

The Lord 1341

Chapter 1341: Greenwood Kingdom

Any of these people could casually destroy the Dao Cultivation Sect. Putting aside higher-beings, even a few Emperor Heaven Realm experts could take down the Dao Cultivation Sect. After all, they were an outer Domain faction, and their highest cultivation was at the peak of the World Realm.

In front of those existences, the Dao Cultivation Sect was just like a tiny ant that could be casually destroyed at any time.

After receiving news from Bai Shengjun, the Dao Cultivation Sect's higher-ups were incredibly shocked. If it wasn't for the fact that the news was from Bai Shengjun, who was at the Heaven Domain, they would not dare to believe such a thing. How could Zhao Fu be so terrifying and cause such a great matter in the Heaven Domain?

The Dao Cultivation Sect's Sect Master greatly regretted his actions. If he had known this would happen, he would have disregarded everything to stop the Ancient Sword Sect and done everything he could to make friends with Zhao Fu. It would have been best to rope him in with the Dao Cultivation Sect; that not only would have avoided immense trouble, but it would have also been a great opportunity for the Dao Cultivation Sect.

However, now that things had already happened, perhaps that person hated the Dao Cultivation Sect, causing the Dao Cultivation Sect to feel terror, as they might be destroyed at that person's hands.

In his report, Bai Shengjun had gravely warned not to get involved with that person. Otherwise, even his master would not be able to protect the Dao Cultivation Sect.

Now, that person was so dangerous that even higher-beings felt a trace of fear and did not want to get involved. This caused the Dao Cultivation Sect to feel even more terrified.

They quickly closed the doors of the Sect and called back all of their important disciples. They did not want to cause anything or anger Zhao Fu even more. They prayed that Zhao Fu would let off the Dao Cultivation Sect, or else the Dao Cultivation Sect would be obliterated.

The various factions in the Ancient Stem Domain wondered why the Dao Cultivation Sect seemed so afraid. Could it be that a catastrophe was going to happen in the Ancient Stem Domain?

As such, the other factions had done some investigations, but they could not find anything. They could only feel confused and wonder just what had happened. To the Dao Cultivation Sect, Zhao Fu's appearance was a catastrophe itself.

The Ancient Sword Sect, Bear Mountain Kingdom, and Nether Yin Kingdom had the greatest enmity with Zhao Fu. The Ancient Sword Sect had the greatest grievances with Zhao Fu, and the three factions still had no idea about this and were still looking for Zhao Fu and giving out all kinds of quests to kill Zhao Fu.

In the Dao Cultivation Sect's eyes, they were not far from death and would have no chance of surviving in the future. As such, it did not want anything to do with them.

Half a day later, Great Qin received a message from the Greenwood Kingdom that they wanted to marry the princess to Zhao Fu. If Great Qin agreed to the marriage alliance, the Greenwood Kingdom would fully support Great Qin to become a Royal Kingdom.

The only condition they had was that they heard that Great Qin did not have an Empress. As such, they wanted Great Qin to make Princess Qingmu Great Qin's only Empress.

Even though Princess Qingmu looked like a young girl, she was not very young, and the Greenwood Kingdom had always been searching for an ideal partner for her. Now, Zhao Fu was undoubtedly the best choice; he was the King with the most potential in the Ancient Stem Domain.

Of course, Princess Qingmu was quite reluctant about this. She was going to be married off to a man who she had never met, and that man had countless Concubines. She did not want to go over and be mistreated.

Princess Qingmu slammed her door and refused to go out. However, the Greenwood Kingdom's attitude was quite resolute, making Princess Qingmu feel infuriated. As such, she planned to go out and hide for a few days.

The other large factions were quite shocked and had never thought that the Greenwood Kingdom would be willing to do such a thing, marrying off their most noble princess to Great Qin's Legatee. This would bind Great Qin and the Greenwood Kingdom together; this showed just how highly the Greenwood Kingdom viewed Great Qin.

Even though Great Qin had immense potential, that was only potential. Its current strength was something that Royal Kingdoms could disregard, and any Royal Kingdom could easily destroy it. Marrying a princess to Great Qin was a humiliation.

For the other factions, even if they wanted a marriage alliance, they would only send over an ordinary princess as a gesture. No one would take such a thing so seriously.

What's more, Great Qin only had four worlds, and it was still quite far away from becoming a Royal Kingdom; who knew what could happen during this period of time? If Great Qin was destroyed, the effort they put in would be wasted.

As such, before everything was confirmed, most factions only provided some resources and did not give any substantial help, as they did not know if Great Qin would really become a Royal Kingdom.

Now, the Greenwood Kingdom not only offered their most noble princess to Great Qin but also offered to fully support it. This made everyone incredibly shocked, and they felt that the Greenwood Kingdom was valuing Great Qin too highly, and the price it was paying was too high.

None of them would want to pay such a great price, and they wondered just what the higher-ups of the Greenwood were thinking, to believe that Great Qin would become a Royal Kingdom with such confidence.

Also, Great Qin had a powerful opponent close to it, which was the Devil Horn Empire. The Devil Horn Empire was not much weaker than Great Qin, and it only had a bit less potential than Great Qin. With both of them fighting against each other, it was not yet certain who would win and who would lose.

If Great Qin accepted the Greenwood Kingdom's proposal, the other factions would not be able to continue to support Great Qin, as Great Qin would belong to the Greenwood Kingdom. As such, they would be supporting another Royal Kingdom.

If everyone knew of the things to come, or Zhao Fu's true identity, countless large factions would send their most noble princesses to Great Qin for marriage alliances.

The Greenwood Kingdom did not know that it had made the best decision that it had made in its history.

What countless people did not expect was that Great Qin actually rejected the Greenwood Kingdom's offer, as it did not want to make Princess Qingmu the Empress.

No one had thought that Great Qin would actually reject such a good offer. Were they not afraid of the Greenwood Kingdom being enraged and sending an army to destroy it?

The Greenwood Kingdom was somewhat angry but not to a great extent. They had only made the offer and were not determined to marry Princess Qingmu.

After hearing about this, Princess Qingmu was quite angry as well. She had not wanted to be married, but now it looked like Great Qin did not want her. With her status, marrying into Great Qin was Great Qin's glory.

"Where's your Great Qin Majesty? Call him out! This Princess wants to see if he's worthy of This Princess!" Princess Qingmu ran over to the Great Qin Palace and raised her little head as she called out.

She was met with the cold glares of soldiers. However, with her superior cultivation and the Greenwood Kingdom supporting her, she did not fear them at all.

Otherwise, if it were any ordinary person, facing such cold glares, they would have been scared witless.

Zhao Fu frowned and walked over from the side, looking at Princess Qingmu who was standing in front of the palace. Zhao Fu recognized Princess Qingmu; she was in the top ten of the Ancient Stem Rankings, and they had fought before.

Chapter 1342: Princess Qingmu

The reason Zhao Fu rejected the Greenwood Kingdom's offer was quite simple; he did not want another faction to gradually take over Great Qin. The Royal Kingdoms primarily had Stage 2 soldiers, so how could Great Qin stop them from gradually taking over?

Moreover, after making Princess Qingmu the Empress, in terms of Fate, Great Qin and the Greenwood Kingdom would have an intimate relationship. He could not confer the title of Empress so easily.

In actuality, Princess Qingmu was quite pretty and could be ranked in the top ten in the Ancient Stem Domain. However, she was somewhat unruly and arrogant.

Zhao Fu somewhat changed his aura as he walked out and asked, "What business do you have with Us? Also, this isn't the Greenwood Kingdom, so it's best that you show some respect."

Princess Qingmu looked at the cloaked and masked figure walking over, and she understood that this was Great Qin's famous Legatee.

At the same time, Princess Qingmu could sense an incredibly extraordinary and dangerous aura from his body. Without even thinking about it, she could tell that he was no ordinary person. In front of him, Princess Qingmu could not help but feel slightly inferior. She pouted and said unhappily, "What were you doing, refusing the Greenwood Kingdom and causing This Princess to lose face."

Seeing how easily Princess Qingmu backed down, Zhao Fu could not help but lightly laugh, saying, "You can be an ordinary Concubine, and We don't want the Greenwood Kingdom interfering with Great Qin."

"What? Just an ordinary Concubine? Do you know who This Princess is? Also, with This Princess' beauty, don't you think that's humiliating to This Princess?" Princess Qingmu glared at him and said loudly.

"Husband, what's going on?" Nü Lü walked over and looked at Zhao Fu lovingly as she spoke gently.

Apart from Nü Lü, many of Zhao Fu's other women walked out, such as Wu Qingniang, Su Dafei, Wu Zetian, Binoche, Kerache, Mo Yao'Er, and Syndra. All of them were extremely beautiful, and they were not inferior to Princess Qingmu at all.

Their faces were all red after being taken care of by Zhao Fu, making them seem incredibly alluring. They had not seen Zhao Fu for a few days, and whenever Zhao Fu was done with taking care of his matters, they always wanted to do it with him.

Zhao Fu had just finished tasting the women he had brought back from the Cosmos Historical Remnant, which included Sejuani, Akali, Diana, Shyvana, Sivir, Fiora, Ahri, Zyra, and Syndra.

The ones he liked the most were the queenly Syndra, valiant Shyvana, seductive Ahri, and wild Sejuani.

Before, Zhao Fu had not planned on touching them, but as he did it with Wu Zetian and the others, Syndra had dragged them all in. The eight women who had been controlled by the Sadistic Killing Sword had been especially lewd.

Before Zhao Fu had a chance to wonder why this was, the Sadistic Killing Sword's sword spirit had excitedly told him how it had trained them; this was all to prepare for serving Zhao Fu.

Fortunately, Zhao Fu had obtained the Sadistic Killing Sword, or they would be panting under another man's body and enjoying the pleasure from another man.

Before Zhao Fu could say anything, Princess Qingmu looked at the large number of beautiful women. Some of the women gave off auras much more powerful than hers, and they seemed quite dangerous.

"You..." Princess Qingmu had been quite confident in her looks, but seeing so many beautiful women around Zhao Fu, her confidence took a big blow. Tears welled up in her eyes and she angrily pointed at Zhao Fu, unable to say anything. In the end, she could only cry out in anger and storm off.

Zhao Fu felt quite helpless as he watched Princess Qingmu walk off. Because she was the most noble princess from the Greenwood Kingdom, he could not do anything to her.

However, rejecting the Greenwood Kingdom's marriage alliance might cause some trouble. Great Qin did not have the strength to fight back against a Royal Kingdom, so he felt slightly worried.

Wu Zetian walked over and hugged Zhao Fu with her arms as she said flirtatiously, "Alright, it's time to enjoy; take care of the official matters later. I haven't had enough yet, and you know how much my body needs you."

“That’s right! I haven’t fully served master yet!” Ahri leapt at Zhao Fu and hugged him as she said coquettishly.

Following this, Zhao Fu was dragged by the women into a room, and moans started to sound out.

Soon, it was night time, and a round moon appeared in the sky. Looking at the women sleeping soundly on the bed, Zhao Fu felt quite energized. It was mainly because of the Six Desires Demonic Qi; as his mastery of the Six Desires Celestial Art became deeper, Zhao Fu seemed to have less and less resistance towards women.

Even though the feeling of giving in to his desires felt quite good, it could cause one to lose themselves. Now, Zhao Fu felt a trace of regret; perhaps back then he should have chosen the route of suppressing his desires. Then, he would not be in a situation like this.

After returning to the palace, Zhao Fu started to read through imperial memorials and take care of other matters.

“I greet Your Majesty!” Li Wen looked quite delighted and excited as he walked in and paid his respects.

Seeing Li Wen come in, Zhao Fu felt quite surprised. Li Wen had been clearing out the underground region this entire time, and now the underground region had nearly been cleared out.

Because Great Qin now had 24 General Armaments, they only needed 1,000 Soldier Souls to fuse a King Armament. However, collecting 1,000 Soldier Souls was not easy; that would be equivalent to ten General Armaments.

After Li Wen walked in, Zhao Fu saw his excited expression and realized something. He asked happily, “Have you gathered 1,000 Soldier Souls?”

Li Wen smiled as he replied, “Indeed, Your Majesty! I discovered a place with a large number of Skeletons, and after destroying them, we obtained many Soldier Souls. Now, we have more than 1,000 of them.”

Now that his guess had been confirmed, Zhao Fu could not help but laugh. This was one of Great Qin’s goals since the beginning, and Zhao Fu had been waiting for a long time. Ever since discovering the underground region, it had been around eight years.

Today, this goal was finally going to be achieved. Zhao Fu grinned as he had Li Wen present the Soldier Souls, then gave the order to assemble everyone with General Armaments.

Fusing a King Armament was much more troublesome than fusing a General Armament. It could only be done with the cooperation of 24 General Armaments, so Zhao Fu ordered the 24 Commanders and Generals to quickly come. Zhao Fu wanted to fuse together the King Armament right away.

However, there was the issue of the most important item, the vessel for the King Armament. Fusing a General Armament required a vessel, as did fusing a King Armament.

Chapter 1343: King Armament

The vessel could not be any ordinary item, as it would be a vessel for a King Armament.

Zhao Fu looked through the Disaster King Ring to see if there was anything suitable to be used as a vessel. It was best if it was a sword; the highest-quality swords that Zhao Fu currently had were the Sadistic Killing Sword and the Emperor Killing Sword.

The Sadistic Killing Sword was an Earth Armament and was extremely powerful. It also had the Sadistic Killing Sword Spirit, which Zhao Fu did not want to get rid of. This was because when fusing a King Armament, any item spirits would be destroyed.

However, the Sadistic Killing Sword's attributes were those of a berserk, twisted, and sadistic killing, which was not very suitable for becoming a King Armament. As such, Zhao Fu gave up on the Sadistic Killing Sword.

That left the Emperor Killing Sword. The Emperor Killing Sword was an Origin Weapon and might be of even higher grade than the Sadistic Killing Sword. The Clear Sable Sword had once been a sword of kindness, as well as a king's sword, but it had been turned by Zhao Fu into the Killing Heart Sword, which had the power to destroy souls.

Following this, it had become the core item of the Killing Sword World and had fused with boundless sword intent and killing intent, giving it world-destroying power, and it had even re-forged the Killing Sword World.

The re-forged Killing Sword World had absorbed Zhao Fu's Emperor's Power, and the Killing Sword's power had decreased. However, because it had Emperor's Power, the Killing Sword World had become the Emperor Killing Sword World, and the Clear Sable Sword had become the Emperor Killing Sword.

Even though the Emperor Killing Sword was filled with sword intent and killing intent, it also had Emperor's Power, and it had originally been the Clear Sable Sword, a King's sword. Zhao Fu felt that it would be quite a suitable vessel.

Moreover, the Emperor Killing Sword did not have a sword spirit, so it would be even easier to fuse with the Divine Soldier Souls and become a King Armament.

In the end, Zhao Fu decided to use the Emperor Killing Sword as the vessel.

Ordinary General Armaments were already incredibly terrifying, and with how powerful the Emperor Killing Sword was, it would become even more monstrous after becoming a King Armament.

Thinking about that, Zhao Fu could not help but feel excited.

"We greet Your Majesty!" Bai Qi, Wang Jian, Wei Liao, and the other Commanders and Generals had come to the palace and called out in unison.

Zhao Fu gave a trace of a smile and said, "We called you here to fuse a King Armament. All you have to do is follow Our orders."

The Commanders and Generals all nodded.

The first thing was to make preparations. Zhao Fu led everyone to a mountain range far away from any Cities, and he used his power to slash off the top of a mountain, leaving behind smooth ground.

Zhao Fu led the others to come to the top and handed out the 1,000 Soldier Souls to the Commanders and Generals, giving the most to those with the Seven Murders, Voracious Wolf and Army Destroyer Stars.

The Seven Murders was the bandit who threw the world into disorder!

The Army Destroyer was the general who swept across the world!

The Voracious Wolf was the scholar who created sinister and vicious plots!

Once the three stars gathered, they would form the Murder Destroyer Wolf formation, which would cause great chaos under the heavens. War would erupt all over the world, with battles and disaster happening continuously. Many people would find it difficult to live, and this was something that was irreversible!

The King Star would use these three General Stars as the foundation, so Zhao Fu gave the most Soldier Souls to those with these stars. Their effects would be the most useful and powerful.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Bai Qi and the others threw their General Armaments into the sky. The General Armaments gave off different-colored lights and exploded out with powerful auras as intense General's might spread out.

The Commanders and Generals sat on the ground, holding Soldier Souls. They released their General's Aura, activating their General Armaments in the sky.

Clang! Clang! Clang...

The sound of metal colliding could be heard, tearing through the night, as the 24 General Armaments continuously trembled. A massive wave of Heaven and Earth energy gathered and flowed into the General Armaments as different-colored rays of light shot down, landing on the Soldier Souls.

The Soldier Souls quickly absorbed the General's Power. They originally gave off white light, but as they absorbed the General's Power, they changed into different colors.

The Soldier Souls also started to become corporeal, no longer looking like orbs of light. The Soldier Souls continuously condensed, forming round, translucent pearls.

Ten of these pearls could be fused together, forming an even larger colored pearl. The light and power they gave off were even more powerful, and it was as if stars had appeared within the pearls.

The pearls could only be fused once; this was different than fusing General Armaments.

While the Commanders and Generals were fusing together the Soldier Souls, Zhao Fu did not idle about and instead dug a trough that was two meters wide, two meters long, and two meters deep. He poured all sorts of spirit liquids into it, filling it up completely, before lightly placing the Emperor Killing Sword into it.

This was called Calming the sword. The Emperor Killing Sword's sword intent and killing intent were too strong, so what Zhao Fu was doing was temporarily weakening them and causing the sword's own spirituality to calm down to prepare it for fusing.

Calming a sword was something that was done when a sword was of utmost importance; it could be seen just how seriously Zhao Fu took this.

Following this, Zhao Fu took out a golden orb of light that was as big as a fist, which seemed to have a dragon swimming within it.

This dragon had straight horns and a pair of wings with golden feathers. Its eyes both had two pupils, and it gave off a serious and dangerous aura.

The golden orb of light was the most important item when fusing a King Armament; it was the remnant soul of a King, and without this, even with 1,000 Soldier Souls, it would be impossible to fuse a King Armament.

The instant that Zhao Fu took out the golden orb of light, the golden dragon sleeping within him suddenly opened its eyes and looked at the orb of light. The dragon within the orb of light looked just like the golden dragon, except for a few slight differences.

Those differences were only after it fused with Zhao Fu; before fusing, it looked just like the dragon within the golden orb of light.

Suddenly, the golden dragon gave a slight smile and did not say anything, but its expression became serious with a trace of joy. If Zhao Fu discovered its expression, he would feel quite surprised because the golden dragon rarely reacted like this.

Zhao Fu was now going to refine the remnant soul because it was the core of the King Armament. The dragon would become the King Armament's item spirit, so it had to first be refined before it could be fused.

This was quite simple for Zhao Fu, as he had a Divine Bloodline, which reigned above countless Emperor bloodlines.

However, it actually took Zhao Fu some effort to fully refine the remnant soul. He felt that the King's remnant soul was quite special.

Zhao Fu had investigated the remnant soul but did not find anything strange about it. The Commanders and Generals continued to fuse Soldier Souls, and the Emperor Killing Sword became very calm. Now, it was time to fuse the King Armament.

Chapter 1344: Divine Soldier Pearl

The various Commanders and Generals stood around Zhao Fu, and at the center of them, Zhao Fu had an austere expression and closed his eyes, calming himself before slowly opening his eyes.

His eyes seemed to flow with light and overflowing color, and Divine Soldier Pearls floated around him, giving off faint lights.

The Divine Soldier Pearls were naturally the pearls that had been fused before. Ten Soldier Souls had fused together into one Divine Soldier Pearl, and the 1,000 Soldier Souls had formed 100 Divine Soldier Pearls.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Explosions sounded out as the Divine Soldier Pearls exploded out with powerful auras, lifting up berserk wind. They turned into rays of light that shot into the sky, giving off all sorts of lights that covered the surrounding ten kilometers.

"All Commanders and Generals, heed my orders!" Zhao Fu stood at the center and his expression did not change as he looked towards the sky and lightly cried out.

Bai Qi and the others obeyed and raised their General Armaments, exploding out with their power and sending it into their General Armaments.

“Seven Murders Star, heed my orders... descend!”

“Army Destroyer Star, heed my orders... descend!”

“Voracious Wolf Star, heed my orders... descend!”

“Lunar Star, heed my orders... descend!”

“Heaven Minister Star, heed my orders... descend!”

As the Commanders and Generals cried out, their bodies shined with intense light, which turned into pillars of light that shot into the sky with terrifying power.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

The pillars of light slammed into the sky, causing the sky to tremble and almost crack open. The massive sounds shocked all living creatures in the surroundings, causing them to innately feel immense fear.

A blood-red light first spread across the sky, and an icy aura of killing and dominating ferociously spread out as an enormous blood-red star giving off terrifying pressure slowly descended. A black light then shot out, and an aura of conquering flooded out as a black star giving off immense might gradually descended.

Next, a green light covered half the sky as an eerie and abnormal aura silently but quickly spread out. A green star giving off powerful might broke through the sky and descended...

Various stars giving off different lights and auras slowly descended, 24 in total.

The 24 stars gave off intense starlight, making the night seem as bright as day. The light covered tens of thousands of kilometers, and the powerful might they gave off seemed to cause the world to freeze and fall into silence.

All things, whether they were flowers, grass, insects, beasts, mountains, or trees, all seemed to be pressed down on by a formless energy, unable to move at all.

At that moment, the Hundred Schools of Thought were all roused and sensed an extremely great movement in Fate. They came outside and looked at the 24 resplendent stars, and their expressions became serious.

Even though they did not know what was happening, from the ripples, they could tell that something big was about to happen. Everyone looked at those stars seriously, wondering what was going on.

After summoning the 24 General Stars, the Commanders and Generals controlled the General Stars to send their power into the Divine Soldier Pearls floating in the air.

The 100 Divine Soldier Pearls absorbed the boundless General Star Power and gave off even more intense lights, and the space around them started to tremble.

The 24 General Stars gradually disappeared into the sky, and the blood-red Seven Murders Divine Soldier Pearls, the black Army Destroyer Divine Soldier Pearls, and the green Voracious Wolf Divine Soldier Pearls moved towards the center, occupying three positions.

The other Divine Soldier Pearls also moved to their own positions and spread out. The light they gave off seemed to call out to and connect with each other, forming a 10,000 meter wide colorful magic formation.

Boom!

Just as the magic formation was formed, a massive might blasted down, and cracks appeared in the space itself as the ground instantly crumbled.

A 100,000 meter wide crater appeared, with crushed rocks and broken trees everywhere. Only the flattened mountain top remained, as if there was some kind of power protecting this mountaintop.

The terrifying shockwaves were sensed by the entire human world, and they all looked towards the colorful magic formation.

Zhao Fu slowly raised his head and looked towards the world-shaking magic formation giving off intense light in the sky. He slowly took out a golden pearl; this was the refined King's remnant soul.

Zhao Fu sent his Divine Bloodline's power into it, and the golden pearl gave off a brilliant golden light as it slowly began to rise. It entered the center of the colorful magic formation, between the Seven Murders Divine Soldier Pearls, the Army Destroyer Divine Soldier Pearls, and the Voracious Wolf Divine Soldier Pearls.

After entering, the magic formation seemed to gain a soul of its own and came to life.

Heaven and Earth Power madly gathered and the world went through massive changes. Clouds quickly swirled and berserk gales blew as thunder crashed. Terrifying flood-like auras spread out, and it was not just the human world but the surrounding ten or so worlds that could feel these terrifying auras.

The expressions of Yao Ming and the rulers of the other worlds' expressions fell, and they quickly came outside and looked in the direction of Great Qin. There was a bone-chilling power coming from that direction.

There was a massive storm where Zhao Fu was, and his surroundings were covered by a brilliant light. The magic formation continuously devoured the Heaven and Earth Power, and the shockwaves it gave off became more and more terrifying.

Zhao Fu's expression became serious and he took out the Emperor Killing Sword and pointed it at the sky, releasing all of his power. His body gave off an immense Divine Power that turned into a black ray of light and shot into the enormous magic formation.

Boom!

A shocking explosion sounded out as the magic formation expanded out to 100,000 metres wide, and started to quickly spin, giving off a world-devouring power.

The people in the surrounding ten or so worlds' expressions fell, because their worlds' power was being sucked away by an immense power.

Just what was Great Qin doing? Countless people looked incredibly shocked. There were immense shockwaves coming from Great Qin, so it was definitely Great Qin doing something terrifying. The power made countless people feel chills. They wanted to stop it but found that they were powerless.

The sky gradually dimmed and the moon had long since disappeared. It was as if all light had been devoured.

It was not just the sky; the entire world darkened. People could not even see things right in front of them. An endless darkness descended, and the world seemed to fall silent without a trace of sound.

Everyone felt incredibly uncomfortable; an oppressiveness, heaviness, and sense of danger like that of right before a massive catastrophe descended.

Chapter 1345: Sword Hum

A trace of a blood-red light appeared within the darkness. Following this, more red light appeared, dyeing the world blood-red. A massive blood-red star giving off enormous pressure gradually descended. A disastrous, conquering, bloodthirsty, and devilish aura flooded out and swept through the world.

The people of the surrounding ten or so worlds felt a chill through their hearts, and felt as if they had fallen into an icy river. It was a bone-chilling coldness, and they could not help but tremble.

Suddenly, a berserk wind blew, and lightning continuously blasted down. Rain continuously poured down and the ground trembled. It was as if a massive catastrophe was happening.

Bang!

Before anyone could react, a massive sound could be heard as a world-destroying storm blasted out. Massive boulders were blown into the sky and trees were uprooted as the ground was torn up. Countless cracks appeared in the sky.

Countless rays of golden light spilled out from the cracks, dyeing the sky gold. An incredibly noble and supreme golden star slowly descended, and a formless power that could cause countless creatures to submit ferociously spread out.

Countless people's bodies sank as they looked up in shock. This power that seemed to be able to make all creatures submit was something that they had experienced before, and it had been engraved on their hearts.

Some ordinary beasts were lying on the ground in fear, looking incredibly afraid. Countless people's bodies uncontrollably knelt on the ground.

The golden light's effects were the greatest on the Human Race; almost no humans could withstand it. They knelt on the ground as if they were in the presence of the most terrifying Emperor. They felt incredibly anxious and sweat erupted all over their bodies.

The other races had some resistance. Facing the resplendent golden star, Yao Ming resisted with all his might; he definitely would not kneel to Great Qin.

As for others, they had long since knelt down, and this included the Princes of the Royal Kingdoms who had just been talking with Yao Ming. They looked incredibly shocked because in front of that power, their bloodlines and power could not resist at all, and they instinctively wanted to submit.

Everyone in the Ancient Stem Domain sensed the descent of this golden star, and they all came outside to look at that star.

Boom!

Another enormous explosion sounded out as gray light filled the sky, and the temperature quickly dropped as a cold and eerie aura filled the world.

A massive gray star that was as big as the moon gave off an immense pressure and slowly descended, shaking the surroundings.

Everyone felt the pressure weighing down on them increase, and most people were pressed against the ground, unable to resist at all.

Suddenly, traces of ghostly qi appeared on the ground, and transparent figures appeared on the ground. There were men and men, elderly and children; they were all people who had died here before.

They looked at the gray star with solemn expressions and drifted towards it. There were countless ghosts everywhere, and they were simply innumerable.

Boom!

An explosion once again sounded out as the heavens and earth once again trembled. Brilliant violet light shined over the land as a violet star giving off unimaginable devilish intent blasted down.

Countless beasts and birds cried out as they felt immense despair. Looking at the violet star in the sky, they seemed to be subserviently begging.

Everyone felt the pressure on their bodies increase once again. As the violet star descended, an explosion seemed to go off within Yao Ming's head and his mind went blank. As part of the Devil Race, he was unable to withstand this might.

The four enormous stars gave off incredibly might and gave off four different colors, seeming to split the world into four.

The people of the surrounding ten or so worlds looked at the four stars in shock. They could not understand why these four terrifying stars had appeared; just what was going on?

The place where the shockwaves were coming from seemed like a forbidden land that no one dared to go near, causing people to feel terror.

“Combine!” Zhao Fu looked at the four stars and continued to point the sword at the sky as he lightly cried out.

Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom...

Four massive explosions sounded out as the four terrifying stars gave off an intense, ocean-like starlight that poured into the colorful magic formation.

The colorful magic formation absorbed the four Emperor Stars' terrifying power and quickly spun, and an aura of destruction spread out. The surrounding space continuously collapsed, turning into chaos, and a colorful pillar of light landed on Zhao Fu's body.

Zhao Fu raised the Emperor Killing Sword, which had become quite calm after the calming, and as the Emperor Star power entered it, it started to intensely react.

Shing!

A corporeal killing intent and sword intent spread out, causing deep sword gashes to appear on the ground. The fusion was not going smoothly and the two powers were rejecting the power of the Emperor Stars.

Zhao Fu once again closed his eyes and focused on controlling the Emperor Killing Sword to have it absorb the Emperor Stars' power.

The Emperor Killing Sword World continuously trembled, and the world became dark as countless rays of sword qi shot about. Four rays of starlight covered the Emperor Killing Sword World, and the Emperor Stars' power continuously entered it, causing the Emperor Killing Sword's resistance to weaken.

The Emperor Killing Sword started to absorb the Emperor Stars' power, and the Emperor Killing Sword World started to go through changes.

A while later, the Emperor Killing Sword absorbed more and more of the Emperor Stars' power, and the aura it gave off became more and more terrifying. The four Emperor Stars gradually faded away and the colourful pillar of light became smaller. In the end, the colourful magic formation turned into a mark of light that landed on the Emperor Killing Sword.

The fusion of the King Armament was successful, but Zhao Fu did not have time to celebrate.

Shing!

A massive sword hum spread out as if it was corporeal, giving off destructive power as it tore through the sky. It pierced through countless worlds, causing the heavens and earth to tremble. The people in the surrounding Domains felt as if their ears were going to explode and felt immense pain.

As Zhao Fu watched on in confusion, the Emperor Killing Sword broke free of his control and turned into a sword light as it shot towards the sky.

Boom!

An explosion rang throughout the entire Heaven Awaken World as countless major figures opened their eyes as they felt the Heaven Awaken World's Fate start to gather towards a certain place.

They immediately used all kinds of powerful methods trying to figure out where the Heaven Awaken World's Fate was gathering. The Heaven Awaken World was big enough to be said to be boundless; just what sort of thing or existence could cause the entire Heaven Awaken World's Fate to gather?

Chapter 1346: Sword Forging

To be able to gather such a boundless amount of Fate, perhaps even ordinary Celestials would not be able to do such a thing. That thing definitely had unimaginable amounts of Fate to be able to do such a thing.

Even if it was not caused by something, the entire Heaven Awaken World's Fate was gathering towards there, and perhaps something that would shake the Heaven Awaken World was going to happen there. The experts did not dare to take this lightly and all treated this matter seriously.

However, they could not do anything about it; the place where the Fate was gathering seemed to be covered by a terrifying power, and they could not sense anything within it.

Only the Heaven's Secrets Pavilion knew just what was going on. They had discovered the four Emperor Stars sending their power into something terrifying, and they did not know what it was, but it was most likely related to Fate. Otherwise, it would not be able to gather the Heaven Awaken World's Fate like this.

The Fate that a single Emperor Star had could affect an entire Race and affect the status quo in the Heaven Awaken World; just how terrifying was four Emperor Stars?

The people of the Heaven's Secrets Pavilion all looked quite serious. They did not know what Great Qin was doing, but they felt a trace of fear.

Boom!

A massive explosion sounded out as what seemed like a universe of fate flowed into the Emperor Killing Sword. The Emperor Killing Sword was like a black hole that devoured all of the Fate, and a world-destroying sword energy spread out.

Within the Emperor Killing Sword World, four stars appeared in the blue sky. The four stars were the four Emperor Stars, and their power continuously flowed through the Emperor Killing Sword World, while the Emperor Killing Sword World's power flowed into the Emperor Stars.

Under the help of the massive amounts of Fate, the four Emperor Stars and the Emperor Killing Sword World gradually completed a true fusion.

Shing!

A clear sword hum sounded out throughout the entire Heaven Awaken World, announcing the birth of a terrifying existence. Countless people were shocked and wondered what that sword hum was; could it be a Celestial Sword?

No one knew what was going on, but that sword hum caused the Heaven Awaken World's Fate to go into a frenzy. The heavens and earth dimmed as a massive gale blew.

Everyone in the Human Race felt a chill in their hearts, and cold sweat dripped down their bodies; countless devil beasts in the Devil Race were so scared that they collapsed to the ground; countless ghosts from the Death Race gave off terrifying roars.

An aura of disaster, killing, conquering, and devilishness slowly spread throughout the Heaven Awaken World as the experts of the Human Race, Devil Race, and Death Race all became extremely sensitive to this aura.

This caused countless higher-beings' expressions to fall. Fortunately, this power was not very strong and could not affect people too much.

Otherwise, under the effects of this power, the world would fall into great chaos and disasters would happen everywhere. People would be filled with killing intent and wars would explode out.

“How can we allow such an inauspicious thing to descend?!” Countless higher-beings decided to destroy the thing giving off that terrifying aura. They could not allow it to continue to exist, or else the world might perish because of it.

It was a pity that even though many higher-beings wanted to destroy it, under the obstruction of the powerful Heaven's Secrets, they were unable to determine where it was. They did not even know what it was.

Since they could not divine where the item was, the various large factions could only send out disciples to track down that inauspicious item. They had to quickly destroy it, or else when it became stronger, the consequences would be unimaginable.

Now, the higher-beings understood what it was that had caused the Heaven Awaken World's Fate to gather. It was most likely that catastrophic, inauspicious thing.

Countless disciples obeyed their orders and went out to find that inauspicious item. However, they did not know what was going on because they had not sensed that terrifying aura; that aura was something that only people of extremely high cultivations could sense.

They had only felt terrified as a result of an instinctive response, but because they had not sensed that aura, they were not sure as to what was going on.

If ordinary people had sensed that aura, the world would have long since descended into chaos, and none of them would have been able to escape its effects.

Many of Emperor Path College's teachers gathered to discuss this matter.

“What kind of inauspicious item do you think it is, to have such terrifying power? If we don't destroy it while it has just descended, countless lives and worlds will perish because of it.”

“This Sovereign believes that it is most likely a sword. Who has such power to forge such a savage and evil sword to harm the world?”

“That’s right, that sword is a sword of disaster, murder, war, and evilness. With how inauspicious that item is, the forger of the sword most likely received an intense backlash; serves him or her right.”

“This Sovereign is not very concerned about this matter and just wants to know who forged that evil sword and what kind of methods they used to forge that sword.”

“That’s quite difficult; not only is that inauspicious item protected by large amounts of Fate, making it difficult to determine its location, but the forger is also not ordinary either and is also protected by boundless Heaven’s Secrets. I wonder which old monster it is.”

“We should follow the other factions and conduct a search as well! Perhaps we’ll be able to find something. None of the other factions are able to remain calm because the appearance of that evil sword is not favorable to anyone.”

Many people in the Human Phoenix Empire also took mind of this because they were part of the Human Race and were quite sensitive to that aura. Moreover, they could sense a power that reigned above that of Emperors’ within that aura.

A power that was above that of Emperors’ was enough to make countless people shocked. Adding on the inauspicious and evil aura, countless people were dumbfounded. The Human Phoenix Empire understood more than others just how terrifying that evil sword was, so they treated this matter very seriously.

They sent out various experts to find the sword, and anyone who was related to the sword was to be killed without mercy.

Almost everyone in the Heaven Awaken World took this attitude; no one wanted to allow something that threatened them to remain.

However, Feng Qianghua did not pay much mind to this because she was focused on something else, which was finding Zhao Fu’s location. She was quite surprised that even with the Human Phoenix Empire’s power, she was unable to find him.

It was as if he had simply appeared in the Heaven Domain and had then vanished. Feng Qianghua felt quite infuriated about this and decided that once she caught him, she would forever imprison him in the palace.

Right now, Feng Qianghua would never imagine that the person who had forged the evil sword was Zhao Fu himself.

The Sword Sect also treated this matter seriously. This was especially so because their love and passion for swords bordered on madness.

Chapter 1347: Evil Sword of Chaos

“What a pity! Such a peerless sword’s fate is going to be destroyed. If they gave that sword to me, I would hide it where no one else would find it and guard it for the rest of my life. I would keep the sword company for all time and wouldn’t let it harm the world.”

“Haha! Do you really think you could control that evil sword? Right after that evil sword descended, it gathered the entire Heaven Awaken World’s Fate, and its evil aura spread throughout the entire world. Do you know just how terrifying that sword is?”

“Ai! Even though I love swords, even I think such an evil sword should be destroyed and should not be allowed to harm the world.”

“It’s so sad to see such a peerless sword be destroyed. Perhaps it could rival the Heaven Awaken Ten Swords.”

“Speaking of the Heaven Awaken Ten Swords, isn’t the third-ranked Demon World Evil Sword an incredibly dark and evil sword? The power it contains can easily demonify ten or so worlds, and those whose power is weak would fall to the demon path in front of this sword and become a monster. However, everyone isn’t clamoring to destroy that sword, so why is everyone clamoring to have this sword be destroyed?”

“The Demon World Evil Sword can only affect a small portion of people, and everyone wants it and wants to wield its terrifying power; how could they want to destroy it? However, this evil sword will harm all people; they’re on completely different levels.”

“That’s right! The Demon World Evil Sword is a weapon that can be used to kill people, but that evil sword is not a weapon. It is a wellspring of disaster.”

“This sword is quite different and is not an ordinary weapon. Given the inauspicious and evil aura it gives off, as well as the massive amount of Fate it has gathered, it is likely a special evil sword.”

“There’s no need to talk about this any more; let’s go and find that evil sword! Our Sect has the Ten Thousand Sword Heaven Stone and should have an advantage. Perhaps we’ll be able to find that sword first, and if we don’t destroy it, we can seal it within our Sword Sect!”

Now, the various factions were all searching for the evil sword. All of them were searching for the evil sword, and all decided to destroy it, as it would bring massive catastrophes. If they did not destroy it, they would be doomed.

The other factions did not know much about the evil sword or its history, but one faction knew clearly, and that was the Heaven’s Secrets Pavilion.

They had kept an eye on Zhao Fu this entire time and had not leaked any information. They were very familiar with Zhao Fu’s aura, so they knew the history behind this terrifying sword.

They guessed that Zhao Fu was forming some kind of Fate item; General Armaments, King Armaments, General Stars, King Stars, and Emperor Stars were all related to Fate, so it was correct to call the sword a Fate item.

However, they did not know what Zhao Fu was thinking, fusing the Emperor Killing Sword with the four Emperor Stars’ power.

Because it was itself a Fate item, adding on the massive amount of Fate from the four Emperor Stars and given how terrifying the sword was already, it had formed such a terrifying evil sword.

As for the sword’s attributes, why was it not the Celestial Star’s attributes? Or the Nether Emperor Star’s attributes? Or the Violet Sky Dragon Star’s attributes? Even if it did not take any of their attributes, it would already have terrifying power, so why did it have to take the Chaos Imperial Star’s attributes?

In terms of power, the Celestial Star, Nether Emperor Star, and Violet Sky Dragon Star, the sovereign stars of three races, should have been much more powerful than the Chaos Imperial Star. This Emperor Killing Sword should not have taken the Chaos Imperial Star's attributes.

There were a few reasons for this:

Zhao Fu's first Emperor Star had been the Chaos Imperial Star, and it was Zhao Fu's Fate Star and main star. The others were all subsidiary stars and could not replace it.

Moreover, even though the three Emperor Stars were powerful, they did not have clear attributes. The Seven Murders Sword had an attribute of killing, the Army Destroyer Sword had an attribute of conquering, and the Voracious Wolf Sword had an attribute of plotting. The Chaos Imperial Star's attribute of chaos and disaster fulfilled the conditions of forming a King Armament.

The Chaos Imperial Star's formation was also quite special; it was a fusion of the Chaos Demon Star and the Myrtle Imperial Star, and it had also devoured the power of other Emperor Stars.

Even though the three Emperor Stars were powerful, the truly powerful one was the Chaos Imperial Star. Its aura of chaos and disaster could invade and devour all other stars; no Emperor Star could escape its corrosion, and it was the bane of all other stars.

"Ai! That person has such good talent and had such good luck; why couldn't he just behave well and develop stably? Perhaps one day he could have shaken the Heaven Domain. Why forge that sword? Now, the whole world wants to kill him."

"I feel the same way! It's the first time someone has had four Emperor Stars; what a pity! Now, even a higher-being won't be able to protect him."

"What higher-being, even a Half-Step Celestial would not be able to protect him. Unless he hands over the evil sword, he'll definitely die."

"How are you all so sure? He has the Chaos Imperial Star, so how can he just sit and wait to die? Moreover, he has four Emperor Stars and did not die from the Emperor Killer Curse. Perhaps he has a chance."

“I feel that if such a person is given the chance to develop, he’ll become an incredibly terrifying person; let’s wait for his name to shake the Heaven Domain! Of course, that’s only if he doesn’t die first.”

Everyone was discussing this matter, and a young woman in white had a serious expression, not saying something. This matter had long since been reported to the higher-ups, and the old monsters most likely knew about it; now, they were waiting for their orders.

The orders came quickly, which were to continue to observe and not to interfere. They prohibited any talk of this within the Pavilion, and anyone who disobeyed was to be killed.

The first part of the orders were quite calm and were not out of the ordinary, but the consequences were filled with killing intent; it could be seen how seriously the old monsters took this matter.

After hearing these orders, everyone felt quite shocked and sealed their lips and did not dare to discuss this matter.

After hearing this order, the white-clothed young woman frowned but was not too surprised. She went to the Heaven’s Secrets machine and sent her consciousness into the vast Heaven’s Secrets.

Back at Great Qin, all of the abnormal signs had disappeared. After absorbing large amounts of Fate, the Emperor Killing Sword silently floated in the sky. Its appearance did not change much, and it was still black and blood-red and gave off a simple aura.

The only change was that a magic formation had appeared on the sword. It was the colourful magic formation from before, but it was now black and blood-red colored.

Zhao Fu sensed the sword and found that it was still within his control, allowing him to let out a sigh of relief. However, at that moment, the Emperor Killing Sword exploded out with boundless sword light and shot towards Zhao Fu, causing his expression to fall.

Chapter 1348: Twelve Swords

Zhao Fu grabbed at the air and countless traces of black Divine aura flowed out, forming a massive black hand that shook the surroundings and grabbed at the incoming Emperor Killing Sword.

Shing!

The Emperor Killing Sword gave off boundless black and blood-red sword dlight, slashing the black hand into countless traces of black aura.

Bang!

The Emperor Killing Sword stabbed into the ground in front of Zhao Fu, and a formless energy spread out. The ground immediately collapsed, creating a ten meter wide crater.

A figure lightly stepped on the hilt of the Emperor Killing Sword; it was a woman dressed in a blood-red dress. She was tall, slim, had white skin, and had long black hair that reached her waist. She was incredibly beautiful, had a pair of golden eyes, and gave off a noble aura.

This was most likely the Emperor Killing Sword's sword spirit, and Zhao Fu was quite surprised, as he thought that it would be a dragon. The woman looked at Zhao Fu and gave a sweet smile as she called out, "Big sis!"

Zhao Fu felt quite surprised and did not know what was going on. The golden dragon within Zhao Fu's body also smiled, and a golden light came out of Zhao Fu's body as the golden dragon flew out and turned into a woman wearing a gold palace dress and giving off an elegant and dignified aura.

After seeing this, Zhao Fu felt quite shocked; despite being with the golden dragon for so long, Zhao Fu did not know she could turn into a human form. Also, the golden dragon was definitely hiding something from him. Before, Zhao Fu had thought that she was a Fate Dragon, but it seemed like this was not the case.

"Big sis, I never thought that I would be able to see you again," the sword spirit said happily as she walked over to the golden dragon and lightly hugged her.

The golden dragon also smiled as she said, "I never thought that I'd be able to see you again either. Luckily you preserved a portion of your soul, which was able to recover under the enormous power of the Emperor Stars. You need to thank that person over there."

The sword spirit looked at Zhao Fu and gave a gentle smile as she said, “You must be my big sis’ child! I am...”

“No, you’re mistaken.” Zhao Fu felt quite startled and cut off the sword spirit. How did she think that he was her son?

The golden dragon lightly laughed as she said, “He’s not my child; I’ve fused together with him as a Fate Dragon, and he has the Heaven Murder Empire’s bloodline.”

The sword spirit understood and said, “No wonder his bloodline and aura are so similar to yours. Has the Heaven Murder Empire been restored?”

The golden dragon bitterly laughed and shook her head, “The Heaven Murder Empire and Great Qin have fused together. Great Qin is the main one.”

The sword spirit slightly frowned, feeling quite unhappy.

Following this, the golden dragon started to tell the sword spirit of the things that had happened after and also explained to Zhao Fu.

Back then, she had been hunted down by pursuers and had nearly died, and the Heaven Murder Empire was also on the brink of destruction. She could only cast a secret technique to fuse with the Heaven Murder Empire’s Fate Dragon, preserving a trace of the Heaven Murder Empire’s Fate while also preserving her life.

The golden dragon also talked about some matters related to Zhao Fu.

The sword spirit’s eyebrows shot up as she looked at Zhao Fu, “Does he really have a Divine Bloodline? And four Emperor Stars?”

Back then, even the powerful Heaven Murder Empire only had a peak Sovereign Bloodline and had not been able to break through to a Divine Bloodline. She also had never heard of someone having four Emperor Stars before.

The golden dragon gave a proud smile as she said, “The person I chose is not bad at all, right?”

The sword spirit nodded in shock. She then realized that she was now a sword spirit, which belonged to the sword that Zhao Fu had just forged.

After the two women talked for a while, the golden dragon returned to Zhao Fu's body and the sword spirit returned to the sword. Zhao Fu asked the golden dragon, "Is there anything else you're hiding from me?"

The golden dragon good-naturedly laughed, "I didn't hide anything from you; you didn't ask, so I didn't tell you about it."

Zhao Fu felt quite frustrated; he had indeed never asked about this before. He asked, "What's your name?"

The golden dragon felt quite surprised that Zhao Fu would suddenly ask about her name, and she replied, "You can call me Xi; you can call my little sister Yue."

Zhao Fu nodded; at first, he had thought that the golden dragon was a Fate Dragon and did not have a gender. Luckily she was a woman, or else he would have felt quite awkward doing it with women in front of another man.

Zhao Fu grabbed at the air and the Emperor Killing Sword flew into his grasp. Now, it did not resist at all. Before, it was the sword spirit controlling the sword to leave Zhao Fu's control, but now that the sword spirit obeyed Zhao Fu, the sword naturally would not resist.

Zhao Fu was quite curious about the Emperor Killing Sword's attributes. After all, it was a King Armament, and even ordinary King Armaments would be especially powerful. Before, Zhao Fu had obtained a King Armament Shard, which had created the Disaster King Ring.

Even if it was not a King Armament, just the fact that this was something created by four Emperor Stars and the Killing Sword made it something that could cause massive waves in the Heaven Awaken World.

Zhao Fu looked at the Emperor Killing Sword's name and found that it had not changed. However, there were many other names, making Zhao Fu feel quite shocked. This was the first time he had seen something like this.

Emperor Path Sword... an Emperor's sword that has gathered incredible amounts of Emperor's Power. Its aura can cause countless creatures to submit and unify the world.

Sword Path Sword... an extreme sword that has gathered the most powerful sword intent. It has sharpness that can split apart the heavens and slash through countless things.

Fate Sword... an item that has gathered a massive amount of Fate. It has attributes like that of a Nation Armament and can gather a large amount of Fate.

Killing Path Sword... an item that has gathered massive amounts of killing intent. It contains extreme killing power and the person who wields this sword can kill gods.

Conquering Sword... a holy sword that contains an intense aura of conquering. This sword can give the soldiers being led incredible power.

Disaster Sword... an inauspicious sword containing an aura of disaster that can cause all sorts of disasters.

Disease Sword... an evil sword containing all kinds of diseases that can cause all sorts of disease.

Sin Devil Sword... a sword containing sin devil intent and can cause all kinds of abnormal signs that can harm all living things.

Chaos Sword... a sword containing boundless chaotic intent. When this sword appears, the world will fall into chaos.

Human Master Sword... with the Human race's Emperor Star's power, this sword can command countless Humans. Whether they are Emperors, Kings, ministers, or commoners, all are servants in front of this sword.

Devil Master Sword... with the Devil race's Emperor Star's power, this sword can command countless Devils. Whether they are Emperors, Kings, ministers, or commoners, all are servants in front of this sword.

Ghost Master Sword... with the Death race's Emperor Star's power, this sword can command countless Ghosts. Whether they are Emperors, Kings, ministers, or commoners, all are servants in front of this sword.

There were twelve names in total, and they all had different attributes. The Emperor Killing Sword was the main sword name, and the other twelve were subsidiary sword names. This sword could be called the Emperor Killing Sword and also any one of the twelve other swords.

Chapter 1349: Emperor Path Sword

It was likely that no one had ever seen so many names on a sword before. Anyone could make up random names for a sword, but the Emperor Killing Sword's twelve names represented twelve terrifying powers.

For example, for the Emperor Path Sword, anyone who held the sword, even if they were just a King or an ordinary person, they could use the mighty Emperor's Power.

For the Sword Path Sword, anyone who wielded the sword could control unimaginably powerful sword intent. Even though that sword intent was not from one's own comprehension, they would still be able to control it.

For the Ghost Master Sword, anyone who used the sword would be able to wield powerful Ghost Power, and the sword would be able to suppress countless Ghosts. No Ghost would not fear it.

It could be seen that the Emperor Killing Sword's twelve names were not just for show; they represented twelve different powers and attributes. It was incredibly powerful and Zhao Fu was quite shocked. He had never seen such a terrifying sword before, and it could be called a divine sword.

Even the legendary Celestial Sword definitely would not have as many attributes as the Emperor Killing Sword. Moreover, all of the attributes were quite powerful, and none of them were useless.

If the Sword Sect knew about this sword's attributes, they would be delirious with joy. Even with all of their history and experience, they would have never seen a sword like this before. If they could obtain this sword, not only would they not destroy it, but they would make it the supreme treasure of their Sect.

Even the Heaven Awaken World's number one sword would pale in comparison to the Emperor Killing Sword. What's more, the Emperor Killing Sword was a sword that could grow.

As the core item of the Emperor Killing Sword World, as the Emperor Killing Sword World grew, its power would also increase. Anyone would be able to imagine just how terrifying this sword be when it developed even more. This was indeed a sword that could harm all living beings and create great chaos.

The Emperor Killing Sword's grade was still Origin grade, and it had not changed.

Zhao Fu looked at the sword's stats. Indeed, it had a whole list of additional stats:

Increases EXP gained by 1000%, Achievement Points gained by 500%, increases chances of spawning S grade or above villagers by 500%, increases maximum number of special professions by 500%, increases stats of all villages by 40%, increases crop production by 500%, reduces crop growing time by 500%, and increases natural disaster resistance by 1000%.

These stats were similar to the King Armament Shard from before, but they were much more powerful.

The EXP and Achievement Points were not very useful to Zhao Fu; the spawn and special profession stats were somewhat useful, but what delighted Zhao Fu the most were the production stats.

Almost all Cities' production stats had disappeared, while the Emperor Killing Sword gave production stats. This meant that it could reduce growing time and increase output – this was a stat that usually belonged to Cities.

The Emperor Killing Sword also had special effects like that of General Armaments, but they were called Emperor Aura Formation, Emperor Light, Emperor Courage, Emperor Weapons, Emperor Power, and Four Emperor Soldiers.

They were mostly similar to the special effects of the General Armaments except two of them. The Emperor Aura Formation could gather the power of one billion soldiers and form an incredibly massive battle beast.

Secondly, the Four Emperor Soldiers effect could give the four Emperor Stars' power to ordinary soldiers.

Even though it could not give much of the Emperor Stars' power, given how terrifying Zhao Fu's Emperor Stars were, even a trace of power would make ordinary soldiers much more powerful.

These were the attributes, stats, and effects of the King Armament, apart from one, which was the Sword Domain. The Emperor Killing Sword could also cast a barrier that covered an entire world.

This barrier was naturally incredibly powerful, and it was formed from the power of the twelve swords. Given how terrifying the twelve swords were, if Zhao Fu unleashed his barrier, it would be impossible for almost any ordinary person to destroy it.

At the same time, these stats were just the Emperor Killing Sword's most basic stats. After the Emperor Killing Sword became stronger, they too would grow.

Thinking about that, Zhao Fu entered the Emperor Killing Sword World; it had most likely gone through big changes.

After entering, Zhao Fu felt quite surprised. The sky was still blue, but there were no clouds. There were blood-red, violet, gold, and gray stars in the sky, and even though they gave off different starlight, they did not have much of an effect and did not dye the sky different colors.

Wind blew across the grass, and the berserk and terrifying killing sword intent had been greatly reduced; instead, a powerful Emperor's aura had appeared.

Zhao Fu looked at the people in Sword Obsession and found that they had obtained some traces of Emperor's Power. There were not many other changes, and Zhao Fu let out a sigh of relief.

After returning to the outside world, Zhao Fu smiled as he looked at the Emperor Killing Sword before carefully putting it away. He understood how powerful its attributes and stats were, so it was best to use it as sparingly as possible in order to not be exposed.

However, Zhao Fu was not worried about other people stealing it because even if someone else stole it, they would not be able to use it. The Emperor Killing Sword could only be used by him, and it might not be possible to even replace the sword spirit.

The sword spirit could affect the Emperor Killing Sword, but the Emperor Killing Sword was truly controlled by Zhao Fu. After all, the Emperor Killing Sword was the Heart Killing Sword that Zhao Fu had forged from the Clear Sable Sword, and he also controlled the Emperor Killing Sword World.

If the sword spirit resisted, Zhao Fu could forcefully suppress it. The sword spirit had only been sent into the sword, and because it was not a spirit born from the sword itself, it could not control the sword.

Zhao Fu had also fused his four Emperor Stars' power into it, so he did not have to worry about a backlash from the Emperor Killing Sword. No matter how evil and dark the sword became, it would not harm him.

If someone else obtained the sword, they would receive all kinds of backlashes, and they would not be able to block it, even if they had a large amount of Fate. This was because the sword power could invade one's Fate.

"Congratulations, Your Majesty, for obtaining such a divine weapon!" The Commanders and Generals came up and smiled as they spoke.

Zhao Fu nodded as he smiled. Not too long after, the sun rose. Before Zhao Fu could rest, a large number of problems arose.

Many ambassadors from the surroundings came to Great Qin, wanting to know what had happened. They were most curious about the four stars in the sky, and why they had such immense power.

Last time, Zhao Fu had feigned ignorance, but no one would believe him if he did the same thing this time. As such, he could only try to find another excuse.

Chapter 1350: Celestial Peach

Zhao Fu thought about it before deciding to say that Great Qin had an expert helping it, who cast a fate-changing technique to bless Great Qin to remain prosperous. Those four stars were just abnormal signs caused by that technique.

This was more believable than saying that he did not know anything. However, only a small portion of people believed this and most still did not believe it. After all, no one would tell the truth for such a big matter.

They mainly came over to see if there were any big changes in Great Qin. If there were, they would have to be careful and prepare countermeasures against Great Qin.

The surrounding factions were easy to deal with because Great Qin was the most powerful faction here. Even if some ordinary factions did not feel satisfied, they would not dare to say anything. What Zhao Fu was worried about were the ambassadors of Royal Kingdoms; they would not be easy to deal with.

If they did not deal with things properly and a Royal Kingdom attacked, Great Qin would be doomed; Zhao Fu did not want such a thing to happen.

Facing these people, if Zhao Fu lied, they would not believe him at all. However, it was impossible for him to tell them the truth, so he could only drag things out.

Zhao Fu ordered people to take good care of the ambassadors but not answer anything and not to offend them. They were to treat them amicably, and after this matter settled down, it would be much easier to take care of.

In response, some of the factions were not very pleased, and they even considered attacking Great Qin. However, they were hundreds of worlds away from Great Qin, and even if they teleported, moving all of their soldiers would not be an easy task.

Now, Great Qin had four worlds. Even though it did not have a very powerful foundation, no one dared to bully it, and anyone would have to pay a price if they wanted to destroy it.

More importantly, many Royal Kingdoms favored it, so if they sent soldiers to attack and Great Qin chose to seek the protection of a Royal Kingdom, they would not gain anything and would instead make a dangerous enemy.

A few days later, the waves that this matter had caused gradually died down, and Zhao Fu let out a sigh of relief. He had been living on edge for the past few days.

However, what surprised Zhao Fu was that not only was the Greenwood Kingdom willing to marry Princess Qingmu to Great Qin, but the Wine Sun Kingdom also expressed its willingness to marry Princess Jiu Xiaoyun to Great Qin. The Ancient God Sect was also willing to send Gu Qingyue over to have a look if Great Qin's Legatee was suitable.

This made countless people feel incredibly shocked. Why did these three large Royal Kingdoms favor Zhao Fu so much, sacrificing their most important women?

Then, something that shocked them even more happened – the Heavenly Music Sect also expressed its intentions of choosing Great Qin's Legatee to be Yin Ruoshi's husband.

Everyone was sent into an uproar, and many people's hearts ached. They had never thought that even the Heavenly Music Sect would do such a thing. It was one of the top factions in the Ancient Stem Domain, and Yin Ruoshi was the number one beauty in the Ancient Stem Domain. Because she wore a veil, many people had never seen her looks before.

Now, Zhao Fu's name resounded in all directions, and everyone felt curious about why these large factions were acting like this.

Zhao Fu felt quite curious, but soon, he took a great shock. He remembered that at the Ancient Stem Banquet, he had summoned three Emperor Stars, and everyone in the inner regions of the Ancient Stem Domain had seen this. They had definitely connected the dots.

Zhao Fu immediately felt cold sweat run down his body, and he felt that Great Qin was going to face a great catastrophe. He was worried that in the next instant, a few Royal Kingdoms would come attacking.

Zhao Fu did not hesitate and immediately sent out countless intelligence officers and had them collect information. In the end, Zhao Fu let out a sigh of relief, as none of the Royal Kingdoms seemed to show any signs of gathering their armies.

Could it be that his identity had not been exposed? Zhao Fu felt quite confused, but from the intelligence reports, it seemed that the Royal Kingdoms had sent people to secretly investigate Zhao Fu and they seemed to suspect that there was a connection between him and that mysterious Emperor. However, they were not sure if Zhao Fu was that mysterious Emperor.

This time, four Emperor Stars had descended, instead of three, and they had been summoned when he had fused the King Armament, so the ripples were not as great as when the Emperor Stars had awakened. Not too many people had sensed this.

The ripples had been the greatest when the Emperor Killing Sword had devoured the Heaven and Earth Fate, and that was what alerted most people. The aura was also different than the aura from before – Zhao Fu’s aura was now that of a Divine aura, as opposed to a Sovereign aura.

Zhao Fu was relatively sure that his identity had not been exposed, or else the Ancient Sword Sect, Bear Mountain Kingdom, and Nether Yin Kingdom would have directly attacked.

At the same time, Zhao Fu found out that the news of the Heavenly Music Sect wanting to marry Yin Ruoshi to Great Qin was false, and it was just a rumor someone had made up.

However, the three other factions really did have intentions of marrying their women over to Great Qin. They most likely saw Great Qin’s potential and felt that Great Qin was hiding some terrifying power. They were confident that Great Qin could become a Royal Kingdom.

Zhao Fu felt at ease, and now that he thought of it, even if other Royal Kingdoms really attacked, Great Qin would not be doomed. Zhao Fu could ask for help from the higher-being he knew; he most likely would be able to protect Great Qin.

It was just that with Zhao Fu’s personality, and as Great Qin’s Emperor, it was not easy for him to go and ask someone for help. However, if the higher-being could protect Great Qin, for Great Qin’s residents, he was willing to put down some of his pride.

Facing the three Royal Kingdom’s intentions, Zhao Fu could only tactfully decline. He did not want to remain mysterious, and he decided to publicize everything and withdraw any connections to the mysterious Emperor.

Of course, even if he were to publicize everything, he would still have to hide some things. For this purpose, Zhao Fu spent a lot to obtain something that could change his appearance.

There were many items in the Heaven Awaken World that could change one’s appearance, but it would be easy to see through them. Zhao Fu had obtained an Appearance-Changing Divine Liquid, which was said to have been made from taking thousands of people’s faces, and it could change one’s appearance into dozens of other people’s appearances. It was quite effective and was difficult to see through.

As such, Zhao Fu used the Appearance-Changing Divine Liquid to make his looks extremely ordinary, because ordinary-looking people would not draw too much attention.

Moreover, Zhao Fu personally met with the various ambassadors, who felt incredibly disappointed. They had never expected Great Qin's famous and mysterious Legatee to look so plain; no wonder he always wore a mask.

Without the mask, and looking at the extremely ordinary face, Zhao Fu no longer seemed mysterious and was just a normal person.

The ambassadors spread this news, and countless women who had been interested in Zhao Fu felt greatly disappointed. The peerlessly handsome man they expected did not exist, and he was simply an ordinary-looking person.

After hearing about this, Princess Qingmu actually ran to Great Qin and mocked Zhao Fu to take revenge before leaving, looking quite pleased.

Zhao Fu felt quite speechless and did not mind too much. He behaved himself and remained within Great Qin, not making any trouble.

A few days later, Zhao Fu felt quite delighted because the Celestial Peach pit had sprouted, and the golden dragon suggested transplanting it elsewhere.
