

The Lord 301

Chapter 301: Excalibur

Clang, clang, clang...

After the first chain broke, it was followed by a second and a third, and soon, the sound of chains breaking could be continuously heard.

The Demon Star in the sky once again began to rotate with immense force, and chains continued to break one after the other, causing the sky to seem distorted.

Because the chains around the Chaos Imperial Star continuously broke, its blood-red light became bright again, and a powerful, evil aura spread throughout the world.

Clang, clang, clang...

Now, less than 30 chains remained. All of China's Schools and Sects became terrified – after all, they had taken a great risk to seal the Chaos Imperial Star.

The descent of the Chaos Imperial Star and General Stars brought with them a great amount of Fate, and regardless of whether they succeeded in sealing the stars or not, they had consumed a lot of their lifeforce as the price.

What's more, it was possible that they would suffer a Fate backlash and Great Qin's revenge because they had tried to seal his Imperial Star.

Many Schools and Sects had been unwilling to participate because they didn't wish to offend Great Qin. After all, Great Qin was now destined to become one of the most powerful entities, and if they offended such a powerful person, it was likely that they would be destroyed.

However, the fusion of the Myrtle Imperial Star and the Chaos Demon Star was simply too powerful, and this had never happened before. This was, undeniably, the most powerful inauspicious star.

It caused countless natural disasters, cut down living creatures' Fates, and sent people into chaos. Those who were well versed in mystic arts and skills didn't have their minds affected, but they were instead injured by the star.

If the Chaos Imperial Star truly descended, whether it was in the Heaven Awaken World or the real world, there would be a massive catastrophe. In fact, it was possible that the Heaven Awaken World and the real world would fuse ahead of time.

Because of these reasons, the Schools and Sects had acted, deciding to suppress the Chaos Imperial Star together. However, they forgot that Great Qin had the Seven Murders Star, the Voracious Wolf Star, and the Army Destroyer Star.

Now that the Chaos Imperial Star had received the help of the three General Stars and escaped from its bindings, it gave off an even more terrifying power.

Clang, clang, clang...

The chains continued to break, and the Sect Masters coughed up mouthfuls of blood. The ground started to shake, and the sun and moon stopped shining as an aura of despair emanated out.

In the underground region, within the blood-red pillar of light, Zhao Fu's body quickly re-formed. Now, he had a complete skeleton. Most of his flesh had re-grown, and many places had skin already.

Zhao Fu's body was about 90% re-formed, and the blood-red Demon Star was about to break free from all of the chains. The dense blood-red light dyed the entire world red, causing all creatures to feel terror.

Boom!!!

A massive explosion sounded out as an awesome might descended, and the images of nine massive copper cauldrons appeared in the sky, giving off an air of suppression. This was Great Xia's Nation Armament... the Nine Province Cauldrons.

Boom!!!

Another massive explosion sounded out, giving off enough power to shake the world as the image of a luxurious-looking ancient tower appeared. It was surrounded by countless starry lights and gave off a boundlessly mysterious aura. This was Great Shang's Nation Armament, the Star Plucking Tower.

Boom!!!

Another explosion rang out as a shocking wave of energy burst forth, and the image of a stone stele appeared in the sky, bringing with it the sense of gods descending. All creatures trembled when it appeared. This was Great Zhou's Nation Armament, the Investiture of the Gods.

Boom!!

Yet another explosion sounded out as a terrifying energy swept out, and the image of a crimson-red sword slowly appeared in the sky, dyeing the sky crimson-red. It gave off a mighty sword aura, and this was Great Han's Nation Armament, the White Emperor Sword.

The four Nation Armaments' images appeared in the four directions around the Chaos Imperial Star. China's other four Great Dynasties had to resort to using their Nation Armaments in order to suppress the Demon Star.

Right now, only the four other Great Dynasties had the strength to do this. All of the other Dynasties' Legatees were too weak right now.

After the four Nation Armaments appeared, they shook the heavens and the earth, causing the weather to change and lightning to descend. Countless other abnormal signs appeared, and the suppressing power given off by the four Nation Armaments seemed to cause space itself to freeze.

Under the suppression of the four Nation Armaments, the Chaos Imperial Star once again stopped rotating, and seeing this opportunity, the Schools and Sects once again activated their formations.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Thick chains once again shot up from the ground and brought with them immense force as they wrapped around the Chaos Imperial Star.

“Arghhhhh!!!”

The Chaos Imperial Star’s light died down again, allowing the world to start returning to normal. As the Chaos Imperial Star was suppressed again, the boundless pain once again slammed into Zhao Fu, causing him to howl.

Bai Qi, Wei Liao, and Wang Jian started to look incredibly serious, and their bodies were covered in sweat as they tried to break free from that suppressing power. If it was just a single Nation Armament, they would be able to deal with it, but against four Nation Armaments, there was nothing that they could do.

Boom!!!

At that moment, a black pillar of light rushed into the sky, bringing with it enough force to shake the heavens and the earth. Great Qin’s Nation Armament and Clan Armament both shot into the sky.

The image of the Twelve Metal Colossi, giving off an exterminating aura, appeared between the Nine Province Cauldrons and the Star Plucking Tower, while the Imperial Ruler’s Seal, surrounded by nine massive golden dragons, appeared between the Investiture of the Gods and the White Emperor Sword.

The four Nation Armaments and the Clan Armament gave off a massive amount of power in the sky, seeming to tear the sky apart. Even godly spirits would most likely tremble in fear, and those below felt a massive pressure, making them cough up a mouthful of blood. Apart from the sounds of battle above, the entire world seemed to quite down.

Almost the entire world’s gazes were drawn here, and everyone felt the power that seemed to be able to destroy the world.

After a while, Great Qin’s Nation Armament and Clan Armament started to gain the upper hand. The Twelve Metal Colossi was mainly for killing and conquering, and it had great battle strength. Together with the Clan Armament, it was able to gradually suppress the other four Nation Armaments.

Following this, the four Nation Armaments were suppressed by Great Qin, and the gigantic Demon Star once again started to slowly change, greatly startling everyone in China.

Chapter 302: Heavenly Might

As the Demon Star started to rotate again, its light once again became brighter. Now, the blood-red light seemed to be corporeal, and it couldn’t just be described with the word ‘terrifying.’ After the light hit the ground, countless leaves were disintegrated.

An extremely evil aura spread out, and the entire world seemed to be covered under its shadow. Living creatures ran in terror as if the end of the world had begun.

Clang!

Soon, the first chain shattered.

Zhao Fu's body quickly started re-forming again, and now, the process was almost complete. However, his heart hadn't started beating yet, making him seem like a corpse. Only once his heart started beating would he be completely reformed. When that happened, the Chaos Imperial Star would fully descend.

Clang!

Another metallic snapping sound rang out as a second chain broke.

The Demon Star continued to slowly rotate with immense power, and no matter how much the Sect Masters tried, they were unable to stop it at all.

Within Vatican City, a white-haired, kind-looking elderly man looked at the Chaos Imperial Star that was breaking free and said, "Looks like even China is unable to suppress the Chaos Imperial Star. We cannot allow the Chaos Imperial Star to descend, or a massive catastrophe will descend. All Vatican members, activate the Sacred Formation!"

Within a large mosque, a white-robed elder looked into the sky and heavily sighed as he said, "We cannot stand by and watch; the Chaos Imperial Star's descent won't be good for anyone. All Muslim members heed my command! Activate the Quran Formation!"

Within the Buddhist holy land, an elderly monk holding a staff looked at the Demon Star and said sorrowfully, "Amitabha. All Buddhist disciples heed my command. Activate the Buddha Light Formation."

Within a Hindu mandir, a skinny, elderly man in yellow robes sat-crossed legged on the ground as his unfathomable eyes looked into the sky, and he said, "All Hindu disciples heed my command. Activate the Saha Gate Formation."

At that moment, countless religions all over the world simultaneously decided to act. Even though the Chaos Imperial Star had descended because of someone in China, if it descended, it would bring catastrophe on the whole world.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Large chains burst forth from places all over the world and tore through the clouds as they shot towards the Demon Star.

Boom!!!

Facing the thousands of approaching chains, the Twelve Metal Colossi gave off a boundless killing and conquering aura, causing the air to freeze and forming a large barrier.

"Roarrrr!" the nine golden dragons roared, and the Imperial Ruler's Seal also gave a brilliant light. The nine golden dragons became dozens of times bigger, and they defended the Imperial Chaos Star.

The Twelve Metal Colossi and the Imperial Ruler's Seal were indeed two of the strongest treasures of China, and with the massive amount of Fate gathered from the Imperial Star's descent, they also received the support of the heavens and the earth. The incredibly powerful aura that they gave off caused the thousands of approaching chains to pause.

The countless leaders were incredibly shocked, and they understood what they were doing – they were defying the heavens and trying to change fate; they were defying the will of the heavens and trying to change Great Qin’s Legatee’s fate.

Now that Great Qin’s Nation Armament and Clan Armament had received the support from the Fate of the heavens and the earth, forming a gigantic barrier, none of their thousands of chains were able to get close to the Chaos Imperial Star, making them all feel bewildered.

Clang!

Yet another chain broke, and the Demon Star gave off a massive aura as it began to rotate faster. At the same time, its corporeal blood-red light became brighter and eviler.

The Chaos Imperial Star’s suffocating and terrifying aura made the entire world fall silent, and everyone realized that they wouldn’t to stop it from descending.

Boom!

Suddenly, an explosion sounded out as a shocking aura that gave off an immense pressure appeared. The image of a golden sword appeared in the sky, giving off a holy and regal aura. The sky was dyed gold, and this was the most legendary sword of the west... Excalibur!

Boom!

Another explosion rang out as an aura that seemed to pierce through the sky appeared, and the image of a black spear slowly formed in the sky. It gave off an aura that made all creatures fearful and want to submit. This was the Roman Empire’s Nation Armament... the Spear of Destiny.

Boom!!

Following this, another explosion sounded out as a boundless aura slowly descended, and the image of a golden crown appeared in the sky, giving off a brilliant light. It looked like a brilliant sun, and this was Egypt’s Nation Armament... the Solar Crown.

Boom!!

Another massive explosion rang out as a boundless aura shook the heavens, and the image of a sword slowly appeared in the sky, giving off an incredibly sharp aura. This was the Persian Empire’s Nation Armament, Shamshir-e Zomorrodnegar.

Boom!!

Yet another explosion sounded out as a terrifying aura rippled out, causing a chill to spread in countless people’s hearts. A pure-white male sculpture appeared in the sky, giving off an incredibly powerful might. This was Ancient Macedonia’s Nation Armament, Alexander the Great’s Statue.

The five Nation Armaments simultaneously appeared in the sky, and all of them were powerful nations with a massive amount of Fate.

The five Nation Armaments allied with China’s other four Nation Armaments. Now, nine Nation Armaments, which contained a massive amount of Fate, gave off an air of suppression.

The nine Nation Armaments easily dispelled the barrier created by the Twelve Metal Colossi and the Imperial Ruler's Seal, and the nine Nation Armaments started to suppress the Twelve Metal Colossi and the Imperial Ruler's Seal.

The Twelve Metal Colossi and the Imperial Ruler's Seal continuously resisted, but they were unable to stand up to the nine Nation Armaments and gradually suppressed.

Without the Twelve Metal Colossi and the Imperial Ruler's Seal's defense, the Chaos Imperial Star was bound by thousands of chains, and even the three general Stars were bound by dozens of chains. In the end, the Twelve Metal Colossi and the Imperial Ruler's Seal were fully suppressed by the nine Nation Armaments.

At that moment, everyone in the world let out a sigh of relief – they had finally locked down the Chaos Imperial Star, and Great Qin didn't continue retaliating. Everything had settled, and the Chaos Imperial Star and the three General Stars had all been bound.

Chapter 303: Defying the Heavens

After the Chaos Imperial Star was sealed by the countless chains, the blood-red light it gave off became dimmer and dimmer, and its massive aura gradually disappeared until it became just a slightly-red star, losing its demonic look.

"The heavens and the earth, mysterious and righteous forces, and all living creatures, listen to my command: seal!"

"Amitabha, salvation to the masses, Buddha's light shining on the world, eradicating all evils: seal!"

"Yin Yang Five Elements, Five Elements nourishing one another, Five Elements destroying one another, Five Elements fusing into one: seal!"

When they saw that the Chaos Imperial Star no longer had the strength to resist, the various leaders and Sect Masters didn't hesitate, and they started to chant their sealing techniques, wanting to seal the Chaos Imperial Star as soon as possible to prevent anything unexpected from happening. After all, the Chaos Imperial Star was simply too horrifying.

Following this, the countless leaders and Sect Masters unleashed their seals, and the sky seemed to slowly drag the Chaos Imperial Star and the three General Stars upwards.

In the underground region, Zhao Fu's heart still wasn't beating, making him seem like a corpse, while Bai Qi, Wei Liao, and Wang Jian did their best to try to resist. However, it was completely useless, and not only were they unable to help the Chaos Imperial Star, but their own General Stars were also being sealed.

Now, Great Qin didn't have the strength to resist so many Nation Armaments, Schools, and Sects.

At the Westfall Restaurant, He Xianru watched as the Chaos Imperial Star was slowly sealed and sighed. This wasn't something that she could change, and it had completely exceeded her expectations. With how terrifying the Chaos Imperial Star was, it had caused all of the world's Schools and Sects to suppress it, and since her own Sect Master had acted, how could she intervene?

In another region, Zhang Heng rode on his donkey as he watched the Chaos Imperial Star being sealed. His expression became grim, and he inwardly sighed. This was a great loss for Great Qin, and it was a pity that the star had been simply too inauspicious. Otherwise, it would have been of great help to all of China.

Su Yan looked up at the Chaos Imperial Star being sealed, and he couldn't help but laugh. Great Qin's strength had weighed on his heart all this time, and it had made him feel quite uncomfortable.

The countless Legatees all looked quite delighted. From the very beginning, Great Qin had been dominating them, and it had revealed incredible power. It had been feared by countless people, and now, it had been suppressed by the rest of the world.

If the Chaos Imperial Star and the three General Stars were sealed, it would be a heavy blow to Great Qin. The Fate that it possessed would be reduced to the same level as other nations, no longer having ten times as more Fate compared to other nations.

Great Qin was in dire straits because it was standing against the whole world. How could Great Qin fight against the rest of the world? No matter how powerful one was, one couldn't stand against the whole world, and the result was the Chaos Imperial Star being sealed.

After this incident, Great Qin became estranged from the rest of the world, and all of the large factions knew that their actions had angered Great Qin and that they would suffer for it in the future.

Even though they had been forced to do this, they were still afraid of revenge from Great Qin.

However, this also gave the various factions a chance to develop. Now, Great Qin didn't have much left that could make them fearful. Most factions were overjoyed that Great Qin's Imperial Star had been sealed.

The Demon Star and the three General Stars were pulled upwards in the sky, and the top of the Chaos Imperial Star couldn't be seen anymore. Soon, the entire Chaos Imperial Star would disappear and be sealed.

By now, to most people, the Chaos Imperial Star being sealed was already inevitable. What else could stand up to the nine Nation Armaments and thousands of chains? There was simply nothing.

In the underground region, Zhao Fu lay naked on the altar with no signs of life coming from him at all.

Suddenly, a round symbol appeared on the back of Zhao Fu's right hand. It was a circle with eight mysterious and profound-looking symbols within it, and they were spaced evenly around the circle with a black dot at the center. This was the Earth Realm Mark.

At this moment, the Earth Realm Mark gave off a faint rainbow-colored light, causing Zhao Fu's right hand to slowly float up and grab at the air.

Boom!!!

An explosion sounded out throughout the world. No matter where one was, one still clearly heard this noise.

Immediately, the various leaders and Sect Masters were incredibly startled because the spiritual aura of the world and a massive amount of Fate started to gather towards one place. The wind started to quickly blow, and everyone could clearly detect the flow of the spiritual aura and Fate.

At the entrance to the underground region, Bai Qi and the others could feel these massive flows, and they were astonished. They quickly looked inside.

The leaders and Sect Masters felt that something was happening, and they tried to complete the sealing as soon as possible. However, the blue sky once again dimmed, and the darkness returned. All of the leaders and Sect Masters were horrified to find that their sealing had failed.

A pair of gigantic, blood-red eyes, filled with coldness and evilness, slowly opened in the sky.

Immediately, cracks appeared in the sky as a supreme might descended. No matter who it was, whether it was a Legatee, elder, or City Lord, they all felt their bodies sink as if there was a hand gripping their hearts. They felt a chill run down their backs, and their legs became weak – this was an instinctive fear.

The blood-red eyes were incredibly cold, and they didn't contain any human emotions. They were filled with a demonic blood-red light that was filled with boundless evil.

These eyes appeared directly above the Chaos Imperial Star, and below the pair of gigantic eyes, the Chaos Imperial Star was between the eyes and looked incredibly small.

The pair of blood-red eyes gave off a shocking heavenly might, and the eyes looked down on all living creatures. Below, everyone felt a chill in their hearts.

Massive waves of shock crashed within the hearts of the leaders and Sect Masters, and they didn't even dare to look up at the eyes. This was because they felt the power of Heavenly Laws, which was this world's source of energy.

They had failed to defy the heavens and change fate. They had never thought that this sealing would be disrupted by the Heavenly Laws in the end – it seemed that it wasn't so easy to defy the heavens, and the leaders and Sect Masters all felt incredibly bitter.

The blood-red eyes first looked at the nine Nation Armaments!

Immediately, the images of the nine Nation Armaments collapsed, and the nine Legatees felt an immense wave of energy attack them. They were blasted backward and coughed up a mouthful of blood, the bones in their chests completely broken. They powerlessly lay on the ground, heavily injured.

Following this, the pair of blood-red eyes looked at the bound Chaos Imperial Star with its terrifying gaze.

Chapter 304: Killer Royal Bloodline

Clang! Clang! Clang! Clang...

The countless chains binding the Chaos Imperial Star all shattered, and the dozens of chains binding the three General Stars also broke.

The countless leaders and Sect Masters all coughed up mouthfuls of blood and collapsed onto their formations.

The entire world fell silent, and the massive pair of blood-red eyes gave off an immense heavenly might. In the next moment, it looked towards all of the people who had participated in the sealing.

Boom!

A shocking explosion sounded out as the countless leaders, Sect Masters, elders, and Legatees were raised into the air by a formless energy, which was strong enough to crush them.

“Sect Master!” “Your Majesty!” “Elder!”

Countless terrified cries sounded out as people looked up at the important figures in the air, who were now completely defenseless. The others tried to help, but all those who rushed up were blasted backward by a formless energy and injured.

The people in the air felt their spirits tremble as an aura of death covered them as if they had been pulled into boundless darkness. In front of the pair of blood-red eyes, they were as lowly as ants.

“Are we going to die?” the people all thought to themselves as their bodies trembled in front of this power. They felt that they were going to explode at any second.

Indeed, the pair of blood-red eyes was thinking about killing them. The formless energy squeezed, and the people in the air desperately struggled. However, they were unable to get free.

Suddenly, the formless energy disappeared, and the people crashed back down onto the ground, their bodies covered with sweat.

All of this had happened too fast, and before anyone could react, the pair of blood-red eyes slowly disappeared, as did the Chaos Imperial Star and the three General Stars. All of the abnormal signs disappeared, and the world returned to its original state.

At that moment, everyone let out a sigh of relief. Those blood-red eyes had been too terrifying, and everyone had felt like there was a gigantic rock weighing down on them. They had been unable to retaliate at all, nor had they dared to make a sound.

“Sect Master!” “Your Majesty!” “Elder!”

The people around them quickly went over to help them up. Luckily, the pair of blood-red eyes hadn't killed these important people, and their followers breathed out a sigh of relief.

In the real world, the abnormal signs all disappeared, and within the Ying family's residence, Qiu Fengzi watched the Chaos Imperial Star disappear. As it disappeared, he let out a sigh of relief.

In the underground region, Zhao Fu's heart suddenly started beating, and his body was filled with lifeforce again. He slowly opened his blood-red eyes.

At the entrance, Bai Qi and the others felt that everything was finished, so they all entered the underground region.

By now, Zhao Fu had taken out a pair of white robes from his King's Ring and put them on. With his long hair, cold and handsome face, demonic blood-red eyes, and his powerful and mighty aura, he seemed like a different person.

Bai Qi and the others didn't dare to look at him right in the eyes, and they could only lower their heads and cup their fists as they nervously said, "Your Majesty!"

When he saw that his subordinates had come in, Zhao Fu retracted his aura and smiled, saying, "Alright, let's go back. Everything has finished."

Seeing that their mild Majesty had returned, they finally relaxed. Before, they had felt fearful after being told that Zhao Fu had fused with God Kerr's Divinity.

This was because God Ker was a demon god that was wicked and bloodthirsty. They were afraid that Zhao Fu would also be affected by its nature, turning him into a tyrant.

It seemed that they had been overly worried, and everyone smiled and followed behind Zhao Fu. Slaughtering Ghost and Sky Demon returned to their swords and hung at Zhao Fu's waist.

After returning to the surface, Zhao Fu saw the carnage from everything that had happened and bitterly smiled before ordering people to do repairs.

Zhao Fu returned to his room and looked at the system announcements that he had missed. When Zhao Fu had opened his eyes, countless system announcements had sounded out.

"System announcement! Your body has fused with a Divinity, which is re-shaping your body. It will be incredibly painful."

"System announcement! The demon god's Divinity, which contains boundless evil, bloodlust, and darkness, has caused changes to your Imperial Star."

"System announcement! The Chaos Demon Star has detected your aura, and it is willing to become your Source Star and descend."

"System announcement! The Myrtle Imperial Star and the Chaos Demon Star have started to fuse, and it will result in abnormal signs."

"System announcement!" Your Chaos Imperial Star has been sealed, which is an act that defies the heavens and changes fate. The Heavenly Laws have started to retaliate, and they have fused with your willpower."

There was a long list of system announcements, and Zhao Fu looked through them one by one. Zhao Fu was quite surprised about the Chaos Demon Star because he knew that the Chaos Demon Star was the most inauspicious star. He had never thought that such a star would want to become his Source Star.

The Myrtle Imperial Star was a Fate Star, and it gathered a massive amount of Fate, which was similar to a General Star. Those who obtained a Myrtle Imperial Star had Son of Heaven Fate.

However, a Source Star was different – it wasn't affected by anything, and it was tied closely to one's life. Compared to a Fate Star, which was more of an external force, a Source Star was part of a person's very being.

Now, the Myrtle Imperial Star had fused with the Chaos Demon Star to form the Chaos Imperial Star.

Next, Zhao Fu found out about the Chaos Imperial Star being sealed. At that time, his body was being re-formed, and it was painful to the point that his mind had nearly collapsed; of course, he wouldn't have been able to pay attention to that. Only when his body had been re-formed and his spirit in darkness did he feel something binding him.

Zhao Fu had felt incredibly furious at the time, and in the end, his willpower had fused with the Heavenly Laws and descended.

Those blood-red eyes weren't some higher power but Zhao Fu's eyes. However, no one had realized this. Back then, the Heavenly Laws had given Zhao Fu three opportunities to act.

Zhao Fu broke the suppression from the nine Nation Armaments, destroyed the chains, and tried to kill those who had tried to seal the Chaos Imperial Star.

However, in the end, he didn't kill them. This was because he had seen the disasters caused by the Chaos Imperial Star and felt quite guilty about them. What's more, he wouldn't be able to truly kill them, and because most of them possessed a great amount of Fate, the Heavenly Laws wouldn't allow such a thing.

At most, he would only be able to kill them in the Heaven Awaken World. He wouldn't be able to harm them in the real world. What's more, the nine Legatees were the Legatees of nine of the most ancient Empires, so Zhao Fu had given up on killing them.

This didn't mean that Zhao Fu feared them. It was just that they were too troublesome to deal with. Since he was unable to truly kill them, Zhao Fu decided to not make the entire world hate him even more.

Chapter 305: This World's Secret

Following this, Zhao Fu looked at the next system announcements.

"System announcement! Congratulations on re-forming your body. Your attributes have greatly changed."

"System announcement! You have unlocked a Grade."

"System announcement! You have unlocked the God-Killer Profession."

"System announcement! You have unlocked Divine Sense."

"System announcement! The Great Qin Town has obtained a massive amount of Fate and been upgraded into an Epic grade Town."

After looking through these announcements, Zhao Fu immediately looked at his stats, and he found that they had indeed greatly changed. Now, with his current strength, he would be able to fight on equal grounds with a Stage 4 City Lord. Of course, that was if the City Lord didn't use his City Lord Seal.

Apart from this, Zhao Fu also received a Grade. It wasn't from F grade to S grade but called 'Upper Earth grade.'

This made Zhao Fu feel quite curious – after all, weren't grades from F to SSS? What did 'Upper Earth grade' mean? Could it be a special grade for players?

Zhao Fu looked at the detailed information and found that Grades weren't just from F to SSS; rather, there were grades above SSS that were Human, Earth, and Heaven.

Each of the grades was split into Lower, Middle, Upper, and Complete. From the information he was given, it seemed that there were even higher grades, but they weren't described.

Zhao Fu suspected that most people didn't know about this, and if it wasn't for the fact that Zhao Fu had unlocked his Earth grade, he also would've been in the dark about this.

It seemed that the Divinity's effects were quite powerful, boosting his grade directly to Earth grade. Even though there was no indication, Zhao Fu felt that his grade from before had been perhaps S.

This was because even if he spent the same amount of time cultivating as Bai Qi, his speed was far slower than Bai Qi's speed. By now, Bai Qi's cultivation was at Stage 1-9, and after consuming two Blood God Pills, Zhao Fu's cultivation was only at Stage 1-6.

Now, with his Earth grade, he had left Bai Qi in the dust, making Zhao Fu grin. Following this, he looked at the next system announcement.

Upon looking at the God-Killer profession, Zhao Fu's eyes lit up, and he immediately looked into it.

He found that the God-Killer profession was the same as the King profession. It was something that surpassed other military professions and a profession that could develop.

In its early stages, it didn't have any stats or skills and only gave God-Killer's Power, which was similar to divine power but greatly countered divine power.

At the same time, this profession gave him a God-Killer Bloodline, which could also be passed on to his descendants.

The King profession and God-Killer profession were both incredibly rare and difficult to obtain; the King profession required one to establish a nation, and because Zhao Fu had Great Qin's Legacy and Ancient King's Power, he had been able to unlock it quite early.

The God-Killer profession required one to kill a god to unlock. Because Zhao Fu had used the Heaven and Earth Refining Formation to steal some of God Kerr's Divinity and fused with it, he had unlocked this profession.

Whether it was establishing a nation or killing a god, neither of these things was easy to accomplish, and they would be impossible for most people.

As such, the Royal Bloodline and God-Killer Bloodline were both high-grade bloodlines. After Zhao Fu's body had been re-formed, they had perfectly combined into an unknown bloodline, which Zhao Fu called the God-Killer Royal Bloodline for now.

The God-Killer Royal Bloodline was already a Level 11 Bloodline. Before, Zhao Fu's Royal Bloodline had been a Lower Level 10 Bloodline.

After looking through the God-Killer profession, Zhao Fu then looked at the 'Divine Sense' system announcement.

"What's this?" Zhao Fu wondered to himself. Zhao Fu started to read the description in detail, and he found that it was one of the five Celestial Senses. If he unlocked all five, he would be able to enter Celestial Mode.

Zhao Fu didn't know what Celestial Mode was, but it sounded quite powerful as the description stated that it would be able to repel all evils and that demons and gods would avoid it.

The description didn't say what the other four senses were, but it gave an introduction to Divine Sense. Divine Sense strengthened a person's mind and willpower; it could also be said that one's spirit was strengthened. There were two ways to unlock Divine Sense. The first requires one's spirit to almost be destroyed. After it recovers, it will become more powerful. The second required one to attain a certain level of comprehension, causing one's spirit to evolve.

Zhao Fu was most likely the first type. Even now, Zhao Fu's body was trembling from the pain he had suffered during the re-forming of his body.

The main effect of Divine Sense greatly reduced the effects of illusions, mental attacks, and spiritual attacks. At the same time, it greatly increased the effectiveness of his own illusions and mental attacks. All in all, it was quite useful.

Now that he had unlocked Divine Sense, there were four more senses to unlock. Zhao Fu was quite curious about Celestial Mode and the four other senses.

The next system announcement was that the Great Qin Town had become an Epic grade Town. Zhao Fu hadn't expected this at all because he had thought he would have to destroy ten Legacy Villages in order to do such a thing.

The reason for this was because everything, whether it was an individual or a nation, had its own Fate. If Zhao Fu took down a system main city, he would obtain a massive amount of Fate. Similarly, Zhao Fu had killed a powerful clone of a godly spirit and refined it, and the Myrtle Imperial Star had also fused with the Chaos Demon Star – both of these things had given Great Qin a massive amount of Fate.

The massive amount of Fate also caused the Twelve Metal Colossi and Imperial Ruler's Seal to be upgraded again. Now, the Twelve Metal Colossi was a Level 3 Nation Armament, and the Imperial Ruler's Seal was a Level 2 Clan Armament.

Comparatively speaking, it was much harder to level up a Clan Armament than a Nation Armament – it not only required a massive amount of Fate but also something that greatly affected the Chinese race as a whole.

Afterward, Zhao Fu went to the Town Hall and looked at the floating cube that was now orange-colored. The aura it gave off was more powerful, and Zhao Fu looked at the Great Qin Town's new stats:

Village Name: Great Qin Town (Epic)

Level: Advanced (269,200/750,000)

Village Area: 500 square kilometers.

Village Territory: 12,180 square kilometres.

Residents: 242.950/420,000

Military: 31,640/72,000

Popular Support: 85

Village Special Stats: Territory Crop Output +110%, Territory Crop Growing Time -110%, Population Limit +80%, Residents' stats can randomly +7, Soldiers' stats +8%, Population Attraction+100%, chance of attracting higher grade population +810%.

Subsidiary Village Limit: 600

Subordinate Villages: Logue Village, Jean Village, Dorun Village, Li Family Village, Wolf Village, Ferocious Tiger Village...

Chapter 306: Under the Heavens

After becoming Epic grade, the Great Qin Town's stats had once again increased. At the same time, the Heaven Prayer Platform also became more powerful.

Zhao Fu once again returned to his room and started to go through the information that he had received from God Kerr. After fusing with the Divinity, not only did he obtain some of God Kerr's skills, but he had also obtained a lot of information about all sorts of things.

This wasn't very surprising because God Kerr was a godly spirit that was far greater than mere humans, and it definitely knew much more.

Zhao Fu sifted through the information and found some information about the 'Heaven Domain Boundary' and 'Legacy Land.' Zhao Fu had been very curious about these things, so he looked into them. After reading about them, he was greatly shocked, and massive waves crashed within his heart.

It seemed that he had underestimated the Heaven Awaken World. This world...

This secret was something that the system prohibited anyone from saying – no wonder the Yin Soldiers knew but couldn't say anything. At that moment, Zhao Fu understood everything.

This secret was incredibly important, and it was to the point that it affected the life of Great Qin in the future. Zhao Fu's expression became serious, and he started to think. Now that he knew this secret, his plans for Great Qin's future had once again changed.

In the remaining time, Zhao Fu continued to go through the information he had obtained from God Kerr.

After the numerous leaders and Sect Masters returned to the real world, their eyes were dim, and they looked quite dispirited. The other four Legatees of the Great Dynasties also sighed and prepared to send a big gift to the Ying family as an apology.

They had completely lost this time, and what's more, Great Qin's Legatee hadn't killed them, giving them a lot of face. As such, they had to respond to this.

First, it was a matter of face and pride. If they didn't do anything, they would be mocked by others for trying to seal his Imperial Star to only be spared by him and not do anything about it. They would seem petty, while Great Qin's Legatee would seem magnanimous.

Second, it was a matter of strength. Now, Great Qin's strength was simply monstrous. Even though they would still struggle against each other below the surface, on the surface, they still needed to seem amicable. After all, it wouldn't be worth it to offend a powerful enemy like Great Qin.

Many people had the same idea, and they sent massive gifts to the Ying family. No one knew just where Great Qin's Legatee was, so they could only pass the gifts to the Ying family and hope that Great Qin's Legatee would take notice.

All of the Ying family's higher-ups were incredibly delighted. They had long since started to see Great Qin's Legatee as someone who was a part of the Ying family. They held a grand banquet and invited all sorts of important figures, making the Ying family's residence quite lively.

Ying Wu also felt quite happy as he received the benefits of acting as Great Qin's Legatee. Countless families and upper-class people continuously tried to curry favor with him.

Now, his life was hundreds of times better than it was before. Wherever he went, people would address him as 'Your Majesty,' and countless people tried to get on his good side. He didn't lack money or beautiful women.

With the number of women who wanted to curry favor with him, even if he slept with one per day, he wouldn't be able to get through all of them. However, Ying Wu didn't forget that he was just a fake, so he continuously developed his own faction.

Now, Ying Wu's faction had become a relatively large faction, and he had 20,000 people. Ying Wu was a bit apprehensive of the Ying family, so he developed slowly and cautiously so as not to displease the Ying family. Otherwise, with the things that the smaller families had gifted him with, he would have expanded his faction to 40,000 people already.

As for Ying Xi, after hearing her subordinate's report, she heard that her family's elders had decided to marry her off to Great Qin's Legatee as a concubine. When she heard this, Ying Xi felt that her time was running out!

Qiu Fengzi also received instructions from his Sect Master to maintain good relations with the Ying family. Who knew? If Qiu Fengzi made a good impression on Great Qin's Legatee, perhaps the Taoist Sect would escape calamity in the future.

Of course, Qiu Fengzi heard about the Sect Master helping to seal the Chaos Imperial Star, creating karma between them. As such, Qiu Fengzi understood the importance of this order.

Now, Qiu Fengzi felt a bit conflicted – should he tell the higher-ups that Great Qin’s Legatee was, in fact, already in the Ying family’s residence? After thinking about it for a while, Qiu Fengzi decided to continue searching for him by himself. Only then would he be able to maximize his profits because it was likely that he was the only person who knew this. As such, it was likely that he would be the first person in the world to find out who Great Qin’s Legatee was.

This was a massive opportunity, and he couldn’t let it slip by. However, after searching for so long, he still hadn’t found Great Qin’s Legatee’s precise location, and he couldn’t help but wonder where he was. What he didn’t know was that Zhao Fu barely went out, making him quite difficult to find.

In the real world, within a building, two women were talking over a table filled with food.

A beautiful girl who was 17 or 18 years old, gave off a mysterious aura, and wore a veil pleaded, “Big sis! We’re relying on you, and we hope that you can maintain good relations with him so that he doesn’t feel any enmity towards the School of Yin Yang.”

He Xianru lightly sighed, and she nodded as she looked at the girl and said, “Xianling, I’ll help, and he isn’t a bloodthirsty person. However, I hope that Sect Master will act cautiously from now on. From what I understand, his fate is something that even the gods won’t be able to change.”

When she saw He Xianru agree, the girl called Xianling smiled as she replied, “Thank you, big sis. Sect Master also regrets this and understands.”

When she heard this, He Xianru relaxed. She didn’t want to become Zhao Fu’s enemy – only those close to him knew just how terrifying he truly was.

At that moment, Xianling asked, “Big sis, tell me what sort of person he is. What does he look like? Does he have a look of charisma?”

He Xianru looked quite surprised and asked, “Why are you suddenly asking about this? What, are you interested in him?”

Xianling slightly blushed and pulled on He Xianru’s hand as she said with an embarrassed expression on her face, “Big sis, with his potential, he’ll definitely become a grand figure. It’s only natural to feel curious about him. Big sis, hurry and tell me about him!”

He Xianru lightly laughed before starting to tell the girl about Zhao Fu.

Within the Heaven Awaken World, Zhao Fu spent a bit more than a day to go through all of the information that he had obtained from God Kerr before summoning his important subordinates to discuss Great Qin’s future path.

Chapter 307: Dragon Race

This meeting went for three days, and even though Zhao Fu was prohibited by the system from directly revealing that shocking secret, he was able to hint at it. After his subordinates found out, they were incredibly shocked and started to suggest various ideas. This was why the meeting had taken so long.

After the meeting concluded, Great Qin returned to its normal operations but tried to act as low-profile as possible. Recently, they had attracted far too much attention to themselves.

After a few days of Great Qin staying as low-profile as possible, discussions about the Chaos Imperial Star gradually died down. Just as Zhao Fu had wanted, people soon forgot about it.

Because it was now autumn, leaves started to turn yellow, and it was also harvesting season. The fruits were ripening, and Great Qin started to become busy with collecting and harvesting.

Most of the harvested fruits were sold, and because there were so many of them, some were used to make wine.

These fruit wines became one of the signature products of the Westfall Restaurants, and they were greatly liked by women and younger people.

Seeing Great Qin steadily and peacefully develop, Zhao Fu was able to rest at ease. He returned to the real world, and just like usual, he asked his bodyguard to buy some food for him while he looked at the Heaven Awaken World forum.

Now, no faction dared to show any enmity towards Great Qin, and Zhao Fu also found out that countless factions had sent gifts to the Ying family. In response, Zhao Fu only laughed.

At that moment, a call came through, and because Zhao Fu looked at it and saw that it was from his grandpa, he picked up the phone.

“Fu’Er, it’s your cousin’s birthday today; come over and eat with us.”

Zhao Fu slightly frowned and wanted to refuse because he wasn’t interested in such things. However, he found it difficult to refuse, so he could only agree and go.

After arriving at his grandpa’s residence, he was somewhat surprised to see that his cousin, Zhao Hong, was now going out with Zheng Jiao. It seemed that after what had happened last time, their relationship had quickly advanced, resulting in them becoming boyfriend and girlfriend.

Zhao Fu didn’t pay too much attention to this. After arriving, he found that everyone’s attitude towards him was particularly good, especially his uncle and aunt. It was most likely because of what had happened last time. Even though they didn’t despise him, they didn’t like him either.

After eating, Zhao Fu decided to leave. He didn’t bring a present because he wasn’t used to such things – back when he and his mother were living in poverty, eating until they were full was already quite good; they didn’t even think about gifts, and even if they did, they didn’t have the money.

After everything was done, Zhao Fu was walking back to his own residence when a black limousine stopped beside him and the driver stuck his head out and asked, “Mr. Zhao, Big Miss wants to invite you to see her.”

Zhao Fu recognized the driver – he was Wu Qingniang’s driver, and Zhao Fu couldn’t help but wonder what Wu Qingniang wanted with him. Zhao Fu thought about it and decided to see Wu Qingniang.

At that moment, Wu Qingniang was sitting on a sofa as she held a cup of coffee. There was a handsome young man sitting opposite her wearing a white shirt and black pants, and he looked like the young master of a big family.

Zhao Fu knew this young man – he was the Vice-President of the Student Council, Xiao Yunfei.

When she saw that Zhao Fu had arrived, Wu Qingniang smiled and asked Zhao Fu to sit down before telling one of the attendants to bring him a cup of coffee. Following this, she said, “Zhao Fu, do you need me to introduce you again?”

Zhao Fu sat down and smiled as he looked at Xiao Yunfei and replied, “No need. How could I not know someone as famous as Young Master Xiao?”

Xiao Yunfei smiled as he replied, “You must be Zhao Fu; Qingniang often mentions you.”

When he heard Xiao Yunfei address Wu Qingniang as ‘Qingniang,’ Zhao Fu realized that they were most likely quite close. After all, Wu Qingniang had been the President of the student council.

“Zhao Fu, I called you here so that you could get to know Yunfei. He’s helped me quite a lot, and you’ve also performed above my expectations as well!” Wu Qingniang smiled as she spoke in a praising tone.

Zhao Fu knew that Wu Qingniang was talking about Heaven’s Choice, and he calmly replied, “It’s nothing!”

“Zhao Fu!” Wu Qingniang suddenly became serious as she said, “There’s something I want to ask for your help with. You’re near East Green, and it seems that even Void Zones can’t stop Great Qin’s Legatee. If you ever meet him, can you represent me in trying to become friends with him or at least help maintain friendly relations?”

The way Wu Qingniang saw Great Qin Legatee was like how everyone else saw him. Before, they saw him as a threat and didn’t want to seem weaker. They had also wanted to surpass him.

However, now, they realized how laughable that was. Not just Wu Qingniang, but anyone under the heavens could tell that none of them was a match for him. The scenes from the Chaos Imperial Star’s descent were simply too terrifying, and now, no one dared to openly oppose Great Qin.

Wu Qingniang was the same, and now that things had turned out like this, she could only lower her head for now and do her best to develop.

After listening to Wu Qingniang and seeing how serious she looked, Zhao Fu did his best not to laugh. On the surface, he maintained his calm expression and agreed.

When she saw this, Wu Qingniang felt quite relieved. Even though she had her own people in the Forest of Horrors, she trusted Zhao Fu’s abilities because she felt that she had never been wrong with her intuition.

“I’ll have to trouble you then!” Wu Qingniang said with an apologetic smile.

Zhao Fu replied that he didn't mind. After all, it wasn't very hard for him to curry favor with himself.

However, sitting opposite Wu Qingniang, Xiao Yunfei couldn't help but frown because this wasn't the attitude Wu Qingniang usually had when speaking to a subordinate.

The three of them continued to chat, after which Zhao Fu and Xiao Yunfei decided that it was time to leave.

After walking out, Xiao Yunfei smiled, but his tone was slightly condescending and no longer amicable as he said, "Don't think that you're a bigshot just because you have a bit of strength. Remember your status; with your lowly status, you'll never be good enough for her."

"But then again, Qingniang's the State of Zhou's Legatee and has a noble bloodline, so she wouldn't favor you anyways. You're just a member of the Ying family's collateral family, but servants should act like servants. If I see you not treating Qingniang like your master in the future and you try to develop some sort of relationship with her, don't blame me for being discourteous."

Xiao Yunfei gave Zhao Fu a warning before walking off, not putting Zhao Fu in his eyes at all.

Zhao Fu didn't say anything, nor did he feel much. He only glanced at Xiao Yunfei and didn't mind his warning at all.

After returning to his room, Zhao Fu once again entered the Heaven Awaken World, and he realized that it had been a while since he had checked up on Ge Nia.

Chapter 308: Eyed Flood Dragon

Zhao Fu had ordered all of Great Qin's forces to cut off communications with Ge Nia so that he could develop well by himself. The final goal was obviously to become the City Lord, and now, Zhao Fu felt that it was time to go and visit Ge Nia.

Following this, Zhao Fu went by himself to Battle City and found that Ge Nia's Sword Sect had already become the biggest faction in Battle City. It had 10,000 or so people, which was a lot less than other factions, but the members were all elites.

There were both players and indigenous residents, and because Outlanders were welcomed inside Battle City as well, his faction contained some Outlanders.

The Sword Sect's members were dressed in white and had swords at their waists. Zhao Fu heard that Ge Nia's cultivation had already progressed to Stage 2, and by continuously fighting in the Arena, the Sword Sect's fame had grown more and more.

Ge Nia had been listed as one of the eight candidates to become the next City Lord, and Zhao Fu was quite pleased that his plan was working.

As long as Ge Nia could outshine the other seven candidates, he would be able to become Battle City's City Lord, and Zhao Fu would be able to obtain a system main city and its forces for free. This would provide him with immense help.

Zhao Fu didn't plan to do much because it seemed that Ge Nia and the Sword Sect were both doing quite well and didn't require any intervention from Zhao Fu.

However, Zhao Fu was still a bit worried that they would be forced to stage a coup d'état if Ge Nia didn't become the next City Lord.

Even though Zhao Fu didn't want to do this, Great Qin had spent a lot of resources and effort on this matter, and they couldn't let it go to waste. When the time came, they would have to kill the person chosen or even assassinate the current City Lord; regardless of how they did it, they had to make Ge Nia the next City Lord.

Afterward, when he saw that everything here was going well, Zhao Fu felt quite pleased and return to the Great Qin Town.

The next thing Zhao Fu thought about was the incubation of the Wyvern.

Wyverns were relatively weak within the Dragon Race, and they were only slightly stronger than Drakes. However, given the fact that most people weren't even at Stage 1 right now, a Wyvern would be able to decimate everything, as a mature Wyvern could have Stage 5 strength.

What's more, Zhao Fu hadn't bought the Wyvern egg to just raise a Wyvern. Rather, it was for Zhao Fu's Universal Den!

[Universal Den]: Grade: Silver, Description: A Special Den that any creature can conquer. It will spawn creatures of the same race.

Right now, the Universal Den was spawning a Void Beast every three days, which had allowed Great Qin to open up countless paths to outside regions. By now, Great Qin had already reached 34 other regions.

If the Universal Den was conquered by the Wyvern, it would spawn Wyverns instead. Even though they would no longer have Void Beasts, Zhao Fu didn't plan on opening up too many paths. Rather, having a flight of dragons would be enough.

Great Qin had already opened up many paths, and they were earning Great Qin a massive amount of money. However, Great Qin's military still wasn't very powerful, and it was unable to face off directly against a system main city's military.

However, if Zhao Fu had a flight of Wyverns, things would be different – they would greatly strengthen Great Qin's military and speed up the restoration of Great Qin. However, all of that would be far into the future – right now, controlling an entire region seemed like something far away, much less restoring Great Qin.

As such, Zhao Fu decided that he had to strengthen Great Qin's military, even if it came at a cost to their finances. After all, this matter was far too important to Great Qin.

Right now, the Universal Den was Silver grade, and if Zhao Fu wanted to raise it to Gold grade, he needed ten damaged City Hearts.

These things were rarer than even undamaged Silver grade City Creation Stones because no one was stupid enough to damage his own City Hearts. As such, despite being willing to pay a lot of money, Zhao Fu had only obtained two.

He could only wait and see, and if he really had no other options, he would have to destroy some of his Silver grade villages to upgrade the Universal Den.

After the operations with the alliances in North Nam, Zhao Fu had used all of the City Creation Stones, and he now had 502 villages in total.

Even though most of them were Normal grade, there were at least 20 or so Silver grade villages, so he had the ability to upgrade the Universal Den. However, destroying eight of them was still a great cost.

Now, it was just a matter of incubating the Wyvern egg. Zhao Fu ordered his people to look for secret techniques that would be able to reduce the incubation period to just one year.

However, even one year was too long for Zhao Fu, especially after finding out the shocking secret about this world. Zhao Fu absolutely couldn't wait that long.

As such, he ordered his people to see if they could find methods that could shorten the timeframe even more.

Afterward, one of Zhao Fu's subordinates reported that there was a type of spirit grass that could speed up the incubation of dragon eggs. The spirit grass was called Dragon Incubation Celestial Grass, and it was an incredibly rare Stage 4 spirit grass. It was said that it only grew where there were dragons because this sort of grass grew by absorbing the aura of dragons.

Zhao Fu immediately sent people to search for this spirit grass, but they were unable to find anything. As such, he had to offer a high price for information about Dragon Incubation Celestial Grass, and in the end, they indeed received a useful piece of information. It was said that there was Dragon Incubating Celestial Grass in the depths of the Forest of Horrors; however, it was only in the very deepest parts.

This caused Zhao Fu to hesitate because there were always super powerful monsters within the depths of each region. Even City Lords didn't dare to anger such existences.

These monsters were extremely powerful, and instead of having City Lord Seals, they could create beast hordes and summon all of the beasts in the vicinity to attack.

It was said that the monster in the depths of the Forest of Horrors was a 1,000 meter long black-scaled Six-Eyed Devil Flood Dragon.

Flood Dragons existed in Chinese legends, and they were incredibly powerful. They had the ability to control rain and floods, and although they were weaker than Dragons, they were quite similar. They had the slim body of a snake, the claws of an eagle, the scales of a fish, and the mane of a horse.

The greatest difference between Dragons and Flood Dragons was their horns; Chinese Dragons normally had a pair of horns similar to a deer's horns, while Flood Dragons didn't have horns. Even if they did, they would only have one horn, and the horn would be short and sharp.

Zhao Fu decided to head into the depths to see if he could find some Dragon Incubating Celestial Grass and to test out that super monster's strength. After all, if he wanted to conquer a region, he would have to take care of the super monster as well.

Zhao Fu knew that this expedition was quite dangerous, so he decided to go by himself.

Chapter 309: Red Ape Lord

Zhao Fu made some simple preparations before heading off into the depths of the Forest of Horrors.

The trees blocked out the sun, and they were many times taller than the trees outside. There were also various low-grade spirit grasses, but because their quality wasn't very high, Zhao Fu didn't bother picking them.

At the same time, the atmosphere here wasn't as relaxed as in the forests outside – it was incredibly tense and oppressive here, and dangers lurked in every corner.

Suddenly, a black blur rushed at Zhao Fu. Zhao Fu casually drew his sword and slashed out at the black blur.

It was a weasel-like animal that had gray-white fur. It was a bit bigger than a normal dog, and it had Stage 2 strength.

As a result of Zhao Fu's attack, a deep gash appeared on the creature's shoulder, from which blood slowly flowed out. It seemed that its injury was quite serious.

Zhao Fu's strength already rivaled that of a City Lord's, and a casual strike was enough to severely injure these animals.

Despite being so heavily injured, the creature still wanted to attack. After leaping at Zhao Fu again, its neck was pierced by Zhao Fu's sword, and it died.

Within the depths of the Forest of Horrors, almost all of the creatures were at least Stage 2, or it would be impossible for them to survive. As such, Zhao Fu stayed incredibly wary.

After looking at the creature's corpse, Zhao Fu found that the materials that could be extracted from its body were only Normal grade. By now, Zhao Fu wasn't impressed by even Blue grade materials, let alone this Normal grade material. Just as Zhao Fu was about to leave, he suddenly thought of something.

From the beginning, he had only used the Heaven and Earth Refining Formation to refine human corpses to obtain their grades or cultivations, and he had never refined animals before. Even though this creature's materials weren't great, it was Stage 2, so perhaps refining it would result in some good items.

After he thought of this, Zhao Fu decided to put the creature's corpse away before continuing onwards.

Not long after, a four meter long rhinoceros rushed out and didn't hesitate to attack. This rhinoceros had Stage 3 cultivation and made Zhao Fu frown. The density of the creatures in the Forest of Horrors was simply too great, and they were all quite strong.

Zhao Fu killed this rhinoceros in a few hits and put the corpse away before continuing.

Night time in the Forest of Horrors was quite terrifying – it was completely dark, and there were no sounds from birds or bugs. There was a dense aura of danger, making the atmosphere incredibly tense.

Zhao Fu lit a bonfire and started to roast a few wild chickens that he had caught. It had been a tiring day, and the only thing he had gained was about ten or so creatures. He still hadn't seen even a trace of the Dragon Incubating Celestial Grass, and Zhao Fu planned to go deeper the next day.

"Roarrrr!" A massive dragon-like roar reverberated through the forest as an extremely powerful aura descended from the sky. The air seemed to freeze as the countless creatures within the forest trembled.

A massive figure appeared in the sky – it was 1,000 meters long; had black, glistening scales; and had four powerful-looking claws. It also had six blood-red eyes and a long, black horn. Its body flew in the air despite not having any wings, and it gave off a powerful air of suppression.

Below, Zhao Fu immediately hid his aura and was surprised to find the Six-Eyed Flood Dragon already. The Six-Eyed Flood Dragon was the ruler of this region, and the aura it gave off was simply too powerful. Only after feeling its aura did Zhao Fu realize the extent of its might.

However, when Zhao Fu looked up at the Six-Eyed Flood Dragon, he felt that it would feel incredibly awesome if he could subdue it and use it as a mount.

As a Chinese person, Zhao Fu was greatly interested in Flood Dragons, but it was a pity that Zhao Fu didn't have the power to subdue the Six-Eyed Flood Dragon. However, he was excited to try in the future.

After resting for the night, Zhao Fu headed deeper into the Forest of Horrors as soon as the sun rose.

He encountered many powerful creatures and avoided them when he could. After all, his main goal was to find Dragon Incubating Celestial Grass, not to fight. He couldn't afford to let these creatures waste his time.

Within the depths of the Forest of Horrors, the creatures were all much more powerful than those outside. However, they were no longer as densely gathered because the creatures here all had superior intelligence and their own small territories.

Of course, they wouldn't just let any creature enter their territory – upon entering, they would immediately attack. As such, Zhao Fu became increasingly careful because the creatures here all had Stage 4 cultivation.

At the same time, there were many high-grade spirit grasses here, and Zhao Fu started to look around him attentively. Even though there was danger lurking around every corner, Zhao Fu would be able to deal with them easily, primarily because his Assassin profession allowed him to move incredibly stealthily.

Soon, Zhao Fu found something of value – it was snow-white grass that seemed quite furry, and it had a single leaf.

This was called Snowfur Grass, and it was a Stage 4 spirit grass. It was worth a considerable amount of money, and Zhao Fu had discovered it next to a rotting tree. Such a high-grade spirit grass wasn't something that could be bought with money.

Zhao Fu had been quite lucky because there weren't any powerful creatures guarding it, and it was in an accessible place. As such, Zhao Fu was quite happy.

After continuing onwards, Zhao Fu avoided all of the places that gave off powerful auras as he looked around. His luck was quite good, and he found a couple more types of spirit grasses without much danger.

Just like that, another day passed, but Zhao Fu was unable to find any Dragon Incubating Celestial Grass. By now, Zhao Fu started to doubt the information that he had received.

However, since he had made the trip here, he couldn't just leave like this. Zhao Fu could only carefully advance further and further.

Another day later, Zhao Fu was hiding at the top of a tree and looking ahead of him, a smile on his face. He had discovered ten or so fruit trees that were three meters tall. They grew white fruits that were as big as lychees and gave off strange ripples of light, looking quite extraordinary.

Zhao Fu had seen these spirit fruits before – they had been growing next to the place where he had killed the Whitefur Monkey King. After returning that time, Zhao Fu had done some research and found that these fruits were called Windbell Fruits, and they would ring like a bell when touched.

There were ten or so Windbell Fruit Trees here, and Zhao Fu could dig them up and replant them in the Great Qin Town. Windbell Fruits were Stage 3 spirit fruits, and if he could find a pill recipe for them, he would be able to refine Stage 3 medicinal pills, which would be even more effective than the Stage 2 Hundred Origin Pills.

Not only would this increase his soldiers' cultivation speed, but it would also give them an advantage over the system main cities, which only had Stage 2 medicinal pills.

Chapter 310: Holy Hall Bloodline

However, it wouldn't be very easy for Zhao Fu to obtain these ten or so Windbell Fruit Trees because there were 30 or so Red Apes guarding them nearby.

The Red Apes' fur was a dark red color, and they were two meters tall and shouldn't be easily angered. What's more, these were only the ordinary Red Apes – there was one Red Ape that was three meters tall, and apart from its red fur, it had platinum-colored eyes and looked quite terrifying.

An ordinary Red Ape's cultivation was already at Stage 3, and all of them were Elite class, while that three meter tall Red Ape was a Stage 4 Lord class creature.

If Zhao Fu simply rushed over, he wouldn't be a match for a Stage 4 Lord grade creature supported by 30 Stage 3 Elite grade creatures. What's more, it was possible that the Windbell Fruit Trees would be damaged, so he had to find a way to lure them away and pick them off.

If he could obtain these ten or so Windbell Fruit Trees, his trip into the depths of the Forest of Horrors wouldn't have been in vain.

After thinking about it, Zhao Fu decided on a plan. There was a cliff that was hundreds of meters tall, and Zhao Fu wanted to use this to get rid of them all at once.

Among the 30 or so mature Red Apes, there were a few juvenile Red Apes that played by themselves. They weren't as intelligent or alert as their parents, so it was easy to deal with them.

Zhao Fu completely hid his aura and stealthily crept over to the juvenile Red Apes. He first rolled a few spirit fruits over, drawing the attention of two juvenile Red Apes. They were incredibly guileless and had no sense of wariness, so they came over and started to happily eat the spirit fruits.

The two juvenile Red Apes finished eating the spirit fruits in just a moment, and they looked like they still hadn't had enough. At that moment, a few more spirit fruits rolled out a bit further away, and they didn't hesitate to walk over and eat those spirit fruits too.

This happened a few times, and before they knew it, these two juvenile Red Apes had wandered further and further away from the rest of the Red Apes. Just as they stepped into an area filled with trees, preparing to eat more spirit fruits, a ghost-like figure appeared behind them and knocked the two unsuspecting juvenile Red Apes before lifting them up and running towards the cliff.

After running at full speed, Zhao Fu arrived at the cliff in five or six minutes. He tied them to the bottom of the cliff before waking them up and scaring them with his sword, causing the two juvenile Red Apes to scream and cry in fear.

Because they weren't too far away, the Red Apes immediately heard them and rushed over. Soon, the Red Apes reached the bottom of the cliff, and when they saw how scared and wretched the two juvenile Red Apes were, they immediately wanted to rescue them. However, they were stopped by the Red Ape Lord.

This Red Ape Lord's intelligence wasn't inferior to a human's, and it could tell that this was a trap. As such, it stopped the other Red Apes and warily looked around.

When he saw that his plan had failed, Zhao Fu immediately carried out his backup plan!

Suddenly, a sharp violet light shot towards the Red Ape Lord. This violet light was incredibly fast, and it reached the Red Ape Lord in a few moments. Just as it was about to hit it, the Red Ape Lord stretched out its hand, catching that violet ray of light, which turned out to be an arrow. The Red Ape Lord clenched its fist, snapped the arrow.

"Arghh!" "Arghh!"

The two juvenile Red Apes were instantly killed as a black-cloaked figure, who held a demonic sword and gave off a mysterious aura, appeared in the air above the corpses of the two juvenile Red Apes. It was evidently this person who had killed them.

At that moment, all of the Red Apes furiously roared and lost their reason as they rushed towards Zhao Fu. Zhao Fu immediately turned and ran.

The Red Ape Lord gave off boundless killing intent as it led the other Red Apes to chase after Zhao Fu.

Boom!!!

At that moment, a massive sound rang out as a red sword light flashed and the top of the cliff fell downwards.

The Red Apes were completely startled and tried to run, but it was too late. Countless boulders rained down from above with immense force, smashing several Red Apes into meat paste, causing blood to fly everywhere.

After the dust settled, a small mountain of boulders had appeared at the bottom of the cliff, and there were arms and legs protruding from it, creating a grisly scene.

Zhao Fu was quite pleased that his plan had worked, and he stretched out his hand as the Slaughtering Ghost Sword turned into a red ray of light and returned to his hand.

When he saw that there were no survivors, Zhao Fu started to make his way back to take the Windbell Fruit Trees.

Bang!

Suddenly, a massive explosion sounded out as countless boulders flew out. A figure covered with a platinum-colored flame rushed out from the boulders and charged at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu was quite startled, and he immediately drew his sword as he spun and blocked.

Bang!

An explosion rang out as the collision between the two parties resulted in a massive shockwave. Zhao Fu used his sword to block the Red Ape Lord's attack, and he was blasted back by a step. Opposite him, the bloodied and injured Red Ape Lord glared at him furiously.

"Roarrrr!!!" All of the other Red Apes were dead, and this person in front of it was the reason for this. The Red Ape Lord roared again as it swung its fist, creating a platinum-colored fist image.

Zhao Fu coldly harrumphed and slashed out with his sword, destroying the fist image.

However, the Red Ape Lord continuously punched out, causing the air to almost explode as the numerous fist images rained down on Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu narrowed his eyes as he coldly said, "Godly Demonic Thrust!"

Zhao Fu's Sky Demon Sword gave off a large amount of black sword qi, and Zhao Fu thrusted out, causing a massive illusory sword image to appear and pierce through all of the fist images, sending the Red Ape Lord flying. A deep gash appeared on its chest, and blood quickly flowed out.

The skill that Zhao Fu had just used was one of the godly skills that he had acquired, and even though it was just a casual attack from him, it was incredibly powerful. Such was the might of a godly spirit's skills.

Seeing the Red Ape Lord fly backward, Zhao Fu rushed up, and just as he wanted to attack it again, the Red Ape Lord opened its mouth and spat out a terrifying platinum-colored beam of light.

This beam of light was incredibly bright, and it tore through the air, giving off a terrifying aura and forcing Zhao Fu to dodge.

Boom!!!

The platinum-colored beam of light hit the cliff nearby, drilling open a one meter wide, ten-meter deep hole.

As Zhao Fu dodged, the Red Ape Lord landed, and its body turned into a platinum-colored blur as it reached Zhao Fu and punched with immense force.

In response, Zhao Fu stabbed out with his sword, causing an illusory demon figure to fly out and leap towards the Red Ape Lord.

At such close range, the Red Ape Lord was unable to dodge, and it could only give off a platinum-colored light in an attempt to block this attack.

However, Zhao Fu spun and lashed out with a roundhouse kick, sending the Red Ape Lord flying. A spear made of talisman papers then appeared in Zhao Fu's hand, and the Evil-Crushing Spear started to give off a silver light as silver arcs of lightning appeared around it.
