Chapter 1391: Underworld Treasure Trove

After all, after conquering a world, they had to use bloody force to suppress any resistance. Only by striking fear into their hearts would they be obedient. If they were treated too well, they would instead start to rebel.

This Royal City belonged to one of the Legatees Zhao Fu had killed. They had resisted intensely but had quickly been conquered.

Great Qin's soldiers were also fighting in other Continents to destroy the resisting factions. At the same time, they were conquering region after region. Because this Continent was the closest and was taken control of the earliest, Zhao Fu made it their temporary headquarters in the Corpse Pall World. After all the fighting was finished, they would calculate their gains and losses.

After Zhao Fu came to the Royal Palace, Wang Ergou gave a flattering smile and said, "Your Majesty, this lowly one has already prepared a place for you."

Hearing this, Zhao Fu nodded and followed him to a resting area. There were 30 or so Corpse Pall women there with different expressions. Some looked worried, some looked terrified, some looked hateful, and some looked downcast.

They had been talking, but seeing Wang Ergou bring Zhao Fu in, they all closed their mouths in fear because they knew who Zhao Fu was.

Wang Ergou introduced them, "Your Majesty, they are from the imperial family of this Kingdom. Some were the King's Concubines, and this lowly one brought you the prettiest ones. Also, this one is the Empress and this one is the Empress Dowager."

Zhao Fu looked at the two women Wang Ergou was pointing at. One of them was tall and had supple skin and peerlessly beautiful looks. She wore a white palace dress and gave off a cold and aloof aura; she was the Empress and was called Shi Shuili. She was most likely one of the top-ranked beauties in the Corpse Pall World.

The other had a curvy figure and wore a silver palace dress. She gave off a gentle and loving aura, and she was most likely the Empress Dowager and was called Shi Yuelian.

Both of them looked at Zhao Fu hatefully because Zhao Fu had not only destroyed their Kingdom but had killed their man as well.

“Please enjoy yourself, Your Majesty, this lowly one will head out now.” Seeing Zhao Fu look at the Empress and Empress Dowager and seem a bit interested, he gave a joyous smile and left first and closed the door.

Zhao Fu walked towards the group of women and started to enjoy his spoils of war.

Shi Su, Shi Xiao, and the other Legatees had wanted to find Zhao Fu to discuss some matters and convince Great Qin not to use such cold and bloody force, but Wang Ergou blocked outside the door.

Wang Ergou smiled as he said, “His Majesty is busy right now; only women can go in.”

Shi Su and Shi Xiao did not understand at first, but after coming outside and hearing the intense noises from within, they understood. Shi Su gave a charming smile and opened the door and saw women lying all over the ground. The Empress Shi Shuili and the Empress Dowager Shi Yuelian were currently panting under Zhao Fu’s body.

Facing this scene, Shi Su flirtatiously laughed and walked towards Zhao Fu. Shi Xiao’s expression was quite unsightly and she was quite angry as she gripped her fists.

She had heard that every time Great Qin’s Emperor conquered a place, he would gather all of the beauties and enjoy them. Even though Zhao Fu was the victor and had the right to do anything, the Legatee who he had killed had been the one she was closest with and they had slight feelings for each other.

However, not only had Zhao Fu killed him, but he had also taken his women, his mother, and his little sister. His mother was someone who he had loved deeply, but she was now moaning lewdly under another man’s body.

Shi Su already joined in and Shi Xiao wanted to leave but did not dare. With Great Qin's Emperor's cold and ruthless personality, not only would he mistreat her, but he would also not let off her faction and relatives either.

As such, Shi Xiao could only wait by the door. Shi Su soon collapsed and pleaded for mercy, and Shi Xiao looked quite disdainful.

Suddenly, Shi Xiao felt a massive formless energy grab her and pull her within the room, and the door closed with a slam.

Zhao Fu took off the bandages around Shi Xiao's body and started to ravage her.

Night gradually fell and a large, round moon appeared in the sky, and the bright moonlight illuminated the night.

Zhao Fu hugged Shi Xiao and Shi Su and enjoyed the afterglows of their intense activities. Shi Xiao's face was red, and even though she tried to resist in her heart, she could not help but lean against Zhao Fu's chest. Thinking about how she had just been so lewd like those other women, she felt incredibly ashamed.

"Are the rumors in the Corpse Pall World true? Did the seven of you obtain the keys to an Underworld Treasure Trove?" Zhao Fu looked at Shi Xiao and asked.

Before Shi Xiao could reply, Shi Su said, trying to curry favor, "It's true, husband. However, we already opened the treasure trove, which was how we unified the Continents so quickly."

Hearing this, Zhao Fu felt a bit disappointed because he had been quite interested in that Underworld Treasure Trove. However, it had already been opened by them and used.

Seeing Zhao Fu's disappointed expression, Shi Su kissed Zhao Fu and said as she smiled, "Husband, even though we already opened the treasure trove, the seven keys are still very useful and can open an Underworld historical remnant.

"However, that the historical remnant is in the Underworld. We're unable to head there, so we haven't used the keys. It's said that there are even more precious treasures there."

Zhao Fu smiled and hugged Shi Su with both arms as he asked, “Is that so? What kind of things?”

Seeing Zhao Fu hug Shi Su with both arms and looking like he was spoiling her, Shi Xiao felt a bit neglected and wronged. That fellow had just taken her body, but he was now ignoring her.

However, it was her fault for not taking her chances. Zhao Fu had asked her, but Shi Su had grasped this opportunity.

Shi Su also told Zhao Fu about the history of the treasure trove. Back during the Legacy Trial, they had passed trials, become Legatees, and had obtained the keys. The treasure trove was bound to the Corpse Pall World and contained countless treasures.

As for the Underworld historical remnant, they did not know much about it and only had a location. Only the seven keys could open it and it had to be someone from the Death Race with a massive amount of Fate. Within the historical remnant was something that could allow the Corpse Pall Race to rise within the Heaven Awaken World.

Listening to there, Zhao Fu felt quite interested because he had a method to head to the Underworld since a long time ago, which was the Underworld Royal Seal.

If he could obtain 100 Underworld Royal Seals, he would be able to open the Underworld Gate. Before, Zhao Fu did not have any reason to go to the Underworld, so he had never gone. Now, he decided to go and take a look.

Following this, Great Qin took control of the other Continents in the Corpse Pall World and the resisting factions were all crushed. Wang Jian calculated the results from this battle, and they had made great gains.

Chapter 1392: Underworld Gate

They obtained 45 billion people and 80,000 Cities. Because of the Heaven Domain Boundary, they did not lose too many people or Cities from people escaping.

Now, Great Qin had 370 billion people, which was a shocking number. They had 520,000 Cities, and it was a pity that City Lord Seals were not as useful as before. Otherwise, with 520,000 City Lords, he would have had the power to sweep across everything.

Zhao Fu left some soldiers to continue to clear out the Corpse Pall World and take control while Zhao Fu brought the main army back to Great Qin.

Zhao Fu had obtained the seven keys, and they looked somewhat strange. They were about 30 centimeters long, gray, and seemed to be made out of iron. There were mythical creatures carved on the top of each of the keys: a dragon, a black turtle, a vermilion bird, a white tiger, a qilin, a tao tie, and a qiong qi.

Zhao Fu did not understand the meaning behind this. After returning to Great Qin, he wanted to head to the Underworld and investigate this historical remnant.

However, a shocking and enraging piece of news came: The Wind God Empire had declared that the Half-Beast World, Grassi World, and Elf World now belonged to it.

Because this matter dealt with two large factions, the Wind God Empire was more courteous and asked them to leave instead of telling them to scam.

Of the three worlds, Great Qin occupied four Continents and the remaining ones were occupied by the Devil Horn Empire. Great Qin and the Devil Horn Empire were the strongest factions here, so the Wind God Empire had to show some restraint.

After all, destroying these two factions would cause the Wind God Empire great losses. Moreover, the Wind God Empire had its own enemies and could not afford to move all of its troops over here.

However, as a Royal Kingdom from the inner regions of the Ancient Stem Domain, they had enough confidence and power to suppress the Devil Horn Empire and Great Qin, forcing them to leave without having to fight and suffer a loss.

The three worlds had practically no people or Cities, and they were essentially three shells. Because there was often fighting there, no one moved their population or Cities over.

The people from the three worlds had escaped to other worlds, and some had been taken in by Great Qin while others had submitted to the Devil Horn Empire.

However, even if the three worlds were just shells, occupying them could provide a large amount of Fate. Now that the Wind God Empire had said that it wanted those three worlds, it did not give any room for negotiations and did not place the two factions in its eyes at all.

It was not just Great Qin that was angered; the Devil Horn Empire was infuriated as well. It had the most Continents in those three worlds and would suffer the most.

This was especially so given that Great Qin had just conquered the Corpse Pall World and now had five worlds. The Devil Horn Empire only had three worlds, and if it lost so many Continents, it would become much weaker than Great Qin.

Now, they had to decide if they wanted to give those Continents over. The Wind God Empire was determined to obtain those words, and the two factions were not a match for a Royal Kingdom from the inner regions.

Yao Ming tried to contact the Royal Kingdoms supporting the Devil Horn Empire, but no one expressed any willingness to help. It was quite difficult for them to stop a Royal Kingdom from the inner regions, and they were not willing to suffer a massive loss for someone else.

Zhao Fu also contacted others, but the result was the same – no one was willing to help. Zhao Fu also spread this news to the inner regions of the Domain, hoping some factions that had enmity with the Wind God Empire would do something.

However, he was left disappointed. Even though they already knew about this, they did not do anything. It seemed that he could not rely on anyone else.

The Wind God Empire gave them three days – within those three days, everyone had to leave, or the Wind God Empire would attack.

Seeing that he could not protect so many Continents, Yao Ming decided to benefit from this situation as much as he could, such as by having the Wind God Empire attack Great Qin or asking them to help the Devil Horn Empire take down another world.

However, the Wind God Empire discourteously refused and did not give the Devil Horn Empire any face at all. They were a Royal Kingdom from the inner regions and did not take the Devil Horn Empire seriously. How could they agree to a request from the Devil Horn Empire?

Right now, the Wind God Empire's attitude was such that if anyone did not give them what they wanted, they would take it by force. They were not open to any negotiations or discussions.

This greatly infuriated Yao Ming; he was rarely humiliated like this. If it was an ordinary faction, he would have long since attacked at any cost.

However, in the end, he could only withdraw from the three worlds because he could not afford to fight with the Wind God Empire.

Great Qin did the same and gave up on the four Continents. Fortunately, the four Continents were just shells, so they did not lose too much.

Zhao Fu also felt quite angry about this situation; it had been quite difficult to conquer those four Continents and yet they had been taken away just like that. However, he was not as strong as the other side, so he could only take a step back; after gathering some strength, he would take his revenge.

At the same time, he felt immense pressure because the Wind God Empire's aim was now incredibly clear – with the Charm Devil World, it had now taken four worlds.

To be able to obtain four worlds so easily, anyone would feel incredibly envious. The Wind God Empire was the strongest faction here and had the second most territory. Adding on the Wind Spirit World within the Heaven Domain Boundary, it could be said to have five worlds here, which was the same as Great Qin.

The Wind God Empire would definitely make a move against Great Qin, so Zhao Fu had to quickly find a way to deal with the Wind God Empire. Otherwise, Great Qin would most likely perish at the Wind God Empire's hands.

Now, Zhao Fu had two choices: the first was to obtain a large number of points in the Outer World to deal with the Wind God Empire; the second was to head to the Underworld historical remnant and hope that he would be able to obtain valuable treasures and items.

Zhao Fu thought about it and made a decision. The Outer World did not require him to personally go, so he handed this matter to Bai Xihan and the others. All they would have to do was clear out

Insect Dens every day, which would give them a large number of points, while he could go to the Underworld.

After making this decision, Zhao Fu did not hesitate and called the Black and White Impermanences. They were from the Underworld, so bringing them would make things much more convenient.

The first thing to do was to open the Underworld Gate. Zhao Fu came to the place where they converted Yin Soldiers; this place had become a special land and was directly connected to the Underworld. Large amounts of Underworld Yin Qi flowed out from here, making it a suitable place to open the Underworld Gate.

Zhao Fu was not sure what he would encounter, so he diligently prepared various things.

The Black and White Impermanences were quite happy, as they could return to the Underworld. They came from the Underworld and had friends and family there, so they naturally missed the Underworld greatly. They had come to Great Qin during the Ghost Festival and had not returned for seven or eight years.

After making preparations, Zhao Fu brought the Black and White Impermanences and 100 Underworld Royal Seals and came to the place to open the Underworld Gate.

Chapter 1393: Yin Beast

Zhao Fu stretched out a hand and a formless energy grabbed the 100 Underworld Royal Seals, causing them to float around him. Zhao Fu squatted down and pressed his hand against the ground. The 100 Underworld Royal Seals turned into rays of light and shot into the ground.

Immediately, the heavens and earth dimmed and the clouds swirled. The surrounding Yin Qi quickly gathered, and even more Yin Qi madly flooded over from further away as well, covering the sky.

A complicated, profound, and cold magic formation appeared underneath Zhao Fu's feet. It was 100 meters wide and gave off waves of gray light.

The surrounding Yin Qi started to spin around the magic formation and a massive vortex of Yin Qi appeared. It gave off massive noises and gave off an incredibly eerie and cold aura.

Zhao Fu pressed his hand against the ground and his expression became serious as he sent his Six Paths of Reincarnation Power into the magic formation and lightly cried out, "Underworld Gate... open!"

Boom!

A massive explosion sounded out as the 100 meter wide magic formation instantly absorbed all of the surrounding Yin Qi and gave off intense light as it started to spin. A massive wave of Yin energy spread out and sank down into the ground.

A pair of stone gates and two tiger stone statues slowly rose up from the ground, and an incredibly ancient aura spread out like a tsunami.

Finally, the stone gates were completely revealed. They were 12 meters tall and three meters wide, and there were countless ghosts carved on them. They looked incredibly evil and had all kinds of wicked smiles. They were in fighting stances, as if they were hunting for food, and they looked incredibly lifelike and gave off a powerful sense of intimidation.

The two tiger statues next to the stone gates were three meters tall and had wings on their backs. They were exquisitely carved and looked like they were alive. They seemed to be filled with might and looked like two real tigers.

These stone tigers were Yin Beasts, and there were many historical records about tigers being auspicious animals, such as that ghosts did not dare to enter doors with tigers on them and that tigers warded off evil.

As such, ancient tombs all had tigers engraved on them or had stone tigers to ward off evil to make sure that the ones inside the tombs were not eaten by evil ghosts.

Now, after opening these stone gates, Zhao Fu would be able to enter the Underworld. He would be able to enter freely from now on and would not have to summon it every time.

The Black and White Impermanences gave excited smiles. They walked over to Zhao Fu and hugged each of his arms; after doing it with Zhao Fu, they had become even more mature and alluring.

The White Impermanence, Bai Xiaoxi, said shyly, “Husband, if we have time, can we visit our families?”

The Black Impermanence, Hei Xiaojie, smiled as she said, “Husband, we have a few good sisters in our family. I’ll call them over to properly serve you; with your charm, they’ll definitely like you a lot.”

Zhao Fu thought about it and it was not a very big deal, so he smiled and agreed. Following this, Zhao Fu went up and pushed open the stone gates and brought the Black and White Impermanences in.

On the other side, the Devil Horn Empire was also doing all it could to increase its strength. It understood that the Wind God Empire would definitely make a move against it in the future, so it needed enough power to protect itself.

Now that it had given out so many Continents, it only had three worlds left and had fallen behind Great Qin by two worlds. As such, Yao Ming decided to attack another world.

Great Qin heard about this but did not do much because of the threat of the Wind God Empire. Great Qin was also thinking of ways to quickly increase its strength. If it continued to fight with the Devil Horn Empire, it would be the Wind God Empire who benefitted the most.

Also, now that the Wind God Empire had taken over the Half-Beast, Grassi, and Elf Worlds, it had come in between Great Qin and the Devil Horn Empire, making it difficult to directly attack each other.

The world that the Devil Horn Empire attacked was the world next to the Rock Spirit World. Because the worlds below it belonged to the Wind God Empire and it had signed Contracts with the ones above, it could only expand to the sides.

Because the Wind God Empire was to the right, the Devil Horn Empire decided to expand to the left.

That world was a Water Race world, and the residents were fish people. These people had the heads of fish and human bodies. Even though they looked quite ugly, they were not weak at all and could live on both land and water.

The Devil Horn Empire had prepared countless ships to enter the Fishman World. Because they mostly lived in the water, the Devil Horn Empire was at a disadvantage.

However, Yao Ming had thought of a countermeasure, which he had prepared for the Merman World. However, because of the Wind God Empire, he could only use it against the Fishman World.

The Fishmen could not construct defensive walls and gather together to fight to the death because it was simply impractical to do so underwater. Moreover, if they gathered together, they might all be destroyed by the Devil Horn Empire together.

They wanted to use their advantage of living in the sea to resist the Devil Horn Empire's invasion.

Countless ships sailed into the Fishman World, and countless Fishmen hid underwater, giving cold smiles. The water was their domain, and they would not fear the Devil Horn army. Most of the Devil Horn Empire's powerful devil beast army could not go underwater, so the Fishmen had quite a big advantage.

Swish, swish, swish...

Sharp coral arrows shot out from underwater, containing immense power as they shot at the Devil Horn soldiers on the ships. Some Fishmen charged at the Devil Horn army's ships, wanting to destroy them and have the soldiers fall into the water.

Facing the arrows from underwater, the Devil Horn army was prepared and activated barriers on the ships, blocking the arrows.

Facing the countless Fishmen charging over, the Devil Horn soldiers threw down red crystals into the water. They dissolved and turned the water red, which quickly spread.

After entering the red water, the Fishmen were given a big shock as they felt immense pain in their heads. The red crystals were a type of lethal poison called Deep Sea Blood, and it was targeted at killing underwater creatures. It dissolved into water quickly and the poison also spread quickly.

The Fishmen who entered the red water violently struggled and cried out as blood leaked out of their seven orifices before they died, and their bodies floated to the surface of the water.

The other Fishmen's expressions fell and they quickly fell back.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Explosions sounded out as harpoons shot out from the ships, powerfully slamming into the water and creating massive shockwaves.

The shockwaves were incredibly powerful and easily tore the Fishmen's bodies to pieces. As the shockwaves spread out, countless Fishmen's bodies were torn apart and blood dyed the water blood-red. Countless fragmented corpses floated on the surface of the water, making anyone shiver.

Chapter 1394: Fishmen People

“Roar! Roar! Roar...” Massive creatures appeared underwater. There were 100 meter long swordfish, massive sharks, and octopi that were as big as small mountains. There were also 100 meter long sea snakes and enormous tortoises.

These sea beasts appeared from the side and gave off massive auras, causing the Fishmen people's expressions to become ones of fear. These sea beasts were creatures that the Devil Horn Empire had nurtured and did not belong to the Fishmen people.

The sea beasts attacked from the side – the swordfish shot out like bolts of lightning and countless Fishmen's bodies were cut apart. Countless sharks also charged over and bit with their mouths, tearing apart countless Fishmen people's bodies.

An enormous sea snake rushed into a group of Fishmen people and opened its large mouth, devouring many Fishmen people. A massive octopus stretched out its countless tentacles and sent countless people flying.

The Fishmen World had eight Continents and Yao Ming split the Devil Horn army into eight armies. They mainly relied on the sea beasts, Deep Sea Blood, and harpoons to massacre the Fishmen people.

Some devil beasts were given Water Pearls, allowing them to enter the water, and many Devil Horn soldiers went down as well. The Devil Horn army had immense momentum and seemed like they would be able to take down the Fishmen World soon.

However, the Fishmen people had savage natures and would not submit so easily. They resisted intensely and caused some losses to the Devil Horn Empire.

This caused Yao Ming to be even more ferocious, releasing his anger towards the Wind God Empire on the Fishmen World. He gave the order to eat alive those who resisted.

The Devil Horn soldiers who had drank from the Kin Devil Spirit Fountain were not restrained by morals; some had even eaten their relatives and obtained even greater power. There was nothing stopping them from eating these Fishmen people.

As such, many Fishmen people were leapt on by Devil Horn soldiers with red eyes, who opened their mouths and ripped at the Fishmen people's bodies with their teeth.

The Fishmen people continuously struggled and cried out as they became bloodied messes. They had never thought that the Devil Horn Empire would be so savage and crazy.

In order to spur his people on, Yao Ming grabbed a baby girl and started eating. Her flesh was incredibly tender and Yao Ming was quite surprised to find that the taste of Fishmen people was quite good, and it was just like eating fish.

After eating this baby girl, Yao Ming looked at a woman who was dressed quite provocatively. Her skin was white, but it was a pity that she had a fish head, making it difficult to gain any interest.

However, Yao Ming did not mind; after all, the Devil Race were all originally beasts, and Yao Ming pressed her against the ground and started to ravage her.

The woman was incredibly cooperative, because only then would she be able to live. However, Yao Ming bit down on her and tore off a chunk of flesh and swallowed it, and the woman howled in pain and begged for her life.

Yao Ming did not seem to hear her and continued to eat her while ravaging her, creating a horrific scene.

A while later, the woman was already dead and there was not much left of her. Yao Ming savored the aftertaste.

In the Cities, there were devoured corpses everywhere. The remaining Fishmen people looked terrified; no matter how savage the Fishmen people were, they could only submit under the Devil Horn Empire's bloody suppression.

In the end, Yao Ming was able to successfully conquer the Fishmen World. Now, the Devil Horn Empire had four worlds, and it had closed the distance between it and Great Qin.

“Roar! Roar! Roar! Roar! Roar! Roar!” Six terrifying roars came from the depths of the Underworld and reverberated throughout the entire Underworld, causing the heavens and earth to become dim. The Yin Qi became chaotic and everyone's expressions fell because these were roars from the most terrifying existences in the Underworld, the Six Paths Demon Images. Just what was going on for the Six Paths Demon Images to react so strongly?

Moreover, the Six Paths Demon Images' voices seemed to be filled with fury, as if they wanted to destroy someone into countless pieces and make it so they could never reincarnate. Just who had dared to enrage the sovereigns of the Underworld? Perhaps even Celestials would not dare to antagonize these sovereigns of the Underworld.

From the sounds of the voices, it was definitely something bad. Just as everyone was wondering what was happening...

“轰!”

Boom!

A shocking explosion sounded out, making it seem as if the sky was going to explode. Everyone's expressions once again fell because they could sense that the Six Paths demon Images had broken through the bonds of the Six Paths of Reincarnation and were about to come to the upper level of the Underworld.

“Heavens! Just who could make the Six Paths Demon Images so angry?”

“I’m also curious. I’ve lived in the Underworld for so long but it’s the first time I’ve seen the Six Paths Demon Images like this.”

“That person is dead beyond a doubt. To dare to enrage the Underworld sovereigns, he’s definitely suicidal.”

As everyone cried out in shock, they were once again left shocked. They sensed an incredibly terrifying aura rush out, and nothing could stop it.

The heavens and earth in the Underworld were in complete chaos. The sun and moon became dim and countless ghosts madly howled. Under that horrifying aura, countless people could feel their souls trembling.

“The Six Paths Demon Images are going all-out to kill that person?” Sensing this monstrous aura, countless people were incredibly shocked and curious as to who that person was. Could it be a Celestial from the Underworld?

Boom!

Before everyone could come to their senses, they sensed an incredibly powerful might descend from the sky. Countless people’s bloodlines became cold as they felt the urge to submit, and they all looked towards the sky.

A massive moon-like star gave off a cool light and covered the Underworld. It gave off an immense pressure as it slowly descended.

This star was like a ghost emperor that gave off boundless emperor intent, causing the chaotic Underworld to become calm again. The howling wind stopped blowing and countless ghosts also calmed down as they looked up in awe and worship towards the sky.

“Nether Emperor Star!” Everyone became even more confused; why had the Death Race’s sovereign star come out as well? This was a sovereign star and was not ordinary; its power surpassed anything people could imagine.

Right after entering the Underworld, Zhao Fu heard six massive roars before realizing that he had forgotten something important. There was great enmity between him and the Six Paths Demon Images. He had severely mistreated their clones, so how could their true bodies not know?

Following this he felt a massive aura flood towards him, and Zhao Fu sank into terror, feeling as if he was a small boat in the middle of an ocean.

At that moment, the Nether Emperor Star escaped Zhao Fu's control and seemed incredibly excited, feeling that this was where it belonged.

Chapter 1395: Underworld

The Nether Emperor Star was the Death Race's sovereign Emperor Star and within the Underworld, it was like a tiger that was given wings. With the massive amounts of Yin Qi and Fate, its power was raised to the extreme. It had the power to suppress the heavens and earth and cause all ghosts to capitulate.

The Underworld became calm again, and the berserk Six Paths Demon Images seemed to be restricted by some kind of power and did not make any more noise. Soon, the Nether Emperor Star faded into the sky.

Only then did everyone come back to their senses. They realized that the person who the Six Paths Demon Images wanted to kill was the possessor of the Nether Emperor Star. The possessor of the Nether Emperor Star was quite terrifying and directly unleashed a power that could calm down the entire world.

What most people paid attention to was the Nether Emperor Star. It was the first time that most of them had seen it, and they were familiar with the other Emperor Stars of the Underworld.

Moreover, this Nether Emperor Star did not give off a pure Underworld aura but a Heaven Awaken World aura. It was most likely some terrifying figure from the Heaven Awaken World who had come to the Underworld.

Thinking to there, the various factions felt quite interested in this person because that Nether Emperor Star was simply too terrifying. Moreover, something must have happened between him and the Six Paths Demon Images, or else they would not be so angry.

As such, they sent out scouts to investigate just who this person was. Many of the top-tier factions in the Underworld were roused as well.

Zhao Fu did not know about any of this. Seeing that the world had settled down and the auras from the Six Paths Demon Images had disappeared, he let out a sigh of relief and started to look around him.

The Underworld was filled with a cold and eerie aura, and the ground was black. It was also quite dim, and there was fog everywhere. The sun in the sky was a gray-white color and anyone there would feel large amounts of Yin Qi assaulting them, making their hairs stand on end.

“Husband, you made such a big ruckus right after coming to the Underworld. Looks like we have to be careful,” Hei Xiaojie said as she glared at him.

Zhao Fu nodded; but then again, this was not something he could control.

He had sealed the Six Paths Demon Images’ clones in his body, and after coming to the Underworld, they had immediately sensed him.

This was a massive provocation. Back in the Heaven Awaken World, they could not do anything to Zhao Fu, so they could only bide their time. However, this person had dared to come to the Underworld, making the Six Paths Demon Images incredibly furious.

“Husband, this place is the Yin Water Land and is quite far away from the historical remnant. It’ll take us some time to get there,” Bai Xiaoxi said after looking around.

Even though the Underworld did not have any worlds being added to it, it was enormous and could be said to be boundless. The Underworld Gate could bring one to the Underworld, but it could not transport them wherever they wanted.

Following this, the three of them flew in search of a Ghost City. They would be able to use the Ghost City’s teleportation channel, which was much more convenient than flying.

This Yin Water Land was in the outer domains of the Underworld, while the historical remnant was at the center, the Yin Domain.

The Underworld and Heaven Awaken World were both split into three main areas: the Outer Domain, the Inner Domain, and the Central Domain.

The historical remnant was at the very center of the Underworld, which meant that it definitely was not simple. For a historical remnant to be at such a location, it definitely contained great power, and Zhao Fu felt quite excited.

In order to avoid trouble, Zhao Fu and the Black and White Impermanences put on black cloaks and came to a Ghost City, and Zhao Fu saw all sorts of ghosts.

There were ghosts with red faces and two black horns, ghosts dressed in armor and holding weapons, headless ghosts, ghosts wearing white with a massive eye on their foreheads...

The Underworld was a holy land for the Death Race, and almost all creatures here were ghosts. There were practically no other races here.

Zhao Fu did not give this too much mind and used the teleportation channel to head to the next City.

Some Cities here were connected and some were not, as they all belonged to different factions. The Underworld had countless factions, big and small, splitting up the Underworld's territory.

Zhao Fu recalled that having Underworld Royal Seals would allow one to officially possess territory in the Underworld and receive acknowledgement from the Underworld. However, Zhao Fu had come to investigate the historical remnant and naturally did not want to bother with this.

After using teleportation channels a few times, there were no longer any connecting to where they wanted to go, so they could only rely on flying to the next faction.

After travelling for an entire day, the three of them stopped under a large tree to rest. It was now night time, and the moon in the Underworld was silver-white colored and looked quite pretty.

Suddenly, the sounds of horse hooves could be heard as a carriage quickly sped along the ground. The driver looked terrified as he whipped the horses, and there was a large group of soldiers chasing from behind. The soldiers looked incredibly murderous and were most likely out to kill those in the carriage.

Bang!

A muffled sound rang out as the carriage slammed into a large rock and a wheel fell apart. The carriage lost balance, and even though the horses continued to drag the carriage, the carriage had significantly slowed down and was caught up to by the soldiers.

A few people walked out of the carriage – they were four beautiful and mature women. One was tall and gave off a cold aura, one looked like a virtuous woman and held a baby, one gave off a gentle aura and hugged a two year old boy, and one had an incredibly fiery body.

The soldier in the lead coldly laughed and said, “If our lord wants you to die, you must die. You’re all quite pretty though, so if you show us a good time, we’ll give you an easy death.”

The ten or so other soldiers surrounded the women and looked them over as they also laughed.

The cold-looking woman was enraged and drew her sword and started to fight, and the other women were also forced to defend themselves.

The soldiers were not weak, and they all had at least Stage 3 Cultivation. Adding on their numerical superiority, the four women were at a great disadvantage. After a few exchanges, the gentle-looking woman holding the baby was the first to be captured.

“Husband, you’re not going to interfere?” Bai Xiaoxi rested against Zhao Fu’s arm as she looked at this scene and asked Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu indeed did not intend on interfering because his purpose here was to investigate the historical remnant and not to make trouble. However, if they dared to offend him, Zhao Fu naturally would not hold back.

Hei Xiaojei laughed as she said, “Husband, you don’t need to do anything; we’ll take care of this. Those women look pretty nice, and they can come and serve husband.”

Chapter 1396: Condition

Zhao Fu lightly laughed and said, "Do as you will! Go if you want to get involved; stay here if you don't."

Hei Xiaojie smiled as she nodded and continued to watch the fight.

By now, the driver had been killed and his corpse lay within a pool of blood. The beautiful women had also been captured; after threatening to kill the gentle-looking woman, the others could only give in.

The gentle-looking woman cried out, telling the others to leave her and run, but the three women still put down their weapons.

Looking at the four beautiful captured women, the soldiers gave lewd smiles. Some had already taken off their clothes and prepared to have fun with these women.

The cold-looking woman was forced to kneel by two soldiers, and she furiously looked at the soldiers and their lewd gazes. She did not feel any panic and only thought about how to escape.

By now, the soldiers had discovered Zhao Fu and the Black and White Impermanences, and one of them said, "Old Jiu, those Black and White Impermanences are so pretty and have great figures. If I could play with them once, I'd be willing to even die."

Hearing this, the other soldiers looked over and saw the Black and White Impermanences and their seductive figures. They were quite shocked and their heartbeats sped up.

Because they were in the wilderness, Zhao Fu and the Black and White Impermanences did not wear their cloaks. Hearing the soldier's words, Hei Xiaojie lightly laughed and said, "Husband, they're asking for it themselves. What should we do?"

Zhao Fu calmly replied, "Kill them all!"

Hei Xiaojie smiled and stood up and walked towards the group of soldiers, and Bai Xiaoxi followed behind her.

Seeing the Black and White Impermanences walk over, the soldiers looked at each other and gave licentious smiles. The soldier in the lead pointed at the Black and White Impermanences and called out, “We suspect you to be rebels from Nether Ghost City, so you’d best behave.”

Hei Xiaojie smiled and grabbed out with her hand, and that soldier’s body was lifted up by a formless energy. Hei Xiaojie then twisted her hand, and the soldier’s head was twisted 180 degrees.

The other soldiers were given a big fright and realized that Hei Xiaojie and Bai Xiaoxi had Stage 9 Cultivation. They were terrified and immediately knelt and begged for mercy, but Hei Xiaojie still killed all of them.

The four women bowed to the Black and White Impermanences and said in gratitude, “Thank you for saving our lives!”

Hei Xiaojie lightly laughed as she said, “Now that I’ve saved you, you need to repay me. Come with me!”

The women did not understand what Hei Xiaojie meant, but they still followed her and came to where Zhao Fu was. Looking at the incredibly handsome Zhao Fu, who gave off an extraordinary aura, they felt quite shocked.

“Take off your clothes and serve my husband,” Hei Xiaojie said as she smiled and looked at the four women.

The four women’s expressions stiffened; they had never thought that Hei Xiaojie would demand such a thing, and they naturally refused. The gentle-looking woman said with a resolute gaze, “Sorry, but we won’t agree to something like that. We’ll do whatever else we can to repay you.”

The woman with the fiery figure also had a fiery personality, and she said coldly, “Looks like you’re just as evil as those people. You want us to use our bodies to repay you? You might as well kill me!”

Hei Xiaojie continued to smile as she looked menacing at the two children. The virtuous-looking woman understood her intentions, and looking at the sleeping baby in her arms, she hesitated before making the decision to take off her clothes.

The gentle-looking woman, who had been quite resolute, looked at the baby in her arms and gritted her teeth and took off her clothes as well, and she said coldly to Zhao Fu, “We can serve you, but at least let off those two.”

However, the cold-looking woman took off her clothes as well, revealing her figure to Zhao Fu as she said, “We can also serve you, but I have a condition.”

The woman with the fiery figure could not understand and called out, “Big sis!”

The cold-looking woman looked at her and motioned for her to take off her clothes too. The fiery-figured woman could only angrily take off her clothes while glaring at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu looked at the cold-looking woman’s body and smiled as he asked, “What’s the condition?”

A look of flirtatiousness appeared on the cold-looking woman’s face as she sat on Zhao Fu’s lap and wrapped her arms around his neck and smiled as she said, “I’ll tell you after you’ve enjoyed our bodies.”

Zhao Fu thought about it before starting to do it with her.

A while later, the women’s faces were red as they powerlessly lay on the ground. The four women had never thought that doing it with him would be so pleasurable, and it was as if they were in heaven.

The fiery-figured woman turned her head to the side in embarrassment because she had been the lewdest out of the four women. She could not help but think back to the scene of her doing it with Zhao Fu, passionately calling Zhao Fu husband.

Zhao Fu had also found out the four women’s names: The cold-looking woman was called You Qin, the fiery-figured woman was called Yan Yan, the virtuous-looking woman was called Qing Yayuan, and the gentle-looking woman was called Li Ya.

“You want me to use my power and get revenge for you, right?” Zhao Fu asked as he hugged You Qin, the cold-looking woman, with one arm.

Zhao Fu had already guessed at her aim; otherwise, she would not have given out her body so easily.

You Qin lay in Zhao Fu's embrace and lightly hugged him as she smiled and replied, "That's right! With your strength, you should be able to easily resolve this problem. As long as you agree, our bodies will be yours in the future too. We even gave you our bodies first; look how sincere we are."

Lying on the other side of Zhao Fu, Hei Xiaojie disdainfully laughed as she said, "Even if you didn't admit it, your bodies already belong to our husband. After doing it with him, would you really just leave?"

Those words caused You Qin's expression to become cold, but she could only endure it because she knew that she was not a match for Hei Xiaojie. Moreover, even though she didn't want to admit it, what Hei Xiaojie said was true. Doing it with Zhao Fu had been hundreds of times more pleasurable than doing it with her deceased husband.

By the side, Bai Xiaoxi said, "Husband, I think we can agree to her request; after all, didn't you want to nurture a faction in the Underworld? It can provide you with a large amount of resources and population, and it will be a hidden force that most people will not know about. During key moments, it'll be of great use."

Hearing these words, Zhao Fu felt quite interested. After all, this place was not too far away from the portal to the Heaven Awaken World.

You Qin did not quite understand Bai Xiaoxi's words and felt quite curious about Zhao Fu's identity. It was definitely incredibly prestigious because just his aura alone could cause people to submit.

However, none of that was important right now because currently her goal was revenge. Seeing that Zhao Fu was somewhat interested, she hurriedly kissed Zhao Fu and said softly, "Husband, I'm yours from now on and everything in Nether Ghost City is yours. Will you go and take it?"

Zhao Fu thought about it before agreeing and he asked what had happened. Nether Ghost City was a faction that controlled around one hundred Cities. However, someone started a rebellion and killed the City Lord of Nether Ghost City, which was these women's husband.

Now, that person had most likely taken control of Nether Ghost City. That person was called Gui Ye, and he had originally been the Vice-Leader of Nether Ghost City. He had great authority, so it was easy for him to take control of Nether Ghost City.

However, there were many people who supported the original City Lord and not all people rebelled.

Following this, Zhao Fu started to act. He planned to directly kill Gui Ye because Gui Ye only had Earth Realm Cultivation. Even though this was quite strong in the Outer Domain of the Underworld, it was not worth mentioning to Zhao Fu.

You Qin and the others were responsible for contacting the people who supported the original City Lord and have them gather their forces to attack Gui Ye's forces.

Now that Gui Ye had only just seized power, the faction was still in chaos, making it easy to act.

Within the City Hall, there was a middle-aged man who had small eyes but a sharp and cruel gaze. He was Gui Ye, and he was looking through reports.

Currently, he controlled 60% of Nether Ghost City's forces and he sent people to conquer the remainder. Most people remained neutral because they knew that they were not a match for Gui Ye; they waited for Gui Ye to destroy the rebels before submitting.

As for those who remained loyal to the original City Lord, Gui Ye did not show any mercy and sent out forces to get rid of them. If nothing out of the ordinary happened, he will have won and would become the new City Lord of Nether Ghost City. He would not be so useless like the old City Lord and advocate for peace. He would properly govern Nether Ghost City and have it become more powerful and conquer others. He would establish a Ghost Kingdom that belonged to him and his family.

"Husband, you've been working for an entire day; aren't you going to rest?" a voluptuous and somewhat flirtatious-looking woman carried over a bowl and asked caringly.

That woman was Gui Ye's wife, and she was called Liu Yeye. She was his only wife too; he was not very interested in women and put all of his efforts in developing his faction. He had immense drive and ambition.

Gui Ye continued to read through the documents and he did not even look up as he replied, "The faction is in chaos right now and we haven't destroyed all of the rebels. The civilians haven't been pacified either, so I can't rest for now."

Liu Yeye felt quite displeased towards Gui Ye's cold attitude. Since he had married her seven or eight years ago, he had treated her this coldly and had not shown her any love or care.

It was only the night that they were married that he had touched her, and he had not touched her ever since. Liu Yeye had a very strong sex drive, but she could only endure it for Gui Ye, helping him to establish his empire as a good wife.

Liu Yeye thought to herself. Her man had just seized power and become the City Lord of Nether ghost City, so it was understandable that he was quite busy.

In the future, she would be the wife of the leader of Nether Ghost City, the most powerful woman in Nether Ghost City. Anyone who saw her would have to treat her with utmost respect and try to curry favor with her. If Gui Ye could show her more love in the future, that would be the best as well.

Seeing how coldly Gui Ye treated her, Liu Yeye sometimes wanted to find a man who could comfort her. However, as Gui Ye's only wife, no one dared to touch her. After becoming the wife of Nether Ghost City's City Lord, this would be even more so.

Liu Yeye could only sigh and leave the room in disappointment. She planned to return to her residence, but she suddenly ran into a man.

Even though this man was wearing a cloak, from the side of his face, he seemed incredibly handsome under the moonlight. It was definitely a peerlessly handsome face under that cloak, and he gave off an incredibly intoxicating aura.

After sensing this aura, Liu Yeye's repressed emotions and desires erupted out. Before that man could react, she leapt into his embrace and hugged him tightly before madly kissing him.

Under the beautiful moonlight, the two of them intensely did it in a corner. Liu Yeye had never thought that that man would be able to give her such extreme pleasure. It was the first time she had experienced this, and she almost went mad with joy.

Afterwards, Liu Yeye's face was red as she was powerlessly carried by the man into a room. The man left, and Liu Yeye fell asleep with a blissful smile. The moment before falling asleep, she decided to disregard everything and run away with that man.

As she slept, she seemed to hear a few large explosions and things seemed to be quite chaotic, but she was simply too tired and she continued to sleep.

The gray-white sun rose from the east and a gentle white light shined down on the land. The night receded and the world slowly woke up as the new day came. Liu Yeye hazily opened her eyes and seeing that there was no one beside her or a note, she felt quite disappointed.

Thinking about how wild last night had been, as well as how much comfort that man had given her, Liu Yeye's eyes became slightly wet. She did not know who he was, and she was worried that she would never meet him again.

She could only keep that night as a beautiful memory and hide it in her heart. She could not tell it to anyone, and she was still Nether Ghost City's madam, the good wife of Gui Ye.

She lightly pushed open the door and saw that it was a complete mess outside, making her feel quite confused. She did not know what had happened, and none of the guards outside were people she was familiar with.

A female attendant carrying a wooden bowl walked over, and because Liu Yeye somewhat knew her, she called her over and asked, "What happened in the City Hall?"

The female attendant smiled as she said, "Madam, I don't know either. The new City Lord asked you to go over after washing up."

Hearing those words, Liu Yeye felt even more confused. The new City Lord? Wasn't that her husband, Gui Ye?

Now, Liu Yeye's mind was a mess, but she still did as the female attendant had told her and washed up before coming to the hall. She was shocked to see the previous City Lord's wives. Their faces were all red and from the auras they gave off, it seemed like they had just done it.

Moreover, the man sitting above was the person who she had had an affair with the previous night. He was the new City Lord? What about her husband? Liu Yeye had a bad feeling.

Seeing her, Zhao Fu smiled and said, "Gui Ye is already dead, and now you're mine. I've also taken control of Nether Ghost City; don't worry, I'll take care of you."

Liu Yeye sighed; it was as she had expected. Thinking about the fact that Gui Ye was dead, Liu Yeye looked quite sad and nodded.

Zhao Fu gave Nether Ghost City to You Qin to control and told her to properly develop it. In actuality, Zhao Fu did not care too much about Nether Ghost City, as it only had 100 Cities or so. However, it would be Zhao Fu's first piece in the Underworld.

Chapter 1398: Seeking Yin Beast

Ten or so days later, Zhao Fu and the Black and White Impermanences finally came to the Inner Domain of the Underworld, but they were blocked off by a large forbidden area.

This place was called the Ghost God Forbidden Area, and legends said that a powerful Ghost God had perished here, making it so that there were many ghost god creatures here.

These ghost god creatures had strange abilities and were quite powerful. They were a type of terrifying creature formed from the fusion of gods and ghosts, and they had Ghost God Power. They were far more powerful than ordinary ghosts, and anyone who entered this region would be attacked.

The Black and White Impermanences suggested going around. With their strength, they could not fly over and the forbidden area could also make one lose one's sense of direction. Ordinary people who went in would never be able to make it out.

Trying to pass through this forbidden area could take much longer than simply going around, so most people chose to go around.

Hearing this, Zhao Fu thought about it and decided to go around.

“Roar!!” A massive roar sounded out as the ground started to rumble, and an enormous creature rushed out from the forbidden area, giving off a terrifying aura.

“Husband!” Sensing this terrifying aura, Bai Xiaoxi’s expression became serious because it could rival a World Realm expert. It was most likely a World Realm ghost, and from the voice, it seemed to be a massive creature and might be stronger than ordinary World Realm experts

However, Zhao Fu did not look worried at all because he no longer feared World Realm experts. Moreover, in the Underworld, he could use his Nation Armament.

An enormous creature appeared in front of the three of them. It was a 1,000 meter long creature that looked like a person crawling on the ground. Its hands were like sharp claws and it had a sharp horn and three eyes on its head and a mouth filled with sharp teeth.

Hei Xiaojie said in shock, “Husband, this is a Seeking Yin Beast, and it has the ability to find all sorts of Yin treasures. Moreover, this Seeking Yin Beast is incredibly big and can be said to be quite rare.

As Hei Xiaojie spoke, the Seeking Yin Beast stared at Zhao Fu with its three eyes because it had come for Zhao Fu. It felt that Zhao Fu was like a living Yin treasure.

Zhao Fu also looked back at the Seeking Yin Beast and found that it was slightly injured. It was indeed stronger than an ordinary World Realm expert, but Zhao Fu was not afraid at all.

“Roar!!” The Seeking Yin Beast gave off an enormous roar before charging at Zhao Fu with a ferocious aura.

Zhao Fu stretched out a hand and motioned for the Black and White Impermanences to retreat. The Black and White Impermanences understood that they were not strong enough to participate in this battle, so they obediently retreated far away.

Boom!

At that moment, the 1,000 meter long Seeking Yin Beast rapidly crawled in front of Zhao Fu and raised its massive sharp claw and savagely slashed at Zhao Fu, creating a massive explosion.

However, its massive hand was stopped by a small bronze barrier. Zhao Fu did not hesitate and directly used the Twelve Metal Colossi's power.

The Seeking Yin Beast looked quite confused and had never thought that Zhao Fu, with his Saint Realm Cultivation, would be able to block its attack. However, what happened next shocked it even more.

Zhao Fu took out a blood-red sword that was covered with sharp teeth and slashed at its claw. An enormous blood-red sword light gave off a terrifying power as it flew out.

“Roar!!” The Seeking Yin Beast howled in pain as it raised its hand and a gash appeared on its palm, from which gray blood flowed out.

Zhao Fu coldly looked at the Seeking Yin Beast and another massive blood-red sword light flashed out. The enormous sword energy sent the Seeking Yin Beast flying back dozens of meters. A massive sound rang out as it crashed to the ground, causing the ground to violently tremble and for countless leaves to fall.

The Seeking Yin Beast furiously crawled up from the ground and a massive wave of Yin energy exploded out from its body, causing a wild gale to blow. The surroundings became incredibly cold as ghostly figures slowly appeared behind the Seeking Yin Beast.

The Seeking Yin Beast's power greatly increased and it gave off an enormous cold wind, and all living creatures in the surroundings quickly ran away after sensing this aura.

“Roar!!” The Seeking Yin Beast once again roared at Zhao Fu and angrily leapt at him, seeming to be able to knock over a large mountain.

However, with the power of his Nation Armament, Zhao Fu was not afraid at all. He raised the Sadistic Killing Sword and a powerful sword light spread out as countless disfigured corpses appeared around him.

An enormous sword energy swept out like a flood, causing the heavens and earth to seem to tremble in fear.

Boom!

As the Seeking Yin Beast charged over, Zhao Fu slashed out and a blood-red sword light exploded out as a shockwave erupted. The Seeking Yin Beast's body was blasted back and smashed into a hill, causing it to collapse and rocks to fly everywhere.

The Seeking Yin Beast crashed to the ground and its aura was much weaker. There was a gash on its left shoulder through which its bones could be seen, and blood continuously flowed out.

Zhao Fu coldly smiled and held the Sadistic Killing Sword as he flew towards the Seeking Yin Beast.

The Seeking Yin Beast looked somewhat afraid now and understood that it was not a match for Zhao Fu. It climbed up from the ground and rushed off in the opposite direction.

Zhao Fu disdainfully laughed and stood in the air as he stretched out a hand towards the Seeking Yin Beast and a massive power spread out.

Clang, clang, clang...

The sounds of chains rang out as countless chains shot out of the ground and bound up the Seeking Yin Beast. The Seeking Yin Beast continuously struggled and angrily roared, but it could not break free at all.

Zhao Fu flew to the top of the Seeking Yin Beast and looked at the Seeking Yin Beast, while the Seeking Yin Beast looked back at Zhao Fu furiously.

The Black and White Impermanences flew over and Hei Xiaojie said, "Husband, see if you can make it submit. Seeking Yin Beasts are incredibly rare and such large ones are even rarer. If you can make it submit, it will be quite useful."

Hearing this, Zhao Fu looked at the Seeking Yin Beast and used the Underworld's language as he asked, "Are you willing to submit to me?"

The Seeking Yin Beast had high intelligence and it could understand Zhao Fu's words. However, the Seeking Yin Beast angrily roared, showing that it was not willing to submit.

Zhao Fu did not hold back and sent large amounts of electricity through the chains. Electricity greatly suppressed the Undead, and countless arcs of electricity appeared around the Seeking Yin Beast's body, causing it to roar in pain.

A while later, the Seeking Yin Beast's aura became incredibly weak and Zhao Fu once again asked if it was willing to submit, but it still was not willing.

Just as Zhao Fu was about to continue teaching it a lesson, a ray of light containing massive power shot over.

Chapter 1399: Six Paths of Reincarnation

The light disappeared and a white-haired elder dressed in gray and holding a long banner appeared in front of Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu's expression became quite serious because this elder's power surpassed the World Realm and was at the Divine Realm. Such an expert could not be found in the Outer Domains and was rare even in the Inner Domain.

Facing such an expert, Zhao Fu had to use the full power of his Nation Armament to defeat him. Otherwise, it was likely that he would lose.

The elder looked at the Seeking Yin Beast before looking at Zhao Fu and said, "This Seeking Yin Beast is something this old man has been searching for this whole time. If you give it to me, I will give you compensation."

Sensing Zhao Fu's Nation Armament's power, the elder's expression became serious and he spoke somewhat courteously.

However, how could Zhao Fu agree just like that? The Seeking Yin Beast had been injured when he had encountered it, and it was most likely done by this elder. However, he was the one who had captured it, so how could he just give it to someone else?

Seeing that Zhao Fu did not agree, the elder was no longer courteous and waved the long banner in his hand. A massive wave of Yin Qi spread out, and a 1,000 meter tall evil spirit covered with powerful muscles appeared, giving off an incredible might.

The six gray dots in Zhao Fu's right eye quickly spun and a massive wave of Yin Qi flooded out, and a 1,000 meter tall ferocious-looking ghost appeared behind Zhao Fu.

Seeing the six gray dots in Zhao Fu's right eye and sensing his aura, a slight look of shock appeared in the elder's eyes, and he ordered the evil spirit behind him to attack Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu also ordered the ghost behind him to attack. The two 1,000 meter tall creatures clashed together, and they used their teeth and fists to attack each other, and neither side could obtain an advantage.

The elder once again swung his banner, and massive amounts of Yin Qi formed a gray mist that moved towards Zhao Fu. There seemed to be countless arms within it, grabbing towards Zhao Fu, looking quite terrifying.

Zhao Fu raised the Sadistic Killing Sword and slashed out. A blood-red crescent containing terrifying power flashed out, splitting the mist in half.

The elder looked at Zhao Fu with his deep eyes and asked, "Why don't you use that power?"

Zhao Fu did not understand what the elder meant, but since the elder attacked him first, he would not hold back. The Sadistic Killing Sword gave off brilliant sword light as Zhao Fu gave off a sharp aura and shot at the elder.

Seeing Zhao Fu charge over, the elder's expression became grave and he sent a massive amount of power into his banner as he vigorously swung it.

Whoosh!

An enormous cold and eerie wind started to blow, and countless trees were uprooted. Zhao Fu's body was also sent flying upwards.

Boom!

A massive explosion sounded out as Zhao Fu released the full power of his Nation Armament. A bronze aura flame erupted around him, giving off enormous power, and he immediately stabilized his body.

Seeing Zhao Fu release the full power of his Nation Armament, the elder's expression became grave, because Zhao Fu's power now surpassed his. However, in order to confirm his suspicions, he also unleashed his full power, and a cold, gray aura flame erupted around him.

The elder raised his banner, which danced with countless runes and a formless aura spread out, causing the world to fall silent. Massive amounts of Yin Qi madly gathered, forming a vortex of Yin Qi.

“Roar! Roar! Roar...” At that moment, countless ghosts appeared in the air. They were innumerable and were in the millions, and they flooded towards Zhao Fu from all sides, seeming like they were going to devour Zhao Fu.

Facing the countless ghosts and Yin Qi, the Six Paths of Reincarnation Bloodline within his body became excited and his right eye widened.

Six gray holes appeared above Zhao Fu's head. Each was about one meter wide and they gave off six different, powerful auras. They then started to spin and formed a massive gray vortex.

Boom!

A massive suction force burst forth and the countless ghosts looked terrified before retreating. However, it was too late – the countless ghosts were sucked in, and not a single one was able to escape.

In front of that massive suction power, the Black and White Impermanences weren't the only ones who looked incredibly shocked; the elder looked slightly afraid as well. The Seeking Yin Beast looked quite scared as well but acted quite excitedly.

This was because the aura that this vortex gave off could suppress them, and under this aura, whether it was their bodies, bloodlines, or souls, they all became icy cold and they felt immense terror. Ordinary ghosts could not resist at all, and they could only kneel in fear.

This power was naturally the Six Paths of Reincarnation Power, one of the sovereign powers of the Underworld. All ghosts would innately fear this kind of power.

Even though it was also a Yin attribute power, the Six Paths of Reincarnation Power was the bane of all Underworld power. No ghost would not feel terror in front of this power.

Zhao Fu looked at the elder, and just as he was about to attack, the elder hurriedly said, “Wait! This old man is willing to submit.”

Hearing this, Zhao Fu felt quite confused and asked, “Why? You could still run if you wanted to.”

The elder laughed and said with reverence, “Because you possess the Six Paths of Reincarnation Power. Currently, no one in the Underworld is able to wield this power, and only the Six Paths Demon Images have this power. You will definitely become the sovereign of the Underworld, and to be able to serve such a master is the glory of any Underworld creature.”

“Roar! Roar! Roar...” The Seeking Yin Beast also excitedly called out and looked like it was willing to submit. It had sensed Zhao Fu’s body giving off the Six Paths of Reincarnation aura, so it had wanted to steal it.

However, it now found that Zhao Fu not only possessed the Six Paths of Reincarnation aura, but he could also control it. Moreover, he possessed the Six Paths of Reincarnation Bloodline.

No Underworld creature would not fear such a person. Just like the elder, it also believed that Zhao Fu would be able to become the sovereign of the Underworld, so it changed its attitude and was willing to submit.

That was what reality was like – with a poor master, one would not be able to obtain anything. However, countless people would rush to serve someone incredibly rich and powerful.

The Black and White Impermanences also looked quite excited because this was the first time that they had seen Zhao Fu use the Six Paths of Reincarnation Power. They felt even happier that they served Zhao Fu because the Six Paths of Reincarnation was an extreme existence that all Underworld creatures could only look up to.

Chapter 1400: Ghost God

Looking at the elder and the Seeking Yin Beast, Zhao Fu could not believe what was happening. Zhao Fu would not trust someone so easily, so he said that he wanted to set down restrictions in their bodies, to which they readily agreed.

Only after setting down the restrictions did Zhao Fu let down his guard, and he asked the elder, “What is your name, and what faction do you come from?”

The elder smiled as he replied, “Master, this old man’s name is Shang Long and is not from any faction; I’m just a rogue cultivator. I’ve been alone from 300 years ago and have cultivated to this realm myself.”

Hearing this, Zhao Fu nodded then looked at the Seeking Yin Beast. The Seeking Yin Beast obediently lay on the ground and looked at Zhao Fu with a look of loyalty. It seemed that the Seeking Yin Beast could not talk, so Zhao Fu did not bother asking it anything. However, he gave it a name, Qian Xun.

Following this, Zhao Fu asked Shang Long curiously, “You two came out of the Ghost God Forbidden Area. What dangers and treasures are there inside?”

Shang Long thought about it before replying, “The creatures in the outer boundaries are not very strong and can be dealt with easily, but no one dares to go to the inner regions. This forbidden area has existed for over 10,000 years, and it would be dangerous for even Emperor Heaven Realm experts to go to the inner regions.

“As for what treasures there are, the ghost god creatures’ bodies have valuable materials. This old man doesn’t know much else; this old man only came here in pursuit of the Seeking Yin Beast and is not very familiar with this place.”

The Seeking Yin Beast lightly called out a few times and spat out a gray and gold colored crystal that was as big as a bean. It gave off an intense godly spirit aura, and it gave off the same aura as the forbidden area.

Shang Long looked at the crystal and said in shock, “This Seeking Yin Beast truly is the best Yin Beast for finding Yin attribute treasures; it actually found a Divinity Shard of the Ghost God. This shard doesn’t have any power, but adding on this old man’s Great Yin Soul-Gathering Technique, perhaps we will be able to gather a trace of the remnant soul of the Ghost God that perished here.

“Legends say that the Ghost God had Half-Step Celestial power and if we can gather a trace of its remnant soul, it might be quite useful. Will master allow this old man to use the technique?”

Hearing this, Zhao Fu thought about it before agreeing.

Following this, Shang Long took the Divinity Shard and came to an empty area in the forbidden area. He threw the shard to the sky before chanting a mysterious and strange chant. The Divinity Shard gave off an intense gray and gold light as it floated in the air.

Shang Long gripped his long banner with both hands and chanted while waving the banner, and a formless energy spread out. This energy was incredibly strange and caused people’s hairs to stand on end, making it feel as though their souls were going to be sucked over.

After absorbing that strange energy, the Divinity Shard gave off an even more intense gray light before turning into a ray of light that shot into the sky.

Boom!

An enormous explosion sounded out as the ray of light shot into the sky and turned into a ripple of light. The entire Ghost God Forbidden Area seemed to stir restlessly, and countless birds’ cries tore through the air.

A formless soul energy started to slowly gather towards Zhao Fu, forming a gray and gold orb of light which became larger and larger and formed a hazy image. The hazy image then became more and more corporeal.

Soon, a woman appeared in front of everyone. Her expression was quite cold and she had gray and white long hair and gray and gold eyes. There were two black horns on her forehead and she wore black clothes and gave off a very powerful godly spirit aura.

“Who are you all?” The Ghost God’s remnant soul’s grey and gold eyes gave off immense pressure as she scanned across the people present. As someone who had once been a Half-Step Celestial expert, her aura was incredibly powerful, and no one dared to look her in the eyes.

However, she did not have any of her memories and she did not even have Stage 1 strength. It was just that she had a powerful aura, so there was no need to fear her.

Zhao Fu stretched out his hand and a formless energy dragged the Ghost God’s remnant soul in front of him. This caused the Ghost God to look incredibly furious. Even though she had lost her memories, she knew that she had been a very powerful person.

However, even though the Ghost God was furious, she could not resist Zhao Fu’s power at all. Zhao Fu looked at the Ghost God’s attributes and found that she was an existence that was both like a god and a ghost, and it was quite hard to describe.

He did not discover anything else, and she could be nurtured as a godly spirit.

“Let me go!” the Ghost God glared at Zhao Fu with her gray and gold eyes as she gave off a powerful aura and yelled.

Zhao Fu did not feel afraid at all. It was just her eyes that gave some pressure, but Zhao Fu had seven layers of pupils. Facing Zhao Fu’s terrifying eyes, in the end it was the Ghost God who became afraid.

“It’s best that you be more obedient. No matter how strong you were before, right now you’re just a weak piece of trash,” Zhao Fu said coldly to the Ghost God.

The Ghost God was furious but she did not have a trace of power within her body nor did she have any memories. Facing Zhao Fu’s terrifying eyes and vastly superior power, she could only grit her teeth and endure it.

“Master, you should try to have her interact with this ghost god creature. These ghost god creatures were all creatures born from her power, so perhaps they might have an effect on her,” Shang Long brought over a cat-like creature and said to Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu looked at the Ghost God, and the Ghost God angrily harrumphed before looking at the ghost god creature. She felt a sense of closeness to it and hugged it.

The cat-like ghost god creature was quite weak and only had around Stage 1 strength. It had been incredibly afraid in Shang Long's arms and had desperately struggled, but after entering the Ghost God's arms, it was no longer afraid and became much tamer.

This was because it sensed a very familiar aura, and this familiarity came from its bloodline and soul. As such, it was not afraid and was very obedient to the Ghost God.

“Could it be that this Ghost God can control all of the creatures in this forbidden area?” Zhao Fu wondered and felt quite excited. There were countless creatures in this forbidden area, and some could even threaten Emperor Heaven Realm experts. If he could grasp this power, he would not have to fear the Wind God Empire and could directly destroy the Wind God Empire.

However, Zhao Fu did not believe things to be that simple. He caught some more ghost god creatures and found that this was not the case.

The Ghost God could indeed control ghost god creatures but only the weaker ones. Even though the stronger creatures would not try to harm her, if she did something, they would still attack her.
