

The Lord 1581

Chapter 1581: Danger Zone

Zhao Fu sent this power into the Spring Pearl, causing it to give off a formless suction power. All of the springwater below was sucked into the Spring Pearl, and after absorbing the water, the Spring Pearl gave off an even more beautiful light.

Zhao Fu gave a smile of satisfaction and put the Spring Pearl away as he continued into the depths of the danger zone.

There were not any thorny vines at the center of the danger zone. Lush green grass seemed like a carpet that covered the ground, and there were all kinds of small flowers growing among the grass. There were small groves and a small creek, and the sky was quite blue with a few white, cotton-like clouds.

Seeing that the scenery in front of him was quite beautiful and did not seem dangerous, Zhao Fu felt quite confused. After all, the center of the danger zone should be the most dangerous place.

Even though this place seemed incredibly peaceful and calm, Zhao Fu was still careful. Before walking for very long, he found a very familiar-looking person ahead. She was dressed in blood-red clothes and had a graceful figure. She had long, blood-red hair, and she was as beautiful as a goddess.

She was Tuoba Qing, who had disappeared for a long time. She was the one who had given Zhao Fu the Origin Mark, and she was the first woman Zhao Fu had been with.

Zhao Fu had never thought that he would meet her here, and he smiled as he walked up and called out, "Xiao Qing!"

Tuoba Qing slowly turned and upon seeing Zhao Fu, she leapt into his embrace and gave a beautiful smile as she said softly, "Husband, why are you here?"

Zhao Fu smiled and told her about everything that had happened, as well as his purpose in coming to the Outlander Domain.

Tuoba Qing nodded in understanding and lightly smiled as she said, "Husband, you've become so powerful; I was not wrong in choosing you at all. Perhaps your strength will surpass mine one day, and you might even break the chains of the Origin Race."

Zhao Fu lightly laughed as he replied, "I probably would not have been able to reach where I am now if it wasn't for the Origin Mark that you gave me. Also, where have you been all these years? And why are you here?"

Tuoba Qing pulled Zhao Fu to sit under a big tree. Zhao Fu sat with his back against the tree and Tuoba Qing leaned against him. Sunlight leaked through the gaps in the leaves, and a wind blew lightly as Tuoba Qing started to talk about her experiences over the past few years.

Zhao Fu quietly listened to her, and soon, he suddenly felt a wave of sleepiness. This sleepiness became stronger and stronger, and his head started to feel heavy. His eyelids started to droop to the point that he almost could not keep his eyes open.

At that moment, Tuoba Qing's face and expression changed. She no longer seemed gentle and beautiful but incredibly savage. Sharp fangs grew in her mouth and she seemed incredibly ugly and evil as she bit at Zhao Fu's throat.

Boom!

At that critical moment, Zhao Fu exploded out with a massive black aura flame and a terrifying power spread out, sending Tuoba Qing flying out.

At the same time, the sleepiness in Zhao Fu's head disappeared and Zhao Fu came back to his senses. He coldly looked at Tuoba Qing and asked, "Who are you?"

Tuoba Qing flew out ten or so meters but was uninjured, and she said flirtatiously, "Husband, I'm your wife; how come you don't recognise me? Did you miss me all this time? Let me come and serve you later!"

Zhao Fu's expression remained cold, and he became even more certain that this Tuoba Qing was not the real Tuoba Qing. He drew his sword and prepared to kill this monster masquerading as Tuoba Qing.

Seeing Zhao Fu's cold expression and his drawn sword, Tuoba Qing said softly, "Husband, are you really going to kill me? Could you really do such a thing?"

Zhao Fu said in disgust, "Stop acting; you're disgusting."

Hearing this, Tuoba Qing's expression changed, and she savagely laughed as she spoke with a man's voice, "Brat, I was going to let you die in comfort, but you brought this on yourself. I'm going to cut you into pieces and have a good taste of you."

Now, the monster not only grew fangs but also a long tongue, but it still maintained Tuoba Qing's appearance, though it was now quite ugly and terrifying.

It vigorously waved its hands, gathering countless traces of wind to turn into a massive wind blade that slashed towards Zhao Fu with terrifying power.

Zhao Fu initially wanted to dodge, but the grass beneath his feet suddenly came to life and quickly grew before wrapping tightly around his feet, making it so that he could not dodge.

As such, Zhao Fu could only vigorously slash out towards the incoming wind blade, and an enormous black crescent flew out and clashed with the wind blade. The two of them exploded with a bang and turned into a wild gale that spread out.

The monster grabbed at the air and a spear appeared in its hand. It kicked off the ground and turned into a lightning-fast black blur as it instantly appeared in front of Zhao Fu and stabbed out with immense power.

Zhao Fu sent power into his feet and condensed two balls of black flames around them. He pulled hard, breaking free from the grass, and he twisted to the side to avoid this ferocious stab.

The monster savagely laughed, and the ground beneath Zhao Fu's feet suddenly became a massive mouth as Zhao Fu began to fall in. The mouth prepared to ferociously bite Zhao Fu's body in half.

Bang!

A muffled sound rang out as the enormous mouth bit onto a black energy barrier. Zhao Fu had unleashed his Divine Domain in the nick of time and defended against this bite.

The monster continued to savagely laugh as it spun its spear and once again ferociously stabbed at Zhao Fu. The spear contained immense force, and it seemed as if it could pierce through boulders.

At that moment, the golden pupil in Zhao Fu's left eye quickly spun and chains containing great power shot out towards the monster. Each chain was capable of piercing through its body.

This forced the monster to stop attacking, and it leapt back ten or so meters, dodging the chains.

After using his Divine Domain to block the massive mouth in the ground, Zhao Fu flew out and slashed towards the monster.

The monster did not seem afraid at all, and it savagely laughed as it ferociously stabbed out with its spear.

Clang!

The sword and spear collided with great force, resulting in a metallic colliding sound. Sparks flew everywhere, and a wild gale rushed out.

Zhao Fu's expression hardened as he exploded out with immense power, and he vigorously slashed with his sword, sending the monster flying backwards.

The monster now looked quite angry as its spear shot out large amounts of light, seeming to come to life and becoming a long snake.

The monster grabbed this snake and threw it out.

Bang!

An explosion sounded out as the snake gave off terrifying power and shot out as a black blur incredibly quickly towards Zhao Fu.

Chapter 1582: Monster

Zhao Fu dodged to the side and easily avoided the attack. However, the long snake could unexpectedly bend in the air, and it quickly rushed at Zhao Fu's back.

Immediately, Zhao Fu felt quite startled and his hairs stood on end – it was already too late to dodge. The six gray dots in his right eye spun as a massive wave of ghostly qi rushed out from behind Zhao Fu, and a powerful ghost appeared behind him.

The ghost loudly roared and punched out with great power, bringing with it an intense wind.

Chi!

However, the long snake was incredibly fast and flashed past, piercing through the ghost's body. The summoned ghost instantly collapsed, but it bought enough time for Zhao Fu to dodge this attack.

At that moment, the monster stretched out both hands, each one of them giving off a powerful aura, and it pressed both hands onto the ground.

Boom!

An enormous explosion sounded out as the grass in the surrounding 10,000 meters became straight and shot out with cold glints. They looked like countless green darts as they flew in the air and shot towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu was greatly startled, and he squatted down and sent large amounts of power into his sword before stabbing it into the ground.

Clang, clang, clang...

Six clanging sounds rang out as large amounts of ghostly qi rose up, and ten meter tall versions of the Six Paths Demon Images appeared around Zhao Fu. They each stretched out a hand, from which gray light shot out, forming the Six paths Defensive Barrier.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

The blades of grass slammed against the defensive barrier, causing loud sounds to ring out before shattering into pieces.

After blocking the countless blades of grass, Zhao Fu withdrew his sword from the ground and slashed it at the monster.

“Roar! Roar! Roar! Roar! Roar! Roar!”

Six massive roars sounded out from the Six Paths Demon Images and six pairs of eyes savagely looked at the monster as they exploded out with a powerful aura and rushed over incredibly quickly, reaching the monster in an instant.

The Six Paths Demon Images stretched out their hands and massive amounts of ghostly power gathered in their fists as they punched out.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

Massive explosions sounded out as six fists containing great force punched towards the monster with destructive power, seeming as if they were completely unstoppable.

The monster looked quite shocked and crossed its arms as it blocked. A wave of energy expanded out from its body, forming a gray energy barrier that blocked in front of it.

Bang!

A loud sound rang out as the gray energy barrier was instantly shattered, and the monster was sent flying and fell 100 meters away. It half-knelt on the ground and coughed up a large mouthful of blood, and its aura became incredibly weak.

At that moment, a figure appeared beside the monster and raised its black and blood-red sword with both hands as it cried out, “Sword Master!”

Shing!

A loud sword hum tore through the heavens and earth as the sword gave off a boundless black sword light. An incredibly sharp sword intent spread out, covering this world and causing all creatures to fall into terror.

Zhao Fu gripped the Emperor Killing Sword with both hands and vigorously slashed down at the half-kneeling monster.

Boom!

An enormous explosion sounded out as a massive black sword light was slashed out. It contained an incredibly sharp power and seemed to be able to slash through anything, and even the ground seemed to be cut in half. A great sword gash was left on the ground, which was as wide as a hand and over 1,000 meters long.

The monster's body posed no resistance and was cut in half as it fell to the ground. Blood flowed all over the ground, and it no longer made any noise.

Now that he had finally killed this monster, Zhao Fu let out a sigh of relief as he looked at the Six Paths Demon Images. He planned to recall them, as they could not stay in the outside world for too long.

However, Zhao Fu suddenly felt an immense sense of danger, and his heart felt as if it was being gripped by a large hand. He quickly spun and blocked with his sword.

Bang!

A sharp claw slammed into Zhao Fu's body, and he was sent flying like a ball. As he crashed to the ground, he smashed open a massive crater and coughed up a large mouthful of blood. He stared at the monster in front of him with confusion, which had seemed to come back to life and seemed completely fine.

"Hehehe..." the monster eerily laughed as it looked at Zhao Fu and said, "It's impossible for you to kill me."

Following this, the monster once again charged at Zhao Fu. Its hands had turned into sharp claws, and it quickly reached Zhao Fu. It slashed at Zhao Fu, sending out sharp, cold lights that seemed to be able to tear Zhao Fu apart.

Zhao Fu raised his sword and slashed out, sending out a sharp black arc that destroyed the monster's sharp claws.

However, this did not affect the monster at all; since Zhao Fu had discovered this secret, there was no need for it to continue hiding it. After its hands were cut off by Zhao Fu, it did not show any pain on its face, as if the hands did not belong to it.

The hands automatically reattached themselves to the monster's arms, as if they had never been cut off, and the monster once again gave off ferocious power as it clawed towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu had not expected this at all and was once again sent flying. Five long, thin gashes appeared on his chest, from which blood flowed out and dyed his clothes red.

"Hahaha..." the monster wildly laughed and exploded out with a terrifying aura as it once again rushed at Zhao Fu. Its claw gave off cold lights and a dangerous aura as it prepared to finish off Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu felt great pain from his chest, and he looked quite angry as he sent large amounts of Divine power into his sword. The Emperor Killing Sword gave off boundless black light and an enormous amount of sword qi spread out.

Boom!

Zhao Fu slashed out and an enormous black crescent containing immense destructive power slashed out.

The monster directly ignored this sword light and continued charging towards Zhao Fu. Its body was slashed in half, but it only took it a second to come back together as if it was completely fine.

The monster wildly laughed and swung its claws, causing wind to gather and form two massive wind blades that flew towards Zhao Fu with terrifying auras.

Zhao Fu vigorously slashed out two sword lights, and the two black sword lights collided with the wind blades, causing wild gales to spread out and for the ground to crack, and countless blades of grass lifted up.

The monster suddenly appeared behind Zhao Fu and clawed at Zhao Fu's back.

Zhao Fu immediately sensed this and spun as he slashed, cutting through the monster's arm and cutting it in half.

However, the monster's lower half seemed to be fine, and it suddenly twisted and kicked with immense force, causing the air to explode. Zhao Fu was not prepared at all and was struck by the leg.

Bang!

Zhao Fu heavily crashed to the ground, and the immense power opened up a large crater in the ground, causing rocks to fly everywhere and for dust to billow up.

Chapter 1583: Undying and Unkillable

The monster quickly reattached its body together again and seemed uninjured. It said arrogantly, "Hahaha, now you know how terrifying I am! Like I said, you're seeking your own death."

Boom!

Just as the monster spoke, it exploded out with a powerful aura and kicked off the air as it turned into a ray of light and shot out, ferociously attacking Zhao Fu.

Right after Zhao Fu climbed up from the crater, the monster reached him. He stretched out an arm and six chains shot out, and the Six Paths Demon Images appeared beside the monster and surrounded it.

The Six Paths Demon Images each raised a hand and gathered immense power as they slammed down.

Boom!

The Six Paths Demon Images' arms were like six massive hammers that contained terrifying power and vigorously slammed into the monster's body, blasting it into the ground and smashing open a crater.

“Hahaha, I already said that you can't kill me and that all of your attacks can't harm me at all. I'll enjoy your blood and flesh; you're definitely the most delicious food I've ever seen.”

Within the crater, the monster seemed completely fine as it stood and loudly laughed.

Zhao Fu looked quite furious and once again exploded with all of his powers.

Different-colored aura flames erupted around his body, burning three meters tall and giving off terrifying ripples. The ground was unable to withstand the power and continuously cracked as clouds gathered in the sky.

Zhao Fu's body gave off extremely terrifying power as he rose into the air, and the world seemed to be in fear as it continuously trembled.

The monster condescendingly laughed as it charged forwards, not placing Zhao Fu in its eyes at all.

Zhao Fu slowly raised his sword before slashing down, and massive sword lights containing great sword qi ferociously slashed towards the monster.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Thousands of sword lights continuously slashed against the monster's body, resulting in loud explosions that sounded in all directions.

The first sword light cut the monster into bits of flesh; the second sword light turned it into specks; the third sword light turned it into nothingness, and even more sword lights followed.

The ground continuously caved in as the crater grew bigger and bigger, from dozens of meters, to hundreds of meters, to thousands of meters, to over 10,000 meters wide.

In the end, Zhao Fu stopped attacking and there was nothing left of the monster, not even a trace.

“Hahaha, you’re still unable to kill me,” an infuriating voice sounded out as the monster reappeared completely unharmed as it looked at Zhao Fu provokingly.

Zhao Fu furiously stretched out a hand and grabbed at the air, causing chains containing great power to shoot out, piercing through the monster’s body and making it look like a hornet’s nest.

Zhao Fu also contained the chains to bind up the monster’s body. Since he could not kill it, he would eternally seal it here.

A black hole appeared beneath the monster’s body, and Zhao Fu pulled with his hand, causing the chains wrapped around the monster to drag it down into the sealed space.

After successfully sealing the monster, Zhao Fu was not pleased at all because the monster had not struggled at all.

Bang!

Zhao Fu’s hairs stood on end as a figure appeared behind him, and a spear containing terrifying power shot out and sent him flying.

The monster once again reappeared in the air and unrestrainedly laughed loudly.

After being sent flying, Zhao Fu’s back was blood-red, and he coughed up a large mouthful of blood, his aura becoming incredibly weak.

Swish!

The monster turned into a ray of light and once again charged at Zhao Fu with a powerful aura.

Zhao Fu slashed out with his sword and sent the monster flying as he sent his consciousness into the sealed space. He had definitely just sealed the monster, so how had it reappeared behind him?

This monster seemed to have some kind of undying and unkillable ability, and it was unsealable as well. It was quite terrifying.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh...

Massive winds blew as the monster stood in the air and swung its arms as three enormous tornadoes containing immense destructive power appeared, sweeping toward Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu roared and his sword exploded out with boundless sword light, causing an enormous sword intent to spread out. Zhao Fu's body started to spin as sword arcs flashed out, forming a massive black sword qi tornado.

This sword qi tornado brought with it an incredibly sharp aura, seeming as if it could destroy all things.

Bang!

A shocking explosion sounded out as Zhao Fu's black sword qi tornado clashed with the monster's three tornadoes. Massive winds blew out, destroying everything in the surroundings and creating terrifying sounds.

Even though the monster's three tornadoes were bigger, they were destroyed by Zhao Fu's sword qi tornado and turned into gusts of wild wind. The monster at the center was dragged into Zhao Fu's sword qi tornado, and its body was cut apart into tiny bits before it was once again reduced to nothingness.

Finally, Zhao Fu stopped and breathed raggedly. His aura was quite weak; that attack had used up a large amount of his strength.

The monster once again re-formed, and it loudly laughed as it said mockingly, "I already said that you can't kill me, no matter what you do!"

Zhao Fu looked at the monster and could only angrily curse at it and did not bother anymore. He had already used up a lot of his strength, and if this went on, he would use up all of his strength and die at the monster's hands.

Zhao Fu did not hesitate and turned into a ray of light as he shot over the horizon. He did not plan on continuing to explore this danger zone; with this monster here, how could he pass through?

Seeing that Zhao Fu was running away, the monster did not give chase and instead looked at Zhao Fu condescendingly.

However, Zhao Fu soon reappeared at this place, making his expression quite unsightly. It seemed that he could not escape this place; he had thought that he could leave, but he had returned here.

Chapter 1584: Heaven Eye

“Go on, run! Keep running! You won't be able to escape, nor will you be able to kill me. In the end, you'll definitely die at my hands,” the monster continued to wildly laugh.

Zhao Fu felt quite angry and had no idea what was happening. This monster was unkillable and could not be sealed, and he could not escape either. This monster's abilities were simply too strange.

Boom!

The monster exploded out with a terrifying aura and once again charged at Zhao Fu, ferociously stabbing out with its spear. A powerful spear light containing a sharp aura shot towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu's expression was cold as he vigorously slashed out with his sword, sending out a powerful black sword light towards the spear light. The sword light and spear light collided with a bang, resulting in an enormous explosion and causing light to shoot everywhere.

The monster rushed through the light and its spear became a massive snake as it bit toward Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu blocked with his sword, but the snake contained great power and slammed towards him.

The monster loudly laughed and charged towards Zhao Fu, swiping with its sharp claws. Five arcs of light containing sharp power flew towards Zhao Fu, seeming to tear through space itself.

Zhao Fu continuously slashed out, destroying the incoming arcs of light, but the monster had closed the distance by now and clawed towards Zhao Fu's heart.

Facing this attack, Zhao Fu had been tricked so many times, so he did not want to be fooled again. His sword gave off immense sword light, but he no longer slashed and instead swatted at it with his sword.

The monster was sent flying back and gave a strange laugh as its body turned into tiny particles before reappearing behind Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu was given a big shock; he had never expected that the monster would be able to reassemble its body without him injuring it. The monster once again clawed at Zhao Fu's heart, forcing him to dodge to the side. However, he was not fast enough and the sharp claws still stabbed into his back.

Blood flew everywhere and Zhao Fu endured the pain as he spun and once again swatted the monster away with his sword.

"Heheheh..." the monster once again gave an eerie laugh; it did not take Zhao Fu seriously at all, and it once again turned into particles and disappeared.

Seeing this, Zhao Fu warily looked around at his surroundings.

Suddenly, the monster once again reappeared behind Zhao Fu and clawed at him, but this time he expected this attack. He immediately spun and sent the monster flying with his sword.

However, in the next second, Zhao Fu felt an immense sense of danger from above. He hurriedly unleashed a black energy barrier – the monster could split into two, and one had been sent flying by Zhao Fu while the other had appeared above his head.

The monster above his head gave off terrifying power as its claws shined with immense light as it slashed towards Zhao Fu.

Bang!

The black energy barrier was hit by an immense force, as if a boulder had dropped onto it, smashing open a large crater. Fortunately, Zhao Fu had unleashed his barrier in time, or else this attack could have seriously injured him.

However, he was still injured and he once again coughed up blood, causing his aura to become even weaker.

“Hahaha...” the monster in the air loudly laughed before splitting into eight, which also laughed as well.

Zhao Fu felt quite startled; a single one of these monsters was difficult enough to deal with, and now that there were eight, he was truly in danger.

Swish, swish, swish...

The eight monsters savagely laughed and gave off powerful auras as they turned into rays of light and shot at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu could only dodge, and he turned into a ray of light as he tried to run away. However, in the next moment, the eight monsters turned into particles and disappeared.

Almost immediately, the first monster reappeared beside Zhao Fu, and Zhao Fu swatted it away. The second monster appeared in front of Zhao Fu, and he turned his sword and backhand swatted it away. As the third monster appeared, Zhao Fu kicked it away, but he could not react in time to the fourth one.

Bang!

Zhao Fu was sent flying by a kick from that monster and he crashed dozens of meters away. Blood sprayed out of his mouth as his expression became incredibly grim. He continuously tried to think just what kind of ability this monster had.

This monster was unkillable and unsealable, and now it could also create clones of itself and seemed to be able to control this place. Every time Zhao Fu almost left, he would somehow reappear here.

As such, Zhao Fu concluded that there were three possibilities. The first was that he was within some kind of barrier; the second was that he was within some kind of magic formation. After gathering information, he could conclude that it was not those two, which left the final possibility. Thinking about that, Zhao Fu's gaze became sharp.

The eight monsters stood in the air and loudly laughed, "I already said that you'll definitely die here, so why struggle and suffer? You can't resist, so just die! I'll definitely enjoy eating you."

The monster wildly laughed and split into 16. The monsters once again turned into rays of light and savagely charged at Zhao Fu.

However, Zhao Fu did not move and his gaze was cold as he looked at the incoming monsters, making the monster feel quite startled, not understanding why Zhao Fu was just standing there and not moving. Could it be that Zhao Fu was allowing it to kill him? Thinking about that, the monsters' smiles became even more savage.

Just as the monsters were about to reach Zhao Fu, and their sharp claws were about to reach his body, Zhao Fu gave a cold smile and lightly cried out, "Celestial Mode... activate!"

Boom!

An enormous explosion sounded out as Zhao Fu gave off an intense rainbow-colored light, making him look like a Celestial, and a shockwave blasted out from him.

A two meter wide, rainbow-colored ring of runes appeared around Zhao Fu, and Zhao Fu's eyes gave off rainbow-colored light as a coin-sized rainbow magic formation appeared on his forehead.

Sensing this aura from Zhao Fu's body, the monster's expression fell and felt that Zhao Fu had discovered its greatest secret.

At that moment, Zhao Fu's voice once again sounded out, "Celestial Eye... open!"

The rainbow magic formation on Zhao Fu's forehead quickly spun as a rainbow-colored eye appeared, coldly and emotionlessly looking at the monster.

A wave of rainbow light spread out from the eye, and the scenery around Zhao Fu gradually changed. The blue sky, grass, trees, and creeks all disappeared, and they were replaced by a place with a withered and rotten aura, as well as a black sky.

This was the true appearance of the depths of the danger zone. Everything from before had been an illusion and was not real. That was the third possibility that Zhao Fu had considered, and such a powerful illusion could only be broken with the Celestial Mode.

Chapter 1585: Nine Pupils

Of the Five Celestial Senses, Divine Sense could resist all kinds of mental attacks and illusions. The Five Celestial Senses being combined in the Celestial Mode made all of the powers even stronger, and the Celestial Eye was the most terrifying ability.

This illusion was the most powerful illusion that Zhao Fu had ever faced. Ordinarily, with Zhao Fu's Five Celestial Senses and his Divine Bloodline, ordinary illusions would have no effect on him at all.

However, he had fallen into this illusion without even realizing it. If it was not for the Celestial Eye, Zhao Fu might not have been able to escape from this illusion and may have died within it.

This was the case even for Zhao Fu, so if other people came in, it would be impossible for them to survive. This danger zone was indeed quite terrifying.

After the illusion disappeared, a monster appeared in front of Zhao Fu. This monster had a humanoid body and was quite chubby. It had two heads, and each head had a single eye. It had gray skin and two claw-like hands, and there were roots growing over its body.

This monster was the monster that had cast the illusion, and seeing that Zhao Fu had broken through its illusion, it quickly ran away, and it was no longer as arrogant and condescending.

Without the power of its illusions, its strength was only mediocre and would be defeated easily. It was only so powerful because of its illusions.

Zhao Fu stopped using the Celestial Eye, and looking at the monster escaping, he gave a cold smile and slashed out.

A black crescent-shaped sword light flew out with terrifying power, and the monster spun and swung its claws, sending out five sharp lights that collided with the sword light.

Bang!

An explosion sounded out as light shot everywhere and a shockwave spread out. The monster was sent back a few steps and although it was uninjured, its expression was quite grim as Zhao Fu had now come within ten meters of it. This made it incredibly difficult for it to run away.

“Can you spare me this once? I can give you all of my treasures in exchange.” The monster knew how weak it was without its illusions, so it could only try to negotiate with Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu had been suppressing his anger this whole time, and now he had finally gained the upper hand. He coldly laughed as he said, “You’re still thinking about living? You’re a bit too naïve. I still remember how arrogant you were; now, you’re afraid?”

The monster’s expression became quite unsightly, and it realized that Zhao Fu would not spare it. It became determined and exploded out with a powerful aura flame and roared, “Don’t think that I’m actually afraid of you. Who knows who will win!”

Boom!

The monster gave off a powerful aura as it rushed out, slashing out with a claw and sending out five enormous gray crescents. They seemed to be able to slash apart massive boulders, and they gave off great sounds.

It was now Zhao Fu’s turn to look condescending. After losing its illusions, the monster became incredibly mediocre. Zhao Fu had nothing to fear, and he charged up and vigorously slashed out with his sword.

Bang!

The five ferocious crescents were slashed apart by Zhao Fu with a single strike and turned into countless motes of light and disappeared. Seeing this, the monster was greatly dismayed. It did not hesitate and immediately chose to turn and run.

However, Zhao Fu once again slashed out, sending the escaping monster flying.

The monster flew ten or so metres away and coughed up a large mouthful of blood. It looked quite afraid as it loudly called out, "Don't kill me, I'll give you all of my treasures and obey you. Please spare my life."

Zhao Fu did not trust this monster, as it was incredibly crafty. Moreover, he had suffered so much at its hands; how could he just let it off like this?

Shing!

A black sword light containing terrifying power slashed out, and the monster's expression became savage as it no longer ran. It roared as it swung its claws, sending out five crescents against the sword light and causing an explosion.

This time, Zhao Fu turned into a ray of light and came in front of the monster in an instant. He mightily slashed out with his sword, causing sword light to explode out as he hacked at the monster.

The monster grabbed at the air and a spear appeared in its hand. The monster held the spear and sent large amounts of power into it before stabbing out, causing a terrifying piercing energy to blast out.

Bang!

A loud explosion rang out as the piercing energy collided with the sword energy. However, the sword light destroyed the piercing energy, and the monster was blasted back.

The monster gave a cry of pain and a bloody gash appeared on its chest. It crashed onto the ground and looked quite wretched.

Zhao Fu was expressionless as he stabbed towards the monster's head, while the monster's expression became sinister and its eyes became blue as it shot out blue beams of light towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu could tell the two beams of light were incredibly dangerous and were powerful illusion attacks, so he once again cast Celestial Eye.

The rainbow-colored eye gave off rainbow light and formed a rainbow-coloured energy barrier around Zhao Fu. The two beams of light did not affect Zhao Fu at all, and the monster's expression became quite unsightly as it continued to run away.

Bang!

Zhao Fu vigorously slashed out and a massive sword light containing great power blasted the monster. Zhao Fu did not give the monster an opportunity to react and rushed up, chopping off its two heads and killing it.

Seeing that the monster had truly died, only then did Zhao Fu let out a breath of relief and relax as he sat down and started to recover his power.

Because he had been within an illusion before, all of his injuries had disappeared, but his mind had taken some damage. That illusion seemed to directly attack one's soul, and if one died within the illusion, one's soul would be destroyed, causing one to die in reality.

After resting for a while, Zhao Fu regained all of his strength and his gaze fell on the monster's corpse. He thought about it and stretched out a hand, causing countless traces of black demonic qi to spread out and cover the monster's body and two heads.

The corpse started to melt, forming an orb of black liquid that floated in the air. This orb of liquid continuously condensed, and some black-colored impurities were expelled, turned into particles, and disappeared.

Zhao Fu's left eye opened and gave off a formless suction power as it absorbed the black liquid. Zhao Fu then closed his eyes and started to refine this black liquid.

The liquid continuously fused into Zhao Fu's left eye, and soon, his left eye completely absorbed the liquid and fused with it.

When Zhao Fu opened his eyes again, there was an extra blue pupil in his left eye that gave off a sparkling light, making it look like a precious stone.

Now, Zhao Fu's left eye had nine pupils and looked even more terrifying and dangerous. It also gave off a sense of intimidation that could scare even gods and demons.

Chapter 1586: Splendor Night Silver Dragon

After gaining this pupil, Zhao Fu also gained powerful illusion abilities, causing him to smile. He had personally experienced this terrifying illusion before, and he knew how monstrous it was.

Moreover, Zhao Fu obtained some information about this illusion – it was called the Sovereign Illusion Realm and was a very rare illusion technique.

Adding on Zhao Fu's Divine Bloodline and the other terrifying powers he had, the illusion he could cast would be incredibly terrifying, far superior to what the monster had cast.

Zhao Fu got up from the ground and looked around because the monster had mentioned treasures.

A while later, Zhao Fu found a large cave, which had traces of being frequently visited. This was most likely the monster's lair, and Zhao Fu warily walked in and found all kinds of treasures piled up.

There were countless gold coins, silver coins, and precious gems. There were also equipment and items, and Zhao Fu collected them all into his spatial ring, after which he opened up a pure silver treasure box.

This treasure box was hidden in the darkness and most likely contained something incredibly precious, and Zhao Fu felt quite expectant.

After opening the treasure box, boundless silver light shot out and a Dragon made of pure silver appeared in front of Zhao Fu.

This Dragon was completely silver-colored, and its horns were incredibly sharp. It had a pair of black, gemstone-like eyes and wide, silver wings. It also had a pair of sharp claws, each of which had six toes, as well as a long dragon's tail.

The Dragon was in fact an incredibly lifelike statue that spiraled in the air, and what made Zhao Fu incredibly delighted was that this statue was actually a Den. What's more, it was the Den of an incredibly rare dragon species that could spawn Stage 8 dragons called Splendor Night Silver Dragons.

This type of Dragon was of the Darkness attribute and Metal attribute, and they were more powerful than ordinary Stage 8 Dragons. Zhao Fu had obtained an incredibly precious treasure this time.

Dragon Dens were incredibly rare, and Great Qin had only created a Wyvern Den by using a Universal Den. Those Wyverns were only Stage 5 and were a low-grade species of Dragons.

These Splendor Night Silver Dragons were a top-tier species and had Stage 5 strength right after being born.

However, because the Splendor Night Silver Dragons were so powerful, the amount of time it took to spawn them was quite long – the Den could only spawn two every month, which was 24 in one year.

Zhao Fu felt that this was acceptable. After all, back then the Wyvern Den could only spawn a Wyvern every five or six days, but now it could spawn five or six per day. Now, Great Qin had tens of thousands of Wyverns.

Zhao Fu had confidence that he would be able to raise a great number of these Splendor Night Silver Dragons in the future. An army of Stage 8 Dragons would be of immense help to Great Qin and give them a great advantage.

Zhao Fu happily put the Den away and left the cave. Just obtaining this Dragon Den made everything worth it.

After leaving the cave, Zhao Fu continued onwards. This was still the inner regions of the danger zone and not the depths, and perhaps there would be even more valuable things deeper in.

Zhao Fu headed onwards and soon reached the depths. He was quite surprised to find that there were still thorny vines everywhere that obscured his line of vision.

However, these thorny vines were different from the ones outside. The ones here were a dark red color, while the ones outside were green. Moreover, the thorns on these vines were even tougher and sharper, which gave off cold glints.

Zhao Fu took out the Emperor Killing Sword and slashed out sword lights. Even though these thorny vines were incredibly tough, they posed no resistance in front of Zhao Fu's incredibly sharp Emperor Killing Sword.

At the same time, Zhao Fu became wary. Since the thorny vines outside had consciousness, these thorny vines most likely did as well.

Just as expected, as Zhao Fu advanced, the thorny vines started to move. However, this was not to attack Zhao Fu but to defend.

The countless vines continuously gathered, forming into a red wall that was hundreds of meters tall. Countless thorny vines criss-crossed without leaving any space, and the wall gave off a shockingly powerful aura.

Zhao Fu coldly laughed and sent large amounts of power into the Emperor Killing Sword as he lightly cried out, "Sword Master!"

Shing!

Zhao Fu slashed out a massive black sword light that slammed into the wall of thorny vines with terrifying power. The wall was directly split in half, and countless segmented parts of thorny vines fell like rain.

However, the remaining vines quickly moved and once again formed a massive wall, blocking in front of Zhao Fu. Zhao Fu once again slashed out, slashing the wall in half.

This repeated three or four times, after which an ancient voice sounded out, "Sir, I don't want to become your enemy. Please spare me this time!"

Zhao Fu felt quite startled and did not expect that the most terrifying monster in the danger zone would try to settle things amicably. However, Zhao Fu did not stop; after all, he could not just leave because of one sentence from the monster. It had taken him great effort to reach this place.

However, Zhao Fu's aim in coming here was to obtain benefits, so if he could obtain great benefits without expending too much effort, that would naturally be best.

Zhao Fu thought about it and replied, "I can spare you, but you should understand my purpose in coming here. If you give me enough benefits, I'll immediately leave."

A thick vine stretched out, on which hung a red fruit that looked like a tomato. It was oval-shaped and was quite smooth, and it gave off a powerful spirit energy and seemed to be a valuable spirit fruit.

The ancient voice once again sounded out, "Sir, I know you have a Divine Bloodline. Even though it gives incredible power, it makes it more difficult for your cultivation to break through than ordinary people. This Thorn Fruit can help your cultivation break through to the Harmony Realm."

Hearing this, Zhao Fu smiled and took the Thorn Fruit. He examined it and found that there was nothing wrong with it, so he put it away and asked, "Do you have anything else of value?"

The ancient voice once again spoke, sounding quite troubled, "Sir, I don't have anything else; the Thorn Fruit was my most valuable item. Please understand and leave."

Zhao Fu definitely did not believe that it did not have anything of value, so he said coldly, "I said that if you gave me enough benefits, I would spare you. Since you're not willing, don't blame me."

After saying this, Zhao Fu sent large amounts of power into the Emperor Killing Sword and an intense sword intent spread out.

The ancient voice hurriedly said, "Please don't, sir. If you don't believe me, you can come in and have a look yourself!"

The thorny vines made way, opening up a two meter wide path, and Zhao Fu followed this path into the depths.

Chapter 1587: Thorn Fruit

There were many craters here, and there were gashes all over the ground as if a battle had happened here. Moreover, it seemed that the battle had been quite terrifying, or else there would not have been such great destruction.

An elderly man appeared in front of Zhao Fu. He was dressed in red clothes and there were thin vines coming out from his head. He looked incredibly ancient and looked just like a normal person.

This elderly man was the monster of the danger zone's depths, and his body gave off terrifying ripples. His strength was at the peak of the World Realm, and if Zhao Fu fought with him, it would be an incredibly bitter battle.

The elderly man sighed and said, "Before, I was nurturing an Innate Spirit Root here that contained incredibly great spirit power, and it was as terrifying as a Spirit Race's Emperor's bloodline.

"It's a pity that a few years ago someone came here. That was an incredibly terrifying woman; I've never seen anyone as terrifying as her. Not only was her aura above that of Emperor Bloodlines, but it was also above Divine Bloodlines.

"However, she wanted to take away the Innate Spirit Root, and I wanted to protect it. Despite releasing all of my power, she only used a tiny portion of her power and was able to easily take away the Innate Spirit Root.

"Now, you can see that I don't have anything good left. If it wasn't for that terrifying existence showing mercy, I would have already died."

Hearing the elderly man's words, Zhao Fu's expression became quite serious. The only thing that was above a Divine Bloodline was an Origin Bloodline; that person was definitely from the Origin Race.

Thinking about that, Zhao Fu could not help but think about before, how he had seen Tuoba Qing in the illusion. He could not help but ask about what the woman looked like, and after hearing the elderly man's reply, he grinned. Tuoba Qing had indeed come here, and she was the one who had taken away the Innate Spirit Root.

“Sir, do you really know that person? That being said, you have a Divine Bloodline, so it is indeed possible,” the elderly man said in shock.

Zhao Fu lightly laughed and did not explain. Since there was nothing else of value, Zhao Fu smiled as he said, “Since you don’t have anything else, there’s no need for us to fight, and I’ll leave now.”

At that moment, the elderly man said in a tone of trying to curry favor, “Sir, I have another ten or so Thorn Fruits and am willing to gift them to you. Would you give me a bit of your blood? Just a few drops is enough.”

Zhao Fu thought about it and seeing that the elderly man’s attitude was quite good, he agreed. His blood was not that valuable to himself, and he often used it to refine things or cast abilities.

Hearing that Zhao Fu agreed, the elderly man was delighted and took out ten or so Thorn Fruits and gave them to Zhao Fu. Zhao Fu cut his palm, and let out some blood for the elderly man.

After concluding their deal, Zhao Fu left while the elderly man returned below the ground.

After returning to the merchant group, the women all looked incredibly happy. After all, Zhao Fu had been in the danger zone for two days and the women all greatly missed him. What happened next did not need to be described.

Hu Shan flirtatiously hugged Zhao Fu as she said, “Husband, why were you in there for so long? With your power, you should have been able to easily deal with it, right?”

Niu Doudou lightly harrumphed, “That’s right, you made us wait for you for two days and worry about you. You need to compensate us or we won’t forgive you.”

Zhao Fu lightly laughed as he explained, “It was very dangerous inside, and it was not as easy as you’re all imagining it to be. I nearly died there, but I did obtain some precious treasures.”

Zhao Fu first took out the Beauty Spring Pearl and then took out some cups. He sent some power into the Spring Pearl, causing springwater to flow out into the cups.

Zhao Fu explained the effects of the springwater, delighting the women as they all quickly drank from the cups.

No woman was not interested in beauty.

After the women drank the springwater, their skin became smoother and more supple, and they looked even more beautiful than before.

Gou Lan smiled as she said, “Husband, can you give us some more springwater? I feel that the effects from that much are quite weak, and we haven’t gone through great changes.”

Xi Huo also said, “Husband, we’re all yours, and you’ll be happier if we become prettier and serve you together.”

Niu Dongni hugged Zhao Fu’s arm as she also said coquettishly, “That’s right, give us a bit more, alright?”

Zhao Fu lightly laughed and directly gave them the Spring Pearl. The Spring Pearl contained a lot of springwater, so he was not worried about it running out. Following this, all of the women’s attention was focused on the Spring Pearl.

Now that he had untangled himself from the women, Zhao Fu returned to the carriage by himself and planned to consume a Thorn Fruit to break through to the Harmony Realm.

Even though Zhao Fu’s Heaven Realm Cultivation was quite powerful in the outer Domains, it was quite weak even in the inner Domains, let alone the Heaven Domain. Even within the inner Domains, there were Heaven Realm Cultivators everywhere, and in the eyes of Emperor Heaven Realm experts, Heaven Realm Cultivators were just like ants.

Moreover, after this experience in the danger zone, Zhao Fu felt that his cultivation was too weak and that he had to raise it as quickly as possible. That way, things would be better for him when he went to the Outlander Ten College’s examination.

Zhao Fu sat cross-legged in the carriage and took out a Thorn Fruit. He ate it in a few mouthfuls, and he found that it did not taste good at all, being quite bitter.

Zhao Fu did not care too much and swallowed it, and the flesh of the fruit immediately turned into a powerful spirit energy that spread out.

The Thorn Fruits were spirit fruits nurtured by the elderly man, and the elderly man's true form was a massive thorny vine. With his World Realm Cultivation, the ten or so Thorn Fruits that he nurtured would definitely contain immense power.

Zhao Fu quickly absorbed the enormous spirit energy, which flowed into all parts of his body like a warm current, causing him to feel quite comfortable.

At the same time, Zhao Fu's cultivation quickly rose.

After all this time, Zhao Fu's cultivation had already greatly risen, and he was not too far away from the Harmony Realm. The energy that this Thorn Fruit contained was enough for him to reach the peak of the Heaven Realm.

However, after he reached the peak of the Heaven Realm, the Thorn Fruit did not have enough spirit energy to boost him to the Harmony Realm. Fortunately, Zhao Fu still had ten or so Thorn Fruits, and he immediately ate another one.

Another wave of spirit energy spread through Zhao Fu's body, and his body trembled as he felt as if something had been shattered, and a massive wave of power uncontrollably spread out.

A massive wave of power flowed from the ground towards Zhao Fu, and Zhao Fu quickly absorbed this power. This was the ability of the Harmony Realm, which allowed one to use some Heaven and Earth Power.

Chapter 1588: Leopard Person

After successfully breaking through to the Harmony Realm, Zhao Fu smiled. Reaching the Harmony Realm in just nine years was already extremely fast, and this was especially so given that Zhao Fu was not originally someone from the Heaven Awaken World, did not have great aptitude from the beginning, and didn't start with large amounts of resources. As such, he could not compare to those genius-level figures.

After breaking through to the Harmony Realm, Zhao Fu felt that his body had become stronger, and it was as if he was connected to the earth. He could use Heaven and Earth Power at any time now.

Zhao Fu came outside and exercised his stiffened body. The women had all consumed large amounts of springwater from the Beauty Spring Pearl. Their skin was snow-white and supple, and their figures were incredibly enticing. Their looks had also changed, becoming many times more beautiful than before.

They had all been top-tier beauties before, and now that they had consumed the springwater, they had become peerless beauties.

Gou Qingshui lay within Zhao Fu's embrace and returned the Beauty Spring Pearl to Zhao Fu. Zhao Fu looked inside it and found that there was still a lot, and the women had not used too much.

The true usage of the Beauty Spring was to immerse one's body in the springwater; drinking the springwater gave much weaker effects.

"Owner, it's time to train your little female slave," Gou Qingshui said flirtatiously as she looked at Zhao Fu with hazy eyes, seeming incredibly lewd.

After consuming the springwater, the other women also looked at Zhao Fu, and their gazes all became watery as they surrounded Zhao Fu, looking incredibly desperate.

Shou Nan laughed as she said, "Let's not waste time and return to the carriage with husband!"

The other women all smiled and nodded, and they brought Zhao Fu back to the carriage.

Zhao Fu felt quite helpless, and the merchant group continued onwards. Intense sounds rang out from the carriage; after the women had consumed the springwater, not only did they become even more beautiful, but they had also become even lewder as well.

Now, the merchant group entered a new Kingdom. After passing through this Kingdom, they would reach their destination, the Fox Race.

After doing it with the women, Zhao Fu hugged the red-faced Orc Goddess and leaned against the window as he continued to appreciate the scenery outside.

At that moment, a group of people with leopard heads and human bodies, as well as leopard tails and leopard skin, swaggered into a Goat person Village with weapons.

These Goat people had the heads of goats and human bodies, and they were quite gentle. Some of them had human faces but goat horns and goat tails.

The Leopard person at the lead called out, "It's time for you all to hand over food again. Also, we Leopard people are building a palace so all of your men are to work for us."

An elderly Goat person with a snow-white goatee came up and said, looking quite troubled, "Sir, we have already handed over food last month. Also, if you take all of our men away, how will we plant crops, and how will we defend against any danger?"

The Leopard person coldly harrumphed and slapped the elderly Goat person to the ground. "Why would I care about what happens to your village? If you don't obey I'll slaughter your whole Village."

The other Goat people's faces became pale, and they timidly stood aside, not daring to even breathe loudly.

The elderly Goat person got up from the ground, and a trace of blood leaked out of his mouth as he gave an apologetic smile and said, "Sir, we can hand over the food, but can we keep some men? Please, sir!"

The Leopard person once again furiously slapped the elderly Goat person down to the ground and stepped on him as he said angrily, "A damn old man like you wants to negotiate with me? You're seeking death."

"Arghh!" a young Goat person could not endure watching his father being beaten like this, and he roared as he ferociously charged at the Leopard person.

The Leopard person looked quite condescending as he kicked the young Goat person flying, who crashed to the ground and coughed up a mouthful of blood. His face became quite pale, and it seemed like he was greatly injured.

The Leopard person had Stage 2 Cultivation, while the young Goat person did not even have Stage 1 strength; he was not a match for him at all.

It was evident that this Leopard person would not let off the young Goat person easily. He walked over and stepped on the young Goat person's head, and he condescendingly laughed as he said, "You want to fight me with that kind of strength? You can die now!"

The Leopard person raised his foot and wanted to stomp down and crush the young Goat person's head.

Two women rushed out from a house and knelt as they cried and pleaded, "Sir, please spare him!"

One of them was quite a beautiful young woman and had a mature figure, and she had a pair of goat's horns and a gentle aura. The other was also beautiful. She had a slim figure and a pair of goat's horns, and she looked quite pure.

The beautiful young woman was the young Goat person's wife. She was called Yang He, while the other woman was his little sister, Yang Lili.

The Leopard person had never thought that this small mountain Village would have two beauties like this. He stopped and laughed as he went up to hug the two women, who desperately resisted.

However, the Leopard person's hands were like iron clamps and they could not break free, and the other Leopard people looked at their leader with admiration.

The Leopard person loudly laughed as he said, "Brothers, bring the men; we'll play with these two later!"

The Leopard people all looked quite delighted and excitedly dragged out the male Goat people. The Goat people were all terrified and did not dare to resist at all. The men were all gathered together and had their necks and hands bound with rope.

Following this, 20 or so Leopard people marched 100 or so male Goat people away.

They did not take the elderly Village Chief as elderly people could not do much work and would just be a waste of food. As for the young Goat person, he was half dead, so they did not bring him either.

Soon, the group of Leopard people encountered the merchant group.

The leader and the other Leopard people looked delighted; they would most likely be able to obtain great benefits from this merchant group. As such, they went up to stop the merchant group and loudly called out, “This is the Leopard Person Kingdom. Hurry up and pay your protection fee.”

The captain of the guards looked quite disdainful; he now understood Zhao Fu’s temperament well and said coldly, “Scram, or don’t blame us for being discourteous.”

The Leopard person loudly laughed as he said, “Do you know whose territory this is? And yet you dare to say such things. Now, if you don’t pay ten times the protection fee, you’ll all die today.”

Chapter 1589: Goat People

The captain of the guards looked quite furious and turned to look at the carriage behind him. Zhao Fu gave a slight nod, and the captain of the guards laughed and looked at the guards with him; everyone understood what to do.

The guards all suddenly acted as cold lights slashed towards the Leopard people. The Leopard people had never thought that these people would actually fight them. Facing the attack of the 100 or so guards, the Leopard people were quickly killed.

The bound Goat people looked terrified and did not know what was happening. Now that they were all bound up, even if they tried to run, they would not be able to escape.

The captain of the guards then came to the carriage to ask Zhao Fu what to do with the Goat people.

Zhao Fu’s gaze fell on the two Goat women’s bodies, and he lightly laughed as he said, “Bring them up and let everyone else go!”

The captain of the guards nodded and released all of the Goat people, who thanked them before quickly leaving.

As for the two women, they were brought to the carriage.

The two women did not know what was happening, and they had only heard from the captain of the guards that the sir in the carriage wanted to see them. They could not refuse this request so they hurriedly went as they were worried about their husband and father's injuries and wanted to quickly get back. They planned to ask this sir to take them back.

However, their lewd cries soon sounded out from within the carriage as Zhao Fu started to do it with them and had a good taste of these two Goat people women.

Afterwards, Zhao Fu hugged Yang He and Yang Lili, who lay in his embrace and breathed raggedly. They all looked incredibly embarrassed and could not look at each other.

Yang Lili had never thought her gentle sister-in-law would have such a lewd side, and Yang He looked at Yang Lili embarrassedly. She was also shocked at how Yang Lili had performed, as she seemed quite pure.

However, they could not remain embarrassed, as they still had things to take care of.

Yang He looked at Zhao Fu with her beautiful eyes as she said, "Sir, my father-in-law and husband are heavily injured and we want to go back to check on them; can you bring us back? Later, we'll serve you well."

Zhao Fu lightly smiled and agreed, and he had the merchant group head towards the Village.

The Village had already heard of the Leopard people being killed as the men had all returned. As for the elderly Goat person and the young Goat person, they had been brought into a room and been treated with some simple medicines.

They had regained consciousness, and after hearing about this, they could not help but feel worried. However, the merchant group arrived and the two women returned to their side with high-quality medicinal pills, helping them quickly recover.

Some of the Goat people were quite afraid of the merchant group as the merchant group was simply too powerful. Moreover, they were afraid of the Leopard people coming for revenge, as the merchant group had killed those Leopard people, and they were worried about getting caught up.

“Dear wife, I’m glad that you’re fine.” The young Goat person was still quite weak as he happily hugged Yang He.

Yang He looked at Zhao Fu and shyly pushed the young Goat person away as she said softly, “Alright, you’re still injured and still need to rest.”

The young Goat person smiled and lay down and did not sense that anything was off. He did not know how lewd his wife had been with Zhao Fu and that his wife was no longer his wife from before.

Zhao Fu sat down and talked with the elderly Goat person. The elderly Goat person had not been too injured, so he had recovered quickly.

Zhao Fu primarily asked about two things: The first was the situation in this area, and the other was whether their Goat person race had any ancestral powers or similar things.

Zhao Fu found that this Kingdom’s situation was quite unique. It had 60% Leopard people and 40% Goat people.

The Goat people were essentially enslaved, and because they were quite gentle and weak, they did not dare to resist. As such, the Leopard people often bullied the Goat people, resulting in such situations.

Zhao Fu also found that the Goat people had a Goat People Blessing that required at least one million Goat people to cast. The more Goat people there were, the greater blessing they could give.

This blessing could give the Goat people Ancestor’s power, and it had some benefits to Fate and could improve one’s constitution.

Zhao Fu was very interested in the Goat People Blessing and suggested that he could help the Goat people change the current status quo. The elderly Goat person understood that Zhao Fu was no ordinary person, and he gave him some information.

This information was to find a Goat person called Yang Long. Yang Long was extremely famous among the Goat people, and only he could rally people to stage an uprising.

After hearing about this, Zhao Fu and the merchant group set off to find Yang Long.

Zhao Fu naturally brought Yang He and Yang Lili away with him. The elderly Goat person had long since understood that there was some kind of relationship between them and Zhao Fu. When they had returned, their faces had been red, and it was obvious that they had done it with a man. Moreover, they would often look at Zhao Fu tenderly.

A while later, the merchant group arrived at a Goat people City. This place was filled with Goat people and Yang Long was the City Lord.

Zhao Fu did not waste any time and came to the City Hall, and he had people report that someone who could change the fate of the Goat people had arrived. Yang Long quickly welcomed Zhao Fu in.

Yang Long was a middle-aged man who gave off a powerful aura and a trace of coldness. He sat within a large hall and looked at Zhao Fu as he asked, "How can you change the fate of the Goat people?"

Zhao Fu faced his sharp gaze and lightly laughed as a terrifying aura burst out from his body. Yang Long had Heaven Realm Cultivation, so Zhao Fu used his Nation Armament's power to shock and strike fear into Yang Long's heart.

Sensing Zhao Fu's terrifying aura, Yang Long's face became pale, and he felt terrified. His body slightly trembled and he no longer seemed as cold and aloof, and he immediately said courteously, "Sir, please sit here."

Zhao Fu gave a pleased smile and sat down next to Yang Long. Yang Long did not dare to sit together with Zhao Fu, and he got up and stood next to him as he smiled and asked, "Sir, what matters do you have?"

Hearing this, Zhao Fu smiled and nodded as he said, "I came to make you this Kingdom's King. I just need you to gather all of the Goat people and cast the Goat People Blessing for me."

Yang Long felt like he was going to go mad with joy, and he almost could not believe it. However, thinking of Zhao Fu's terrifying power, he understood that Zhao Fu had no reason to lie to him, and he felt incredibly excited.

Chapter 1590: War

To Yang Long, becoming this Kingdom's King was something that he never would have imagined. That was why he was so happy.

Yang Long said excitedly, "Sir, what should I do then? I'll follow all of your instructions, and I'll definitely gather as many Goat people as possible for the Goat People Blessing."

Zhao Fu lightly smiled as he said, "Secretly notify all of the Goat people to prepare to simultaneously stage uprisings. You can leave the Leopard people's main army to me; you just have to conquer Cities."

Hearing that the matter was so simple, Yang Long smiled and agreed, and he secretly spread this information.

This would take some time. The sun had already set, so Yang Long prepared a luxurious banquet to serve Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu did not refuse in order to give Yang Long face.

At the banquet, Zhao Fu looked at a beautiful woman and a pair of twin sisters with interest.

The woman had a voluptuous figure and beautiful looks. She had a gentle and warm aura, and the twin sisters had graceful figures and looked quite pretty. They gave off gentle and quiet auras, and they looked quite enticing.

Yang Long sensed Zhao Fu's gaze and smiled as he introduced them, "She is my wife Yang Mei, and they are my daughters, Yang Hua and Yang Cao. If sir is interested in them, I can have them serve sir tonight."

Zhao Fu looked at them as he pretended to hesitate and said, "That's not appropriate; after all, they're your wife and daughters."

Yang Long was not angry at all and laughed as he said, "Sir is helping me so much, so it's only right that my wife and daughters serve you as well. Don't refuse sir; later, I'll have people bring them to your room."

Zhao Fu smiled and said, "I won't refuse then!"

During the banquet, Yang Long did his best to curry favor with Zhao Fu. After all, if he could become King, he would have everything. He would become an existence that reigned above countless people and become the most prestigious person in the Kingdom.

Zhao Fu gave Yang Long much face and even gave him a few valuable things.

After the banquet concluded, Zhao Fu came to the room that Yang Long had prepared for him, and Yang Long's wife and daughters sat on the bed looking quite sorrowful.

Yang Mei's eyes were teary, and she had never thought that her husband would give her to someone else and have her serve another person. The twin sisters were also quite angry and glared at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu did not take this to heart and started to do it with them, enjoying the taste of the mother and daughters.

Outside, Yang Long heard the intense form within, as well as the lewd moans of his wife and daughters, and he felt at ease about his cooperation with Zhao Fu.

The next day, all of the Goat people started to act. They gave off ferocious auras as they started to attack various Cities.

The Leopard people were not prepared at all and had never thought that the weak and cowardly Goat people who they normally bully would suddenly stage an uprising today. This made them feel much disbelief.

The Goat people completely took the Leopard people by surprise, easily conquering City after City and region after region.

The Leopard people's King was infuriated and sent massive armies to suppress the Goat people. Even though the Goat people had taken advantage of the situation, this Kingdom had more Leopard people and they normally controlled all of the resources. As such, they were stronger in terms of cultivation and equipment.

The Leopard people decided to completely destroy the Goat people this time and make them all into slaves. Before, they had wanted to do this, but they were worried about the Goat people greatly resisting. As such, this was their best opportunity.

If they could defeat the Goat people, they would make all of the Goat people slaves without any rights, people who could be killed or sold at will.

The Leopard people army marched out, but it was soon dealt a fatal blow as countless black rays of light shot out from the side and suddenly attacked.

The rays of light easily tore apart the Leopard people soldiers' bodies, causing blood to fly everywhere as cries sounded out.

Countless people had no idea what was going on before falling onto the ground as broken corpses.

Zhao Fu stood in the air and sent out massive black sword lights, cutting apart the soldiers and dyeing the ground red.

In just a short while, an army of around one million soldiers had been reduced to a mountain of corpses, and only very few people had been able to escape.

This caused the Kingdom's higher-ups to fall into shock and terror. Those were the Kingdoms' most elite forces, yet they had been destroyed so easily. Just what terrifying faction had the other side asked for help from? It seemed that the Leopard people were going to perish.

Countless Goat people felt wild delight and brazenly attacked Cities. They now understood that they were definitely going to win, and Yang Long happily laughed. Everything he had done, including giving his wife and daughter to Zhao Fu, had been worth it.

Soon, the Goat people reached the Royal City and surrounded it.

The Leopard people's faces were all pale. They now knew that they had lost, while the Goat people looked ecstatic. They would soon take control of this Kingdom and become this Kingdom's new rulers.

Yang Long stood at the front of the Goat people army and gave off a domineering aura as he shouted, “The Leopard Kingdom has perished, and there is no use in struggling. As long as you are willing to submit, we will treat you well in the future.”

On the other side stood three women. These three women were the Leopard Kingdom’s three Queens.

One had golden long hair that was tied up in a braid, and she had a seductive figure and a pretty-looking face. She had a human face and leopard eyes and tail, and she had golden leopard spots on her skin. One had short, violet hair and leopard ears and tail, and she had violet leopard spots on her skin and a fiery figure.

One had short, red hair and an even more fiery figure. She was extremely beautiful and had leopard ears, a leopard tail, and red leopard spots.

Their names were Bao Jing, Bao Zi, and Bao Hongye, respectively.

Bao Jing furiously looked at Yang Long as she said angrily, “If I knew things would turn out like this, I would have long since killed all of you Goat people or made you all slaves.”

Yang Long coldly harrumphed, “Since you’re not willing to surrender, don’t blame me for this. All soldiers, attack!”

“Kill!” the Goat people army excitedly yelled as they flooded forwards towards the Royal City. An intense battle exploded out and countless people died, but in the end, the Goat people obtained victory.
