

The Lord 891

Chapter 891: November

The Flower Fairy continuously sent her power into Zhao Fu's chest, and this continued for five or six minutes. After taking her hand away, a rainbow-colored flower grew out from Zhao Fu's chest – this was not a corporeal flower but one made of light.

The appearance of this flower caused Zhao Fu's wounds to stabilize, and the golden crystal formed by Phoenix Qi in Zhao Fu's body started to give off a large amount of Phoenix Qi to restore Zhao Fu's body.

Standing by the side, Xianru could sense these changes, and she marveled at the Phoenix Qi's powerful recovery ability.

Under the cooperation from the flower and the Phoenix Qi, Zhao Fu's wounds took a turn for the better, allowing everyone present to let out a sigh of relief. In the next few days, Zhao Fu's injuries became better and better.

Because Zhao Fu had not come out for a long time in the real world, Zheng Yuqin forced open his door and found that he was lying on his bed, covered in blood. She was immediately scared out of her wits, and this matter shook the entire Ying family.

If something happened to Great Qin's Legatee within the Ying family, the consequences would be unimaginable. The family leaders personally came and ordered people to use the best equipment and medicines to save Zhao Fu.

After hearing about this, Wu Qingniang put a pause on the many things she had to do and personally came to visit Zhao Fu. Seeing there were so many women by Zhao Fu's side, she could not help but frown. "Since when was this guy so lucky to have so many women looking after him?"

However, she found that she recognized some of them, as they had gone to the same university. Zhao Fu had most likely brought them here to protect them, and now that the world was so chaotic, one had to be quite careful.

Wu Qingniang did not know what had happened to Zhao Fu; it was most likely something within the Heaven Awaken World. He had so many layers of protection in the real world that it was almost impossible for him to be injured so severely without anyone noticing, and no one knew how he had been injured.

Thinking about that shocking battle from before, the destructive shockwaves had spread through all of China. A sense of darkness and despair spread out, making everyone feel incredibly powerless.

Even though Wu Qingniang had not been directly involved, she understood how terrifying that battle had been. In the face of that power, she had felt incredibly weak and small.

Zhao Fu had most likely been caught up in the shockwaves of that battle. Wu Qingniang felt that Zhao Fu could not remain by Great Qin's Legatee's side, as it was too dangerous. After he woke up, she would talk to him about leaving Great Qin's Legatee.

As Zhao Fu's body in the Heaven Awaken World gradually recovered, his body in the real world also recuperated. This made Wu Qingniang feel quite relieved, and she soon left.

During this time, Zhao Fu's grandparents came often to see Zhao Fu. They had wanted to stay and take care of him, but because there were already people assigned to look after him, the Ying family did not allow it, and they could only come to see him.

Zhao Fu's uncle and aunty had also come once or twice because their luxurious lifestyles had been given to them by Zhao Fu. They were worried that if Zhao Fu died, they would lose everything, so they came to see him every now and then.

Zhao Fu's cousins did not come because they knew about Zheng Jiao and Mei Xiaoyan. This was especially so for Zhao Fu's younger cousin – seeing how lewd Mei Xiaoyan, who did not even allow him to touch her, acted in front of Zhao Fu, he felt quite angry towards Zhao Fu.

However, both of Zhao Fu's cousins had found good girlfriends now, so they did not feel as hateful. However, they broke off relations with Zhao Fu and decided not to visit.

It was now November, and the Heaven Awaken World had gone into winter. The weather became quite cold, and there was often frost on tree leaves early in the morning. Everything was a lifeless gray and black, and countless creatures went into hibernation.

Zhao Fu, who had been sleeping for more than a month, finally woke up, causing all of Great Qin to celebrate. Li Si and Bai Qi hurried to the palace to check up on how he was.

Just as they entered the palace, they heard a weak but dignified voice say, “How long have We been sleeping for?”

Hearing this, Li Si felt incredibly happy; he had never thought that Zhao Fu would start referring to himself as ‘We.’ Li Si had reminded him to speak like a King, but Zhao Fu still often used ‘I’ out of habit. Now that Zhao Fu had started to use ‘We’ after waking up, it seemed that he had gone through some changes after being injured and recovering.

Li Si replied in a soft voice, “Your Majesty, you’ve been sleeping for a bit more than a month.”

After falling silent for a moment, Zhao Fu asked, “What has happened after We fell asleep?”

Li Si respectfully replied, “Don’t worry, Your Majesty. All of the Generals and Ministers have done a lot in this time. Not only have we taken down the five Dynasties, but we’ve also started to clear out the surrounding regions and build the third Great Wall.”

Hearing this, Zhao Fu let out a sigh of relief, and he started to ask about more specific things, which Li Si replied to in detail.

Now that Zhao Fu had finally woken up, all of his subordinates let out a sigh of relief. They once again started to consult Zhao Fu when making decisions, and even though most things were discussed in a big group, there were sometimes things that Zhao Fu was not pleased with. As such, they had to bring things up with him, as Zhao Fu was the King of Great Qin.

Zhao Fu’s body quickly recovered over these days, and soon, his wounds had essentially fully healed. His strength had not fully recovered yet, and because he was still quite weak, he would have to go to the Yin Qi Valley for a while.

After his wounds fully healed, Zhao Fu first went to thank the Flower Fairy and gave her some rewards. He also took out the Revival Pill and placed it in the Imperial Physicians Pavilion in case something like this happened again.

Zhao Fu had never thought that his injuries would be so serious this time. However, given that he had fought against two World Protectors, it was not too surprising.

One of the first things that Zhao Fu planned to do now was to give titles to Concubines and refine the five Nation Armaments.

Thinking about those five Nation Armaments, Zhao Fu could not help but smile. Despite being injured so severely, it had been somewhat worth it.

They had destroyed the Shang Dynasty, Jin Dynasty, Sui Dynasty, Song Dynasty, and Qing Dynasty. Out of them, the Shang Dynasty was one of the Five Ancient Dynasties, and Zhao Fu had used his Heart Sword to kill the Sui Dynasty, Song Dynasty, and Qing Dynasty's Legatees.

Si Ji and the other Dynasty Legatees had chosen to immediately escape with their lives, but Di Wutian had not been willing to run, and he had roared as he rushed at Zhao Fu. However, he had been quickly killed. Zhao Fu then caught up with the Jin Dynasty's Legatee, but right as he killed him, the two World Protectors' powerful attacks had hit him, injuring him heavily and forcing him to stop chasing after the other Dynasty Legatees.

The Shang Dynasty's Nation Armament was the Star Plucking Tower, the Jin Dynasty's Nation Armament was the Eight Silver Dragons, the Sui Dynasty's Nation Armament was the Great Dragon Boat, the Song Dynasty's Nation Armament was the Emperor Cloth, and the Qing Dynasty's Nation Armament was the Dragon Vein.

Chapter 892: Refining

Bai Qi had captured women from the five Dynasties, and these women included all sorts of relatives of the Legatees.

Of course, many of these women were on the Ancient Beauty Rankings. Just Di Wutian alone had the third-ranked beauty, Su Dafei; the eighth-ranked beauty, Zhao Hanyue; the seventeenth-ranked beauty, Xia Ji; the twelfth-ranked beauty, Dong Xiaowan; and the thirty-ninth-ranked beauty, Li Hongzhu.

The other Dynasty's Legatees also had many women on the rankings, because not only were they beautiful, but they also had a large amount of Phoenix Qi, which everyone needed.

Out of them, Su Dafei was quite strange. Bai Qi had expected these people to escape if they had the opportunity, but she had led Azure Hill's women to wait for Great Qin with countless treasures.

Di Wutian had many women, and everyone knew how dissolute he was. He had 300 or so women, and they were all incredibly pretty and beautiful. There were younger women and more mature women, and it was said that one of Di Wutian's greatest hobbies was collecting beauties.

These women all had some Phoenix Qi, so Bai Qi had brought them back to help Zhao Fu refine the Nation Armaments and also take for himself.

Zhao Fu originally had only been with virgins before, but as time had passed, he did not mind too much about this anymore.

Before, Zhao Fu had seemed to like mature women more, and some people had discovered this, so most of the women presented to him were more mature ones.

Perhaps this had to do with Zhao Fu's younger years, but that was not too important.

The way Zhao Fu treated these women was also different to before; as a monarch, the person with the most power in Great Qin, he could do as he liked without any restraint.

However, there were very few women who could actually make Zhao Fu feel much, and he had barely paid much mind to most of the women. That was how Zhao Fu's personality was, but he would still provide for them.

Sitting on his throne, Zhao Fu had the women brought in. There were 500 or so of them, and just the women from the Shang Dynasty alone made up about 60%.

The most eye-catching and bewitching one was, of course, Su Dafei. Her alluring eyes could steal one's soul, and her Azure Hill clan was a type of nine-tailed fox, and they were innately incredibly charming.

When Zhao Fu had been recuperating, he had often heard Little Nine talk about a 'big sister Su.' Because they were both nine-tailed foxes, Little Nine immediately came to like Su Dafei. She was the only woman who had been given preferential treatment from the five Dynasties, and this was not because of Little Nine but because she was good at establishing relations and had impressed Li Si and many other Ministers.

Moreover, she had brought the entire Azure Hill clan to join Great Qin, and Zhao Fu had summoned her. Things had happened between them, and he had been surprised to find that she was still a virgin. How could Di Wutian, who was so lascivious, not have touched her?

Su Dafei's explanation was that the Azure Hill clan liked to submit to those who were powerful. Even though Great Shang was not bad, it was not the best. It did not even have a Kingdom, and she had agreed to give herself and the Azure Hill Clan after Great Shang established a Kingdom. However, it was a pity that Great Shang had been destroyed by Great Qin.

Now, Zhao Fu understood why the outside world had said that Di Wutian and Su Dafei's relationship had been quite hazy; it seemed that Su Dafei had always prepared a way out for herself and had not been completely loyal to the Shang Dynasty.

However, the other women, such as Zhao Hanyue and the others, were no longer virgins.

They looked at Zhao Fu with complicated expressions; they had been sent by their families to Great Shang to be Di Wutian's women, but they had been caught by Great Qin. They had no control over their own fates; that was their tragedy in this chaotic world.

However, something to be happy about was that Zhao Fu treated women well and was not ruthless and licentious like the rumors had said. Moreover, with Great Qin's powerful strength, they would be able to live peacefully here.

After making them all Concubines, Great Qin obtained an ocean of Phoenix Qi. As expected from the women from the five Dynasties, the golden crystal within Zhao Fu's body became somewhat larger as well.

Following this, Zhao Fu took the five Nation Armaments to the Heaven and Earth Refining Formation and prepared to conduct the Great World Refinement to refine them together.

This required even more people to gather the Heaven and Earth Fate. Great Qin did not lack such people; after destroying the five Dynasties and refining their Generals' corpses, they had obtained many Grade Orbs and Innate Talent Blood Crystals, which had been given to those who had performed well.

Zhao Fu took 25 people to the Heaven and Earth Refining Formation and placed the five Nation Armaments at the center. Zhao Fu could not help but feel somewhat excited; after refining them, Great Qin would have another five Nation Armaments.

If Zhao Fu had only relied on the Six Paths Demon Images' power in the previous battle, he would not have been able to withstand the two World Protectors and 11 Dynasty Legatees. At that time, the various Clan Armaments and Nation Armaments had all been a great help.

The 25 people followed Zhao Fu's orders and started to send their Fate into the magic formation, causing all of the energy stones to instantly disintegrate.

Boom!!

A shocking explosion sounded out throughout all of China, and countless people once again looked in the direction of Great Qin. After the battle, Great Qin had fallen into silence as it had been busy devouring the nearby regions. What was it doing now?

Now, there was no one who could stop Great Qin, just like Great Qin in history – the six States had been powerless to stop Great Qin from unifying China.

The weather started to change as massive winds blew, causing sand and stones to fly and trees to shake. All of China felt a massive amount of Fate gathering towards Great Qin.

They were going to refine five Nation Armaments, so the amount of Fate Great Qin gathered was naturally quite large. After all, in total, China only had 12 Nation Armaments, and this was nearly half of them.

In the sky, a massive rainbow-colored cauldron gave off a boundless power as it stood between the heavens and the earth, seeming as if it was suppressing the world.

The five Nation Armaments flew into the cauldron and were refined by a formless flame. The five Dynasties' auras were gradually burned away while Great Qin's Fate madly rushed into them.

The five Nation Armaments absorbed a massive amount of Great Qin's Fate and slowly went through changes. These five Nation Armaments belonged to China, and because Great Qin also belonged to China, the refining process was much simpler.

After a while, the marks of the five Dynasties had been burned away, and Great Qin's own aura and mark had been instilled into the Nation Armaments.

Boom!!

Another shocking explosion sounded out as the rainbow cauldron dispersed into traces of Fate, and the five refined Nation Armaments gave off terrifying might as they slowly descended from the sky.

Zhao Fu smiled as he stretched out his hand, took hold of the five Nation Armaments, and looked at their information.

Chapter 893: Human King

The first was the Star Plucking Tower. It was 30 centimeters tall, and there was a stage made of stones below it, which took up two-thirds of its height. The tower looked quite exquisite and luxurious, and it was made of wood and gave off a dense, starry, mysterious aura. It had the Shang Dynasty's unique script, which had been turned into Qin script.

This was originally the Shang Dynasty's Nation Armament, and as the Nation Armament of one of the Five Ancient Dynasties, it was more powerful than ordinary Nation Armaments. Zhao Fu decided to re-name it Qin Star Tower.

The second Nation Armament was eight silver dragons that were each 30 centimeters long. They were baring their fangs and brandishing their claws, looking incredibly fierce. Now that they had absorbed a lot of Great Qin Fate, they had become a dark silver color and gave off an even more savage aura.

This was originally the Jin Dynasty's Nation Armament, and it had most likely been created during the War of the Eight Princes. Zhao Fu named it Eight Qin Dragons.

The third was a boat that was 30 centimeters long. It was made of jade and had a dragon's head at the front and a dragon's tail at the back. There were seven floors and had many small buildings on it. It was covered with jewels and looked incredibly precious, and it now gave off the powerful aura of Great Qin.

This was the Sui Dynasty's Great Dragon Boat, and Emperor Yang of Sui had sailed on it many times up the Grand Canal.

Even though Emperor Taizong of Tang, Li Shimin, was a good Emperor, he had been proficient at slandering. Emperor Yang of Sui, the former Emperor, was not a very muddleheaded Emperor, and Li Shimin's older brother, Li Jiancheng, had actually been quite a talented military strategist, and he was not as useless as he had been said to be.

However, the Tang Dynasty's historical records had said that Emperor Yang of Sui and Li Jiancheng were incredibly hopeless, and many people had believed these things. It was only in recent times that more historical evidence had shown otherwise; that was how the system of victors and losers worked in ancient times.

Zhao Fu decided to name this beautiful boat Qin Boat.

The fourth Nation Armament was a yellow cloth that did not look very special, except for the fact that it gave off a faint golden light. There also seemed to be a dragon's shadow swimming about within it, giving off a King's aura. Now, it had become a black cloth and gave off a black light.

This was originally the Song Dynasty's Nation Armament, the Emperor Cloth. Legend had it that it was the yellow cloth from the robes of Zhao Kuangyin, the founding Song Emperor.

Zhao Fu had already taken down Later Zhou, and its aura was quite similar to the Song Dynasty's, as Zhao Kuangyin had been a General in Later Zhou and staged a military uprising. Zhao Fu decided to name it Qin Emperor Cloth.

The final Nation Armament was a backbone that was 30 centimeters long and seemed snow-white like jade. It seemed to be the backbone of a dragon, and it gave off a dragon's might. This was the Qing Dynasty's Dragon Vein, which Zhao Fu renamed Qin Dragon Vein.

After looking at these five Nation Armaments, Zhao Fu satisfiedly placed them next to the Great Qin City's City Heart to be nourished by Great Qin's Fate. Now that Great Qin had nine Nation Armaments, Great Qin's Nation Power once again rose to a new level.

Zhao Fu also wanted to make the Imperial Ruler's Seal Great Qin's Clan Armament, but after thinking about it, Great Qin was part of China, and because it was enough for Great Qin to just use it, it was better not to do something like that.

Apart from the five Nation Armaments, there was something else that was quite important, which was that Great Qin's grade had once again increased. Every time Great Qin took down a Nation Legacy, it received an Evolution Point, and every time it took down a Dynasty Legacy, it received five Evolution Points.

Now, the Great Qin City had finally obtained 30 Evolution Points, and it had leveled up from an Epic grade City into a Human King grade City. It was the human world's first Human King City.

The Great Qin leveling up into a Human King City had caused many abnormal signs, but because Zhao Fu had been unconscious, he had not seen them.

It was said that the entire Great Qin City gave off golden light as the clouds swirled, and a massive amount of Fate gathered towards Great Qin, forming a massive golden dragon that entered the Great Qin City.

As a Human King City, it greatly surpassed Epic grade Cities, and its stats had greatly been increased. It now had five effects.

The first was Human King Might, which allowed the City to give off a King's might. It had fused with the Great Qin City's Barony level and formed a Kingdom's might.

Within a certain range, Great Qin's territory would give off a might that would cause ordinary beasts to instinctively feel fear and not come near. This not only applied to beasts but other creatures as well.

For example, without anyone controlling them, Undead would feel quite fearful as well, making it so that they instinctively avoided Great Qin.

The second was Human King Fate, which allowed this city to gather Heaven and Earth Fate. This was extremely powerful, as very few things could gather Heaven and Earth Fate.

The third was Human King Might, which was not King's Power but the power that a City gave off. It was a type of King's Power, and it caused the Great Qin Seal's power to once again increase.

The fourth was Human King Shield. When the Great Qin City was met with danger, it would give off a powerful barrier that would protect the Great Qin City.

The barrier was a high-grade barrier and was many times more powerful than ordinary barriers, and it provided great protection for Great Qin.

The fifth was the activation of the Human King's Guard profession. This was a profession unique to Human King grade Cities, and it was a B grade military profession.

This was quite important, because as a Legacy City, Great Qin's professions would become stronger as the City became stronger. Before, Great Qin soldier was a D+ grade military profession, but as the Great Qin City's grade had increased, it had become a C- grade military profession.

In other words, Great Qin's most basic military profession was already C- grade, which greatly increased Great Qin's overall strength. The higher the grade of a military profession, the better its effects and stats.

After looking through the Great Qin City's information, Zhao Fu happily smiled. The Great Qin City could still be upgraded; the next grade was Human Emperor Grade, which was even more powerful, and it was not something that the Human King Grade could ever compare to.

However, the requirement was even more difficult, as the requirement was to unify an entire world.

Great Qin definitely could not achieve this right now. Even though it had obtained victory this time, it did not have the power to face an entire world. After all, most people from the other Continents did not act, or else, it would not have just been 30,000 City Lords attacking.

After taking care of these matters, Zhao Fu turned his attention back to Great Qin's main tasks, which were clearing out the regions and constructing the third Great Wall. Even though these things progressed quite quickly, Zhao Fu still felt that it was too slow.

This was because if they cleared 60 regions in a month, it would take half a year to clear 950 regions, and the time it took to complete the Great Wall would be even longer.

The real world had not been destroyed yet and had not been fused into the Heaven Awaken World, so the more powerful Great Qin was now, the greater the advantage it would have in the future.

Chapter 894: Development

When that time came, there would be various worlds invading, and the human world would become quite complicated. Great Qin was only a small pebble in the Heaven Awaken World.

It would no longer have such an important position like it did right now in the human world. When that time came, Great Qin would be nothing; even a Dukedom would be able to casually come and destroy it.

As such, Zhao Fu wanted to develop as quickly as possible, as this was the best time for development. They could not afford to waste any time.

Zhao Fu discussed with his subordinates and decided to add another 50 million soldiers to the army, bringing the army up to 250 million soldiers. Great Qin now had 2.7 billion people, and after clearing out the regions, they would have even more.

Apart from expanding the army, Zhao Fu also planned to establish a people's militia made of 100 million people. The people's militia would do some regular training and could be used in emergencies. When there were not enough proper soldiers or the proper soldiers were tied up, they could be used.

This brought Great Qin's overall military to 350 million soldiers. 50 million were left to defend Great Qin, while the remaining 300 million soldiers were split into 30 teams to clear out the regions. They could clear out 30 regions per week, which was 120 regions per month. It would take roughly eight months to clear out the 950 regions.

After taking care of these things, Zhao Fu felt quite bored. The less important matters were given to the various Generals and Ministers to do, and Zhao Fu realized that he had not left the Legacy Land in a while. As such, he went to the outside world and found that almost all of the Grassi people were talking about the human world.

Zhao Fu felt quite intrigued and did make some inquiries, and he found that it was about the Celestial Emperor Star and Nether Emperor Star. It had been quite a while since those stars had descended, but it seemed that they were still hotly discussed.

With their strength, they did not know the abilities of those two Emperor Stars, but they understood that those stars were incredibly powerful.

Some people said that a demonic genius had descended, which was why those stars had appeared, and they warned everyone not to offend the people from that world or risk being destroyed.

Others mourned that the heavens were unjust, giving the world after theirs such a person but not their world. That person would definitely be a scourge to the Grassi world in the future and might even destroy the Grassi world.

Some people were incredibly curious as to what race the people from the next world were; were they Humans or from the Death Race? Was it a single terrifying person who had awakened those stars or was it two people? Those two stars' attributes were completely different, and when they thought about that, everyone felt quite startled – could it be that there were two demonic geniuses?

Those were only some guesses from the common people, and the Grassi world's various Kingdoms also took this matter incredibly seriously. All of the Kings held emergency meetings and listed the human world as a grave threat, and the human world could even be a greater threat than the Lantong people.

Because of this, they did not plan to attack anymore, and they instead started to focus on defense. Even though it was only a new world, it was growing incredibly powerful. If the Heavenly Domain Boundary disappeared one day, it was possible that it would not be the Grassi people attacking the human world but the human world attacking the Grassi people. If that happened, what could they do?

After hearing about these things, Zhao Fu felt quite amused; Great Qin did not have that kind of strength at all. However, the Grassi people choosing to defend instead of attacking was an incredibly good thing and would lessen the pressure on the human world. However, if they personally saw the true strength of the human world, they might change their minds.

In actuality, Zhao Fu somewhat wanted to attack the Grassi world, but Great Qin had not even unified the human world, so this would have to be put off for a while.

After buying a large number of Talisman Stones, Zhao Fu once again returned to the human world. Even though Great Qin had won this battle, it had used up a large amount of resources to achieve this victory. Things like the Disaster Pearls and the five million aquatic beast corpses were things that could not be replenished, so they could not be used again.

Zhao Fu had already thought of the plan for the future: After clearing out the regions, they would continue to develop outwards and destroy Myanmar and Laos.

Zhao Fu did not have much to do now, so he started to fish at a creek while cultivating. The higher one's Cultivation was, the harder it was to raise it further.

At that moment, Li Si came over and reminded Zhao Fu, "Your Majesty, you have not dealt with Flower Moon yet. Would you like this subordinate to take care of it?"

Hearing this, Zhao Fu sank into his thoughts for a while. Before, Zhao Fu had very rarely trusted people, and out of all of the players, only Xianru had received Zhao Fu's trust. This was because she had been with Great Qin for so long.

Factions were made up of many people, and it was impossible for everyone to be of one mind. As such, Zhao Fu never fully trusted factions, and that was why he did not allow any factions to join Great Qin.

Even though the leader of Flower Moon did not do anything, its members had betrayed Great Qin. Even though they had not leaked any important information, it was still a betrayal.

Zhao Fu returned to the palace and had Flower Moon's people brought out. Su Yuyan's expression was quite complicated as she looked at Zhao Fu with an intense look of bitterness. She had never thought that Zhao Fu would be Great Qin's Legatee; she had actually been fooled by him for so long, and she had even given her first kiss to him.

None of Flower Moon's people knew that Zhao Fu was Great Qin's Legatee. After being imprisoned in Great Qin, they found this out from other people and felt incredibly shocked. Zhao Fu, who they thought was just a puppet, was actually Great Qin's Legatee, the human world's most terrifying King.

"Long time no see, superstar Su." Zhao Fu slightly smiled as he looked at Su Yuyan kneeling in front of him.

Su Yuyan angrily turned her head to the side because she felt quite wronged that she had trusted Zhao Fu and felt quite positively about him. Otherwise, she would not have given her first kiss to him. In fact, she had wanted to do it with Zhao Fu, but he had instantly destroyed Flower Moon.

“Turn your face; We want to look at you.” Zhao Fu’s voice became dignified, and it had a trace of domineeringness to it, making some of the women feel afraid.

Su Yuyan’s eyes became teary as she felt quite wronged and turned her face to look at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu walked down from his throne and came before her, and he lightly smiled as he asked, “Are you afraid of Us? You may rise!”

Hearing this, Su Yuyan felt both angry and aggrieved, but she inwardly let out a sigh, as it seemed that Zhao Fu did not plan to kill them.

After much tussling within Zhao Fu’s chambers, many women lay on the bed as Zhao Fu smiled and said, “You women from Flower Moon are all quite good.”

Xiao Yueyin lay on Zhao Fu’s right arm, her face red as she inwardly sighed. They had not been able to escape from this calamity, but at least they had managed to stay alive.

Chapter 895: Demon God

“Your Majesty, we’re all your people now, and Flower Moon is also yours. It’s no longer a partnership between us; we belong to Great Qin. Now, you can completely trust us, so can you give us another chance? I promise this won’t happen again,” Xiao Yueyin said as she flirtatiously looked at Zhao Fu.

Lying on Zhao Fu’s left arm, Su Yuyan lightly harrumphed. “That’s right; we’re all yours already, you baddie. Moreover, it was only a few of us who gave away information, and we did not collectively betray Great Qin. As the Emperor, you should do things fairly.

“You also caught all of us and took all of our bodies; don’t you think you’ve gone too far? After all, big sis and I have always supported Great Qin.

“Also, Bai Yue and the others who leaked information were the ones who served you the most just now. Look at them, they’ve all fainted. Since you’ve taken all our bodies, how about you just punish them lightly.”

Zhao Fu was not in a rush to make a decision, and he replied, “I’ll think about how to deal with them.”

Following this, Zhao Fu cuddled with them for a bit longer before getting up, feeling quite refreshed, and he headed to the Dark Demon world.

The Dark Demon world’s World Protector, Mo Qi, was still unconscious, and his wounds were not healing. The entire Demon Heaven Sect was incredibly worried, and they were quite shocked as to how powerful the human world’s World Protector was.

Zhao Fu came here mainly for the Night Dynasty. In actuality, Zhao Fu had an incredibly far-sighted plan, and he had changed his original plan.

The original plan was to make the Night Dynasty a chess piece, which would be useful when the Dark Demon world started to invade the human world. However, this would be a waste.

Right now, Zhao Fu did not even put the entirety of China in his eyes. After unifying China, he would unify the midland Continent before conquering the other Continents and unifying the world.

The Night Dynasty had a big advantage, and even though it could not unify the Dark Demon world, with Great Qin’s help, it was possible for it to unify the Southern Continent. If both the Night Dynasty and Great Qin developed and fused together, the combined power would be monstrous.

Now, Great Qin’s main task was to clear out regions, and there was nothing big to do. Zhao Fu could now turn his mind to the Dark Demon world; right now, the World Protectors of the two other worlds were sleeping, so there was not much to be afraid of.

Apart from developing the Night Dynasty in the Dark Demon world, Zhao Fu felt that he could also develop a faction in the Fish Scale world. After the Heaven Domain Boundary disappeared, Great Qin would be able to quickly devour three worlds before attacking the world above theirs; this would cause the previous worlds’ people to go mad.

That was the far-sighted plan that Zhao Fu had made, which went from defending in fear to taking the initiative to attack. China and the human world were unable to satisfy Zhao Fu's rapidly growing ambition. Zhao Fu wanted Great Qin to become a true Empire.

As such, the situation was quite urgent, and Zhao Fu felt that there was not much time; Great Qin had to quickly unify the human world.

After going to the Dark Demon world, the Night Dynasty's first goal was to destroy three Dynasties and a Sect. Within the Heaven Awaken World, Sects often controlled many cities and regions, and some even had Sect Armaments that were no weaker than Nation Armaments.

These factions had helped the Vile Dynasty to attack the Night Dynasty before. Now, if the Night Dynasty wanted to destroy them, no one would help them, and no one would complain.

Even though Mo Qi was heavily injured and unconscious, there were still countless other people Zhao Fu had to be wary of, so he could not do things too overtly. It was better not to be allied against by even more people.

Right now, the Night Dynasty City was a Level 1 Capital City and had 250 million people and 22 million soldiers. Their military force was not very big, and they would not be able to simultaneously destroy four factions.

After all, the Night Dynasty received a lot of its resources from the Night Dynasty in the real world, so it was unable to develop very quickly.

If the Night Dynasty wanted to get rid of future problems, they would also have to get rid of those Dynasties and Sects in the real world as well and devour their power. That way, they would not be able to do anything to the Night Dynasty. In order words, they had to simultaneously attack in the Heaven Awaken World and the real world, which required a large military force.

Zhao Fu sent people into the Dark Demon world's real world and expanded their army from eight million soldiers to 20 million. That way, the Night Dynasty had 20 million soldiers in the real world and 22 million soldiers in the Heaven Awaken World.

Originally, Zhao Fu had wanted to bring over ten million Ghost Soldiers, as they would not reveal anything about where they were from. However, after thinking about it, Zhao Fu found that transportation would be an issue. Right now, the Trans-Boundary Teleportation Channel could only teleport one person at a time, and teleporting ten million Ghost Soldiers would take far too long.

In the end, Zhao Fu decided to bring City Lords, but he could not bring too many, or else the Southern Continent would go into a state of panic. As such, he only brought with him the 800 City Lords from last time, as they would be enough to deal with this.

The Night Dynasty had 300 or so City Lords, so in total, they had roughly 1,200 City Lords. If the situation required it, they could also ask the Demon Path Sect for help.

Now that they had decided to destroy the three Dynasties and one Sect, they first gathered detailed information about them.

The first Dynasty was called the South Glass Dynasty, and it had 40 million people, three million soldiers, and 60 City Lords. It did not have a Nation Armament.

The second Dynasty was called the Void Demon Dynasty, and it had 30 million people, three million soldiers, and 70 City Lords. It did not have a Nation Armament.

The third Dynasty was called the Xuan Dynasty, and it had 50 million people, 50 million people, four million soldiers, and 70 City Lords. It also did not have a Nation Armament.

The Sect was called the Demon God Sect, and it had 20 million people, one million soldiers, and 40 City Lords. It had a Sect Armament.

In total, these four factions had 140 million people, 11 million soldiers, and 240 City Lords.

These four factions had all been heavily wounded in the previous battle, and their City Lords and soldiers had not fully recovered yet, while the Night Dynasty had greatly developed and was now stronger than them overall.

Originally, their combined strength was greater than that of the Night Dynasty's, but they were not very united, so they were suppressed by the Night Dynasty.

At the same time, even though they were Dynasties in the real world, they did not have enough Fate. Even though their Legacy Stones were all Legendary grade, they did not have Nation Armaments. With how precious Nation Armaments were, they were not something that any Dynasty could create.

However, the Demon God Sect had a Sect Armament, and the Sect was even more ancient than the Night Dynasty. It had once been the number one Sect in the Southern Continent, but it had gone into decline and had become a second-rate Sect that relied on allying with other factions.

Despite this, because it had quite a long history, it had an immense amount of Fate, allowing it to create a Sect Armament.

Chapter 896: Demon God Sect

Sect Armaments were something condensed from a massive amount of Fate, and it was very similar to a Nation Armament. However, it was also quite different – Nation Armaments required a King's Fate to control, while Sect Armaments required a Sect's Fate and a Sect's acknowledgment. As such, ordinarily, only Sect Masters could use them.

Moreover, their attributes were different as well; Nation Armaments had a Nation's power, while Sect Armaments had a Sect's power.

Neither was weaker than the other; often, Sects were as powerful as nations, but they were simply run as Sects.

What Zhao Fu was concerned about was whether this Sect Armament could be refined by Great Qin. After all, Great Qin had only refined Nation Armaments and had not encountered Sect Armaments before, so Zhao Fu had no idea if Great Qin could refine Sect Armaments.

Zhao Fu decided to first consider how to destroy the four factions. These four factions had been wary against the Night Dynasty this entire time, and it would be difficult to launch sneak attacks.

The Night Dynasty had Great Qin secretly supporting it, so Zhao Fu decided to openly attack and ordered the soldiers in the real world to make preparations as well.

Great Qin's people did not do anything for now, and Zhao Fu did not bother hiding the news of the Night Dynasty attacking; it was best that everyone knew.

The 300 City Lords and 20 million or so soldiers split into four teams and gave off powerful auras as they simultaneously attacked the four factions.

This news quickly spread through the Dark Demon world's Southern Continent. The various factions all watched on in amusement; the Night Dynasty had finally made a move against those four factions. After all, there had been hatred between the Night Dynasty and those four factions for a while now, and no one else wanted to get involved.

After all, the Night Dynasty had the help of that mysterious faction, causing it to develop rapidly. No one wanted to anger the Night Dynasty.

The four factions were quite terrified, as they only had 11 million soldiers and 240 City Lords in total. After hearing that the Night Dynasty was attacking, they spent a great amount of resources to raise their total forces to 20 million soldiers, hoping that they would have enough strength to defend.

Because the four factions were on the defending side, they had been keeping an eye out for the Night Dynasty the entire time and had the geographical advantage, which they used to construct solid defenses.

Zhao Fu personally led one of the Night Dynasty's armies and he chose to attack the Demon God Sect. He wanted to personally see what the Sect Armament that was going to be Great Qin's was like.

Ye Cang led one of the other armies, while the two other armies were led by the Night Dynasty's Ancestors. There were many City Lords from Great Qin with each army, ready to attack at any moment.

Five million soldiers arrived at the bottom of a large mountain in a grandiose manner. There were tall walls built on the mountain, and they were 20 meters tall and gave off a solid aura.

There were many people from the Demon God Sect standing on the walls, and they looked down at the Night Dynasty's army with serious and wary expressions.

Zhao Fu was wearing his black cloak that covered his body and face, and he gave off a powerful aura as he stood in the air. The air around him seemed to be frozen, and his oppressive aura made countless people feel that it was hard to breathe.

As Zhao Fu's powerful aura descended, the people on the walls started to panic. Even ordinary City Lords could not withstand this aura, and a long-bearded elder hurriedly walked out and shouted, "The Demon God Sect vows to never antagonize the Night Dynasty; will the Night Dynasty spare us this once?"

Zhao Fu coldly harrumphed, "It's already too late; back then, the Night Dynasty already gave you all a chance, but you chose to attack anyways. Submit or die!"

The long-bearded elder's expression became quite unsightly as he exploded out with a powerful aura, causing a wild gale to blow as he furiously roared, "The Demon God Sect used to be the number one Sect in the Southern Continent; we're not so easy to bully. Even though we're not as powerful as we used to be, if the Night Dynasty wants to conquer us, it won't be so easy, and you'll have to pay a heavy price!"

Boom!!

A demonic light shot into the sky, causing the weather to change. An incredibly powerful might covered the entire battlefield, and a spider statue giving off a demonic light floated out of the elder's body as his power reached an extreme level.

The black spider statue was as big as a palm and completely black except for its four blood-red eyes. It gave off an incredibly savage and evil power.

This was most likely the Demon God Sect's Sect Armament, the Demon God Spider. It was quite powerful and was not weaker than a Nation Armament at all; during the previous battle, Zhao Fu had personally seen the Demon God Spider in action and the terrifying power it had displayed.

It seemed that it wanted to use this power to scare off the Night Dynasty; after all, anyone would worry about their losses in battle. However, wanting to force Zhao Fu into retreat was simply delirious.

Zhao Fu did not waste any more words and took out the Great Qin Seal. A similarly monstrous aura descended, covering the battlefield. As the number of Cities that the Great Qin conquered increased, the Great Qin City's grade had also increased, making the Great Qin Seal much more powerful than before.

“Everyone attack and destroy the Demon God Sect!” Zhao Fu’s voice was filled with might, coldness, and some condescension. The 200 Great Qin City Lords hidden within the army immediately unleashed their power and flew towards the walls.

However, that was not all. Zhao Fu threw out 50 Spirit Pet Rings, causing 50 Wyverns giving off either icy air or flames to appear. Because the Wyverns were quite big and powerful, they were even more destructive than ordinary City Lords and were terrifying war machines.

The enemy’s side had suddenly increased by 200 City Lords and 50 Wyverns, while the Demon God Sect only had 40 City Lords in total. Their faces became incredibly pale, and the long-bearded elder cursed, “The Night Dynasty is shameless! You’re still using that mysterious faction’s power; you’re their dogs!”

Zhao Fu coldly laughed but did not reply to his words, and he instead directly attacked. The 200 City Lords attacked the Demon God Sect’s City Lords, while the 50 Wyverns shot out large amounts of flames and icy air towards the soldiers on the walls. Pained howls sounded out as countless people were burned or frozen to death.

All of the Archers on the walls drew their bows to the fullest and furiously fired at the Wyverns, and countless arrows tore through the sky.

Ding, Ding, Ding...

Clear clinking sounds could be heard as the countless arrows hit the Wyverns’ scales, but they were all blocked, unable to harm the Wyverns even a bit.

However, the waves of arrows still caused the Wyverns to feel pain, making some of them fly higher into the sky. However, the soldiers on the walls were unable to relax because the Night Dynasty’s army had charged up by now.

Swish, swish, swish...

Arrows containing immense force flew up towards the walls and rained down, causing blood to fly everywhere and for cries to sound out.

“Roar! Roar! Roar!” The Wyverns in the air seemed quite furious as they flew back down, and their stomachs bulged as they unleashed massive waves of flames or icy air.

Chapter 897: Demon Wolves

These Wyverns all had City Lord Seals fused into them, and they were all 100 or so meters long. The flames and icy blasts were all three meters wide and annihilated any soldiers they touched.

The flames and icy blasts wreaked havoc on the walls, causing countless soldiers to cry out as they died. The Night Dynasty's soldiers came within attacking range, but they were not in a rush to attack. Instead, they formed defensive formations with Shieldbearers at the front and Archers at the back, continuously shooting out arrows towards the walls.

Under the attack from the Wyverns and the Archers, the Demon God Sect's losses were quite severe. Their numbers continuously dwindled, and even though they vigorously retaliated, in front of the Night Dynasty's immense power, they were unable to do much.

The situation for the Demon God Sect's City Lords was not very good either. They were surrounded by Great Qin's City Lords, and some of them had already died. After all, they were fighting five against one, and it was an incredibly shameless battle.

Elsewhere, Zhao Fu was fighting with the Demon God Sect's Sect Master, the long-bearded elder. Zhao Fu held the Death Disaster Sword and continuously rained down powerful attacks.

The Demon God Sect's Sect Master's face was extremely pale. He had already unleashed the Sect Armament's full power, but he was still being suppressed. He was continuously in danger, but the other side was only using his City Lord Seal; that person was truly terrifying.

Boom!!

A massive explosion sounded out as Zhao Fu slashed out, causing a long, gray sword light, bringing with it an immense aura of death, to slash towards the Demon God Sect Master.

“Arghhh!” the Demon God Sect Master roared and invigorated all of the Sect Armament’s power. The black spider gave off an intense demonic light, and a massive spider’s image appeared in the sky, spitting out a black light towards the sword light.

Boom!!

An explosion rang out as the sword light and black light collided, resulting in deathly qi and black light shooting everywhere and for massive winds to sweep out.

Ye Cang’s army’s advance was also quite smooth. He was attacking the South Glass Dynasty, who had built their defenses on a plains.

There had originally been hundreds of thousands of Demon Wolves here, and after the Night Dynasty’s army arrived, the South Glass Dynasty used some sort of method to attract the Demon Wolves to attack the Night Dynasty’s army.

These Demon Wolves were not ordinary wolves; they were all two meters long, and their fangs gave off cold lights. Their strength was roughly at Stage 1-6, and they were incredibly savage and fast.

Hundreds of thousands of Demon Wolves charged across the plains incredibly quickly, forming a massive tide that gave off terrifying sounds.

The multitude of Demon Wolves would definitely cause great losses to the Night Dynasty. As such, Ye Cang immediately summoned 50 Wyverns, giving off immense dragon’s might. After all, just their might alone was able to greatly suppress other creatures.

Following this, an amusing scene unfolded. The hundreds of thousands of charging Demon Wolves felt the immense pressure from the 50 Wyverns, and they were scared to the point of immediately turning around and running away.

In actuality, a single Wyvern was able to annihilate 100,000 Demon Wolves. After all, they had dragon’s might and flew in the sky, making it impossible for the Demon Wolves to attack them. With their dragon’s might, the Demon Wolves did not dare to fight at all.

However, things were not over. The 300 City Lords exploded out with auras, seeming to shake the heavens, causing the Demon Wolves to run away even faster. They even whimpered and went from looking savage and ferocious to pitiful little wolves.

Ye Cang had 100 Night Dynasty City Lords and 200 Great Qin City Lords, and this was the same for the two other armies.

Now that the other side had displayed its full strength, Ye Cang did not hesitate and directly attacked. The Wyverns and City Lords flew at the City Walls, while the Night Dynasty army flooded forwards.

Another massive battle unfolded, causing blood to fly everywhere and screams to sound out. The battle was quite intense, and Ye Cang found the South Glass Dynasty's Legatee and started to fight him.

The third army was led by Ye Ningshuang. She attacked the Void Demon Dynasty, whose defenses were built in a valley. Using the mountain faces on either side, it was quite easy to defend against enemies.

Ye Ningshuang was not as dauntless as Zhao Fu and Ye Cang, and she was much warier. She first tested the other side before having the Wyverns use the mountains as cover to fly to the back of the Void Demon Dynasty.

Ye Ningshuang still did not reveal her army's full strength, only having the Night Dynasty City Lords and soldiers attack. This was because the Void Demon Dynasty held a great geographical advantage.

The Void Demon Dynasty thought that this was all of the strength that the Night Dynasty had, and the Legatee mockingly laughed at Ye Ningshuang. However, Ye Ningshuang was not angry because she already roughly knew the Void Demon Dynasty's strength.

Suddenly, Great Qin's hidden City Lords started to attack, causing powerful attacks to slam onto the City Walls. The terrifying lights from the attacks ripped the Void Demon Dynasty's soldiers to shreds, creating a bloody scene.

The Wyverns at the back also started to attack, raining down flames and icy blasts, burning soldiers to ashes or freezing them solid.

In just a moment, the Void Demon Dynasty suffered heavy losses, and Ye Ningshuang also started to ferociously attack the Legatee.

The final team was led by the other Ancestors of the Night Dynasty, and things also went quite smoothly for them. With an advantage in City Lords and dominance in the air with Wyverns, they were able to quickly suppress the other side.

Following this, the Night Dynasty soldiers charged, ferociously attacking the enemies before climbing up the walls. Soon, they had taken over the walls, while the Ancestors surrounded the Xuan Dynasty's Legatee and killed him.

Back at Zhao Fu's side, Zhao Fu sent out a sharp sword light, lopping off the Demon God Sect Master's arm, causing him to cry out in pain and quickly retreat.

Zhao Fu would not let him off just because he was an old man; Zhao Fu rushed up and slashed at him, preparing to end his life.

However, the Sect Armament, that palm-sized spider, seemed to have its own will as it shot out and screeched as it bit at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu coldly harrumphed and sent it flying before grabbing out with his hand, causing a black dragon inscription barrier to cover that black spider. The black spider gave off an intense demonic light as it tried to bite its way out.

Zhao Fu's tough barrier was broken through after a few bits, but before the spider could escape, Zhao Fu had cleaved the Demon God Sect Master in half, causing blood to splatter everywhere as the two halves of his body fell to the ground.

The black spider lost all of its power and returned to being a statue, all of its terrifying might disappearing.

Chapter 898: Hidden Historical Remnant

Zhao Fu put the black spider away, and the battle quickly ended. Most of the Demon God Sect's soldiers and City Lords had died, and small portion of them had surrendered. Zhao Fu led his soldiers and directly took over the Demon God Sect's territory.

Because the Demon God Sect Master had brought his real body into the Heaven Awaken World, even without using the Heart Sword, Zhao Fu was able to kill him.

Also, after killing the Demon God Sect Master, he had dropped a black rhombus-shaped crystal. The black crystal gave off a slight demonic light and was as long as a finger. It gave off an aura similar to that of a City Lord Seal, but it was a different power.

This was a Sect Crystal, and it had similar effects to a City Lord Seal. It allowed one to control the highest authority in a Sect, and it had powerful Sect Power.

The three other armies also successfully advanced, taking over the City Walls quickly before conquering the territories of those factions.

The four factions' residents were in a state of panic. Facing the Night Dynasty's ferocious attacks, they had no strength to retaliate and could only run around in terror or scream as they died.

As the Night Dynasty had started attacking in the Heaven Awaken World, their soldiers in the real world had also suddenly attacked while most of the four factions' people were in the Heaven Awaken World. They easily conquered their headquarters, and Zhao Fu even had some Night Dynasty soldiers return to the real world to assist with this.

The four factions suffered heavy blows in the Heaven Awaken World and in the real world. Within the Heaven Awaken World, they were unable to resist anymore, as most of their City Lords and soldiers were either dead or had surrendered, and only their residents were left.

Residents were incredibly weak in front of proper soldiers; a Stage 1 soldier could kill dozens of residents, and the countless residents could do nothing but be slaughtered.

The four factions in the real world had some strength to defend because after their soldiers died in the Heaven Awaken World, they returned to the real world. However, they barely had any heart to resist, as they understood that they would lose and most of their higher-ups had been captured in the Heaven Awaken World or had been killed already, so there was no one leading them.

Zhao Fu led his City Lords and arrived at the center of the Demon God Sect without any obstructions. This was their final line of defense, and there was a massive magic formation there. However, Zhao Fu condescendingly smiled and did not even bother to attack; he directly used the Sect Crystal to deactivate the formation.

Finally, Zhao Fu went to the innermost region of the Demon God Sect. The core item was different than a City Heart; it was an orb floating in the air with a one meter tall stone stele beneath it, giving off a powerful aura. The words 'Demon God Sect' were engraved on the stone stele.

Zhao Fu looked at its information and found that it was the Sect Creation Stele, and with this, one could create a Sect, while the orb was naturally the Sect Heart.

Of course, this Sect Creation Stele belonged to the Demon God Sect and could not create a new Sect.

Zhao Fu went up and placed his hand against the Sect Heart and chose to conquer it and relocate it. The three other armies quickly took down the three other factions as well, and the four factions finally perished and became part of the Night Dynasty.

Now, there were many things to do, and not just in the Heaven Awaken World. They now had to take all of the four factions' resources and people in both the Heaven Awaken World and the real world.

There were many things to do, but the entire Night Dynasty was ecstatic; they had devoured four factions in one go, and their strength had once again greatly increased. Moreover, these four factions had been in conflict with the Night Dynasty, and they most likely had to do with the death of the previous Legatee.

Now, they had finally been destroyed, and the Night Dynasty would no longer have to worry about them. However, they did not know that Zhao Fu's ambitions were far greater.

Those four factions were just second-rate factions in the Southern Continent, so it was not too big of a deal for them to be destroyed.

Now, even without Great Qin's help, the Night Dynasty would be able to stand as the number one faction in the Southern Continent.

Apart from the Night Dynasty, there were ten or so other first-rate factions in the Southern Continent, dozens of second-rate factions, and hundreds of third-rate factions. There were even smaller factions and system factions.

It would be quite difficult to unify the Southern Continent, especially without revealing himself. Even though Zhao Fu wanted to speed things up, he had to take things one step at a time. Right now, he already had a rough plan.

The other factions were not too surprised that these four factions had been destroyed, as they had been expecting this for a while. However, seeing that the Night Dynasty had once again asked for help from that mysterious faction, many people felt quite scared.

Luckily, the Night Dynasty immediately expressed its goodwill to other factions afterwards. After all, there were grievances between the Night Dynasty and those four factions, as they had helped the Vile Dynasty attack the Night Dynasty. Now that the Night Dynasty had destroyed those four factions, there was nothing anyone could say about it.

Zhao Fu left the cities and resources that they had obtained with the Night Dynasty instead of taking them back to Great Qin. After all, the Night Dynasty needed to develop as well.

Of course, the women that the various Dynasties and Sects sent over were kept by Zhao Fu himself.

After Zhao Fu's army took down the Demon God Sect, many of the Night Dynasty's people came to take charge of the place. Zhao Fu planned to return and take a proper look at this Sect Armament.

However, one of the Night Dynasty's Managers came and reported that they had discovered a hidden historical remnant in the Demon God Sect. It was extremely dangerous, and the soldiers who went in were not heard from again and had most likely died.

Hearing the words 'historical remnant,' Zhao Fu felt quite interested. After all, Great Qin had a few historical remnants: One was the underground region, which Great Qin had explored around one-fifth of, and another was the Assassin historical remnant, which he still only had one more stage to clear, a trial of the heart. Zhao Fu had not been able to clear that one so far.

The last one was Gloomy Jungle, which he had fully explored. The ice and fire region within it had been very beneficial to Great Qin.

As such, Zhao Fu was quite delighted to hear that there was a historical remnant here, and he immediately had that Manager bring him to it.

They arrived at a large, underground cave that was surrounded by ruins. There were traces of an ancient civilization, and it was pitch-black inside the cave. Cold air flowed out of the cave, making one shiver, and it gave off an incredibly dangerous feeling.

The cave mouth was three meters tall and four meters wide, and there were white cobwebs around it. Zhao Fu remembered that the Demon God Sect's Sect Armament was a spider, and he wondered if this was related.

In order to avoid any danger, Zhao Fu became wary and released his Emperor's Domain. He also ordered some soldiers to stand guard to avoid any unexpected situations.

Chapter 899: Spider

Zhao Fu walked into the cave, and now that he had those gray pupils, he was able to see clearly in the dark. He no longer needed any illumination, as the gray pupils were something from the Death Race.

After walking in 30 or so meters, Zhao Fu discovered some soldiers' weapons and some traces of blood, but there were no corpses. There were traces of things being dragged, and the corpses had most likely been dragged off by something.

Zhao Fu became even warier and continued onwards. As Zhao Fu walked, the space around him became larger and larger.

Suddenly, when Zhao Fu was about 100 meters into the cave, countless one meter wide black spiders rushed at Zhao Fu incredibly quickly.

Zhao Fu's expression did not change at all, because even though the spiders had some power, they were still nothing in front of Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu took out the Death Disaster Sword and casually swung it, causing deathly qi to flow out towards the spiders. The spiders' bodies were instantly corroded by the deathly qi, and their lifeforce was instantly destroyed, causing them to immediately die.

There were hundreds of spiders, and they all became corpses. Zhao Fu stepped over their corpses and continued ahead, and waves of spiders would attack him from time to time with increasing numbers.

A few hours later, Zhao Fu came to a passageway that was ten or so meters wide. He slashed out, sending out a gray sword light that cut thousands of spiders into tiny parts. Those spiders were more powerful than the ones from before, and their bodies were about 1.5 meters wide.

Zhao Fu continued onwards, and after killing a few more waves of spiders, another massive wave of spiders came at him. They were simply innumerable and everywhere.

However, Zhao Fu's expression still did not change much. He sent his Emperor's Power into the Death Disaster Sword, causing the sword to give off a chilling gray light.

The spiders rushed at Zhao Fu savagely like a massive tide, reaching him in an instant. It seemed like they would inundate him in just a moment and devour him.

Zhao Fu continuously slashed out, creating terrifying sword lights that flew out continuously. In just a moment, the spiders were reduced to countless fragmented corpses.

Their green blood splattered everywhere, and more and more corpses fell to Zhao Fu's feet. These spiders were actually quite powerful. They all had strength that was greater than Stage 1 power, and their bodies were two meters wide. Their eyes also gave off blood-red lights.

A few hours later, Zhao Fu's arm started to feel quite numb. There were countless spider corpses piled in front of him, and the ground was covered with green blood. He had finally killed all of the spiders, allowing him to breathe a sigh of relief; he had been worried that these spiders would come endlessly.

Zhao Fu decided to rest for a short while and regain his strength before going onwards.

Following this, he arrived at a large hall that was 10,000 meters wide. The floor was made of glossy tiles, and there were terrifying drawings of spiders catching their food engraved on the walls, looking incredibly bloody and ferocious.

Within the hall, there were three 100 meter wide spiders that each had six pairs of blood-red eyes. They all looked coldly and ferociously at Zhao Fu, giving off powerful auras. Their strength was not weaker than that of the boss monster of a region.

At the same time, there was a large door behind them. There was a picture of a gigantic spider on the door, looking incredibly lifelike, making it seem as if it was going to rush out of the drawing.

Just as Zhao Fu stepped into this place, the three spiders started to quickly move, rushing at Zhao Fu with frightening auras.

Facing the three massive spiders, Zhao Fu vigorously slashed out, sending out a 100 meter wide crescent sword light. It gave off a massive amount of deathly qi as it flew towards the incoming spiders.

However, the three spiders were not only fast but also incredibly agile. Just as the sword light was about to hit them, they suddenly jumped and lightly evaded Zhao Fu's attack; Zhao Fu had underestimated these three spiders.

After jumping into the air, the three massive spiders spat out a white liquid towards Zhao Fu. The white liquid smelled quite foul, and it was evident that it was nothing good.

Zhao Fu quickly dodged to the side, and after the three pools of liquid fell to the ground, they gave off sizzling sounds. In just an instant, there were three large holes that were seven or eight meters wide and ten or so meters deep, and they gave off a noxious smell.

The three massive spiders landed and continued rushing at Zhao Fu. After getting close, they bit at him, wanting to rip him to shreds.

In response, Zhao Fu coldly smiled as a massive amount of deathly qi flooded out of the Death Disaster Sword. In just an instant, Zhao Fu condensed hundreds of spears that were ten or so meters long, each of them possessing immense Death Power.

Zhao Fu's long-range attacks were not very powerful, but as someone who used swords, he had the advantage in close-range battles. With the three spiders leaping at Zhao Fu and trying to bite him, Zhao Fu sent out the spears he had condensed.

Because they were incredibly close now, the spiders were unable to dodge. The spears pierced through their bodies, causing green blood to fly everywhere. The three spiders screeched and quickly retreated.

Zhao Fu was quite surprised that they had taken this attack but had not died. However, they were heavily injured.

Zhao Fu darted forwards and turned into a ray of light as he shot past, giving off an incredibly sharp sword aura. One of the spiders was sent flying and smashed out a crater in one of the walls. After crashing to the ground, it did not even twitch, and Zhao Fu had no idea if it was still alive or dead.

The looks in the remaining two spiders' eyes were no longer as ferocious, and there was now a trace of fear in their eyes. With Zhao Fu's current strength, even the eight Aquatic Beast Kings were afraid, let alone these three spiders.

The two spiders quickly ran towards the door behind them. This door was 100 meters tall and 60 meters wide, and even though Zhao Fu did not know what was behind the door, anyone would be able to tell that the spiders were trying to do something. As such, Zhao Fu had to stop them – he stretched out a hand, and his golden pupil in his left eye quickly spun as he grabbed at the air. Countless chains stretched out from the ground, shooting towards the two spiders.

The two spiders were greatly startled and tried to dodge, but there were far too many chains, and the two spiders were already heavily injured. They were unable to dodge all of the chains and were tightly bound, and they desperately struggled, wanting to break free of the chains.

Now that he had bound these two spiders Zhao Fu walked over to them, his Death Disaster Sword giving off a terrifying sword light. Zhao Fu prepared to kill them but saw a look of pleading in their eyes.

As such, Zhao Fu stopped; since there was not any enmity between them, he would rather not kill those who were willing to surrender.

“Are you willing to submit to me?” Zhao Fu looked at the two spiders and tried to confirm if they actually wanted to surrender. If they did not, he would kill them.

However, the two spiders did not respond and did not seem to want to submit, instead looking at the door. Zhao Fu frowned, because that door was being slowly opened.

Chapter 900: Spider Empress

A devilishly seductive woman walked out; she had blood-red colored long hair and a pair of blood-red eyes. Her skin was as white as snow, but her hands were like claws. She did not wear much, only leather skins covering her important areas.

This woman looked quite enticing, but her blood-red eyes were filled with only bloodlust and ruthlessness. Her body also gave off powerful Phoenix Qi and the aura of a godly spirit.

She was the merciless Spider Empress, Elise!

Under Elise’s beautiful and elegant appearance, she hid a cruel, dark heart. The cold and cunning Elise often used the Spider God’s blessing as a promise to lure those without any wariness.

She had already exchanged her humanity for something incredibly wicked, and through sacrificing countless innocent people, she had been able to maintain her eternal youthfulness. No one knew just how many had been caught in her web and used to feed her boundless hunger.

Elise elegantly walked towards Zhao Fu, giving off a powerful aura. Even two or three hundred City Lords working together would not be a match for her.

However, facing the terrifying Elise, Zhao Fu’s expression did not change at all. He stretched out a hand, causing the tens of thousands of chains to fly at her with immense force.

However, Elise was incredibly fast. Her body blurred as it disappeared and then reappeared behind Zhao Fu. Her claw-like hands slashed at Zhao Fu’s back, wanting to rip him apart.

Just as a bloody scene was about to unfold, Zhao Fu exploded out with the Great Qin Seal’s power, causing nine black dragons to appear around him. Elise’s expression changed as she was blasted back by this enormous power.

Zhao Fu stretched out a finger and pointed at the flying Elise and said, “Summon Ghosts!”

The gray dots in his right eye started to spin as Six Paths of Reincarnation Power flowed out from the ground. A 30 meter tall, terrifying-looking Ghost appeared behind Elise, and it swiped out with its claws and sent Elise flying the other way.

Elise spun and landed on the ground, a trace of blood at her lips as she savagely glared at Zhao Fu.

The gray dots in Zhao Fu’s eyes continued to spin as an even greater wave of Six Paths of Reincarnation Power rose from the ground, and Zhao Fu said, “Dark Ghost World!”

Immediately, ghostly qi covered Elise and dragged her into an illusion. The moon here was gray, and countless Ghosts howled as they sprang at her, wanting to devour her.

Back when Zhao Fu had fused with the five professions, he not only obtained the Six Paths of Reincarnation Power but also grasped the skills of those five professions.

Within the illusion, Elise continuously slashed out with her claws, sending out sharp lights that turned the attacking Ghosts into ghostly qi. However, the Ghosts continued to come unceasingly.

While attacking, Elise also tried to break through the illusion. However, this illusion was created by Zhao Fu using the Six Paths of Reincarnation Power, and it was hundreds of times more powerful than ordinary illusions. It was not something that she could escape from easily.

At that moment, Zhao Fu once again stretched out his hand. A massive amount of power from the Great Qin Seal entered his left eye as his five pupils dilated. Zhao Fu grabbed at the air, causing hundreds of thousands of chains to shoot into the ghostly qi from all directions.

After dissipating the ghostly qi, it could be seen that Elise was tightly bound by the countless chains, dangling in the air. Elise now understood that she was not a match for Zhao Fu at all, and her expression changed to a flirtatious one as she said, “Alright, this Empress knows that she isn’t a match for you; can’t I choose to surrender?”

However, Zhao Fu was not willing to trust her so easily, and he stretched out his hand as he said, “Hand over your Spirit Origin!”

Elise could only helplessly reply, "Alright, alright."

A black mote of light came out of Elise's forehead and floated to Zhao Fu's hand. Zhao Fu felt quite surprised; he had never thought that things would be resolved so easily, and he waved his hand and released Elise.

Elise immediately sprang into Zhao Fu's arms, greedily sniffing Zhao Fu as she said in a craving tone, "Your Majesty, why is your Emperor's aura so massive? It's much greater than a true Emperor."

Now, Zhao Fu had an incredibly pure Sovereign Bloodline and two Emperor Stars, so his Emperor's aura was naturally quite immense.

However, Elise's changes were quite sudden; she had wanted to eat him just then, and now she seemed like a devoted servant. Because he now had her Spirit Origin, Zhao Fu obtained some more information about her, and he found that demon creatures were quite cunning and easy to change.

Zhao Fu lightly pushed her away; even though Elise was incredibly bewitching and seemed like she was waiting for Zhao Fu to use her, what Zhao Fu was more concerned about was what was behind the door. After all, he found that there was a light that seemed to come from a treasure beyond the door.

Zhao Fu headed straight for the door, causing Elise to lightly harrumph in dissatisfaction. She looked at the three heavily-wounded spiders and waved her hand, causing a black light to cover them as she started to heal them.

After opening the door, Zhao Fu found a room that was 1,000 meters wide filled with glowing lights. There was a small stage at the center with a black throne on top, with countless coins and jewels heaped around it. There were all sorts of Legendary and Epic grade equipment and many other items.

Zhao Fu glanced around and saw that there were at least tens of thousands of gold coins and countless jewels. Just the Legendary grade equipment numbered at least 1,000, and there were about 100 pieces of Epic grade equipment. This was a massive treasure trove.

Even though the black throne looked quite simple and looked like a western-style throne without any ornate decorations, it was still a treasure.

[Empress Throne]: A throne that only an Empress can own. It can greatly increase one's Cultivation speed and Comprehension, as well as increase one's recovery. It also has an Empress' Domain, and any structures around it will receive a boost to its stats.

Apart from this throne, there was also a Den core floating in the air, and it was a spider.

[Divine Spider Den]: Grade: Epic, Description: A powerful and terrifying spider den that can spawn spiders with a trace of divine blood with Stage 2 strength. It can spawn 45-65 every day.

This was yet another treasure. Spiders bred incredibly quickly, and with this Den, Great Qin would be able to quickly nurture a spider army. These spiders were not weak either, having Stage 2 strength.

The gains from this historical remnant were quite good, and Zhao Fu gave a satisfied smile as he put everything away. However, he decided to leave the throne to Elise, as it seemed to be her personal throne.
