

The Lord 1571

Chapter 1571: King

Hearing Zhao Fu's words, the captain of the guards immediately understood his intentions. He smiled as he said, "Miss, our sir has extremely valuable medicines and can save that girl."

The sudden change in the captain's attitude made the woman feel that something was off. She felt like leaving, but looking at the young girl growing weaker and weaker, she hesitated.

The captain said, "Miss, it looks like if that girl is not given treatment, she might die. Time is of the essence."

Hearing this, the woman decided to save the girl no matter what and said, "Then please bring me to your sir."

The captain of the guards smiled and brought the two women to the carriage and said respectfully, "Sir, I've brought the people here."

Zhao Fu's voice sounded out from within, "Let them come in!"

The captain nodded and motioned for the woman to bring the young girl into the carriage. The woman did not hesitate and quickly brought the young girl in.

Within the carriage, there were many beautiful women, most of whom were undressed and were panting with reddened faces. There was also a handsome man smiling at her.

The woman was not too surprised because she had sensed that something was off and suspected that something was happening within the carriage. She said calmly, "I can give you my body, but you must save my Young Miss."

Zhao Fu lightly laughed and replied, "no problem!"

Zhao Fu came to the young girl's side and checked her injuries, and he found that she was indeed injured severely; ordinary medicinal pills would not be of any use. As such, he took out a very valuable medicinal pill and had the girl eat it, and he used his Divine Bloodline's power to help refine the medicinal pill.

The young girl lay on the carpet and Zhao Fu sat by the side with his hand on her abdomen. The treatment would take some time, and Zhao Fu looked at the woman and gestured with his eyes.

Seeing color return to the young girl's cheeks, the woman inwardly let out a sigh of relief before going over to serve Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu healed the young girl while enjoying the woman's service, and after stabilizing the young girl's injuries, he started to do it with the woman.

The woman had never expected that doing it with this man would be so pleasurable. She had wanted to endure it, but soon she could not stop herself from moaning in pleasure.

As this happened, the young girl gradually woke up. Seeing the person she trusted most doing it with a man so happily, her face became red and she closed her eyes and continued to pretend to be asleep.

However, after the woman lay strengthlessly on the ground, the man came onto her, causing her face to become red. She pretended to resist before starting to do it with him; after listening for so long, her body had been reacting.

A while later, the beautiful woman came back to her senses, and seeing Zhao Fu doing it with her Young Miss, she tried to bite Zhao Fu. However, her body was restricted, causing her to lie powerless in Zhao Fu's embrace.

Zhao Fu squeezed her mouth and lightly laughed as he asked, "Why does your race like biting people so much?"

The woman glared at Zhao Fu and cursed at him, saying, "You bastard, not only did you want my body, but you also didn't even let off my Young Miss."

The young girl said shyly, "Big sis Lan, I don't blame this sir. I gave myself to him willingly so don't be like this."

The woman was still quite angry and she looked at Zhao Fu as she said, “You’d better treat my Young Miss well or I won’t let you off.”

Zhao Fu smiled as he replied, “I understand!”

Only then was the woman satisfied, and she lay in Zhao Fu’s embrace and listened to his heartbeat. She was still panting and recovering from before.

Zhao Fu started to ask the women about themselves. It turned out that the young girl was a Princess called Gou Lingling, and the woman was her bodyguard called Gou Lan.

However, the young girl’s identity was quite special, as she was an illegitimate child and was not acknowledged by the royal family. The royal family had sent people to kill them, which was why they were injured so heavily.

Gou Lingling said worriedly, “Sir, will we bring you trouble? If so, we’ll leave soon.”

Seeing how considerate Gou Lingling was, Zhao Fu lightly smiled and said lovingly, “Don’t worry, I’ve destroyed hundreds of Kingdoms like this before; they’re nothing to me.”

Gou Lan was quite surprised. Even though she knew that Zhao Fu’s identity was not simple, from the tone that he spoke with, it seemed that the truth was far more terrifying than what she expected. She said in delight, “Can you take revenge for us then? 300 people from the Gou family died at their hands; we must take revenge.

“If you agree, I’ll completely devote myself to serving you, and you can do whatever you want to me. Also, I should tell you that the Kingdom’s Queen is famed among all Kobold Kingdoms. You can conquer her and have her act like a female dog under you.”

Gou Lingling did not say anything; thinking about her dead family members, her eyes became damp.

Zhao Fu did not immediately agree and instead first asked what else there was to be gained, as well as how they wanted him to help them.

Following this, Zhao Fu found out about something interesting – this Kobold Kingdom had a Kobold King Blood Crystal that had been left behind by the Kobolds' first Emperor, and it had immense power.

As for how to take revenge, Gou Lan wanted Zhao Fu to make the Queen into a pet dog and kill everyone who had attacked the Gou family.

Hearing this, Zhao Fu agreed to help them and had the merchant group start to head towards the Kobold Kingdom.

Gou Lan and Gou Lingling felt incredibly grateful, and the two of them started to excitedly serve Zhao Fu.

A few hours later, Zhao Fu easily snuck into the Kobold Kingdom's palace. The King of this Kobold Kingdom was a relatively weak middle-aged man. He had been controlled by the Queen and Queen Dowager the entire time and did not have much actual power.

It was because of this that the Queen dared to openly destroy the Gou family. After finding out about this, the King was infuriated and wanted to cut the Queen into a thousand pieces.

After all, he did not actually like the Queen; Gou Lingling's mother was his true love. It was a pity that Gou Lingling's mother had been killed by the Queen many years ago, and now the entire Gou family including his daughter, who he had only seen a few times, was dead.

The middle-aged King was incredibly furious and wanted to kill the Queen, but it was a pity that he did not have any power. All of his power was controlled by the Queen and Queen Dowager, and he was just a puppet.

Suddenly, the King, who was furiously smashing things in a room, heard a condescending and dignified voice, "Despite being a sovereign King, the ruler of a Kingdom and countless subjects, you're so incompetent."

Chapter 1572: Royal Power

Those words made the Kobold King feel incredibly shocked. He looked around him and found that an incredibly handsome young man had appeared without him noticing. He was looking at him and gave off an incredibly sovereign Emperor's aura.

Facing this aura, the Kobold King's face paled and he instinctively kneeled. No matter if it was his King's Bloodline or Fate Dragon, they all had to submit in front of this person.

The Kobold King felt incredibly shocked and wondered what kind of terrifying existence this young man was. Just his domineering Emperor's aura made it so that he did not dare to resist.

"Who are you?" The Kobold King trembled as he looked at the young man in front of him with a trace of fear.

Zhao Fu coldly harrumphed, "Who I am isn't important. Do you want to become a King who can truly reign above others and will not be bullied?"

Hearing this, the Kobold King thought about his experiences and felt furious, and he replied with a resolute gaze, "I do!"

A trace of a smile appeared on Zhao Fu's face and he cut his finger and sent out a drop of precious essence blood and flicked it into the Kobold King's forehead.

The Kobold King's body trembled and he felt an immense wave of Emperor's Power flow into his body, quickly changing his Constitution and increasing his power. An incredibly powerful and dignified King's aura spread out from him.

This caused the Kobold King to say to Zhao Fu gratefully, "Thank you, sir!"

Zhao Fu looked quite calm as he said, "This is only a physical change. Do you want to grasp that supreme authority? If so, you need to do as I tell you."

The Kobold King wanted to obtain supreme power and not be bullied by others, and he said excitedly, "Of course, please tell me what you want me to do."

Within the palace hall, there was a woman with a pair of golden dog ears and a golden tail. She had golden hair and a cold-looking face, as well as a mature figure and a formless Queen's might, which made it so that people did not dare to breathe too loudly.

She was the Queen Dowager of the Kobold Kingdom, the true holder of power. She was currently reading through imperial documents in place of the King.

At that moment, the Kobold King gave off a powerful and dignified King's aura, strode into the hall, and said loudly, "All of you withdraw!"

All of the attendants within the palace hall looked to the Queen Dowager.

The Queen Dowager's cold gaze fell on her son and felt quite surprised, as she could tell that his King's aura had become much stronger. He now seemed like a supreme King, and he was not as weak as before.

The Queen Dowager thought about it before saying coolly, "All of you withdraw! "

Only then did all of the attendants leave the hall and close the doors.

"What have you come to find Us for? Also, why do you have such a powerful King's aura? That doesn't seem like something you should have," the Queen Dowager said coldly as she looked at the King.

Seeing how cold she was, despite her being his mother, the King said uncourteously, "Mother, I'm taking back what belongs to me. I'm this Kingdom's King; you can leave now.'

A condescending smile appeared on the Queen Dowager's cold face as she said, "Taking back what belongs to you? With your abilities, you think you can manage this Kingdom? You'd better go back and keep your head down, or don't blame mother for being heartless."

The King loudly laughed as he said, "Mother, I don't fear you at all now."

The Queen Dowager was quite surprised but still gave a confident smile as she said, "Is that so? We want to see where your courage comes from, for you to speak to Us like this."

Crack!

Just as the Queen Dowager said this, the sound of bones cracking could be heard from beside her, causing her to feel shocked and quickly look over.

A handsome young man had grabbed onto an elder's neck and broken it. That elder was the Kobold Kingdom's strongest expert and was responsible for protecting her, and yet he had been killed so easily.

The Queen Dowager felt quite panicked and she called out, "Who are you?"

Zhao Fu looked over this beautiful and mature woman and tossed away the corpse as he smiled and replied, "Your future man!"

The Kobold King lightly laughed as he said, "Sir, please enjoy her and do her as hard as you wish; don't treat her as my mother. I want to see her being toyed with by you like a prostitute."

Zhao Fu laughed as he said, "Don't worry, you can all listen from outside later."

"I'll be going first then, sir." The Kobold King laughed as he walked out of the palace hall and closed the doors. He stood at the entrance and planned to listen to how Zhao Fu would toy with his cold mother.

The Queen Dowager's expression became quite unsightly. She did not try to run as she knew that this was impossible; she thought about it and decided that the only way to stay alive was to properly serve this person.

Thinking about that, the Queen Dowager sat on the throne, took off her clothes, and looked at Zhao Fu coldly as she said, "Come!"

Zhao Fu smiled and pressed the Queen Dowager against the throne before starting to ravage her without any mercy.

Outside, the Kobold King listened to his mother lewdly cry out and beg for more like a dog. She even called him owner and barked like a dog as she was continuously ravaged by Zhao Fu.

This made the King feel incredibly happy and he felt that much of his anger had been vented. This cold-blooded mother of his needed someone like this person to train her.

Now, he not only did not hate Zhao Fu and was instead incredibly grateful to him.

A while later, the doors opened and Zhao Fu was holding the reddened Queen Dowager as he came out. He gave her some face and did not make her crawl like a real dog, but he had already trained her well.

Seeing this, the Kobold King smiled as he said, “Sir is indeed incredible, to be able to train such a cold woman like my mother. What should we do now?”

Zhao Fu smiled as he replied, “Now, I want you to take power. All of the power your mother controlled now belongs to you, so you should arrange for some people you trust to wield this power so that you can grasp that power tightly.”

Following this, the Kobold King did as Zhao Fu instructed, and the entire Kobold Kingdom went through great changes. Everyone sensed that a storm was brewing and that there was going to be a shift in royal power.

The Queen immediately sensed that something was off and immediately started a military revolt, wanting to seize the throne.

Chapter 1573: Kobold King Stone

“That bitch, she dares to cause an uprising?” the Kobold King angrily cursed, and he decided to make her die a horrible death. Not only did he want to vent out the anger stored within him this whole time, but he also wanted to take revenge for the woman he loved.

Zhao Fu sat on the throne enjoying the service of the Queen Dowager Gou Qingshui while speaking to the Kobold King outside, “Don’t worry, you now control 70% of the Kingdom’s forces. Even if she tries to stage an uprising, she will definitely lose. This is the time for you to show your might; lead the army to destroy the traitors and become someone everyone in the Kingdom worships.”

The Kobold King smiled and called out excitedly, “Understood, sir!”

After the Kobold King left, Zhao Fu started to ravage the Queen Dowager on the throne again, before bringing her to the battlefield.

By now, the two armies were giving off powerful auras as they faced off against each other.

The Kobold King stood at the front of a massive army and gave off a confident and powerful aura as he shouted, “You traitors will definitely fail. If you surrender now, This King will spare your lives. Also, daughter, don’t seek death like your mother.”

On the other side was a heroic-looking woman with a seductive figure. She had beige-colored dog ears and tail, and she was dressed in armor. Her name was Gou Yan, and she was the King and Queen’s daughter.

Gou Yan had immense talent and was quite exceptional when leading troops in battle, and she had an important role in the army. Now, one-third of the rebel soldiers were under her command.

Next to her was a beautiful woman dressed in a silver-white dress. She had white ears and tail, and she had a graceful and dignified figure. She was the Queen, Gou Xiaoxiao.

She greatly trusted this daughter who she had raised by hand and understood that she would not betray her. She said loudly, “Soldiers, you all know how useless he is; do you think he can lead the Kingdom to prosperity? It’s better to submit to This Queen; after all of this is over, you will be rewarded handsomely.”

The Kobold King loudly laughed and said, “Gou Xiaoxiao, do you think that This King is the same as before? If I was the same as before, how could I seize power from my mother? Today is the day of your death; kill!”

Boom!

A massive King's aura exploded out from the Kobold King, causing the soldiers behind him to tremble. They understood that their King was no longer useless, and they excitedly yelled as they charged at the enemy.

Gou Yan directed the rebel army and also attacked, and the two armies soon clashed, causing massive sounds to ring out.

The battle was incredibly intense and both sides vigorously fought as their weapons clashed against each other and blood flew everywhere. Cries continuously sounded out and countless people died.

Seeing that the battle was going too slowly, Zhao Fu hugged the Queen Dowager Gou Qingshui and appeared in the sky before sending out a few massive sword lights.

Countless rebel soldiers were hit by the sword lights and screamed as they were cut into countless pieces. Blood splashed everywhere, and waves of people died in an instant, covering the ground with broken corpses and blood.

Seeing Zhao Fu's power, Gou Qingshui said coquettishly, "Owner, I knew that you were definitely not simple. Please don't neglect your little slave in the future; not only does this little slave want to receive owner's love every day, but I also want to become someone with authority."

Zhao Fu understood her intentions. As a domineering Queen Dowager, even if she turned into his slave, her ambition would not disappear. As such, Zhao Fu lightly laughed and said, "That will depend on how you behave!"

Gou Qingshui said flirtatiously, "Owner, the battle is already over; let's find a place so I can serve you."

Zhao Fu looked around and felt that nothing unexpected would happen so he returned to the palace with Gou Qingshui.

Below, the King's side held a massive advantage now. They were originally going to win, and with Zhao Fu acting and killing many people, they definitely would not lose.

The rebel side already felt that they could not win, and seeing a peerless expert on the King's side, they understood that if they continued, they would definitely die. As such, they did not try to run and directly surrendered, and the battle concluded quickly.

Zhao Fu had once again enjoyed Gou Qingshui's body, and she now lay powerless on a bed as she breathed raggedly with a red face. At that moment, the Kobold King's voice sounded out from outside, "Sir, I have a few presents for you."

Hearing this, Zhao Fu smiled and allowed him to come in.

The Kobold King walked in, followed by four women who were brought up by guards. Apart from Queen Gou Xiaoxiao and Crown Princess Gou Yan, there was also Gou Xiaoxiao's mother, named Gou Baihe. She was quite voluptuous and had white ears and a tail, and she gave off a motherly aura. The other woman was Gou Xiaoxiao's sister-in-law. She had long, flaxen-colored hair and a slim figure. She was quite pretty and was called Gou Baixue.

The Kobold King said happily, "Now, the Kingdom has been unified and countless residents have submitted to me; this was all given to me by sir, so please enjoy these people and turn them all into your female dogs. This is especially so for Gou Xiaoxiao and her daughter; you don't have to hold back on my account – the more pain they go through, the happier I will be.

"Also, sir, this is the Kobold King Stone; I've brought it here for you."

The Kobold King took out a golden jade and said, "Sir has helped me so much and yet only asked this of me; I feel quite guilty. I'll order people to collect beauties and treasures from all over the Kingdom to give to sir."

Zhao Fu took the Kobold King Stone and lightly laughed as he said, "No need, I still have matters at hand and will be leaving soon; keep those treasures to develop your Kingdom. If we meet again, I want to see how you conquered the surrounding Kingdoms and grew to be a powerful King."

The Kobold King looked quite reluctant and said, "Sir, are you leaving so soon? Why not stay for a few days? I haven't even held a banquet for sir yet."

Zhao Fu felt that he had been at the Kobold Kingdom for quite a long time so he refused.

The Kobold King looked quite disappointed, but thinking about Zhao Fu's words from before, he said resolutely, "Sir, I will definitely become the strongest King here and will not disappoint you."

Zhao Fu laughed and nodded before taking the women, turning into a ray of light, and disappearing over the horizon.

After Zhao Fu left, only when the Kobold King started cultivating did he realize that Zhao Fu had given him an incredibly valuable drop of essence blood. He looked in the direction that Zhao Fu had disappeared in with respect and immediately called people to build an ancestral hall in memory of Zhao Fu.

Chapter 1574: Orc

Zhao Fu brought the women to the meeting place with the merchant group. Seeing the women behind Zhao Fu, Gou Lan and Gou Lingling looked delighted, and they understood that Zhao Fu had taken revenge for them.

Gou Xiaoxiao and the others did not know what Zhao Fu was going to do to them, but seeing Gou Lan and Gou Lingling, their faces became pale. They had never thought that they were connected to Zhao Fu; perhaps it was them who had asked Zhao Fu to go to the Kobold Kingdom, resulting in all of those things.

“Thank you, husband!” The two women leapt into Zhao Fu’s embrace and hugged him tightly as they smiled happily.

Zhao Fu lightly smiled as he said, “Let’s get on the carriage, I’ve missed you all.”

The women’s faces became red, and their eyes became watery as they gave off an enticing aura. After Zhao Fu had left, they had all missed him greatly.

Gou Xiaoxiao stood at the side and asked her mother in a soft voice, “Mother, what should we do to stay alive?”

Gou Qingshui had regained her cold and aloof aura, and she looked at Gou Xiaoxiao as she said, “If you behave as good slaves, he won’t kill you. If you properly serve him, you’ll be able to obtain great benefits. His identity is far more terrifying than you can imagine.”

Gou Xiaoxiao was somewhat reluctant, as she had been the Queen of a Kingdom; how could she accept being a slave? However, thinking about the fact that even Gou Qingshui had become his slave and was so lewd, it was not so big of a deal.

“Mm, I understand, Queen Dowager,” Gou Xiaoxiao smiled as she replied to Gou Qingshui.

A trace of a smile appeared on Gou Qingshui’s cold face as she said, “We didn’t misjudge you. Later, we’ll serve him with everything we have. It’s best that we all act as lewdly as possible; he will like that.”

Gou Baihe, Gou Xiaoxiao’s mother, lightly nodded. Even if she did not care about herself, she had to think of her daughter.

Gou Xiaoxiao’s sister-in-law, Gou Baixue, had thought that she was going to be executed. In order to live, and live well, she lightly nodded. She did not feel bad for her husband because it was her husband’s family who had caused this to happen to her.

However, Gou Yan said coldly, “I’d rather die than submit to him and be his slave.”

Gou Xiaoxiao knew that her daughter was quite stubborn, and she wanted to try to persuade her otherwise but she did not have the chance before they were all brought into that massive, luxurious carriage.

After spending some time with the women he had not seen for a while, Zhao Fu started training these Kobold women.

A few hours later, the Kobold women had red faces and were undressed as they squatted on the carpet with both hands on the ground. Their tongues were out like female dogs, and adding on their ears and dogs, they were even more like dogs.

Gou Xiaoxiao’s daughter, Gou Yan, was like a lewd prostitute, and she took the initiative to desperately serve Zhao Fu.

Gou Lan looked at how well the Kobold women had been trained and felt incredibly happy. Now that Zhao Fu had taken revenge for them, a beautiful smile appeared on her face.

However, seeing Zhao Fu ravage the women, he seemed to greatly like them, making Gou Lan feel quite worried. If Zhao Fu liked them too much, she might turn the tables on them, so she immediately started to serve Zhao Fu as well.

Gou Lingling also joined in; she could not allow Gou Lan, the person she cared about the most, to take this on herself.

Afterwards, Zhao Fu looked at the women collapsed on the ground and smiled before starting to fuse the Kobold King Stone.

The Kobold King Stone gave off an intense golden light and gradually fused into Zhao Fu's chest, and a massive bloodline power spread out.

This was a powerful Kobold King Bloodline, and an ordinary person would not be able to withstand such a powerful bloodline. However, Zhao Fu's Divine Bloodline could easily suppress this bloodline and gradually absorb it.

The Kobold King Bloodline gave off a whimper-like noise and did not dare to resist, and it was gradually fully absorbed by Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu's body gave off a faint golden glow, and he felt a stabbing pain on his back as a golden Kobold totem appeared on his back.

Zhao Fu gave a pleased smile; he was another step closer to awakening an Outlander Emperor Star.

After recovering some of her strength, Gou Xiaoxiao lightly leaned against Zhao Fu and asked, "Owner, just who are you? I nearly died of pleasure just then and I can also tell that your bloodline is incredibly pure and powerful."

Zhao Fu lightly laughed, "I can't tell you yet. Also, get back into position."

Gou Xiaoxiao gave a bewitching smile as she said, "Mm! I'll keep serving owner then."

Zhao Fu lay with the women and enjoyed Gou Xiaoxiao's service. However, at that moment, countless terrified voices sounded out, and the sounds of running could also be heard.

The merchant group had just left the Kobold Kingdom and entered another Kingdom, and it did not know what was going on.

Zhao Fu came outside and saw there were many people running away, and the captain of the guards came to report, “Sir, there is an Orc Kingdom attacking this Kingdom. They have already broken through this Kingdom’s defensive lines; let’s hurry and leave this place!”

Zhao Fu thought about it and nodded. He just wanted to leisurely journey about in the carriage and did not want to get dragged into any pointless battles.

The merchant group hurried on, but it ended up running into the invading army. The Orc Kingdom had sent 300,000 soldiers to attack, and the result of a merchant group of 1,000 people facing an army of 30,000 was obvious.

The Orcs were a ferocious race, and they would not hesitate to kill everyone and take all of the goods.

They naturally did not place this merchant group in their eyes, and countless Orcs gave off a ferocious aura and flooded over.

The merchant group’s people could not help but feel anxious. After all, this was not just a few thousand soldiers, but 300,000. If it was just them, they would not be able to resist at all and would definitely die.

However, they had the mysterious Zhao Fu, and their only hope was him. Only he could save everyone.

Zhao Fu did not disappoint them. He waved his hand and countless powerful rays of black light shot out and turned into black armored soldiers, numbering 50,000 in total.

The aura that the 50,000 Stage 6 soldiers gave off was far more ferocious than the army of 300,000 Orcs. This caused the Orcs’ expressions to fall, and their bodies froze.

A cold voice sounded from within the carriage, “Kill them all, and don’t spare a single one!”

Chapter 1575: Pig Skull

What came next was a disaster for the Orcs. The Darkness Soldiers heeded Zhao Fu orders, turned into rays of black light, and shot out. As they flashed past, Orcs' bodies would be split in two, causing cries to continuously sound out and blood to fly everywhere. The Orcs continuously fell, and the remaining Orcs looked terrified as they ran away.

However, the 50,000 rays of light continuously shot forwards, not giving the Orcs a chance to survive. In the end, all of them were killed, creating a bloody and gory scene.

The merchant group's people looked incredibly excited. With Zhao Fu's power, even 300,000 soldiers were nothing and had been slaughtered.

Within the carriage, Gou Xiaoxiao and Gou Shuiqing felt quite shocked. An army of 300,000 Orcs had been killed so easily; their owner's power was simply too terrifying.

After easily 300,000 Orcs, the ground was dyed red and a haze seemed to cover the sky. Even from a distance, people could feel a chill and understood that something terrible had happened.

The merchant group headed onwards and reached a Pigman Kingdom. Some people had pig heads and human bodies, while others had human faces and bodies but a pair of pig ears and tail, and they were quite chubby.

When hearing that the Orcs were attacking their Kingdom, the Pigmen had become terrified because it was possible that their Kingdom was going to be destroyed. The Kingdom fell into chaos, and many people gathered their things and wanted to run.

However, a shocking piece of news quickly spread – the army invading the Pigman Kingdom had been completely destroyed. What was going on? This news was simply too surprising, and the Pigman Kingdom fell into celebrations.

However, the Orcs still had another army of 200,000 approaching from another route. Now, the Pigman Kingdom resisted with their full force as they still had a chance of winning.

After hearing about what had happened, the King of the Pigman Kingdom, a chubby and fair-looking young man, brought his various Ministers and Generals to head to the merchant group.

The first reason was to thank them for saving the Pigman Kingdom, and the second was to keep such a powerful expert with them. With them here, would the Pigman Kingdom need to fear the Orcs? They could even use his power to destroy the Orc Kingdom easily.

Soon, the Pigman King brought his Ministers and Generals to the merchant group and bowed as he said respectfully, "Sir, I am the Pigman Kingdom's King, Zhu Shang. Is sir willing to meet with me?"

The reason the Pigman King was so courteous was naturally because Zhao Fu's strength and identity was far above his.

Zhao Fu came outside and looked at the Pigman King as he said coldly, "What is it?"

The Pigman King gave a flattering smile as he said, "Thank you for saving us, sir. This is a small gift for sir."

Pigmen came up carrying dozens of boxes and opened them, causing light to shine out. The boxes were filled with treasures, and ordinary people would not be able to resist leaping on the boxes upon seeing such a scene.

However, Zhao Fu said calmly, "Do you think I would be interested in such things?"

This caused the Pigman King's smile to freeze. He thought for a moment before pointing to a beautiful Pigman woman next to him, saying, "This is my Queen, if sir likes her, please take her and enjoy her."

Zhao Fu looked at the woman, and even though she was quite pretty, she had a pair of large pig's ears and a chubby body.

Zhao Fu was not very interested, and he thought about it before saying, "If you're grateful to me, give me any powerful ancestral items or things related to godly spirits. If I'm satisfied, I can fulfill some of your requests."

Seeing that Zhao Fu had guessed why they had come and was not opposed, the Pigman King felt quite delighted and took out a pig skull as he smiled and said, "This is my ancestor's pig skull and can summon a powerful remnant spirit of my ancestor. I give this to sir."

Zhao Fu looked over this pig skull and felt that it contained decent power. He gave a satisfied smile and nodded, signaling that it was not bad.

The Pigman King felt quite happy and smiled as he said, "My Kingdom also has a Pigman God; if sir wants, I can order people to have it delivered here."

Hearing that there was also a godly spirit, Zhao Fu gave a trace of a smile as he asked, "Is it a male godly spirit or a female godly spirit?"

The Pigman King felt quite confused and could not understand why Zhao Fu was asking if it was male or female, so he replied, "It is a powerful male godly spirit and is quite licentious. Every year I choose a few beautiful Pigmen women for him to use."

Hearing that it was a male godly spirit, and a licentious one at that, Zhao Fu was no longer interested, "I'll accept this pig skull as thanks for helping you kill the 300,000 Orcs. If there's nothing else, you can leave."

The Pigman King's expression became quite unsightly because the Pigman Kingdom's hope was resting on Zhao Fu. How could he just let Zhao Fu leave? Thinking about how Zhao Fu wanted ancestral items and godly spirits, the Pigman King gave a sinister smile.

"Sir, I heard that the Orc Kingdom has a powerful female Orc Goddess, as well as an ancestor's body. If sir is interested, you can go to the Orc Kingdom to take them."

Hearing this, Zhao Fu smiled, as he currently needed these things. Even though he would be helping the Pigman Kingdom, he did not care about these small things.

"Reporting to His Majesty, our army has defeated the Orc army, captured the enemy's General, and brought her here," a Pigman soldier came up to report as a few other soldiers brought up a female Orc.

This female Orc was dressed in leather armor and had an enticing figure. She had slightly gray-colored skin and had pointed ears. She had two upwards-pointing teeth and was quite beautiful, and she gave off a ferocious aura and did not seem afraid of the surrounding Pigmen.

Thinking of how Zhao Fu now had his eyes on the Orc Kingdom, the Orc Kingdom would be doomed, and he coldly harrumphed as he said, "Skin her and nail her corpse to a stake in order to boost the morale of our army."

The female Orc struggled as she said, "You trash Pigmen, if it wasn't for someone helping you, you Pigmen would have long since been destroyed by our Orc Kingdom. The Orc Kingdom will come sooner or later, and that will be when your Pigman Kingdom is destroyed. I await the day that my King steps on your head."

Hearing this, the Pigman King was enraged and immediately ordered, "Find 1,000 Pigmen to screw her before skinning her and nailing her to a stake. Let's see if she can remain so arrogant."

Chapter 1576: Forest

The Orc woman's expression was quite unsightly as she cursed, "You pigmen are all a bunch of stupid pigs. Kill me if you dare, or else you'll regret it!"

"I want her!" The Pigman King was infuriated and was just about to say something when Zhao Fu's voice sounded out. He immediately smiled and said, "Since sir likes her, I will give her to sir."

The Orc woman looked at Zhao Fu; she did not know that the Orc Kingdom's other army had already perished at Zhao Fu's hands.

The soldiers brought the bound Orc woman to Zhao Fu's side, and Zhao Fu looked at the Orc General before turning to the Pigman King and said, "Don't worry, I'll head to the Orc Kingdom soon."

The Pigman King smiled and felt at ease, and he took his people and left.

"Who are you?" the Orc woman asked as she looked at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu smiled and did not reply. He waved his hand and a cold light shot out, cutting apart the ropes binding the Orc woman. The instant that the ropes were destroyed, the Orc woman punched towards Zhao Fu.

From how she saw it, Zhao Fu was together with the Pigmen. Moreover, with so many people in the merchant group, if she did not seize Zhao Fu first, she would not be able to escape this place. As such, she decided to immediately attack Zhao Fu.

However, her first was easily caught by Zhao Fu, and he vigorously pulled on her hand, causing the Orc woman to fall into his embrace. He then brought her into the carriage.

The Orc woman started to struggle as she cursed, “You bastard, let me go.”

Zhao Fu ignored her and after bringing her into the carriage, he started to have a taste of her, and the carriage was soon filled with the Orc woman’s moans.

The merchant group continued onwards, heading towards the Orc Kingdom.

The Orc Kingdom was right ahead and since they were going to pass it anyways, they might as well take care of matters there.

Within the carriage, the Orc woman now lay strengthlessly within Zhao Fu’s embrace, and she panted as she pleaded, saying, “Please don’t slaughter the Orc Kingdom; I’ll do anything you want.”

The Orc woman had found out that it was Zhao Fu who had easily slaughtered her Kingdom’s 300,000 soldiers, and he was heading towards the Orc Kingdom with ill intent.

Zhao Fu hugged the Orc woman and lightly laughed as he said, “If I can take care of matters easily, I naturally won’t kill too many people. However, if they resist, it won’t be my fault. I’ll at least spare your family though.”

The Orc woman let out a sigh of relief and felt that Zhao Fu was not someone who enjoyed slaughter. There was still hope, and she would see what happened after going back.

By now, the Orc Kingdom had received news of the army failing to conquer the Pigman Kingdom. They were incredibly confused and felt that the Pigman Kingdom should not have such strength; only after making investigations did they understand.

What caused their expressions to become even more unsightly was that the merchant group was heading towards the Orc Kingdom. What should they do? That was currently what all of the Ministers were thinking about.

Some Ministers were of the opinion to destroy this merchant group. 300,000 Orc soldiers had died at their hands, and they could not not take revenge for those soldiers.

Other Ministers felt that this merchant group's power was too terrifying – if they could easily wipe out 300,000 soldiers, how many soldiers would it take to defeat them? It was possible that the Kingdom would perish, so many Ministers wanted to satisfy any requests the merchant group made.

As the two sides discussed, the merchant group had reached the Orc Kingdom's defensive walls; they had to make a decision.

Zhao Fu came outside and saw that the gates were tightly closed, and there were Orcs seriously holding weapons. There were also bows aimed at the merchant group, and this made Zhao Fu feel quite displeased. He wanted to directly slaughter his way in.

The Orc woman Shou Duo hurriedly stopped him, saying, "Sir, these people defending the walls are my family's people. Can you please allow me to try?"

Zhao Fu felt quite displeased as he did not like wasting time like this. Shou Duo's face became red as she said shyly, "Sir, I'll serve you well after this; don't be displeased, alright?"

Hearing this, Zhao Fu thought of this female General serving him and he gave a trace of a smile, so he allowed her to do as she wished.

Shou Duo came to the defensive walls and called out, "Big brother, open the gates."

A valiant-looking Orc looked at Shou Duo in confusion before saying in delight, "Little sister Duo, you're still alive? I thought you were dead."

Shou Duo smiled as she said, "Big brother, it was this sir who saved me. Hurry and let us in, or else sir will get angry."

The young man was called Shou Wu, and he looked quite troubled as he said, "Little sister, we already know that this merchant group killed 300,000 of our soldiers, so I can't let them in or else the Orc Kingdom will be in danger."

Shou Duo looked at Zhao Fu and was worried that he would get angry, and she said hurriedly, "Big brother, if you don't open the gates, that will cause the Orc Kingdom to fall into danger."

However, Shou Wu still resolutely shook his head and refused, saying, "Little sister, don't try to persuade me. I won't open the gates."

At that moment, a beautiful woman with a mature figure and dressed in armor walked out and smiled as she said to Zhao Fu, "Sir, don't be angry; I'll have my son open the gates."

Seeing this beautiful woman, Shou Duo happily called out, "Mother!"

The woman flew down from the gates, and sensing the mature aura about her daughter, she understood something and gave an understanding smile as she said, "Daughter, come over here; I have something to ask you."

Shou Duo understood that her mother knew that her body had been taken by someone. Her face became slightly red but she was not too embarrassed and openly admitted this. She walked over to her mother and asked, "What is it, mother?"

The beautiful woman's name was Shou Nan, and she looked serious as she asked, "Is that sir's power really that powerful?"

Shou Duo nodded seriously, "He's unimaginably powerful, and he has 50,000 Stage 6 soldiers."

A trace of a smile appeared on Shou Nan's face as she looked at Zhao Fu and said respectfully, "Sir, are you willing to talk with me? I have some important matters to discuss with you."

Zhao Fu felt quite surprised and did not know what this beautiful woman wanted with him, but he still agreed.

Following this, the two of them walked into a small forest near the defensive walls. Shou Duo, Shou Wu, and the others did not know what the beautiful woman wanted with Zhao Fu for her to be so secretive, to the point that she could not say it in front of her family.

Everyone waited for two hours, and yet the two of them still had not come out.

Within the small forest, Zhao Fu and the beautiful woman were going at it, and Shou Nan's face was red as she pleaded, "Sir, it's been two hours already; I can't go on anymore. Also, we need to quickly act and not give the royal clan an opportunity to react. I'll serve you together with my daughter later, alright?"

Chapter 1577: Orc King

Hearing this, Zhao Fu smiled and agreed.

Following this, the two of them put on their clothes and came out of the forest. Shou Nan's face was red, and she had a pleased look on her face. Everyone understood what had happened.

Shou Duo's face became slightly red as she thought of serving Zhao Fu together with her mother in the future. She also felt admiration towards her mother for being able to endure doing it with Zhao Fu for two hours.

Shou Wu looked slightly angry; anyone would not be happy seeing that someone had done it with their mother.

Shou Nan did not pay much mind to everyone's gazes and she said loudly, "All soldiers immediately gather and notify all of my forces to immediately prepare to attack the Kingdom's capital."

This was what Shou Nan had requested of Zhao Fu, which was to help her family stage a rebellion, seize the throne, and make her son the King.

Now that the Orc Kingdom's army had just suffered a great loss, Shou Nan, who was a mighty General who controlled much of the Kingdom's forces, could stage an uprising with Zhao Fu's help.

Shou Nan's order caused countless people to stare at her in shock; they understood that she wanted to rebel against the throne. However, as her soldiers, countless people immediately followed her orders and started to prepare.

Shou Wu also looked quite confused; he did not think that his mother would do such a thing and he tried to persuade her otherwise, but Shou Nan calmly cut him off, "Don't waste your breath; all of this is for you and for our family."

Shou Duo happily laughed as she said, "Don't worry, big brother, with sir here, you'll become the Orc Kingdom's new King, and our family will become the royal family."

Seeing that no one else opposed this, Shou Wu realized that no matter what he said, it would be useless, so he could only helplessly nod.

Soon, Shou Nan's family's forces and related factions all attacked the capital. If they succeeded, they would all receive immense glory and fortune, but if they failed, they would die horrible deaths. As such, they were all incredibly bold and valiant in battle.

The Orc King and Ministers were currently discussing how to deal with the merchant group, and they had never expected that someone would stage an uprising at such a critical moment. They were not prepared at all, and Cities were quickly conquered as reports were sent in.

The countless Orc Ministers' faces became pale and the King immediately gave the order to gather all soldiers to defend.

Zhao Fu stood in the sky and looked at the 100,000 or so soldiers gathering. He casually waved his hand and 50,000 Stage 6 soldiers gave off a powerful aura as they stood in the air, seeming to cause the space around them to freeze.

The 100,000 Orcs looked terrified as they looked at the Stage 6 soldiers in the sky, and the slaughter soon began.

In just a few hours, the ground was covered with corpses, and blood dyed the ground red. The surroundings had fallen completely silent, and the 100,000 Orc soldiers had all died. All of them had died incredibly pitifully.

Zhao Fu easily wiped out the Orc Kingdom's army, allowing the rebel armies to smoothly reach the capital and surround it.

Now, everyone looked quite delighted; they were just a single step away from taking the throne and taking over the Orc Kingdom.

The Orc Kingdom's King was a barbaric-looking Orc and he said furiously, "Shou Nan, I've always treated your family well and yet you're rebelling. This is disgraceful; you deserve death."

Shou Nan's expression was cold as she stood at the front of the army, and she gave off a powerful aura as she said, "Stop putting on an act; I've long since known that you've intended to destroy my family. Don't try to deny it; I know how my husband died. Now, today will be the date of your death."

“轰!”

锵锵锵...

“All soldiers... attack!” Countless soldiers obeyed and gave off a massive aura as they flooded towards the capital.

The Orc King's expression became quite unsightly and immediately gave the order to defend.

Boom!

A powerful aura exploded out as countless rays of grey light spread out in the sky and an immense might descended. Sensing this power, countless people felt their hairs stand on end, and they instinctively felt fear.

A woman with a fiery figure, lean muscles, and dressed in simple beast skins appeared. She had slightly gray skin and two upwards-pointing fangs, and her long black hair was in a braid. She was peerlessly beautiful and had a primal wildness about her.

She was the Orc Kingdom's guardian god, and at this moment of crisis, she had descended, wanting to help the Orc Kingdom.

Clang, clang, clang...

Just as the Orc Goddess appeared, the sound of chains could be heard as countless chains containing great power shot out from the air and bound up the Orc Goddess.

The Orc Goddess' expression fell as she tried to break free, but it was completely futile.

Zhao Fu gave a trace of a smile and he pulled, dragging the Orc Goddess in front of him and hugged her.

Now that the Orc Goddess had been captured so easily, the Orc Kingdom lost all hope. Countless people watched on in despair and were completely helpless against the incoming army.

Just as expected, the battle concluded quite quickly and Shou Nan chopped off the Orc King's head. Shou Nan gave a proud smile and put her foot on the head as she announced that they had won.

Zhao Fu hugged the Orc Goddess and came to the palace, and there were already three Orc women who had been brought here.

One had a graceful figure and beautiful looks, and she seemed a bit flirtatious; she was Queen Shou Mei. One was a Concubine and had a slim figure and a weak aura, and she was called Shou Sui. One had a mature figure and looked quite bold and was called Shou He, and she was a Princess.

They were the three most beautiful women in the Orc Kingdom, and Shou Nan had especially caught them for Zhao Fu to enjoy.

In order for her and her family to survive, Shou Mei leapt into Zhao Fu's embrace and said, "Sir, let me serve you!"

Because of the same reason, the two other women also hugged Zhao Fu and flirtatiously looked at him as they said, "Sir, we'll serve you as well."

Zhao Fu lightly laughed and enjoyed the service of the women before doing it with them.

A few hours later, Shou Nan and her daughter Shou Duo had finished taking care of matters and also joined in.

Zhao Fu thought of the two things he had wanted to obtain. One of them was the Orc Goddess, who was already under him. There was also the ancestor's body, which was the corpse of a powerful Orc King.

After obtaining these two things, Zhao Fu stayed in the Orc Kingdom for another day so that Shou Nan and Shou Duo could watch Shou Wu ascend to the throne and become the new King. Zhao Fu would naturally bring the two women with him away afterwards.

Chapter 1578: Totem

After Shou Wu became the new King, Zhao Fu had wanted to leave, but after thinking about it, he had obtained two ancestral items but had not fused them yet. Since they could give him two Totems, he decided to stay for a while.

First was the pig skull. In order to use it, he had to offer a sacrifice of at least 1,000 people to summon the remnant ancestral spirit within the pig skull.

Now that the Orc Kingdom had just gone through an uprising, there were many people to be killed, and they easily filled the numbers Zhao Fu needed.

1,000 people were bound and brought to a stage. Zhao Fu stood at the center, raised the pig skull, and sent power into it.

The pig skull gave off a light and floated into the sky before exploding out with a formless destructive power. This destructive power shot out like countless blades and mercilessly slashed towards the sacrifices.

“Arghhh...” Countless cries sounded out as the people on the stage were cut to pieces by the power, and corpses and blood fell to the ground.

The pig skull then exploded out with a suction power that sucked the countless corpses and blood into the sky. Countless pieces of flesh surrounded the pig skull and condensed, forming a ten or so meter tall Pigman.

The Pigman had blood-red skin and looked ugly and savage. Its body was quite swollen and was covered with fat, and it gave off a powerful aura, looking quite terrifying.

Boom!

Zhao Fu did not pay it much mind and grabbed at it. His Divine Mark appeared on his palm and a massive suction force exploded out towards the enormous Pigman in the sky.

The Pigman furiously roared and continuously struggled, but with its power, how could it resist Zhao Fu's power? In the end, it was sucked into Zhao Fu's body.

Zhao Fu closed his eyes and sat on the ground and started to refine the Pigman. Within his body, the Pigman continuously struggled, and Zhao Fu used his Divine Bloodline to turn into flames and burn away at this Pigman.

The Pigman howled in pain and was reduced to ashes in the end, leaving behind an orb of blood-red energy. After absorbing this energy, Zhao Fu once again felt a pain on his back, and a blood-red Pigman Totem appeared on it.

After refining this Pigman, Zhao Fu took out the Orc ancestor's body and started to refine it. Countless traces of black aura flowed out of his hand and surrounded the corpse before starting to eat away at the corpse and absorb its essence, and it flowed back into Zhao Fu's body.

Zhao Fu focused on absorbing this powerful Orc ancestor's power and spread it throughout his entire body. He once again felt a pain on his back and a gray Orc Totem appeared.

Now, Zhao Fu had a Jackal person Totem, Wolfman Totem, Lizardman Totem, Kobold Totem, Pigman Totem, and Orc Totem, eight in total.

If it wasn't for Zhao Fu's Constitution and power being quite special, he would not be able to obtain so many Totems. After all, the powers of the Totems would conflict with each other and his body would not be able to withstand the power, resulting in him dying.

This time, Zhao Fu had obtained two Totems, making him smile. Now that he had finished refining those two things, Zhao Fu had no need to continue staying here, so he left with the merchant group and headed onwards.

Soon, they reached a danger zone, which was said to be very dangerous, making Zhao Fu quite interested. After all, danger zones often contained great treasures.

Zhao Fu had the merchant group wait here while he went to explore. Everyone knew how powerful Zhao Fu was, so they did not say much.

The danger zone was a green-ish blue area of thistles and thorns, and there were thorny vines everywhere that were over 1,000 meters long. It was completely silent, and Zhao Fu could sense that it was quite dangerous here.

After stepping into this place, Zhao Fu found that there was a formless restriction that cut off his connection to his Nation Armament. Evidently, he could not use his Nation Armament in this region.

However, this was just a small danger zone in the outer boundary of the Outlander Domain, so it would not be too dangerous. Zhao Fu felt quite confident and felt that his power would be more than enough. He was not interested in looking around the outskirts and directly flew towards the depths of the danger zone.

Boom!

At that moment, an enormous green arm suddenly stretched out with great power and slapped Zhao Fu to the ground. Zhao Fu heavily slammed into the ground and opened up a crater.

Zhao Fu was not injured, as he had been able to unleash his defensive barrier in time. However, he was quite confused and did not understand where that arm had come from.

Now, Zhao Fu was much warier and proceeded with caution; that arm was quite powerful.

However, just as Zhao Fu started advancing into the depths again, countless thorny vines seemed to come to life and gave off shocking power as they flooded towards Zhao Fu.

The dense thorny vines were all alive; no wonder there were not any animals here – it would be impossible for any to survive here.

Facing the incoming thorns, Zhao Fu's expression did not change as he held the Sadistic Killing Sword and unleashed his defensive barrier. He advanced while slashing out with his sword, sending out sword lights that destroyed the incoming thorny vines.

These were all ordinary thorny vines and were easy to deal with. A single slash from Zhao Fu could destroy many of them.

After being slashed, the thorny vines would quickly wither and leak out green blood.

Bang!

Suddenly, the countless thorny vines spread out and a 1,000 meter spear made of countless thorny vines shot out with terrifying power. It was incredibly fast and blurred through the air.

Zhao Fu was unable to instantly react, and by the time he had blocked in front of him with his sword, the massive spear had slammed into him.

Zhao Fu's defensive barrier shattered and he was sent flying dozens of meters before he was able to stop himself. A trace of blood leaked out of his mouth, but he was only slightly injured and it was not too serious.

By now, Zhao Fu was quite angry; these ordinary thorny vines were actually able to harm him, and now he could not be careless anymore. Zhao Fu did not hesitate to put away the Sadistic Killing Sword and take out the Emperor Killing Sword.

“Sword Master!” Zhao Fu sent his power into the Emperor Killing Sword and lightly cried out as an extremely sharp sword qi exploded out from the Emperor Killing Sword, covering everything around him. It gave off an incredibly dangerous aura, and the thorny vines retreated in fear.

Chapter 1579: Sword

Zhao Fu felt slightly angry as he directly slashed out vigorously with the Emperor Killing Sword.

Shing!

A clear sword hum tore through the sky as an enormous white sword light flashed out with a power that seemed to be able to slash through anything. In that instant, the thorny vines in the surrounding ten or so kilometers were all cut apart and fell from the air, causing green blood to fly everywhere.

After the dense vines had been cut apart, the surrounding area seemed incredibly sparse.

Swish, swish, swish...

Countless vines seemed to be infuriated and formed massive thorny vine spears that shot towards Zhao Fu with creating ferocious power and loud sounds.

Zhao Fu expressionlessly swung his sword, sending out extremely sharp sword lights that cut apart the incoming spears, which were unable to pose any resistance at all.

In the Sword Master state, the Emperor Killing Sword was definitely one of the sharpest swords in the world. Moreover, because of Zhao Fu's cultivation, he was unable to unleash its full power yet.

Now, the countless thorny vines seemed to become afraid. Despite sending out so many spears, they were unable to harm Zhao Fu at all, and the ground was now covered with severed thorny vines.

Zhao Fu held the Emperor Killing Sword and walked forwards, and the thorny vines no longer dared to attack.

Boom!

At that moment, a powerful aura erupted out as a terrifying might spread out. The ground continuously trembled and cracked as green light shined from the cracks; this was World Realm power.

The ground continuously trembled and a large sound could be heard as an enormous treant climbed up from out of the ground.

This treant had a tree-like head with a treetop and branches, while the rest of the body looked humanoid. It had powerful-looking muscles and green skin. It was covered with thorns and gave off a powerful aura – that World Realm power belonged to this treant.

Zhao Fu's expression slightly changed. He himself only had Heaven Realm Cultivation, and without his Nation Armament, it would be quite difficult to defeat this treant.

This treant was 1,000 meters tall and after appearing, it immediately attacked. It raised an arm and swatted at Zhao Fu incredibly quickly. The enormous green arm that attacked him at the beginning appeared to belong to this treant.

Bang!

Zhao Fu unleashed his Divine Domain and an enormous barrier expanded out, but he was still slammed into the ground and opened up a large crater. Rocks flew everywhere and a trace of blood leaked out of Zhao Fu's lips.

Zhao Fu only had Heaven Realm Cultivation and was three Realms below the treant.

Ordinarily, a difference of a single Realm would already mean an enormous gap in power, and this treant was three Realms above him. Even though Zhao Fu was not weak, he was still at a disadvantage. If he could use his Nation Armament, he would be able to instantly kill this treant.

However, this showed Zhao Fu's weakness – he overly relied on his Nation Armament's power. Without his Nation Armament's power, he could not even resist. It seemed that he had to focus on increasing his own cultivation.

After all, with how the Heaven Awaken World was weakening, if Nation Armaments' power also disappeared, what would Zhao Fu do?

Seeing that Zhao Fu had been slammed into the ground, the treant looked somewhat disdainfully and condescendingly at him as it raised its foot and stepped towards Zhao Fu as if it was crushing an ant.

The foot contained immense power and Zhao Fu directly exploded out with all of his power as a black aura flame erupted around him, causing a wild gale to blow.

Shing!

As the foot descended, an enormous sword hum sounded out and a black sword light containing incredibly destructive power slashed out, causing a black sword wind to erupt.

“Roar!!” the treant roared in pain as a large gash was slashed open on its foot. Blood poured out of the wound, and the treant stumbled backwards and crashed to the ground, causing the ground to tremble.

Zhao Fu gave off a powerful black aura flame as he turned into a black ray of light and shot towards the treant.

However, as a World Realm expert, the treant had immense power. Its tree-like head’s countless leaves gave off a faint light and shot out like countless green blades. Every leaf was incredibly sharp and could easily slice through steel.

Zhao Fu was quite startled and immediately unleashed his defensive barrier. The countless leaves contained ferocious power as they slammed against the barrier, causing loud clanging sounds.

Bang!

At that moment, the treant on the ground suddenly attacked. It stretched out its arm and vigorously slapped at Zhao Fu, once again sending him flying.

The treant stood up again and the wound on its foot quickly healed. The treant had powerful healing abilities and right after it stood up, it immediately attacked Zhao Fu again.

Zhao Fu was only able to stop himself after flying out hundreds of meters. At that moment, the treant punched out, causing the air to explode, and a terrifying beam of light shook the space around it as it blasted towards Zhao Fu.

Bang!

Zhao Fu was hit by this green beam of light and once again flew out. He slammed into a mountain, causing it to crack, and Zhao Fu coughed up a mouthful of blood.

The treant gave a savage smile as it raised its fist and rushed over, leaving large craters in the ground as it ran.

Zhao Fu felt as if his bones were going to break. He looked at the treant and felt truly furious. At that moment, he unleashed all of his powers: Divine power, Six Paths Demon Images' power, Demon Lord's power, Evil Spirit Abyss Flower power...

Boom!

Zhao Fu raised the Emperor Killing Sword and a rainbow-colored light containing different auras rushed into the sky with terrifying power, causing an enormous sound to ring out.

The clouds swirled as countless traces of Heaven and Earth Power madly gathered and an incredibly terrifying power gradually gathered in the sky.

A sword formation giving off different lights appeared in the sky, and an apocalyptic sword intent spread out like lightning. Space itself started to crumble as all creatures fell into despair.

The savagely smiling treant innately felt terrified, and its expression became quite unsightly as it paused.

Zhao Fu looked at the treant coldly as he heavily lowered his upraised sword. The Heavenly Punishment Sword Formation in the sky gave off a destructive aura as it spun, and rays of fathomless sword light blasted down from the sky incredibly quickly.

Chapter 1580: Spirit Tree Constitution

Seeing countless sword lights tear through the sky towards it, the treant's expression became quite unsightly. It exploded out with its full power, and its body gave off an intense green light as it stretched out its hand and a massive energy barrier appeared.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

The sword lights ferociously slammed onto the energy barrier with destructive power, causing the energy barrier to violently tremble. It could defend against dozens of sword lights, but under the flurry of thousands of sword lights, it was far from enough.

Bang!

A massive sound rang out as the green energy was slashed apart by the countless sword lights, and it turned into countless pieces. Following this, the rest of the sword lights slammed into the treant's body, easily tearing apart its body.

“Roar! Roar! Roar...” the treant roared from pain and it quickly gathered its power again to form a screen of light in front of it. However, that screen of light was also easily destroyed by the sword lights.

By the time the Heavenly Punishment Sword Formation stopped, the treant was covered with injuries and was incredibly bloody. Its aura was quite weak and looked quite wretched.

However, as a World Realm expert, it still had great power. Because Zhao Fu's cultivation was too low, his Heavenly Punishment Sword Formation had only been able to severely injure it and not directly kill it.

Zhao Fu held the Emperor Killing Sword and gave off terrifying power as he once again rushed at the treant.

The treant looked completely furious and raised its fist as it once again punched at Zhao Fu, sending out large gales and causing the air to explode.

Facing the punch, Zhao Fu slashed out with the Emperor Killing Sword, sending out a ferocious sword light that clashed with the enormous fist.

Bang!

The sword light was shattered by the punch, and it turned into a gust of sword wind as it dissipated. However, it left behind a deep gash on the fist and blood flowed out, causing the treant to howl.

Zhao Fu grasped this opportunity to send large amounts of power into the Emperor Killing Sword, causing it to give off a boundless sword light, and an icy aura spread out.

Shing!

Zhao Fu once again slashed out, sending out an enormous sword light that gave off a sharp aura that hacked against the treant's injured chest and forced it back a few steps. Another gash appeared on its chest, from which a lot of blood flowed out.

The treat roared in pain and madly punched towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu calmed down and dodged to the side, avoiding this powerful punch, before coming to the treant's abdomen and slashing an incredibly sharp sword light against its abdomen.

This strike almost cut open the treant's stomach, and the treat once again howled. By now, the treant could barely retaliate.

Zhao Fu landed a few more attacks on the treant's body before stabbing the Emperor Killing Sword into the treant's heart, ending its life. However, this caused green blood to spray all over Zhao Fu's body.

At that moment, Zhao Fu's bloodline felt quite excited. After fusing with the Water Race Spirit Blood, his bloodline had gained a trace of spirituality.

Now, Zhao Fu's bloodline could sense that the treant's body contained a powerful spirituality and it wanted Zhao Fu to devour this treant's body. Zhao Fu did not hesitate, as this would bring him great benefits.

Zhao Fu opened up the gash, entered the treant's heart, and started eating.

A black mist containing Divine power flowed out from the treant's chest and covered the treant's entire body. The black mist continuously ate at the treant's body and melted it, starting from the flesh, then the bones, and finally turning the treant into a green liquid.

The treant's hands and feet disappeared first, then its head and its chest. In the end, it was turned into a massive orb of liquid that was absorbed into Zhao Fu's body.

Zhao Fu was very careful and serious as he absorbed the treant and did not leave anything out.

As Zhao Fu fused with the green liquid, his body gave off a green light and he felt quite comfortable. He felt as if he had obtained a massive wave of lifeforce that flowed into every part of his body, causing his body to go through changes.

This process took one hour or so, and the green liquid fused into every part of Zhao Fu's body, causing Zhao Fu to obtain something quite good.

That was the Spirit Tree Constitution, which gave Zhao Fu immense lifeforce like the treant, as well as similar abilities.

Zhao Fu could also now turn into a treant or a large tree, and he could send roots into the ground and absorb nutrients from the ground. He could also grow branches and leaves to absorb sunlight.

Zhao Fu felt that this kind of ability was quite interesting but could not imagine when he would use it. Perhaps it would be useful someday.

Zhao Fu got up from the ground and put on new clothes; his clothes from before were covered with blood and he could not wear them anymore.

Following this, Zhao Fu continued onwards, as this was still the outer regions of the danger zone. He had encountered such a dangerous situation before even reaching the depths, so he had to become even more careful. Without his Nation Armament, he was just a weak Heaven Realm Cultivator.

Of course, Zhao Fu first planned to go over to where the treant had first appeared to see if he could find any treasures there.

Soon, Zhao Fu reached that place and found that even though there were many thorny vines there, there were pink-white flowers growing on them, looking like peach blossoms, and they were quite pretty.

There was a spring at the center of the flowers, which flowed with springwater that gave off a faint fragrance.

Zhao Fu went up to take a look and found that this was quite a valuable spring. It was called the Ten Thousand Flower Beauty Spring, and it could turn even ugly women into beautiful women.

In actuality, the Fountain of Life could also increase one's beauty and lifeforce, but the Ten Thousand Flower Beauty Spring's ability to beautify was dozens of times more powerful than that of the Fountain of Life's, and it was useful for even higher-beings.

Just this alone made it a priceless treasure; countless female higher-beings would fight to obtain something like this.

Moreover, if this Ten Thousand Flower Beauty Spring was placed in a place with countless flowers, the spring would absorb the flowers' energy, and its effects would be even greater.

Zhao Fu grinned and felt quite interested, so he started to look around the spring.

Splash!

Zhao Fu grabbed at the water, and a formless energy entered the water and a transparent pearl was lifted out. This was a Spring Pearl, and with this pearl, Zhao Fu could create a Ten Thousand Flower Beauty Spring anywhere, and its effects would not be any weaker than this one's.
