

Who's coming to Dinner Pt.3

The vampires left, and Derrick smiled as Sally bounded into the room. Ted was biting his lip. Sally jumped into Derrick arms. Derrick said, "I missed you." Sally smiled, "I missed you too." I linked him, "Go Derrick." Derrick took off with Sally. Ted said, "She's so happy it's adorable. She wants to get her IUD removed and everything." I said, "That will make Derrick very happy." Both of them shot me a look. Matt said, "Sound stiffer about it." I said, "It will make him happy." Ted said, "Matt, leave him be. He wants a baby with Lexi. Who could blame him? Their kids will be adorable." I said, "Lexi said in a few years." Ted snorted, "Sure." I raised an eyebrow. Ted said, "Lexi has ALWAYS wanted a family. She gave up on a lot of dreams and hopes when the troll broke her heart. She's just adjusting to having you in her life." I nodded, "I'll do this on her time table though." Ted smiled, "I'll just have to convince her having kids around the same age would KICK ASS! Yup, it's decided. Our kids MUST be close in age. ALL of them. So buck up Alpha man. Matt and I want at least four. I want to see us with boys and girls. Can't you just see Matt all wrapped around his little girl's nger." Ted honest to god sighed. I bit my lip. I said, "Matt before you go. We are having date night tomorrow. I'm opening up the club." Matt smirked and dragged Ted away. I linked Derrick, "You and Sally tomorrow night. My club." Derrick said, "Fine." Then quickly shut his link. I kept working.

I was startled to smell Lexi's scent. I looked up as she walked in a black trench coat and high heels. She smiled, "Hello, Alpha." I gulped as she took a deep breath. Her red and black bra peeked out. She shut the door. "I think it's time you took a break." She unbuttoned the trench coat. My mouth went dry. There was a bra of some sort of band with garter straps with criss crossed underwear and garters. I growled, "Lexi." She dropped the coat and seductively walked over to me. She turned a song on her phone, and started to dance. f**k me. She was giving me a lap dance. She was grinding against me when I gripped her hips. She slapped my hands away, "No touching." I growled and grabbed my chair. I couldn't tell you the songs that played. All I could tell you is I was so painfully hard. A knock sounded at my door, and I contemplated murder. Lexi smirked. She grabbed her coat, threw it in my closet, and got on her hands and knees. She f****g seductively crawled under my desk. She put a nger up in a shh motion and pulled my chair to the edge of the desk. I said, "Come in." If she wanted to play, we'd play. That was ne. A werewolf would smell her having been in here. The door opened and Lexi used the sound to mask her unzipping my pants. f**k! I stiffened as a warrior sat down. He smiled, "I have the reports from your father and former Beta Isaac on the new guys in training. I managed to nod as Lexi put her lips around my d**k. I wished I could I ink her. I was going to get her back for this.

Bolt said, "If only you could link her. Oh wait. If you'd just MARK HER you could link her." I said, "You're a bit of a broken record at this point Bolt." Bolt snorted and I gripped the desk as I hit the back of Lexi's throat. The warrior said, "Interesting music choice Alpha. I wouldn't have thought the burlesque soundtrack was your thing." I said, "Beta Male Ted made me a playlist. I felt I had to listen to it...." I hissed the last part as Lexi started playing with my balls. She was going to make me come while I was talking to this warrior. Who was going agonizingly slow through his report. I nodded and tried to pay attention, but after twenty minutes I was about to go insane. Lexi had been bringing me to the brink of release only to back off. Finally, after thirty ve tortuous minutes, my warrior stood to leave. He smirked at me. That fucker. He knew this whole time. He said goodbye, and Lexi deep throated me. I nearly broke my desk. When the door shut I let out a growl as I came. I pushed my chair back, and grabbed Lexi. "That was not a nice game. I think I should punish you." Lexi nodded, "I have been very bad. I deserve to be punished, Alpha." I got her trench coat out of the closet. "Go up to my room. Be lying on the bed when I come up." She smiled and put on the coat and ashed out. I walked out after putting together the last group of paper work for Matt to le. I walked upstairs. I opened my door to moans. I was across the room in a second. I grabbed Lexi's arms, "No, no, no, naughty girls don't get to come until I say." She whimpered. f**k me.

I grabbed some rope from my closet and tied her up. I had her tied to the four corners of the bed. Arms and legs. I groaned, "Sweetheart, your arousal is driving me insane." Lexi said, "I need you Alpha." I smirked, "I needed to come multiple times over the thirty ve minutes, but you didn't let me." I pulled out my crop whip. I smacked the inside of her thigh. She gasped. Her arousal increased. I smirked, "You like that. Don't you? My naughty girl." Lexi said, "Yes, Alpha." I trailed the whip up her stomach and lightly tapped her n****e. She arched her back. I grabbed a blindfold and slid it over her eyes. I stripped."Can you see?" Lexi shook her head. I swatted her thigh again. She said, "No, Alpha." I said, "There you go sweetheart." I opened my nightstand again. I'd had my toys replaced since I met Lexi. I pulled out a vibrator. I turned it on and played with her clit. She was writhing. "Mate is beautiful." Bolt said. I replied, "She is." I whipped her thigh again. She screamed. I stopped. I repeated that multiple times. Tears were streaming down her face, but she never asked me to stop. I slid the vibrator in her. Finally she said, "Chase...I can't....anymore...I need...." Before she could nish the sentence I was inside her. She was screaming my name in seconds. Matt linked me, "Christ JESUS I can hear you from Ted's house. The pack link is collectively losing it's shit." I closed my link, and pounded into my mate. When we fell apart. I unblocked my link. Matt was saying, "Chase... Chase... COME ON ENERGIZER BUNNY ALPHA! Give the girl a minute." I said, "What could you possibly want? Go to sleep!" Matt said, "Now that everyone has calmed down! Jesus. I just wanted to let you know. I'm looking into getting your room somewhat soundproofed in the new house. I already called Cameron. He laughed. FOR TWENTY MINUTES!"

I said, "Make sure your new place is too. I called the rm, and sent them your plans for your house. I'm also having your parents move closer." Matt said, "Sometimes Chase. You do things to such perfection it makes me wonder why you have me. Then you marry our friend who refuses to divorce you.... And I recall why you need me." I growled and Matt laughed. Damn him. I pulled Lexi to me. "Date night tomorrow." She murmured her agreement into my pillow. I fell asleep quickly. I would be lying if I said having Lexi here when we woke up wasn't amazing. I loved it. It felt so right having her here. I wanted to make her breakfast, but I also wanted to wake up with her. She murmured, "It's too early for you to be thinking so loud." I laughed, "Do you want me to go grab you some clothes from your house." Lexi smiled and opened her eyes, "Maybe I brought some things over before I made it down to your oce. You didn't think I ran over here dressed like that, did you? You live with a small little girl. I needed to make sure she was asleep." I laughed, "Well, that was nice of you." She got up and we showered. I slid into her from behind, and she moaned. Matt linked me, "DUDE!" I closed it out and focused on my mate. I kissed her neck. The desire to mark her was growing. I didn't know if I could hold out. Bolt said, "Hallelujah. My human half has SEEN the light! The moon goddess be praised." I replied, "The second she asks.....I'll agree." Bolt sighed in relief, "I hear angels, Chase. They are singing to me." I rolled my eyes. Once we'd nished in the shower Lexi ran into my closet. She came out in a black and white polka dot top and a skin tight skirt. f**k me." I said.

Lexi laughed, "I do. Often. It's amazing." I laughed. "You do. Did you hear me last night? About date night tonight?" Lexi nodded, "I vaguely recall something about that." I smirked, "Let's go get breakfast." We walked downstairs. I was moderately surprised Derrick and Sally beat us here. My dad, Nadine, Susie, Derrick, Sally, Matt and Ted were all there. All that was missing....that thought trailed off as Reagan walked in. Cameron was not far behind her. He smiled, "We have plans to go over. Matt set up a meeting to discuss your meeting with Alpha Conners." I linked Matt, "You truly think of everything." Matt said, "All in a day's work." They sat down. We all laughed and ate. Nothing had felt more right in my entire life. This group. We were meant to be. When Sally, Lexi, and Ted got up to go to work. I wanted to pull them all back. I could see the rest of the table felt that way too. Once they'd left I told Derrick, "Get Sally's input for the kitchen in the new main house and pack house. I'm having an oce done for Lexi and Ted here, and the new house. If Sally wants a work from home day. I want her to have the option. Hell, we could even have a separate building for her if she wants." Derrick stood and pulled me into a hug. "Thank you Chase." I smiled, "You're one of my best friends Derrick. I want you both to be happy." Susie said, "This was the best breakfast ever! Everyone's so happy. Derrick's mate is so cool! Chase's Princess is ocially here!" Nadine said, "OH MY GOD! Project cookie was about Lexi?!" Susie clapped her hands over her mouth. I laughed, "It's ne Susie. Everyone knows. Basically." Matt snorted, "Basically. Practically announced it all night long." I rolled my eyes.

Susie gasped, "You announced Lexi as your princess....and I missed it?!" My dad shot Matt a glare. I got down next to Susie's chair. "No Susie. I would never do that without you. It's not ocial. Lexi just had a sleepover with me." Susie smiled again instantly, "Oh that's cool! Next time she stays with me! We can build a fort together." I smiled, "We'll see." She clapped, "I gotta get to school!" Cameron came into my oce. We discussed the plans, and I invited him and Reagan out tonight. Reagan instantly agreed to which Cameron shrugged. "Guess we are coming." The day went by quickly. Me, Matt, and Derrick left the oce to get ready. Ted had told Matt they would meet us there. We arrived and saw them all standing at the bar drinking. Lexi blew me away again. She was in my ngers and pink dress that was getting destroyed later. I came up behind her and ran my back over her ass. She giggled, "Watch it mister. I've got a boyfriend." I whispered in her ear, "He doesn't need to know." She turned and swatted me, "You're so bad!" Cameron said, "He is. He forgot his little brother was coming, and didn't need the visual." Matt snorted, "When we join packs, you'll hear it." Cameron smirked, "Already called the contractor about soundproofing the rooms." Lexi blushed. "What does he mean?" Ted said, "Girl....I was not joking when I said you screamed so loud Matt, me, Derrick and Sally heard it. Honestly I'm surprised Cameron and Reagan DIDN'T hear you two."

Everyone got drinks. We laughed, drank, and danced. At one point Lexi and Ted ran over to request a song. Then Sally and Reagan joined them on the dance oor to sing. I wanna dance with somebody. At the top of their lungs. We all watched them with amusement. They had dance moves to go along with their singing. They pretended they had microphones as they belted it out. Derrick said, "God. I can't believe we all have mates." I smiled, "This is a lot more fun than when we took our girlfriends out and Matt tagged along." Matt snorted, "Matt never went home alone. Rather... I went to someone's place." I said, "I'm really beginning to wonder how I missed all this." Derrick said, "He always left rst. He'd disappear for a bit, then show back up saying he was heading out. Or he'd link us that he left." I said, "You did do that. You ass!" Matt laughed, "I wasn't ready to tell." I said, "Derrick, I think we should give him s**t for the rest of his life for not trusting us. His best friends..." Cameron coughed, "Knew the whole time." We all started laughing. Lexi ran over and grabbed me. Everyone cat called as she led me to the back. She whispered, "Show me your oce." Matt snorted, "Thank god.... His oce is soundproofed." I laughed. I led Lexi back to my oce. She was all over me the second the door was shut. I cleared everything off my desk and laid her down on it. I managed not to shred her dress. We made it back out after a bit. She frowned, "Did they leave?" I laughed, "I'm not the only one with an oce here." She smiled. We grabbed drinks, and everyone slowly trickled back out.

We stayed for several more hours before we all went home. I took Lexi to her place. She giggled and led me inside. She said, "I've got a secret." I said, "Another one?" Lexi laughed, "I have so many secrets....this one is about Kincade." Lexi frowned, "I know a secret about Kincade?" Lexi nodded. I said, "What is it?" Lexi smiled, "I think I know who his mate is. She's so cute!" I gaped, "How does Kincade not know that if you do?" Lexi said, "Oh... She's not eighteen yet. She's the daughter of one of my clients. She came in today with her mom and sister in law. Kincade was enamored by her, and she thought he was handsome. She got all ustered." I said, "How old is she?" Lexi said, "She's seventeen." I said, "Werewolf?" She nodded. "Wanna guess who she's related to?" I said, "Oh dear god. I'm getting a headache. Is she related to the Conners family?" Lexi smirked, "Nope." I said, "Conners pack?" Lexi said, "Yup." I wanted to groan. I sat up straight. Oh s**t. Seventeen... "Is she Liam's little sister?" Lexi smiled, "Yes! Bexley TOTALLY picked up the hint today too. Bex came with her mother in law, and her and Liam's little girls. They were so cute." She kept talking, and I was trying to think of the ways Liam would try to kill my best warrior. I linked Matt, "Did you just get the Kincade bomb?" Matt said, "What Kincade bomb?" I said, "Oh... ask you mate about Kincade." Matt linked back, "Nnnnooooo." He said in a disbelieving tone. "They won't actually hurt him... right? They joke....but...." I said, "It will be one hell of ght. He's our lead warrior at the age of twenty-one for a reason." Matt said, "Little Carry and Kincade." I said, "Not so little. When is her birthday?" Matt said, "You just have to love this Chase. Her birthday is January second." I said, "No f****g way." Matt said, "Yes f****g way. Kevin will have to do guard duty by himself." I said, "Their other brother can join him. I'll have Ken do it. You live for drama."

Matt snorted, "This will be the most epic werewolf meeting OF ALL TIME! I'm telling Beta Dylan he HAS to come. He'd never forgive me otherwise." I snorted, "Why would he come?" Matt said, "He can protect the reason. You know that going to Liam is to come." I sighed, "We will have to protect Kincade. You know that right? Tell him the oldest of ve brothers. Carry is the only girl and the youngest." Matt said, "They won't really hurt him. Come on now." I went to sleep hoping he was right. He was right that January second stood to be.... An interesting day if Lexi and Ted were right. The weeks went by quickly. Matt had paid Dustin and Ryan Forrester to come together. They found four holo ports, and blocked them with some warlock s**t. Before I knew it, I was kissing Lexi goodbye for Thanksgiving lunch with her brother in the shroud. I was ridiculously happy Matt and Ted were going too. Ted's family was doing Lunch with them, and they were coming back for dinner. I managed to get some work done trying to pass the time. It worked. By the time I exited my oce. Everyone was due done in ten minutes. Matt and Ted arrived last. Both looked around the room. Ted's face fell, and he ran back outside. I frowned, "Matt? Where's Lexi?" Matt sighed, "We were hoping she was....here already. Ted called her, he didn't get an answer." We all heard Ted shout, "MOTHER FUCKER SERIOUSLY? TELL ME SHE DIDN'T GO ALONE!... A FAIRY! A FAIRY! A FAIRY! TO WEAR TO THE F****g WAR GODDESS IF THAT DAMN LIASON DIDN'T LIASE...I WILL....HAVE MY STRING DO SOMETHING F****g HORRIBLE TO YOU!" Ted ran back in. My heart sank, "Where is she?" Ted sighed, "We had someone miss a check in....she was their on call person." I said, "Was that her brother on the phone?" Ted said, "No. He'd kick my ass if I spoke to him like that." Matt growled. I said, "I assume this liaison is the fairy Exsis." Ted sighed, "Yes. Lexi gave him a message to get to Haley." I paced. Bolt was giving me hell about not marking Lexi. I didn't bother responding. He was right. A knock sounded at the door, and I practically ripped it off the hinges. I looked at who was on my porch and my heart sank. It wasn't Lexi.
