

The Power 24

Chapter 24

Xie Zhiwei found it funny when she heard it. She stroked Xie Zhihui's hair. She, the second younger sister, has a pure heart. Xie Zhihui entered the palace purely because she had never been in the palace before, and thought it was fun, so she wanted to go in and see it.

Now that I have seen the complexity of the palace, I am afraid that I will never want to enter the palace again.

"Could it be that you won't accompany me in when I enter the palace again?" Xie Zhiwei teased her.

Xie Zhihui frowned and thought for a while, "If Eldest Sister is afraid of entering the palace alone, I still have to accompany Eldest Sister to enter the palace together."

"Well, next time, if I enter the palace, I will ask you to accompany me. I will be very scared if I enter the palace alone." Xie Zhiwei is not afraid, but she just thinks that with the temper of the second younger sister, she is afraid that she will get along with her. He suffered the same as in his previous life.

Second sister is not defensive, but it doesn't mean that others have no intention of harming her. If you know more, you won't let others easily harm her, and you can get rid of the fate of the previous life.

Back at Xie's house, Yuan Shi and Xiao Shi had already led the people to look forward to it in front of the Chuihua Gate. When they saw Xie Zhiwei get off the car, their eyes lit up. Xie Zhiwei's body was clearly not the one he wore when he entered the palace. Shi asked, "Miss Wei, is this body of yours rewarded by the empress?"

The dress on Xie Zhiwei's body should be Yuehua brocade brought up from Sichuan. I heard that there are only a hundred pieces of brocade every year, and all of them enter the palace, not even enough for the royal family. There are also pink pearls on her head, which are also newly added. In order to match her clothes, each bead is about the size of a little finger. There are more than 20 beads in total, which are of average size. Light, extremely rare.

My daughter entered the palace with Sister Wei, and Sister Wei got the benefits, but Sister Hui got nothing. Xiao's smile was a little stiff, and his tone was not good enough.

"The empress likes the eldest sister very much, and asks the eldest sister to go to the palace to play when she is free." Xie Zhihui is purely happy for Xie Zhiwei, and has no intention of jealousy.

Ms. Xiao was very surprised that the queen valued Xie Zhiwei so much. Her own daughter was like a stick.

Entering the palace together, Xie Zhiwei got benefits, but she got nothing, so she didn't feel any emotion at all? It's really disappointing and disturbing.

Mr. Xiao said angrily, "You accompanied your elder sister to the palace, and you didn't say you wanted to please the empress?"

Xie Zhihui was extremely shocked. Looking at Xiao Shi, she didn't understand why her mother thought so, "What is the mother saying? What's so good about the daughter, making the mother think that the daughter can be compared with the big sister?"

Ms. Xiao was so choked that she couldn't speak. She had taught her daughter so much, but she had never taught her daughter to belittle herself. The daughter's self-taught knowledge was so proficient.

It's really not as good as God!

Yuan's heart was on Xie Zhiwei, and she took her hand, "Mei Mei, are you tired? Go say hello to the old lady, and go back to rest early."

In the old lady's room, Xie Zhiying, the concubine daughter of the second room, and Qian, mother and daughter of the third room, were waiting together. He watched helplessly as the two sisters Xie Zhiwei came in, and the maids behind them were holding the rewards they got, seeing their eyes full of envy and jealousy.

"Miss Wei, you brought your second sister into the palace this time, and next time you enter the palace, should you bring your third sister?" across the mountain.

Mr. Feng has always disliked Sanfang, but sometimes, in order to suppress the elder family, she is willing to give Sanfang face, which makes Qian's heart grow bigger.

Xie Zhiqian's eyes lit up when she heard what her mother said, staring at Xie Zhiwei, just waiting for her to say hello.

Xie Zhiwei glanced lightly at Mrs. Qian, neither saying yes nor no, she saluted Feng's courteously, and asked people to bring up the rewards from the palace.

The queen's gift, she has already worn it on her body, what is left is the pot of orchids, and the other ladies' gifts.

Jewelry is nothing more than jewelry. Seeing the pot of orchids that were carefully grown, Feng's cloudy eyes lit up immediately, and the shock on his face couldn't be concealed. "Empress Empress even gave you the orchids she raised?"

Who doesn't know that the empress is addicted to orchids like her life. In these years, she has never rewarded anyone except the wife of the Marquis of Wu'an.

Xie Zhiwei, how can He De get so much love from the queen?

This is more honorable than rewarding gold, jade and jewelry.

Xiao's attention was all on Xie Zhiwei's clothes just now, but at this moment, seeing the orchid, he was also shocked.

Ms. Qian was upset at first, but Xie Zhiwei ignored her, but in front of this pot of orchids, she didn't know what else to do besides flattering Xie Zhiwei.

If Xie Zhiwei can occasionally bring Sister Qian into the palace, are you afraid that Sister Qian's reputation will not be raised? If you can get one or two rewards from the palace like Sister Hui, are you afraid that you won't be able to discuss a good marriage in the future?

Feng couldn't restrain his heart beating wildly, and became more and more displeased with Xie Zhiwei. He insisted on having conflicts with her sister Qing. They were aunts and cousins, wouldn't it be nice to be intimate?

If it weren't for this, the three cousins went in together when they entered the palace this time. With her sister Qing's cleverness, this pot of orchids might belong to sister Qing.

Really cheap Xie Zhiwei.

"You and Sister Hui will put these rewards in your own private treasury!" Mrs. Feng saw the greed in Mrs. Qian's eyes. If only Xie Zhiwei received the rewards and let Xie Zhi differentiate them, that would be fine, but if Xie Zhiwei It's different, it would be wrong for sister Hui not to share her reward with her sisters.

Of course, the Feng family didn't want to harm the interests of their direct relatives and granddaughters, so they simply didn't divide it up. It's a reward from the palace anyway, so it's understandable not to share it.

Qian's hands tightly twisted the handkerchief, she was very angry, but she also knew that it was related to Sister Hui, if she said something, her mother-in-law would not like it, so she had to take Xie Zhiwei into a fit, "Sister Wei, the Queen's empress is even the favorite!" I gave you all the orchids, which are more precious than anything else."

It means that those bracelets you got should be taken out and distributed to the sisters?

"Third Aunt, you are right. It is the honor of the Xie family for the eldest sister to be rewarded by the empress. I, the third younger sister, the fourth younger sister, and the fifth younger sister should all learn from the eldest sister. As long as we can be like the elder sister So dignified and respectful, the empress will definitely like it."

Xie Zhihui said sincerely, "The empress likes big sister, and Her Royal Highness also likes big sister very much. She is commensurate with big sister and sister. I don't think I can be so flattering or humiliating as big sister."

After finishing speaking, Xie Zhihui looked at Xie Zhiwei adoringly, staring at her eyes.

Xie Zhiwei was amused by her, Feng Shi and Xiao Shi looked at each other, very suspicious, whether this child is stupid, pardon their stupid eyes, they really didn't see it, what's so good about Xie Zhiwei?

Feng Shi was so angry that she waved her hand, "You two are tired too, go back and rest first, you don't need to come here again today."

Xie Zhiwei couldn't ask for more, bent his knees, turned and left.

Zi Mo held the pot of orchids and followed behind her.

Ms. Yuan also knew that she was not welcomed by Mrs. Feng, so she followed without saying a word, and the mother and daughter went to Fuyunyuan together.

She went to the palace and was very worried about her brother. Yuan Shi was worried about her. Feng Shi and others felt that it was an honor to enter the palace, but Yuan Shi knew that the palace was like a dragon's pond and a tiger's den, and if one was not careful, one might fall into it, which could be described as full of dangers.

"Sister, you are finally back!" Xie Mingxi was detained on the bed, seeing Xie Zhiwei, he was very happy, and rushed towards Xie Zhiwei, Xie Zhiwei took a step forward and caught him.
