

The Lord 451

Chapter 451 – Shocking the Heavens and the Earth

Hearing Zhao Fu's words, the City Lords' expressions became grim. Since they had signed a High-Grade Contract with Zhao Fu, if they broke the contract, they wouldn't be able to use their City Lord Seals anymore. Without their City Lord Seals, how could their 100,000 Stage 1 soldiers fight against these countless Skeletons?

The punishment of the High-Grade Contracts was quite severe, but it was even worse for Zhao Fu: he had promised that he wouldn't attack their main cities, and if he broke the contract, he would immediately die. Moreover, the contracts lasted for half a year.

The City Lords were only willing to sign because of that. If they broke the contract, the Undead army would turn back, and their main cities would be completely annihilated without being able to resist at all. Their people would all be slaughtered.

A man with some beard stubble sighed before saying, "You said that you wouldn't make us do anything dangerous, and killing a City Lord has a certain amount of danger involved. We can only agree to do this once, but in the future, we will only protect the Disaster Cavalry."

Zhao Fu thought about it – making them kill another City Lord wasn't easy, and because having them kill four City Lords was already quite good, he agreed.

Seeing that Zhao Fu had agreed, 27 bodies turned into rays of light and chased after the escaping City Lords. The woman in white didn't move and stared at Zhao Fu before coldly harrumphing and also flying away.

Boom!

The four escaping City Lords were soon caught up with, and a battle that could shock the heavens and earth unfolded. Massive explosions sounded out, shaking the heavens, and their monstrous power seemed to be able to destroy everything below them.

The countless players, including the commanders, felt their hopes plummet upon seeing the four City Lords being attacked by 28 other City Lords. They had hoped that the four City Lords would be able to suppress Great Qin's Legatee, but now, it was difficult to say if they would even survive.

Zhao Fu ignored the battle because even more Skeletons had arrived, and Zhao Fu ordered the Disaster Cavalry to continue guiding them to fight.

The Skeleton Cavalry formed ten groups with more than 10,000 Skeleton Cavalrymen in each group, after which they started to charge.

They gripped their bone spears and looked straight ahead of them. That area was different from the rest of the battlefield, and it was quite peaceful.

Boom!!

The Skeleton Cavalry were like arrows that had been shot out of bows, and their auras shook the entire battlefield. They formed a triangular formation as they rushed towards the defensive wall, their bodies giving off a gray aura that formed into a massive cone above their heads.

Bang, bang, bang...

The Skeleton Cavalry were like lightning bolts that struck the defensive wall. The gray cones bore into the defensive wall, leaving a large hole, and as the Skeleton Cavalry continuously charged up, the holes became larger and larger.

The other Skeletons also charged behind them and streamed through the ten massive holes created by the Skeleton Cavalry, and they started to attack the players behind the defensive wall.

Other Skeletons climbed up the defensive wall and eerily laughed as they attacked the players on the defensive wall.

In the distance, another massive flood of Skeletons, giving off a massive aura, flooded over.

By now, the commanders had realized that there was no chance of victory for them. However, they didn't forget what their main objective was.

Even if they all died, they needed to at least take down a portion of the Skeletons. By whittling down the Skeletons' numbers, they would be able to stop the Undead Disaster.

The military leaders, people from the School of Military, and those from the Ancient Clans drew their weapons and roared, "Kill!!"

Everyone raised their weapons and roared as they rushed towards the Skeletons.

However, it was only their factions who retaliated. The northern side's factions and the ordinary players started to run, not daring to face off against the Skeletons.

The defensive wall started to crumble in many places, and facing the dauntless disaster-attributed Skeletons, the ordinary players were completely helpless.

Even one on one, the ordinary players found it quite difficult to deal with the Skeletons, and they were outnumbered ten to one. There was simply no way to fight, and seeing the Skeletons continuously slaughtering players, they were completely shaken and only wanted to run.

However, the countless Skeletons showed no mercy and started to chase down these people.

Some directly pierced the players' chests with their claws; others slashed apart players at the waist, causing blood and organs to spill onto the ground. Other players were nailed to the ground by bone spears.

The terrifying Skeleton Cavalry could stab through four or five players at once with their bone spears, turning them into a human kebab.

The countless Skeletons excitedly enjoyed this slaughter while the players continuously howled. Now, the players could only run in terror.

The three resisting factions were way too weak to face the Skeleton army by themselves. As soon as the ocean of black bones rushed forward, all sound from them disappeared in just a moment.

One of the key commanders, a famed General of the military in the real world, was quickly killed by a Skeleton Cavalryman. The Skeleton Cavalry used its bone spear to stab through his head and raised up his corpse as if to announce that the players had lost the battle.

Next, it was time for the Skeletons to hunt down the players who had run away. Zhao Fu also flew over and stood in the air as he watched the Skeletons continuously kill players. The ground was covered with countless corpses, and the ground was stained with blood as the scent of blood and guts filled the air.

Some of the escaping players looked terrified as they pleaded towards Zhao Fu in the sky.

“I was wrong. Please forgive me and spare me!”

“Please, I only did this for a bit of money. I really don’t want to become enemies with Great Qin!”

“I’m willing to surrender. Please don’t kill me. Please let me live.”

Zhao Fu coldly looked at these people – what use was begging for mercy? Zhao Fu had no intention of sparing them, and he continued to watch as they were killed by the Skeletons.

Elsewhere, the battle between the City Lords was drawing to a close. Three City Lords had already been killed, and only one City Lord was left. Facing 28 City Lords, the result was already evident.

This City Lord had been forced into a corner, so he madly roared and prepared to self-detonate. The 28 City Lords were given a big fright – an explosion from a City Lord’s self-detonation wasn’t something just anyone could survive. This was because it also caused their City Lord Seals to explode.

Seeing this, the 28 City Lords quickly flew away.

Clang, clang, clang...

Just as the City Lord was about to self-detonate, the massive sound of chains rang out as chains shot out from the air and pierced through the City Lord’s body.

Immediately, the City Lord died, having been pierced by hundreds of chains. There wasn’t a single part of his body that was left unscathed, and blood dripped down from the air.

The City Lords turned and looked at Zhao Fu in shock.

Chapter 452 - Four City Lords

Zhao Fu ignored their gazes and slowly opened his clenched fist. The chains withdrew from that City Lord’s body, and a white jade-like seal, giving off a faint light, flew out of the City Lord’s corpse.

Killing the City Lord so easily wasn’t a big deal – after all, he had used up most of his strength, and the chains from the God-Sealing Beast had a powerful sealing power and fused with the Dragon-Sealing Well’s chains, making it even more powerful.

Thus, the chains were able to restrict the City Lord from self-detonating and kill him at the same time.

The other City Lords thought that they couldn't stop him, so they had chosen to escape. None of them had expected Zhao Fu to be able to stop him. Just from the aura that the chains gave off, they could tell that those chains were quite extraordinary.

Zhao Fu grabbed at the air, and the City Lord's corpse and jade seal flew over. Zhao Fu looked at the City Lord's corpse and found that it was SSS grade, so he put it into his ring.

Zhao Fu held the jade seal, which was warm to the touch, in his hand, and he could feel the power that it gave off.

[Empty Cry City Seal]: The core item to a City. It has the power to control various things within the city and contains great power.

There was no need to necessarily conquer the City Heart of a City; obtaining the City Lord Seal was equivalent to obtaining the City itself, so Zhao Fu had essentially obtained a system main city.

However, Zhao Fu needed to actually conquer the City Heart before it would actually belong to him.

With the City Lord Seal, Zhao Fu already had all sorts of power. However, because he had killed the City Lord, the residents would most likely retaliate, and it wouldn't be easy to deal with those 100,000 Stage 1 soldiers.

This would be a great obstacle to Great Qin, so Zhao Fu decided to use the Undead Disaster to deal with him. Even though Great Qin wouldn't be able to obtain any people, Great Qin would still be able to obtain a system main city and 100,000 Stage 1 corpses.

After making this decision, Zhao Fu looked at the other City Lords and stretched out his hand.

The other City Lords could only helplessly take out the City Lord Seals and throw them to Zhao Fu. The three City Lord Seals flew over to Zhao Fu – these were the City Lord Seals from the three other City Lords.

After taking these three City Lord Seals, Zhao Fu smiled and put them away.

Even though it was them who had killed the City Lords, they did so under Zhao Fu's orders, so the City Lord Seals belonged to him.

If it wasn't for the City Lord Seals, Zhao Fu had no need for them to kill those four City Lords.

However, if they were willing to continue killing City Lords for him, Zhao Fu could consider giving those four City Lord Seals to them. After all, if that were the case, he would be able to obtain many more City Lord Seals in the future.

Elsewhere, the escaping players had been swallowed up by the boundless Undead army. After resisting momentarily, they were reduced to corpses.

The army of 15 million players was completely annihilated with not a single player surviving. The battlefield was quite gruesome, and 15 million corpses lay strewn across the ground. They were all in different positions, and their expressions were quite different as well. Their weapons were scattered everywhere, and blood covered the ground. The stench of blood seemed to reach to the heavens, and the entire world seemed to go quiet as a result of this chilling scene.

Even though the City Lords had expected the players to lose, seeing this scene, they couldn't help but feel quite startled. There were so many corpses that they went on for as far as the eye could see.

"What are you planning to do with the four main cities?" the woman in white asked Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu didn't hide his intentions and plainly replied, "Of course I'm going to slaughter them all. Only then will I be able to conquer them easily."

Unlike the players, the four system main cities' millions of players would remain dead if they died. Hearing that they would all be slaughtered, all of the City Lords felt quite unwilling to see this.

"You can't do this!" the woman in white said as she glared at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu couldn't help but laugh, "Then tell me how I can easily conquer those system main cities. Don't tell me you want to take those people in; I need to cut the weeds and eliminate the roots in order to prevent future problems."

Hearing Zhao Fu's cold words, the woman in white felt quite angry, but she couldn't find the words to rebut him. Indeed, using the Undead Disaster was the fastest and easiest option.

Suddenly, the woman in white thought of something and said, "You probably need people too – among those people, there will be those who resist, but there will also be those who are willing to submit. If I can convince them to submit, I'm sure that will be fine."

Zhao Fu felt quite surprised – Great Qin indeed needed people, but Zhao Fu believed that there would be great resistance from the system main cities. After all, the residents were all quite loyal, and they would hate him for causing the death of their City Lords.

That was why Zhao Fu had decided to slaughter them all. However, since the woman in white had said that she would do her best to convince them to surrender, Zhao Fu didn't see why he shouldn't let her try.

As such, Zhao Fu nodded and agreed, but he said, "I can give you some time, but don't blame me if you can't convince them within that time."

The woman in white coldly harrumphed and didn't reply to Zhao Fu. She and the three other women from the same region talked together before flying off in four different directions.

Zhao Fu didn't care about the woman in white's attitude, and he dispelled the support-type formation. He took back his Disaster King Ring and ordered his Disaster Cavalry to slow down the advance of the ocean of bones for now.

As for the other City Lords, they remained in the sky around Zhao Fu.

.....

In the real world, this news seemed to explode like a massive bomb. 15 million players were easily slaughtered, causing all of the players and factions to feel incredibly shocked.

15 million players had been slaughtered – just how terrifying, ruthless, and shocking was this?

The entire world seemed to go crazy, and Great Qin's ferocity seemed to reach the heavens, causing all of the factions to fall silent.

Logically, the 15 million players should've been able to take down 60 million Skeletons, but no one could have thought that Great Qin's Undead Disaster would be so horrifying. All of the Skeletons were much more powerful than the ordinary Skeletons that the players were familiar with.

Most of the ordinary players and factions had fled in disorder, which was one of the reasons for this catastrophic loss.

The number of Skeletons that the 15 million players had killed was less than 10% of the ocean of bones, which was far less than what they had wanted. They had spent an astronomical amount of money on consumable items and gathered five regions' worth of players, but they had died so easily. All of the factions felt completely crushed and dispirited.

The disgust and hatred that the Chinese people felt towards Great Qin now turned into terror. Not a single person dared to say anything bad about Great Qin anymore, and it had now turned into a taboo existence.

After hearing about this, Su Yan felt incredibly furious and slammed his fist down on the table. He had underestimated Great Qin and had never thought that the Skeletons would be so powerful. His plan, which he had been completely confident in, had proven to be much less effective.

Chapter 453 - Cleaning Up

If the ordinary players and the useless northern side's factions hadn't turned and ran and had instead fought together with the governmental forces, the Ancient Clan's forces, and School of Military's forces, they wouldn't have lost so pitifully.

At the very least, if they could have destroyed at least 10% of the ocean of bones, that would have been of great help. However, if all the players from five regions had been destroyed so easily, just how were they supposed to fight in the future?

Now, the ocean of bones would be able to easily replenish the number of Skeletons it lost by rampaging through the eighth region, and the 15 million players had essentially died for nothing.

Moreover, many of the players had been completely scared stiff, so even gathering players would be difficult in the future.

What should they do next? Su Yan let out a breath and calmed himself down before considering their next step.

Now that their plan, which they had complete confidence in, had been crushed, all of the factions took a massive blow to morale.

The various Dynasty factions also felt quite bitter. Even though they hadn't sent any people to participate, they had contributed a lot in terms of money and other resources, yet they had still suffered a crushing defeat. In a sense, they had completely lost to Great Qin.

The ten or so elders from the Ancient Clans all sighed, and one of the elders couldn't hold it anymore and said, "What do we now? Even though the plan wasn't a complete failure and at least somewhat suppressed the Undead Disaster, we're wholly unable to destroy the Undead Disaster.

"Moreover, not only are we unable to stop the Undead Disaster, but we also sacrificed a lot and completely offended Great Qin."

Hearing this, another elder asked, "What do you all say we should do? Do we continue trying to stop the Undead Disaster or do we go to the Ying family, apologize, and no longer try to stop Great Qin? If that happens, the rest of China will be ravaged by a great disaster."

Upon thinking about this, all of the elders present felt quite distressed and were unable to immediately make a decision.

Within the Flower Moon's meeting area, 20 or so women sat with depressed looks on their faces. One of the women said, "Big sis, we were completely wrong this time. Even though we had so many people, we were still unable to stop Great Qin. What do we do now?"

The beautiful woman in the main seat shook her head, feeling a massive headache coming on.

None of the other women knew what to say, and the room fell into silence before Su Yuyan said, "Big sis, we should try to negotiate and stop trying to oppose Great Qin. Instead, we should try to help it. With Great Qin's control over the Skeletons, we'll be able to preserve around 60% of our business."

Those words caused some people's eyes to light up, but some asked, "Even if we're willing to negotiate, is Great Qin's Legatee willing? With how bloodthirsty he is, will he really let this matter go? Even if we're willing to pay a high price, he may not agree."

While all of the factions were feeling incredibly worried and dispirited, the Ying family was busy rejoicing. Great Qin's Legatee had just defeated a combined attack from countless factions.

This allowed the Ying family to let out a sigh of relief. When Great Qin's Legatee had stubbornly persisted with the Undead Disaster, the Ying family had suffered great pressure and gone into a defensive state for fear that others would join together to attack them. After all, Great Qin's Legatee was making an enemy out of all of China.

Now, Great Qin's Legatee had stepped on all of their heads, and no faction dared to make a move on the Ying family. Even the governmental faction had to show respect, let alone the other factions.

Back in the Heaven Awaken World, the woman in white stood in the air above a large city and called out, "I'm sure you've all heard the news: your City Lord is dead, and the City Lord Seal has fallen into someone else's hands. The Undead Disaster is about to arrive, and none of you will survive. Right now, you can choose to resist or submit.

“Those who choose to resist – I won’t bother trying to persuade you, but you must know that there is no chance of survival. Just then, 15 million players were slaughtered, so it’s impossible for any of you to come out alive.

“If you’re willing to submit, hurry and leave before the Undead army arrives. This is all I can say; the rest is up to you.”

After the City Lord died, the city sank into a period of grief and chaos because everyone knew that the Undead Disaster was approaching. Staying in the city wasn’t safe – even though the City Heart gave off a protective barrier, it wouldn’t shield any of the residents. Now that the City Lord Seal had fallen into someone else’s hands, he had revoked all of their resident statuses, meaning that they no longer belonged to this town.

What was even worse was that the firm, ten-meter tall city walls had collapsed – Zhao Fu had used the City Lord Seal to cause all of the city’s defensive structures to collapse or lose their effect.

Even though they knew the result would be death, many of the residents were unwilling to leave, and many soldiers were the same. However, some still tried to convince the residents to leave.

“Aunty, you should leave, or it’ll be too late when the Undead army arrives!”

“Little bro! Listen to me and get out of here, or you’ll die with us.”

“Dear, I’m sorry, but I have to stay here. I will only be loyal to our City Lord, and even if I have to die, I’ll stand guard here. However, you have to leave; I hope you’ll be able to live on well.”

“Everyone, please leave and don’t just wait for death here. You’re different from us – we don’t want to break the oath we made to this city, so please leave now.”

Seeing these touching scenes below, the woman in white’s eyes became a bit teary, and she couldn’t help but feel more hateful towards Zhao Fu because all of this had been caused by him.

In the end, some people walked out. It was a pity that only about 100,000 people came out, and there were still 300,000 or so who were unwilling to leave.

The woman in white sighed and didn’t continue to persuade them – to be able to save so many people was already quite good. The ocean of bones was giving off a terrifying aura as it approached from the distance, and the woman in white didn’t hesitate as she took the 100,000 people and left.

A bit later, the countless Skeletons, giving off a shocking aura, flooded towards the main city.

The soldiers and residents took out all kinds of weapons and resigned themselves to death as they rushed up. The battle started quite quickly and also ended quite quickly.

Apart from the 100,000 Stage 1 soldiers who could put up a bit of resistance, everyone else was instantly killed. This wasn’t surprising because they had to face Skeletons with numbers hundreds of times greater than theirs.

After the ocean of bones passed, only corpses remained. Blood and ruin were left in its wake, and the prosperous system main city no longer existed. The scene was quite heroic and sorrowful.

Chapter 454 - Asura Demon Image

Zhao Fu stayed above the countless players' corpses. The players' corpses couldn't be turned into Skeletons, but that didn't mean they didn't have any worth.

Even though these bodies were only their shells within the Heaven Awaken World, they still had cultivation and an aura of life. The aura of life from 15 million players could be used by countless Skeletons as fuel for their evolution, making them even stronger.

Because of these players' aura of life, the Undead army produced a new type of Skeleton – Skeleton Berserker.

The Skeleton Berserkers were four meters tall and had incredibly large and tough bones that gave off a gray glimmer. They held two massive weapons, which were usually large swords, large hatchets, or large hammers, and all of them had extremely powerful auras that could rival a person with a Stage 3 cultivation.

They were incredibly wild and bloodthirsty when they fought, and they had immense destructive power. They annihilated everything in their path and were incredibly terrifying.

However, there weren't many of these Skeleton Berserkers, and within the ocean of bones, there were only a few hundred of them.

By now, all of the Skeletons had already moved on, and only corpses remained in this area. Zhao Fu looked at the corpses and found that because of the countless factions' support, their equipment was quite good, and the value of the items on each of the corpses would be worth five or six gold coins.

Suddenly, Zhao Fu realized something and was dumbfounded by this epiphany – if each corpse had items and equipment worth five or six gold coins, then with 15 million corpses here...

Even if each corpse was worth five gold coins, that would be 75 million gold coins. If this amount of money was converted to copper coins or money in the real world, it would simply be astronomical.

This massive fortune was greater than what Great Qin had by tens of times, and it was impossible for Zhao Fu to refuse such an amount of money.

By now, the four City Lords had used teleportation channels to send the surrendered residents here. Each of the City Lords had convinced around 100,000 people to surrender, so in total, they had brought 400,000 people.

Zhao Fu thought about it and had them immediately start collecting the equipment and items from the corpses. Seeing the corpses all over the place, the 400,000 residents were given a big fright, and they couldn't help but tremble. However, they still obediently followed Zhao Fu's orders and collected equipment and items.

The many City Lords realized what Zhao Fu's aim was, and they felt quite shocked. As City Lords, they couldn't care less about the equipment that a player had, but with so many corpses here, the amount of gold that could be gained from these corpses was hundreds of times more than what they had.

Even City Lords had never seen so much money before, and they couldn't help but feel a bit of admiration and envy. Zhao Fu had not only obtained four system main cities but also so much money as well.

After half a day, the 400,000 people had gathered all of the equipment and items into a massive mountain, and seeing this, the City Lords were dumbfounded.

Out of this mountain, Zhao Fu split out 20 or so piles that were worth one million or so gold coins.

"Everyone, thank you all for your help this time. This is a token of my appreciation," Zhao Fu smiled as he said to the City Lords.

Most of the City Lords only had one million gold coins, and seeing so much money, they felt quite tempted. After thinking about it, they decided not to hold back and placed the equipment into their spatial rings.

Zhao Fu then looked at the four City Lords who had convinced the residents to surrender and said, "Thank you for helping me convince so many people to surrender. These are for you."

Following this, Zhao Fu separated four much larger piles out. These four piles were worth roughly 1.5 million gold coins each.

The City Lords were all quite surprised, and they had never expected Zhao Fu to treat them so well. Before, he had been so domineering and overbearing that they couldn't even raise their heads.

Apart from the woman in white, who coldly harrumphed, the other three City Lords put their piles of equipment away.

Zhao Fu looked at the woman in white but didn't say anything, and he started to put the rest of the equipment into his ring.

Apart from the equipment from the players, there were also great fortunes within the four system main cities. There were at least 400,000 sets of Blue grade equipment, 40,000 sets of Silver grade equipment, and other equipment and items, which would be worth millions of gold coins. However, what was the most important was the system main cities themselves.

Moreover, with the 400,000 Stage 1 corpses and the many high Grade corpses, Zhao Fu wouldn't have to worry about not having corpses to refine for a long time.

There was no need to share the fortunes within the system main cities with the other City Lords. Zhao Fu had already given them a lot of the equipment because he would have had far too much equipment, and since they were operating in a partnership and he would continue to need their help, there was a need to maintain friendly relations.

The attitudes of the City Lords who accepted the equipment naturally became better towards him, but the woman in white still seemed to treat him with contempt.

Zhao Fu understood that she was a good person, so he didn't take her attitude to heart. However, if she did anything that endangered Great Qin, he wouldn't hesitate to kill her.

Zhao Fu once again looked at the countless corpses. Zhao Fu knew of their plan to try to whittle down the Undead Disaster. Because of this, he would naturally replenish and increase its numbers.

By now, two alluring figures had appeared next to Zhao Fu – it was the Black and White Impermanences. Zhao Fu had previously asked them how to increase the Skeletons' strength, and they had been surprised to find that they knew of a forbidden technique.

This forbidden technique was called the Asura Demon Image. Zhao Fu planned to use these 15 million corpses as a sacrifice to open the Asura Gate and summon the Asura Demon Image.

The Black and White Impermanences started to work, using the blood from the corpses to draw out a gigantic blood-red magic formation.

Zhao Fu couldn't understand the blood-red magic formation, but he could feel an aura of evilness and bloodthirstiness from it. Since it was a forbidden technique, it was most likely quite dangerous.

"Are you ready, Your Majesty?" the Black and White Impermanences asked, looking surprisingly serious.

Zhao Fu nodded and went to the center of the magic formation while the Black and White Impermanences stood on either side of the magic formation.

Zhao Fu gathered his King's Power into his finger and slashed his arm, causing his blood to drip into the center of the magic formation. The Black and White Impermanences started to chant, and the auras around their bodies became stronger and stronger and started to become quite strange.

Suddenly, the Black and White Impermanences squatted down and pressed their palms against the blood-red magic formation. A black aura and a white aura respectively entered the formation.

The formation was instantly activated and gave off a bright blood-red light. An extremely evil aura rushed out, causing all of the City Lords to frown. Blood-red runes started to move around within the formation like lizards as the aura that the formation gave off became more and more powerful.

Zhao Fu also pressed his hand on the ground at the center of the formation, causing the ground to shake. He sent all of his power into it as he coldly yelled, "All creatures live in bitterness! All things come to nothing! Killing opens the Asura Gate!"

Chapter 455 - Asura Image

Boom!

Just as Zhao Fu pressed his palm against the blood-red magic formation, a massive explosion rang out, and the formation burst forth with a pillar of intense blood-red light that shot into the sky.

The sky was dyed red, and the redness gradually spread, as did the chilling, evil aura.

The blood-red magic formation on the ground started to spin, and a powerful, formless energy spread out. The surrounding corpses started to melt until they became pools of blood water.

A blood-red ocean started to form as the 15 million players' corpses melted. The blood ocean covered everything within 1,000 kilometers, and the noise that it gave off was simply shocking. The stench of blood could be smelt far from the distance.

At the center of the magic formation, Zhao Fu continued to press his hand against the formation, and his arm continuously bled, causing his blood to enter the magic formation. Suddenly, Zhao Fu once again gathered his power and sent it into the formation.

A muffled sound rang out as a formless wave of energy rippled out, and the blood ocean started to change. The blood water started to spiral, causing the blood ocean to gradually turn into a massive vortex with the magic formation at the center.

Traces of a blood-red aura continuously floated up from the blood ocean and flew towards the magic formation. As the blood-red aura continuously gathered above the magic formation, a terrifying power seemed to be growing.

The sky was completely covered with blood-red light, and that evil and bloodthirsty aura spread to the entire region. Even those in other regions could feel the chilling aura coming from this aura, causing people's hairs to stand on end.

The City Lords standing in the air felt the magic formation growing stronger and stronger and more and more dangerous, making them feel quite uneasy.

All of the City Lords knew that Great Qin was using some terrifying technique and wanted to use the 15 million corpses to summon something horrifying. This definitely wasn't something that ordinary people could deal with.

The blood-red aura above the magic formation became denser and denser and hadn't covered Zhao Fu's body. When the dangerous aura reached its peak as if it was like a volcano about to erupt, Zhao Fu once again yelled, "Six Paths of Reincarnation! Slaughtering all living things! Asura Gate... Open!!"

Boom!!

A shocking explosion shook the sky and earth, and the surrounding 100 or so regions all heard this sound. Everyone turned to look in this direction, feeling a sense of danger.

At the center of the blood ocean, the boundless blood-red aura seemed to be absorbed into the ground, and the vortex of blood water seemed to also be sucked into the ground. Now, the ground turned into a blood-red color and gave off a putrid bloody smell.

At that moment, the weather changed as a wild gale started to blow. Blood-colored lightning descended from the sky as a black, hellish aura rushed out of the ground, giving off a soul-chilling feeling that shocked all of the City Lords.

They almost couldn't help but stop Zhao Fu because whatever Zhao Fu was currently summoning was much too dangerous. Just from its aura alone, they felt incredibly threatened. However, they realized that if they tried to act, they would lose all of their power.

Moreover, they had just received great benefits from Zhao Fu, so they didn't say anything or do anything. Instead, they stayed a bit further away.

A massive, blood-red gate that was 1,000 meters tall and 200 meters wide gradually appeared on the ground. It gave off a horrifying aura and was at the center of the blood-red magic formation.

This blood-red gate seemed to be made out of metal, and either side of the gate had images of Asuras on them. On one side, there were images of female Asuras who were incredibly beautiful and enchanting, while the other side had images of male Asuras who looked evil and ferocious. The gate gave off an ancient, evil, bloodthirsty aura.

Creak...

The blood-red gate started to slowly open as a figure burning with ferocious flames slowly came out of it.

The surroundings became deathly silent, and under this terrifying pressure, the City Lords became incredibly wary.

Finally, a 1,000 meter tall Asura appeared. This Asura looked incredibly savage: It had a mouthful of fangs and had two horns on its head. Its body was tough and muscular, and it had sharp claws and black battle armor. It held a metallic spear, and its body burned with a monstrous demonic flame.

This was the Asura Demon Image, and its power was indeed unimaginably strong. It was like a giant that connected the heavens and the earth, and its aura greatly surpassed the monster-bosses of regions. In fact, all 28 City Lords added together would be weaker than this demon image – no less than what was expected from sacrificing 15 million corpses.

Zhao Fu stood in the air, and when he saw how powerful the Asura Demon Image was, a smile crept on his face. In the distance, the City Lords could feel just how powerful this demon image was, and they could help but feel shocked.

Suddenly, the Asura Demon Image opened its blood-red eyes and waved its hand casually, releasing an immense amount of power that caused a berserk gale, hitting Zhao Fu in the air.

Bang!

Zhao Fu flew out like a sandbag and crashed 1,000 meters away, creating a crater that was dozens of meters wide.

The City Lords all looked quite startled, not expecting the demon image to go out of control and attack the one who had summoned it. By the side, the Black and White Impermanences also looked quite shocked, and they hadn't expected such a thing.

Suddenly, the Asura Demon Image turned its head, and its murderous, blood-red eyes looked at the City Lords. The City Lords quickly released their City Lord Seals, causing an array of lights to fill the area. The sound of the City Lords all releasing their City Lord Seals was simply awe-inspiring.

However, the Asura Demon Image's aura was no weaker than the City Lords combined – in fact, its aura was even stronger than theirs. The sky on the side it was on turned blood-red, while the sky on the City Lords' side became multi-colored.

The Asura Demon Image raised its spear and savagely laugh, not caring about these City Lords as it prepared to attack.

Clang, clang, clang...

The sounds of countless chains moving rang out. Zhao Fu was half-kneeling on the ground with a trace of blood coming out of his lips as he pressed a hand against the ground. Thousands of chains were shooting out of the ground, flying towards the Asura Demon Image, and they quickly wrapped around it.

Zhao Fu hadn't expected the Asura Demon Image to attack so suddenly, so he had been completely defenseless. If he hadn't used his Clan Armament in the nick of time, it was likely that he would've died.

The countless chains firmly wrapped around the Asura Demon Image, and it vigorously struggled in an attempt to break free. Zhao Fu coldly harrumphed and used his Clan Armament's power, causing his body to shine with a massive golden light as a shocking aura exploded out of him.

Zhao Fu's hand pressed down even more firmly against the ground, causing the ground to crack. The countless chains went taut, bringing the Asura Demon Image's massive body to the ground.

Chapter 456 - Devastate the Common People

Even on the ground, the Asura Demon Image was continuously struggling, roaring like a wild beast. However, the countless chains became tighter and tighter, and they started to drag the Asura Demon Image underground.

The Asura Demon Image vigorously struggled, but it was as if its body was sinking into a swamp. It roared reluctantly, and after it had been fully dragged under, everything became peaceful again.

If it wasn't for the fact that Zhao Fu had used his own blood as the core summoning ingredient, he wouldn't have been able to take it down. Even now, he was only able to seal it underground.

The Asura Demon Image had no intelligence and was just like a beast. Its only desire was to kill and destroy.

This Asura Demon Image, which had been summoned using 15 million corpses, was unable to be controlled, and it even tried to kill its summoner, which made this a great failure. However, the Asura Demon Image's power seemed to be quite terrifying.

Seeing that the Asura Demon Image had been sealed, the City Lords all inwardly let out a sigh of relief. Even with so many people, they weren't confident that they would be able to face the Asura Demon Image.

"Please forgive us, Your Majesty," the Black and White Impermanences said as they knelt on the ground, nervously pleading for mercy. Because of them, Zhao Fu had nearly been killed.

Zhao Fu told them to rise and didn't blame them. It was his fault for underestimating the power of a forbidden technique, as he had been overconfident.

“Sir, it’s best not to use something like that in the future. It’s not something of this world,” one of the City Lords said with good intentions to Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu nodded and said to the City Lords, “Now that this situation has been resolved, you may all return to your own regions. If there’s anything, I will send people to let you know.”

After hearing this, all of the City Lords started to leave.

In the end, only the woman in white was left. She looked at Zhao Fu as she asked, “What are you going to use that thing for?”

After seeing just how monstrous the Asura Demon Image was, the woman in white felt quite unsettled. If the person in front of her unleashed its power, it would be no less dangerous than the Undead Disaster.

Zhao Fu looked at her and replied, “I don’t know yet!”

Zhao Fu wanted to use the Asura Demon Image for something because it would be a waste not to use such a terrifying power. However, he didn’t yet know what he would be using it for.

The woman in white coldly harrumphed, “It’s best that you don’t use that power, or you might lose control and result in calamity to yourself and others.”

After speaking, the woman in white turned into a ray of light and disappeared over the horizon.

Zhao Fu watched as the woman in white left. He knew that he had to be extremely careful and couldn’t be careless in the slightest.

Afterward, Zhao Fu summoned over 200,000 soldiers to escort the 400,000 residents back before going to clean up the system main cities.

When Zhao Fu went over, he saw countless ruined buildings and corpses strewn everywhere, but the protective barrier was still protecting the City Hall.

Even a Basic City’s protective barrier was quite difficult to break through, and this was even more so for a Great City – destroying one would take quite some time. The Skeletons were only interested in living creatures, so none of them had bothered to attack the protective barrier.

Zhao Fu took out the City Lord Seal and canceled the protective barrier before walking into the City Hall. He looked at the golden cube hovering in the air and felt quite excited – this was the first system main city that he had obtained.

Zhao Fu walked over, placed his hand on it, and chose to conquer and relocate it as strings of system announcements sounded out.

“System announcement! Congratulations, you have conquered a system main city and obtained 5,000 Achievement Points.”

“System announcement! Because you are a Legatee and conquered a system main city, you have obtained a large amount of this region’s Fate.”

“System announcement! You have relocated a system main city and obtained 820,000 EXP.”

“System announcement! Congratulations, you have obtained 200 War Points.”

The structures around him slowly collapsed, and Zhao Fu took the City Creation Stone and quickly left. He then went to the three other system main cities and chose to conquer and relocate them.

The system announcements were all the same, but there were some other announcements, such as that the Great Qin City had leveled up, a region announcement, and a reward announcement.

“System announcement! Pouring Sun region’s four system main cities have all been conquered and relocated; this region will no longer spawn players.”

Zhao Fu wasn’t the only who heard this; every Chinese person also heard the region announcement.

All of them were quite shocked – Pouring Sun was the region where that shocking battle had erupted. However, none of them could have expected that 15 million players would be slaughtered and for the four system main cities to be unable to escape misfortune either.

Now that Great Qin had obtained four system main cities, its power would become even more terrifying. This caused the countless players to feel even more terrified of Great Qin.

Next was a reward announcement.

“Congratulations, you have conquered a region and obtained a Region Treasure Box as a reward.”

The Region Treasure Box was a golden box that was as big as a palm. There were all sorts of gemstones socketed into it, and one could tell at a glance that it was something incredibly good.

After Zhao Fu opened it, a blinding golden light shot out as a one-meter tall crystal tree appeared. Zhao Fu looked at its information in curiosity:

[Reality Tree]: A tree that contains a great amount of reality power. It can create five Reality Fruits per day. Anyone who eats this fruit will have one’s body completely brought into the Heaven Awaken World. Only aliens of the Heaven Awaken World can consume it.

After consuming a Reality Fruit, one could bring one’s real body into the Heaven Awaken World – this greatly shocked Zhao Fu.

With the Reality Tree, Zhao Fu would be able to ignore all threats in the real world because he would be in a completely different world. How would anyone be able to threaten him? With Great Qin’s power in the Heaven Awaken World, there was no need to fear anyone.

Zhao Fu had always been worried that he was too weak in the real world, and he could be bullied by anyone without being able to retaliate.

Now that he had the Reality Tree, Zhao Fu wouldn’t have to worry about any of these things, so he felt much more relaxed about this.

However, Zhao Fu didn’t plan on fully entering the Heaven Awaken World just yet. There were still many things he wanted to take care of in the real world, and he could obtain all sorts of information.

Moreover, he was the proxy leader of the Ying family and held a lot of power, so he wasn’t in too much danger.

He could use the Reality Fruits in a key moment and have his body enter the Heaven Awaken World, getting rid of all worries for him.

After obtaining this item, Zhao Fu couldn't help but grin. The Reality Tree wouldn't have been very useful to the system factions, but it was of incredible value to him.

Great Qin's soldiers were currently transporting corpses from the ruins and collecting the spoils. There were not only 400,000 Stage 1 corpses but also many S grade corpses and roughly 10,000 A grade corpses.

Chapter 457 - Great Qin Writ

Cough!

After seeing the massive gains that Great Qin had made, Zhao Fu had wanted to laugh, but he suddenly tasted a sweetness in his throat. He coughed up a mouthful of blood. His injuries from just then weren't light at all.

Zhao Fu decided to rest for a few days – he had been working quite hard the past month, and he had remained at the center of the ocean of bones almost every day to protect the Disaster Cavalry. His mind had been incredibly tense, and he hadn't relaxed at all.

Moreover, after destroying the four system main cities and obtaining their City Creation Stones, there would be a lot to take care of, so he decided to return to Great Qin.

Zhao Fu had the Undead army remain in that region for a few days while he returned to Great Qin. He gave the large number of corpses and the countless pieces of equipment to Li Si and Ba Qing to take care of.

He then carefully planted the Reality Tree in a large flower pot. It could grow five Reality Fruits per day, and it was incredibly important to Zhao Fu.

Afterward, Zhao Fu re-established the four system main cities and made Bai Qi, Wei Liao, Wang Jian, and Meng Tian the City Lords. Each of them controlled a City Lord Seal, and he ordered the four of them to go to Pouring Sun to protect the Disaster Cavalry and prevent anything unexpected from happening.

等级:中城 (1884000/3200000)

居民:672950/1640000 士兵111640/442000

Now that the Great Qin Seal had obtained the power of four system main cities, the power it gave off wasn't weaker than a system main city's City Lord Seal's power. The Great Qin City had also become an Intermediate City, so Zhao Fu looked at its new stats:

Village Name: Great Qin City (Epic)

Level: Intermediate (1,884,000/32,000,000)

Village Area: 1,600 square kilometers

Village Territory: 51,800 square kilometers

Residents: 672,950/1,640,000

Military: 111,640/442,000

Popular Support: 85

Village Special Stats: Territory Crop Output +130%, Territory Crop Growing Time -130%, Population Limit +95%, Residents' stats can randomly +9, Soldiers' stats +10%, Population Attraction +115%, chance of attracting higher grade population +115%.

Subsidiary Village Limit: 2,400

Subordinate Villages: Logue Village, Jean Village, Dorun Village, Li Family Village, Wolf Village, Ferocious Tiger Village...

These were the Great Qin City's current stats, and Zhao Fu casually looked through them. He found that there wasn't anything special, so he didn't pay them any great attention.

The only thing that he was excited about was that after obtaining the EXP from conquering and relocating four system main cities, Great Qin's level had rapidly increased, and it was halfway to an Advanced City. This meant that it wasn't too far away from leveling up to a Great City.

Zhao Fu returned to his room and sat cross-legged on his bed. He swallowed a healing medicinal pill and started to work on his injuries as he rested.

Time quickly passed, and it was now in the afternoon. The orange glow of the sun fell into Zhao Fu's room, and Zhao Fu slowly opened his eyes.

Zhao Fu's injuries had been fully healed, and he was also in peak mental condition. All of the weariness from before had been swept away.

Zhao Fu comfortably stretched and got off his bed. He opened his door and was surprised to find that Xianru was waiting outside.

Under the sunset, it seemed as if there was a golden cloth on her body. With her graceful figure and her partially-obscured face under the veil, she seemed extremely beautiful.

"What is it?" Zhao Fu asked.

Xianru smiled as she replied, "Your Majesty, the whole world has heard about the matters at Pouring Sun, and I've come to congratulate Your Majesty."

Hearing this, Zhao Fu lightly laughed, and because he knew that she definitely had something else, he asked, "Alright, let's get down to business."

Xianru understood and slightly lowered her head as she asked, "I wonder what Your Majesty is going to do about the Emperor Phoenix Statue. It has been placed on the Heaven Prayer Platform for a month, but it hasn't received any Phoenix Qi. Your Majesty, it would be a waste to not use such a godly item."

So it was about that matter. Because of the Undead Disaster, Zhao Fu had completely forgotten about this, and after thinking momentarily, Zhao Fu nodded and said, “Come with me!”

Following this, Zhao Fu went to the Meeting Hall and gathered many of his Generals, and he started discussing with them.

Zhao Fu had now changed his attitude towards the ordinary people. Before, he hadn’t wanted to harm ordinary people and only wanted to deal a heavy blow to the powerful families.

However, they had posed a great threat to Great Qin in that battle, and if hundreds of millions of them gathered and were willing to fight to the death, the Undead Disaster would’ve been heavily wounded, if not destroyed.

Zhao Fu could no longer just ignore them, and he had to start dealing with them. Otherwise, if all of the players gathered together, it would be quite difficult for Great Qin to deal with them.

Great Qin currently had the Undead Disaster, but what if it didn’t have the Undead Disaster? How would it face those 15 million players? With Great Qin’s strength, it would be almost impossible to win. What’s more, those 15 million players wouldn’t die true deaths, while Great Qin’s soldiers would remain dead if they died. It simply wouldn’t be a fair battle.

Great Qin was now facing far too many enemies – there weren’t just the countless factions attacking them now but also true empires, kingdoms, and divine nations in the future. Great Qin was still far too weak, and it couldn’t do anything decisive.

Of course, those things were only considerations for the future – right now, the most important thing was the present. After their discussions, Zhao Fu decided to issue a Great Qin Writ.

Those who had a Great Qin Writ could establish a subsidiary faction of Great Qin. Factions with a Great Qin Writ would be acknowledged by Great Qin and wouldn’t be attacked by Great Qin.

Regions with enough Great Qin Writs would be spared from the Undead Disaster, and those regions would be looked on favorably by Great Qin.

Any faction that belonged to Great Qin wouldn’t be attacked, while any other faction that didn’t have a Great Qin Writ would be viewed as Great Qin’s enemies. Wherever the Undead Disaster reached, they would be expelled from system main cities and killed.

Zhao Fu wouldn’t provide any support to these factions because they only belonged to Great Qin in name. It would be impossible for Great Qin to support them with any resources without knowing whether they were truly loyal or not.

Before, Zhao Fu wouldn’t have been able to do such a thing, but because of the Undead Disaster and the battle where they had slaughtered 15 million players, countless people were willing to submit so that they wouldn’t be destroyed by Great Qin. At the same time, Zhao Fu would have them attack the factions that hadn’t submitted.

As the factions with the Great Qin Writs combined with the Undead Disaster attacked the opposing factions, it would lead to a situation where anyone who didn’t submit to Great Qin would die.

Perhaps this would develop a group of loyal players, but it would definitely cause the players to whittle down each other's numbers. That way, Great Qin's obstacles would grow smaller and smaller.

With the Undead Disaster, Great Qin would be able to quickly establish a nation in order to deal with the crisis after the real world was devoured by the Heaven Awaken World. After obtaining the information from God Kerr, Zhao Fu's plans weren't as short-sighted.

He knew what would happen in the future and how terrifying the future was. However, it wasn't time to think of such things – it wasn't even certain whether Great Qin could survive during such a time.

At the same time, under Xianru's recommendation, Great Qin also proclaimed a Holy Daughter Writ.

Chapter 458 - Holy Daughter Writ

The Holy Daughter Writ was for helping Great Qin choose women with Phoenix Qi, and each region had to provide at least ten people. Of course, Great Qin wouldn't reveal its plan of gathering Phoenix Qi, so Zhao Fu couldn't make it too obvious.

Great Qin's conditions were that the women had to be between 12-45 years old, and this age range was quite great. Zhao Fu had originally wanted to set the range from 18-30 years old, and it was best that they were virgins.

However, after some recommendations from Xianru, Zhao Fu realized that he was still thinking like an ordinary person and was still bound by the rules of morality. As an adult and a ruler, his focus should be on benefits – only children talked about right and wrong. As a King, he had to think of Great Qin's benefits first.

Great Qin required Phoenix Qi, so anyone who could provide Phoenix Qi would do. Who cared what later historians would say about him? After all, history was written by the victors.

Apart from the age range, there was also another requirement: the women had to be beautiful, and an extreme beauty at that. The more beautiful a woman was, the more likely that she would have a great amount of Phoenix Qi.

Moreover, each large family had to provide one woman from the main family. This was because most large families had Fate Legacies, and it was likely that women from the main family would have Phoenix Qi.

At the same time, Zhao Fu also wanted to use them as hostages. The large families were far more powerful than ordinary people, so having some way to restrict them would be good.

The family and relatives of anyone who became a Holy Daughter would receive massive benefits. Not only would they belong to Great Qin, but they would also receive protection and support from Great Qin.

Without any benefits, how could anyone be willing to become a Holy Daughter? In the early stages, they had to rely on people giving themselves up voluntarily, but in the later stages, they wouldn't have to go through all this trouble. Great Qin would be able to directly take them through battles. Since the ordinary people dared to fight against Great Qin, Zhao Fu didn't need to care about them either.

Those who became Holy Daughters would essentially be put under house arrest within the court.

As for the nation factions, they wouldn't submit unless they were subdued with great force. However, Great Qin would be even crueler to them because the nation factions were more powerful than the large families. Of course, if they chose to surrender, Great Qin would still treat them well.

After discussing various matters in detail, Great Qin proclaimed the two types of writs. It was as if a massive meteor had fallen into a sea, causing massive waves that shocked the entire world.

"Great Qin's way too overbearing – anyone who doesn't join will die, and he wants all of the regions to give him beautiful women. Only he would dare to do such a thing in the world. Does he really think that he's an Emperor and is already creating a harem?"

"He wants people from 12-45 years old; what's with that massive range? What a piece of crap!"

Now, in addition to ruthless and bloodthirsty, everyone also saw Great Qin's Legatee as domineering and tyrannically licentious.

Now, Great Qin's reputation had completely soured, and even though everyone felt incredibly angry, no one dared to publicly voice this. Although they were angry, they feared Great Qin even more.

Anyone who didn't submit would be massacred – how could they dare to speak? Anyone who tried to speak out against Great Qin would be completely suppressed and wouldn't be treated humanely. After seeing the merciless massacres Great Qin had committed, they realized that Great Qin wasn't kind or merciful and wouldn't spare them.

At that moment, many people started to blame the ordinary people who had participated in the battle at Pouring Sun. Before, it had only been a battle between Great Qin and the factions that were a part of the Qin Resistance Alliance, but now that the ordinary people had joined in, Great Qin had turned its rage to everyone.

Now, everyone had to join Great Qin or would be attacked. If the Undead Disaster came to where they were, they would be expelled from the system main cities and have no hope of surviving.

Under the threat of Great Qin, many people had already submitted. After all that had happened, the northern side's factions no longer felt as confident, and a portion of them wanted to surrender to Great Qin.

The ordinary people all started to think of ways to join Great Qin, whether it was through a Great Qin Writ or through a Holy Daughter Writ. Great Qin required at least ten people from each region, and it didn't make it compulsory but voluntary.

This was because there was no way to force such a thing – some people would rather just commit suicide and respawn in another region. Why would anyone sacrifice one's own body for one's region that one didn't care about?

In the end, during the early phase, Great Qin had to rely on giving out benefits for people to willingly join. After the real world was devoured in the future, they would no longer have the choice.

However, if large families wanted to join, they had to give up a female member of the main family – this was compulsory. Large families weren't like ordinary people, who had relatively few cares, because they had a foundation that Great Qin could threaten. If they didn't want to be destroyed, someone had to sacrifice oneself for the family.

Zhao Fu didn't think too much about this because this was what Xianru had recommended. Zhao Fu believed that there weren't any great downsides to this, and since this was all for Great Qin, he agreed to all of it.

Seeing that Zhao Fu approved of her thoughts, Xianru naturally felt quite happy. This was the sort of ruler she wanted to see – one who wasn't bound by anything because only such a person could establish an unending Dynasty.

Xianru didn't care much about the ordinary people and the large families because they weren't Great Qin's subjects and were obstacles to Great Qin. As such, there was no need to care about their lives; they were merely tools to be used.

After hearing about the two Writs, an important figure from the governmental figure angrily slammed his fist down on the table and said, "Great Qin's Legatee is going out of control. He's too domineering and wants to toy around with countless women. He's simply a tyrant and a dictator; what will happen to the world if it falls into his hands?"

A chubby middle-aged man sighed as he said, "Even so, what can we do? We can whittle down the Undead Disaster's numbers so that it doesn't become too big, but in the end, we're unable to stop it. It'll be difficult to gather so many people again, and what's more, Great Qin has listed us as targets.

"All of our forces in each region will be wiped out, which will result in disastrous losses for us. In the future, our control over the various regions will be far weaker, which will have great ramifications for us."

After hearing him speak, everyone fell silent. A slightly-skinny man couldn't resist and said, "How about we negotiate with Great Qin and preserve a portion of our forces? After the passages between the regions open, it won't be too late to ally together to properly face Great Qin. As soon as the regions are linked, with so many people, we won't have to fear the Undead Disaster."

Chapter 459 – Fate of the World

Everyone nodded, but the problem was when the regions would finally be linked. They couldn't just keep waiting like this, or the Undead Disaster would soon spread throughout all of China's territory. When that time came, even if the regions were opened, they wouldn't have the strength to deal with Great Qin.

They couldn't be hasty in this matter, and the important figures from the governmental factions continued to discuss.

As for the Dynasty and Nation Legatees, they tried to think of ways to resist the Great Qin's two writs. Great Qin's Undead Disaster was already terrifying enough, and without a massive number of ordinary players, they were unable to deal with it at all. They were in an incredibly weak position.

They had no way to negotiate with Great Qin unlike the ordinary factions – after all, their factions couldn't tolerate the existence of each other: Only when one side was destroyed would the other obtain victory. Whoever wanted to unify China would never allow there to be a second nation or empire within one's territory.

As such, the various Dynasty and Nation Legatees couldn't give in or surrender easily, nor would Great Qin spare them. That was the dynamic between them.

Currently, the northern side's factions were just a pile of loose sand that was disorganized and not together. Everyone did what one wanted, and Su Yan couldn't find a way to unite them again.

The Ancient Clans were also discussing Great Qin and felt quite displeased about the two writs it had issued. Not only had Great Qin killed a large number of ordinary players, but it was also dragging everyone into it and forcing everyone to make a decision.

Before, the Undead Disaster only targeted factions, and ordinary players didn't suffer much. Now, everyone was dragged in, and no one could escape.

This was effectively destroying China's foundation, but because Great Qin had been forced to this position, who could blame who?

The Ancient Clans didn't care too much about the Holy Daughter Writ, and this was the same for the Hundred Schools of Thought. After all, Great Qin was just collecting some women, and this was normal for Emperors. In the end, how could these women compare to the fate of the world?

As such, what all of these factions cared about was the Great Qin Writ, and they more or less didn't care about the Holy Daughter Writ.

Many people even guessed that the tenth-ranked pill, the Dragon Sun Pill, had been claimed by Great Qin's Legatee; otherwise, it would be impossible for him to have his way with so many women. This caused many men to feel great admiration towards him.

However, Flower Moon was different in that it didn't care about the Great Qin Writ. Instead, Flower Moon was focused on the Holy Daughter Writ. Flower Moon didn't care too much about the world itself but more so about its own businesses. The Holy Daughter Writ required women to give up their bodies, and this caused Flower Moon's women to feel quite furious.

As an organization made up of women, they believed that women should be the center, not men. They also thought that men should submit to women.

In fact, they even wanted to establish Flower Moon Kingdom, which would be a matriarchy, and women would be superior to men there.

As such, they felt quite furious that Great Qin was seemingly treating women as objects, and they no longer had any thoughts about negotiating with Great Qin.

As the various factions discussed Great Qin's two Writs, Great Qin started to set another plan into motion.

When he had begun the Undead Disaster, Zhao Fu ordered Little Sha and a few other experienced Assassins to continuously train Eternal Night members until there were 30,000 members. Now, it was time to put those people to use.

Zhao Fu felt that he needed to give the people a push to accept the two Writs and cause them to fear Great Qin even more. Only then would they submit easier.

First, Zhao Fu's targets were the four regions close to the eighth region. These four regions and the eighth region had allied together to resist Great Qin, so all of them would suffer because of that.

The eighth region had been completely annihilated, so Zhao Fu now turned his gaze to the four other regions. Before, Zhao Fu had wanted to split the Undead Disaster into four waves to invade the four regions.

However, Zhao Fu was worried that the Undead Disaster's strength would grow too weak. If his enemies once again allied with other regions and ambushed the Undead army, it was likely that Great Qin would lose. As such, Zhao Fu wanted to use the two Writs to reduce their power first.

Most of the people from those four regions had participated in the battle at Pouring Sun, so they were fairly empty. However, there were still new players spawning there.

Because most of the members of the factions from the four regions had died in that battle, the four regions were still quite weak and would be easy to deal with. As such, Zhao Fu gave the order to destroy all remaining factions – without doing things to the extreme, they wouldn't become afraid.

The 30,000 Eternal Night members felt quite excited as this was the first time they had carried out a real mission. They put on their black hoods and equipped their hidden blades, and their eyes beneath their hoods radiated bloodlust and excitement.

Zhao Fu had ordered Little Sha and the other Assassins to develop a group of killing machines, so the training had been extremely cruel. Apparently, hundreds of people had died in the process.

Even though there had been some casualties, Eternal Night had become more powerful overall.

It was a dark night, and there was a cold wind blowing, making it easy to fall asleep. With everyone relaxed, it was the perfect opportunity for some assassinations.

Eternal Night's members arrived at the four regions through teleportation channels and started to execute their plan. Figures continuously appeared on streets and roofs as they waited.

Currently, it was completely silent within the system main cities, and there weren't any soldiers patrolling. This was because after hearing about the miserable outcome of Pouring Sun, the City Lords were all too eager to negotiate with Zhao Fu.

When Zhao Fu came to find them, they didn't hesitate to agree to his terms because if they didn't agree, their outcome would be the same as Pouring Sun's. With their strength, how could they defeat 32 City Lords?

Now that Zhao Fu had conquered four system main cities, he had made four of his subordinates City Lords, so he had 32 City Lords under his command. If they didn't agree, each of them would have to fight eight City Lords.

For Zhao Fu's side of the contract, he promised that he wouldn't attack anyone from the system faction, but he could kill any players within the system main cities. This meant that Great Qin could kill people on the streets without anyone stepping in – with Great Qin's strength, even City Lords had to submit. Such a thing would have been impossible before.

With the system main city's tacit acceptance, Great Qin could do essentially whatever it wanted within system main cities. Great Qin's Assassins directly went into the streets and buildings and started to kill.

Pitiful cries sounded out in the night as the stench of blood spread everywhere. The system main cities were covered by an oppressive and dangerous atmosphere, and people didn't dare to venture outdoors.

These factions were still in a weak state, and because they didn't have many people yet, it was very easy for Great Qin's Assassins to destroy a faction.

Chapter 460 - Respawning Privilege

Zhao Fu didn't plan to show any mercy to the governmental faction, the Ancient Clans, the Hundred Schools of Thought, or Flower Moon. They had helped a lot in that battle, and he hadn't even sought revenge for the incident with the Chaos Imperial Star.

They had come to attack Great Qin time and time again. If he didn't show them who was boss, they would continue doing this without any fear.

Because these factions were discussing Great Qin's two Writs, they hadn't expected Great Qin to suddenly attack, and they responded with panic and terror.

Great Qin's Assassins didn't hold back and stabbed their hidden blades into their targets' throats, ending their lives and completing their first blood refining.

Within the governmental faction's headquarters, a handsome young man holding a saber fought against five of Great Qin's Assassins, but he was starting to be forced back. His body was covered with wounds, and he yelled, "Who are you? Why are you attacking us? Do you know just who we are?"

Ordinary people didn't dare to offend the governmental faction, and the governmental faction wasn't weak either. The lives of those who offended the governmental faction would become miserable in the real world.

No one answered him, and a small, skinny figure suddenly attacked. A blood-red light flashed as a long gash was cut open on the young man's chest, causing him to powerlessly fall to the ground. However, he didn't die and still had a trace of life left in him.

Little Sha had attacked incredibly accurately and precisely, and he emotionlessly looked at the young man on the ground before saying to the people next to him, "Take him away!"

They obeyed, bounding the young man and feeding him a few healing medicinal pills. This young man was the son of an important figure in the governmental faction. He had a high status, so Zhao Fu ordered that such people weren't to be killed because he had plans for them.

Within the Ancient Clans' headquarters, a valiant young man stabbed towards Tuoba Qing vigorously with his spear. Tuoba Qing yelled as she swung her large sword, sending out a blood-red wind that knocked the young man flying and caused him to faint.

Within the School of Military's headquarters, a soldierly-looking young man lay within a pool of blood. Wang Ergou calmly said to the people next to him, "Take him away and treat his wounds."

"Yes, sir!" Great Qin's Assassins obeyed and took the young man's body before quickly leaving.

Within Flower Moon's headquarters, a beautiful woman heard the fighting outside and immediately realized that things were bad. Just as she tried to leave the Heaven Awaken World, she found that she was already in a battle state and was unable to leave.

She didn't know what faction was attacking them, but now that Great Qin had issued those Writs, any faction that wasn't part of Great Qin was in danger.

Currently, there weren't many people within Flower Moon's headquarters, so they were wholly unable to defend against the ferocious faction. The woman wisely decided to go to the back door and try to escape.

However, just as she stepped outside, she saw an enchanting-looking woman smiling as she stood there. Just as she was about to move, Liu Mei's body suddenly flickered before appearing before her. She punched the woman's abdomen, and the massive power that the punch contained caused the woman to lose all of her strength. Following this, she was also taken away by a few Assassins.

After that night, a shocking piece of news spread throughout the world – countless factions within four regions had been destroyed overnight. In fact, many innocent people had been killed, and blood stained the system main cities. Players' corpses were all over the place, and it seemed that the system main cities didn't even care about the players being killed on the streets. It could be seen just how arrogant Great Qin had become.

The governmental faction, the Ancient Clans, Flower Moon, and the other factions had immediately found out about their forces being destroyed, making them feel incredibly startled and furious.

Great Qin had shown absolutely no mercy and annihilated their forces – it was evident what its attitude towards them was. It would no longer show any mercy, and Great Qin's coldness and bloodthirstiness forced them to take Great Qin completely seriously.

This was because from now on, Great Qin wouldn't hold back against them, and if they dared to do anything, it wouldn't hesitate to slaughter them all.

What shocked them even more was that after the people with high statuses were taken away by Great Qin in the Heaven Awaken World, their bodies in the real world also disappeared.

This shocked countless people, and they couldn't understand what had happened – their disappearance in the real world most likely had something to do with Great Qin, but they had no idea just how Great Qin had done it.

Great Qin didn't hide anything either, and it announced that it had a way to take people from the real world into the Heaven Awaken World. Whether the six people they had taken from the real world into the Heaven Awaken World would stay alive depended on the performance of their respective factions.

This caused everyone in the world to feel incredibly shocked. If Great Qin really had such a monstrous card up its sleeve, this meant that players were no longer safe within the Heaven Awaken World, and their respawning privilege was in danger.

Now that Great Qin had such a method, it became tens of times more dangerous. The countless factions weren't the only ones truly terrified of Great Qin now; ordinary people were truly terrified of Great Qin as well.

Now, who dared to say anything about Great Qin? No one dared to offend Great Qin anymore because it could lead to a real death. Who didn't fear death?

Now, all of the factions truly started to fear Great Qin because losing to it meant a true death. After dying, who would still have any more opportunities?

Under the threat of death, the countless factions felt incredibly terrified and understood how weak they were. They no longer dared to fight against Great Qin anymore, and they started to submit to the Writs that Great Qin had issued. These factions didn't dare to fight anymore, so the ordinary people too followed suit.

The Great Qin Writ and Holy Daughter Writ quickly spread more and more. People started to ask how to obtain the Great Qin Writ because the requirements weren't as stringent as the Holy Daughter Writ, which required the person to be exceptionally beautiful.

In fact, Holy Daughter Writs could be used in the same manner as Great Qin Writs, as factions with Holy Daughter Writs would also belong to Great Qin. However, this required them to give up a woman who fulfilled the requirements.

Factions with a Holy Daughter Writ would also receive some support from Great Qin, while those with just a Great Qin Writ wouldn't receive any and wouldn't be valued as much as those with Holy Daughter Writs.

Zhao Fu wanted to give out as many Great Qin Writs as possible, so he didn't set any stringent requirements.

After fulfilling all of the requirements, a faction could go to the Ying family to claim a Great Qin Writ, and that faction would be acknowledged by Great Qin. This caused all sorts of factions from all over China to head to the Ying family.

Seeing the massive amount of strength that Great Qin had demonstrated, even some foreign factions came to obtain Great Qin Writs because after Great Qin swept through China, they would be next.

Now, there were mountains and seas of people in front of the Ying family's residence, and no Legatee could stop them. Great Qin's name once again returned to the peak, and it seemed even more terrifying.