

The Power 331

Chapter 331 Joy

At this moment, Xie Zhiwei finally realized what it means to not heal yourself.

There was once a story recorded in a book. There was a famous doctor in the world. His mother was ill. He took several medicines, but they didn't get better. Instead, the condition got worse.

As a last resort, he invited a doctor who had a problem with him to see his old lady. He was also a great doctor. The prescription he prescribed was not much different from his own, except that the main medicine was doubled in dose, and this The main drug itself is poisonous.

If this person didn't trust his opponent's character, he must doubt whether the opponent took the opportunity to poison his wife to death.

However, after a dose of medicine, his old mother's condition improved. At that moment, he realized that the truth is that the doctor can't heal himself.

Elder Zong came soon, and after examining Xiao Xun's pulse, he explained the pulse condition, Xie Zhiwei nodded, and asked, "Dare to ask, is it feasible to use the existing prescription?"

The existing prescription, after removing the raw gypsum, used dandelion 48 qian, Xiaoshengdi 6 qian, black rhinoceros horn 48 qian, Zhenchuanlian 4 qian, raw gardenia, bellflower, skullcap, anemarrhena, red peony root, scrophulariae, Forsythia, bamboo leaves, licorice, paeonol, and berberine each cost 3 qian.

Elder Zong hesitated for a long time, then said ruthlessly, "Third son, what I mean is that I still need to add raw gypsum, but it can be replaced by a large dose of medium dose. Some prescriptions are difficult to remove internal heat in the body."

Xie Zhiwei pondered for a long time before slowly nodding, "You are welcome!"

Xiao Xun only felt that his whole body was on fire, and he was so uncomfortable that he was going crazy. After a while, a cold feeling came from him, which made him feel better. He opened his eyes in a daze, and saw Chaosi With the person in front of him, Xiao Xun thought he was hallucinating, and muttered, "I'm dreaming again."

After finishing speaking, Xiao Xun closed his eyes again.

This night, Xiao Xun had a fever again and again, Xie Zhiwei didn't close his eyes all night, until the fifth watch, Xiao Xun's condition stabilized, the high fever on his body subsided, Xie Zhiwei couldn't hold it anymore, and went back to his room.

Just after the hour, Mohen was dozing off on the couch outside, when he heard some movement inside, he hurriedly stood up, rushed into the inner room with one step, saw Xiao Xun sitting up from the bed, rubbing his "Mohen, why is this king so weak? Did someone hit me with a sap while I was asleep?"

Mo Hen saw that Xiao Xun finally came back to life, and wept with joy, "Your Highness, who dares, who is impatient to live, dare to beat your sap!"

Xiao Xun got up, stood in the middle of the inner room, turned around, stretched his muscles and bones, and asked, "What's going on? Could it be that this king is also infected with the epidemic?"

While talking, Zi Mo came in, holding a bowl of medicine, "Your Majesty, it's time to take medicine!"

"Where's your girl?" Xiao Xun asked instead, not intending to take medicine.

"The girl guarded the prince of the county last night. At five o'clock, she couldn't hold on any longer, so she went to sleep, and ordered the slaves to bring the prince the medicine when he woke up."

Xiao Xun couldn't say anything after hearing this, took the medicine, swallowed it in one gulp, and was very obedient.

Mohen even wondered if his master was possessed by something. You must know that the county prince grew up, even if he had a cold and diarrhea, he would not drink medicine. Last night, the county master gave the medicine himself. Chickens and ducks can't be distinguished, and they drank the medicine into their stomachs in a daze.

Zi Mo took the empty bowl and left, the girl only told her to watch the county prince drink the medicine, other things have nothing to do with her.

Unexpectedly, when she left the house, the prince of the county also came out, and when she went back to the girl's room, the prince of the county also came in, Zi Mo was a little calm, "Master of the county, my girl didn't sleep well for two nights, this time I haven't gotten up yet."

"Well, I'll wait for her right here!"

As soon as he finished speaking, Du Yun came in, "Your Majesty, Mohen is outside, and he said that Mr. Zhang found it. Now there is no medicinal material like dandelion in the city. If we wait for it to be brought in from outside, it will take ten and a half days." It's been a month. Mr. Zhang is dying of anxiety."

Seeing that the epidemic has improved, the main drug dandelion is gone.

"Isn't dandelion everywhere? When did it become a scarce medicinal material?" Xiao Xun had to get up, firstly because of his status, and secondly, if he didn't care about it, then it's Xie Zhiwei's turn to think of a way, can he ignore it?

Zhang Yishan was in a hurry at the door, saw Xiao Xun coming out, hurriedly greeted him, spread his hands, and said speechlessly, "Your Majesty, what should I do, there are no more dandelions in the city, and the next official will go out of the city to meet the fourth prince himself Your Highness, Your Highness said that he will arrange for someone to adjust Dandelion urgently, but it will take at least ten days."

"Ten days, how many people will die in this city! In the past, there was no way to find the right medicine. Now, with the prescription, how can we just watch people die?"

Zhang Yishan was about to cry, "This dandelion is not a rare medicine. In the past, one or two plants could be found on the roof of the wall, but now it is gone."

"Prepare the horse, I'll go find Xiao Changxuan and let him/mother's dog/fart! Just blind dandelion, which pharmacy doesn't have ten catties, I don't believe it, I can't get it at all, ten days and a half months away, the closest to here Don't you have Qixian County? Isn't there any capital city? I remember, isn't there a dandelion in the list of three young master Cui's top ten days?"

Xiao Xun walked out while talking, Zhang Yishan followed without touching the ground, "Your Majesty, I will go with you."

Mohen was about to cry after following, and he had to admire his master, who was dizzy from the fever last night, and once the high fever subsided, he came back to life.

It can be seen that a disease is a real disease, and a good is also a good.

Outside the city, Xiao Changxuan walked out of the camp and came to a carriage, which was covered with oiled paper and inside was a solid cart of dandelions.

The steward who was following the car nodded and bowed to Xiao Changxuan, "Your Highness, the fourth prince, the younger one is the steward of the Ning family medicine shop in the capital. Early the morning before yesterday, Miss Xue took the warrant of His Royal Highness the Fourth Prince to find the younger one, and asked the younger one to buy it. All the dandelions are transported to Juzhou City, whether they are used for disaster relief or sold, depends on His Highness!"

Xiao Changxuan was shocked. He only heard the news from the city this morning, saying that the Cui family's genius doctor had found the right medicine, and one of the main medicines was dandelion.

Sure enough, Miss Xue did not predict the future, and Xiao Changxuan was very pleasantly surprised. God really stood by his side and sent Miss Xue to his side.

"You transport these to the city and hand them over to the Ning family's pharmacy. The imperial court has a special person in charge of disaster relief, so I don't need to worry about it." He is only responsible for preventing people from the city from coming out and receiving the relief supplies sent by the imperial court That's it.

He asked himself to be impartial and selfless, and he didn't invade the court's stitches, so naturally he wouldn't let out the fat sheep he got.

Almost 80% of the annual income of the Ning family drugstore is used for him. To put it bluntly, the money of the Ning family is his money. What's more, this year the Ning family's business in the Imperial Medical Bureau has been hit hard. He has hardly received any money this month, and the Ning family's business can no longer have any mistakes.

When the steward heard this, he was overjoyed, and the boss was almost out of control. Fortunately, His Royal Highness is not a bodhisattva, otherwise, following such a person, it would be impossible for him to succeed in life.

Fourth update!

Chapter 332 Robbery

In the city, Xiao Xun and Zhang Yishan each rode a horse and went to the street. When they were about to reach the gate of the city, they saw a long queue at the gate of a medicine store. The genius doctor has already said that this plague can only be cured by dandelions, boil dandelions and drink to prevent the plague, dandelions are worth a penny, the price is fair, first come first served!"

Xiao Xun reined in the horse suddenly, turned his head to look at Zhang Yishan, pointed the whip at the pharmacy, "What's going on? Didn't it mean that there are no dandelions in the city?"

Zhang Yishan was also confused, he quickly got off his horse, ran over there, and asked, "Which pharmacy are you from, and where did the dandelions come from?"

The guy smiled and said, "My lord, don't you care where our dandelions come from? They are good medicinal materials anyway. If you want them, you can buy them with silver. You can buy dandelions for one penny. After today, you can do it tomorrow." If it's not good, the price will be raised. The doctor of the Cui family said that only dandelion can cure this epidemic, and the magic needle of the Cui family doesn't work. Oh, God still loves us common people!"

Someone at the back saw that Zhang Yishan didn't leave, thought he was going to jump in the queue, and pushed forward desperately, accidentally squeezed the people in front, and was about to be trampled, so Zhang Yishan had to come back, and cupped his hands at Xiao Xun, "Your Majesty, what is this?" The pharmacy of Ning's family must be the dandelion stockpiled in the past."

"Fart!" Xiao Xun said angrily, pointing at the queue like a long queue, "What is a pharmacy stockpiling so many dandelions for? Check it out, check it out for me. Where did these dandelions come from?"

Just as I was talking, a car came in from outside the city, and the car was tightly covered with oiled paper. There were five burly men escorting the car, and a steward. When the group walked to the door, the steward said to the man, "Hurry up and ask the young master to come out, the goods have arrived, and the young master over there said that this car is only for the time being, so let's sell it at a leisurely time."

When Xiao Xun heard this, he rushed forward and yanked the oiled paper, several large packages of medicinal materials appeared in front of everyone, and one of the old men screamed, "Dandelion, it's dandelion."

"The imperial court cheated us ordinary people, saying that there are no more dandelions. It turns out that dandelions are sold to Ning's drugstore!"

"Didn't you hear that? The Ning family medicine shop is run by the empress of the palace, the family of the fourth prince, and even the magistrate dare not provoke him!"

"One penny and one penny of dandelion! This is not medicine, but this is silver! How can we ordinary people afford it?"

"Didn't that young master say that the imperial court would send us food and medicine? Why do you want us to pay for such expensive medicine?"

"Everyone!" a man raised his arms and shouted, "Those dog officials in the imperial court don't care about us ordinary people. They are all tigers that eat people. No, they are more powerful than tigers. Tigers eat people when they are hungry. Dog officials eat people but don't spit out bones."

"Get out!" The steward yelled, pointed at Xiao Xun, and said to the burly man, "Hit me, hit me to death!"

Xiao Xun fell ill, and after getting up, he didn't have the energy to take care of himself, and was sloppy. The steward thought he was the young master of someone in the city, and someone in the family was sick and was in a hurry to get the medicinal materials, so he came here to grab it.

Seeing those thugs surrounded him, Xiao Xun spread out his whip and turned around, knocking them all down. He shouted, "Where are they? Where are they? Come out to me!"

There was a sound of horseshoes, and a group of people rushed over from all directions, lined up in front of Xiao Xun, and shouted in unison, "I have seen the prince of the county!"

Xiao Xun pointed to the Ning family medicine store, "Copy, copy for me, all the medicinal materials, I will send all the medicinal materials to the yamen, and not a single one is allowed!"

The steward was already dumbfounded. How could he have thought that the target of his attack was a county prince. His legs gave way, and he fell to the ground with a puddle of mud.

The shopkeeper hurried out when he heard the commotion, and knelt at the gate, "Your Majesty, what law has this drugstore violated?"

He took a step forward and said in a low voice, "Your Majesty, this is the medicine shop of the Ning family. Please give me your hand. His Royal Highness, the Fourth Prince, will definitely not forget your kindness!"

"Where did the medicinal materials come from?"

Xiao Xun didn't pay attention at all, he is not blind, doesn't he know that this is Ning's medicine shop, pointing to the carriage at the door, "As far as I know, this carriage and this cloth bag are not folk things, how dare you rob them?" Do you know that the disaster relief items delivered by the imperial court are crimes of beheading?"

"Hurry up and search for me!"

The people brought by Xiao Xun were about to rush into the pharmacy when a voice came from the gate of the city, "Wait a minute, fifth brother, what's going on?"

Xiao Xun waved his hand, those people, those who should pull the cart away, those who should rush in to search the shop, went in, and the one who came was the Fourth Prince.

"Hehe, it turned out to be the fourth brother, how dare you come in, old man?" Xiao Xun flicked his horsewhip and walked over casually.

Xiao Changxuan hated Xiao Xun terribly in his heart, but on the surface he had no choice but to argue with him, "Fifth brother, what's going on? Did the Ning family's drugstore commit any crime?"

"Fourth brother, what's the matter with this cart of dandelions? Isn't it the medicinal materials transported by the imperial court to Juzhou for disaster relief? Why, it turns out that the fourth brother entrusted the Ning family medicine shop to sell these medicinal materials to the common people and the yamen at a high price? Fourth brother, don't you know, Zhang Yishan is a poor man, and he can't get a single coin out of his purse?"

"Why does this cart of dandelions belong to the imperial court? When I was at the gate of the city just now, I saw it being transported from Yinzhou with my own eyes. Fifth brother, I know that there is a shortage of medicinal materials in the city now, but we can't do this kind of robbery." thing!"

"This is really a coincidence. Isn't there a lot of Atractylodes in Yinzhou? When did dandelions start to grow? Besides, the Cui family's little genius doctor just figured out the matter of dandelions being used as medicine yesterday. It turns out that the Ning family already knew about it. Hehe, it's been a long time ago." Knowing that dandelion can cure epidemics, why do you still cover it up and keep silent?"

Common people are not stupid, and there are quite a few people who were waiting to spend a lot of money to buy dandelions. Seeing that the county prince has snatched them away, they must use the medicine, so they don't fight for it. Now that everyone has heard the big news, everyone understands that Ganqing is indeed the fourth prince's natal family. The fourth prince sells the medicinal materials delivered to Juzhou City by the imperial court to his natal family for huge profits.

"My God, why are there such heartless people in this world! Knowing that dandelion can cure epidemics, but not to mention it, what kind of heart is it?" A woman who lost her child heard this, Sitting on the ground, weeping loudly.

Some people were sobbing while wiping away their tears. No words could express the grief and indignation in his heart at this moment.

"It's difficult to make money for the country?" Xiao Xun's mood was also affected, "fourth brother, are you not afraid of being sprayed to death by the spittle of the censors? Who in the world doesn't know that the Ning family in Yinzhou is your natal family? I don't know Why is it such a coincidence that this cart of dandelions has come, but now, I want to take them away, and when the dandelions from the imperial court arrive, fourth brother, you can exchange them for your convenience."

Not to mention the number of updates, please ask for votes!

Chapter 333 Holding hands

Xiao Xun said one thing, he has many people under his command, although Xiao Changxuan also brought a lot of people, but these Iron Eagle Riders around Xiao Xun were born and died with Xiao Xun, and they were trained from fighting on the battlefield. Everyone is fierce and murderous. It was not comparable to the guards around him at all, he could only watch helplessly as Xiao Xun dragged the people and goods away together.

Coming out of the city, when Xiao Changxuan walked to the gate of the city, he was about to face a personal guard. The man had come to report the matter, but before he could speak, he whipped him across the face and said angrily, "Get out!"

Xue Wanqing finally arrived at Juzhou City, her carriage was parked at the door of Xiao Changxuan's tent, it was freezing cold, she did not come out, but waited anxiously in the carriage.

Suddenly hearing the sound of horseshoes coming from outside, Xue Wanqing hastily opened the curtain and looked outside, just in time to meet a handsome and extraordinary face. A smile like a peony.

Xue Wanqing slightly pursed her lips and smiled, and nodded lightly as a way of saying hello to him. Holding her skirt reservedly, she got off the carriage.

Xiao Changxuan quickly got off his horse, walked over quickly, and handed Xue Wanqing his hand.

Xue Wanqing was a little blunt and didn't get too entangled, so she supported Xiao Changxuan's wrist and got off the carriage.

Cuixiang followed behind.

Xue Wanqing got off the carriage and withdrew her hand.

Xiao Changxuan's hands were hanging by his side, his five fingers spread out, and his body was a little stiff as he walked towards the tent, to the point of getting carried away.

There are many servant girls around him, it's not that he doesn't have skin-to-skin contact with women, but for him, Xue Wanqing is different, he and Xue Wanqing have held hands today.

Xue Wanqing pretended not to see Xiao Changxuan's discomfort, and she was even a little proud. Between a man and a woman, if it doesn't matter to a man to hold hands once, then the position of this woman in his heart can be said to be dispensable.

Xue Wanqing didn't intend to have anything to do with Xiao Changxuan, but in which novel, the heroine doesn't have a lot of admirers? The rise of the heroine is often driven by the power of these ambiguous people.

Xiao Changxuan can be said to be the second male lead in the novel "A Girl in the Hand". His strength is slightly inferior to Xiao Xun. If such a person is let him go, is she still worthy of being the heroine?

After meeting each other, Xiao Changxuan asked Xue Wanqing to sit down on the first chair, quickly ordered someone to serve tea, and asked, "Why did Miss Xue come in person?"

Xue Wanqing didn't answer but asked, "The cartload of dandelions should have arrived, right?"

It's okay not to mention it, but when it is mentioned, Xiao Changxuan's expression is extremely ugly, but it is not good to say in front of Xue Wanqing that he has never fought against Xiao Xun, and was robbed by him.

"Is your highness doubting that dandelion can't cure this epidemic? I figured it out after a lot of effort. Please recommend this medicine to the imperial doctors in the imperial hospital, so that they can focus on the pharmacological aspects of dandelion. To analyze the treatment of the current epidemic will definitely make the epidemic better."

"What is an epidemic? It means that there is no preventive medicine, no specific medicine, and it has a high infectivity and fatality rate. As long as one of these four characteristics is broken through, for example, a specific medicine is developed, then the problem will be solved. ."

There has never been a woman who is so knowledgeable, generous, and considers everything for the country and the people. Xiao Changxuan stared at Xue Wanqing in a daze, thinking that she is really astonishing as the Nine Heavens Profound Girl.

"To tell you the truth, Miss Xue, just yesterday, those doctors have figured out a special prescription, which happens to use the dandelion that Miss Xue mentioned."

Xue Wanqing was inevitably disappointed, was he one step too late after all? It's her fault. When I first read the novel, I didn't read it word by word. However, it's just a novel. How many people read ten lines at a glance, and skipping has become a habit. No one would have thought that they would end up in the novel they were reading. let's go!

If everything could be done again, she would definitely not have skipped the subscription for the sake of speed and saving money, so that she didn't pay attention to this plague, and didn't think much about it at all, if it wasn't mentioned in the later plot that this plague Dandelion has been used as a medicinal material, and she probably can't remember, what medicinal material was used to break the epidemic?

"That's great!" Xue Wanqing said with a smile, "I came here in a hurry, for fear that I would be late and a few more people would die. Now that the special medicine has been released, there will be no large-scale eruption in the future. .It couldn't be better for Dayong."

Xue Wanqing was very upset in her heart, if she had thought of Dandelion earlier, she would have made great contributions in this disaster relief process, and still worried that the emperor would not give her a reward?

"However, who is the person who came up with the special medicine formula? This person has made a great contribution this time!"

"It's the third son Cui!" Even if Xiao Changxuan knew that the so-called third son Cui was Xie Zhiwei, he didn't want to mention Xie Zhiwei's name, nor did he believe that Xie Zhiwei had this ability.

Since he is a member of the Cui family, there is nothing to say. After all, it is true in the book that everyone in the Cui family loves to read. The plot of the story is related to the ancestor of the Cui family. It turned out that the ancestor of the Cui family found the key point to crack it from the strange behavior of a white cat.

"The dandelion, His Highness should know how to deal with it?" Xue Wanqing said, "I bought all the dandelions in the capital at one go, and spent a total of more than five hundred taels of silver. This is a very common medicinal material. The price is not high, but at this time, if His Highness operates a little bit, buy it through the imperial court and give it to the common people for free, not only can you earn a fortune, but you can also gain a good reputation."

Xiao Changxuan was speechless. He didn't understand what Xue Wanqing said, but the key point was that he didn't handle this matter well.

"The dandelion was transported to the city. It was originally sold in the Ningjia drugstore. I originally wanted to earn some money and then distribute it to Miss Xue."

Xue Wanqing breathed a sigh of relief. The five hundred taels of silver were all obtained by embezzling the money from the Charity Foundation. Naturally, the funds should be returned as soon as possible so that it can be made up. Once someone finds out, she might not be able to tell.

"Your Highness, please use the imperial court's money to buy all the dandelions in Ning's pharmacy, make sure everyone in the city knows about it, and then start applying the medicine."

Seeing that Xiao Changxuan couldn't hide it, he could only say, "Miss Xue, you should come here in person as soon as possible. These medicinal materials were all taken away by Xiao Xun within two cups of tea."

Xue Wanqing was stunned for three breaths, "He stole it? What did he do it for? To sell it?"

Xue Wanqing thought, Xiao Xun is not a fool, could it be that he is short of money and robbed dandelions to sell them for money? If Xiao Xun is so short of money, it's a good thing, she has a fortune right now, or else, ask Xiao Xun to buy shares?

Chapter 334 Beauty

"No, there is a shortage of dandelions in the city right now. He snatched the dandelions for the purpose of using them as medicine to treat the sick in the city."

Xue Wanqing smiled, Xiao Xun is worthy of being the male lead, as long as he wants to, he will definitely be able to beat the male lead.

Seeing Xiao Changxuan looking like a mourning concubine, she looked down on her in her heart, but she still didn't intend to hit anyone. After thinking about it, she said, "Your Highness, don't worry about it. King Chen Jun is also for the world of Dayong, and His Highness's goal is the same. The so-called brotherhood As long as His Majesty knows, this time His Highness joined forces with the King of Chen County to solve the epidemic so quickly, it will surely make the Dragon's heart happy. This can be regarded as His Highness's filial piety, and His Majesty will definitely see it."

Xiao Changxuan was comforted. It was the first time he met such a reasonable and understanding girl. He just felt that God was really kind to him.

"Well, Miss Xue, you can't live in the city right now, it will be bad if you get infected..."

Before Xiao Changxuan finished speaking, Su Shou came in, "Your Highness, there was a riot in the city. I heard that some people who were refused treatment by the third son Cui were locked up in the Temple of the City God. Those people were fine when there was no special medicine. Now that there are specific medicines, those people will not be able to sit still if they are not treated."

"Just now, when the medicine was being applied in the city, those people clashed with the guards, and now more than ten people have died."

Xue Wan stood up sharply, "Your Highness, I think this matter cannot be ignored. It was originally a credit, don't get impeached by the censors in the end, and the credit you got turned into a crime."

After saying this, Xiao Changxuan couldn't sit still. He asked clearly that the City God's Temple was at the north gate of the city, and ordered two hundred soldiers. Just as he was about to go, Xue Wanqing offered to go with him.

"Your Highness, I'm sorry, if I take a carriage, I'm afraid it will slow down everyone's speed. I don't know how to ride a horse for the time being. Right now, I have no choice but to request a ride with Your Highness."

Xiao Changxuan was a little embarrassed, but he would not refuse the beauty's request, so he stretched out his hand to pull Xue Wanqing, swept her around, and placed her in front of him.

It has to be said that Xiao Changxuan can become the second male, and his riding skills are still very good. He is also very considerate. He uses his cloak to cover Xue Wanqing tightly. It only takes a few moments to walk around from the south of the city gate to the north of the city gate. effort.

At this time, the conflict became more and more intense, Xiao Xun had arrived, holding a bow in his hand, with an arrow on the bowstring, aiming at the troublemaker.

That person is said to be holding Xie Zhiwei hostage, the sworn brother of the person who died under Xiao Xun's sword, and rushed over from other places after hearing the news of his brother's death.

At this time, he held a knife in his hand and shouted loudly, "King Chen, you said that Caomin and others belong to the White Lotus Sect. What evidence do you have? Even if Caomin is a member of the White Lotus Sect, there are so many people behind Caomin. Are they all members of the White Lotus Sect?"

There are so many people behind him, some of them are those who Zhang Yishan found out through road checking these days, and some are people who encouraged those patients to make trouble. Every time they saw someone died, someone would call for Cui San The young master gave injections for everyone, slandered the people in the Tai Hospital, and said that the people sent by the imperial court were all idiots, troublemakers who could not be appeased no matter how they tried.

Xiao Xun also felt quite speechless. He was so sick that he didn't have any energy to recover from his illness, and he was still thinking about using his spare energy for the White Lotus Sect.

Later, after Zhang Yishan investigated, he found out that if he could make more contributions to the White Lotus Sect before he died, the Second Prince Li would do it for them. Sutra, the law of eternal life.

What he said was true, Xiao Xun wanted to try it.

"Stop!"

Xue Wanqing turned over from Xiao Changxuan's horse and almost sprained her ankle, she ran over with her skirt in hand, stopped in front of that man, stretched out her hands to stop him, and said to Xiao Xun, "His Royal Highness, you can't do this. Everyone is equal in this world. Even if he has done heinous things, he should not be deprived of his right to enjoy medical treatment."

Xiao Xun squinted his eyes and glanced at Xue Wanqing, then turned his eyes away lightly, and looked at Xiao Changxuan, "Oh, the fourth brother is here, riding with a beautiful woman, is it very ecstatic?"

"Xiao Xun, can you be more serious!" Xue Wanqing couldn't help laughing, why is this person like this? He doesn't look serious all the time, but, as the saying goes, men are not bad and women don't love, Xiao Xun's playful temperament is in line with his youthful nature.

Xiao Changxuan's face turned completely black, Xiao Xun was not teasing him, Xiao Xun was mocking him. He led more than two hundred soldiers, he was the general who led the army, he didn't come to visit the mountains and rivers, and he immediately brought a woman with him, what's the matter?

"Fifth brother, the situation was urgent just now, and Miss Xue also tried her best. A loyalty can touch the sun and the moon. As a brother, I had to do this."

"So that's it!" Xiao Xun smiled, squinted his eyes slightly, and the bow string in his hand was drawn into a full moon. Just when everyone was astonished, there was a sound of piercing through the air, and the arrow shot towards the man's forehead like a shooting star chasing the moon. .

There is no avoiding it!

The man's eyes were wide open, and he couldn't believe it when he was about to die. There was a noble woman in front of him to shield him. Xiao Xun, at the age of thirteen or fourteen, was so bold that he was not afraid of accidental injury, and took his life.

The warm blood spurted out, Xue Wanqing was drenched from head to toe, and the strong and pungent * smell made her stomach feel like a sea of swelling, she let out a cry of "ah", leaned over and vomited, wanting to vomit all the skin on her body. Peeled.

No man has ever been so hateful, Xiao Xun simply has no sympathy.

This * is a lonely life, no wonder the book says he will die alone, this kind of person is not worth saving.

Xiao Changxuan jumped off the horse and lifted the dead body lying on Xue Wanqing's back. He quickly wiped the plasma on Xue Wanqing's face with the cloak on his body. Seeing Xue Wanqing's distressed appearance, he couldn't help saying angrily, " Fifth brother, how could you do this!"

Fortunately, Miss Xue helped him speak just now.

"What about me?" Xiao Xun chuckled, and while ordering to slaughter all the rebels, he walked over with a bow and arrow in hand, gloated at Xue Wanqing's pale face, which could not even be stained red with blood, "Take care of me all day long." I'm just hanging around in front of Lao Tzu all day long, and I don't pay attention to you, so you're getting more and more jumpy, aren't you?"

"I don't know what it means!" After Xiao Xun finished speaking, he turned around and left, as if Xue Wanqing was spreading shit, and his phoenix eyes would be dirty after one more look.

Xiao Changxuan was so angry that he wanted to go forward and fight Xiao Xun desperately. How could he humiliate a girl like this? Is Xiao Xun blind? Miss Xue has so many advantages, can't he see it at all? "

Xue Wanqing held Xiao Changxuan back, "Your Highness, there is no need to argue with Prince Chen, it was Wanqing just now, right? The two armies were facing each other, and Wanqing dared not rush into the middle of the formation."

Chapter 335 Companion

It really shouldn't be!

However, Xue Wanqing's next sentence came again, "Wanqing only thought that they are all the people of Dayong. Even if these people belong to the White Lotus Sect, they were deceived and went astray. duty, not to drive people to death without doing anything."

This theory had to make Xiao Changxuan think deeply, it was so reasonable, he knew that Miss Xue was a unique woman, she was like a bright moon hanging in the sky, bright and flawless, illuminating the dark night. the way forward.

Xue Wanqing vomited all her guts. After saying this, she really had no energy left. Xiao Changxuan left some of his own personal guards to deal with the matter here. He hugged Xue Wanqing, got on his horse, and rushed out of the city gate.

Going outside and taking a breath of free air, Xue Wanqing felt much better.

Backing to Xiao Changxuan's camp, Cuixiang was startled when she saw her girl's appearance, and exclaimed, "What's wrong with the girl?"

Xiao Changxuan carried Xue Wanqing off the horse, and Xue Wanqing grabbed Xiao Changxuan's sleeve, "Your Highness, please arrange some hot water for your Highness. Wanqing's appearance is really rude, she needs to freshen up."

"It's natural!"

After some bathing, Xue Wanqing finally came back to life. At this time, she learned from the painful experience, how much she yearned for Xiao Xun in the past, but now she is so angry with him.

It seems that there is a long way to go to cultivate Xiao Xun into a qualified partner, and it is a long way to go!

After Xiao Xun led his troops to kill all those White Lotus Sects, he returned to the yard and asked for a bucket of hot water to bathe his whole body before coming to Xie Zhiwei.

Xie Zhiwei just woke up, after washing up, before he had time to eat, Wang Shipu told her about the current situation in her room.

"The disease is basically under control, and many critically ill patients have improved. It can be seen that the county lord's prescription is very suitable for the symptoms."

Xie Zhiwei nodded, not showing any interest.

The fat cat lay peacefully on her lap, and she stroked the fat cat's white fur. She couldn't help but think of the first time Xue Tuan knocked over the dandelions on the medicine shelf. If she had been vigilant that time, maybe she wouldn't There will be so many detours.

But in this world, where there are shortcuts to anything, Xie Zhiwei didn't get too entangled.

"My lord, you still can't take it lightly. I heard that the price of dandelions in some drugstores has risen to ten cents per penny. When will the dandelions growing all over the ground be priced at the same price as silver? Right now, the epidemic is blocking the city. The price of dandelion is better controlled, and if the lockdown is lifted because of the special medicine, some lawbreakers may take advantage of it."

"My opinion, wait until there are no infected patients, and then block the city for another half a month, and then lift the blockade after it is completely stable."

Wang Shipu thought for a while, although he disagreed, since there is already a special medicine, why bother to lock down the city, but the special medicine was conceived by Xie Zhiwei, this time without Xie Zhiwei, they still don't know what to do?

What Xie Zhiwei said, they all had to listen.

"Yes, the county lord means that the subordinate officials will report to the emperor."

In the Linde Palace, the emperor was leaning on his couch to read "The Picture of the Goddess of Luo".

Lu Yan came in from outside the door in a red embroidered unicorn robe. He walked calmly and landed silently. After entering, he stood beside the emperor for a long time. After the emperor recovered from his trance, he hurried forward and poured a cup The tea was sent to the emperor's hand.

"Ah Yan, this painting is indeed the real thing. I have admired it for a long time. I once thought this painting was just a legend. I didn't expect that you were able to get it. It shows that you work hard every day."

Lu Yan bowed respectfully in front of the emperor, his temples were cut like knives, and the tails of his long and narrow eyes were turned up, revealing a touch of enchantment, "Your majesty is rich in the world, and I can get the authenticity of this painting, all relying on the emperor, I dare not Take credit."

The emperor saw Lu Yan's respect and was very satisfied.

He knew that many people in the government and the opposition were dissatisfied with his reuse of eunuchs, but so what?

Only these eunuchs would be loyal to him, would attach all their honor and disgrace to him, and would think of him as the emperor all the time.

These people have no family and no mouth, and are not tolerated by the world. It is precisely because of this that they will serve him wholeheartedly and be used by him.

The emperor saw that Lu Yan was holding a memorial in his hand, and stretched out his hand. Lu Yan hurriedly presented it respectfully, "Your Majesty, Wang Shipu of the Caitai Hospital sent someone to send a memorial. The epidemic in Juzhou City has found the right medicine. Now, Those critically ill patients have all improved, which is really a blessing to Dayong!"

The emperor hastily opened it, read the booklet at a glance, and suddenly, a big stone that had been pressing on his chest for a long time was removed immediately, and asked, "Wang Shipu said that this prescription was conceived by Duanxian county magistrate. Seriously?"

"The news I got is true!" Lu Yan said.

The emperor didn't doubt it, but was a little puzzled, "This girl is a bit capable, but why did she insist on going to Juzhou City with the title of Young Master Cui? Now I want to reward her, but I can't find a reason."

A glint of light flashed in Lu Yan's eyes, "Your Majesty, I think you should be rewarded for meritorious deeds. There must be two reasons why the county magistrate went to Juzhou in the name of Mr. Cui Sangong that day. Come on, the name of the disciple of the Cui family's genius doctor can appease the hearts of the people, and secondly, if a woman goes there, what will the world think? They must think that the emperor's imperial hospital does not have any talents, so they will send a woman there."

"I think that, just as the emperor said, Hui Xinlan, the head of Duanxian County, can take care of the overall situation in everything, and is also loyal to the emperor."

The emperor was also angry, and patted the kang, "Isn't there some trash in the imperial hospital, or something? The queen had miscarriages several times. If it weren't for the Duanxian County Lord, I'm afraid I still don't have a son. The people from the Tai Hospital go, look at them, pushing three and four, they are not as good as an eleven-year-old girl."

There was a calm and calm smile on the corner of Lu Yan's lips, and his feminine voice was calm, "Your Majesty, this time, the imperial physicians of the Taiyuan Hospital have experienced with Duanxian County Lord, and they should have made progress. Will work harder."

"Huh!" The emperor disagreed, and then talked about Xie Zhiwei, "This girl has made great achievements this time, Ah Yan, how do you think I should reward her?"

A flash of light flashed quickly in Lu Yan's bewitching eyes, he bowed and said, "Your Majesty, I look at you, the empress treats Duanxian County Lord like her own daughters, the eldest princess and the third princess and Duanxian County Lord Feeling like sisters, I think that if we raise the title of the county lord, firstly, it will appear that the emperor's grace is mighty, and secondly, the county lord and the princesses will be able to play together more."

Chapter 336 Getting married

The emperor took it very seriously, "Ah Yan, you still think well. This girl has always been considerate and considerate, and she has a family and country in her heart. She is quite generous. I have a few princes under my knees. If anyone can marry this girl in the future, he can also achieve a lot. Good story."

If it weren't for this selfishness, the emperor would have recognized Xie Zhiwei as his righteous daughter and made her a princess.

Lu Yan's eyes flashed, "Your Majesty, since ancient times, there have been hundreds of women in a family, so it must be the same idea between Prince Xiang and the Emperor."

When the emperor heard this, he suddenly raised his head, a little in disbelief. But thinking about it, Dongchang has many eyes and ears in Beijing, and there is nothing he doesn't know in all the major mansions, and he has always handled things safely, so he has no doubts.

"You mean my fourth brother, he also took a fancy to Wei girl?"

Before the emperor finished speaking, a little * shook outside the door, Lu Yan made a gesture, the little * came in, knelt down and said, "Report to the emperor, Lord Xiang, please see me!"

"Let's declare!" After the emperor finished speaking, he leaned back somewhat dispiritedly, and closed his eyes.

"Brother Huang!"

Prince Xiang stepped in a few steps, saluted the emperor perfunctorily, and blinked at Lu Yan, "Xiao Yan, you are here too, I heard that you brewed jade Hanchun, which is second to none. Give me a bowl!"

Lu Yan bowed respectfully and said, "Yes!"

Lu Yan turned around to make tea for King Xiang, and heard King Xiang say to the emperor, "Brother, I heard a report from the spies in the mansion saying that Ah Xun has made great achievements in Juzhou City. Brother, you have thought about rewarding him." Xun what?"

When the emperor heard this, his head hurt, "Fourth brother, Ah Xun is only fourteen years old, and he has already been named the county king. This time, he insisted on running by himself, saying that he was going to have a look, but he was not obedient. After running to the city, the empress dowager was worried several times, fourth brother, instead of constantly begging him for rewards here, you should discipline him well."

King Xiang didn't like to hear this, he was very angry, "Brother Huang, what are you talking about? What's wrong with Xun? The girl of the Xie family was held hostage in the city, and she was strangled on the neck. Scars, if Ah Xun went a little later, his life would be gone. If it weren't for Ah Xun, you can see if Grand Master Xie doesn't come to cry for you!"

Only King Xiang dared to say "you, your" in front of the emperor without honorifics.

The emperor didn't know about this crop.

"I can't think of what to reward Ah Xun now. Could it be that I gave him the title of King Xiang?"

King Xiang was very angry, turned his * on the stool, and turned sideways to the emperor, "This Da Yong is so big, brother emperor, you are rich all over the world. Could it be that you only have the title of minister under your hand? If you don't agree, I will Go find the queen mother!"

After finishing speaking, King Xiang was about to get up, the emperor quickly waved his hand, "Sit down, tell me, do I really want to make him a prince?"

The emperor must be reluctant to bear the title of prince. What a joke, none of his sons is older than Xiao Xun. Up to now, there is no title. Xiao Xun is already the king of the county.

Thinking that King Xiang had taken a fancy to Xie Zhiwei, he might be able to use this girl as an excuse, he sighed, "If we say that the one who has made the most contributions this time is naturally the County Lord Duanxian, I am wondering if I should be promoted to Miss Xie Nobility, make her princess. Since you said that Ah Xun is going to be made a prince, I have no choice but to recognize Miss Xie as a righteous daughter and make her a princess."

This is not acceptable. If you want to get the title of prince for your son, if you get rid of your daughter-in-law, then when the unfilial son comes back, wouldn't you want to shoot him through?

If Miss Xie is really recognized by the emperor as a righteous daughter and made a princess, then she and her son are cousins, how can they get married?

King Xiang hurriedly said, "Brother Huang has so many daughters under his knees, what kind of righteous daughter do you still recognize?"

"Then you can tell me fairly, this time is Miss Xie's contribution, or Ah Xun's contribution?"

"Of course Miss Xie!"

If it wasn't for the future daughter-in-law, Lord Xiang could close his eyes and say that his son's contribution is great, but since the fat water didn't flow to outsiders, Lord Xiang would naturally speak impartially.

Lu Yan came in with a smile, and handed two cups of tea to Lord Xiang and the emperor respectively.

The emperor heard that King Xiang was not messing around, and said in his heart, Ah Yan's news is indeed true, it seems that the Wei girl he is optimistic about belongs to Prince Xiang's mansion again, except for this throne, he has never won against King Xiang.

As for my fourth brother, the emperor knows it all too well. If he hadn't had selfish intentions for Miss Xie, he would never have been so easy to talk about today.

"Since it is Miss Xie who has made great contributions, if when it comes to rewards for meritorious deeds, I will reward Miss Xie less than Ah Xun's. What will the world say? What will Miss Xie think?"

Yes, if Miss Xie has a problem with Ah Xun because of this, how can Ah Xun get a wife?

Prince or something, it's like meat in a pot anyway, you can't fly away, your son is already the king of the county, there's no need to go further so soon, before you get married, you can make a prince, marry Miss Xie, double happiness It's not impossible.

Thinking of this, King Xiang hurriedly stood up and bowed to the emperor, "Brother Huang's words are very polite, it's because my ministers didn't think carefully. Brother Huang, otherwise, this time, Ah Xun is also doing his best for Dayong, and he is not too young. I'm young, it's time to discuss a marriage, why don't you ask Brother Huang to point out a marriage for Ah Xun as a reward?"

What a wild goose!

King Xiang seldom came to the emperor's East Nuan Pavilion. The brothers met most often in the Empress Dowager's Palace. Whenever he came, he would either ask for a title or money. In short, he would not go out empty-handed.

"Whose girl did Ah Xun take a fancy to?" the emperor asked knowingly.

King Xiang smiled and rubbed his hands, "I thought about it, Ah Xun saved Miss Xie's life this time. The ancients didn't often say that saving someone's life should be a promise with your body, and Miss Xie is not good at repaying your kindness. Why don't you just ask the emperor to point Miss Xie Da to Ah Xun, isn't this talented and beautiful woman a match made in heaven?"

The emperor felt so heartbroken that he was speechless. He managed to find a good girl for his sons, and now, he was about to be snatched away by Prince Xiang.

"Fourth brother, I also heard that a few days ago in the palace, Ah Xun almost fell into the lake. Miss Xie helped him!"

"Yes, yes!" Prince Xiang didn't know about this, and was overjoyed, "I didn't expect Miss Xie to save Ah Xun's life. Who said it wasn't a fate that fell from the sky, please hurry up, brother!" Give me a marriage, this is also in accordance with God's will!"

The emperor was not happy in every possible way, his face was so dark that it was about to drip, and after a long time, he said, "If it's a girl from another family, I can make an order right now, but the girl from the old man's family, I... so, if this marriage, the Xie family agrees, I will make an order at any time."

King Xiang also knew that Xie Tiao was not easy to deal with, and Miss Xie was the eldest daughter of the Xie family, and there was no reason for any family to betroth the eldest daughter, so he had no choice but to say, "Well, since ancient times, getting married is not good. It makes people marry unwillingly. However, Brother Huang agreed, this Miss Xie, Brother Huang is not allowed to betroth to others."

Chapter 337 Award

The emperor said angrily, "It's not my daughter, how can I keep it for you? If you are fine, you can leave the palace!"

Prince Xiang is a bachelor, and he didn't go to the palace for nothing. He got up, patted the dust that didn't exist on his body, and pretended to salute the emperor, "Brother Huang, I'm leaving now!"

The emperor didn't bother to talk to him, turned his face away, and when he went out, he couldn't hear the little song he was humming, so the emperor complained, "Everything I like, there is no one that he won't grab. Why did you also fall in love with the girl from the Xie family?"

Lu Yan smiled slightly, and exchanged a cup of tea that the emperor hadn't touched, "Your Majesty, Miss Xie is very talented, has a good appearance, knows how to advance and retreat, and values friendship. This time I went to Juzhou, and I was with Chen County again." Together with Wang, it is reasonable for Prince Xiang to make this idea."

The emperor stood up angrily, and was about to go out with his hands behind his back, but he had to stop and asked, "Did that girl say when she will be back?"

"I calculated it, it will take about a month, and it is estimated to be in the middle and late February."

The emperor thought about it, "Arrange someone to report a letter to Xie's house, and also go to Fengzhi Palace to tell the queen, the queen has been thinking about that girl all the time. Just make a seal for the imperial decree. This time, the reward is just According to the usual double, it can't be too thin. The fief is counted as one thousand households."

There are already a lot of fiefdoms with a thousand households, and they can catch up with the special county king Chenjun.

The main reason is that now Xie Zhiwei is different from before. In the past, a county lord gave 300 households fiefs, which is understandable, but if it is thinner now, King Xiang will definitely not let it go. The emperor had to bear the pain and cut more meat.

Anyway, it is also a field where the fat and water do not flow to outsiders.

After the emperor left, Lu Yan came out of Linde Hall, and when he arrived at Donghua Gate, Li Baozhen came over with the notebook in his hands, "Master, this is the memorial that His Royal Highness the Fourth Prince sent over from Juzhou City."

Lu Yan took the booklet, he opened it, took a look, closed it, and said to Li Baozhen, "Go to Xie's house yourself, and tell me that the county lord is safe and sound in Juzhou City. A batch of supplies will be shipped to Juzhou soon. City, if the Xie family has anything to send to the county lord, they can sort it out and send it together."

"yes!"

Since Xie Zhiwei went out, the door of Xie's house has been closed tightly. Xie Tiao is so busy that the treasury is empty now, even Juzhou City, an epidemic that was strangled in the cradle before it spread, cannot allocate money.

If Sibaozhai hadn't raised more than 100,000 taels of silver, and Lu Qiling from Shuntian Mansion had been able to do so, I'm afraid Xie Tiao, a clever woman, would be hard-pressed to cook without rice, whether it's medicinal materials or food.

In just over half a month, Xie Tiao's official uniform has loosened up a lot. He was settling accounts in the study, when he heard that Li Baozhen came, he hurriedly greeted him, "Eunuch, please come inside!"

"Master Xie, our family is here today, congratulations to Sir Xie in advance, and we will come to ask for a cup of wedding wine in the future."

Who is Dongchang? Where is the supervisor of ceremonies?

In the capital, even the princes, as long as they don't sit in that position for a day, they have to curry favor with the courtiers around the emperor. When have you ever seen the people from Dongchang and the Supervisor of Rituals curry favor with whom?

Xie Tiao, who was not showing any signs of happiness or anger, couldn't help smiling all over his face at this time, and cupped his hands to Li Baozhen, "Please tell me clearly, I don't know where this joy comes from?"

"Hahaha, it's just double happiness!" Li Baozhen didn't bother, and walked through the Yimen Gate with Xie Tiao and walked towards the main hall, "Master Xie, the county lord has done a great job this time. Today, the emperor let the governor The reward that the lord intends to give to the county lord will be completed when Juzhou City is unsealed."

The closure of the city was Xie Zhiwei's proposal. Naturally, Xie Zhiwei has the final say on when the lockdown will be lifted.

Xie Zhiwei found a prescription for this epidemic, and Xie Tiao didn't know it. Because there is an East Factory in the palace, it is natural for the emperor to know about it earlier, but he did not expect that once the emperor knew about it, he would already have the intention of rewarding him before the court meeting.

The focus is on the word "seal". For people like Xie Tiao, obedience and listening have become instinctive, so of course they won't miss it.

"Eunuch Li, this is all due to the great grace of the emperor!"

"What Master Xie said is true!" Seeing Xie Tiao's excited look, Li Baozhen didn't care, "Master Xie, the governor ordered our family to come because there will be supplies delivered to Juzhou City in the near future. If you have something to bring to the county magistrate, you can send it along."

Fearing that Xie Tiao would wrong the county magistrate for the sake of fame, Li Baozhen pointed out, "The county magistrate is a little girl's house. This time, she has made great achievements and suffered a great crime. In such a place, there is really nothing to eat. No drink, now that the crisis is over, our spoiled girl really doesn't have to wrong herself anymore."

"Yes, yes!" Xie Tiao thought of his granddaughter. The eldest daughter of the Xie family is now in a plague-ridden place like Juzhou City. Go and tell the eldest lady, tell the girl to count all the things, and bring all the things that can be brought to Juzhou City, don't wrong the eldest girl, "

"yes!"

The man went down, Li Baozhen sat for a while, then got up to leave. Before leaving, Xie Tiao stuffed a piece of high-quality Chinese jade in the past, Li Baozhen did not refuse, and repeatedly said that he would come to Xie's house to beg for a drink in the future.

Li Baozhen, the number two person in charge of ceremonies, has many people in the capital who want to buy him a drink. Will he lose a glass of wine? Moreover, every time he mentions Xie Zhiwei, he is the county lord. There are at least ten or eight county lords in the capital. If it weren't for his family, who would call him so close?

In this way, it means that Xie Zhiwei has cast his eyes on Dongchang. Unexpectedly, Lu Yan is still a person who knows how to repay his kindness.

The only reason Xie Tiao can think of is that Xie Zhiwei saved Lu Yan's life in Zhuangzi outside the city, so Lu Yan would take care of Xie Zhiwei everywhere. Xie Tiao would never have thought that it was because of the Xie family.

The Xie family has always kept these Dongchang people at a respectful distance.

Will not look down on them, but will not deliberately please.

After the fifteenth day of the first lunar month, Xie Yuanbai went to the military camp, leaving early and returning late every day. Xie Mingxi officially entered the ethnology after the new year, and she also left early and returned late every day. Yuan was making shoes in the house, and complained to Mother Tian, "no wonder the daughter is said to be the mother's little padded jacket. Meimei these days Not at home, I seem to have lost my soul."

Nurse Tian sat on a small couch. She had just come back from the outside, stretched out her hand to dry on the smoker cage, and said with a smile, "Madam, there may be good news in the first month."

As soon as she said this, Yuan's face was already flushed. Last night, she was really thinking about Meimei, so she asked her to go to Juzhou City, but her husband disagreed. Unknowingly, his foot poked into the husband's bed, making him shiver from the cold.

Chapter 338 Shy

Just when she was very embarrassed and was stammering and apologizing, her husband pulled her into his bed, where it was extremely warm.

After she gave birth, she suffered from cold feet. Even if she used Mrs. Tang, she could only manage the first half of the night, and she would naturally feel cold in the second half of the night, but at that moment, her whole body seemed to be immersed in magma.

The shyness of the wedding night surged up all at once, until now, the warm words Xie Yuanbai said in her ear were still lingering in her heart, he said, "Mei Mei said that she wants a younger brother or sister, Axian, I don't want a daughter anymore, give me another son!"

Yuan doesn't want a daughter anymore, Meimei is enough, son, thinking of Fang Jiewa's son all day long, she thinks it would be nice to have a son who is as beautiful, smart and quiet as Meimei idea.

Just as she was in a daze thinking, Su Xin walked in quickly, "Eldest lady, Miss Shen Shuang from the old man's room is here."

"Come in, please!" After hearing that it was Shen Shuang, Yuan Shi hurriedly stood up and took two steps towards her.

Shen Shuang had already lifted the curtain and came in with a smile on her face. As soon as she came in, she congratulated Yuan Shifu, "Congratulations to the eldest lady, congratulations to the eldest lady, the county lord has made a great contribution this time, and the father-in-law from the palace is here." , and congratulated the old man. The old man was very happy, and said that he would invite the ladies and daughters of several rooms to come to Fuchun hall to talk."

Mrs. Yuan hurriedly cleaned up. When she entered the Fuchun Hall, Mrs. Xiao from the second room led all the sisters there, and Mrs. Qian from the third room followed her daughter. The brothers all came out of the ethnology. Xie Mingxi saw When I saw my mother, I hurried over to salute, and my nephews and nieces did not lose their manners.

"Sister-in-law is proud of her spring breeze, it's really enviable!" Xiao said sourly.

She entered the family earlier than Yuan Shi. In the past ten years, she has taken up the status of Feng Shi's direct daughter-in-law, and she has dominated Yuan Shi everywhere. Yuan Shi has no power to resist in her hands, and she has never put Yuan Shi paid attention to it.

However, since Famen Temple came back and Xie Zhiwei showed his power, the family has changed drastically. The power to run the house was firmly in Yuan's hands, and the second house had to follow the lead of the long house in everything.

As for Xie Zhiwei, the Xiao family didn't dare to provoke him, not to mention the family's precious lump, and the Cui family's behemoth was watching. Once provoked, the Cui family's counterattack was not something the Xiao family could bear.

Therefore, for so many years, she has at most been secretly tripping up Xie Zhiwei, and she dare not do things that really hurt Xie Zhiwei.

Now, Xie Zhiwei is like a tiger baring its fangs, allowing Xiao Shi to truly see what it means to be a real daughter of an aristocratic family.

However, Yuan Shi and Xiao Shi still don't take it seriously.

With such a sour stab, Xiao felt that with Yuan's IQ and skills, she should bear it.

Unexpectedly, Yuan Shi was different from the past. She helped the golden hairpin on her head and said with a smile like a flower, "That is, in this life, some people are happy all their lives, while others only have so few in their lives." It's a happy spring day, and I think my day of spring breeze is coming!"

Xiao felt breathless for a while, what does this mean? It's Yuan Shi's turn to be proud, so is it her turn to be unlucky? In this house, as expected, either the east wind overwhelms the west wind, or the west wind overwhelms the east wind.

"Then sister-in-law, tell me, is sister-in-law proud all her life, or just a moment?" Xiao sneered.

Before Yuan Shi could speak, Qian Shi smiled from the sidelines, "Sister-in-law is naturally proud all her life, with such a good daughter as Da Miss, whoever she is will wake up with a smile from her dreams, right?"

On the winter solstice day, Xie Zhiqian followed Xie Zhiwei into the palace, and was bullied by the head of Huihe County and a group of noble girls. On the spot, Xie Zhiwei avenged Xie Zhiqian. Inside and outside the palace, no one knows that County Lord Duanxian loves her, a concubine's younger sister, very much. Those noble girls who used to dislike Xie Zhiqian's status also invited Xie Zhiqian to go out to play.

Mrs. Qian heard how Xie Zhiwei fought for her daughter, and almost sent Miss Xue and the county master Huihe who humiliated her daughter to the Punishment Department. She was very grateful to Xie Zhiwei, and secretly scolded Xue Wanqing how many times, I regret to death that I was friendly to Xue Wanqing in order to curry favor with the old lady.

Mrs. Qian was not speaking for Mrs. Yuan, she was speaking the truth, and she was speaking to please Xie Zhiwei.

However, Mrs. Xiao became angry when she heard it, and sneered, "Oh, when did the third sibling put honey on their mouths? Our eldest girl has become a sweet potato?"

Mrs. Qian finally heard Xiao's bitterness. She didn't dare to answer these words. She smiled coyly and decided not to talk to anyone. She is a concubine from the third house, and she is no match for the eldest and second house. If she is not careful, she will be splinted, why bother?

"Whether the eldest girl of our family is a sweet pastry or not, the second sibling will know in a while." Yuan Shi smiled and raised her chin slightly, but heard Xiao Shi say, "Sister-in-law is really competent as a stepmother, if you don't know I thought the eldest sister-in-law was the biological mother of the eldest girl!"

"I don't have the qualifications. It's my fault that the eldest girl crawled out of my stomach, otherwise how would she be today? She is the granddaughter of the Cui family. Didn't the second sibling forget it?"

Moving the Cui family out, Xiao immediately stopped talking.

Mrs. Xu came in and served tea to all the wives in person. Seeing that it was Mrs. Xu, Mrs. Yuan got up hurriedly. She took the tea in Mrs. Xu's hand with both hands, and said hurriedly, "What's the matter? The old lady is taking us A few sisters-in-law are roasting on the fire!"

Xu Shi said, "It's my blessing to be able to serve the wives, so don't be too polite, big lady."

It was only when Mrs. Xu served tea to Mrs. Yuan that Mrs. Yuan sat down, and had to sit half of her buttocks. Seeing Mrs. Xiao took the tea without moving, she threw it directly on the table, turning her face away, like someone Yuan Shi didn't bother to take care of her because she owed her eight diao money.

She did not * the housekeeping rights of the Xie family, and it is a matter of course for her to return to her hands. If it is said that her husband is not the eldest son and the old man did not speak, then that's fine, since the position of head of the Xie family belongs to the elder family, if she can't bear it, then she will be wronging her ancestors, her husband in the middle, and the children in the bottom.

Yuan's mind is very simple, but she is not too stupid, and she often has a clever daughter, Xie Zhiwei, to raise points. Yuan's understanding is clearer than anyone else, and she also understands why Xiao is so indignant?

Xie Zhihui looked at her mother disappointed, saw the uncle taking the tea with both hands, and saw the third aunt knelt down to receive the tea. When it was her turn, she hurriedly grabbed the tea tray and said with a smile, "Old aunt, you are really too sweet." You are polite, you are an elder, how can you bring tea and water to our grandchildren, it really frustrates us."

Chapter 339 Dislike

Ms. Xu looked at Xie Zhihui lovingly. She heard her granddaughter Xie Zhiqian secretly tell her that her two older sisters were very friendly to her. Mrs. Xu was very good at keeping a low profile all her life, otherwise Xie Tiao's aunt was the only one who gave birth to a son, and finally got married and had children when she grew up.

"The second girl is polite. How can a servant be called an elder in front of the masters? It is also a blessing for a servant to serve the second girl." Although Xu said so, she didn't insist anymore, and stood aside with her hands down.

Xie Zhihui breathed a sigh of relief. When she looked up and saw her grandfather coming in, she hurriedly stepped forward and followed the elders to salute her grandfather.

Xie Tiao was followed by three sons, Xie Yuanbai was still in military uniform, he and Yuan Shi exchanged a glance, his dark eyes were full of concern, Yuan Shi lowered his head shyly like a little girl, even the roots of his ears were red.

It is impossible for Xie Yuanbai to have the same feelings for Yuan Shi as he did for Cui Shi in his life. From his childhood sweetheart in Zongjiao, to his youthful love, to his love for marriage, and his love for each other after marriage, it can be said that Xie Yuanbai once thought about loving Cui with his life.

Half of his life has gone with Cui Shi, and now, he and Yuan Shi only spend the rest of his life hand in hand, but it is still better than most couples who respect each other like guests in the world, he hopes Yuan Shi will follow him able to be happy.

Since he married Yuan Shi, he couldn't embarrass her, Yuan Shi was innocent after all.

Seeing Yuan Shi's cowardly appearance, although Xie Yuanbai was not emotional/moved, he was a little happy. She is a kind woman, and that's enough.

"I called you here today to tell you a piece of good news. The eldest girl has made great achievements in Juzhou City. Although the rewards from the palace have not yet come down, there should be a decree when the gate of Juzhou City opens at the latest."

When Xie Tiao said this, almost everyone except Xiao Shi was ecstatic.

Xie Tiao looked around at everyone, his granddaughter is not gold, silver and jewelry, so it is impossible for everyone to love her, but seeing the expression on Xiao's face, Xie Tiao was still unhappy, and said to herself, Feng's chosen this Daughter-in-law is another one who can't get on the stage.

"I told you about this in advance, because I was afraid that there would be rumors coming from outside. If you don't know, you will lose your temper when you hear it at once. Although this is a happy event, since ancient times, is it rare that extreme joy turns into sorrow? The Xie family always Always keep in mind the principle of being full of losses and modest benefits, if someone says it in front of you, you should know how to say it, right?"

Everyone stood up, bowed their heads in front of the old man and said, "Yes!"

Xie Tiao was very satisfied, waved his hand, asked people to sit down, first told Yuan Shi to sort out some of the big girl's things, and sent them over in a few days, don't wrong the big girl, and encouraged a few children and grandchildren to say, "You should be your big sister. As an example, you have to study hard and practice * weekdays, and only at critical times can you have the opportunity to serve the country and earn honor for the family" and so on.

After some explanations, it was not too late, so Xie Tiao let two tables be opened in Ruichun Hall, one table for men and one table for women, Xie Zhiwei was not there, and the family celebrated briefly before leaving.

Here in Juzhou City, after the situation stabilized, the atmosphere in the city became much better. In addition, after the remnants of the White Lotus Sect were wiped out by Xiao Xun, there were no such strange voices. The common people were happy, and some shops Merchants began to open their doors to do business. Although the prices of some necessities, such as rice noodles and medicinal materials, were supplied by the imperial court, the prices of some necessities could not rise, which was the same as in previous years.

In this way, the lives of ordinary people are peaceful and peaceful.

"Drive!"

The gates of the city were wide open, and a team of imperial cavalry wearing masks rushed in from outside the city, running all the way, shouting all the way, "The imperial court has brought ten thousand stones of grain and ten carts of medicinal materials, please go and hand them over, Mr. Zhang!"

Shouting so loudly and repeatedly is to calm the hearts of the people in the city.

Sure enough, when the people on the road heard this, everyone smiled, and some elderly women even knelt down on the spot and bowed to the north, clasping their hands together, "Your Majesty is such a good person, the court is full of good people." !"

"This is a good time!"

"When things are good, I don't even look at who is in charge of the formation outside. I heard that it is His Royal Highness the Fourth Prince. Today, the emperor is the most capable and the prince who cherishes the people the most. If His Royal Highness is not personally in charge of the formation, Do you think the food and medicine allocated by the imperial court can be transported in such a complete manner?"

Anyone can figure it out. There are a total of 10,000 shi of grain. There are still more than 100,000 people in this city. One half a catty of grain per day is more than enough for a month.

When everyone heard it, it made sense, this world belongs to the Xiao family, and only the four princes are in charge, so the money and food allocated by the court will not be swallowed. And this can also be seen from another aspect, His Royal Highness the fourth prince is indeed a good prince with the world in mind.

This compliment was heard by Xiao Changxuan, who was drinking tea with Xue Wanqing. After hearing this, he couldn't help being overjoyed, raised his teacup and said to Xue Wanqing, "Miss Xue, I have your help. God bless you!"

Xue Wanqing saw that Xiao Changxuan still had a hint of worry on his brows, so he took a sip of tea and asked, "Your Highness still has something unresolved in his heart, presumably because of being demoted because of his empress status and being in the cold palace again?"

"Exactly!" Xiao Changxuan said, "I'll tell you the truth, in the harem, the fate of mother and child is connected. If the mother's status is not high, it may be a burden to me. And now the mother is suffering in the Qutai Hall. Son, how can I bear it?"

After finishing speaking, Xiao Changxuan lowered his head slightly, but he didn't see Xue Wanqing's flashing contemptuous gaze, and he naturally wouldn't have thought that Xue Wanqing had already begun to despise him so much that he looked forward to Shu.

Neither the plot setting in the book nor Xue Wanqing himself, who has traveled through time, never thought about helping Xiao Changxuan get the throne~www.mtlnovel.com~, Xue Wanqing knew that Xie Zhiwei alone, there is no Xie family It is impossible to help Xiao Changxuan break out of the siege and finally get the throne.

It was Lu Yan who played a major role in the middle. Lu Yan influenced the emperor's will and named Xiao Changxuan the prince.

At that time, because Lu Yan was poisoned by hook kisses, he ran out of fuel and could not live for two years. Naturally, it was not for himself but for Xie Zhiwei. capable.

Xue Wanqing originally wanted to pretend that she didn't understand Xiao Changxuan's words, but if so, Xiao Changxuan might think that she was incapable of helping his mother out of trouble, so she said, "Your Highness, Your Majesty is no longer young, people are getting more and more ruthless. Your Majesty also I am not a sentimental person. Although the son is more expensive than the mother, and the status of the princes is related to the mother's birth, but when they grow up, they still rely on their own talents. The empress's birth is not low, and now she is relegated to the music because she made a mistake. Taidian, instead of spending more time on your empress, your highness should think about how to make meritorious service, as long as your highness can stand out among the princes, is it possible that in the future, your empress will not be as expensive as a mother and a child?"

Chapter 340 Unswerving

It is really a sentence that awakens the dreamer.

Under Xiao Changxuan's excitement, he couldn't help holding Xue Wanqing's hand. Xue Wanqing was stunned for a moment, his eyes turned cold, and he quickly calmed down. With a touch of anger, "Your Highness, men and women can't kiss each other!"

"Qing'er!" Since Xiao Changxuan was tempted, he didn't want to give up this opportunity casually, "If you want, after I return to Beijing, I can ask my father to make you the fourth concubine!"

Is it the fourth concubine? Right now the emperor has no crown prince, and in the future four older princes may be established as crown princes to inherit the throne. Even if the empress eventually gives birth to a son, it will be just a milk baby. Even if they grow up in the future, these elder brothers will have it. With one's own power, one step is too late, every step is too late, if you want to reverse the situation, the hope is too slim.

Xue Wanqing knew very well that the person in front of him had ascended the throne and had been the Emperor of Taiping for ten years. If Xie Zhiwei hadn't taken the initiative to collude with Xiao Xun, the king of Yanbei, Xiao Xun would not have raised his troops.

Xiao Xun raised his troops, apart from wanting to retake his own country, the main reason was Xie Zhiwei.

Xue Wanqing bowed her head and thought about it for a long time, weighing the two. If she chooses Xiao Changxuan, can she and Xiao Changxuan team up against Xiao Xun? As long as Xie Zhiwei is dead, Xiao Xun will not rise up and become a rebel, even if he becomes the emperor, he will not be able to escape the verbal criticism in the history books.

But if Xiao Changxuan was chosen, it would be a pity to let her give up Xiao Xun. That young man like a scorching sun is full of vigor, and no one can resist his attraction.

Xue Wanqing gently pulled out her hand, blushing, "Your Highness, please Rong Wanqing think about it."

After she finished speaking, she raised her head, "Your Highness, Wanqing is different from ordinary women. Wanqing will never work with anyone in this life. If His Highness has the heart, Wanqing will carefully consider this matter. If His Highness doesn't, you I have a win-win cooperation and will be friends for life."

Xiao Changxuan didn't feel that Xue Wanqing said something shocking to the world, he looked at Xue Wanqing deeply, his eyes no longer concealed his affection, and his tenderness was enough to drip, "Qing'er, I promise you. I saw my concubine mother alone Crying in the deep palace late at night, I swear, when I grow up in the future, I will never allow my wife to be wronged like this."

"Qing'er, the first time I saw you, I knew you were different, and I like your uniqueness. If I can have you as my wife, I will never change my resolve in this life, and I will never let you down!"

Xue Wanqing believed in this.

The book was probably intended to set off the excellence of Xue Wanqing, the heroine, and wrote that the female supporting role, Xie Zhiwei, was unique in the sky and unparalleled in the world. However, such a prostitute daughter from a family has never received any love from her husband in her whole life, and she has spent half of her life for Xue Wanqing. The reason for making wedding clothes is not because Xiao Changxuan's heart is on Xue Wanqing.

In the back house, there is never a distinction between a woman and a woman. Whoever wins and who loses, the decision is in the hands of the man.

So what if Xie Zhiwei is his first wife? In the end, it's not that she can't get her husband's heart.

At this moment, Xue Wanqing's heart softened for no reason. The majestic prince, what can she ask for if she can make such a promise to a woman like her who doesn't belong to this world and shocks the world?

"Your Highness, are you willing to treat me so well because I am Xue Wanqing, or because I am just me?" Xue Wanqing couldn't help asking.

"Of course it's because of you!" Xiao Changxuan held her face and said affectionately, "I don't care who you are, I don't care about your identity background, I only care that you are you, Qing'er, no matter how long you have to think about it, I will wait for you, I will only want you in my life!"

Due heroine treatment, Xue Wanqing was embraced by Xiao Changxuan, she thought, give herself a chance to indulge, facing a person who really admires her, she really has no way to refuse.

Even if she gets Xiao Xun in the future, it is impossible for Xiao Xun to love herself without any conditions like Xiao Changxuan. At most, she can only be regarded as Xiao Xun's first wife, and she will give birth to his first son. Even if Xiao Xun has no other women, He would only use her as a tool to manage his backyard.

Thinking of this, Xue Wanqing couldn't help stretching out her hands to wrap around Xiao Changxuan's waist. Although it was very light, Xiao Changxuan was still ecstatic, bursts of sweetness gushed out from the bottom of her heart like spring water, submerged his heart, and only felt that she had it. worldwide.

Xie Zhiwei recently has nothing important to do besides diagnosing the pulse, prescribing prescriptions, administering acupuncture for a few particularly serious patients, and responding to the humbly asking for advice from colleagues.

Since the prescriptions for the symptoms were available, those doctors in the city who were afraid of death showed up one after another. Especially whenever they asked for advice, Miracle Cui could give them advice. These doctors no longer held back and took the initiative to diagnose and treat these patients.

Xie Zhiwei and Xiao Xun sat at the south window and played chess. After recuperating these days, Xiao Xun no longer saw that he was a patient who had also contracted the epidemic.

Both of them were not determined to win or lose. They made moves one after another. A game of chess was played for two hours, and the chess pieces were not half full.

"Girl, the eldest lady sent two carts of things here. She said that a lot of vegetables were cultivated in the hot springs in Zhuangzi this year, and they sent a lot of them, as well as green japonica rice, various tea leaves, bacon and fish. , some game, a few fresh pigeons, and a lot of clothes."

Zi Mo stepped in and said, with a smile on his face, as happy as if he got a big red envelope for the New Year.

These days, it's hard for them as servants. There is a shortage of everything in the city, and they can't make the girl eat better.

Although there are county princes who bring in some supplies from time to time, they live under the same roof as the patients. It doesn't make sense that they eat fish and meat every day here, while they only eat gruel there.

After the situation finally stabilized, the county prince and the girl moved out, along with the land, the fourth master, the brothers and sisters of the Hai family and the brothers and sisters of the Cui family moved out together. Now they live in a big house, very comfortable.

Xie Zhiwei pinched a sunspot, and said with a smile, "That's a good day, it just happens to be a good day, the Hai family brother has recovered from his illness, and the fourth cousin can get up and walk a few steps, why don't we have a simple family banquet today, Why are you all relaxed and relaxed together?"

"Your maidservant will go now. Today, my servant girl will show her skills and take care of it to satisfy the girl." Zi Mo wished she could jump out three times.

Zi Mo has always been a prudent girl, and now she is so happy. It seems that during the 20-odd days of the city closure, living in a gloomy and fearful mood every day has really suffocated her.

Xie Zhi smiled, and placed the Zier in his hand in a random position. Xiao Xun glanced at her, dropped the white pieces in his hand, and half of Xie Zhiwei's world was gone, Xiao Xun didn't feel sorry for the fragrance, and proudly stretched out his hand to put away the surrounded sunspots.
