

The Prince Who Was Raised in Hell

The Prince Who Was Raised in Hell Chapter 752-“Is there a problem?”

Seeing Shining White’s embarrassed look, Caspian’s heart suddenly tightened.

If it were him, Caspian might not have cared so much about it.

However, once it came to Jessica, even the slightest movement would make Caspian particularly nervous.

Looking at Caspian, Shining White suddenly laughed.

“Why are you so nervous? I’m thinking about my own business.”

Caspian couldn’t help twitching his mouth.

This man’s heart was really bad.

But after thinking about it, it made sense.

During this period, he would contact Jessica through telepathic jade every day.

He didn’t hear anything wrong from her.

It seemed that he had thought too much.

“Well, you can go there by yourself.

I have to deal with the affairs here,” Shining White waved his hand at Caspian.

“Okay, thank you, Master Mysterious Bird,” Caspian bowed with a smile, took out spirit boat, and walked toward the mountain gate of Dark Moon Sect.

Standing on the deck, Caspian touched his chin and looked at Master Eva Green thoughtfully.

Master Eva Green's heart skipped a beat when she saw his gaze.

"What are you trying to do?" Master Eva Green couldn't stand it anymore and couldn't help but ask.

"He is thinking whether he should steam you or cook you," Handsome suddenly said.

Master Eva Green was shocked.

"Heavenly Spirit Realm, it's a great tonic!" Handsome smiled evilly.

It was unknown if it was really considering this.

In short, at this moment, its mouth began to drool.

"Stop fooling around," Caspian patted Handsome's head and then said to Master Eva Green, "I was just thinking that your realm is much higher than mine.

In fact, sometimes, it is easy to cause some trouble..."

"So you know," Master Eva Green couldn't help but snort.

"Yes," Caspian nodded.

"For example, when I was forced to say that you were my elder, you took advantage of me for nothing.

Now you have to call me master ten times, or I will feel unfair."

Master Eva Green was stunned.

Her face turned pale from anger after being forced to call him master ten times.

However, Caspian did not seem to care at all.

He looked up at the sky and murmured, "If only I could have some magic to make your realm look lower.

Otherwise...”

“Actually, I can,” Master Eva Green suddenly said.

“Huh?” Caspian looked at her in confusion.

Then Caspian saw that Master Eva Green’s aura began to decline, and finally turned into the same first stage of Holy Land Realm as his.

“Really?” This time, it was Caspian’s turn to be surprised.

Someone else taught it to me a long time ago.” Master Eva Green casually said.

But in fact, when she saw the surprised look on Caspian’s face, she felt very happy.

“That’s true.

It’s indeed useless for ordinary people to learn this magic.

Generally speaking, cultivators wished they could let others know that they were in a high realm.

Who would deliberately lower his realm? This is just like the Void-walking magic, which can’t help to improve one’s strength at all...”

As Caspian spoke, he reached out to Master Eva Green.

“Teach me this magic.”

“Didn’t you say that it’s useless to improve your strength?” Master Eva Green asked in surprise.

“Yes, it’s not helpful to improve the strength,” Caspian was expressionless and his tone was flat.

“But it’s helpful to show off.”

Master Eva Green was speechless.

She could not resist the impulse to fall out with Caspian.

She rummaged through her storage bag and then took out a mottled jade scroll and handed it to Caspian.

“It’s a little late for you to learn now.

Although this magic was not very useful, its control over spiritual Qi was very strong.

Ordinary people couldn’t master it without three to five days.

Even I spent two and a half days...”

Before she could finish her words, Caspian’s voice came.

“All right...”

“Ah?” Master Eva Green’s eyes flashed with surprise.

The next moment, she saw that Caspian’s momentum kept falling.

After a while, it dropped from first stage of the Holy Land Realm to Pulse Control Realm first stage of the Realm.

Then he rose back.

He repeated it several times and enjoyed himself.

She stared at Caspian, dumbfounded.

After a long time, Master Eva Green could only sigh again.

“You are indeed a monster.”

Caspian had regained his realm.

He said with some hesitation, “Unfortunately, I can only drop it to first stage of the Pulse Control Realm, and I can’t drop it again...”

“Of course,” Master Eva Green rolled her eyes at him and said, “It’s like a ball of cotton.

Although it can be kneaded very small, it's limited.

This magic can only reach a realm lower than yours at most.

For example, I'm a Heavenly Spirit Realm, so I can only drop to Holy Land Realm as much as possible.

You are a Holy Land Realm, so you can only drop to Pulse Control Realm."

"I see," Caspian nodded.

The spirit boat flew for four days.

From a distance, Caspian could see that the verdant mountains in the distance were located in a vast expanse of smoke.

In the smoke waves of the mountains, five-colored rays of multicolored light kept swallowing and exhaling.

Vaguely, he could see pavilions, cornices, and ridges.

They were scattered in the mountains, emitting intoxicating immortal light and precious Qi.

The most amazing thing was that there was a bright moon hidden under the vast lake around the mountains.

At this moment, the blazing sun was hanging high in the sky.

It looked extremely blazing in the azure sky, making people unable to look straight at it. But after entering the area of this lake, it immediately made people feel much cooler.

Moreover, the bright moon in the water made people feel at ease.

Master Eva Green had never been to Earlington of Efrax or Dark Moon Sect before, seeing this scene, she couldn't help but look at it curiously.

Caspian's mood was much more complicated.

At that time, he almost became a disciple of Dark Moon Sect.

Every afternoon, Jessica would spend an hour meditating by the Spirit Spring in the palace.

A few days ago, after she became a Holy Land Realm cultivator, she also owned her own palace in Dark Moon Sect.

But just like Caspian, she didn't have too many requirements for servants.

If it weren't for the fact that there should be someone helping her manage the industry, she wouldn't need servants.

She just needed Lucy to accompany her.

Today was no different from the past.

After noon, Lucy went somewhere to hang around.

Some time ago, she had also been promoted to the second stage of the Pulse Control Realm.

Knowing that Lucy had put in a lot of effort in order to get promoted, Jessica wasn't strict with her these days, but let her relax.

However, for some reason, Jessica felt uneasy this morning.

It was as if something big was going to happen.

She also told her feelings to Caspian through telepathic jade.

But Caspian's reply was not very helpful.

She still felt uneasy.

After sitting cross-legged for less than 15 minutes, she opened her eyes impatiently.

One had to understand that this type of situation couldn't have happened in the past.

The most powerful aspect of Pure Jade Physique was that it could help her quickly enter a deep state of cultivation and would not be easily disturbed by the outside world.

“What happened today?” Jessica couldn’t help rubbing her eyebrows.

At this moment, she heard hurried footsteps outside.
