

The Power 75

Chapter 75 Prince

In this side hall, there are no flowers and plants except for a light and elegant fragrance from a copper incense burner with a mahogany seat and gold and silver dragon pattern.

After Xie Zhiwei looked around, he felt a little relieved, and his expression was not nervous.

The queen has been observing Xie Zhiwei's expression, seeing this, she also breathed a sigh of relief. In this harem, it is really difficult to have an heir every step of the way. She has been waiting for these few days, waiting for Xie Zhiwei to come into the palace, so that she can feel at ease.

Xie Momo hurriedly delivered the welcome pillow, Xie Zhiwei knelt on the footrest, pulled the sleeve slightly, revealing a small section of white wrist, with three slender and soft fingers resting on the Queen's pulse, she could only take three breaths of concentration, and asked the queen to change the other hand. It didn't take much effort. Under the intense attention of the queen, she said with a smile, "The empress's pulse is very good, and the prince in her stomach is also in good health. Don't worry, your empress. You don't need to waste your thoughts, just eat well, sleep well, and exercise appropriately every day."

The empress breathed a sigh of relief, with a smile blooming like a flower on her face, she grabbed Xie Zhiwei's hand, "Good boy, I feel more at ease after you say it."

Nanny Xi was also very happy, she leaned forward and said with a smile, "Your Majesty, you don't have to do anything, just look at the freckles on your mother's face recently, and this servant thinks she ate something that shouldn't be eaten. Or use something that shouldn't be used, the servant will show the county master the makeup powder that the empress usually uses, and the county master will help to palm the eyes."

In fact, when the queen saw spots on her face, she was frightened out of her wits and asked Xu Yi to look at them for her. She also checked the rouge and gouache that she usually used, and her pulse was stable, but the spots on her face were also impossible. It grows up for no reason, and if she doesn't make trouble for a day, she won't be able to rest her mind.

Xie Zhiwei had already figured it out, but he got up quickly, "Don't bother Mammy to move around, I'll go in with Mammy to check around."

Originally this proposal was presumptuous, but now is an extraordinary period, Xie Zhiwei might as well go to the queen's bedroom to check everything in order to reassure the queen.

Of course the queen is also willing to let the eldest princess accompany Xie Zhiwei in.

Rouge, gouache, and Zhuchai jewelry were all taken out and placed on the table. After Xie Zhiwei looked at it, there was nothing wrong with it. He smelled the incense, the pillow under the bed, and the wardrobe, and found nothing unusual.

Back in the side hall, Xie Zhiwei thought about it and said, "Your Majesty, my servant didn't see anything wrong with it. As for the spots on your Majesty's face, my servant once saw it in a note left by the ancestors of the Cui family. But if the mother is pregnant with a son, due to the difference in gender, the mother's face will be dull and even freckled, and once the fetus is born, it will return to the original. On the contrary, if the mother is pregnant with a daughter, the mother will become more and more pale Radiant, luminous complexion, more radiant than ever."

The more Xie Zhiwei talked, the happier the queen became. At the end, the queen stroked her unprotruded belly and said with a smile, "That's the way it is, and that's the only way it makes sense."

"That's right, it turns out that the little prince in the empress' belly is being mischievous." Mammy Xi probably had enough fear these days, she wiped away her tears, "It's really good that I frightened the slaves. , Your Majesty, please bear with me for a while, when the little prince is born, your Majesty will look good again."

The queen's eyes fell on the eldest princess, thoughtfully, "I probably still remember that when I was pregnant with Yuanjia, my face was even whiter and tenderer than when I applied powder. "

The eldest princess came over and leaned gently into the queen's arms, and said coquettishly, "Mother, the daughter is much more well-behaved than the younger brother. When the younger brother is born, the mother will love her more."

"Okay, okay, you started to compete with him for favor before your brother was born? Listen carefully to your brother, and he won't support you in the future."

"He dares! He has been playing tricks since he was still in the mother's womb, hehe, wait for my younger brother to come out, and see how I teach him!"

Seeing the sweet smile on Yuan Jia's face, Xie Zhiwei's eyes were full of anticipation, but she could understand her feelings very well. For this younger brother, she felt guilty and worried at first, but now that the fetus is so stable, the guilt in Yuan Jia's heart is finally gone, so I naturally look forward to my younger brother's safe arrival, and the siblings will watch over and help each other in the future.

"Sister Yuanjia, Wei'er also wants to know how Sister Yuanjia will teach the little prince a lesson in the future."

"Ha, you want to see my jokes, right?" Yuan Jia came over, took Xie Zhiwei's hand, and tapped her forehead with the other hand, "Let's see how I teach you a lesson first!"

After finishing speaking, Yuan Jia dug both hands into Xie Zhiwei's creaking nest, Xie Zhiwei laughed first, while dodging, while leaning back, when the stool tilted, the person fell backwards, fortunately Zi Mo held her up , said with a smile, "His Royal Highness, the county lord is most afraid of this. If you do your best, please spare the county lord!"

Yuan Jia was also taken aback. Before Zi Mo said anything, she had already withdrawn her hand and said with a smile, "You are a loyal servant girl! You should be rewarded!"

Nurse Xi stepped forward with a smile, and gave Zi Mo a purse as a reward. Zi Mo glanced at Xie Zhiwei, who nodded at her. She just knelt on the ground and held it with both hands, "Thank you, Your Royal Highness!"

The queen was very relieved to see her daughter and sister Xie Zhiwei deeply in love. With Xie Zhiwei as a playmate, her daughter also had an extra life, and the queen looked at Xie Zhiwei with more loving eyes, and said, "Yuan Jia, don't bother your little sister Wei, the Xie family has a celebration banquet today, Wei girl, you It's time to go out of the palace earlier. The Empress Dowager is a little upset today, so you don't have to go over there to bother me, let Nanny Xi take you out of the palace!"

Xie Zhiwei was busy thanking her, she said with a smile, "Empress Empress, I still have some questions to ask, I will leave the palace after I finish."

The queen laughed, "What else do you want to ask?"

"The empress should still be in the period of pregnancy and vomiting. I don't know how the diet is. If it is not good, the minister will adjust the medicinal diet for the empress."

"No need for the time being. This time, Bengong is very different from when I was pregnant with your sister Yuanjia. At that time, I was dizzy with vomiting. Now, although my appetite is not as usual, it is not bad. Look at Bengong, there is no One or two less meat."

"That's good, the empress's body will recover, and the little prince will be healthy in the future."

In this way, Xie Zhiwei was completely relieved, and bowed to the empress and asked for an order to leave the palace.

Yuan Jia was not happy, "Okay, you have to be the county master, and there is a banquet at home, but you don't post me a post, do you think I am a sister in your eyes?"

Xie Zhiwei was stunned, and looked at Yuan Jia in a daze, before uttering a word, "Sister Yuan Jia, I'll post a post for you, can you leave the palace?"

She finished speaking in a low voice, and secretly glanced at the queen.
