

The Power 80

Chapter 80 Congratulations

The emperor closed his eyes and leaned back. After a while, he sighed, "That brat, he won't give up until he * me to death. Although there are many talents in this world, even though I am the emperor, I still have a lot of money. Where can I find so many learned scholars?"

The empress counted in her heart. Since Xiao Xun entered the South Study Room at the age of five, he almost drove away six or seven masters a year. Up to now, almost all Confucian scholars have been offended by him.

However, anyway, I don't have a prince to study now, besides, five years later, Xiao Xun will be eighteen or nineteen years old, so it is impossible for her to be as naughty as she is now, and she can't afford to offend Prince Xiang's mansion.

Lu Yan winked at Wang Shipu, and Wang Shipu hurriedly kowtowed and said, "Your Majesty, Mr. Yang is already old, and he is already sick. He really can't blame Chen Junwang."

Hearing this, the emperor didn't feel much better. In any case, Yang Zhenlin fainted while teaching the princes in the palace. It was like this every time. The trouble caused by Xiao Xun would be recited by his princes in the end. He has to be his uncle to help him wipe his ass.

The emperor couldn't figure it out, what did his father and son owe the emperor's brother and son in their previous life?

The emperor endured it and asked, "What did that little * say?"

Lu Yan lowered his head slightly and thought for a while, "Your Majesty, King Chenjun is still young and playful, but he didn't intend to anger Mr. Yang. His every word and every word is also about some words that are considerate of the emperor."

After finishing speaking, Lu Yan signaled to a young * who was savvy and happened to be on duty at the place where the incident happened, to step forward and recount the conversation between Xiao Xun and Yang Zhenlin in a vivid and colorful manner.

The emperor was so angry that his face turned purple, and he said to the queen, "Listen, listen, are you speaking human words? His mouth is so powerful, if foreign enemies attack in the future, let him use it to fight Repel the foreign enemies."

No one dared to answer these words, and Lu Yan just pretended not to hear them.

The emperor took a deep breath, and it was useless to speak angry words. He couldn't help but feel a headache, "Students all over the world have heard this, what should they think?"

The queen couldn't help laughing, and said, "Your Majesty, what are you worried about? Master Lu is right, Brother Xun is just a playful boy, didn't he invite the princes to drink at Xie's house, students in this world If you know, he is just going to Xie's house to ask for a drink, and he won't think too much about it. In the coming year, the students who come to Beijing for the exam may not even be able to sit in the Gong Yuan."

The emperor's complexion was a little better. Lu Yan took this opportunity and said with a smile, "Your majesty, I want to ask the emperor for a leave of absence. The county lord has saved my life. I said that I should not go to Xie's house to ask for a drink today."

Wang Shipu also hurriedly said, "I also have to go, the county master and the minister should be half teachers."

The matter of Famen Temple cannot be hidden from the emperor, and the emperor also knows that Xie Zhiwei also has the grace to save the prince's life in the empress' womb. Of course he would not object, and said, "Should I also send a congratulatory gift to Duanxian county magistrate?"

"Although the concubine asked Yuan Jia to bring some congratulatory gifts, if the emperor rewards him, it will definitely be more honorable, and it will also give that child Duanxian a little bit of the emperor's blessing."

The emperor ordered Lu Yan, "Go to the inner storehouse, pick out a few decent congratulatory gifts, and send them to Duanxian together. Wang Shipu, please ask the queen for a safe pulse before leaving the palace."

The empress's pulse condition is naturally very good. After Wang Shipu took the pulse, he respectfully said, "If you go back to the empress, the empress's pulse condition can't be better. I haven't seen such a strong fetus in so many years. The little prince is very strong. "

The empress knew about it a long time ago, but the emperor was very happy, and ordered, "Wang Shipu, you are a servant. I will reward you when the empress successfully gives birth to the emperor's son."

"Thank you, Your Majesty!" Wang Shipu kowtowed to thank him.

As soon as they came out of Fengzhi Palace, Lu Yan and Wang Shipu parted ways, one went to Neizangku, and the other left the palace.

Xiao Xun, the eldest prince and others waited at the gate of the palace for the eunuchs to move in to congratulate them. After waiting for a while, it was not as early as Wang Shipu went to Xie's house.

At the gate of Xie's house, a piece of colored silk was hung on each of the two large stone lions. The gate was open to welcome visitors. There were two red lanterns on the left and right under the eaves.

On both sides of the corridor, there are pots of chrysanthemums in full bloom, delicate and elegant green peonies, pink and white bead curtains of ten feet, independent and proud ink lotus, ladies in green clothes and red dresses with beautiful makeup..., It complements the colorful flags, and the flowers are really blooming, which is a joy.

Just after Si time, guests came. The male guests were welcomed to the Yimen, and the female guests were led to the Dahua Hall.

The female relatives were naturally entertained by Mrs. Yuan, while the male guests were entertained by Xie Tiao and his two sons in the main courtyard hall.

"My lord, Mr. Zhang, the censor, has already entered the door!"

"Grandpa, Master Shaoqing Chi of Taichang Temple has left the sedan chair."

"Reporting to the old man, Mr. Wang, the imperial doctor of the imperial hospital, has passed the gate of ceremony!"

Several servants kept running back and forth to send messages, reporting the arrival of the guests at the gate one by one.

Xie Tiao was surprised, his family is neither a relative of the emperor nor an honorable person, and he is not qualified to summon the imperial physician on weekdays. There is an imperial physician at home, and he has never had any contact with the imperial hospital. This Wang Shipu has no reason, why did he come here?

Wang Shipu and a group of newcomers greeted each other and came in together. When meeting Xie Tiao, he said in a low voice, "I just came out of the palace. I heard that several princes and Master Lu are planning to come. !"

This is sending Xie Tiao a message to let him prepare in advance.

No matter how capable and wise Ren Xie Tiao was, he never thought that the princes would come, and what was even more shocking was that Lu Yan would also come?

Xie Tiao always seemed to be wearing a mask, and his calm and calm face always looked gentle and calm. Finally, he was a little moved. He was stunned for a moment, a faint smile appeared on his face, and a bright light flashed in his eyes.

At this time, there were about 20 or 30 people in the hall, Wang Shipu's voice was not too low, everyone who should have heard it heard it, and everyone was silent, with shocked expressions on their faces.

Xie Tiao turned around and clasped his fists together, "My lords, I'm sorry for a moment, your Highnesses and Lord Lu are coming, I'm going to greet you."

Although Xie Tiao is not a civil servant leader, the first and second assistants of the current cabinet are all from the Cui family and have inextricable connections with the Xie family. They have arrived early, and they dare not praise Xie Tiao. Since then, all of them have been in high positions.

All the adults didn't dare to sit any longer, they got up one after another, and followed Xie Tiao to the main entrance to meet them.

The king of Chen County and the princes arrived first, riding tall horses, behind them the eunuchs drove four carts, one with the eldest princess and the third princess sitting on the eight-treasure cart with green cover and pearl tassels, and three carts full of congratulatory gifts in the back.

Not only the princes came, but also the princesses.

Xie Tiao hurriedly ordered someone to notify the backyard, and Yuan and Qian led Xie Zhiwei to the main entrance.

"Your Highnesses, Prince Chen, Eldest Princess, Third Princess, and ministers welcome you all!" Xie Tiao and others knelt on the red felt and saluted the princes.
