

The Lord 771

Chapter 771: Golden Eyeball

After returning to Great Qin, Zhao Fu grinned as he went through what they had obtained. Firstly, for system main cities, there were 85 of them in total.

These system main cities belonged to Fish Scale people, so humans could not use them. However, the Exchange Stone Stele had Origin Water, which could restore a City Creation Stone to an unused state.

However, after thinking about it, Zhao Fu decided not to do this. It was very difficult for humans to deal with aquatic creatures in the water, so Zhao Fu decided to develop an army of Fish Scale people. In the future, if they had aquatic fights, they would be very useful.

There were not any oceans or seas near Great Qin, but there were many water regions, though many of them were freshwater. Zhao Fu decided to go and capture some Fish Scale people in the future.

He would make them City Lords and have the system main cities spawn Fish Scale people, and when they had enough people, he would develop a Great Qin navy.

They had also obtained 27 Region Treasure Boxes from this raid. Zhao Fu opened all of them, obtaining many materials and equipment. Zhao Fu did not care about most of them, but one of them made Zhao Fu incredibly happy.

It was a City Upgrade Stone for Great Cities, and Zhao Fu already had three of them. He had obtained two of them back when he had opened the 70 or so Region Treasure Boxes and one from when he had opened 35 Region Treasure Boxes. With this one, he now had four.

With these four City Upgrade Stones, Zhao Fu could directly level up a City into a Level 5 Great City, then use EXP to level it up into a Capital City. After all, City Upgrade Stones for Great Cities could not level up Great Cities into Capital Cities.

Just like this, Zhao Fu almost had another Capital City. The amount of EXP required to level up a Level 5 Great City into a Capital City was not that much to Great Qin anymore. Now, they only needed one more Capital City before they could level up the Great Qin City into a Royal City, which was quite exciting.

Zhao Fu started to ponder about which City to level up into a Level 5 Great City. He had two main candidates, which were the previous candidates: the Maurya City and the Fire and Ice Cities.

The Fire and Ice Cities were special cities and were more powerful than ordinary system main cities. This was especially so with Binoche and Kerache, the two powerful mages, as their City Lords. However, the Cities were only Gold grade, which was not that great.

The Maurya City was the Maurya Dynasty's Legacy City, and it was Legendary grade. However, Zhao Fu did not feel too good about this, as it was another country's Legacy City.

However, in terms of stats and power, the Maurya City was more powerful than the Fire and Ice Cities; after all, it was the Legacy City of India's most powerful Dynasty.

In the end, Zhao Fu decided to use the Maurya City. Zhao Fu thought of Shama's little sister, Daphne, as she had the Maurya Dynasty's bloodline. However, Zhao Fu had to consider future battles, so he had to test if she was suitable or not.

Zhao Fu decided to leave this matter for later. Apart from the City Upgrade Stone, the Zhao Fu had also obtained another three Dragon-Slaying Ballistae, so Great Qin now had eight of them.

There was another item that was quite special – it was a three-colored ball of clay that gave off a faint fragrance. Zhao Fu was not quite sure what it was, so he looked at its description.

[Item Remodelling Clay]: A mystical clay that can change the shape of an item into any form without any changes to its stats.

So this was something that could reshape items. Zhao Fu immediately thought of the King's Crown – the King's Crown was currently Legendary grade, and if he could subdue the eight aquatic beast kings and absorb their King's Aura, the King's Crown would be able to become Epic grade.

The King's Crown was an incredibly powerful piece of equipment, and Zhao Fu used it all the time. It was the best item for sealing and restricting people.

However, Zhao Fu did not quite like the fact that it was a western-style crown, so reshaping it would be quite good. However, what should he change it into? A sword? Or another type of weapon?

Zhao Fu thought about it and decided that he had enough swords already. He did not need any weapons, and what's more, only the shape changed and not the stats. Swords were used for attacking, while the King's Crown was used for support and control.

After thinking for a while, Zhao Fu made a decision. He took out the King's Crown and fused the three-colored clay into it. The firm King's Crown gradually became softer and softer until it became a soft clump.

Zhao Fu started to mold the King's Crown into the shape he wanted, and in the end, it became a golden eyeball. Apart from the fact that it was golden and seemed metallic, it looked just like a real eyeball.

Holding this golden eyeball, Zhao Fu smiled in satisfaction and fused it into his left eye, which had activated Vision, and it gently accepted the golden eyeball.

“Roarr!!!” a gigantic bestial roar sounded out in his mind suddenly, and Zhao Fu felt as if his head was going to explode. His mind went white as a gigantic, devilish beast wrapped in chains and a human skull shining with golden light appeared in Zhao Fu's mind.

Zhao Fu's left eye continuously leaked blood as if it was going to explode, and Zhao Fu cursed at himself for being so stupid. He had not made any preparations and had just fused the King's Crown into his eye, and now, he was paying the price for it.

Zhao Fu could do nothing about the massive pain in his eye except cover it with his hands. The blood from his left eye continued to flow out, seeping through his fingers.

In his mind, countless traces of blood rushed out from the surroundings and headed for the God-Sealing Beast. The God-Sealing Beast furiously struggled and roared, but it was soon inundated by blood. Both the God-Sealing Beast and the golden skull both disappeared.

At that moment, the pain in Zhao Fu's left eye gradually weakened, and he could now open it with great difficulty. He found that the golden eyeball had completely fused with his left eye, and he could now no longer take it out.

Before, Zhao Fu's eyes had triple-layered pupils – two layers were blood-red and one layer was white. Now that the golden eyeball had fused into his left eye, his left eye had four layers: apart from the blood-red and white layers, there was also a golden layer. The blood-red layers gave off killing intent, the white layer gave off gentleness, and the golden layer gave off an aura of nobility.

Moreover, the shape of the eye became different as well. After fusing with god Kerr's Divinity, Zhao Fu's eyes had become slitted, but after fusing with his golden eyeball, his left one once again became a round eye. The fourth layer was golden, but the outside of the pupil seemed to have a thin golden chain around it.

The left eye seemed quite terrifying, and the three auras fused together gave off a massive might that made people unable to look at him directly.

Zhao Fu's right eye was still a slitted eye with two blood-red layers and one white layer.

Zhao Fu was quite shocked to find that he could now use some of the God-Sealing Beast's power. This was not through the King's Crown but through his own body. This meant that Zhao Fu had obtained the God-Sealing Beast's power.

Zhao Fu waved his hand, and a few chains shot out from the air. He found that his usage of the chains was more practiced and nimble as if they were part of his body.

Chapter 772 - Level 4 Capital City

Only after a while was Zhao Fu able to bring his emotions back under control. Now, it was time for him to spend his Invasion Points. Taking down a Fish Scale system main city gave one million Invasion Points, and because Great Qin had taken down 85 of them, that was 85 million Invasion Points in total. He now had enough to exchange for more things. After going to the Exchange Stone Stele, Zhao Fu was surprised to find that the option for Capital Cities was grayed out. He tried using it but found that he could not exchange for another Capital City. This made Zhao Fu feel quite disappointed – he had wanted to exchange for another Capital City, which would allow him to satisfy the conditions for upgrading to a Royal City. After gaining enough EXP, Great Qin would be able to directly upgrade into a Royal City. However, Zhao Fu had never expected there to be a limit. There was nothing Zhao Fu could do about this, and there were still many things he was interested in. He also had enough City Upgrade Stones for now, so he did not purchase any more. There were two more things that he was interested in. The first was the blueprint for the Dragon-Slaying Ballistae. With this blueprint, Zhao Fu would be able to mass-produce Dragon-

Slaying Ballistae. With how powerful those ballistae were, it was a very tempting choice. The second was the Ten Thousand Blood God Stone. This could allow the Corpse Soul Blood Lake to create 100 Corpse Soul Soldiers and five Corpse Soul Commanders per day. Corpse Soul Soldiers were Stage 4 creatures, and being able to create 100 of them in a day was quite tempting. In the end, Zhao Fu chose to exchange for a Ten Thousand Blood God Stone, because crafting Dragon-Slaying Ballistae required Epic grade materials, which Great Qin did not have much of. Moreover, because they would be dealing with Epic grade materials, Great Qin also needed more high-grade Blacksmiths. Even though Great Qin wanted to mass-produce the Dragon-Slaying Ballistae, this would not be possible for now. As such, it would be better to exchange for a Ten Thousand Blood God Stone right now. After selecting the Ten Thousand Blood God Stone, a blood-red stone that was as big as a watermelon seed, giving off a dense bloody smell, appeared in Zhao Fu's hand, and he put it in the Corpse Soul Blood Lake. Now, the Corpse Soul Blood Lake would be able to produce 100 Corpse Soul Soldiers and five Corpse Soul Commanders. The rate of consumption of corpses would increase, but Zhao Fu did not mind, as he had plenty of corpses now. Furthermore, after taking down 85 system main cities, the amount of EXP they had gained caused the Great Qin City to level up into a Level 4 Capital City. (31000/500000000) :3492950/80240000 士兵 892640/32482000 Village Name: Great Qin City (Epic) Level: Level 4 Capital City (31,000/500,000,000) Village Area: 124,400 square kilometers Village Territory: 8,421,800 square kilometers Residents: 3,492,950/80,240,000 Military: 892,640/32,482,000 Popular Support: 86 Village Special Stats: Territory Crop Output +230%, Territory Crop Growing Time -230%, Population Limit +150%, Residents' stats can randomly +17, Soldiers' stats +18%, Population Attraction +170%, chance of attracting higher grade population +170% Subsidiary Village Limit: 196,930 Subordinate Villages: Logue Village, Jean Village, Dorun Village, Li Family Village, Wolf Village, Ferocious Tiger Village... Now that the Great Qin City was a Level 4 Capital City, there were only two more levels until it could upgrade into a Royal City. Even though 500 million EXP was a massive amount, Zhao Fu could not help but feel excited. There were only two steps until Great Qin could restore its empire. Following this, Zhao Fu once again entered the Fish Scale world. This time, he did not go too deep, and he instead found a few villages and brought back 100 Fish Scale indigenous residents. He had them enter lakes near Great Qin to see if they could live there. It turned out that any form of water was fine, regardless of whether it was freshwater or saltwater. Zhao Fu gave them City Hearts and had them re-establish them. It was now January of the Heaven Awaken World's third year. This year had been made incredibly chaotic by the Fish Scale world's invasion, and now that things had settled down, it was time to do some repairs. Time passed quite quickly. The first year had been filled with events, and the second year had been filled with all sorts of busyness. Now, it was the third year, and Zhao Fu wondered how it would be. Seeing that there was not much for him to do in the Heaven Awaken World, he returned to the real world. The situation in the real world had also become quite chaotic. The price of goods was skyrocketing, and crime ran rampant. However, Zhao Fu did not care too much, as he did not have the time or energy to maintain peace and order in the world. After returning to the real world, it was night, but Zhao Fu still did not see Zheng Yuqin. However, there was food on the table, and because he was so hungry, he did not think much of it and began to ravenously eat. After eating, Zhao Fu opened his laptop and found that there was not much to look at. He was about to rest for a while when a call came through. Zhao Fu looked down and saw that it was from Dong Suzhen, his former university teacher. Zhao Fu felt quite confused; his relationship with her had been quite ordinary. Because she often showed care to Zhao Fu, he had contacted her and chatted with her before giving her his number. Normally, Dong Suzhen would not call Zhao Fu unless it was something urgent. Zhao Fu still picked up his phone and immediately heard sobbing, "Please save me. I'm at the Southlake Hotel!" Zhao Fu felt quite startled, and just as he was about to say something, chaotic noise sounded out, and it seemed that the phone had been thrown to the ground. A few men's lewd laughter sounded out, "Ms. Dong, let's have a good time tonight! We know that you're a slut; stop acting so pure!" The call was then cut off, and a scene appeared in Zhao Fu's mind. He immediately made a call – the Southlake Hotel was the most luxurious hotel in this region. Zhao Fu had stayed at Nanshi City for two years, so he knew that place quite well. Nanshi City was within the Ying family's domain, so Zhao Fu made a call and had people sent over. If they weren't fast enough, it was possible that Dong Suzhen would be violated before they arrived. Thinking about Dong Suzhen's beautiful likeness, Zhao Fu wanted to know how this ended, so he waited for a while. Some time later, Zhao Fu received a phone call and his expression became serious, and he sat on the sofa and waited. Two hours later, a few bodyguards brought in a teary-faced, scared-looking Dong Suzhen, who was wearing a suit. Seeing Zhao Fu, Dong Suzhen felt a sense of relief. Seeing that all of these black-suited people all seemed to defer to him, she understood and asked, "Zhao Fu, was it you who sent these people to save me?" Zhao Fu nodded as he looked at her. Her hair was a mess, and there were red marks on her face. She was wearing a suit but was wearing nothing inside – that suit evidently belonged to one of the bodyguards; it seemed that they had nearly actually had their way with her. Dong Suzhen said tearily, "Thank you for saving me. I randomly called someone on my phone, and I never thought that it would be you." Seeing how unsettled and perturbed she seemed, Zhao Fu gently comforted her saying, "Don't worry, Ms. Dong; no one will harm you here."

Chapter 773 - Nanshi Group

After hearing Zhao Fu's words of comfort, Dong Suzhen was able to finally calm down, and she earnestly nodded.

At that moment, the bodyguards brought in seven young men to Zhao Fu. They had all been beaten up, and six of them wore ordinary clothing, looking quite afraid as they looked around.

The other young man wore designer clothes and looked quite arrogant, yelling, "Do you know who I am? I'm the heir to Nanshi Group. If you dare to do anything to me, you'll be dead!"

Zhao Fu could not help but lightly laugh, saying, "It's been a long time since anyone has dared to be so impudent in front of me!"

Even though Zhao Fu said this while lightly laughing, the bodyguards felt a chill within their hearts. They knew how much power Zhao Fu had, and him saying this meant that he was somewhat angry. This meant that the Nanshi Group's heir was doomed, and what's more, it would possibly be his entire family dying.

“Proxy family leader, how would you like to deal with these seven people?” the captain of this group of bodyguards mustered up his courage and asked.

Zhao Fu’s smile disappeared as he said disdainfully, “Kill them all!”

“Yes!” the bodyguards responded, preparing to drag them out and kill them. They were not any ordinary bodyguards; rather, they were the Ying family’s private soldiers who would listen to all commands from the Ying family.

Hearing that Zhao Fu wanted to kill them, the six ordinary-looking young men’s faces became incredibly pale. They knelt on the ground and begged, “We’re innocent, please spare us! It was young master Xiao who told us to do all of that; we wouldn’t dare otherwise!”

Hearing Zhao Fu’s words, a look of disbelief appeared on the arrogant-looking young man’s face. However, seeing that the group of bodyguards really did seem to intend to kill them, he cried out in fear, “You can’t kill me, I’m the heir of Nanshi Group. If you dare to kill me, Nanshi Group definitely won’t...”

Before the young man could finish his sentence, a bodyguard punched him in the stomach, causing him to fall to the ground and curl up with his arms around his stomach.

The bodyguards prepared to drag the seven people out, while the six ordinary-looking young men cried and begged for mercy, hoping that Zhao Fu would spare them.

However, there were no changes on Zhao Fu’s face; he had killed countless people by now, and he did not care about those people’s lives at all.

“Zhao Fu, are you really going to kill them?” Dong Suzhen asked in disbelief. She had never thought that her introverted ex-student would become so cold-blooded, talking about killing people like it was such a casual matter.

Zhao Fu turned to look at Dong Suzhen and lightly nodded before asking, “What else would we do with them?”

Hearing that Zhao Fu really was going to kill them, Dong Suzhen, who was part of the law society, almost could not believe what she was hearing. She could not help but try to persuade him, saying, “Zhao Fu, it’s best to let them off or send them to a police station.”

This heir of Nanshi Group was the little brother of one of her students, and her relationship with that student was quite special. Dong Suzhen was not quite willing to see that person's little brother killed.

Moreover, Nanshi Group was the largest financial group in Nanshi City. The amount of power it held surpassed what ordinary people could imagine; Dong Suzhen knew just how terrifying it was, so she did not want Zhao Fu to make any trouble.

Even though it seemed that Zhao Fu held a high position and many people were willing to obey him, Dong Suzhen was worried about something big happening.

Zhao Fu looked at Dong Suzhen; he did not care about those people's lives or deaths anyways, so he said casually, "Lock them up!"

Following this, the bodyguards dragged the seven people off, and Dong Suzhen let out a sigh of relief.

Zhao Fu then said, "Ms. Dong, I'll have people bring some clothes for you. You should rest; you don't worry about the rest of this."

Dong Suzhen lightly nodded and prepared to leave with a female attendant.

"Lil Fu, what happened?" The noise outside had woken up Zheng Yuqin, who had been taking a nap. She opened the door and asked Zhao Fu.

Seeing that Dong Suzhen was also here, Zheng Yuqin looked incredibly shocked.

Dong Suzhen was also quite surprised to see Zheng Yuqin here. They both worked at the same university campus and had a good relationship with each other.

After seeing each other, the two women started to talk, and Dong Suzhen decided to stay at Zhao Fu's villa for now. Zheng Yuqin brought Dong Suzhen to her room where they could talk more.

Zhao Fu prepared to enter the Heaven Awaken World when a bodyguard came to report, “Proxy family leader, Nanshi Group’s Chairperson is here to see you!”

“Already?” Zhao Fu felt quite surprised and nodded.

Soon, a woman in her early thirties wearing a black female business suit with short hair and pretty looks walked in. She gave off a capable and experienced aura that made her seem quite important.

“Hello, Mr. Zhao! I am Nanshi Group’s Chairperson and Xiao Yuanmei’s mother, Zhang Hongmei,” Zhang Hongmei said with a faint smile.

Zhao Fu calmly sat on the sofa and said, “You’re here for your son, right? There’s no need to say anything, you can go back now.”

Zhang Hongmei was prepared for such an answer. After hearing about this matter, she knew what sort of person she would be facing.

“Mr. Zhao, I won’t waste any of your time. I’m willing to give you 30% of my company’s shares if you’re willing to let my son off.”

Zhao Fu disdainfully smiled and said, “Do you really think I care about a bit of money like that? I’m not interested in your shares at all. Right now, you should be worried about Nanshi Group and whether or not it will still exist in the future.”

This caused Zhang Hongmei’s expression to fall. Zhao Fu was threatening to destroy Nanshi Group and eliminate them completely. Even though she did not want to admit it, he indeed had the power to do so.

After thinking about the terrifying consequences, Zhang Hongmei felt a chill in her heart. She gritted her teeth and made a decision, suddenly squatting down in front of Zhao Fu and starting to serve him as he watched on in surprise.

Following this, Zhao Fu started to take off her clothes, and they started to go at it together.

Hearing these noises, Zheng Yuqin and Dong Suzhen’s faces became red. Zheng Yuqin angrily cursed at Zhao Fu while Dong Suzhen remained silent in embarrassment.

Afterward, Zhang Hongmei walked out from Zhao Fu's villa, and she couldn't stop tears from rolling out of her eyes. However, she forced herself to stop crying and wiped away her tears.

After going to a dark prison, Xiao Yuanmei was delighted to see his mother and cried out, "Mum! I knew you would come to save me. Those people actually dared to hit..."

Pa!

A heavy slap landed on his face, causing him to feel incredibly shocked. He had never thought that his mother would slap him so savagely.

"If you make any trouble from now on, I'll kill you myself!" Zhang Hongmei's expression and tone were both bone-chillingly cold.

Xiao Yuanmei had never seen his mother so angry before, so he hurriedly nodded in fear and did not dare to say anything else.

Chapter 774 - God Race

After returning to the Heaven Awaken World, Zhao Fu decided to test Daphne's abilities. Her archery was quite powerful, and because this was the only chance for the Maurya City to return to the Maurya Dynasty's hands, she did not dare to hide any of her abilities. She did not want to let down her mother and aunt and showed her full power.

Zhao Fu was quite satisfied with her, and he also realized that he did not have any Generals who were adept at using the bow. Daphne could make up for this, so Zhao Fu decided to give her the Disaster Bow that he had kept with him. It was quite useless for him to have it, so it would be better to give it to her.

Now that he had a City Lord he would be satisfied with, Zhao Fu went to the Maurya City and prepared to level it up to a Level 5 Great City.

Before, it had only been a Basic City, but because of the massive amount of EXP that Great Qin gained, it had been incredibly easy to level it up to a Great City.

After fusing a City Upgrade Stone into the City Heart, the City Heart gave off a massive explosion as a golden pillar of light shot to the sky. Golden waves of light also rippled out from the City Heart, spreading throughout the entire Maurya City. Afterward, a system announcement stated that the upgrade had been completed.

Following this, Zhao Fu used the remaining three City Upgrade Stones. Pillars of light shot into the sky, and soon, the Maurya City had become a Level 5 Great City. It only lacked one more level before it could become a Level 1 Capital City.

Zhao Fu planned to prioritize leveling the Maurya City to a Level 1 Capital City, as leveling up the Great Qin City again required 500 million EXP. It was getting quite difficult to level up the Great Qin City, so he decided to might as well level up the Maurya City into a Capital City first.

However, even though Daphne's archery was quite powerful and she had the Maurya Dynasty's Bloodline, her Cultivation was quite weak, so Zhao Fu still felt that she was a bit lacking.

Compared to Bai Qi with his Seven Murders power, Daphne felt quite weak. As such, Zhao Fu planted a Six Desires Demonic Seed within her body to have her cultivate the Six Desires Celestial Art and have her become powerful quicker.

The only problem with this was that Zhao Fu had a lot more to do at night.

After dealing with this, Zhao Fu once again became idle. He very much wanted to invade the Fish Scale world to obtain a large number of Invasion Points and rewards, but no one else wanted to invade. Zhao Fu could do nothing about this; after all, Great Qin was still too weak to take on an entire world by itself.

Soon, a week had passed, and Great Qin finished clearing out 35 regions, causing its strength once again rise.

Great Qin now controlled 155 regions, having 620 Great Cities, 26 Cities, 210 Towns, and 19,489 Villages.

Great Qin's population was now at 550 million, and they had 80 million soldiers. Out of these 80 million soldiers, there were 50 million or so Stage 1 soldiers, 1.9 million Stage 2 soldiers, 170,000 Stage 3 soldiers, and 10,000 Stage 4 soldiers.

Since they could not invade the Fish Scale world, Great Qin's next task was to have more system main cities join them.

Even though one or two system main cities would join them every few days, Zhao Fu felt that this was still too slow. There was now less and less time, and the only thing Zhao Fu could do was send out more ambassadors.

Zhao Fu quite wanted to use the Wyvern army to scare them into submission, which would work, but it was not a good long-term plan.

Great Qin could not make itself seem too dangerous, or the friendly relations it had spent creating would be destroyed in an instant. The countless cities would feel threatened and once again ally together.

He could pretend that the Wyverns were wild Wyverns, but after joining Great Qin, they would find out about these Wyverns sooner or later. This could cause a lot of dissatisfaction and lead to a disaster for Great Qin in the future. Zhao Fu did not want this to happen.

As such, Zhao Fu could only wait. By now, the palace was almost complete, and it was incredibly majestic. It was kilometers wide and had countless halls and pavilions. There were also large gardens and flowing streams, looking incredibly luxurious, and its main color was black.

Zhao Fu moved the City Hall into the palace, and the Meeting Hall became one of the pavilions.

The pavilion was thousands of meters wide, and the floor was made of glossy black marble. There were also thick stone pillars that had black dragons engraved on them.

The pavilion was empty except for a three-meter tall stage. There was a screen with black dragons embroidered on it, as well as a black and gold imperial throne. There were countless gems socketed into the roof, making it seem like a sky filled with stars.

The pavilion did not give off a brilliant and noble atmosphere, and it instead gave off a heavy and oppressive might.

In the future, all important matters would be discussed in here. Zhao Fu then brought everything in the City Hall, including the people, to the palace.

Even though they had not yet restored Great Qin, once the palace was complete, Zhao Fu could live the life of an Emperor.

A short while later, another big event erupted out – it was another invasion. However, it was not in the human world but in the Dark Demon world.

Zhao Fu was quite surprised, as this was the first time that he had heard of the Demon Race being invaded. They were naturally strong, and the Dark Demon world was a cultivation world, making them much more powerful than ordinary worlds, and yet people dared to invade them. Those people were simply too daring.

However, unlike the human world, where the barrier was accidentally destroyed, it was the invaders who had opened a portal and started to invade.

There were very few races that would dare to do such a thing. Zhao Fu had been controlling Ye Cang's body in the Dark Demon world this entire time, and after hearing about this, he felt quite shocked.

The invaders were coming from the world to the right-hand side of the Dark Demon world; the human world was to its left-hand side. Zhao Fu did not have any information on that other world, as his power was limited.

Only after a while did Zhao Fu receive some intelligence reports and find out that the God Race was invading the Dark Demon world. The race was called the Spirit Light God Race, and they looked like westerners. They naturally had a faint light around them, and there was a bright circle on their chest that was as big as a fist.

Ordinary Spirit Light people's circles gave off a white light, those who were of noble birth gave off silver light, and those of incredibly important standing had golden light. It was said that the World Protector had a three-colored divine light.

After looking through the information, Zhao Fu understood why they dared to invade the Dark Demon World. The God Race, Demon Race, and Devil Race were the three most powerful races; the Devil Horn Empire outside the Legacy Land was part of the Devil Race.

Humans were one of the weaker races in the eight Major Races; this was something that was decided from birth.

Chapter 775 - Spirit Light Invasion

The God Race and Demon Race were like fire and water; they could not stand each other and often fought. Just from their attributes alone, they were already mortal enemies. Even if one side did not attack, the other side would surely attack.

The portals that the Spirit Light people had opened was a ten kilometer tall, hundreds of kilometers wide golden door. It gave off an intense divine light, and any demonic qi that came into contact with this divine light became much weaker. The divine light was extremely effective against demonic qi.

There were 1,000 of these massive doors in a row on the Northern Continent of the Dark Demon world. It was an extremely majestic and shocking scene.

Each of the doors had millions of Spirit Light people defending them, and in total, there were roughly four billion Spirit Light people around the large doors.

Zhao Fu had no idea how the Spirit Light people had created such things, but Zhao Fu had no way to do this. Right now, his Trans-Boundary Teleportation Channel could only send a single person every time.

The Demon Race had a passive ability that allowed them to become stronger when devouring other Races' blood and flesh. To them, humans were just medicines to help increase their Cultivation. If they developed portals, they would immediately invade the human world.

It would be impossible for the human world to be so peaceful if that was the case. The Dark Demon world's World Protector had come to the human world before and had most likely obtained some information about their world. It was possible that he had planted some spies in the human world to continue gaining intelligence.

This attack from the Spirit Light people was extremely ferocious. As soon as they opened the portals, they swarmed out, bathing hundreds of regions in blood. The God Race's cruel methods were not inferior to the Demon Race's methods at all.

Hundreds of millions of corpses filled the hundreds of regions, and blood stained the ground everywhere. All creatures with demonic qi had been slaughtered, and because this was a demon world, almost all creatures had demonic qi. The Spirit Light people had exterminated all the creatures in hundreds of regions without leaving a single thing alive.

The weaker demon beasts were not spared either, and the stench of blood in those regions could make anyone want to vomit. It was an incredibly chilling sight.

The Dark Demon people were unable to quickly respond to the Spirit Light people's sudden attack. Just like the humans, they had been caught unprepared, and by the time they responded, it was quite late.

However, the Spirit Light people understood that the Dark Demon world was quite terrifying, so after annihilating hundreds of regions, they brought back a large amount of spoils and retreated to the golden doors.

Because of this, an Invasion Stage was also opened for the Dark Demon world and the Spirit Light world. Anyone who killed Dark Demon people or Spirit Light people would receive Invasion Points that could be exchanged for rewards. The rewards were similar to the ones in Zhao Fu's Chaotic World Stone Stele, but they were slightly inferior and some could only be used by Demons.

Zhao Fu looked through the Night Dynasty's Chaotic World Stone Stele and saw that they could also exchange for Capital Cities; it seemed that every Chaotic World Stone Stele had this option.

This made Zhao Fu feel quite excited – he could use Ye Cang's body to exchange for a Capital City. However, the number of Invasion Points necessary was quite large, and Zhao Fu was worried that with the Night Dynasty's strength, it would be difficult for them to obtain such a number.

After all, Zhao Fu had spent half of Great Qin's Fate to seal the eight aquatic beast kings, dealing with the aquatic beast tide. He had also poisoned three billion Fish Scale people to death, and only then had he been able to exchange for a Capital City. It had been incredibly difficult.

In actuality, the Night Dynasty's City was only a bit away from rising to a Capital City. He could also make the Night Dynasty's City one of Great Qin's Capital Cities.

That way, the requirement of having three Capital Cities would be fulfilled. After leveling up the Great Qin City to a Level 6 Capital City, he would be able to establish a Kingdom.

It was a pity that he could not do such a thing, as it would be incredibly foolish and short-sighted. The Night Dynasty's true value was in its 170 million people and battle force. They were worth much more important than a Capital City.

Zhao Fu could not just take the Night Dynasty's City back to the human world, as it would simply cost too much, so he had to think of another way.

Now that the Spirit Light people and Dark Demon people were fighting, both worlds' attention was on the battlefield. Zhao Fu decided to join these muddy waters and obtain some benefits for himself as well.

Zhao Fu did not feel anything towards either of these worlds, and he hoped that their fight would be as intense as possible. Otherwise, the humans would not have an opportunity to become stronger and resist them. Zhao Fu hoped that the Dark Demon world would lose, as it was right next to the human world and could invade at any moment. It was too big of a threat.

There was no need to think about it too much; Zhao Fu had already decided to join in, as there were enough benefits to attract him.

As the Night Dynasty's Emperor, Ye Cang was already SS grade, and Zhao Fu used an SSS grade Orb to raise him to SSS grade. He also had Ye Cang's body enter the Night Dynasty's Ancestral Demon Lake, obtaining the Night Demon Constitution. This constitution was a powerful constitution even within the Dark Demon world, and only those with the Night Dynasty's Bloodline could obtain it.

At the same time, Ye Cang was cultivating the Night Dynasty's Legacy Art, the Night Art. Because the Dark Demon world was a cultivation world, they had many more Arts than the humans, and they were much higher grade.

The Night Art was a Level 1 Human grade Art, which was higher than Great Qin's Great Qin King Art. It was in between SSS grade and Human grade, so there was a big difference in power. However, because Zhao Fu now had a Celestial Art, he was not lacking in terms of Arts anymore.

Because Ye Cang was essentially Zhao Fu's clone, he had thought about giving Ye Cang the Six Desires Celestial Art to cultivate. However, he found that it was not possible because of how powerful the Art was. Zhao Fu was only able to cultivate it because he had the golden dragon.

There was a basic version of the Six Desires Celestial Art, such as the one that Mo Yao'Er was cultivating. However, this required a Six Desires Demonic Seed, which had to be planted through intercourse. Zhao Fu refused to do it with a man, even if that man was his clone.

However, Zhao Fu could use his essence blood to open the King's profession for Ye Cang. Zhao Fu had a Sovereign Bloodline, so that was enough to open a King's profession.

Adding on the fact that the Night Dynasty City was a Level 5 Capital City, Ye Cang was not weak at all. He was many times more powerful than before, and Zhao Fu could now use his body to do many things.

At that moment, Mo Yao'Er gave off an alluring aura as she walked in. Looking at Ye Cang sitting on the throne, she asked, "Ye Cang, has master returned to the Dark Demon world yet?"

Zhao Fu did not tell Mo Yao'Er that Ye Cang's body had been taken over by him; he wanted to keep this a secret, as it was far too important. After all, if news spread that the Night Dynasty had been taken over by an outsider, the consequences would be unimaginable.

"He's busy right now and can't return for the time being," Zhao Fu controlled Ye Cang to say as he walked down.

Chapter 776 - Mo Qi

The Dark Demon world hurriedly conducted emergency meetings regarding this invasion. The Night Dynasty was one of the Southern Continent's ten largest factions, so it had the right to participate. Similarly, as the daughter of the Demon Path Sect's Sect Master, Mo Yao'Er was qualified to participate.

Zhao Fu's true aim in going was to gain some information on the top-tier figures in the Dark Demon World, so he could make some preparations for war in the future.

The Dark Demon world only had four continents, and each of them was extremely big. There were over 10,000 regions in each one. The Southern Continent was relatively weaker when compared to the other three continents.

The most powerful continent was the Eastern Continent. It had 15,000 regions, and four out of the seven Legatees came from there. The World Protector was also from the Eastern Continent, which made it the most terrifying one.

The meeting was held at the Eastern Continent. A single faction could not call the shots in a battle between worlds, and allying together was something essential.

After hearing Ye Cang's words, Mo Yao'Er harrumphed with dissatisfaction and left.

Ye Cang, or Zhao Fu, could not help but lightly laugh and followed behind her. Then, they used a teleportation channel to come to the Eastern Continent.

There were already countless people gathered within a massive palace that gave off enormous amounts of demonic qi. All of these people's auras were extremely powerful, and they were all quite extraordinary. They were all famous figures from various continents; ordinary people did not have the right to participate in this meeting.

As soon as Mo Yao'Er stepped into the palace, many gasps sounded out. Mo Yao'Er was the third-ranked beauty in the Dark Demon world. Her enchanting face, bewitching figure, and alluring aura caused the bodies of countless men to go hot and have reactions.

This was the power of the Six Desires Celestial Art; not only was it powerful, but it also gave those who cultivated it an aura which intoxicated those around them. It was incredibly suitable for Mo Yao'Er's constitution.

All of the men stared at Mo Yao'Er and gulped down globs of saliva in their mouths. They could not help but feel attracted to her.

Mo Yao'Er sensed these stares and enchantingly smiled. Countless men felt even more swooned. This made many of the women feel admiration and jealousy. Some even cursed at her for being a vixen.

Mo Yao'Er did not even bother looking at these men and walked to the center of the palace. Right now, her mind was filled with the desire for her master to do her.

It was only after Mo Yao'Er left their sight did those men come back to their senses. One of them said to the person next to him, "That Mo Yao'Er's simply too bewitching; I feel like the number one beauty of the Dark Demon world is about to change!"

Everyone around him nodded and continued to look over at Mo Yao'Er.

Because Mo Yao'Er's charm was simply too great, Ye Cang next to her was completely ignored. They came to the center of the palace where the truly important figures were.

There were less than 100 chairs at the center, and many people were already sitting down. Mo Yao'Er casually picked a place to sit, and Zhao Fu sat down next to her.

Following this, more and more people arrived, and Zhao Fu soon saw the Dark Demon world's Legatees and World Protector.

Out of the seven Legatees, the one with the most powerful aura was a bald-headed elderly man. He was the Sect Master of a Sect. After seeing him, Zhao Fu felt quite surprised. Legacies would normally choose younger people over older people, as younger people had more potential and time. It was rare for a Legacy to choose such an aged person.

The second strongest person's looks could be described as simply perfect. She was the number one beauty in the Dark Demon world and wore white clothes. She was the daughter of the Sect Master of the Celestial Demon Sect and had a cold demeanor.

The third strongest person was a big ferocious-looking man. He was also the Legatee of a Dynasty and was extremely cruel and ruthless. He liked eating people and ate at least ten or so children per day.

The fourth strongest person was extremely beautiful and had a graceful bearing. But, she also looked quite malicious. She was the Dark Demon world's second-ranked beauty and a Dynasty Legatee. She definitely looked like someone who could not be angered.

The fifth strongest person was a gloomy, cold-looking young man who was the Sect Master of a Sect. The sixth strongest person was a handsome-looking young man who gave a bright and confident smile. He did not seem like someone from the Demon Race at all. Finally, the seventh strongest person was quite well-built and looked like a very simple person.

The one who caught Zhao Fu's attention the most was the World Protector. Zhao Fu could feel an immense sense of danger from him, and his power far surpassed those of ordinary Legatees. He was Mo Qi, and he was a super genius in the Dark Demon world. He was the Sect Master of the number one Sect in the Dark Demon world, the Demon Heaven Sect.

Mo Qi seemed to detect Zhao Fu's gaze, and his cold gaze fell on Ye Cang's body. Perhaps it was because he was also a World Protector, but Zhao Fu instinctively refused to show weakness as he leaned against his chair and calmly looked back at Mo Qi.

Mo Qi slightly frowned, and the cold atmosphere became even colder. Everyone looked at Mo Qi before looking at Ye Cang.

"Is Ye Cang not afraid of death? He dares to hold Mo Qi's gaze like this." Mo Yao'Er knew Ye Cang's strength, so she nudged him and signaled him to be more restrained.

Zhao Fu came back to his senses and slightly smiled at Mo Qi before looking away. Only then did Mo Qi look away, and the atmosphere was no longer as cold.

"Haha... you're that bastard child from the Night Dynasty. Who would have thought you'd take over the Night Dynasty in a single night; the Night Dynasty's people really are stupid – a Dynasty was obtained by a bastard like you!" the child-eating big man laughed as he said mockingly. As someone who had a pure bloodline, he naturally looked down on bastard children. He felt incredibly disgusted that a bastard could control a Dynasty and wield so much power.

"You're going too far Ughr," Mo Yao'Er coldly harrumphed. Ye Cang belonged to her master, so she naturally had to step in.

Ughr was the big child-eating man, and he looked at Mo Yao'Er greedily as he laughed and said, "Sure, but you gotta spend a night with me!"

Bang!!

A gigantic black hand stretched out in the air with immense might as it slapped Ughr flying five or six meters.

Ughr was not injured and only looked a bit wretched, but now he had a furious look on his face. He had never thought Zhao Fu would suddenly attack, and he had been hit because he had been careless.

None of the people present expected Ye Cang to dare attack Ughr in front of everyone. As one of the Legatees, Ughr was terrifyingly powerful; the Night Dynasty's bastard was doomed.

Zhao Fu had suddenly attacked not for himself but for his woman. If he did not have strength, he would have endured it, but now that he had powerful strength, why did he have to endure? Now, Zhao Fu did not want to have to endure this sort of humiliation, and he did indeed feel a bit angry about being called a bastard.

Moreover, Zhao Fu had wiped away Ye Cang's consciousness, so even if someone detected that something was off about Zhao Fu, he could use Ye Cang's body to show the Night Dynasty's power and attract some people to join the Night Dynasty.

Chapter 777 - Night Demon Constitution

"Arghh!!" With Ughr's ill-natured personality, how could he endure being suddenly attacked like that? He gave a loud roar and caused boundless demonic qi to rush forth. They instantly formed three demon tigers and each leaped towards Ye Cang, giving off ferocious auras.

Zhao Fu did not even bother to stand up. With the various powers he had attained, Zhao Fu knew Ye Cang did not have to be afraid of Ughr at all. He stretched out his hand and caused a black substance to gather which formed a three meter long exquisite looking sword. This was the power of the Night Demon Constitution – it could allow one to gather darkness energy at will.

As the three demon tigers sprang over, Zhao Fu waved his hand, and the sword gave off a black crescent as it shot out. The three demon tigers were easily slashed through and exploded into countless traces of demonic qi.

Suddenly, an incredibly terrifying figure appeared behind Zhao Fu – it was Ughr. Ughr's eyes had become violet-colored, and his body was one meter taller, turning into a three-meter giant. His body was covered with muscles, and there was a horn on his head – this was his family's Demon King's Power.

After seeing the three demonic tigers were not enough to deal with Ye Cang, Ughr immediately unleashed his Demon King's Power. His body blurred as he appeared behind Ye Cang and punched with immense destructive force towards him.

Just as the punch was about to hit Zhao Fu, black substance gathered and formed a black barrier. As Ughr's punch landed on the barrier, it only caused a few cracks. This made him feel quite shocked.

Suddenly, the black barrier disappeared, and a massive hand made out of mighty demonic qi shot towards Ughr.

Ughr was greatly startled, and he roared as he crossed his arms. Demonic qi surged forth and formed a rectangular shield which was three meters tall and 1.5 meters wide. It had a demon king engraved on it.

Ughr was quite confident in this shield since it was his family's most powerful defensive skill. Everything inferior to the Demon King's Power would be devoured by the Demon King's Shield.

Bang!!

As the massive demonic hand crashed into the Demon King's Shield, the demon king engraved on the shield opened its mouth to try to devour the demonic hand. However, Ughr was shocked to find it could not devour the hand; in fact, it had no effect on the hand at all.

The Demon King's Shield instantly shattered, and Ughr was sent flying approximately ten meters. He crashed onto the ground with a trace of blood leaking out of his mouth.

This caused everyone to feel quite surprised. Now, it was quite evident that Ye Cang was strong; he was actually able to win against Ughr who was strong even among the Legatees.

Everyone quickly got out of the way, and no one tried to stop this. Only the strong had the right to speak. This was an unspoken rule which everyone knew, and those who were weak could only follow it.

Ughr climbed up from the ground savagely glared at Zhao Fu before yelling, "I'll eat you!!"

Boom!!

A massive demonic flame rose up from Ughr's body, and a terrifying might spread out. The ground started to crack as Ughr used his full strength and rushed towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu coldly smiled and raised his black sword. The demonic qi in the surrounding area immediately flooded into the black sword and caused it to give off an immense demonic light that seemed to be able to devour space itself. A mighty sword light spread out and gave off a might that weighed down on everyone's souls.

The surrounding people looked incredibly shocked as they discovered there was something off about Ye Cang; he was used a demon god's skills. Otherwise, the demonic qi would not have been so lively, and he would not have given off the might of a demon god.

Boom!!

Ughr flew at Zhao Fu, whereas Zhao Fu slashed out. A gigantic sword light flashed out and sent Ughr flying once again. He crashed 100 meters away with a 15-centimeter long gash on his chest where black blood continuously flowed out.

“Arghhh!!” The immense pain caused Ughr to go completely berserk. An even greater power burst forth as he started to use his City Lord Seal's power.

Zhao Fu also started to use his City Lord Seal's power. The two massive auras continuously collided, and it seemed the two sides were about to clash again. At that moment, Mo Qi could not watch on anymore and said, “Enough, both of you stop! We're here to discuss how to stop the God Race's invasion.”

As Mo Qi spoke, a mountain-like aura locked down the entire region and caused everyone to feel a weight on their hearts.

Zhao Fu's pupils constricted. He found that Mo Qi's strength was on par with his main body's; another powerful foe had appeared. Currently, his clone was not a match for Mo Qi.

While under Mo Qi's massive aura, Ye Cang and Ughr both stopped. Ughr ferociously glared at Ye Cang before returning to his seat. His wound healed in the blink of an eye which made it seem as if nothing had happened. This recovery rate was quite shocking.

Zhao Fu also returned to his seat. Everyone's gaze toward him became completely different; there was now a trace of respect and fear.

Before, they only saw a bastard like Ye Cang taking over the Night Dynasty as a joke. All of them secretly looked down on him.

However, it seemed he was quite powerful and could even defeat Ughr. He could even use demon god skills. This made Ye Cang seem incredibly mysterious. They had only heard of demon god skills and had never seen them before. Practically no one could obtain a godly spirit's skills.

Indeed, Zhao Fu had used the demon god's skills. After all, with a Demon Race body, such skills would be even more powerful.

Mo Yao'Er also looked at Zhao Fu in surprise. She had never expected Ye Cang to become so powerful in such a short amount of time. Even she would not be a match for him at this point.

At that moment, the bald-headed elder stepped out and said, "Does anyone have any good plans to deal with the God Race's invasion?"

The gloomy-looking young man coldly harrumphed, "What else is there to do but fight? The God Race bathed over a hundred of our regions in blood; we must pay the same back to them!"

The Demon Race was quite ferocious, and all of them seemed quite bloodthirsty. Of course, they had a detailed plan for how they were going to fight. Mo Yao'Er contributed a bit to the discussions, whereas Zhao Fu did not say anything. Soon, the meeting concluded.

Zhao Fu's primary goal was to gain some understanding of the Demon Race's various factions' strength. Since he had achieved his goal, he left together with Mo Yao'Er.

However, when Zhao Fu left, he saw Ughr staring at him with dense killing intent. Zhao Fu did not care as he also wanted to find an opportunity to kill Ughr. Zhao Fu also planned to bring his main body over since there would soon be many benefits to be obtained.

After returning to the Southern Continent, Zhao Fu started to gather his forces. However, he did not plan to bring indigenous resident soldiers; he only brought players.

The Night Dynasty was only responsible for one of the 1,000 golden doors; how could Zhao Fu overcommit to a battle between the Dark Demon people and Spirit Light people? Of course, he would be trying to get as many benefits as possible.

Zhao Fu's main body also brought some people and snuck into the Dark Demon world. During chaotic times like this, no one would notice if Zhao Fu secretly destroyed a few cities. Of course, he had to be incredibly careful, or else they would be surrounded and attacked.

Chapter 778 - Experts Arrive

Zhao Fu used Ye Cang's body to lead four million players to the Dark Demon world's Northern Continent. They did not feel much before reaching the golden doors, but after reaching this place, the smell of blood and the aura of death was everywhere.

Zhao Fu had passed through the ruins of a system main city with corpses and blood everywhere. There was no trace of life, and the city gave off an eerie aura that emphasized death.

Everything of value had already been pillaged; every race would take anything of value after killing, and even non-useful items were destroyed. Everyone understood they had to weaken their enemies as much as possible and show no mercy.

Most of the Demon Race's equipment contained demonic qi, so the God Race could not use them. After all, the Demon Race and God Race's attributes countered each other.

As such, the God Race had taken all of the equipment to either throw away or destroy; they refused to leave anything for the Demon Race. The people from the Demon Race did not want the corpses either. Although they had the ability to become stronger from devouring flesh and blood, that only worked for fresh flesh and blood. These corpses had already been rotting for a few days, and they were already too impure, so they had become useless.

Zhao Fu inwardly smiled and said in sorrow, "We shouldn't let our comrades' corpses lie here and rot. We should let them rest in peace; we should build a world filled with love. At the same time, we should remember the cruel things the God Race has done to fuel our battle intent. The Demon Race will never be bullied by anyone!"

If Zhao Fu had said those words in the human world, he definitely would have had many people clapping and cheering. Many people would have even come to help Zhao Fu.

However, all of the Dark Demon people around him felt there was something wrong with Zhao Fu's head for him to say such idiotic words.

Zhao Fu did not care. He simply wanted to use this as an excuse to order people to start collecting corpses. The Spirit Light people had massacred their way through 148 regions, which would have at least 40 million Stage 1 corpses. There were also countless high Grade corpses, and even the lower Grade corpses could be thrown into the Corpse Soul Blood Lake and Fountain of Life.

If they were not worth putting into the Corpse Soul Blood Lake or Fountain of Life, they could be turned into Undead. Great Qin did not waste a single corpse; Zhao Fu respected the corpses of Great Qin soldiers, but he did not care about other people's corpses at all.

Zhao Fu did not carry out the collection himself and instead left it to the Night Dynasty's people to do. Most of the people did not care about the Night Dynasty doing such a stupid thing.

Afterward, Zhao Fu slowly brought his people to a golden door. There were four million Spirit Light people defending here, and their equipment all gave off a bright glow, making them seem incredibly holy in stark contrast to Zhao Fu's side shrouded in demonic qi.

Zhao Fu felt that these Spirit Light people were too high-profile; their bright equipment was simply too eye-catching.

"Stay here and build defenses; don't attack for now!" Zhao Fu simply came to make a show and had no plans to use his battle force at all. As such, he did not plan to attack and only defended.

The Spirit Light people had long since constructed defenses. They had already obtained massive gains from invading, and they were now waiting for the Demon Race to attack. They understood how bloodthirsty the Demon Race was; they would definitely come for revenge. That way, the Spirit Light people would be able to obtain even more Invasion Points.

They had set up many traps here, most of which were things able to suppress the Demon Race. The battles at the other places were incredibly intense, but Zhao Fu's area was incredibly peaceful.

The Spirit Light commander in charge of this golden door felt quite confused seeing Zhao Fu behave in a pacifist manner. They had killed so many demons, so the Demon Race should be incredibly furious. However, why was this demon so nonchalant about attacking?

The commander felt that the other side definitely had something up their sleeves. Because the Spirit Light people had already prepared defenses and traps which gave them a big advantage, he naturally would not choose to attack. As such, he could only watch as Zhao Fu's people slowly built their defenses. Just like that, the two armies continued to merely face off and stare at each other.

Zhao Fu did not ask for reinforcements from any system main cities to have a reason not to attack. He did not want to help out at all as it would require sacrificing the Night Dynasty's forces which now belonged to Great Qin. By now, Zhao Fu's main body had reached here as well.

Meanwhile, in front of another golden door, countless Dark Demon soldiers roared as they formed a massive tide and rushed towards the opposing Spirit Light soldiers.

At that moment, the magic formations under the Spirit Light side's defensive walls were activated and caused countless searing rays of white light to shoot out toward the demon tide. Thousands of rays of light blasted out, giving off shocking sounds.

The massive power from the rays of light sent the Dark Demon soldiers flying. Countless were killed and injured in just an instant, bringing their momentum to a halt.

The Spirit Light soldiers then drew their bows to shoot out arrows which descended like torrential rain. Blood flew everywhere and cries continuously sounded out as the Dark Demon army once again took a heavy blow, losing many people.

However, the Demon Race was not weak at all, and the demons started to release their full power. Blood-red flames appeared around them as they squatted down and pressed against the ground. This caused blood-red magic formations to appear. The magic formations absorbed the blood around them and caused their bodies to give off brilliant blood-red light.

They tapped off the ground which caused the ground to instantly crack, and they looked like red lasers as they shot out. They broke through the Spirit Light people's various magic formations and slammed against the defensive wall.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Massive sounds rang out as the Spirit Light people's defensive walls continuously trembled, causing them to feel quite startled. After a wave of explosions, the wall was covered with cracks, and some parts had completely caved in. The demons had essentially suicide-bombed the defensive wall.

Because of their sacrifice, countless other demons were able to charge forward and reach the defensive wall to start fighting with the Spirit Light people.

As the soldiers began to fight, the City Lords from both sides also engaged each other in the air.

When the Spirit Light people's World Protector had said there was a Demon Race world next to their world, almost all of the Spirit Light people had been completely sent into a frenzy. They were all instantly united in a common goal to get rid of the Demon Race and destroy all evil.

They had gathered almost all of their entire world's power to invade the Demon Race and purify them. Keguna was one of the Spirit Light City Lords, and he unhesitatingly joined in.

However, the Demon Race was quite powerful, and this was their domain. Keguna faced attacks from two Dark Demon City Lords. He was unable to hold on for much longer. There was a deep wound on his chest where bone could be seen, and blood continuously flowed out.

"Am I going to die here?" Keguna thought sadly.

A Dark Demon City Lord unleashed a massive wave of saber light towards Keguna who was unable to defend anymore.

Suddenly, a searing ray of light with a massive aura descended from the sky. The terrifying aura caused everyone nearby to tremble, and an awe-inspiring figure appeared. He wore a cloak white as snow and had six pairs of angelic wings, giving off a pure and holy light.

Keguna felt incredibly delighted and cried out, "Our people's experts have arrived!"

Chapter 779 - God Race Expert

Even though Keguna could not see that person's face, he was sure that this person was from the God Race. The holy light coming from his body was incredibly pure, making one feel comfortable and at peace. Only high-grade God Race people would have such power.

What's more, this person had blocked a fatal blow for him. In this battle, only someone from the God Race would do this.

"Thank you for saving my life, sir!" Keguna hurriedly bowed to this person. The hierarchy in the God Race was extremely strict, and this person was much stronger than him and had saved his life. It was only fitting that he should show appropriate respect.

The person did not reply, making Keguna feel a bit awkward. However, most experts were cold and arrogant, so he was not too surprised. Regardless, this person was a good person deep down, or he would not have saved him.

This person giving off holy light was, of course, Zhao Fu. This holy light energy did not come from Zhao Fu's body but from the Seraph Sword. In order to pretend to be someone from the Spirit Light race, Zhao Fu had put on a pure-white cloak, making him look quite righteous.

Zhao Fu did not reply before because he could not understand what that person had said, and he did not speak the language either. He did not want his identity to be exposed.

As for the reason why he had saved Keguna, it was to blend in with the rest of the Spirit Light people. He wanted the Dark Demon people to think that he was part of the Spirit Light people; otherwise, Zhao Fu would not be so kind as to save someone from the Spirit Light race.

The two Dark Demon City Lords looked at the person holding the holy sword in front of them. To be able to give off the holy light that they hated so much, this person was undoubtedly part of the God Race. This person also felt quite strong, and they did not feel too confident in defeating him.

By now, another four Dark Demon City Lords had discovered this expert and quickly flew over. The six Dark Demon City Lords looked at each other and decided to deal with this Spirit Light expert together.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Six City Lord Seals rose out of those City Lords' bodies, giving off terrifying demonic light. A massive aura burst forth and dispersed the clouds above as the six Dark Demon City Lords' eyes became red and a large amount of demonic qi flowed out of their bodies.

Keguna could not help but feel quite startled. The power of six Dark Demon City Lords was quite terrifying, and he could not help but wonder if that expert could defend against them. Keguna felt quite uncertain.

"Maybe I should help!" Even though Keguna had been injured, he could still at least keep one of the City Lords busy. He did not want his savior to be put under too much pressure, so he prepared to rush up.

Zhao Fu could tell what Keguna was thinking and held out his hand to stop him. He wanted to act like someone from the Spirit Light race, so he couldn't just let Keguna die in front of him. Moreover, he did not want Keguna to get in his way.

Seeing this, Keguna felt incredibly touched. This expert wanted to face the dangers by himself and wanted to keep him safe. Who would risk facing six powerful enemies for him?

“This expert's simply too kind! He's definitely from one of the noble families!” Keguna thought to himself.

Boom!!

A terrifying saber light, bringing with it demonic might, slashed towards Zhao Fu. It was incredibly powerful and seemed to be able to split open mountains – the Dark Demon side had attacked first.

A condescending smile appeared on Zhao Fu's face. Facing these six Dark Demon City Lords, Zhao Fu did not need help from any of the Great Qin City Lords or even use their power; using his own strength was enough.

As the saber light arrived, Zhao Fu dodged to the side before turning into a ray of light and shooting at the six Dark Demon City Lords.

The six Dark Demon City Lords spread out, surrounding Zhao Fu and simultaneously launching attacks at him. Sword lights, saber lights, and spear lights crashed towards Zhao Fu at the center, resulting in an enormous explosion that sent out berserk shockwaves.

This made Keguna feel quite shocked; if it was him facing these attacks, he would have died instantly. He could not help but feel worried about Zhao Fu.

The six Dark Demon City Lords smiled in satisfaction as Zhao Fu had not even dodged or tried to block their attacks. That was simply seeking death.

However, after the explosion, Zhao Fu slowly spread out three pairs of wings, looking completely fine. This made the six Dark Demon City Lords feel completely shocked; Zhao Fu was completely unscathed by their attacks.

Keguna let out a sigh of relief. He had wanted to go and help but found that this expert did not need his help at all.

Zhao Fu's body flashed and suddenly appeared in front of one of the Dark Demon City Lords. His hand flashed out, piercing through that City Lord's chest with his sword. The City Lord's eyes widened as he tried to say something, but blood continuously flowed out of his mouth as he died.

After killing this City Lord, Zhao Fu's six pristine pairs of wings flapped and he arrived in front of another City Lord, easily killing him as well.

After seeing this, the remaining City Lords understood that they were not a match for Zhao Fu, so they tried to escape in fear but were all killed by Zhao Fu. All of their corpses and City Lord Seals were collected by Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu grinned and prepared to say something to Zhao Fu when he saw Zhao Fu suddenly raise his sword and shoot out a ray of white light. A white ring of light appeared in the sky, giving off white light that shined on the Spirit Light people's bodies.

Keguna found that facing the Dark Demon people's ferocious attacks, the Spirit Light people were being forced back. However, with this light, the Spirit Light people were buffed, allowing them to suppress the Dark Demon people.

By now, Keguna was completely in awe of this expert. This person was incredibly kind, selfless, and powerful, making him feel incredibly moved.

Following this, Zhao Fu killed some more Dark Demon City Lords before turning into a ray of light and vanishing across the horizon. Seeing this, Keguna could not help but feel a bit disappointed.

However, he understood that this expert turning the tide for them was already quite amazing, and that person had not even tried to take credit for anything. He did not deserve to become friends with such an expert; he could only look up at him from a distance.

Within a dense forest, Zhao Fu grinned ecstatically; he had gained 18 City Lord Seals without arousing any suspicions at all. He called over the Assassins he had brought and gave them the City Lord Seals, ordering them to find the Cities and quickly relocate them.

Zhao Fu once again turned into his Spirit Light alter ego and helped the Spirit Light people continue to attack the Dark Demon people. In total, Zhao Fu ended up killing 140 City Lords, and he realized that he had to stop or else he could fall into trouble.

After killing so many City Lords, he had attracted a lot of attention. Many of the Dark Demon people wanted to find an opportunity to kill Zhao Fu.

Now, Zhao Fu was quite famous on the Spirit Light side. Many people knew that a white-cloaked Seraph would appear during times of crisis and save many people. He was praised by countless people, but Zhao Fu felt that he could not continue on like this as it was getting quite dangerous.

Chapter 780 - Demon Race Expert

Moreover, obtaining 140 system main cities was already a shocking harvest, so it was best to be content. At the same time, Zhao Fu had continuously received system announcements of Cities being relocated, netting Great Qin an astronomical amount of EXP and Achievement Points. Zhao Fu grinned and decided to stop masquerading as a God Race expert.

Since he could not keep masquerading as a God Race expert, he could now masquerade as a Demon Race expert to kill people from the Spirit Light world.

Zhao Fu eerily smiled and made some preparations. He took out the Sky Demon Sword and absorbed some of its demonic qi, making him seem like someone from the Demon Race.

This time, Zhao Fu did not wear a cloak. After all, he had just been going around wearing a white cloak, so if a person with a black cloak suddenly appeared, it would be too suspicious. However, even though Zhao Fu did not want to wear a cloak, he did not want to reveal his appearance either.

Zhao Fu cut some wood and whittled it, making a crude mask. He put it on his face, hiding his appearance. Only his terrifying eyes could be seen, making those who saw him feel suppression and terror.

“Demoness! I’ll kill you today!” one of three golden-clad City Lords said as he coldly looked at a woman with dense killing intent.

The woman had graceful bearings and snow-white skin, and she looked incredibly sexy. She was one of the Dark Demon world’s famed beauties, and she was now surrounded by three Spirit Light

City Lords. There was a trace of blood at her lips, and she coldly laughed as she said, “Don’t you God Race people value righteousness? What’s so righteous about teaming up against a weak woman like me?”

One of the Spirit Light City Lords said mockingly, “There’s no need to talk about righteousness when facing demons like you. You are all evil, and killing you is our heavenly duty. No matter what we do, the gods will support us!”

After saying this, the City Lord raised his magic staff, and ripples appeared in the air. A gigantic spear covered with holy runes extended out from mid-air, giving off an incredibly sharp aura that caused people’s hairs to stand on end.

The sexy-looking woman, Xie Mei, looked at that spear in surprise and immediately tried to dodge.

However, the two other Spirit Light City Lords immediately acted – holy light shot out from their hands, causing a formless restrictive power to cover Xie Mei’s body. Xie Mei desperately tried to struggle out of it, but her speed had become greatly reduced.

“Holy Spirit’s Spear!” the City Lord roared, and the spear in the air gave off boundless power as it shot towards Xie Mei. Xie Mei was unable to dodge in time and felt immense despair and powerlessness.

Just as Xie Mei was about to be hit by the spear, a figure suddenly appeared in front of her and sent out a terrifying sword light. The massive sword light instantly shattered the silver spear, causing it to turn into countless shards.

This was no coincidence – Zhao Fu had been hiding nearby and waiting for an opportunity to reveal himself. It was easiest to obtain someone’s trust when helping them during a crisis.

After seeing this powerful figure block the strike for her, the despairing Xie Mei could not help but feel a tremble within her heart.

This person wore black clothes and had very long hair that reached his legs. He held a demonic sword and gave off a very terrifying aura, but Xie Mei felt incredibly at peace. Even though she could only see him from behind, she could tell that he was definitely an incredibly handsome man.

The three Spirit Light City Lords looked at the man in front of them. Sensing the terrifying demonic qi he gave off, they could tell that he was a high-grade demon.

“You God Race people dare to bully someone from the Demon Race!” Because Zhao Fu had long since learned the Dark Demon language, he decided to speak, unlike before when he was pretending to be a God Race expert. His voice was filled with domineeringness, making everyone who heard him feel instinctively scared.

Just as he spoke, he turned into a black blur and rushed towards the Spirit Light City Lords. He arrived in front of them in an instant, giving them a big shock, and they hurriedly put up three white energy barriers.

However, as Zhao Fu slashed out an immense sword light, it instantly shattered the three energy barriers.

Seeing this, the City Lords were completely terrified, and they immediately wanted to run. However, they were not given the chance – one had his chest pierced by Zhao Fu, the other was slashed in half, and the final one’s head was crushed by Zhao Fu. His methods were incredibly cruel and domineering but also quite fascinating.

A figure could not help but move towards Zhao Fu, and Zhao Fu, caught in the moment, swept her into his embrace. Xie Mei’s face became red, and she said shyly, “You’re so domineering! I like that.”

Zhao Fu came back to his senses and felt quite awkward. It seemed that he now instinctively became close to women, so he decided to avoid this in the future.

He then gently pushed her away and transformed into a demonic ray of light before shooting away to another battlefield.

“Kill! Our Demon Race is the most terrifying race; nothing can stop us from sweeping across the world!” On another battlefield, Zhao Fu led a large group of Dark Demon people to charge.

The countless demons were incredibly excited as they followed this Demon Race expert to charge at the Spirit Light people. Zhao Fu began a bloody slaughter, shocking even the people from the Dark Demon race.

After another round of killing, Zhao Fu obtained 80 Spirit Light City Lord Seals, making him feel incredibly delighted. Just as he was about to head to another battlefield, his powerful senses alerted him that there were people waiting in ambush ahead.

It seemed that he had caught too much attention. Zhao Fu sighed; he could not continue to pretend to be part of the Dark Demon race.

In total, he had obtained 220 City Lord Seals. They had already relocated the 140 Dark Demon cities – Great Qin's Assassins had all been temporarily given City Lord Seals, and with the various Dark Demon City Lords fighting on the frontlines, there was no one to look after their domains.

However, there was no way to go to the Spirit Light world, as they defended the golden doors closely. It was not very possible to go to the Spirit Light world through those doors.

Also, it seemed that only the Spirit Light people could use those golden doors. Back when Zhao Fu had masqueraded as a Spirit Light expert, he had tried to use one but had found that he could not use it. It seemed that no other race could use them.

There was nothing he could do about this; Zhao Fu could only order people to have the Trans-Boundary Teleportation Channel brought to the Dark Demon world in order to teleport into the Spirit Light world.

Zhao Fu left the relocating of the Spirit Light system main cities to Great Qin's Assassins. They were well-suited to this job and were quite adept at it.

Now, Zhao Fu returned to Ye Cang's side. He could not continue masquerading as an expert on either side, so he decided to use a third identity to obtain some benefits for the Night Dynasty.

By now, the commander that Ye Cang was facing off against could not wait anymore and started to attack the Night Dynasty's forces, and Zhao Fu immediately went over to help.
