

The Lord 681

Chapter 681: Angel's Wings

The sudden turn in events caused everyone to feel quite shocked. As Zhao Fu flew towards the rainbow orb, a massive explosion sounded out.

The rainbow orb floated upwards, shining down on the ground like a rainbow sun. The entire region was dyed rainbow, and countless people looked at the rainbow or in confusion.

After reaching a certain height, an ear-piercing twisting sound could be heard coming from the sky.

The sky seemed to be twisting as a boundless heavenly might descended. Everyone felt their bodies sink, and they felt as if their souls fell into a deep abyss. In front of this power, they were all like tiny grains of sand.

A terrifying aura of death spread throughout everyone's hearts as they looked up at the sky in surprise. Their bodies slightly trembled. This included not only the people on the platform but also those still on the stairs; all felt this terrifying power.

Just what had happened on that platform? The people on the stairs wondered.

The countless people on the platform were also quite shocked. They had been waiting for the World Protector to descend, but who would have thought that Great Qin's Legatee would be the World Protector?

Since Great Qin's Legatee was the World Protector, this coming trial would be incredibly difficult. Everyone felt that the trial had suddenly been upgraded to Hell Grade. However, those who had failed already felt quite fortunate and did not have to worry, as they had already failed and would not have to participate in this trial.

The ones who were truly worried were the 50 people who were about to face this trial. They all knew what they were about to face.

The gigantic rainbow orb gradually spread out, turning into countless rainbow butterflies of light. Countless resplendent motes of light fell down from their bodies, creating an incredibly beautiful scene.

However, no one was in the mood to appreciate this beautiful scenery. The figure within the orb of light was gradually revealed – he had an incredibly beautiful face that rivaled the face of a woman and long black hair that went down to his legs. He wore rainbow robes and had cold, blood-red eyes that were devoid of emotions.

Zhao Fu's current appearance was very different to his normal appearance – normally, Zhao Fu was handsome and still within the scope for men in terms of prettiness. Now, he was purely beautiful.

After seeing what Great Qin's Legatee looked like, everyone felt quite shocked. Some of the men felt quite allured, while some of the women felt quite jealous.

Many of the rainbow butterflies of light flew around Zhao Fu, while he looked down at everyone. He now understood what was going on and why he did not have to go through the trial – it was because he was the World Protector.

Now, it was time to test the others. According to the rules, he had to act fairly and could not show mercy to anyone.

“Are you all... ready?” Zhao Fu's voice sounded out like thunder, shaking everyone's souls.

The 50 people below all looked incredibly serious as they made preparations.

Seeing this, Zhao Fu domineeringly smiled as he grabbed at the air, causing a rainbow sword to appear in his hand. He pointed the sword to the sky, causing the surroundings to change as if they had suddenly been transported into another world.

The sky was blood-red colored, and there was a blood-red crescent moon in the sky, giving off a cold moonlight. Everyone was standing on lush, green grass, and even though there seemed to be life all around them, there was an aura of silence and deathliness.

Zhao Fu's smile did not change, and he suddenly turned into a ray of light and shot down towards the people below.

Immediately, everyone felt quite startled. Tina Pendragon quickly shouted for everyone to disperse, and everyone quickly spread out.

Boom!!

It was as if a meteorite had smashed into the ground, and a shockwave that was almost corporeal rippled out, annihilating the ground around it. Countless rocks flew about in all directions with immense force, enough to pierce through bones.

Tina Pendragon gripped her golden sword with both hands and blocked in front of her, forming a semi-circular barrier, blocking the flying rocks. Si Ji stretched out his hand, causing a violet dragon-inscription barrier to appear. It seemed that he also had King's Power, and everyone else used their various techniques to defend as well.

Shing!!

A clear sword hum sounded out as a massive sword wind slashed through the surroundings. The rocks and dust in the air were immediately cleared, and the massive sword wind caused some of the weaker people to be pushed back a step.

After the dust cleared, everyone could see Zhao Fu at the center of the crater. Looking at Zhao Fu, all of them felt a sense of despair.

Zhao Fu looked at Tina Pendragon, smiled, and said, "Come Let me experience Tina Pendragon's legendary power!"

In the next second, Zhao Fu appeared before Tina Pendragon, his rainbow sword giving off an aura that seemed to be able to destroy everything. The space around it seemed to collapse as it slashed towards Tina Pendragon.

"Hah!!"

Understanding how terrifying Zhao Fu's attack was, Tina Pendragon cried out and exploded out with all of her strength. The ground beneath her cracked as a few golden arcs of lightning appeared around her. The golden sword in her hand gave off a brilliant light and gave off a shocking amount of power.

As Zhao Fu's sword descended, Tina Pendragon also slashed out, causing the two swords to clash together.

Boom!!

A massive explosion sounded out as two massive energies collided. A wave of light rippled out, destroying everything within 1,000 meters.

Tina Pendragon's body slid back ten or so meters before stopping. A trace of blood leaked out of her lips, and her expression was extremely serious. She gripped her sword with both hands as she stared at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu lightly smiled and prepared to attack again when suddenly, a massive arm smashed towards Zhao Fu.

Akhenaten had also acted – he had used his power to create a ten or so meter tall sand giant to attack Zhao Fu. Their task was to defeat Zhao Fu, and since Tina Pendragon had powerful support skills, if she was immediately defeated, it would be incredibly hard to take down Zhao Fu.

Sensing the massive arm, Zhao Fu disdainfully waved his hand, causing an arc of light to flash out, slashing through the massive arm and causing it to turn back into sand.

“Roarr!!” At that moment, a violet dragon roared as it smashed towards Zhao Fu with immense force. Si Ji had also started to attack.

Zhao Fu treated this attack condescendingly – he had just attacked with his sword, so he stretched out his hand, causing a rainbow-colored semi-circular barrier to appear. The violet dragon crashed against the barrier before turning into countless traces of violet aura and disappearing.

Whoosh!!

A white spear of light tore through the air, bringing with it an intense heat as it shot towards Zhao Fu. A pair of angel's wings appeared on Geoffrey's back as he also started to attack.

Zhao Fu spun and slashed out with his sword, hitting the spear of light. The spear of light exploded into countless motes of light with a bang. Right after defending this attack, more attacks rained down on Zhao Fu – with how many people they had, it was quite troublesome to defend.

Chapter 682: Attack Together

“Everyone, attack together! He can't defend against all of us!”

Seeing that Zhao Fu was having a hard time defending against the many attacks, someone cried out in joy.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Everyone else understood and unleashed their various attacks towards Zhao Fu. Sword lights, saber lights, fireballs, and spears of light all inundated Zhao Fu's body.

A mad barrage landed, causing massive sounds to ring out. The ground collapsed by ten or so meters – it could be seen just how intense and rapid everyone's attacks were. After this barrage, everyone panted as they looked at the dust-filled center.

Nü Lü did not attack, as she could not bring herself to attack him.

Before the trial had started, Zhao Fu had told her to attack him with her full strength, to not hold back, and to not help him. After becoming the World Protector, he could not hold back against anyone. If they could pass this trial, that would be a great opportunity for them; if they could not, that would be their fate. He had to be absolutely fair in this trial.

Right now, Zhao Fu could only attack with his full strength and could not treat anyone differently.

Even though Zhao Fu had said this to her, Nü Lü could not bring herself to attack her husband. Seeing Zhao Fu being madly attacked, she felt quite worried.

However, it turned out that her worry was unnecessary. After the dust cleared, Zhao Fu stood at the center of the massive crater with a rainbow barrier around him, looking completely fine. Even though everyone had madly attacked, they could not even break through Zhao Fu's barrier.

Looking at the people around him, Zhao Fu coldly laughed and said, "Is that all the strength you have?"

Everyone felt incredibly helpless, and their expressions dimmed. Despite sending out so many attacks, they were unable to harm him even a bit. However, they were not ordinary people, and their gazes quickly became resolute.

Zhao Fu coldly harrumphed before starting to attack again. There were too many of them, and dealing with them one by one would be quite difficult. As such, Zhao Fu decided to unleash a big attack. He raised the rainbow sword and sent the world's source energy into it, causing it to give off a blinding sword light and turning it into a ten or so meter long sword of light.

An aura of destructive burst forth, and waves of sword qi shot out, causing everyone to feel a chill within their hearts and for their hairs to stand on end.

Boom!!

Zhao Fu slashed out with the rainbow sword, causing a terrifying sword wind to sweep out like a mega cyclone. It was incredibly sharp, and wherever it passed, it would shave four or five meters off from the ground.

After seeing such a terrifying attack, everyone sent all of their energy into defending, bringing up energy barriers. However, that massive sword wind was completely unstoppable, shattering many energy barriers and sending many people flying like leaves.

After the sword wind passed, everything within 10,000 meters had been completely annihilated; all rocks and grass had been destroyed, and there were long sword gashes on the ground.

Only ten or so people were left out of the 50 people. The others were covered with blood and lay on the platform, causing others to feel quite shocked.

Nü Lü had also given up because that terrifying power was not something that she could defend against. In order to not make trouble for Zhao Fu, she could only give up.

The remaining people all had looks of despair and terror in their eyes. They felt incredibly bitter – that one attack had instantly defeated dozens of people, and with only these few people left, how could they continue to fight? They didn't have the power to resist at all, and if Zhao Fu unleashed another attack like that, they would all die here.

Great Qin's Legatee's power was simply too monstrous. With all of their power combined, they could not even break his defenses; this fight was doomed to end with their loss. This final trial was simply too difficult.

Zhao Fu stood in the air with rainbow butterflies of light flying around him. Looking at the people coughing up blood on the ground, he smiled and said, "That's all the power you have? You don't have even a trace of hope in defeating me; you can continue to endure this terror and death!"

"Hahaha..." Zhao Fu started to laugh as he held the extended rainbow sword, causing rays of rainbow sword light to shoot out and gather above Zhao Fu, forming a terrifying rainbow flying sword.

The expressions of the ten or so people fell, as they could sense the terrifying shockwaves from the rainbow flying sword. They gritted their teeth and stood their ground.

Tina Pendragons' hair was a mess, and her silver-white knight's dress was stained with mud. She gripped her golden sword with both hands and stared at Zhao Fu. Even though she did not want to admit it, she, who had never felt fear towards anyone before, felt a trace of terror towards Great Qin's Legatee.

Tina Pendragon deeply breathed in and wiped away that trace of fear before yelling loudly and exploding out with all of her power. The golden sword in her hand once again gave off a resplendent light, bringing with it shocking power.

Boom!!

At that moment, Zhao Fu also attacked. The flying sword condensed from the rainbow sword light tore through the air before landing on the ground, giving off a heaven-shaking explosion. The surroundings became white and were completely obliterated.

A 10,000-meter wide crater appeared, and of the ten or so people, only eight remained. They were the eight Legatees, and they were all on the ground, looking heavily injured.

Blood leaked out of Tina Pendragons' lips as she lay against a boulder. Her body was covered with blood, dyeing her knight's dress red and making her look incredibly wretched.

Zhao Fu felt quite surprised – that was one of his most powerful attacks, and it should have been able to kill everyone, so why had these eight survived?

Just as Zhao Fu was feeling quite confused, he realized that there was a strange energy protecting the eight of them, and Zhao Fu received a system announcement, making him feel quite troubled. The world's consciousness wanted to use Zhao Fu to abuse the eight of them to awaken their powers, which was the power of the Earth Realm Mark.

As for the method, the more humiliating and crueler, the better. Zhao Fu felt like he had become a tool of the world's consciousness, and he would draw much hatred from these eight people. However, given the benefits offered to him by the world's consciousness, he still agreed.

Zhao Fu dispersed his rainbow sword and came before Tina Pendragon, mocking her as he said, "This is the power of the Pendragon family? What a joke!"

Tina Pendragon was not enraged by these words and looked at Zhao Fu as she replied, "I'm inferior to you, and I have nothing to say. You can do what you want, but please, don't humiliate me!"

"Hahaha..." Zhao Fu wildly laughed, "This isn't humiliation because the eight of you are just weak chickens. Right now, I can destroy all of you with just a single finger. Don't you think you're all trash?"

Hearing Zhao Fu's wild laughter and mocking words, the others all felt quite infuriated, especially the prideful Oleg. He roared and wanted to get up to battle with Zhao Fu and wipe away his shame – he would rather die than be humiliated.

However, in the next moment, Zhao Fu appeared before him and stepped on his head as he laughed, saying, "I remember that you said that Chinese people were lowly and inferior! Who's inferior now? Let alone China, do you think Russia can compare to Great Qin? Remember just how lowly you are!"

Chapter 683: Overflowing Killing Intent

Zhao Fu stepped on Oleg's head while humiliating him, making Oleg feel so angry that he wanted to die. He continuously struggled, shouting that he would kill Zhao Fu. However, he was unable to move at all and felt so humiliated that he could die.

Everyone else started to feel even more fear. It seemed that not only was Great Qin's Legatee cruel, ruthless, and lascivious, but he was also incredibly evil and would even humiliate his enemies.

Zhao Fu started to get bored of humiliating Oleg, so he kicked him to the side. At that moment, the world's consciousness gave him a system announcement, stating that this was far from enough and that he had to unlock the powers deep within their souls.

Following this, the world's consciousness offered to do this itself. Zhao Fu did not mind as long as he received his rewards. As long as his identity as the World Protector remained, allowing him to reign above the eight Legatees, he would be satisfied. There would also be even better rewards, making Zhao Fu smile with joy.

Before, he had been worried that he was not one of the eight Legatees, but the world's consciousness had already chosen him to be the World Protector.

Now, it had even prepared rewards for Zhao Fu, which he would receive after the trial ended. Zhao Fu felt that the world's consciousness was simply too good to him!

Zhao Fu smiled as he wondered what sort of rewards he would receive, while the eight people on the ground sank into illusions.

The eight Legatees did not know they were within illusions – Tina Pendragon calmly watched as Zhao Fu walked over, waiting for him to kill her before being kicked out of the trial. She had failed this trial, but she would work even harder and surpass Great Qin's Legatee.

However, Zhao Fu walked over to her and grabbed her cheeks before lowering his head to kiss her. His tongue entered her mouth, moving around vigorously as he also grabbed her breasts and started to barbarically take off her knight's dress.

Tina Pendragon had not expected this at all, and she started to desperately struggle. She instinctively felt quite afraid and was no longer as resolute and brave.

That ugly and disgusting thing continuously violated her, and Tina Pendragon had never felt so terrified and helpless before, causing tears to flow out of her eyes.

“The world’s consciousness gave me the special authority to punish everyone who failed the trial,” Zhao Fu said as he cruelly smiled at Akhenaten.

“Friends and family are things that make people the weakest; you don’t need them,” Zhao Fu said as he started to slaughter Akhenaten’s family. Akhenaten screamed, vowing to kill Zhao Fu.

“Si Ji, as the Legatee of the first Dynasty of China, you can’t even measure up to 10% of me; you’re simply a piece of trash. Now that you’ve failed this trial, Great Xia’s Legacy has given up on you; who told you to be so weak?” Zhao Fu said as he mocked Si Ji.

Following this, Si Ji was shocked to find that he had received a system announcement stating that he had lost his status as a Legatee and that he was nothing now.

Zhao Fu laughed as he chopped off a cute-looking little girl’s head and threw it to Geoffrey’s side, saying mockingly, “You believe in the light? What a joke! It’s all fake nonsense. I’ll kill as many people as I want; can you do anything to stop me? Can your god do anything to stop me? Your god is just a pile of crap.”

Geoffrey’s heart was filled with fury, and he exploded out with all of his strength as he rushed toward Zhao Fu. However, he was still easily defeated by Zhao Fu, and he could only watch as he slaughtered the people in front of him and mocked his beliefs.

This was the first time that Geoffrey had felt so helpless before. He could not do anything to stop Zhao Fu’s slaughter and mocking.

“Lowly slave, are you trying to retaliate?” Zhao Fu said disdainfully as he stepped on Oleg’s head.

Oleg was furious and tried to resist, but Zhao Fu pressed his head tightly against the ground. Following this, Zhao Fu pulled down his pants and started to piss on Oleg’s head, making him angry to the point that he could die. With how prideful he was, this was even worse than being cut by tens of thousands of knives. However, he could not resist and could only continue to be humiliated by Zhao Fu.

“Babilon! Is this your little sister? She looks very cute!”

Zhao Fu lewdly stretched out his tongue and licked a little girl on the face, causing her to cry in fear.

Seeing the person he cared most about being treated like this, Babilon’s expression became savage and he roared, “Let her go, or I’ll definitely kill you!”

“Hahaha...” Zhao Fu wildly laughed, “You think you can kill me? Do you still not understand the situation? Don’t blame me; you can only blame yourself for being too weak to the point that you can’t protect the people important to you!”

The Zhao Fu in the illusion started to violate Babilon’s little sister right before his eyes, causing him to madly howl.

“Are you alright? I’m so sorry, I couldn’t control my body just then, which was why I did those things,” Zhao Fu said as he gently helped Masanori Hano up.

Masanori Hano’s face went red as she looked at Zhao Fu’s handsome, yet beautiful face, and her heart rate sped up as she lightly shook her head.

“Thank you!” Zhao Fu said as he lightly smiled.

Masanori Hano’s face was completely red as she mustered up her courage and said in a small voice, “It’s alright! I know you’re not that sort of person, and there must have been some reason for you to become like that. I’ve often heard of you in Japan, and I’ve wanted to meet you all this time!”

“Really?” Zhao Fu smiled as he took Masanori Hano’s hand in his own, “I’ve heard about you too!”

Masanori Hano’s face became even redder, and she became at a loss for words. Even though she looked incredibly bewitching, she was still a pure young woman.

Following this, the two of them started to talk intimately, and Masanori Hano started to feel that she truly loved Zhao Fu. She couldn't help but confess to him under the tree they were laying against, but suddenly, a sharp knife pierced through her heart.

Zhao Fu coldly smiled as he said, "Do you really think that I'd fall for you? I was just toying with you! Don't tell me you really believed it?"

Masanori Hano's tears continuously flowed as she looked at Zhao Fu while her life ebbed away.

Zhao Fu bit into Ramis' flesh, munching on it as blood flowed out of his mouth, making Zhao Fu look especially savage. "Your flesh is quite delicious!"

Ramis desperately struggled with an expression of terror as a chunk of his leg was bitten off by Zhao Fu.

"Ahhhhh..." Ramis howled in fear and pain as he watched as his body was bitten off bit by bit by Zhao Fu. He had never felt so terrified and helpless before, and he nearly went mad.

Outside of the illusions, Zhao Fu stood as he looked at the eight unconscious people, feeling quite impatient. Would they be able to awaken the power of the Earth Realm Mark? Right now, Zhao Fu was feeling quite excited about what his rewards for becoming the World Protector would be.

"Ahhhh..." Screams sounded out, and Zhao Fu felt quite startled and moved a bit away. He saw blood-red light rising up from the eight people's bodies, which turned into blood-red pillars of light that shot up into the sky. The eight Legatees slowly opened their eyes, looking at Zhao Fu with overflowing killing intent, making him feel quite confused.

Chapter 684: Second Round

Eight rainbow-colored runes that gave off a mysterious light rose up from the eight Legatees' foreheads as they gave off an incredibly terrifying aura. Their auras were tens of times more powerful than before, and the air seemed to solidify under their pressure.

Their eyes were all blood-red, and Zhao Fu wondered what they had experienced, as their eyes were filled with only hatred and killing intent as if they had irreconcilable hatred with Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu did not understand what was going on – didn't he just mock them a bit? Why did they hate him so much?

Moreover, now that they had all awoken the Earth Realm Mark's power, did that mean that his task was complete? However, Zhao Fu did not receive a system announcement, making him have a bad feeling.

"I'll kill you!" the first to attack was Masanori Hano, who cried out with a voice filled with pain and hatred. She grabbed at the air, causing countless traces of devil qi to rush out and form a halberd. She swung it, causing it to tear through the air, and a massive pillar of devil qi smashed towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu's pupils constricted, as he could tell how terrifying this attack was. He stretched out his hand, and a rainbow barrier covered his body. As the pillar of devil qi crashed against the rainbow barrier, it gave a muffled explosion, and Zhao Fu could feel the solid rainbow barrier trembling.

Following this, the devil qi rippled out, covering the surrounding 100 meters and obscuring everyone's vision.

"You piece of trash!" A roar suddenly sounded out from Zhao Fu's side as Babilon held a saber and stared at Zhao Fu before sending out a boundless wave of saber qi towards the barrier.

Crack!

A clear, cracking sound sounded out as a few cracks appeared on the incredibly solid rainbow barrier. This rainbow barrier had previously defended against the combined attacks of 50 people without any problems at all.

"Great Qin's Legatee! I'll have you repay the humiliation I suffered a hundredfold!" Another cry sounded out as Oleg's handsome face became distorted in fury as he rushed forwards like a bolt of lightning with his spear. He had no regard for his own safety and seemed completely fixated on killing Zhao Fu.

Crack!!

Another clear cracking sound could be heard as the spear gave off an immense piercing energy and slammed against the rainbow barrier, causing a few more cracks to form.

“True Sword of Justice!” someone yelled, causing Zhao Fu to feel quite startled. Tina Pendragon’s eyes were incredibly cold, giving off dense killing intent, as she raised her golden, glowing sword with both hands. She then ferociously slashed it down towards Zhao Fu.

A massive golden sword light, giving off an energy that seemed to be able to slash through everything, flashed out, causing everyone’s hairs to stand on end.

Crack!!

The rainbow barrier shattered like glass, and there was also a sword gash that was hundreds of meters long on the ground. Zhao Fu felt quite shocked, but luckily, he had leaned to the side, or else his body would have been split apart by this attack.

Suddenly, another figure appeared above Zhao Fu – Si Ji gripped his violet sword as he slashed down towards Zhao Fu. This sudden attack startled Zhao Fu, but he grabbed at the air, causing the rainbow sword to instantly form, after which he slashed out.

Clang!!

The two swords collided, resulting in a massive clanging noise. Si Ji looked at Zhao Fu with eyes full of hatred and roared, “Great Qin’s Legatee, do you really think I’m inferior to you? Today, I’ll kill you to prove myself!”

Si Ji gritted his teeth as he used all of his strength to press down against Zhao Fu’s sword.

Zhao Fu coldly harrumphed and gripped the rainbow sword as he vigorously slashed out, sending Si Ji flying. However, Zhao Fu was once again surprised to sense a spear light that gave off a white, burning energy, stabbing towards his back.

He turned and saw Geoffrey with a pair of angel’s wings on his back, giving off white light. He was holding a white spear of light, his face a mask of fury as he roared, “I’ll purify you, you demon!”

Zhao Fu hurriedly spun and sent out an arc of sword light towards Geoffrey. The sword light and spear light collided, resulting in an explosion that sent out shockwaves in all directions.

“I’ll kill you!!” a voice twisted with pain and terror sounded out as Ramis swung an iron club down at Zhao Fu, giving off a massive whooshing sound and forcing Zhao Fu to dodge to the side.

“Skreeeee!!” A massive black bird ferociously dove at Zhao Fu while he was still dodging, so he could only use the rainbow sword to block in front of him.

Bang!!

Zhao Fu’s body slid back by ten or so meters before he stopped, leaving two tracks on the ground. After receiving this attack, a trace of blood leaked out of Zhao Fu’s mouth.

Akhenaten glared at Zhao Fu in hatred and anger, saying, “I’ll take revenge for them today; you deserve to die a thousand times!”

Zhao Fu’s expression became cold as he wiped away the blood from his lips. He looked at the eight maddened people and wondered why they hated him so much. After thinking about it, he realized that it was most likely because of whatever the world’s consciousness had done.

The eight people ferociously attacked, and seeing this, Zhao Fu coldly harrumphed and decided to use his full power, or else he would be killed here.

They all possessed the power of the Earth Realm Mark, and Zhao Fu had it as well. A round mark appeared on the back of his hand, giving off a resplendent light. Zhao Fu pointed the rainbow sword toward the sky as he roared, causing a rainbow pillar of light to shoot into the sky.

Within the pillar of light, Zhao Fu’s aura rose, causing a terrifying might to descend and making it seem as if the whole world was shaking.

Boom! Boom! Boom!!

Massive explosions rocked the heavens and the earth. No matter how strong Zhao Fu was, the eight Legatees did not show any signs of backing down, seeming as if they were willing to die to take down Zhao Fu. They once again began to unleash their powerful attacks.

Facing so many terrifying attacks, Zhao Fu raised the rainbow sword and slashed out horizontally, sending out a 1,000-meter long crescent that collided with the eight Legatees' attacks.

Boom!!

A shocking explosion sounded out, and even the people below felt an immense feeling of fear.

Even though they could not see just what was happening, just from these shockwaves, they could understand just how intense their battle was.

Many people had witnessed Great Qin's Legatee's power, which had been powerful enough to instantly kill dozens of people. These people, who were at the peak of the world, were like ants in front of him, and they had been unable to retaliate at all.

However, the eight Legatees had received some sort of power and were now able to fight on almost equal grounds with the World Protector, Great Qin's Legatee. The others couldn't help but feel admiration towards the eight Legatees and fear towards Great Qin's Legatee.

Nü Lü's expression became quite anxious as she started to worry for Zhao Fu.

Back at the battlefield, a 10,000-meter wide crater had appeared, and it was dozens of meters deep. That massive collision had resulted in a massive explosion, and the eight Legatees had all been blasted back by the shockwave, traces of blood leaking out of their lips.

Chapter 685: Legend

"Hah!!" Masanori Hano cried out as she attacked first, gripping her halberd as she flew forwards, her hatred towards Zhao Fu as high as possible. The hatred she felt was as if Zhao Fu had killed her a hundred times, and it had been engraved on her heart.

Everyone else also rushed together, their blood-red eyes staring at Zhao Fu as if they were trying to kill him with their stares alone.

Seeing the eight Legatees charging at him, Zhao Fu decided to act first. If these people attacked together, Zhao Fu would be in a very disadvantageous position.

Zhao Fu swept out with his sword, causing sword gashes to appear on the ground as countless traces of sword qi formed a massive sword wind that rushed towards the eight people.

At the front, Masanori Hano swiped out with her halberd, sending out a crescent that cut apart a portion of the sword wind. She darted through that area and stabbed her halberd towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu leaned to the side, while his sword gave off a shocking sword light and slashed towards Masanori Hano in response. This terrifying attack caused Masanori Hano to feel a chill in her heart, and she quickly withdrew her halberd and used it to block in front of her.

Clang!!

A metallic clanging sound rang out as sparks flew everywhere, and Masanori Hano was forced back five or six meters.

“Roarrrr!!”

A massive roar sounded out as Akhenaten’s jet-black staff, socketed with gems, released a massive sphinx. The sphinx gave off a mighty aura as it flew towards Zhao Fu, opening its mouth as it ferociously bit at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu coldly shouted as he raised the rainbow sword and vigorously stabbed forwards, causing countless rainbow sword qi to flow out like a river towards the sphinx. The sharp sword qi instantly blew up the sphinx into countless shards.

“True Sword of Promise!”

Another cry sounded out from Zhao Fu’s side, causing a cold feeling to spread throughout his heart. He turned to see Tina Pendragon raising her golden sword with both hands, slashing down with immense force. A blinding golden light, bringing with it an aura that seemed to be able to destroy anything, flew towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu did not have the time to block, so he could only grip the rainbow sword with both hands and try to block.

Bang!!

A heavy sound rang out as Zhao Fu was blasted flying backward. He stabbed the sword into the ground to steady himself as he coughed up a mouthful of blood. He looked up at Tina Pendragon – this woman was extraordinarily powerful.

Whoosh!

In the air, Geoffrey vigorously threw out another white spear of light. The spear of light gave off a burning light and left behind a trail of light as it flew through the air, and it arrived before Zhao Fu in an instant.

Zhao Fu was greatly startled and he hurriedly dove to the side. The spear of light smashed into the ground where he had been, its massive energy causing a ten or so meter wide crater to appear.

Bang!

A deafening explosion sounded out, and Ramis had somehow appeared beside Zhao Fu and swung his iron club towards Zhao Fu's head.

Zhao Fu was unable to respond in time at all, so he could only bear this attack. As the iron club hit his head, Zhao Fu felt a wave of dizziness as blood leaked out of his head. However, it was worth it to receive this attack.

Zhao Fu gripped Ramis' club with one hand, which greatly startled Ramis. He tried to pull his club away, but Zhao Fu would not give him this opportunity. His rainbow sword stabbed forwards, through Ramis' chest, causing blood to fly everywhere.

“Hah!!” Si Ji roared violet dragon ferociously charged at Zhao Fu. Zhao Fu pulled the rainbow sword out of Ramis' chest and spun to the side, while Ramis' corpse powerlessly fell to the ground.

After dealing with Ramis, who was the weakest, Zhao Fu felt a bit less pressure.

Ramis' death caused the seven other people to become even more maddened. Oleg howled as his spear gave off a blinding spear light as he rushed at Zhao Fu.

In response, Zhao Fu powerfully slashed out, sending out a massive sword wind that forced Oleg back.

Chi!

Babilon swung his curved saber, which gave off a bright saber light as it slashed across Zhao Fu's back, leaving a 30-centimeter long gash. At that moment, Zhao Fu's expression became ferocious, and he reversed his grip on his sword before he swung backward.

Blood spurted everywhere as a head flew high into the air, and Babilon's headless corpse fell to the ground.

Zhao Fu could not stand very steadily, and he almost crashed to the ground. His back was stained red with blood, and now that these eight people had gone berserk, they would not be so easy to deal with.

However, now that he had dealt with another one, there were only six of them to face now. The pressure he felt once again decreased.

After another person died, the six remaining Legatees' eyes became even redder, and they became even more berserk. Their hatred towards Zhao Fu would make anyone else feel terrified, as they quite resembled demons at this point.

Boom!!

Blood-red flames rose up out of Oleg's body as a powerful aura exploded out. His expression became savage, and his eyes gave off blood-red light as he roared, "Great Qin's Legatee!"

Bang!

Oleg's feet tapped off the ground, causing the ground to crack. His body sped forwards like an arrow as he rushed at Zhao Fu.

Feeling how terrifying the power emanating from Oleg was, Zhao Fu's expression became serious. He held the rainbow sword with both hands as he also roared, causing his tendons to bulge as he sent all of his power into the rainbow sword. Upon this, the rainbow sword gave off a brilliant sword light.

Boom!!

Just as Oleg reached Zhao Fu, Zhao Fu slashed out a terrifying strike that seemed to be able to tear apart space itself. The massive sword light flashed forwards, inundating everything in its path.

After unleashing this attack, Zhao Fu stabbed the rainbow sword into the ground as he powerlessly half-knelt and coughed up a mouthful of blood.

In front of him, there was now a 10,000 meter long, hundreds of meters wide ravine. The sides of the ravine were completely smooth, and they extended quite far down.

After Oleg's body had been inundated by the sword light, he had been completely obliterated. At the same time, this strike reached Akhenaten as well. He had been preparing to attack, but he had suddenly been hit by that sword light, causing him to fall to the ground.

Akhenaten felt quite unwilling to just die like this, and tears leaked out of his eyes. Thinking about how Zhao Fu had killed his family and friends, he was filled with hatred and screamed, "I beg you all, kill him!!"

After giving this final cry, he died in reluctance and pain.

Ramis, Babilon, Oleg, and Akhenaten had all died, leaving only four Legatees.

Akhenaten's final cry caused the remaining four Legatees to reach the peak of their madness. Blood-red flames rose up from their bodies, and the rainbow-colored runes on their foreheads gave off incredibly resplendent light, giving them even more terrifying power.

"Legend: Obliterating All Evils!"

Geoffrey opened up eight blood-red wings, giving off boundless blood-red light and making him seem like a little blood-red sun. As he yelled this, the entire world seemed to tremble.

At that moment, the fatigued Zhao Fu's expression fell, as he felt his body and soul being squeezed by the world to the point that they felt like bursting.

Chapter 686: Sword of Promise

The massive pain caused Zhao Fu to continuously roar, and traces of blood appeared all over his body. Zhao Fu had used up most of his strength by now, and the massive power had squeezed Zhao Fu into a ball.

“Arghhh!!” Just as Zhao Fu was about to explode, he cried out in pain, and the Earth Realm Mark on the back of his hand gave off a bright rainbow light, and a rune appeared on Zhao Fu's forehead.

This rune was quite unique, and it seemed to be formed from many different runes. It gave off a mysterious aura.

Shing!!

A clear sword's hum sounded out, and everyone saw a sword light that seemed to tear through the sky. That terrifying power caused everyone in the Trial Space to feel as if they had dropped into icy water, and their bodies and souls trembled.

Just what had happened? Why was their battle so terrifying? By now, everyone could see just how monstrous this battle was.

The countless people on the stairs could not understand what was happening, but they were all incredibly curious and afraid. They wanted to see just what was happening, but it was a pity that they were too weak to reach the top.

Back at the top, the blood-red sun in the sky was sliced apart by the sword, and Geoffrey was split in two from head to bottom, causing him to fall from the sky.

Another Legatee had died!

Despite being completely maddened, the remaining three Legatees knew just how terrifying Zhao Fu was. Zhao Fu was currently standing in the air with a rainbow flame around him, causing his clothes and hair to flutter. His eyes were completely blood-red, and he was no longer holding an incorporeal rainbow sword but a crystal sword.

“Roar, roar, roar...” nine dragon roars sounded out as Si Ji raised his sword and sent the remainder of his power into the sword, unleashing his most powerful attack. Nine violet dragons, which had violet qi surrounding them, gave off a shocking amount of power as they rushed towards Zhao Fu in the air.

Facing the nine violet dragons, Zhao Fu casually swept out with his sword, causing a massive sword arc to tear through the sky. The nine violet dragons were instantly destroyed, turning into countless traces of violet qi.

Si Ji’s body seemed to have been cut into pieces by countless swords, and he turned into a pile of distorted flesh.

“Ahh!” Masanori Hano yelled as she rushed at Zhao Fu, unleashing her final attack.

However, just as she stabbed out with her halberd, it was grabbed by Zhao Fu with one hand. Following this, her body was pierced by his sword, and she looked at Zhao Fu as tears streamed out of her eyes.

Zhao Fu icily pulled the sword out, causing Masanori Hano’s corpse to powerlessly fall to the ground. Currently, Zhao Fu’s power was going somewhat out of control.

Finally, it was only Tina Pendragon and Zhao Fu, facing off against each other in the air. Both of them gave off an incredibly terrifying aura as if two worlds were colliding.

“I’ll never forgive you! I’m going to take revenge for them!” Tears could be seen in Tina Pendragon’s eyes as she looked at Zhao Fu, and she slowly raised the golden sword. The world seemed to fall silent as a golden sword light covered the entire heavens and earth, and an incredibly destructive aura spread out.

“True Sword of Promise!” Tina Pendragon screamed as the golden sword gave off a brilliant light and slashed out. Cracks appeared in the space around it as time seemed to slow down – this sword seemed to split the heavens and earth in two.

Chi!

A piercing sound could be heard as the crystal sword stabbed through Tina Pendragons’ heart from behind. Following this, Zhao Fu coldly withdrew the sword from Tina Pendragon’s body.

Tina Pendragon’s tears, which she had been holding back the entire time, finally streamed out. She turned with great difficulty to look at Zhao Fu before her body fell downwards.

After opening her eyes again, Tina Pendragon was standing on the platform. She felt quite surprised – hadn’t she been killed by Zhao Fu? Why was she here? After those memories flowed into her mind, her expression became quite complicated.

The expressions of the seven other Legatees were also quite complicated. They realized that everything they had experienced had just been an illusion and that it was not Zhao Fu who had done any of those things to them.

Clang!

The sky seemed to be shattered as a terrifying sound rang out, and a monstrous aura descended like a flood.

Zhao Fu looked at the eight Legatees and once again raised the crystal sword in his hand. His consciousness was a bit hazy, and after seeing them again, his first instinct was to kill them.

The crystal sword gave off destructive ripples, and everyone’s expressions fell, despair once again engulfing their hearts. Tina Pendragon could not help but cry out, “Great Qin’s Legatee, everything from before was a misunderstanding. I apologize for my rudeness before!”

Tina Pendragon did not apologize because she was afraid but because she was in the wrong.

However, Zhao Fu did not seem to hear her and continued to prepare to attack. Everyone else's expressions were quite bitter as they took out their weapons, not feeling good about their chances at all.

However, a ray of white light suddenly descended from the sky, landing on Zhao Fu's body. In that moment, Zhao Fu's World Protector power disappeared, and he regained consciousness. He immediately put on his black cloak as he returned to his normal form.

Seeing that Zhao Fu's terrifying power had disappeared, everyone let out a sigh of relief. After seeing Zhao Fu put on his black cloak, everyone realized why he normally cloaked himself – he was simply too beautiful, which Zhao Fu could not explain.

After he returned to the ground, Nü Lü leapt into his embrace and asked caringly, “Are you alright, lord husband?”

Zhao Fu lightly laughed and looked at his body. The injuries he had received seemed to have been illusions, and he was completely fine, so he replied, “I'm alright!”

Seeing this intimate scene in front of her, Masanori Hano felt quite complicated and felt weirdly uncomfortable.

“System announcement! The Trial Festival has concluded, and the challengers have failed the final trial. The rewards will be given out!”

Hearing that they had failed the final trial, countless people sighed. However, there was nothing they could do about this – Great Qin's Legatee was simply too powerful and terrifying.

Following this, rays of white light fell on everyone's bodies. Countless people felt their bodies being bathed in the warm light, and their hearts felt quite warm and comfortable.

Their bodies started to disappear, and soon, Zhao Fu reappeared in the Heaven Awaken World.

The three women also appeared by Zhao Fu's side. Nü Lü was still intimately hugging Zhao Fu's arm, Xianru's aura had become a bit stronger, and Gao Li's face was bright red. Thinking about the trial, her body had a slight reaction.

Zhao Fu looked at the rewards from this trial, and he couldn't help but grin. He had received the World Protector status, which placed him above the eight Legatees. At the same time, he could use the world's source energy, which was incredibly terrifying – it was even more powerful than what Zhao Fu had used earlier.

However, he could not casually use the world's source energy. He could only use it when the world faced destruction or when there was an incredibly important event. Also, he could not use it on people from the same world; there were many restrictions.

Chapter 687: Qin Emperor Bloodline

Zhao Fu's bloodline had also increased to a Level 17 Sovereign Bloodline from a Level 16 bloodline. With the world's source energy, Zhao Fu's bloodline had gone up another level.

Even more importantly, Zhao Fu's Heaven Murder Bloodline and Great Qin Bloodline had perfectly fused. At the start, he had two types of bloodlines. Even though they were both incredibly pure, they could not be fused as they were two separate bloodlines, making it so that he could not fuse the powers of his bloodlines or use the purest powers of his bloodlines.

Now that they had fully fused, Zhao Fu's power became even purer than before. His bloodline could be called the Great Qin Bloodline as well as the Heaven Murder Bloodline – the two of them had become a new bloodline.

However, Great Qin was Zhao Fu's root, so Zhao Fu would still lean towards Great Qin. Even though the Heaven Murder Empire was quite powerful, it did not have much of a connection to Zhao Fu.

On the other hand, Zhao Fu's relationship with Great Qin was incredibly tight – whether it was in terms of Legacy, bloodline, or ideology, it was impossible to separate him from Great Qin. Zhao Fu felt that he liked Great Qin much more because he understood it, so he decided to call this new bloodline the Qin Emperor Bloodline.

In actuality, Zhao Fu now had three types of bloodlines.

The first was from when he had obtained King's Power, giving him the King's Profession and the Royal Bloodline. What's more, it was an Early Stage Royal Bloodline, which was even more prestigious and purer than the Ying family's bloodline.

The second was the God-Killer Bloodline, which he had obtained from killing a god, Kerr, and it greatly countered ordinary godly spirits.

The third was the Heaven Murder Bloodline, which Zhao Fu understood to be an extremely terrifying bloodline. It was of an even higher grade than the Royal Bloodline and God-Killer Bloodline.

What made Zhao Fu even more excited was that his King's Power had evolved into Emperor's Power. Before, Zhao Fu had been quite short-sighted and had thought that King's Power was the most powerful type of power. After all, one could only obtain King's Power by establishing a nation and becoming a king.

However, now that Zhao Fu had personally seen how vast and terrifying the Heaven Awaken World was, King's Power was not as amazing anymore. However, it was still quite a rare power, as only one out of a few hundred million people would have it.

Now, Zhao Fu had seen greater things, so he was not as moved by King's Power. Now that he had Emperor's Power, he was delirious with joy.

This was because normally, Emperor's Power would be something that could only be gained after establishing an empire, and it far surpassed what a King would have. An Emperor's authority far outstripped a King's authority.

The kingdoms in the Heaven Awaken World were split into Baronies, Marquisates, Dukedoms, Royal Kingdoms, Imperial Kingdoms, Empires, and Holy Empires. There were nine levels for each of them, and given that only Empires could have Sovereign Bloodlines, Zhao Fu was already far ahead of others.

Even the Devil Horn Empire, which was the greatest threat right now, was only a Level 1 Dukedom, so their bloodline level would definitely be lower than Zhao Fu's bloodline. However, the other side had a mighty military, so their overall strength was quite powerful.

Based on the information he had from god Kerr, Zhao Fu was the only person with Emperor's Power without having even established a nation. What's more, Zhao Fu's current bloodline was an Early Stage Emperor Bloodline.

Apart from the bloodline, Zhao Fu also obtained a pet. This pet's grade was higher than the 4 Guardian Beasts, and it reached World Grade. A world could only create one such creature, and even within the Heaven Awaken World, such a creature was incredibly rare.

This pet had not hatched yet, and it was still an egg. Following this, Zhao Fu took out the egg.

The egg was about as big as a fist and oval-shaped. It gave off a rainbow light and looked extremely beautiful. The egg already gave off some might and a vigorous aura of life.

[World-Cleansing Butterfly]: Grade: World, Description: A World Beast created by a world that contains the world's power. An extremely terrifying creature.

Zhao Fu made a cut on his hand, allowing blood to drip down onto the egg. He was not sure how long it would take this egg to hatch, but he knew that he had to use his blood. That way, after it hatched, it would be intimately connected to him and would be completely loyal to him.

The other eight eggs would also be hatched with this sort of method.

Looking at the egg absorbing his blood, a trace of a smile appeared on Zhao Fu's face, and he put away the World-Cleansing Butterfly egg.

After the Trial Festival concluded, everyone received many rewards. Most people's bloodlines became purer, and their stats and powers became stronger as well.

Afterward, Zhao Fu heard about some of the things that the women who had gone in with him had obtained. Nü Lü had refined her own Five Rainbow Divine Stone, Xianru had obtained a Five Elements Spirit Talisman, and Gao Li's bloodline had been upgraded. Gao Li had also obtained a powerful piece of equipment.

Following the conclusion of the Trial Festival, Zhao Fu once again gathered his army and started to clear out regions. Because the Trial Festival had used up so much time, Great Qin needed to move faster. Great Qin's gears once again started to turn, and they began to clear out regions while constructing the Inner Great Wall again.

Afterward, news about what had happened during the final trial started to spread. Countless people did not know how to react after hearing that Great Qin's Legatee had become the World Protector, something that was above even the eight Legatees.

Everyone was extremely shocked, but they had all had some premonitions after Great Qin's Legatee had not been one of the eight Legatees. Since that was the case, it was possible that there was a higher position – how could Great Qin's Legatee be so ordinary? Just from the things he had done already, he had far surpassed Tina Pendragon.

Right now, they all felt quite uncomfortable – Great Qin's Legatee seemed to be invincible. No one could shake his position, and everyone before him felt much weaker. They all felt immense despair as if they were weighed down by a mountain.

The ones who were happiest were the Chinese. Of course, this was only for the factions that had no ambitions to rule. Since they did not have lofty ambitions, they just wanted China to become more powerful and for China to stand at the peak of the world. They would get a sense of pride from that.

However, many factions felt an immense threat, and they once again considered how to suppress Great Qin.

The people who had been mocking China all fell silent, and even Oleg was humbled. He was incredibly arrogant, and after becoming one of the eight Legatees, he had become delirious with pride. The words he had said made people angry to the point that they could die, and now that he had been taught a lesson by Zhao Fu, he did not dare to act like before.

At the same time, many people ran to the Ying family, wanting to make a connection and deepen their relationship with Great Qin. Great Qin's Legatee was now indisputably the most powerful person in the world. Everyone had heard about how he had singlehandedly taken down the eight Legatees.

Great Qin's Legatee was now as unmoveable as a big mountain.

Many people also started to send beauties to Great Qin. The Ying family did not bother with ordinary beauties, and only the peerlessly beautiful women could enter the Ying family and become Great Qin's Legatee's concubines.

Chapter 688: Level 4 Great City

The Jiangnan's Yang family, which was the family of Yang Yuhuan, originally wanted to send Yang Yuyan to the Ying family so that they could join Great Qin.

Out of the ten top beauties, only Wu Qingniang and Yang Yuyan had not joined a Legatee. If Yang Yuyan had gone to the Ying family, only Wu Qingniang would have been left.

However, Yang Yuyan did not go to the Ying family and instead went to Great Tang's Li family. It said that there was a relationship between her and Great Tang's Legatee, which was why she had become Li Baiqing's woman. This had greatly infuriated the Yang family, but since things had already progressed like this, they could not refuse.

After all, Great Tang was also a powerful Dynasty and joining it was not bad either. Of course, it could not compare to Great Qin, but they could only accept things as they were, or they would not be able to join either Great Tang or Great Qin.

Zhao Fu did not care about this, as he was fully focused on Great Qin's development. Another five days later, Great Qin's clearing once again caused the Great Qin City to level up.

They were still about 70 million EXP away from leveling up into a Level 5 Great City, which was a True Main City. After that, it would become a Capital City. This made Zhao Fu feel a bit excited, as Great Qin had taken another step towards restoring the Great Qin Empire.

Also, the State of Wei and Northern Qi had both become Basic Cities. Because they had both submitted to Great Qin, they had lots of autonomy.

Zhao Fu allowed them to develop by themselves, and the EXP they gained went to their own cities. Zhao Fu did not take any, so they were able to level up quickly. Great Qin had obtained another two cities and had two more historical figures.

However, they were both only S grade, so Zhao Fu did not bring them back to Great Qin and left them with their masters.

At the same time, Great Shun and the State of Zheng, which Great Qin had conquered, had both become Advanced Towns. Zhao Fu planned to level them up because the EXP required to level up was not much, so it would be quite easy to level them up.

They both had Legacies, so their City Lord Seals would be much more powerful than ordinary City Lord Seals. Because of this, it was worth spending some resources here.

Zhao Fu opening his eyes in the real world, he found that there was a woman lying beside him, smiling as she looked at him. Zhao Fu also smiled as he said, “Qingniang, since when did you have the time to come here?”

Before, Zhao Fu had allowed Wu Qingniang to come here without asking for permission, which was why she could be here right now.

Wu Qingniang propped up her head with one hand while gently stroking Zhao Fu’s face with the other as she said, “Of course it’s because I miss you! It’s been so long, but you don’t even miss me; every time, it’s me coming to find you!”

Zhao Fu awkwardly replied, “I’m sorry!”

Wu Qingniang lightly harrumphed but still forgave Zhao Fu before saying seriously, “Zhao Fu, I’ve obtained an Advanced Boundary Medallion. Do you want to come to where I am?”

Hearing this, Zhao Fu felt quite confused and asked, “Why?”

Wu Qingniang sighed, and her expression became dim as a slight look of fear appeared in her eyes. “During the Trial Festival, I personally saw Great Qin’s Legatee, and I realized how terrifying and ruthless he is. I’m afraid that he’ll kill you after using you. After all, you also have King’s Fate, so he might doubt you. Normally, Emperors kill all those who they doubt.

“However, I’m different – your King’s Fate will instead help me, and I’ll completely trust you. You won’t have to worry about me doing anything to you!”

Zhao Fu bitterly smiled – he was Great Qin’s Legatee, so how could he join the State of Zhou? Seeing how serious Wu Qingniang seemed, Zhao Fu did not know how to reply.

Seeing Zhao Fu hesitate, Wu Qingniang understood that he had his reservations, so she could only sigh and say, “Just be careful of Great Qin’s Legatee; I’ll welcome you at any time!”

Hearing this, Zhao Fu earnestly nodded.

After saying this, Wu Qingniang felt much less worried. She smiled as she pressed Zhao Fu down beneath her and kissed him with her red lips. Their tongues intertwined as their body temperatures rose, after which they both lost control.

Looking at Wu Qingniang riding on top of him like a cavalrywoman, Zhao Fu stroked her face and said, "Qingniang, you don't need to be so intense for your first time!"

Wu Qingniang's face was quite red as she lightly harrumphed and said, "I like it this way!"

Wu Qingniang did not know why, but Zhao Fu's body gave her an immensely pleasant feeling. She had not planned on doing it with Zhao Fu, but she had lost control – this was because of Zhao Fu's Six Desires Demonic Qi, which could come with Zhao Fu to the real world.

Hearing these noises, Zheng Yuqin, who was cooking outside, couldn't help but walk over. They were quite bold, doing such a thing without even closing the door.

Zheng Yuqin looked at the two of them, and her face became red as her heart rate sped up. Her body also had a reaction, and she couldn't help but lean against a wall as her hand stretched into her underwear.

A few hours later, Wu Qingniang powerlessly lay on Zhao Fu's body as she panted, while Zhao Fu smiled as he hugged her.

They did not say anything and simply cuddled. At that moment, Zhao Fu decided to tell Wu Qingniang about the things outside of the Legacy Land and said that he could help her. Now that Wu Qingniang had become his woman, he also accepted her within his heart.

Wu Qingniang's face immediately paled – if this news spread, it would definitely shake the entire world. She immediately understood the gravity of the situation.

This was definitely one of Great Qin's greatest secrets, and hearing that Zhao Fu was willing to help her, Wu Qingniang couldn't help but kiss Zhao Fu before putting on her clothes.

Looking at Wu Qingniang, Zhao Fu asked, "Are you in that big of a hurry?"

Wu Qingniang rolled her eyes as she said, “Of course I’m in a hurry after hearing about such a big thing. I need to quickly go and prepare, or else I won’t be able to survive this disaster.”

Zhao Fu understood, so he nodded and also started to put on his clothes.

Following this, Wu Qingniang left, and Zhao Fu walked out of the room. Seeing the food Zheng Yuqin had made, he smiled. After what had happened between them, things had become a bit awkward, but after Zhao Fu had sincerely apologized, Zheng Yuqin decided to stay. Her complexion was quite good, and it became rosier each passing day.

Chapter 689: Autumn Again

Zhao Fu did not see Zheng Yuqin and did not mind too much. He spent most of his time in the Heaven Awaken World and came back intermittently, so it was not too strange for him to not see Zheng Yuqin while he was back.

Zhao Fu sat down at the table and started to eat. Even though the food that the Ying family’s people brought him was better, the food that Zheng Yuqin made gave Zhao Fu a sense of familiarity.

After eating, Zhao Fu still had not seen Zheng Yuqin, so he decided to once again enter the Heaven Awaken World.

Seeing that Zhao Fu had returned to his room, Zheng Yuqin walked out with a bright red face, silently cursing inwardly. She had fantasized about doing that kind of thing with Zhao Fu again, even though she had decided not to think about those things anymore. However, after thinking about the scene with Zhao Fu and Wu Qingniang, she couldn’t help but press her legs against each other.

After returning to the Heaven Awaken World, Great Qin was still in a period of peace. Great Qin continued to clear out the regions while constructing the Inner Great Wall.

Zhao Fu did not need to worry about clearing out the regions, but he needed to personally go and look at the construction of the Inner Great Wall. This was because many places were quite dangerous, such as cliffs.

The bricks they were using were special bricks that were one meter long and half a meter tall. They were easier to set up than smaller bricks, and they were stronger as well.

If this was in the real world, the construction would have taken at least ten or so years. The transportation alone was incredibly difficult, as there were no roads or cars, and they needed to move everything manually.

Moreover, they did not have enough people for construction, and those who were working were already working extremely hard.

Zhao Fu threw all of Great Qin's resources into clearing out regions and constructing the Inner Great Wall. He also thought of many ways to construct the Inner Great Wall more efficiently, so the speed at which they were constructing was dozens of times faster than it would be in the real world.

Time seemed to pass incredibly quickly because of how busy they were. The hot Summer quickly passed, and then the leaves began to turn yellow – it was about to be Autumn again.

Zhao Fu stood on a tall building and looked at the scenery before him. He felt that time was passing incredibly quickly – the previous year's Autumn seemed to have just been yesterday. Autumns had always been a bit sad, and Zhao Fu couldn't help but feel a bit melancholic.

In the past few months, Great Qin had finally cleared out 18 regions and completed this monumental task. Great Qin's strength had once again grown monstrously.

Great Qin's population had risen to 106 million people, and they now had 16 million soldiers. There were about ten million Stage 1 soldiers, 300,000 Stage 2 soldiers, and 10,000 Stage 3 soldiers.

They had 86 Great Cities, 15 Cities, 68 Towns, and 5,989 Villages.

The thing that increased the most was the number of Villages, and they had twice as many as before. Next was the number of Towns, which had also increased quite quickly. Next were the Cities – with the help of Great Qin, Great Shun and the State of Zheng had also become Basic Cities, and Zhao Fu had also conquered an Orc City.

After Great Shun and the State of Zheng had become Basic Cities, they had each gained a historical figure, but their Grades were too low and were not very famous.

Because neither of them had surrendered, they had been destroyed by Zhao Fu, and their Legacies had been taken by Great Qin. As such, he did not treat them like the State of Wei and the State of Qi. Because of this, he took all of the items and people back to Great Qin.

Moreover, Great Qin now had 225 Wyverns. There were 192 Wyverns that could fight, which could be put to use.

However, unless there was a grave emergency, Zhao Fu was not planning to use the Wyverns. They were Great Qin's trump card and could greatly turn the tides of a battle. As such, it was better to hide them and use them suddenly to create monstrous results.

They had also obtained 4,000 or so Corpse Soul Soldiers and around 100 Corpse Soul Commanders. The Corpse Soul Blood Lake had not been established for very long, so they had not yet developed many of them.

However, their strength was quite monstrous – an ordinary Stage 3 soldier could destroy 200 or so Stage 1 soldiers, while Corpse Soul Soldiers with Talisman Equipment would be able to destroy 300 or so Stage 1 soldiers.

Of course, in the face of a massive army, the Corpse Soul Soldiers would not be of too much use. When a massive ocean of soldiers attacked, 300 Corpse Soul Soldiers would not be able to do much. However, if Zhao Fu had 10,000 Corpse Soul Soldiers, he could have them face 1 million Stage 1 soldiers.

Moreover, there was the Talisman Equipment. Great Qin now had four million sets of Talisman Equipment, which could equip four million soldiers. These Talisman Equipment sets could rival a set of trash Gold grade equipment and greatly boosted soldiers' strength. This caused Great Qin's army to become vastly more powerful.

However, as Great Qin's army became more powerful, Great Qin became poorer. The Stage 1 corpses and Talisman Stones all cost a large amount of money.

All of the equipment that Great Qin had taken from enemy players and the gold coins taken from system main cities had been spent on these things. Now that Zhao Fu had spent so much money, he was no longer able to spend money as extravagantly.

After continuously trading with Great Qin, the Swan Goose Group had become the largest group in the Kershi Kingdom and was far superior to other groups.

They were now certain that Zhao Fu's identity was not simple at all, because the vast amount of money Zhao Fu had spent would be difficult for any ordinary kingdom to take out. They would not be able to spend money so easily like Zhao Fu, so they decided to hide their transactions with Zhao Fu.

After all, some people had noticed the changes in the Swan Goose Group, and even the Kershi Kingdom's government started to secretly investigate how the Swan Goose Group had grown so quickly. If they were not careful, their transactions would be discovered, which was not beneficial for Zhao Fu or the Swan Goose Group.

Now, money was one of Zhao Fu's biggest problems. High-grade corpses and Talisman Stones were essential to Great Qin now.

Also, after such a long time, Great Qin's Inner Great Wall was finally complete. It was incredibly grand and majestic and looked like a long dragon.

With this Inner Great Wall's protection, Zhao Fu was finally able to set his heart at ease, as he now had a sense of security. Now, no matter what happened, at least Great Qin had some form of defense. This was what Zhao Fu had wanted the most.

Before, Zhao Fu had not felt any confidence at all in facing things in the future. The Devil Horn Empire was becoming more and more powerful, and the situation was becoming tenser and tenser. Zhao Fu did not want to be completely defenseless in the face of danger.

Now that they had finished clearing out the regions and constructing the Inner Great Wall, Zhao Fu looked at the regions around Great Qin. Great Qin still needed to speed up the restoration of its empire!

Chapter 690: 120 Regions

Zhao Fu did not decide to directly attack the four directions and instead decided to convince them to surrender. With Great Qin's strength, as well as the Inner Great Wall, it would be quite easy for Great Qin to defend against their attack.

Moreover, with Great Qin's massive power, Zhao Fu had the confidence to ask them to surrender. The system main city's City Lords most likely knew that the real world would be devoured by the Heaven Awaken World, meaning that they would not be able to remain neutral.

When that time came, the players would still have the advantage, because players had become more powerful and no longer feared the system main cities. In the future, the system main cities would be in a worse and worse situation.

Now that it was quite a few stages into the Chaotic World, there were battles between nations, and they were about to reach the final stages.

In the final stage, it would be people killing any people, not just foreigners. When that time came, the system main cities would not be spared and would be forced to get involved as well.

Zhao Fu was not completely sure, but the City Lords most likely knew these things. Zhao Fu was sure that they would think responsibly for the future, as the dangers in the future would not be something a single region could defend against. As such, they would have to rely on people more powerful.

Right now, this was the best decision for Great Qin. Great Qin had unified 31 regions and had constructed an Inner Great Wall, so it was a massive figure. It was undisputedly the most powerful existence in Great Qin and attracted many people.

Zhao Fu gave all sorts of benefits to those who surrendered, such as not taking their position as City Lord, as well as not killing their residents, treating them all as Great Qin's subjects.

Now that they had unified their territory, Zhao Fu took out their map and gathered his Generals to talk. He once again decided which regions to take over, which were the regions outside of the Inner Great Wall.

This time, the eastern boundary was the Centerhold region, the western boundary was the Five Color region, the northern boundary was the Clearsun region, and the southern boundary was the Lone Shadow region. This encapsulated 120 regions outside of Great Qin's territory.

Thinking about how long it had taken Great Qin to unify 31 regions, doing the same for four times the number of regions would be an incredibly monumental task.

However, by that time, Great Qin would be establishing its nation soon. When he thought of this, Zhao Fu felt quite glad – Great Qin's great plans were advancing step by step.

The factions around Great Qin were once again split into four factions: north, south, east, and west.

The strongest side was still the eastern side, with 20 regions allied together. They had 70 system main cities and roughly seven million Stage 1 soldiers.

Relying on their strength, the eastern side had tried to attack while Great Qin was still constructing its Inner Great Wall to disrupt its plans. However, they had been scared back by Zhao Fu's army, as they did not dare to commit to large battles and only wanted small skirmishes to disrupt the construction.

The second most powerful was the western side. There were 17 regions allied together, which had 60 system main cities and had roughly six million Stage 1 soldiers.

Next was the southern side, which had 15 regions allied together, with 50 system main cities and roughly five million Stage 1 soldiers.

Finally, the weakest was the northern side, which had ten regions. This was because two more regions past the north of Great Qin was the border with the Vietnamese side. It would be impossible for the Chinese system main cities to ally with the Vietnamese system main cities, as they were extremely antagonistic towards each other.

Seeing the Chinese system main cities being destroyed, the Vietnamese side felt incredibly happy, so how could they help the Chinese side? After destroying some more regions, Great Qin would have to face the Vietnamese side.

However, Zhao Fu did not mind, as Great Qin would have to fight against Vietnam sooner or later. Many of the regions that Great Qin had set its eyes on included Vietnamese regions.

Because they were of different nationalities, Great Qin invading Vietnamese regions would make the situation in the northern side much more intense than other sides. Moreover, the Vietnamese Guard would also be of great help as well.

Zhao Fu started to order his people to write letters to try to persuade the system main cities to surrender and had them delivered to the City Lords. He mainly gave them to the eastern, western, and southern sides, as there would be some City Lords who would be interested.

Even if there was not a single City Lord who surrendered, this would at least make it so that they were not as united. When it came for Great Qin to destroy them, it would be much easier.

As for the northern side, Zhao Fu did not bother to write them any letters, as he planned to directly conquer them. They only had ten regions and had 35 system main cities, with only 3.5 million soldiers. Even though they were all Stage 1 soldiers, in front of Great Qin's massive power, they would barely be able to resist.

After sending out the letters, all they could do was wait. Zhao Fu left one million soldiers to defend against the eastern, western, and southern sides – now that Great Qin's territory was so vast, they would not be able to respond to threats as quickly, so they had to keep some soldiers stationed at key places at all times.

Otherwise, if they attacked someone, it was possible that they themselves would be attacked by others. Without any soldiers stationed there, they were in danger from the three other sides, as they could attack Great Qin at any time.

One million soldiers would be able to stall them for some time and would allow Great Qin to send over reinforcements. As such, Zhao Fu did not fear the three other sides too much and he gathered his massive 13 million soldier army and headed off towards the northern side.

Back when Great Qin was building its Inner Great Wall, the northern side had constructed thick defensive walls. However, those walls did not give them much peace of mind.

Great Qin's ocean of soldiers marching sounded like thunder, and they gave off a dense killing intent as they headed for the northern side.

“What do we do?” looking at the army that stretched as far as the eye could see, the City Lords all felt quite some fear and asked the people around them.

The other City Lords all looked incredibly serious and did not know what to say. Because of the geography, they were not able to ally together with many regions, so they only had 3.5 million soldiers but had to face more than ten million. They had already lost this battle.

They then sensed powerful rays of light from the distance – those were the powers of City Lords, causing a haze to fall over the entire northern side army.

“Have you made your decision? Will you surrender? I have many system main city City Lords under me, and they are proof that I won’t mistreat you. If you join Great Qin, you will be protected; I’m sure you don’t have much confidence about the future.

“Moreover, I’m already this world’s World Protector; you should know that the World Protector is the final line of defense for this world, as well as the most important person. I am your best choice!”

Zhao Fu stood in the sky as he confidently smiled and gave off a mountain-like aura. The Earth Realm Mark appeared on the back of his hand, and even though he was not speaking very loudly, his voice sounded out in the surrounding ten or so kilometers and gave off a fearsome might.
