting apart his body.

Shing!

A sword hum tore through the sky as a blood-red sword mark appeared on Zhao Fu's forehead. An incredibly terrifying, berserk and murderous black and blood-red sword intent flooded out.

Under the influence of Jian Yiyue's sword energy, the Killing Sword Intent within Zhao Fu's body went out of control, bursting out and resisting that terrifying sword energy's invasion.

Sensing this massive wave of sword intent, Jian Yiyue once again opened her eyes. Her body erupted out with a white sword intent, which rushed out to meet Zhao Fu's Killing Sword Intent.

Boom!

A muffled explosion sounded out as Zhao Fu's Killing Sword Intent was dispersed by the white sword intent. Even though Zhao Fu's Killing Sword Intent was not weak, his cultivation was pitifully low, so it was not a match for the white sword intent.

The flood-like white sword intent coldly rushed towards Zhao Fu. However, how could the Killing Sword Intent that could kill gods be taken down so easily?

Boom!

Zhao Fu's body gave off an intense black and blood-red light as he turned into a ray of powerful sword light and gave off a sharp aura and shot into the sky.

An explosion sounded out as the Emperor Killing Sword World trembled. Massive amounts of Killing Sword Intent madly gathered, causing the sky to be gradually dyed red. An enormous wave of Killing Sword Intent bringing with it world-destroying power poured down, shaking the surroundings.

The white sword intent was instantly inundated by the black and blood-red sword intent, which then surged towards Jian Yiyue like an unrestrained beast.

Jian Yiyue's expression was quite serious, and she felt a trace of fear. She did not fear the sword intent coming at her, as that kind of attack could not harm her. What she feared was the nature of the sword intent itself, which was a terrifying and extreme kind of sword intent.

Shing!

Jian Yiyue slashed out with her finger and a white arc of light containing unimaginable power slashed out, destroying the incoming black and blood-red sword intent.

By now, Zhao Fu had forcefully suppressed the Killing Sword Intent, and his expression was quite grim, as he had offended yet another powerful figure.

The Nothingness Cloak could teleport three times per day, and he had already used it twice today. Facing this kind of situation, Zhao Fu did not hesitate and used the third teleportation.

Boom!

A white sword light shot over, containing incredibly sharp power. It tore apart the space, causing Zhao Fu's teleportation to fail.

"Why are you running?" Jian Yiyue said as she coldly looked at Zhao Fu.

Those words felt quite familiar, and Zhao Fu bitterly smiled. He inwardly sighed at how unlucky he was, and he replied, "Just then this lowly one was unable to control his power. I deeply apologize!"

Jian Yiyue coldly spoke, "I can let go of that matter, but you have to tell me just who you are and how you have such terrifying sword intent. What is the name of that sword intent?"

Zhao Fu felt quite troubled because his identity and the matter of the Killing Sword Intent could not be leaked, or else it would be quite dangerous. Great Qin might even be dragged in.

Zhao Fu could only apologize and say, "I apologize, but this lowly one cannot say."

Jian Yiyue's expression did not change and she lightly nodded as she said with a tone that allowed for no negotiation, "Then you can stay here. After I've seen through your sword intent, you may leave."

"Fudge, are all the people in Emperor Path College so domineering? So annoying!" Hearing that Jian Yiyue wanted to force him to stay here, Zhao Fu could not help but inwardly curse. How could Zhao Fu's Killing Sword Intent be something that could be seen through easily? Didn't that mean he would have to stay here forever?

Chapter 1313: Battle of Two Beauties

Even though Zhao Fu felt quite angry, he could only endure it, because this person was slightly stronger than even Feng Qianghua, and it would be even easier for her to kill him.

As such, Zhao Fu could only try to compromise, “If Your Ladyship is interested in this sword intent, this lowly one can leave it behind for Your Ladyship to observe.”

Jian Yiyue coldly looked at Zhao Fu and asked, “Leaving behind some sword intent and leaving behind the source; which do you think I will choose?”

Zhao Fu’s heart sank; anyone would choose the source of the sword intent because this would make it easier to comprehend, and perhaps they would even be able to obtain it. Wouldn’t that mean he would be stuck here forever? His life might even be in danger.

“What do I do?” Zhao Fu desperately thought as to how he could escape. He now regretted coming to visit Emperor Path College.

“You licentious bastard, did you think you could escape from This Young Empress?” Golden light filled the sky and countless phoenix images flew about as Feng Qianghua appeared in the sky, giving off a powerful aura.

Zhao Fu’s heart completely sank; he had never thought that he would be found by Feng Qianghua again so quickly. He could not even get away from Jian Yiyue, and now there was Feng Qianghua. Zhao Fu felt that he was going to die here.

Jian Yiyue looked up, and seeing Feng Qianghua come, her expression became serious as she said coldly, “Feng Qianghua, this is my courtyard; please leave.”

Feng Qianghua coldly harrumphed and pointed at Zhao Fu, saying, “This Young Empress did not want to come to your courtyard either; I’m here to take away this licentious bastard.”

Hearing Feng Qianghua continuously call him a licentious bastard, Zhao Fu felt quite displeasd.

Jian Yiyue’s beautiful eyes looked at Feng Qianghua and she said calmly, “Everything in my courtyard belongs to me, him included. Do you really think you can take away something that belongs to me?”

Feng Qianghua’s gaze was cold and there was a trace of fury in her voice as she said, “Jian Yiyue, no matter what, This Young Empress is determined to take him away. He’s going to be the Imperial Concubine of the Human Phoenix Empire in the future. It's best for you to not fight with This Young Empress over him."

Jian Yiyue felt quite surprised and looked at Zhao Fu. Even though she was slightly stronger than Feng Qianghua, the faction behind Feng Qianghua, the Human Phoenix Empire, was somewhat stronger than the Sword Sect. Feng Qianghua was currently using the Human Phoenix Empire to threaten her.

However, how could Jian Yiyue be so willing to give in? The sword intent within Zhao Fu's body could be of even higher grade than hers, and if she could comprehend it or obtain it, it would bring her unimaginable benefits and she might even surpass the first-ranked Di Junwang.

Now that such a massive opportunity had presented itself to Jian Yiyue, how could she give up on it?

"I already said that everything in my courtyard belongs to me, and no one can take anything away," Jian Yiyue said as she looked at Feng Qianghua, not backing down at all.

Zhao Fu felt quite nervous as he watched these two incredibly domineering women face off against each other, and he tried to think of how to escape.

"Skreee!" A massive phoenix cry sounded out as an enormous golden phoenix appeared behind Feng Qianghua, giving off an enormous aura that shook the surroundings. Feng Qianghua grabbed at the air, and the golden phoenix turned into a long and slim golden saber.

"Jian Yiyue, we haven't fought in a while. Today, This Young Empress wants to see if you can maintain your third-ranked position!"

Boom!

Boom!

Jian Yiyue expressionlessly drew a white sword, and a corporeal sword intent spread out. She turned into a white ray of light and gave off an incredibly sharp aura as she met the incoming golden ray of light.

Bang!

A shocking explosion sounded out as the two rays of light slammed together with incredible power. An incredibly destructive shockwave blasted out, obliterating countless clouds in the sky and causing thin cracks to appear.

The destructive aura flooded out in all directions, bringing with it an icy coldness. The expressions of everyone nearby fell because they could feel their souls trembling due to that aura.

The battle between two experts beyond the Emperor Heaven Realm was naturally incredibly terrifying, causing the weather to change and for the sun and moon to dim; it was like an enormous catastrophe.

Zhao Fu hid far away, but he did not dare to run. Even though the two people were fighting, they were both locked onto Zhao Fu. If he tried to run, both of them would attack him, and he would not have any hope left.

As the two people started to fight, more than half of the people in Emperor Path College sensed this. Looking at the abnormal signs far away, they did not understand what was going on.

Some people were curious and started to head over. Finally, someone found out what was happening and the news quickly spread.

“What? Jian Yiyue and Feng Qianghua were fighting over a man? And so intensely at that? How is that possible?”

Whether it was Jian Yiyue or Feng Qianghua, both of them were peerless beauties, and also had terrifying strength. Their identities were even more terrifying, and there were countless people who wanted to pursue them.

Hearing that they were fighting over a man, none of them could believe such a thing.

If it was said that it was due to some small disagreement, everyone would believe it, but they would not believe that they were fighting over a man. This was simply impossible; how could people be spreading such a stupid rumor?

However, even though not many people believed this stupid rumor, because the two of them were fighting, many people headed over in curiosity.

However, what shocked them was that the rumours were actually true – they were indeed fighting over a man. Moreover, Feng Qianghua had personally declared that that man would be her Imperial Concubine. Now, Jian Yiyue wanted to take him for herself.

The sounds of countless people's hearts shattering could be heard, and they all felt incredible jealousy and hatred towards that man, wanting to reduce him to dust.

Boom!

In the end, the terrifying battle between the two people forced a higher-being to act. An enormous power instantly restricted the two people fighting in the sky.

A middle-aged man with a square-shaped face and wearing a black robe appeared, chiding them, "What's going on with you two? Don't you know that Emperor Path College forbids personal battles? And yet you two dare to fight so openly."

Zhao Fu was incredibly delighted because his chance had finally come. Now that those two women had been restricted by a higher-being, they naturally could not do anything to Zhao Fu. As such, Zhao Fu immediately activated his Nothingness Cloak and disappeared.

However, just as Zhao Fu reappeared beside a fountain, he heard the sounds of countless men raggedly breathing.

Chapter 1314: Male Qi

Zhao Fu looked over and saw a group of beautiful men engaged in an orgy. Looking at how pleasurable and delighted they seemed, Zhao Fu was quite shocked; it was the first time he had seen such a scene.

However, this seemed to be another person's personal territory, and Zhao Fu did not want to get involved; he only wanted to quickly leave.

He had used the Nothingness Cloak three times already, so he would have to rely on himself from now on. While no one had noticed him, Zhao Fu started to sneak away.

Bang!

A muffled sound rang out, and before he could react, he was pushed to the ground by a person. His hands were held down on the ground by the other person's hands above his head.

This person had a beautiful-looking face and a pair of violet devilish-looking eyes. He had long, jet-black hair and he was not wearing anything on his upper body. His figure was quite slim and fit, and all of his muscles were well-proportioned, not looking exaggerated or weak. An intense manly aura flowed out.

Zhao Fu immediately started to struggle, but he could not break free because this person was an Emperor Heaven Realm expert, and his power completely suppressed Zhao Fu's.

"Fudge, why is it another powerful person? I'm finished." Zhao Fu inwardly cursed. Why did he have to teleport here and why did everyone he meet have to be so strong? How was he meant to get out of here alive? This was hell for weaklings.

There was also something wrong with the position he was in, as well as the look in the man's eyes. The beautiful-looking man pressing down on him was looking at his handsome face affectionately, and he gave a wickedly charming smile as he sighed, "You're so good-looking!"

Hearing those words and hearing the moans of the other men around him, Zhao Fu's heart sank and he had a bad feeling.

Zhao Fu did not want to continue thinking, and he hurriedly said, "This lowly one unintentionally intruded. Please let this lowly one leave."

The beautiful-looking man lightly laughed and said, “Why are you in such a hurry to leave? This Prince likes you, so you can stay here with This Prince. This Prince will give you everything you want, so be This Prince’s beloved, alright?”

Hearing these loving words, Zhao Fu felt goosebumps all over his body. He felt that this was incredibly wrong, and he said, “This lowly one isn’t interested in men; it’s best that you find someone else.”

The beautiful-looking man gave a gentle smile as he said, “That’s alright, This Prince will make you like This Prince. With such peerlessly handsome looks, and that noble and intoxicating aura, if This Prince lets you go, This Prince will regret it for the rest of his life.

“Women, those vulgar creatures, are naturally not good enough for you. Meeting This Prince was definitely fate’s plan for you; This Prince will love you his entire life.”

Most women who heard such endearing words, combined with the beautiful-looking man’s looks, would definitely fall for him.

However, Zhao Fu was a heterosexual male, and not only did he not feel touched, but he also felt quite disgusted.

If he knew that this would happen, he would have chosen to stay at Jian Yiyue’s courtyard and allowed her to comprehend his sword intent. At the very least, he would have preferred to go with Feng Qianghua; at least she was a woman.

“Beloved, your hubby can’t wait anymore.” The beautiful-looking man looked into Zhao Fu’s eyes and smiled as he lowered his lips towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu was given a big fright and he hurriedly said, “Wait, I’m Feng Qianghua’s man and am someone Jian Yiyue needs as well. You can’t do anything to me, or else they won’t let you off.”

Zhao Fu did not have any other option but to bring up those two because their cultivations were higher than this man’s. They would definitely be able to suppress him, making it so that he would not dare to do anything to him.

Hearing Feng Qianghua and Jian Yiyue’s names, the beautiful-looking man paused and mumbled, “So it’s someone they want as well; no wonder This Prince was so moved.”

Zhao Fu let out a sigh of relief; it seemed that the beautiful-looking man was wary of those two and would not do anything to him.

“Hahaha...” the beautiful-looking man looked at Zhao Fu and laughed, “Beloved, do you really think This Prince will let you go? Even if you’re someone both of them want, that just proves that This Prince has good taste. This Prince is determined to have you!”

“Now, This Prince is going to eat you up; even if they come later, they won’t be able to do anything to This Prince. Even though they’re slightly stronger than This Prince, This Prince is not afraid of them.”

Hearing these words, Zhao Fu’s heart completely sank. He used all of his strength to struggle, wanting to break free from the beautiful-looking man’s hands.

The beautiful-looking man gave a devilish smile and his body gave off countless traces of violet qi that flowed into Zhao Fu’s body, causing Zhao Fu’s breathing to become erratic. His body heated up and his face became red as his eyes became hazy.

“Beloved, enjoy yourself! No man can resist This Prince’s Violet Desire Male Qi,” the beautiful-looking man said as he lowered himself towards Zhao Fu.

Elsewhere, Feng Qianghua and Jian Yiyu were restricted by a higher-being, and because of the battle just then, both of them furiously glared at each other. However, when they sensed that Zhao Fu had disappeared, their expressions fell. They wanted to stop him but were unable to.

“Teacher, hurry and release me!” The two of them spoke simultaneously as they cried out to that black-robed man.

The black-robed man felt quite startled and could not understand why they seemed to be in such a hurry. However, he did not release them, and coldly harrumphed as he said, “First, explain why you would publicly fight within Emperor Path College. Otherwise, despite your identities, you’ll be punished.”

Feng Qianghua angrily glared at Jian Yiyue and said, “It was Jian Yiyue who wanted to steal This Young Empress’ man; she’s shameless and vile to the extreme, forcing This Young Empress to act.”

Jian Yiyue coldly harrumphed, “Does he acknowledge that he’s yours? He intruded into my courtyard, making him mine. It seems like it was you who was trying to steal him.”

“What a joke! This Young Empress long since announced that he would be This Young Empress’ Imperial Concubine; if you don’t believe it, you can go and ask anyone. Even if he doesn’t belong to This Young Empress, I’ll take him for myself,” Feng Qianghua said loudly.

Jian Yiyue coldly replied, “I don’t care, you can blame him for intruding into my courtyard. Anything that enters my courtyard is mine.”

Feng Qianghua was furious, and just as she was about to say something, the black-robed man cut in, “Enough, the two of you were actually fighting like this over a man; aren’t you afraid of losing face for your factions? And think about your identities; aren’t you afraid of people laughing at you?”

“Both of you go to the Enforcement Hall, face the wall for a few days, and have your cultivation sealed for half a month as punishment.”

Chapter 1315: Ziyun

Hearing that they had to face the wall for a few days and have their cultivations sealed for half a month, Feng Qianghua and Jian Yiyue’s expressions fell. By then, Zhao Fu would have long since run away, and if he ran away, with how big the world was, how would they find him again? This was unacceptable.

It had already been a while, and perhaps Zhao Fu had escaped Emperor Path College by now. They did not know that Zhao Fu had been unlucky enough to intrude into another place and was being pressed down on by a man.

Feng Qianghua was in a great rush and refused, saying, “I can’t do that, teacher! That man is incredibly important to This Young Empress. This Young Empress can accept being punished, but please allow This Young Empress to capture that man. The Human Phoenix Empire will also fully support This Young Empress’ decision.”

Zhao Fu had the highest grade of Dragon Phoenix, as well as a terrifying Divine Bloodline. Just those two things alone would make it so that no matter what she did, the Empress would not blame her and would fully support her. She would even bring people in from the Human Phoenix Empire to suppress the black-robed man.

“I’m the same! I’m willing to accept the punishment, but please let me capture that man. The Sword Sect will also support this decision,” Jian Yiyue said. The terrifying sword intent that Zhao Fu gave off was something desired greatly, and could lead to massive changes within herself.

Hearing the two women use their factions to threaten him, the black-robed man felt furious. Only factions like theirs would dare to talk to a higher-being like this, and he said, “Don’t try to use your factions to threaten This Sovereign; Emperor Path College isn’t a place where you can do whatever you want. Go and receive your punishment.”

Hearing this, Feng Qianghua and Jian Yiyue felt incredibly panicked and they tried to struggle, while the middle-aged man prepared to take them to the Enforcement Hall.

“Wait, brother Li.” A white-robed, handsome-looking young man appeared. The aura he gave off was also quite terrifying, and he was another higher-being level figure.

Hearing his voice, the middle-aged man paused and he looked at the handsome young man as he asked, “What is it?”

The handsome young man lightly laughed as he said, “Look how angry and worried they look; maybe that young man really is incredibly important to them. This Sovereign also wants to see what kind of man he is for two peerless women like them to be like this.”

The middle-aged man looked at the restricted Jian Yiyue and Feng Qianghua. In order to capture Zhao Fu, Jian Yiyue and Feng Qianghua could only give in and bow as they said, “Please let us off this time, teacher.”

Hearing this, the black-robed man felt much less angry and said, “Make sure you’re more careful next time!”

He waved his hand and the power binding the two people disappeared.

The instant Feng Qianghua and Jian Yiyue’s power returned, they immediately disappeared to find Zhao Fu. The people in the surroundings also rushed off to look for Zhao Fu, wanting to see just what sort of man could cause Feng Qianghua and Jian Yiyue to act like this.

However, even without thinking about it, they knew that he would definitely be an incredibly shocking and peerless man for two female geniuses to act like this.

Now, it could be said that half Emperor Path College was hunting for Zhao Fu. When many people heard about this and the other matters, they all looked incredibly shocked and wondered when such a terrifying figure had come to Emperor Path College.

Elsewhere, the beautiful-looking man lowered himself down, about to kiss Zhao Fu and do even more indescribable things.

Zhao Fu, whose breathing was erratic and body had heated up, suddenly returned to normal. The Six Desires Demonic Qi within his body absorbed the beautiful-looking man's Violet Desire Male Qi, allowing him to use the Six Desires Demonic Qi's power.

Just as the beautiful-looking man was about to kiss Zhao Fu, Zhao Fu exploded out with the Six Desires Demonic Qi, which flooded into the beautiful-looking man's body in a berserk manner.

The beautiful-looking man was shocked and had never thought that Zhao Fu would break free. He was caught off-guard and was defenseless, allowing the Six Desires Demonic Qi to flow into his body.

The beautiful-looking man immediately used his Emperor Heaven Realm power to suppress the Six Desires Demonic Qi, but he could not get rid of it quickly, causing his expression to become somewhat unsightly.

Swish!

Zhao Fu's body suddenly erupted with yellow light as he turned into a ray of light and shot into the ground. The beautiful-looking man felt that things were bad, and he grabbed towards the ground, sending a massive wave of energy and grabbing out six figures.

They all looked the same as Zhao Fu and they had the same auras as well. After being grabbed out, they turned into golems; Zhao Fu had used the Golem Clones.

After escaping from the beautiful-looking man, Zhao Fu quickly ran away, wanting to get away from this place.

The beautiful-looking man sat on the ground and used his Emperor Heaven Realm power to dispel the Six Desires Demonic Qi. The beautiful-looking man was quite curious about that power, as it had suppressed his Violet Desire Male Qi.

“Hahaha...” Thinking to Zhao Fu, the beautiful-looking man lightly laughed and found that he was becoming more and more interested in Zhao Fu. He turned and looked at the men engaged in the orgy and said, “Haven’t you had enough yet? Hurry up and help This Prince find his beloved.”

The group of men stopped and laughed as they said, “Alright, but after finding him, you better not just focus on him!”

Following this, the group of men put on their clothes and left.

News of the beautiful-looking man searching for Zhao Fu also spread out. After hearing about this, everyone felt quite shocked; how come Prince Ziyun was also looking for him? What had happened?

However, hearing that the man was abnormally handsome, given Prince Ziyun’s interests, it made sense that he would have interest in him and want to do indescribable things to him. Any fujoshi’s heart would speed up upon thinking about it.

However, hearing that Zhao Fu had been at Prince Ziyun’s place, Feng Qianghua and Jian Yiyue’s expressions fell, and they had a bad feeling. They looked for Zhao Fu even more quickly and mobilized others to look for Zhao Fu, offering massive rewards.

Emperor Path College became incredibly lively all because of Zhao Fu.

After hearing that so many people were after him, Zhao Fu naturally ran about nervously. None of them were people he could resist; there were simply too many experts in Emperor Path College.

Also, why was Emperor Path College so big? And where was the exit? Zhao Fu felt like a headless fly randomly flying about. He could not find a clear path, and he could not help but feel worried. If he went on like this, he would definitely be captured.

“Hey, look at that person. Doesn’t he look like the person everyone’s looking for?” a person pointed at Zhao Fu and said to the people around them.

Hearing this, Zhao Fu immediately ran, and everyone else felt that something was off and quickly flew towards him.

In the end, Zhao Fu was barely able to lose them, but he unintentionally came to another place.

Chapter 1316: Old Monster

This place was about 1,000 meters wide and the ground was made out of black bricks. There was a massive black magic formation at the center, which gave off an intense demonic light, and there was a tall wall surrounding here.

There was an incredibly powerful restriction here. It did not seem to obstruct Zhao Fu, but it blocked everyone else outside. This allowed Zhao Fu to avoid his pursuers for now.

This place had massive amounts of demonic qi, which felt quite cold and evil. At a glance, Zhao Fu could tell it was not a good place, and Zhao Fu did not want to continue making trouble and planned to quickly leave.

“Come over here!” An enormous will flowed into Zhao Fu’s head, causing his body to walk towards the black magic formation without his control.

Zhao Fu was quite shocked and inwardly cursed. He had come to another place that he shouldn’t be in, and that massive will was something that he could not resist.

“Sir, this lowly one unintentionally intruded; please allow this lowly one to leave.” By now, Zhao Fu had lost count of how many times he had said such a thing; how come all of Emperor Path College was so dangerous? Moreover, everyone he encountered was so domineering. Facing this massive will, Zhao Fu could not help but feel afraid and nervous.

This sort of will was something that only a higher-being could give off, making it so that Zhao Fu could not resist at all, so he could only cry out.

“Hmph! Allow you to leave? You must be dreaming. This Old Man sensed that your bloodline is a Divine Bloodline. Not only do you have a terrifying bloodline, but you also have some even more terrifying powers within your body. This Old Man is going to refine you into a clone.”

An eerie and twisted voice of an old man sounded out. Only now did Zhao Fu realize that the magic formation was a sealing formation, which sealed an incredibly terrifying old monster.

“What’s with this crappy College? It has such a powerful old monster sealed here; can’t they tighten the security around it? Set up some more restrictions around it. How can they allow anyone to just enter here?” Zhao Fu felt quite angry and quite unlucky; how could he have come to another place like this? Moreover, his life was yet again in danger. At this point, Zhao Fu did not want to come to Emperor Path College again.

Zhao Fu’s body reached the center of the black magic formation without his control and he sat down cross-legged. The black magic formation started to spin as a massive demonic might spread out, causing the surrounding space to seem to space.

The demonic qi in the surroundings started to madly gather, and thick demonic clouds covered the entire sky. Low rumblings to thunder sounded out within the clouds as black clouds giving off lightning appeared. They gave off immense might as they pressed down, making it difficult for people to breathe.

The dark and evil demonic qi caused the temperature to rapidly plummet, making it seem like it was winter, and it gave off an incredibly terrifying feeling.

The abnormal signs from here spread throughout all of Emperor Path College. Sensing this terrifying demonic intent, countless teachers and students’ expressions fell as they hurried over.

By now, many people had gathered here as they looked up at the terrifying abnormal signs in the sky. This included Feng Qianghua and Jian Yiyue.

“Did you personally see him enter here?” Feng Qianghua asked a group of people coldly with a serious expression.

One person nodded in fear and said, “We saw him go in with our own eyes, but we were blocked by a restriction when we tried to follow him.”

“How can someone enter that place?” Jian Yiyue said as she frowned. She could not understand because even though that place looked quite ordinary, there were powerful restrictions there and no one had entered before. She had never heard of such a thing before.

“What? This Prince’s beloved is trapped in there?” A beautiful-looking young man in violet appeared, looking quite worried as he looked into the restriction.

Hearing these words, Feng Qianghua felt quite displeased, and she looked at Prince Ziyun as she said, “Ziyun, he is This Young Empress’ Imperial Concubine, so you’d best not have any thoughts. Otherwise, don’t blame This Young Empress for not showing any courtesy.”

Shing!

A massive sword hum sounded out as Jian Yiyue slashed out, causing a massive sword light to fly towards the restriction. However, the restriction was completely unaffected.

Feng Qianghua also vigorously slashed out with her saber. A massive saber light bringing with it a ferocious saber wind slashed out, seeming like it could destroy everything. However, when it struck against the restriction, it seemed like cotton hitting against a steel wall, and there was no reaction at all.

Both Jian Yiyue and Feng Qianghua had power that surpassed the Emperor Heaven Realm, yet they were unable to shake the restriction at all; this showed just how terrifying the restriction was.

If even they could not shake it, Prince Ziyun definitely would not be able to. He ignored Feng Qianghua’s words and said to the people next to him, “Hurry and call teacher! This isn’t something students can destroy.”

Just as he finished speaking, the black-robed middle-aged man and the handsome-looking young man from before appeared with serious expressions.

Seeing them appear, Feng Qianghua looked delighted and said, “Teachers, please open the restriction and rescue This Young Empress’ Imperial Concubine; This Young Empress will be greatly indebted to you.”

The handsome-looking young man shook his head with a grim expression, “This Sovereign cannot open the restriction here either. The restriction here was set down by the old Chancellor?”

Hearing this, everyone gasped. Even though they had never met that mysterious old Chancellor, they knew that he was half a step into the Celestial realm.

A restriction set down by him could not be broken by ordinary higher-beings. After all, at that level, he already had some Celestial power that belonged to true Celestials.

Looking at the ripples coming from within the restriction, it was evident that something terrifying was happening inside. However, since the restriction could not be opened, did that mean Zhao Fu might die inside?

Feng Qianghua and the others felt quite worried, as well as pained and helpless. A person so important to them might die inside so easily; it was such a waste.

Zhao Fu sat cross-legged at the center of the black magic formation and he felt quite terrified. He tried to use all sorts of methods to break free of that will’s control, but none of them were effective. Could it be that he really was going to die here?

Boom!

An enormous wave of demonic power erupted out of the ground like a volcanic eruption, and a pillar of black light shot into the sky, causing the sky to tremble. Countless traces of demonic qi flowed into Zhao Fu’s body through the pillar of light.

The massive amount of demonic power also madly flooded into Zhao Fu’s body.

“Boy, is it painful to have demonic qi invade your body? Soon, you will become This Old Man’s puppet clone; this is your glory,” the eerie and twisted voice sounded out in Zhao Fu’s mind, accompanied by a wicked laugh.

However, Zhao Fu was quite startled. The demonic qi and demonic power flowing into his body did not cause him any pain, and instead felt quite comfortable, as if he was taking a bath. Zhao Fu did not know if it was because he had eaten the Demon Primogenitor finger or because he had fused with a Demon God Divinity.

Chapter 1317: Evil Spirit Abyss Flower

“Old man, are you sure you’re not doing something wrong? It doesn’t feel painful at all. Instead, it feels quite comfortable.” Now that Zhao Fu knew that the old man was not going to let him off and wanted to kill him, Zhao Fu’s tone was no longer courteous, and he was instead mocking him.

This caused the old monster to feel quite furious, and he exploded out with even more intense demonic qi that berserkly flooded into Zhao Fu’s body. He no longer wasted any words with Zhao Fu and focused on refining Zhao Fu into a puppet clone.

The sky was affected by the old monster, and demonic power poured down, entering Zhao Fu’s body.

Shockwaves continuously rippled out from here, each one more powerful than the previous one. The terrifying power caused countless people’s hands and feet to feel cold, and their bodies uncontrollably shivered as they felt immense terror.

Jian Yiyue and the others had grim expressions. From these shockwaves, it seemed that Zhao Fu’s chances of surviving were quite low, and he might already be dead.

A wave of demonic qi flowed into Zhao Fu’s body from below while another flowed into him from above. Even though the demonic qi was incredibly ferocious and seemed quite terrifying, after entering Zhao Fu’s body, it became abnormally gentle and gave Zhao Fu a comfortable feeling.

“Old man, how come you’re so trash? I don’t feel any pain at all, and it feels great! Don’t tell me you’re too weak, wanting to use this bit of power to try to take over my body?” Zhao Fu continued to mock.

By now, the old monster sensed that something was off and quickly tried to stop, but he found that he could not stop. It was not because of Zhao Fu but because of the magic formation.

The old monster thought of something and cursed angrily, “Jiulou, you plotted against This Old Man. If This Old Man makes it out, I’ll definitely make you suffer a terrible end.”

Hearing the old monster's cursing, he felt that the situation was different than what he expected. However, given that they were enemies, the angrier the old monster was, the more pleased Zhao Fu was.

In an underground space, there was a bald-headed old man whose skin looked like plant matter. His hands continuously performed hand seals, wanting to stop his power from leaking out. It was as if someone had cut open a hole in his body and his power was forcefully being sucked out.

Seeing that there was no way to stop this, the old man's expression became savage and he tried to use his will to kill Zhao Fu to prevent anything unexpected from happening.

Boom!

The magic formation on the ground rapidly spun to the point that it could not be seen by the naked eye. A massive amount of power blasted onto the old man's body, causing it to tremble. He coughed up a mouthful of blood and he fell onto the ground.

A formless hand grabbed the old man's body, sucking out traces of blood from his body. The old man's face instantly became pale and despite how much he struggled, he could not break free at all.

The traces of blood floated upwards and floated out of the black magic formation and entered Zhao Fu's body. Now, Zhao Fu's body felt a sting of pain. However, this pain was not very strong and subsided after a short while.

However, Zhao Fu now felt a burning sensation in his throat as a black flower appeared there. This black flower was completely black and looked somewhat like a rose, and it gave off an intense demonic qi.

What was shocking was that on every black petal, there were countless bewitching demon women dancing. The black flower also had a bewitching effect that could easily control other people's souls.

This was one of the world's Seven Wondrous Flowers, the 'Evil Spirit Abyss Flower!'

After the Evil Spirit Abyss Flower appeared in Zhao Fu's throat, the black magic formation on the ground gradually stopped, and the demonic qi in the surroundings disappeared, as did the abnormal signs. The old man in the underground space fell unconscious and seemed much weaker.

Zhao Fu regained control of his body, but looking at the large number of people outside the restriction, he could not help but gulp in shock. There was an ocean of people outside, and it would be impossible for him to escape.

There was Jian Yiyue, Feng Qianghua, Prince Ziyun, and two higher-beings. Zhao Fu could not resist any of them. After having survived this ordeal, Zhao Fu had been quite happy, but after looking outside, those feelings immediately disappeared.

After the demonic qi within the restriction disappeared, everyone could see inside the restriction and felt quite shocked to see that Zhao Fu was unharmed.

Feng Qianghua let out a sigh of relief and smiled as she said, "Husband, hurry up and come out; I'll take you back to the Human Phoenix Empire."

Hearing how affectionately Feng Qianghua called out to Zhao Fu, even calling him husband, everyone's hearts became numb and felt immense admiration. Many furious and envious gazes fell onto Zhao Fu's body.

If looks could kill, Zhao Fu would have died over 100,000 times, and there would be nothing remaining.

After hearing this, Zhao Fu felt goosebumps all over his body and he felt quite disgusted. He remembered how she had treated him, and seeing that they could not come in, he let out a sigh of relief.

Jian Yiyue said coldly, "Come out and come back with me to the Sword Sect. I promise I won't harm you and there won't be anyone who will be able to harm you."

Prince Ziyun also shouted loudly, "Beloved, you should know how This Prince feels towards you; I'm definitely more devoted than those two. This Prince will also do his best to protect you and won't let anyone harm you."

Those words caused countless people to feel quite disgusted, and they imagined that something definitely had happened between them.

Now, Zhao Fu faced three choices, none of which were good. The best out of them was choosing Jian Yiyue, as he would not have to give up his body.

“Cough, cough!” The handsome-looking young man in white saw the Evil Spirit Abyss Flower in Zhao Fu’s throat and lightly coughed before saying, “This young man is connected to Emperor Path College by destiny, how about joining Emperor Path College? This Sovereign has the authority to make this decision, and you can join without passing the examination as a special student.”

This immediately sent the surroundings into an uproar. It was not just Feng Qianghua and the others who wanted this man, even Emperor Path College’s higher-beings personally invited him to join Emperor Path College. This was incredibly rare, and anyone who wasn’t present would not believe such a thing.

Feng Qianghua and the others’ faces became pale; they had never thought that Emperor Path College would get involved as well. The situation had become quite complicated, and they had no idea how Zhao Fu would choose.

There were three people within the crowd who were incredibly shocked. The first was Zang Mingyue – he recognized Zhao Fu and had never thought that they would meet again here. He told Zang Wuyue about this, causing Zang Wuyue to feel quite shocked as well.

Now that this person had received invitations from Emperor Path College, Human Phoenix Empire, and Sword Sect, all of which were more powerful than their own faction, they understood why Zhao Fu had such powerful Heaven’s Secrets and why he had the Emperor Killer Curse. Everything had a reason.

The third person was naturally Bai Haoran. It was the first time he felt such despair in his heart, due to being left so far behind. No matter where it was, that person was extraordinary and shined like a brilliant sun.

Chapter 1318: Evil Spirit Abyss Flower Blooms

Zhao Fu felt quite surprised and also quite delighted; he had never thought that the higher-being from Emperor Path College would say such a thing. Out of all of the choices, Emperor Path College was undoubtedly the best choice. He would not sacrifice anything and would not be restricted.

Moreover, he would not have to pass the examination and would be a special student. This would allow him to enter Emperor Path College ahead of time, and he would not have to wait until next year. This would save him a lot of trouble.

This was a stroke of good luck, and after thinking about it, Zhao Fu prepared to agree.

Feng Qianghua could tell what Zhao Fu was thinking. If he joined Emperor Path College, she would not have the ability to snatch him, so she immediately said, “Husband, if you choose the Human Phoenix Empire, you can immediately become the Imperial Concubine and wield great power. This is something countless people can only dream of, but you can obtain it easily. Moreover, This Young Empress promises that you will be my only man.”

Jian Yiyue also understood that Zhao Fu would choose the Emperor Path College, so after hearing Feng Qianghua give that offer, she also said, “You possess a terrifying sword intent, and if you don’t become a Sword Cultivator, that will be too much of a pity. If you choose the Sword Sect, I can ask the Sect Master to choose you as his Legacy Disciple. No one will dare to touch you.”

Hearing the two others give such good conditions, Prince Ziyun hurriedly cried out, “Beloved, if you choose This Prince, everything This Prince has will be yours. Trust This Prince; there’s no one in this world who will love you more than This Prince.”

Hearing these words, Zhao Fu hesitated. Jian Yiyue’s offer was quite tempting, but the two others’ offers were not even worth thinking about.

The handsome-looking young man slightly frowned as he said, “If you choose Emperor Path College, you will not only be a special student, but This Sovereign will also take you as a disciple and help you experience the Great Dao of Heaven and Earth.”

This caused countless people to cry out because becoming the disciple of a higher-being was something that countless people could only dream about. What’s more, a higher-being was taking the initiative.

Zhao Fu felt quite startled; this option was clearly better. Thinking about having a higher-being protecting him and providing unimaginable benefits, Zhao Fu felt quite tempted. However, it seemed that the higher-being did not truly want to take him as a disciple and had other goals. This caused Zhao Fu to hesitate.

Suddenly, Zhao Fu's body trembled and he started to disappear, causing everyone outside to look quite shocked. Only then did they realize that Zhao Fu had only come here through a projection.

Following this, everyone could only watch on as Zhao Fu gradually faded, and because of the restriction blocking them, there was nothing they could do about this.

However, what was good was that Zhao Fu had not been able to make a decision, so he did not belong to any faction. This meant that they still had an opportunity to obtain Zhao Fu.

Within a splendid palace, a noble and beautiful middle-aged woman giving off a dense Empress' domineeringness sat on a phoenix throne and read through imperial memorials with a serious expression.

"Imperial Mother!" Feng Qianghua came in from outside and called out unhappily.

The beautiful woman lightly laughed and looked at Feng Qianghua as she said, "Who made my daughter unhappy? Was it that man? To be able to make my daughter willingly call him husband, he's quite impressive."

This beautiful woman was naturally Feng Qianghua's mother, the Empress of the Human Phoenix Empire. She was called Feng Qianhuang and had higher-being level power.

She had heard about what had happened at Emperor Path College and was quite shocked at Feng Qianghua publicly announcing that a man would be her Imperial Concubine. She could not understand why her daughter would do such a thing.

Feng Qianghua's face became slightly red as she said, "Imperial Mother, if it wasn't for the fact that he has the highest grade of Dragon Phoenix and a Divine Bloodline, I wouldn't be interested in him!"

"Highest grade of Dragon Phoenix? Divine Bloodline?" Those two things caused the beautiful woman to feel quite shocked and her expression instantly became serious. Ordinarily, Dragon Phoenixes were incredibly rare while the highest grade of Dragon Phoenixes were like legends.

If Feng Qianghua had the highest grade of Dragon Phoenix supporting her, after ascending to the throne, there would be massive benefits for both her and the entire Human Phoenix Empire. It would be tens, if not hundreds, of times more useful than ordinary Phoenix Qi.

Just this was enough to make her incredibly shocked. When she heard of the Divine Bloodline, she became serious.

With the Human Phoenix Empire's strength, it ranked in the top few factions of the Human Race. However, against a Holy Empire, it would be incredibly wary. It was not just the Human Phoenix Empire; all factions would take Holy Empires incredibly seriously.

Divine Bloodlines were something that only the Holy Sons of Holy Empires would have, and they reigned above countless Sovereign Bloodlines. Feng Qianhuang could not help but take this seriously.

"Qianghua! Tell me in detail just what happened." Feng Qianghua expected her mother to act in such a way because a Divine Bloodline was an extraordinary matter, so she told her mother everything.

"This fellow's quite interesting. He only has Stage 9 Cultivation and yet he dares to run over to Emperor Path College and cause so many things. He even caused Emperor Path College to break precedent and want to take him in as a special student. If I met this sort of amazing man, I would also want him as my Imperial Concubine." After hearing Feng Qianghua out, Feng Qianhuang lightly laughed, and her beautiful smile was incredibly radiant, not inferior to Feng Qianghua's at all.

Feng Qianghua lightly harrumphed and said, "Imperial Mother, I'm planning to use the Human Phoenix Empire's power to find him at all costs."

"Mm, I give you permission. However, you have to be careful and try not to hurt him. It's possible that his background is quite complicated," Feng Qianhuang lightly nodded as she reminded Feng Qianghua.

Feng Qianghua smiled and nodded. She thought of something and asked, "Also, Imperial Mother, that man intruded into the Demon Land and an Evil Spirit Abyss Flower appeared in his throat; what does that mean?"

Feng Qianhuang knew about this, and she replied, "It's a kind of legacy, but it's a legacy of power that was taken by force. That's most likely why Emperor Path College's Chancellor sealed that old monster in there. However, it was actually obtained by an outsider. In order to keep that power, the higher-being tried to recruit him as a special student."

“Is that power very terrifying?” Hearing this, Feng Qianhua asked in curiosity.

Feng Qianhua smiled as she nodded, “That old monster’s original body was the first Evil Spirit Abyss Flower, and it has a terrifying power. No one below the Half-Step Celestial realm can suppress him. There’s a prophecy in the Demon World: The Evil Spirit flower booms, Demonic Qi becomes chaotic; ten thousand Demons slay each other, a disaster for the Demon Domain.”

“After you bring him back, make sure you treat him well; his potential is definitely no lower than yours. Do you understand?”

Feng Qianhua smiled and nodded. She then went to mobilize the Human Phoenix Empire’s full force to search for Zhao Fu.

This caused countless people to feel incredibly shocked; even the powerful Human Phoenix Empire was going all out to find a man. It was the first time anyone had seen the Human Phoenix Empire acting like this, and they all felt quite curious about the man the Human Phoenix Empire was searching for.

Chapter 1319: Jian Tianye

Within an impressive but unadorned hall in the Sword Sect, a young man in white clothes and with a coldly handsome face and a powerful sword aura said, “Yiyue, did you really go all-out and fight with another person over a man?”

This young man was the Sword Sect’s Sect Master. Even though he looked quite young, he had lived for a long time. He was Jian Yiyue’s father and was called Jian Tianye.

Jian Yiyue calmly nodded without any hesitation or explanation.

This caused the others in the hall to look quite shocked. When they had heard about this, given their knowledge of Jian Yiyue, they felt that she definitely wouldn’t do such a thing. They wanted to hear Jian Yiyue rebut such a ridiculous rumor, but they had never thought that Jian Yiyue would directly admit it.

Jian Tianye was expressionless as he looked at Jian Yiyue. He did not feel that Jian Yiyue felt any romantic interest in that person, so he asked, “Is that person very important to you?”

Jian Yiyue lightly nodded as she said, “That person has an incredibly terrifying and extreme sword intent. It is above even the sword intent that I have comprehended.”

“Surely that’s impossible!” Hearing this, everyone looked quite shocked because the Sword Sect was the most powerful Sect that focused on the sword in the Human Domain. As such, the sword intent they comprehended was an extreme sword intent, and it was famous even within the Heaven Domain. It was an extremely high level of sword intent.

As such, how could they believe what Jian Yiyue said when she said that it was of a higher grade than their Sect’s sword intent?

Facing everyone’s doubts, Jian Yiyue did not say anything and instead took out an egg-sized orb of light. Within it was a trace of blood-red sword qi that continuously darted about.

This was a trace of sword intent that Jian Yiyue had captured from Zhao Fu. She lightly threw the orb of light into the air, and the orb of light dissipated as the trace of blood-red sword qi shot out.

Instantly, everyone could sense the incredibly berserk and twisted sword intent. It stabbed into people’s souls like a needle, and even though this trace of sword qi was quite small, it gave people a sense of danger and made them feel terror.

Jian Tianye looked at the trace of sword qi with a serious gaze and said loudly, “All of you get out!”

Everyone else felt quite startled and understood that this matter was not something that they could know about. This matter was incredibly important, and even though they felt quite curious, they still obeyed his orders and left.

Jian Yiyue’s eyes seemed to dance with light as she looked quite delighted and asked, “Father, do you know what this sword intent is?”

Jian Tianye did not reply to Jian Yiyue. He looked at the blood-red sword qi madly darting through the air and pointed out with his finger. A trace of green sword qi shot out and flew towards the blood-red sword qi.

Sensing the green sword qi, the blood-red sword qi did not show any fear and instead madly shot over, devouring the green sword qi. Very quickly, the green sword qi was devoured.

Now, Jian Tianye was able to confirm what it was, and he said in shock, “How can that person have this kind of sword intent? This is the legendary Killing Sword Intent!”

Hearing this, Jian Yiyue also looked quite shocked. As a Sword Cultivator, she had naturally heard about the Killing Sword Intent before. It was the fusion of an extreme sword intent and an extreme killing intent. Legends said that it had the power to kill Celestials and had caused a massive disaster in the distant past.

“Surely not, father! That person was not affected by the Killing Sword Intent at all and maintained his consciousness. He did not look berserk or bloodthirsty at all,” Jian Yiyue said after thinking about it.

Jian Tianye closely inspected the trace of sword qi and explained, “This Killing Sword Intent’s sword intent and killing intent have been greatly reduced. That person most likely used some kind of method to perfectly fuse with the Killing Sword Intent, so he is not affected by it.”

Sensing the blood-red sword qi in the air, Jian Tianye exclaimed in admiration, “As expected from a sword intent that can kill Celestials! Even after being reduced by so much, it still has such terrifying power. That person is a prodigy to be able to perfectly fuse with such a terrifying sword intent.”

“Father, right now, the Human Phoenix Empire is going all-out to find that person. It’s possible that that person’s body contains other secrets. I want to use the Sword Sect’s power to search for that person.”

After hearing Jian Tianye’s words, Jian Yiyue wanted to comprehend that sword intent even more.

Jian Tianye nodded as he said, “This sort of person is definitely not ordinary, so you have to act carefully. I feel that he’s quite suitable to be your husband, so you can consider that. That way, we will also be able to bind him to the Sword Sect.”

However, Jian Yiyue coldly refused, saying, “Father, right now I only want to cultivate the sword and don’t have any other plans.”

Hearing this, Jian Tianye did not insist.

Following this, the Sword Sect also went all-out in searching for Zhao Fu's location. This caused a great commotion, as two major factions in the Human Domain were now searching for that man; just what sort of divinity was that man for two major factions to act like this?

A third faction quickly joined in, and it was naturally Prince Ziyun's faction, the Violet Cloud Celestial Pavilion. At first, hearing that Prince Ziyun wanted to mobilize the faction's power to find a man he had taken an interest in, the Pavilion directly refused.

However, after hearing that two other major factions were searching for that person and that Emperor Path College had tried to recruit him as a special student, the Violet Cloud Celestial Pavilion allowed him to use the faction's power to search for Zhao Fu.

Emperor Path College's higher-being told the matter about the Evil Spirit Abyss Flower to the other higher-ups of Emperor Path College, causing them to also take this matter seriously. They felt that Zhao Fu was quite extraordinary and also tried to search for Zhao Fu's location.

Now that Emperor Path College's terrifying Chancellor had given an order, no one dared to disobey it.

This caused the various higher-beings to all feel quite shocked because they had not seen the Chancellor in a long time. They had not received any direct orders from the Chancellor, and seeing that they had finally received a direct order, it could be seen how important this matter was.

However, after thinking about it, the restriction was set down by the Chancellor, so the Chancellor was naturally the person who knew the most about the Evil Spirit Abyss Flower. It was possible that the Chancellor was scheming something.

Thinking about that, the various higher-beings felt quite shocked and did not want to get involved. There was only one higher-being who slightly frowned after hearing about this.

News of the three major factions searching for Zhao Fu, as well as the matters within Emperor Path College, soon spread to the other large factions. The various factions were all quite shocked that such a terrifying figure had appeared, and they felt quite curious about Zhao Fu's identity.

This was the first time Zhao Fu had officially appeared to the Heaven Domain's factions. It was not like before when people only knew of him and did not even know if he was a man or a woman.

Of course, no one had connected Zhao Fu to that person who had four Emperor Stars. If they knew, Zhao Fu would have shaken the entire Heaven Domain and caused countless geniuses to bow and submit.

Chapter 1320: Seven Great Colleges

After returning to Great Qin, Zhao Fu looked quite shocked and did not understand what had happened. His body seemed to have been forcefully summoned back and the projection had failed, causing Zhao Fu's body to return.

What was going on? Zhao Fu could not understand because once he sent out a 100% projection, it would be extremely difficult to cancel. Ordinarily, it could only be canceled if Zhao Fu returned to his original location. However, it seemed that his projection had been forcefully canceled.

After examining himself, Zhao Fu found that the Projection Jade on his chest had been permeated by another power, which was incredibly powerful.

What made Zhao Fu feel quite pleased was that he had actually somehow brought back the Agriculture Goddess' Divinity that he had obtained from Lin Dapeng. After all, projections could not bring anything back.

Zhao Fu thought to himself and remembered the power that had helped him many times in Emperor Path College, which was quite similar to the power in the Projection Jade. Zhao Fu thought of something and headed to the Heaven Spirit Stele.

Just as expected, there were many messages from the higher-being, who Zhao Fu guessed was a teacher at Emperor Path College.

It was this higher-being who had forcefully canceled Zhao Fu's projection and allowed Zhao Fu to escape. The aura left in the Projection Jade was the same as the aura that had helped him in Emperor Path College.

“Boy, you’ve really impressed This Sovereign. You’ve made so much trouble right after going to Emperor Path College, and now This Sovereign somewhat regrets introducing you to Emperor Path College.”

Reading the messages from the higher-being, Zhao Fu felt quite awkward. He had indeed caused a lot of trouble at Emperor Path College, but it was all completely unintentional. Who knew that Emperor Path College was so dangerous and had so many people who could easily crush him?

At the same time, there was no one else in the world who could make an expert who stood at the top of the world say such things.

Zhao Fu naturally knew that he had made trouble for the higher-being, so he apologized and said, “I’m sorry for troubling you!”

The higher-being had been waiting for Zhao Fu’s reply, and seeing that he seemed quite apologetic, the higher-being felt less annoyed and reminded him, saying, “Now, you know how terrifying the top geniuses of the Heaven Domain are. You still have one year, so you need to quickly increase your power and enter Emperor Path College with the best core.”

Hearing this, Zhao Fu asked, “Um, Senior, do you still want me to join Emperor Path College?”

Now, Zhao Fu did not quite want to join Emperor Path College anymore because he had caused so much trouble there. How could Zhao Fu dare to go there again? If he wasn’t careful, he would be captured by Feng Qianghua.

It would also be possible for him to be caught by Prince Ziyun. If that happened, Zhao Fu would not have a chance at running, and he did not want to go with either of them. As such, Zhao Fu was somewhat unwilling to go to Emperor Path College.

After all, with his power, that place was not somewhere he could go unless he obtained massive strength.

After reading Zhao Fu’s message, the higher-being guessed what Zhao Fu was thinking and said, “Yes, you should still come. At the very least, This Sovereign will be able to keep an eye out for you. You now have many top-tier factions after you, so if you don’t have a faction protecting you, you won’t be able to protect yourself.

“There are many curses similar to the Emperor Killer Curse, and you haven’t even rid yourself of the Emperor Killer Curse. If more curses are cast on you, do you think you have any chance of surviving?”

This caused Zhao Fu to feel a chill in his heart. The dark shadow of the Emperor Killer Curse had been hanging over Zhao Fu this entire time, and he had almost given up before.

Zhao Fu had reduced the power of the Emperor Killer Curse through various methods, and if he was afflicted by a few more similar curses, he would not have any hope in surviving. Zhao Fu indeed needed a large faction to protect him.

The faction naturally could not be Great Qin. With Great Qin’s strength, in front of the truly powerful factions, it would have a difficult time even protecting itself, and it would not be able to protect Zhao Fu at all. As such, Zhao Fu could only rely on another faction.

Even though there were Seven Great Colleges in total, meaning there were six other Colleges similar to Emperor Path College, they were simply too far away, and with his status as a Human, no one would give him protection. It would actually be more than 10 times more dangerous than the Emperor Path College.

As such, Zhao Fu’s only option was Emperor Path College. Moreover, the higher-being from before said he could enter without even taking the examination.

If Zhao Fu agreed to him, would he not immediately become a student of Emperor Path College?

Thinking about that, Zhao Fu grinned and felt that he would not have to wait a whole year, and he was relieved that a big weight had been taken off his mind.

However, that higher-being immediately poured a bucket of cold water over Zhao Fu. “Emperor Path College’s Chancellor has taken notice of you and told the teachers not to interfere. The offer that teacher made to you has been made void.”

Emperor Path College’s Chancellor was a Half-Step Celestial expert, and hearing that he had taken notice of him, Zhao Fu felt as if he had fallen into icy water. Zhao Fu felt goosebumps all over his body, and he felt that there were eyes staring at him from everywhere.

Facing such an existence, Zhao Fu did not dare to have any thoughts of resisting; even an Emperor Heaven Realm expert would not dare. That sort of existence had heaven-defying power.

How had he drawn the attention of such an existence? Zhao Fu felt incredibly shocked and had never thought that such a thing would happen. He wondered if it was because of the Evil Spirit Abyss Flower.

“Senior, what does the Chancellor think of me?” Zhao Fu hesitantly asked.

The higher-being could immediately tell what Zhao Fu was thinking and laughed, “Don’t worry, this is a good thing for you. If the Chancellor wanted to do anything to you, would you even have the right to resist?”

Hearing this, Zhao Fu felt relieved. That was indeed the case – if an existence like that wanted to do something to him, he would not be able to resist at all.

“You should go to the Demon Domain in the future; when that time comes, you’ll know the Evil Spirit Abyss Flower’s true effects.”

Seeing this, Zhao Fu could not help but think about the Four Guardian Beasts and President of the Ten Thousand Dragon Financial Group who had suggested for him to visit the Devil Domain.

Zhao Fu committed this to memory and once again thanked the higher-being.

Following this, Zhao Fu and the higher-being chatted for a bit longer before ending their talk.

Zhao Fu then ordered people to construct a temple for the Agriculture Goddess. He used the Divinity to summon a plain, simple, well-tempered, and beautiful woman. She was only an image right now and her intellect was not very developed, and she had a stiff expression.

Zhao Fu ordered people to sculpt a sculpture based on her looks and fused the Divinity into it. As long as she absorbed a large amount of faith energy, she would be able to regain her intellect and power.

This would be a massive help to Great Qin. In the future, Great Qin's agriculture would be relying on this Agriculture Goddess. With her protection, Great Qin's agriculture would have some protection; only then would they have a large amount of food.
