

The Lord 291

Chapter 291: Divine Armament Projection

The 12 statues of the Yin General Ghost-Suppressing Formation were also spaced 5,000 meters away from the blood-red altar, creating a massive, formless formation.

Even though this formation was for suppressing ghosts, it was still effective against other evil creatures, though its effects were reduced.

Zhao Fu then took out four stone steles on which an Azure Dragon, Black Turtle, Vermillion Bird, and White Tiger were engraved. They made up the Four Corners Sealing Formation he had bought during the Ghost Festival, and he arranged them in the four different directions before setting up the Sunblaze Emperor Immortal Formation as well.

Finally, Zhao Fu gave all of his soldiers a bottle of Demon Resistance Potion. This potion gave them resistance against demon attacks, and it would also increase damage against demons.

After making these preparations, Zhao Fu looked at the soldiers around him. The soldiers all knew what he wanted to do, and they all of them looked quite serious and gave off a dense killing intent.

“Is everyone ready?” Zhao Fu asked.

The 50,000 soldiers simultaneously replied, “Yes!”

The sound was simply deafening.

“Assume the formation!” Bai Qi, Wei Liao, and Wang Jian yelled, and the 50,000 soldiers started to move, their feet moving in unison as they split into three teams that guarded the east, south, and west.

As for the north side, it was personally defended by Zhao Fu, two of the exploration teams, and 1,000 ballistae. Furthermore, Daisy and the other Holy Light skill users were there as well.

After all of these preparations were complete, Zhao Fu and Old Logue walked up to the blood-red altar, and Zhao Fu said seriously, “Let’s begin!”

Old Logue obeyed, raised his wooden staff, and started to chant. This chant felt incredibly dark, strange, and oppressive, and as Old Logue continuously repeated it, an evil aura started to come out of the altar.

The bound wild animals and humans started to cry out in fear as blood-colored auras rose up from their bodies and gathered towards the air above the altar. Soon, the beasts and people’s bodies started to wither at a visible rate.

As countless blood-red auras gathered above the altar, Old Logue finished his chant and yelled, “Great God Kerr, I invite you to descend with thousands of living creatures as a sacrifice!”

After finishing the chant, Old Logue raised his staff and slammed it down onto the altar. Immediately, the blood-colored aura above the altar started to spin, and it formed a blood-red whirlpool and created a gust of berserk wind.

“Arghhhhhh!!!” Around the altar, the beasts and humans gave a final cry before becoming dry corpses, looking quite terrifying.

Boom!!!

A loud explosion sounded out as if space itself had been torn as a large crack appeared at the center of the blood-colored whirlpool. A black aura started to stream out from the crack, which was filled with darkness and evil.

The Sky Demon Sword at Zhao Fu’s waist could feel this aura, and it couldn’t help but feel excited, causing the sword to tremble.

A figure that gave off a shocking aura appeared. It looked like an imp and was 1.3 meters tall. There were three short horns on its head, and its eyes were completely black. There was also a pair of small wings on its back.

This was God Kerr, and it had been a long time since Zhao Fu had seen it. It looked essentially the same apart from the fact that its body was now solid instead of being just an image.

“Our lowly subjects, what have you summoned Us for?” God Kerr was very satisfied with Old Logue’s sacrifice, so it had quickly sent a clone to descend. However, to a godly spirit, creating thousands of clones was very simple.

Zhao Fu threw a bottle to Old Logue, and he quickly used it and ignored God Kerr. This immediately caused God Kerr’s pleased mood to sour.

At that moment, Zhao Fu turned to look at God Kerr, a calm expression on his face. He waved his hand, activating all of the formations. The Six Wood Absolute Barrier released six thin pillars of white light that rushed upwards until they hit the ceiling, and the white light started rippling out, causing the space around them to be locked.

God Kerr could immediately feel that there were many powers restricting it!

It looked at Zhao Fu and Old Logue with its black eyes and suddenly felt that it had been tricked. Its gaze became cold as it yelled, “You lowly creatures!”

God Kerr stretched out a sharp hand and pointed at Zhao Fu and Old Logue as a formless energy spread out.

However, Zhao Fu and Old Logue were completely fine, and they didn’t explode like God Kerr had expected. This made the atmosphere quite awkward.

Zhao Fu had long since predicted that God Kerr would be able to use the fact that his and Old Logue’s Demon Priest profession were given by God Kerr to easily kill them. As such, they had rid themselves of that profession. Changing profession was very easy, but the Demon’s Power, which was the power given by God Kerr, wasn’t so easy to get rid of.

At the ‘super auction,’ Zhao Fu bought a bottle of liquid, which was Profession Cleansing Water. It could completely erase one’s profession’s stats, skills, and attributes.

Most people were desperate for more professions, so it was inconceivable that they would want to get rid of a profession and all of the benefits that it brought. As such, Profession Cleansing Water was quite rare, and Zhao Fu had only found it at the last auction.

Even though they had fully gotten rid of the Demon Priest profession, they still had traces of God Kerr's energy left within them. That was why God Kerr had thought that Zhao Fu and Old Logue were Demon Priests, and God Kerr wanted to use the Demon's Power within them to kill them, resulting in this awkward scene.

God Kerr was so furious that its facial features distorted as it yelled, "Lowly human, you've angered the great God Kerr. You must die now!!"

God Kerr flew into the air and stretched out its hand, condensing blood-red fireballs that were as big as watermelons. There were hundreds of these fireballs, and all of them gave off an immense amount of heat, making the sky seem like it was burning and the temperature in this region to rise by ten or so degrees.

"Fire arrows!" Just as God Kerr was about to start attacking, Bai Qi and the others attacked first. Arrows with Evil-Crushing Talismans on them shot out, tearing through the air.

It was impossible to tell just how many arrows there were, and they contained a massive amount of force as they streaked towards God Kerr.

God Kerr condescendingly smiled as a blood-red dome expanded out from where it was, covering the 100-meter radius area around it.

Bang, bang, bang...

The countless arrows that hit the blood-red dome were knocked back, resulting in a rain of broken arrows.

Chapter 292: God vs Four Beasts

This was God Kerr's God Domain, and it was incredibly powerful to be able to defend against tens of thousands of arrows.

These attacks caused God Kerr to look over at those normal soldiers, and it waved its hand, causing the hundreds of fireballs to fall like meteors.

The Shieldbearers raised their large shields and circulated their cultivation power as they met those blood-red fireballs head on.

Bang, bang, bang...

The fireballs immediately exploded, unleashing a destructive power. The fireballs that fell to the ground blasted open three meter wide craters, and the Shieldbearers gritted their teeth as they received God Kerr's first attack with great difficulty.

Swish, swish, swish...

While God Kerr was attacking, Bai Qi and the others grasped this opportunity to once again give the order to attack, and countless arrows once again shot towards God Kerr.

This time, the 1,000 ballistae on Zhao Fu's side also attacked, causing countless arrows and bolts to glint with a cold light as they once again smashed against the blood-red dome.

The arrows and bolts were once again smashed and repelled, but they were starting to see the effects of their attack.

Crack!

This time, with the ballistae firing their powerful bolts that had nine Evil-Crushing Talismans each, a large crack appeared on God Kerr's God Domain.

After all, this was only a clone of God Kerr, and it had less than 1/1000 of the main body's power. It was impossible for it to completely defend against all of the soldiers' attacks – after all, enough ants would be able to kill an elephant, and enough people would be able to kill a godly spirit.

The crack in the God Domain caused God Kerr to look quite shocked, and it immediately became enraged as it raised a hand and roared, "Godly Hell Fireball!"

Black tongues of flame appeared above God Kerr's hand, and they quickly became a massive 30-meter wide fireball. This fireball looked like a little sun, and it gave off an incredibly scorching energy and destructive aura.

Suddenly, a massive silver light that gave off an immense Evil-Crushing power smashed onto the crack on the God Domain.

Boom!!

The crack on the God Domain became greater, and more cracks appeared as the Evil-Crushing Spear broke through the God Domain and shot towards God Kerr. However, after breaking through the God Domain, the Evil-Crushing Spear's light became much dimmer.

Zhao Fu watched as God Kerr prepared this terrifying attack, and he was forced to attack in the end. Otherwise, if that black fireball had been launched, a countless number of his soldiers would have been killed, so he had used all of his strength to throw an Evil-Crushing Spear. The Evil-Crushing Spears he had bought during the Ghost Festival were for this purpose.

Facing the Evil-Crushing Spear, God Kerr didn't seem too shocked, and it instead stared at the Evil-Crushing Spear coldly as it stretched out a finger.

Boom!!

The Evil-Crushing Spear, which was formed from countless talismans, collided with God Kerr's finger, causing the Evil-Crushing Spear to disintegrate into countless motes of light. However, God Kerr was forced back in the air, and the casting of Godly Hell Fireball was forcefully cut off, causing the fireball to disappear.

This caused God Kerr's expression to become savage as it roared, "Lowly humans, all of you must die! Godly Hell's Doors!"

Boom!!!

God Kerr stretched out its claws and tore towards the ceiling, causing a massive black hole to appear. The black hole continuously gave off black qi, and it looked as if it connected to hell.

However, not a single demon came out – with the super isolation barrier that used the Six Wood Absolute Barrier as its foundation, it completely suppressed the black hole in the air. The six white sticks gave off a brilliant white light, and the black iron tubes around them continuously trembled.

Godly Hell's Door was a spatial summoning skill, but Zhao Fu had set up a super isolation barrier that cut off all external space.

“Arghhh! Damned humans!” God Kerr cursed as its body gave off traces of blood-red aura. The might radiating from its body became stronger as its hands tore towards the sides, trying to escape from this isolation barrier.

“Soldier Aura Formation!” three people suddenly yelled as black, blood-red, and green auras streamed up from the countless soldiers, gathering towards Bai Qi, Wei Liao, and Wang Jian. At the same time, three pillars of light rushed upwards!

“Skreeeee!!” A piercing bird's cry sounded out as a blood-red eagle that gave off boundless killing intent soared into the air.

“Roarrrr!!” A mighty roar sounded out, causing the ground to quake as a black tiger that gave off a conquering air also appeared.

“Awooooo!!” A long howl rang out as a mysterious-looking green wolf savagely leapt out.

After appearing, the three massive beasts all cried out as the blood-red eagle spread its wings and the black tiger and green wolf started to charge towards God Kerr in the sky.

Very soon, these three massive beasts reached God Kerr, but they were blocked by its God Domain.

“Seven Murders!”

“Army Destroyer!”

“Voracious Wolf!”

Bai Qi, Wang Jian, and Wei Liao raised their General Armaments and roared as the three beasts' auras exploded outward, causing arcs of lighting to appear around them. The three massive beasts gathered their strength and charged towards God Kerr's God Domain.

Boom!!!

A massive explosion sounded out as the cracked God Domain was completely shattered by the three massive beasts, and the instant that the domain was destroyed, the three massive beasts continued onwards and attacked God Kerr.

This once again cut off God Kerr's casting, and seeing the three massive beasts approaching, a chilling coldness appeared in God Kerr's black eyes as it roared, “Godly Divine Armament!”

Suddenly, the entire underground region shook as if there was some sort of source energy gathering, and a deep violet colored pitchfork appeared in God Kerr's hand.

This pitchfork gave off an incredibly terrifying aura, and the space around it seemed to be unable to bear the might of this weapon and started to collapse. At the same time, this weapon gave off a formless might that suppressed all weapons, including Zhao Fu's Sky Demon Sword and Slaughtering Ghost Sword.

Both of Zhao Fu's swords were Epic grade weapons, and only Divine Armaments could suppress them. This pitchfork clearly wasn't a true Divine Armament but a projection. However, even so, it was able to suppress Epic grade weapons.

God Kerr gripped its pitchfork and looked towards the three massive beasts before slashing out. The air was completely torn as a massive black crescent was slashed out, knocking the three massive beasts back.

Zhao Fu, looking at the battle in the air, stood his ground and gave the order to activate the Sunblaze Emperor Immortal Formation.

Boom!!!!

White light filled the underground region, and the temperature rose as the light became brighter and brighter. Soon, a scorching aura filled this place.

"Skreeee!!" A brilliant cry sounded out as a golden crow with wings that were two meters wide and covered with golden flames rose up from the ground.

Chapter 293: Godly True Descent

The Sunblaze Emperor Immortal Formation cost a large number of energy stones to use, but because Zhao Fu now had a massive energy stone mine, he didn't mind using the formation.

The golden crow gave off a brilliant golden light as it flew into the air and joined the other three beasts, surrounding God Kerr in four different directions.

God Kerr started to look serious, and the four beasts savagely gazed at God Kerr as they roared.

Suddenly, the green wolf acted and sprang towards the God Kerr with immense speed, opening its mouth and biting towards God Kerr's neck.

God Kerr quickly moved to the side, dodging the green wolf's attack while it stabbed upwards with its pitchfork, sending the green wolf flying upwards.

"Roarr!" the black tiger roared and turned into a black blur, opening its mouth as it bit towards God Kerr's back.

God Kerr narrowed its eyes, turning and raising its pitchfork as the pitchfork gave off a massive violet light. When the black tiger was just two meters away, God Kerr stabbed the pitchfork towards the black tiger, and a formless energy smashed the black tiger back onto the ground.

“Skreeeee!!” At that moment, the blood-red eagle took this opportunity to attack. Its claws gave off an incredibly sharp aura as they grabbed towards God Kerr’s head.

God Kerr was given a big fright and used its pitchfork to block before crying out, “Godly Demon’s Shield!”

Suddenly, the hand that was gripping the pitchfork shot out a blood-red light that turned into the image of a massive shield. This shield was ten meters long and four meters wide, and there was a picture of a demon with a human’s body and a goat’s head on it.

At that moment, the blood-red eagle’s iron-like claws raked down on God Kerr.

Boom!!!

An explosion sounded out as the terrifying claws were blocked by the massive shield. The shield looked illusory, but it actually contained immense defense.

“Skreeeee!!” The golden crow chose that moment to attack, and it spread its wings and rushed forwards as it stabbed towards its back.

“Arghhhh!” God Kerr screamed as a bloody wound appeared on its back, from which violet blood flowed out. The wound also sizzled because the Holy Light attribute that the golden crow contained greatly suppressed God Kerr’s demon attributes.

This sneak attack completely infuriated God Kerr, and its pitchfork shined with a massive amount of violet light as it stabbed towards the golden crow. In response, the golden crow quickly beat its wings and dodged to the side.

“Godly Demonic Thrust!” God Kerr yelled as the violet light formed into the image of a massive pitchfork that stabbed out. The golden crow was unable to dodge this attack, and its left wing was hit. It was able to get away after struggling, but the golden flames around it had become much dimmer.

Luckily, the golden crow wasn’t a true living creature but a creation of the Sunblaze Emperor Immortal Formation. With enough energy stones, it could immediately recover.

“Awoooo!” the green wolf howled as it once again rushed at God Kerr, looking incredibly ferocious.

The massive battle between the four beasts and God Kerr was simply heaven-shaking, and massive explosions continuously rang out. If it wasn’t for the fact that the region was covered with Vajra Talismans, it was likely that it would’ve collapsed.

As the battle went on, the four beasts seemed to have the upper hand. After all, the three beasts’ energy came from 50,000 soldiers, while the golden crow’s energy came from the Sunblaze Emperor Immortal Formation.

However, God Kerr was different – it was only a clone, and its connection to the main body had been severed by Zhao Fu’s super isolation barrier. As such, it became weaker and weaker as it battled.

“Roarrrr!” The massive black tiger once again leapt at God Kerr as God Kerr heavily swung its pitchfork.

Boom!!!

The collision of the two energies resulted in another explosion, causing a wild gale to sweep out.

As God Kerr clashed with the black tiger, the Golden Crow grasped this opportunity to once again attack from behind God Kerr.

However, God Kerr was prepared this time, and it quickly moved to the side and slashed out with its pitchfork, creating another pitchfork image that was many times bigger than before and knocking the golden crow tens of meters away. However, the golden crow beat its wings and steadied its body before once again streaking towards God Kerr.

Seeing the golden crow attack again, God Kerr narrowed its eyes and prepared to attack it again.

“Whoosh!” A pair of claws suddenly raked downwards – at the moment that God Kerr had been distracted by the golden crow, the blood-red eagle had swooped down and grabbed ahold of its body. God Kerr was greatly surprised and quickly stabbed at the blood-red eagle with its pitchfork.

However, at that moment, the blood-red eagle swung God Kerr with great force, sending it falling downwards quickly. God Kerr beat its wings, trying to slow down its body, but the sound of the air exploding sounded out in the next moment as a massive tail whipped towards it.

Bang!

A muffled explosion sounded out. Even though God Kerr had used its pitchfork to block in front of it, its body was still sent flying.

On the other side, the massive green wolf bared its fangs and bit down towards God Kerr with enough strength to crush mountains.

Facing this bite, God Kerr’s expression became savage, and it used its divine power that was running low to once again use the Godly Demon Shield. A massive shield’s image blocked in front of the green wolf, but God Kerr wasn’t able to even breathe before a wild gale swept at him and the blood-red eagle once again appeared above him.

God Kerr immediately gripped its pitchfork, causing a massive amount of violet light to flow out and stab upwards. A massive pitchfork image appeared, giving off an aura that seemed to be able to pierce through anything as it stabbed towards the blood-red eagle.

The blood-red eagle had long since become accustomed to God Kerr’s attack, and its body flipped in mid-air as it narrowly avoided this attack.

At that moment, the golden crow, black tiger, and green wolf simultaneously attacked God Kerr.

God Kerr’s expression became grim as a blood-red flame burst around its body, causing its aura to become even more powerful.

“Activate the Four Corners Sealing Formation!” Zhao Fu could tell that God Kerr was trying to do something, and its aura was becoming stronger and stronger. As such, he didn’t hesitate to use the final formation.

Azure, white, black, and red lights shot up into the sky, turning into four massive images. They were the Azure Dragon, the White Tiger, the Black Turtle, and the Vermillion Bird.

These four images appeared around God Kerr and gave off different lights when suddenly the lights formed a square around god Kerr and a complete formation appeared, giving off a powerful suppressing and sealing power.

Within the formation, God Kerr felt its body become heavy, and an invisible force restricted it, making it impossible for it to move even an inch.

The powerful formation slowly descended, and God Kerr was also brought down with it.

Finally, the four images returned to their stone steles, and the formation was lowered to the ground while God Kerr was also bond to the ground, unable to move at all.

Now, all they had to do was deal a final blow and heavily injure God Kerr before putting it onto the Heaven and Earth Refining Formation and refining it. Then, everything would be over.

Zhao Fu stood outside the Four Corners Sealing Formation, and he saw that God Kerr had lowered its prideful head for some reason. Because they would be suppressed by the formation if they entered, Zhao Fu ordered his countless Archers to take aim and fire.

Suddenly, God Kerr raised its head and looked towards Zhao Fu as its eyes became blood-red, and a wicked smile appeared on its lips.

“Godly True Descent!”

Chapter 294: Demon God Descent

Boom!!

A massive explosion rang out as a ten-meter tall blood-red flame appeared around God Kerr’s body.

Back at the surface, the originally clear sky was suddenly covered by dark clouds that gave off an ominous pressure, and lightning bolts the width of buckets crashed down onto the ground, giving off a terrifying aura of destruction.

It wasn’t just the Forest of Horrors’ three City Lords who felt an extremely evil aura appear. The Six-Eyed Flood Dragon in the depths of the Forest of Horrors and all the other creatures, even those in the surrounding regions, felt it too.

In the underground region, God Kerr’s thin body suddenly doubled in size, becoming two meters tall and athletic, giving off an extremely terrifying aura.

“Fire arrows!” Zhao Fu’s pupils contracted as he roared.

Swish, swish, swish...

The countless Archers vigorously fired arrows, and the tens of thousands of arrows gave off an incredibly sharp aura as they went towards God Kerr.

Just as the arrows were about to hit God Kerr, everything seemed to freeze. The countless arrows paused two meters away from God Kerr before soundlessly turning into wisps of black smoke and disappearing.

Crack!

God Kerr's body blurred as long cracks appeared on the four stone steles, and God Kerr appeared before Zhao Fu in the next second.

Zhao Fu was shocked and felt all of the hairs on his body stand on end.

God Kerr evilly smile as it said, "Lowly human, you've underestimated gods too much!"

After speaking, God Kerr raised a hand and punched toward Zhao Fu with immense force. Zhao Fu quickly drew his sword and blocked with it.

Bang!

A muffled explosion sounded out as Zhao Fu was sent flying back 100 meters and crashed against a large beast bone, causing it to shatter. Zhao Fu coughed up a mouthful of blood and fell to the ground.

"Your Majesty!" Bai Qi and the others cried out and quickly controlled the three massive beasts to attack God Kerr.

Facing the three beasts that had made it suffer quite a bit, God Kerr grabbed at the air as the pitchfork on the ground returned to his hand. Moreover, the violet light around the pitchfork had become even more powerful.

At that moment, the three beasts were only ten meters away from God Kerr, and a cold look appeared on God Kerr's face as it swept out with the pitchfork, causing the air to explode and a ten or so meter long blood-red crescent moon flew out, bringing with it a berserk wind.

The three beasts were unable to dodge this terrifying attack, and they could only clash with it head-on. The aura that the blood-red crescent moon carried was extremely monstrous, and the crescent moon sent the three beasts flying. When they crashed to the ground, many cracks appeared on their bodies. As a result, blood started to leak out of the lips of many of the soldiers.

Zhao Fu wiped away the blood from his mouth and once again stood up. He had indeed underestimated God Kerr – who would have thought that a clone would be able to use some of the main body's power.

Zhao Fu drew the Slaughtering Ghost Sword – because God Kerr was a demonic god, the Sky Demon Sword would be greatly suppressed. Zhao Fu slowly closed his eyes and deeply breathed out. When he opened his eyes again, they seemed to shine with light, and his body disappeared.

Just as God Kerr wanted to get rid of Bai Qi and the others, it felt a massive wave of energy attack from its side, and it spun as it blocked with its pitchfork.

However, at that moment, Zhao Fu reappeared above God Kerr, and his sword gave off an unstoppable power as it slashed down at God Kerr.

Boom!!!

A massive shockwave rippled out, causing the ground 100 meters around them to collapse.

Feeling this immense energy, God Kerr's eyes narrowed as it stared at Zhao Fu and said in a low voice, "Nation Armament!"

In response, Zhao Fu coldly harrumphed, and he gripped the Slaughtering Ghost Sword tighter and pressed down with greater force.

God Kerr became furious and yelled, "Lowly human, you think that an immature Nation Armament like this will allow you to win against Us? Godly Demon Devour!"

Suddenly, a massive face appeared behind God Kerr – the face was extremely ugly, and it had a massive mouth. Right after appearing, it opened its mouth and gave off a devouring energy as it rushed towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu was quite surprised and quickly retreated, but that ugly face was extremely fast quickly closed in on Zhao Fu. Because it was already quite close, it opened its mouth and bit towards Zhao Fu.

As such, Zhao Fu could only counterattack – he sent his energy into the Slaughtering Ghost Sword, causing it to shine with an eerie blood-red light as countless ghostly howls sounded out.

Just as the ugly face came close, Zhao Fu vigorously slashed downwards with the Slaughtering Ghost Sword, causing a blood-red light to trail behind it as it split the ugly face in two.

Suddenly, a figure appeared behind Zhao Fu. God Kerr savagely laughed as it gripped its pitchfork with both hands and slapped at Zhao Fu with immense strength, causing an explosion to ring out.

Bang!

Zhao Fu was once again blasted 100 meters away, and he crashed to the ground. Blood flowed out of his many injuries, dying his back red, and he lay on the ground and coughed up a few mouthfuls of blood. He felt as if he had lost all feeling in his back.

Bai Qi and the others were completely infuriated, and they raised their General Armaments, giving off three different auras. The three injured beasts and the golden crow once again rushed towards God Kerr.

Seeing the four beasts rush towards it, God Kerr uncaringly harrumphed and gripped its violet pitchfork before stabbing it down into the ground.

A massive wave of energy exploded out from God Kerr, causing the ground to crumble as it cast the God Domain again and a gigantic blood-red dome expanded outward. This time, it covered 1,000 meters, and the ground that it covered completely collapsed.

At the same time, the God Domain blocked the four beasts outside, and it was incredibly tough – no matter how the four beasts attacked, they were unable to break through. This God Domain was dozens of times tougher than the previous one.

God Kerr laughed and looked at Zhao Fu on the ground, "Lowly human, if you give your Nation Armament to Us, We won't kill you today and will give you many rewards. We can even choose you to be the Son of God."

Zhao Fu slowly climbed up from the ground and icily glared at God Kerr. “A weak trash godly spirit like you wants my Nation Armament?”

When it heard Zhao Fu’s words, God Kerr flew into a fit of fury. Its body disappeared and reached Zhao Fu in an instant, and it stabbed its pitchfork towards Zhao Fu.

However, at that moment, an incredibly powerful aura exploded out from within Zhao Fu’s body, causing his body to shine with a golden light and nine small golden dragons to appear around him.

God Kerr was greatly dismayed and cried out, “Clan Armament!”

Boom!!

Zhao Fu vigorously slashed out with his sword, which was now covered with an intense golden light. A massive sword’s hum filled the heavens and the earth, and it contained an immense amount of force.

God Kerr reacted too slowly, and it could only use all of its divine power to block. However, it was still sent flying hundreds of meters away. An incredibly deep gash appeared on its chest as it coughed up many mouthfuls of blood.

Zhao Fu grasped this opportunity and once again attacked. His body disappeared and reappeared next to God Kerr, and he raised his sword high into the air before slashing down with all of his strength.

However, God Kerr raised its head with a savage smile on its bloody face.

“Godly Second Descent.”

Chapter 295: Early Stage Royal Bloodline

Boom!!!

A massive power that caused the heavens and earth to tremble exploded out, and on the surface, the dark clouds scattered as blood-red light descended from the sky, covering the surrounding 10,000-kilometer radius area.

These rays of blood-red light gave off an incredibly dark, evil, supreme, and unstoppable aura. All living creatures nearby lay on the ground and trembled – this monstrous power was ‘divine might!’

From the distance, this area looked like a blood-red world, and that terrifying blood-red light had dyed everything red. The surroundings became deathly silent as not a single creature dared to make any noise.

The Forest of Horrors’ City Lords stood in the air and looked into the distance as they muttered in shock to themselves, “Demon God descent!”

Back at the underground region, God Kerr gave off another wave of shocking power, and the surrounding space gave off ear-piercing distorting sounds. Unable to bear its might, the space started to collapse.

Everything around God Kerr started to disintegrate, and the area where it stood seemed to become a black hole. Even Zhao Fu was knocked back ten or so meters by God Kerr's aura alone.

God Kerr walked out from the black hole and gave off a blood-red aura as its eyes cruelly stared at Zhao Fu.

God Kerr gripped its pitchfork, which had become even bigger, and turned into a ray of light as it charged towards Zhao Fu and stabbed out vigorously with its pitchfork.

Zhao Fu used his sword to block, and the Slaughtering Ghost Sword blocked in between the prongs of the pitchfork. However, the pitchfork contained terrifying strength, causing Zhao Fu to slide back ten or so meters before he dug his feet into the ground and blocked God Kerr's attack.

At that moment, God Kerr spun its pitchfork, sending the Slaughtering Ghost Sword flying from Zhao Fu's hands.

God Kerr savagely laughed and grabbed this opportunity, pulling back the pitchfork with a single hand before stabbing out at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu immediately dodged to the side, causing the pitchfork to miss, but God Kerr suddenly grabbed the pitchfork with its other hand and twisted its powerful body, spinning around and slamming the pitchfork at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu felt a chill within his heart, and he crossed his arms in front of his body as the nine golden dragons also went to protect him.

In response, God Kerr savagely laughed as he yelled, "Godly Demonic Thrust!"

The pitchfork exploded with violet light and became a massive pitchfork image, slamming against Zhao Fu's body.

Bang!

A muffled explosion sounded out as Zhao Fu's body was once again blasted backward. God Kerr leapt up and chased after Zhao Fu, stabbing its pitchfork towards Zhao Fu's chest.

However, at that moment, a spear completely made of talisman papers appeared in Zhao Fu's hand, and Zhao Fu gripped the Evil-Crushing Spear and sent his strength into it, causing it to shine with waves of silver light and arcs of lightning to appear around it.

As God Kerr stabbed out, Zhao Fu had already thrown the Evil-Crushing Spear, causing it to turn into silver light as it slammed into God Kerr.

At such close range, it was impossible for God Kerr to dodge, and God Kerr was hit in the shoulder. God Kerr wanted to grab the Evil-Crushing Spear, but its body was sent sliding back 100 meters by the silver light before stopping.

The Evil-Crushing Spear turned into motes of light and disappeared, leaving a small hole on God Kerr's shoulder from which violet blood slowly flowed out.

Feeling the pain from the wound on his shoulder, God Kerr's expression became savage, and God Kerr gripped its pitchfork as it once again rushed at Zhao Fu.

By now, Zhao Fu had landed on the ground, and seeing God Kerr charge at him again, he drew the Sky Demon Sword from his waist. He stabbed it in into the ground, causing demonic qi to flood out from the sword and enter the ground, dyeing the ground black. In the next moment, the darkness expanded out, covering the surrounding 1,000-meter radius area.

By now, God Kerr was only ten meters away from Zhao Fu, and Zhao Fu raised his hand, on which a black inscription appeared.

Swish, swish, swish...

Countless black spikes that were as thick as arms stabbed out from the ground, frightening God Kerr. It used its pitchfork to sweep out, slashing apart many of the black spikes. However, there were simply too many black spikes, and because they came from all sorts of different directions, God Kerr could only beat its wings and fly into the air.

However, the black spikes were abnormally fast, and God Kerr was forced to use its pitchfork to continuously defend. A few of the black spikes stabbed into God Kerr, resulting in many wounds all over its body.

God Kerr became furious again. God Kerr flew in the air as it looked at Zhao Fu's Sky Demon Sword with its blood red eyes and said angrily, "You, a Sky Demon, dare to harm me!?"

The Sky Demon within the sword looked slightly afraid. Even though she was a Sky Demon, a high-grade being who wasn't afraid of other demonic existences, this was different – the enemy was a Demon God, so how could the Sky Demon not be fearful?

This fear caused the Sky Demon Sword to tremble, and seeing this, Zhao Fu sent a massive amount of the Imperial Ruler's Seal's Fate into it, calming it down.

In the air, God Kerr furiously raised its pitchfork and yelled, "Godly Hell Fireball!"

Three black tongues of flame appeared above God Kerr's head, quickly forming into three massive fireballs that were dozens of meters wide, and a terrifying heat spread out.

God Kerr pointed its pitchfork at Zhao Fu, and the three massive fireballs quickly flew towards him.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The three fireballs landed on the ground and created massive explosions. The fiery light was simply blinding, and the ground trembled as a large amount of dirt and bones was sent into the air.

Boom!!!

At that moment, a massive ray of silver light, bringing with it Evil-Crushing Power, shot at God Kerr from behind.

God Kerr looked incredibly shocked, and it turned and stabbed out with its pitchfork, blocking the silver light. Behind it, Zhao Fu was actually completely fine and stood within the ruins.

Luckily, Zhao Fu had prepared a Flight Stone, and he had been able to avoid that attack by taking to the air. When he looked at the 100 meter wide craters on the ground, he felt incredibly dismayed and shocked.

God Kerr furiously charged at Zhao Fu. Zhao Fu tore through the God Domain with a single strike and flew outside of the God Domain, and God Kerr chased him out.

At that moment, four rays of light rushed upwards, and the four divine beasts once again appeared, creating the formation and binding God Kerr.

Even though the Four Corners Sealing Formation had been damaged, it was still useable, though its sealing power was weaker than before.

Looking at the formation around it, God Kerr laughed as it said, "Lowly human, you're still trying to use this to bind Us?"

After speaking, God Ker stretched out its hands and tore at the formation, causing it to crumble.

In response, Zhao Fu coldly laughed and pointed at the golden crow, which shined brilliantly, as it as it flew at God Kerr.

Bang!

The golden crow suddenly exploded, creating a massive explosion and illuminating the entire underground region. The explosion turned into a massive shockwave, rippling outwards.

"Godly Demon Blood!"

Suddenly, a terrifying figure appeared next to Zhao Fu, shocking Zhao Fu.

Crack!

That terrifying figure grabbed Zhao Fu's arm and wrenched upwards, tearing Zhao Fu's arm off and causing blood to fly everywhere.

Chapter 296: Refining the Godly Spirit

Zhao Fu covered his torn arm and immediately retreated!

By now, God Kerr's body had grown to three meters tall, and its muscles became even more solid. The blood-red aura that it emanated filled the three meters around it, looking like a massive flame.

God Kerr stood in the air and looked at Zhao Fu savagely as he retreated. Suddenly, it felt that the arm it was holding felt quite special because it had a trace of black-golden color to it.

Seeing this, God Kerr raised Zhao Fu's arm and bit a large chunk of the flesh, and it was pleasantly surprised, causing it to laugh, "Hahaha, who would have thought that you would be a King in the human realm; this bloodline is an Early Stage Royal Bloodline. If I can eat you, it won't have been a waste to expend so much divine power."

After speaking, God Kerr started to devour Zhao Fu's arm in large mouthfuls.

Seeing this scene, the countless Generals and soldiers furiously roared and charged over. However, Zhao Fu looked over seriously and yelled, "Hurry and leave this place! This is an order!"

Zhao Fu's words caused all of the Generals and soldiers to stop. Even though they were unwilling, since Zhao Fu had given them an order, they could only obey. Deep down, they understood that they were unable to harm God Kerr at all, and rushing over would only create trouble for Zhao Fu.

The Generals could only lead the countless soldiers away, looking worried. God Kerr didn't seem to mind at all, and it finished eating Zhao Fu's arm in a few bites, devouring even the bones, making its face incredibly bloody.

After eating Zhao Fu's arm, God Kerr savagely smiled as it turned its gaze back to Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu's gaze became incredibly cold, and he looked at God Kerr. It had used some sort of secret technique to cause its battle power to instantly rise by so much.

Swish!

God Kerr instantly crossed the dozens of meters between them and arrived in front of Zhao Fu. God Kerr stabbed its pitchfork towards Zhao Fu. Zhao Fu had been circulating his King's Power this entire time to stop his arm's bleeding, and he quickly dodged to the side.

God Kerr's attack missed, but God Kerr stretched out a hand, causing countless blood red auras to gather around it, turning into a gigantic blood-red hand that grabbed towards Zhao Fu.

"Sky Demon Slash!" Zhao Fu roared as he gripped the Sky Demon Sword, slashing at the massive hand. A sharp black arc of light flashed before splitting the hand in half.

God Kerr coldly harrumphed before holding its pitchfork with one hand and saying, "Godly Light."

Suddenly, God Kerr's pitchfork started to give out a large amount of blood-red light, which gathered on the three points of the pitchfork. God Kerr then pointed the pitchfork towards Zhao Fu, who was trying to escape, and stabbed the air.

Three rays of light that were as thick as fingers shot towards Zhao Fu.

This startled Zhao Fu, and he twisted his body in an attempt to dodge. However, those three rays of light were incredibly fast, and they flashed through the air before disappearing. They tore parts of Zhao Fu's clothes and left a hole in Zhao Fu's waist, and blood immediately started to flow out.

Zhao Fu looked at God Kerr, his expression becoming savage. However, he calmed himself down and tried to think rationally. Zhao Fu had already self-detonated the Sunblaze Emperor Immortal Formation, so it was unable to be used. He still had the Yin General Ghost-Suppressing Formation and the Four Corners Sealing Formation, which now had two large cracks on it. As for the super isolation barrier, it wasn't very helpful right now. Suddenly, Zhao Fu thought of something and immediately flew downwards.

God Kerr turned into a ray of light and chased after him, and seeing God Kerr right behind him, Zhao Fu activated the Four Corners Sealing Formation again.

The Four Corners Sealing Formation gave off faint lights that became images of the Azure Dragon, White Tiger, Vermillion Bird, and Black Turtle. They appeared around God Kerr, forming a weak-looking formation.

This successfully made God Kerr's body pause, and just as God Kerr was about to tear through the formation again, Zhao Fu activated the Yin General Ghost-Suppressing Formation, causing the images of 12 armored Yin Generals to rise up from the statues and attack God Kerr.

Facing these Yin Generals' attacks and being bound by the formation, God Kerr explosively roared, making its aura surge yet again. It waved its pitchfork with all its might, sending out a 20 or so meter long blood-red crescent.

This blood-red crescent was extremely terrifying, and it instantly destroyed the Yin Generals and the four divine beasts around it. The Four Corners Sealing Formation's stone steles and the Yin General Ghost-Suppressing Formation's 12 statues shattered.

Suddenly, Zhao Fu vigorously threw the Sky Demon Sword, which turned into a black ray of light as it flew towards God Kerr.

God Kerr had just used a massive attack, so it was slightly weakened. However, dealing with the Sky Demon Sword wasn't too difficult for it. It raised its pitchfork and knocked the Sky Demon Sword up into the air.

"Sword Spirit Manifestation!" Zhao Fu cried out, and the Sky Demon Sword gave off waves of black light as a tall, beautiful demoness with a pair of wings appeared.

After the Sky Demon appeared, it grabbed the Sky Demon Sword and lightly cried as the sword radiated a sharp sword aura and descended, slashing down towards God Kerr.

God Kerr disdainfully harrumphed before raising its pitchfork to block this strike.

"Hahh!" Another delicate cry sounded out as a long-haired figure wearing red armor appeared – it was Slaughtering Ghost.

The sword that Slaughtering Ghost held gave off a large amount of blood-red light, and it gave off an eerie ghostly power, slashing towards God Kerr from the side. This caused God Kerr to feel quite alarmed, and it stretched out a hand, condensing a ten meter tall and four-meter wide shield to block Slaughtering Ghost.

Chi!

However, at that moment, a silver ray of light pierced through God Kerr's body from behind – Zhao Fu had suddenly arrived behind it.

God Kerr cried out, and it stretched out its hand, which was covered with a boundless blood-red aura, and waved as a massive blood-red hand sent the three of them flying away.

At that moment, Zhao Fu threw a crystal eye – this was the Crystalrealm Eye of Destruction.

After being thrown, the eye hovered in the air as if it was alive and stared at God Kerr. God Kerr felt a chill run down its back as a massive wave of danger assaulted it.

In the next moment, the Crystalrealm Eye of Destruction shot out a ray of crystalline light, turning everything around it into crystals. Whether it was the ceiling, the ground, the air, the dust in the air, space, or time, it was all crystallized.

God Kerr was incredibly shocked and formed a massive shield image in front of itself, but the shield was quickly crystallized as well. Seeing this, God Kerr tried to dodge to the side, but it was too late – its body had also turned into a crystal statue.

In just a few seconds, the surrounding 10,000-meter radius area had been crystallized, turning this place into a crystal world.

Zhao Fu also looked shocked because the Crystalrealm Eye of Destruction's effects greatly exceeded anything that he had expected – no less than expected from something that was called a dangerous item.

Crack! Crack! Crack!

Suddenly, the crystal statue of God Kerr started to crack, and Zhao Fu quickly rushed over while gripping a dagger.

This was the Death Dagger, and as Zhao Fu gripped it, his lifespan quickly decreased. By the time God Kerr extricated himself from the crystal, he was covered in blood.

At that moment, Zhao Fu stabbed the Death Dagger into God Kerr's chest, and God Kerr howled as the Death Dagger gave off a gray deathly aura and seeped into God Kerr's chest, destroying God Kerr's vitality.

Zhao Fu didn't hesitate to take out another Evil-Crushing Spear, sending all of his strength into it and causing it to shine with a resplendent silver light before stabbing forwards with it as well.

Chi!

The Evil-Crushing Spear pierced through God Kerr's chest, but at that moment, God Kerr cried out and used the last of its strength to thrust out with the pitchfork.

Immediately, blood flew everywhere, and a surprised look appeared on Zhao Fu's face. Blood flowed out of his lips as his chest was pierced by the pitchfork.

Chapter 297: Emperor Falling Into Demonic Path

Bang!

A muffled sound rang out as God Kerr's large body fell to the ground. Zhao Fu's legs lost their strength, and he also fell forwards.

At that moment, a figure appeared by Zhao Fu's side and hugged him, a trace of worry appearing on the figure's cold face. "Owner!"

Zhao Fu coughed up another mouthful of blood. Because of God Kerr's death, the pitchfork had disappeared. Zhao Fu looked over at God Kerr and found that it was giving off a large amount of blood-red aura and would soon disappear.

"Hurry... and... refine... it..." Zhao Fu weakly said to Slaughtering Ghost.

Slaughtering Ghost nodded, and it puffed out its cheeks as it looked at Sky Demon and said, "You take care of owner. I'll go and refine God Kerr."

Hearing this, Sky Demon softly replied and immediately smiled. Before, when Sky Demon had seen Zhao Fu falling, it had wanted to rush over to show Zhao Fu how loyal it was. Perhaps Zhao Fu would be grateful and give it the King Remnant Soul that it wanted so much.

However, Slaughtering Ghost had been faster than it, and Sky Demon could only hatefully glare at Slaughtering Ghost, feeling that it was trying to compete with it.

However, hearing Slaughtering Ghost's words, Sky Demon happily ran over and hugged Zhao Fu with an incredibly worried and sad expression. Its eyes were filled with emotion as it looked at Zhao Fu and said, "Owner, you have to survive; otherwise, I'll be devastated."

Zhao Fu was speechless and feebly told it to bring him to the altar. Seeing that Zhao Fu didn't seem very moved, it assumed that it was because Slaughtering Ghost had already done this, making it less effective. It never considered the fact that its acting had been too poor and too different from how it normally acted.

However, hearing Zhao Fu's words, Sky Demon smiled and obeyed. It was quite curious as to what would happen when a godly spirit was refined.

Slaughtering Ghost brought God Kerr's corpse to the Heaven and Earth Refining Formation, and Sky Demon knelt down next to the altar, laying Zhao Fu's head on her lap.

At that moment, Slaughtering Ghost activated the Heaven and Earth Refining Formation, causing a massive explosion to sound out. 1,000 energy stones instantly disintegrated as a massive amount of energy raised God Kerr's body into the air.

The Heaven and Earth Refining Formation gave off a faint light and started to activate, shooting a massive pillar of light onto God Kerr's body and causing it to slowly disintegrate.

Within the Demon Realm, God Kerr's main body was pacing around angrily. It was a massive disgrace for a god to be killed by a human.

However, that was a Legacy Land, and there was the protection of a Heaven Domain Boundary. With its current power, it was unable to descend with most of its strength. It had never thought that a lowly human would have an Early Stage Royal Bloodline, a Nation Armament, and a Clan Armament. If it could obtain these three things, it would be of great help to it, and it was a pity that this opportunity had slipped by.

Suddenly, God Kerr felt an immense pain in its soul, and its body fell to the ground as it piercingly howled.

On the surface, dark clouds suddenly amassed, and blood-red lightning smashed downwards. Each lightning strike was powerful enough to split open a small mountain, and a massive hurricane formed, ripping boulders and trees out of the ground. The blood-red lightning and hurricane continued to wreak havoc as God Kerr screamed, creating an incredibly terrifying scene.

Back at the Heaven and Earth Refining Formation, God Kerr's body slowly disintegrated and turned into dust, leaving only a blood-red flame that was as big as a thumb. The blood-red flame floated in mid-air and flickered.

After this tongue of blood-red fire appeared, it gave off a formless pressure, containing some sort of source energy. The power it contained was immense, and even though the small tongue of flame continuously flickered, the space around it twisted and turned.

Within the Demon Realm, God Kerr stopped screaming, and blood flowed out of its lips, feeling that something had been cut off from its soul. Immediately, its face twisted in anger as it screamed, "Human!! I'll definitely kill you!!!"

The three people by the altar could all feel that the tongue of flame was incredibly powerful, and Zhao Fu waved his hand, causing it to float into his hand.

The Sky Demon looked at the tongue of flame and felt an instinctive fear, and Zhao Fu started to look at its information.

[Divinity]: A godly spirit's source energy that contains a massive amount of power.

When he saw the tongue of flame's information, Zhao Fu was quite shocked – this was actually the source energy of a godly spirit. Its effects would definitely be heaven-defying because godly spirits transcended the laws of the world and had incredibly destructive power. Source energy was the source of this strength. After looking at this information, Zhao Fu coughed up another mouthful of blood.

Zhao Fu could feel his lifeforce quickly seeping out, and his King's Power was unable to heal him. Zhao Fu felt his consciousness becoming hazy – was he dying?

Zhao Fu didn't want to die, and even though this wasn't a true death, he would lose many of his things: some of his professions, stats, and cultivation. He also wouldn't be able to enter the Heaven Awaken World for ten days.

In the end, Zhao Fu looked at the tongue of flame and decided to fuse with the Divinity because it would be able to heal his current injuries.

"Slaughtering Ghost, Sky Demon, guard the entrance and don't let anyone in," Zhao Fu said weakly. Slaughtering Ghost and Sky Demon both nodded seriously before taking their swords and walking to the entrance.

Zhao Fu lay on the altar and weakly pressed the tongue of flame against his chest.

"Argghhhhhhh!!!!" An incredibly pained scream sounded out. Zhao Fu felt his body and soul tremble as the flesh in front of his chest disintegrated to the point that his internal organs were revealed. The tongue of small flame slowly fused into Zhao Fu, making him feel like he had been dropped into a sea of flames and his entire body was burning.

This massive scream caused Slaughtering Ghost and Sky Demon to pause, and Slaughtering Ghost looked quite worried and wanted to return to Zhao Fu's side.

However, Sky Demon stopped it and said, "Don't go! Have you forgotten owner's command?"

In actuality, Sky Demon was also quite worried – despite being with Zhao Fu for so long, this was the first time that it had heard him scream like this before.

Slaughtering Ghost could only worriedly look over before choosing to follow Zhao Fu's command. After all, none of them would be able to help Zhao Fu right now.

"Arghhhhhhh!!!!"

Zhao Fu felt as if all of the flesh on his body had melted, and even his spirit started burning. He struggled in pain, and the pain made it difficult to even breathe.

Chapter 298: Chaos Demon Star

Outside the underground region, Bai Qi and the other Generals nervously waited, but they suddenly heard pained screams from Zhao Fu. They immediately wanted to go in but were stopped by Slaughtering Ghost and Sky Demon, who said, "Owner said no one can go in!"

When they heard that this was a command from Zhao Fu, Bai Qi and the others could only stop and anxiously pace about.

"Arrghhhhhhh!!!" Zhao Fu threw his head back and screamed again, continuously writhing in pain. His skin seemed to be peeling, his flesh and internal organs started to melt under the might of the tongue of fire, and his bones started to crack. By now, Zhao Fu's voice had started to go hoarse, and he slowly weakened as his blood splattered on the altar.

A gray-red light covered the altar, and an extremely evil black aura rippled out, chilling the hearts of the people waiting at the entrance.

On the surface, after God Kerr had died, the abnormal signs disappeared, and the weather returned to normal, allowing many people to sigh in relief.

However, at the Great Qin Town, the Nation Armament and the Imperial Ruler's Seal both started to tremble, seeming incredibly unsettled. At the same time, traces of black and blood-red auras rose up from the ground in the Great Qin Town, bringing with them an aura of destruction.

He Xianru, who had been training Huo Qing, suddenly felt something, and her expression turned to one of shock as she looked down and saw traces of black and blood-red aura rising out of her.

He Xianru immediately rushed outside and looked up into the sky. There was a gigantic violet star in the sky that slowly descended, and as it came closer and closer, it seemed as if a massive disaster was about to descend. A feeling of pressure, oppressiveness, and danger started to grow.

School of Taoism, Confucians, School of Yin Yang, Mohists, School of Medicine, School of Agriculture, Legalists, Logicians...

Anyone from the Hundred Schools of Thought who understood anything about Fate could detect these changes, and their pupils constricted as they looked at the violet star.

In other parts of the world, diviners and witches also detected these terrifying ripples.

The Legatees of the various nations were going about their business – some were engaged in discussions, others were leading their troops in battle, and others were taking care of administrative matters.

Suddenly, their movements all stopped because they could feel their Fate Dragons becoming incredibly restless. Only then did they notice the violet star in the sky, and they all frowned.

The various regions' City Lords all felt something and went outside, feeling deeply unsettled when they saw the violet star as well.

The super monsters in the depths of each of the regions all stayed within their dens in fear, looking towards the violet star.

Within the Forest of Horrors, the three City Lords stood in the air and looked at the violet star in shock. Under the immensely destructive aura it gave off, their bodies trembled, and they felt as if they were grains of sand in front of a massive tsunami.

The three City Lords looked at each other before immediately returning to their respective main cities, not daring to stay an extra moment longer.

All of the creatures within the Forest of Horrors reacted as if an earthquake was approaching, and they quickly started to escape.

As time passed, some of the ordinary people out in the wilderness felt their chests tightening up, and they also looked at the violet star.

In the real world, a massive violet star also descended during the day. Many people saw the Myrtle Imperial Star last time. At that time, they only looked at it curiously before looking away.

However, the destructive aura that the violet star gave off in the Heaven Awaken World also appeared in the real world. As this pressure fell on people's bodies, they found it more and more difficult to breathe, making them feel uncomfortable.

The elders of various families all went outside and looked up at the violet star seriously.

Countless elders from the Ancient Clans frowned as they looked up at the star, remaining completely silent.

At that moment, a cute, pink-faced girl went over to an elderly man's side and looked up at the violet star as she asked curiously, "Grandpa, this Myrtle Imperial Star is so strange! I feel scared when I look at it."

The elderly man looked down seriously and patted the little girl's head as he said in a low voice, "This is no longer a Myrtle Imperial Star. That violet star has already lost its feeling of dignity."

"Oh!" the little girl replied before asking, "Then what sort of star is it?"

Just as the elderly man was about to reply, he suddenly found that the sky had gradually darkened, and the oppressive feeling was becoming stronger and stronger. The elderly man's expression changed, and he patted the little girl's head as he said, "Hurry and go back in!"

The little girl pouted, looking quite unwilling as she walked back to the house.

Soon, the sky became completely dark in both the Heaven Awaken World and the real world. The moon and the stars didn't shine. Only that gigantic violet star gave off a bright violet light. In response, the world became quiet.

"Arghhhhhhhhh!!" Within the underground region, Zhao Fu's pupils dilated as he once again screamed, and his spirit seemed to be forcibly twisted and shattered.

Boom!!!!

A massive explosion rang through the entire underground region as a blood-red pillar of light burst forth from Zhao Fu's body, piercing upwards through the ground and shooting into that violet star.

Boom!!!!

Another massive explosion sounded out as the blood-red pillar of light connected with the violet star. From a distance, it looked as if this blood-red pillar was connecting the heavens and the earth. Clouds began to gather, and the wind howled as the violet star rippled outwards with a violet wave of light.

Crack!!

The sky seemed to explode as countless blood-red arcs of lightning suddenly landed on the ground, blasting many craters into the ground.

The ground started to shake as the wind howled. Even from far away, people could hear the howling wind and the explosions that seemed to signal the end of the world.

The dark sky, lightning, trembling ground, and immense wind caused countless people to scream in fear, and it was as if the apocalypse had arrived.

In the sky, that massive violet star started to change.

At that moment, Si Ji, Zhang Heng, Di Wutian, Liu Ye, Ji Shenming, Tina Pendragon, Li Baiqing, Oda Kamiya... countless people's pupils constricted, and their bodies trembled as they looked at that violet star. They found that the violet light that it gave off started to disappear, turning into a demonic blood-red light.

Soon, the star itself started to become a blood-red color, gradually increasing more and more.

Finally, a demonic-looking blood-red star that gave off boundless evilness and killing intent appeared.

Countless Legatees stood still as they stared at the blood-red star, a trace of blood leaking out of their lips as their bodies once again suffered a Fate backlash.

Those who understood Fate had their eyes injured by the demonic blood-red light, and two streams of blood flowed out of their eyes as their bodies trembled and they cried out, "The Emperor falls into the demonic path; the world falls into chaos and destruction!"

Chapter 299: Demon Star

Flickering like flames, giving off an illusory and demonic blood-red light; Demon Stars, the most dangerous and ruthless stars!!

Since ancient times, the Chaos Star, a type of Demon Star, was the most inauspicious star. Every time it descended, it signified the death of an Emperor or the removal of an important Minister, resulting in chaos in the world. It signified disaster for the common people and countless deaths.

Chaos was a synonym for disaster, and it usually included droughts, famines, wars, plagues, demons, etc.

In countless people's hearts, the Chaos Demon Star was the worst Demon Star, and no one expected Great Qin's Myrtle Imperial Star to fall into the demonic path and become a Chaos Imperial Star. Just what had Great Qin's Legatee done?

The Myrtle Imperial Star was the most dignified and honorable star, and it represented supreme authority. It was also the symbol of a True Son of Heaven. Chaos Demon Stars were the most inauspicious stars, and they represented great disaster, chaos, and death.

How terrifying would it be for these two stars to be combined? This caused countless people to feel incredibly shocked and terrified.

The massive blood-red star not only gave off an aura of disaster, conquering, and bloodlust, but it also lost its dignified aura. This signified that the Myrtle Imperial Star and the Chaos Demon Star had completely fused.

At that moment, that demonic blood-red light became 100 times brighter, shining on all the lands as a formless energy descended. At that moment, the entire world suddenly fell into chaos.

Volcanoes erupted, and earthquakes erupted all over the world. At other places, floodwaters devoured everything in front of them. All over the world, all sorts of disasters exploded.

It wasn't just the Legatees who felt their Fate Dragons going out of control; even ordinary people were affected. Some suddenly became sick, while others suddenly became incredibly bloodthirsty.

Those who understood Fate would see traces of blood-red aura around these people. Everyone had his own Fate, but everyone was now being affected by the Chaos Imperial Star.

This wasn't only in the Heaven Awaken World but also in the real world.

In the Ying family's residence, Zhao Fu's body automatically left his bed and floated in mid-air as a blood-red aura streamed out of his body, giving off an extremely terrifying and evil aura.

Qiu Fengzi, wearing his Taoist robe, detected this and looked quite shocked as he coughed up a few mouthfuls of blood, his complexion ashening.

At the Westfall Restaurant, He Xianru looked up at the blood-coloured star, a trace of fear in her eyes. The Myrtle Imperial Star and Chaos Demon Star had fused to form the Chaos Imperial Star. Not only did this affect everyone, but it was also incredibly damaging to espers and ability users like her. This was because the Chaos Star represented all disasters, and those who used special techniques and understood Fate were especially susceptible to this light. That was why many of their eyes had been injured and bled.

Even though He Xianru was protected by Great Qin's Fate, she was still deeply worried and unsettled by this.

In another region, Zhang Heng was riding on his donkey as he stared at the demonic star, feeling incredibly worried. The Myrtle Imperial Star had never fused with the Chaos Demon Star before, and this would bring disaster to the world. Just what had Great Qin's Legatee done? How could his Fate have changed so quickly?

Su Yan stood on the top of a building and sighed as he looked at the blood-red star. With Zhao Fu's current Fate, he could no longer change anything. If he wasn't careful, he would be completely destroyed.

Great Xia's Si Ji, Great Shang's Di Wutian, Great Zhou's Ji Shenming, Great Han's Liu Ye, Tina Pendragon, the Egyptian Legatee, the Roman Empire Legatee, and many others stared at the demonic blood-red star, feeling a bitterness within their hearts. They found that they had once again underestimated Great Qin's Legatee.

"Arghhhhh!!" In the underground region, within the blood-red pillar of light, Zhao Fu's body had been reduced to an almost spirit-like state. He once again wretchedly screamed before his body started to reform. His bones grew and solidified before his flesh grew.

Boom!!!

A massive explosion sounded out as a terrifying wave of power exploded from the demonic star, causing the sky to twist and turn. The blood-red light was now incredibly piercing, and it started to look like a smiling demon.

Boom!!!!

Another explosion sounded out as all of the Legatees suddenly coughed up a mouthful of blood and staggered backward. Countless people felt the strength leave their legs as a massive force weighed down on their bodies, and many people suddenly found out that the Chaos Imperial Star had only just started truly descending!

The Chaos Imperial Star's blood-red light became brighter and brighter, and the horrifying effects became worse and worse. Volcanoes furiously erupted, earthquakes seemed to shake the world, and the oceans tossed and turned violently.

Some people instantly died, while others' eyes became blood-shot and lost all reason.

"We can't allow the Demon Star to descend!" Seeing the chaos caused by the Chaos Imperial Star, the Xuanyuan family's elders were incredibly shocked. This was just the effect of the descent of the Chaos Imperial Star. If it fully descended, just what would happen?

Countless families' elders hurried over and entered the Heaven Awaken World together. In the real world, magic and techniques were no longer as effective, but things were different in the Heaven Awaken World. They had obtained different legacies from their ancestors, and the skills and techniques they could use became more powerful.

After these elders went to the Heaven Awaken World, they stood within a massive formation. Four people stood at the center as the foundation, while the other elders stood around them.

The four people at the center were people from the Xuanyuan family, the Nuwa family, the Shennong family, and the Fuxi family. They respectively took out a golden sword, a rainbow-colored stone, a small dark-green cauldron, and a black eight trigrams plate.

The other elders all started to perform hand signs as the formation on the ground gave off a massive amount of power and started to activate. The golden sword, rainbow-colored rock, small dark-green cauldron, and black eight trigram plate gave off different colored lights and brought with them holy auras as they rose from the four elders' hands.

The four elders' expressions became serious, and they also started to perform hand signs as they chanted, "The Demon Star descends, harming the world; the primogenitor's descendants seal and sever it!"

After chanting this, the four elders completed their hand signs and stretched out a hand towards the person on the opposite side as the formation below them gave off a bright light. The items in the air all gave off piercing lights as they started to tremble.

Boom!!!

A shocking explosion sounded out as four massive chains exploded out from the ground, bringing with them an unstoppable aura as they stretched into the sky.

Moments later, countless people were shocked to find that the massive blood-colored Demon Star had been bound by four chains.

Chapter 300: Nine Province Cauldrons

Clang!

The sound of metal clashing sounded out as four chains, each of which gave off a different colored light, wrapped around the Demon Star once, locking it down solidly.

Even though the four chains were two to three meters wide, compared to the blood-red star, they seemed incredibly thin and small, and this was evident when looking at the star from a distance.

Following this, the Chaos Imperial Star was locked down by the four chains, and the blood-red light it gave off slowly dimmed as the evil aura it gave off also gradually weakened.

The natural disasters caused by the Chaos Imperial Star slowly disappeared, and the people who had fallen sick and gone crazy gradually recovered.

Everyone let out a sigh of relief as countless Legatees' Fate Dragons also settled down and came under the Legatees' control again.

The abnormal signs caused by the Chaos Imperial Star gradually vanished, and everything started to go back to normal. The elders on the formation also slightly relaxed as well.

However, at this moment, the massive Demon Star in the sky started to slowly turn, giving off a massive air of suppression as the four chains became taut.

The four elders were given a big fright, and they immediately pressed their hands together and started chanting, once again channeling strength into the chains to bind the Chaos Imperial Star tighter.

As the four chains became tighter, the Chaos Imperial Star's rotation slowed down.

"Arghhhhh!!" Zhao Fu's body stopped re-forming, and boundless pain assaulted him. Zhao Fu once again screamed, and his scream was slightly hoarse, making him sound like a wild beast.

Clang!

The Demon Star once again started to rotate, and one of the four chains locking it down broke. As the massive Demon Star rotated with even more force, the remaining three chains also broke.

This greatly shocked all of the elders, and the dimmed blood-red light once again became bright, shining on the world. Now, it was brighter, bloodier, and eviler than before.

All of the natural disasters that had been quelled once again exploded, and the situation became even worse than last time. Even wild beasts' eyes became blood-red, and wild beasts started to kill and destroy whatever they saw.

The entire world seemed to start to collapse!

On a misty mountain peak, a Taoist wearing silver robes looked at the Demon Star that had broken free. He sighed, and as a serious look appeared on his face, he said, "All Taoist disciples, heed my command! Activate the Taichi Heaven and Earth Formation!"

On a simple, unadorned building, an extremely mysterious black-cloaked figure who seemed neither male nor female looked at the Demon Star as well and said, "All Yin Yang disciples, heed my command! Activate the Five Elements Formation!"

On a tall platform, an elegant-looking middle-aged man dressed in robes looked up and said seriously, "All Confucian disciples, heed my command! Activate the Boundless Righteous Qi Formation!"

In a grassy plain, a resolute-looking middle-aged man dressed in gray with a charcoal-like sword at his waist looked at the Demon Star and shouted, "All Mohist disciples, heed my command! Activate the Ink Gate Great Formation!"

In front of a large structure, a middle-aged man, who gave off an intense masculine aura, looked at the Demon Star and said in a low voice, "All Military disciples, heed my command! Activate the Soldier Conquering Formation!"

At that moment, those from the Hundred School of Thoughts activated their most powerful formations, and other sects, such as the Buddhist Sect, the Maoshan Sect, and the Shaman Sect, did the same.

All of the sects with grand Fate Legacies immediately acted, activating their formations.

Boom!!

A massive explosion sounded out as the School of Taoism acted first, creating a massive white chain that gave off a powerful aura and rushed towards the Demon Star.

Boom!!

Another explosion sounded out as a five-colored chain came from where the School of Yin Yang was, and it also rushed towards the Demon Star.

Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom!

Great explosions continuously sounded out as the Confucians, the School of Military, the Legalists, the Mohists, the Buddhist Sect... countless sects shot out massive chains containing awesome power. They broke through the clouds and extended towards the Demon Star in the sky.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

Over 100 chains shot out from the various regions all over China, and they wrapped around the massive Demon Star.

The multitude of chains finally caused the Chaos Imperial Star to stop rotating, and its light once again dimmed. The world gradually became calm again, and everyone let out a sigh of relief.

“Arghhhhh!!!!”

In the underground region, Zhao Fu’s body once again stopped re-forming, and the immense pain once again assaulted him, making him scream.

Outside, Bai Qi, Wang Jian, and Wei Liao detected something, and they felt a wave of fury wash over them as they drew their General Armaments.

“Seven Murders!” “Voracious Wolf!” “Army Destroyer!”

Three loud yells sounded out as Bai Qi and the others looked up and raised their General Armaments, invigorating all of the General Fate within them.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Three pillars of light containing terrifying auras rushed into the sky, causing the sky to tremble.

The people who had just breathed out in relief suddenly looked up in shock. They saw a blood-red star containing dense killing intent, a black star containing a dense conquering air, and a green star giving off an incredibly strange aura suddenly descend.

These three stars were also massive, but compared to the Chaos Imperial Star, they seemed quite small, like tomatoes around a cantaloupe.

After the Seven Murders Star, the Voracious Wolf Star, and the Army Destroyer Star appeared, they surrounded the gigantic, bound Chaos Imperial Star and started to radiate with power.

Boom!!!!

A massive explosion sounded out as a formless energy rippled out, obliterating the surrounding clouds. The three General Stars gave off their own resplendent starlight, and they started to help the Chaos Imperial Star break free from its bonds.

Everyone had forgotten that the owner of the Chaos Imperial Star was also the master of the owners of these three General Stars. Now, these three General Stars had created a massive storm that caused the thick chains to tremble. What was horrifying was that the gigantic blood-red Demon Star once again started to rotate.

With the help of the three General Stars, the Chaos Imperial Star became eviler and many times more powerful, and the terrifying aura it gave off caused the entire world to tremble.

Clang!

As everyone stared with wide eyes, the first chain broke.
