

The Power 661

Chapter 661 Follow the Romans

After that, Xie Zhiwei came to give Lu Guogong two more injections. Seven days later, Lu Guogong was able to get out of bed. This was a surprise for Lu Guogong's mansion.

Originally, the family was planning to hold a funeral.

But Concubine Yun Gui just passed away, and the two children left for Yunnan. If Duke Lu went like this, the Duke and his wife would be in bad luck.

The Madam Shi Zi respectfully sent Xie Zhiwei out of the house, and when she got into the carriage, she thanked her a thousand times, "Princess Chen's great kindness and virtue, I will never forget the Duke of Lu Kingdom."

Xie Zhi smiled and said, "Madam Shizi, you are welcome. When I studied medicine with the ancestors of the Cui family, I never thought that one day I would be able to cure diseases and save lives. This is also a matter of virtue!"

Mrs. Shizi said, "How many people with high medical skills would die and refuse to save them. Princess Chen is so anxious for justice and willing to save others. It is really a minority, and I admire it. The princess is really a fan of the world."

Xie Zhiwei heard that Duke Lu's mansion couldn't find a good daughter-in-law in Jingzhao Mansion, and most of them were generals in the army, and Mrs. Guo's wife would not want the daughter of a general to be her daughter-in-law. Zhaofu Webster became in-laws.

Jingzhao Wei was also a famous family in the previous dynasty. Looking back, there were more than 20 prime ministers alone. When Dayong founded the country, Emperor Taizu couldn't tolerate so many families. Wei Shi was the first family to resign and return home to farm. After decades, although the reputation has faded away, the population is thriving, and it is still a Jingzhao family.

Xie Zhiwei sat in the carriage and looked out through the window. This place is not far from the capital, but the atmosphere is very different. You can see many people in strange clothes in the street market.

This made Xie Zhiwei very excited. In her previous life, she went from Xie's family to the Fourth Prince's Mansion, then entered the East Palace, and later became a queen. She was locked up in the cold palace for ten years. The farthest place she has ever been to was except Boling when she was a child. , It is to go to the Famen Temple outside the city to offer incense.

In this life, she never dreamed that one day she would be able to go out of Beijing and come to such a far place to see such characters and landscapes.

"Princess, there is a cold noodle seller in front of it. It looks delicious. There are also such big sesame seed cakes, which are not steamed, but baked. I have never seen that kind of fried white sausage."

Bai Ling said, so that all the children fell down.

Just at noon, Xie Zhiwei asked people to park the car in Huelou, the largest restaurant, and asked for an upstairs window seat. Xie Zhiwei asked Bai Ling to order, and Bai Ling ordered the food and wine that he had never heard of in one go. There was a table, and when it came up, the table was full of cakes.

And "Lang Guanqing", "Grandma Qing", and "San Lejiang" are all wine, a total of three jars.

Xie Zhiwei took a meat skewer calmly, picked it off with chopsticks, and tasted it very politely. He felt that the taste was very good, so he asked the three maids to taste it.

Du Yuan and Du Yun laughed secretly, but Bai Ling couldn't stand this kind of "humiliation". She went out, called Xiao Er over, pointed to a table of pasta, and asked Xiao Er, "When I ordered these just now, why don't you talk? Look, the table is full of gnocchi, how do you eat it?"

Xie Zhiwei looked at Bai Ling angry with amused expression, her beautiful face was flushed red, this girl has always been out on the news, she is very good at reading words, today she can't hold her breath, she seems to be really angry.

Xie Zhiwei can also understand Bai Ling's mood. It was Bai Ling who encouraged her to come to play, and it was she who asked Bai Ling to order food, but ended up ordering a table full of pasta and mutton.

The Xie family has always been fond of fine food and delicate food. Where have you seen such extensive ingredients?

"My little ones, this restaurant is full of food. If you want to eat some exquisite food from the south, you have to go to Jiangnanlou. My little ones, this restaurant is an authentic Jingzhao restaurant. Taste."

Bai Ling still wanted to talk, Xie Zhiwei said "Okay", she got up and moved her seat, sat down by the window, asked Du Yun to make a pot of tea with her own utensils, drank it slowly, and ordered Du Yuan to give a reward. He asked the second brother, and said to Bai Ling, "Eat first, if you can't finish it, let's take it home, what's the big deal?"

Bai Ling was not reconciled, and muttered, "This table actually costs more than a hundred taels of silver. It's full of lumps. It's better for the slaves to go back and knead the dough. The dough cakes are much more delicious than this."

"Each has its own flavor. Now that we have come out, we will see a lot of world in the future. Therefore, this also teaches you a lesson. There is a saying that when you go to the country, do as the Romans do. Before you understand the customs of a place, you must not act rashly."

Xie Zhi smiled and said, "More than a hundred taels of silver will buy you a lesson, I can still afford it."

Bai Ling was very grateful, and Du Yuan and Du Yun stopped just laughing. The three maids listened to these words in their hearts, and they also knew that the outside world is no better than the capital, where no one dares to provoke them. I dare not cheat them even more, but it is different outside, at least, no one knows them when they go out now.

After the three maids finished eating, they called the waiter over and wrapped up the unfinished food for them.

"This, this, and this, all wrapped up..."

Bai Ling commanded, Xie Zhiwei went out, stood outside, looked down from under the railing, a man and a woman entered the main hall, both in brocade clothes, behind them were many servants, one in front of the other. When going up the stairs, Xie Zhiwei heard the woman say, "I heard from my father that His Royal Highness Chen Wang is coming."

Xie Zhiwei couldn't help looking at the woman, and saw that she was dressed in an exotic style, on the wreath necklace around her neck, there was also a small golden Buddha hanging on her forehead, and a radiant opal was hanging on her forehead. Bright eyes shine brightly.

Her face is covered with a transparent veil, and delicate facial features can be vaguely seen.

The man was also handsome, wearing a moon-white robe with auspicious clouds embroidered with silver thread on the collar, and a scimitar the size of a man's palm pinned to his waist. He seemed to feel Xie Zhiwei's eyes when he was hungry. He looked at Xie Zhiwei, seeing that the girl was covered with a purple veil, but her eyes were stunning, a faint light could not help but flash across her eyes.

The woman also saw it, gave Xie Zhiwei a hard look, and called out to the man dissatisfied, "Brother, I'm talking to you, did you hear me?"

At this moment, Bailing and Du Yuan came out, followed by the waiter from the shop who was carrying big bags and small bags. Xie Zhiwei walked downstairs and passed the two of them. Among the group of people, a servant lowered his head and went up. Walking away, I didn't notice the waiter, he put his head on one of the waiter's arms, the bag of meat buns in the waiter's second hand fell apart, and the minced meat scattered around.

"Girl, be careful!" The man rushed down to save Xie Zhiwei, and saw two of her maidservants, one supporting Xie Zhiwei and stepping down quickly, while the other was holding a piece of Bai Lian like a swimming dragon, licking all the meat foam. Stirring together, he raised his arms and slapped the minced meat on the stairs.

The first update!

Chapter 662 Snake and Scorpion

"You are going to die!"

The woman was unprotected, and it was inevitable that there was a little bit of flesh on her body. She bounced away in disgust, and kicked the waiter in the shop, but was stopped by Du Yuan, "This girl, it was your man who hit her!" Only if the waiter in the shop is there, he will spread our steamed buns, not only will you not pay, but you will also kick people!"

"Did I kick you?" The girl looked like she had a bad temper, and she yelled at Du Yuan with her hips crossed, "I have never seen such an uneducated servant like you, so your master is also an uneducated servant." Courtesy."

This is because Xie Zhiwei was picked up, Du Yuan was trembling with anger, she shook Bai Lian in her hand, and said angrily, "Girl, I don't know how to quarrel, when I usually can't win a quarrel, I can't help but fight! "

"Okay, you do it. My father is the chief envoy of Shaanxi. I want to see who dares to touch me in this Shaanxi land!" The girl approached Du Yuan step by step with her hips akimbo.

Bai Ling suffered a loss because he was not familiar with the place here, so Du Yuan didn't dare to act rashly. The girl took a step closer, and Du Yuan took a step back. Seeing that Du Yuan was afraid, the girl was so proud that she yelled, "Do it, you are the one!" Do it!"

The waiter in the shop was scared out of his wits, "Girl, it was a small mistake today, and I apologize to you. These guests are new here and don't know the rules. For the sake of the restaurant, I beg you not to be as knowledgeable as them." ."

"But do I have to be as knowledgeable as them? Isn't it amazing? I still want to fight against injustices. Hehe, it turns out that I am a newcomer. Let me tell you, this little lady is so beautiful. This face is really shocking." People suck."

After all, it was for Xie Zhiwei's face. The woman stretched out her hand and took off the veil on Xie Zhiwei's face. Xie Zhiwei squinted at Du Yuan, and Du Yuan was furious immediately. Like a snake, it rolled towards the woman.

"Shuang'er!" The man yelled and rushed towards Du Yuan.

Two black shadows suddenly appeared like ghosts, stopped the man, surrounded the man from left to right, and the man knew it was not his opponent until he made a move. At this time, Du Yuan had already * the woman with Bai Lian When she got up, she dragged the woman, raised her hand, and dropped the woman on the roof beam.

"Who are you waiting for? Why are you so unreasonable if you have something to say?" The man said angrily to Xie Zhi. He didn't expect that such a beautiful woman would have a heart of snakes and scorpions. If she disagreed with her, she would fight.

Xie Zhiwei didn't even look at the man, turned around and went downstairs.

At the gate of the restaurant, the second shift of the Shaanxi Chief Political Officer was already waiting with water and fire sticks. Seeing that Xie Zhiwei and others came down, it turned out to be a woman, and they couldn't help but look at each other.

There was the sound of horseshoes, and after a while, two teams of Dongchang fans on horseback pushed the guards aside, and waited for Xie Zhiwei to get on the carriage before escorting Xie Zhiwei away.

The man and the woman are respectively the son and daughter of the chief envoy of Shaanxi. The son Zhou Xiaochen is sixteen years old and the daughter Zhou Xiaoshuang is fourteen years old. Knowing this young man and young lady, they are rarely admired and praised, and they have been raised to be very savage.

In Jingzhao Mansion, Yin who heard the news fainted from crying. She didn't even put on her make-up, and rushed to the front yard to find her husband, Zhou Youjie, "Master, Shuang'er is a big girl. She was hanged on the restaurant. If your reputation is ruined, how will you marry in the future?"

"Who is this? He is so domineering. He has spread wild things to the chief envoy's yamen. Master, you can't ignore it!"

Just as he was talking, Zhou Xiaochen rushed in and shouted, "Daddy, you can't ignore it, the person who is hanging my sister tied the knot in some way, and it can't be untied at all, so Bai Lian doesn't know either. No matter what material it is, you can cut it with a knife."

Zhou Youjie blushed with anger, and slammed the table, "That's enough, stop making noise. If you didn't practice personal morality on weekdays and do everything without restraint, you would have caused such a disaster today?"

The staff member said from the side, "My lord, let the subordinates take people to have a look!"

Zhou Youjie nodded, and asked the person who came to report, "You said, it was the people from Dongchang who went to pick up that person just now. You said it was a little girl? Is it dressed as a woman or a girl?"

The subordinate was still kneeling on the ground, and replied, "As for your lord, she is dressed as a woman, with a purple veil on her face, and there are two maids around her who are skilled in kung fu, and there are hidden guards. I don't know if I have read it wrong. There is a plant embroidered with colored thread on the cuff of the dark guard."

"Is it cornel?" Zhou Youjie asked hastily.

"Subordinates look at it."

"It's over!" Zhou Youjie sat down on the chair, his face was pale, sweat rolled down like rain, "It's over!"

His wife Yin was furious, "Master, what are you waiting for, don't you want a daughter?"

She said, and told the staff, "Go quickly and rescue the young lady. If Bai Lian can't cut it with a knife, wouldn't you burn it with fire?"

The staff member was about to leave, but Zhou Youjie called to stop him, "Prepare the horse, prepare the heavy gift, and also, tie up this brat, I will go to the mansion of His Royal Highness Chen Wang to apologize to Princess Chen!"

"What did you say?" Yin stood up in shock, "What does this have to do with Princess Chen?"

"Stupid, stupid, why did I marry such a stupid woman like you? Even the child I gave birth to is as stupid as a pig. This time, you have caused me a big disaster. I don't know if I can keep my black hat. !"

Zhou Youjie was heartbroken, but he had to put up all his energy and ordered someone to wait for him to change his clothes. He then pulled three carts full of heavy gifts and arrived at the Chenwang Mansion next to Xie's house.

Xie Zhiwei has already returned home, also known as Huaelou, sent some food that suits the taste, she ordered someone to bring it to Linfuyuan, and was enjoying the food with Rong, when she heard that Zhou Youjie was here, she didn't even lift her head, "Order the fourth master to come out to socialize, and say that I am a woman, the prince is not here now, and it is not easy to see the important officials of the court. Since Lord Zhou knows that the prince is coming, you might as well wait for the prince to come back, and tell the prince if you have anything to do."

"Yes!" The servant girl retreated respectfully.

Mrs. Rong knew something was wrong, so she asked what was the matter, and Xie Zhiwei told the story of the restaurant, "The daughter-in-law saw that the girl was quite handsome, but she stretched out her hand to lift the veil of the daughter-in-law. You know, she actually uttered bad words, and my daughter-in-law was annoyed."

Rong's face darkened, and he said very unhappy, "Zhou Youjie is an official, although he can benefit the common people, but this family education is really terrible. Since this woman can be so domineering in front of you when she sees that you are well-dressed, I don't think so. But I know how to treat ordinary people. In my opinion, Zhou Youjie still needs to be taught some lessons, and this Shaanxi chief envoy should be replaced."

The second update!

Chapter 663 Nervous

Xie Zhiwei thought about it and said, "Mother, what do you think of cousin Lu Qiling?"

Rong's heart moved slightly. There are not many people left in the Lu family. Only a few married daughters are still alive. Among the men, only Lu Qiling is left. She shook her head, "Your cousin stays in the capital. The ones in the capital are good, and the capital must have talents. Who is good, I think your grandfather and Ah Yan will think about it."

Xie Zhiwei hurriedly said guiltily, "It's because the daughter-in-law is not thinking carefully."

The smile on Rong's face was very warm, and he gently stroked the top of Xie Zhiwei's hair, "I am very happy to have you by my side."

Xie Zhiwei blushed a little, she missed Xiao Xun very much, everyone knew that Xiao Xun was coming back, but her wife didn't know it.

However, how did Zhou Youjie know that Xiao Xun was coming? Could it be that the war has changed?

In the study in the front yard, Xiao Wei was very nervous when he heard the message from the servant girl in the back yard. He was a little older, but he had to face the officials of the frontier, and he had to say such aggressive words. His sister-in-law really made it difficult for him.

It was Bai Ling who came to deliver the message. After finishing speaking, seeing Xiao Wei not speaking for a long time, Bai Ling tentatively said, "Fourth Master, you should say something, so I can go back and answer."

Xiao Wei came back to his senses, swallowed with difficulty, and asked, "Did sister-in-law say anything else? Is that all? Do I really want to talk to Mr. Zhou like this?"

Bai Ling laughed "puchi" and said, "Fourth Master, are you nervous?"

In front of this servant girl, Xiao Wei's face flushed red, the young man's stubborn thoughts made him turn his face away, and he didn't want to talk to the maid in front of his sister-in-law, he always felt that these maids in the sister-in-law's room were all so tough.

"Fourth master, why are you nervous? When my princess was ten years old, she was able to make others speechless, and you didn't even look at your identity. Who are you? You are the younger brother of His Highness Prince Chen. You are the princess' uncle, even if you say something wrong, no one will do anything to you, with the princess around, no one will dare to bully you."

Xiao Wei was full of confidence immediately, he hurriedly got up and bowed his hands to Bai Ling, "Thank you for your guidance, girl!"

Bai Ling quickly jumped up and hid to the side, "Oh, fourth master, you are really a slave, you don't dare to be a slave!"

After Bai Ling left, Xiao Wei tidied up his clothes. Hearing that Zhou Youjie had arrived, he hurriedly asked Zhou Youjie to take him to the flower hall. After meeting with Zhou Youjie, he asked Zhou Youjie to sit up.

Zhou Youjie didn't expect Princess Duanxian to dare not see him. He was so frustrating that Princess Duanxian only sent a 12-year-old boy to dismiss him. Immediately, his face was very ugly.

Xiao Wei was used to observing words and expressions since he was a child, and he could see Zhou Youjie's thoughts at a glance, and said, "Master Zhou, it's not my sister-in-law who cares about her, but my sister-in-law is a girl. Naturally, my sister-in-law won't worry about matters in court, my lord She is an important minister of the imperial court, a great official of the frontier, how can my sister-in-law meet with you, and what will she say after the meeting?"

Zhou Youjie's heart was shocked, he couldn't help raising his eyes to look at Xiao Wei, he heard that this was the son of Prince Xiang's mansion who had never been put on the table, after the princess passed the door, he brought this son who was not seen by the world to him, he looked down on him very much. Yes, I didn't expect that this young man was not humble and did not say a word, and his bearing was restrained, which was really impressive.

Xiao Wei didn't wait for Zhou Youjie to speak, he stroked the teacup with his fingers, and gently stroked the protruding lines of the folded branch lotus on the cup with his fingertips, his heart beating, but his face didn't show a bit, and he said with a smile, "If the person who came today is Ling Ma'am, my sister-in-law will naturally entertain me. I don't know what Mr. Zhou has to say. The boy is just running errands for the princess. If it's an important matter for the court, Mr. Zhou's young lady said that my elder brother is coming to Shaanxi, so it's better for Mr. Zhou. My lord, wait for two days before my elder brother comes?"

Zhou Youjie shuddered all over, cold sweat bursting out like rain, "I, I, my daughter didn't say such a thing, did she?"

Who is Xiao Xun? The general in charge of the Northwest Territory, his whereabouts have always been top secret, but leaked from his daughter, isn't this a capital offense?

Xiao Wei smiled, "Today, people who drink in Huelou basically know it. What ability do I have to dare to make such a rumor?"

Zhou Youjie hurriedly got up, and solemnly bowed to Xiao Wei, "Fourth Master, please help me to speak well in front of the princess, the little girl heard the story, and please forgive me for the sake of the young girl's ignorance." Then one."

Xiao Wei was unmoved, "Ling Ai is one year older than my sister-in-law, I am too embarrassed to help Mr. Zhou bring this to my sister-in-law."

It has been two hours since Zhou Xiaoshuang was hung on the beam of the Hua Building. Her beautiful face has been strangled into pale white, her hair is disheveled, and her clothes are disheveled. She looks like she has been insulted. , The calyx building is crowded.

Zhou Xiaoshuang was angry first, and then angry. At this time, all the vigor was wiped out, leaving only sadness and resentment. Seeing her mother coming, she burst into tears, "Mother, save the child!"

Yin's heartbroken from crying, she simply sat down on the floor and cried, "It's just a quarrel, why bother my daughter like this? This is really crushing people at the top of the official rank, you kill a thousand knives, you don't have to mess with it." What are people in high places doing?"

Yin's pointing at Sang and scolding Huai was originally to build up momentum for her daughter, who knows, when she finished speaking, someone sneered, "Oh, so, Ling Ai can only bully us little people?"

"No, back then, I bought a set of exotic jewelry from Yingyue Tower, and our princess Zhou bought it forcibly for five hundred taels of silver. This is an opal imported from Persia without even earning back the money. It's more than five hundred taels of silver, and it's still on her head."

"Tsk ts, this is only bullying us ordinary people. I don't know how to get used to bullying. Today, it's a kick to the iron plate."

Zhou Xiaochen was blushing from the sidelines, his eyes were lowered, he didn't dare to look anywhere, he wished he could make a hole, so he could get in and forget it.

Yin couldn't continue cursing. At this moment, Zhou Youjie came, followed by Du Yuan. When he saw Du Yuan, Zhou Xiaoshuang wished he could turn into a ghost and swallow Du Yuan in one gulp.

Du Yuan didn't bother to talk to Zhou Xiaoshuang, she came to take back Bai Lian at the girl's order, walked up to Zhou Xiaoshuang, and gently patted Zhou Xiaoshuang's face, "This little lady was born so beautiful, this face looks so real Disgusting."

Zhou Xiaoshuang was furious, this is to give her back her original words, she was about to spit at Du Yuan, Du Yuan smiled, "Miss Zhou, if you offend me, you can hang around here for another day! "

Zhou Xiaoshuang's arrogance suddenly weakened. She held back her anger and waited for Du Yuan to put her down from the beam. She was about to attack Du Yuan when Zhou Xiaochen hurriedly stopped her and said to Du Yuan, "Thank you!" girl!"

The third update!

Chapter 664 Demotion

"Brother!" Zhou Xiaoshuang was so angry that she jumped three feet high. Seeing that Zhou Xiaochen was not facing her like in the past, she turned around and rushed towards Yin Shi, "Mother, look, brother, he bullied me!"

Du Yuan put away Bai Lian, wrapped it around his waist again, and walked up to Zhou Youjie, "Master Zhou, my princess said that she will stay in Jingzhao Mansion for a few days. If someone in the city accuses Miss Zhou of being domineering and deceiving, she After the investigation is clear, report to the imperial court, if Mr. Zhou is charged with the crime of ineffectively restraining his family and exploiting the common people, then I'm sorry!"

Zhou Youjie was shocked and angry. Before he could speak, Yin became angry, "What you said is like the princess is the parents and officials of the people. Even if my daughter has any faults, she is still naughty and ignorant. Does the county When the Lord was young, he was never naughty?"

Du Yuan didn't want to talk to this ignorant woman any more. She acted as if she had never heard of it. After talking with Zhou Youjie, she went downstairs and saw the shopkeeper coming up to her. The ticket was handed to the shopkeeper, "I disturbed your building today, and I must have lost a lot. This is a little thought from my princess, please don't be polite."

The shopkeeper didn't dare to accept it, so he hurriedly handed over his hands and refused, "Today's business is much better than usual, which is really unbearable."

Du Yuan stuffed the silver ticket to the shopkeeper, turned around and floated down.

The shopkeeper held the bank note in his hand, was very moved, clasped his hands together, uttered the Buddha's name, and said, "Everyone, the princess rewarded me with a small one thousand taels of silver note, and all your expenses in this building today will be free of charge." , Huelou shares the joy with all of you, this is all thanks to Princess Zhan!"

Immediately, everyone upstairs and downstairs were overjoyed. Someone laughed and said, "One thousand taels of silver is not enough. I spent a lot waiting."

The shopkeeper blushed with excitement, "Look at what this guest officer said, do we care about the amount of money? The princess is righteous and refuses to let us little people suffer. This is the luck of all of us."

"That's right. The shopkeeper understands the righteousness. No wonder the business is doing well. In this way, I don't want you to waive the bill for my table. I can save two taels of silver."

"Good!"

Upstairs and downstairs, just like Chinese New Year.

Seeing this, Zhou Youjie thought about Princess Duanxian's behavior, and then thought about what his daughter had done. Seeing that her daughter was still swearing, he suddenly became furious, stepped forward and slapped her on the face, not afraid of hurting her Fame, said angrily, "How did I give birth to such a stupid thing as you!"

The farce of Huae Building soon spread throughout Jingzhao Mansion.

Han Yanshou hurried to his wife's main courtyard, bound his children to his side, and said, "On weekdays, you are more arrogant and domineering. I never said anything. I always thought that the reason I was poor for ten years was to call me My sons and daughters are not wronged, you can imagine how stupid my previous thoughts were."

As soon as Qu heard this, she knew what her husband was worried about, nodded and said, "A few days ago, I went to Xie's house several times for the errand you mentioned, and saw with my own eyes how the children of Xie's family behaved. It's called Rumu Chunfeng, especially the style of the princess. To be honest, if you ask me to talk to her for a lifetime, I'm afraid I won't be bothered. No matter what you say, she can get in touch with it just right. Every word is extraordinarily reasonable, this is respect for people."

Han Yanshou said to his children, "Did you all hear that? You are looking at the Zhou family today. On weekdays, you always talk about how the Zhou family's girls look down on others, how the Zhou family's son is so majestic when he goes out, and the princess is here." It's been a while since Jingzhao Mansion, have you ever heard anything about the princess? If it weren't for today, to be honest, I wouldn't even feel that the princess has come to Jingzhao Mansion."

"That's not the case. Mr. Zhou is also in a ten-year cold window, and he has survived longer than your master. This time, I don't know if he can survive it?" Qu's words were particularly regrettable.

The eldest son of the Han family didn't understand what his mother meant, and asked, "Mother, what do you mean? Could something have happened to the Zhou family?"

In his eyes, it was nothing more than a bit of filth from the daughter of the princess and the Zhou family.

Han Yanshou and his wife looked at each other, and they both saw the chills in their eyes. Han Yanshou coughed and cleared his throat, "You guys have never seen the world. Fortunately, I have been an official in the past few years. If I am in Beijing, if I am lucky, that is, he was demoted and went back to farm, if he is unlucky, he will be sent to prison."

Several children do not understand.

But soon, after more than half a month, Beijing had a decree. Zhou Youjie was demoted to the prefect of Juzhou on the grounds that he was suspected of collaborating with the enemy because he raped his daughter and revealed the whereabouts of the general.

Juzhou Zhizhou Zhang Yishan was appointed as the governor of Jingzhao Prefecture because of his contribution to fighting the epidemic in the last plague, and the current governor of Jingzhao Prefecture, Han Yanshou, was promoted to be the chief envoy of Shaanxi.

The chief envoy of Shaanxi Province is from the second rank, while the Yin of Jingzhao Prefecture is from the third rank, and the governor is only from the fifth rank.

Zhang Yishan directly promoted from the fifth rank to the third rank. How can there be such a promotion in the world?

However, everyone knows how Zhang Yishan assisted Princess Duanxian to fight the epidemic during the plague in Juzhou. Everything is up.

However, half points were not deducted from what should be given. In less than two years, Zhang Yishan directly surpassed the fourth rank and became the third rank.

After Zhou Youjie received the imperial decree, he turned around and went into the backyard, and slapped his daughter twice again. This time, neither Yin Shi nor Zhou Xiaochen felt sorry for Zhou Xiaoshuang, but had lingering fears.

They never dreamed that Princess Duanxian's energy would be so great. They even wondered whether Princess Duanxian had deliberately set Zhou Xiaoshuang up when they were in the restaurant, in order to let Zhou Youjie give Zhang Yishan Give up the position?

"I'm going to ask Princess Duanxian?" Yin wiped her tears, she was so angry that her heart ached. She had lived half her life, and she had seen a lot, but she had never seen a domineering person. So far, a woman who disagrees with her can actually demote her official position.

"Is there any law in the imperial court?" Zhou Xiaochen had already forgotten how surprised he was when he saw Xie Zhiwei for the first time, and couldn't help complaining.

From the second rank to the fifth rank, just thinking about it can make people vomit to death.

Zhou Youjie was also so angry that he vomited blood several times. Fortunately, he was no longer the person who knew nothing about Xie Zhiwei. He no longer judged Xie Zhiwei by his title, and couldn't help saying angrily, "You think the words you scolded in the restaurant, No one is going to tell the princess? Faji? Do you know who is the hottest figure in the court nowadays? It is the governor of the East Factory, and the palm seal envoy Lu Yan. When the princess came out of the cabinet, it was Master Lu who carried her on the sedan chair !"

Today's update!

Dear friends, let's cast a vote after reading this, so as to comfort my wounded heart, I love you!

Chapter 665 Supervising the country

Since ancient times, some families are happy and others are sad.

Zhou Youjie's house was in a bleak wind and rain, and when the crying was loud, Han Yanshou's house was ecstatic. The pie fell so suddenly that Han Yanshou and his wife forgot to thank them after receiving the imperial decree.

It was Xiao Zhuangzi who passed the decree, and reminded with a smile, "Master Han, why, don't you want to accept the decree?"

Han Yanshou came back to his senses, hurriedly kowtowed to thank him, then got up and calmly stuffed a jade ring finger into Xiao Zhuangzi, "Mr. Zhuang, why did you travel so hard this time? How far is it!"

Xiao Zhuangzi chuckled, "The governor heard that the princess was wronged in the west, so he specially asked our family to come and have a look. Our family heard that Mr. Han has made a good matchmaker for Xie's family. If you want to say Mr. Han's eyesight is good, that's really good, and the common people in Shaanxi Province will have to rely more on adults."

After being beaten like this, Han Yanshou realized which bodhisattva bestowed his official fortune, and hurriedly said humbly, "Well, I dare not take credit for this. Help me run an errand."

Han Yanshou's knowledge of current affairs was seen in Xiao Zhuangzi's eyes, and he was extremely satisfied. He said in his heart that when he went back this time, he was going to talk to the governor. This Han Yanshou is a talent.

Han Yanshou left Xiao Zhuangzi to eat, Xiao Zhuangzi waved his hand, "If it weren't for the declaration, our family should kowtow to the princess when we came to Jingzhao Mansion, how dare we accept the meal?"

Han Yanshou hurriedly said, "Then another day? Whatever day my father-in-law says!"

Xiao Zhuangzi managed to get this errand from Li Baozhen. He originally wanted to curry favor with Xie Zhiwei. A meal with Han Yanshou would at most give him a little more meat. "Our family wants to see if the princess has any errands to do, and our family has to deliver a letter to the princess."

Xiao Zhuangzi escaped from the Han family and hurried all the way to the Prince Chen's mansion.

This small house is really not a palace, but there is a saying that "the mountain is not high, there are fairies, there are spirits", why is the house not important, what is important is who lives in it?

Although the gate of the house is just a Ruyi gate, and the word "Xiao Zhai" is written on the door, in a short period of time, this house has become the Mansion of Prince Chen in the mouths of the people of Jingzhao Mansion.

Xiao Zhuangzi got off his horse in front of the door and announced his name. The concierge asked someone to go in and report. After a while, Du Yuan came out in person and said, "Mr. Waited for so long!"

Xiao Zhuangzi made a special trip to Xie's house when he came this time. Xie's family didn't dare to ask Xiao Zhuangzi to help bring things, so they asked Xiao Zhuangzi to bring two letters by the way, one from Xie's family and one from Lu's family.

Xiao Zhuangzi hurriedly followed in, kowtowed to Xie Zhiwei, handed the two letters to Xie Zhiwei and said, "The little brother of the princess, I saw it, he is really good, his eyes are very like the princess. And Master Lu The daughter of the family looks blessed, and the two children landed on the same day, which is really a fate."

Xie Zhiwei couldn't help laughing when he heard this, and said, "Then I can borrow my father-in-law's good words."

Xiao Zhuangzi didn't understand the words, but he knew it was a good one. Bailing said aside, "I'll tell my father-in-law, because it was a national funeral before, so I didn't dare to say it outside. One son and one daughter, I suggest getting married!"

"Oh, that's how it is. The servant just said, why is there such a fate? If you don't say it on the same day, the sixth young master of the Xie family is two hours older than the cousin girl of the Lu family."

Xie Zhiwei had already read the letter, and she was also happy to hear Xiao Zhuangzi say this in a tone of thanking his family, and asked, "You came to Jingzhao Mansion, are you going to stay for a few days before going back?"

Xiao Zhuangzi hurriedly bowed and said, "Let's see if the princess has any orders. If there are orders, the slave will stay for a few more days. If the princess doesn't give orders, the slave will get up immediately."

"What are you doing so busy? If so, you can stay for two more days and help me clean up the next door, see how the small courtyard looks, and repair and decorate it according to Master Lu's preferences."

When Xie Zhiwei asked someone to buy the house, he specifically explained that he would buy an extra small yard next to her house here. She knew that with the characters of Lu Yan and Xiao Xun, when Tuoba Sigong joined forces with Dayong's monarchs and ministers, they killed Dingyuanhou's mansion. In this life, since they have such an opportunity, they will definitely not let it go. Sooner or later, Lu Yan Yan is coming.

Xiao Zhuangzi returned to Beijing at the end of September. The emperor ordered Xiao Changxuan to move into Yanyi Pavilion to supervise the country. The assistant ministers were Zeng Shiyi, Xie Tiao, Zhang Minghe and Pei Ji.

The third prince, Xiao Changye, was named King of Fenyang County, and ordered to build a mansion.

The officials in the court could no longer tell what the emperor meant. If Xiao Changxuan was ordered to move into the palace and supervise the country, they did not give an explanation, and now Xiao Changxuan's legs are still lame, and the supervision of the country is limited. , and the third prince became the county king again.

But the courtiers are also very smart, how to do things is still how to do things, although the four princes were ordered to supervise the country, but the military and political affairs are still under the help of the six ministries, and all decisions that cannot be made are made by the cabinet. It's much smoother to do things.

The government is thriving.

Xiao Zhuangzi knelt in the study room of the Lu residence in the old Caomen Street, reporting his errands. After finishing speaking, he said, "The princess ordered the servants to stay in Jingzhao Mansion for a few days and tidy up the house next to Prince Chen's Mansion. It is located on the east side of the back garden A door was opened to connect with the back door of Prince Chen's Mansion, and the governor left it for the governor to live in the west."

Xiao Zhuangzi said to himself, I don't know when the governor will go to the west, but the princess is really kind to the governor.

Lu Yan's finger holding the brush was a little tight. He couldn't help but think in his heart. Now that the layout has reached the present, he can rely on Xie Tiao and Lu Qiling for the court affairs. If he leaves the capital for a short time, he can hand over the affairs of the inner court to Li Baozhen.

Lu Yan entered the Dongnuan Pavilion of Linde Palace early the next morning. He melted a pill with wine, brought it to the emperor, and said in a low voice, "Your Majesty, I asked Princess Duanxian to prepare a pill. Your Majesty took it. Afterwards, the illness will gradually recover, Your Majesty, please serve the Emperor."

The emperor was in a coma for a long time. After hearing this, he moved slightly. Lu Yan fed the medicine to Emperor Shoukang. After about an hour, Emperor Shoukang woke up slowly. When he saw Lu Yan for the first time, he was immediately moved and asked, "A Yan!"

Lu Yan hurried over, "Your Majesty, you have finally woken up! If you don't wake up again, I will have nothing to do."

The emperor's heart sank, and he asked, "What happened?"

Lu Yandao, "The emperor has not woken up for a long time, the courtiers are persecuted, and the minister has no choice but to order His Royal Highness the fourth prince to supervise the country, and the third prince to be named the county king..."

The emperor was so angry that he spat out a mouthful of blood, "Where is the second prince?"

"The second prince is still dredging the river, and has not returned to the capital. His Highness the third prince and the fourth prince are very concerned about the emperor. They have repeatedly asked about the emperor's dragon body. The minister dare not let the princes enter the palace to visit the sick, so they have to discuss with the cabinet. That's why we made this decision."

The first update!

Chapter 666 Banned

The emperor was furious, "Nizi, two naughty sons, they hope that I will have trouble, and think that the throne is their own."

Lu Yan hurriedly stroked the emperor's back, "Your Majesty, it will be fine if you wake up, Your Majesty, it's been a long time since the Great Court Meeting. Today, the Emperor will go to the Great Court Meeting to show your face!"

The emperor also knew that the matter was of great importance, and he was in good spirits for the time being, so he listened to Lu Yan and asked someone to help him change his clothes, put on a dragon robe, and went to the Daqing Hall.

Suddenly seeing the emperor, all the officials were shocked. They knelt down and shouted long live.

And Xiao Changxuan, who was sitting on the Danbi, beside the dragon chair, stood up abruptly, and looked at the emperor who was supported by two eunuchs, who was on the throne. After a long while, he heard the eunuchs coughing. Kneeling down, "Long live father, long live, long live!"

The emperor looked down at the prince kneeling at his feet, out of anger, he raised his foot suddenly, and kicked Xiao Changxuan. The emperor was weak after being seriously ill, and under the kick, Xiao Changxuan's body just swayed. Let the fear in the emperor's heart surge like a tide.

If there is no A Yan to support him, he may never wake up again. Even if he wakes up, is there still a place for him in this world of Dayong?

Duke Huan of Qi lived a heroic life. After his death, no one collected his body. His bones were eaten by maggots. His six sons competed for the throne; King Zhao Wuling, who lived a heroic life, was starved to death by his son; Give way, and finally die in depression.

At this moment, the emperor thought a lot. He thought that the courtiers, mother and brothers might threaten his throne. It turned out that the real threat to his throne was his own son.

The son inherits the father's business, and the name is justified!

"Father, you must take care of the dragon body!" Xiao Changye rushed up to Bibi Dan, and while helping the emperor, he kicked Xiao Changxuan, who rolled down due to his tremendous strength.

Seeing this, the emperor slowly turned his head to look at Xiao Changye, who was also his son, a strong son.

The emperor stepped back quickly to avoid Xiao Changye, he was furious, "Who told you to come up? Ah, who asked you to come up, I'm not dead yet, I'm not dead yet!"

After the emperor finished speaking, he coughed violently. He felt a fishy smell in his throat. He tightly grasped the dragon chair with both hands, and ordered, "Declaration of my will, the third prince Xiao Changye, the fourth prince Xiao Changxuan, wolf ambitions, intending to rebel, and to seize them." Nobility, demoted to a commoner, imprisoned by a high wall, and never released!"

The third and fourth princes were stunned. Before they could speak, Jin Yiwei covered their mouths and dragged them out of the hall.

Seeing the princes being taken away, the emperor felt safer. He slowly moved to the dragon chair and sat down. After all the courtiers saluted and listened to the political affairs for a while, everything was taken care of by the cabinet. Xie Tiao and others still asked for his will, and the emperor was relieved.

But the emperor hadn't recovered from his illness for a long time, and his energy gradually became weak. Lu Yan stepped forward, gestured to the courtiers, and asked, "If there is something to do, go to the court, and if there is nothing to do, leave the court!"

The emperor waved his hand, "All important matters are drawn up by the cabinet, and all matters that have no resolutions are reported by the supervisor of ceremonies!"

"The ministers and others obey the order, long live the emperor, long live long live!"

During the Long Live Shanhu, the emperor, supported by two eunuchs, left the main hall, boarded the chariot, and was carried to the East Nuan Pavilion of the Linde Hall.

Lu Yan arrived shortly thereafter, and Mr. Mi Tuan brought a bowl of medicine. As usual, Lu Yan took a sip, let it dry for a while, and then served it to the emperor. He said, "Your Majesty, the two princes also care about the country..."

The emperor was furious immediately, "Ah Yan, do you also think that I should die, and now you want to ask for some words from me, so that you can take refuge with your new master as soon as possible?"

Lu Yan smiled, "The emperor calms down, no matter where the emperor goes, he has agreed to serve him. In this world, only the emperor is the master of the minister."

As he spoke, he handed a list of the Autumn Judgments to the emperor, "Your Majesty, Han Jinyi has already explained everything that should be explained. These are all the lists in the Lianchi Palace Incident."

The emperor glanced at it, and saw that it was full of familiar names, Han Jinyi, Han Zhen..., and felt agitated, "Ah Yan, just approve the red seal, don't need to keep it!"

"yes!"

Lu Yan handed the list to Mi Tuan, and Mi Tuan took it out. Only the emperor and Lu Yan were left in the room. The emperor asked, "What happened to the western border and the northern border?"

Lu Yan said, "There is no movement yet. Xie Yuanbai is guarding the western border. On the northern border, His Royal Highness Chen has wiped out several Beiqi armies one after another. I see that His Royal Highness Chen has no possibility of advancing."

"It seems that Ah Xun just likes to fight." The emperor muttered, but Lu Yan was noncommittal.

After a while, the emperor fell into a deep sleep.

Lu Yan made a gesture, and an old * came in and stood by the side, taking Lu Yan's place.

In the Palace of Imperial Instruments, Lu Yan sent out several Zhu batches one after another, and after using the seals, the scriptures representing the emperor's will were sent to all directions.

Xiao Changxuan did not expect that he would be imprisoned, he looked at the high walls built around the small prince's mansion, panic spread in his heart like a plague, he kept shouting like crazy, "Why? Why?"

Xue Wanqing and Hai Xueyun rushed out of the room, Hai Xueyun was still in a daze, Xue Wanqing had seen this scene in so many movies and TV dramas, and was shocked.

She rushed over and grabbed Xiao Changxuan's shoulders with both hands, "Your Highness, what's going on? What's going on?"

Xiao Changxuan still had illusions in his heart, he looked at Xue Wanqing, "Qing'er, I'm done, I'm done, my father ordered me to be imprisoned by a high wall! What should I do?"

Isn't Xue Wanqing able to predict the future?

"No, it's impossible, it's impossible, it's not true, it's not true!" Xue Wanqing was really panicked, she had thought about countless possibilities in this life, but she never thought that she would be imprisoned here Among the high walls.

Concubine, concubine, concubine, if they live long, they can also be empress dowager in the future, enjoying the honor of Emperor Qianlong's mother, and being cared for by the son of the emperor with all the power of the whole country, but they are not here. Before she reached Ji, she was imprisoned in this palm-sized space, day after day.

"Why is this happening?" Hai Xueyun muttered, then turned around and walked towards the East Courtyard, her steps seemed extraordinarily heavy.

In front of the gate of Linde Hall, Princess Dagon had been waiting for a long time, she stopped Lu Yan who came out from inside, "Let me see the emperor!"

"The emperor is asleep!"

"It doesn't matter if he's asleep, you wake him up!" Princess Dagon stubbornly said, "I know that you have a way to wake up the emperor. If you wake him up, I need to find him for something!"

Lu Yan had no choice but to turn around, and he dissolved another pill. Two hours later, the emperor woke up again and learned that Princess Dagon had been waiting for him outside the door. The emperor panicked, "What is she here for?"

The second update!

Chapter 667 Anguo

In the East Nuan Pavilion, Princess Dagon came in boldly, and instead of bowing down, she sat down on a stool. She spread out a piece of white silk cloth and presented it to the emperor. When the emperor saw it, his eyes widened. It took a long time for the boss to recognize his own handwriting, raised his eyes, and looked at Dagon with tears in his eyes, "Where did you get it?"

As he said that, the emperor was about to grab it, but Princess Dagon was naturally much faster than him. After she grabbed it, she stuffed it into her arms, "Don't ask me where I came from, Xiao Yan, I've been here for so many years, haven't you ever had a nightmare? Has An Guo ever come to you? Did he cry in your ear, saying that she was wronged?"

Lu Yan stood in the corner, like a pillar that could be invisible, and no one saw it. He trembled all over, and quickly raised his eyes to look at Princess Dagon.

"No matter how much you argue with the eldest brother, I don't care about it, but An Guo is different. She is a princess and she married Lu Xiufu. I didn't even have time to take a look at my nephew. Their family was destroyed by you. Killed."

Princess Dagon turned around and looked at the emperor, "There are many ways to redress injustice in this world, and the people in Xijiang will never believe that the Lu family is treasonous, only a fool like you would use this kind of method." The way hurts people. But, for me, whoever started it will end it. You don't seem to have much time to live, and I can't wait, how are you going to bring peace to the country?"

Princess Dagon forced her to ask, the emperor trembled, and he looked around for Lu Yan, but at this moment, he did not see Lu Yan, "Who let you in? What are you doing here? Where is Jinyiwei? For me Throw her out!"

Gun Guo sneered, "If you want me to go out, that's fine. You can think about it. The letters you wrote to Han Jinyi and the others are not limited to this one. If you commit your own crimes and rehabilitate Anguo, you can save a little Mingjun." If you don't want to, I will make thousands of copies of these and post them all over the place. No, I will simply teach Bailian to let the so-called Second Prince Li do this. I believe, He sure would love to."

After finishing speaking, Dagon turned around and was about to leave. The emperor hurriedly called her to stop, "Stop, stop! Aren't you afraid that I will kill your nine clans? Aren't you afraid that I will behead all the houses of the Marquis of Changyang?"

Princess Dagon's footsteps paused, she held her head high, her voice was firm, "Don't be afraid, my nine clans also include you, and don't scare me with the Zheng family, Nan Yi has been dead for so many years, he is in another Waiting for me in a world, there are father, queen, elder brother, emperor's wife, they are waiting for me, and they are also waiting for you, I am not afraid, are you afraid?"

The emperor trembled all over. He stared blankly at the eldest princess of Dagon, and the eldest princess also looked at him. The two brothers and sisters were obviously only two steps apart, but they seemed to be separated by thousands of mountains and rivers.

"Back then, you and I grew up under the mother's knees. The mother always loved you and always said, you are men, let you and the elder brother take care of me and An Guo, Xiao Yan, you think you will never grow old and die, and you will never die in the future." I will go to see my mother, do you have the face to see my mother?"

"Does the queen mother really love me the most? Isn't the queen mother doing it for the reputation of being wise, not because I am not her own, but she loves me the most, just to prevent people from saying that she is jealous and wants to win a reputation of being wise from me?" ?"

Dagon Kingdom was very angry, but quickly adjusted his mood, "You can question the Queen Mother about these words, you don't have to ask me, I just ask you, if you can't commit crimes against yourself, do you want to suppress the rebellion for Anguo? "

Dagon Guo took a deep breath and said, "I don't care who you put the blame on, as long as Anguo doesn't bear the reputation of rebellion, Dingyuanhou has guarded Xijiang for generations, and Xiliang is incompatible with Xiliang, but you actually framed Dingyuanhou Collaborating with the enemy and treason, Xiao Yan, how did your brain grow?"

"Did he leave You Yunqi to you?" The emperor stared at a pair of sunken eyes. If he could not speak, no one would believe that he was alive. Like a ghost, he looked extremely scary.

Princess Dagon was also shocked. She did not expect that Xiao Yan had not found You Yunqi for so many years, the cavalry specially built to recover the sixteen prefectures of Yanyun. I gave You Yun to Lord Hou one step earlier, and later, after the palace coup happened, Lord Hou died at the hands of a traitor like you, and You Yun rode into the hands of my Changyang Houfu, why not?"

The emperor was so angry that his chest heaved violently, "You, you want to rebel?"

"If you don't suppress the rebellion for Anguo, why not?"

The emperor coughed a few times and spewed out a mouthful of blood. Lu Yan came out in a hurry and patted the emperor's younger generation gently, "Your Majesty, the future will be long, why don't you promise the Princess Dagon!"

"Gather Jin Yiwei, will, lock her up, destroy, destroy the Changyang Marquis Nine Clans!"

"The emperor..."

Lu Yan wanted to persuade him, but the voice of King Xiang came from outside the door, which was particularly sharp in the long autumn night, "Your Majesty, Princess An is wronged! Your Majesty, you are the king, and Princess An is a subject. If you Thinking of Princess An's death, she has no choice but to die, as a king, why did you collude with Xiliang to murder loyal ministers?"

The emperor's eyes darkened, and he almost fell down on the couch. Lu Yan quickly grabbed him, so the emperor didn't fall to the ground. He asked in horror, "Who, who is outside?"

Li Baozhen crawled in, "Your Majesty, it is King Xiang who is leading civil and military officials to kneel outside the door. Your Majesty, what should we do?"

Xie Tiao's voice came in, "Your Majesty, the first emperor issued an imperial decree before his death, and the decree was passed down to Prince Xiao Lang, but when Emperor Zhaoyang ascended the throne, there was no imperial decree. Your majesty, before the late emperor died, Concubine Xue was by his side, please The emperor handed over Concubine Xue to be interrogated by the ministers, who took away the imperial decree of Emperor Zhaoyang's enthronement?"

The emperor was frightened and asked Lu Yan, "Where is Concubine Xue? Is she still alive?"

Lu Yan didn't have time to speak, Princess Dagon laughed loudly, "Does the emperor not know whether Concubine Xue is dead? The late emperor's concubine has no will, who dares to let her die?"

Outside the door, the courtiers shouted loudly, "Please hand over Concubine Xue, Your Majesty!"

The emperor pointed to the door, "You, you, do you want to kill me?"

No one answered. Although there was a door, the atmosphere inside and outside the door merged into one, and the atmosphere was extremely tense.

Lu Yan persuaded, "Your Majesty, it's just a saying, why not..."

The emperor knew what Lu Yan was going to say, but at this moment, he was very angry. After so many years, these courtiers who have been favored by the emperor still miss Emperor Zhaoyang.

Do they think that the Emperor Zhaoyang will never forget Emperor Zhaoyang because of his improper status?

The third update!

Chapter 668 Tiger Talisman

"No, they want to force me to death, but I won't let them do so!" The emperor couldn't even breathe.

The voices of Xie Tiao and the others came again, "I dare not, and please resign, please allow the emperor!"

This was threatening him with resignation. The emperor held the edge of the couch tightly with both hands, his chest rose and fell violently, and asked Lu Yan, "Then, how did the imperial decree arrive, outside?"

"If you go back to the emperor, it is said that Hong Jizhong's son brought the imperial decree to the false prince of the White Lotus Sect. Ten days ago, Hong Jizhong's son was assassinated and killed." Lu Yan lowered his eyes, his gorgeous face was expressionless.

Hong Yanping is a good pawn.

The emperor understood that Hong Jizhong's son must have died at the hands of Dongchang. He felt a little relieved, and was very satisfied with Lu Yan's quick action, but the imperial decree was finally passed on.

It is conceivable that these people together deceived me.

Concubine Xue, the emperor hated his teeth so much, he thought that Concubine Xue really loved him, and he was willing to let her play with his neck, anyway, she couldn't hurt him, but he didn't expect that in the end, she was just a poisonous woman.

"Xiao Yan, it's useless for you to pretend to be a wise monarch. When your mother taught you how to read, didn't she teach you how Duke Huan of Qi died at the hands of Yi Ya, Shu Diao, and Kai Fang? Concubine Xue can betray her father, of course. Will also betray you, Han Jinyi used to be the companion of the great emperor brother, if he can betray the great emperor brother, he can also betray you..."

Princess Dagon laughed mercilessly, "Now that things have happened, do you still want to protect that temptress, Concubine Xue? You know, I wish I could tear her to pieces!"

Princess Dagon said viciously, she approached the emperor, condescendingly looked down at the emperor who was like a dead dog on the sick bed, "Hand her over..."

Before she finished speaking, a young * hurried in, tripped over the threshold and fell, "Your Majesty, Concubine Xue committed suicide in fear of crime!"

"Give it to me, make her alive!" The emperor felt that it would not be enough to vent his anger if he didn't cut Concubine Xue into pieces, how dare she colluded with Hong Jizhong and handed over the imperial decree to Han Jizhong? In this way, the imperial decree that I burned at the beginning was a fake.

Betrayed, he was betrayed!

The emperor leaned on the edge of the bed, he calmed down his emotions slowly, and his body felt a little better, "Where's Pei Ji?"

Pei Ji is the commander of the forbidden army, the little * glanced at Lu Yan, Lu Yan nodded, the little * stammered, "Your Majesty, General Pei is right outside the door, surrounded by all civil and military officials!"

After hearing this, the emperor felt better, but he couldn't really kill all the civil and military officials. In this way, after his death, he might be given the posthumous title of "Li", which is comparable to those tyrants.

All his life, he wanted to be a good emperor who would last forever, so that his dead father, mother, queen, brother, and subjects of Dayong would all believe that he was a good emperor not inferior to his brother.

How can he be a tyrant?

A Yan is right, what these people want is just a reputation, they dare not do anything to themselves, and they still expect themselves to issue an edict of redress.

"A Yan, draw up the decree!"

An imperial decree flew to the north and south at the fastest speed. The imperial decree admitted that the first emperor had issued an imperial decree ordering Emperor Zhaoyang to ascend the throne, and recognized the orthodox status of Emperor Zhaoyang; Hou Youyuan colluded with Xiliang and framed Marquis Dingyuan, while Marquis Huaiyuan and Marquis Yiwu colluded together and gave perjury, which made the court unable to distinguish loyalty from traitors and made a big mistake. Marquis Dingyuan have been protecting the frontier for generations and should be rewarded. It was ordered to be buried for Dingyuanhou and his wife.

The common people told each other that in just fifteen years, no one has forgotten that Emperor Zhaoyang reigned for three years and promulgated the benevolent government. The people lived and worked in peace and contentment, and the surrounding countries did not dare to offend. .

Late at night, in the capital city, there are occasional fireworks coming from high above the sky, and the voices of people on Yujie Street seem to be able to pass through the walls of the square and reach the Lu residence on Old Caomen Street.

Lu Yan tied a package with his own hands, turned around, saw Li Baozhen standing at the door, walked over, took the handkerchief, wiped his hands, and asked, "What else is there? Has the emperor woke up?"

"Master, will you come back?"

Lu Yan stood in front of the window, with his hands behind his back, looking towards the direction of the palace, "There is still King Xiang in Beijing, and there is Xie Tiao, and in this life, I have obtained everything I want."

For the rest of his life, he only wanted to live for himself.

Li Baozhen knelt down, weeping, "Master, what will the slaves do if you leave like this?"

"Everything in the palace is entrusted to you. Follow what I told you before. What do you have to be afraid of? You only need to serve the emperor well. Someone will take care of everything you need. You can't even do well in taking care of the emperor?"

"The slave obeys the order. The slave will follow the supervisor's order, and everything in the palace and the capital will be taken care of by the governor!"

"That's good. If you are willing to listen to me, I will naturally keep you safe in this life."

"Slaves dare not disobey the order of the governor."

Lu Yan didn't say any more, he carried the package on his back. In this house, he only left two young eunuchs to guard. Mi Tuan and Zhi Ma followed behind him, and their eyes were shining brilliance.

The three horses went to Taohuawu first. In Xie Zhiwei's Yuci Zhuangzi, Tang Jing'an got the news in advance and was waiting respectfully. When he saw Lu Yan coming, he led the people in the Zhuangzi to kneel down to greet him.

"There is one thing, I came to take it without your master's consent."

Tang Jing'an hurriedly said, "Master, the master has an order. If the Governor and His Royal Highness Prince Chen want to take anything from this house, please do so!"

Lu Yan felt as if a warm current had flowed through his heart. He was a little anxious. After getting off his horse, he entered the hall and stood in front of the shrine. After the incense, I bowed, and just stepped forward and turned the incense burner.

The north wall of the middle hall was moved to a gap. Lu Yan reached into the gap and touched something. He took it out, which was half a tiger talisman.

The autumn rain continued, and on the way to the west, the woods on both sides gradually turned yellow, and the forests were completely dyed. Gradually, the mountains became undulating, and the mountains became steeper and steeper.

When he reached the valley, Lu Yan got off his horse, threw the reins to Mi Tuan, and walked inward on foot alone.

At the entrance of the canyon, a thirteen or fourteen-year-old boy jumped out with a gun in his hand, "Stop, who are you?"

The boy was wearing a short jacket, with a piece of yellow dogtail in his mouth, standing on a boulder, quite imposing.

Lu Yan was in a good mood. He glanced into the mountains, his long and narrow eyes raised slightly, and looked at the young man, "Is Pei Ju still alive? Go and tell him, the son of an old man asks to see you!"

The boy spat and spat the dogtail grass onto the ground. He tapped the rock wall three times with the point of his gun. Not far away, there were three explosions. After a while, a pony carried a person on its back. He rushed over, took a deep look at Lu Yan, and turned away.

Today's update!

Dear friends, use your tickets, hug me, kiss me, love you!

Chapter 669 Battle or not

The boy squatted on the boulder, staring at Lu Yan without blinking.

Lu Yan let him look around, observing the surrounding environment from time to time with his hands behind his back.

Suddenly, he saw a person coming from a distance, and suddenly, his heart was ups and downs. The leader was about fifty years old, with gray temples, but he still walked vigorously, and his armor was shining.

The moment he saw Lu Yan, the man yelled in disbelief, "Dingyuanhou!"

When this man was about to rush to Lu Yan, Lu Yan took a step back and said reservedly, "Pei Dudu!"

Pei Ju looked Lu Yan up and down, and after seeing Lu Yan's condition clearly, he couldn't help but let out a mournful cry, held back the tears in his eyes, and reached out to support Lu Yan's arm, "Son, you must have suffered a lot, right?"

Lu Yan smiled easily, "Pei Dudu, how many people are there?"

Pei Ju pulled Lu Yan and walked in, "There are still 13,000 people in total. We are cultivating wasteland and farming in this mountain forest, talking about making a living, and training soldiers at the same time. More than ten years have passed. It's the day."

Lu Yan paused. He looked at everything in the canyon. There were cattle and sheep, fields, children, and women. This place was no longer like a military camp, but a paradise.

He couldn't help looking at Pei Ju suspiciously.

Pei Ju, a native of Longxi Guanzhong, used to be a general under his father's command. At the beginning, Emperor Zhaoyang wanted to build a special cavalry to recover the sixteen prefectures of Yanyun, and ordered his father to select elite soldiers and generals to form a military system.

"Little Lord..."

"I'm no longer qualified to be called Young Lord!" Lu Yan said coldly, "Pei Dudu, this is half a tiger talisman. I wonder if I can still mobilize a few soldiers now?"

Lu Yan raised his hand and showed the Tiger Talisman.

Pei Ju raised his hand and beckoned someone to stand up. The man walked up to a high platform and beat the war drums. The rumbling sound of the drums shook the valley. Soldiers with weapons rushed out from the houses, and everyone was wearing battle armor.

In the valley, the huge platform was already full of soldiers, and there were tens of thousands of soldiers stretching from the platform to the valley in an orderly manner.

Pei Ju stood on the highest platform, and he raised his voice, "Boys, who are you?"

"You Yunqi!"

"What is your mission?"

"Recover Yandi!"

The sound is like thunder, majestic and murderous!

This is an army that has never been on the battlefield, but it is extremely * and brave!

This is an army that has been dormant for fifteen years, but has never forgotten its mission!

This is also an army that forgets itself in the face of the enemy and can fight hard!

Pei Ju looked at Lu Yan proudly, as if to say, Young Master, what do you think?

Lu Yan put a mask on his face. In an instant, almost all the veterans saw the appearance of Marquis Dingyuan back then, and many of them unconsciously called "Lord Hou".

Lu Yan stood on the platform and asked Pei Ju, "Pei Dudu, can we still fight?"

Pei Ju smiled and did not answer, but stretched out his hands, and each of them handed Pei Ju a bright yellow copper mace. The copper maces each weighed more than 30 catties. Pei Ju weighed one in each hand, and said, "Young Lord, look, is this weapon still in your hand?"

Lu Yan turned his head and saw two people coming up with a Fangtian painted halberd. The black halberd handle, the double-moon sharp blade and the spear tip were shining with cold light. used weapons.

Lu Yan couldn't hide his excitement.

He walked over and grabbed Fang Tian's painted halberd with one hand, the heavy weapon was spinning in his hand, and the long-lost Lu family's halberd technique was revived with every move.

The painting pole of Fang Tian's painting halberd seems to have the spirit of a wild fire dragon. The dancing flames seem to make people feel the burning pain, and the ferocious murderous aura emanating from the sharp blade makes people gradually become more ferocious.

Lu Yan's ghostly mask, if it has the power of Shura, makes people lose their minds and become murderous.

A clear voice woke everyone up.

After Fang Tian's painted halberd in Lu Yan's hand collided with the copper mace crisply, he tore off the brocade robe on his body.

The beautiful young man in a black robe, like a general walking out of the dark night, fought against Pei Ju on the general platform.

Shoveling, slashing back, stabbing horizontally, stabbing downwards, slashing, straight chopping, skillful halberd technique, brave strength, chopped Pei Ju back again and again, and won bursts of applause.

Pei Ju has a strong fighting spirit, and his tiger eyes are shining brightly. Although he is no longer young, it is rare for him to meet his opponent, and the more he fights, the more courageous he becomes.

Lu Yan didn't want to waste any more time. With a flick of his wrist, Fang Tian flew up into the sky beside his painting halberd, spinning rapidly in the air, only to hear the sound of crackling in the air.

And Lu Yan stepped on the double mace that Pei Ju was attacking, and with this strength, he rushed into the air, grabbed Fang Tian's painting halberd, and easily turned his wrist, and Fang Tian's painting halberd landed on the ground. A huge impact hit Pei Ju.

Everyone raised their hearts, their eyes widened, and many people couldn't help shouting, "Dudu Pei! Be careful!"

Pei Ju's eyes were wide open, and he stepped forward suddenly, crossing his maces to protect the front door, but the moment Fang Tian's painted halberd slammed towards Pei Ju, Lu Yan's wrist flipped again, Fang Tian's painted halberd slashed at Pei Ju. The double mace was played, and two double maces came out of Pei Ju's hands.

Lu Yan took advantage of the situation to hold Fang Tian's painting halberd, ignored everyone's horrified eyes, and cupped his hands at Pei Ju, "Accept!"

It took a long time for Pei Ju to come back to his senses, his eyes could not hide his excitement, and his voice trembled, "Young Lord Hou has not lost the courage of Lord Hou, it is really gratifying!"

There was no smile on Lu Yan's face. He held up the tiger talisman and said to everyone, "This seat is ordered by His Royal Highness King Chen, and I order you to go out of the mountain with this seat. No one is allowed to stay behind for all You Yunqi. cut!"

Pei Ju hurriedly stood up, "Youyun Qierlang, you have waited for fifteen years. Today, it is your turn to make contributions. What are you waiting for?"

"Kill, kill, kill!"

Everyone was extremely excited, the beautiful young man in front of him conquered everyone with his own strength.

Three "kills" sounded straight through the sky, Lu Yan got on his horse, and rushed out of the canyon first, followed by 13,000 Youyun Riders, like a sharp sword, advancing towards Xiliang.

After entering October, the weather in Jingzhao Mansion became colder, with the new wind blowing from the north, and when we got up early, there were still faint snowflakes flying in the air.

Earth dragons were already on fire in the house. In the Lu house next door, even though no one lived there, it was still burning every day. It seemed that the owner of the house was always there and never left.

Ms. Rong was sitting in front of the window reading a book. She seemed to be back when she was young, before entering the capital. In Fanyang, she sat cross-legged on the kang like this. She watched her mother turn over the ledger while she was doing needlework.

Hua Ying walked in quickly and said in a panic, "Your Majesty, I heard that an army has gathered outside the city. Right now, everyone in the city is panicking."

"What banner are you playing?" Xie Zhiwei asked calmly from the side.

The first update!

Chapter 670 Cheers

"You Yunqi!" Hua Ying thought of something, and suddenly, her whole body seemed to have been immobilized, and she couldn't move.

Rong stood up abruptly, she quickly reached out to Xie Zhiwei, "You accompany me, go and have a look, I'm going to see You Yunqi."

You Yunqi, the army that once only existed in the mouth of Emperor Zhaoyang and planned with the Marquis of Dingyuan, has always been like a mysterious ancient legend, only passed on in people's mouths, and has never appeared in the sight of the world.

The carriage was ready soon. Xie Zhiwei was sitting in the carriage, as excited as Rong. She was excited because of another reason. I wonder if it was Xiao Xun or Lu Yan who brought You Yunqi?

Lu Yan's army was stationed outside the city, and not far away, Xiao Xun rushed towards Jingzhao Mansion at full speed. From a distance, he saw the banner embroidered with the words "You Yun" and "Xiao" fluttering in the wind, and couldn't help but feel excited.

In the commander's tent, a brazier was lit, and Lu Yan in armor was sitting at the table looking at the excerpts from the capital. A soldier reported outside the tent, "Marshal, there is a team of about a hundred people in the north." The cavalry rushed towards the camp, and a carriage outside the city also drove towards the camp!"

Lu Yan stood up suddenly, he was a little nervous, and the memorial in his hand was scratched by him. After a long time, he said, "Please!"

"Brother, you are finally here!"

Xiao Xun rushed in, saw Lu Yan, and hugged him in the past, Lu Yan stretched his arms to hug him, and the two embraced tightly, both showing their emotions and joy.

After a while, the sound of a carriage came from outside, and Lu Yan's personal soldiers came in again to report, "Marshal, Princess Duanxian is here!"

Lu Yan and Xiao Xun let go only now, and Lu Yan patted the uncomfortable Xiao Xun on the shoulder, "I think the empress is here too, don't you plan to see her?"

Xiao Xun twitched a bit, "Niang and Meimei are also true, I will go to the city soon, so what if they wait a little longer?"

Lu Yan couldn't help laughing. He was wearing a silver armor and a red cloak with a soaring eagle embroidered on the back of the cloak, and he strode out.

Xiao Xun is wearing a black silver embroidered war robe, his hair is combed into a bunch and thrown behind his head, his delicate eyebrows and eyes seem to have two suns in his eyes, which are abnormally bright.

Young Ruhong, after going out, happened to see his mother and Xie Zhiwei getting off the carriage, and couldn't help shouting, "Mother, Mei Mei!"

Rong Shi and Xie Zhiwei hurriedly looked over, their eyes first swept over Xiao Xun, and then turned around on Lu Yan's body and face, Xie Zhiwei was okay, Rong Shi closed his eyes, and two lines of tears fell down.

"Chen Lu Yan, see your empress!"

Before he knelt down on one knee, Rong pulled Lu Yan up, hugged him into his arms, and couldn't help crying, "Ah Yan, Ah Yan!"

She didn't know what to say. At this moment, she couldn't help but blame her husband. Her husband didn't do anything wrong to the common people, but he hurt all the people close to him, including his wife, children, siblings, and their next generation.

Such a man like Shenxiu Shanchuan should have lived like this in fresh clothes and angry horses, playing games in the world.

If my sister-in-law knew it, how sad it would be!

Xiao Xun's eyes turned red, and he turned around. Xie Zhiwei came over and gently picked his hand, Xiao Xun turned to look at Xie Zhiwei, couldn't help raising his hand to caress her face, at such a moment, the two looked at each other speechlessly.

"Mother, I'm fine!" Lu Yan stood up, he smiled, but it made Rong cry even more.

She has endured shame and humiliation for so many years, no matter how much her son has been wronged by her, she feels that it is nothing, and at least she endured it.

In the past, she was able to deceive herself without seeing Lu Yan, but now, seeing this young man, she only felt that she and her husband were committing crimes.

In the big tent, Rong finally held back her grief. She thought, what face would she have to go underground to meet her husband and sister-in-law?

Xie Zhiwei broke the embarrassment and said, "Master Lu, are you going to camp outside the city?"

Lu Yan was in a good mood, and said with a smile, "Leave this to Dudu Pei for the time being. I will take Ah Xun to meet Dudu Pei in a while. As for me, I will follow Ah Xun's arrangement."

Xie Zhiwei said, "Then I will go back to the city with my mother, and I will welcome you at home at night, how about it?"

Lu Yan looked at Xiao Xun with a smile, Xiao Xun was very happy when he heard "home", and twisted his buttocks on the chair uncomfortably, "Brother, then go see General Pei now!"

Xie Zhiwei couldn't help laughing and said, "This is the handsome tent, where are you going to meet General Pei? My mother and I will go back first to make room for you."

Coming out of the handsome tent, on the way back to the city, Xie Zhiwei looked at Rong Shi, not knowing how to comfort him, she held Rong Shi's hand tightly, and said after a long time, "Mother, I'm sad and hurt, this is the path that big brother chose... "

"If it was not forced, who would choose such a path?" Rong Shi held Xie Zhiwei's hand tightly, "Wei'er, can you promise mother one thing?"

"Mother, please tell me!" Xie Zhiwei had a premonition in his heart, "No matter what the mother asks, the daughter-in-law will do it."

"In the future, you and Ah Xun will have two more children, and let the Lu family adopt one. In the final analysis, we are sorry for the Lu family. The Lu family has been loyal to the frontier for generations, and the blood of the son of the Lu family has stained this land on the frontier. Over and over again, the Lu family should not have received such retribution, it shows that the world is not fair!"

"Daughter-in-law listens to mother." Xie Zhiwei ignored the shyness and responded respectfully.

But even so, Rong's mood was still hard to let go. When she returned home, she entered the small Buddhist hall and knelt down in front of the Bodhisattva for a long time.

Tonight in Xiao's house is destined to be a happy night.

Xie Zhiwei set up two tables in the hall of the front yard. Since it was a family banquet, they were arranged according to seniority. Xie Yuanbai sat at the head of the table, Yun Jingxuan, the eldest son of Lu Guogong's mansion, came, and Lu Yan, Xiao Xun, Xu Liang, etc. also came, opened a pot of crabapple red, and the whole room was filled with the fragrance of crabapple.

Ru kiln moonlight wine set, the color is warm and subtle, the rippling carmine wine, like a newlywed in a red wedding dress, is pleasing to the eye and the eye, and you will get drunk before drinking it.

"Brother, you will not return today if you are not drunk!" Xiao Xun raised his glass and persuaded Lu Yan to drink.

The people at the table also raised their glasses to Lu Yan. Although no one said anything, there is no need to say clearly about Lu Yan's life experience right now.

"I have something to do later." Lu Yan said.

"I will accompany you, I will accompany you, but brother, you must let go of your drink tonight."

Lu Yan couldn't help laughing, he patted Xiao Xun's shoulder, "Okay, don't drink my wine, do you think I can't deal with you?"

After finishing speaking, Lu Yan turned around and toasted with Xie Yuanbai and others one by one, "From now on, we will be Paoze, and each other's backs will be in each other's hands. Cheers!"

"Do it!" From the moment Xie Yuanbai knew Lu Yan's identity, he had to admire this young man. His thin shoulders had endured so much suffering, but he walked over step by step without giving in.
